On July 20, the armed forces press office reported six rebels killed and seven wounded Thursday evening in clashes with soldiers near Lolotique, east of San Salvador. Military patrols seized about 20 rebel antipersonnel mines in a raid at Tecoluca, southeast of the capital. The press office also reported that guerrillas dynamited five power line towers, causing a brief blackout of the eastern region. (Basic data from Notimex, 07/20/90; AP, 07/21/90)
