On July 16 in Mexico City, representatives of nine Salvadoran political parties and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN) met for the third time to discuss strategies toward ending the civil war. The parties were expected to present a joint proposal for electoral legislation reform to the FMLN. The rebels had announced they would elaborate on results of the last round of peace talks with government officials, which took place last month in Oaxtepec, Mexico. Jose Francisco Guerrero, President Alfredo Cristiani's personal secretary, told Notimex that the proposed reforms were submitted to the president July 12. Political party representatives included Jose Francisco Guevara (for the Nationalist Republican Alliance-ARENA); Gerardo Lechevalier (Christian Democrat Party); Rafael Machuca (National Conciliation Party); and, Jorge Villacorta (Popular Social Christian Movement-MPSC). The FMLN delegation was headed by Shafick Handal, German Cienfuegos, Roberto Canas and Nidia Diaz. (Basic data from Notimex, 07/16/90)
