COMMITTEES HOLD BUSY SESSIONS

IMPORTANT MATTERS ARE NOW BEING CONSIDERED

Many Tentative Agreements Reached; Legislature Employes Shall Be Few; Drafts of Articles to Be Made Public.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal] Santa Fe, Oct. 12.—Free from the necessity of attending a formal session of the constitutional convention, the delegates today put in a busy day in committee. Almost every important committee of the convention held a meeting today and the subcommittees were busy late into the night.

The committee on legislative department, of which A. B. Fall is chairman, held a public session in the senate chamber this morning at 11.
This committee has tentatively decided the number of members which shall constitute the legislature of the new state, being twenty-four senators and forty-eight assemblymen, or representatives in the lower house. There is considerable division as to whether legislators shall be elected for a two-year or a four-year term. Many members of the committee favor a four-year term with biennial sessions, but this is a matter which will require most careful investigation before it is decided upon in the sub-committee which has the subject in charge. And its fate at the hands of the full committee, to say nothing of the convention as a whole, is problematical.

One matter on which the committee seems to be agreed is that of limiting the number of employees that may be engaged by the legislature, and an article was drafted at today's session, designed to limit the number of employees to the actual number necessary to carry on the business of the legislature. In addition to limiting the number of employees the article also fixes the amount of money they shall receive for their services.
While this is rather a normal constitutional provision, it has been attempted in the present organic act of New Mexico, and it is said to be incorporated in the constitution of several of the existing states.

The committee on executive department is also holding an important committee which held a session today.
This committee has practically decided upon the principal state officers under the constitution, but is as yet undecided whether to recommend that they shall serve for a two-year or a four-year term. The officers decided upon are:

Governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general and superintendent of public instruction. All officers must be citizens of the United States, not less than thirty years of age, and must have been residents of the state of New Mexico for not less than five years. The majority of the committee seems to be in favor of the four-year term for office, with a provision that no officer shall be eligible to succeed himself in the same office.

The sub-committee which is working out the details of this article is composed as follows: T. D. Buras, chairman; M. L. Stern, secretary; M.
O. Buras, Luciano Mues, C. E. Miller, D. A. Richardson and J. H. Crist.

The committee on county and municipal corporations held a meeting at the old palace this afternoon, and with the work of this committee is from complete. It is tentatively agreed that there shall be no more than one county established in each county established in the constitution, thus blotting the hopes of several delegates, which are here in the interest of county division projects. This matter has been in the hands of the subcommittee composed of the following delegates: Daniel Cassidy, Jr., chairman; M. L. Stern, secretary; Charles Kula, W. D. Murray, J. D. Gilchrist and Transfiguration Leblond. This subcommittee has prepared a rough draft of the proposed article of county division, which contains the following provisions:

That the counties as they now exist, shall be the counties of the new state.

That before the location of any county seat is changed, three-fifths of the legal voters of the county must vote for its removal, and that application for the removal of a county seat may not be made to the legislature more than once in four years.

That no new county shall be created from a part or parts of old counties, unless the territory comprised in the proposed new county can show an assessed valuation of at least one million dollars. Nor shall any county be left after a territory has been taken away from it, with an assessed valuation of less than two million five hundred thousand dollars.

That no new county shall be created with a population of less than fifty thousand inhabitants, and that no county shall be left after a territory has been taken away from it, with a population of less than eight thousand inhabitants.

The committee on schedule, which has to do with matters pertaining to the transition period, when the territorial government is merged into that of the state, held a meeting today and is expected to make a preliminary report tomorrow.

The committee of bill of rights, Francis E. Wool, chairman, is hard at work. This committee expects to have a preliminary draft of the bill of rights ready to be given out for publication tomorrow.

Soldier Killed in Saloon Row.
El Paso, Texas, Oct. 12.—Joseph Desmond, a private in company D, twenty-third United States Infantry, stationed at Fort Bliss, near this city, died today from the effect of injuries received in a saloon row. Desmond's relatives live in Chicago. The injured man was allowed to lie in the saloon four hours without attention.

BLANKET INDIANS WILL HOLD CONGRESS

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 12.—As a result of the refusal on the part of the "blanket" Indians to join with the five civilized tribes in adopting resolutions paying the interior department to remove the restrictions on their lands, another Indian congress will be held by the blanket Indians.

Delegations of Cheyennes, Arapahoes, Comanches and other of the "blanket" Indians announced just before leaving the city today that all the blanket Indians would hold congress of their own, probably at Darlington, Okla.

The blanket Indians bolted the national Indian congress yesterday, leaving the five civilized tribes in entire possession.

ARMY OF CUMBERLAND HAS ANNUAL REUNION

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 12.—The army of the Cumberland, an organization of civil war veterans, is holding its annual reunion in this city. Over 150 old soldiers are present from all the central states and many from other sections.

Among these are General C. P.
Thurston, president of the Army of the Cumberland society; General Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio, former congressman and chairman of the Chickamauga Park commission; and General Samuel W. Price, one of the heroes of the battle of Stone River.

THIRTY-THREE MINERS YET MISSING

FOURTEEN BODIES ARE REMOVED TO MORGUE

Rescuers at Starkville Expect to Reach Additional Victims Soon; Rescuer Is Killed By Train While Resting.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] Starkville, Colo., Oct. 12.—The situation in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company mine here at 5 o'clock may be summarized as follows:

Bodies buried and in morgue, fourteen; bodies located in the mine, eight; bodies missing, thirty-three.

Three-fourths of the fifty-five miles of slopes, cross-cuts and entries have been explored by rescue parties.
Although all hope of finding alive any of the men entombed has gone, there was no slackening of effort by rescuers to reach the underground language today to locate additional victims. Tonight the workers are devoting their energy to the removal of the eight bodies located at noon. This task is made doubly hard by the condition of the bodies and the 4,700 feet of rough and dangerous trail over which they must be carried to the death cars.

Those not needed in this precarious work are pushing their way to the entries where fifteen men are believed to be entombed. As soon as these bodies have been explored they will be brattled off and the huge fan will be turned into the K entries where eleven men probably will be found. The remaining workers, including Pit Boss Luke Updell, are believed to be scattered through the mine and may not be located for several days.

Today five bodies were taken to Trinidad for burial. As the rescue procession was leaving the grisly entrance camp and in sight of the mountain, Fred Foster, an electrician at Waldenburg, was struck by a Santa Fe train and killed. After coming out of the mine with the eight o'clock shift today Foster is said to have sat down by the track to rest. Foster is reported to have been engaged to a Trinidad girl and the wedding set for a few months hence.

Dolliver Seriously Ill.

Fort Dodge, Iowa, Oct. 12.—Physicians attending Senator Jonathan P.
Dolliver, who has been confined to his bed for several days with a serious illness, said tonight that he was resting easily.

At the Dolliver home it was given out that the illness was due to stomach trouble, which has affected the action of the bowels. It is admitted that the senator's condition is serious, though not necessarily critical.

'JACKPOTTERS' SCORED BY COLONEL

DENOUNCES MEMBERS OF ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE

Roosevelt at Peoria Attacks Men Involved in Scandal; Pays Tribute to Work of Catholic Missions.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]
Peoria, Ill., Oct. 12.—Ex-President Roosevelt coming up from the south into Illinois today, denounced corrupt legislators and commended the work which the Roman Catholic church is doing.

It was Colonel Roosevelt's first public utterance to Roman Catholics. He was the guest of the Knights of Columbus, to whom he made a speech tonight.

In a brief speech to the crowd at the railway station in Springfield, Colonel Roosevelt made what was considered as a reference to the allegations of corruption in the Illinois legislature. Hardly had he begun to speak when a man in the crowd called out:

"Give it to the jackpotters, colonel."

The others in the crowd, to whom the expression had become familiar, since the confession of members of the Illinois legislature that they had shared in a corruption fund, applauded.

The colonel took it up and attacked the men involved in the legislative scandal as vigorously as he did in his speech last month at the Hamilton club luncheon in Chicago, from which Senator Lorimer was excluded after the colonel had refused to attend the dinner unless the invitation to the senator was withdrawn.

"Good, my friends, I am glad to hear you say that," he said. "No man who is worth his salt will have anything to do with any one of the scoundrels who were tainted in that scandal. The most important thing before us as a people is to drive from public life the corruptionist, the bribe taker, the bribe giver. The men whom you speak of as jackpotters are traitors to the American people, traitors of the basest kind, and it is infamous in any one to condone their iniquity or to support them and stand behind them, directly or indirectly."

"The presence in public life of such men is a shame and a scandal, and I do not care a rap whether they belong to any party or to some other party. I hold it my duty to be equally hostile to them in either event."

When Colonel Roosevelt arrived in Peoria he went to the Country club for luncheon, then visited the home of Bishop Spalding. A public reception followed. Long before the time for the reception the club house in which it was to be held was crowded. By the time the colonel got there, the street outside was blocked. After he had spent an hour in shaking hands with hundreds of people the crowd in front of the building was larger than when he began. The people outside were told that the colonel could not shake hands with all of them, but they refused to go away until the doors were closed.

Colonel Roosevelt made a little speech from the steps to pacify those who could not get inside.

At the dinner tonight, Bourke Cock-ran of New York, Richard Henry Little of Chicago and Dr. R. Emmet Kane of St. Louis made speeches before the colonel delivered his address.
Governor Deneen, who reached here from Green Valley, where he left the Roosevelt train in the afternoon to address a county fair, arrived in time for the dinner.

In his address tonight, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Last winter I visited various Catholic missions in Africa and just about Christmas I was at one of them.

Bishop Hanlon, on the shores of the great Victoria Nyman lake, just under the equator. There I met one of our fellow Americans, Mother Mary Paul, who was at the head of the religious sisters of the establishment. She had already been in correspondence with me, saying that I must not go through Africa without stopping and seeing their mission.

"So, of course, I stopped, and it was really like being suddenly brought home, for Mother Paul promptly gave me a message contained in a letter she and just received from two New York police men whom I had appointed on the force when I was police commissioner."

"Now, the mission to which Mother Paul belongs is doing a really striking and admirable work in Africa, and I promised her that I would publicly tell about this before some Catholic body, and ask that the Catholics of the United States take an active interest in this Catholic mission in Africa, where such good work is being done by an American nun. From personal knowledge I say this, and from personal knowledge I wish to bear hearty testimony to the good work being done there by the Catholic mission, and I hope the charitable Catholics in the United States will gladden the heart of Mother Paul by backing up in substantial fashion the missionary work to which she has given her life."

"There is no other country in the world where there is such really broad religious toleration, such good will among good people of different religious creeds as in America. There is no other country where Catholics and Protestants get on as we do here, each treating the other on the basis of our common citizenship, and judging him not as to how he worships his creator, but on his conduct toward his fellow men, on his own worth as a man."

"Perhaps I can give you my own theory in short form by telling you of a correspondence I once had. Of some good men who are narrow (as well as some men who are narrow without being good), and one of these good narrow men, a Protestant clergyman, wrote me a letter of protest about my receiving Cardinal Sallati at the White House."

"I wrote back saying that I had received the cardinal just as, for instance, I had received bodies of German Lutherans and Welsh Methodists, and as I am expected to receive the archbishop of Canterbury, and that I would hold myself to be a poor representative of the American people if I treated my Catholic fellow citizens exactly as I hoped that a Catholic president would act toward his Protestant fellow citizens."

"I think that expressed my views about as clearly as I can put them." Mr. Roosevelt went to his car after the dinner. He is to spend tomorrow in Indiana, campaigning for Senator Beveridge.

"Theodore Roosevelt is as true to the right as the needle is to the pole," said former Congressman Bourke Cockran, who for years was a democratic member of the house, in his speech.

"He himself has said that he is not a great man," Mr. Cockran said, "and not a wise man. He needs no better for the American people believe he is a good man."

Mr. Cockran had been referring to the ten commandments. "He'd tell you, you must not covet your neighbor's goods, and he'd knock down any man who suggested it," he continued. "Every cheer that greets him is an evidence of the devotion of the people to justice. That popularity of his proves that the love of justice is implanted in every American heart."

Mr. Little said that down in Westminster they had "died off cannon fired off everything except balling-game."

Colonel Roosevelt joined in the laughter and clapped his hands.

DIX CALLS ROOSEVELT ENEMY OF THE PUBLIC.

Thomson, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Although the name of Colonel Roosevelt was not mentioned, there was no mistaking the latter state of criticism hurled at him today by John A. Dix, democratic candidate for governor, who with the other nominees on the state ticket, was officially notified of his nomination at his country home.
Mr. Dix declared that any American who, occupying a position of authority or having the public ear, assails the courts is a public enemy.

New nationalities, gathered and associated by a new apostle of discord and disunion, was characterized by the candidate as a menace to the vir-tuous institutions of the country.

BURGLAR MURDERS FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 12.— Started into flight by the sound of footsteps on the stairway, a burglar, suddenly confronted by a 14 year old school boy, today in the latter's home, fired three shots from a revolver into the body and rushed through the kitchen door.

The victim, Thomas R. Karickhoff, started in pursuit of the robber, but fell dying on the steps of the porch just as a physician who had dashed toward him from a street car was struck alone on a spike. To-day Karickhoff was alone in his home when attacked, having returned from school to prepare his Sunday meal. The boy's mother is supervisor of art in the public schools of this city.

M'CREA SAYS INCREASE IS NEEDED

EASTERN ROADS MUST MAKE IMPROVEMENTS

Pennsylvania President Tells Inter-State Commission Rates Must Be Raised to Keep Pace With Maintenance

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]
Washington, Oct. 12.—President James M. McCrea of the Pennsylvania railroad rendered illuminating today's hearing before the interstate commerce commission on the proposed advances in freight rates by railroads east of Chicago.

Mr. McCrea urged the necessity of the proposed increases, on account of the increased expenses in wages incurred by the roads during the last ten years—aggregating 33 per cent in the case of the Pennsylvania and the increased cost of maintenance of service.

The witness said that the results of the constant increases in the business of the Pennsylvania, through a long period of years, had been distributed either through reduction in rates, increases in wages and amounts paid for material or by reinvestments in the property not capitalized.

The hearing was conducted before the full commission, Chairman Martin A. Knapp presiding.

At the opening of the hearing Francis L. Ganten, general counsel for the Pennsylvania, said the proposed of the eastern lines, through increases in wages and cost of supplies, recently had been increased approximately $4,000,000 a year.

Under the proposed advances in rates earnings would have increased about $27,000,000 a year.

President McCrea of the Pennsylvania testified that in the last ten years the company's lines east of Pittsburgh had expended $28,000,000 on improvements.

Notwithstanding the increased cost of living, said Mr. McCrea, the $7,999 stockholders of the Pennsylvania railroad—one-half of whom were women and children—were receiving the same amount in dividends now as they had received during the last ten years, although their expenses had increased proportionately with those of the employees.

Mr. McCrea testified that the increased loads on the income made necessary the proposed advances.
He asserted that the Pennsylvania had never been operated with greater economy, efficiency and skill than now, and he believed that the operation was honest.

"How do you know?" inquired Louis D. Brandeis of Boston, representing Atlantic coast shippers, "that such things as have been developed in the Illinois Central graft are not occurring in the Pennsylvania system?"

"I do not believe such a condition could exist because of the system of reports and oversight," said Mr. Mc-Crea. "I know, too, through my faith in the organization and in my confidence in the human agencies involved."

Mr. McCrea declared:
"What this country needs and what has done so much to develop it, are the transportation facilities. At this time I feel that improvements are very badly needed. Any scheme of rates that does not provide for that, treating the railroads as a broad property with all sorts of what the country absolutely requires."

Mr. McCrea expressed the opinion that any properly capitalized company, economically managed, should earn a minimum of 7 per cent, particularly on account of the increased cost of living.

In conclusion, Mr. McCrea declared

COLORADO CITIZENS FIGHT BANDITS

Four Masked Men Dynamite Bank at Proctor but Are Driven Away Without Booty.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]
Sterling, Colo., Oct. 12.—Four masked men, heavily armed, rode into Proctor, Colo., seventeen miles northeast of here today, shot up the town, dynamited the state bank of that city and escaped after a running fight with citizens. They got no money.
Sheriff Brush of Logan county, and a posse are hunting them.

First intimation of the bandits' presence in Proctor was given by an explosion of dynamite which particularly wrecked the bank. For an hour thereafter every man who ventured into Main street was shot at by one of two bandits, who stood on the street corner. The other two worked steadily trying to drill or dynamite the inner door of the safe but finally gave it up, and the four mounted and rode toward Sterling, shooting up the town as they left. Deposits in the bank are unusually large just now because the harvest is nearly over.

that the present situation could not be met in any other way than by an advance in freight rates.

Asked by Commissioner Proctor as to future railroad developments in new territory, Mr. McCrea declared he believed no money would be available for new railroad enterprises.
"It is not possible," he asserted.
"We cannot get the money anywhere for that sort of exploitation."

OPPOSES COMMISSION'S POWER TO FIX RATES

Chicago, Oct. 12.—"It is impracticable, if not impossible, for the interstate commerce commission to act as traffic manager of the railroads, I am opposed to the commission fixing the maximum rates that the railroads may use," said J. C. Lincoln of St. Louis, president of the National Industrial league, in an address today before the National Credit Dealers' association here.

COLORADO GIRL'S ASSAILANT ARRESTED

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 12.— Reports from Fountain, fourteen miles south of here tell of the arrest near there of Lee Hill, a negro suspected of being the assailant of Miss Stella Beggs, the Santa Fe telegraph operator, who was waylaid and assaulted last evening. The negro was found by a train crew and turned over to representatives of the sheriff's office, who are conducting the man-hunt. Miss Beggs is reported to be recovering from her terrible experience.

This afternoon she positively identified Hill as her assailant. It was with great difficulty that Sheriff Birdsall and his officers prevented a lynching.

Refuses New Trial in Graft Case.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 12.—Judge Kunkle in the Dauphin county court today refused to grant a new trial in the case of Joseph M. Huston who was convicted of graft in connection with the furnishing of the new capitol.
Huston was architect of the building.

Flew Seventy-five Miles An Hour.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—Alfred La Blum in his monoplane made a flight of thirteen miles in ten minutes at the Kinloch aviation meet this afternoon.
He covered six laps of the field and flew four miles out of bounds. His average speed exceeded seventy-five miles an hour.

HOMILIES ON HONESTY DON'T MAKE DEMOCRACY

Circuit Court Judge Is Principal Speaker at Columbus Day Banquet; Sherman and Lorimer at Same Table.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]
Chicago, Oct. 12.—At the discovery banquet of the Knights of Columbus tonight, addresses were made by Charles Murphy, secretary of state of Canada, Vice President Sherman and Peter S. Grosscup of the United States circuit court, Senator Lorimer, while sat on the program for an address, was a guest at the speaker's table. It was in the banquet room that the Hamilton club banquet, where Colonel Roosevelt refused to speak if Senator Lorimer was a guest, was held a month ago.

Judge Grosscup in his address declared:
"To establish an enlarged democracy for the future, a democracy that will harmonize freedom in production with a just distribution of the fruits of production—something more than mere homilies on honesty is needed, something more than mere criminal prosecution, something more than stirring the depths of unrestricted law, indeed, than a president and congress who have contrived enough to recognize that monopoly is here to stay and that the way to deal with it is to make it deal fairly with the people by putting a limit on its profits."

"Nothing less than a president and congress who will take up the tariff as judicial tribunals take up cases that demand a careful and disinterested inquiry into the facts; nothing less than a president and congress who have contrived enough to recognize that monopoly is here to stay and that the way to deal with it is to make it deal fairly with the people by putting a limit on its profits."

"To accomplish this, we must take our leaders, not from those who, in the language of a friend, sit on the top board of the wagon and do nothing but hold their horses, nor from among those who sit with the driver urging him to whip the horses into a runaway."

"The American people I believe are in no mood to come to a standstill; nor do they want a smash up.
There needs to be a leadership, however, in which it put the superb faith of Columbus that ahead lie the shores sought, and the superb faith of Lincoln that, with the saving commonsense of the American people behind it, no just cause need be lost."

Indiscreet Speech By Minority Leader Believed to Be Strongest Argument Against Unlimited Debate.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 12.—Almost the sole topic of conversation among the delegates to the constitutional convention last night and today is the speech delivered yesterday afternoon by Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Fergusson is given credit by the republican leaders in debating the very cause he sought to attain by what term his indiscreet and inopportune remarks and with furnishing the most powerful possible argument for the necessity of having a rule limiting debate, if the convention is to complete its work within the time limit fixed by congress. Among democr the people, and of escaping that scandal which has caused the senate of the United States to be denominated the "Millionaires' Club." And we know at this time that not only the great republican senators, whom I have named, but that great man who has shown even in his early life that he is the most distinguished citizen in this republic, and whose fame has extended all over the civilized world, and who has been near us as near as the city of Pueblo, very lately called across to us here in New Mexico, knowing that we were about to form a constitution. He called to us, "Be careful in making your constitution. The special interests are at work to extend their power over the government of the people, to extend their influence, and strengthen their grip on the sources of the people's power for their own further enrichment. And the message he gave to us was this: In forming your constitution, make it easy to amend, because you will discover defects in it, and unless you make it easy to amend you will find yourselves, bound hand and foot."

Now, my friend, when the motion was first made here, and when under the exercise of our rights, as minority members of the committee on rules, we brought in a minority report, I wanted to explain it and show how, and I was of you to listen to me, that I was, particularly, as proposed there, and put in by the majority, will seriously threaten to debate on any question. As my friend, Mr. Crist said, it is important that we have free discussion here. What are we going to discuss? We are going to discuss the questions that will go to constitute our constitution, a privilege granted to us by the great congress of the United States. Our work here, when finished, must be referred back to the people. Is it not our duty, and that of every man here who wants a pure constitution, to bow upon the new state of New Mexico a government of the people?

At this point the speaker was interrupted by a member who called attention to the fact that he had consumed more than the time allowed under the rules. On motion of Mr. Crist, unanimous consent was granted, and Mr. Ferguson continued.

"I thank you gentlemen, and the gentleman from Otero. I was nearly through and will not take much longer. I feel, gentlemen of the convention, I know, in fact, that many who are elected here as republicans are just as desirous as I am, or as any man can be, that we shall fix the constitution as to us to insure to the people of New Mexico a pure and uncorrupted government for the new state. That it shall be conducted in the interests of the whole people, and those who have no special privileges and those who must depend upon the laws of this state, and those who make them and administer them. There are many in this convention who are not bound by party lines, whose whole sympathies are in that direction, and who believe with such great republican leaders, as I have mentioned, that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. I am reflecting on no one in New Mexico. I am only speaking from experience in the other states, and in republican states, that the privileges, the special privileges, which have been obtained in the past, in so many of those states, have been corrupting have been ruinous from the standpoint of morality, have been unfair to the masses of the people, and have enabled those special interests, whose influence in the government of this country, can become so awful in their power and in its consequences, in their willingness to corrupt and attain their ends by any means whatever, that this struggling to amend their constitutions in most of the states, as to strengthen the representative form of government, founded by our fathers, and who knew the motive of the likes of those who are opposed to us that we are creating mob rule, and that we violate the constitution of the United States, if we adopt this system known as direct legislation."

"These principles are now advocated by such men as Doolittle, Cummins and Roosevelt, and in the state of Illinois, which has had as yet no successful rebellion against the rule of special interests, in a regular republican convention, within the past two weeks, the temporary chairman of which was Governor Deneen, has endorsed them. Not in consequence of any great awakening such as took place in Oregon when Senator Mitchell was mercifully blessed with death to save him from the penitentiary. That was ten years ago or more, and the honest people of Oregon saw their mistake and adopted this system of direct legislation which has challenged every one in the states I have mentioned in the north, so that the north at least had a complete upturn and the republicans who believe in Roosevelt, Cummins and Doolittle have captured that state. But even in Illinois, without such a revolution having first taken place, they took steps to secure the election of another senator from that state, and the last state platform in the regular republican convention, adopted the principle of the initiative and the referendum and pledged these principles for the republican party of that state, that it entrusted with power again, they would amend their constitution, so as to insert in the constitution of Illinois these principles known generally as direct legislation."

Now, here we are without any constitution at yet. Here are we met with the solemn duty upon us of making a constitution for the people, and I am of you to make it, at the very threshold with such an effort to stifle discussion. The intention of my motion is to amend those rules so as to insure to the people a constitution in New Mexico that will be in the front rank of progressiveness, of economical government, in the interests of the people, a constitution that will safeguard, if possible, the people against wrong in the future in New Mexico, and that will prevent the government of such oppression in the way of legislation, in the way of special privileges and franchises, and of keeping the legislatures clean in the future. The creation of any kind of government except one of honesty, of economy in the interests of the people, is folly, and we want a constitution which will protect the great domain of public lands, given to us under the enabling act, under any possible design of the future by men who will make money and profit out of those lands at the expense of the true interests of the people."

Mr. Ferguson: "What I meant to say as to what took place here, and blamed the gentlemen I referred to for it, was that without subterfuge, you proposed to organize this convention so far as the election of president, without denying the fact that you had been railroad or corporation attorneys for fees."

Mr. Ferguson: "I did not mean to say that. I do not say anything of this kind."

Mr. Ferguson: "We pay too much attention to stereotyped speeches with reference to corporations. You have stated that we claimed we were organizing this convention in the interest of corporations. Now you state that you make a distinction between yourself and a corporation lawyer, and suggest that there may be members here who may have taken fees to represent special interests on the floor. Name any member whom you suspect of having taken such fees."

like them on this floor. If he is a lawyer he has a right to take employment from corporations and to take their money."

Mr. Fall: Answer my question. By what rule of logic do you say a republican lawyer who takes corporation practice and represents special interests can undertake to dominate this convention in the interest of corporations, and that rule of logic does not apply to a democrat?"

Mr. Ferguson: "I'll answer the second part. I was coming to that. That answer is this: That the distinction between a lawyer who takes practice from a corporation, railroad or any kind on earth, is under every obligation of honor to render the best services he can, to protect that corporation in the courts of justice, but anyone who transgresses that boundary, who for pay or without it, goes outside of the strict domain of a practicing lawyer, and becomes a servant to constitute the third house of a legislature, who will lower himself as a lawyer, to become the perpetual servant for their business, ceases to be a lawyer and is nothing more than a common lobbyist with all that that means."

FOOD PROBLEM OF MANUEL WEARY OF WEARING THE CROWN

STRIKE OF RAILROAD EMPLOYEES IS GROWING

Premier Briand Denounces Walkout as Insurrection and Declares Instigators Will Be Properly Prosecuted.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Paris, Oct. 12.—The strike of the railroad men, which threatens to spread throughout France, was denounced today by Premier Briand as "an insurrection purely, built upon criminal foundations."

The premier declared that the strike was called while negotiations were going on for an adjustment of grievances and he promised that the instigators of the strike would be prosecuted.

The river Seine, which in January threatened to destroy Paris, now looms up in the role of savior. The government has made arrangements to rush food supplies to Paris from the sea, requisitioning all boats to meet the crisis and ease the food market, which is already hard hit.

The employees of the Eastern and the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean railroads, have not to any extent responded to the strike call and the government's weapon of mobilization has induced some of those employed on the Northern road to return to their posts. Nevertheless, the Northern and Western railroads are proscribed. The call to the colors has been ignored by the large majority, and at most meetings today the strikers reiterated their determination not to respond to the call.

Much destruction has been wrought on the Western system where the strikers and their supporters have held up and derailed trains, blocked tracks, destroyed signals, tipped up rails and cut telephone and telegraph wires. The government has ordered the arrest of a score of strike leaders and instructions have been issued to the troops to use severe measures wherever occasion requires.

Thousands of persons living in the suburbs and employed in Paris, massed this evening around the depots. These they found closed and silent. There with true Parisian gaiety they laughingly set out to walk out.

The losses to commerce already are tremendous. Scores of trains have been stalled along the roads, many of these carrying food supplies which have become unfit. The passengers on the steamship (Atlantic) who took the train at Cherbourg for Paris, are blocked at Monte-Sur-Seine, about thirty-six miles from Paris.

Many Americans have been compelled to remain in this city or to pay fabulous sums to reach the coast, so that they might embark for England. Seven hundred sacks of American mail are now being transported from Havre to Paris by the river, and the French steamship line will employ a tug to convey the passengers for the steamer La Touraine sailing on Saturday.

M. Jaures, leader of the socialists in the chamber of deputies today answered Premier Briand, charging that the railroads of the government were responsible for the present crisis. He declared that the scheme of militarization was dangerous, as it was certain to weaken military discipline and increase anti-militarism.

The Paris Lyons and Mediterranean and Orleans railroad men last night voted to strike, as also did the employees of the Paris subway who deem this a good opportunity to obtain satisfaction of a number of demands for which they have been agitating.

The effect of the strike on the two roads mentioned is not yet perceptible. It is pointed out, however, that the engineers on these lines for roads in Paris. These will therefore take their trains out, but abandon them when they reach their own towns after straggling the strike order en route.

ADMIRAL COURAGE OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS

Portugal's King Was Not Entirely Dissatisfied With Course of Events, Says Commander of Yacht.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Lisbon, Oct. 12.—The provisional government has received telegrams from President Comagere of Switzerland, announcing that government's recognition of the Portuguese republic.

The British minister, Sir Francis H. Villiers, today handed the premier a note, stating that Great Britain would recognize the republic as soon as it was convinced that the revolution was absolutely ended and affairs at Portugal were in a normal state.

The government has issued a decree granting general amnesty to all military and naval offenders.

The patriarch of Lisbon, Mr. Tonti, it is announced, has signified his allegiance to the new regime. Senhor Teixeira Sousa, leader of the regenerator party is organizing a new party which will accept republican institutions.

A commission composed of officials of the ministry of finance has been appointed to make an inventory of the royal palaces and decide what property belongs to the king personally. This committee will also investigate the outstanding debts of the royal family.

Jose Relvas, the new minister of finance, in an interview today said that one of the first acts of the government would be to impose obligatory secular education. At the same time the republicans would fully recognize liberty of conscience, he declared, and did not desire to destroy religious sentiment, but only would oblige the priests to confine themselves to spiritual matters.

The minister said the government intended to readjust taxation and make the colonies bear their own administrative charges. This, he added, would avoid a third of the existing deficit without injuring the colonies, the preservation and development of which would be of supreme interest in Portugal's policy.

It is learned that the suicide of Admiral Reis so disconcerted the revolutionists that it nearly wrecked their plans. It seems that shortly before the hour agreed upon for the mutiny, the minister of marine signalled asking the warships whether they were ready to repel an attack at a moment's notice.

This signal dismayed the conspirators, who refused to accompany Admiral Reis in a boat to the cruises. They refused to start the revolution. Whereupon, in despair, the admiral killed himself.

The death of the admiral was placarded but Dr. Comagere convinced the council and issued a denial which saved the situation. Naval Officer Sillense displayed great initiative in filling the gap caused by the death of Reis.

Captain Desi, who commanded the royal yacht Amelie, on the voyage to Gibraltar, says that during the night King Manuel discussed the situation frankly with his uncle, the Duke of Porto. He expressed a certain feeling of satisfaction and declared that he was utterly weary of the burden of the crown and disgusted with the army of eye-witnesses and place hunters around him. He even expressed admiration for some of the republican leaders for their courage and energy, whereas the opposing sections of monarchists had shown neither resolution nor ordinary pluck.

Captain Desi believes that the king bitterly felt his complete desertion in his hour of trial, not a single minister having tried to see him or inform him of the course of events. The members of the cabinet all fled or went into hiding, except the premier, who was confined to his residence by an injured foot.

SPAIN TAKES PRECAUTION TO PREVENT RIOTING

Madrid, Oct. 12.—The government expects that its elaborate military precautions will check possible rioting in Catalonia tomorrow, the anniversary of the death of Francisco Ferrer. It is prepared, however, for an emergency.

The international congress of free thinkers open in Barcelona and the proposed demonstrations in honor of Ferrer have attracted many anarchists who are being closely shadowed by the police.

The republicans continue their activities and the socialists are endeavoring to make capital out of the possible re-opening of hostilities in Morocco, the unpopularity of which incited the people of Catalonia to serious disturbances last year.

Catholics Protest Decision.

Rome, Oct. 12.—The Catholic press protests against the decision of the Italian cabinet denying the right to settle in Italy. The papers say that while it may give satisfaction in extreme parties this action was unnecessary, as the Portuguese had no intention of making up their residence in this country.

NEITHER COBB NOR LAJOIE MAY GET THAT AUTOMOBILE

Chicago, Oct. 12.—President E. B. Johnson of the American League, announced tonight that Empire Evans in a detailed report regarding the Lajoie incident at St. Louis last Sunday had given Lajoie an absolutely clean bill in relation to his securing eight safe hits in a double header.

The report, however, was not made public, but will be given out when Mr. Johnson has completed his investigation and is ready to announce his decision.

When the debate regarding Lajoie's performance became more heated daily, President Johnson is said to have offered as the best solution of the matter, the returning of the automobile prize to the donors.

ENTRIES FROM TEN STATES COMPETE IN COURSE MEET

Sutton, Neb., Oct. 12.—With 125 crack greyhounds competing for the national Waterloo cup stake, the National Coursing association finished the second round today. This is the American classic greyhound event, and kennels from ten states have entries in the race.

One of the most interesting courses run as yet was that of today between Samboke, a several times stake winner from Ireland and Needle Bug, one of the crack dogs from Bluff, Mont. After two undecided races Needle Bug succeeded in disposing of Samboke in a very satisfactory trial.

The Waterloo purse stake for sixty-seven dogs beaten in the first round of the cup stakes was also run off this afternoon. The rabbits were fast and most of them reached the escapes in safety.

PERNICIOUS MOVING PICTURES CONDEMNED

Washington, Oct. 12.—International effort to prohibit the production of pernicious moving pictures was urged today by the International Humane conference, in session here by speakers who declared certain pictures were working havoc among the young.

Owen R. Levey, of New York, general secretary of the National Child Labor committee, addressed the conference on the necessity for the investigation and correction of certain "indecent" pictures to children which grow out of existing economic conditions.

He accused the idea that any considerable proportion of moviegoers of children were inhuman, but declared the little toddlers were the victims of intense business rivalry.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 12.—Nearly 400 employees of the Illinois Central railroad showing in this city struck here today following the refusal, it is said, of officers to settle a grievance. This grievance was not made known, but it is said that when Dick Sutherland, an aged foreman, recently laid off, a substitute appointed was not considered by the men entitled to the position and this precipitated the trouble. It was announced that a sympathetic strike would be called tomorrow morning which would affect 1,200 men.

KELLOGG TO ARGUE FOR GOVERNMENT

Hearing in Suit to Dissolve Union and Southern Pacific Merger Will End Today.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 12.—In the United States circuit court here today Judge P. E. Dunne, general counsel of the Southern Pacific railroad, set off the argument on behalf of the railroad in the government's suit to dissolve the merger of the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads. Judge Dunne's argument today was devoted to percentages of revenue and tonnage and was largely technical.

He was followed by N. R. Loomis, general solicitor of the Union Pacific, who argued that the Union Pacific was forced to accept the Central Pacific, running from Ogden to San Francisco, because it was vital to its existence as a transcontinental line and that the acts of congress authorizing the construction of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific contemplated that the lines should be consolidated so as to make a through connected route from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast.

Former Senator John C. Spooner, then took up the first argument for the railroad and will conclude tomorrow. Frank D. Kellogg of St. Paul will follow with the argument in rebuttal for the government.

Mr. Spooner's statement of law and fact presented little that had not been covered by Messrs. Dunne and Loomis, though once or twice an unexpected turn occurred that focused the interest of the judges, the assembled lawyers and the spectators upon the former senator.

One occurred when Mr. Spooner was called on to answer a question covering one of the vital points of the controversy—the alleged competitive status of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific before the merger.

"Suppose," said Judge Dunne, "that the Central Pacific, from Ogden to San Francisco, was an independent line—Independent entirely of all control by the Southern Pacific or the Pacific coast of the Union Pacific. As regards eastern tonnage by way of Chicago and Omaha, would you say that the Union Pacific, acting with the Central Pacific, was not a competitor of the Southern Pacific?"

"I am not compelled to answer that question," replied the lawyer. "No, you are not," asserted the judge, "let me restate it."

"Let me say here," interrupted Judge Dunne, "that such is operated under a joint through tariff."

"Well, then," said Judge Sanborn, "would you say that the through tariff, as a transcontinental entity, would not be a competitor of the Southern Pacific because neither the Central Pacific nor the Union Pacific could fix the rates?"

"How can the Union Pacific be in a real sense a competitor of its own creation?" was Mr. Spooner's answer to the question.

"But am I to understand," replied the judge, "that the Southern Pacific by virtue of its ownership of the Central Pacific had the power to make rates and therefore there could be no competition?"

AUTO TURNS TURTLE KILLING DRIVER

Alabama Man Buried Under Car During Exciting Race at Amarillo; Aviator Is Hurt.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Amarillo, Texas, Oct. 12.—Y. B. Skaggs of Denton, Ala., was instantly killed today, when the ninety-horse-power Simplex car that he was driving in a 200-mile automobile race turned turtle. As his car went round a curve of the course, one of the inner wheels was crashed. The car turned completely over, pinning Skaggs beneath it. Skaggs had lost two legs because of the trouble and was driving desperately to regain the lost ground. An hour later Thomas Benoit, a St. Louis aviator, after making two successful flights in a Curtiss biplane, was struck by the propeller, while adjusting his engine, and tonight lies in a local hospital in a critical condition.

CHIEF JUSTICE OF COLORADO DIES

Judge Steele Succumbs to Apoplexy With Which He Was Stricken on Night of Convention.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Denver, Oct. 12.—Hon. Robert Wilbur Steele, chief justice of the Colorado supreme court since 1907 and member of that body since 1901, died at his home here today after an illness of about three weeks.

Judge Robert W. Steele was born in Lebanon, Ohio, November 14, 1857, and educated in the public schools of Dayton, Ohio, and Denver. He was graduated from Columbia law school and was admitted to the bar in Colorado in 1881. He had hardly begun practice when he was elected clerk of the county court of Arapahoe county which position he retained until 1888. He engaged in the active practice of his profession as a member of the firm of Steele and Malone until 1892 when he was elected district attorney, from which office he retired in 1898 to become county judge.

It was while he occupied the post on the county bench that Justice Steele laid the foundation for the present juvenile court of Denver. He was the first judge of a county court of Colorado to segregate juvenile offenders. He went upon the supreme bench in 1901 and was elected chief justice of the supreme court of Colorado in 1907. In his services on the supreme bench Judge Steele handed down opinions in many cases of national importance. At the time of the celebrated labor case in 1904 he handed down a dissenting opinion in the decision which gave the governor the right to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. He was a member of the Legal League.

Judge Steele was re-nominated unanimously by the democratic state convention in September and was regarded as a tower of strength to the democratic ticket. He was stricken with apoplexy the same night on which the republican convention nominated its opponent for chief justice at Colorado Springs and had spent the preceding evening in debate at the republican convention. His place on the democratic ticket will be filled by the democratic executive committee. Mrs. Steele and her daughter were at the bedside when the end came.

SUFFRAGAN BISHOPS WILL BE NAMED

Episcopalian Bishops Reverse Decision; Committee Will Investigate Faith Healing By Prayer.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Cincinnati, Oct. 12.—In the most important session that it has held, the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal convention this afternoon only reversed its decision of a few days ago, when it refused to pass an amendment to the constitution of the church providing for suffragan bishops, but shortly after creating the new suffragan bishops adopted a resolution calling for a committee to investigate faith healing by means of prayer or suggestion.

The question of suffragan bishops had come before the house of bishops last week after the house of deputies had adopted it. The vote at that time was close. Today it was brought up again as a special order of business and was adopted after an interesting debate by a vote of sixty to thirty-one, owing to the fact that the house of deputies has adopted the amendment, it now becomes a law.

This action, though probably the most important taken by the convention, did not create the stir among the delegates that was felt when it was announced that the house of deputies had adopted a resolution calling for a committee to investigate faith healing by means of prayer or suggestion. This is the resolution that was drafted in the house of deputies yesterday by a non-conference of orders, the resolution being adopted by

Army Engineers Not Coming to Albuquerque This Trip

Assured We Are For the Elephant Butte Project and Limited Time Makes Stop Here Impossible; Party Sees Engle Reservoir Site and Goes Thence to the Pecos.

The board of United States army engineers now inspecting the various reclamation service projects in the west and which was expected to arrive here today will not see Albuquerque in the itinerary.

This news came yesterday in the form of a telegram from Industrial Agent H. E. Wilson of the Santa Fe to Secretary H. B. Helling of the bureau of irrigation. The message said that in view of the fact that the engineers are assured that there is no considerable opposition here to the Elephant Butte project on the Rio Grande, the party will not make the extra trip necessary to visit this city. From Las Cruces and the Elephant Butte dam where they spent the day, the engineers, Director F. H. Newell of the reclamation service, Superintendent Engineer L. C. Hill, District Engineer W. M. Wood, Industrial Commissioner Wesley Merrill of the Santa Fe, Mr. Wilson and other members of the party will go to the Pecos valley, and after inspecting the Carlsbad project will continue west.

The news was received with disappointment here. The commercial club has already secured reservations for a reception and banquet to their expected visitor but, regretting was called off on receipt of Mr. Wilson's wire yesterday.

Tuesday night the engineers were rendered an informal dinner at the El Norte hotel in El Paso. Wednesday morning they were rendered a public reception at the chamber of commerce which assumed the nature of a public hearing on irrigation matters a considerable amount of data being prepared for the occasion by the members of the water users' association. Following an automobile trip down the El Paso valley the visitors boarded a special train for Las Cruces at noon and driving from there to the Elephant Butte dam in about two hours they arrived at the project.

After being greeted at an entertainment tendered by the Elephant Butte Water Users' association and other citizens of Las Cruces, the party left for El Paso to spend the day at the site of the Elephant Butte reservoir, where active operations are in progress and much work has already been accomplished.

FIVE OF INDUSTRY IS THE ELEPHANT BUTTE DAM SITE

The best description of the activity now prevalent at the site of the great dam and reservoir published in the following from the "El Paso Herald-Examiner," the weekly newspaper at El Paso which is planning to issue an Elephant Butte edition hereafter chronicling progress of the work.

Director F. H. Newell of the Reclamation Service Who is Showing Army Engineers Engle Dam Site Today

The little tent city lies there in the basin, looking strangely peaceful in the early autumn sunshine, and above it looms the rugged outlines of the coasting elephant, slumbering gray and changeless like the canyon walls of some distant city of the Ganges. To the left stretches a line of tents known as officers' row, in which are the temporary quarters of resident officers. Up the canon to the right are Mexican quarters locally known as "Chihuahua," and across the hill to the left is "Little Donkey," scattered between the shops, mess houses and barracks with considerable space occupied here now in the construction of adobe for the new town.

Recreation like the goal of a laborer, is a public stretch out from it in every direction, curving doubling, crossing and finally disappearing over the brink of the basin. Along these roads squads of men are at work leveling, filling and grading. On the hill to the south of the camp a group of men are clearing ground and taking grades for the erection of the depot, and near by the foundation work are being laid for the first house in the new town, in which are to be located the permanent offices and homes of those in charge of the work. One mile from this point and half a mile below the dam is a flat on the river, another town has been laid out for the workmen. Both towns will be equipped with modern conveniences and thoroughly sanitary, so that those who must make their homes here during the next five or six years will lack nothing of the comforts of life.

In the official town there will be four, five and six room houses, constructed of adobe, pebble dashed, and finished with a view both ornament and convenience. No plans have been accepted for the homes of the workmen. Both towns will be supplied with water from a system now being installed. A large tank is located on one of the highest points, and it will be supplied from a well at the lower town. This well and pump house is being constructed after an original design by Chief Engineer Gault and is something unique in its way, in that both the cement wall and pump house are practically one piece of masonry.

A short distance above the new retaining wall of the dam is to be placed, one notes small excavations at intervals in the river bed. Here the diamond drill men are at work putting down test holes to bed rock. Fifty of these test holes will be sunk along the river at this point, not only for the purpose of determining the nature of the bed rock, but whether or not the material excavated can be otherwise used in construction work.

That portion of the railroad grading extending outward from the camp which was done by the government has been completed. Contractor Brady is on the last and most difficult stretch of the contracted work, namely the blasting of the road down Ash Canon and bridging the same.

Climbing to ledges overhanging the canon hundreds of men are working like ants. Dotting the hillside are groups of two, three and four, laboriously putting down drill holes, and over the hill from some distant point comes an endless procession carrying enormous black cans, powder, one thousand pounds to the hole. At noon and evening the great blasts are set off, in a single moment changing the face of the landscape, sending boulders weighing many tons crashing down the canon, but leaving a little wider ledge on which the men may work, and incidentally creeping forward a few yards toward the goal.

The bridging of Ash Canon consists of a three decked trestle eighty feet high, of which the first deck has been completed, and work begun on the second.

Uncle Sam's official family now resident at Elephant Butte consists of H. J. Gault, construction engineer; S. T. Olsen, fiscal agent; H. S. Stanton, junior engineer; J. E. Burke, bookkeeper, and C. M. Wells, field clerk. Of these S. T. Olsen, H. S. Stanton and C. M. Wells have their families with them and have snug attractive homes in the tent houses back of the officers' row. Mrs. Olsen has the distinction of being the first lady to take up a residence in the camp, and will doubtless occupy the first house now being constructed in the new town. Two bright sturdy boys keep things lively in the Olsen home and help to make it the center of attraction for the entire camp.

Five hundred thousand people are expected to visit the United States Land and Irrigation Exposition which opens in Chicago November 19, will have a chance to view the most comprehensive and striking display of the resources of New Mexico ever gathered together. With the enthusiastic backing of every section of New Mexico, the bureau of immigration, assisted by county and city officials, commercial organizations and citizens generally, has lined up an exhibit which is unique not in its size but in the painstaking care with which the various units have been assembled.

"Quality, not quantity" has been the slogan and the plan has worked out well. New Mexico's space at the exposition will be twice what it was last year. The exhibit however, will be more than twice as representative as a result of the care taken in its selection. Features of the display will be alfalfa seed from Carlsbad; alfalfa and alfalfa meal from Artesia; huge apples from Roswell; splendid photographs showing development around Portales, photographs and brown corn from Clovis; a small but compact general exhibit from Fort Sumner; the magnificent display of fruits from the Mesilla valley, preserved in glass jars by Professor Fabian Garcia and now in the office of the immigration bureau awaiting shipment; an exhibition pump from the Arroyo valley, throwing 1200 gallons of water per minute; health statistics from Silver City; apples from the San Juan; a general exhibit of record-breaking grains from Las Vegas; and an elaborate display of all the products of Colfax county in which all the large land and development concerns of that county will unite.

New Mexico will be well represented by lecturers at the show, this state being granted one period a day for the whole two weeks of the exposition. Among those who will lecture will be Professor J. D. Tinsley, agricultural expert and demonstrator for the Santa Fe railway company; General H. J. Hill, of Chamberlain, in the Mesilla valley; Prof. Fabian Garcia, the horticultural expert of the agricultural and mechanical college; George A. Fleming of Las Vegas, who has been instrumental in the development of the Mesilla valley and her surrounding farm lands; Prof. A. B. Stroup of Albuquerque and others. These lectures will be illustrated by fine stereoscopic pictures the exposition furnishing the machine and New Mexico the slides. One feature will be a big automatic stereoscope, which exhibits eighty views at one starting and which every day will show pictures covering every phase of the agricultural development of New Mexico.

New Mexico at this exposition will receive the greatest amount of advertising in her history—advertising which will help the state economically. The New Mexico exhibit will be adjoining the permanent one at the World's Fair and Nevada's exhibit at the Santa Fe company which will be one of the big drawing cards of the whole show.

All the publicity mentioned in the foregoing and numerous others will have representatives on the ground with stock of literature. The central meet is going to be situated this year as never before on the resources of the Land of Opportunity.

PUBLICITY ASSOCIATION GOING AFTER THE SOUTH.

An advertising campaign for New Mexico among the people of the southern states, which is something in the nature of an experiment has been started.

The weekly bulletin just issued from the immigration bureau office says: "We are just now placing for the publicity association a line of small advertising in several of the southern states, principally Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. We will appreciate it if the members will advise us of the results obtained from following up these southern inquiries. The south, insofar as New Mexico is concerned, is a new field and the advertising is therefore to some extent experimental. We can hardly hope for as heavy direct return on our advertising from these states as has been received from the more crowded central states where the bulk of our advertising has been done up to this time. We are particularly anxious to know just what results are obtained and will be glad to have the members who are using the follow up on these inquiries keep us advised."

Keep After Them.

The Bulletin also says: "Do not let the follow up work on the Bulletin inquiries lag. Our advice shows that those members of the association who are using the close, persistent follow up system are getting the best results. Naturally all the members of the association are not prepared to follow up all the inquiries that they get the result it is especially important that the commercial clubs and boards of trade who are members keep right after every inquiry that comes in. Our advertising is now well scattered over the central and eastern United States. The percentage of second letters coming to this office is increasing daily, showing that our own follow up work is having its effect. We cannot hope to get the result that New Mexico or for any of our districts in a week or a month. The only way we will be able to turn out considerable portion of the western immigration our way is by persistent keeping after them. On July 15th when our advertising started hardly an advertising agency or a newspaper in the country knew anything about the development agencies at work in New Mexico. Now, as a result of the publicity association's work, every advertising agency and every active newspaper in the United States knows that New Mexico is wide awake and moving forward. This is a result of a month's work going after them."

Dry Farming Congress on Business Basis Says Tinsley

New Mexico Representative at Spokane Meet, Now Member of Governors Believes Hard Season Past Will Be Real Benefit in Taking Hot Air Out of Scientific Soil Culture Movement; Gathering Most Harmonious and Helpful Ever Held; Interesting Paper on New Mexico Progress Read by Expert.

"The session of the dry farming congress just closed at Spokane was the most harmonious and the most helpful ever held, in spite of the fact that the dry farmers throughout the west have had a poor season," said Prof. J. D. Tinsley of Mesilla Park yesterday, on his return from Spokane, where he attended the dry farming congress and took a leading part in the work and the discussions. Professor Tinsley was re-elected a member of the executive committee and was also put on the board of governors this year. New Mexico was recognized and honored also elsewhere in the organization.

A. H. Harris of Las Vegas was appointed on the resolutions committee. E. Griggs of Las Vegas on the credentials committee and N. G. Looney of Mesilla was given a place on the nominating committee.

"The meeting adhered strictly to business throughout," said Professor Tinsley. "Everything was thrashed out in the committee meetings and the general gathering devoted itself entirely to the matter in hand—the discussion of dry farming. The executive committee kept a firm hold on the throttle and eliminated every single extraneous matter from the sessions. All the papers were valuable, strictly to the point, and the institute sessions held in a separate room during the congress were largely attended, and so popular that on one day when no institute program had been arranged, the hall filled with delegates who made up a program of their own. There was little demand for literature. The people at Spokane this year were not housewives, but men who have their homesteads and want to know how to make them pay. The dry season prevalent throughout the west has placed the dry farmers face to face with methods. Although it has been hard on many of the farmers, nevertheless this unfavorable season has had the good result of taking all the 'wind' out of the dry farming movement and bringing it down to a hard and fast practical basis. The delegates were all deeply interested, all intensely earnest and united as never before in the common cause of wringing from the arid lands sustenance and profit without irrigation. New Mexico is not alone in passing through a season of serious dryness. All over the northwest the same conditions are found, with here and there small spots of more favored land where they have had enough rain to pull through in fair shape."

Professor Tinsley leaves this week for Montebello, where he will work on out along the cut-off into the eastern counties. Previous to going to Spokane, he had been spending considerable time in the northern part of the state, including Mora and San Miguel counties.

the dry farmers in New Mexico," he said yesterday, "nevertheless they have all raised more or less stuff enough to keep them going. At Wagon Mound, Mora county, for instance, while it has been a bad season, they have made a success of beans and will ship out fifteen carloads from that district."

Summing up the situation in the west, it is not at all discouraging on the other hand, it is hopeful. "The dry farmers have shown not only that they can survive a bad season, but it has taught them the valuable lesson that dry farming means careful, intelligent, hard work; and that, with the proper methods, it will yield good returns."

GOVERNOR ASSISTS PAGES BETTER PAID 200 CARPENTERS FOREST FIRE THAN DELEGATES NEEDED BY THE SUFFERERS IN ARIZONA SANTA FE

No More Bodies Have Been Found in Minnesota Woods Despite Reports of Many Deaths in Flames.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Bandette, Minn., Oct. 12.—With the coming today of Governor Eberhard and other state officials and the arrival of more provisions and supplies, a great deal was accomplished in the way of relief for the forest fire sufferers.

The basis was laid for permanent relief measures which will be taken upon the arrival of Ernest P. Ricknell of Washington, D. C., national director of the American Red Cross. Wild and unconfirmed reports continue to come in of people found dead in the woods, but so far as the local authorities know no more bodies have been found.

Lumber was hauled over from daily river today and actual work commenced toward the building of temporary structures.

Governor Eberhard has received information that generous subscriptions are being received by the various branches of the Red Cross throughout the state, and a telegram from Winona announced that the city council had appropriated $2,000 for relief work.

Lumber will be given to those who wish to build, household goods will be provided and cows and horses furnished wherever possible.

FOREST FIRES RAGING NEAR MARSHALL PASS

Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 12.—Forest fires are raging on both sides of Marshall Pass, and the town of Sargents is in danger, according to reports brought here today from the western slope by mounting parties.

Meadows and forests on both sides of Sargents are burning fiercely. Every available man in the district has been pressed into service and Denver & Rio Grande trains are boarded at stations by men offering five dollars per day for fire fighters.

FLAMING MOUNTAIN TOP MARKS GIGANTIC TORCH

Carlsbad, N. M., Oct. 12.—Forest fires which swept the Chief mountain yesterday, today jumped to Sheep Mountain and tonight that peak is a gigantic torch, sending its flames high into the sky.

Efforts to control the fire by the force of fifty men sent from Denver yesterday proved unavailing, the fire jumping the cleared space made by back firing and setting the work of the fighters at naught.

As far as is known, there has been no loss of life and no ranches according to latest reports, are in immediate danger.

Timber loss so far is estimated at about $150,000 with destruction still proceeding.

Heavy Rain Is Falling

Rainy River, Ont., Oct. 12.—Shortly after 10 o'clock tonight a heavy thunderstorm, accompanied by rain passed over Rainy River and Bandette and its head later a steady rain was falling. While the rain will occasion some discomfort to the refugees, who are sleeping in tents, it will put out the fires that are still smoldering in the district.

Survivors On Vegetable Diet

Bandette, Minn., Oct. 12.—Nineteen men and two boys, aged five and seven years, arrived here tonight after a twenty-five mile tramp through the woods from the Rapid River country. They reported that none had been killed in their vicinity, but that their cabins had been destroyed and their families were living in cool houses. They have been subsisting on vegetable ever since the fire.

The men took turns in carrying the boys. The party was fitted out with clothing and provisions and will start back tomorrow.

TWENTY SQUARE MILES OF TIMBER BURNED

Washington, Oct. 12.—The timber on about twenty square miles of territory in the Rocky mountain west of Denver has been consumed by the forest fire that broke out yesterday. In that region, according to a telegram received by General Land Commissioner Dennett from Chief Asner McKury at Denver.

The progress of the fire eastward has been stayed, but it was extending in other directions. Forty men under two timber cruisers were dispatched last night to fight the flames.

Mr. McKury expressed the opinion that it might be necessary to relocate the fire fighters tomorrow. The fire is in a sparsely settled district and no loss of life is expected.

Yavapai Man Causes Laughter By Moving His Dismissal as Convention Member and Appointment as Page.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 12.—Although the twenty-four standing committee of the constitutional convention will be chosen tomorrow, it is not likely that the assembly will get down to business, as the rules committee has not been able to agree upon a mode of procedure.

Whether the initiative, the referendum or the recall should come first, apparently is puzzling the committee.

Today's session was enlivened by an effort on the part of Delegate Mulford Winsor, of Yuma, to have the pay of the chaplain cut to $2 a day and that of the pages from $5 a day to $2. He failed. In the debate, Delegate Goldwater of Yavapai county caused a laugh by moving for his own dismissal as a member of the convention and his appointment as a page. Under the present rate of pay, the pages will receive $1 more a day than the delegates, as the latter under the enabling act, cannot draw more than $4 a day.

The anti-saloon league gave its first indication of activity today by filing with President Hentz, a request that he appoint two members of its choice upon the committee on matters for future submission. The league desires to have the state-wide prohibition proposition submitted to the people in the election to ratify the constitution.

DEMOCRATS WILL NOT HOLD ANY MORE CAUCUSES

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 12.—The democratic majority controlling the constitutional convention probably will hold no more caucuses, but will fight out on the floor all of the issues involved in drafting the Arizona constitution.

The principles of the initiative, referendum and recall, which are the most important questions to come before the constitution making body, are now assured of some republican support among the delegates. Two of the minority members have announced their intention of supporting these provisions of direct legislation. The democratic majority is already committed to them, having won in the recent election on that issue. The only differences which will arise relate to details of the proposed laws.

WARNER ACQUITTED IN THIRD TRIAL

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—Fred Warner, former member of the St. Louis house of delegates, charged with receiving a bribe in connection with the passage of a bill permitting the establishment of a garage, was acquitted in Judge Hirschbeck's court this afternoon in his third trial.

At his first trial, Warner was convicted and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. This sentence was set aside by the supreme court, which held that the indictment was defective because the definite article "the" was omitted in the phrase "state of Missouri."

At the second trial the jury disagreed.

DURAN MOTORIST FAILED TO HEED THE HIGH SIGN

In Consequence One Torrance County Buzz Wagon Is Wrecked and Four Others Badly Bent; Sad Aftermath of the Fair.

Smashed automobiles, broken and wrecked are the sad aftermath of the third annual New Mexico fair down in Torrance county. Sad, very sad, as the mishap is the evident fact that the newly organized buzz wagon owners of Torrance county with "malice forethought" withheld the story.
Maybe not. They came four strong to the fair had a good time, made a favorable impression in the parade, and some were there to enquire for the other machines which, no doubt, were considered "paper exaggeration." But the story is not new and deals with elaborate preparations by the Torrance Automobile club for an entry into Bernalillo county that was to startle the natives, and prove to this bustling county that there were other five ones in the state. One machine was chosen leader and stop, back-up and come-on signals agreed upon, and all on a bright morning they started with colors flying and at goodly speed. Nine machines were in line, with a large touring car bringing up the rear and operated by a man—whose name is in all kindness withheld—from Duran, clipping along at the rate of 30 miles an hour the head car suddenly gave the halt signal which was passed on back from machine to machine and obeyed by all except the last one, which did not see or, at least, did not heed, for the man from Duran came on 30 miles and all. The first machine hit was cleared of its body and occupants scattered over the landscape all of whom miraculously escaped injury.
Four other cars were put entirely out of commission without loss of life or limb to the occupants, most of whom jumped. And that's why only four automobiles came.

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE
UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Winifred B. Hayden, becomes Bride of Mr. John F. Wolkling; Many Guests Witness Wedding.

A pretty home wedding occurred at 8 o'clock last night when Miss Winifred B. Hayden, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hayden, became the bride of Mr. John F. Wolkling, the marriage being performed at the Hayden residence, 219 North Waller street. Rev. Hugh H. Cooper, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was the officiating minister. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk and carried a huge bouquet of bridal roses.
The wedding was witnessed by thirty-six relatives and intimate friends of the contracting couple.

Following the ceremony, an elaborate wedding dinner was served. In honor of the event, the Hayden home was beautifully decorated, a green and white color scheme being cleverly used throughout.

The newly married couple have a host of friends in Albuquerque and elsewhere who will wish them every happiness in their new life. The bride is one of Albuquerque's beautiful and most popular young ladies, and the groom is a well-known young business man.

Among those who attended the wedding last night were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hayden, Clifford Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolkling, Mr. and Mrs. William Wolkling, Mr.
E. H. Wolkling, Harry Wolkling, Pearl

FAY AND KINSMAN IN HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE

Ever Popular Crystal Theater Is Being Crowded Nightly By Patrons Who Are Immensely Pleased With Clever Sketch.

That strictly high class, refined vaudeville appeals to and is appreciated by the better class of people in Albuquerque, is being indicated in a surprising manner this week at the popular Crystal theater, where Fay and Kinsman of the Sullivan-Con-dole circuit are doing a clever comedy sketch, entitled "Noodles and Snooks." The Crystal has always catered to the first people of Albuquerque, has always maintained its standard of excellence, and has been in turn extensively patronized by the refined and intelligent theater-goers. This week Fay and Kinsman are entertaining the crowds and their act is a perfect gem of politeness, cleverness, refinement, in a word, an act that cannot be otherwise than deeply appreciated by ladies and gentlemen. In addition to the Fay and Kinsman sketch, the regular number of pictures are shown and the Crystal is being packed to capacity at each performance.

WOOL PRICES REMAIN FIRM IN WAITING MARKET AT BOSTON

Headquarters' Review says of the Boston wool situation: Prices continue very firm in a waiting market, with the impression gaining that the mills are preparing for their usual fall buying of material.
Stocks of domestic grades are not bardensome, especially of the higher grades, and dealers say that it is easier to get the outside asking price at present than it was to obtain the lower range a while ago. Sales for the week were moderate, being estimated at a total of about 2,000,000 pounds, largely territory grades, but including considerable Ohio fleeces. The goods situation continues to show slow improvement, not only on next season's goods, but on duplicate heavy weights.
Foreign wools are very scarce in Boston, especially the merinos, and while prices in foreign markets are weaker for the moment, it is stated that this is largely due to the fact that wools suitable for American needs have not yet been offered, and that prices will advance when Americans compete for these grades. Meanwhile, foreign markets remain above a parity with markets on this side.

ISLETA INDIANS ARE ARRESTED

Tranquiliano Lucero and Wife Taken Into Custody on Indictment Charging Assault With Intent to Kill.

On an indictment charging assault with intent to kill, returned at the recent session of the territorial grand jury, Tranquiliano Lucero and wife Teresa Lucero de Lucero, Isleta Indians, were yesterday afternoon arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dike Lewis and brought to Albuquerque, being placed in the county jail. It is alleged that Lucero and his wife assaulted Ortiz Camelaria, a San Domingo, who sustained a fractured skull and was almost fatally injured in a fight during a feast at Isleta about a year ago. The Luceros are quite prominent among the Isleta tribe and band for their appearance in court will probably be furnished today. Mrs. Lucero speaks excellent English and is a daughter of the territorial governor of the pueblo.
