WILSON TELLS PRESIDENT HIS SIDE

AN EXTENDED CONFERENCE HELD BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND AMBASSADOR TO-DAY.—PRESIDENT DOES NOT BELIEVE CRISIS EXISTS IN MEXICO.

CONGRESSMAN ASKS FOR CONSUL'S REMOVAL

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Ambassador Wilson immediately after his conference with President Wilson, said:

Ambassador Wilson said that he expected to leave Washington tonight to be away several days. He would not discuss the possibility of his return to Mexico in his official capacity. His departure at this time seems to indicate that he will not appear before the Senate foreign relations committee.

Secretary Bryan, who had lunched with the president, entered the executive offices from the White House proper and joined the conferences in the president's office.

He remained for a short time with the president after Ambassador Wilson's departure.

"No policy was discussed at the conference," said Mr. Bryan, "and it is not known now when a policy will be formulated, but it probably will be in a very short time."

The conference was for the purpose of placing before the president all the information available on the Mexican situation. The president will consider the entire subject, including whatever recommendations Ambassador Wilson has made or may desire to make.

"The discussion related entirely to the facts of the situation and not at all to any question of governmental policy. All views relative to the situation have been placed in the hands of the president for his consideration. Secretary Bryan was not present."

President Wilson does not believe the public mind in the United States is excited over the situation in Mexico or is convinced that a crisis is imminent in Mexico itself.

This invitation was obtained in official circles today with an authoritative denial that any proposal looking toward a co-operation between American military forces and the Mexican government forces for a resumption of peace was suggested. Those who approached the president today on the Mexican situation found him disinclined to discuss the subject, as later he was to confer with Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson. Secretary Bryan arranged to see the president before the conference. The secretary also continued his reticence on Mexican affairs.

It was learned from the white house, however, that reports crediting Ambassador Wilson with having advocated a set of proposals contemplating co-operation with Mexico or intervention were unfounded. The president has received from Ambassador Wilson a historical account of events in Mexico in the last three years.

The ambassador himself declared today he had not mentioned any remedies on the situation and had not even put on paper the plans he had in mind. He reserved these, he said, for his personal interview with the president. Contradictory information has reached the Washington government regarding the stability of the Huerta government. It was said today to be a question of reliability of informants. Officials trained to state reports were credited. It was said, however, that in the last ten days there had been little or no change in the status of affairs in Mexico.

Dixon's Assassins Held.
The shooting of Charles B. Dixon, Jr., at Juarez, is regarded as a serious incident, but its bearing on the general Mexican situation is minimized by officials here today, as the American demands for investigation and punishment of the offender apparently were being complied with.

At the white house it was said the United States would pursue a course of diligent inquiry into the affairs and would insist on summary action of the guilty.

Secretary Bryan after a call at the White House sought information through a conference with President Brown, of the Mexican National railways, on traffic conditions in Mexico and their relation to the paralyzed condition of commerce and industry. Late reports from the embassy in Mexico City have reflected the financial situation.

BattleShip Movements.
The battleship South Carolina arrived at Vera Cruz today to resume patrol duty after having been at Galveston, Texas, to give officers and men shore leave. The battleship New Hampshire is en route from Vera Cruz to Galveston to give her officers and men shore leave.

The gunboat Wheeling reported from Frontera makes no mention of disorders there. Senator Pomeroy called at the state department to press for attention the case of Bernard McDonald, under sentence of death at Chihuahua. Senator Pomeroy was told that the department had already taken steps for the relief of Mr. McDonald, but that no report had been received since the embassy at Mexico City and the consulate at Chihuahua had been instructed to act in McDonald's behalf.

Asks Removal of Consul.
Representative Smith, of Texas, asked Secretary Bryan to remove Consul Edwards, at Juarez, because of his refusal to allow a party of 50 Americans to go to the relief of refugees at Madera.

A telegram received by Representative Smith today said that the Madera refugees were in momentary peril. There are 35 Americans there, 21 of whom are women and children. The telegram charged that Consul Edwards had not properly represented the situation to the state department. Representative Smith reported that 85 railroad bridges on the railroad line between Madera and El Paso have been burned or dynamited and bandits have threatened to kill any persons attempting to repair the line. He also urged Secretary Bryan to enlarge all shipments of arms to Mexico or allow both Mexican factions to secure American guns.

Representative Smith said that the secretary gave him no information as to what the United States proposed to do.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.
Washington, D. C., July 28.—Met at noon and resumed general debate on tariff bill.

Senator Townsend recommended "executive interference" and caucus domination.

Judiciary committee recommended favorable action on appointment of Rep. John W. Davis, as solicitor general.

Lobby committee continued hearings.

Eleven Progressive Republicans agreed to support Senator La Follette's substitute schedules on wool, cotton and several parts of tariff bill.

Senator Bryan proposed before postoffice committee legislation to prevent the postmaster general from making changes in rates and size regulations of parcel post.

House.
Met at noon and adjourned at 12:03 p. m., a record short session, because of Republican Mann's filibuster for debate on Caminetti-Diggs white slave case.

Representative Howard, of Georgia, introduced a resolution calling on the civil service commission for information on government employees in Atlanta in 1915.

JOY RIDE ENDS IN DEATH OF TWO PERSONS

Rochester, N. Y., July 28.—E. J. Sankpeal, vice-president of a lumber company, and Miss Martha Hartlebin, a young woman of this city, were instantly killed today when an automobile driven by Sankpeal was struck by the Wolverine express on the New York Central at a crossing in Penfield, a few miles from the city.

Mrs. Sankpeal identified both bodies at the morgue this morning. She told the coroner she had quarreled with her husband last night and he left her in anger. She was sitting up awaiting his return when notified of the accident.

EARL ROGERS MAY DEFEND CAMINETTI.

Los Angeles, July 28.—Earl Rogers, who was chief counsel to Clarence Harrow in the latter's court appearance here, has practically been retained as chief counsel for the defense of Drew Caminetti and Maury I. Diggs, who early this year eloped from Sacramento to Reno, Nev., with Miss Lola Norris and Miss Marsha Warrington, high school girls.

The retention of Rogers in this case promises a bitter contest of a matter which has become of national wide importance. He declared that if he finally goes into the case it will be even more vigorously defended than was the famous graft prosecutions in San Francisco.

Caminetti and Riggs were charged with violation of the federal anti-slave law. It was a recent order by Attorney General McReynolds to postpone the case that precipitated the resignation of United States District Attorney McNabb, of San Francisco.

EAST AND WEST TO UNITE IN NATIONAL BODY.

Chicago, July 28.—Members of the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States returned here tonight from a tour of the west in the interest of the organization. The members expressed themselves as well pleased with the result of their trip.

"Western men have fixed in their minds the necessity of supporting American business policies by establishing confidence and understanding between the east and west," said Harry Wheeler, president of the association.

DISPROVES CHARGES OF IN-SANITY IN PHILIPPINE ARMY

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Insanity among the American troops serving in the Philippines is not prevalent and a common belief to that effect is disproved by figures collected by the surgeon general of the army. These show there are more discharges from the army for mental ailments in the United States than in the islands, the figures being 2.78 per 1,000 for the former and 2.18 for the latter.

MULHALL ABOUT TO END WITH SENATE

EXPECTS TO CLOSE BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE THIS WEEK AND WILL THEN APPEAR BEFORE THE HOUSE INVESTIGATORS FOR EXAMINATION.

TRIED TO CONTROL DEMOCRATIC HOUSE

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Less than one thousand of Martin Mulhall's letters as a lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers remained to be put into the record when the senate investigating committee met today. Attorneys for the association and the American Federation of Labor granted the right to cross examine the witness through the committee, will attempt to shake Mulhall's story before he is turned over to the house lobby committee about the middle of this week.

In January, 1911, Mulhall wrote General Manager Bird of the manufacturers, about the Democratic house.

"I am positive we will fare much better with the incoming Democrats than we have with the present congress. I assured Mr. Emery (counsel for the manufacturers), that if he would select some man we could agree on or chairman of the labor committee we could have him appointed. I also told Mr. Emery I am positive he will control the judicial committee and its sub-committees and also the labor committee and its sub-committees in the next congress. I am not making this statement until I am fully convinced that those facts can be accomplished."

"What grounds had you for making this statement?" demanded Senator Nelson.

"I can't just recall at the present time. I had broken down about that time," said Mulhall.

"Did you and Emery agree to name any men?"

"Not that I remember."

"Is that all the information you can give this committee as a basis for these statements?"

"All at this time. I think the letters will show," said Mulhall.

Frequently in his correspondence Mulhall referred to "the labor lobby."

"Who did you mean by the labor lobby?" asked Senator Nelson.

"Gompers, Morrison and members of the executive board of the Federation of labor," said the witness. "I always found them busy. I saw them frequently about the capital."

Senator Lodge appeared to deny Mulhall's statement that he conferred with him in the summer of 1910. He denied ever having seen Mulhall before the investigation began.

"I certainly am not going to try to contradict what you say, senator," said Mulhall, "but I do say that I had a conference with you in your office."

Mulhall swore that J. H. McMichael, one time chief page of the house, came to see him in Baltimore to get $100 and to give half of it to Representative McDermott, of Illinois. He testified that McDermott later claimed he got only $20.

Mulhall later wrote the manufacturers' officials about fixing things in the new house.

"What success did you have?" asked Senator Nelson.

"Absolute failure," Mulhall finally testified that Representative McDermott, and McMichael, chief page, were about the only persons from whom he expected to get information and who would help him in "fixing things."

In another letter to Bird, Mulhall spoke of an interview with Representative Underwood. He explained that the majority leader replied to his questions merely.

RESUME HEARINGS IN LUMBER TRUST SUIT

Chicago, Ill., July 28.—Hearing of testimony in the government's suit against the alleged "lumber trusts" was resumed today when W. G. Hollis of Minneapolis, secretary of the Northwestern Lumber Men's association, said that the lumber men's secretaries bureau was organized with fourteen members for the sole purpose of gaining information and new ideas in the handling of the retail lumber business. He declared that the bureau used any force against manufacturers who sold lumber direct to consumers.

WOODMEN OF WORLD MEET AT COLO. SPRINGS

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 28.—More than 300 delegates to the convention of the Pacific Jurisdiction of the Woodmen of the World, escorted by local members of the order and of Colorado Springs, Colorado City and Manitou officials marched in the parade this morning which marked the formal opening of the tri-annual convention of the order here. Immediately following the parade, the visitors assembled at Temple Theater, where Mayor McKesson delivered an address of welcome. The response was made by Head Consul Book.

PROGRESSIVES TAKE STAND ON TARIFF

PARTY'S REPRESENTATIVES IN THE SENATE HOLD A CONFERENCE AND DECIDE TO UNITE ON LA FOLLETTE'S SUB-SCHEDULES, THUS SIMPLIFYING MATTERS.

SEVERAL PROGRESSIVE AMENDMENTS TO BE TRIED

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Eleven Progressive Republican senators tentatively agreed today to support Senator La Follette's sub-schedules on wool, cotton and several items of the tariff bill. This marked the first effort on the part of the Progressive Republican element to take a definite stand on tariff revision.

In today's conference, presided over by Senator Clapp, were Senators Borah, Drieston, Crawford, Sterling, Cummins, Kenyon, La Follette, Gorman, Norris and Weeks.

Another conference will be held in a few days and each member will present amendments which he proposes to support in the senate.

Senator La Follette outlined substitutes he will propose to the wool and cotton schedules next week when he will begin his attacks on these schedules for the manufacturers, that if he would select some man we could agree on or chairman of the labor committee we could have him appointed. I also told Mr. Emery I am positive he will control the judicial committee and its sub-committees and also the labor committee and its sub-committees in the next congress. I am not making this statement until I am fully convinced that those facts can be accomplished."

Senator Cummins has an amendment to tax all commodities sold through the stock exchange, similar to the cotton features stamp tax included in the Democratic bill. Other Progressive Republicans are to propose amendments which the conference will consider.

Senator Townsend of Michigan, in a speech in the senate today, characterized the Payne-Aldrich tariff law as the Gettysburg where the factions of the Republican party were formed in battle array that led to the triumph of the Democratic party, giving it an opportunity to write the pending tariff bill, which he condemned.

"This bill," Senator Townsend said, "was conceived in hatred of the American policy of protection and brought forth in the darkness of the secret caucus chamber under the professional charge of one who has never had any experience in business obstacles. Is it any wonder that the thing is misshapen and deformed? Is it any wonder American progress and prosperity looks with disfavor on it?"

Senator Townsend also criticized executive interference and caucus domination.

MRS. PANKHURST AUCTIONS HER PRISON LICENSE

London, July 28.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, made a dramatic appearance this afternoon on the stage of the music hall where the militants hold their weekly meetings.

She was seated in an invalid chair and was wrapped in shawls. She looked wan and pale and several nurses were in attendance.

The appearance of the militant leader was the signal for a great display of enthusiasm. Her stay was very brief and she was afterward carried back to the taxicab in which she had arrived without being molested by the police.

Mrs. Pankhurst addressed a few words to the meeting, assuring her audience that victory for the cause was approaching. She then put her prison license up at auction. Bids were forthcoming from all parts of the house and it was finally knocked down for $500. Miss Annie Kennedy was re-arrested outside the hall after a desperate struggle. Mounted police had been summoned to disperse the suffragette sympathizers, who fiercely attacked the police.

POSTMASTER GENERAL WINS FIRST ROUND IN FIGHT

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Abandoning the fight to annul Postmaster General Burleson's order for reduction in parcel post rates and increased size of packages mailable after August 15, Senator Bryan today began a movement to prevent the postmaster general from making any other changes in the rates or sizes. The senate postoffice committee considered his plan and postponed action until Wednesday.

CONFIRMATION OF BURKHART IS OPPOSED

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Opposition to the appointment of Summers Burkhardt as United States attorney for New Mexico caused the senate judiciary committee today to delay action on his confirmation. Protests have been made to the committee, but no prolonged fight has been made to the committee's ultimate confirmation is expected.

AMERICANS NOT SAFE ALONG BORDER

FOLLOWING THE SHOOTING OF INSPECTOR DIXON, R. C. KIMBALL DISAPPEARS.—IS LAST SEEN IN JUAREZ.—EAGLE PASS GETS A KNOCK ON AMBASSADOR WILSON.

SOLDIERS WHO SHOT DIXON UNDER ARREST

El Paso, Texas, July 28.—Charles B. Dixon, Jr., who was shot Saturday in Juarez by Mexican soldiers while on official duty as an immigration inspector of the United States, will recover, attending physicians say. He was brought to El Paso Sunday afternoon and is resting well.

"The Mexican troops who arrested the inspector on a charge made by a negro whom Dixon was investigating, are being held for hearing before the Mexican courts."

The negro, Arthur Walker, is also being held.

Dr. J. W. Tappan, of the United States public health service, who treated Dixon in Juarez, says Dixon was given a clean room and furnished with clean linen and bedding and proper food by the Mexican authorities while they held him.

Orders have been issued to United States immigration officers not to make any more trips to Juarez and the operations of the government's men across the river will cease.

Telegraph Operator Missing.
R. C. Kimball, a telegraph operator of El Paso, is missing. The last seen of him was in jail in Juarez. Three weeks ago he was arrested in Juarez on a charge of creating a disturbance, but was released after intercessions by friends. A week ago he disappeared from El Paso. Today two Americans came over from Juarez and claim they crossed over to Juarez a week ago with Kimball to get some effects he left in Juarez and that all of them were arrested. They said Kimball was taken from their cell several days ago and they have not seen him since. They were released today. Juarez officials claim to know nothing of the case.

Mexican officials declare Kimball was released yesterday at 10 o'clock. He has not been located by friends, however. The friends have taken the matter up with Consul Edwards in Juarez.

Governor Knocks Ambassador.
Eagle Pass, Texas, July 28.—The following statement about Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson today was telegraphed to President Wilson by Governor Vales, of the state of Yucatan, Mexico, now in Piedras Negras, the constitutionalists' provisional capital.

"I am the constitutional governor of Yucatan, having been elected December 19, 1911, and still holding under the constitution and laws of Mexico."

"I am the brother-in-law of Vice-President Pino Suarez and was in Mexico City with my family during the February revolution when on the 19th it became necessary for me to flee to save my life. My wife subsequently called on Ambassador Wilson and he told her that it was necessary she should telegraph me at once and urge me strongly to recognize General Huerta as president of the republic."

Vales' telegram declared that the ambassador threatened him with what would happen if Vales did not recognize Huerta. The telegram also specified other alleged actions of the American ambassador to which Vales said Mexicans objected.

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Admiral Cowles, commanding the Squadron off the Pacific coast of Mexico, reported to the navy department today that all is well, but that he is without word as to conditions in Topolobampo.

WALL STREET.

New York, July 28.—In the first hour of today's stock market a decided broadening of activity was seen, together with a further advance in prices. Trading was largely professional and no small part of the rise resulted from the retirement of the short interest.

With the approach of noon, business slackened in marked manner, but without much effect on prices. Panama two's were weak, breaking into new ground on the bid price of 95.

Bonds were steady. Commission business expanded and there was further absorption for foreign account contributing largely to the market's strong tone. The rise failed to bring out the supply of stocks instrumental in the early rise. This encouraged more buying for the bull account.

Among the specialties, American Express lost another five points, declining to 145.

The only feature of the later session was its comparative dullness. Business fell to the level where it failed to possess any significance, but prices showed little tendency to yield, even when moderate pressure was directed against certain issues.

FEUD CAUSES A KILLING IN CHICAGO SUBURB

Chicago, July 28.—A feud which began ten years ago and which is said to have been marked by several previous homicides, claimed another victim today in Michael Orsino, at Blue Island, a suburb. Orsino was shot by Michael Bionessa and John Sinesca as he jumped from a window to escape policemen who had broken open the door of his room to arrest him on a charge of shooting at Michael Costello several months ago.

Bionessa and Sinesca, friends of Costello, lay in wait for Orsino and as he jumped from the window they shot him four times in the neck and back, causing instant death. The slayers were arrested soon afterward, and the Blue Island police say, confessed the shooting. Michael Costello whom Orsino is accused of trying to kill, but who escaped because his assailant's aim was bad, is said to have killed a brother of Orsino's a year ago. Orsino is survived by a widow and six children.

S. P. OPERATIVES VOTE ON STRIKE PROPOSITION

San Francisco, Calif., July 28.—Whether or not a strike shall be declared against the Southern Pacific company by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railroad Conductors, is being decided here today by a canvass of the strike vote completed last week, from the Gulf of Mexico to the Canadian boundary. The result probably will not be known for 28 hours.

The question at issue is whether shall receive equal rating, pay and suburban trainmen and conductors promotion with main line employees. The company wishes to segregate its electric lines, and the men maintain that to do so would put them at a disadvantage by depriving one class of employees of the power of support of their consolidated orders.

PANAMA MAKES GOOD RECORD AS A REPUBLIC
Washington, D. C., July 28.—Panama, which claims the distinction of being the only country in the world without a foreign debt of any kind, will have a balance in its treasury of about $600,000 as soon as the first annual installment of $250,000 just paid by the United States, for the use of the canal zone, has been deposited.

Effective control over its revenues has given the little republic a balance budget amounting to $5,481,214 annually. Its total invested capital is $7,085,000.

NONE OF INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK WILL DIE

Boulder, Colo., July 28.—None of the six persons most seriously injured in the overturning yesterday of five Colorado and Southern coaches on an excursion train at Eldora, a mountain resort a few miles west of here, will die, according to statements today by physicians.

STEAMER GOES ASHORE OFF NEW JERSEY COAST.
New York, July 28.—The steamer Chinmette, from New Orleans for New York, went ashore during the night on the New Jersey coast off Barnegat. In response to a wireless call from the vessel early today a tug was dispatched from New York to her assistance.

TOUCHED 2300 VOLT WIRE.
Denning, N. M., July 28.—Charlie Lucha, aged 32 years, an employee of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co., touched a 2300 volt electric power wire and was instantly killed about noon today near the Union station. He was working with the line gang when the accident happened and was up a pole about 15 feet.

GRAND STAND COLLAPSES BUT NO ONE INJURED.

Firemen and police bore the coffins to the graves.

WATER FILLING CALUMET MINES

BECAUSE OF STRIKE THE WATER IS ALREADY THREE HUNDRED FEET DEEP IN THE TAMARACK MINE.—THERE IS NO SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT.

OPERATORS ATTEMPT TO RESUME TO-DAY

Calumet, Mich., July 28.—Only preliminary efforts to open up the copper mines, closed last week by a strike, took place today on the south range. Pumps were started in some of the shafts, but on the deep conglomerate ledge workings of the Calumet and Hecla not a wheel moved.

Meanwhile it was acknowledged that water was accumulating in the mines rapidly having already reached a depth of 300 feet in the bottom of the shafts and put out of commission the two lower batteries of electrically-operated pumps in the Calumet and Tamarack mines the deepest in the district.

Quiet reigns generally throughout the countries affected by the strike, and brigade headquarters at Calumet received no calls because of rioting. Additional troops were sent to the stations north of here to cover the increased territory given protection by the requisition of the Keweenaw county sheriff. Saloons, closed Sunday, were permitted to reopen today.

Mine operators of the Superior copper district disappeared today to follow the advice of the militia commanders and resume operations with every available man of the fifteen thousand miners who have been idle here since July 23, as a result of the Western Federation of Miners strike. Before the fires had been banked for the day the work was slow, and it was impossible to learn definitely that progress had been made. The first shots of the strike were fired early today at the Isle Royal mine. A sentry guarding the powder house detected several men approaching the place, and fired when they failed to heed his command to halt. The intruders fled and a company of guardsmen scoured the district, but without making any arrests.

POTATO CROP THREATENED BY LETHAL PEST

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Warnings against a pest that threatens every dinner table in the land was issued today by the department of agriculture, against the potato moth, which is working havoc with the crop in numerous parts of the country and whose ravages threaten to prevent the planting of the vegetable in many places of the winter supply. The pest especially is prevalent in California and Texas, the department reports, and through shipments of early potatoes it is introduced broadcast throughout the nation.

Experts of the bureau of entomology urge potato growers to look carefully over the potatoes they dig and destroy every potato and vine that shows the slightest signs of the moth. Special attention, they add, should be given to seed potatoes. Fumigation with carbon bisulphide is recommended.

The scientists utter a warning against careless methods in planting and harvesting potatoes and declare, "unless protective and defensive measures are adopted at once there will be a serious reduction of the potato crop."

FILE BANKRUPTCY PETITION AGAINST BUFFALO BILL'S SHOW

Trenton, N. J., July 28.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against Buffalo Bill's wild west and Fawcett Bill's far east shows. Service was made on Gordon W. Little, president of the company, controlling the shows. The company is a New Jersey corporation.

Auxiliary proceedings will be instituted in Denver. The assets and liabilities were not stated in the petition.

TRIAL OF L. M. FRANK FOR DEATH OF GIRL STARTS

Atlanta, Ga., July 28.—Prosecution and defense were ready today for the trial of Lee M. Frank, charged with the murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan. The girl's body was found Sunday morning, April 27, in the basement of the National Pencil company's plant, where she was employed.

Frank, who was superintendent of the factory, was indicted on a charge of murder May 24.

ATTACKED BY A STRANGE MALADY

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 28.—Suffering from one of the strangest maladies known to medical circles and doomed to die not later than five years hence, is the startling fate that confronts the three boys of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koster, of this city.

The boys, aged 13, 14 and 16, are afflicted with pseudo muscular-hypertrophy, a disease which developed in each one during the first and second years of his life, and has caused all to become exceptionally fat, all three now weighing more than 200 pounds. It has retarded their mentality so that they discourse and play as children of four or five years.

The disease is usually hereditary, but in the case of the Koster children no such history can be found. Dr. F. R. Fabian, the attending physician, is quite certain in this case, that the exact location cannot be determined.

One remarkable feature of the disease is that it develops that portion of the brain which governs wit and humor. In the midst of their play they will make puns and utter witticisms that would do credit to a humorist of mature years. The effect is most uncanny.

The disease has a peculiar effect on the speech of the children as it robs them almost entirely of the powers of articulation.

Dr. Fabian declares that the trio cannot possibly live after they are 19 or 20 years of age, and although this fact has been made known to them, they cannot realize that it is of any importance.

Dr. Fabian is working at a handicap, as the disease is phenomenal and little is known about it. The cases are the first to be reported in Michigan, and medical annals have recorded but few instances in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Koster have given their permission to this as they believe it will be of great value to the medical profession.

BLUE SKY LAW ENDS
SCHEME

KANSAS CORPORATION LAW RESULTS
IN ARREST OF DON A. MOUN
DAY, WHO HAD BEEN DEFAUD-
ING INVESTORS IN NEW MEXICO
LAND.

MADE BIG HAUL
WHILE SCHEME WORKED

Don A. Moun Day, well known around Las Vegas and Portales where he was associated with big schemes for the development of the country and his wife, were arrested in Topeka, Kan., Friday on warrants charging him with using the mails to defraud, and also warrants issued by the state of Kansas charging him with violating the Blue Sky law of the Sunflower state.

This arrest was made on information furnished by J. A. Peterson, a representative of the Blue Sky law department, who spent most of last week in this city investigating the case, especially the records of the state engineer's office with a view to ascertaining if Moun Day's claims were founded on facts. Finding that they were not he wired the Kansas authorities and Moun Day was arrested.

It appears that Moun Day was selling to middle west investors land in the Antonio Ortiz grant in San Miguel county, claiming water rights sufficient to put it under irrigation. It seems also that he had no title to the land, an option given him by Senator T. B. Catron, the owner having expired sometime over a year ago, according to reports. It is reported that he had cleaned up between $200,000 and $300,000 in this manner.

The Kansas Blue Sky law is for the protection of innocent investors, and due to its workings Moun Day's scheme was uncovered. The Kansas City Star has the following story of the case:

The United States took a hand in the Kansas Blue Sky law fight and warrants were issued against Don A. Moun Day and his wife, L. D. W. Moun Day, charging them with using the mails to defraud. Moun Day brought a suit a month ago to have declared unconstitutional the Kansas Blue Sky law because it was interfering with his business of selling land in New Mexico.

Moun Day and his wife were arrested at 11 o'clock and will be taken to Leavenworth to appear before Lee Bond, United States commissioner. By agreement the bonds have been fixed at $2000 for Moun Day and $1000 for his wife to appear before the United States commissioner in Topeka August 7 for preliminary hearing.

At the same time the proceedings were started in the office of Fred Robertson, United States district attorney, John S. Dawson, attorney general of Kansas, brought a quo warranto suit in the supreme court to enjoin the company which Moun Day represents and to appoint receivers for it.

In 1911 Moun Day obtained an option from T. B. Catron, United States senator from New Mexico, for what is known as the Antonio Ortiz grant of about one hundred thousand acres in New Mexico. Moun Day was to sell contracts for the land, make certain improvements and certain payments to Senator Catron.

Then Moun Day started the present plan of selling the land by contract, and when it was all sold the land was to be opened to settlement and certain work to get water for irrigation was to be done. He has forty-five agents selling the contracts outside of Kansas, and it is estimated by Mr. Robertson that he has taken in between $200,000 and $300,000 on the land contracts. Contracts have been sold in fifteen states.

The option on the land was forfeited more than a year ago, and it has just developed that Moun Day never had and could not obtain any water rights for the property, the district attorney says. The land is arid, and while there is a river running through it, other men are said to own all the water rights. In his advertising matter Moun Day said that he had ample water rights for all time.

He also represented that there was one-half million dollars in securities deposited in a Topeka bank as a guarantee that he would do as his advertising and contracts claimed. These securities were bonds of the American Sugar Manufacturing and Refining company, a company that has not a dollar of assets, the district attorney says.

The advertising matter sent out by Moun Day asserts that Charles Sees'ons, secretary of state; Charles Curtis, ex-United States senator; John R. Mulvane, Topeka's oldest banker, and several other well known Topeka business men were stockholders and thoroughly indorsed the company and the operations of Moun Day. The information the district attorney has is that these men knew nothing of the proposition and were simply figure-heads in the company.

When the arrests of Moun Day and his wife were made two United States postoffice inspectors went to the office of the company and took all the papers and money that could be found. These will be held by the receivers to be appointed by the supreme court. If the company is found to be fraudulent the money, or such part of it as is available, will be returned to the men and women who bought the land contracts. Many Kansas farmers have bought land contracts and many wid-

S. S. S. Drives the Demon of Bad Blood Back to the Woods.

The under layer of skin is a fine network of tiny blood vessels in which the famous blood remedy, S. S. S., works with remarkable activity. This is why S. S. S., the best known blood purifier, has such a positive action in the skin. There is one ingredient in S. S. S. which peculiarly stimulates cellular or glandular activity to select from the blood or from this fine network of blood vessels in the skin, those elements which it requires for regeneration.

Thus, pimples, acne, eczema, lupus, or any other blood condition that attacks the skin or seeks an outlet through the skin, is met with the antiodont effect of S. S. S. Under the influence of S. S. S. this fine network of blood vessels in the skin is constantly taking from the blood the nutrition required for healthy tissue, and the cause of disease is just as constantly becoming removed, scattered and rendered harmless. These facts are more fully explained in a book on skin troubles sent by The Swift Specific Co., 190 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. Get a bottle to-day and banish all skin afflictions.

Doctors and the administrators of several states of children have purchased the contracts which Moun Day's agents offered.

COFFIN NAIL IS CAUSE OF TROUBLE

Detroit, July 28.—Sparks from a cigarette caused a fire which destroyed $300 in furniture, nearly caused a runaway, scorched a policeman's fingers and prevailed on two employees of the Brushberg Furniture Company to attempt to lower the record time for a 100 yard dash.

The blaze began in a delivery truck of the furniture company at Clinton and Beaubien streets when one of the helpers on the wagon dropped a cigarette on a mattress. Almost instantly the wagon was ablaze. Frightened at the flames the helpers jumped from the wagon and ran, while Richard Horn, driver for the company, stopped the team and attempted to extinguish the blaze.

Falling in this Horn then managed to unhitch the horses, which were frantically trying to pull the heavy truck held by the brakes. Patrolman Forester, who happened to be in the vicinity, turned in the alarm and then assisted Horn in pulling the blazing chairs and bedding from the wagon.

Discussion of ## Advertising

Now that most persons understand and appreciate the many advantages of being informed of what goes on in the community in which they live, as well as throughout the world in general, advertising, especially newspaper advertising, is being discussed in our homes.

A great many more men than any of us would guess take a lively and helpful interest in all of those purchases for the home once left almost entirely to the women or servants.

And likewise many wives, daughters and sons discuss in the family circle everything purchased by every member of the family, even unto the clothes worn by his Royal Highness, the Head of the family.

Taking the newspaper home and "getting the best out of it" is an occupation that is growing in popular favor as never before. To many, in fact, the most interesting part of the news is the news of advertising. Certainly it is among the most profitable.

PIPE SMOKING INCREASING RAPIDLY IN AMERICA.

New Process by which "Bite" is removed from Tobacco Responsible for Great Popularity.

"Have you noticed that many more men smoke pipes nowadays than five or ten years ago?" asked Mr. A. A. Battmer, an experienced tobacco man who is at the Montezuma hotel for a few days. "It is no exaggeration to say," continued Mr. Battmer, "that two million more men are smoking pipes now than were ten years ago. This tremendous increase is due to the discovery of a process of treating Burley tobacco to remove the bite from it.

"For many years tobacco men have known that Kentucky Burley is the sweetest and mildest of tobacco, but it remained for a Richmond doctor to discover the famous 'Tuxedo Process' which removes every trace of bite or sting, and preserves the original sweetness and freshness of the Burley."

That this "Tuxedo Process" does actually remove all the bite and sting from the tobacco, is proven by the hearty endorsement which the tobacco has received from hundreds of America's greatest men, including such well-known names as Rex Beach, John Philip Sousa, Congressman William F. Murray of Massachusetts and W. Stuart Randolph Chester the author, Harrison Fisher, the artist, Henry Reuter Dahl, the well-known expert on naval construction, Vilhjalmr Stefansson, the noted explorer, and many others.

The manufacturers of Tuxedo are giving a practical demonstration of the justification of their claims as to the mildness, purity and fragrance of Tuxedo tobacco, in this city this week, by giving free for a few days a Cherry Pipe with each 10 cent tin of Tuxedo tobacco. The pipe is a good one and will not break and gives the tobacco a natural flavor.

$1,000 DOG HURT AND HAS DOCTOR

Philadelphia, July 28.—Stretched on a brass bed, swathed in bandages, attended by physicians, trained nurses and solicitously cared for by friends, the pet dog of J. Alexander Van Kessel, of Kumbly, near Quakertown, is making a desperate struggle for life.

The dog is valued at $1,000 and has a pedigree several miles long. Frisking about the harvest fields yesterday trying to attract the attention of the farmers by barking furiously at a reaping machine, the dog was suddenly caught in the knives of the machine.

THIRTY FOOT FALL.

Before it could be stopped the animal had been badly slashed. It was hurried from the field and a veterinarian summoned from Pennsylvania. The dog's wounds dressed, Mr. Van Kessel issued orders that no expense was to be spared in caring for the $1,000 pet. The animal was laid on a bed as if it were a person and some one is in constant attendance carrying out the doctor's orders and trying to relieve the dog's suffering.

THIRTY FOOT FALL.

A member of the Santa Fe bridge building gang, named Sease, fell from the top of the new lumber shed now being built for the repair track department, sustaining an injury to the head that at first was supposed to be fatal. He was carried to the boarding car, where consciousness was restored after several hours. Aside from a deep gash on the forehead, the workman is suffering no bad effects from his 30-foot fall.—Raton Range.

THE PROGRESSIVES ADVANCE

EDMUND B. OSBORNE ONE OF THE CANDIDATES FOR THE NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY TAKES ADVANCED STAND—ACTION TO FOLLOW MELLIN'S RESIGNATION.

(By Gilson Gardner.)

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Senator Knute Nelson is a crafty Norwegian. He is a veritable political fox. He doubles on his trail, takes to the fence, hides his tracks in a brook and does all the stunts familiar to the wildest of animals. But in attempting to get away from the cordial endorsement by Mulhall and the N. A. of M. Nelson has had to do some very complex doubling.

Mulhall says in one letter that he had a pleasant talk with Nelson in which Nelson told him, Mulhall, about the judiciary committee's report on the anti-trust bill. This was in 1908. The report was pleasing to the N. A. of M. Later, it appears, Mulhall sent Nelson to Taft with orders that Taft keep out of his message any recommendation for amendment to the Sherman law. The ingenious Nelson explains that his report on the anti-trust law was intended to keep that law as a menace to the trusts; that he, Nelson, was opposing the insidious efforts of the trust-controlled Roosevelt to undermine this people's palladium. Now, all that is necessary to know about this incident is the fact that Nelson's report was made with the unanimous vote of his colleagues on the judiciary committee, which at that time was made up of the following men: Clarence D. Clark, of Wyoming; Chauncey M. Depew, of New York; Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio; William P. Dillingham, of Vermont; Alfred B. Kittredge, of South Dakota; Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania; and Charles W. Fulton, of Oregon, Republicans.

If Nelson's report was against trusts, then Foraker was opposed to Standard Oil, Depew was against the New York Central, Dillingham was the enemy of the New England railway merger, Kittredge was not the Great Northern representative, Knox never had any affiliations with the steel trust, Fulton was opposed to Weyerhaeuser and the lumber trust, and C. D. Clark was opposed to grabbing public lands or pasturing his colleague's sheep on the public domain.

It is evident that certain members of the Progressive party have decided to advance beyond the position taken by the last party platform. The radicals in the party are daily committing that organization to more advanced ground. For example, Edmund B. Osborne has announced himself as candidate for governor of New Jersey and has framed for himself a platform which includes declarations like this: "I propose that we abolish all taxes on personal property (including household furniture, machinery, merchandise and live stock) and all improvements on land, such as buildings, and that part of the value of farm land produced by labor—clearing, ditching, fencing and cultivation. This is no experiment; the system is in successful operation in Vancouver, Victoria and other cities and towns of Canada. This will encourage owners of land to build and improve (the existing system fines them for making improvements by increasing their taxes) and will put an end to the inequalities of the present absurd taxing system, which penalizes honesty and rewards tax dodging and evasion. The attempt to locate and tax personal property has been tried for more than a thousand years and has always failed. The taxation of securities is double taxation."

And again: "I favor applying the home rule principle by giving each municipality the right, by referendum, to own and operate any public utility, such as gas, electric light or trolley, and to adopt a new charter."

Action by the department of Justice is quite certain to follow the announced resignation of Charles S. Mellen, for many years head of the New England railway merger. Attorney General McReynolds has had an expert working on the accounts and all the findings of the interstate commerce commission have been added to evidence being collected by the department of justice. The character of this evidence may be judged from a few brief paragraphs like this: "In the nine years of the Mellen administration $204,000,000 was expended in operations outside the legitimate railroad sphere. The acquisition of trolleys in Rhode Island afford an instructive object-lesson in the realm of what is sometimes termed 'high finance.'"

After showing that the New Haven had invested $74,000,000 in the New York, Westchester & Boston railway, which it said was $12,000,000 in excess of the value of the property on the New Haven's own showing, the report says: "Again the question arises, 'What has become of this twelve million dollars? So far as records go this money has vanished into thin air.'"

Of another transaction the report says: "Upon the face of the Boston and Maine transaction, Mr.illard made, without the investment of a dollar in excess of all expenditures by him, slightly over $2,700,000 as a result of this transaction."

JOE BOEHLING, WASHINGTON RECRUIT,

DUPLICATES PERFORMANCES OF VETERANS JOHNSON AND FALKENBERG.

BIG LEAGUE SENSATION---WINS ELEVEN GAMES

JOE BOEHLING

Winning 11 games in a row is some considerable performance in a major league.

Earlier this season Fred Falkenberg won 10 games for the Naps and was lauded to the skies as the "come back marvel." The work of the human string was splendid, but, then, Falkenberg is a veteran of many big league battles, as indeed are 90 per cent of the men who accumulate a long list of wins.

Just now the major leagues are gossiping about the wonderful pitching of Joe Boehling, the left-handed star of the hustling Washington crew. Boehling's work is so sensational it threatens to become a scandal. He has won 11 straight games without a losing performance.

In May Clarke Griffith was bemoaning the fact that he did not have a first-class left-hander to balance his team and meanwhile Boehling was sitting on the bench with his ear to the ground.

Boehling was playing corner lot ball in Richmond, Va., last year, when he was "discovered" by Bill Peet, a Washington baseball scribe.

Peet induced Griffith to sign Boehling, and after looking the kid over,

Griff sent him to Chattanooga, where he played for a short time. Chattanooga shipped Boehling to Jesse Burkett's Worcester, Mass., club and there the boy struck his gait, winning 14 out of 22 games and batting .315.

Late in the fall Griffith recalled Boehling. Why he didn't start the kid the full route this last spring is a mystery.

much in winning two flags for Connie, is now pitching for the Kansas City club; Krause is with the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league. Danforth is hurling for Jack Dunn's Baltimore club and Derrick, after a season in the minors, is now with the New York Highlanders.

How many of those now making up the Philadelphia regulars will drop out after this season? And will Connie have the men to take their places?

Philadelphia, July 28.—How many of the players who now make up Connie Mack's capable Athletic machine will go over the baseball falls this season?

In less than a year and a half Mack has been compelled to make many changes in the lineup which brought the 1911 world's championship to Philadelphia. But he has been able to foresee the weakening spots and held the new men ready to take their places, making changes so that no harm was done the chances of Philadelphia to pull down the bunting.

An instance of Connie's foresight in this regard came in the sale of Paddy Livingston to the Cleveland club. Six months before Paddy was let out by Connie the clever manager, in a signed magazine article, declared that the coming season would be the last for one of his capable catchers—that this player was gradually losing his throwing power. And when Livingston was let out Jack Lapp had been so well trained in the Mack school of baseball that he stepped right into Paddy's shoes.

Of the 1911 world's championship winners Mack has cut loose the following: Outfielders Hartel and Bis Lord, Catcher Livingston, Pitchers Morgan, Danforth, Long, Martin, Krause and Russell and Utility infielder Derrick.

Hartel, after long years of service under Connie, is now managing the Toledo club. Lord drifted in the major for his fourth chance at big league ball. This time he is with the Boston Nationals. Paddy Livingston is catching occasionally for Indianapolis.

FIRST PLACES IN BOTH LEAGUES SEEMS SETTLED.

New York, July 28.—The approach of August finds interest in the major league baseball races down almost to the vanishing point, so far as the premier berths are concerned.

With Pittsburgh's upward rush rudely checked by the Giants, and neither Philadelphia nor Chicago displaying sustained winning power, there seems to be nothing to prevent New York from taking another National league pennant if McGraw's team continues to play the kind of ball of which it has shown itself capable.

In the younger organization, the situation is much the same, with the Athletics in the commanding position.

Among other reports of interest is the showing of Washington. Griffith's lively crew lost but two games in the last two weeks. Only a game and a half separates them from Cleveland.

Washington is eleven games behind the Mack men—a gap it might be possible to fill or materially lessen if the leaders were on the road, but the former champions now are at home for a comparatively long stay.

Washington's success is attributable in very great part to the sterling work of its great pitchers, Johnson and Boehling. The phenomenal young left-hander registered his eleventh consecutive victory this week. Engle also has lately come to the front with some high class twirling to help his fellow pitchers. The team is hitting consistently, fielding well and fighting hard all the time.

Chicago was going well until the last few days when it struck a streak of poor batting and worse fielding. Hal Chase got into one of his spasms of error-making. Chappell, the new high-priced fielder, has been of little service. For some reason he has been sitting on the bench for the last few days. A blow to the team's supporters was the discovery that Ed Walsh was not yet in shape to play regularly.

DAVIS CUP RETURNS TO AMERICA

U. S. WINS WORLD LAWN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Wimbledon, July 28.—The United States lawn tennis team carried off the world's championship today when Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, won the fourth and deciding match in the contest with England for the Dwight F. Davis international trophy.

McLoughlin, the American national champion, was drawn against Charles F. Dixon, and won in straight sets 6-6, 6-3, 6-2.

The first set was hard fought, but Dixon was in the lead only once. As soon as McLoughlin steadied down to his task he had the Englishman at his mercy. The second and third sets were easy for the brilliant American, who was playing at the top of his game.

There was an immense crowd in the stands. Summer skies and a high temperature greeted the players. These conditions suited the American competitors better than the weather prevailing during the preceding two days. McLoughlin especially profited by the heat.

In the final match between Williams and Parke, the latter was the winner by three sets to two, the score being 6-2, 5-7, 5-7, 6-4 and 6-2.

The Davis cup, emblematic of the world's team championship in lawn tennis, which returns to the United States after an absence of ten years, was first put in play in 1900. The trophy—a massive silver bowl—was the gift of Dwight F. Davis, who depicted it with the idea of stimulating international competition in the court game. During the thirteen years which have elapsed since the gift, the cup has been in play twelve seasons. The United States and England and Australia have won and lost the prize, the most widely and frequently played for international trophy on record.

During 1900 and 1902, the United States team successfully defended the cup. In 1903 the Doherty brothers carried it away to England. During the next four years the United States and Australasian players led the sorties for the cup and finally in 1907 the famous Antipodean players, Brookes and Wilson took the cup to Australia. There it stayed until last winter when Parke, Dixon and Beaumont won it for the British Isles.

British Isle players have won the trophy five times. Australasia has been successful four times and the United States three. More than fifty tennis experts have competed in the various matches, some of them playing for several years. The United States has entered ten teams; England, twelve; Australasia, eight; France, three; Belgium, two, and Germany, South Africa and Canada, one each.

The present tournament, which proved to be the greatest in the history of the trophy, involved eight teams. Play began early in June, with Germany defeating France at Wiesbaden, four matches to one. Then the United States team won from the Australasians, four matches to one, at New York. In England, Canada eliminated South Africa, three matches to one. Germany and Canada both fell before the United States players, and Belgium, which drew a bye, previously went down before the Canadians, and with the winning of today's crucial match against the English cup defenders, the trophy and championship returns to America again.

Abel Gregg, one of the students at Colorado College at Colorado Springs, was a Santa Fe visitor the latter part of last week in the interest of that institution. The local company was complimented by Lieutenant Ross, the regular army officer in charge of the camp, on the appearance of the men and equipment, upon the condition of the company street, and upon the drill of the men in extended order. Of the local men, E. L. Safford, J. H. McHughes and W. D. Loveless have a chance to be selected on the New Mexico rifle team which will go to Camp Perry, Ohio, for the national shoot. E. L. Safford came back with the company, but will return to Las Vegas to practice with the other candidates.

MRS. W. LINDHARDT

The following committee was appointed for drafting a constitution and by-laws: D. S. Robbins, J. B. Taylor, Dr. E. A. Montegonh. The program committee follows: C. E. Ely, Leo O. Lester, W. H. Wright and S. A. Lindauer. The membership of the club is not to be limited, and anyone interested is invited to join without ceremony, without fees or dues--the sole qualification being that of interest in the work to be proved by active participation in the work of the club. No membership committee was appointed, but a suggestion which met with approval was that a bonding committee be appointed for recommending the bonding out of members who do not come up with the work assigned to them, said bonding to be voted on by the entire club. Prof. J. B. Taylor was assigned the work of preparing a paper for the next meeting on the work of civic and other clubs in the United States, with particular recommendations as to the nature of the work that can best be undertaken here. The next meeting will be held at the Harvey house Friday evening, August 5, a dinner to be served preliminary to the meeting.

E. E. Burdick, 57 years old, well known pioneer, mining and cattleman, and later one of the original farmers of the valley died at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning. He leaves his wife and two children, P. A. Burdick and Mrs. Martha B. Ament. Funeral services were held at the residence Sunday afternoon. Mr. Burdick came to New Mexico from Topeka, Kan., in 1881, and engaged in mining at Lake Valley. Later he organized the Mimbres River Cattle company, and for many years conducted the Mashed O ranch, located about 20 miles south of Deming.

Luther Stevenson, 35 years old died at 1 o'clock Friday morning at his home six miles south of Deming, and funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Christian church in Deming. Mr. Stevenson is survived by his widow and three children. He came to Deming three years ago and has engaged in farming most of the time since. He received his education in agriculture in the State University of Illinois. He was employed as secretary of the Mimbres Valley Farm association until his feeble health compelled him to resign.

S. Lindauer returned Friday from a trip to Panama. He says that every American should see the great work being done before the water is turned in and obscures it. He says also that the work of the French government has been underestimated.

WHY THIS DISTRESS.

The question of a National highway system and where it shall go has been disturbing the minds of a number of journals, particularly in the west, each one fearing that the special section in which they are individually interested will be neglected or overlooked.

The so-called Borderland people seem to be particularly agitated. The El Paso Times and the Phoenix Republican are deeply interested in it and can see nothing but the southern route. Without taking sides in the matter, if there were to be but one route, we cannot see anything to the road to the far south but simply a road. The land, the greater part of it, would be through a country of positive sameness and not of especial historic value, possessing nothing of the beauty, the change, the land where history is made, the marvelous stretch of scenery, the land of attraction to the hunter and the angler, the ancient relics of an age so far back that its day is not even known.

If it came to the selection of a single route, then, there would be no comparison between the central and the northern or the southern, but there seems to be no cause for the worry that has been so apparent on the part of those who manifestly want it all.

The National Highway Association has marked out three great routes, one the northern, one the central and one the southern. They are termed the main highways. Connecting with these are what are called trunk highways, and we of Santa Fe and the surrounding section are on one of these. But we are not at all scared or jealous about it, as we know we have the goods that will bring the trade.

We are on the old Santa Fe Trail line and that in itself is enough for there is no national route that can compare with it from any standpoint, but with three national highways planned it is difficult to see why any particular section should be so worried if they have anything to offer that will draw the tourists and can stand competition with the other sections.

RUSSIANS TO STUDY US.

In Russia, twenty years ago, a wealthy lady bountiful founded a society, the purpose of which is to send experts to places where new information may be obtained and thus to keep the membership posted as to the latest developments in all countries.

In its two decades of existence it has sent out more than 7,000 excursionists to many parts of the map, but, until recently, none to the United States. Perhaps, therefore, we should feel flattered that a group of 61 Russian inquirers, men and women, each more or less prominent at home, are now honoring us with their presence, in proof, as it were, that America has again been discovered.

These visitors are examining our schools, prisons, factories. They are studying how well or how ill we are being served by the gentlemen whom we elect to office or by the self-appointed rulers who control most of our great business affairs. They have read that their land is a land of tyranny and oppression while our land is a land of freedom and prosperity; and they are to visit Lawrence and Patterson and the crowded sweat shops of our great cities, among other typical specimens of the boasted new world civilization, to see for themselves how much is true in what they have read and been told.

Somewhat we wish that they had deferred their coming for perhaps another score of years, for then we may not have so many things which don't jibe with our press notices. We may, for instance, by that time have real freedom of speech and not go much police censoring, the existence of which rather embarrasses us in the presence of Russian visitors, when we reflect how many stones we used to throw at the czar's country. And we may possibly by then have learned to accept the Jew on his worth as a man, without prejudices, to use soldiers for defense, but never as allies in industrial oppression, and to be as democratic in our living as we profess to be in our political resolutions.

In that case it would make it a lot easier for us to greet these Russian guests without feeling as if we had inconsistencies to conceal. But their presence now may help to make us more charitable in our swift judgment of others. And more helpful of our own shortcomings. Wherefore, as well as because of their character as guests, we bid them welcome.

POLITICAL BREACH OF PROMISE.

The third-term mayor of Cambridge, Mass., classic home of historic Harvard, is Irish, 40, and a bachelor. Last time he ran he told the women he wouldn't change his race and couldn't change his age, but would solemnly agree not to run again before he had changed his bachelorhood.

His blarney got by, but did he marry? Did Barry marry?

Devil a bit!

So now he's running again and a lot of indignant women are after his scalp for political breach of promise. Thereby showing up another value in the growing enlistment of women's interest in public affairs. For, with votes for women, political bachelors will have to go. In their restraint of matrimonial trade guilt will be personalized and he who would bear the honors will also wear the chains.

When Penrose of Pennsylvania, was once reproached for not having taken a wife, he said he was ready to marry whenever the "organization" would pick out the woman.

Mayor Barry can't escape by that excuse, for the Woman's Homestead association, Bostonese home boomers, say they're ready to help him choose if he's unable to do the choosing unaided.

So we guess, Mr. Mayor, it's up to you.

RAILWAY WASTE.

For miles along the tracks of a great railway system the other day, piles of discarded ties were being burned. They were remnants of noble forests prodigally sacrificed and they ended as they began, in criminal waste.

Thousands of homes in cities would have been gladdened by the chance to use these ties in winter as firewood. If the cost of shipping them to terminals makes their use prohibitive, there must be plenty of thrifty folks along the way who would be glad to collect them and put them to use.

But, no! In this latest period of the conservation movement they are sacrificed with as much cheerful extravagance as were the first trees that fell victims to the woodmen's greed.

The railway managers snuffed when Louis D. Brandeis said they were wasting enough money to pay increased wages and increased dividends, too. If you still don't believe it, the next time you travel, just take a seat at the rear of the observation car and, as you go along, make note of the evidences of waste that you see.

We've a notion you'll be surprised.

Ambassador Page declared in London that Theodore Roosevelt has less English blood in him than any other president. That is just what has always been supposed. The blood that runs in Theodore's veins is good red patriotic American blood and he has never been afraid to take chances of spilling it when the occasion demanded it, either. Is that true of Mr. Page and some of the others of the colonial's caustic critics?

If the N. A. M. had succeeded in nominating Joe Cannon for president, Professor Taft would not now be associated with the Mulhall affair and that would be some satisfaction, anyway.

Of course, if it becomes really necessary to chastise Mexico, why your Uncle Sammy can do it.

Would the run that Ambassador Wilson has just made be classed as a home run?

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

It is Pleasant.

One of the pleasant things in life is the patriotic appreciation of our home town. I was greatly pleased the other day when talking with Professor Lougee, to hear how he felt about Santa Fe after an absence of a few weeks in another portion of the country. The professor has been spending his vacation in and about Denver and Colorado Springs. He came back more than ever a lover of the old city that is so full of those things that make life worth living.

"Why," said Professor Lougee, "we have both Denver and Colorado Springs backed off the map as far as climate and everything else is concerned. I am more than ever convinced that the future of this place is more promising than any other that I know anywhere, and that there is no better place to live."

This is a fact that is more and more impressing itself on our own people and those outside. The feeling is growing that we are on the road to a truly bright future. One thing about it remains though, and that is that we are not half known. It seems incredible, but it is nevertheless the fact that many of those who are our neighbors think that we are a part of Old Mexico, still. This is not our fault, it is inexcusable ignorance on the part of the people, but the better we become known the more they will come to understand that we are really a part of the United States.

But the point that I am trying to make is that everybody who comes to Santa Fe grows to love it and grows more and more to believe in us and our future. We are on the high road to growth and success if we keep on as we are now traveling.

Two Complaints.

The Bystander has listened to two complaints which have a good lot of justice in them.

The first one was made over the phone on Saturday night just before I left the office. The voice had a sad note to it and the complaint was to the effect that our people ought to be a little more careful in the manner in which they handle the water sprays. The voice said, in a sad tone, "It isn't right that a person should have to go way out into the middle of the road to escape the spray from a garden hose where people are sprinkling their lawns."

This is good sense, and there is no sense in letting a spray shoot water all over the sidewalk and all over the street. The ladies do not enjoy coming down the avenue in their dainty test and be compelled to go way out into the dusty street to avoid getting their pretty dresses soaked.

The other complaint is about the weeds. The particular complaint is concerning those on Palace avenue opposite the Sanitarium on the vacant lot where weeds have grown to a great height and are now in bloom and about ready to seed. This is pretty tough on those of our people who are sufferers from hay fever. It is generally admitted now that this uncomfortable malady is due to the pollen from certain weeds, and it is but fair to do what can be done to alleviate this nuisance.

Then too, we all know that the weed crop is not a pretty one and does not add to the attractiveness of the city nor does this condition give a pleasant impression to those who come here from abroad.

Let us abate the two nuisances mentioned.

The Valley Ranch.

J. W. Miller, of the Valley Ranch, was in the city on Saturday and was giving a little idea of the number of people who were going out to that increasingly popular spot each year.

We, of Santa Fe, know of the delightful point and it is growing in popularity every season, but we, ourselves, have scarcely realized perhaps that it has become a much sought winter as well as summer resort, and the coming winter accommodations have already been engaged for the whole season. As we continue to put Santa Fe on the map we will find more and more to offer our visitors in points and places of pleasure to which they can go for rest, recreation and sight seeing. We are fixing up the road to the cliff dwellings now. We should take up the matter of making it a government road. With this accomplished, or the making of the road possible the year around accomplished, we have one of the greatest attractions that can be offered anywhere in the world. Then for a charming drive, a beautiful bit of scenery, a delightful place to stay, we have the Valley Ranch.

In this hospitable place, with its excellent accommodations and romantic surroundings and its offerings of such comforts as the most critical could wish, we have another asset, for the Valley Ranch is a benefit to us beyond any manner of doubt. It is a point of delight and interest for our guests to go to and is of easy reach. It is a place where there would be no danger of disappointment for it is always the same in its hospitality and the pleasures afforded there.

THE FORUM

To the Editor:

The possibility of horrible accidents compels me to call the attention of the public to the neglect of the city authorities in two matters: Within a month the Acoquila Madre broke through Don Gaspar Avenue and has left a ditch with perpendicular walls eight feet in depth and about four feet in width at the top. No light is placed there at night or sign by day to warn pedestrians or vehicles of their danger. The city is momentarily in danger of being mulcted in heavy damages for inattention to a matter that would cost but little money to repair. The second matter to which I also desire to call attention is the old well on Carleton Avenue which is an uncovered well about fifty or sixty feet in depth, and that some pedestrian has not stepped into it at night and lost his life or somebody driven into it is a miracle.

CARLSBAD PROJECT PROMISES MUCH

Carlsbad, N. M., July 28.—The Reclamation Service is studying the settlement situation in the various projects and C. J. Blanchard, statistician, is visiting the project for this purpose. He has spent the week on the Carlsbad Project and met the water users Saturday to discuss the conditions. Asked as to his impressions of this project, he said in part: "On this, my first visit to the Carlsbad Project, I have been impressed principally by two things: First, that the man who has acquired the medium sized farm, 40 to 80 acres and who is applying himself industriously and intelligently to its cultivation, is making good. This demonstrates conclusively that agriculturally the lands are all right; second, the landowner is not making the best use of his land and therefore is not getting from it the returns he should. Further, by reason of his neglect his land is getting poorer and becoming less valuable. It is obvious that the greatest need of the valley is a large addition to its real farmers. With its splendid climate, fertile and productive soil, abundant and assured water supply, it would seem that the number of farmers could be greatly augmented provided the owners of unimproved land are willing to quote a price for their holdings which will attract the type of men that will develop the country. Agricultural possibilities on the Carlsbad Project are numerous and varied. This valley is peculiarly adapted to several high priced crops as well as general farming. It is in the transitional stage yet and agricultural methods are not now adjusted to the requirements which will eventually place it in the forefront of the southwestern irrigated districts."

This has been a busy week with the peach growers. The fruit ripened very nicely and a car a day has been shipped. The early varieties of Carman and Mamie Ross are gathered and a part of the Champion. The Albertas will be ready in a few days. Nearly all the shipments have been made to New York, some cars going by express and others by freight. The early estimate of the crop of fifty cars from the Carlsbad Project will be exceeded.

The Reclamation Service has completed plans for some drainage work in the lower levels of the Carlsbad Project and material is beginning to arrive. About a dozen cars of tiling out of the forty ordered have been received. The necessary machinery, including a trenching machine, is arriving and actual construction will be under way in a short time. Only a small amount of land is involved, as the natural drainage of the project is good.

Crop conditions in Eddy county are excellent. The range is fine with plenty of grass, though a rain is needed. The stock is in good condition. A few sales have been made. A. C. Heard recently sold 400 head at $50, and $20 for calves for September delivery. Much hay is being shipped from the irrigated sections.

MAN LAUGHS $100 WORTH AT FAT WIT

Chester, Pa., July 28.—A short, fat man with a large stock of funny stories is being sought by the Chester police on complaint of James Shaw, of this city, who says the fat man, who had a smiling face and very pleasant manner, told him a lot of funny stories, and while Shaw was laughing at the last one on the list the stranger took Shaw's roll, containing nearly $100, saved up for vacation expenses. Shaw told the police this morning that he was standing at the corner of Fifth and Market streets when the fat man came up to him and asked how soon he could take a boat to Wilmington. Then apropos of the answer, the fat man told Shaw a funny story about a boat, then one about the captain of the boat, and suggested that Shaw take a drink with him. Shaw declined, but this did not discourage the story teller. He kept on telling Shaw funny stories and had Shaw laughing so heartily that passersby paused to see what it was all about.

Just before the fat man left Shaw he told him a side-splitter, and it was fully five minutes before Shaw could stop laughing. When Shaw finally got his laugh under control and looked around for the story teller the man was nowhere in sight. His suspicions aroused by the joker's sudden departure, Shaw felt in his pockets and found them empty.

INSPECTED FIRST.

A. W. Graham was in town this week. He was intending to ship a carload of muttons to Bisbee and had applied to the Arizona live stock board for permission to ship across the line, and got word from him that before stock could be shipped across the state line it must be inspected by the United States board of inspectors, and he went to hunt for a United States inspector.—Lordsburg Liberal.

AN EMPIRE BUILDING ON THE PLAINS

OF NEW MEXICO--CHARLES A. DINSMORE
WRITES OF CURRY COUNTY, ITS PRESENT CONDITION AND FUTURE PROSPECTS--HE BELIEVES IN IT.

By CHARLES A. DINSMORE.

An empire is building on the New Mexico plains--conceived in substance, maintained on honor, progressing on resources--an empire whose birth place and headquarters is Clovis--an empire including more than all of Curry County. The elevation is 4000 feet; its soil is rich and deep; its seasons are favorable and equable; its water 98 per cent pure; its topography level; its rainfall above 25 inches per year, and its snowfall about equal half that much moisture. Its transportation facilities ample and of the best; its business institutions active, broad, financially solid; its citizenship cosmopolitan and energetic--and its resources limitless.

Here is the "Plains country"--that land where 40 years ago buffalo roamed and were depouled at the Indians' will; where 10 years ago the cattleman grazed his countless herds without the pale of civilization; where today is a city of 5000 people and a country fast holding a prosperous happy family on every quarter section. Here "history repeats itself," for here is but another Kansas or Nebraska, and in the New Mexicans' favor a thousandfold better climate. Here, in the repeating of that history, a few years will tell the tale it took a lifetime for Kansas to unfold. The idea prevails that, to be successful, one "must irrigate in the southwest." That's what they said of Kansas; but they didn't know. They do not irrigate in the Clovis country; because there is no need. God so fashioned and placed this land that His continual bounties--rainfall in the summer and snowfall in the winter--would always suffice. But here, too, is the land of the Living Sun, where the Great White Plague and its manifold associated ills cannot exist, and where altitude and lime combine to bring and hold unwonted health. Here the windmill furnishes ample water for home and stock--and crops thrive on the annual precipitation. It is not necessary to "take one's word for it"--the hundreds of farmers attest all these facts.

Speaking of Kansas. The other day

A Human Match Factory

The body contains phosphorus sufficient to make 483,000 matches. Phosphorus is one of fourteen elements composing the body--divided among bones, flesh, nervous system and other organs. The perfect health of body requires a perfect balance of the elements. These elements come from the food we eat--the stomach extracts and distributes them.

But if stomach is deranged--the balance of health is destroyed and the blood does not carry the proper elements to the different organs, and there is blood trouble--nervous trouble--heart trouble. Pain is the hungry cry of starved organs. Put the liver, stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health. That is just what is done by

J. N. Pritchett, vice-president of the Union Mortgage company, invited me to ride over some of the Clovis country in his automobile. We passed field after field of yellowing grain, just ready for the reaper. I of the southwest where alfalfa has been king asked, "Can that be wheat?" "Sure," said Pritchett--"finest in the world--hard winter wheat, from whence comes our very best flour. Didn't you know we raised it?" I admitted my ignorance and expressed wonder--fact is, I was yet somewhat puzzled, for wheat is not generally raised in the southwest. Then he brought the machine a twist and we ran up a lane to "Cyclone" Jones' place. The "farm" is 640 acres in all. One solid body of 180 acres is in wheat--wheat that experts admit is equal to the best northern grown wheat that will thresh 25 bushels to the acre--wheat that sells at the threshing for 95 cents a bushel--and wheat that costs less than 15 cents a bushel to raise. This wheat--and many farmers follow the same course--is planted in the fall; the snows fall on the soil and put into power the germinating forces of the seed; and the early spring rains bring it forth, when the Wonderland Sun causes it to ripen in July. Men who raise wheat believe that this wheat belt will revolutionize many lives, because the crop is so easily laid, so certain of full fruition, and the market is so close, while the product is A1. So much for comparison with Kansas and other wheat-producing states--"we've got 'em skunk." The text book says "alfalfa is an irrigated crop." True--where they irrigate. Out on Claude Kelley's place there is a field of fine alfalfa, cut four times a year, with never a sign of irrigation. On Robert Loring's place is another 20 acres of alfalfa, a heavy stand, cut continually, all without any attempt to irrigate. The natural moisture does it. Probably if this was in an irrigating country the people would be spending money and energy for this and other crops, when, in fact, it is unnecessary. It is the pure soil, free from alkaline or other impurities, the climate, and the natural rain and snowfall that makes farming possible and profitable in the Clovis country. B. D. Oldham, a local banker, said to me: "Can they farm successfully here? You ought not have asked me that question--because there never has yet been a reputable farmer come to me for money that he did not get it provided he wished the funds for improving his place." Cas. E. Dennis is agent at Clovis for a northern loan man whose clients sent the manager to investigate and possibly call in some of the loans. He spent many days here, riding all over the country, and then he told Mr. Dennis to go ahead: "We do not wish to call in a loan; when I get back I will arrange to furnish all the money you need for furthering the business." That spells two important things--first, the land is worth more than is asked for it; and second there is no semblance of a boom.

B. D. Oldham, the banker, owns a place a mile or so from town, where all manner of feed stuff is raised, and where he has a very fine plant for cutting ensilage, etc. Last spring the sheep men were put to it for fattening their flocks for the market. Oldham told them to send their sheep to him--and they sent 10,000. He bought feed from the farmers when his own was eaten, cut it, had it fed to the sheep, and in twelve weeks they were shipped to Kansas City and topped the market.

That brings us to the ensilage feed proposition. More tonnage of this feed is raised every year per acre in the vicinity of Clovis than can be raised in the northern farming sections. This "sounds to me"--but it is demonstrated. Year after year, when in other sections the farmers were failing because of drought, these Clovis farmers were raising their usual big crops of feed stuff. Year after year they increase the acreage, getting the same great yield no matter how much is planted; and thus year after year there is more stock fed, and more money made. Silos are going up; farmers are adding more stock to use the ensilage. And they have proven that a ton of ensilage goes farther than 4 tons in the stack, or as usually fed. The matter of silos here is easily managed. A 150-ton cost $250 if one hires all the work done. The silo will be a fixture on every farm within a short time--and silos mean profit always.

John F. Taylor, county treasurer, is in the stock business principally, though he owns considerable land. He tells me that stock get fat enough for the market on the grass growing wild here--the nourishing grama grass which, at this time of year, is knee high, green as the depths of the finest stone, with its heavy head gently swinging in the breeze, making a picture ever pleasing. There are hundreds of cattle on Taylor's land, and each means money, of course. But he is in position to know something about the farmers--and he says that they all pay their taxes without any trouble each year--and they don't kick about it, either.

While I was out with Taylor we visited C. M. Steed's dairy, a short distance from Clovis. Steed is not an ordinary dairyman, though every dairyman ought to do as well as he. There isn't a "scrub" cow on the place--and, therefore, all his milk and cream goes to the Harvey House company, where it wouldn't go if it were not the best that can be procured.

W. H. Pattison operates a small creamery, buying much of the cream from the farmers, though his own dairy supplies a good portion. The butter is excellent. He also has a small acreage in the edge of the city, where a surprisingly fine garden is grown, having all manner of vegetables; and there are quite a number of healthy fruit trees.

A. L. Cox cultivates his entire tract of 240 acres. He has never had a crop failure. He has also a fine growth of alfalfa. Last year the Santa Fe agriculturalists furnished him some fertilizer, and the success was wonderful.

A. L. Dickey has 100 acres under cultivation. He is a retired druggist, who farms as he did business, and is successful. He states that the early June corn is suited to this section, the yield being 30 to 35 bushels per acre. Kaffir corn yields 500 bushels per acre, each bundle weighing 20 pounds. Maize runs better in yield than kaffir. Millet, over two tons per acre; he cuts this so he can save considerable seed, which brings him $10 per ton. "Ohio claims," he says, "the prize 6-months' hog, which weighed 235 pounds. Well, I butchered a hog last fall just six months old, that weighed 262 pounds, and I raise a large number of hogs that at 6-months weigh upward of 200 pounds--that's nothing at all unusual here." J. N. Parrett is cultivating 170 acres. Last year he threshed 900 bushels of grain, harvested 300 bushels of corn, 8000 bundles of Kaffir corn, which sells for three cents a bundle, sold $700 worth of live stock and had sufficient to feed 35 head of stock. This cost him just $10 during harvest--he did all the other work personally. Besides this, he sold $300 worth of cream and butter, $100 worth of chickens and fed a good number of hogs.

SPLIT GOWN SAVES HOBBLE INJURES

Pittsburg, July 28.--Subjected to abuse and vile vilification since the first model arrived here from the Parisian modistes, the slashed skirt came in for its share of commendation when Miss Helen Brasmeth, gowned in one of the latest patterns of the expose gown, was able to escape the onslaught of a mad woman, while Mrs. Harvey Wallace, who wore one of the obsolete hobble gowns, not being able to do more than to hop, went down and was trampled by the maddened animal.

When the steer started his headlong dash down Franktown avenue this morning he headed straight for Miss Brasmeth and Mrs. Wallace, who were walking not far apart. Both women started to run and, aided by the generous slash in her gown, Miss Brasmeth succeeded in getting out of the steer's way.

Mrs. Wallace impeded by the hobble skirt, was not so fortunate. Her shortened strides failed to carry her out of harm's way, and the infuriated animal hit her fairly in the back, knocking her down and trampling on her. She was seriously injured.

A Bridge of Sighs—Venice has its Bridge of Sighs—source of romance and mystery. Now Santa Fe has such a bridge on College street, but it is a source of sorrow and fear. It is made of wood and through it many an automobile has plunged, with more or less damage. The latest accident recorded is that of Saturday afternoon when a load of alfalfa went through, the bales bouncing around to the consternation of the peaceful residents who live near the bridge.

Besides two crevices which play havoc with automobiles, there is a big hole on the north side of the bridge, almost large enough to swallow a horse. An effort will be made to bring the condition of this bridge to the mayor's attention so that motorists and others crossing it at night may be spared life and limb.

Attempted Suicide Recovers.—Max Steinhart, who took chloroform with suicidal intent about two weeks ago, but who was discovered in time to save his life, left Saturday night for the Jewish Tubercular sanitarium in Denver. In this connection it might be mentioned that a letter was received Saturday from Leonard Cohen of Cleveland, Ohio, asking as to the whereabouts of Steinhart, stating that the latter was a nephew of Cohen's and had not been heard from for some time. However, on the day Steinhart attempted suicide a wire was sent to Leonard Cohen, the address having been left by Steinhart before he took the chloroform, and this message was returned marked refused and had to be paid at this end.

OFFICIAL NEWS.

Teachers' Examinations.

Teachers' examinations for licenses were held Saturday at Las Vegas and at the El Rito normal. Examinations for teachers' licenses will be held throughout the state on the following dates: August 1 and 2; 15th and 16th and 22d and 23d.

Insurance Company Sued.

Jacobo Chavez, superintendent of insurance for the state and by virtue of that position, agent for all foreign insurance companies doing business in the state, was served today with a summons in the case of A. B. Baca vs. the Insurance Company of North America. This is an action in the Seventh district court at Socorro, in which Baca seeks to recover the sum of $587 for insurance on his saloon and fixtures, which were destroyed by fire.

Mail Carrier Not Killed.

During his trip to the southern part of the state, Capt. Fred Fornoff investigated the report that a U. S. mail carrier had been killed by rebels, which report was printed in the Albuquerque Journal and extensively copied in the other papers of the state. He says that the man was not killed, but was shot through the arm, and that the offenders, two insurgents named Castillo and Ponce, are now in jail at Deming awaiting the order to bring them to Santa Fe to await the action of the federal grand jury. The man who was shot was a regular soldier, detailed to carry mail from Columbus to the camps of the United States patrol along the border. His injury was not serious, it is said.

May Help on Road to Jemez.

Frank E. Andrews, supervisor of the Jemez Forest reserve, has written to the chamber of commerce asking the co-operation of the chamber in the work of getting a road built from

Cuba and western Sandoval county

through the mountains to Espanola and Santa Fe. He points out that now the only way one can get into that country is through Albuquerque and Bernalillo, adding that last year he spent all his road money on such a highway, and intends to do the same this time, although he says he needs the help and co-operation of others if the road is to be completed within a reasonably short time. The letter has been referred to Chairman R. H. Hanna of the roads committee for investigation and report.

State Salaries Will Not be Held Up.

There was a life-sized scare abroad in the capitol this morning. In almost every office the employees were talking about the possibility of their not getting paid because the supreme court decision had awarded the various fire companies of the state, the insurance monies which had been diverted into the state salary fund. For a time it seemed to be a real serious matter, but a short talk with auditor W. G. Sargent developed the fact that every body would be paid including the fire companies. The insurance monies, which were given to the fire companies by the law of 1909, amount to about $12,500 annually, and the test case decided Saturday in which Tomas P. Delgado, treasurer of the Santa Fe fire company, won out by the opinion of the court upholding the judgment of the lower court which had awarded Delgado a peremptory writ on the state auditor, means that every fire department in the state will now be making a claim for its pro rata. Luckily there is only one year in arrears, so that the state salary fund will only lose that much, and Mr. Sargent stated today that he would be able to pay the state salaries as well as the fire department.

Lincoln County and Salaries.

Lincoln county has solved the county officer salary question temporarily at least by making advances to the various county officers, for the 18 months they have put in without salary. It will be noticed that the advances do not give any indication of reaching the salaries in the bill vetoed by Governor McDonald. The information for the above was contained in the following from the official proceedings of the county commissioners of Lincoln county:

"It appearing to the board that several county officers have been to considerable expense handling the business of the county since taking charge of their respective office in which they have been serving without remuneration, it is considered advisable to advance a portion of such expenses paid out by said officers from their own private funds. It is therefore ordered that there be paid:

Porfirio Chavez, sheriff, $ 800
Doroteo Lucero, probate judge, 200
Melvin Franks, county commissioner, 200
W. M. Ferguson, county commissioner, 200

It is interesting to note that the most successful remedy for woman's ills was originally prepared about forty years ago by Mrs. Lydia E.
