On July 26, the armed forces press office reported that two soldiers were killed and three wounded in a rebel ambush of a military truck Thursday morning in Aguilares, 34 km. from San Salvador. Three civilian passengers on a bus in the locale were wounded. According to the press office report, clashes between soldiers and rebels in several locations in the past 24 hours resulted in the death of four rebels. In addition, eight rebels and two soldiers were wounded. The National Police reported that a youth was assassinated at dawn by unidentified persons at his home in the city of Santa Ana. Motives for the killing were unknown. (Basic data from Notimex, 07/26/90)
