WASHINGTON TOPICS

Delegate Ferguson Confident House Committee Will Favorably Report New Mexico Land Bill.

LOUD BILL GONE GLIMMERING

Secretary Long Positively Denies That a Preliminary Report Has Been Received from the Maine Court of Inquiry.

Washington, March 3.—Delegate Ferguson is confident of getting a favorable report from the committee on public lands on his bill making grants of land to the territory of New Mexico equal to the amount she would receive if admitted as a state. The only objection raised is against the 500,000 acres for upper Rio Grande irrigation system. It is doubtful whether, after the bill is reported, Mr. Ferguson can secure recognition from Speaker Reed so as to bring about action in the house.

Session of the House Today.
Washington, March 3.—The debate on the Loud bill relating to second class mail matter closed in the house today.

Mr. White (Rep. N. C.) the only colored member of the house, asked unanimous consent for the consideration of his resolution appropriating $1,000 for the family of the postmaster killed at Lake City, S. C.

Mr. Bartlett (Dem. Ga.) demanded the regular order, which prevented the consideration of the resolution.

Loud Bill Tabled.

Washington, March 3.—On a rising vote the motion to lay the Loud bill on the table carried, 125 ayes to 101 nays.

Session of Senate Today.

Washington, March 3.—This afternoon the senate non-concurred and a conference committee on the bankruptcy bill was appointed.

The senate took up the Alaskan homestead and right-of-way bill.

Secretary Long's Denial.

Washington, March 3.—Secretary Long authorized a positive denial of so-called report that a partial or preliminary report had been received by the government from the Maine inquiry board, indicating or declaring that the loss of the Maine was due to an external explosion. He said that the public had all the information received.

Adverse to Dumas.

Washington, March 3.—The senate committee on commerce today decided by a unanimous vote to report adversely the nomination of Henry Dumas, to be naval officer of New Orleans.

FROM THE KLONDIKE.

Canadian Flag Raised at Summit Lake—
Martial Law at Skagway—Startling Mortality.

Victoria, B. C., March 3.—The passengers of the steamer Islander, which reached here late last night from Skagway, confirm the reports that the Canadian flag had been raised at Summit Lake; also that the Canadians will establish a custom house at Clatter Lake.

Martial law has been declared at Skagway and United States troops have been enforcing the law. The death rate at Skagway averages 15 daily, one of the latest victims being the postmaster.

It is also stated that the Dyea trail is strewn with dead mules.

Wheelmen Want to Fight.

New York, March 3.—Cyclists all over the country, particularly members of the L. A. W., are preparing to offer their services to the government in case war is declared between Spain and the United States. Of the 107,000 members of the league fully 90,000 it is estimated, could be called upon.

John Bull in the Orient.

Small Revolution in Venezuela.

BATTLE WITH BANDITS.

A Prominent Utah Stock Man Killed in a Conflict with Outlaws—Several Lynchings Anticipated.

Vernal, Utah, March 3.—Word has just been received from Brown's Park of the killing of V. S. Hoy, a well known stock grower, by outlaws.

Several men, including Hoy, while endeavoring to capture Pat Johnson, who killed a farmer named Strunge a few days ago, encountered the desperadoes, who opened fire on the party. The killing of Hoy instantly.

One of the gang named Bennett was captured; the others are surrounded in the mountains.

The sheriff and posse have left for the scene. There is little doubt that the murderers will be shot or lynched as soon as captured.

RED RIVER NUGGETS.

Numerous New and Important Strikes Reported—Preparations for More Work Than Ever—A "Poverty Ball."

Special Correspondence New Mexican.

Red River, N. M., Feb. 28, 1898.

While no new strikes of special importance have been made within the past week, development has continued steadily and shows constantly increasing values.

This but strengthens the feeling of confidence in the future of the camp.

The splendid weather and the near approach of spring are producing increased activity all over the district.

A number of cabins are being built on claims, so that no time may be lost in going to and from work. Preparations are being made for more systematic and effective work during the coming season than has ever before been done in the camp. Nearly every man in the district who has a claim is at work upon it.

This persistent work will show the outside world that Red River has the mineral to back up her claims as a rich mining region.

The great need of the camp now is a mill, some sort of a road, plant that can handle our low grade surface ore and make a profit for the miner. This profit would be used in further development in the district.

Some of the prospects are now turning out ore that will stand freight and smelter charges and shipments will be made in the near future, but the most of the ore now coming out will not bear these heavy charges. They would, however, if treated on the ground, pay a small profit to the owner, and with that small profit he would be satisfied at the present. A number of prospects in the near future, if they can be treated on the ground, will be a 30 or 40-ton mill will be ready to start up tomorrow it could be supplied, and kept supplied with ore. And this output could and I believe would be increased to 100 tons per day before a mill could possibly be gotten ready, were one begun today. This is a man who will pay some capitalist to investigate.

Assays from the recent strike in the Shoshone on Gold Hill owned by Gustaf Brothers are said to show over $1,000 in value per ton. A carload is being taken out for shipment.

The tunnel on the Two Sisters is in 140 feet, the last 45 feet is in ore that averages $10. From the breast a cross-cut will now be run to cut a known vein of fine looking quartz. About 40 feet of work will tap this vein 100 feet below the surface.

The only "Dock" Clifford, "Uncle John" Williams and Pearl Hayes, the barber, who have furnished gratis the music for all the dances this winter, gave a "Poverty ball" last Saturday night that was rather the "swellest" hop of the season. No one was allowed on the floor unless arrayed in "indications of poverty" or "evidence of old clothes." The costumes were unique, and where all the "old clothes" came from was a wonder.

Last Saturday while exploring the tunnel in the old abandoned copper mine opposite town, John Conley and Miles Greenwood made a "find" which they called "piles of bologna" or in other words seven quarters of beef stowed away. This seems to be the last echo from the beef stealing episode of last October.

TERRITORIAL SIFTINGS.

San Juan County.
Many eastern homeseekers, chiefly farmers, are looking over San Juan county this spring.

The recent special illustrated edition of the San Juan Times, printed at Farmington by C. E. Stivers, was a most creditable publication.

Acting under instructions from C. S. Ford, cattle inspector, Deputy Sheriff Boone Vaughn this week rounded up 28 head of stolen cattle and took them to Farmington, where they were sold. They were mostly Arizona cattle, and belonged to the bunch that Charles Carter is alleged to have stolen. The sanitary board's allotment of the cattle were sold to Cooper & Dustin, of Farmington, says the San Juan Index.

The warm weather of the past two weeks has taken the frost out of the San Juan county soil sufficiently to allow the resumption of work on the Great Eastern canal, and the men and teams that have wintered at Camp Morris were yesterday noon started in on the work of constructing what is regarded as one of the biggest—as it is considered to be the easiest and most promising—irrigation projects now on foot in the United States, says the Index.

The Flora Vista correspondent of the San Juan Index sarcastically observes: "Word has reached Flora Vista that the fruit crop in and around Durango is badly damaged from the effect of the cold weather in January. It is said the orchards on Smelter hill, being more exposed than elsewhere, will be almost an entire failure." This is pointed at Durango's big blow about the train load of San Juan county apples that passed through that city last fall. No fruit is raised at Durango.

Union County.

Dr. S. I. North has purchased the entire brand of the Dyson cattle together with all horses, wagons and implements.

The commissioners of Union county have instructed the district attorney to bring suits for the collection of delinquent taxes.

Socorro County.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Donnelly and daughter, Miss Pauline, and Mrs. J. A. Bower, of Latrobe, Pa., recently arrived in Socorro on a visit to Judge Francis Buchanan and family.

The people of the Rio Grande valley should profit by the example set them over on the Pecos, and do all they can to encourage the building of dams and storage reservoirs, sensibly suggests the Socorro Advertiser.

Judge A. A. Freeman is now in the city of New York taking testimony and completing arrangements for the final transfer of the Pecos Valley railroad property to the company proposing to extend the road to an eastern outlet.

Colfax County.

Judge S. E. Booth and John Pearson have been appointed as appraisers of the Golden Ajax Gold Mining & Milling company's property at Ellensbethtown. As soon as the property can be sold by the assignee, the Golden Ajax will start under new management.

Growing out of the county seat removal contest, the county treasurer has taken it so to heart that he is making it a personal matter with the First National bank of Raton and desires to withdraw the county's funds from the above bank and deposit the same with the American Savings bank of Trinidad, Colo., says the Raton Reporter.

R. C. Wilson, who has been engaged in examining the Aztec mine for several months past, writes that in making the 100-ton run last week on the mine he saved 83 per cent and that the mine is sold if his report is favorable.

Jas. Sweeney, financier for Raton lodge No. 8, A. O. U. W., on Thursday, delivered to Mrs. Mary B. Sartorius, whose husband was killed in the Bloomingburg mines a short time ago, $2,000, the amount of his insurance in the A. O. U. W.

Donna Arroyo County.

Fruit trees are beginning to bloom in La Luz.

Twenty-five separate transfers of land were made at La Luz, on Monday.

W. H. McNew has sold his Sacramento mountain ranch to R. H. Pierce.

H. B. CARTWRIGHT & BRO.

The Chief reminds the farmers in the Sacramento mountain section that before another crop is matured there will be a railroad completed and in operation to La Luz.

The names of the railroad stations on the El Paso & Northeastern railroad so far as constructed are El Paso, Fort Bliss, Longhorn, Huacoe and Jarilla.

The Sacramento Chief recalls the fact that the largest apples shown at the Chicago World's fair came from the Sacramento mountain section. They were grown in Patrick Coghlan's orchard at Three Rivers. One weighed 27 and another 29 ounces.

Taos County.

The farmers are preparing to put in more seed this spring than ever before.

Cattle and sheep have wintered well and are in fine condition.

There is a rumor floating around town to the effect that a streak of ore running $1,000 to the ton was struck in the Shoshone on Gold Hill lately, says the Red River News.

The residents of the Taos valley are preparing for the boom which will accompany the new railroad there in the spring. It is likely that the company will extend their line to Questa within a year.

ALBUQUERQUE NOTES.

Mrs. M. E. Trimble has commenced an attachment suit in the district court against P. B. Bliss and a writ against the defendant has been issued.

M. F. Myers will go to Bland in a few days, where he will have charge of the large boarding house now in course of construction by the Albemarle Mining company.

Roadmaster Hurley brought in a force of some 60 men last night who are quartered in the company's yards. They are engaged in putting the tracks near the shops and roundhouse in an up-to-date condition.

It is understood that the Santa Fe Pacific will this summer ballast its line on Roadmaster Hurley's division along from Wingate to Winslow, and lay new steel rails from Laguna to Hobbs. Next fall look out for fast train service on the Santa Fe Pacific.

Miss Mary A. Everitt, who has for years so efficiently provided at the general delivery window at the postoffice in this city, has been transferred to the Chicago postoffice. The change is in the nature of a much deserved promotion. Henry C. Kresdel, of Chicago, has been appointed her successor here and is expected to arrive in the very near future, says the Citizen.

At the sheriff's sale of county property on Monday, Nestor Montoya bought the lots belonging to the county and situated between the county jail and Judge Trimble's residence, the consideration being $155. The purchase was made for the society of Mutual Protection of Old Albuquerque. The society intends to build on it in the near future a large and substantial meeting hall, fitted up with band quarters, offices, etc.

THURSDAY, MARCH 3.

AND now let the war proceed. Amorous and passionate Ella Wheeler Wilcox is for fighting Spain.

THE spirit of 1776 and of 1861 is still abroad in the land, as Spain will find out in case of a war with this country.

JUDGE DAY is a success at keeping silent. An excellent qualification for a diplomat and assistant secretary of state.

NEW MEXICO presents some strange phases of life, as well as in politics. Mr. Olin E. Smith, a Democratic territorial official, has voluntarily resigned.

THE country is waiting on the report of the court of inquiry in the Maine disaster and it is hoped that the country will not have much longer to wait.

THE New York yellow journals are still slopping over on war with the kingdom of Spain. But that is as far as the subject has as yet gone.

THE jingoes in Madrid and Havana are calling Uncle Sam had names. But the old uncle can stand this from that sort of a crowd and will not consider this a casus belli.

THE question of the erection of a beet sugar factory in this city is being constantly agitated by this journal and in the right direction. If success be not achieved, it will not be the fault of this paper.

SOME of the great would-be reformers in Pennsylvania are again making a fight on Senator Quay. And they have picked up John Wanamaker to do it with, which is a very funny thing for them to do.

ONE must admire the natural innocence and naive ingenuity of the captains of the various American filibustering schooners and tugs. Whenever they return from a filibustering expedition, they tell a different, but always an innocent, tale.

IT is understood that J. Leahy, Esq., a well known lawyer of Raton, will be appointed district attorney for the counties of Colfax and Union, vice O. E. Smith, resigned. This will prove as good a selection as can be made from the members of the bar of that district.

THE Mexican government is advertising for immigrants and the United States is shutting them out. This is a condition and not a theory and therefore Mr. W. Jennings Bryan is saying nothing about it in his lectures on the advantages afforded by a free silver currency.

THE mining interests of the territory are receiving particular attention in the columns of this paper. Mining is one of the leading industries of the Sunshine territory and the New Mexican does its level best for its development, as it does for the development and prosperity of every other industry and interest of the territory.

WITH a few new district attorneys, the right sort of men, who will do their duty, prosecute criminals and look after the collection of taxes wherever such is their duty, the territory will be much better off. This state of affairs will be brought about, but of necessity it will be slow. But better late than never is a very good proverb in this case.

CONSIDERABLE foreign capital is now being invested in this country in manufacturing enterprises as a result of the workings of the protective tariff under the Dingley law. The more foreign capital we can get here the better off we shall be; and if the free traders themselves admit that one effect of the Dingley tariff will be to bring it here, it is a convincing if unwilling testimony to the wisdom of Republican legislation.

THE people of this country are becoming convinced more and more, that Republican pledges are being carried out and that the Republican party legislates for the best interests of the entire people. With sufficient revenue in sight and the nation's industries thriving better than at any time during the past five years, the people may well be congratulated that the affairs of government are in intelligent and honest hands.

THE leaders of the Republican party in the territory must come together and commence work, if the party is to be successful in the coming campaign. Organization and proper preparations count for a great deal in war, as well as in politics. The New Mexican will have to pound away on this line until something shall be done; and something will be done, as the pounding of the New Mexican generally amounts to a great deal.

THE importations of gold in large quantities from abroad mean that the capitalists of this country are getting ready to take government bonds in case of war. There is no probability, and indeed there will be no necessity of selling any government bonds in Europe. The banks and capitalists of this country will take hundreds of millions of dollars of such, should they be offered for sale, and will be glad to do so. As money is very necessary in case of a war, it is certain, in this instance, this government will be well provided for.

THE pet assertion of the free traders, that a reduction in tariff rates stimulates trade with foreign countries is not borne out by the facts. A mere reduction of the tariff never won this country a dollar's worth of foreign trade, and, what is more, it never will. The idea that it can is the thinnest kind of humbug. Our foreign commerce reached the very highest figures in our history right in the stiffest period of the McKinley law, and now that the disastrous "tariff reform" experiment of Gorman-Wilsonism is abandoned, and we have another vigorous protective act, what do we find? Why, that we are selling more of our cheap agricultural products and specialized Yankee manufactures to foreign purchasers than ever.

MR. BRYAN, Chairman Jones, Chairman Butler, Chairman Towne and the rest of the Popocratic leaders, speakers and chairmen like to hear themselves talk, and being fond of their talk and having nothing much better to talk about, give the people a great deal of slush about the alleged scarcity of money, said to have been brought about by the "crime of '73," and that the country through the aforesaid crime has been deprived of a large part of its circulating medium. But the facts are, that there has been a great and steady increase in the amount of money in the country—an increase considerably greater than the increase in population. In September, 1897, the total stock of money in the United States was $2,510,495,288; this is twice as much as in September, 1890, when the amount was $1,368,570,912. Here is an increase of almost $70,000,000 a year, while the population increased less than 1,500,000 a year. The amount of money in the 17 years has increased by 100 per cent, while the population has increased by only 46 per cent.

THE Republicans of Albuquerque have about concluded to nominate Mr. Frank W. Clancy as a candidate for mayor at the coming city election. A most excellent selection and one, if carried out, that will bring the party many votes. In this connection, it is well to remind the Republicans of this city to be up and doing and to look about for good and competent men for the nominations for mayor and councilmen at the coming city elections. The taxes paid for the maintenance of the government of the city should be judiciously and carefully handled and should be managed from a business standpoint. The city should be well lighted, should have a good water supply, should be kept clean, the streets sprinkled and sidewalks repaired. With the right kind of a mayor and good councilmen these objects can be obtained. Taxpayers and property owners should be placed in control of city affairs. A clean and orderly condition of this city would be a great advertisement and attract tourists. Hence self-interest, if nothing else, demands an efficient city government and all good citizens should take deep interest in city affairs.

European Nations Deceived.
The rumors of a war between the United States and Spain have given rise to considerable speculation among foreign nations as to the possible strength of this country in the way of troops. An article which appeared in the current number of a prominent magazine on the subject gives an idea of the erroneous impressions which prevail in other countries concerning the armies and available men in the United States.

As a matter of course it is known that the standing army consists of about 25,000 enlisted men, and the prevailing opinion is that that number represents all the trained men there are in the country. So far as the National Guard is concerned, the officers of the great armies of Europe look upon it as a mob of raw recruits, devoid of discipline and utterly unavailable for actual service. Basing their calculations on this theory, foreign governments have come to regard the United States as a "fourth class power" and imagine that before an army of any size fitted for service could be raised and sent to the front, a small force of trained European troops could place this country hors de combat.

The fact of the matter is, Europeans do not begin to understand the character and intelligence of the masses of the American people. Naturally self-reliant, accustomed to responsibilities and possessed of inherent capabilities, there are hundreds of thousands of men in the country who are anxious to take the field in case of war, fully equipped to make soldiers with little or no drilling. Of course they would not make much of a display on dress parade, but give them arms and accoutrements, place them in a field and tell them to hold it against a contending force, and they will not only take care of themselves, but carry out the orders without any great amount of officering. A class of men of this kind is almost unknown in European armies, and not understanding the real situation, foreign nations are deceived in the actual fighting strength of this country.

Perhaps, should war be declared, the rapidity with which the United States will send large fighting forces to the front will change the estimate of our European cousins of the "Yankees" and result in less bulldozing on their part in the future.

H. R. 7744.

Territorial Legislatures to Be Prohibited from Creating New Counties.

Mr. Knox, the chairman of the house committee on territories, has introduced the following bill:

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that hereafter the legislatures of the territories of the United States shall not create new counties in said territories by special act; and hereafter all acts of said legislatures authorizing the organization of new counties by special act shall be null and void.

Sec. 2. That the legislatures of said territories may enact general laws, applying to all parts of the territory and to all cases alike, providing for the organization of new counties and prescribing the conditions under which the new counties may be organized, such general laws on this subject to have no force or effect until they have been approved by congress. But in no case shall a new county be formed out of the territory of any other county or counties when the debt of such existing county or counties amounts to more than 3 per cent of the valuation of the taxable property of such county or counties, as shown by the assessment roll of such county or counties for the year last preceding the time when it is proposed to form a new county out of the territory of such existing counties; and the organization of any new county in violation of this section shall be null and void.

Sec. 3. That all acts and parts of acts in conflict with the preceding sections are hereby repealed.

SUGAR BEET FARMS.

Better Investment Than a Wisconsin Dairy Farm or a Wheat Ranch in Kansas.

A very excellent argument in the Chronicle, of San Francisco, says: "If a man owns a fertile acreage of beet land near a sugar factory, it is a better thing year in and year out than a Wisconsin dairy farm or a wheat ranch in Kansas. His chance is like that of the truck farmer near the big cities, who is prosperous because he gets quick sales." This has been the experience of owners of land in the neighborhood of the Nebraska, the Utah and the California factories, and this is the prospect now offering to Pecos valley farmers. This season will demonstrate in a very convincing way that the man who has land so situated that he can produce a crop of beets and put them into the factory in Eddy without delay has a basis for his farming operations not enjoyed by sections knowing nothing of the beet industry. And lands on which such a crop can be produced, and in a position from which it can be expeditiously marketed, are the lands which are now being offered as an inducement for progressive and intelligent farmers to come into this section and make homes.—Eddy Argus.

[From the old deacon's standpoint.]

Dat de mountains had a r'ruption, en de lava on de run.
Dey none er dem kin 'plain it, en it ain't a bit er use.

But de changes whar de sun is means dat hell broke loose!

He bluster en he blin' me 'fo' dey blow de dinner ho'n.
En he better now dan ever, on it does ain't say use.

Now, heah's de way ter tink it: When a sin-ner's day is done,
En de devil reach en git him, en des pitch him in de sun.
His soul—it makes de black spot. Ain't it plain ter any goose?

Reflections of a Bachelor.

At a certain age every girl gets an idea that it is cultured to rave over cut glass. When you tease a woman, she will always smile as if she enjoyed it till you get near enough to reach. A cat acts the same way.

As soon as a man begins to be sorry he got married he begins to try to trap his wife into admitting it. The best points in a story are the ones you think you would have put in if you had told it instead of the other man.

The easiest way to make a bitter enemy of a man is to tell him a good story and then get it off at a dinner before he has a chance to.

Every woman thinks she can make a man happy, and every man thinks he can fix the drawer in the kitchen table so it won't stick.

When a girl can't buy a piece of ribbon without wondering whether a certain man will like it, it is time for her to begin to wear things she knows he hates.—New York Press.

'Tis Even So.

Mr. Wildwest—I suppose it's all right, but I can't help feeling that this continual presence of a chaperon is a reflection on my character.

Miss Two Seasons—Oh, nonsense! It's lots more fun this way. Out west you are on your honor while here you shift the entire responsibility for your conduct upon the chaperon. She'll be asleep in a moment.—Harlem Life.

Books For All Purposes.
"What a beautiful library you have!" exclaimed the visitor. "You can never be lonely with so many beautiful and expensive books about you."

"Oh," replied Mrs. Cunnors complacently, "you don't see all that we have!"

"Indeed!"

"Yes. We have any number of books with paper backs that we read."—Washington Star.

Sudden Revelation.
"For heaven's sake! What have you been doing, Tommy?"

"Been swimmin', mamma."

"You bad boy! I'll skin you alive! What on earth!"

"The ice broke with me."

"Come to mamma's arms, my darling boy! What would mamma have done without her precious?" etc.—Chicago Tribune.

194 separate analysis, chiefly carload lots, showed AN AVERAGE of 17.01 per cent sugar in beet; 84.1 per cent purity.

THIS REMARKABLE RESULT was accomplished by raw farmers, unacquainted with the culture of beet root, on new land and under very trying circumstances, as the factory was not assured until May, and a majority of the acreage was planted between JUNE 1st and AUGUST 10th.

GOOD SOIL makes the seed germinate. WATER makes the plant grow. SUNLIGHT puts the sugar in the BEET.

THE ONLY THING left to be desired that the Pecos Valley has not on hand in abundance is PEOPLE. We need thrifty farmers; 500 heads of families each on a 40-acre farm.

The Ruined California Grape Crop.

The partial loss of the grape crop this year, caused by the heavy rains, is estimated to exceed $1,000,000. Farmers and vineyardists all over the northern part of the state have suffered. While this is true, it is equally a fact that lost and falling strength may be restored by the persistent, systematic use of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which renews and tones the activity of the stomach, liver and bowels, counteracts a tendency to rheumatism and kidney complaint, and prevents malarial disorders. After exhausting diseases have run their course, recovery is greatly accelerated by the use of the Bitters, which improves appetite and imparts renewed vigor to the debilitated physique.

The remedy is intended specially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects; of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it cures that disease of all dangerous consequences. It is especially prized by mothers for children as it never fails to effect a speedy cure, and because they have found that there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. Sold by A. C. Ireland.

The Mean Man.

"What is the difference," asked the boarder with a passion for idiotic conundrums, "between a very young girl and a very old boy?"
"A very young girl," the Mean Man hastened to answer, "generally is the very old boy."

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. ## THE DISPATCHER.

"I will never dispatch another train as long as I live. I grew up in a telegraph office, as messenger boy, operator and dispatcher, and handled a 'rick' for many years, but since one year ago tonight I have not been inside of a telegraph office, and the very tick of the instrument makes me shudder."

He spoke an old train dispatcher a short time ago. He is a man who has the reputation of being one of the best train dispatchers in the country, and previous to the accident which he related he had never made an error. Although the trainmen said he could make a closer meeting point than any other man in the business, he was considered safe and careful.

"It was a hard night," continued the dispatcher. "The snow was blowing over the whole division, and all of the cuts were drifted full. The passenger trains from the western division were late, and there were a number of trains moving, and they were all calling for orders. Collins, the night train man, had been doing the best he could with the situation, and he was a good man, too, but when I came on at 4 o'clock in the morning the train sheet was a puzzle. No. 4, the through train from the coast, was received about midnight from the west, so that when I came to work she was pretty well over the district."

"She had been laid out a number of minutes meeting a snowplow, which was being sent west with all possible haste, but aside from that and a few minutes' delay caused by slippery rails, she was nearly on time. No. 7, the midnight express, going west, was, however, over two hours late, so that when Collins left the track he had made no meeting point between the two passenger trains. When things are so badly mixed up as they were that night, a man does not make meeting points any farther ahead than he is obliged to, for many things are liable to occur to spoil the combination."

"I had been up during the night with my two babies, who were ill, and my wife was also sick, so that when I went to work in the early morning I was pretty sleepy. It was all my fault, I presume, even though they do say I am not technically responsible. As I entered the office Collins was sitting at the desk, and from the manner in which he puffed his pipe I could tell he had been having all he could handle. As I dusted the snow from my clothes and put on my office coat Collins arose from his chair and after greeting me and mentioning the storm he said, 'No. 4 is just reported past Dwightville.' 'All right,' I answered, not looking to see whether it had been put on the train sheet."

"After explaining a few of the orders he had given Collins put on his overcoat and cap and went out into the night. Seating myself at the desk, I glanced over the train sheet and figured up several orders to be given. I guess I had been thinking about my sick family. I don't know what else could have been in my mind, certainly my work was not, when I called the operator at C., and he copied an order making a meeting point at Dwightville between Nos. 4 and No. 7."

"As the operator at F., the first night office the other side of Dwightville, did not answer, I sent the order first to C., with the intention of later repeating it at F. I then made another meeting point between the snowplow and a freight train on the west and settled back in my chair to enjoy a smoke. There was no one around save the operator in the outer office, and he was asleep. I called F. station, but could not raise it. I called Dwightville, but could not get an answer. Time was getting short, and I grew nervous. Presently Dwightville called 'D.' and I answered, when the instrument conveyed to my ears 'Telegraphic accident report.'"

"It struck terror to my heart, and I almost lost my self control. Then followed the report in all its harrowing details as best the operator in his nervous haste could send it. No. 4 had met No. 7 in a cut east of Dwightville, and as the engineers were running through the cut at full speed to strike with their own plows any drift that might have been there the collision was a terrible one. The engineer and fireman on the '81' of No. 4 were killed instantly, while the men on the '87' of No. 7 were both badly injured, and the mail car was overturned and burned with the postal clerk in it."

"My pen fell from my hand. I could not sleep, and I called the operator, who could do no better. I rang for the call boy, and sent over to the hotel for the superintendent, and the wrecking outfit was got out after considerable delay. Hell itself would have no greater terror for me than did those moments. I stood as if in a trance, and words can never express the feeling of horror that came over me."

"It makes me shudder to relate it, and I shall never get over a feeling of guilt that haunts me day and night. The passengers were badly shaken up, but none of them was injured. The thought that I had been responsible for the death of two of my own friends and acquaintances and by my carelessness had brought grief to the family of the postal clerk almost drove me mad. I left the office that morning for the last time. The catastrophe so unnerved me that I doubt if I could even handle a key."

"The accident was a shock to the community. An inquest was held at which I was entirely exonerated of blame, and the superintendent requested me to return to work, but all that does not relieve my feelings. Collins tendered his resignation the next day, and I have lost all trace of him. You see, he had received the report over the wire that No. 4 had passed Dwightville, but did not put it on the train sheet. He told me of the report, and I forgot it, so that we were both responsible for the accident and its terrible results. That was one year ago tonight, but every year I shall probably live over again those terrible morning hours as long as I live."—Exchange.

Sleep and the Poies.

The superstition that human beings should sleep with their heads to the north is believed by the French to have its foundation in scientific fact. They affirm that each human system is in itself an electric battery, the head being one of the electrodes, the feet the other. Their proof was discovered from experiments which the Academy of Sciences was allowed to make on the body of a man who was guillotined. The head of the instant it fell and placed upon a pivot free to move as it might. The head part, after a little vacillation, turned to the north, and the body then remained stationary. It was turned half way round by one of the professors, and again the head end of the trunk moved slowly to the cardinal point due north, the same results being repeated until the final arrestation of organic movement.—London Globe.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by A. C. Ireland.

THAT ANGEL CHILD.

Johnnie Wise and His Too Clever Letter to Santa Claus.

"I'm going to write a letter to Santa Claus after dinner, dearest," said little Johnnie Wise, tucking his fauntlerous curls in his bib preparatory to eating soup. "All right, angel child," cooed the fond mother, swelling up with maternal pride like a balloon. And after dinner she brought out her handsome Russia leather writing desk, Klondike pen, etc., and urged him to go ahead and write his letter."

"Yes, indeed," said Papa Wise, with a paternal pat. "Santa Claus likes to get letters from good little boys."

"Are you sure he will get it?" anxiously asked Johnnie.

"Sure, quite sure," chuckled papa, nudging Mrs. Wise in the side. "All right, then, if he's going to get it," said Johnnie. "Here goes:"
"DEAR SANTA CLAUS—I am only a little boy just learning to write, and I hope you will excuse me this time. I wrote this letter to ask for a few things I hope you will bring me at Christmas. They are a bicycle, with a silver lamp just like Jimmy Jones, a green sweater with yellow stripes, a goat that won't eat clothes off the line and a cat, some candy, a sled, skates, some more candy, a revolver, a kodak, lots of boys' books, some more candy, a music box, and—some more candy."

"Haw! Haw!" laughed Mr. Wise. "Very good, Johnnie, very good. Now, hadn't you better write a postscript?"
"All right," said Johnnie thoughtfully. "You're sure Santa Claus will get it?"
"Yes, indeed," mirthfully murmured his father.

"P. S.—And now, dear Santa, if you don't bring everything I've asked for, I'll tell mamma I saw you kissing the cook."

"You're a bright boy, Johnnie," nervously muttered Mr. Wise. "Let me have the letter. I'll see that Santa Claus gets it."—New York Sunday Journal.

Invention Sorely Needed.

The "Lex Talionis Piano Flend Pulverizer."—When the girl next door has been torturing Wagner for five hours and is enjoying a well earned repose, you just wind up the L. T. P. P. for eight hours on your own piano and slip off for an evening at the theater.—Ally Sloper.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

The warm the early bird got had probably been out all night.

The women set a lot more store by kissing than the men. They get more out of it. By the time the average woman has learned what the referendum is she has quit fussing with politics.

After a man once begins noticing and talking about a girl's hair he has to keep it up all the time or she gets hurt. The women are probably wearing hair nets again just to see how much the men will stand before they begin on the bustle. When a young man makes up his mind to be forgiving and gentle with his wife in everything, he seldom thinks about pillow shams.—New York Press.

The Last Trump.

At a whist party in which Dickens was a participant a lady seated near him aroused from a slight nap by a player who struck the table with emphasis as he took the last trick with the king of trumps. Dickens turned to her said:

"My dear madam, you look awfully like one of the rimes to the day of judgment."

"Why?" said she.

"Because you were awakened by the sound of the last trump."—Nuggets.

Miss Goodgirl—What are you thinking of so intently?
Young Gayboy—Well, if you must know, I was thinking what time you would be if I should suddenly grab you and kiss you.

Miss Goodgirl—Oh, Mr. Gayboy, how terrible for you to have such thoughts when no one in the world could possibly come to my assistance!—Harlem Life.

Bachelor Brother-in-law—That accounts for it.—Roxbury Gazette.

A man has to have pluck to make a success of anything. A man must have the backbone to take knock-down blows and get up again and again and fight on. Pluck and stamina are largely a question of good health. It only takes one knock-down blow to finish a man with a headache. It only takes a small setback to disconcert a nervous and shaky man. A bilious headache may go into bankruptcy at the first embarrassment. A nervous man who does not sleep at night and gets up shaky in the morning gives up the battle of business at the first discouragement. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of all health-makers and health-keepers. It makes pure, rich blood; it forces out all impurities and disease germs. It does not make any difference what the disease may be called, so long as it has its inception in improper or insufficient nourishment—this great medicine will cure it. It may be called dyspepsia, kidney disease, "liver complaint," skin or blood disease, or nervous prostration—all these have the same starting point. The "Golden Medical Discovery" reaches that point. It will cure these diseases absolutely. None of them can retain their hold on the system when the arteries are filled with rich, pure blood. "I am 55 years old," writes Mr. F. G. Bledsoe, of Jacksonville, Mo., "for 25 years I suffered from torpid liver, constipation and indigestion which severely affected my nerves. Had to make my bed by hard work. I would keep on until I would have to give up. Sometimes my friends would pick me up and carry me to bed. What little sleep I could get was troubled with horrible dreams. I took six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It relieved me in my back and between my shoulders, braced up my nerves, and today I am a well man."

WILL DOUBTLESS BE PARDONED.

Governor Otero Has Under Consideration
Applications for Pardon in Behalf of Convicts Binder and De Coar—Pardons Urged by Influential People—Trial Judge Doubts
Their Guilt.

Governor Otero is investigating the cases of Frank Binder, sentenced to the penitentiary from Dona Ana county for the larceny of a horse to 15 months, and Harry De Coar, sentenced to 18 months for the same crime. About a year ago four men on the road from San Juan county to Mexico were convicted of the larceny of a horse in Dona Ana county. They claimed to have traded for the horse in their possession, but as they had no other evidence and were too poor to appeal, they took their sentences and were sent to the penitentiary as follows: Arthur Griffith, nine months, since released; Wm. M. Blair, 12 months, since released, having served their terms. A strong effort is now being made for the pardon of Frank Binder. Petitions from Colorado, where these men have lived, have been presented to the governor. In Binder's case they are signed by Governor Wm. M. Blair, Justice of the Peace, of the State Supreme Court, Judge Stevens, of the Seventh district, ex-Lieutenant Governor Wm. Story, the members of the legislature of the district, the members of the bar of the district, the county and ex-county officials of the county and by many of the citizens of the community wherein the Binders lived for many years and where they are well known.

The trial judge, ex-Associate Justice Gideon D. Bantz, has also addressed the following letter to the executive:

Hon. M. A. Otero, Governor of New Mexico.
Santa Fe, N. M., March 1, 1898.
Dear Sir: I am in receipt of a letter from J. P. Cassidy, of Ridgway, Colo., on behalf of one, Frank Binder, confined in the penitentiary at Santa Fe under sentence for horse stealing in Dona Ana county, and whose term will expire in about three months. Mr. Cassidy informs me of the substance of the recommendations sent to you, in which Binder is given a very fine reputation by his former neighbors.

At the time of the trial there was no evidence to show who Binder and his associates were or where they came from, except their own testimony. I am satisfied that if testimony as to character and antecedents, such as is now presented, had been produced at the trial it would have had a great influence in his favor. However, that may be, four months in the penitentiary for the stealing of the horse, and all have served terms longer than common, and I think the ends of justice would be subserved by pardoning Frank Binder at this time. I may also say that the evidence against Binder was circumstantial, and from his appearance and demeanor he did not seem to me to belong to the law-breaking class. Under all the circumstances I recommend that a pardon be granted to him by your excellency.

Very respectfully,

Gideon D. Bantz,

Judge presiding at Binder's trial.
It is more than likely that a pardon will be issued, in view of the circumstances and the recommendation of Judge Bantz, to Binder and also to De Coar, as the executive believes that the ends of justice in the cases, if the men were guilty, have been fully satisfied and as grave doubts have arisen as to their guilt. The case of De Coar, being exactly like Binder's case, is also being considered and it is believed will also be acted upon favorably.

The collector of San Juan county has not yet made a return to the territorial treasurer of his tax collections for the month of January. He is the only delinquent in this important respect in the territory.

The business men and property owners of Santa Fe will make a serious mistake if they fail to secure the establishment of daily stage and mail service between this city and Bland by the time the robins begin to sing in the historic plaza.

The 60 days' advertisement of the application for patent on the Albemarle group of mines in the Cochiti district will expire tomorrow. After that day, upon filing the required proof of publication and paying $5 an acre for the land embraced in the claims, the owners will be entitled to receiver's receipts for the valuable properties.

The home talent concert given at the A. M. E. church on Johnson street, last night, was a most gratifying success both musically and financially. The fact that the little church was crowded to its utmost capacity is amply attested by the fact that the net receipts of the entertainment were about $43, and everyone in attendance agrees that the vocal and instrumental music was fine. Choice refreshments were served after the concert. The proceeds were applied on the worthy pastor's salary.

The establishment and successful operation of a beet sugar factory at Santa Fe, combined with the added business incident to the active and extensive development of the great mines in the Golden Cochiti and the south Santa Fe county gold districts, can be made to multiply the population and business of the Capital City by at least two during the next 18 months. The inviting opportunity is presented. Will the people of Santa Fe embrace it?

DR. WURTH'S OPINION

OF THE NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE.

A Remarkably Successful Remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Stomach Troubles.

Dr. Wurth, in commenting on recent discoveries in medicine, said: There is none which is certain to be so valuable and far-reaching in benefit as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. The new stomach remedy; I say far-reaching, because people little realize how important a sound stomach and vigorous digestion is to every man, woman and child.

Indigestion is the starting point of consumption, heart disease, Bright's disease, diabetes, nervous prostration, liver troubles; why is this? Simply because every nerve, muscle and tissue in our bodies is created and nourished from the food we eat. If that food is, by reason of a weak stomach, compelled to lie for a long time, fermenting mass of half digested food, it poisons the blood and nervous system, creates gas which distends the stomach and bowels, causing pressure on the heart, lungs and other organs and seriously impeding their action.

He says further, the point to direct attention is not the nerves, nor heart, nor lungs nor kidneys, but the stomach, the first cause of all the mischief.

The remedy to use for indigestion and weak stomachs is not some cathartic, but a remedy which will digest the food, increase the flow of gastric juice, absorb the gases, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will accomplish exactly this result in any case of stomach trouble, because these tablets are composed of the digestive acids, ascorbic pepsin, Golden Seal and Bismuth, pleasant to taste, and not being a purgative, can be used by anyone with perfect safety. I believe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any form of indigestion and stomach trouble except cancer of stomach.

Full size packages of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents. A book on stomach diseases together with thousands of testimonials will be sent by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

NEW MEXICO SALT LAKE.

Immense Quantities of Salt Annually Produced by Evaporation at a Wonderful Lake South of Santa Fe.

The Salt lake situated about 72 miles south of Santa Fe is a wonder within itself. It is over a mile in extent, forming a veritable salt basin, and is fed by subterranean or natural artesian action. The brine is of such strength that it forms thousands upon thousands of tons of coarse granulated salt by the simple process of evaporation, while from all parts of the country come wagons which are loaded with the salt by simply shoveling it into the wagons. An old tradition says at one time, during the reign of the Spaniards, an Indian prisoner was told that if he would wade across the lake to the four cardinal points of the compass, backwards and forwards and take soundings with the salt, he would be liberated. He accordingly undertook to free himself, and near the center, upon several occasions, he suddenly disappeared and as suddenly popped up like a cork and swam to a shallow place, exhausted and nearly drowned, while his sounding line of many yards long with lead attached disappeared in the subterranean depth of the lake. That there is an unlimited amount of rock salt formed by natural evaporation there is no doubt whatever, while the subterranean flow of brine could never be reduced, but to the contrary increased, should the great basin be drained of its liquid so as to give the natural artesian action more force.
