100 ENTOMBED IN STARKVILLE MINE OF SANTA FE RAILROAD NEAR TRINIDAD COLORADO

ENTIRE NIGHT SHIFT UNDERGROUND WITH SMALL CHANCE OF ESCAPING FROM STIFLING GASEOUS FUMES

Explosion Late Last Night Blocks Entrance and Cuts Off Escape of Miners Unless They Can Reach Board Partition Which Separates Workings From Engleville Property; Rescue Parties Are Unable to Enter Mine to Render Assistance; Officials, Doctors and Nurses Hasten on Special Trains to Scene of Disaster, While Helpless Families of Miners Wait at Mine Entrance.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 8.—Between 50 and 125 men are entombed in the Starkville mine, eight miles from here, the result of an explosion which occurred about 10:20 o'clock tonight. The explosion completely destroyed the old slope of the mine and the new slope is so thoroughly filled with gas and black damp that entrance of rescue parties by this route is impossible.

There is hope for the entombed miners, however, from the fact that the Engleville mine is connected with the Starkville mine through underground workings and that the board partition separating them, the two mines run together several months ago in the process of operation, and the point of contact between the two main slopes was partitioned off.

The presence of gas and black damp in the new slope, the only one remaining open, gives rise to fears that the whole mine is filled with the deadly gas and black damp, and that the men could not have had time to reach the partition dividing the two mines before being overcome, as the gas must have filled the mine before finding an outlet through the new slope.

Hundreds of men from neighboring camps and from this city, together with physicians and nurses, were hurried to the scene of the disaster and the board partition of the Starkville mine was taken down and the rescue parties will endeavor to enter the mine as soon as it is safe to do so.

The Starkville mine has not been working a night shift until recently, when the demand for its output became so heavy that the day shift could not meet it. Then a night shift was put in. It is difficult to say just how many men were working when the explosion occurred, but indications were that the slope was filled.

The day shift going into the mine at night so make the extra time. Telephonic reports from Starkville tonight are to the effect that the old slope is in ruins. The debris of the month of this slope had been cleared away for a distance of fifty feet, and indications were that the slope was filled.

While practically all the miners working in the Starkville mine are from foreign birth, many have been in this country for twenty to twenty-five years, and a large portion of them have been working in the Starkville mine ever since it began operations in 1902.

The mine is the property of the Santa Fe railroad, but is operated by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

MAIN ENTRANCE AND EXITS WRECKED
Denver, Oct. 8.—A long distance telephone conversation with Starkville tonight disclosed the information that the explosion in the Starkville mine had blown up the main entrance and much of the lower workings. Between sixty and eighty men were trapped in the mine. The telephone line failed after a moment's conversation and Starkville could not be reached again.

Before the line failed, however, it was learned that men had been summoned from all the neighboring camps to assist in rescue work. The condition of the main entrance would indicate that the force of the explosion was terrific and makes it seem impossible that any of the men inside the mine could have escaped death.

Starkville is connected with Trinidad by the Colorado & Wyoming railroad, which is owned by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, and an electric line, neither of which are operated here at night.

Special trains were ordered to the scene of the disaster and many persons from Trinidad left for Starkville in automobiles.

MINE OWNED BY SANTA FE RAILROAD
Denver, Oct. 8.—The Starkville mine of the Santa Fe railroad and worked by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, in which an explosion is reported to have occurred tonight, extending from fifty to a hundred miners, is one of the largest owned by that company. It supplies great quantities of coal to the Santa Fe railroad. Several fires have occurred in this mine, one of which lasted for several months, necessitating closing down operations and sealing the mine in order to subside the fires.

At midnight no official information had been received at headquarters of the fuel and iron company, and Cass J. Harrington, chief counsel and head of the claim department of the company, had heard nothing except what was contained in newspaper dispatches.

all at first were inclined to doubt the report of the men being killed in the explosion. However, a local newspaper that an explosion in the mine had entombed a number of miners, compelled them to give credence, and Mr. Harrington said that possibly night shifts had been put to work because of the demand for coal coming with the approach of winter.

Starkville is a typical coal mining camp with the houses of the miners forming practically the entire town. Trinidad, seven miles away, affords the nearest hospital facilities and to that place must any injured be taken for treatment.

TWO POSTOFFICE ROBBERS ARRESTED

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 8.—Two men arrested here charged with robbing the Postoffice at Chickasha, Okla., are expected also of having robbed banks at Buffalo, Texas, and at Frankston, Texas.

The men gave the names of J. S. Morgan and J. C. Adams, but officers could not find them. Harry Williams and Walter Bennett, respectively.

DEITZ SURRENDERS AFTER RESISTING SIX YEARS

Wisconsin Man Gives Up to Officers Who Besieged His Home; One is Dead and Four Wounded.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Winter, Wis., Oct. 8.—"If papa comes out will you promise not to shoot him? He is shot through the hand and wants to surrender."

These words, spoken to Sheriff Mike Madden at the edge of the clearing surrounding the besieged home by little Helen, youngest daughter of John F. Deitz, brought to an end this afternoon the stubborn resistance of the man who stood for the last six years against what he considered injustice has attracted widespread interest.

The surrender did not come, however, until death and bloodshed. One man is dead, four men and a woman are wounded and much property has been destroyed. The dead, OSCAR BARR, 35 years of age, deputy sheriff.

The injured, John F. Deitz, 48 years old, defender of Cameron dam, shot through the hand. Chet Colpitts, 35, deputy, right ear shot off. William Rankin, aged 38, ear grazed by bullet.

Clarence Deitz, shot through arm. Myra Deitz, shot through body, will recover. The last two named children of John Deitz, were shot last week.

Harp was found on a hill behind the Deitz cabin with a bullet hole in his head. Deitz was wounded during the afternoon, when a bullet went through a crack in the barn and passed through his left hand.

To Father Joseph Pilon, a priest, he said that a baby was about to be born to his wife and he feared that both she and the infant might die. A short consultation followed the little girl's appearance and Deputy Heflinger volunteered to go back with the girl. In the meantime Pilon, a priest in his own right, was to bring the child to an end and had started running toward the cabin. He waved a handkerchief at her and, unobtrusively, entered the door. When Helen and Heflinger broke a telephone wire, the girl's finger got hurt and the child they met the priest returning. He did not stop, but hurried in to meet Sheriff Heflinger.

"Deitz will surrender," said the priest, "but he wants a doctor to dress his wound and he desires to talk with the newspaper men."

The sheriff said: "If he wants to surrender let him come out with his hands over his head."

fully to the newspaper men. He posed for several pictures.

"Will you give me in yesterday when assured of a fair trial by the attorney general?" he was asked.

"They kept on changing their plans," he replied, "and I did what I could depend upon and besides, we thought we would have lasted it out and we could have but for the little baby we expect. I am not glad it is over. We have lived all right. You might go into the house, though, and see what we have left."

While the arrest was being made the little girl and boy clung to their weeping mother, and Leslie, who was wounded in the hip, sat sulkily in a chair.

J. C. Davis, district attorney of Sawyer county, said tonight there were enough warrants out against Deitz to send him to prison for the rest of his life, if he was convicted. In the little cabin broken jars and dishes lay scattered on the floor, struck by bullets of which more than 2,000 had been fired during the day.

Railers lay on the floor, having been hit after striking against the wall. It was a miracle that the entire family was not wiped out. Although there is some feeling in Winter because of the killing of Harp, the feeling is rather calm, and more that he long conspired over and Deitz has been captured.

The whole Deitz family was brought to Winter in an automobile, but John Deitz, his wife and his son Leslie, later were taken to Hayward, the county seat, for safekeeping. Mrs. Deitz broke down and weepingly asked the reporters to say that she and the children did not fire a shot.

"If I could get away with Leslie, I would," she said, "but we would all have been dead before morning," she said.

Mrs. Deitz is under arrest with Leslie on warrants of four years standing, charging assault with intent to commit murder. She was also taken to Hayward tonight. The small children will be taken care of by friends.

Five of the deputies who were on guard at the Deitz cabin had not returned tonight. Fifty men and snatching the woods and the clearing around the cabin by means of lanterns and searchlights as it is feared the missing men may have been killed during the firing.

GEORGIA EXTENDS
ROOSEVELT

Colonel Tells Southerners to Save Their Natural Wealth and Praises Joel Chandler Harris.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—Theodore Roosevelt came into Georgia today and found a hearty welcome. He was greeted at Atlanta by crowds which blocked the streets, hundreds of the rain, and cheered him. He rode at the head of a parade. Earlier in the day he spent several hours at Rome, Ga., inspecting the Martha Berry school for poor mountain boys and girls, and in speaking to another crowd.

Colonel Roosevelt made three speeches in Atlanta. His first was at the Southern Hotel. He praised the people of the south to take care of their natural wealth and said that the country's resources should fall into the hands of a monopoly the people would regret.

After taking dinner with Mayor Maddox, he spoke at the Uncle Remus day celebration which is being held to raise a fund to purchase the home of the late and Charles Harris, author of the Uncle Remus stories, and preserve it as a memorial to his work. After speaking of the achievements of Harris, Colonel Roosevelt talked of conservation. He talked to the negroes of Atlanta in a negro church.

Roosevelt tonight disclaimed responsibility for the tariff plank in the New York state platform. In doing so, he repudiated a criticism which has been directed against him, particularly by "insurgents" of the west, to the effect that he talked one kind of politics in the west and another kind in the east. This criticism was based largely on the fact that while he did not endorse the Payne tariff law in any of his western speeches, the tariff plank of the New York republican platform commanded the bulk.

Colonel Roosevelt sought to make it clear in his speeches that he had not endorsed the Payne law, but that he did not agree with the New York tariff plank. He said that he was in accord with his speech as temporary chairman of the New York republican convention in the Payne law, but did not intend to endorse it. Colonel Roosevelt's speech was delivered at the Uncle Remus day celebration here.

BALLOONIST FALLS
100 FEET TO GROUND
St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 8.—While making an ascent in a balloon at Easton, Mo., a short distance east of St. Joseph, John Richard of Elkwood, Kan., fell 100 feet when the rope holding his parachute to the balloon broke. A telephone wire, however, broke it and he fell. The lower part of his body was completely paralyzed and he was internally hurt. He is in a precarious condition. This was Richard's first serious accident. He is thirteen years experience as a balloonist.

Mexican War Veteran Dies
St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 8.—W. Boone Baker, 85 years old, a native of Kentucky, whose regiment fired the first shot at the battle of Buena Vista, in the Mexican war, died here tonight. He was the Salt Lake City manager of the old Pony Express company and served through the Civil war in the Confederate army, surrendering at Austin, Texas, following the battle of the war. He was an uncle of Attorney General Eliot of Missouri.

THIRTY DEAD ALL POLITICAL IN FLAMING FORESTS

PROPERTY LOSS WILL REACH MANY MILLIONS PORTUGUESE PRESS ALSO GIVEN LIBERTY

Fires Sweep Minnesota and Canada; Destroyed Towns and Making Thousands of People Homeless.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 8.—Word received this afternoon from burning towns along the Canadian border is that at least thirty lives and millions of dollars in property have been lost by forest fires. The Canadian Northern cancelled all trains out of Winnipeg and Port Arthur today, and word has been received by the company that many dead bodies, many of them with the clothing burned off entirely, have been found along the tracks.

Two thousand people are crowded into Rainy River and the Canadian Northern is sending a special train of box cars and provisions from Port William.

Superintendent Wilson's train on its way from Port Arthur is reported to have gone into a bridge, and this probably will delay relief.

BELIEVE DEATH LIST WILL REACH FORTY

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—The Canadian Northern railway estimated the loss of life in the forest fires between Rainy River and Warroad at forty all being settlers and their families. The fires are still burning furiously.

The Canadian Northern officials admit that the train from Duluth, due in this city this morning, is still in the fire zone and it is impossible to say when it may be got through.

THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE ARE WITHOUT HOMES
St. Paul, Oct. 8.—"Headnote and Spooner wiped out. Three thousand people homeless. Must have immediate relief."

The above telegram from Mayor Williams of Headnote sent from Rainy River, Minn., to Governor Egan, and his request for aid, was received by the executive and a mass meeting has been called for tomorrow to arrange for relief.

Many People Homeless
St. Paul, Oct. 8.—The Associated Press late this afternoon received the following message from C. A. Moody, mayor of Warroad, Minn.: "The public is urgently called upon to aid the residents of this country which is burning from Warroad to Rainy River. The people are homeless. Refugees are flocking in to Warroad."

OVERHEARD A PLOT TO SLAY PRESIDENT
Milbury, Mass., Oct. 8.—An alleged scheme for the assassination of President Taft was unfolded to Miss Della C. Torrey, aunt of the president, by a stranger who called at her home here today. The man, who refused to give his name, claimed to have overheard the plotters while in Boston. As he departed he threatened to return and kill Miss Torrey if the matter got into the newspapers.

Gunboat Goes to Honduras
Washington, Oct. 8.—Responding to an appeal from the Honduras government to the state department, the United States gunboat Triton left today for Annapolis, a revolutionary force, to look after American interests. It should report there in a couple of days.

TEXAS LAND DEALER CHARGED WITH FORGERY
Seattle, Wash., Oct. 8.—R. W. Montgomery, a well known real estate man of Fort Worth, Texas, today was arrested by operatives of a private detective agency upon a charge of forgery. Montgomery, who left Fort Worth several months ago, is said to have swindled the banks of Fort Worth out of $10,000 by forging the names of his business partner, W. P. Fletcher, and of his father, C. M. Montgomery, to promissory notes which he discounted at the banks.

Montgomery was traced from Fort Worth to Kansas City, where he disappeared and remained hidden until recently, when the detective located him in Seattle. He is being held pending the arrival of an officer from Texas.

LORIMER TESTIMONY BROUGHT TO AN END
Chicago, Oct. 8.—The senate subcommittee of the committee on privileges and elections after listening to the testimony of witnesses for twelve consecutive days, closed its inquiry into the election of Senator William Lorimer today and adjourned subject to the call of Senator Burrows. The next session of the committee will be in Washington, probably after congress convenes, which briefs of counsel on both sides will be in the hands of the senators. Chairman Burrows announced that the committee might decide to hear other witnesses.

People Accept Republican Government Calmly; Troops Attack Clergy, Killing One and Arresting Others in Monastery

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Lisbon, Oct. 8.—The proclamation of the republic of Portugal is being received by the people in a matter of fact way. While order has been in a measure restored, the fear still prevails that the attacks against the religious establishments may become more frequent. The most marked feature of the situation now is resentment shown by a portion of the population against the clergy. Last night republican troops attacked the Jesuit monastery in the town of Queluz after they had been fired on from the windows. One priest was killed and the others were placed under arrest. The hoisting of the British flag over the building had the effect of checking the fire of the troops.

The government has granted amnesty in the case of all political crimes and has revived a former law increasing the liberty of the press. It has ordered the payment of money to functionaries and has changed the old oath in the form of mere promise on the part of officials "to accomplish their duties on their honor."

An extension of ten days has been granted for the settlement of pending legal affairs. Authentic reports of the flight of the sovereign, show that the queen mother, Amelie, who was at the palace at Lisbon, followed the royal family in communication with the Neapolitan police, the tumultuous passage of the revolt. Her anxiety increased until she was informed that King Manuel had left by automobile for Madrid. Harriedly getting a few personal effects, the queen mother fled to Madrid and joined her son. In the meantime, according to arrangements made by the revolutionaries, Prince Alfonso had embarked on the imperial yacht Amalie at Cascaes. The Amalie sailed for Brazil, where it arrived Wednesday afternoon. Presently automobiles occupied by King Manuel and his queen mother, accompanied by a squadron of cavalry and accompanied by the queen's ladies of honor who were dressed in deep black. The queen and her ladies were accompanied by two small trucks. King Manuel, who was wearing a suit of cheviot and a green hat, took his place in the second hotel. He appeared downcast. As he turned his back on the shore, he waved his hand and said slowly: "Adieu forever."

A heavy sea was running when the little craft put out and one of the fishermen made a suggestion that the queen mother should not leave upon the junk, as it was dirty. Amalie replied indifferently: "That is of no consequence."

ARIZONA DELEGATES WILL CONVENE MONDAY

Fight is Expected Over Election of President in Constitutional Convention Which Begins Its Labors Tomorrow.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 8.—Almost all of the fifty-two members of the constitutional convention which convenes Monday, have arrived. Conference and caucus of the various county delegations are being held at the hotel tonight.

The absorbing topic among the delegates is the probable make-up of the permanent organization, particularly as to the presidency, for which there are half a dozen candidates.

While the present plenary delegates are divided by geographical lines, the ultimate division probably will be between the progressives and conservatives among the delegates who have a majority of thirty, and a warm contest is expected before a selection of president is made.

The progressive faction is headed by George W. P. Hunt of Globe, Milford Winslow of Yuma, with E. E. Ellwood of Bisbee, marshaling the conservative forces. The convention will be called to order Monday noon, probably by Judge A. C. Baker, former chief justice of the Arizona supreme court.

GAYNOR REFUSES TO CONSIDER CHANCE AT PRESIDENCY

New York Mayor Says He Will Never Be Candidate and Intimates He May Retire From Office.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Oct. 8.—"Never" is the word used by Mayor Gaynor at refusing the suggestion that he has the presidency in mind. The emphatic term he employs in a letter to James Crookman, a close friend, through whom he publicly declined the democratic nomination for governor. This letter is published in the Evening Mail tonight. It is dated September 25 and after expressing the writer's views on the governorship, says:

"I am now worn with anxiety. The shock I received has proved more permanent than I had supposed possible and my voice comes back only slowly. I am not certain that I can ever again bear the strain of the mayoralty."

"As for myself or political future, I shall not consider that at all. Mr. Watson is in error in supposing that I am the president-elect. I am never. And it is too late for me to begin shaping my course for any ambitious future. And when a man has gone down into the valley of the shadow of death, he has no business to think of the future. I am ready, nothing in this world looks very large to him as I can assure you."

"You will have a hard time reading this letter, as my shoulder and collarbone are still disabled, owing to the injured neck muscles which support them."

Notwithstanding, Mr. Crookman's opinion of the mayor's condition, Dr. William J. Arter of St. Mary's hospital, Hoboken, certified to President Gaynor of Hudson county tonight that there was no danger of fatal results from the mayor's wounds. Mr. Gaynor has assured him, he said, that he is out of danger. With this assurance the Hudson county grand jury will proceed with the case of James J. Gallagher, the mayor's assailant. It is expected he will be indicted next week.

LARGER NAVY FOR PACIFIC PLANNED

California Governor Invites Western States to Participate in Conference.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Governor N. # A CORPORATION COMMISSION IS MEETING APPROVAL

Discussions at Sub Committee in Meeting Indicate That Convention Will Favor Plan as Now Proposed.

COMMITTEE PREPARED FOR BIG GRIST OF WORK

Mondays and Thursdays Is Decided on for Public Hearings Which Will Undoubtedly Be Interesting.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)
Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 7.—That the establishment of a corporation commission in the new state of New Mexico by constitutional provision will meet with favor in the convention is indicated by the result of the meeting held this morning in the Palace Hotel of the sub committee on corporations other than municipal. Chairman H. A. Burrows called the committee to order, with the following members present: T. H. Catron, Gregory Page, M. L. Stern, H. M. Donahue, Reed Hoffman, C. C. Davidson, J. Lee Norton and J. D. Patterson.

Several phases of the questions to be handled by this committee were brought up and thoroughly discussed, all members having something to say on the matters at issue.

The consensus of opinion, it soon became apparent in the committee is in favor of the corporation commission plan. This fact disposes of the fear that there would be serious divisions on the corporation features of the constitution and it is believed that the committee represents the sentiment of the convention, both democrats and republicans and that the commission will have a very good chance of being established.

A series of public hearings in the senate chamber of the capitol will be held on Mondays and Thursdays beginning next Monday, by this committee and all persons who wish to voice their sentiments on that part of the work intrusted to this committee will have an opportunity to do so. It is expected that these hearings will be among the most interesting held during the progress of the convention and representatives of various corporate interests will undoubtedly be heard on both sides.

The sub committee on corporations other than municipal will have a big trial of work to accomplish before the convention is over but the members have no doubt that with careful determination and will undoubtedly make rapid progress.

ANTI-ELECTIONISTS
LEADERS LEAVE

Men Who Unsuccessfully Opposed Diaz in Recent Campaign Are Coming to United States to Live.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 8.—A general exodus into the United States and to Europe of those most active in opposing the re-election of President Diaz of Mexico is in progress. The leading Francisco Madero, the presidential candidate in opposition to Porfirio Diaz as the recent election, three of these known leaders of the so-called "anti-electionist" faction have arrived in San Antonio. None of them it is said, will return to Mexico.

Manned Chedenas, deposed as governor of the state of Coahuila after service extending over sixteen years, will make his home here. Another congressman, Ignacio M. Luchetti, is in declared will locate in St. Louis and will be joined by Congressman Benito Juarez, who is enroute to Washington to attend the international humane congress.

Cardenas was the chief lieutenant of General Diaz. Reyes in this effort to succeed to the vice-presidency has since left Mexico in exile.

MISS BORRADAILE IS WINNER OF SWANSDOWN FLOUR FAIR CONTEST

Four correct guesses were made on the weight of the big sack of swansdown flour which was in the fair exhibition building during the past week, Miss Rebecca Borradaile being the first to guess the correct weight, was awarded the $25.00 prize of flour, that being the correct number of pounds contained in the sack. Lucile Anyia was the next and received 100 pounds, while the other two, Mrs. N. Rogers and Geo. M. Shaw, of Clayton, N. M., were awarded 50 pounds each. Swansdown flour is the product of the La Junta Milling and Elevator company, and was on display by the famous Kelly company, the local distributors. There were 3000 guesses made on the flour during the week.

OUR POLICY NO. 6 FOR DISCUSSION ON TUESDAY

Restricting of Promiscuous Soliciting Is Matter to Come Before Commercial Club at Next Regular Session.

To Members of the Commercial Club:
There will be a regular meeting of the club held on Tuesday night, Oct. 11, at the club building to take up number six of "Our Policies," that of restricting the promiscuous soliciting of funds in Albuquerque and all business are urged to be present and take part in the discussion.
F. B. Schaeffer, President.
T. J. Navton, Secretary.

POLICY NUMBER SIX

OF INTEREST TO PUBLIC
The matter to be discussed at the regular meeting of the club Tuesday night is one in which every citizen and especially the business men and merchants in particular are interested. The practice of soliciting for all kinds of objects from the business men has assumed the proportions of a public burden and it is the aim of the club to take some measures whereby this evil may be restricted and only those who are approved by the club will be permitted to solicit. The president of the club is anxious to get all the ideas possible on the best way to handle the proposition and to that end urges all members of the club to turn out and participate in the discussion. The following well known men will make talks on the subject: Allen H. Wynn, J. B. Thompson, H. J. Stron, A. J. Mayo and C. C. Chisholm. Following the meeting a committee will be appointed to draft a working plan to combat that evil, the same method being followed as in the taking up of previous policies in the past adopted by the club at its first reorganization meeting.

MOTHER ASKS FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR DEATH OF SON

San Antonio, N. M., Oct. 7.—Mrs. N. C. Price, proprietor of the Tilton hotel here, has filed for lapin, in eastern Texas where she has filed suit against the cotton belt road for $40,000 for the death of her son, W. D. Price, which occurred some months ago. Price was a freight conductor and while his train was sidetracked, was run down by another train, on the main line, sustaining injuries which resulted in the death some five or six hours later. Price, who was 34 years of age, was well known here, having for some years been employed as a conductor on the Santa Fe running out of San Marcial.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. This deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

MASONIC GRAND BODIES TO MEET IN ROSWELL

Railroad Grants Low Rates to Fraternal Gatherings in Pecos Valley City, Week Beginning October 17.

The Masonic Grand bodies of New Mexico will meet for the annual sessions of the various branches of the order in Roswell beginning October 17 and lasting the greater part of the week and Tuesday and Wednesday, the Grand Chapter on Thursday and the Grand Commandery on Friday.

The Santa Fe Railroad company has granted a low rate of a fare and a fifth for the round trip to Roswell tickets to be placed on sale October 14 to 20 inclusive with return limit on the 25th. A large attendance of Masons is looked for and there are indications that the meeting will be one of the most satisfactory held by the fraternity.

For Rheumatism and Nervousness.

Mr. A. A. Townsend, of 2233 West 25th Street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I was in a deplorable nervous condition, suffering from cold feet and rheumatism in the lower limbs. Electropodes cured me. I would not be without them."

Those remarkable galvanic shocks cure Rheumatism, Nervousness and kindred complaints, by neutralizing the excess uric acid in system. All poisons and impurities are eliminated, the blood is purified, nerves are strengthened, circulation increased and entire system cleansed and purified.

Druggists are authorized to sign a positive contract to return your $1.00 if Electropodes fail to cure, or if they should, on 30-day trial, prove unsatisfactory.

Druggist Signs This Contract
The purchaser of Electropodes is granted the privilege of returning them within 30 days, and the refund price ($1.00) is to be refunded upon the following conditions: They are to be worn according to directions for at least 30 consecutive days, and then if not satisfactory, to be returned in original box.

At druggists, or by mail, postpaid if your druggist cannot furnish Electropodes, send us $1.00, and we will see that you are supplied immediately. State whether for man or woman.

Manufacturing in Michigan.

At the present time there are in the United States about 160 automobile factories, which the state of Michigan alone there are between thirty-five and forty, with a total capitalization of over $40,000,000.

These factories give employment to about 50,000 men, in addition to some 20,000 employed in the manufacture of automobile parts and accessories.

In addition to this, the General Motors company has purchased fifty acres of ground for the erection of a new plant and the employment of about 7,000 men, while the United States Motor company has announced its intention to build a plant for the manufacture of commercial cars which will employ 4,000 men.

In 1909 114,000 cars were turned out in the United States. These cars range in price from the little runabout at $350 to the heavy limousine at $5,000, and no one need go outside of Michigan to get what he wants in the automobile line.

It is difficult to realize the great benefit this industry has already brought out and continues to bring to the city of Detroit and state of Michigan. It has become necessary to build new and larger hotels, which even now are inadequate to care for the thousands of visitors, and want to build the hotels and all mercantile establishments of whatever nature.

In the matter of workmen's wages it is a well-known fact that the ordinary laborer need no longer starve on a miserable small wage, but if he has any ability at all he can earn much more than formerly, and no one need remain unemployed, as the demand for competent workmen already exceeds the supply. Homes of all descriptions are in great demand, and residence property which has long remained vacant is now finding a ready market. In fact, it has already been predicted that within a few years Detroit's population will have reached the million mark and the city become the greatest commercial center of the middle west.—The Bookkeeper.

Nine Thousand Chickens on One Ranch in New Mexico

Remarkable Results Achieved on Connell Poultry Farm Near Tularosa By Sanitary Methods and Careful Feeding; 20,000 Biddies Hatched Out Annually and 2,000 Are Burned in Order to Prevent Possibility of Disease; New State Has One of Biggest Henneries in the West.

Few people in New Mexico are aware of the fact that in the St. G. Connell poultry ranch at Tularosa the state has in its borders one of the largest and most successful poultry farms in the west, where the total population averages nine thousand chickens at all times, and 20,000 are hatched out annually and whence large shipments of fine poultry are shipped all over the southwest continually.

Mr. Connell who has been in the city for part of the year and is currently in the poultry show business, has much to say of interest concerning his big enterprise when interviewed by a representative of this paper. For eight years Mr. Connell has been in the poultry business in New Mexico, and he finds conditions for poultry raising in New Mexico perfect as far as climate and other things are concerned, the principal difficulty to be overcome here resulting from the dry air.

The very dry atmosphere, said Mr. Connell, dries out the oil in the feathers of the birds and causes a double moulting so that they have to make twice the amount of feathers which they would in the lower altitudes. This cuts the egg production down one third in pullets and one-half in full grown hens. But in spite of this handicap, the business is a profitable one, and, rightly conducted, ought to become a great industry in New Mexico. Mr. Connell runs in a sloping tract which is flushed every night completely over with irrigation water, thus keeping it absolutely clean at all times. The chickens run in green alfalfa. With incubators having a capacity of 5,000 every three weeks, he hatches over 20,000 a year. Our size can be attributed to strict sanitary precautions and in the fact that we employ plenty of labor, the force averaging seven men all the time and often reaching ten.

Elaborate Sanitary Precautions. "The principal reason that our plants are so successful is because these sanitary precautions are neglected. In our plant these methods cost more than the feed. All drinking dishes are scalded twice a week with boiling water and the houses are all cleaned and disinfected twice a week, and eggs are gathered automatically every two hours. Chickens are fed the very best feed, a mix of corn, wheat, and alfalfa, and all of the feed is fed in the morning and evening.

for shell-making substances. The appearance of any kind of disease is at once detected by the daily inspection and the chicken, at once knocked in the head and burned. We destroy 2,000 a year in this manner to prevent any disease getting a start. Nothing is kept after eighteen months old. The chicks know no other mother than the 500 feet of hot water piping which heats the brooder runways and these and the incubators are subjected to the same rigid sanitary rules as the result of the parasitism.

"The White Leghorn, single comb, is the only chicken we raise, and with it we make any other breed we find that they do excellently under conditions here."

In the spring the chickens are fed lettuce raised by the grower for green food and in winter they eat alfalfa and run on a dry range, with no water at all.

Approved by Physicians. Mr. Connell says that the fact that his birds are raised under such sanitary methods and that they are kept absolutely clean has brought him stock the unanimous endorsement of physicians. Every chicken is known positively to be in perfect health and not one has access to the fifth which is usually available for chickens raised under ordinary conditions.

"The doctors unanimously recommend similar eggs for use by the public, especially babies and invalids, as there is not the slightest chance for germ infection of any kind. More plants of this kind I believe will put an effective stop to the cold storage eggs, an article which is unknown to the consumer and whose egg is likewise a matter of speculation," said Mr. Connell.

The Tularosa man says that over a hundred plants of this kind have been started around El Paso since he made such a success of the Tularosa farm, but that most of them have failed to make good because they did not live up to the sanitary rules. Connell ships from three to eighteen cases of eggs daily of thirty dozen each so the size of the enterprise may be appreciated. It has successfully demonstrated the fact that poultry raising may be made to pay in New Mexico and Mr. Connell's example has given a big impetus to the chicken business in general in the southwest. J. W. Long, an El Paso lumber man, has just started a 12,000 bird plant near the Tularosa farm and has placed it under the supervision of a trained foreman.

The sanitary method is the only way to win with chickens, said Mr. Connell. "You simply have to figure on spending more than half of the expense for these precautions. They ensure healthy chickens and the demand for eggs from healthy fowls is growing rapidly everywhere, especially in this part of the country."

SOUTHWEST NEWS NOTES Silver City Sewer System. Silver City's $60,000 sewer system is practically completed. All of the pipe, which has a combined length of more than 150 city blocks, has been laid except a stretch of about 100 feet which will connect the main portion of the system with the town lying east of the main street artery. The work of making this connection is now in progress. The pipes, which are from 18 to 24 inches in diameter, are being laid in the trench which has been excavated for the purpose. It is expected that the work will be completed by the end of the month.

Interest in New Railroad. The president of the Union Commercial club is in receipt of several letters of recent date from several of our southern neighbors, Kansas, inviting the great interest that has been aroused in the building of an east and west railroad line connecting Kansas and Oklahoma points with the new coal fields of Northern New Mexico. One letter from a prominent business man living in Anthony, Kansas, gives considerable information concerning a most feasible projected route, running westward along the watershed between the Cimarron and Beaver valleys in the Oklahoma Panhandle.

Big Noise at Cimarron. The shipping season for the cattle country around Cimarron is now on in earnest and the loss of the herds and the rest of the country are heard continuously. The grass, though late in the mountains, has again sufficiently to put the fallow on the big steers and they are fine specimens for the packing house of Kansas City and Chicago. Several of the ranchmen in the Moreno valley and two or three around Cimarron are shipping. The Gallagher and McDugas of the Moreno Valley, Stanley, Chase, Harry Chandler and Mat Beck of Cimarron, have their herds together and banded out forty pairs of steers and mixed stock to Kansas City.

Hilarious Carnival Winds Up Thirtieth Annual Fair

Fair Crowds After Grand Finale Will Be Melting Away Today; Fair Has Proved Financial and Popular Success and People Are Satisfied; Fifteen Mile Endurance Race Proves One of Greatest Sporting Events Ever Seen at Traction Park.

The thirtieth annual New Mexico fair has taken its place in history.

The final curtain fell after midnight this morning when the last related reveler took his mask and his waltzer home and bid them tenderly on the shelf to reappear there until the next fair comes around.

It was a gay carnival night and the amount of confetti distributed would fill a good many box cars, while the rocket was as fearful as usual, if not more so, and the usual number, if not more so, of merry-makers poked playfully with feather dusters and chuckled their way through the night. It is a good carnival outfit and it contributed heavily to the fun of the week, resulting a generous patronage every night.

The Packer Carnival company did its biggest business last night and will fold its tents like the street arab and immediately start on to the next date. It is a good carnival outfit and it contributed heavily to the fun of the week, resulting a generous patronage every night.

Female Row on Central avenue will remove its apparatus this morning after a good week's business, and the business district, after the confetti and the other debris is swept up, will resume its wonted appearance.

It will likely be a quiet Sunday morning in Albuquerque. The week has been busy and strenuous and seven days of continual fun leave the celebrants somewhat drowsy on the morning after.

It is generally agreed that the fair has been an unqualified success. The crowds have been big and enthusiastic and the size of the throng in the grandstand at Traction park yesterday shows that the entertainment right up to the last day. The people have had a good time and the worth of their money. The receipts have been satisfactory to the fair management, and it will come out easily on the right side of the ledger. The fair officials are among the hardest workers of the week, but they don't have the late sleep this morning according to the schedule. There is a lot of work to be done in winding up a fair and it will be a busy day for the secretary and his assistants, even though Sunday. They have been on the job about twenty-five hours a day for a week, and by morning the preparatory session before the fair opened, and will doubtless draw a breath of relief when everything is closed up and over.

The last day at Traction park was marked by the most exciting sporting event of the week, the fifteen-mile Indian marathon, an account of which is given elsewhere, and which was the best thing of the kind ever seen here. It was a splendid exhibition of the endurance of the southwestern Indian.

and the contestants were cheered vociferously and watched with tense interest by the grandstand until the winner went under the wire.

The fair visitors commenced to emigrate last night and all outgoing trains were crowded. Many will spend Sunday here to rest up before going back home to the daily grind, and tonight's train also will bear large delegations homeward.

It has been a successful fair. It has moreover, brought to the fair the New Mexico state fair as never before and are facing with enthusiastic optimism the future, a future whose milestones will be securing state fairs which it is hoped will be cared for by a regular state appropriation.

Secretary John B. McManus, of the fair association, urgently requests that all bills be mailed to him immediately. The bills will be audited and paid as soon as possible after receipt.
