WOULD POLICE MEXICO WITH U.S. TROOPS

PENROSE INTRODUCES A RESOLUTION TO SEND AMERICAN SOLDIERS TO MEXICO ON POLICE DUTY ONLY, TO GUARD AMERICAN LIVES AND PROPERTY.

SENATE TO SUPPORT PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—American troops for police duty in Mexico for protection of American lives and property and an emergency appropriation of $25,000,000 to be expended under the direction of the president for that purpose were proposed in a resolution today by Senator Penrose. He did not ask the senate to pass his resolution today and it went over.

A concerted effort on the part of the Republicans and Democrats to support President Wilson in his Mexican policy and to carry to the president the definite idea that the president has the full support of the American people at once became apparent.

Introduction of the resolution was followed by a general demand on the part of the Republicans, seconded by Chairman Bacon, of the foreign relations committee, for a cessation of all debate and to support President Wilson. Emphatic and concerted declarations from senators of both parties of their confidence in the wisdom and good faith of the president, were plainly an answer to reports from Mexico that Huerta was contending that the president had a divided congress and a divided public opinion behind him.

"It is our duty to uphold the hand of the president," said Senator Sutherland, Republican.

"It is the part of patriotism and good sense to withhold any criticism until the sun has clarified. Until then we should stand firmly behind the president, uphold him in his negotiations, and not embarrass him. I for one, propose to do this."

Senator Lodge, Gallinger, Nelson, Smoot and other Republicans in definite expression of their belief that the senate should give the world no occasion to believe that President Wilson did not have the confidence and support of leaders of both parties.

"Nothing that could have occurred," said Senator Bacon, Democrat, "could have given such emphatic denial to the construction some Mexicans appear to have put on conditions here, as the patriotic utterances that have been made on each side of this chamber. I am willing this debate should go to the world as the answer to those suggestions."

Senator Penrose did not attempt to debate his resolution and consented at the request of Senator Bacon, to withdraw certain articles he had asked to have read. He said he had introduced the resolution, believing something must be done to stop "brutality, robbery and molestation" exhibited toward Americans.

The only exception to the Republican attitude to suppressing the debate, was Senator Fall who said the discussion should be stopped.

Senator Kern, read a recent speech by Charles W. Fairbanks, former Republican vice-president, urging all to uphold the hand of the president.

"I think the Mexican people should know," said Senator Kern, "that in a threatening situation like this, the American people stand together like a stone wall."

Senator Penrose introduced today a resolution requiring President Wilson to take the necessary steps to place United States troops in Mexico to protect American lives and property, such a step to be decreed by the senate as in no way an unfriendly act toward Mexico.

Senator Penrose introduced also an amendment to the deficiency bill for an appropriation of $25,000,000 to be expended as the president might direct for the protection of the lives of Americans in Mexico. He made no effort to secure immediate action on his resolution and at the suggestion of Senator LaFollette, it went over a day under the senate rules.

The amendment for the emergency appropriation, Senator Penrose explained, was similar to a provision in an appropriation act just prior to the Spanish war, and he asked that the amendment lie on the table in the senate until the bill comes over from the house.

"The administration has asked for $100,000 to take Americans out of Mexico," said Senator Penrose, after announcing he would not discuss his resolution.

"I think they have a right to be in Mexico, I think they have a right to be there under our treaties and under international law. We have no right to attempt to break up their homes and occupations. Rather than appropriate this pittance of $100,000 to make this wholesale removal, I would appropriate the $25,000,000 to keep them where they are and to protect them."

The Penrose resolution draws attention to the Monroe doctrine and to the possibility that "continued destruction of property in Mexico would involve international complications and intervention by European nations."

The resolution specifically declared that it is not the policy of the government of the United States to "recognize or assist any faction or factions in the republic of Mexico," and proposed:

"That the president of the United States be required to take such steps as are necessary to place a sufficient number of United States troops as a constabulary in the republic of Mexico whenever and at such points, as, in his opinion, they may be needed, properly to police and protect citizens of the United States and their property and it is hereby declared that such employment of United States troops for the protection of the lives and property of American citizens, is not made with any intent that such policing and protection shall be construed as an act of hostility or unfriendliness toward the Mexican nation."

Senator Nelson declared it seemed unwise at this juncture to agitate the question.

"Such agitation," said he, "is an embarrassment to the president, who is doing everything he can to bring about peace. This resolution should go to the committee on foreign relations and not be used here to exploit speeches of an embarrassing character to the administration. Let me cite a bit of history that a few of us well remember. We were very glad during the dark days of the civil war that no foreign government intervened in our trouble. We were threatened time and again with intervention from Germany, France and England."

"We agitate intervention, and intervention means war. We should do everything we can to avoid war and give Mexico the same chance we asked for and were given in the civil war."

Senator Penrose replied political intervention was not contemplated and that American citizens should have protection in Mexico, particularly along the border, such as has been afforded in Nicaragua, and other Central American countries for twenty-five years, past. He declared he was not urging war or intervention.

Supply Trains Still Held.
El Paso, Texas, Aug. 21.—Supply trains loaded and ready to be sent to Chihuahua are still held in the yards at Juarez, although the telegraph wire is open along the Mexican Central, indicating that the rebels are not present. Reports are current today that the troops who are to guard the train have refused to go until they receive the pay that is due them, and that Mexico City has been appealed to for the cash.

Report Not Confirmed.
Paris, Aug. 21.—No confirmation can be obtained here of the report from Mexico City that bankers of Paris and other European capitals have made an effort to get President Huerta to float a new loan of $20,000,000.

On the contrary, the report is not believed by the Banque de Paris et Pays Bas, which took a leading part in the previous loan to the Mexican government. The French foreign office, it appears, continues to take the attitude that it would be unwise for French bankers to lend money to the

CHINESE QUICK TO ASK FOR DAMAGES
CONSUL AT VANCOUVER GOES TO NANAIMO TO PREPARE A CLAIM AGAINST THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT FOR LOSSES BY CHINESE IN THE RECENT STRIKE.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 21.—The Chinese consul at Vancouver has gone to Nanaimo to prepare a claim against the dominion government for damage sustained by his countrymen at Extension, one of the coal mining towns in the strike zone. Several large Chinese stores were partly burned and several thousand dollars' worth of goods were stolen by the mob last Wednesday night. Some of the Chinese who fled to the woods have not yet returned.

On the occasion of the anti-Oriental riots in Vancouver eight years ago, the Dominion government was compelled to pay more than $50,000 damages. A bill for the amount was later rendered to Vancouver City, but the government was never reimbursed.

NEVADA SENATOR APPROVES TARIFF BILL.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—Senator Pittman of Nevada, addressed the senate today, endorsing the tariff bill and its free wool provisions. He believed a majority of those in his state, a wool producer, approved the bill and was sure reasonable profits would come to wool growers who would be able to meet foreign competition.

FIRST DEPOSIT OF CROP MOVING FUND ARE MADE
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—First deposits of the government $50,000,000 crop-moving fund were made today in reserve countries in the southern states, among which were Baltimore, Richmond, Atlanta and Memphis.

WHY CAN'T WE HAVE A CANNING SEASON LIKE THIS?

MESSAGE WILL TELL INSIDE HISTORY

PRESIDENT WILSON TO GIVE CONGRESS AND THE PUBLIC A COMPREHENSIVE NARRATION OF MR. LIND'S NEGOTIATIONS WITH PRESIDENT HUERTA.

LIND STILL HOLDS DAILY CONFERENCES

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—It is the president's intention to give congress a comprehensive narration of what has been attempted in Mexico by Mr. Lind.

He will give also his conception of the policy that should be pursued by the United States toward Mexico. The message will be made public simultaneously with its delivery to congress.

The president's hope is that the situation will disentangle itself, though he believes it will take a little time to dispel certain illusions possessed by the Huerta government as to the attitude of the American people. The president let it be known that the question was not a party one and that Republican senators had shown an admirable spirit in his conferences with them and not the slightest partisanship should be exhibited.

The president believes the debate in congress today will serve to refute the contention of Provisional President Huerta that the administration policy toward Mexico is not supported by all political parties.

Incidentally it was learned that since the presentation of the Huerta reply on Monday, which has now been received in full at the state department nothing of significance has occurred in the conferences between John Lind and Senator Huerta. Mr. Lind has not abandoned hope, however, of convincing Provisional President Huerta of the argument made in the first American note and there is no intention to recede from the attitude then taken.

Foreign governments, which hitherto have been advised by the American diplomatic corps abroad of the various steps in the American policy toward Mexico, also will be given a copy of the president's message to congress.

Mexico City, Aug. 21.—The proposals of the Washington government which Mexico rejected in toto were: First, complete cessation of hostilities;

Second, that President Huerta resign in favor of a president ad interim;

Third, the fixing of an early date for the presidential elections;

Fourth, that General Huerta should not be a candidate for the presidency.

An additional feature of the American note was the request of a reply to the question as to what, in the opinion of General Huerta, the present conditions were due and what the remedy.

DIGGS IS FOUND GUILTY ON 4 COUNTS

JURY RENDERS A VERDICT WHICH MEANS FROM 4 TO 20 YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY.—HE WILL BE SENTENCED SEPT. 2.—CAMINETTI CASE STARTS TUESDAY.

DIGGS' LAWYERS SAY THEY WILL APPEAL CASE

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 21.—Maury I. Diggs was found guilty on four of the six counts in his indictment for violation of the Mann white slave act last night, and Judge Van Fleet announced that he would sentence the prisoner on Tuesday, September 2. The minimum sentence under the jury's finding would be four years and the maximum twenty years in the penitentiary.

Counsel for the defense announced that they will appeal to the highest court in the land and asked for ten days in which to petition for a writ of error to the United States circuit court of appeals.

Diggs' bond was fixed at $5000 in each case, or $20,000 in all, and it was immediately furnished by I. P. Diggs, the defendant's father and Marshall Diggs, his uncle.

Nine ballots were taken by the jury and from the first the jurors were unanimous for conviction on the first four counts, but on the fifth, charging the defendant with persuading, advising and inducing Marsha Warrington to go from Sacramento to Reno for immoral purposes, and, on the sixth, charging the same offense, with respect to Lola Norris, they were as obstinately disagreed.

With reference to Marsha Warrington, the vote stood 7 for acquittal and 5 for conviction for the nine consecutive ballots. With reference to Lola Norris, the vote stood 10 for conviction and two for acquittal, likewise for the nine consecutive ballots. The difference in attitude toward the two girls is explained by the fact that the jury considered Marsha Warrington the more forward of the two.

Diggs' counsel, in summing up the evidence, did not palliate the acts. "Paint this defendant as you will—a monster, if you please," argued Robert Devlin, his senior attorney, "but tell me what motive he would have had in going out of the state for the purpose of accomplishing those things already accomplished. Counsel may characterize him as they please and I may not differ with them. They say his act was shameful, and I may feel the same way about it, but it is not white slavery."

This was the whole argumentative substance of the defense. There remained the rhetorical and emotional appeals and, of course, they were not neglected. The girls were blamed for tempting the men. They were called willing accomplices in whatever had been done, and the wisdom of trusting a woman loved and scorned, when she bears witness against the lover, who has discarded her, was called into question.

A pleading that Diggs be allowed to return to his wife and to restore himself in the esteem of his friends and business associates was so effectively made by Nathan Coghlan that it drew tears from Mrs. Anthony Caminetti, the mother of the co-defendant, and had many of the other men in the court room dabbling at their eyes. The two injured wives, who had testified for the defendant after hearing the most damaging admissions from his own lips, sat immovable.

In view of the contention of the defense that no criminally immoral purpose had been proved, the interpretation of the statute by the judge was awaited with much interest. On this point he said in part:

"The act, so far as here involved, provides, in substance, that any person who shall knowingly transport  in interstate commerce, any woman or girl for the purpose of prostitution or debauchery, or for any other immoral purpose,  shall be deemed guilty of a felony and punished as the law provides."

"The term interstate commerce, so far as here involved, means transportation from one state to another."

"To debauch is to lead away from purity, to corrupt in character or morals, to pollute, to seduce from the paths of virtue. A man debauches a woman when, by insidious approach,  he breaks down her sense of delicacy and perverts her moral nature, arouses her animal passions and thus seduces her into lawless actions."

"As I have heretofore intimated to you, it is immaterial what the character of the two girls involved in these charges was at the time of the acts charged. The act denounces the carrying in interstate commerce for the immoral purposes specified of any woman or girl,  regardless of whether the girl or woman who is the subject of the act be lewd or chaste, or whether or not the man has himself previously had intercourse with her."

"If it appears that the defendant has suggested to or attempted to induce any witness in this case to give evidence as to the facts in controversy in any respect not in accordance with the truth  you may and should take such attempts into consideration in determining the guilt of the defendant."

The positive instruction went directly to the testimony of Nellie Barton, a friend of Marsha Warrington, who testified that Diggs and his attorney, Charles S. Harris, of Sacramento, induced her to coach Miss Warrington in the testimony she should give, promising her marriage if she did as they wished and imprisonment, otherwise.

The defense did not contradict this testimony.

"The evidence is all before you," concluded the court, "and it is for you to say where the truth rests. The defendant has taken the stand in his own behalf and so far as his testimony tends to cover the transactions involved in the charges against him, it is somewhat at variance with that of the two girls. The testimony of the defendant, however, does not cover the entire transaction."

"After testifying to the relations between himself and Caminetti and

FEDERATION MEETING IS FACING TROUBLE

COLORADO UNION MEN IN CONVENTION AT TRINIDAD FACE FACTORIAL STRIFE.—NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS TO-DAY IN COAL STRIKE SITUATION.

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 21.—An open break-between the so-called "Miners" faction among the delegates at the meeting of the Colorado Federation of Labor, and the representatives of the trades and crafts unions of the state was momentarily expected when the convention met this morning. Bitter feeling engendered yesterday when the miners defeated a resolution to elect officers by a referendum vote of members, was still apparent and it was freely predicted that the trades and crafts delegates would bolt rather than submit to further defeats today.

The insurgents or anti-miners are headed by the Pueblo delegates. Interest in the fight being waged against the miners faction in the convention overshadowed that of the controversy going on between union representatives and the coal operators in this district in which the unionists demand recognition. The state continues that activities of the state officials and local mediators may avert a strike.

The introduction of an amended referendum plan for the nomination and election of officers at today's session of the Colorado State Federation of Labor gained the support of both the so-called miners and insurgent factions and a threatened bolt was averted though the action is regarded as simply turning the fight over to the membership to settle. Endorsement of at least six affiliated local unions is required for nomination and the entire membership will vote for the eleven officers to be chosen. A national delegate and three tellers only will be elected by the delegates.

THAW HEARING IS DELAYED A WEEK

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT MADE RETURNABLE NEXT WEDNESDAY.—THAW STILL IN JAIL.—CANADIAN IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES WOULD DEPORT HIM.

THAW'S LAWYERS ARE VICTORIOUS SO FAR

Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 21.—Harry K. Thaw, Mattewan fugitive, will be arraigned in the superior court here on a writ of habeas corpus at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning next. His counsel agreed to this this afternoon.

Lawyers for Harry K. Thaw, fencing for position in his fight to resist deportation to the United States after his flight from Mattewan won an advantage in Sherbrooke today by delaying his appearance in the superior court on a writ of habeas corpus. Dominion immigration officials, and with them the district attorney and sheriff of Duchesne county, N. Y., had hoped that Thaw would be produced at 10 a. m., discharged on the present defective commitment and thus allowed to fall into their hands for deportation at a point on the border as yet undecided.

Thaw's lawyer, however, believing in the advantages of delay, declined to serve their writ on the jailor, or as locally known, "the governor of the prison," and Thaw remained in his hospital ward cell, chatting with his brother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Lauder Carnegie.

Superior Judge Globensky was sought by the immigration officials and the officers from New York to insist on the service of the writ, ostensibly returnable forthwith, but the court held that Thaw's lawyers were within their rights. There were no court proceedings during the forenoon, although towns people jammed the court room. Thaw's battery of lawyers, victorious so far in the strange proceedings of keeping their client in jail, agreed to announce this afternoon what disposition they proposed to make of their idle writ. If they still persist in not serving it, the immigration authorities and District Attorney Conger of Dutchess county, planned to have the writ declared void and insist on Thaw's arraignment at once, either here or at Coaticook, near where he was arrested.

Today the case had reached a stage where the usual relations of the parties to a criminal action are absolutely reversed. On the one hand the lawyers for the prisoner were found fighting hard to prolong his imprisonment, while the authorities, local, Dominion and United States were anxious to have him set free, safe in the belief that the immigration officials would seize him and force him across the frontier.

Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie spent nearly an hour with Thaw before noon.

"He is looking fine," said the former Margaret Thaw, as she left the jail. Dr. Britton D. Evans, director of the New Jersey state hospital, at Morris Plains, who arrived with the Carnegie party last night, also conferred with Thaw.

New York state representatives and Dominion immigration officers protested at the delay but Superior Judge Globensky announced that, as a circuit judge, he would not return here from Montreal until next week.

The seven days delay in proceedings was hailed as a victory by Thaw's counsel, who have been fighting for time all along. Thaw, in his hilltop cell, half a mile from the court house, knew nothing of what had transpired.

Makes Demand For Thaw.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 21.—Formal demand for the surrender of Harry K. Thaw was made by telegram on the Canadian immigration authorities here today by Acting Governor Glynn, of New York. The department replied that it would take no action till the present extradition proceedings had been concluded.

The department let it be known that it would seize Thaw and attempt to deport him should his extradition to the United States be refused by the Dominion courts.

If Thaw is set free at Sherbrooke, the immigration act will be applied after the usual formalities. No assurance is given by the immigration department that he will be surrendered to the New York officers. On the contrary, it is understood that if Thaw is returned to the United States by the immigration authorities it will not be by way of New York. He will be taken to Coaticook and thence, after the formal inquiry, on to the border.

Canada Will Assist.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Acting Governor Glynn was advised over the telephone by the immigration authorities at Ottawa this afternoon that they would use every effort in their power to assist in having Harry K. Thaw returned to New York state.

Acting Governor Glynn sent the following telegram this afternoon to the secretary of state and secretary of commerce at Washington: "In the

REPORT FAVORS BOND ISSUE OF $6,000

JOINT COMMITTEES INFORM CITY COUNCIL THAT THIS IS THE SOLUTION OF THE SEWER AND PAVING PROBLEMS.

ORDINANCE WILL BE PRESENTED SEPTEMBER 2

With instructions to draw up a suitable ordinance and prepare the proclamation calling for a city bond issue of $6,000, the council accepted the report of the joint committees appointed to handle the paving and sewer problems.

This action was taken at a special meeting of the council held at the court house last night and presided over by Mayor Celso Lopez. All of the councilmen, with the exception of A. B. Renehan, who is out of the city, attended the meeting which was short but effective.

The report of the joint committee was brought to the council by Mr. Justice R. H. Hanna, chairman, of the citizen's committee and it was signed by Councilman R. L. Baca, Canuto Alarid, John Shoemaker and R. S. Lopez, of the council's committee.

Summed up the report favors the plan of the paving around the capitol at $1.70 per square yard exclusive of curbing, which is the state engineer's recommendation, the funds necessary to be raised by the property owners.

In regard to sewers, the committee favors the plan of increasing the capitol trunk sewer pipe's dimension from eight to eighteen inches at a cost of $3000 to the city, the state having appropriated $9000. The committee recommends a bond issue rather than a tax levy to meet the expenses. Another recommendation is that $2000 more be expended to install a "main line sewer on the south side."

The plan of building a sewer on College street is also discussed and the committee adds: "It might be advisable to provide for this in the same bond, if it does not increase the amount thereof to such an extent as to jeopardize the authorization of said bond issue at the necessary election, which must be had for that purpose."

Councilman Baca read the report of the committee which was then discussed by all the councilmen. Mayor Lopez made it very plain that in no regard to the expenditure of the additional $3000 he is in favor of having city workmen employed and not convict labor.

Opposes Big Bond Issue.
Mr. Hanna was then asked to give his opinion on a large bond issue to build a city sewer system at this time. He replied: "I think that it would be almost impossible to finance a large bond issue at this time owing to the difficulty of selling bonds. We took that into mind when we drew up this report. A small bond issue could be floated, we think, because of the public interest in it. We believe that a few public spirited men of means would see to that. But if we had to sell $25,000 to $30,000 of bonds, we feel that there would be no demand at this time."

The question then arose why should a sewer be laid on Don Gaspar avenue rather than on some other avenue or street? Mr. Hanna explained that the only reason a proposal was made to expend the additional $3000 at this time was an effort to get down the sewer in advance of the paving around the capitol. Of course the pavements could be torn up later on, but the city would have just so much more expense.

J. W. Norment addressed the council on the sewer matter and said: "All agree that the trunk line must be built—that is, the sewer under the capitol should be increased from an eight to an eighteen inch pipe, so that the city will be taken care of. It seems to me that that matter should be put before the city to be voted on separately so that it will be assured. Then the other plan of laying a sewer on Don Gaspar avenue or on College street or something else, could be voted on separately, in order not to jeopardize the trunk sewer."

The mayor and Mr. Hanna replied that they feared confusion might result if too many issues were put before the people, but the drafting of the ordinance will be left to Mr. Hanna and his associates on the committee, and the whole matter will come up before the council at its regular session on September 9.

The council then decided to refer the report back to the original committee of ten, with instructions to go ahead and draw up the necessary ordinance and proclamation.
The Report in Full.
The following is the report of the joint committee:
"Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 20, 1913.
"To The Mayor and City Council of The City of Santa Fe:
"Gentlemen:—
"Your committee, appointed at the last meeting of the city council to consult with the state engineer and report back to your honorable body in connection with the paving of the streets about the state capitol, and the advisability of co-operating with the state in the matter of enlarging the state sewer, authorized by a recent act of the legislature, beg leave to report as follows:
"At a meeting with Mr. French, the state engineer, in his office in Santa Fe, on the 18th day of August, the entire situation was fully investigated, and the following condition found to exist: First, with respect to the paving of the streets authorized to be paved under Chapter 23 of the Session Laws of 1913, it was found that no part of the sum appropriated can be expended by the state engineer for such paving, until the private owners of property abutting upon the street, shall have contributed in cash and deposited to the credit of the state engineer, one-half of the cost of paving such streets as such cost is estimated by the state engineer.

"Mr. French has caused three estimates to be prepared. The first contemplating an expenditure of $1.50 per square yard, exclusive of curbing, which is estimated to cost 11 cents per running foot, the second plan costing $1.70 per square yard, with the same cost in addition for curbing, and the third plan costing $2.20 per square yard, including the cost of curbing. Mr. French having recommended either of the last two mentioned plans, which are fully described in his report to your honorable body, and to which for detailed description of said paving reference is made. In connection with said paving your committee is disposed to recommend that the second plan, namely, that estimating the cost of $1.70 per square yard, exclusive of curbing, be adopted as the plan for the paving of the streets about the capitol. Mr. French has assured your committee that any saving which could be made in the construction under these, or any other plans, would be apportioned to the respective property owners, in proportion to the assessment of each. In other words, that a refund of the saving would be made.

"The necessity for having the funds on deposit to the credit of the state engineer before the paving is commenced, seems to require that the city take the first steps in connection with this work. The procedure recommended by your committee, therefore, is as follows:

"That a petition, carefully prepared by the city attorney, under the provisions of Chapter 23, Laws of 1913, be circulated and the necessary signatures obtained of the abutting property owners. As a preliminary to the ordering of the improvements of the paving district contemplated, and after such petition is procured with the necessary signatures, a date be set for the hearing provided for by said act, and the necessary personal notices served upon each property owner affected by the proposed improvements. Attention is respectfully called to the necessity of making the assessment payable at an early date after the passage of an ordinance, and which assessment must be one lump sum covering the entire sum to be assessed against abutting properties.

Your committee respectfully recommends the passage of such an ordinance, levying the assessment necessary, and that such steps be taken without delay in order that these necessary matters may be attended to during the next few months, so that the money may be available for the commencement of work early in the spring of 1914.

"Your committee particularly recommends that the matter of the ordinance and the petition referred to, be carefully attended to by the city attorney, in order that the provisions of Chapter 23 may fully and carefully be complied with, to the end that should it be necessary to sell the certificates contemplated by said act, which constitute a lien against the property of owners refusing to pay the assessment, such certificates may be of unquestioned validity, and therefore, readily find a market.

Sewer Question.
"In regard to the sewer question, your committee begs leave to further report:

"That the action contemplated by the state engineer is an enlargement of the proposed state sewer so as to permit the connection of all existing city sewers with the state sewer, which will be constructed in sufficient dimensions to provide for the growth of the city up to a population of about sixteen thousand. The enlargement of the said city sewer would cost the city three thousand dollars, and your committee is convinced that should this opportunity not be availed of, the city would ultimately find it necessary to do substantially the same work at the expense of not less than fifteen thousand dollars.

Ways and Means.
"In the matter of ways and means, to be recommended for the raising of this sum of money, your committee has carefully canvassed the situation, and it does not think it advisable to recommend a city tax levy for the purpose. Your committee considers that the improvement referred to would be for the benefit of the entire city, and could properly be made the subject of a bond issue. Deeming it advisable to get a main line sewer on the south side, your committee, upon investigation, has found that for an additional expense of two thousand dollars, a sewer could be extended from the capitol to the foot of the hill on Don Gaspar avenue, and that this improvement is advisable at the present time. It is estimated that an additional one thousand dollars would cover the expense of connecting all existing sewers with an outlet sewer, proposed to be constructed by the state, with the co-operation of the city, as herein referred to.

"And your committee therefore recommends that the necessary steps be taken to call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a bond issue in the sum of Six thousand dollars, for the purpose of co-operating with the state to the extent of three thousand dollars, in the construction of a main outlet sewer, as planned by the state engineer, and more particularly described by him in his recent report to the city council, and for the

Every Woman Casts Loving Glance at the Nestling Cuddled in its Bonnet.

A woman's heart naturally responds to the charm and sweetness of a pretty child, and more so to-day than ever before since the advent of Mother's Friend.

This is a most wonderful external help to the muscles and tendons. It penetrates the tissues, makes them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion, so there is no longer a period of pain, discomfort, straining, nausea or other symptoms so often distressing during the anxious weeks of expectancy.
Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and its use brings comfort, rest and repose during the term. This is a most marked influence upon the baby, since it thus inherits a splendid growing system of nerves and digestive function.
And particularly to young mothers is this a most ready remedy of inestimable value. It enables her to preserve her health and strength, and she remains a pretty mother by having avoided all the suffering and danger that would otherwise accompany such an occasion. Mother's Friend thoroughly lubricates every nerve, tendon and muscle involved and is a sure preventive for aching of the breasts.
You will find this splendid remedy on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle, and is highly recommended for the purpose. Write Bradford & Regulator Co., 134 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and they will mail you a very instructive book for expectant mothers.

additional purpose of constructing a Don Gaspar avenue sewer and making the connections referred to.

"Your committee has been requested to recommend the building of a sewer on College street, and it might be advisable to provide for this in the same bond issue, if it does not increase the amount thereof to such an extent as to jeopardize the authorization of said bond issue at the necessary election, which must be had for that purpose. Your committee deems it advisable to attempt nothing further than can be safely accomplished, and believes that the recommendations herein contained, are absolutely necessary for the welfare of the city, and will result in a large saving to the city.

A TRIBUTE PAID TO A GOOD CITIZEN

Belonging to a family that has been closely identified with the best in Clayton, Union county, New Mexico, and in his day and generation served it faithfully and well, John Ernest died August 9, 1913 at Santa Fe, New Mexico. For many years he was my neighbor and friend; he was wise in counsel and generous in ministering to those who needed help; he did his duty day by day, as God gave him light to see it. When he removed to Santa Fe, Clayton lost one of its foremost citizens. Endeared to the writer by years of association and by a kindness of manner, springing from a heart overflowing for consideration of others, and combined with an unflinching loyalty to all that was good and true, the writer as an old neighbor, in token of his sorrow, asks that the above be printed in the Santa Fe papers.

Stop Guessing! Know!

A business man much annoyed by the uncertain answers he received from his subordinates when he asked for information, posted a sign over his desk reading:

STOP GUESSING—KNOW!
How many people do their personal buying on the "guess" principle.

They "guess" they are getting the best shoes, the best shirts, the best hats—they guess they know how to spend their own money.

But why guess?
The advertising columns of THE NEW MEXICAN are books of knowledge.

They eliminate guess work. They tell you what there is, where to get it, and what it costs.

The man or woman who reads advertising, shops intelligently. Information takes the place of mere guessing.

WHEN THE WHALES COME THEY SAY IT MEANS WAR

Chester, Pa., Aug. 21.—Superstitious people of this city believe that the whale which was recently seen in Delaware bay is a precursor of war. They refer to past omens of a similar character, reciting that the whale which came up the Delaware river in 1811 was a precursor of the war of 1812, and that in 1860, one year before the outbreak of the civil war, a whale came up these waters to Philadelphia. This latter whale, Edward Cullen a veteran fisherman of this city, avers he saw. He says:

"It's just this way. It was during the summer of 1860. Horace Davis and I were out in a boat fishing. It was a little dark, and we had a lantern. I was drawing in the net and Davis was banking it. All of a sudden Davis said: 'Ned, there's a vessel up side down out there.' I looked and saw a thing that had the appearance of the hull of a craft upset. See how swift the tide keeps by it, said Davis. "We got pretty close to it then, and I lifted the lantern to take a good look. Just then there was a terrible splash and the water went clear up into the air out of that thing, just as though a powder magazine had burst."

"I dropped the lantern and Davis and I grabbed the oars, and we didn't stop until we got ashore. There wasn't any steamboat on the river that could have beaten us that trip. When that whale was caught up near Kensington she had fishermen's nets enough to around her to stock two or three ship stores. She had dragged them off the bottom the Delaware as she crawled up toward Philadelphia."

THE "COME BACKS" ARE PREPARING

JOE CANNON, MCKINLEY, RODENBERG AND OTHERS WHO WENT DOWN IN 1912 ARE OUT FOR NOMINATIONS NEXT YEAR.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Each of the present Illinois Republican congressmen—Madden, Mann, Britten, Copley, and McKenzle—will be a candidate for reelection next year, and each one of the old Republican contingent, defeated last November, expects to try for "vindication" in November, 1914. This list is headed by former Speaker Cannon in the Danville district, William B. McKinley, manager of the Taft campaign in the Champaign district; John A. Sterling, Bloomington; George W. Prince, Galesburg; Charles E. Fuller, Belvidere; George E. Foss, Evanston; William A. Rodenberg, St. Louis; William W. Wilson, Englewood, and some one representing the political organization of Napoleon B. Thistlewood, Cairo. James McKinney, who was not a candidate for reelection in the Rock Island district, is likely to be a candidate for the Republican nomination next September.

Rebuild State Organization. Information of the candidates came to Chicago during the week and is playing an important part in the negotiations now well under way for reconstruction and rehabilitation of the Republican state organization.

Republican state leaders surmised that Minority Leader Mann and Martin B. Madden would ask for renomination. Britten is an announced candidate in the north side district, according to his friends, and McKenzle, in the old Lowden district, fully expects renomination.

Copley, who has been playing both with the Progressives and Republicans, has been supposed to be in the going as a Republican candidate. The surprise which came to the organization leaders was that the full force of defeated Republicans expect and demand the congressional nominations again.

The political situation in Illinois is such, it is understood from the conversations of the active Republicans, that the claims of the "exes" cannot be overlooked in getting together an organization to make the next state fight.

Cannon and McKinley Sure.

Renomination to Uncle Joe Cannon McKinley, Rodenberg and Sterling and probably Prince and Fuller, is conceded as a practical probability due to the hold the former congressman had upon the organization. Republicans who stayed with the party and failed to go into the Progressive camp.

The United States senatorship is as vital as are the congressional nominations in the preliminary negotiations looking toward Republican reorganization. At the present moment renomination, without a primary fight, is conceded to Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, and there will be no candidate against him in September unless there is a wide open row between some of Senator Sherman's managers and some of the lieutenants of former Governor Deneen and National Committeeman Roy O. West.

There is plenty of chance for this sort of a row, due in the immediate instance to the distribution of the minority state patronage, yet within the keeping of Governor Deneen. The experienced state leaders in both of the camps are of the opinion, however, there will be no split along this line.

THE FIGHT IN MAINE WILL BE HOT

WILSON INTERESTED IN THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN—WIFE OF PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE IS ON THE STUMP.

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 21.—President Wilson is taking a hand in the Third district congressional campaign, which will culminate in an election in the old James G. Blaine district, September 8, in which the Progressives are making a desperate fight to defeat the Republican nominee, John A. Peters, speaker of the house, and has sent the following letter to William R. Patterson, former attorney general and congressional nominee of the Democrats.

"I am taking the liberty of writing you just a line to say how deeply interested I am in your candidacy for congress. Like all other Democrats, I shall watch the result with the greatest interest as well as with the greatest confidence. My immediate object in writing is to congratulate the party in having a representative in this contest who they can feel represents the principles and the policy of the party so truly and with so much ability."

Underwood to Argue for Tariff. Former Democratic Governor F. W. Plaisted is in Washington to obtain the services of Oscar Underwood, Secretary of Commerce Redfield, who is at present summering in Maine. A Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, Senator Charles F. Johnson and Congressman McGillivray, of Maine, to offset the speakers of national prominence obtained by the Republicans in the persons of Senators Borah and Cummings and other prominent leaders, and Senator A. J. Beveridge, Jas. R. Gardfield and Senator Victor Murdock whom the Progressives will import.

On the part of the Republicans the campaign is being waged on the threatened damaging results to Maine under the proposed Underwood tariff law and the Democrats desire to bring Underwood and other leading advocates of the measure to Maine to offset the campaign of the Republicans.

First Campaign on Proposed Tariff. In the Maine district the Progressives cast in the last election more than twice the number of votes given Taft while at the same time the district represented by S. W. Gould, Democrat, was lost by a narrow margin to Forrest Goodwin, Republican, deceased, to fill which vacancy the special congressional election is to be held.

Gould lost in the primaries to W. R. Patterson, state leader of the Democratic party. Edward W. Lawrence is the Progressive candidate, whose wife has taken the stump in his behalf in the hottest congressional campaign ever waged in Maine and the first in the country fought on the proposed Underwood tariff bill.

The difference between $7.50 and $25.00; $8.00 and $30.00; $10.00 and $40.00; and so on up the line is the proven difference between the salaries of men before and after receiving I. C. S. training.

It's a fact. The International Correspondence Schools have thousands of unsolicited letters telling of exactly such increases in salary as a direct result of this training. Every month there is an average of 300 men who voluntarily report success attained through I. C. S. training.

Wouldn't you like your salary raised? Wouldn't you like a more congenial position? Wouldn't you like to be successful? Then mark the coupon today.

There's always a good paying position for the trained man. You know that.

Then why not let the I. C. S. help you? It doesn't matter where you live, what you do for a living, or how little schooling you may have had. If you can read and write, the I. C. S. has a way to help you to success—in your own home—in your spare time—without requiring you to give up your present position.

The I. C. S. method will quickly enable you to earn a much higher salary at the occupation of your choice—just as it has already enabled thousands of other poorly paid but ambitious men to succeed.

Mail the coupon today—the I. C. S. will gladly explain it all without charging you a penny.

Loading the Steamer Northwestern With Supplies for the Gold Seekers. Note Shed on Deck for the Pack Mexican Man, Going Aboard Steamer Northwestern.

The Daily New Mexican Man Who Goes to Report Rush to New Digging Tells of Picturesque Scenes and Incidents When Boat Sails for Alaska.

(By E. O. Sawyer.)

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 21.—Just a final word to the readers of the New Mexican on "getting away on a gold rush" before I sail for Alaska to visit the new placer fields at Shushanna and tour the coal fields and get at the root of conditions in general in the great northern territory.

Good old "grub stake," my pack horse, is safe in her stall aboard ship, with a bale of hay and a sack of oats hard by. Somewhere below, along with 250 other outfits and some hundreds of tons of miscellaneous freight, are my supplies. They were carefully packed by one of the best Alaska outfitters in Seattle to prevent disintegration en route. The assortment of stuff aboard this boat is unique. In the hold there is everything from mining machinery to the complete fixtures for a saloon, including a 60-foot bar. The bar is crated in two pieces, and getting it aboard was one of the finest pieces of stevedoring seen here in a decade.

Since it became known that I would sail on the Northwestern for Cordova en route to the new gold fields I have become one of the 250 most popular men in town. This day has been taken up with an almost continuous conf-

A GREAT MAN IS GENERAL FELIX DIAZ WHO WANTS HIS KIND OF FAME?

Mikado Refuses to Receive Him, So Felix Hied Himself Back to Mexico—He's Going to Be Its Next President—Says He, So It Must Be So, as the People Have No Say Down There.

GENERAL FELIX DIAZ

General Felix Diaz, nephew of Porfirio Diaz, who for a quarter of a century exploited Mexico to satisfy his own greed, was recently dispatched by the Mexican government as an envoy to Japan to thank the emperor for participating in the Mexican Centennial. It was openly charged that his real mission was to hatch up an alliance between Japan and Mexico against the United States. But just as General Felix Diaz was about to sail from Vancouver, B. C., he learned that the mikado would not receive him. So General Felix Diaz suddenly abandoned his trip to Japan. In fact, he said that he hadn't intended to go there at all.

It was Felix who, convicted of treason against Madero's government, was thrown into prison and condemned to die. But Madero reprieved him. Then Felix planned a revolution, was delivered from his cell, and led the uprising that resulted in Madero's downfall.

Do you remember the foul murder of President Madero? And how Huerta, co-conspirator of Diaz, was elevated to the provisional presidency pending the popular election in October, in which General Felix Diaz says he will be the leading candidate because, according to the laws of Mexico, Huerta is disqualified. It has never been established just how prominent a part Huerta, Diaz and their gang had in the final tragedy that wiped out Madero. Diaz disclaims any connection with it. A great man is Felix. During his trip up the Pacific coast from the City of Mexico he was trailed by a retinue of secretaries, aids, and servants, had suites in the royal hotels, where he was feted by Mexicans and American bankers. All the "mighty" folk kowtowed and told him what a great man he was. Yes, General Felix Diaz is a great man. His record of butchery while chief of police in Mexico City proves that. Down in Mexico thousands of men and women are starving and dying while fighting to break the chains which Diaz and others of his ilk have fettered a liberty-loving people.

SPORTING NEWS

BARNEY'S NERVE DODGES DEATH WHEN HE A GAL WITH A RING IN HER NOSE GOES 127 MILES AN HOUR.

HIS WIFE DOESN'T WANT HIM TO QUIT THE RACING GAME—SHE HAS TRAVELED FASTER THAN ANY OTHER WOMAN—MADE 127 MILES AN HOUR IN RACING AUTO WITH HER DARE-DEVIL HUSBAND.

Mrs. Barney Oldfield, Wife of the Famous Auto Racer.

Special Correspondence.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—"How do I feel about my husband's racing? Am I afraid or nervous? Do I want him to give up auto racing?" asked Mrs. Barney Oldfield.

"I have been with Barney at most all of his record-breaking trials; I have seen most of his accidents. Perhaps this has hardened me, or maybe, like Barney, I am a fatalist. I don't want him to give it up," answered the wife of the dare-devil auto racer.

"I will never forget the first accident. It was at St. Louis during the world's fair. He was overtaking a car going down the back stretch. After they got into the turn Barney was still behind entirely obscured by a blinding cloud of dust.

"The car that was leading came into the home stretch. Barney did not come. I waited—only seconds—but they seemed hours.

"Then I heard people screaming. A siren screamed and a bell clanged. It was the ambulance bell ringing for Barney!

"They took him to the hospital and I followed, but they wouldn't let me see him. The next day I saw him for a moment, but it was several days before they would let me sit with him. He left the hospital on crutches two weeks later and I acted as his nurse.

"The last accident Barney had was at Detroit; he went through the fence at a seventy-mile clip, sustaining two bad cuts on the head, his chest was crushed and his lungs badly congested.

"I was down town shopping with Barney's mother. She was nervous and hadn't wanted to see Barney race that day.

"About four o'clock the newsboys began yelling, 'Extra! All about Barney Oldfield getting killed!'

"It was awful. Barney's mother is deaf and did not hear what the boys were saying. So I hurried her to my room and then after telephoning several places I finally located Barney at a hospital. I hurried to him and arrived just as he was being taken out of the operating room.

"Come around after me in the morning in the touring car," he said, jokingly, as I entered. His father was in the operating room while they dressed the wounds on his head. Some one asked the doctor if Barney's skull was fractured. "No," said Barney, "but it will be if the doc don't stop hammering on it." His fortitude was that of an Indian.

"Why should I have much fear for a man who has such a cast iron constitution and nerve?

"In addition to Barney's accidents, I have witnessed many narrow escapes he has had. Often after a race he has said to me: 'Well, dearie, I came mighty near smashing another fellow today,' and then he'd laugh it away.

"I have never ridden with my husband in any of his races or record trials, but I did take a fast ride with him on the famous Florida Beach—faster than any woman in the world has ever traveled. We went 127 miles an hour!

"Was I frightened?"

"No. I had implicit confidence in Barney's judgment and driving ability.

"I never interfere with my husband's business or his judgment, for he has landed on top and owes it to his own efforts. Sometimes he asks my advice and sometimes he follows it, but I only suggest and do not demand. I don't think Barney will ever get killed at auto racing. He has never lost his nerve.

"I have a presentiment that before long Barney will retire, but when he does there will be no heads in the newspapers that his wife forced him to quit, as I am with him body and soul in everything he undertakes."

SHE'S GOING TO RUN AROUND THE UNITED STATES SHOWING IT TO US—PRESS AGENT STUNT OR JUST PLAIN BARBARIAN?

Mile Polaire and the Ring in Her Nose.

Do you want to know how Mile Polaire, the French dancer, will look when she tours the United States with stances Stewart-Richardson?

Well, here's how—with a cute little ring in her temperamental nose. See the picture! It was taken in Paris just as she was being taken out of the operating room.

And why the ring?

"People are becoming barbarians," says Polaire. "The dancing of things in our twentieth century civilization."

"I admit it frankly—I am a barbarian. I put a ring in my nose, so everyone shall know it!"

said Catton, that the participants should be on hand when they are scheduled for games so that there will be no delay in bringing the tournament to a close. Mr. Catton, having been brought here at great expense to conduct this series, it is only justice to Mr. Oatman that the different players show more interest and report when they are scheduled to play.

Otherwise it will be necessary to declare such games forfeited in favor of the player who does report for play. It is the desire of Mr. Catton to wind up the tournament by September 1st.

Last night Cole defeated Oatman 99 to 92 for Oatman in an exciting game; Oatman was in the lead and had the game crunched until the last couple of innings when Cole came up strong and landed on the right side of the string. Tonight's schedule is as follows: Burke plays Wetzel, 150 to 60; Oatman plays McClintock 100 to 30; Enos plays Diaz, 70 to 50, and Oatman plays Martinez 100 to 50. On Friday night Burke playing 150 plays 400 to 80; Oatman 100 vs. Enos 70; Martinez 60 vs. Wetzel 60; Enos 70 vs. McClintock 35.

Tonight in the pocket billiards tournament the schedule is as follows: Claves 55 vs. Baca 60; Creegan 100 vs. Ortiz 40; Lockwood 60 vs. Hoover 50. On Friday night the following games will be played: Burke vs. Wetzel, 150 to 60; Oatman vs. McClintock, 100 to 30; Enos vs. Diaz, 70 to 50; and Oatman vs. Martinez, 100 to 50.

WILLIAMS WINS TODAY'S BIG TENNIS GAME

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21.—R. Norris Williams, II, of Philadelphia, defeated William Johnston, of San Francisco, in the feature match today of the all-comers tournament, three sets to one. The scores were 6-3, 6-4 and 8-6.

The match was the most brilliant of the tournament to date and aroused much excitement among the 3000 spectators. Williams' placing along the side lines and cross court shots were the feature of his play. The young Californian made his stand in the third set, when he outplaced and outforced the Philadelphian, who, under the bombardment, lost his judgment of angles and distances.

The fourth and deciding set was most sensational of the match. Williams' placing won for him. McLoughlin and Clothier won their matches in straight sets today and will meet tomorrow in the grand court.

Before the big match on the grand court, Strachan, the California youngster, Johnson, of the Davis cup team, and Clothier, this year's dark horse, had all won their matches in straight sets. Strachan defeated Bull, of New York, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

Johnson defeated Brown, of Newport, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3.

Clothier defeated Pate, of Brooklyn, 6-0, 6-2, 6-1.

McLoughlin defeated Lery, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

The Williams-Johnston match was late in starting. Williams played brilliantly, taking the first set, 6-3 and the second set 6-4.

$130.00 IN PRIZES TO BE DISTRIBUTED

Manager Marcus Catton, of the Montezuma Billiard parlor, this morning announced on authority of Proprietor Harvey Oatman that eight prizes would be awarded to the winners in the two tournaments being held in the Montezuma rooms; two $15.00 silver cups for first prize in each tournament, and six $10.00 prize wrapped cues to the second, third and fourth man in each; in addition, as a consolation, he will see that each low man does not forget that he was a participant by awarding him a consolation prize. And as Mr. Oatman is putting up $130.00 for prizes he feels, be expected to resign would be for the purpose of becoming a candidate for the presidency, which is prohibited in the fourth demand.

As to the question of elections these have already been called for October 26 and could not very well be held at an earlier date.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The French foreign office has received from the state department at Washington an outline of President Wilson's policy toward Mexico, including the recent suggestions made by John Lind, the president's personal representative.

It will not pay you to waste your time writing out your legal forms when you can get them already printed at the New Mexican Printing company.

SENTIMENT GIVES HORSE BACK TO CODY

WILD WEST SHOW IS SOLD AT AUCTION AND TWO FRIENDS OF COLONEL CODY BID UP THE FAMOUS WHITE HORSE IN ORDER TO PRESENT IT TO HIM.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 21.—Colonel C. J. Bills, of Lincoln, Neb., today paid $150 for Isham, the famous white horse ridden for twenty-five years by Colonel W. F. Cody. (Buffalo Bill.)

Col. Bills drove overland in an automobile from Lincoln to be present at the auction sale of the effects of the bankrupt Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, held today at the order of the United States district court. He purchased the horse with the announced intention of presenting it to Cody.

When the white horse was led out the Nebraska man opened the bidding with $10. It was expected that he would secure the horse at a low price, but Carlo Miles, an Indian admirer of Buffalo Bill, who had not been let into the plan to purchase the horse and return it to the famous scout, competed with Bills and did not withdraw until the price went to $150 which was more than the sum he had raised by selling his own saddle and other personal effects. The Indian, who also had planned to present the horse to Cody was bitterly disappointed.

"If that man doesn't give Isham back to Buffalo Bill, I'll steal the horse and give it to him myself," he threatened. He was appeased when informed that his successful rival's purpose had been the same as his own. The sale of the show property was continued throughout the afternoon.

DYNAMITE FOUND IN NEW YORK CITY BUILDING

New York, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Six sticks of what is believed to be dynamite were found this afternoon under a window of Mayor Gaynor's suite of offices in the city hall. They were found by the janitor of the building.

Fire Commissioner Johnson, passing at the time, telephoned the bureau of combustibles and ordered one of the inspectors to come to the city hall to examine the find and determine its nature. After analysis, the inspectors reported that the stuff was "40 per cent dynamite" and in "a quantity sufficient to have demolished the city hall"—and that detonating caps were found to be placed in the proper position for exploding it. A fuse, a piece of a Chinese punk and three matches were found later near the spot where the dynamite was picked up.

The strain of the first trial has been severe on everybody connected with it and the court willingly granted the request of counsel for the government for a continuance.

The indictment against Caminetti contains the same six counts as did that against Diggs and is couched in the same phraseology, except as to the third and fourth counts, which make Caminetti an accomplice in the purchase of the tickets to Reno from Sacramento, Diggs being the principal. Each count carries with it a maximum penalty of five years in a federal penitentiary and $5,000 fine, either or both.

The two counts on which no verdict was reached last night, charged Diggs with persuading, inducing and enticing Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris to accompany him to Reno.

Caminetti was admittedly the passive partner of the two men, and in view of the failure to convict Diggs on these counts, counsel for the government had not decided today whether to press them against Caminetti.

Judge Van Fleet probably will try the case. His rulings and instructions in the Diggs case are the base on which the counsel for Diggs seek to perfect an appeal.

In the order of business the Caminetti case would fall to Judge Maurice Dooling, just appointed, but Judge Dooling is reluctant to sit, because it happens that he is an old friend of Commissioner of immigration Caminetti, the defendant's father.

The other case that gained contemporaneous notoriety with the Diggs-Caminetti cases—that of the government against the directors and officers of the Western Fuel company, normally would fall to Judge Van Fleet but here it again happens that the judge is a member of the same club with one of the company's officers.

In dismissing until next Tuesday the veniremen called for the Caminetti trial, Judge Van Fleet gave them an unusual warning to be careful not to discuss the case.

the girls, down to the Sunday night on which the evidence of the government tends to show the trip to Reno was taken, he stopped short and has given none of the incidents of that trip, contenting himself with merely referring to it as having been taken. This was the defendant's privilege, but in passing upon the evidence you have a right to take this omission of the defendant into consideration, since it is a legitimate inference that, could he have explained the incriminating evidence against him, he would have done so.

"If you find these girls were taken by the defendant in the manner charged, then the only question remaining is as to the intent with which they were so taken. There is a homely adage that actions speak louder than words; that the truth of this is quite as applicable to judicial inquiries as in the ordinary affairs of life, is true.

"And even if you find that the defendant and his companion Caminetti, were actuated in their departure or flight from Sacramento to Reno by fear of exposure or arrest, but that nevertheless in taking these two girls along there existed the intention to subject them to the immoral purposes charged, the defendant is guilty.

"If that immoral purpose was one factor in inducing him to leave Sacramento and take these girls with him, matters not that he may also have been actuated by his fears or other consideration moving him to take that trip. He would nevertheless be guilty."

The defense took exception to the charges in general and to specific instructions.

Caminetti Case Tuesday.

When the case of F. Drey Caminetti, a co-defendant with Maury I. Diggs, found guilty last night of violating the Mann White Slave traffic act was called today in the United States district court, Judge Van Fleet set it over for trial for next Tuesday, August 26.

The strain of the first trial has been severe on everybody connected with it and the court willingly granted the request of counsel for the government for a continuance.

The indictment against Caminetti contains the same six counts as did that against Diggs and is couched in the same phraseology, except as to the third and fourth counts, which make Caminetti an accomplice in the purchase of the tickets to Reno from Sacramento, Diggs being the principal. RETAIL MERCHANTS TO MEET TONIGHT

NEW OFFICERS ON THE JOB--NEW COMMITTEES NAMED AND GREAT RESULTS EXPECTED FROM COOPERATIVE WORK OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Retail Merchants' Association will hold a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock sharp, in room 11, Laughlin building. This will be the first meeting since the big meeting and election of officers, and an urgent invitation is extended to the merchants of the city to attend. The new officers of the association are getting into the harness in good shape and the association soon promises to become such a factor in the business of the city that no retailer can afford to stay out of the organization.

President Nathan Salmon, who has just returned from a trip to the Pacific, has announced the following committee and board of directors, all of whom are requested to be present to night if possible.

Board of directors: Arthur Seligman, Nathan Salmon, J. Bernard Wood, Leo Hersch, J. D. Alarid, Wm. B. Arrighi and John Pflueger.

Soliciting committee: Charles Stauffer, chairman; Frank Owen, Frank E. Nuding, John Pflueger, James Seligman, Dr. L. F. Murray, Nathan Salmon and H. S. Bowman.

This work is not an experiment, but in many cities has so improved collections and done away with bad debts, that the merchants would not do without it. It is hoped to make the Santa Fe association just as valuable to every merchant in the city as it is to the association.

SUPERIOR SELECTED FOR ST. VINCENT

Word reached the city last evening that Sister Anacletus, now stationed at Trinidad, Colorado, has been selected as the superior of St. Vincent's Sanitarium, Hospital and Orphanage, and she will arrive in the city within the next few days to take charge. Sister Mary De Sales has been acting superior since the death of Sister Mary Charles nearly a year ago, and upon the departure of Sister Mary De Sales for Cincinnati about a month ago, for a temporary visit, Sister Wilhelm has been acting superior.

The sanitarium at the present time is filled to its capacity, and the many surgical cases during the past month has doubled the labors of the sisters and nurses, and the appointment of a superior will bring relief to those now directing the management of the big institution.

LAUNCH PICKED UP AFTER 3 DAYS DRIFTING

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 21.—After having drifted helplessly at sea for two days, the launch Calypso was towed into Los Angeles harbor today by the launch Panama, which, with ninety passengers aboard, had a similar experience a few days ago.

When the machinery of the Calypso, which plies between Catalina Island and the mainland, broke last Tuesday, its 35 passengers were transferred to the launch Virginia and taken to Los Angeles, while Captain Jack Lopez and three of the crew remained aboard the disabled vessel.

Lopez and his three companions remained on board the Calypso until yesterday afternoon, when without food and nearly exhausted, they took a life boat and started for Catalina Island. They were picked up last night by the Panama, which went in search of the Calypso, finding the latter vessel 35 miles east of Catalina Island.

TELEPHONE SYSTEM TO BE IMPROVED

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS INFORMED THAT SUM OF $50,000 WILL BE SPENT IN ABOLISHING SINGLE WIRES AND LAYING CONDUITS.

Santa Fe is to have an up-to-date telephone system, with unsightly poles removed from the main streets and placed in alleys and rows of breakable wires gathered together into a cable.

This is the announcement made to the chamber of commerce in the report submitted by Chairman Arthur Seligman of the funds and utilities committee, which reports two meetings with a personal representative of C. E. Stratton, division general manager of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company, at El Paso. The improvements are to cost $50,000 and the work is to commence not later than April 1, 1914. Such is the promise made to the people of Santa Fe.

In his report submitted and read at the meeting of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night, Mr. Seligman stated that "the antiquated telephone system is soon to be changed for a modern one."

In discussing the proposed improvement, Mr. Seligman said today that first of all, the fifteen or more wires, which now are strung all over the poles, will be gathered like strands into a rope and encased, cable-like. This will not only improve the appearance of the poles but will prevent those frequent breaks which put the telephone out of commission during rain and wind storms.

Many delays may thus be saved, and as time is money, the public as well as the telephone company will be gainers in the end.

It is also planned to conduct all lines around the plaza, down San Francisco street to Don Gaspar avenue and out to the station.

Thus, the unsightly poles will be removed from the heart of the business district and around the capitol and executive mansion.

Poles in other parts of the city will be put in alleys when convenient to do so.

GERMANY WANTS TO PREPARE FOR FRANCE

London, Aug. 21.—Replying to a question "whether Germany's recent army increases mean an attack on France," August Bebel, the late German Socialist leader, just before his death at Zurich on August 12, last, wrote the following letter, which is published in the Pall Mall Gazette:

"The German emperor has seen during the Balkan war that our army has completely gone to pieces—that is our officers are incapable of commanding and the material is absolutely impossible."

"If the French had wished to attack us they would have probably have been successful, for we were not strong enough at the frontier. If the French had guessed that they were strong enough they would have begun an attack."

CAVE-IN ON OLD RATON TUNNEL IMPRISONS SIX

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 21.—Workers early today recovered, alive, A. F. Smith, and recovered the bodies of James Dehson, of Downs, Kansas, and one other from the cave-in at the old Raton tunnel, on the main line of the A. T. & S. F. railway, fifteen miles south of here, in which six workmen were caught late yesterday.

Smith was found standing upright in a space less than two feet in diameter and seven feet high, but was unharmed. He walked from the tunnel, unassisted.

Smith lives with his mother in Trinidad and is a carpenter. The body of the last victim removed is said to be that of George Borden.

THE NEXT STATE ISSUE.

It will not be very long before we will be again called upon to choose another legislature, at least as far as a house of representatives is concerned.

The only pity is that we are to endure another session of the lobby controlled senate with its absolute subservience to any interests except those of the people.

The paper read by Attorney General Clancy before the State Bar Association which has been published in the New Mexican in full, ought to be made a campaign document and placed in the hands of every voter in this state and the facts presented in this admirably drawn indictment kept constantly in the minds of all of our citizens.

It presents the conditions in most effective form and gives in an authoritative manner the exact conditions of legislative affairs and a true picture of our legislature when it is operating in the interests of the big corporations alone at the behest of the representatives of these powerful and cunning organizations.

Anything looking like a progressive move was at once spotted and at once railroaded to the ever open morgue.

We have been hearing much in the last few months of the successful methods of the lobby, but even where it has been operated with its most crafty and insidious calculation, nowhere has it worked with greater success than in our own state, and nowhere has it seemed to have such docile and compliant tools to deal with.

The removal of the judiciary from politics, suggested by those who desired better conditions and more of justice, free from the oversight of the manipulators of elections who had regard only for their own or their owner's interests, was at once looked upon as a danger and the proposition looking to that end was speedily and effectively laid away.

It was not only disgusting, but it was pitiful to see men of the caliber of those who composed the senate of New Mexico, acting like dummies and without a protest or an effort toward independence, meekly carry out the orders of that small, but all powerful, lobby.

This should be the issue in the next election,—the absolute obliteration of the legislative annex.

It has held sway too long.

ONE WAY.

Ever hear of Tony Brady? Chances are you didn't unless you chanced to read of his death the other day. Yet Tony, it appears, left an estate of $100,000,000. And Tony's first work was as a bootblack in an Albany hotel.

Mighty smart lad he must have been, you say, to pile up, from that humble beginning, in one lifetime, a fortune equal to a year's average income of all the people in a city of a million inhabitants.

Yes, mighty smart. For he saw quicker than most the easiest way to do it. He had a hound's scent for privilege.

The nickels of the people made the start of his fortune—nickels spent for street car rides which, if they had been running their own cars, they might have had for three cents or less. This recipe for enrichment is simple. Get your franchise as a gift, borrow on bonds to pay for your road, repeat the process till you're spread over a large and growing area, take options on adjoining lands, and, short of floods, famines or great fires you cannot escape from becoming rich—the nickels grow in volume every time a new baby is born.

But Tony found another pay streak in American Tobacco. That's the trust that Taft busted. Here again the recipe was simple, though not quite as simple as the other one. It consists of adding enough plants together until there is practical monopoly, then forcing down the prices of what you buy and forcing up the prices of what you sell. The crimes of this trust were incidental; kind of fits of get-rich-quick enthusiasm. The system would have worked out unerringly in any event.

Toward the last of his romantic life, Tony saw a still surer field of privilege in gas and electricity. Folks had begun to get on to the street car game and they were yelling for somebody to bust the trusts. But get a company by the throat though in need of light, heat and power and it will stand a lot of squeezing before it arrives at the state of impatience compelling it to take over those works of public necessity; and then it usually pays what the private exploiter asks, inflation and all.

Yes, indeed; he was a smart boy, to rise in a lifetime from a bootblack to a hundred-fold millionaire. Rather smarter, don't you think, than the public which paid so large a toll for the service he rendered?

WOMEN NOT THE SOLE OFFENDERS.

"Us men" should get together again, and pass resolutions of indignation at woman's inhumanity to woman.

It is a favorite theme and cannot be repeated too often.

There was O'Hara. He was making a great, strong fight for the betterment of working girl conditions, and the abolishment of white slavery. This didn't suit Big Business in Illinois, and it was hard to strike back, in the open, because the people were with O'Hara. But there might be another way to down him—his "past." So they tried to drag in an affinity scandal on the theory that if you throw mud enough, some of it will stick.

Then there is Governor Sulzer. Wanted to wipe out the Wall Street stock gambling, wanted direct primaries and wouldn't crook his knees to Tammany bossism. However, New York found that while Sulzer's measures could be defeated, each time one of them was voted down at Albany, the people waxed wroth. From some mysterious cavern of the past a chorus girl came forth with a branch-of-promise suit—with about the usual evidence (?), in such cases.

Turn again to Muthall. The rage and pain at his disclosures which, regardless of Muthall himself, are down in black-and-white, must somehow be soothed. So, rake over his private life with a fine tooth comb.

All these instances freshly bring to mind how free men are from scandal-mongering. The past is thick with such examples.

If all this springs from a determination that men must keep themselves unsponsored from the world and forced, as women are, to fend off the slightest chance for criticism, we might rejoice. But there never yet was any evil gossip which did not spring from malice, sheer malice—and often, sheer envy.

Just what is the anxiety to get men like Harry Thaw and Jack Johnson back into this country again when once they have removed themselves even though the law was supposed to have them in its clutches, is not easy to understand. They are both of them a disgrace to the country and the farther they get away the better off is Uncle Sam and his people. We ought to wait, at least, until some country where they have attempted to locate sends them back, and not go after them with all the power of the law and drag them here, again only to be a menace and a nuisance in their own land. We ought to feel a relief to have them out of the country and should help them to stay away rather than attempt to drag them forcibly back again.

Some one with a desire to hand out something new has sprung dried cantaloupe as a special delicacy. Like most other devotees to this delectable fruit, we prefer ours in the old fashioned way, fresh off the ice and stowed away in juicy spoonfuls.

And now comes a scientist who tells us that the Pasteur treatment is deleterious. And yet one would rather take a chance with that than with hydrophobia.

The chances are that John Lind, if he is banqueted at all in Mexico, is getting pulque and mescal rather than grape juice.

VALLEY RANCH, NEW MEXICO.

AS THE BYSTANDER SEES IT

An Easy Way.

On Monday Arthur Seligman received the following telegram from Attorney Renehan who left for Taos on Monday last to attend to court matters in the city in the big valley:

"Left Woody's nine fifteen, arrived Taos eleven forty-five. No punctures. Fine trip. Machine a wonder."

The value of the telegram is in the fact that the road to the pretty little town to our north, and situated in one of the finest valleys in the whole west, is becoming our neighbor and that the dread of the trip in days gone by is a terror no longer.

To be able to leave Santa Fe in the early morning and be in Taos for dinner is a thing not dreamed of up to within a few weeks ago, but it means much to both places which are thus brought into much closer communication. The enthusiasm felt by Mr. Seligman and by all who try the Taos trip now will result in making that point one of the prominent ones in the future for the tourists who come our way and will be a further attraction for our visitors.

In a conversation with Mr. Seligman last evening he spoke with great interest of the route which he took a short time since which was by way of Las Vegas, Raton, Cimarron, Ute Park and on through that beautiful section of mountain scenery leading from the latter point through the Taos pass and the Moreno valley into Taos itself.

When this route becomes known as it is going to be, it will be one of the most attractive and most popular in all this section known for its truly wonderful scenery. Nearly all the way are streams of flowing water and at no point is there a scarcity. There is not a dull point on the whole trip and there is a chance for side trips as well, going up to Trinidad from Raton and to other points from all the places passed.

The discovery of the feasibility of this particular route is one that is sure to bring an additional attraction to the many already possessed by Santa Fe.

Today's Wonders

The series of moving pictures which began last night and continue tonight are remarkable instances of what can be produced with this comparatively new and very interesting invention.

We have, of course, become accustomed to the movies now and have lost our wonder in them as we accept everything that comes to us and forget how wonderful it really is. These pictures now on exhibition make one consider how fast we move in these things that have been coming in the last few days and which but a few years ago were not even dreamed of. Those who were at the movies last night sat in wonderment as they saw the steamer sail out into the deep and a short time afterward saw it gradually sink, saw the water flow into the cabin, saw the people who were on the boat thrown from a capsize life-saving boat and then saw the same people on the barren and rocky shore and watched them through the perils and troubles of isolation and then saw the rescue sail boat come to the land and take the stranded people off.

It was a remarkable picture and though the audience sat and wondered at the reproduction it was all accepted as a perfectly natural thing, for nothing much surprises us in these days. The second picture presented also some very striking scenes and all together the evening gave a view of the marvelous progress we have been making along mechanical lines within even the last decade; and one is led to wonder what is in store for those who come on the world's stage in the next generation or two. And with all our marvelous inventions and scientific investigations, we seem to be no nearer the solution of the greatest mystery of all of which we are ourselves a part, and that is life itself—what it means and what it really is.

I saw the other day a little article touching the old fashioned things and among other articles mentioned which are a part of our every day existence was the old fashioned conscience. Wonder where it has gone to, anyway. We don't seem to hear of it very much now and we don't seem to see the results of it much, either, and yet it is one of the best things that was handed out in the distribution of possessions when this poor, weak humanity was put here for a purpose which does not yet seem to have been determined.

If that old fashioned conscience could only be re-established once more we would hear less of the Diggs-Caminetti episodes and others of like nature and we would see less of the absolute depravity of the man who will make a defense that the woman was to blame. No man with that conscience which was a controlling force in the days of the old fashioned conscience would have entered upon the foul acts of a Diggs or a Caminetti, and much less would have permitted a so-called man to make as his defense the claim that the woman led him astray.

There are lots of things that are called old fashioned that I wish could be restored to us once more, and if they were we would be, in many respects, a better and more decent people.

I suppose we have advanced in a great many ways. We would be mighty poor specimens if we didn't, but, on the other hand, there are some things that we seem to have retrograded in and one of these is the manner in which we have treated that old fashioned conscience. In some public matters we seem to be getting it back and I wish we might in some of our private matters as well.

It is estimated that three tons of peaches, plums and pears will be shipped by parcel post from the Farmington postoffice tomorrow, the first day that the new order goes into effect. This will probably keep up to a ton each day following.—Farmington Times Hustler.

Those Rumors.
Rumors from Santa Fe show talk of an extra session of the state legislature. It seems that the matter of sales for delinquent taxes of the year 1912 are in a muddle and it will be necessary to have action taken by the legislature before the trouble can be straightened out. In the meantime there hardly can be any sales this year.—Roswell Record.

None Don't Count.
Last Saturday Mrs. N. C. Parker, brought us a half dozen fine grapes from vines of their own planting on their claim southeast of town.

We did not learn the name of the variety but that didn't matter much. It is all well enough to eat names when you can't get the grapes themselves, but in this case we had the grapes (not for long, however) and the name did not count. They were delicious and being the first home-grown grapes that have found their way to the Progress office, were especially appreciated.

Mrs. Parker has two vines in heavy bearing and next year will have five or six.

This shows what can be done with grapes in this part of the country.—Cbar Progress.

All Kinds.
And speaking of grasshoppers small, large, lean, plump and otherwise, it may not be amiss to state that this valley has been and still is so chockfull of the bugs that many of our crops have been and are being laid to waste. You may think this all idle talk as "everybody knows it," but maybe you will think differently when we tell you that a local farmer has just received a $5 pound consignment of the dried article from Montgomery, Ward & Company for chicken feed. Agent Edwards says he "may be" slightly shy on hearing but not on smell and that those things certainly "smelled" some. The moral of this little tale is that for the asking you can get all the "hoppers" you want from Bailey at La Union. Good night nurse!—Las Cruces Citizen.

Not Our Own Conception.
The matter of the government's offer of money from the treasury to move crops with has been called to our attention and one of the brightest minds in the state has proposed a plan for the development of this and all other western range states by the conservative use of government money properly applied to the building and maintenance of homes in the great west, the practicability and wonderful possibilities of which have kept us awake nights trying to devise the right way to spring it and push it along to results.

We don't intend to claim the conception as our own but do wish we might be the means of helping it along. We intend to present the idea to our readers as soon as we get a good grip on it ourselves.—Roy Spanish-American.

PROGRESSIVES ISSUE FINAL CALL

FOR VOLUNTEERS—HONOR ROLL RAPIDLY FILLING—LOYAL BULL MOOSE FOLLOWERS FROM ALL STATES INVITED TO JOIN.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—With the work well in hand assured success already in sight, the final call for Progressive volunteers is being issued this week from the National Progressive committee headquarters in New York. The responses are still coming in steadily with nearly all states represented and the group of loyal, earnest Progressives thus formed is now receiving the first instructions concerning the service which the volunteers expect to render. By September 1st it is expected that the work will be under full headway in more than forty states. The committee has "regretted the necessity for holding back the details of the true purpose of the volunteers, but there have been reasons why this was deemed imperative. The success of the movement might have been seriously imperiled by premature or only partial reports of the plans.

It may be stated positively that the idea of this movement and its proposed method of operation is totally unlike anything that has been done heretofore by political parties. As a matter of fact, it does not in any way come under the head of what is ordinarily known as political work, yet the directors regard it as one of the most vitally important steps that could be taken to hasten the ultimate victory of Progressive principals which they foresee. To all representatives of the press who have inquired at the New York headquarters in the 42nd street building, the men in charge have simply stated that confidential instructions were going out to all who enlisted, and at the proper time a report would be made public. Assurance has been given, and is repeated in the final call, that no one joining the volunteers will be asked to do anything that will incur expense or involve any material sacrifice of his time.

The text of the final call is as follows:

"The undersigned, with the sanction and approval of the National Progressive committee, recently issued a call for one thousand loyal Progressives, from all states in the union, to join them in a special and highly important service to the party. We appreciate to the highest degree the splendid response that has come from all sections, and now issue this final call to round out and complete the organization.

"If you are a true Progressive, willing to strike a blow for what you believe in, we invite you to join us; and we assure you that you will not be asked to do anything that will in any way interfere with your occupation or involve any sacrifice of time or money.

"It will help us if you will state your occupation, but whatever that occupation may be, or wherever it may hold you or take you, you have it in your power by joining in this movement to give invaluable assistance to the national committee and the party. If you have this cause at heart we urge you to answer this call to the colors. Please address:

"Volunteers' Department, Progressive National Committee, Room 1530, Forty-second Street Building, New York, or Oscar S. Straus, New York; Miles Polindexter, Washington; Albert J. Beveridge, Indiana; John M. Parker, Louisiana."

For quick results, a little "WANT."

NEWS OF THE STATE

Taos Club Grows.

Five new members of the Commercial Club at one meeting is not too many for Taos. It shows that interest in the club and its objects is increasing amongst our citizens. Let us all get in and help Taos Valley News.

Dangerous Placer Holes.

Stock are being trapped in the placer-holes in the vicinity of the school house. It is strange that complaint hasn't been made long ago, for catching a little rain water the trap is complete for the destruction of any kind of stock. Even human beings are in danger at night, as nothing is around to indicate the danger—Jicarilla Corr. Carizozo News.

Struck Good Flow.

Drillers putting down a well on the farm of John Shaw, ten miles north of town, struck a flow of water at eight hundred feet this week. The Shaw land is what has been known for some years past as the Thomas place and it has been poorly watered by a small artesian well with a depth of 821 feet. The new well is less than a quarter of a mile south, yet gives more water than is necessary to irrigate the 160 acres—Artesia Advocate.

Peculiar Accident.

A remarkable accident attended the display of half-tones for the Commercial Club Edition, in the window of the Valley Optical company last week. A magnifying glass had been arranged so as to show the "secret" on one of the plates. The glass magnified all right. Also it was burning glass and when discovered it had charred the base of one cut and burned a hole in the paper underneath. If there had been any air circulation there would have been another mysterious fire—Roswell News.

A Bunch of News.

Our society editor on his recent trip to La Mesa proposed to a winsome damsel (so rumor has it) and she told him that she'd rather be an old man's darling, than a young man's, and slave. The trouble in Mexico will soon be adjusted. It looks like impeachment for Governor Sulzer of New York. The county fair promises much. The carnival goes tomorrow. The delinquent tax matter may necessitate an extra session. Teachers' institute largely attended. Roubault building nearly completed—Las Cruces Citizen.

Burned by Gasoline.

Red McCoy was the victim of what might have been a serious accident, as a result of which his right hand and arm, which was badly burned, will be out of use for a while.

Thursday morning Mr. McCoy was helping the Winburn boys move the traction engine down the race track. The engine stopped and in trying to discover the cause Red was splattered with gasoline. The engine backfired.

NERVOUS
PROSTRATION

Severe Case of a Philadelphia Woman—Her Symptoms.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headache, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness."

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicine the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSON, 210 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case.

Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BEEF WILL BE HIGHER THAN EVERAGRICULTURAL PROFESSORS IN MICHIGAN
SAY THAT THE PRICE OF STEAK WILL BREAK ALL RECORDS—MAY REACH
50 CENTS.

East Lansing, Mich., Aug. 21.—That beef will reach upward of prices this coming winter is the point stated by Professor George A. Brown, head of the animal husbandry division of the Michigan Agricultural college.

Professor Wilson, who is a graduate of the M. A. C., and is now visiting his alma mater, agreed very positively with Professor Brown that beef steak would sell at a higher price this coming winter, the world over, than it has ever sold at before.

Beef, they stated, sold at a higher price last year than it has reached at any time previously, due to the scarcity of beef animals, and this in the face of a good corn crop. The high prices at that time caused many farmers to sell their beef under age and undeveloped, which has been instrumental in causing an even greater shortage of beef animals this year.

Corn Crop Small.

But this fall, the country besides facing scarcity of beef animals, is also facing the poorest corn crop in the history of the high class beef in the world. The middle west furnishes the world with practically all of the corn consumed, and all of the beef put on the market that is finished and of good class is fed on corn. Since the middle west furnishes this corn it means that the lack of the world will suffer for the lack of it.

The price of corn is steadily climbing, and will reach an unheard-of price, according to Professor Brown. This means that enormous quantities of it will not be fed to fatten steers, that large quantities of beef will go on the market in very poor condition, half finished and under age.

Professor Brown exploded the theory that imports from South America and Australia under Democratic free trade could come into competition with the American beef and thus keep the price lower. He admitted that the South American cattle can be raised much cheaper on the grass and alfalfa of the southern countries and that they are of fair quality, but insisted that they are not nearly as good as the corn-fed animal of the north.

South America Feeds Europe.

"But," said Professor Brown, "did you ever stop to consider that to date all of the cattle produced there go to the European markets and that they will be as badly off as we are here for corn and beef? To date very little South American beef has ever been shipped into this country and even if it comes it would still have to be imported from Europe. The European market, however, to which they have never been able to supply and fill in competition with the American, corn-fed animal."

"Another thing," said Professor Brown, "there was a story came from the United States department of meat inspection to the effect that South American beef did not come up to a standard which would allow its importation into this country and that the American ports would probably be closed to South American beef this coming winter, so that evidently shut off any relief from those sections."

In reply to the question as to whether the large supply of beef ready to ship into the United States would in any way enter into competition with and lower the price of American beef, he stated that he did not think it would. "The beef trust at the present time controls all of the meat shipped from these South American countries. The trust buy it, as it comes from the ranges and kills it in trust plants."

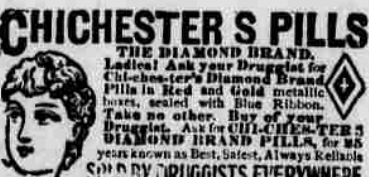

Beef Trust Control.

In my opinion it is very unlikely that the beef trust will allow foreign beef to control the price of American beef, corn-fed beef sets the standard for quality and price. Even in England where they have the competition of the free South American beef corn fed beef sets quality and price.

HALIFAX MAN HAS LOST A BULLFROG

Halifax, Pa., Aug. 21.—Charles R. Swope, editor of the Halifax Gazette has sent out a general alarm to the public to watch out for one large green highly educated bullfrog, weight two and one-half pounds, answers to name of Uncle Peleg. The frog disappeared last night. Swope captured it single handedly some time ago and quickly taught it, he says, to stand on its hind legs, turn somersaults and indicate the day of the week by the correct number of croaks.

According to Swope—and neighbors—Uncle Peleg has a voice like a bull of Bashan, and it got to be such a nuisance that Swope housed the frog in a barn at night. Swope suspects that Uncle Peleg was stolen by some jealous neighbor. If the frog is returned Swope promises to carry his education much further.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

THE RESOURCES OF NEW MEXICO

Mountainair, N. M., Aug. 21.—One of the real features of the Chautauqua this season was the address by Hon. Ralph C. Ely, of Deming, N. M., in the interest of the state fair of which Mr. Ely is president.

With that remarkable facility for condensed and eloquent expression for which Mr. Ely is famous, he outlined to the large audience the immense undeveloped resources of New Mexico. He briefly referred to the state appropriation for the fair this year, and declared that since the taxpayers' money was being spent for this institution it must become a state function, thoroughly representative of every interest in the state. It must furnish inspiration and impetus to material development declared the speaker.

Perhaps no man in the state is more thoroughly informed upon the resources of New Mexico than the present president of the state fair commission, and he used his knowledge in the address delivered before the Chautauqua to open up a glorious vision of a completely developed commonwealth. The state fair, declared Mr. Ely, is going to play an important part in this development. But it is upon particular phases of this development that the address was most interesting. The possibilities of the silo came in for considerable attention. The speaker gave his personal experience with the silo last season on his farm in the Cimarron valley. He set twenty acres of maize into two silos; he harvested forty-five acres of equally good maize and stacked it dry. The silage from the twenty acres fed thirty-five to forty cows from the first of October to the 15th of May; the maize cured, dry fed twenty-seven head of stock from the first of October to the first of March. In other words, silage from twenty acres kept 35 to 40 stock seven and one-half months, while forty-five acres cured dry kept only 27 head of stock five months. He declared that the professors of agricultural colleges were too conservative in their estimates of the benefits of the silo, when they say it will double the feeding value of an acre's crop. It will, in this desert country, declared the speaker, treble the value easily. The silo is especially valuable under desert or semi-arid conditions, because farmers can cut his forage stuff at any time the drought is threatening to destroy it utterly, no matter if it is only knee-high.

Mr. Ely was especially enthusiastic concerning the poultry business in the state. He deplored the fact that we still ship eggs and chickens into the state from Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. He describes one chicken ranch in the state that is paying the owner $15,000 per year net. He told of the splendid results obtained on a small investment by L. L. Gaskill, near Deming, N. M., who now has from a small start of chickens a year ago 1000 chickens that are netting him $1 per chicken per year.

Both the silo and the chicken business will be featured at the state fair, and complete information will be available for anyone interested.

The machinery department at the fair was declared to be one of the most important. The speaker illustrated this by citing an instance in his own experience. He was visiting the Michigan Agricultural college at Lansing and saw there a new kind of seeder. He saw that it was particularly suited to his needs. He bought one and saved by its use $510 in seeding a large acreage to alfalfa, and then sold it for practically what it cost. Five hundred and ten dollars was pretty good pay, he said, for that visit to the Agricultural college. Similar exhibits at the state fair, he declared, would save the farmers and stock men thousands and thousands of dollars.

TRIES TO HANG HIMSELF IN JAIL

Detroit, Aug. 21.—Despondent over his arrest as an alleged burglar, Antonio Demando, Italian, tied his suspenders around his neck, in the Central police station cell block and tried to hang himself.

Doorman John Murovski passed his cell several minutes later and discovered Antonio hanging from the bars,

HOUSE FALLS AND CRUSHES MAN

Muskegon, Mich., Aug. 21.—Caught under a falling house which had been propped up preparatory to laying the foundation, Gus Ahlert, a farmer residing near Dalton, was instantly killed here. His head was crushed.

Ahlert, with three other men, was working underneath the house. With out an instant's warning the house fell, pinning Ahlert beneath the bottom of the building and the partly completed stone wall. His wife frantically attempted to release the man. Sidney A. Loebe, Arthur Danbert and Gustave Ahlert were also pinned under the house.

They managed to extricate themselves and then released Ahlert. Warren Dope, the contractor who had been engaged to do the work, was overcome by the heat when he endeavored to release Ahlert. He was revived by a physician, who was summoned from Muskegon.

Sometimes the symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble are so plain no one can mistake them. Backache, weak and lame back with soreness over the kidneys, sharp pains, rheumatism, dull headache and disturbed sleep, are all indications of a trouble that Foley Kidney Pills will relieve quickly and permanently. Try them. The Capital Pharmacy.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 21.—Thomas Jackson, 40 years old, had his clothes caught in the shaft of a machine at a mill where he was employed at Luzerne and by a great test of strength saved his life but lost every stitch of his clothes in doing so.

Jackson got near a shaft which was revolving at terrific speed. The sleeves of his shirt caught in the machinery and after he was hurled about twice and when he was slowly being dragged into the machinery, he managed to seize the shaft casing and held fast. Stitch by stitch his clothes were torn from his body, but he held on.

Once his shirt was drawn so tightly about his neck that he almost choked to death. His cries brought other men to the engine room, but by the time they arrived every bit of Jackson's clothing was torn from his body. He sustained a broken nose and a badly battered face.

MANY FILINGS UNDER IRRIGATION MEASURE

AMENDED IRRIGATION ACT, CHAPTER 63, LAWS OF 1913, REQUIRES FILING OF NOTICE OF INTENTION BEFORE FORMAL FILING.

MANY NOTICES FILED IN PAST FEW DAYS

Due to the fact that under the new law, persons desiring to appropriate water from any stream in New Mexico must first file with the state engineer a notice of their intention to appropriate following this within 60 days by a formal application to appropriate, which law is now in effect, a number of applications in the new form have been filed within the past few days. Among them are the following:

John Borradaile, of Albuquerque, has filed notice of his intention to appropriate 400 second feet from Cottonwood canyon, a tributary to the Rio Grande, to be used for power purposes. It is anticipated that 1800 horse power can be developed in this project, which it is said would be furnished to Albuquerque and other cities.

Maltide Cox Stevensen has filed notice of intention to appropriate ten second feet from the Rio Grande in the Espanola valley, 2 1/2 miles above the intake of what is known as the True ditch, for the irrigation of 1000 acres of land.

J. L. T. Watters, of Duncan, Ariz., has taken up an old irrigation prospect on the Gila river, and asks for 67.5 cubic feet a second for the irrigation of 10,000 acres.

Wayne McVough Wilson, of Silver City, has filed for 35 second feet from Mogollon creek for the irrigation of 500 acres.

A. J. Abbott, of Frijoles canyon, asks for two-seventh of a cubic foot a second from Frijoles creek for the irrigation of 20 acres.

N. S. Finch, of Lake Valley, wants one cubic foot a second from Berenda creek, a tributary of the Rio Grande, for the irrigation of 70 acres.

F. E. Anderson and R. M. Anderson, of Raton, have filed on 500 acre feet from a tributary of Sugar creek for the irrigation of 200 acres in Colfax county.

Ed. F. Saxon and Laura P. Saxon, of Tucuman, have filed with the state engineer notice of their intention to appropriate water from Tucuman draw for the irrigation of 210 acres in township 11 north, range 31 east.

E. M. Hixenbaugh, of Hall's Peak, has filed water application with the state engineer to appropriate water from Wheaton Creek and Van Derwater creek in Colfax and Mora counties. He asks for 5 acre feet.

W. H. Hurst, C. C. Hurst, Walter Shupe, Norma C. Hurst, all of Antonio, Colo., have filed a water application with the state engineer for the appropriation of 1.3 cubic feet per second from San Cristobal creek, for the irrigation of 640 acres, located about eight miles northeast of the town of Arroyo Hondo in Taos county.

Raymond T. Sanchez, of Chilli, Beranillo county, has filed a water application for the appropriation of waters from Chilli creek to irrigate between six and ten acres.

Paul A. Terry, of Dayton, Eddy county, asks for permission to appropriate three second feet from the Rio Pecos for the irrigation of 210 acres.

B. F. Parks, of Lake Valley, asks for one cubic foot a second from Berenda creek for the irrigation of 70 acres.

Augusta Reuter, of Roswell, has filed application for one cubic foot a second from Seven Mile draw for the irrigation of 40 acres.

COUNTY ROAD LAW IS TO BE TESTED IN COURT

Two cases of far reaching importance to the county road boards of the state, were decided in the district court at Las Vegas yesterday, according to F. W. Clancy, attorney general, who returned last night from that city. However since the very existence of the county boards depends upon the final solution of the questions involved, the cases will be appealed to the supreme court for a final decision.

In one of the cases yesterday, the county road board was seeking to force the county treasurer to pay a county road board warrant for a small amount, and in the other the county commissioners were after the same thing, seeking to compel the treasurer to pay a county commissioners warrant for land condemned for a road. Judge Leahy decided that the commissioners warrant should be paid and that the road board warrant should not be paid. The judge held that there was nothing in the law creating the county road boards giving them power to select roads and condemn land therefor, and in effect his decision would make the county road boards nothing more than road overseers under the power of and subject to the orders of the county commissioners. There has been a great deal of friction between the county road board and the county commissioners of San Miguel county, and it has been known for some time that the law would have to be tested in the supreme court before the muddled condition existing there would be cleared up. It is admitted that there are defects in the law creating the road boards, but in most counties it has been decided that there would probably be more and better work done on the roads, were it done under the supervision of a board appointed for that work alone, than were the commissioners to handle it. There are many inconsistencies in it, said by the powers of the county commissioners and the road board law, but in the main however, these have been overlooked in the interest of harmony, but San Miguel county it seems is going to settle the matter by getting a decision from the supreme court.

Brokerage Co. Incorporates.
The Merchants' Brokerage company of Albuquerque filed incorporation papers today with the state corporation commission. The agent for the new concern will be H. C. Miller, Cromwell block, Albuquerque. N. M. The capital stock is $10,000 divided into 100 shares. The company starts business with 785 shares subscribed divided among the following: Ernest Myers 520 shares, Hugo Mueller 240 shares, and H. C. Miller, 25 shares.

LOCAL ITEMS.

'NUFF SAID, GNAGEY & ERVING.
Going Tonight.—The question of the hour! Why, of course I'm going to that Elks dance. Wouldn't miss it for a farm and I don't want to rag either. You will find many good smokes in our cigar case. No trouble to select the particular size, shape and shade you like, Zook's.

Elks Dance Tonight.—At 9 p. m. tonight the B. P. O. Elks will tender one of their delightful dances, and a beautiful luncheon with good music is in store for those who are lucky enough to attend. Rag dancing will be taboed.

Trade at the Modern Market.
Meats, prices and service are right. Frank Mourer, proprietor.

New Mexican Is Read.—It is astonishing how quickly an item in the New Mexican is read and often with good effect, said Dr. Standley G. Small. The little announcement asking chauffeurs to refrain from working their cut-outs overtime around the sanitarium, has been heeded and the patients are grateful for quiet.

INSURE WITH HAYWARD AND BE SURE.

More Applications.—Two more applications for membership of the chamber of commerce were received this morning shortly after 8 o'clock. The applications are likely to pour in this week, in view of the efforts made at the meeting Tuesday night to arouse interest in this campaign. Every member was given an application blank to use in the work.

Friday's Dance Postponed.—The dance which was scheduled for Friday night on Friday evening and tendered by the younger set has been postponed until Monday night, so as not to conflict with another popular rag dance to be given that evening. But Monday the big show will come off. Don't forget.

Tennessee Land For Sale or Trade.
Improved and unimproved. Convenient to churches and school. Public road. Trade for merchandise or horse. Address: B. George, Lawrenceburg, Tenn.

Fountain Finished.—The Woman's Board of Trade has completed the fountain in the city plaza, placed at the west end of the monument. It will be used as soon as the improvements to the plaza are finished. The water trough has been restored, and will be of much service to horses and dogs. This trough has been missed for some time.

Van Stone on the Job.—George H. Van Stone, newly appointed secretary of the Santa Fe chamber of commerce was on the job this morning, writing letters, talking to visitors, and mapping out publicity work. Mr. Van Stone has the reputation of a hustler, and his Santa Fe friends are glad to see his energies devoted to the up-building of this city.

Road to Monument Rock.—If there is one delightful trip in the southwest it is the journey up the Santa Fe canyon as far as Monument Rock. For this reason, it is the intention of the county road board to make permanent improvements to this road which is sadly in need of attention. The collection of the county road tax of $3 per head will furnish the funds.

Zook's Benzoin, Witch Hazel and Almond Cream is fine for sunburn and windburn. Take a bottle with you on your vacation.

A. R. R. Committee.—The president of the chamber of commerce has appointed Attorney General Clancy, Judge L. C. Collins and Judge E. R.

Wright as a committee of three to ascertain what is the application of the Minnesota rate law to conditions here. Has the corporation commission the power to force railroads to take on and let off passengers, who pay their fare, at any station where the train stops?

Prof. Wood Omitted.—The name of Prof. J. A. Wood, who was the late superintendent of the Santa Fe city schools for thirteen years, and who brought the schools up to such a high state of efficiency, was inadvertently omitted from the list of high school teachers as given in this paper the other day. Prof. Wood will have charge of mathematics in the high school during the coming year.

Too Many Parties.—That is the complaint heard now in society circles. The past summer has been one of the most brilliant socially seen here in many years. There has been one string of receptions, socials, dances, garden and lawn fetes, hay rides, trips a-horse and a-gasoline. And now there is complaint that society is embarrassed with riches. There is no time to repose. Verily, the old burg is waking up!

"Any Old Stamp"—There was a day when a writer of a letter had to have a careful eye not to confuse parcel post with letter stamps. But by a recent order of the postmaster general any old stamp, uncancelled, will do. One may put a parcel post stamp even on a registered letter! This is somewhat shocking to the sensibilities of the registered-letter devotees, but it makes the work easier for the dispensers of stamps.

La Bajada Hill in Bad Shape.—Former Mayor Arthur Seligman is back from a motor trip to Albuquerque in his 50 horsepower Cadillac, and reports that the lower part of the hill is in bad shape. "It is not impossible, but soon will be," he declared, "unless prompt action is taken to make repairs. We were over three hours in making the trip, owing to the condition of the roads due to the heavy rains. The accquas have run over the road from Bernallillo to Albuquerque."

Any kind of nursing bottle you want nipples of all styles, brushes, baby foods, talcum powders and the most careful prescription department to help baby when ill. Zook's.

County Road Tax.—Chairman Arthur Seligman of the county road board, stated today that the county road tax of $3 per head is to be collected, beginning Tuesday. He has appointed Lorenzo Gutierrez to collect in this district, which is District No. 1. The collector of District No. 3 is Telesforo Trujillo, who will work the north of the county. In District No. 2, which embraces the southern portion of the county, no collector has been appointed as yet, but he will be selected in a few days. It is estimated that the sum of $3,000 will be collected from the tax payers of this city. The authority for collecting this tax is contained in Section 28, Chapter 124, Session Laws of 1905.

Los Trabajadores.—There will be a meeting of "Los Trabajadores" at 2:30 p. m., Friday, August 22, at the home of Miss Katherine Andrews.

MRS. MATILDA ALLISON
TO BE BURIED MONDAY.
While exhorting her audience to carry on the mission work to which she had given 50 years of her life, Mrs. Matilda L. Allison, founder of the Allison Mission school for girls at Santa Fe, suddenly paused in her address at the Ingleswood Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and fell forward upon the platform, dying almost instantly from heart failure.

Miss Allison had lived with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kelso of Ingleswood, the last two years. She is survived by two sisters and one brother. The funeral will be held from the First Presbyterian church of Ingleswood Monday morning at 10:30. Rev. William Laferty will conduct the service. —Los Angeles Times.

WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 21.—Closing out of short contracts yesterday apparently weakened the technical position of the stock market and traders were not of a mind to support prices today. Renewed selling from abroad, particularly of Southern Pacific, was one of the chief influences, in depressing quotations. Announcement of a reduction of $2 a ton in steel billets provoked selling of United States Steel and the entire list continued heavy throughout the morning.

News from Mexico threw no clear light on the situation there, and resumption of the advance in the corn market was regarded as unfavorable. Southern Pacific fell to 90 1/2, the lowest since the terms for the sale of the Union Pacific stock were announced. Bonds were irregular.

The market closed irregular. Sales of western and southwestern stocks were made at concessions, especially those affected by the drought in the corn and cotton states. Atchafson and Missouri Pacific were unusually active and a point lower and Illinois Central, 2. The general market wavered uncertainly toward the close.

A few years ago any residence lot in this city could have been bought for two hundred dollars. Recently these same lots sold for from $600 to $1,250. A few days ago, a certain business man who has been here for thirty years, and has paid for the property he occupied several times over in rentals, bought the place, but paid about four times more than he could have got it for at the outset.

Many of our far-seeing citizens have READ THE CARDS and purchased beautiful residence lots on Don Diego Heights and are now planning to build themselves homes on this splendid, well-planned avenue, all of which will be on the NEW OLD SANTA FE PLAN.

Such an opportunity to secure a fine lot close in and at a price that we can all afford will not be had again for many a day. Only a few of the lots closest in and on the new water main remain to be sold. Special prices, special terms, selected patrons, time payments, no interest, no taxes, beautiful, well-planned avenue, alleys, magnificent vista, street straight, houses straight, sidewalks and shade trees straight. Still, we will have in its truest sense,

THE NEW OLD SANTA FE PLAN.
