LABORERS DECLINE TO GO ASHORE

Six Hundred Canal Diggers
Balk at Colon.

CLUBBED INTO SUBMISSION AND DRIVEN FROM SHIP

Lusty Men From Martinique Frightened at Reports of Conditions in Canal Zone. Prefer Death to the Job.

Colon, Oct. 1.—Six hundred and fifty laborers from Martinique brought here Friday on the French steamer Versailles, under contract to work on the canal, refused to disembark or submit to vaccination, which is imperative under the American sanitary regulations. They claimed to be taken back to Martinique, asserting that they had been misinformed as to conditions here before they embarked and that later they learned these conditions were intolerable and deadly.

Yesterday morning, however, five hundred of them were with difficulty persuaded to land and these were sent to points along the line of the canal. One hundred and fifty remained on board and declined to leave the ship under any circumstances. These were forcibly ejected from the vessel this afternoon by Panamanian and Canal Zone policemen, but not until nearly every one of them had been clubbed and several bleeding from nasty wounds. All of yesterday and last night the Versailles was guarded by Panamanian policemen.

Early this morning the French consul at Colon, appealed to the men to listen to reason, explaining that they had left Martinique under contract with the canal zone emigration agent guaranteeing payment of their passage here and that while working on the canal they would have in addition to their wages the guarantee of free quarters and free medical attendance. The men, however, were not answerable to this reasoning. Notwithstanding the efforts of the consul and the Panamanian and American officials and despite the information given them by several of their countrymen that the health and other conditions on the isthmus were satisfactory, and that the terms of their employment would enable them to save money, they persistently refused to leave the ship, declaring their breasts and invoking death in preference to going ashore.

The captain of the Versailles, while all through the trouble, displayed an extraordinary amount of patience, told the men that he was ready to take back to Martinique all those who were able to pay their passage, but the men argued that the French government would be willing to reimburse the steamship company, and they themselves were penniless.

Before noon at the instance of the agent of the company and the French consul, a squad of twelve policemen went on board the vessel and told the men that force would be used if they persisted in their refusal to disembark. Seeing the police were armed with bayonets and guns, the men feared their breasts and said they preferred death rather than be taken ashore. Governor Malmgren, Mayor Alderson, the chief of police and others argued with the men, but again without effect.

Ten additional policemen arrived at the wharf, but the governor wishing to avoid bloodshed, and considering the police force insufficient, telegraphed to President Amador, asking permission to use the Canal Zone police, to which the president consented. At 2 o'clock the laborers were informed that they would be given two hours to reconsider their decision, and at 4 o'clock three of them consented to disembark, the others still holding out. Then the Panamanian police, armed with clubs, approached the laborers and on their refusing to quit the ship, began to club them right and left. The zone police a few minutes later assisted in the clubbing, but with better judgment and less indiscriminately. About fifty of the laborers leaped into the sea, but all of the men were able to swim. The captain, however, lowered a boat, which picked them up. Nearly every man had received blows and some of them were bleeding from ugly wounds.

Seeing that resistance was useless, the men yielded, came ashore, and began to eat the food that had been placed on the dock in sight of them for several hours. Many of them had not eaten since Saturday. At 5 o'clock all the laborers, who were in a pitiable condition, were placed on board a train which left for Corozal, where they will be put to work.

Germany Adopts Our Reforms.
Washington, Oct. 1.—Germany has indirectly complimented the United States by adopting in her portion of the Samoan Islands a form of government modeled after that which the United States has established in the Marianas group. A government clerk, serving in the American group writes: "I notice by the last Zeitung, the German Samoan paper, that the Germans are changing their form of government for the natives to correspond to the form we have here, which is a very fine compliment to Judge Gurr, who really drew up the form we have."

Regarding the life Americans lead on the islands the writer says: "Residence being the clerk to the secretary of native affairs and district judge of Tutuila, I am clerk of the high and district courts, reporter for the high and district courts, clerk to the registrar of titles, and in a big criminal case we had the governor assigned me to duty as prosecuting attorney. So you can see I am a very busy man, which is very trying in this climate."

CHINESE MAY HAVE SETTLED MEXICO IN SOME PAST AGE

Remarkable Discovery in Prehistoric Toltec Ruin.

BRICKS AND CARVINGS OF UNDOUBTED CHINESE ORIGIN

Mexico City, Oct. 1.—Explorations made in an old Toltec pyramid on the Mugueyitos Hacienda in the state of Puebla, have disclosed the fact that the structure was built of clay bricks which proves it to be far older than the Aztec monarchy, and possibly older than the Toltec occupation of the country. Several elaborately carved figures were found representing men in Chinese dress and with marked Chinese features. The figures probably represented warriors. Antiquarians are much puzzled over the matter, as the evidence points to a Chinese settlement in Mexico in the past ages.

Hundred Leaving Vicksburg.
Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 1.—Five new cases of yellow fever and no deaths were the report up to 6 p. m. today. Several hundred people left the city last night and nine others were seriously injured while a score or more were less seriously hurt.

New Cases in Natchez.
Natchez, Miss., Oct. 1.—Of the five new cases of yellow fever reported up to 6 p. m. today, three are white and two colored.

The official report shows total cases to date to be 57; total foci, 27; total deaths, 5; under treatment, 30. The Sunday report would have been the lowest one on record, except for the report of a case of infection in another convent and asylum, the attending physician reporting six cases among the girls in Mount Carmel in St. Louis. The report of the Mount Carmel convent, in St. Louis, and as these two institutions are closely allied it is very likely that the infection was transmitted from one to the other. Another case was reported from the French asylum in St. Ann street.

The Algiers side turned up two cases. Among the deaths was that of Sister Mary Edith of the convent of the Perpetual Adoration. The total number of cases under treatment in the city is only 227, which is the best evidence of the good fight against the epidemic.

It is not at all unlikely that by the time the president arrives, the quarantine in Louisiana will be only a memory. The following reports were received:
Kenner—One new case; two deaths. Mandeville—One new case. Tallulah and vicinity—Thirteen new cases.

The Mississippi Summary.
Jackson, Miss., Oct. 1.—The Mississippi yellow fever tonight is as follows:

Encouraging Report From Pensacola.

New cases, 5.
Total to date, 158.
Deaths, none.
Total, 26.
Cases discharged, 53.
Cases under treatment, 79.

The health officials are greatly encouraged over the small number of new cases reported today and the situation is entirely satisfactory.

Crash, Landing Bottom Up in the Ditch. Many Injured.

St. Paul, Oct. 1.—A Chicago and Great Western stock train running 20 miles an hour, as it was going through the St. Paul yards at 9:30 o'clock this morning struck the middle of a "So" line passenger train which had just left Union station and hurled two Pullman sleepers over a retaining wall to the bottom of a gulch 20 feet below. The "So" train had arrived from Montreal thirty minutes late and was bound for Minneapolis, running 20 miles an hour, about 30 miles an hour at near Fourth street the track on which it was running leads to an inside double track. Here the engineer of the "So" train sighted the Great Western stock train going for the South St. Paul stock yards and heading for a split switch which connects the outside and inside tracks. The engineer of the Great Western train whistled for brakes, showing that his air brakes were not working and as a warning to the "So" train, but it was evidently not heard, as the "So" train failed to slacken.

The engine and first sleeper of the "So" train got safely across the switch, but the second and third sleepers were hit. The end of the fourth sleeper was partially wrecked.

W. A. Moore, secretary of the Balkan committee, who returned from London from the Balkan committee, reported this massacre to the Associated Press Saturday.

There was no loss of life.

Although the buildings were constructed of light material they contained an enormous amount of stored goods, and the structures being of inflammable nature the flames were difficult to extinguish. ## Public Interests First.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The forest service has published in pamphlet form the correspondence of last summer between the president and Senator Heyburn and Dubs of Idaho relative to the forest reserves in that state. Senator Heyburn took sharp exception to the government's policy, and it appears included with some of his letters a number of newspaper clippings bearing upon the subject. Some of them presenting his political aspects. Referring to these the president says in a letter dated June 13 last:

"The other clippings you send relate to party matters, and state to make it appear that the forest reserve in Idaho is a matter of political importance. Now, when I can properly pay heed to political interests I will do so; but I will not for one moment sacrifice the interests of the people as a whole to the real or fancied interests of any individual or of any political faction. The government policy in the establishment of the national forest reserves has been in effect for some time; its good results are already evident; it is a policy emphatically in the interests of the people as a whole, and especially the people of the west. I believe they cordially approve it, and I do not intend to abandon it."

TRUST

COMBINATION OF SHIPPING LINES TO NESS.

The Standard's Liverpool correspondent reports the formation of a shipping combination with a capital of $10,000,000. It will take over about 100 ships, varying from 2,000 to 3,000 tons each, which Japan acquired for transport work during the war, and will use them chiefly for extending the Japanese coasting trade. Some of them will be used for carrying shipments to and from India and China. Port Arthur will be the far eastern headquarters and dispatching center. The Japanese government has granted concessions there for warehouses and docks.

The combination, furthermore, proposes to acquire several large cargo steamers of from 10,000 to 20,000 tons to carry freight direct between Japan, China, Liverpool, London, Antwerp, and some French port. It is believed that Japan's export trade will receive enormous development, and that it will be linked with China's, while a brisk business will be done with European manufacturers. Sir Alfred Jones, senior partner in the firm of Elder, Dempsey and Co., R. D. Holt, and several China merchants are mentioned in connection with the plan.

May Become Embassies.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The Gaulois states that Japan will shortly raise its principal legations to the rank of embassies.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Albuquerque Mothers Show Not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kidneys. The earliest warning is bed-wetting. Later comes backache, headache, lameness. This is a mistake to neglect these troubles.

To blame the child for its own distress. Sick to cure the kidneys? Save the child from deadly kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. J. A. Schinner, dealer in staple and fancy groceries, 214 West Railroad avenue, says: "Some time ago there came to my notice a case of a child whose control over the kidney secretion was broken. The parents procured for it Doan's Kidney Pills at the Alvarado Pharmacy, and the treatment, according to directions for children, was commenced. In addition to the limited control there was considerable backache, the complications fully proving that in some way the kidneys were either weakened or excited. The treatment of Doan's Kidney Pills at once relieved the child, and the annoyance ceased."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McBride Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SANTA FE TICKET CLERK HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Guy Pierce Charged With Stealing Company's Money.

HAD BEEN IN LOCAL STATION BUT A BRIEF TWO MONTHS

Guy Pierce, for two months past, and until last Monday morning, the day ticket clerk of the Santa Fe railroad in the local station, was arrested yesterday morning by local officers and placed in the county jail on a charge of embezzlement of company funds. The arrest was made on a complaint sworn to by Special Officer Ben Williams, who has been here for some days past investigating the shortage in the local office. Thus far $200 is missing which is charged to Pierce's account.

Pierce came to Albuquerque a little more than two months ago from Kansas City. He had been employed there by the Santa Fe and was an experienced man, having had some service as a conductor in Kentucky and the south. He was placed in charge of the day passenger business and handled large sums of money. It was not until after his removal last Monday that the shortage in the accounts became noticeable, and an investigation followed which led to yesterday's arrest.

HURLEY BACK FROM SOUTHERN TRIP

SANTA FE GENERAL MANAGER HAS BEEN ATTENDING MEETING OF DEPT. DIRECTORS.

General Manager J. E. Hurley, of the Santa Fe, who has been in southern New Mexico for several days, returned to Albuquerque last night at 11:30 o'clock on a special train. He was accompanied by Superintendent Parker of the western division and by the local division superintendents. After remaining here half an hour, the train went on its way.

FISHERY STORY OF HOLDUP ON SOUTH END

PASSENGER RELATES HOW THE MOUNTED POLICE PUT SCARE ON WOULD-BE ROBBERS.

A passenger from Socorro yesterday told the Journal reporter a tale of an attempted hold-up on the Rio Grande division Saturday, which story has not yet found reliable confirmation. According to the tale of the passenger, the southbound train came to a standstill three or four times above Belen, a short distance, and footstaps were heard running around and over the tops of the coaches. Word was passed around in the cars that the train was being held up and Lieutenant Cipriano Baca, of the New Mexico mounted police and two privates of the same organization loaded their firearms, and went out to investigate. The would-be highwaymen then disappeared in the darkness and the train proceeded.

MURDERER OF DEPUTY SHERIFF ARRESTED

LOUIS RAVERO IN TOLLS FOR KNIFING "LITTLE BILLIE" LONG.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 1.—Ranger Old at Nogales has arrested Luis Ravelo who is wanted at Belen for the murder of "Little Billie" Long, deputy sheriff and night watchman at Belen about seven years ago.

The murder of Long was one of the most sensational affairs of the kind in the history of Belen. The officer was on his way home one night after having guarded a voting booth during an election, when his player attacked him with a knife. In the fierce fight which followed Long received cuts and stab wounds over his body, and died within a few minutes after the Mexican made his escape.

At the time every effort was made to arrest the slayer, but by hard riding he reached the line ahead of his pursuers and escaped capture.

There whereabouts of Ravelo in Mexico have been known to the Arizona authorities ever since the murder, but owing to the carelessness of officials on the other side of the line, extradition could be effected.

INDIAN INSPECTOR NESLER RESIGNS FROM SERVICE

HAS BEEN ONE OF THE BEST OFFICIALS EVER EMPLOYED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

The people of Albuquerque and of New Mexico will be interested to learn of the resignation from the government Indian service of Inspector Charles F. Nesler, who has made many trips to this city, and who is well known here.

Mr. Nesler was the first inspector appointed in the service under the McKinley administration, and Garrett A. Hobart, vice president at the time, was his backer. He was appointed June 28, 1897.

At the Indian office it is stated that Nesler has been one of the best inspectors the service has known. He is well known in the southwest, having had charge of the allotment of the Kiowa Indian reservation a little over three years ago. That work, it will be recalled, resulted in charges being preferred by S. M. Prosser, agent in Washington of the Indian Rights association, against Colonel J. P. Randlett and Mr. Nesler. Francis E. Leupp, now commissioner of Indian affairs, was sent by the president as a special agent to investigate these charges, the investigation resulting in the complete vindication of Colonel Randlett and Mr. Nesler. Further than that, the allotment of these Kiowa lands, situated near and about Amarillo, O. T., has since been declared to have been one of the best pieces of work ever done by the Indian office.

PHILIPS-DODGE PEOPLE NOT REMOVING KIBBEY

Walter Douglas, general manager of the Copper Queen Mining company of Bisbee and the other Phelps-Dodge interests in southern Arizona, spent yesterday in Phoenix in attendance on the supreme court, leaving for the south last night, says the Phoenix Gazette.

Late in the afternoon a reporter called on Mr. Douglas and asked him if there was any truth in the statement published that he told a representative citizen of Cochise county that the Phelps-Dodge interests had been to President Roosevelt in an effort to secure the removal of Governor Kibbey.

Mr. Douglas had not yet heard of the publication and his surprise and indignation was great. At this moment, he is here in Phoenix, and he has not had time to read up and handed Mr. Douglas a copy of the paper. After reading it, Mr. Douglas said:

"The statement is false in every respect. It is absolutely a tissue of lies. The Phelps-Dodge interests have, not and never has any other company with which I am connected, been to the president to secure the removal of Governor Kibbey."

Colonist Rates to the Northwest.

Commencing September 15th and daily thereafter until October 31st, the Santa Fe will sell tickets to Billings, Butte, Helena and Missoula at a rate of $33.95; Spokane and Walla Walla, $38.45; Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, $38.95. For particulars call on any agent of the Santa Fe.

TUCSON, ARIZONA.

W. E. NEAL, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

My Dear Sir: Your letter, with notice, has just reached me. I was aware from my policy, that L would be entitled to a "dividend" at this time, but I had no knowledge upon which to base an opinion as to the amount of the dividend. I certainly did not expect that it would be anywhere near the amount you mention ($24.15 cash). This is nearly one-eighth of my annual premium, $204.50. I am more than pleased with this showing. I inclose herewith check for $204.50. The present dividend, and subsequent ones—unless otherwise instructed—will be left to purchase additional insurance. You know we have to protect the wife and babies, even if we have to go without a vacation ourselves.

I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you here soon.

Very sincerely,

Bryan as a Preacher

WILLIAM J. BRYAN was asked by the editor of a religious periodical to contribute an article, and this he did. He called it "The Price of a Soul," and under this head preached a pointed little sermon on the sacrifice of conscientious scruples which is so commonly made in our business and political life to obtain money and material success. But he followed the rules of sacred rhetoric a little too closely and gave to his preaching here and there a personal and practical application. He referred to the example of John D. Rockefeller. The religious editor refused to publish the sermon with that paragraph in it, and Mr. Bryan refused to let it be published with that paragraph out, and so the sermon gets into print by way of Mr. Bryan's own paper. The obnoxious paragraph follows:

Mr. Rockefeller is at present the target of the paragraphs, and he is probably the most conspicuous example furnished by this generation of the man who habitually stifles his conscience until it becomes too "scarred" to be of service to him. He doubtless regards himself as a pious man; in fact, he is quite punctilious in attending upon the ordinary means of grace, and yet his life record shows extraordinary moral obliquity. He has so long accustomed himself to putting money making above ethical considerations that he can bankrupt a competitor through the rebate system, bribe a college with a donation or evade a court summons with equal complacency. But Mr. Rockefeller is not alone in the use of indefensible business methods. He enjoys an odious pre-eminence, but he has many would-be rivals. Whenever a business man is caught in wrong doing, he is quick to reply, "They all do it." While this inditement is too sweeping to be just, it must be admitted that there is entirely too much truth in the charge.

THREE men died in New York a day or two ago from alleged overexertion. Now for a crop of articles on the subject of the rushing life of Americans. But the San Francisco Chronicle suggests that it would be well, however, for those tempted to dwell on the matter to find out how many died on the same day from diseases induced by lack of exertion. The chances are that a rigid investigation would disclose that the proportion of mortality from overexertion to overexertion is about ten to one.

Eating All the Sheep

CONSUL WILLIAMS, who represents the United States at Cardiff, Wales, sends an official report which has peculiar interest for New Mexico. He says the world is eating up the sheep. His books have been declining for three decades, and that decline has become perceptible in so many countries that it is regarded as the most remarkable agricultural movement of our times, and its effect is already visible upon the world's wool and mutton markets. Mr. Williams mentions a number of causes which have operated to bring about this result, and shows that these causes are steadily becoming more potent all the time.

The figures, taken from official sources, indicate that the flocks of the world have declined at least 55,000,000 head since 1873, an average of more than 3,000,000 head a year and this decline must continue while present conditions prevail.

With the president of the Santa Fe Railway company advocating lower freight rates on cattle and our consuls showing by official figures that the world at large is devouring its sheep, the outlook for the two great industries of New Mexico could not well be better.

THE character of the population of Maryland is so far different from that of the more southern states that the adoption of a constitutional suffrage amendment embodying the "grandfather clause" is attended with special difficulties.

Other People's Money

LIFE insurance directors who transfer policyholders' money to the campaign fund of a political party and account for it under the head of "legal expenses" may be influential enough to make their offense look more respectable than the vulgar theft for which many a man is now in state prison, but they cannot hope to retain the confidence of the people they deceive. Worse still, is the secret employment of large amounts of the company's reserve to assist the flotation of securities for other firms and corporations with which directors are connected. To conceal the campaign subscriptions fraudulent entries had to be used. To cover up the accommodation to related promoters the tell-tale assets had to be exchanged temporarily for cash so as not to appear in the company's annual statement. President McCall may use sanctimonious language to express his satisfaction with the campaign fund misappropriations, and Vice President Perkins may aver that the New York Life never lost a cent by the clandestine "deal" of its directors, but they cannot make the business honorable. Successful "window dressing" is not more moral than the kind that fails.

THE Kansas City Journal says "there is no finer spectacle than the pageant offered by the Priests of Pallas yesterday." Evidently you haven't been over to our twin jules recently.

Who Was She?

THIS is the way the fashion editor of a Kansas paper does his work. "She boarded the train at Emporia, but that does not signify. She had the Emporia nose, which means a whole lot; but then she had the Eureka coil to her hair, the Council Grove foot and the Strong City walk and it was hard to determine. But when her mother came tagging in after her with two suit cases, we knew Emporia was her habitat. She was going to Ed Howe's corn carnival at Atchison. She wore a tan covert traveling suit with gloves, shoes and hat to match. The car voted her the real thing. An hour after her arrival at Atchison she emerged from the hotel in a stinging suit of voile. At luncheon—they call it dinner in Atchison—she was in white linen, laundered to beat the band. At 2 o'clock she 'disappeared' from the main corridor of the hotel in crepe de chine; and the seven buttoned-up-to-the-chin army officers, who were lined up on the sidewalk, pulled down their seven khaki coats, came to 'attention' and stared the army stare. At supper it was white silk, cut bias, but at the reception it was a see-saw shirt waist, see-through stockings and see-everything mosquito net skirt, en train, while the seven army officers? they went down to the bar to shake dice for the drinks. They are shaking yet. Who was she? Well, that is what we all want to know."

"THE busy people are the happy people," says a Kansas paper. But we know some people who are very busy trying to keep out of jail, and still they don't look very happy.

Stories of the Streets and of the Town

Told His Troubles to a Policeman.
Yesterday the police department received a hurry up call over the telephone to come to a house in 1106 block on South Water street.

"Send a policeman up here quick," came over the wire in a highly excited voice.

"Kennedy, I guess you'd better rush up there as quick as you can," said Chief McMillin to his right hand man. The latter climbed into a buggy with all the dispatch of which he was capable and drove like wildfire to the scene of the supposed riot, or murder, or suicide, or something.

When he arrived in the middle of the 1106 block there was a deep mud all over the place and the landlady, a woman of 12 years, emerged. "Hello," he said. "You the policeman I just telephoned for?"

"Yes," said Mr. Kennedy. In some surprise, "Well, I want you to help me find my ball," said the woman. "Paw said, always tell your troubles to a policeman, so I called you up. I can't find my ball anywhere. You come here, pretty quick, didn't you?"

For a moment Kennedy was inclined to be the maddest man on the force. Then the humor of the situation caught him, and with a laugh he went into the weeds to look for the ball.

The Bane of Grafters.
The little governor is making a most blood curdling reputation for himself all over the country and will soon rank with Buffalo Bill, Kit Carson and Black Jack and Spot Moore as one of the picturesque and mighty heroes of the wild and woolly west. In fact the little governor at present is somewhat embarrassed to live up to his reputation as the terror of evil doers, the Nemesis of grafters, the scourge of the unrighteous and the whole works generally. According to the newspapers he will have trouble finding a "quicker and retired spot where he can rest," for he will be dogged by hordes of small boys, newspaper correspondents, photographers and souvenir hunters wherever he goes.

There follows an extract from the San Antonio Express concerning the Bane of the Bad Man. It is placed in the live stock column. The appropriateness of this is some little private joke of the Express, which is in wide closed to the public. But anyway, it says:

Governor Miguel Otero, of New Mexico, is having an interesting time with the outside element and his political enemies since he promulgated his slogan some months ago to "Let us make a new New Mexico." He has been threatened with assassination a half dozen times or more and the executive mansion in Santa Fe presents the appearance of an up-to-date gun store, a bulldog is on duty each night in the governor's bed chamber and the latest devices in burglar alarms are in operation in every door and window.

Two elements are at work against the governor—the remnant of a once powerful outlaw band and a warring faction to local politics. The outlaws seek revenge because of Governor Otero's aggressive policy in doing away with killers and bad men in general.

TWO ACTIONS NOW PENDING FOR THE HELP OF HUBBELL

Childers Seeks Writ of Prohibition Before Judge Mann.

MOVE WAS MADE BEFORE THE COMMITMENT FOR CONTEMPT

The counsel for Tom S. Hubbell, now in the Bernalillo county jail for contempt of court, and who will be taken before Judge Mann in Raton tomorrow on a writ of habeas corpus, have not been idle during the past week. In fact, they seem to have been very busy, and their activity has by no means been confined to Albuquerque. In addition to the action before Judge Mann, which was instituted by E. W. Dobson Friday, a preliminary action had been instituted before Judge Mann of the Sixth judicial district by W. B. Childers, chief counsel for Hubbell.

This action had not been generally known in Albuquerque, as the absence of Mr. Childers had been reported to be on business before the Third district court at Las Cruces. It now becomes known, however, that Mr. Childers did not stop at Las Cruces for long, but that he hurried on to Alamogordo, where Judge Mann was holding court. Immediately after Judge Abbott's decision was announced, recognizing Arriola as sheriff, and demanding a writ of prohibition against Judge Abbott, upon the ground of lack of jurisdiction.

The petition for a writ of prohibition is unusual and has been rare in the history of the courts of New Mexico. It is simply a demand that one judge deny the right of another of equal rank to take jurisdiction.

In this case of the petition was for a writ to restrain Judge Abbott from recognizing the commission of the governor to Arriola, as prima facie evidence of his right to the office, pending the decision of the case upon its merits, and the ruling of a higher court upon the right of the governor to remove. It is worthy of note that Judge Mann, although the case has been heard on Thursday, has not yet given a decision.

Hubbell Goes to Raton Tonight.

Hubbell will be taken to Raton tonight by Sheriff Arriola and will be accompanied by Mr. Childers, who will make the argument before Judge Mann for the writ of habeas corpus. The writ is returnable Tuesday morning, and the outcome of the case will be awaited with considerable interest, not only here, but throughout New Mexico.

Hubbell passed a quiet and peaceful Sunday in his room in the county jail. A number of friends called on him and many more exchanged greetings from the street outside the jail fence. The prisoner, although he has been in jail now for three days, seems to be in his usual health and spirits. It is probable that he will welcome the change of scene and the trip to Raton.

The regular grind of the Bernalillo district court will be resumed this morning.

WILLIAMS IS PROUD OF "LITTLE SUPAI"

HORSE WON EVERYTHING AT THE TERRITORIAL FAIR RACE MEETING.

The Williams News says: "Little Supai," the Godsend of Night, or as the Albuquerque Journal calls her, the "Daughter of the Midnight Sun," the beautiful black mare belonging to Mr. Andrew Miller, arrived from the Albuquerque fair last Monday night in charge of James Wade, her trainer, after a very successful meet at that place.

While there this racy piece of horseflesh started in six events. She won straight, then a second, and on Friday she came in first again, making her five firsts and one second. Not a bad showing for Williams, Arizona. Is it? During the races she met and defeated the crack New Mexico "quarter horse," McKinley. This is the horse that defeated her once, yet in her defeat she lost no laurels, for she went to the post late and her rider was off. She received cheer after cheer for her wonderful nerve and effort to overcome her lost ground, and had she had one or two more jumps to go would have won the race.

TO CONSOLIDATE BIG LIVE STOCK ASSOCIATIONS

Plan to Merge National and American.

AIM IS TO FORCE RECIPROCITY
FOR AMERICAN MEAT PRODUCTS

Should the stockmen of the west carry out their plan of action initiated recently at the big conference in Chicago, and they have every assurance that it will go through, there will be reciprocity treaties between this government and Germany, Hungary, France and Austria, whereby American grown meats can be exported to these countries without duty, says the Denver News. And this will mean $100,000 a year in the pockets of the stockgrowers in this country, according to careful estimates made by expert cattle raisers.

One of the first moves in the plan will be a conference between the executive committee of the National Live Stock association and the American Stockgrowers' organization in Denver next month to try and bring about a consolidation of the two bodies. Both have the same policy with reference to removing the tariff wall to be put up by Germany and the other countries named, and they have the same end to accomplish. This conference was called for October 13. However, on account of the inability of some of the conferees to be in Denver at that time, a postponement may be made until October 20th.

The national live stock association held in Denver over the question of taking in the packers, and because, too, the association leaned too much toward the railroads, which the stockmen were fighting. It is understood that both sides will now make concessions in order to get together again and push the big policy that has been mapped out for submission to congress for favorable action. Muro MacKenzie of Trinidad, is president of the American Stockgrowers' association, and E. J. Hazenbath of the National Live Stock association. The latter passed through Denver yesterday and declared that there was a disposition on the part of both organizations to get together again. He will be here at the conference.

Presidential Powers.
Under the Dingley bill, as it now stands, there is a clause which requires a two-thirds vote of congress to ratify a treaty with a foreign country. The last senate opposed treaties which the president submitted for ratification. The stockmen have nudged out a plan by which this two-thirds vote on such questions may be avoided and by which the president may be empowered to make treaties of reciprocity himself. And the stockmen are making a strong campaign, particularly in the west, to bring about this change.

The promise to have introduced into the next congress, a joint resolution that will be amendatory to the Dingley bill clause which now stands in the way of reciprocity as the president's prerogative. It will seek to give the president the power to make the treaties himself. A majority of congress can pass such a resolution. Once passed the chief executive of the nation can go ahead and enter into the reciprocity agreements with the foreign governments in question.

After March 6, Germany, Hungary and Austria will erect a prohibitory tariff against American meats. Measures already enacted become operative there after that date. Unless reciprocity treaties have been made between this and those governments before that date all American meats will be absolutely shut out from those countries, entailing a loss of export business on American beef alone of $100,000,000 a year. The president is favorable to the policy of the stockmen. By means of a quiet yet active campaign, both east and west, among congressmen, the stockmen declare that they will have a majority of the national congress to vote for the proposed resolutions.

Las Vegas people in particular and the residents of the territory in general regret very much that Col. R. E. Twitshell has been unable to enjoy the fruits of his long, energetic efforts for the success of the Northern New Mexico fair. That the fair was a success financially and from every other viewpoint, was due in a very considerable degree to the able and tireless efforts of the president.

Ready With a Big Stick.
Now that Gilson Willets, or Wilson Giblets, or whatever his name, has been lambasted into making an apology and has been forgiven, let us be ready with our "big stick" to administer a wholesome lesson to the next bumptious tenderfoot.—Socorro Chieftain.

The Second Largest State.
A statehood league is to be formed in Tucson. A consensus of the opinions of our leading citizens shows that a large majority of them desire statehood, albeit if possible, but if this is impossible, then, jointly with New Mexico, but there are a large number who much prefer to have New Mexico annexed to Arizona. They want a big state. They belong to the class of people who like great things. They want a big state with big resources—big mines, big forests, big coal fields, big ranges, big ranches, big mountains, big canyons—in fact, everything big, especially big-hearted, big-brained men and women, with the promise of a big future for the second largest state in the union.

There is to be a statehood club organized. It will be organized for business and that business is assisting to build a sovereign state, a grand and great state, a state every Arizonian will be proud of, a state which will command the admiration of every state in the union. The people of Arizona believe in grandeur. They want a grand state.—Tucson Star.

A Hard Fight Ahead.
The movement and sentiment for joint statehood seems to be gaining ground in Arizona as well as in New Mexico, and from now on a campaign of education in the matter will be conducted.

Hon. W. B. Childers, of Albuquerque, who is president of the New Mexico joint statehood league, was in Alamogordo Thursday. He stated that a prominent attorney of Arizona assured him a day or so before that at least two-thirds of the members of the Arizona bar were for joint statehood. There are a few of the mining companies over in Arizona who are against the proposition solely on the supposition that taxation will be increased for them. The principal railroad corporations of both territories are not opposed to joint statehood. There, as in New Mexico, the office holders are the principal ones against the joint statehood movement.

The advocates of admitting Arizona and New Mexico into the union as one state, found their wishes on one main proposition, and that is joint statehood or none. The sentiment of the United States is perfectly willing to admit the two territories on that plan while they will not brook so much representation in congress from the west. There is a hard fight ahead, no doubt, for the office holding class of the two territories combined is certainly formidable, and for some of them it is self preservation and "the people be damned."—Otero County Advertiser.

Biliousness

It is said there are two territorial rangers doing duty along the line who are a law unto themselves. They run over people rough shod. They arrest citizens without warrant of law. They assault citizens under cover of their semi-official title. They make arrests on the most flimsy showing, and failing to hold their victims, they resort to the remedy of charging their victim with rape or adultery. Taking the chances of rambling up witnesses to sustain their charge. This is pretty hard on citizens falling under the thumb of these fellows. It is pretty hard on the taxpayers of the county, who have to foot the bills. It may yet prove pretty hard for the fellows who thus misuse their semi-official title to do that which they would not dare do as citizens. The ranger organization is doing good work. Some of them, however, are disgracing the service, and may yet land themselves in the pen.—Tucson Star.

JURY FINDS DEATH OF MRS. DURAN WAS DUE TO ACCIDENT

Exonerates Traction Company from Responsibility.

ENTIRE DAY OCCUPIED IN CORONER'S INQUIRY

Justice of the Peace Crawford, sitting as coroner in precinct 12, conducted an inquest yesterday into the death of Mrs. Duran, the unfortunate woman who was killed Saturday evening when car No. 2 of the Traction company ran into a wagon in which she was riding with her husband. The verdict of the coroner's jury, reached late yesterday afternoon, was that the woman came to her death through an accident, thus exonerating the Traction company from responsibility. The jury was as follows: W. D. Jones, foreman; J. W. Grant, Henry Augue, Thomas Kent, S. C. Saunders, and A. J. Love. The inquest was held in the police court room at the city hall and all of the afternoon was taken up with the testimony. The chief witnesses were the dead woman's husband, and Motorman Parr, who was in charge of the car. Attorney E. V. Chavez conducted the inquiry for Duran, while A. B. McMillen appeared for the Traction company. The testimony brought out gave substantially the same version of the accident as that given in the Morning Journal Sunday.

Parr testified that he rang the gong repeatedly and that he did what he could to stop the car when he saw that the wagon was going to cross the track. Duran testified that he did not see the car until he was onto Railroad avenue, but that when he did see it, he was some distance away. The inquest brought out the fact that Mrs. Duran died from injuries to the side and chest, received from being dragged under when she fell when the car struck the rear wheels.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF SCREW WORM IN SOCORRO

HUNDRED AND FIFTY REMOVED FROM NOSTRILS OF SEVERO

Severo A. Baca is the latest victim of the screw-worm fly in this vicinity, says the Socorro Chieftain. Nearly three weeks ago Mr. Baca took one of the pestiferous insects from his nose. About a week ago he became afflicted with severe pain in his nose and head. Doctor Duncan was called and on becoming convinced of the cause of the trouble, injected into the patient's nostrils a generous quantity of kerosene, which brought forth, in no less than a hundred screw worms, some of them an inch long and an eighth of an inch in diameter. About fifty more have been taken out since. Mr. Baca waited so long before calling for assistance that his case looked pretty serious, but he is now quite comfortable and will doubtless be himself again in a few days to the great delight of his large circle of relatives and friends in Socorro and vicinity.

LOTS OF QUESTIONS ON ALCOHOL RULING

YERKES PATENT MEDICINE DE-CISION HAS STIRRED UP THE COUNTRY.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The recent decision of Commissioner Yerkes that patent medicines containing large quantities of alcohol will have to pay taxes like any other alcohol and that druggists selling them will have to take out the license of retail liquor dealers, has resulted in a flood of correspondence for the internal revenue bureau. Mr. Yerkes announces that his attitude is not one of opposition to legitimate medicines that may contain more or less whiskey, but he does intend to see that taxes are imposed upon alleged medicines that contain more whiskey than medicine. The effect of Commissioner Yerkes' decision promises to be somewhat disastrous to a number of patent medicines. The ruling of the commissioner has been followed in South Carolina by an order from the state authorities that certain patent medicines shall not be sold except upon the prescription of a physician, and if druggists or other sell without prescriptions, they will be arrested for operating "without license." The names of a number of well known medicines are given as containing a high percentage of alcohol. Other states are expected to follow the lead of South Carolina. Many of the prohibition states of the country are overjoyed with the decision and may require them to be sold only on prescription, which would destroy the sale, as physicians do not prescribe the medicines.

It is said that many of these preparations have come on the market since the growth of the prohibition sentiment in this country, and that their chief sales have been in prohibition communities.

Future of "Old Ironsides."
Washington, Oct. 1.—Secretary Bonaparte has replied to parties in Brooklyn, N. Y., who have communicated with him in reference to the sale of the Constitution that while it probably lay in his power to dispose of the Constitution through condemnation proceedings under the statutes, he did not feel that, in view of the historic associations of the Constitution, he ought to decide as to her disposition but that the matter was rather one for the decision of congress. He therefore advised the parties that he would not take the matter up, at least before congress was in session.

Relations Toward Tibet.
Washington, Oct. 1.—It is expected that the difference between China and England in regard to the treaty of the latter country with Tibet will be adjusted in the near future by a conference at Calcutta, English India, called for the purpose of framing a new treaty between England and China regarding Tibet. The Chinese government will be represented by its minister in London, Chang Ts. Yen, while the English viceroy, probably will be the British representative. China has recognized the treaty which Colonel Younghusband made with the Tibetan authorities and protested against it as soon as the military expedition returned from Lhasa.

OUT TO EXTERMINATE THE BASUTOS

FLYING FORCE LEAVES PRE-TORIA ON MISSION OF DEATH.

London, Oct. 1.—It is stated that a flying force left Pretoria on September 26th for the border of Basutoland. Since the death of General Lerothodi, the paramount chief, and the report of the last German defeat in southwest Africa, the Basutos have been restless, and a warlike feeling has been smoldering, ready to burst out at any moment. Young chiefs are traversing the country stirring up a sort of holy war that is aimed more at the Boers than the British. It is alleged that the British resident at Maseru has urgently appealed to the high commissioner to arm the farmers living on the border. The Boers there are persistently asking permission to carry rifles. The Boers are also reported to be restless and anxious to join the Basutos. The story includes a statement that Great Britain is being asked to send more troops.

Nothing official on the subject is given out.

Possibly the "good old suit" is one of ours and you know the new one will be even more satisfactory, because they are better each season. If the "good old suit" is not one of ours, then you have paid more for it than for the same quality, style and fit in our make. At any rate, see our Fall line and get posted on the new styles and effects.
