TAFT WILL BE BOSS OF
THE CANAL*Secretary Leaves for Panama in November.*PRESIDENT AND CABINET HOLD IMPORTANT SESSION*Moody Will Proceed Against Merchant's Bridge Company for Monopolizing Mississippi Traffic.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The management of the Isthmian canal affairs will remain under Secretary Taft, who will go to Panama in November to investigate the situation there and thoroughly inform himself of the conditions of the canal zone. The decision to keep the control of the canal in the war department instead of transferring it to the state department was definitely decided today in a decision that followed the cabinet meeting. Now that the work is to proceed under his direction, Secretary Taft will proceed to Panama, go over the situation in detail and return to Washington about the time congress convenes. The secretary has had conflicting reports regarding the progress of the work, the sanitation facilities for the officials and laborers, and he desires to have personal knowledge which will enable him to decide what should be done and what recommendations should be made to congress respecting the issue of bonds
which have been provided for by congress. Secretary Taft will give every feature of the canal administration his careful personal attention.

IMPORTANT MATTERS DISCUSSED BY CABINET

Washington, Oct. 6.—Several important questions were discussed at today's cabinet meeting, although at the conclusion of the session it was announced officially that no details of the discussion could be made public.
In fact it was announced that hereafter no information would be given out by cabinet officers of their semi-weekly meetings with the president, but that such information that it was deemed proper for the public to have would be given to newspaper men by Secretary Lobb.

Despite the injunction of secrecy it is learned that action was taken on two or three important matters and that others were considered. The monopoly enjoyed by the Merchants Bridge company of St. Louis of bridge and ferry routes across the Mississippi river was considered at length. It was decided today that Attorney General Moody should bring suit against the company against the bridge company. The attorney general made the following statement of the action taken:

"It was determined by the president that upon complaint pending in the department of justice against the mon-opolization of the two bridges and the ferry across the Mississippi into St. Louis, appropriate action should be taken by the attorney general."

Mr. Moody said he could not say at this time what action he might consider "appropriate." He did not know he said, whether the action would look to the forfeiture of the charter of the Merchants Bridge company, not as he would have to go over the law bearing upon the matter before reaching any determination.

The determination of the attorney general to bring suit as the result of Secretary Taft's investigation. It is understood the suit will be based on an alleged violation of the anti-trust laws of the United States. The congressional charter for the bridges provided for their forfeiture in case of a monopoly. Secretary Taft found that the violation of the law had not been sufficient to work a forfeiture, but suggested procedure, first, by bringing a mandamus against himself as secretary of war in case any person felt aggrieved at his refusal to declare a forfeiture, or second, a suit under the anti-trust law. It is expected that attorney general Moody will proceed under the Sherman act.

The Chinese Question.
Considerable attention was devoted by the meeting to the consideration of questions arising from complaints of the Chinese government, that its subjects were unjustly discriminated against by the United States at ports of this country. Secretaries Root, Taft and McCall have given much time to this question, and the cabinet
president, they participated in the discussion.

After the discussion in the cabinet
regarding Chinese immigration to this country, it was determined that no changes or modifications in the existing laws in conflict with instructions to United States consuls contained in the circular issued several months ago by the president's direction will be made.

Taft Will Supervise Canal.
It was definitely decided that the management of the Isthmian canal
should remain under Secretary Taft.

Secretary Wilson brought to the attention of the president and cabinet
the determination he had reached regarding the inspection of meats. He indicated that under the law meat packers could not be forced to pay the cost of meat inspection. He had not been complied with because the department has not had funds with which to pay inspectors. The idea of Secretary Wilson was approved by the cabinet and it will be put into operation at once.

August Will Recover.

New York, Oct. 6.—It was stated tonight that the condition of August Belmont, who was operated on yesterday, was unchanged, and that his recovery would be rapid.

BRUTAL MURDER*Trys Suicide After Killing

TO HIDE WORSE CRIME

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Dr. Oliver B. Hart, aged 29 years, a physician residing in the suburb of Rogers Park, is in custody of the police pending further investigation of the death of Irene Klo-kow, ten years of age, which occurred yesterday in the residence of the physician. It is the opinion of the police that a charge of murder will be lodged against Dr. Hart and that he will have much trouble to escape conviction.
The girl died in a bed room of the Hart residence in which she and the physician had been locked for several hours. It is the opinion of the authorities based on the facts disclosed at the inquest held today, that the girl was maltreated and then poisoned in an attempt to conceal the crime. After finding that it was impossible for the child to recover the physician administered morphine and lay in an unconscious condition all of last night and during the greater part of today. Late this afternoon he partially recovered
and was brought to the city and locked up in the East Chicago avenue police station.

The girl was taken about a year since from the industrial home for orphans by Dr. Hart and his wife, who lived at the Hart residence and in a momentary exactly, but the first information that anything was wrong was a telephone message sent by Dr. Hart to a neighbor, Mrs. Richard Cortis.

Dr. Hart told the woman to summon help at once, as he was dying. Mrs.
Cortis sent word to a physician and then ran over to the Hart residence.
She let her little daughter climb
through a cellar window and under the front door so that she could get into the house. After entering he called to Dr. Hart and he shouted
from the floor above:

"Here I am. You will have to break through another door."
Mrs. Cortis threw her weight against the door and broke it open. The Klokow girl was lying on the bed
partially dressed, her hair disarranged
and much of it torn from her head.
The room showed evidences of a desperate struggle. The girl was unconscious and evidently dying, and Dr. Hart informed Mrs. Cortis that she had swallowed morphine pills after he had given her some medicine. Dr.
Hart went into an adjoining room and swallowed a large quantity of morphine.

The efforts of Dr. Hulstrom, a physician who has been called to revive the girl were unavailing, and she died in a short time. Dr. Hart was given some restoratives and Dr. Hulstrom labored with him for several hours before being convinced that he would ultimately recover. A detail of police officers were placed at Dr. Hart's bedside and he was practically under arrest until late this afternoon, when the inquest over the body of the Klokow girl was adjourned. Dr. Hart, who was then in almost a normal condition, was formally taken into custody.

The inquest, which brought out no
facts other than those stated above, was adjourned until next Tuesday, at which time the coroner's physician, who has made an examination of the body of Irene Klokow, will present his report. The police, however, declare that they will not have the slightest difficulty in proving by circumstantial evidence that Dr. Hart gave morphine to the girl and is responsible for her death.

Dr. Hart has resided in Chicago but a short time, and is the son of a millionaire residing in St. Louis, who sent him regularly an allowance of money
which has supported him and his wife,
as he had no practice in his profession. Dr. Hart was before her mar-

Britain-Russia Entente.

London, Oct. 6.—Following closely upon the publication of the text of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, has come considerable talk of the possibility of an understanding being reached between Great Britain and Russia. The newspapers are pointing out that if Russia is sincere in her expression of a desire for peace in central Asia there is no reason why the two ancient enemies should not come to an agreement that will not only assure peace, but clear away the suspicions leading to the friction that has existed for years.
The Russian ambassador has made frequent calls on the foreign office
since his return a fortnight ago.

TOMLINSON SAYS

AGAINST WESTERN LINES

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Expert testimony on the subject of freight rates was given in Judge Beetha's court today in the interstate commerce commission's suit against seventeen western railroads.

T. W. Tomlinson, secretary of the American Stockgrowers' association of Denver, testified for the Chicago
Live Stock exchange and for fifteen years connected with the freight departments of a number of western roads, was on the witness stand and was questioned at length by counsel retaining in her behalf. It is expected that the damage is not so great as at first supposed and that her stay in the dry dock for repairs will not be of long duration.

"In my opinion the present rates on live stock from Missouri river points
and southern Minnesota are too high,"
said he. "The rates on live stock
should be lower than on dressed meat and packing house products from these points. Even with equal rates on these commodities, live stock interests would be discriminated against.
The present schedules are unfair to Chicago. They give an advantage to cattle, sheep and Missouri river markets."

During his testimony Tomlinson endeavored to compare the rates on live stock and packing house products shipped east of Chicago with those shipped from the west in equal distances to Chicago, and the railroad
lawyers objected, but were overruled.
Witness declared that if the rates to New York from Chicago were the same as to Chicago there would be little or no cattle shipments to New York.
Judge Beetha then adjourned court
until next Wednesday.

their remains were horribly mutilated.
It is believed there are six more bodies
in the ruins which cannot be recovered

the socialist party that the late Mrs.
Edward D. Rand, mother-in-law of Prof. George D. Herron had bequeath-

in Italy, established four years ago a chair of Christian sociology in Iowa

New York, Oct. 6.—General Jose
Miguel Gomez, candidate of the Liberal party for the presidency of Cuba,
who is at present in New York, said today that it is the duty of the United States government under the Platt amendment to interfere in Cuba and to see to it that the island has genuine and honest elections.

He described what he said was the despotism of President Palma's government and the combined and open
use of fraud and force in Cuban elections as follows:

"The days of the 21st, 22nd and 23d
of last September were days of terror in all Cuba. The chief leaders of our party were arrested, respectable men,
men of conservative ideas, merchants
and distinguished professional men.
The assassination of Villuendas took place. He was a young man of great valor and the leader of the Liberal party in the house of representatives.
A stupid story of dynamite was invented, being made up only to make an impression on the United States,
as it was only received with laughter
in Cuba. On the 22nd day of September, the day preceding the election of members of the election board, the moderates arrested the leader of our party organization and on the 23rd the ballot boxes were taken to the polling places already stuffed with votes, and defended by men of criminal antecedents, armed with rifles; and also by the rural police and municipal police.
Wherever members of our party resided they were fired upon. In the province of Santa Clara there were many killed and wounded.
After having presented the Liberal leader from voting on the 23rd, the election board, according to their desire,
on the 25th of September, the day when the election was to be held, the voters were begun. It was padded to an extraordinary degree, there being inscribed as voters the names of persons who had never existed or had died. In many cases the number of names of the voters falsely inserted were more than double the number of names of genuine voters."

Asked whether the coming December elections might be conducted in this same manner, General Gomez replied:

"Yes, the result will be that as this body of imaginary voters has been created, the will of the genuine electors will be stifled by the members of the boards of election officers, who will fill the ballot boxes with votes of false electors."

Pueblo, Oct. 6.—A special from Florence says: By the prompt work of their companions fifty miners who were in the under workings of the Fremont mine of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, three miles east of Florence, were rescued alive through the air shaft. The mine was being slowly burned by a destructive fire, originating in the electric house of the mine, probably caused by the blowing up of the dynamo in the terrific explosion preceded the conflagration. The property loss is $75,000.

The men were in the main working shaft when the fire first started and were unable to get to the surface, by reason of the flames having destroyed
the main shaft. Superintendent Mc-Callister realizing their danger, signaled them to hasten to the air shaft and that ropes would be let down to rescue them. They acted at once and while all of the available men in the camp were fighting the flames, which were extinguished about five o'clock
this afternoon, Superintendent Mc-Callister and about twenty men were holding the miners from the air shaft
one at a time, the work being so slow that only two were raised an hour.
The men, the combined strength of twenty men to hold one of the miners below, and had they pulled quickly on the rope, some of the miners in the shaft would probably have been loosed, falling upon the men below and shutting out the only avenue of escape.
At a late hour tonight, nearly all of the men have been brought out and the rest are in no danger.

All of the buildings, including the electric house, blacksmith shop, boiler house, main shaft, etc., were totally destroyed.

Abraham Schiffer left New York

MASSACHUSETTS DECLARES FOR TARIFF REVISION

In Republican State Convention in Boston.

CURTIS GUILD, JUNIOR,
NAMED FOR GOVERNOR

Boston, Oct. 6.—With only one voice raised in opposition, the republicans of Massachusetts in state convention today declared for a revision of the tariff. Contrary to expectations, the radical wing of the party, under the leadership of Eugene N. Foss, of Boston, did not offer a substitute for the plank in the platform relating to the tariff, although in a speech to the delegates Mr. Foss declared that the revision of the tariff favored by the state platform was not sufficiently wide in its scope.

Foss said, however, that he and his followers were encouraged at the convention made to them, and that next year they would expect to have the convention accept their proposition in its entirety.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor—Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston.

Lieutenant Governor—Eben S. Draper, Hopkinton.

Secretary of State—William Olin, of Boston.

Treasurer and Receiver General—Arthur B. Chapin, of Holyoke.

Auditor—Henry E. Turner, of Malden.

Attorney General—Dana Maloney, of Greenfield.

GOSSIP REGARDING GARFIELD
Predicted That He Will Succeed
Commissioner Fifer.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Close upon the heels of the announcement that ex-Governor Fifer of Illinois contemplates resigning from the interstate commerce commission on or before January 1, 1906, comes the prediction that Commissioner of Corporations Garfield has been elected as Governor Fifer's successor.

Mr. Garfield had considerable experience along the industrial lines since he became connected with the department of commerce and labor. That Mr. Roosevelt holds Mr. Garfield in high regard has been indicated on several occasions—the last time by his appointment to the keep commission. Mr. Garfield is credited also with congressional ambitions, and it is believed that he might have the nomination next year if he desires it. Mr. Garfield is consistently noncommittal as to all of these rumors, but his friends declare that he will not accept the appointment of the interstate commerce commission if he contemplates seriously running for congress in the near future.

At the interstate commerce commission today it was learned that Illinois is determined to have one of its sons succeed Governor Fifer, who also was an Illinoisian. The choice of the Illinois delegation in congress was to be Governor Yates, although Mr. Yates is believed to have hopes of another term as chief executive of the sucker state.

Chief Little Bear Gives Up.
Butte, Mont., Oct. 6.—After twenty years of opposition to the British government Chief Little Bear and his band of 200 renegade Cree, appalled at the number of their children and horses dying, and their inability to secure food as the result of the drought prevailing in northern Montana, have surrendered. Chief Little Bear and his band fled to Montana at the close of the noted Indian rebellion.

Neither arms nor diplomacy could conquer them, but they succumbed to drought, and before the end of this month practically all of the tribe in Montana will be on the way to Ontario, Canada, their native land, there to remain under orders of the commissioner of Indian affairs at Ottawa.

Many of the tribe are on the way to Havre, where the tribe assembled prior to beginning the march to Canada. The Cree were deported to Canada several years ago by United States troops, but Canada could not hold them and in a few weeks they returned to Montana and have since been homeless wanderers.

Argument on Ramsey's Petition.
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 6.—In the St. Louis circuit court today an argument was commenced before Judge Taylor on the petition of Joseph Ramsey, Jr., deposited president of the Washash Railway company for an injunction to prevent the voting of the stock in the Missouri Pacific Iron Mountain Railway company at the Washash annual election next Tuesday.

INTEGRITY OF CHINA.
Russian Organ Suggests Concurrence in Anglo-Jap Treaty.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—The Novoye Vremya suggests that Russia, France, Germany and the United States, the powers interested in the far east, should subscribe to the provisions of the Anglo-Japanese treaty respecting the maintenance of the status of China while affairs in Central Asia should be mutually guaranteed by Great Britain and Russia. The paper says it believes that Great Britain and Japan are sufficiently sincere to approve the plan.

The paper's suggestion is the result of its conviction that the Anglo-Japanese treaty completely paralyzes Russia and the other powers in East Asia. It discusses the chances of offsetting the Anglo-Japanese treaty by an anti-British coalition, but finds no power suitable to join Germany. Germany is unsuitable because France would not admit her into the Franco-Russian alliance, while France is not suitable because of her entente cordiale with the United States. America is not suitable because she is not ripe for an anti-British enterprise.

RUSSIANS HOPE
TO HAVE HANDS FREE
London, Oct. 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says he believes the suggestions made by Novoye Vremya express the opinion of the Russian ministry of foreign affairs. He adds there is not the slightest doubt that the proposals would be cordially responded to by England.

He further says it is as yet premature to discuss the ultimate objects of Russian diplomacy as indicated by its desire to liquidate the whole Asiatic question, but it is suspected by shrewd observers that Russia hopes by this plan to have her hands free to deal with the Near East when the conventional moment arrives. Anyhow, it appears to clearly establish that the cordial alliance between Russia and Germany no longer finds supporters in St. Petersburg.

PROGRAM FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT OF PRINCE LOUIS

Notable Ceremonies for the Visiting Briton.

GREAT NAVAL DEMONSTRATION
IN HIS HONOR OFF ANNAPOLIS

Washington, Oct. 6.—By direction of the president the state and navy departments have at last begun the preparation of plans for the reception in this country of his serene highness Prince Louis of Battenberg. The British ambassador, Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, following up a notice sent to the state department by Mr. O'Brien, the British charge May 9 last, that the squadron would be at Annapolis under Prince Louis' command early in November, has now supplied the state department with a revised list of the staff of the prince and of the captains of the ships of the second cruiser squadron who will accompany the prince on his forthcoming visit to Washington.

The staff consists of Flag Captain Mark E. P. Kerr, member of the fourth and fifth classes of the Victorian Order; Flag Lieutenant Gerald Sowerby, Secretary Edward F. Sowerby, and Engineer-Commander William F. Pamphlett.

The captains of the ships of the second cruiser squadron are: Charles H. Robertson of H. M. S. Cornwall, commander of the Victorian Order; Richard B. Farquhar of the H. M. S. Essex; Richard H. Peirse, of H. M. S. Bedford, member Victorian Order; Charles H. Dare, of the H. M. S. Berwick, member Victorian Order; Herbert G. King Hall of H. M. S. Cumberland, and Distinguished Service Order.

The English squadron under the command of Prince Louis of Battenberg, will, according to the present plan, arrive at Annapolis on the 15th, remaining there until the 17th or 18th, when it will sail for New York, arriving there the 9th, and remaining in New York until November 17, when the squadron will sail for Gibraltar.

During the time of the stay of the squadron at Annapolis, probably on the 2nd or 3rd, the prince will visit Washington and be received by the president.

Welcome at New York.

In appreciation of the courtesies extended them in England and Gibraltar, the crews of the vessels of the first squadron, North Atlantic fleet, are making arrangements to give the prince and his suite a "welcome" when they arrive at New York. It has been decided to entertain the Britishers at a great banquet, smoker and theater party, and the visitors will also be taken in tow by American bluejackets.

At the time of the prince's arrival at New York, it has been decided to entertain the Britishers at a great banquet, smoker and theater party, and the visitors will also be taken in tow by American bluejackets.

A committee, made up of B. Schnapbach, chief quartermaster of the U. S. S. Maine; G. H. Samson, chief quartermaster of the Massachusetts, and J. E. Loftis, boatswain's mate, first class, of the Missouri, has at its disposal a considerable sum, raised by subscription among the seamen, which is to be spent for the entertainment of the visitors.

The British squadron will be escorted by the first squadron of the North Atlantic fleet, under command of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans. Prince Louis of Battenberg will sail upon his flagship, the Drake, and following with one the Essex, the Cornwall and the Bedford.

The ships of our navy which make up the first squadron of the North Atlantic fleet are the flagship Maine, the Missouri, the Kentucky, the Kearsarge, the Alabama, the Illinois, the Iowa and the Massachusetts.

Lightship Aground.

Astoria, Ore., Oct. 6.—The Columbia river lightship parted from her moorings during a heavy gale today and drifted on to the beach. The crew was saved.

Whitely Starts for Colorado.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—Charles L. Whitely, former president of the Denver Savings bank, against whom an indictment was returned in that city recently, will leave for Denver tonight or tomorrow in custody of an officer from Colorado.

ALL FAVOR PEACE CONFERENCE.

But No Nation Suggests Subjects for Discussion.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—The Russian government has received a large number of replies to the peace conference invitations, all of which are favorable, but contain no suggestions regarding the subjects for discussion. The announcement of the program and the late for the meeting of the conference will be sent out as soon as all the replies have been received. The time of the meeting will be fixed without greater delay than necessary to permit all the delegates to reach The Hague.

LESS THAN THE LIMIT.

Season's Seal Catch Amounted to Only 14,368.

Washington, Oct. 6.—W. I. Lembeck, agent for the department of commerce and labor, in charge of the seal fisheries of Alaska, has returned to Washington, and brings with him an unfavorable report relative to Uncle Sam's sealing industry. He said today that the Northern Commercial company, lessee of the sealing privilege, had shipped from the Pribilof Islands during the past year only 14,368 fur seal skins, while the lease provided that the company may catch 15,000. This shows that the supply was not sufficient even to meet the demands of the lessee.

The blue foxes and the white foxes also were exceeding scarce, only one of the latter and none of the former being caught on St. Paul Island, which heretofore has been one of the most important bases of supply. Mr. Lembeck says that he lost much sleep over the notorious pirate craft, Acapulco, Captain Alexander McLean, which was seized two weeks ago by the Canadian authorities at Victoria.

"This adroit violator of the United States laws," said Mr. Lembeck, "hovered around in the vicinity of the islands and caused considerable worry. However, the Acapulco made no raid on the rookeries. He had to be watched all the time, and his arrest at Victoria rid the seal herd of one of its boldest enemies."

Mr. Lembeck reports that there are at present 73,536 breeding fur seal cows on the islands, and 1,753 breeding bulls. This is a decrease as compared with the preceding year of 13 per cent for the cows and 18 per cent for the bulls.

WRIT OF PROHIBITION WAS ISSUED LAST NIGHT

Clerk of Supreme Court Completes Formalities of Judge Mann's Order Upon Judge Abbott
in the Sheriff's Office Case.

Special to the Morning Journal.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 6.—Jose D. Sena, clerk of the supreme court, returned here tonight from Taos, and upon order of Judge Edward A. Mann of Alamogordo, at once issued the writ of prohibition directed to Judge Ira A. Abbott, of Albuquerque, seeking to prohibit the latter from further passing upon the matter of the Bernalillo county sheriff's office. Judge Mann's order in full, as issued by the supreme court clerk, is as follows:

"Now, therefore, you, the said Ira Abbott, individually and as judge of the Second judicial district and of the district court thereof, are hereby commanded to desist and refrain from in any manner passing upon or determining the right of one Perfecto Armijo, to the office of sheriff of Bernalillo county, New Mexico, except by judicial proceedings in the ordinary course of law, and from directing ordering or continuing, enforcing or insisting upon the enforcement of any order or direction by you or said court made previous hereto that the said Thomas J. Hubbell shall deliver to one Perfecto Armijo possession of the county jail of the said county of Bernalillo, or of the prisoners therein confined, or of a room in the court house of Bernalillo county, or of the records and paraphernalia of the office of said sheriff, until the next term of the supreme court of the territory of New Mexico to be begun and held on the third day of January, 1906, or until the further order of said court thereon, and that you shall show cause at the next term of said court why you should not be absolutely restrained as aforesaid."

W. B. Childers and E. W. Dobson, of counsel for Hubbell, with Frank A. Hubbell, of Albuquerque, have been here all day waiting for the return of Sena, whose absence has delayed the formal issuance of the writ for some days. They returned to Albuquerque tonight.

The impression seems to prevail here that the writ will have no particular effect upon the situation in Bernalillo county as regards the sheriff's office, the court's right to recognize Armijo as sheriff de facto remaining unquestioned by Judge Mann.

SPECULATION AS TO EFFECT OF WRIT OF PROHIBITION.

Locally there is pretty general interest in the effect of the writ of prohibition upon the affairs of T. S. Hubbell, who is still resting as comfortably as could be expected within the confines of the Bernalillo county jail. Legal men are still a little shy in expressing opinions and the writ in the mind is sufficiently mysterious to the workings to cause some confusion. The average man, therefore, will wait developments today which are expected to determine how far the writ will affect the matter. It is understood that Hubbell's counsel, who returned last night following the issuance of the writ upon Judge Abbott, expect to secure the lease of their client today through the instrument in question. Whether or not they will succeed is a matter the day will probably determine.

Should the case succeed, it seems probable that the case will be just as far from the supreme court of the United States, to which they propose to carry it, as it was before Hubbell, following the advice of his counsel, went to jail for contempt.

A PEACEFUL DAY IN THE COURT HOUSE AND JAIL.

A deep and somnolent calm reigned over the precincts of the county court house and the jail yesterday. There was not a ripple of excitement connected with the county situation. Thomas S. Hubbell sat contemplatively in his lonely apartment and reflected on the vanity of life and the blessings of the hereafter and smoked more cigars. There are all kinds of cigars in Tomas' suite of rooms. In fact there is a stack of cigar boxes four feet high and if nothing else from his confinement the contemplative ex-sheriff will emerge from his experience a finished connoisseur of tobacco. Flowers have also been left every day by his friends to cheer his solitude.

KNOWS WHERE RECORDS ARE, BUT HE WON'T TELL.

Up to last evening the county records, in the quest for which Perfecto Armijo hopefully forced open the county safe, were still not in evidence. Mr. Armijo, however, imparted the information with a mysterious expression that he had a pretty good idea of their whereabouts and expected to have possession of them in the not far distant future. Perfecto would not shed further light on his "hunch," but he is not a talkative man. He, however, has a habit of doing things, which he has plainly demonstrated during the brief time he has been in the de facto business and no one doubts he will find the records.

Where the treasurer's little pile of dinero is located is still a mystery, which it is hoped will be cleared up in the course of time. The treasurer de facto, however, does not seem to be as fortunate as Mr. Armijo in the way of "hunches."

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night, and suffer most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 7, 1905.

Reductio ad Absurdum

OW suppose Justice Abbott of the supreme bench should issue a writ of prohibition directed to Judge Abbott of the district bench commanding him to pay no attention to any writ issued or to be issued by Justice Mann, wouldn't the latter writ supersede the earlier? You say "that's absurd!" Of course it is, but it's the absurd that has the center of the stage just now, and the fact that one thing is a little more absurd than some other things makes it all the better, because it will bring us to the end of the foolishness that much sooner. But why is it any more absurd for Judge Abbott to do this than for Judge Mann to do it? Isn't Judge Abbott the peer of Judge Mann on either bench? You say "he can't command himself." But he wouldn't be commanding himself. Didn't the brilliant legal advisor of the Citizen take two thousand words the other night to prove to us that when a district judge transforms himself into an associate justice of the supreme court he becomes a different person—"just as different," to use the words of the b. l. a. stores, "as any Smith or Jones in the country." And must all that sublimated wisdom go to the scrap pile without being used? That would be too great a waste of raw material to be excused, even in these reckless times. And being a different person, it is just as proper for him to give orders to the person whom he formerly was, as to any other person whom he doesn't happen to be for the time being.

But in the particular case at bar it is far more fitting that Justice Abbott of the supreme bench should give orders to Judge Abbott of the district court, than that Justice Mann should give such orders, because Justice Abbott, of the supreme bench, having overheard all the proceedings had before Judge Abbott of the district court, knows all about the case, and is therefore prepared to act intelligently in the premises, while Justice Mann, of the supreme bench, knows nothing at all about the matter except through such doubtful information as he may have gained from an ex parte statement made by certain lawyers whose reputation for the impartial narration of facts is not in the same class with Mrs. Casar's reputation for fidelity.

All of Justice Abbott's associates on the supreme bench will concede without a moment's hesitation that he knows a great deal more about this case than would be practicable under the circumstances for any of the rest of them to know, and hence if orders affecting the case are to be issued upon Judge Abbott of the district court by any justice of the supreme court, it would be extremely presumptuous for any of his associates to assume to issue such orders while Justice Abbott is accessible, and able and willing to attend to his business.

THE editor of the Citizen seems to think we have wronged him in giving the lawyers credit for that two-column item in his paper the other evening. If our neighbor wrote it himself we have wronged him, but the truth is we did not think it possible for any man who had ever written for a daily paper to fill that much space without saying anything. But if it is really his child it marks a notable change in the habits of that paper. The late editor was frequently able to express a column in two lines, while the present editor has reversed the order and occupies two columns to express a line.

An Instrument For Good

BUFFALO, N. Y., has an organization known as the "Municipal League," which has done most effective service in driving corrupt politicians from office. Its methods are almost identical with those of the Albuquerque "Good Government League," which is entitled to so large a share of the credit for relieving this community of a corrupt gang, and whose removal was necessary before anything could be done to break up the gang and put an end to the corrupt methods by which the people of the county had been stolen poor. To accomplish this end it was only necessary to lay before the president a simple statement of facts, with the evidence to support them, but the corruptionists shrewdly kept their tracks so carefully covered up that this meant a great deal of patient effort—more than any individual could be expected to give to a matter for the public benefit—and this was where the work of the league became valuable. As soon as it was done, and a proper man was appointed to the bench of this district, the matter of reform in the county government became plain sailing.

Good work of this sort is now being done in nearly all parts of the country. The old-fashioned honesty of President Roosevelt has encouraged the friends of honesty and decency everywhere to assert themselves, and as a consequence corrupt gangs are being broken up every day, and decent methods of local government are taking their places. It is not to the credit of the American name, however, that cheap-john lawyers are everywhere found in abundance who are willing and apparently anxious to defend the worst of public thieves, and do their utmost to defeat the introduction of honest methods, but we mention this fact for the purpose of showing our people that the standard of professional decency is no lower among attorneys on the frontier than among those in many of the self-styled centers of civilization. But notwithstanding the desperate efforts of the corruptionists and their legal coparceners the good work goes bravely on. The Roosevelt influence is in the air, and the motto, "Turn the rascals out," is no longer a mere empty phrase. All federal officers, even though their sympathies may be with the hoodlums, have learned that if they use their official positions to shield corruptionists they will have to answer for it to the man in the White House—and this gives the cause of reform a greater stimulus than it ever had before.

IT IS said that the Albany legislature is doing its best to look perfectly innocent while the insurance investigation goes on.

THESE are so many kinds of graft that the mere work of classification is likely to consume a great deal of a reformer's valuable time.

THE Long Islanders in the vicinity of Oyster Bay can now take their minds off national politics and look after the automobile scorchers.

THE statement is made that it cost W. L. Douglas $75,000 to be elected governor of Massachusetts. At $2.50 a pair, how many would that come to?—Kansas City Journal.

THE Atchison Globe thinks he is a very mean citizen of Kansas who will hate the Santa Fe road, and says, "During the dark days of the state the Santa Fe was a mother to it and did more for it than all other influences combined."

NEW YORK has reason to congratulate itself on the health board's report for the first half of the year. The death rate among us, it seems, was never so low, little more than seventeen on the basis of estimated population, while the number of marriages and births was never so high. Small reason for wonder that with the results of these natural causes, added to the influx from abroad, we should crowd each other a little.—New York Globe.

A QUARANTINE AGAINST FLIRTING

(From the New Orleans Item.)
 Not satisfied with quarantining against every imaginable object and thing, animate and inanimate, Texas has determined to make her place in recent history absolutely secure, and to this end Houston has quarantined against flirting. At a recent session of the city council that body passed the following ordinance, and the same is now in full force and effect and the streets of that little city are said to be as decorous as the hall of a young ladies' seminary. The ordinance reads: "Hereafter any male person who shall make what is commonly called 'go-go-go' eyes, cough, whistle or seek to attract the attention of any female person on the streets shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not more than $100 or sent to the calaboose. Hereafter no stranger in Houston should be so imprudent as to move in the company of any female person of that town wearing blinkers, for it is known of all men that the 'female persons' of that town, especially the younger ones of this persuasion, are more than commonly comely and no mere law can prevent 'male persons' from Houston or any other place from looking at them without the aid of artificial means. While we admit that coughing and whistling should be barred by statute if necessary, as not being legitimate or gentlemanly concomitants of modern flirting as a fine art, yet what right has a city council to say that men shall constantly stare at the ladies looking for a fish while on the streets of Houston lest they be arrested and charged with an attempt to attract the attention of some 'female person'? And if the city council hopes to make a law which will keep the girls through this piece of legislation it will find that it has made itself about as popular as a Chinaman at an Irish picnic. Ever since Eve sinned along the banks of the garden of Eden, looking for Adam but pretending that she didn't know he was on earth, every 'female person' that has walked the earth since has been looking for admiration from 'male persons' and looking for a fish, and is ready to fight if she doesn't get it. Then what do these vile laws expect - men to do if the girls start the go-go-go eye business? Is he expected to give the girls the cold shoulder and look on from the sidewalk or demurely at the sidewalk and queer himself with her forever afterward. Of course no girl wants to be flirted with a club or hatchet over her shoulder on the street, but what do they go to the postoffice two or three times a day for when they haven't had a letter in a month and don't expect one, or go down to the station to see the trains come in like they do in Houston? Is it for exercise? Not in a thousand years. They know what they go for, and they usually get it. There is no doubt that this ordinance will be fought to the bitter end, and the result, for not only will the young men refuse to give up suddenly this joy that causes so much carnal ambition, but it must be remembered that it stirs the blood in an old man's heart. And makes his pulses fly. To catch the thrill of a happy voice. And the light of a 'go-go-go' eye. Houston has decided to pass this ordinance to keep out immigration, and to drive away its present 'male persons' inhabitants than all the yellow fever across that have occurred in years. And the girls who don't want to be flirted with from a distance would be justified in mobbing the city hall."

HE'D LIKE TO SEE THE CROP.
 There's a raft of 'fellows comin' with a lot of 'soll an' seeds—
 By gum!
 They're comin' for to tell us how to reap an' how to sow.
 How to hold the plow correctly, an' the way to swing a hoe.
 They will teach us so I gather, every-thing we think we know.
 Gosh all fish hook!
 They're professors from a college, an' they're tourin' on a train.
 Well, well!
 An' they're goin' for to lecture on the luxuriance of grain.
 Do tell!
 For it seems we don't know nothin'. They discovered with alarm,
 That our ways ain't scholastic, an' have a dune a heap to learn.
 So they'll kindly tell us farmers how we ought to run a farm.
 Jumpin' Jehosophat!
 They will X-ray for the curfew an' inckler in the ground.
 Gosh dern!
 An' they'll vaccinate the corn crop with a serum they hev found—
 Dad burn!
 An' they'll make it variegated—fill far hog or broom or top.
 An' they'll train the wheat, I notice, and the Lord knows where they'll stop.
 When they're through experimentin'—well, I'd like to see 'em crop.
 I want to inckle!

CIGAR CUTTERS AND DISEASE.
 "That's without question, the very worst thing that could be done in Colorado Springs," remarked Dr. Harworth, as a man clipped the end of a cigar in a patent cigar cutter at the Auditor hotel, the other day. The speaker was a St. Louis physician of prominence.
 "Understand I am speaking merely from a medical standpoint," continued Dr. Harworth, when I say that it is the worst thing that could be done. Now had that man put his cigar in the cutter before placing it in his mouth, I have nothing to say, but he didn't. He first started to bite the end—then changed his mind and used the cutter. It is repeated by hundreds and thousands of men every day, not in this city alone, but all over the country.
 "As a medium for spreading contagious diseases of the throat and lungs, the cigar cutter is in a class by itself and it is an evil that should be suppressed if possible. I venture to say that there are scores and scores of men who have contracted fatal diseases from the habit of using a cigar cutter by just such occurrences as we witnessed a moment ago."
 "I am a smoker myself and do not believe that the habit, if indulged in reasonably, is any more than dozens of others but as for cutting the end from one of my cigars in one of those machines—why, I wouldn't do it for $100. It's a dangerous practice," Colorado Springs Telegraph.

No Discourtesy Intended.

"A young sport with loud hose and a Panama hat, a cigarette and a pearl handled 'parrot' got off the eastbound train Wednesday. He walked over town and dropped into a restaurant on Main street and ordered a veal cutlet. The waiter soon brought in the order and placed it before the Nib, the sport. 'Do you call that a veal cutlet? Why, that's an imitation veal cutlet! I didn't mean to insult you, sir,' said the waiter."—Sault Ste. Marie Light.

MAY TRY TO ENJOIN THE CITY FROM DEFENDING WAGNER

Old Town Men After Policeman's Scalp.

ALLEGED ASSAULT MAY RESULT IN INTERESTING SITUATION

There is a rumor in circulation to the effect that an effort will be made to enjoin the city of Albuquerque from standing the defense of William Wagner of the police force, who is under indictment on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to kill, preferred before the grand jury by the nephew of Probate Judge Jesus Romero, of Old Albuquerque, whom Wagner arrested last winter following a row in North Third street in which the younger Romero was one of the principals.

Following the arrest of Romero, in which the prisoner resisted, forcing the policeman to strike him, charges of assault with intent to commit murder were filed in Old Albuquerque and Wagner was bound over to the grand jury. At this preliminary it is said that open charges of "getting even" with Wagner were made by young Romero and his friends, and that the open charge was made in the preliminary that the attempt to indict the officer was nothing more nor less than persecution.

Romero makes no effort to deny that he had been engaged in the fight on North Third street, and that he was fighting when he was placed under arrest. He seeks to deny that he was within the city limits, and that he resisted arrest. The two men who were with him and who were also arrested, testified at the preliminary that Romero resisted and that they believed Wagner justified in using force to subdue him.

When the indictments were returned against Wagner by the last grand jury the matter was formally brought to the attention of the city council by Mayor McKee, who outlined the case. The council took the view that Wagner was justified in using force to subdue a man who was resisting arrest, and that he was engaged in doing his duty as an officer of the city. It was therefore decided that the city should provide for the defense of the policeman.

Now it is rumored that friends of young Romero are endeavoring to enjoin the city from incurring expense in conducting Wagner's defense.

The case will come up sometime during the present term of the criminal court.

If advice received by Chief McMillin yesterday evening prove correct, Frank Hunter, 14 years old, of 529 West Marquette avenue, who ran away from home Thursday night, has ended his first wild dash into the world in Gallup, N. M. Young Hunter left his home without warning and was believed to have taken a west-bound freight train. Messages were sent to points along the line to stop the lad, and it is believed he has been apprehended at Gallup.

SAD NEED FOR A REFORM SCHOOL

JUVENILES WITH TENDENCY TO CRIME MOST TROUBLE SOME OF
ALL POLICE BUSINESS.

"If there is one thing above another that New Mexico needs," said Chief of Police McMillin last night, "it is a well equipped, well managed reform school in which youngsters with an in-cipient tendency to crime can be properly handled." The chief had just been discussing a particularly flagrant case of youthful degeneracy which will come up in the police court this morning, the prisoner being too young to come under the statutes, even if it were possible and human to place one of such tender years in the city or county jails among hardened criminals.

"The boys are the hardest problems we have to deal with," said the chief, "not that we have more of the bad ones in Albuquerque than in other cities of equal size; I believe we do not have as many in proportion as come up in the police courts of the east, for the average western boy is healthy in body and a healthy body usually means a healthy mind, but we have enough of the juvenile cases to cause us no end of trouble. It is impossible and utterly inhuman to place these boys in one of our jails where they will be thrown into the corrupting society of hardened criminals. The most we can do with them under present conditions is to give them the caution of a reprimand and then watch them. What we need is a reform school with a big man at the head of it and plenty of money behind it, where these little fellows can be handled in a healthy way, in a healthy atmosphere. If the New Mexico reform school now under construction, does this, it will be doing a great work for the territory.

TUNNEL MINED FOR YEARS—
MADRID NOTES.

Correspondence Morning Journal.
Madrid, N. M., Oct. 6.—The hard coal mine here is almost worked out. Two shifts of men working night and day are engaged in drawing the entry pillars, and the mine will probably close down in a month or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Olson were in Santa Fe Wednesday and Thursday of this week. They returned to camp Friday evening.

The circulating library maintained by the Colorado Fuel & Iron company for the benefit of its employees, arrived in camp this week. The library contains good standard works by the best authors and is generally well patronized by the camp residents.

The Cook and White mine is now working about sixty men, and is producing from 150 to 200 tons daily.

Mrs. William Reese, together with the Benches family left for Trinidad, Colorado, Thursday evening, where Mr. Reese had obtained employment at the Colorado Fuel mines.

A force of bullmen is at work here overhauling the boilers at the main engine room. The boilers were sorely in need of repair and Superintendent James Lamb is pleased to see work progress so nicely.

JUDGE A. J. ABBOTT MARRIES IN TRINIDAD

ATTORNEY FOR PUEBLO INDIANS
IN NEW MEXICO WEDS MRS.
IDA M. PATTON.

The many friends in this city of Judge A. J. Abbott, of Santa Fe, attending the wedding in Trinidad, N. M., will be interested to learn of his wedding which took place in Trinidad Thursday. The Trinidad Chronicle-News says:

Rev. D. C. Peters, pastor of the Christian church in Trinidad, performed the ceremony which united in marriage Mrs. Ida M. Patton and Judge A. J. Abbott, at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hall on Arizona avenue.

The bride and groom left this afternoon over the Rio Grande for Denver on a wedding trip.

This wedding will come as a surprise to Mrs. Patton's many friends in Trinidad. She has lived here for a great many years, being one of the members of Trinidad's pioneer families, and has been during the past few years the "official dressmaker" for all of the Trinidad brides, as she has prepared more than a dozen of them.

Judge Abbott is United States attorney for the Pueblo Indians in New Mexico, with headquarters at Santa Fe, where he has a beautiful home to which he will take his wife. He went to Trinidad in 1899 and during his residence there was a practicing attorney. In 1901 he moved to Santa Fe where he has since made his home. He is one of the most prominent lawyers in New Mexico and one of the most successful.

CHANGES MADE NECESSARY BY BIG ENROLLMENT

School Board Moves Pupils
to Save Paying Rent.

ANNUAL SCHOOL CENSUS SHOWS INCREASE OF FIVE HUNDRED

As forecasted in the meeting of the board of education Monday night it has been found necessary to make several changes in the assignment to class rooms in the city schools in order to make room for the crowds of children who have already reached sufficient numbers to fill every one of the sixteen new rooms added by the remodeling of the school buildings a year ago. The pressure seems to be greatest in the grades from the fourth to the eighth and it is in these grades that the changes have been found necessary.

President Hopkins, of the school board, said last night that beginning Monday morning all pupils in the seventh and eighth grades in the Second ward, will in future go to the First ward building, where they will be assigned to rooms under Miss Otis. Seventh and eighth grade classes are already working in the central building and Monday morning the sixth grade pupils in the Fourth ward building will be moved to the Central building, where they will be under Miss Hartman, while the fifth and sixth grade pupils in the Third ward school will be also sent to the Central school under Miss Bowers.

If this arrangement the board will not only be able to save the expense of an additional teacher, but will save the expense of renting at least two rooms to care for the overflow in the new crowded schools. The total saving will be at least $1,000 a year, while the advantage in avoiding overcrowding will be inestimable.

When the additions were made to the ward buildings a year ago the increase in room considered adequate for at least two years to come, but the board did not anticipate the rapid growth of Albuquerque and the matter of providing room for the children promises to be a knotty problem of the very near future.

Another fact of considerable interest as showing the growth of Albuquerque is found in the figures of the school census, just completed. The school census includes all children of school age in the city limits. There are, according to the census, 3,252 children of school age in Albuquerque. This is an increase in the school census of last year, of just 532.

There are two conclusions to be had from these last figures. One is that there is no immediate threatening of race suicide in Albuquerque, and the other is that the population of Albuquerque is growing by leaps and bounds.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

E. Kempenich, of Las Vegas, representing the big United store in the Meadow city, was in Albuquerque calling on the trade yesterday.

W. H. Crawford, of San Marcial, better known as "Captain Jack, the Post Scout," was in the city yesterday on his way north with his family.

Col. R. E. Twichell, of Las Vegas, who has been seriously ill for several days, arrived from the north last night, in almost his usual health.

Charles Zimmerman and son of Peoria, Ill., have arrived in Albuquerque and taken rooms for the winter for the benefit of the son's health.

The regular weekly meeting of the Albuquerque Woman's club was held yesterday afternoon in the club rooms in the Commercial Club building.

Word has been received in this city from Bert Vorhes, the well known former Albuquerque ball player, to the effect that he is now located at Tanana, Alaska.

Division Freight and Passenger Agent W. R. Brown, of the Santa Fe, came up from El Paso yesterday and spent the day looking after business matters here.

Judge Ellsworth Ingalls left last night for El Paso, where he will remain for several days on business. He will visit his home in Atchison, Kansas, before returning here.

A special meeting of the city council was held yesterday morning in the office of City Clerk Harry E. Lee. The meeting was called to pass on current bills reported by committees and no other business was transacted.

The funeral of the late John A. Conley, one of Albuquerque's best known old timers, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of the deceased on Williams street, and was largely attended. Rev. Wilbur Fisk of the Lead avenue church, conducted the impressive services and made a very touching talk on the life and character of the dead. The burial was in Fairview cemetery.

Fisheries Car No. 2, in charge of Captain T. J. Pierce and crew, left yesterday for the east. Stops will be made at Lamy to send a consignment of fish to Santa Fe, and at Trinidad to stock some Colorado streams. The car will then proceed to Neosho, Missouri.

Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Himoe left last night for Chicago, where she will spend the winter studying the piano under Gantz, one of the great teachers of the day. Mrs. Himoe's position in musical circles in Chicago is now well established and it is possible that she may decide to make her home there.

The auditing committee of the Fair association met again last night in the office of P. F. McGinnis in the Grant building to consider further reports from Secretary Sellers. The committee has not yet completed its report, but it is probable that it will be ready to report by the end of the coming week.

HUNTINGTON AGREES TO SURRENDER GUN

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT OF AFFAIR THAT PROMISED SOME BUSINESS FOR COURTS.

A one hundred dollar automatic shotgun, the property of Ben Al Lounsbury, figured in a case in police court yesterday afternoon which for a time promised to make business for the courts. William Huntington was brought in from the Jemez Hot Springs yesterday morning by Mounted Policeman O. Perce, charged with the larceny of the gun. The charge was preferred by W. H. Greer of Albuquerque. Sometime ago Mr. Greer borrowed the gun from Lounsbury and in turn loaned it to a third party. According to Huntington, the third party left the gun with him as security for a small loan. Requests were made upon Huntington to give up the gun, but through some misunderstanding he either did not get the request or declined to give up the expensive shooting iron. It was finally reported by Albuquerque that he had sent the gun out of the territory, when Mr. Greer swore out a warrant for his arrest. When the parties to the case got together in police court yesterday a settlement was quickly reached by which Mr. Huntington gave his word to return the gun at once, Mr. Greer paying the expense of his trip to Albuquerque.

BIG DEMAND FOR DWELLINGS IN ALBUQUERQUE

Influx of Winter Residents
Has Begun.

REAL ESTATE MEN HARD PUSHED TO SATISFY THE HOUSE HUNTERS

According to the real estate men and rental agencies the annual influx of winter residents into Albuquerque has begun and has begun with a rush which is without precedent. The coming of the winter folk, who seek the mild climate of central New Mexico from November to May, usually begins about the first of October and continues up to and including December. This year, the rental men say, the demand for houses is a little more strenuous than ever before. There is a steady stream of people through the real estate offices seeking houses for the winter and those houses that are for rent are going like hot cakes, while furnished and unfurnished rooms are at a premium. Location and the conveniences, of course, cut a big figure in the demand, but it is getting to the point now where all kinds of houses are going as fast as they are listed.

After the active and continuous building operations of the past year, it was expected that there would be plenty of houses for all comers in Albuquerque this winter, but during the summer there were not so many vacant houses as usual, in fact, among the better class of houses there were no vacancies at all to speak of. In spite of all the houses built here during the spring and summer, the situation for the house hunter is no better than it was a year ago.

Another and an encouraging feature noted by the real estate men is the fact that many of the people now coming in want a better class of dwelling than the average and that a large per cent are willing to build if they had time and lots and lots of them are here to stay. The fact is, according to the men who watch these matters, that Albuquerque is growing just now more rapidly than ever before, and that Albuquerque has been growing all summer and that the present rush is just an accentuation of the growth.

The men who keep tab on the new people are inclined to believe that the coming winter is going to be the best and busiest this city has ever known.

Manufacture of Window Glass.
The annual demand for window glass in recent years has fluctuated from 4,000,000 to 6,000,000 boxes, irrespective of prices, so the jobbers and manufacturers say. Now, the manufacturing capacity of the country amounts to 4,000 pots, is enough to supply the demand in three or four months. Owing to the restrictions on membership and apprenticeship imposed by labor organizations, there are only about 2,500 window glass blowers in the country, so that 1,500 pots are idle on that account. Yet this number of blowers is enough to supply the country's demand in four to six months, their output being about 1,000,000 boxes a month when they are all at work. Altogether the consequence is that while the factories are working the output is beyond the current demand for building and the stock is piling up in the hands of the manufacturers, unless they can sell the glass to help them carry it. In either case the carrying charges are heavy and the weaker manufacturers, if they are compelled to sell, must do so at a destructive sacrifice, the jobbers, not being willing to take their product when the consumers are not ready to buy. Price cutting at such times becomes utterly reckless, and frequently the weaker producers go to the wall. Frequent repetition of these experiences has finally convinced the trade all the way from workmen to jobbers, that restriction, or what they call regulation, of output is necessary for the protection of all. In general this regulation has been brought about in three ways, namely, by limiting the maximum output per week of each blower, by limiting the number of blowers, or that there are not enough to operate all of the pots and pot capacity, and by alliances of the unions with leading manufacturers to force a shut-down of the independent manufacturers when stocks accumulate—Bradstreet's.

NEW OFFICES NOW UNDER WAY FOR THE MORNING JOURNAL

To Be Most Complete Newspaper Building in Southwest

RAPIDLY GROWING BUSINESS
MAKES MORE ROOM NECESSARY

When the carpenters and plasterers, paper hangers and decorators have finished with the offices, the Morning Journal will have the most perfectly appointed and equipped newspaper building in the southwest.

The changes now being made, while they will add greatly to the convenience of the building were required in the first place by the need for more room in the mechanical department of the business. The Morning Journal's business has been growing rapidly during the past year and new equipment and heavier machinery has been coming in at a rate that has left little room for more now needed. Then, too, the commercial printing business has been growing faster than we expected and the old quarters have been far too small for some time. So a new arrangement of the big floor space is being made which will give us room for new machinery and for more men. The front of the building will be devoted to the business office and editorial rooms, while the entire west side of the building will go to the job department, the east side being reserved for the presses and news rooms. Extensions will be made in the rear for enlargements of the bindery, while a storehouse for the big rolls of paper on which the Morning Journal is printed, will be added. The improvements now being made will require several weeks to complete.

The Morning Journal is simply keeping in line with its well known policy of staying even with and a little ahead of the demands of Albuquerque. The newspaper has grown just as the city has grown and the newspaper is still growing, and growing rapidly. It is one of the best indications of Albuquerque's advancement.

OLD BANKER A SUICIDE.

Retired Paying Teller Shot Himself at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—Samuel Beaver, for many years paying teller of the Bank of California, shot and killed himself in his room on Grant avenue. Mr. Beaver had been ill for a long time and was placed on the retired list of the bank on account of his sickness. This is supposed to be the cause of his deed. He was one of the best known men in financial circles here. Mr. Beaver was 55 years of age.

Consular Reform Reviving.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Consular reform will soon come again to the fore and with more influential advocates than it has ever had. Secretary Taft advocates placing the service on a footing commensurate with the commercial importance of this country, and Secretary Taft is understood to favor it. The service will doubtless be under the new assistant secretary of state, Mr. Bacon.

W. C. T. U. INDORSES HOCH.

State Organization Is in Session at Topeka.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 6.—Nearly 150 delegates from the various counties over the state are in Topeka for the three days' session of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, beginning today. This is fifty more delegates than attended the last state convention, and the workers point to this as an evidence of the growth of temperance in the state. Resolutions endorsing Governor Hoch were passed.

The Mines of Manchuria.

It is known that there are valuable mineral deposits in Manchuria. Coal has been mined for several years in a primitive way, and the operations of the Russians in this direction attracted attention near Moukden. Gold both in quartz and in placer is found as is copper, silver, and other minerals. But just what the field offers in the way of practical mining possibilities is as yet, subject to careful investigation. Many agree, however, that Manchuria is one vast field of mines and rich farming and grazing lands. Indeed some of the samples of ore promise fabulous results, but as a rule the questions entering into the operation of and as yet, indeed, the securing of title to, good properties are indefinite and too nebulous at this particular time to prove attractive to capital. With war at an end and ample and well defined government regulations in force the exploitation of mining enterprises in Manchuria will be open to serious examination. The indications or "croppings" certainly warrant thorough prospecting or undeveloped properties and expert opinions where capital seeks investment in mines that have a right to be called such. Manifestly all matters pertaining to the development of mining properties are practically at a standstill in Manchuria. In many parts of China, as well as in various countries of the world, there exists a belief that the mineral deposits of Manchuria are fabulously rich. This belief may in part be accounted for by the popular idea that an unknown mineral or gold district possesses great wealth. Consul Sammons in New Chwang.

Sanic Old Human Nature.

It does beat the world how jealous we all are. We are always ready to jump out and praise some fellow who is engaged in something that doesn't cross our path. He is a crackpot if he is working in another field. But the moment he gets over into our front yard we begin to knock him. All of us are too much stuck on ourselves. The lawyer thinks he knows more than the fellow who is on the other side. When the other fellow skins him he lays it all on the justice. When some fellow beats our time with a young lady we always say: "It does beat the dickens what fools girls will make of themselves." There is a business that would beat Standard Oil profits if it could be worked. Just buy men for what they are worth and sell them for what they think they are worth.—Osborne (Kaiser) Farmer.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know that there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD MEETS IN LAS VEGAS

ALBUQUERQUE MINISTERS OFF TO ATTEND BUSY SESSION FOR REST OF WEEK.

The Presbyterian synod of New Mexico will convene this morning in Las Vegas for a session which will occupy the day and which may extend well into next week. Considerable important business is to be transacted, and plans for the extension of the work of the church in New Mexico are to receive earnest consideration. Among those who went to attend yesterday were the Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, pastor of the Presbyterian church here; H. C. Thompson, J. C. Rose, of the Manual school, Rev. Mr. Cushman.

Some Sensible Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

MAJESTIC BAKING DEMONSTRATION NOW GOING ON

We heartily invite our friends to call at our store any day during this week where we are demonstrating the superior qualities of the

New Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Ranges

The MAJESTIC MALLEABLE and steel range as formerly turned out by the Majestic people has been considered throughout the entire country par-excellence, and far ahead of any other range made. But with the NEW CHARCOAL IRON BODY in place of Steel making it double its value, and the fact that it is the only range in existence made of Malleable and Charcoal Iron, you can readily see that if quality is considered, the Majestic leads by a big margin. WE WANT YOU TO CALL at our store THIS WEEK, and let us explain this new feature: CHARCOAL IRON BODIES; let us explain why it is the best material for range bodies, and incidentally, why it is not used on other ranges. We want you to call if you intend to buy or not, as the information gained will serve you in the future.

HANDSOME SOUVENIR—FREE

As long as they last we propose to give each prospective customer a neat souvenir, something that has not been offered before. If you intend to buy, call early and get one of these souvenirs.

HOT COFFEE AND BISCUITS—FREE

Come any day during this week and have buttered hot biscuits and hot coffee. Biscuits baked on a Majestic in three minutes while you wait.

HANDSOME SET OF WARE—FREE

With every range sold during this demonstration we will give absolutely FREE one set of Majestic ware worth every cent of $7.50. This ware is on exhibition at our store. Everything useful, ornamental and durable. Come in and see it and you will agree with us that it cannot be bought for a cent less than $7.50, and it is cheap at that.

Come in any day, you are welcome whether you intend to buy or not
