NEW UPRISING RACE SUICIDE MOVEMENT IN PORTUGAL

REPUBLICAN REGIME MAY BE SHORT LIVED

Army Reported Corrupted Against Government It so Recently Placed in Power.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
London, Dec. 30.—The correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, who wrote the brilliant account of the Lisbon revolutions, says in the Chronicle today that everything points to a coming conflict in which the battles will not be between royalists and republicans, but between the moderate republicans and extreme revolutionaries.

The hidden spring of the conspiracy, the correspondent says, is the Camorra, or secret society, which corrupted the army from its allegiance to the monarch and is now busily engaged in corrupting it afresh in order to have a powerful lever ready at hand against the provisional government, which has never been firm in the saddle.

The correspondent considers that a source of great danger to foreign business men in Lisbon, is the possession by the police of large quantities of explosives and firearms which were distributed on the eve of the revolution, but which the government attempts to regain possession of have failed.

Questioned concerning the Portuguese rumors last night, the Marquis de Soveral, Portuguese minister to Great Britain, said he knows nothing of them. If there were any unrest in Lisbon, King Manuel had nothing to do with it, and neither had he, and the suggestion that it was due to the Duke of Oporto was absurd.

A special dispatch from Madrid reports discussions in the Portuguese ministry. It says the minister of justice has alienated his colleagues and made himself unpopular by violent legislative projects and that he will soon be compelled to resign.

FOREIGN MINISTER CLAIMS HIS COUNTRY IS TRANQUIL

Lisbon, Dec. 30.—Senhor Machado, the Portuguese foreign minister, today received the foreign newspaper correspondents and told them that tranquility reigns everywhere in the republic. The financial situation, he said, was improving daily, discipline in the army and navy was perfect and the religious agitation had died out. Contrary to a mendacious report propagated by enemies of the republic, Senhor Machado added, elections would be held in April and persons would be allowed the fullest liberties to take part in them. He also said orders had been given to the telegraphic authorities to suppress all false news.

Senhor Machado denied the British minister to Portugal had asked his government to send a warship to the Tagus.

ENGLISHMAN FINDS NEW STAR IN NORTHWEST SKY

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 30.—A new star discovered recently by the Rev. T. E. Estlin of Walsingham, England, in the constellation Lacerta in the northwest section of the sky, announcement of which reached this country today, was observed photographically and visually by Professor Edward C. Pickering at the Harvard observatory tonight.

The new star is now of the seventh magnitude and losing strength. The photographs taken in the last few months of the star and its spectrum show eleven well marked bright lines. The Harvard astronomer said that it did not appear on November 15, but that it was there November 22 and until December 7, was of a magnitude of 5.5.

It was possible to observe it with the naked eye during its first appearance, the astronomers say, but at present a field glass is needed.

FOREST SERVICE GRAZING RULES HELD VALID

Federal Courts Decide Against New Mexico Stockmen Who Neglected to Obtain Permits.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 30.—Decisions by the federal courts in New Mexico awarding damages to the government from stock owners who permitted stock to trespass upon the Alamo national forest without having obtained a grazing permit, are accepted by officials of the agricultural department here as fully sustaining the authority of the secretary of agriculture to enforce the grazing regulations.

Reargument has been granted by the supreme court in previous cases, where the government attempted to bring criminal action against persons who had violated the regulations. In the New Mexico cases, however, the government instituted civil proceedings for damages, and the court held that grazing privilege in the national forest were worth $1.50 a year for each head of cattle or horses.

SCIENTIST PREDICTS EXTINCTION OF RACE

Hundred Years Hence No Babies
Will Be Born in America
Says Professor; May Import
Some From France.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
St. Louis, Dec. 30.—The American Home Economic association closed its convention here this afternoon by electing the following officers:

Isabel Bevier, University of Illinois, president.

Dr. C. F. Longworth, Washington, first vice president.

B. R. Andrews, Columbia university, secretary-treasurer.

There will be no children in the United States after five years of age in the year 2020, Babies, accordingly, will have disappeared from this country as early as 2015.

This is the mathematical conclusion of Professor Walter F. Wilcox of Cornell university, announced to the American Statistical association this afternoon.

The only hope of seeing babies in the United States after 2020 according to Professor Wilcox's calculation, is in possible importation from France. He says France will continue to have babies eighty years after the United States has quit.

"There is proportionately more race suicide in the United States than in France," said Professor Wilcox.

An endorsement for the stock was recommended to the American Sociological association by George Elliot Howard, professor of sociology in the University of Nebraska. In address on "The Social Control of Domestic Relations," he declared the state should honor motherhood by endowing mothers.

"Parents who raise families," he said, "are entitled to payment and security from the state the same as the soldier or the judge or any other public servant. The woman who gives a child to the state should be allowed an income by the state for taking care of the child. That would make the mother the ruler in the home. That would be social justice."

Actor Worthington Buried.
New York, Dec. 30.—Frank Worthington, the English actor, who died on the stage at Detroit, last Wednesday, was buried today in Greenwood cemetery.

Services were in the little church around the corner.

WRIGHTS TO ESTABLISH SCHOOL FOR AVIATORS

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 30.—The only regularly established school of aviation in this country will be started here soon by the Wright brothers, Frank and Orville.

Wrights, who have been here for several days, will complete arrangements at a joint meeting of the city's business organizations tomorrow, when the city will pledge half of the expense of getting a site.

Weekly exhibition flights will be scheduled. Sufficient funds for the project were assured tonight.

UTILITY COMPANIES OF CALIFORNIA MERGED

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Wilmington, Del., Dec. 30.—The United Properties company of California was incorporated here today with a capital stock of $200,000,000.

It is authorized to equip, construct and operate railroads, steamship lines, electric light, power and traction lines; to employ water for domestic purposes and irrigation; and to build and operate wharves, docks and warehouses. The operating office will be in San Francisco and Oakland, Cal.

The new corporation is said to represent a merger of all the public utility companies of Berkeley and Oakland, Cal., including the ferry lines that connect these places with San Francisco.

The largest concern ever organized under the Delaware incorporation laws.

C. B. Zahriske, 160 William street, New York, who secured the charter, was obliged to pay the state a fee of $100,000.

CHAMP CLARK OHIO'S
CHOICE FOR SPEAKER

Columbus, O., Dec. 30.—At a caucus tonight of the democratic congressmen-elect from Ohio, James M. Cox of Dayton, was endorsed for member of the ways and means committee.

Champ Clark, of Missouri, was unanimously endorsed for speaker. A declaration was made favoring a committee on committees to select the standing committees of the house. Four congressmen announced they would not be bound by the caucus.

VIENNESE ANGRY AT INQUISITORIAL CENSUS

Vienna, Dec. 30.—The people of Vienna are fleeing the capital temporarily to escape the city census because of its inquisitorial nature. Every conceivable question, including minute particulars as to sanitary arrangements of households, are asked.

As a further indignity the census reports must be submitted to the house of representatives who shall notify the police whether the details given are correct.

WORKMAN BLOWN TO ATOMS BY DYNAMITE

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 30.—A dynamite explosion in the tunnel being constructed by the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company in Ensley this afternoon caused the death of three laborers, even whites and a black. Another negro was fatally hurt.

The negro killed was thawing frozen dynamite when it exploded. He was torn to pieces. His body was gathered in small boxes and taken to the undertakers.

The Herold's correspondent estimated the number of killed and wounded from the time of the first battle at San Andres on November 20 to the engagement at Mal Paso on December 15 as follows:

Revolutionaries: 143. Wounded, 152. Including six officers; revolutionaries, number unknown. This list refers to engagements between Chihuahua and Guerrero.

Navarro still bottled up at Mal Paso. A special to the Times from Chihuahua states that Lique's relief column has encountered four days' fierce fighting near Casa Colorado and that its loss is about 100 men. The insurgents are badly demoralized. Navarro's command is still bottled up near Mal Paso.

NO NEWS OF ATTACK
ON CORDOBA, VERA CRUZ
Mexico City, Dec. 30.—No telegrams have reached here today from Cordoba, state of Vera Cruz, where it was reported last night an attack upon the city was expected. Efforts to ascertain whether the attack was made proved futile.

In the absence of press dispatches it is believed the city was not molested.

INSURRECTOS RETIRE
AFTER BRUSH WITH ENEMY
Chihuahua, Mexico, Dec. 30.—Official reports received here today state that Colonel Escudero, commanding a scouting force of the federalists, encountered a band of insurgents at Mal Paso on Wednesday.

The report indicates that the insurgents retired. No details were given with regard to killed or wounded. The report was sent by Colonel Luque to General Hernandez, commander of the Chihuahua military zone.

Colonel Luque declared that the pass was cleared and it was he who asked for the repair train which left here yesterday morning.

The train did not leave yesterday, but at the railroad office today it was stated that the telegraph line would probably be restored by night. Yesterday the pass in belated information was reported open because a gasoline car had made the trip through the pass without molestation or sight of the insurgents.

Luque's report indicates that the insurgents either retreated or that the car or preferred that the impression should go forth that the pass was unoccupied. In the absence of details officials believe that it was only a matter of time before the pass was encountered. It is certain that Luque would not have ordered an unprotected repair train into the pass unless he felt certain that there was no longer opposition.

Wild rumors which have now been current for five days, continue to the effect that there has been serious fighting. While this may be true, there is not a word of confirmation to that effect. At noon the telegraph line was working only as far west as San Antonio, where it was said soldiers were erecting the second section of the proposed electric system. This guard, occupying the route fortifications made by quartz, erected by the remnants of the Guzman command which was ambushed at Mal Paso two weeks ago, has been made here for the reception of federal wounded, but it is still insisted that this is for the wounded of previous fights. These wounded must be brought through Mal Paso if transported by train, which is taken as further confirmation of the official report that Mal Paso is clear of insurgents.

Mexico City, Dec. 30.—Government officials said tonight that they had not received any reports giving details of the taking of Mal Paso by the federal troops yesterday. They were inclined to believe the engagement was in the nature of a skirmish and that few if any soldiers were killed. Officials refuse to discuss in any way the advancement of troops and beyond predicting the next fight, will occur at Guerrero, they will not be quoted.

General Brandon, the Mexican Herold correspondent who was wounded in the vicinity of Padernales three weeks ago, returned to Mexico City tonight. He said while he was operating a camera in the battle, a revolutionist took a shot at him. It is his opinion that the man though the camera was some kind of a firearm. He has completely recovered from his wound.

REBELS ROUTED BY VOLUNTEERS IN SONORA

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 30.—The first skirmish with the rebels and the first bloodshed in Sonora during the present insurrection is reported in a message received here today from Moctezuma. The rebels numbered fifty and an equal number of civilians organized by the prefect of Moctezuma, clashed at Tampichi, twenty miles southeast of Moctezuma. The fight lasted the entire morning of December 29, each force firing from cover. The prefect, however, reports the rebels routed, leaving one dead, four wounded and ten prisoners.

Salt Lake, Utah, Dec. 30.—It seems likely that George B. Smith of Ogden will serve out his eight-year sentence to the Utah penitentiary for embezzlement, notwithstanding the confession of Edward Hooven in Chicago yesterday that he committed the crime of which Smith was convicted.

Hooven was released from the Utah penitentiary last May. He had served a term for horse stealing. A part of the time he was in the hospital receiving treatment for his eyes and Smith was one of the nurses attending him. When he was paroled Smith loaned him $53 to return to Chicago.

Whipple Barracks, Ariz., General Thomas said that the duties of these troops will be to keep Mexican revolutionists from crossing the border. The troops will be distributed at several points.

Although he insists that he was held up and robbed of the $99, he was accused of embezzlement when he was in the penitentiary. Smith does not think he ever saw Hooven until he attended him in the prison hospital. Hooven was known to the prison officers as a user of drugs.

Smith's record in the penitentiary is not praiseworthy. He has been in special confinement at least ten times for violations of prison rules.

Massachusetts Legislators Are Looking Over Field With View to Deciding on Future of Senator Lodge.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Boston, Dec. 30.—In anticipation of an unusually interesting session, several members of the legislature have reached here and are engaged in looking over the senatorial field involving the political future of Henry Cabot Lodge.

The great and general court of Massachusetts will convene next Wednesday with twenty-five republicans and fifteen democrats in the senate and 127 republicans and 122 democrats and one socialist in the house.

How much insurgency there is, is a matter of conjecture. Close political observers say they detect signs of it in both parties.

The senatorial caucus will not be called until the legislature meets. Several republican members have declared against a caucus.

There is much democratic aspiration for the office.

INTERNATIONAL RAILWAY COMMISSION ASSURED

Washington, Dec. 30.—An international railway commission with supervisory authority over the railroads operating between the United States and Canada, is practically assured.

After long negotiations between the United States and Canada, the conclusion was reached that in the course of a few months, regulatory authority will be extended over railway operations between the two countries.

Mr. Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the interstate commerce commission and J. P. Mayble, chief of the railway commission of Canada, have been in conference for several days and reached an agreement last Wednesday. They called at the department of state today and presented their joint report. The text thereof is not available.

It is known, however, that they have agreed on an international railway commission which shall have supervisory authority over railway lines doing an international business between the two countries.

GOOD PRODUCTION
SHOWS DECREASE
IN ALASKA

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 30.—A marked falling off in the production of gold in Alaska, due to the failure of placer mines in the Fairbanks and Seward peninsula districts, is reported in the preliminary statement of the geological survey upon Alaska mining conditions for 1910.

The production within a year has been approximately $16,260,000 compared with $20,871,000 in 1909. The decline, which has been apparent for some time, is ascribed almost entirely to the working out of the beach placers about Nome, and the other placer mines of the two districts named.

Much good placer dirt is left, but cannot be worked profitably under present conditions.

Production of other minerals is increasing, but rapid development is hampered by the high cost of fuel. Extensive operations are being started in hole mining both of gold and copper, and the future production is expected to be greater than that which has followed the development of the placers.

PRISON TERMS INSISTED UPON

NO LENIENCY FOR BATH TUB TRUST DEFENDANTS

Offer to Plead Guilty and Pay Fine Rejected by Attorney
General After Conference
With Lawyers.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 30.—Attorneys for the individuals indicted as members of the so-called "bath tub trust" for alleged violation of the Sherman act came to the department of justice today in the interest of their clients.

These, in the event of conviction, are threatened with jail sentences. After an hour's conference with W. S. Kenyon, Jr., to whom the attorney general has delegated the whole matter, the lawyers refused to say a word as to the purpose or result of the conference.

It was said at the department that they had been given no reason to believe that the attorney general would consent to the acceptance of a plea of guilty and the imposition of fines rather than imprisonment. They were given to understand, it was said, that jail sentences will be insisted upon and were informed that their clients will be expected in the United States circuit court on January 4 to give $4,000 bail each.

The attorneys for the indicted men indicated they would not make it necessary for the government to start fifty removal suits to get the fifty defendants together on that day.

The offer of compromise said to have been tendered was that the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing company and other defendants in the civil action appear before the circuit court at Baltimore and consent to the permanent injunction the government asks if the government would be satisfied with fines and no jail sentences in the criminal action.

It was pointed out that an effectual dissolution of the offensive combination the government charges would be effected if the injunction were agreed to.

The department of justice, however, thinks the combination is as good as dissolved. This week it learned that four citizens in the combine sent out notices that they were no longer parties to the alleged price fixing agreement.

The recent declaration of Attorney General Wickersham that he would insist on prison sentences in all future convictions in trust cases has been a factor in the present attitude.

Mr. Knapp, United States district attorney at Detroit, referred questions to Mr. Kenyon, who declared the position of the department of justice was well known and admitted of no discussion.

COPPER PRODUCTION SHOWS INCREASE IN YEAR

Washington, Dec. 30.—The activity in the production of copper, lead and zinc from primary sources in the United States was greater in 1909 than in any previous year. Complete figures have just been issued by the United States geological survey.

The total output of copper from smelters was 1,992,951,624 pounds. The total quantity of refined copper, including domestic and foreign ores, was 1,231,621,454 pounds, an increase of 223,059,946 pounds over the previous year.

The total quantity of lead, smelted or refined in the United States in 1909, 427,954 tons. The apparent consumption of lead by American industries was 376,013 tons. The total production of zinc was 271,274 tons. In the production of copper, Montana led all states with Arizona second, Michigan third and Utah fourth, cent of the lead of the world and 28 per cent of the zinc.

FRAUD AGAINST GOVERNMENT BARED

SUGAR IMPORTERS FACE ANOTHER INVESTIGATION

Officers Scent Swindles at New Orleans and San Francisco Rivalling Those Exposed at New York.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 30.—When the grand jury now investigating the sampling of sugar in New Orleans finishes its work, it will be found that the frauds against the government there have been going on for at least fifteen years.

This statement was made by an official of the customs service, who said that all the suspected frauds would be found in the sampling of sugar and in the Polarographic test which determines the saccharine contents upon which the importer pays duty.

An investigation of alleged "drawbacks" frauds at San Francisco is also imminent. A preliminary investigation has furnished evidence which leads treasury officials to believe the frauds there will eclipse those at New York, which the American Sugar Refining company recently offered to settle for $700,000.

Evidence collected by the customs service is said to show that the government has for years been paying "drawbacks" on Philippine sugar, which came into the United States duty free was used in the preservation of California fruit and later exported as sugar imported from Java on which duty had been paid.

SAN FRANCISCO HASN'T HEARD OF DISCLOSURE PENDING

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—Advice from Washington that sensational disclosures relative to alleged sugar frauds at this port are believed to be impending caused surprise here, as it was tentatively understood that the investigation made by the local federal grand jury last spring had developed no evidence of any attempt to cheat the government.

The investigation, which lasted about ten days, was conducted with close secrecy by Special Prosecutor James H. Knapp, who was detailed by Attorney General Wickersham to make a thorough inquiry into the methods of the coast branches of the alleged sugar trust.

Many prominent sugar dealers and officials of refinery companies and of large wholesale grocery houses testified before the grand jury as to rates, possible combinations, markets and matters pertaining to the importation of sugar.

Mr. Knapp transmitted his report of the investigation direct to Attorney General Wickersham, no hint of the nature of the findings being made public.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 30.

Washington is the center of political discussion today. Since the re-appointing of congress, the consideration of the presidential situation has been uppermost. Party men of both sides have their eyes fixed upon 1912.

Aspart from random discussion of politics, there have been formal conferences of deep and far-reaching importance in the interest of Harmon, conference in the interest of Dr. Woodrow Wilson, and conferences of the followers of William Jennings Bryan.

The democrats are hopeful of winning the presidency in 1912. Some of them are actually confident.

All the wise ones, however, appreciate the fact that everything depends upon happenings in the meantime. They know that the results of the congressional and gubernatorial elections last month were of less importance than any election results in the past, that while the voters displayed an unmistakable lack of confidence in the republican party as a party, they turned to the democratic party only because it represented opposition, not because of anything it had done to command the support of the people.

The thinking democrats, therefore, are mindful of the importance of doing something to hold the support of the masses. What they shall do is the present-day problem. The chief question is the big bear. How the democratic party will handle this issue nobody knows definitely.

twice carried his state, he generally regarded as the most promising candidate for the democratic nomination in 1912. He is a full fledged candidate, consumed with ambition to reach the White House. He has an organization that is country wide, and now being systematically perfected. He is by no means yet assured of being the nominee.

The pending senatorial contest in his state threatened for a time to be his undoing. He received some sound advice during his recent visit to Washington. He was told bluntly by democrats who wished him well that if a scandal developed in the choice of a senator at Columbus—if the toga were purchased outright, as seemed imminent—he would be held accountable for the state and national disgrace and could not look forward to the possibility of further preferment. There was a fear, rapidly growing into conviction, that Harmon had been drawn into an unholy compact on the subject of which would ruin his political prospects.

After his departure from Washington the fact developed that the Ohioan had taken steps to set himself right. He is now confidently predicted that Senator Dick's successor will be a clean man, and the legislative election free from corruption.

Woodrow Wilson's courageous dealing with a somewhat similar, though not quite so aggravated and scandalous senatorial possibility in New Jersey, has been the subject of some criticism by partisan democrats, but is warmly commended by the more progressive and independent party men, who realize that the democracy can succeed only by deserving success. This is through devotion to ideals and the support of men of ideals worthy to fill high places.

Democrats of the south—and the south will again be potent in the next democratic national convention—are conspicuously pleased with Wilson and his attitude. Predisposed in his favor originally because he is a southerner by birth, they see in him the qualities of a real leader, and if his administration at Trenton as governor has been as successful as his campaign has been, he will undoubtedly prove a formidable competitor of Harmon for the presidential nomination.

A third democrat, not so well known as either Harmon or Wilson, but who has quietly made an impression that extends beyond the borders of his state, is Governor Thomas H. Marshall of Indiana. He is a broad-minded, progressive leader, of genuine ability, who has already taken rank with the great Hoosier governors of the past. He forced his party to promulgate a candidate for senator and let the people of the state know what a democratic victory at the polls would mean. His choice of John W. Kern, a clean and capable man, as the successor of Senator Beveridge, is now assured.

Marshall stands for popular government. He has not yet been wholly converted to the initiative and referendum and the recall, but otherwise is an ardent and eloquent champion of rule by the people. He is not a dreamer or a political fanatic, but a level-headed man of parts, in whom the modicum of common sense is always conspicuously in evidence.

Governor Marshall's handling of the senatorial situation, like Woodrow Wilson's, was in striking contrast with Judson Harmon's seeming evasion of duty in similar premises.

In the presidential speculation, necessarily tentative at this time, a combination of New Jersey and Indiana in 1912, with Wilson and Marshall as the standard bearers commands itself strongly to thinking, deliberate democrats. New Jersey and Indiana are traditionally democratic states, and under anything like normal political conditions would be democratic in a national election.

Ohio, in spite of its off year upheaval on local issues, is traditionally and inherently a republican state, and there are few democrats who honestly believe that Harmon could carry it for president.

William Jennings Bryan has announced, and repeatedly, that he is not a candidate for another presidential nomination. But he is a fighter, and a decided factor in the situation—a factor that cannot be ignored by any of the candidates. A Pennsylvania democrat, who knows the Nebraska well, ventured the prediction recently that he will defeat Bryan in 1912, and that he will be elected. "Mr. Bryan," he said, "will not tell us what he wants to do. In answer to our letters begging to know his wishes, he simply answers: 'Watch my editorial in the Commonwealth.'"

Some time ago Bryan was urged to indicate his personal choice for the presidential nomination in 1912. He put Governor Shoup of Colorado, first, and Governor Marshall of Indiana, second. He stated frankly then that he was opposed to Harmon. He considered him as a reactionary, a man closely affiliated with the Johnsons, and wholly out of time with the progressive democratic party of today. He did not conceive it possible for the party to win except on progressive lines. He evidently thought that Harmon before the nation would cut about as sorry a figure as did Alton B. Parker in 1904. Harmon opposed Bryan's nomination in 1904, but did not vote against him. He was "neutral" in the Bryan campaigns following.

More recently, Bryan has been less inclined to commit himself as to candidates, and in a late issue of his paper mentions the availability of the several named and receptive candidates. He has privately expressed satisfaction as to Woodrow Wilson, New Jersey and John A. Dix, governor-elect of New York, as probably dominating the greatly by southern sentiment, but it is known that Wilson's fight upon James S. Smith, Jr., who is seeking the Jersey senatorial ship again, has challenged Bryan's admiration and prompted his hearty applause. As between Wilson and Harmon, there is no doubt that only the Nebraska would infinitely prefer Wilson, but he personally regards Marshall as the most available of the trio.

The new start the year preceding the presidential struggle—will see many momentous moves on the political chess board. The issue of popular government is the great and growing issue which promises to subjugate all else—not accepting the tariff, which will trouble the democrats more than anything else.

Here at Washington the democrats, as to their great opportunity, do not minimize the strength of President Taft. They admit frankly that he is showing steadily in popularity, and that the country's heavy acquaintance with him will mean increasing strength and confidence. But while they profess to believe that his party is as completely discredited, that it seems doomed to inevitable defeat in 1912.

AFRICAN HUNTER PREFERS SUBJECT FOR INQUIRY DEATH TO DISGRACE

GEORGIAN HAS NEW PLAN TO WORRY ROOSEVELT

Suggests Congressional Investigation of Smithsonian Institution's Connection With Expedition After Big Game.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Washington, Dec. 30.—The African hunting trip as organized and carried out by the Smithsonian Institution via Roosevelt, is the subject of the latest proposed congressional investigation. The suggestion was received here today by Representative Rainey of Illinois, from a citizen of a Georgia town, who referred to such an inquiry as a "public service" and to the Smithsonian as a "trash heap institution."

Mr. Rainey is the democrat who recently introduced a resolution to inquire into the manner in which Mr. Roosevelt obtained his transportation and his supplies on his trip about the country while he was president. He purposes at the earliest opportunity to present this resolution, which was referred to the rules committee and promptly pigeonholed.

The Georgian declares that an extension of such an inquiry to include the ways in which the expenses of the African hunting expedition were borne by the Smithsonian Institution "would show waste, extravagance and squandering of public money."

The Smithsonian has never reported the cost of the expedition, but it submitted a statement that 6,663 skins and 2,500 sheets of plants were obtained.

HORNET THROWS OFF DISGUISE

Former American Gunboat Reported Ready to Attack Puerto Cortez; Fighting Commenced in Honduras.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Puerto Cortez, Honduras, Dec. 30.—Via Wireless to New Orleans.—An attack upon Puerto Cortez by the revolutionary gunboat Hornet, which was reported several miles off this coast last night, is expected.

Several hundred government troops arrived yesterday from Tegucigalpa, and others came in this morning. Fighting has already begun at Lagunillas according to reports.

Following rumors that United States cruiser Tacoma had sighted the Hornet last night, the American consul at the instance of Commander Davis of the Tacoma, today warned all Americans to remain indoors, to treat the state with the utmost vigilance and to land marine to protect American interests here tomorrow.

The Honduras gunboat at Tegucigalpa is in the harbor, but her two one pound guns are not expected to be of much use in defending the town against attack by the Hornet, which is reported as having four six inch modern rifles and three machine guns. The Tacoma is not considered seaworthy.

Guatemalan troops arrived at Tegucigalpa last night. This move is taken here to mean that a land attack by the Honduras revolutionists is expected on the border.

ALL QUIET IN NAVY DEPARTMENT'S REPORT

Washington, Dec. 30.—All was quiet here today according to a dispatch received by the navy department from Commander Anderson of the United States gunboat Yorktown at Annapolis. So far as advice shows the threatened revolution has not yet begun.

POSTAL LAW INVOKED TO PUNISH BANKRUPT FOR FRAUD ON CREDITORS

New York, Dec. 30.—Bankrupts charged with victimizing their creditors were brought under legal fire today from a new angle today when the federal grand jury returned an indictment against Joseph R. Scheinberg of a bankrupt dress goods firm here, charging misuse of the mails.

It is said to be the first instance of the extension of the postal laws to this class of cases.

The indictment holds that Scheinberg had mailed to the creditors and to several mercantile agencies statements of the financial condition of his firm and that credit was obtained on the strength of such showings.

Counsel for the Merchants' Protective association advised the plan to prosecute under the postal laws. It is believed that if the case is carried to a successful conclusion, the entire presentation of frauds in bankruptcies will undergo a change. Wherever the mails have been used to mislead the federal courts will adjudge.

UNITED STATES WILL RECOGNIZE ES' RADA

Washington, Dec. 30.—As soon as the constitutional convention of Nicaragua, which meets at Managua tomorrow, demonstrates by a decisive vote that it is in favor of Estadista for president, the United States will recognize the present government of that republic.

INDICTED BANKER
SWALLOWS POISON

Carried Unconscious From Court Where He Was About to be Arraigned on Charge of Wrecking Institution.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
New York, Dec. 30.—With head erect, shoulders squared, and eyes trained on him, Joseph G. Robin, the indicted banker, stepped from his sister's home this morning to face arraignment, calm in the knowledge that he had swallowed a dose of hyoscine, the deadly alkaloid, with which Dr. Criven killed his wife, Belle Elmore. He collapsed before he could be taken into court, with the exclamation: "I am a dead man; I've taken poison tablets."

The case was postponed in the greater excitement, a stomach pump was hurriedly brought into play and the sick man was carried first to the prison hospital and later to Bellevue, where he lies tonight in the prison ward. No charge of attempted suicide is entered against him, and it is thought he will recover, although the action of hyoscine is slow and much will depend on his vitality.

The time at which Robin took the drug is approximately fixed by the testimony of Dr. Austin Flint, retained for Robin by William Travers Jerome, his counsel, Dr. Louis Robinson, his sister, and the two detectives who rode with him from Elmore's house to the criminal court building.

Dr. Flint told the court that as he arrived at the court, the poison had been in Robin's system about three-quarters of an hour, when he collapsed. The two detectives were positive their prisoner swallowed nothing on the way to court.

Dr. Robinson said her brother was in the habit of taking hyoscine in small doses to counteract the effects of morphine, which he used to deaden the stinging pains by which gall stones make themselves known. She kept the drug in her house and she thought her brother swallowed twelve tablets. At Bellevue tonight, the examining surgeons estimated that Robin had taken about one-tenth of a grain.

Tollin seemed in good health this morning, but at any time since his troubles began and he made no effort to screen his face from the cameras as hitherto. The first sign of illness was when he staggered out of his motor car, which he had driven to the criminal court building.

In the elevator he weakened so rapidly that the detectives had to lift him to a couch. There he sank into unconsciousness and was not revived until the stomach pump had been worked vigorously. Its prompt use saved his life.

Outside, the corridors of the criminal court building fairly hummed with excitement, but in the court of sessions itself, Judge Crane was transacting business as usual when Jerome stepped rapidly down the aisle.

Your honor," he began hurriedly, "I am here in the Robin case. It appears that the defendant has taken a drug. He cannot be stimulated. An ambulance has been summoned and surgeons are now pumping his stomach. The delay is unavoidable."

Dr. Austin Flint retained by Jerome was called. The assistant district attorney asked him what Robin had said.

"He said," answered Dr. Flint, "I am a dead man; I've taken poison tablets. I found his face flushed, the pupils of his eyes dilated, his pulse 160, and feeble. He told me he had swallowed the poison three-quarters of an hour previously."

The case was postponed until the receipt of further advice as to Robin's condition.

Robin's frustrated attempt today leaves the question of his sanity still open. Dr. William Mahler, for the state and Dr. Austin Flint, for his counsel, examined him last night and found him physically able to appear in court today, but they did not pass on his mental condition.

In the affidavit submitted by his sister, when she applied for his commitment to an asylum, she swore he attempted suicide last Saturday and gave that as one of the evidences of insanity.

There were no further developments today in connection with either the Northern Bank of New York or the Washington Savings Bank, both of which are the lands of the state banking department, but the state department of insurance took over the affairs of the Title & Guarantee company of Rochester, N. Y. A large force of accountants is at work on the ledgers of the many interlocking companies which Robin promoted.

Hunter Accidentally Shot.

OF RELIGIOUS CONGREGATIONS

Washington, Dec. 30.—With the idea that the attitude of the Portuguese government regarding property of religious congregations held to be illegitimate is misunderstood in this country, the Portuguese minister, Viscount de Alva, tonight made the following statement:

"Directly the congregations were dissolved, as inventories of their property was taken with a view to its proper protection and in order that it may be surrendered to the rightful owners."

brove their blues. In case these, after proper investigation should be distributed by the public attorney, it will be sufficient for the claimants to give a guarantee that the legal costs will be paid should the case go against them, for the suit to proceed undisturbed by due process of law.

"The Portuguese government does not interfere in the matter and will certainly make no attempt to seize any private property, whatever the use to which it may have been put in the past."

NO OBJECTION TO MORMON PICTURE ON GIFT SILVER

New York, Dec. 30.—If pictures of Brigham Young and the Mormon people are engraved upon the silver service presented to the battleship Utah by the citizens of the state, the United States government is not perturbed over the fact.

Formal protest against the decoration of the service was lodged with President Taft some time ago by Hugh G. Miller of this city, acting for the Woman's Republican club.

Mr. Miller received a letter today from Assistant Secretary Reekman Winthrop, of the navy department, saying that the department did not feel it could supervise such matters.

Unfortunate Officer Falls Sixty Feet When Testing New Monoplane for Government.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Versailles, France, Dec. 30.—Lieutenant Caumont of the army aviation corps while testing a new monoplane today fell from a height of sixty feet.

Both legs were broken. The injured man was taken immediately to the military hospital where he died tonight. As soon as he learned of the accident, General Brum, minister of war, nominated Lieutenant Caumont for the Legion of Honor, but death occurred before the cross could be taken to him.

VOTE SELLING AN ANCIENT CUSTOM IN WEST UNION

Prisoner, 57 Years of Age,
Tells Court That Election
Corruption Was General
Since He Was Boy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
West Union, O., Dec. 30.—The Adams county grand jury today returned seven more indictments and more than fifty persons appeared and pleaded guilty in connection with the investigation of wholesale vote selling. A majority of them were disfranchised for five years and fined $2 to $15. The total indicted now is 1,441.

A Tiffin township voter, 82 years old, admitted he had sold his vote for $11 and 25 cents, said that he was fined after pleading guilty, said that he was buying conditions have existed in Adams county since he was a boy. Judge Blair expressed the opinion that there was an arrangement for vote buying by republicans and democrats managers. Of the 400 voters who have been before him each one said he had never been approached more than one or two precinct workers, thus insulating that each one had his own lot to look after.

John McNay, a farmer, pleaded not guilty today and demanded a jury trial. He said he was indicted for having sold his vote for $15 and costs and was disfranchised.

ALBUQUERQUEAN IN ST. LOUIS TRIES TO KILL HERSELF

Mrs. Frederick Shook, Claiming This City as Her Home, Hurts Herself Under Automobile.

Special Dispatch in the Morning Journal.
St. Louis, Dec. 30.—Desiring death, Mrs. Frederick Shook, 57 years old, recently from Albuquerque, N. M., last night hurled herself under an automobile and is at the city hospital with serious internal injuries.

Mrs. Shook has been boarding for three weeks at 2729 Locust street with her husband, who is years her junior. Mrs. Shook was motivated upon before coming to the city, and according to the proprietor of the boarding house, had given evidence on several occasions of nervousness and melancholy.

"We were going at a very moderate speed," said Mrs. Elizabeth Russell, owner of the automobile, "when a woman, who was standing on the curb, as if ready to cross the street, left it when my machine was within a few yards of her, and walked in front of the car, and threw herself prostrate before it."

Mrs. Russell helped her chauffeur lift Mrs. Shook into the automobile and then directed that the injured woman be taken home. Later Mrs. Russell took Mrs. Shook to the city hospital.

In reply to a question from Mrs. Russell, as to whether she had attempted suicide, Mrs. Shook said: "Yes, I guess so. I've been melancholy lately."

Mrs. Shook Unknown Here.
Diligent inquiry last night failed to discover any one in Albuquerque who knows Mrs. Frederick Shook. There are several Shooks in Albuquerque, but they all disclaimed relationship with the woman. Her name does not appear in the city directory.

INSANE MURDERER CAPTURED BY SHERIFF

Kewauk, Ia., Dec. 30.—After showing and killing his wife in a fit of insane rage at New Boston, near here this morning and keeping a sheriff's posse at bay for hours, Christian Schuck, a farmer aged 40, was captured late tonight and brought to the county jail here. Schuck had recently been released from the hospital for the Insane at Mount Pleasant and probably will be returned to the hospital.

Following the killing of his wife Schuck barricaded himself in his home. Finally he was induced to surrender.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street

New York, Dec. 30.—Prices made further advances during the early session on the stock exchange today but the movement was narrower and the total outturn of nominal proportions. Gains were registered by a majority of the better known issues.

Bonds were again fairly active but the largest part of the business in these securities was transacted by direct and private sales. There is reason to believe that Europe has purchased extensively of certain high grade railroad bonds during the last fortnight.

A rise in call money to 6 per cent, the highest rate since the first week of the year and a decline in foreign exchange to 48.85, the lowest level since the panic of 1907, were rather more noteworthy than events in the stock market itself. The advance in call money was ascribed to the calling of loans by local institutions to meet year-end requirements.

According to forecasts, banks in the clearing house ought to gain from $2,500,000 to $3,000,000 this week.

Northern Pacific directors today declared the regular quarterly dividend on that stock, thereby settling at rest recent rumors affecting that property. Action on Great Northern preferred dividend probably will be taken early in the coming year.

Railroad reports included that of the Reading company for November, which showed a decrease in net earnings by the transportation company of more than $100,000 while the earnings of the coal and iron company showed but a nominal increase. The Rock Island figures for November were decidedly favorable with an increase in net revenues of $413,000.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Dec. 30.—The Commercial Bulletin in its annual review of wool of the world tomorrow will call attention to the fact that the stock of wool in Boston is the largest in over twenty years with the exception of 1899.

There remain in Boston at the close of business at the end of the year 85,560,000 pounds of domestic and 13,625,000 pounds of foreign wool, against 45,905,955 pounds domestic and 7,841,000 pounds foreign a year ago.

The total stock of all kinds unsold in the United States is 162,521,200 pounds, against 97,322,457 pounds last year. This has been exceeded by January 1, 1901, when it was 233,329,000 pounds.

Some second-hand goods of all the wool in the United States, whether produced here or imported, is now in Boston warehouses.

The Commercial Bulletin will say of the wool trade tomorrow: "The wool trade has been in evidence this week but not to the same extent that is frequently the case. A considerable amount of inquiry and sampling on the part of the mills is in evidence and there has not been a dearth of actual business. One sale of staple Montana, involving a half million pounds has been the chief sale of the week."

The sale was made at twenty-two cents several other lots of 10,000 to 200,000 pounds of original Montana, Wyoming and Idaho have also figured in the trading, while there appears to be a tendency to raise prices on fleece wools, which are scarce.

New York, Dec. 30.—Cotton closed steady at a net gain of 5 to 8 points on all positions except October, which closed one point lower.

Chicago Board of Trade

Chicago, Dec. 30.—Wheat today made a marked advance after yesterday's close because of profit-taking, however, and predictions of heavy world's shipments, the latest sales at a net decline of 1-4 to 1-2.

Compared with last night, corn finished 1-8c up to 1-4c off; oats unchanged to 1-8c down and provision a shade easier to 1-8c. Aided cost fluctuations in the May wheat option were between 96 3-4 and 97 5-8c, with final transfers 96 7-8c, a net loss of 3-8c.

May corn ranged from 48 1-4 to 48 7-8c and at the end of the day was 48 1-2@48 5-8c, a net gain of a shade. Cash corn closed firm with No. 2 yellow at 48 1-4@48 1-2c.

May oats kept inside 44 3-4 to 45 1-8c, finished 1-8c lower than last night at the first named level.

Provisions advanced all around on purchases by January shorts. Packers and stock yard traders, though, sold on the weak. The city was a shade easier to 1-2c higher and unchanged to a shade lower, and ribs within 2 1-2c on either side of the previous close.

Famous Old Properties to Work Thirty Men

One Claim Alone Produced $5,000,000 in White Metal; Mines North of Kingston May Resume Work.

These mines produced enormous values in the days before silver was demonetized. One of the claims known to fame as the Bridal Chamber, produced over $5,000,000. No great depth has been attained on any of these claims, but most of the very rich ore near the surface was taken out. There are, however, millions of tons of low grade ore in sight which average sufficiently well in silver to pay on a large scale, and in addition the ore contains a high percentage of manganese and other minerals which can be saved and marketed at a profit.

The announcement of the reopening of these mines has caused much rejoicing in this country, as the silver mining industry was one of the most important in the country.

There is now talk of opening up some of the old mines north of Kingston where more work has been done in the last few months than was required for assessment purposes.

It is reported that a sharp rise in the price of silver is looked for, due to the revolution in Old Mexico, where the operations of the insurgents and the regular troops are beginning to interfere with the operation of the mines in the affected districts. Mexico is the largest silver producing country in the world and if its output should be reduced by internal war, this country would reap the benefit.

E. H. Bickford, manager of the Lake Valley Mines, returned from the States just before the Christmas holidays. It was during his absence in the east that he succeeded in making the arrangements for the reopening of the famous mines.

Mr. Hewitt, a Brooklyn lawyer, is visiting the estate of the late O. C. Baker. He likes this section of New Mexico and says we should vote for the constitution, as it is a better working document than many of the old state constitutions.

General Adams has completed his new residence on the hill.

Two light snows are all the weather on record this winter.

R. L. Owen and T. M. Du Bose are each putting up windmills on their sheep ranches.

Quite a few of the cattlemen sold off all or most of their stock during the recent high prices. The Herring, Melton and McDermis bunches were the largest ones to be turned.

R. J. Grumbles has left to put in alfalfa his Media valley ranch. He still retains his holdings here, Simon Potter being the foreman.

The merchants report a fine business for December and a splendid Christmas trade.

MEN NEEDED TO PROTECT THE FORESTS

BIG PERCENTAGE OF FIRES CAN BE PREVENTED

This is Opinion of Chief Forester Graves Who Declares Adequate Force of Rangers is Required for Work.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Forest fires, their destructiveness, cause and prevention, are discussed in the annual report of Henry S. Graves, chief forester, made public today. He says that in the organization and administration of the national forests the most important consideration is their protection from fire.

"In a forest fully organized with adequate means of transportation and communication and a sufficient force of rangers and guards the risk from fire is small," he said.

Mr. Graves says that 84 per cent of the fires in 1909 were due to the "lack of preventive care on the part of the users of the forests and of the railroads traversing them."

"He suggests that the railroads be required either to use efficient spark arresters or to burn oil."

"Four per cent of the fires for 1909 were from incendiarism and 12 per cent from lightning."

"Incendiarism," he says, "can be stopped, partly through education of the public and partly through increased watching of the forest, which will result in the apprehension and punishment of incendiarism."

The approximate total stand of timber in national forests, exclusive of Alaska, according to the report, is 500,000,000 feet. Though the stand of timber in the two national forests in Alaska is believed to be very large, not even a rough estimate can be made.

"About 62 per cent of the total estimated stand on the national forests, exclusive of Alaska, is in the three Pacific coast states," says the report. "21 per cent in Idaho and Montana and 12 per cent in Arizona, Colorado and New Mexico. This leaves only 5 per cent elsewhere. In the order of their importance the five states containing the bulk of national forest timber are Oregon, California, Washington, Idaho and Montana."

The total cut of timber last year was 484,412,000 feet, an increase over the previous year of 26,773,000 feet. Of the former, 79,816,000 feet was cut under sale and 104,796,000 feet under free use. The amount of timber sold in the fiscal year 1910 was 874,555,000 feet, valued at $1,400,992.

MAYOR ELDER AS YET HAS FORMULATED NO PLANS

WILL ANNOUNCE POLICIES AT FIRST COUNCIL MEETING

Newly Seated Head of City Administration Warmly Congratulated Yesterday By Friends and Well Wishers.

That he was not prepared to announce any policies which he may have in mind in connection with the administration of the city, was the statement made yesterday by the newly seated mayor, Dr. John W. Elder.

"I did not make any plans or outline any policy for the election," said Mayor Elder yesterday, "and following the election, when the majority contest was in the courts, I did not speculate as to what I would do in the event the decision was favorable to me. As yet I have not had sufficient time to make any plans or outline any policy. It is possible, however, that I will announce any policies I may have at the meeting of the city council next Tuesday night."

Mayor Elder was warmly congratulated yesterday by scores of friends and well wishers upon winning out in the contest. Nearly every man who voted for Mr. Elder claimed the responsibility for his election, the result depending on one single vote.

STATEHOOD WILL BE SYSTEMATICALLY BOOSTED

Down Town Headquarters Will Be Established By Recently Organized Non Partisan League.

"Statehood" is the slogan, or the war-cry of the Bernabille County Non Partisan Statehood League, organized at a meeting of non partisan advocates of the constitution, held in the Elks' opera house Thursday night. The newly organized league is already in working order. Chairman E. A. Mann has already engaged down town headquarters in the building formerly occupied by Rosenfield, the pawnbroker, next door to the old St. Elmo saloon, on Central avenue.

From the headquarters copies of the constitution in both English and Spanish will be procurable by every voter. The campaign for a big majority for the ratification of the constitution in Bernabille county will be directed from the headquarters, and speakers will be sent to every precinct with the end in view of bringing out a big vote on election day.

82,700 COPIES OF CONSTITUTION MAILED OUT

Should Now Be in Hands of Voters; Those Who Fail to Receive a Copy, Will Be Provided With One.

Edwin F. Guard, assistant secretary of the territory, last night telephoned that the list of 82,700 copies of the constitution were mailed out to the voters yesterday evening, completing one of the biggest jobs ever undertaken in the secretary's office.

"I believe we have sent a copy of the constitution, either in English or Spanish to every voter in New Mexico," said Mr. Guard, after the telephone call. "Some of the copies may have been misdirected, however, and will fail to reach their destination. Those who have not received copies and who do not receive them within the next day or two, should make application to this office and we will immediately forward a copy."

EVANGELIST WILL ARRIVE TODAY

First Revival Service Tomorrow Night; Union Watch Meeting at Presbyterian Church Tonight.

Singing Evangelist Rose of the Hulett-Rose evangelistic team, telegraphed Rev. C. O. Beckman, yesterday, that he was delayed in Texas, and would arrive in this city forty hours late. Evangelist Rolin arrives today. The evangelistic churches join in a union watch meeting at the Presbyterian church tonight. Tomorrow the revival services open full force in the hall on West Central, No. 212-213.

The following program will be carried out tonight at the watch meeting:

Choir, S. Houghton, chairman, led by Evangelist Rose and Mrs. Rose. Prayer, Rev. Hugh Cooper. Address, "The Dying Year," Rev. R. R. Tolbert. Song and testimonies. Three 5-minute addresses: Rev. W. S. O'Connell, Rev. Jesse J. Runyan, Dr. Alonzo S. Bright. Song and prayer. Address, "The New Year," Rev. S. E. Allison. Six 3-minute addresses: R. W. D. Bryan, J. M. Solie, J. H. Wear, H. S. Lithgow, F. C. Keefer, D. A. Porterfield. Conservation service. Announcement of the New Year—midnight. Rev. C. O. Beckman will be the presiding officer of this service.

GRIEF AND GLOOM PERVADES "PAID IN FULL"

Problem Play Presented By Clever Actors Before Brilliant Audience at Elks' Theater.

Filled with problematical problems and desolate sadness, enlivened by brief snatches of humor and good acting, "Paid in Full" was presented last evening to one of the largest audiences of the season. It's a human story dealing with essentially human characters. The same old story of the worthless man told with variations.

The play opened on a rather sordid domestic picture, the husband weekly kicking at the world for his own failures and inability to make more than eighteen dollars a week, and the wife bravely, if somewhat pitifully, undergoing the ordeal. The situation is complicated by the wife's family, who naturally think she could have done ever so much better in a matrimonial way. Gertrude Richie as the wife made the part a living, potent one. She was natural and real in her acting, clear through and did not spoil the strong emotional moments in the play with rant. As for the husband—Hugh Harper, gave a creditable character presentation and played well the weak and cowardly man who had not been strong enough to do right nor strong enough to take the consequences of his wrongdoing.

Captain Williams was admirably done by Charles T. Del Vecchio, and the gruff old gentleman with hard words and good heart was one of the hits of the evening. Probably "Jimsey" was the favorite with his delicious drawl, his devotion to the law and his love for his wife and the part afforded some clever acting for Eugene Dastell. The other three parts, those of mother, daughter and Captain Williams' valet, were well taken care of by Mae Dudley, Gordon, Virginia Baird and Oscar Wheeler.

The cast was an all round good one and the scenes in splendid keeping with the really first-class production. The theme of the story is decidedly unpleasant but it was well acted and well received and the production was really worth the bad taste which lingers as the aftermath.

Food Supply From China.

Most people who remember their early geography lessons recall that the Chinese empire has an area considerably larger than that of the United States. But at the same time it will be recalled that the density of population in the Celestial realm averages more than three times the density in this country. In other words, the reasonable belief has been that in China population really pressing very hard on the means of subsistence. It is, therefore, somewhat surprising to learn that two shipments of Chinese pigs—10,000 carcasses—were recently held up at Liverpool because of failure to comply with some local regulation. The pork was not condemned; it was merely held up upon a technicality.

The interesting phase of the matter is that China should be exporting pork to Great Britain. The cargoes referred to were not the first. Previous cargoes of pigs from China are mentioned in the dispatch which were were similarly held up because the British inspection laws had not been complied with. Surely the huge empire has industry and commercial possibilities not generally thought of if it can produce an export food supply.

The two ships carrying 10,000 hog carcasses from a Chinese port to Liverpool had also on board 23,000 cases of eggs and 15,000 cases of cold-stored snipe, mallard ducks and other kinds of poultry. James J. Hill, the economic expert, has pointed out that the United States that in a decade or so they will have to be bringing in a food supply from the outside. Perhaps it will be as well for us to think of the nation to cast a speculative eye toward China—Baltimore American.

A Canine Dynamiter

Kruger had a dog which was well trained to fetch anything that his master threw for him. One day Kruger took some sticks of dynamite and went to a neighboring stream with the intention of dynamiting some fish. He attached fuse and exploded a stick of the explosive, and threw it toward the stream, but missing the mark, the dynamite landed on a rock.

The faithful dog, thinking that the stick had been thrown for him to bring, ran and returned with it to his master in great glee, with the fuse burning nearer and nearer to the explosive. Kruger in horror, the dog, deeming it great sport, after missing the better runner, danced about his master. Finding it impossible to escape the animal by running, Kruger climbed a tree with all the alacrity he could muster, and had just reached a vantage point of safety when the dynamite exploded, and the dog—well, the dog was holding the stick in his mouth when it went off—Hudson Maxim in Adventure.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Theo. R. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

CROP PRODUCTION FOR TERRITORY ENCOURAGING

Statistics for December Make Splendid Showing for Six Classes of Produce; Much Better Than That of Arizona.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 30.—The crop reporter for December gives the production for New Mexico as follows: Corn, 70,000 acres, 1,610,000 bushels, 23 bushels to the acre, total value, $1,449,000, at 90 cents per bushel. Spring wheat, 42,000 acres, 20 bushels per acre, 840,000 bushels, at $1 per bushel, total value $840,000. Oats, 30,000 acres, 27.4 bushels per acre, 822,000 bushels at 82 cents a bushel, $674,000. Barley, 1,000 acres, 25 bushels per acre, 25,000 bushels at 80 cents, $20,000. Potatoes, 2,000 acres, 47 bushels per acre, 94,000 bushels at $1.94, a total of $182,000.

Hay, 194,000 acres, 2.10 tons per acre, 407,000 tons at $11.50, a total of $4,680,000. This makes a total of $7,617,000 for these crops alone, or more than the total coal and metal production of all the mines of New Mexico. Yet the fruit crop, beans, broomcorn, truck gardens and other minor products not included in the crop reporter's statistics would more than double the total above mentioned. Arizona's production in the same six crops was valued at only $5,245,000, despite the higher value placed on each bushel and ton. It is certain that New Mexico's prosperity depends on the production of its farm to a greater extent than on any other industry.

Many Teachers Here. Santa Fe today is the mecca of teachers who attended the educational meeting at Las Vegas, whence a special excursion was run for their benefit to allow them to see Santa Fe. Mr. Clark and several teachers procured automobiles and this morning the teachers went sightseeing and motoring at the same time.

Mr. Sullivan Leaves Tomorrow. Territorial Engineer Vernon L. Sullivan will leave tomorrow for Kansas City, thus finishing his work for New Mexico. Charles D. Miller succeeds him in the office. Mr. Sullivan's family now is at Lake Wood, N. M., and will later join him in Kansas City.

College Incorporated. Articles of incorporation were filed in the territorial secretary's office today by Montezuma college which is to be situated near Las Vegas, with John R. Gass as the resident agent. The college is for educational purposes, the teaching to be done in accordance with the belief of evangelical Christian churches. It will be non-sectarian, however. It is incorporated for fifty years, and its management shall be vested in a board of twenty members, who shall be evangelical Christian church members.

The board of trustees is composed as follows: John R. Gass, Albuquerque; Norman Skinner, Jefferson; Reynolds, George, Plomery; Fredrick H. Pierce, Henry C. Coors, James H. Stearns, all of Las Vegas; William H. Pope, Roswell; James G. McNary, El Paso; J. S. McTavish, Magdalena; William J. Murphy, Phoenix; Elmer A. Cooper, Albuquerque; George Logie, Douglas; A. H. Harlan, P. Cory, Globe; Ariz. Frank E. Ransom, Raton; Gabe Rendon, Santa Fe; Henry M. Campbell, Phoenix; Ariz. Jeremiah Moore, Taos; Samuel Magill, Raton, and E. Edgar Mathes, Artesia.

Supreme Court. Supreme Court opens Tuesday and many important cases will come up. The calendar will keep the court in session three weeks.

Water Rights. Territorial Engineer Vernon L. Sullivan has granted extension of time water right applications as follows: No. 303, Frank E. Downs of Carlsbad, the extension being necessary owing to an application to the district court; application No. 329, Benson of Artesia, extension of time granted on account of the large size of the power project and also because the applicant is collecting hydrographic records and data on the project, at the expense of the applicant; application No. 236, J. W. Lewis of Artesia, also time extended.

The territorial secretary has granted certificates of construction as follows: No. 267, Samuel B. Cox of Hope; No. 128, Fred J. Lukins of Artesia; No. 62, T. Banks of Hagerman; No. 118, Blanche L. Major of Artesia; and No. 251, Eugene F. Hardwick of Roswell.

C. B. Digby of the territorial engineering office has returned from Buckman, where he measured the flow of the Rio Grande and found it to be 500 second feet.

Second Thousand Left. Assistant Territorial Secretary E. F. Coors this afternoon completed the mailing out of the constitution to 82,700 registered voters, besides 10,000 copies which were sent to the delegates to the constitutional convention, each of them receiving one hundred copies. This leaves 7,000 copies on hand which will be used to fill all orders or requests from those who for some reason or other failed to receive a constitution or received a copy in a language they could not read.

Contrasting the Finances. Although the taxable assessment of Arizona is almost twice as much as that of New Mexico, the former has only thirteen national banks, while this commonwealth has forty-one. Arizona, however, has thirty-seven territorial banks, while New Mexico has forty, according to the last report of Territorial Traveling Auditor Charles V. Stafford. Arizona's territorial banks have a total of resources of $14,313,098, while those of New Mexico have resources of only $6,491,982. The capital stock of these banks in Arizona is $1,414,219, while in New Mexico it is $1,232,251.

NELLIE HARRISON WINS LAURELS FOR SANTA FE

Reception to be Held in Honor of Girl Who Was Awarded Gold Medal at Las Vegas.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 30.—Miss Nellie Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harrison, 381 Santa Fe, last evening won the gold medal in the Inter-school oratorical contest at Las Vegas, held in connection with the annual convention of the New Mexico Educational association.

CONWAY POINTS OUT BENEFITS TO BE GAINED

County Superintendent of Schools Indicates Many Excellent Provisions for Schools Contained in Constitution.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 30.—County School Superintendent John V. Conway, in an official circular recently distributed, calls attention to the vast benefits that statehood and the constitution will confer on the schools of New Mexico and the great impetus they will give to education. New Mexico's plight has been that Uncle Sam has not done as much for its schools as he is doing in Porto Rico and the Philippines or for the Indians. But Uncle Sam is about to redeem himself and when New Mexico comes in as a state it will have twelve million acres of land for educational purposes, land valued by the Enabling Act from $2 to $5 per acre, and by the constitution at not less than $10 per acre. The state of North Dakota has accumulated a fund of $100,000,000 for its public schools from its lands and New Mexico will have fully as much. At present, not quite three-quarters of a million dollars are spent for education in New Mexico each year, but with lands worth $100,000,000, New Mexico will have available without a cent of taxation four to five times as much as it now can afford for its schools. Truly the man who votes against the constitution on January 21, is an avowed enemy of education.

The circular, which will be sent to every one interested in the prosperity of educational institutions, is as follows: Gentlemen: As I know that you are friends of education, and working for the betterment of our public schools, I feel it incumbent upon me to call your attention to a subject in which we are all interested.

The constitution recently framed contains some excellent provisions in favor of our rural public school districts, and is deserving of the hearty support of every educator and friend of education in the territory. Unfortunately, in the past, our rural public schools have suffered from the insufficiency of funds to run the schools a profitable length of time, and we are practically in the same condition today. Something must be done to relieve this condition, as it cannot be done by increased taxation. Under statehood we are assured and guaranteed at least a five months term of school in each school district of the state. The money for this is to be derived from a special fund created by setting aside certain school lands, the proceeds of which shall go towards the defraying of any deficit that may exist in any school district fund.

UNANIMOUS VOTE IS PREDICTED

Very Little Opposition to Constitution Found in Northern Santa Fe County By Stump Speakers.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 30.—"There will not be more than five votes against the constitution in the Rio Grande precincts from Hildesheim to Pojoaque," asserted Frank Owen, democrat, and George W. Armijo, republican, today upon their return from a campaign trip to Jacoma and Pojoaque in northern Santa Fe county. The meeting at Pojoaque was attended by three hundred and there was no hall in the place large enough to hold the people. Telling addresses were made in places by Probate Clerk George W. Armijo, Candelario Martinez, Frank Owen and Marcelino A. Ortiz. A fiesta was in progress at Jacoma and every house was a hall will be dedicated and meeting are now being arranged for that date at Santa Cruz and at Chimayo.

Sees Ghost of Caesar. George Armijo created a sensation in his address by comparing the constitution which will be voted on to Julius Caesar who was recently in Santa Fe—that is, the tragedy of day.

Mr. Armijo said: "Do not, my friends, put yourself in the position of those Roman citizens who murdered Julius Caesar only to gather around his body and proclaim him the noblest Roman of them all. Do not vote down this constitution on January 21 and then find that you have voted down the noblest instrument of the state of the union. Statehood will lift you from a territory into a state."

A Selfish Attitude. The most selfish attitude uttered against the constitution was that of Santa Fe, that of a citizen who said today:

"I know the constitution helps the tax-payers, and especially those in Santa Fe county, but it does not help me. What helps the tax-payer helps every citizen, every woman, every child in New Mexico. Do not better schools help every one? Does not the investment of capital in mines, in irrigation, in real estate help every one? Truly, the man who will vote against the constitution because it benefits the tax-payers, should be accused of the reservation under the jurisdiction of a federal Indian agent."

Scourges of the Human Race.

The fly, the flea, the mosquito are the veritable scourges of the human race, in the diseases they carry. The fly, as you have seen, carries disease which decimates the population of the African highlands; the mosquito, to spread malaria, the most insidious of tropical diseases and is suspected of propagating yellow fever as well; and the flea spreads plague. In the last case there is usually only one kind of flea, Pulex Chapuis, which spreads the infection, and the other fleas which might spread it—Ceratophyllus faecalis and the Typhlocyba musculi—are not very partial to human blood, though the second will take to it more readily than the first and the decay of temperate climates, the range of most of these death and disease carrying insects is limited to the tropics.—London Graphic.

County Superintendent of Schools Indicates Many Excellent Provisions for Schools Contained in Constitution.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 30.—County School Superintendent John V. Conway, in an official circular recently distributed, calls attention to the vast benefits that statehood and the constitution will confer on the schools of New Mexico and the great impetus they will give to education. New Mexico's plight has been that Uncle Sam has not done as much for its schools as he is doing in Porto Rico and the Philippines or for the Indians. But Uncle Sam is about to redeem himself and when New Mexico comes in as a state it will have twelve million acres of land for educational purposes, land valued by the Enabling Act from $2 to $5 per acre, and by the constitution at not less than $10 per acre. The state of North Dakota has accumulated a fund of $100,000,000 for its public schools from its lands and New Mexico will have fully as much. At present, not quite three-quarters of a million dollars are spent for education in New Mexico each year, but with lands worth $100,000,000, New Mexico will have available without a cent of taxation four to five times as much as it now can afford for its schools. Truly the man who votes against the constitution on January 21, is an avowed enemy of education.

The circular, which will be sent to every one interested in the prosperity of educational institutions, is as follows: Gentlemen: As I know that you are friends of education, and working for the betterment of our public schools, I feel it incumbent upon me to call your attention to a subject in which we are all interested.

The constitution recently framed contains some excellent provisions in favor of our rural public school districts, and is deserving of the hearty support of every educator and friend of education in the territory. Unfortunately, in the past, our rural public schools have suffered from the insufficiency of funds to run the schools a profitable length of time, and we are practically in the same condition today. Something must be done to relieve this condition, as it cannot be done by increased taxation. Under statehood we are assured and guaranteed at least a five months term of school in each school district of the state. The money for this is to be derived from a special fund created by setting aside certain school lands, the proceeds of which shall go towards the defraying of any deficit that may exist in any school district fund.

STATEHOOD RALLIES THROW OUT THE LINE

IN SOCORRO AND VALENCIA

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Belen, N. M., Dec. 30.—A strong sentiment in favor of the ratification of the constitution and the securing of statehood is indicated by the attendance of citizens of Socorro and Valencia counties at two meetings today, one held at San Juan, Socorro county, and the other at Belen. The statehood meeting at San Juan this afternoon was attended by more than 300 people, who were addressed by O. A. Larrazolo, H. O. Bursum and Victor Montoya. Each made a strong plea for the ratification of the constitution by the people and the applause with which they were greeted indicates the voters in that section of the county will be unanimous for statehood.

The three speakers came to Belen this evening and addressed a meeting which was attended by more than 400 people. The audience enthusiastically greeted them, showing that the ratification of the constitution is favored in this city by practically every voter. Mr. Larrazolo, Mr. Bursum and Mr. Montoya will speak at statehood meetings tomorrow at Kelley and Magdalena and on Sunday will speak at a meeting in San Marcelino. Monday they will go to Las Cruces, where they will be joined by Governor William J. Mills and all four will address a statehood meeting in that town.

LAS CRUCES MAN DIES AT RIPE OLD AGE OF HUNDRED EIGHT YEARS

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)

Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 30.—Anselmo Madrid died at his home in this city Wednesday at the age of 101 years. The funeral services were held from the Catholic church yesterday morning. Madrid had been a resident of the Mesilla valley for more than fifty years and was well known throughout the entire valley. He remembered the early days and was fond of telling anecdotes and relating incidents of the times when New Mexico was under the Spanish rule and when the Indians frequently went on the warpath. He was many times called out to fight them. Mr. Madrid leaves a large number of relatives.

MARCH OF PROGRESS AT CIMARRON: PHONE SYSTEM COMES IN

Cimarron, N. M., Dec. 30.—Another public improvement is now assured for Cimarron. For some time there has been talk of the need of a telephone system for the city, and the city date passed an ordinance granting the Colorado Telephone company the right to put in a system here. The company immediately set busy with the project and the result is that the citizens will have an opportunity of talking stammy to central. District Manager Hunt, with headquarters at Raton, was here several days with a member of the company from Denver looking over the city and planning the work. They have ordered the material and work will commence as soon as it arrives. The company will have their new building, in which the central office will be located. The building will be erected on lots one and two, block twenty-six, facing Lincoln avenue. Work on the building will start in a short time and rushed to completion in order to be ready for occupancy by the time the poles and wires are up. It is estimated that the system will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, which is not so bad for a town the size of Cimarron, the company having in view the prospects for a rapid growth of the city in the near future, will lay the foundations for a much larger system.

MORE ADVICE ON HOW TO LIVE ON $18 A WEEK

Women Who Have Been There Believe It Can Be Done and Done Easily if Husband and Wife Cooperate.

The contest for seats at the performance of "Paid in Full" last night proved highly interesting to the readers of the Morning Journal and the problem of how two young people may live on $18 per week is being widely discussed. Following are two contributions which arrived too late for the contest and which will be interesting reading just as advice to newly wedded couples.

By L. H. W.
Considering we live on $18 per week and are buying an extensive piece of property out of it, keep a horse and buggy; send out the bulk of our laundry; contribute to the church; keep up certain dues; give presents, live well and put a little money in the bank weekly, besides saving $10 per week on the above mentioned property ought to allow me to say a few words on this subject. I forgot to say my husband is an inveterate smoker, and, understanding me, doesn't own a bill longer than a week, either.

But the question, "Can a Man save money on $18 per week?" is a silly one. Ask your parents what their income was when they married and I'll wager it was under $18 per day. Besides, three-fourths of the earth's population lives upon less. Very few men earn $3 per day or over the large proportion receive $40 or thereabouts.

If a man steals he is a coward to put the blame on his wife. He would steal if he received $10 per day. All he wants is the excuse and chance.

True, the question of money between a married couple is serious. But if a man tries to be a woman and lets her do him up he is no man at all, and it wouldn't matter if it was wife, friend or foe he would always be the loser.

If a man is the right sort he will confide in his wife and let her know just what he has and how things stand. The bulk of the trouble is deception. If a man does out a pitance and his wife, who in ignorance of his many affairs, tries to get him to do him up so as to get even for what she supposes he has more than perhaps he really possesses.

If she is the right sort she will leave her eye on the far future and try to economize and try to pull her own weight, so doing they will reach their goal some day. But it is all up hill work and often the crest is never reached where one or the other pulls in opposite directions.

Household Science should be more fashionable or more of a study than it is, as it is one of the most vital points in the problem of life.

How do we accomplish such feats you ask? The art begins with a secret, my friends. The success of a business house depends largely upon its sagacious purchasing agent. So it will be with you.

Most all we do in life is a habit; therefore if we cultivate the habit of saving it is just as interesting, yes, more so, than the worries and chagrin of the spendthrift.

If any of the "Doubting Thomases" wish me to prove these assertions let them address me through the Morning Journal and I will do so.

So, my friends, if the question of living on $18 per week is retarding your matrimonial voyage, just take my advice; put love in one eye and Good Common Sense in the other.

By Mrs. G. T. Casper
In Sunday's issue of the Morning Journal, were these headlines:

"Supports a family on $1.35 a day."
The article started on good authority, that the father of a family of ten small children comfortably on $1.35 a day. Well, all I can say is, their mathematics must be of a higher order than mine. Frankly, I can't figure it out, but the question, "Can a man and wife live on $18 a week?" is an easy proposition, comparatively.

Webster gives a definition of "to live," "to be in a state of happiness," taking this for a basis, then can two people live in a state of happiness on $18 per week? Most certainly they can. The world would call it weak sentiment if I would say that love is one necessary ingredient on this case and common horse sense another.

When a wife is a husband's first consideration, he finds his pleasure outside her realm, and she is forced to do likewise. He spends all the money he likes in his pursuit of happiness; gradually they lose interest in each other's pleasures and he neglects her.

He drifts his way, and with the weighty matters of business and clubs on his mind, has no time for the trivial things which fill her heart and heart. She finds a listening ear in her neighbor whose husband earns a little more than hers. Now if she wants to be on the same social scale as her neighbor, she must do as she does, or a little better, she must entertain, she must dress, she must show off.

with her share of the finances for the general good, to inspire her husband to better things, not to chafe under the limitations of a small eschequer, and goad him to desperation, longing would make her no happiness.

She should be content within the limits of her standard of living and not strive to attain to that of her neighbor.

The truth of it all is summed up in the words of "The Bard of Avon."
"The fault is in ourselves, not in our stars."

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best remedy for colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, and all the ailments of the throat and chest."

STUFF IS OFF WITH ARIZONA, BELIEF OF PROMINENT CITIZEN

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 30.—Mr. B. A.
Fowler, who recently returned from Washington, as asked yesterday regarding the sentiment there with respect to statehood. Mr. Fowler said that his errand was not a political one and that he had made no special effort to ascertain the sentiment of members of congress toward the constitution, but on could not avoid the impression that it was distinctly unfriendly. He did not see the president at all.
In the course of his stay he met several senators and representatives with whom he had labored in behalf of statehood in other years, and he noticed one thing which must be construed as decidedly unfavorable to the hope of Arizona. Those members of congress who had been friendly to the territory and who had supported the present enabling act expressed deep regret at the course things had taken. Those who had opposed statehood manifested deep satisfaction.
The impression that must be formed was that both sides regarded the matter as already settled.

COMMISSIONERS IN A STRENUOUS
SESSION

NUMEROUS PETITIONS
VERBAL AND WRITTEN

Committees Ask That Appropriation be Made for Camino
Real and W. H. Gillenwater Requests Prior Attention to His Claim.

The board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county held a strenuous and an extended session in the court house yesterday afternoon, finally adjourning at 5 o'clock with quite a few matters still to be considered when the session is resumed at 10 o'clock this morning. The construction of good roads, the repair of bad roads, the opening of roads which is claimed have been legally closed, the building of wings dams along the Rio Grande from Alameda to Pajarito and the consideration of a dozen other matters, more or less important, occupied the greater portion of the day.
The good roads proposition was introduced into the meeting when A. B. Stroup, representing the Good Roads Committee of the Commercial club, and Felix H. Lester, representing the Good Roads Committee of the New Mexico Automobile association, appeared before the commissioners and presented certain propositions which the petitioners stated had already been approved by their respective organizations. Mr. Stroup, on behalf of the Commercial club, asked that the county be arranged as one road district, with one man responsible for the road work and that all work be done by contract as far as possible.
Mr. Lester followed Mr. Stroup and told the commissioners that the automobile association, at a recent meeting, had passed a resolution requesting the county to appropriate $5,000 for the purpose of assisting in the completion of the Camino Real to the county line, the territory having agreed to appropriate $4,000 toward the work.

After Mr. Stroup and Mr. Lester had concluded their remarks and had been asked by District Attorney E.
A. Mann that the good roads committee meet with him and discuss the various propositions submitted, W. H.
Gillenwater gained the floor and asked that the commissioners refrain making any appropriation for road work in the county until his claim of $12,000 for work done on Central avenue be paid in full. Mr. Gillenwater stated to the commissioners that he was road supervisor of road district
No. 3 in 1908 and that he had expended $12,000 of his own money in constructing a road at the time of the irrigation Congress, which amount had not yet been paid to him. Mr. Gillenwater made much the same statement to the commissioners as he did some three weeks ago at a meeting of the Commercial club, when the matter of building the Camino Real was first brought to the public attention of the people of Albuquerque.

Upon motion of Mr. Grunsfeld, seconded by Mr. Springer, all the good roads matters were taken under advisement.
A committee of appraisers consisting of D. A. Macpherson, G. L. Brooks and A. B. Stroup, were appointed to view and appraise certain property in the report of the surveyor which was represented in a petition, is obstructing the road.

County Commissioner A. D. Ogle presented a report recommending that pile wing dams be constructed along the Rio Grande west of Old Albuquerque near the church in Rancho de Atrisco, above Pajarito, north of Padilla. Mr. Ogle said that the improvements were urgent and needed and suggested that they be completed before spring. A motion was carried that bids for the work be advertised and that it be done as quickly as possible according to the plans contained in the report of the surveyor.
A resolution was adopted which authorizes the leasing of court room and office room for the federal court for one year at an annual rental of $450, payable quarterly.

The county judges named the election judges and clerks for the election to be held on January 9, at which the justices of the peace and constables will be elected. L. H. Ingles, Felix Bea and P. Hanley were named for precinct No. 12 and H. P. Applewell, Alberto Armijo and J. A. Miller for precinct No. 26, both of which are located in Albuquerque.

DEATH OF YOUNG LAD MUCH REGRETTED

Harry Hastings, Member of Columbia Park Boy's Band,
Drowned in Chicago; Made
Many Friends Here.

The telegram published in the Morning Journal yesterday telling that Harry Hastings, of San Francisco, had died suddenly in Chicago Thursday afternoon, while swimming in the Central Y. M. C. A. natatorium, caused much regret in this city, the young lad.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Harry Hastings of San Francisco died suddenly here today in the swimming tank of the Central Y. M. C. A. Hastings was a member of the Columbia Park Boy's club of San Francisco, which is touring the country, appearing at Y. M. C. A. gatherings.

Hastings was 14 years old, a musician and an athlete. The boy, with several other members of the club, had been in the tank some time and had asked his friends to wait for his "last dive." The body failed to rise, and when it was recovered Hastings was dead. Physicians say death was due to heart disease.

Enormous Waste of Time

The expenses of a business cause failure or success. The margin usually is very close. It is said 95 per cent of people fail in business. That other 5 per cent usually are the up-to the minute business men whose time is worth too much to spend following old style methods of keeping accounts. Have you ever stopped to consider the time wasted by old methods? A modern office appliance and system will easily eliminate one-third the labor of the old style. If your office man is worth, say only $75 per month, you are losing at least $25 per month. The filing card system has been so simplified that it seems a shame to spend valuable time with old systems. Better start the New Year with a modern system

The landlady was asked by the new boarder what she did with left-overs.
"Hash them, of course." "And what becomes of the hash?" asked the new boarder. "Rehash it, of course." Being a newspaper man he couldn't lick.

Some lads make a living thinking up smart saws like, "One swallow doesn't make a summer but a frog can make a spring." Honest, I couldn't compose a thing like that—the best I can do is to pick out the good ones and reject the punk. That's a business in itself—picking out the right things to say and the right things to do. Maybe you know there are 60,000 words in the dictionary and only 600 in actual use, so you see it's no parlor job to pick the winners.
In picking things to do you have to be even more careful because there is no dictionary of deeds like there is of words. But deeds speak louder than words, so you don't have to pick out so many.

I think a good deed to pick out at this time of the year is to come to our store and pick out a nice spring suit
—one of the new stripes or stripe effects. It is wonderful what fine and fancy weaves they're getting into men's business suits these days; you can have almost as much coloring as the tender sex. Say, why do they call them tender? Most of those that I know are husky girls, all right, all right. We can clothe you from the ground up and from the roof down, so please come in when you are ready.
