

8-20-1898

Santa Fe New Mexican, 08-20-1898

New Mexican Printing Company

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/sfnm_news

Recommended Citation

New Mexican Printing Company. "Santa Fe New Mexican, 08-20-1898." (1898). https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/sfnm_news/4189

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the New Mexico Historical Newspapers at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Santa Fe New Mexican, 1883-1913 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

THE First National Bank OF Santa Fe, N. M.

UNITED STATES DESIGNATED DEPOSITARY

R. J. PALEN - President. J. H. VAUGHN Cashier

J. G. SCHUMANN,

DEALER IN

BOOTS, SHOES, and FINDINGS.

Santa Fe - N. M.

OJO CALIENTE (HOT SPRINGS.)

THESE Celebrated Hot Springs are located in the midst of the Ancient Cliff Dwellers, twenty-five miles west of Taos, and fifty miles north of Santa Fe, and about twelve miles from Barranca Station on the Denver & Rio Grande Railway, from which point a daily line of stages runs to the Springs. The temperature of these waters is from 95 to 125. The gases are carbonic. Altitude 5,000 feet. Climate very dry and delightful the year round. There is now a commodious hotel for the convenience of invalids and tourists. These waters contain 100.34 grains of alkaline salts to the gallon; being the richest Alkaline Hot Springs in the world. The efficacy of these waters has been thoroughly tested by the miraculous cures attested to in the following diseases: Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Consumption, Malaria, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Syphilis, and Mercurial Affections, Scrofula, Catarrh, La Grippe, all Female Complaints, etc., etc. Board, Lodging and Bathing, $2.50 per day. Reduced rates given by the month. This resort is attractive at all seasons and is open all winter. Passengers for Ojo Caliente can leave Santa Fe at 10:05 a. m. and reach Ojo Caliente at 5 p. m. the same day. Fare for the round trip from Santa Fe to Ojo Caliente, 67. For further particulars address—

ANTONIO JOSEPH, Prop., Ojo Caliente, Taos County New Mexico

TELEPHONE 88. (Residence Over Store)

Charles Wagner, BURIAL CASES AND COFFINS

Calls will receive prompt attention day or night from S. B. Warner, funeral director and practical embalmer.

Lower Frisco St - Santa Fe, N. M.

Sulphur Springs Stage Route

Via Bland in the GOLDEN COCHITI.

The best equipped four-horse stage line in the Southwest, from Thornton to the famous Sulphur Springs in the Jemez mountains.

THE SCENIC STAGE ROUTE OF NEW MEXICO.

Leave Thornton Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 8 a. m.; arrive at Bland at 12 m. Leave Bland at 1 p. m. and arrive at Sulphur at 6 p. m. Stage returns from Sulphur on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The new management of the Sulphur Springs has provided FIRST CLASS HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS and reconstructed the Baths and employs competent attendants. Tickets for sale at W. L. Trimble & Co.'s stable at Albuquerque, and agent at Thornton.

—First-Class in all Particulars—

-The Palace Hotel- WM. VAUGHN, Prop.

FRANK HUDSON, Clerk.

No expense will be spared to make this famous hostelry up to date in all respects. Patronage solicited

WARSHIPS IN LINE

Magnificent Pageant of Battleships of Sampson and Schley in New York Harbor.

THE GREAT GUNS BOOMED

Patriotic Fervor of Multitudes Reached a Climax at Tomb of General Grant—New York Never Before Witnessed Such Scenes.

New York, Aug. 20.—New York and the nation today signified the appreciation of the republic of her victorious fleet. The imposing naval pageant of warships has been received in the harbor of the largest city of the country with acclamations of delight and admiration, and the ovation from the shore and from the great flotillas of all sorts of craft on the water have significantly given to the returning heroes some idea of the esteem and admiration in which they are held by the people.

Long before sunrise the guns were fired at Castle William, Governor's Island, and the people were soon astir. Crowds were soon hurrying to the river to be early on the scene.

The New York and New Jersey shores were crowded with people. The river and bay were literally alive with craft and the craft alive with people, all cheering and good-natured.

An impressive scene was when the flags were hoisted on the forts and the flagships. As the stately banners were raised aloft the bands of the forts and on the flagships played "The Star Spangled Banner" and the shores rang with patriotic cheers.

There was very little friction in carrying out the program and no more delay than could be expected. The citizens' committee left the foot of Cortlandt street on the steamer Glen Isle and proceeded down the bay, followed by a long retinue of all sorts and description of craft.

At Tompkinsville the mayor and committee of ten embarked and boarded the police boat Patrol. The Patrol then headed for the flagship with colors flying and bands playing.

The Staten Island shores were literally lined with people and they joined in a general acclamation with the people on myriads of boats.

The welcoming ceremonies were short but impressive. The ceremonies over, amid the hoarse shrieking of steam whistles and the hosannas of throngs on the shore and water, the mayor and committee returned to the Glen Island. Then came the event of the day. There followed considerable wiggling on gray battleships and police boats formed in line. Then came the Glen Island and then the battleships began slowly to move up the bay. There was a salvo of cannons and the cheers of the people and the toots of thousands of whistles made an indelible din.

Soon the monster pageant was in line. As Governor's Island was passed there was a tremendous report from the guns that did so much execution at Santiago and Guantanamo. The people on shore and afloat went wild.

And so it was all way up to Grant's tomb, where there was a fine demonstration of patriotic fervor, such as New York never witnessed before. The pageant was viewed and cheered by hundreds of thousands of people. It was a magnificent and indescribable scene and one never to be forgotten.

Captain of Cristobal Colon Sails Home. New York, Aug. 20.—Emil E. De Morn, formerly captain of the Cristobal Colon, who was taken prisoner after the destruction of the Spanish fleet, was among the passengers on La Mornade which sailed today for Havre.

Charge Against a "Rough Rider." New York, Aug. 20.—A telegram from Kansas City asks for the arrest of Private Seville, of Troop I of the "Rough Riders," who, it is alleged murdered Miss Schumacher in Kansas City, Mo., in 1897. Before the receipt of the telegram Seville disappeared from the camp at Montauk Point and has not yet been found.

NAVAL HEROES HONORED.

President McKinley Makes Several Promotions in the Navy in Recognition of Conspicuous Merit.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The president has made the following promotions in the navy: Commodore John A. Rowell, to be rear admiral, vice Rear Admiral Charles S. Norton, retired; Lieutenant Cameron M. Winslow, to be advanced five numbers on the list of lieutenants for extraordinary heroism; Lieutenant Edwin A. Anderson, to be advanced five numbers on the list of lieutenants for extraordinary heroism; Chief Engineer George Cowie, to be advanced three numbers on the list of chief engineers for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle.

New York Produce Exchange Closed.

New York, Aug. 20.—The New York produce exchange met at 10 o'clock this morning and voted to close the exchange for the day in honor of the great naval pageant.

Immunes at Galveston. Galveston, Aug. 20.—The first regiment of volunteer immunes arrived here from New Orleans yesterday morning and went into camp on the government reserve. Colonel Rich has received no further orders and it is not known whether the regiment will be continued in the service or not.

MARKET REPORT.

New York, Aug. 20.—Money on call nominally at 1 1/2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3 1/4 to 4. Silver, 50 1/2; lead, 33.50; copper, 10 1/2. Chicago.—Wheat, Aug. 65; Sept., 63 1/2. Corn, Aug. 38; Sept., 30 1/2. Oats, Aug. 19 1/2; Sept., 19 1/2. Kansas City.—Cattle, receipts, 150 steady to strong; native steers, $3.95 to $5.65; Texas steers, $3.15 to $4.15; Texas cows, $3.65 to $3.95; native cows and heifers, $1.00 to $4.75; stockers and feeders, $3.35 to $3.45; bulls, $3.75 to $3.85. Chicago.—Cattle, receipts, 300; steady; beefs, $4.35 to $5.70; cows and heifers, $3.00 to $4.80; Texas steers, $3.25 to $4.30; westerns, $3.75 to $4.40; stockers and feeders, $3.40 to $4.40. Sheep, receipts, 2,000; weak to 10c lower; natives, $3.00 to $4.65; westerns, $3.75 to $4.50; lambs, $5.75 to $6.35.

ADMIRALS SAMPSON AND SCHLEY.

Ordered to Washington to Confer With the Authorities Regarding Spanish Evacuation of West Indies.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Admirals Sampson and Schley have been ordered to report at Washington, and it is expected that they will reach here the early part of next week, probably Monday. As they have been appointed to serve respectively on the Cuban and Puerto Rican commissions, their visits here will afford an opportunity to meet their associates on these commissions and discuss with the authorities the general policy to be maintained by this government on the Spanish evacuation of the West Indies.

Repairing Manila Cable.

London, Aug. 20.—The Manila cable it is expected will be reopened for business on Monday or Tuesday next. The cable company has been authorized from both Washington and Madrid to repair and operate this line and the cable repair ship is now en route.

SIX PERSONS LOST THEIR LIVES.

Such Were Among the Results of the Burning of Two Hotels at Arkansas Hot Springs.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Little Rock, Ark., says:

Six persons lost their lives today by the burning of the National and Windsor hotels at Hot Springs, Ark. Five bodies of persons that had been burned have been recovered from the ruins. Mr. Hudgins, of the Indian Territory, was killed by jumping from an upper hotel window.

Only two of the other bodies have been identified, the names being Abe Mathews, of Greenville, Miss., and W. H. Wells, residence unknown. A number of persons were injured by jumping from hotel windows.

A cottage belonging to Colonel O'Brien and the Kentucky livery stable were burned. The loss is $75,000. The fire started at 2 p. m. in the National hotel.

Troops Coming Home.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The following cablegram from General Shafter has been received by the War department: "Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 20.—Adjutant General, Washington: The Yucatan, with 500 of the 7th Infantry, the Santiago with 500 of the 34th Michigan, and the Hudson, with 500 of the 1st District of Columbia, left this morning." (Signed) "SHAFER."

SEÑOR SILVEA'S JAW-BONE.

Insists That American Capture of Manila Does Not Affect Spanish Sovereignty in Rest of Philippines.

Madrid, Aug. 20.—Señor Silvea, now the virtual leader of the conservatives, expresses the view of that party on the capture of Manila in the following statement:

"The capture of Manila in no wise affects the rest of the archipelago; and the cortes should be summoned with urgency in order to prevent the world from gaining the impression that Spain has lost her sovereignty in the Philippines. The Liberal party should consider peace, but the Sagasta cabinet cannot affect the task."

If the queen regent tenders him her invitation, Señor Silvea is disposed to accept the office of premier.

REBELLIOUS INDIANS IN MEXICO.

Serious Trouble with Indians in Yucatan Peninsula—Government Will Use Vigorous Means to Bring Rebels Under Control.

Merida, Yucatan, Mexico, Aug. 20.—The news from the southern part of the peninsula is that the rebel Indians are taking extraordinary measures to prevent information regarding their conditions and state of military preparations from reaching the whites. Any indiscreet disclosure of betraying the tribal secrets is promptly condemned.

Several engineers, who tried to penetrate the wilderness where the Indians are most numerous, have never returned. Among them were a number of Chinese traders and Turkish merchants.

The Indians trade actively with the English colonists of Belize, but give them no information regarding their numbers and military strength. Felipe Ake, who was their chief, recently had to flee for his life with his family, the Indians having become suspicious of his wishing to make peace.

It is probable that the government will undertake a vigorous campaign to bring the rebels under control.

Albuquerque Fair.

The 18th annual fair of the New Mexico Fair & Driving Park Association will open Tuesday, September 27, closing October 1. From the correspondence and applications for space received by the secretary of the association there is no longer any doubt of the success of the fair. The races promise to be above the average. Among other attractions there will be a baseball tournament open to the world, the prizes amounting to $1,000; first $600, second $400. The Santa Fe team is expected to be one of the contesting clubs. Programs for the fair are now in preparation, and will be mailed within a few days.

Territorial Supreme Court.

At the opening of the Territorial Supreme court the announcement was made that after Friday, August 26, no further arguments would be heard in cases.

Case No. 709, Wells, Fargo & Co., express, appellee, vs. Wm. Walker, appellant, appeal from the District court of Bernalillo county, argued and submitted. C. N. Sterry for the appellee, F. W. Clancy and N. B. Field for the appellant.

Case No. 798, Steven Canavan vs. Frank Dugan, appellees, vs. In the matter of the intervening petition of C. W. Smith, receiver of the property of the A. & P. R. Co. C. W. Smith as receiver, etc., appellant, appeal from Bernalillo county, continued until the next term of court, by consent. E. W. Dobson and B. S. Rodey for appellees, C. N. Sterry for the appellant.

Court then adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

If you want a cheap camera, call at Fischer & Co's.

REWARD OF HEROISM

Graphic Account of the Reception That Was Accorded the "Rough Riders" in New York.

STRONG MEN SHED TEARS

New Mexicans, with Their Shrapnel-Torn Silk Banner, Little More Than Shreds of Silk, Conspicuously Honored.

The welcome given the "Rough Riders" and their colonel, when they landed at Montauk Point last Sunday, was worthy of their deeds at Santiago, and is described by the New York Journal as follows:

There were not women enough to lend the scene of debarkation the picturesque and emotional features that the occasion would have warranted, but tears trickled down the bronzed cheeks of bearded men and gruff voices raised in welcoming cheers became husky and broke into sobs as comrade embraced comrade in disregard of the rigid regulations of the quarantine and the double picket guard set to enforce them.

News had got about camp early in the day that the "Rough Riders" would be landed at the lower railway pier about 11 o'clock. The rumor was confirmed when Captain Edwards, of the 1st cavalry, threw a double line of dusky troopers from the 9th cavalry all about the pier and its approaches.

To keep back the crush of the crowds Captain Edwards had to send for an extra detachment of guards. "Rough Riders" from the Tampa detachment had begged the privilege of acting as the reception guard to their comrades, and it was accorded them.

On the end of an empty express car, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. John A. Logan, Jr., Miss Babcock and Mrs. Downes, wife of Colonel Downes, of the 71st New York, were placed in posts of vantage, surrounded by gallant gold-laced officers of cavalry. Below, all around, crowded and packed, were "Rough Riders" and 3d cavalry troops.

At 10:45 the big transport Miami, "No. 1," by the immense white numeral on the stern, got up her anchor and steamed cautiously in toward the dock. In a moment or so it became apparent that the fine passenger ship had been decked over with a rough roof of pine boards, and that a lowering superstructure had been extemporized of the same rough material.

Mrs. Logan waved her handkerchief frantically, and so did the other ladies. "Oh, I must see General Wheeler," said Mrs. Logan. "He has just left my boy Jack and can tell me all about him."

The first man over the rail of the transport was Dr. Magruder, the quarantine inspection officer, who had boarded the Miami and disinfected her. The first man to step down the gangway was General Wheeler. Directly behind him came Colonel Roosevelt, General Jose's 70 years set very lightly upon his silvered head yesterday. The old cavalry leader was slightly dressed. His blue fadigue jacket fitted his slender, little figure like a glove, his riding boots gleamed below close-set breeches of the dandiest cavalry style. His white beard and white helmet accentuated the mahogany brown of his complexion.

The old general trotted down the gangplank with the agility of his cadet days, and seized Captain Edwards by the hand. Colonel Roosevelt, heavier, dressed in the brown duck and bright yellow facing of his corps, came down the plank more sedately, beaming through his glasses beneath the shade of a broad sombrero. He shook hands with Captain Edwards, too, and then, turning, was clasped in a regular way by General Young, commander of the camp, who had just arrived. General Wheeler, too, came in for a warm embrace from General Young.

It was more affecting than as if a woman had been a party to the salutation. Behind General Wheeler and Colonel Roosevelt came the gentlemen of their staffs. Navy officers from the cruisers and transports came ashore in cutters and participated in the general hand shake.

Behind the staff came the band of the 3d cavalry, which, with Troops F and C of that regiment, came on the Miami. The bandsmen, ragged, bearded, bronzed, unslinging their battered instruments and took a position on the dock. Clearly the cavalry intended to land with the usual jangle ceremony of that arm of the service.

A General Wheeler and Colonel Roosevelt moved down the dock with their officers following, the band blazed out the introductory bass of "Rally Round the Flag," and the cheers that had gone before were eclipsed by a roar that made the sound waves crinkle. Another followed as the colors of the 3d cavalry came into sight. Troop F led, at its head that gallant Captain Dodd, who wounded nearly to death in the hornets' nest at Bloody Bend, tried to crawl out of the hospital to rejoin his troop.

"Three cheers for General Jose Wheeler and the heroes of Santiago," came a shout from a car roof. Even Mrs. Logan joined in that cheer.

"Three cheers for Captain Brown," came next, and a slender, pale man in the black uniform of an officer, bowed gravely, but smilingly, at the recognition.

The band swung into "Auld Lang Syne" as a standard—crimson, white and blue shreds of shrapnel-torn silk, supported on either side by a gaudy gaudion, came down the dock. It was the flag presented to the "Rough Riders" by the ladies of New Mexico—the flag that was hoisted over that block house at Siboney, of which our men had made a chancel house. Beneath its folds walked proudly Major Horsey, of the "Rough Riders." Behind it came 30 men—all that Spanish bullets and Cuban fevers had left serviceable out of the 100 brave lads who went into the fight beneath the gaudion of Company C.

"Say, 'Hub,' where did you get the Galways?" yelled one Montana man to another. "Hub," pale weak, leaning on a comrade's arm, grinned and pointed to a Spanish sabre which he carried by way of reply.

Troop E, Captain Muller, followed Troop C beneath the colors which the New Mexicans prize above life itself. Meantime Colonel Roosevelt was warmly greeting his brother-in-law, Mr. Cowles, and Douglas Robinson, of the Red Cross Society. Troop B came by headed by Lieutenants Wilcox and Remington. The troops' gallant commander, Captain McClintock, lies in a New York hospital severely wounded.

"Not over half of them there," sobbed a tall rider frankly, wiping away his tears. Ahead of troop F marched jaunty Captain Maximiliano Luna, the "smartest" officer in the regiment; Luna of New Mexico. Luna at once dandy, border fighter and hero. He had a fine Panama hat, a Spanish officer's once drawn rakishly over his handsome eyes. Close behind him marched a tall man who carried a Spanish Mauser beside his carbine.

"That's Sinnett," growled a tank rider. "He was left with the Tampa detail, deserted, beat his way to Santiago on a transport and joined his troop. Wish I'd done it."

Lieutenant Greenway led G troop down the dock. "Greenway of Yale," he used to be, mighty player on the Varsity football team. Behind him came a sick soldier, who wore instead of a cant a jersey with the flaming colors of Princeton.

"Charley Hokey" commented the tall rider, jocosely.

"He was the first man we put in the guard house. It was at San Antonio. Hokey stole a Mexican dog for a mascot."

Lieutenant Woodbury Kane led K troop in place of Captain Hunter, who is ill at Santiago. A bowl of welcome greeted the silk gaudion of the troop, which was presented to it by a San Antonio society woman with the adjuration: "This isn't a dress parade gaudion. I want you to carry it into battle."

Last of the gallant band of "Rough Riders" came Troop L. Strong men sobbed aloud as its decimated ranks filed slowly by, for gallant Allyn Capron was captain of Troop L and "Ham" Fish was its 1st sergeant.

"Both dead and Lieutenant Thomas still laid up with a bad wound," groaned the tall rider. "They were the boys that led the way into the creek of it, and they caught it worst."

The band followed the last troop of riders and then General Wheeler and Colonel Roosevelt, who had been talking across the picket line with Mrs. Logan, mounted their horses and so did the members of the staff and the officers of General Young's escort. While the command was forming, Colonel Roosevelt sitting upon his horse, greeted the newspaper men cordially.

Two members of the "Rough Riders" walked painfully along the dock to where their troop, Troop A, was standing. They were so weak they had to sit down. After the regiment got in motion they tried to follow, but got no more than 100 yards when they got to drop out and fall in the shed of a stable belonging to the railroad company. Private Van Sicken, of the same troop, was detailed to help them until the arrival of the ambulance.

Mrs. Logan, Miss Babcock and Mrs. Downes rode in their hackboard in the rear of the regiment. They saw the two "Rough Riders" drop out of the line. Mrs. Downes stopped the rig, and the three climbed down. Mrs. Downes carried a basket of fruit, the best that the New York market provided. The three women knelt down by the side of the rough-bearded men, and with her own hand Mrs. Downes forced grapes between their lips. The men were George M. Carter and William Whalen, of Prescott, A. T., both members of the famous "Ruck" O'Neill's troop.

"Poor brave soldiers," said Mrs. Logan, sympathetically; "you have served your country nobly, and you will receive a warm welcome from the American people. You will get the best of care when you get to the hospital."

Someone introduced the white-haired woman as the widow of General Logan. The men evinced an eager interest in her then, and Mr. McCarter held out his hand to her again.

"Are you General Logan's wife," he said. "You, surely are the friend of the sick soldiers."

Some one offered to get the men a drink of water. Miss Babcock remarked in an undertone to Captain Gilfoyle, who stood by her, "Can't you get them a little whiskey?" "I don't think there is a drop near here," said Captain Gilfoyle.

"If you can get any they can have one drink only," said Mrs. Logan. The women rode to the restaurant at the station and bought a lot of sandwiches for the troopers.

WHITE OAKS HAPPENINGS.

School Matters in Lincoln County—Fruit and Vegetables Injured by Hail—Gadet Appointed to New Mexico Military Institute.

White Oaks, Aug. 17.—This hamlet is rejoicing, in its quiet and unobtrusive way, over the signing of the protocol and the cessation of hostilities. The business outlook, through all avenues, continues to brighten.

The teachers' normal institute of Lincoln county began a two weeks' session Monday, with Miss Elizabeth Austin and Miss May Gilmore as instructors. The attendance promises to be extremely satisfactory in spite of the long distances to be traveled and the expense of tuition and board, which is away out of proportion to the salaries paid to teachers.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious. ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. FOR SALE BY H. B. CARTWRIGHT & BRO.

White Oaks is entirely exempt from any smallpox, indeed there has not been an epidemic, much less a contagious disease in the place for more than a twelve month. The extreme healthfulness of the locality makes it safe for a convention of any kind at all times, to meet here.

The school trustees have elected Miss Elizabeth Austin and Miss Uta Gilmore to teach the White Oaks public school the coming year. Miss Austin is a successful and experienced teacher, having been employed for several years in the public schools of Kansas City, Mo.

Spencer, the 4-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, of this place, died Monday afternoon, August 15, of spinal meningitis. His illness was brief, but most painful. The little fellow was unusually bright and winning in manner, and was greatly endeared to all friends and relatives. His death is a sad bereavement to the parents as it is also to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Parker and Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Lane. Mrs. F. H. Lang, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Timoney, of Roswell, is visiting her brother, Bert Timoney, of this place.

Quite a party of White Oaks denizens are taking their summer outing up in the Capitan mountains, where the wild raspberries grow in abundance. These wild berries grow very large and fine and have a finer flavor than any of the cultivated varieties. The party has been out but a week and send in the report that they have canned more than 100 quarts.

Geo. Kimball, Jr., of Picoche, is the cadet chosen by the Lincoln county commissioners to represent the county, or rather to receive the benefits of a scholarship, in the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell. The appointment was made very easily and as there was but the one applicant for the place there was no need of an examination. Were the position still vacant there would be a half dozen or more applicants.

S. M. Wiener, Jr., of the firm of Wiener & Son, large and exclusive dry goods merchants, has gone east to purchase a fall stock of goods.

The Tallaferr Mercantile & Trading Company is handling the fruit from the Coglin ranch and the Coglin Bros. handle that from the Barber ranch. None finer can be produced anywhere.

Juvenile birthday parties and afternoons devoted to the entertainment of the grownups do not abate here on account of the dog-days as they must needs do in most places. A feature worthy of note was a flower piece arranged by school-children in the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell. The arrangement was made very early and as there was but the one applicant for the place there was no need of an examination. Were the position still vacant there would be a half dozen or more applicants.

The Old Abe mine still continues to offer the greatest encouragement to its owners. Down below the 900-foot level a vein of ore has been struck that assays $100 to the ton. The company has begun putting up a cyanide plant and will soon have it in operation. Wm. Watson, one of the mine owners, will superintend the plant. Three of the large tanks are already in place. The mine employees have converted them into swimming and bathing tanks, for the present, in which capacity they afford most luxurious pleasure.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Outstanding Assurance December 31, 1897.	$951,165,837.00
New Assurance written in 1897.	156,955,693.00
Proposals for Assurance Examined and Declined.	24,491,073.00
Income.	48,572,969.53
Assets, December 31, 1897.	236,876,308.04
Reserve on all existing Policies (4 per cent standard) and all other liabilities.	186,333,133.30
Surplus, 4 per cent standard.	50,543,174.74
Paid Policy Holders in 1897.	21,106,314.14

LARGEST STRONGEST BEST Pays Larger Dividends ($1,000,000 more during last five years.) Issues Better Policies. Walter N. Parkhurst, General Manager, NEW MEXICO AND ARIZONA DEPARTMENT, ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO.

Cars.

O. M. HAMPSON,
Commercial Agent,
Denver, Colo.

Connection can be made at Alamo-gordo with stages for La Luz, Tularosa and the White Oaks country.

A. S. GREIG,
General Superintendent

Revolution in Italy.
The recent broad riots in Italy are believed to be simply mutterings before the storm. The trouble is the people are overtaken. A great part of their earnings is taken by the government. As times go by the crisis approaches, and the end is likely to be the same as in the American revolution. Many men and women try to do too much. They overtax their system as government overtax their subjects. Then comes a break-down. The stomach, kidneys, liver and nerves are affected. What is required is a medicine like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to restore the strength, and build up new and healthy tissues. Any druggist will supply it, and the sufferer will be astonished after taking it to see how quickly it acts.

Looking the Matter Over.
Have you considered the trouble we may have with the people abroad if we annex these outlying islands?
Not much, replied the master-of-fact Congressman. But I have given some thought to the trouble we're likely to have with constituents at home if we don't.

TREATMENT FOR WEAK MEN.
TRIAL WITHOUT EXPENSE.
The famous Apollon and Remedies of the Elix Medical Co. now for the first time offered on trial without expense to any honest man. Not a dollar to be paid in advance. Cure Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Manhood Fully Restored. How to Enlarge and Strengthen Weak Undeveloped Portions of Body. Absolutely unerring Home Treatment. No C. O. D. or other scheme. A plain offer by a firm of high standing.
ELIX MEDICAL CO. 64 N. GARDEN ST. BUFFALO, N. Y.

Too Much.
Mrs. Gooding—I hear that your girl has left. What was the trouble?
Mrs. Wilby—Oh, it was on account of her bicycle.
Mrs. Gooding—I shouldn't think you'd object to that. Most of them have wheels now you know.
Mrs. Wilby—Yes, but she wanted my husband to pump up her tires.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumpdown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

A Qualification.
Lord de Liveris—When I tell you that I look upon your daughter as a pearl beyond price.
Mr. Bonstock—deprecatingly—Oh, come now! Aren't you putting it a little strong?
Lord de Liveris—Well, beyond my price at any rate.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by A. C. Ireland.

L'Enfant Terrible.
Guest seated at table between host and hostess—to the child of the house. We're good friends, we two—aren't we?
Child—Rather. And I'm not like mamma. I don't mind saying it before papa.

The Best Remedy For Flux.
Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by A. C. Ireland.

Quite Futile.
She—I fairly ran my legs off trying to get a place in the chorus.
He—And then of course, further effort was futile.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for many years and bear cheerful testimony to its value as a medicine which should be in every family. In coughs and colds we have found it to be efficacious and in croup and whooping cough in children we deem it indispensable.—H. P. Ritter, 4137 Fairfax ave., St. Louis, Mo. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

Burlington Route
Flowers on every table.

Real Haviland China, sterling silver, genuine Belfast linen, electric fans, movable chairs; these are features of our dining-car service which warrant us in claiming that it is different from that of most railroads.
Add to this that the prices are reasonable, the service prompt, and that the food is the best the market affords, and you have a combination that pleases 99 out of every 100 patrons.
Omaha, Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis—all points east and southeast. Two trains a day from Denver—they leave at 9:30 a. m. and 9:50 p. m.

G. W. Vallery, General Agent,
1039 17th St. Denver.

P. S.—If you go east via Omaha and the Burlington Route, you can stop off and see the Trans-Mississippi Exposition.

The Progress of Science.
Jones—Medical science is making wonderful strides, isn't it?
Brown—Yes, marvelous; I don't believe they'll ever discover a disease that they can't find a name for.

On Duty.
Inquiring person—What time did the hotel catch fire?
Fireman—Midnight.
Inquiring person—Everybody got out safe?
Fireman—All except the night watchman. They couldn't wake up him in time.

SINCE THE TROLLEY'S COME TO TOWN.
Ring cut the lead hosannas and do the job up town.
For at last we have a trolley a-running through the town.
The farmers stop their haying and wonder at the sight.
For the way the cars go scooting is a revelation quite.
Their clanging and their buzzing all other noises drown.
For they make an awful racket a-running through the town.

The old town doesn't seem the same. It's mighty bright and gay,
And every one can celebrate its resurrection day.
'Twas buried many years ago, and buried good and deep,
But now it has awakened from its Rip Van Winkle sleep.
And every hour of the day the cars run up and down,
And every one is tickled now the trolley's come to town.

There's two new larks a-going up, excitement everywhere.
And a mild form of paroxysm seems to permeate the air.
The benefits to be derived have surely taken root.
While real estate has risen to fifteen cents a foot.
And all the wimmin folks have bought a brand new muslin gown.
For they're bound to cut a figure now the trolley's come to town.
—Hartford Times.

AN EERIE EPISODE.
It was at a masquerade at Galinber ti's studio in one of the old Roman palaces. There were music, the tripping sound of dancing feet, laughter and the unintelligible hum of conversation mingled in a gay medley.
Carson, an American, a new arrival in the city and a stranger to that colony of sculptors and painters, had been accidentally separated from the friend who brought him in the crowd shortly after his entrance to the ballroom.

He was wandering listlessly among the merry maskers, quite regardless of their gibes and laughter at his expense. Tired at length of his aimless peregrinations, he turned aside from the glaring lights and beat to the shade and coolness of the balcony.
The wide casements at the end of the room were open and gave an unobstructed view of the kaleidoscopic scene within. A divan near the balustrade offered a place for repose, but it was not until he was seated that he was aware of the presence of a lady. She occupied the farther end of the divan and was partially concealed by the drooping tresses and palms with which the balcony was decorated. She moved slightly in her nest of tricolored cushions, and her fan fell with a slight clatter upon the stone floor.
Carson picked it up and gave it to her with a courteous bow. She thanked him, speaking in English, with just the slightest Italian accent.
"I fear that I am intruding, signora," he said.
"Not so. The balcony is free to all who come. There can be no intrusion."
She reached up her hand as she spoke and pushed aside the feathery branches that swayed between them. Then he saw that she was young and very fair to look upon.

She was decidedly English. She wore an indescribable swathing garment of soft texture that was gathered up closely about her neck and fell to her feet in long, clinging folds—strongly suggestive of a Bernhardt costume. Two beautifully shaped arms were bare to the shoulder, and the small hands that lay in her lap looked as though they had been modeled in wax.
She leaned back, resting her head upon the stuccoed pillar, her fan waving languidly to and fro.
"Permit me," said the American, taking the dainty lace and ivory trifle from her hand and fanning her gently. She smiled a gracious assent, and it began talking.

It was so warm in the ballroom and one grew so tired dancing, she said. Did the gentleman dance? Perhaps he was not acquainted with many ladies—a stranger in Rome? Was he an artist or a sculptor?
"Neither, signora. I am an attaché."
"From what country—England?"
"No—America."
"America! Ah, that marvelous land!" She chatted on in an open, friendly manner until a bevy of tired dancers invaded their retreat. Among them was his friend Tarro.
"Great heavens, Carson! Where have you been? I have looked everywhere for you. Everybody is unmasking, and it is time for supper. No doubt you are starving. Come, I have secured a table, and you are to meet some charming women. What have you been doing here all alone? It was exceedingly stupid in us to get separated."
"I have not been alone," replied Mr. Carson. He glanced around, but the lady was gone.
"Not alone? Why, who was with you?"
"The lady. Did you not see her when you came?"
"A spruce, my dear boy. I saw no lady. No, you sat there mooring, staring in a most sentimental manner at that Moorish lantern hanging over there. Come along. They are waiting for us."

They lingered long over their supper. There were merry, high pitched talking and much laughter, but Carson was not in a state of hilarity. His restless, bored glance wandered over the assembly, and once he started and turned sharply in his chair at the low voice of a woman who, with her escort, passed close beside him.
Tarro tried to rally him on his abstraction, but his brow contracted fretfully, and he nervously fingered a spray of flowers that lay by his plate. He was not sorry when the ball was over and he found himself on the pavement outside of the palace.
A cab was waiting, but without knowing why he declined to accompany his friend, saying he preferred to walk to his hotel. He sauntered along slowly, with bowed head, absent staring at the dim shadows cast by the waning moon. As he was passing across the Piazza de Farnese he heard a low voice speaking:

"So we meet again!"
He halted. She, his new acquaintance, was beside him.
"Signora! You here at this hour and alone? Where are your friends?"
She smiled. "You will walk with me to the street below, will you not?"
"Certainly. But your friends—their carelessness is criminal."
They walked through the square and down several streets almost in silence. Presently she stopped before the entrance of a house.
"Here, signora!" she said.
Almost simultaneously she swayed forward and caught his arm, at the same time uttering a smothered cry.
"You are hurt!" he exclaimed anxiously. "You have twisted your ankle on those wretched stones."
"I fear so." She pressed her hand upon her bosom and looked into his eyes with mute appeal.
"You cannot walk." He stooped and gathered her up into his arms. "I will carry you. Which floor?"
"The fourth," she replied, her face flushing as the light of the early day fell upon it.
A drowsy janitor answered his ring. He ascended the first flight of stairs without pausing, carrying her as a nurse might a child, happy at the delicious touch of her bare arms against his neck as she clasped him.

On the second flight ascent was not so easy. Her weight grew heavier, and the head that had now fallen on his shoulder pressed like a ball of iron, her arms were relaxing their clasp and lay against his neck with startling coldness. She seemed to be letting herself go, and at each step grew heavier in proportion.
He was no longer carrying a listless maiden, but something burdensome and horrible—something that was bearing him down and suffocating him with a sensation as though his chest was bursting.
On the third landing he felt her slipping.
"Signora," he faltered.
He sought to renew his hold, but the burden, now a dead weight, slid from his arms, and she fell with a heavy thud to the floor.
"What noise is this?" called a masculine voice in Italian.
Carson began a hasty explanation to the man, whose head protruded from a partially open door.
The man came forward and bent over her.
"She does not belong here," he said.
"She is a stranger. She is pale as death. Unfasten her clothing. She must have fainted. Where is the janitor? The fool! He never is here when he is needed. Call him, signor, and send for a physician." His hasty hand broke the knot of ribbon that confined her bodice. With a wild exclamation he instantly loosened his hold on her dress and started backward. The full throat and white bust were exposed. There were deep bluish purple bands around the throat and a gaping dagger wound, dark with coagulated blood, on the snowy bosom.
Their cries aroused the janitor, who hastened to call the police. Presently he returned, panting up the stairs, accompanied by an officer. Carson drew aside the curtain, and the bright light of day fell upon the body.
"Holy Virgin!" cried the policeman as he saw the dead woman.
"Can you identify her?" asked Carson.
"Yes," returned the man. "She is the woman who was found murdered on the Corso night before last. How came she here?"—M. M. Halm in Argonaut.

Hebrew Texts of the Old Testament.
The most ancient Hebrew manuscript of any part of the Bible is in St. Petersburg and dates no earlier than the tenth century. More than 2,000 copies of the Hebrew Old Testament have been compared, and very few variations have been found. This is accounted for by the fact that from the time when the Hebrew canon was formed, and even before that time, very strict rules were laid down for the scribes who copied the Bible. The lines and letters were counted, and each copy had to correspond precisely with the one from which it was taken. They calculated, for instance, that there were 5,245 verses in the Pentateuch, 22,206 in the whole Bible and 78,100 letters in Genesis. All of these rules and calculations were called the Masorah tradition, and about the tenth century the college of rabbis of Eilat, on the Euphrates, decided upon a standard Bible, or "authorized version."

The Hebrew consonants alone had been written down to that time, the pronunciation being a matter of tradition. Now a system of vowel signs was devised, fixing the sense in many instances. The vowels are just as important in Hebrew as in English; so it is easy to see how necessary this reform was. The English consonants r d m may be read hard or broad, or bared or braided, and if they occurred in a sentence without the vowels we should have to guess by the connection which vowels were necessary. It is possible that after a text had been adopted all older manuscripts were destroyed, or more probably were neglected because of their defects, and hence they have altogether disappeared.—Review of Reviews.

Trees and the Air.
According to a reliable computation, a single tree is able through its leaves to purify the air from the carbonic acid arising from the respiration of a considerable number of men—as many as a dozen or a score. The volume of carbonic acid exhaled by a human being in the course of 24 hours is estimated at 100 gallons, and a single square yard of leaf surface, counting both the upper and under sides of the leaves, can decompose about a gallon of carbonic acid in a day.

It Made Her Sad.
Mrs. Miffley—Did you have a nice time while you were away?
Mrs. Crosthwaite—Not my husband kept writing that he was getting along well and urging me to stay as long as I liked.

What It Shows.
She—Doesn't the elimination of the word "obey" from the marriage service show that women are becoming more independent?
He—In my opinion it shows that they are becoming more truthful.

the dim shadows cast by the waning moon. As he was passing across the Piazza de Farnese he heard a low voice speaking:
"So we meet again!"
He halted. She, his new acquaintance, was beside him.
"Signora! You here at this hour and alone? Where are your friends?"
She smiled. "You will walk with me to the street below, will you not?"
"Certainly. But your friends—their carelessness is criminal."
They walked through the square and down several streets almost in silence. Presently she stopped before the entrance of a house.
"Here, signora!" she said.
Almost simultaneously she swayed forward and caught his arm, at the same time uttering a smothered cry.
"You are hurt!" he exclaimed anxiously. "You have twisted your ankle on those wretched stones."
"I fear so." She pressed her hand upon her bosom and looked into his eyes with mute appeal.
"You cannot walk." He stooped and gathered her up into his arms. "I will carry you. Which floor?"
"The fourth," she replied, her face flushing as the light of the early day fell upon it.

A drowsy janitor answered his ring. He ascended the first flight of stairs without pausing, carrying her as a nurse might a child, happy at the delicious touch of her bare arms against his neck as she clasped him.
On the second flight ascent was not so easy. Her weight grew heavier, and the head that had now fallen on his shoulder pressed like a ball of iron, her arms were relaxing their clasp and lay against his neck with startling coldness. She seemed to be letting herself go, and at each step grew heavier in proportion.
He was no longer carrying a listless maiden, but something burdensome and horrible—something that was bearing him down and suffocating him with a sensation as though his chest was bursting.
On the third landing he felt her slipping.
"Signora," he faltered.
He sought to renew his hold, but the burden, now a dead weight, slid from his arms, and she fell with a heavy thud to the floor.
"What noise is this?" called a masculine voice in Italian.
Carson began a hasty explanation to the man, whose head protruded from a partially open door.
The man came forward and bent over her.
"She does not belong here," he said.
"She is a stranger. She is pale as death. Unfasten her clothing. She must have fainted. Where is the janitor? The fool! He never is here when he is needed. Call him, signor, and send for a physician."

His hasty hand broke the knot of ribbon that confined her bodice. With a wild exclamation he instantly loosened his hold on her dress and started backward. The full throat and white bust were exposed. There were deep bluish purple bands around the throat and a gaping dagger wound, dark with coagulated blood, on the snowy bosom.
Their cries aroused the janitor, who hastened to call the police. Presently he returned, panting up the stairs, accompanied by an officer. Carson drew aside the curtain, and the bright light of day fell upon the body.
"Holy Virgin!" cried the policeman as he saw the dead woman.
"Can you identify her?" asked Carson.
"Yes," returned the man. "She is the woman who was found murdered on the Corso night before last. How came she here?"—M. M. Halm in Argonaut.

Hebrew Texts of the Old Testament.
The most ancient Hebrew manuscript of any part of the Bible is in St. Petersburg and dates no earlier than the tenth century. More than 2,000 copies of the Hebrew Old Testament have been compared, and very few variations have been found. This is accounted for by the fact that from the time when the Hebrew canon was formed, and even before that time, very strict rules were laid down for the scribes who copied the Bible. The lines and letters were counted, and each copy had to correspond precisely with the one from which it was taken. They calculated, for instance, that there were 5,245 verses in the Pentateuch, 22,206 in the whole Bible and 78,100 letters in Genesis. All of these rules and calculations were called the Masorah tradition, and about the tenth century the college of rabbis of Eilat, on the Euphrates, decided upon a standard Bible, or "authorized version."

The Hebrew consonants alone had been written down to that time, the pronunciation being a matter of tradition. Now a system of vowel signs was devised, fixing the sense in many instances. The vowels are just as important in Hebrew as in English; so it is easy to see how necessary this reform was. The English consonants r d m may be read hard or broad, or bared or braided, and if they occurred in a sentence without the vowels we should have to guess by the connection which vowels were necessary. It is possible that after a text had been adopted all older manuscripts were destroyed, or more probably were neglected because of their defects, and hence they have altogether disappeared.—Review of Reviews.

Trees and the Air.
According to a reliable computation, a single tree is able through its leaves to purify the air from the carbonic acid arising from the respiration of a considerable number of men—as many as a dozen or a score. The volume of carbonic acid exhaled by a human being in the course of 24 hours is estimated at 100 gallons, and a single square yard of leaf surface, counting both the upper and under sides of the leaves, can decompose about a gallon of carbonic acid in a day.

It Made Her Sad.
Mrs. Miffley—Did you have a nice time while you were away?
Mrs. Crosthwaite—Not my husband kept writing that he was getting along well and urging me to stay as long as I liked.

What It Shows.
She—Doesn't the elimination of the word "obey" from the marriage service show that women are becoming more independent?
He—In my opinion it shows that they are becoming more truthful.

Appearances Speak.
A young man sent his father, an old farmer in the country, his photograph, accompanied with a request for aid, as he was poor. The old man looked over the photograph and then responded: "You can't cheat me, you young dog. You can't be very poor to be living among them marble vases and statues and flowers and nice furniture, such as your photograph shows."—Tit-Bits.

Misunderstood.
Bacon—And you say Sue gave you cigars last night?
Egbert—I said nothing of the kind.
"Didn't you say she pressed some cigars on you?"
"Yes; they were cigars I had bought, though, and were in my pocket."—Yonkers Statesman.

Coming Terrors.
"Bridget, who is that at the door?"
"It's a poor man, mum. He wants something to eat."
"If he's another refugee driven out of Spain by the war, tell him there's nothing left for him. We've already fed 11 ex-con-sults this morning."—Chicago Tribune.

When a man is struck down by a poisoned arrow tipped with the venom of the deadliest serpents, he knows that his time has come. Death is only a question of moments, but not one man in a thousand realizes that when a little extra bile gets into his blood his whole system is being poisoned just as truly as if a venom-tipped arrow was sticking in his vitals.

Katzenbach poison is a good deal quicker than bile-poison but the latter will do just as deadly work if it keeps on accumulating in the system. Probably two-thirds of the cases that end in consumption begin with "liver complaint" and indigestion. These troubles never get as far as consumption if Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was used before the bile-poisoning got fairly under way. This remarkable "Discovery" invigorates the torpid liver and gives it power to filter the poisons out of the system rapidly and thoroughly.

It strengthens the digestive fluids and enables them to make rich red nourishing blood; it builds up healthy muscle, steady nerve force and enduring strength.
The experience of Mr. Val Burkard, living at 66 Mohr Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., is given in his own words: "Five weeks ago I followed your advice and took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and now they are recommended to me. I consider myself entirely cured, as there have been no eruptions since I finished the last bottle. I think it is the greatest remedy on the globe for blood and digestive disorders. My appetite increased wonderfully and I have also gained flesh. I would like everybody to know the true value of Dr. Pierce's medicines as I am confident by persistent use they cure all ailments. I consider myself a great benefactor. No household should be without a reliable doctor's book. Send 21 one-cent stamps for Dr. Pierce's 1000-page 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. A heavier cloth-bound volume at 1 stamp.

HIS ADVICE.
What the Man of Experience Thought of the Klondike.
"Now that you have made up your mind to go to the Klondike, let me give you a little advice," said the man of experience. "I will be glad to have you," returned the young man who was preparing to start. "I know you to be a man of sound sense and great experience, and anything you may say will have my serious consideration. However, I don't mind informing you that I have already received enough advice to stick a combination circulating and reference library."

"Nevertheless," returned the man of experience, "I think my suggestions will differ greatly from all you have received so far, and I am egotistical enough to think they will be quite as valuable. Of course you own freedom and no one should start for the Klondike without the most thorough preparation."
"No less than 18 men have so informed me," replied the venturesome one, "and in addition to that I had reached the same conclusion myself."
"The outfit that you will have to buy in San Francisco or Seattle will cost you several thousand dollars, if it is to be at all complete."
"I realize it and have made my arrangements accordingly. I shall take enough provisions to last me a whole year."

"You own freedom and the transportation of your equipment will cost quite a tidy sum," continued the man of experience, "and you should aim to have at least $2,000 in cash with you when you strike Dawson City."
"I anticipate that I will have $500 more than that."
"In case you have money enough to do all this," the man of experience went on, "there is only one place of real common sense advice that I can give you, and that is to stay right here in this country and live on the money for the next three years, and if you haven't struck something that pays at least moderately well in that time you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you haven't gone broke so quick by two years as have been the case in Alaska."—Chicago Post.

A Postville Idyl.
He—How do you like the changes of color invented by poster artists?
She—Very much; especially the scarlet hues they have given fruit trees.
He—Why so?
She—Oh, green fruit always used to make me ill.—New York World.

"Small Favors Thankfully Received."
A North Carolina paper says: "A negro struck his wife two terrible blows on the head with an ax. The negro escaped to the woods, and his wife soon revived and said: 'I might glad he done it, kase now he'll stay c'ne de de neighborhood, on I won't have ter suppo't him no mo'. It wuz a lucky day for me w'en he hit me wid dat ax!'"
Very few of us are as thankful as that for these little blessings in disguise.—Atlanta Constitution.

Appearances Speak.
A young man sent his father, an old farmer in the country, his photograph, accompanied with a request for aid, as he was poor. The old man looked over the photograph and then responded: "You can't cheat me, you young dog. You can't be very poor to be living among them marble vases and statues and flowers and nice furniture, such as your photograph shows."—Tit-Bits.

Misunderstood.
Bacon—And you say Sue gave you cigars last night?
Egbert—I said nothing of the kind.
"Didn't you say she pressed some cigars on you?"
"Yes; they were cigars I had bought, though, and were in my pocket."—Yonkers Statesman.

Coming Terrors.
"Bridget, who is that at the door?"
"It's a poor man, mum. He wants something to eat."
"If he's another refugee driven out of Spain by the war, tell him there's nothing left for him. We've already fed 11 ex-con-sults this morning."—Chicago Tribune.

Your Friends in the Army or Navy.
Do you want a picture of their ships, or of the cities they attack? You can secure all this and more by purchasing the newly issued series of portfolios (in fifteen parts) entitled "The American Navy, Cuba and Hawaii." Nearly 250 large half-tone pictures of warships, cities (Havana, Santiago, Honolulu, etc.) forts, harbors, batteries, rivers plantations.—In fact the very places where our men have been and will be fighting. Also excellent portraits of Dewey, Sampson, Schley and Lee. All pictures accompanied by full explanatory text and maps. Single parts ten cents; full set $1.50. Call at Santa Fe ticket office.

HAVE YOU READ THESE BOOKS?
They are devoted to the wonderful sights and scenes, and special resorts of tourists and healthseekers, in the GREAT WEST. Thoroughly published by a Railway Company.

The Santa Fe Route.
they are literary and artistic productions, designed to create among travelers a better appreciation of the attractions of our own country.
Mailed free to any address on receipt of postage, as indicated:
"A COLORADO SUMMER," 50 pp., 64 illustrations, 2 cts.
"THE MOQUI SNAKE DANCE," 56 pp., 64 illustrations, 2 cts.
"GRAND CANYON OF THE COLORADO RIVER," 32 pp., 15 illustrations, 2 cts.
"HEALTH RESORTS OF NEW MEXICO," 30 pp., 31 illustrations, 2 cts.
"HEALTH RESORTS OF ARIZONA," 72 pp., 18 illustrations, 2 cts.
"LAS VEGAS HOT SPRINGS AND VICINITY," 45 pp., 39 illustrations, 2 cts.
"TO CALIFORNIA AND BACK," 126 pp., 176 illustrations, 5 cts.

W. J. BLACK.
G. P. A., A. T. & S. F. Ry., Topeka, Kas.
Santa Fe Special Rates.
Annual National Encampment Sons of Veterans, Omaha, Neb., September 12-16, 1908. For the above occasion the Santa Fe Route will sell tickets to Omaha and return at a rate of $2.50 for the round trip. Dates of sale, September 8, good for return passage until September 21.
Grand Encampment Knights of Pythias and Supreme Lodge Session, Indianapolis, Ind., August 22-25 and August 30 to September 10, 1908. For the above occasion the Santa Fe Route will sell tickets from Santa Fe to Indianapolis and return at a rate of $3.10 for the round trip. Dates of sale, August 15 and 16, good for return passage until August 30, but tickets will be extended until September 10 by depositing same with joint agent at Indianapolis on or before August 25.
National Encampment Grand Army of the Republic, Cincinnati, O., September 5-10. For this occasion round trip tickets will be sold from Santa Fe to Cincinnati and return at a rate of $3.15. Dates of sale, September 1 and 2, good until September 10. Tickets extended to October 2 if deposited with the joint agent on or before September 8, 1908.
For further particulars in regard to these meetings and reduced rates call on agents of the Santa Fe Route.

Summer Tours In Canada!!
THE THOUSAND ISLANDS
ST. LAWRENCE RIVER
DOWN THE HUDSON
Before deciding on your summer holiday, you should write for the beautiful tourist folder published by the Wabash Railroad, the short line from Colorado points via Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago and Detroit to all the pleasure resorts of the east and northeast. Ask your nearest Ticket Agent for rates or write to
C. M. HAMMOND,
Commercial Agent,
Denver, Colorado.

Dr. GUNN'S IMPROVED LIVER PILLS
ONE FOR A DOSE.
Remove Pimples, Prevent Biliousness, Purify the Blood, Cure Headaches and Dyspepsia. A movement of the bowels each day is necessary for health. They neither grip nor sicken. Convince you, we will mail sample free, or full box for 6c. Sold by druggists. DR. GUNN CO., Phila. Pa.

RIO GRANDE & SANTA FE AND DENVER & RIO GRANDE R. R.
The Scenic Route of the World.
Time Table No. 40.

EAST BOUND	WEST BOUND
No. 425.	MILWAUKEE No. 425.
10:58 a. m. Lv. Santa Fe, Ar.	5:55 p. m.
12:58 p. m. Lv. Espanola, N. M.	4:55 p. m.
1:30 p. m. Lv. Embudo, N. M.	4:25 p. m.
1:55 p. m. Lv. Barstow, N. M.	3:55 p. m.
3:27 p. m. Lv. Tres Piedras, N. M.	3:15 p. m.
5:25 p. m. Lv. Alamosa, N. M.	1:15 p. m.
7:00 p. m. Lv. Alamosa, N. M.	10:30 a. m.
10:50 p. m. Lv. Salida, N. M.	6:50 a. m.
1:30 a. m. Lv. Florence, N. M.	3:15 a. m.
3:10 a. m. Lv. Pueblo, N. M.	2:40 a. m.
4:40 a. m. Lv. Colo Spgs., N. M.	1:52 a. m.
7:20 a. m. Ar. Denver, N. M.	10:50 p. m.

Connections with the main line and branches as follows:
At Antonio for Durango, Silverton and all points in the San Juan country.
At Alamosa for Jimtown, Creede, Del Norte, Monte Vista and all points in the San Luis valley.
At Salida with main line for all points east and west, including Leadville.
At Florence with E. & C. C. R. R. for the gold camps of Cripple Creek and Victor.
At Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver with all Missouri river lines for all points east.
Through passengers from Santa Fe will have reserved berths in sleepers from Alamosa if desired.
For further information address the undersigned.
T. J. HELM, General Agent,
Santa Fe, N. M.
S. K. HOOPER, G. P. A.,
Denver, Colo.

Mexican Central Railroad
LET YOUR NEXT TRIP BE SOUTHWARD! Via the Mexican Central Railroad
—MANUFACTURER OF—
Blank Books and Ledgers.

you can reach the very heart of Mexico. The Mexican Central Railway is standard gauge throughout and offers all conveniences of modern railway travel. For rates and further information address
G. A. MULLER,
Com'l Agt., El Paso, Tex.

The ... MAXWELL LAND GRANT,

Situated in New Mexico and Colorado, On the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf

1,500,000 Acres of Land for Sale.

FARMING LANDS UNDER IRRIGATION SYSTEM.
In tracts 20 acres and upward, with perpetual water rights—cheap and on easy terms of 10 annual payments With 7 per cent interest—Alfalfa, Grain and Fruit, of all kinds grow to perfection.

CHOICE PRAIRIE OR MOUNTAIN GRAZING LANDS.
Well watered and with good shelter, interspersed with fine ranches suitable for raising grain and fruits—in size of tracts to suit purchasers.

LARGER PASTURES FOR LEASE, for long terms of years, fenced or unfenced; shipping facilities over two railroads.

GOLD MINES.
On this Grant near its western boundary are situated the famous Gold Mining Districts of Elizabethtown and Baldy, where mines have been successfully operated for 25 years, and new rich discoveries were made in 1903 in the vicinity of the new camps of Hematite and Harry Bluff as rich as any camp in Colorado, but with lots of as yet unlocated ground open to prospectors on terms similar to, and as favorable as, the United States Government Laws and Regulation.

Stage leaves every morning, except Sundays, from Springfield for these camps.
TITLE perfect, founded on United States Patent and confirmed by decision of the U. S. Supreme Court.
For further particulars and pamphlets apply to.

THE MAXWELL LAND GRANT CO.
Raton, New Mexico

The New Mexican Printing Company

IS THE PLACE FOR Mercantile Stationery
Blank Books and Ledgers.

IF NOT SATISFACTORY
Money will be Refunded. Try one and you will use no other.

For sanitary reasons shave yourself,
and avoid the danger of skin diseases.
It is a pleasure if done correctly. But you cannot do it without a "Curley" safety razor. Money refunded if not satisfactory. "Curley's" razor is not a scraper. It is like an ordinary razor, with the advantage that any one can shave safely. Not one person in 10,000 shaves correctly. See directions. We respectfully ask you to try our razor.
Ten days time will be given. Any one who thinks he cannot shave himself is mistaken. He does a thousand more difficult things. Follow instructions and we guarantee success.

W. H. GOEBEL
THE HARDWAREMAN.

H. S. KAUNE & CO.,

DEALER IN

Staple - and - Fancy - Groceries

Fresh Oysters, Fish, Poultry of all Kinds Received Twice a Week.

The Sign of the RED LIGHT

WEST SIDE OF PLAZA.

CALLS ATTENTION TO

"OUR PLACE."

Here business is conducted on Business Principles. Here can be Obtained Strictly First Class Goods in the form of Liquid Refreshments and Cigars.

W. R. PRICE, Proprietor.

DELIVERY MADE DAILY.

Natural Ice

FAMILY TRADE A SPECIALTY.

Leave Orders at Ireland's or Fischer's Drug Store or by Telephone.

Grant Rivenburg,
TELEPHONE 43.

Diamond, Opal, Turquoise Settings a Specialty.

Watch Repairing
Strictly First-Class.

S. SPITZ,

—MANUFACTURER OF—

MEXICAN . FILIGREE . JEWELRY

—AND DEALER IN—

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, SILVERWARE, CUT GLASS, DECORATED CHINA.

Examine Eyes free of Charge for Prescription Lenses.

Fire Proof and Steam Heat.

Electric Lights, Elevator, Everything First-Class.

CLAIRE HOTEL,
SANTA FE, N. M.

The Arcade Saloon and Only Convenient Sample Rooms in the City Under Same Management.

P. S. TWELLS, Prop.

No. 4 Bakery.

H. B. CARTWRIGHT & BRO

—DEALER IN—

Groceries, Hay, Grain and Crockery.

Sliced Ham	per can	25c
Deviled Ham	per can	50c
Corned Beef	per can	15c
Roast Beef	per can	15c
Tomatoes	per can	10c
Old Potatoes	cwt.	$1.00
Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand Coffee	2lb can	80c
Levering's Coffee	2 pkgs.	25c

TELEPHONE 4

COAL & TRANSFER,
LUMBER AND FEED.

All kinds of Rough and Finished Lumber; Texas Flooring at the lowest Market Price; Windows and Doors. Also carry on a general Transfer Business and deal in Hay and Grain.

CHAS. W. DUDROW, Prop

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The Cake Walk.

The monotony of the social world in Santa Fe was broken into the past week by the much talked of cake walk, which was given on last Tuesday evening. To say that the entertainment was a success is expressing a fact in a very mild manner, and Mrs. Galt-Spitzer and Mrs. W. M. Tipton are entitled to much praise for the successful manner in which the affair was managed. At least 300 of the elite of the city were present and every one went home highly elated over the entertainment. The judges of the Supreme court kindly consented to act as referees and they all agreed that it was one of the most difficult decisions that that august body had ever been called upon to render. As Chief Justice Mills remarked when the decision of the judges was announced:
"After mature consideration, due deliberation and the disintegration of an infinite amount of gray matter, we have decided to award cake No. 1 to the floor manager, Mr. Andrews, and the lady of couple No. 7, Miss Maud Keller; cake
No. 2 to the gentleman of couple No. 1,
Mr. W. P. Clark, and the lady of couple
No. 5, Miss Armijo."

The following were the participants in the cake walk, the couples being numbered from 1 to 10 inclusive, as follows:

W. P. Clark and Miss (?) Arthur Seligman; J. L. Seligman and Miss (?) Eddie Lamb; Chas. A. Scheurich and Miss J. E. Otero; Mrs. Tipton; Mr. M. Otero and Miss Armijo; Ray Rivenburg and Miss Otero; Mrs. R. L. Baca and Miss Keller; Mr. Sweeney and Miss Spradling; Roy Crichton and Miss Gulliford; Mrs. Strover and Miss Amy Gulliford.

Some of the costumes were indeed very amusing, notably among them being Miss (?) E. Staab as "Lottie Collins," Miss (?) Arthur Seligman as "Madam Ricamer," Mr. Clark as "Weary Willie," Miss Gulliford as "Topsy," Miss Spradling as "Aunt Dinah," Miss Otero as the "Bride," Mr. Scheurich as "Lord Rastuff," Mrs. Baca as "Uncle Rastuff," Mrs. Baca as "One of the Johnnies," and Mr. J. L. Seligman as a "Bowery Tough." After the prizes were awarded Judge Morrison and General Bartlett made the presentation speeches, both making very happy remarks concerning the occasion, which were received with prolonged applause.

Mr. A. C. Ireland, as business manager, also deserves a cake as the financial success of the entertainment testifies. The receipts were $86.75; expenses, $30, leaving a balance of $56.75 to be divided between the W. P. Clark and the Ladies' Aid Society. Mrs.
Galt-Spitzer desires to meet the members of the two societies and those who aided in making the cake walk a success, at the sanitarium, Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, when the money will be turned over to the proper persons.

There is talk of a minstrel show being given by Santa Fe's society folk shortly.
C. A. Scheurich went up to Taos this morning to visit with his parents for a few days.

Lieutenant Will Griffin, of the "Rough Riders," is expected home in a few days, on sick leave.

Miss Nellie Warning, a former Santa Fe girl, is attending the normal institute in this city.

Robt. C. Gortner, Esq., who is visiting his parents in Goshen, Ind., will return on Tuesday next.

Judge Leland's wife and little daughter will arrive shortly on a visit to Judge Leland, at the sanitarium.

James Grunsfeld, of Albuquerque, is in the city to spend Sunday with his family at the sanitarium.

Miss Carrie Stern, sister of Mrs. Sam
Eldred, leaves for her home in South Bend, Ind., tomorrow night.

Mrs. A. W. Bigelow, H. W. Bigelow and L. Buck, tourists from New York, will spend Sunday at the Palace.

Miss Daisy Patterson will leave on September 10 to resume her studies at the Greeley, Colo., Normal Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Card, pleasant people from Denver, have taken rooms at the Exchange for two or three weeks.

Mrs. Geo. L. Wyllis has been ill for several days and her friends will be delighted to learn she is able to be about again.

Mrs. David Wienman, who has been at the sanitarium all summer, will return to her home in Albuquerque the coming week.

Miss Ada Teasdale, who spent the past year in the city with her mother, Otto L. Rice, has returned to her home in St. Louis.

Miss Kittie Crumacker and Miss Grace Hawks, charming young ladies of Albuquerque, will marry over Sunday at the Palace.

The Misses Reynolds gave a delightful dancing party at their Meadow City home on Thursday night in honor of Mrs. Governor Otero.

Hon. W. H. Ballache, formerly receiver of public moneys in Santa Fe, is now employed by the government in California as Chinese Inspector.

Dr. Harroun, S. G. Cartwright and Frank Hudson, who have been at the Jemez Hot Springs for the past two weeks, returned home this morning.

Rev. H. W. Moore, who has been visiting his brother, Rev. W. Hayes Moore in this city for some time past, returned to his home in El Paso yesterday afternoon.

Colonel Frost will return from a business trip in the east tomorrow night.
He will be accompanied by his little son, who will remain in Santa Fe for several weeks.

Judge Sluss of the United States land court, and his delightful family will leave for their home in Wichita, Kas., tomorrow night. Judge Sluss will return for the sitting of the land court next month.

Hon. Frank A. Manzanarez, accompanied by his wife and daughter, returned from Las Vegas last evening and secured rooms at the Palace. Mr. Man-zanarez attended the meeting of the board of capital rebuilding commissioners in Santa Fe today.

Mrs. H. J. Emerson, the accomplished wife of the cashier of the Bank of Commerce of Albuquerque, accompanied by her children, returned home from a pleasant visit with Santa Fe friends yesterday afternoon. Dr. H. S. Browne, father of Mrs. Emerson, returned with them.

Chief Justice Mills and Associate Justice Crumacker, of the Territorial Supreme court, have returned to their respective headquarters in Las Vegas and Albuquerque, but will come back to the Capital City tomorrow night. Associate Justices Parker and McElwain will remain over Sunday at the Palace.

U. S. Attorney W. B. Childers, E. W.
Dobson, A. B. McMillen and C. H.
Fancher, of Albuquerque, and Colonel R. E. Twitwell, of Las Vegas, who have been attending the Supreme court in Santa Fe during the week, and returned to their respective homes last night, have engaged rooms at the Palace for Sunday night.

Miss Maud Keller entertained the participants in the cake walk at her home on Wednesday evening. The cakes won by Miss Keller and Miss Armijo were eaten and a charming evening passed by those present, who were Mrs. Stroe-ver, Mrs. Tipton, Mrs. Baca, Miss Jones,
Miss Nina Otero, Miss Armijo, Miss Spradling, Miss Gulliford, Miss Amy Gulliford; Messrs. Andrews, Arthur Seligman, James Seligman, Arthur Staab, Scheurich, Sweeney, M. Otero, and Roy Rivenburg.

Secretary and Mrs. Wallace entertained last evening in honor of their guests, Mrs. Wallace's sisters, Mrs.
Brooke and Mrs. Campbell, the latter's daughter, Miss Jean, and Mrs. Woods.
In addition to the house party there were present Judge and Mrs. Laughlin, Major Walpole, wife and little daughter,
Dr. Elliott Cotes and wife, and the following young ladies: The Misses Jessie and Elsie Ifield, Dovie Day, May Spitz, Bergere and Armijo. The older ones of the party were entertained with an interrogation table, while the younger ones amused themselves with a conundrum party. The evening passed most pleasantly and will long be remembered by those present.

Miss Gulliford will this evening entertain a number of the "single blessed" at a dance in honor of Miss Camille Jones, to give her an affectionate send-off; her family, as at present arranged, will leave for Oklahoma about the 31st instant to the intense regret of all who have enjoyed their friendship here.
Among the invited guests are the Misses Crane, Franz, Hurt, Ifield, Johnston, Keller, Lamy, McKenzie, Moore, Morris-son, Odis, Palen, Sind, Staab, Horn, Tessdale, Thornton and Weir. Messrs.
Andrews, Bacharach, Clark, Coddington, Collins, Crichton, Doll, Hudson, Johnson, Johnston, Pfau, Pope, Scheurich, Spiegelberg, Staab, Sweeney, Taupert,
Thompson and Vance.

Hon. L. R. Prince returned yesterday morning from a ten days' business trip to southern California. While there he visited and examined the working of various fruit drying and preserving establishments, so as to obtain useful hints for the Santa Fe establishment. He reports having met a number of persons, who formerly lived in New Mexico and are well known here. Among these were Major W. H. Ballache and family, J. L. Seligman and wife, G. F. Eaton and family, Mrs. Torrey, J. H. Helphingstein, Governor Sheldon, W. A.
Walker and family, C. C. McComas and family, etc. They were all in good health and wished to be remembered to old friends. The scarcity of water, during the past year, has injured many crops, and the intense heat was making every one uncomfortable.

Mrs. J. D. Senna, Mrs. J. M. Luna and Miss Carmen Senna are guests at the Jemez hotel at the springs and will be there several weeks.

Mrs. A. L. Morrison, Sr., and daughter, Miss Mamie, will return from Man-itons Springs tonight, after an absence of a number of weeks.

Miss Bettie Massie, of Toronto, will reach Santa Fe this evening on a visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. Massie and Miss Jessie Massie.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Salmon and little daughter returned from a two weeks' stay at Jemez Springs last night.

Fine Havanas.
Finest line of Havana cigars at Scheurich's.

MINOR CITY TOPICS.

Merchant John Pfeuger, of Lamy, arrived at the Claire hotel last night.

Felix Papa mourns the death of his parrot, which occurred early this morning.

Thomas Murray is up from Albuquerque on a visit to friends. He stops at the Bon-Ton.

Will VanArsdell has secured the position of foreman of the Onderdonk live stock ranch at Lamy.

U. S. weather bureau forecast for New Mexico: Partly cloudy weather tonight and Sunday.

W. H. Goebel was taken with a chill on yesterday while selling a heating stove—temperature 77.

A. G. Burke, a mining man from San Marcial, is in the city on business. He registers at the Bon-Ton.

Luis Jaramillo, who is engaged in general merchandising at Antonito, Colo., is among the late arrivals at the Exchange.

A. J. Griswold, who was Wells-Fargo express agent in this city for many years, has been appointed postmaster at Noga-tes, A. T.

W. H. Kerr is circulating a petition for the pardon of John Glass, who is serving a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary, having been sent up from this city.

Alexander McJanus, who is at present camping on the Pecos and whose residence is Pueblo, Colo., came in last night after provisions. He stops at the Bon-Ton.

S. M. Folsom, formerly engaged in the banking business at Albuquerque and now operating in Arizona real estate, reached the Claire hotel from the south
last evening.

A. C. Edwards, of Trinidad, who has been receiving his youth at Ojo Caliente for several weeks, came down from the north last night and registered at the Exchange hotel.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs.
Emilio Rivera, died this morning, of fever. The funeral will take place from the cathedral in the morning, and the interment will be in the San Miguel cemetery.

Yesterday the thermometer at the local weather bureau registered as follows: Maximum temperature, 77 degrees at 3:00 p. m.; minimum, 60 degrees at 3:10 p. m. The mean temperature for the 24 hours was 69 degrees.

Professor Perez' band will render the following musical program in the plaza tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock:

March—Washington Post..... J. P. Sousa
Waltz—My Queen..... Baccani
Cotton Blossoms..... Hall
Oxford Blues..... Beebe
Mocking Bird..... Young
Galop—Iron Horse..... Class

The Santa Fe baseball team, under the official captaincy of George Crawford, left for Albuquerque last night to meet the Browns on the diamond this afternoon and again tomorrow afternoon.

The store of Kinsell & Closson, at Dolores, was damaged by fire, on Thursday night, to the amount of about $600.
The loss is said to be fully covered by insurance. Sheriff Kinsell has gone to Dolores to look after his interests in the premises.

Remember the special meeting of the city council this evening. Street and sidewalk improvements will be seriously considered. A plan to correct the open sewer nuisance on Water street will also be presented, and it is earnestly hoped that decisive and efficient action will result.

There will be a meeting of the Horticultural Society this evening in Captain Day's office, for the purpose of appointing committees and perfecting arrangements for the coming fall.

All persons who have been annual members of the Horticultural society will greatly oblige the officers of the society by calling on either Mr. Sol.
Spiegelberg or Hon. J. D. Senna and renewing their memberships.

Lorenzo Romero, an old resident of ward No. 2, died at his residence yesterday, after a long and painful illness.
The deceased was about 77 years old and a uncle of Territorial Auditor Marce-lino Garcia. His funeral took place from Guadalupe church this morning and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

The officers are on the trail of the persons who have for several weeks made it a nightly practice to masquerade on the south side, to the terror of women and children. Some sensational arrests are likely soon to follow. The New Mexican is now able to make the rather surprising announcement that the leader of the gang is a woman.

E. E. Mensch, of New York City, a graduate optician of Dr. Julius King's New York optical school and a graduate of the Philadelphia optical college, has taken a position with Mr. B. Mantel.
Mr. Mensch is also an expert engraver and watchmaker and was for several years a finisher for the Elgin National Watch Company—Hutchinson Daily News. Mr. Mensch is also well known in Santa Fe, where he was a very competent workman in the employ of S.
Spitz, the jeweler.

Captain Hudson received a letter last night from his son, Arthur, a member of the New Mexico's battalion of "Rough Riders," in which he says that he arrived at New York all right, and after three days' quarantine they expected to join the rest of the regiment at Monmouth Point. He says he is still in enjoyable health, weighs as much as when he left Santa Fe, but all the same, says he was glad to set foot once again in the United States. He reports Sergeant F.
C. Wesley fully recovered from his wounds and making an exemplary soldier. He also states that as a first-class rifleman for anything in the office line he lays claim to being a graduate, not only on his own account, but that he has had many opportunities of doing lots of missionary work in this line for his less enlightened fellows.

The Damage that "cheap" baking powders do cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents.

Schilling's Best is safe.

Court Note.
A suit has been filed in the District court for Taos county, by the Territory of New Mexico against the Denver & Rio Grande railroad company to recover the sum of $4,614.76 delinquent taxes. C. A.
Spless for the plaintiff.

Notice.
Dr. B. M. Williams, dentist, of Las Vegas, has opened a dental office at the Gulliford residence for a few weeks and is prepared to do all kinds of dental work.

Fresh vaccine points and tubes just received at Fischer's.

Normal Institute.
The first week of the Santa Fe county normal institute, which closed last night, was very successful, both in attendance and the interest taken in the work. The principal feature of yesterday's session was the lecture by Dr.
Knapp on the subject of "Physiology and Hygiene," which held the closest attention of those present, and was highly enjoyed. The last week of the institute will begin on Monday morning at 9 o'clock, and Superintendent Pino is particularly anxious that every teacher in the country should be present during the week.

SILVER CITY REDUCTION COMPANY, Silver City,
Grant County, N. M.

This plant has been purchased and will be operated in the future by the estate of the late Senator George Hearst, of California, under the general management of D. B.
Gillette, Jr.

It is the intention of the present management to largely increase the capacity of the plant and equip it with every modern appliance for the successful and cheap treatment of ores and concentrates.
Consignments and correspondence solicited. Advances will be made on ores.

Las Vegas Steam Laundry.

Leave orders at Slaughter's barber shop Basket leaves Tuesday and returns on Friday. We pay all express charges.
G. F. AMBROSE, AGENT.

JACOB WELTMER Books and Stationery

PERIODICALS SCHOOL BOOKS, SCHOOL SUPPLIES,
Stationery Sundries, Etc.

Books not in stock ordered at eastern prices, and subscriptions received for all periodicals.

The Exchange Hotel,

Best Located Hotel in City.
J. T. FORSHA, Prop.

$1.50 PER DAY. $2

Special rates by the Week or Month for Table Board, with or without rooms.
S. R. Corner of Plaza.

At the Hotels.
At the Bon Ton: Luis Jaramillo,
Jesus M. Roybal, Taos; Thomas Murray, Albuquerque; George Masterson, Martina Montoya, Las Vegas; Amos
Green, Trinidad; A. G. Burke, San Marcial; Joseph Kline, Wagon Mound; Tom Cundiff, Cerrillos.

At the Claire: L. F. Liebhart, Denver; A. Dobbin and wife, J. L. Todd, Chicago; S. M. Folsom, Arizona; John Pfeuger, Lamy.

At the Exchange: A. C. Edwards, Trinidad; Luis Jaramillo, Antonio; W.
S. Card and wife, Denver; L. Van Dorf, Topeka.

At the Palace: Mrs. A. W. Biglow,
H. W. Biglow, L. Buck, New York; C.
H. Quereau, L. H. Darby, Denver; J. F.
Deems and wife, Burlington, Io.

Letter List.
List of letters remaining uncalled for in the postoffice at Santa Fe, N. M., for the week ending August 20, 1898. If not called for with in two weeks, will be sent to the dead letter office at Washington:

Armijo, Max A. Layton, Thos. S.
Collins, Walter F. Nielsen, Anna
Corbett, Wm. E. Maestas, Rafael
Goodby, A. Padilla, Jose Gonzalez Gallejo, Leonor Romero, Francisco Ortiz
Jackson, Bernice
Leblanc, Leonadia
Lucero, Francisco y
Trujillo
Tindie, John

In calling please say advertised and give the date.

SIMON NISBAUM,
Postmaster.

Fischer & Co. are sole agents for the genuine Eastman kodaks and supplies.
Buy the best.

Church Announcements.
At the Church of Our Lady of Guadalupe, tomorrow, twelfth Sunday after Pentecost,
there will be services as follows: First mass at 6:30 a. m.; second mass at 8:30 a. m.; vespers and benediction at 6:30 p. m.

At the Cathedral tomorrow, August 21, the twelfth Sunday after Pentecost: First mass at 6 a. m.; second mass at 8 a. m.; third mass at 9:30 a. m.; sermon in English; fourth mass at 10:30 a. m.; sermon in Spanish; vespers and benediction at 6:30 p. m.

Services at the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be as follows: At 11 a. m., preaching by the pastor; at 9:45 Sunday school; at 1 o'clock Christian Endeavor society; no other evening service. Strangers, visitors, friends welcome. W. Hayes Moore, pastor.

Services at St. John's M. E. church will be as follows: From 10 to 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday school; regular preaching services at 11 o'clock a. m.; Junior League will meet at 2 p. m., and the Epworth League at 7 p. m. evening preaching service at 8 o'clock. To the above services all are cordially invited.
Strangers and visitors especially welcome.
G. S. Madden, pastor.

At the Episcopal church of the Holy Faith, divine service as usual at 10 o'clock tomorrow; the eleventh Sunday after Trinity, subject of sermon, "Some lessons in geography, and what may be learned from them in the light of science and of some recent events." Seats in this church are free to all who desire to worship in it. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

Widow's Pension Granted.
Margarita Rivera, widow of Jose Gregorio Rivera, of this city, has been granted a widow's pension of $8 per month.

Notice.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tuerto Mountain Copper & Gold Company will be held on September 1, 1898, at the office of L. Bradford Prince, Santa Fe, at 12 o'clock noon.

G. S. DRACHMAN,
Secretary.

Furnished Room.
With bathroom; large and handsomely furnished. Best location in town. Address, P. O. Box 440.

Better Than the Klondike
Are the meals that are put up for 25 cents at the Bon Ton restaurant. Give them a trial.

Notaries Records.
The New Mexican Printing company has on sale blank records for the use of notaries public, with the chapter of the Compiled laws governing notaries, printed in the front. Will be delivered at any postoffice or express office on receipt of $1.25.

RECORD AND BRIEF WORK.
Transcript, record and brief work for attorneys at the New Mexican printing office for the approaching session of the Territorial Supreme court, printed at the lowest possible figures and in the neatest, best and most acceptable style.
Frontrise the New Mexican Printing Co., and you will get first-class work, besides supporting an institution that is at work daily for this city, this county and the entire territory of New Mexico.

Notice.
The annual meeting of stockholders of the Fairview Cemetery Association will be held in Santa Fe at the office of