PRESIDENT DENOUNCES LYNCHING

Amid Applause of Thousands of Southerners.

ROOSEVELT RIDES WITH
BODYGUARD OF "JOHNNY REBS"

Impressive Scenes in Little Rock as President Is Welcomed by Governor Jeff Davis and Veterans in Gray.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt spent seven crowded hours in and around Little Rock today, and his journey from Fort Logan H. Root, on Big Rock, on the north side of the Arkansas river, to the city park in Little Rock was marked by enthusiastic demonstrations of welcome on the part of thousands of people. While in Little Rock the president delivered two speeches, in one of which he denounced lynching and in doing so elicited hearty applause.

After inspecting Fort Logan H. Root, whence the party was escorted from the special train, the president and his traveling companions were taken in carriages through the city of Arkansas, where he was liberally cheered along the route. Crossing the river the party proceeded through the heart of Little Rock on Main street. The president, standing in his carriage was kept busy acknowledging the cordial greetings from the great throng of people.

At the city park the crowd that gathered to participate in the formal welcome was conservatively estimated at forty thousand. After the exercises and the president's address the party was taken to Albert Pike Scottish Rite Consistory, where a luncheon was given to the president. This function was concluded at 2:30 p. m. and the visitors then, retired to the special train in waiting at the Rock Island station to convey the party to Memphis.

Jeff Davis Greets the President. Governor Jefferson Davis was the first to greet the president when he left the train at the foot of Big Rock. A reception committee, which included United States Senators James H. Berry and James P. Clarke, Mayor W. E. Lennon and guests of other prominent citizens, united with the governor in welcoming the executive and his party. Carriages were then taken and within fifteen minutes Fort Logan H. Root, on the summit of the Big Rock, overlooking the city of Little Rock, was reached. Here a salute of twenty-one guns was fired, and the president, after inspecting the buildings and grounds and the garrison companies E and F, Thirteenth United States Infantry, spent half an hour in the officers' quarters as the guests of Lieut. Col. J. A. H. H. Root, commanding the garrison, and other officers of the post. An impressive incident followed the president's exit from the officers' quarters. The guard of honor, composed of a dozen Union army veterans, headed by Col. A. S. Fowler, and twelve former Confederates, headed by former Governor Daniel W. Jones, had met the presidential party and accompanied it to the army quarters. The president, each former Confederate by the side of a Federal army veteran. As the president was being escorted to his carriage for the journey from Fort Logan H. Root to the city, the two groups accompanying him walked to where the guard of honor stood. Each of the soldiers was given a hand clasp and a verbal greeting by the president, who remarked on approaching the group: "Gentlemen, it does me good to see the blue and the gray riding together."

He called each veteran "Comrade." As the presidential party reached the river bridge the tooting of the mill whistles was the signal for cheering on the Little Rock side. The city's principal thoroughfare, Main street, was picturesque with its decorations of flags and bunting and the great outpouring of people was evidence that the cloudiness and the cool weather could not interfere with the warm popular welcome. From all parts of Arkansas the people had come to greet the president. As the party entered the city park under an arch bearing the inscription, "Little Rock Greets You," twelve white doves were liberated from the apex of the arch, directly over the president's carriage. This feature caused great cheering and the president smiled his approval.

The exercises at the city park were brought to a close at 12:30 p. m. and the presidential party was then escorted through streets densely packed with cheering men, women and children to the Albert Pike Consistory, where a luncheon was given, beginning at 2 p. m. One hundred representative men of the state sat at the tables and several hundred others occupied balcony seats overlooking the scene.

ALL RUSSIA AT MERCY OF HORDES OF STRIKERS

Greatest Statesmen of Empire Closeted With Witte
All Day in Hopeless Effort to Find Way Out of Greatest Industrial Crisis in History.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—Confronted by a situation more crucial than at any time since the beginning of the political and social upheaval of Russia, and which at the time this dispatch is filed shows no signs of amelioration, the emperor's ministers, under the leadership of Count Witte, spent almost all of yesterday afternoon in conference in the hope of finding some way out of the crisis into which the revolutionists and socialists have cast the country.

The general strike on the railroads is complete except in a few border provinces, and St. Petersburg, Moscow and other large cities are almost as closely beleaguered as if they were invested by besieging armies. The industrial strike has assumed large dimensions, and the turbulent elements in several localities are offering open resistance to the troops.

The strike is complete in the great factory region on both banks of the Neva above the city, and in several other industrial quarters. Forty thousand men are out.

OVER HALF OF EMPLOYEES IN GRIP OF VAST STRIKE

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—(A. M.)—Over half of European Russia is in the grip of striking railroad men and the strike continues to spread rapidly in all directions. The roads in the Volga are at a standstill today and a general strike was declared on the two remaining lines out of St. Petersburg. Before tomorrow the capital is expected to be cut off from the outside world by way of the continent. This will also involve the suspension of postal communication. The League of Leagues has seized the opportunity to come to the support of the railroad men, and has adopted resolutions in favor of a general strike in all professions. Telegraph operators are joining the movement, and it is feared all communication between the interior points will be obliterated. Factories in the affected districts have been forced to shut down for lack of fuel and Moscow especially faces not only a food, but a water famine. The social democrats believe that they have the government at their mercy, since the railroads stopped the authorities are powerless to transport the troops. This is all the more serious, as bloody collisions already have been reported at various places and a dangerous agrarian movement has again broken out in the government of Samara. The strength displayed by the social democrats has amazed the authorities, who were taken by surprise.

A number of meetings were held last night and resolutions adopted. Count Witte received a deputation with resolutions and with characteristic business told them some of the demands would be granted, while others were out of the question. The demand for a constituent assembly, the count said, could not be realized, nor could universal suffrage be admitted, as all the people were not prepared for the franchise. He warned the deputation that a continuation of the strike could only result in bloodshed.

MINISTERS TO MEET TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—Special meetings of committee ministers took place this afternoon under the presidency of Count Witte, to consider the situation. M. Manukhin, minister of justice, who went to Pétrograd this morning to report to the emperor, could not return by train and drove back in a carriage in a drenching rain to be present at the meeting. The emperor is cut off from railroad communication with the capital.

The Minneapolis at Naples. Naples, Oct. 25.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis, commanded by Captain James M. Miller, arrived here today and will probably remain for a week. Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, superintendent of the naval observatory at Washington, who is visiting Pisa and Florence, is expected to arrive here tomorrow.

ASKS FEDERAL INQUIRY INTO ENTERPRISE BANK

Governor Pennypacker Writes to Roosevelt Asking That Government Get at True Inwardness of Crash at Allegheny.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—Governor Pennypacker this evening made public the following copy of a letter which he sent today to President Roosevelt asking for a federal investigation into the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny: "The Enterprise National bank, doing business in Allegheny, has recently failed, having at the time among its deposits $1,030,000 of the money of this commonwealth. These moneys were deposited upon the faith of the stability of the institution, arising from its organization as a national bank and because of these deposits the commonwealth is much interested in the ascertainment of the condition of its financial affairs. Our commissioner of banking has no control over it

MANUFACTURERS CONFIDENT OF REACHING A COMPROMISE

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 25.—At the very moment when a strike of more than 25,000 textile operatives employed in 75 mills in this city seemed a certainty, the situation was suddenly cleared by the action of the Manufacturers' association and the outlook tonight is brighter than at any time since the wage question has come to the front.

Late this afternoon a committee representing the manufacturers held a conference with the Textile council. The manufacturers expressed the hope that a compromise might be reached, and requested that the unions take no action on the matter of calling a strike before next Monday night. This request was made. It was explained, in order that the manufacturers and operatives through their representatives might hold further conferences. The committee representing the Textile council acquiesced.

and no power to make any such investigation. Since it was organized under the federal laws and subject to your supervision, I write to ask that a full, complete and careful investigation may be made so that everything connected with the condition of its affairs and the causes which have led to such condition may be fully disclosed. I am ready to render all assistance in my power to secure a thorough ascertainment of the facts."

ALL OLD BANK EMPLOYEES DISCHARGED. Pittsburgh, Oct. 25.—A new force of employees was at work today with the books of the Enterprise National bank. All of the old employees, except the bank messengers, were notified by receiver Cunningham that their services were no longer needed. No reason was given for the change.

DENTAL STUDENTS IN PITCHED BATTLE WITH POLICEMEN

Bluecoats Fire Over Heads of College Boys.

WELL DEVELOPED RIOT ON STREETS OF CHICAGO

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Twenty-five policemen and 200 students of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery engaged in a fierce fight this afternoon and before order had been restored fifteen of the students had been arrested. At one point during the fight the police were forced to fire shots over the heads of the students to scare them back.

The freshmen and junior classes of the institution met in their annual class rush today and the battle became so desperate that a riot call was sent in to the two police stations in the vicinity. When the police arrived on the scene, the battle between the students had been in progress for half an hour and had blocked all the street car and wagon traffic in nearby streets. The students who were in the thick of the fight joined forces as soon as they saw the approach of the patrol wagons and the bluecoats were pelted on all sides with stones and vegetables, while water was poured on them by students from the upper floors of the college. After this state of affairs had been going on for some time and the police were getting decidedly the worst of the battle, the bluecoats drew their revolvers and fired several shots. This brought the students to their senses and they ran in all directions, but the police succeeded in making fifteen captures. All the students bore signs of the conflict in the torn clothes, and a number of them suffered severe cuts about their heads and faces from the punishment administered by the police.

An investigation has been begun by the faculty and the ring leaders of the disturbance will be punished.

CALM FOLLOWS STORM IN SANTIAGO DE CHILE

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 25.—Complete calm prevails here today, although troops continue to patrol the main thoroughfares. All disorder ceased soon after the return here last night of the troops which had been engaged in annual maneuvers, some two days' march from the city. The police suffered so severely and behaved so gallantly in their efforts to suppress the recent disorders that a popular subscription raised in their behalf has already realized the sum of $200,000. The number of persons killed or injured during the rioting is not definitely known, but it is estimated that about sixty were killed and that 200 were injured.

5,000 SOLDIERS QUELL RIOTS IN SANTIAGO. London, Oct. 25.—A dispatch from Santiago, Chile, today says that three thousand troops arrived there last night and that order is being restored. Troops are still patrolling the streets. Probably sixty people were killed and 200 wounded during the recent rioting.

COTTON MEN SUSPECT CROOKEDNESS

In Issuing of Cotton Report
by Census Bureau.

NEW ORLEANS THINKS
SOMEONE WAS ON THE INSIDE

Director North Emphatically Denies Accusation—Total of Almost Five Million Bales
Ginned.

Washington, Oct. 25.—A total of 4,940,728 bales of cotton ginned in the United States up to October 18 is the statement issued by the census bureau today. In this calculation round bales are counted as half bales and the figures given in the bulletin are based on reports made by the bureau's special agents in the field.

No estimate is made of the total crop for the year, but figures are given out covering the crops of former years. These figures show that up to this date in 1904 the product of the gins had reached a total of 6,417,894 bales out of a total of 13,695,279 bales for the year. In 1903 the total production was 10,045,615 bales, and the ginning output up to October 25 was 3,706,248; in 1902 the total was 10,827,168 and the output to October 25 was 5,683,006. Today's reports covered 26,364 ginneries and the statements upon which it was prepared were supplied by telegraph by 762 special agents in the field, most of them representing one county each. The fact that the bulletin was not issued until 12 o'clock, two hours after the usual time, caused some complaint from brokers in different cities, and some of these which reached the bureau before the document was given to the public were of a sensational character. These are summarized in the following from Secretary Hester of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange:

Suspect Crookedness. "New Orleans, Oct. 25.—S. D. North, director of the census, Washington, much disappointment and dissatisfaction here in issuing the ginneries report at 2 p. m. Roche & Co., of New York, says Hayward, Vick & Clark, of New Orleans, as follows:

"David Miller has just made statement to effect that the ginneries report has been delayed from 12 o'clock to 2 o'clock so as to allow more time to certain parties to sell cotton on, and says he will stand by the above."

"One rumor here is that the report will show something round as half bales, 6,100,100."

"All kinds of rumors are being spread and parties are selling the market down, under suspicion of something wrong in your bureau. I send this because I think it proper you should know it. The David Miller referred to was the receiver of Sully & Co., and is a prominent member of the New York Cotton Exchange."

"H. G. HESTER."

To this Director North replied:

North's Reply. "Washington, Oct. 25.—Henry G. Hester, secretary New Orleans Cotton Exchange, New Orleans—Telegram received. Nobody in this office knows even approximately at the moment how many bales ginned the report will show. The men engaged in compiling it are locked up and the door is guarded on the outside. More than half of the telegraphic reports from county agents were received this morning and their compilation prior to 2 o'clock was a physical impossibility."

"NORTH."

This telegram was forwarded before the bulletin was given out, and after it was issued it was stated that some of the reports from the agents were not received until ten minutes before 2 o'clock. The ginneries product for the present year to date by states included: Indiana, Territory, 79,222; Oklahoma, 95,280.

Ernie Has Little of the Best of It. Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Young Ernie of this city, had a trifle the better of Young Corbett tonight in their six round fight at the Washington Sport Club, which was so slight that some of the spectators were inclined to call it a draw. In the opening round Corbett sent Ernie to the floor, and after that the local boy fought very cautiously. Ernie landed the greater number of blows.

Nearly all the colored organizations in the army have served in the Philippines but the 24th Infantry is the first one to make a second tour of duty there.

VANDERBILTS BUY LITTLE KANAWAHA

Wabash Sells Immense West

COAL LINES AND RAILROADS
WORTH MANY MILLIONS

Various Connecting Lines Will Be Used to Complete Great System to the Atlantic Seaboard.

Cincinnati, Oct. 25.—The Times-Star today published the following: The Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad company has purchased the Little Kanawha syndicate coal lands and railroads which are in litigation in the United States circuit court of appeals in Cincinnati.

The Times-Star has absolute authority on this point. The deal was made by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., former president of the Wabash system. Mr. Ramsey and George Gould did not differ on this proposition. They appeared together, through counsel, before Judge John K. Richards today, defending their interests to prevent Mr. John Jones of Chicago from interfering with the sale.

The Pittsburg and Lake Erie is a Vanderbilt line. It will come into the new coal field through Pittsburg. The several railroad lines which are integral parts of the Little Kanawaha will be used by the Vanderbilts to make a new line through Virginia to the Atlantic seaboard. This is one of the greatest railroad deals of recent times.

The suggestion has been that the Vanderbilts have thus acquired is composed of an absolute statement to that effect was withheld from the public until this time. Judge Richards will decide Thursday.

The property which the Vanderbilts have thus acquired is composed of the Little Kanawha railroad company, the Parkersburg Bridge and Terminal company, which has a charter to bridge the Ohio river at that city, the Burnsville and Eastern, Buckhannon and Northern, the Belington and Northern, the Zanesville, Marietta and Parkersburg, and the Marietta, Columbus and Cleveland.

In addition there are 50,000 acres of coal land near Fairmont and 35,000 acres in Gilmer, Braxton and Lewis counties. These lands are in the central part of the state. They are not near the coal lands sought to be reached by the Zimmerman-Hollands interests through the Detroit, Toledo and Iron line, which is a J. Pierpont Morgan interest. It is understood that the Vanderbilts with their new property will co-operate directly with the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The Gould-Ramsey interests deny waste of property or extravagant management. Their control includes all the $8,500,000 concerned excepting the $100,000 subscribed by Mr. Jones. In the trust thus reposed in them are the subscriptions of their closest friends and they quote that fact as proof that in no sense have they permitted the property to become reduced in value.

DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY IN NEW YORK

FIVE BOLD BANDITS HOLD UP
CLOTHING STORE WITH RE-
VOLVERS AND ESCAPE

New York, Oct. 25.—In broad daylight yesterday afternoon, a store within a short distance of Broadway's most frequented district, was robbed by five men, who held up the proprietor and clerks at the point of pistols. In the subsequent pursuit of the robbers a panic was made in the crowd, the maine crowd, William Brackett is one of the alleged robbers. His accomplices escaped. They are thought to be members of a western band. The robbers entered the store of Abraham Fox, in Seventh avenue, and carrying Fox and his clerks, proceeded to gather up a quantity of clothing and backed out of the store. As they retreated, Fox made a lunge at Brackett in an attempt to grab his pistol. Brackett struck him in the face. Fox followed his man, and when Brackett jumped on a passing car, Fox again attacked him. Finally a policeman appeared and Brackett was arrested. The others escaped in the crowd after dropping most of the plunder.

Paul Morton Issues Statement to the Effect That Equitable Is Making
Millions Under the New Regime.

New York, Oct. 25.—The affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance company are to be investigated by a committee of three members of its board of trustees. A resolution providing for such an investigation, as a result of the testimony before the legislative investigating committee, was offered for the consideration of the board today by Richard A. McCurdy, president of the company, and was unanimously adopted. The members of the committee are William H. Truesdale, Effingham B. Morris and John W. Auchincloss.

At the close of the meeting at which this action was taken, the following statement was given out by the direction of President McCurdy:

"The president called attention to the inquiry by the joint committee of the legislature into the affairs of the company and to the widespread public interest and comment with respect thereto.

"He urged that the board should take cognizance of the testimony elicited with a view to such action as might be found advisable in the interests of the company and its policyholders.

"The president then asked the consideration of the board to the following resolution:

"Resolved, That a committee of three be and they hereby are appointed a committee to examine into the organization and management of the affairs of the company and to report from time to time to this board their recommendations in reference thereto, with power to add to their number and to fill vacancies."

"The resolution was then moved by a member of the board, with the additional suggestion that Messrs. Truesdale, Morris and Auchincloss constitute the committee, and was unanimously adopted.

"The committee will proceed as once to discharge its functions and to report speedily to the board."

"RICHARD A. M'CURDY, President."

MORTON SHOWS EQUITABLE IS MAKING MONEY

New York, Oct. 25.—Still another interesting development in insurance matters was the statement issued today by President Morton of the Equitable Life, showing that the receipts of that company for the nine months of this year exceeded the expenditures by $16,723,197, an increase of over $508,000 compared with the same period last year. Receipts from premiums on policies for the third quarter this year were over $1,000,000 less than in 1904.

The expenses of the third quarter of this year were $33,923 less than that of last year, but for the first six months there was an increase over last year of $424,343.

After an entire day given over to the examination of Emory M. McClintock, actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance company, and to the reading of column after column of figures, the legislative committee adjourned until November 8, the day after the municipal elections.

McCLINTOCK JUGGLES WITH WORD "SURPLUS"

New York, Oct. 25.—Emory McClintock, actuary of the Mutual Life, was the first witness before the legislative investigating committee when the investigation was resumed today. McClintock was recalled to give further details of the technical phases of the insurance in addition to those he gave yesterday. The subject of dividends was again taken up. McClintock explained that the word "surplus" was generally misunderstood, to the great detriment of the Equitable. He said that it applied to the amount that was available for immediate division. Other companies put a different interpretation on the word. In regard to "preferred dividends," he said sometimes those were legal liabilities and sometimes not.

Great Project for Las Vegas
Moves Again.

MEETING IN TOPEKA NEXT MONTH OF ALL FACTORS

Correspondence Morning Journal.

Las Vegas, Oct. 25.—Word was received here today from St. Louis that an agreement had been effected between the divergent factions of the National Fraternal sanitarium management and that at a meeting to be held in Topeka November 15, the complete control of the big organization will be turned over to Dr. H. A. Varner, of Topeka, and associates.

President W. H. Eldsen and Secretary Charles H. Hatfield, of St. Louis, retiring. The financial condition of the sanitarium company is said to be excellent, and no difficulty has been found in securing the co-operation of the fraternal orders of the United States. Ninety-nine orders are now behind the movement.

January 1, 1906, is the day set for the opening of the sanitarium. A great many people are coming to the city as a result of the advertising given in connection with the sanitarium, and every effort is being made to accommodate them. Several of the three and four-room tent cottages of the Las Vegas tent settlement have been completed and furnished and twelve will be ready for occupation Monday.

Some thirty residences, nearly all of which are under way, and a new hotel has been begun.

Big Kill of Ducks.
Division Superintendent Charles Russell, E. C. Blood and Attorney Louis I. Felt bagged 120 ducks at the Springer lakes yesterday. Ducks are unusually plentiful on the lakes and many big lots have been brought in. Deer and bear hunting in the mountains beyond the city limits has also been uncommonly good.

Rails for Street Railway.
Seven carloads of rails for the Las Vegas street railway extension arrived in the city tonight. The new street car house and office building of the street Railway and Power company is about half done. It is expected that the work will be finished by the first of the year.

Former Albuquerque Girl Weds.
Gustave Voelker, of St. Louis, arrived in the city last night with his bride, who resided here for two years as Miss Clara Stifel. The young lady also spent considerable time in Albuquerque. Miss Stifel came from St. Louis in very poor health, but went home a month ago entirely restored. She was married a week ago in St. Louis.

Tubercular Specialist in Las Vegas.
Dr. E. Fletcher Loggins, the noted tubercular specialist of Chicago, and Dr. Dodson, dean of the Rush Medical college, who spent two weeks in this section, left yesterday afternoon for home. Dr. Loggins ridicules the theory that tuberculosis can be successfully treated by any method in an inclement climate as it can be in this section, though he believes that many cases can be cured by rational methods in any climate. His advice, nevertheless, to any patient who can leave his home while in the early stages of the disease, is to come to the southwest. He has at least fifty per cent better chance of being cured here, says the eminent physician.

Soil Export Satisfied.
Soil Expert Means, who has just completed his investigation for the reclamation department of the quality of Las Vegas soil, said before leaving that his report would be entirely favorable. He found oats raised on irrigated lands in the vicinity yielding seventy-five bushels to the acre and in every part of the lands of the proposed reservoir, he found evidence of deep, rich soil. Mr. Means' investigation concludes the work of the government on preliminaries here, and as Alleged Murderer Acquitted.

James W. Reagan, who has been on trial before Judge McElie and a jury in the district court for San Juan county, in Farmington, has been acquitted of the charge of murder. Reagan killed Scott N. Morris in Farmington last December and the shooting at the time attracted a great deal of attention. Reagan's attorney's successful advance the claim that their client killed Morris in self-defense.

Judge McElie has just completed the session of his court for San Juan county and will return to Santa Fe today. Judge Parker sentences prisoners. In the district court for Dona Ana county Judge Parker, by Los Cruces, has pronounced sentence as follows:

Felix Provencio was also indicted for wife beating and the case will come up next term.

TRANS-CANYON ARIZONA DOES NOT WANT ANNEXATION

People Opposed to Being a Part of Utah.

DEPUTY REVENUE COLLECTOR RETURNS FROM REMOTE SECTION

Floyd Gibbons, deputy internal revenue collector for Arizona, has returned to Prescott from a trip to that part of Arizona north of the Grand Canyon. He finds that the proposition to annex that portion of the territory to Utah meets with great disfavor. Mr. Gibbons said to the Journal-Miner:

"I traveled overland from Flagstaff to Kanab, Utah, by way of Lee's Ferry, and Fredonia, Ariz. and returned over the same route taking seventeen days to cover the distance of 572 miles in all.

"The people of Fredonia are discussing the proposition of the annexation of that part of Arizona to the state of Utah," said Mr. Gibbons, "and the great majority of them are against it.

"They set forth the argument that it is much better to be a part of Arizona than to be attached to Utah for the reason that Arizona allows more money to be expended for educational purposes than the state of Utah does, thereby assuring the longer term of school in the year as well as securing the services of a better and higher grade of teachers than it is possible to hire for the salaries generally paid in Utah.

"Settlements are few and far between on this road, and it is necessary for one traveling over it to be provided with all the necessities of life for the trip before he starts out." He further stated that one of the finest stretches of timber lands seen in the west lies between Lee's Ferry and Fredonia, all of which is in Arizona, and that there is but one saw mill along the broad river.

"Around Fredonia is a great grazing country, and cattle in that vicinity are looking well."

Senator Smoot visited the section around Fredonia lately, traveling the country as far south as the Grand Canyon of Arizona. The people living in this part of Arizona are of the opinion that the senator was investigating local conditions with a view of starting up the movement again of annexation of that country to the state of Utah.

Mr. Gibbons was much impressed with the beautiful scenery in and around Lee's Ferry and Fredonia, and thinks that it is a land of wonderful resources, but that the great question of transportation facilities has to be solved in some way before prospecting in any kind of a systematic manner can be carried on there.

HOW ONE CONDUCTOR LIFTED A PASS

OWNER OF TRANSPORTATION HAD FALLEN AWAY SO HE DIDN'T KNOW HIM AT ALL.

"There's more than one way of lifting transportation," said a passenger from the west last night in conversation with the Space Filler. "Coming in, the conductor on my train out in California came across a passenger with a pass that didn't belong to him. In fact, the passenger bore the name of a gentleman whom the conductor knew quite well and who frequently travels on that part of the Santa Fe. He had loaned his pass to the man on my train, absent-mindedly overlooking the fact that he was to take a trip over the division presided over by his friend, the conductor in question.

"The real owner of the pass, who may be called Smith, is a big fat man weighing probably two hundred pounds, and his friend was a lean, cadaverous individual who would probably tip the beam at 121 pounds.

"The conductor looked at the pass and then at the passenger, with a twinkle in his eye.

"Why, Mr. Smith," he said in a tone distinctly audible all over the car, "how you have fallen off. What HAS happened to you, Mr. Smith?" he asked, solemnly, grasping the arm of the passenger, who was sitting in the seat next to him. "Been sick?" Or working on the Panama canal? Never saw a man change so much in my life. He went on, still more loudly. "I wouldn't have recognized you. Certainly am sorry to see you looking so badly. In fact," he continued, "you look so badly that I don't see how I can be sure you ARE Mr. Smith. So I'll just keep this pass and frouble you for your fare."

And the man with the pass, after turning all the colors of the rainbow, dug up the price and surrendered the pass, without saying a word, while a giggle rippled around the car.

COMPLETE DINER SERVICE PLANNED FOR SOUTHWESTERN

Eating rooms on the eastern division of the Southwestern are likely to become a thing of the past. It is said that plans are under way for the establishment of a complete diner car service on both divisions of the Southwestern.

The cafe car service on the western division has been so popular a feature of the western division that it is said that diner cars will be added to Rock Island trains 29 and 30 as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made.

REMARKABLE ACCIDENT ON MEXICAN CENTRAL

A remarkable accident happened to the southern Mexican Central train near Zacatecas yesterday—remarkable for the fact that while three coaches went off the track and turned over on their sides, no one was injured, says the El Paso News.

The train was fortunately running at a low rate of speed when one of the cars quietly jumped the track, the two following doing likewise. The three coaches, burning along on the rails for a short distance and then fell over on their sides—"for all the world as a man would roll himself into his feather bed," as one of the passengers remarked. Of course there was considerable excitement among the Mexicans on board, but when they managed to get it out it was found that no one had received a scratch.

The road was blocked for several hours and the up-train here at 6 p. m. did not arrive in Juarez until 1 o'clock this morning. The passengers remained on the Mexican side until 8 o'clock when the train was pulled over to El Paso.

Fireman Hits Coal Chute.
Blythe Odell, a fireman on the Colorado and Wyoming, was severely but not seriously injured Saturday at Terico. He was leaning out of his cab window when his head struck a coal chute. It was thought at first that his skull was fractured, but Dr. Perry Jaffe, who attended him, was unable to find any evidence of such an injury. He will recover in a short time. Odell lives at Terico, but is now in the Minnequa hospital, where he was taken yesterday afternoon.—Tri-Union Chronicle-News.

Morrison Returns.

James S. Morrison, El Paso city ticket agent and passenger agent of the Santa Fe, returned Monday night from a three weeks' vacation trip spent chiefly in Canada. Mrs. Morrison accompanied him. They visited at Toronto, Canada, where Mr. Morrison's mother lives, for the greater part of the time. Returning, they stopped at Buffalo, Chicago and St. Louis. "We enjoyed it very much," said Mr. Morrison, "but it is always good to get back to El Paso."—El Paso News.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. "ORGANIZATION MUST BACK ANDREWS"

PITTSBURGH CORRESPONDENT SAYS POLITICAL ENEMIES ARE SEEKING TO INJURE.

The correspondent of the Las Vegas Optic in Pittsburgh has made, he says, a careful examination of the affairs of the Enterprise National bank and has come to the following conclusions in a dispatch to the Las Vegas paper printed in yesterday's issue:

"It is certain that any obligations of Delegate William H. Andrews, Francis Torrance and Arthur Kennedy, arising out of the connection of the Santa Fe Central with the Enterprise National bank will be promptly paid. The amount of money loaned by the bank to the railroad company has been greatly exaggerated and ample securities have been deposited to cover the amount. It does not appear that Andrews had any direct connection with the securing of the loans, though, undoubtedly, some of the money from the bank went to his road. The interest of the depositors is safeguarded and not one will lose a cent.

"Your correspondent has investigated the matter with those who are on the inside and finds that the papers politically opposed to the Pennsylvania republican organization have been 'roasting' Andrews and his associates for political effect. The situation is such that in any event the organization must back Andrews and make sure that his interests do not suffer as a result of the attacks of his enemies."

My Dear Sir: Your letter, with notice, has just reached me. I was aware from my policy, that L. would be entitled to a "dividend" at this time, but I had no knowledge upon which to base an opinion as to the amount of the dividend. I certainly did not expect that it would be anywhere near the amount you mention ($24.15 cash). This is nearly one-eighth of my annual premium, $204.50. I am more than pleased with this showing. I inclose herewith check for $204.50. The present dividend, and subsequent ones—unless otherwise instructed—will be left to purchase additional insurance. Grafting Made Easy

HUNDREDS and thousands of times the newspapers of the United States have called the attention of the public to the fact that the indifference of the citizen is the opportunity of the grafter. If all those good people who bemoan the decadence of official uprightness and honesty would discharge their duty as citizens at the primary and at the polls, they would have easily less crookedness and grafting to mourn over, and the public journals of the country could use for other purposes the major portion of the large space which they are now obliged to devote to the unpleasant business of exposing official dishonesty and official incompetence. Here is an object lesson right to the point:

When J. G. Phelps Stokes, candidate for president of the New York board of alderman on the municipal ownership ticket, responded to the questions of the registry officers in his precinct an interesting colloquy took place. When asked where he had last voted Mr. Stokes replied that he did not remember. Although he gave his age as 34 years, during all of which time he had been a resident of the state, he could not recall that he had ever voted, not even for president last year.

It is not strange that the Tammany inspector spluttered with astonishment, as he declared, "My first vote was the proudest even of my life," and added as his mind flowed into reminiscence, "There was a fight outside the polling booth in which I was engaged afterward. I felt on that day that I had really reached man's estate. By such incidents do facts become fixed in the memory, and the putting on of the toga virilis has a ceremony that does not permit a man to forget more easily than he can forget his wedding day."

It has been a reproach to the class—if it is permissible to use the word class—to which Mr. Stokes belongs that its members are prone to be neglectful of the electoral privilege. They are accused of spending more time in writing essays about the function of the gentleman in politics than they spend in the voting booth. The game of golf becomes an election day amusement, and a social engagement is vastly more important than presence at the primaries. Mr. Stokes, unless his memory is abnormally bad, seems to have made a confession, and will be held up as a warning example. It is not strange that the Tammany inspector, after the examination was over, exclaimed, "Well I'll be—"

In this matter—the matter of urging upon American citizens the importance of discharging their political duties—the pulpit can with perfect propriety assist the press. There is nothing of a partisan character in it. Good men of all parties are alike interested in it, and it forms the corner stone of good government. We are told that when the righteous rule the people rejoice—and the only way to enable the righteous to bear rule in this country is for the people who stand for righteousness to attend faithfully to their political duties.

Patent Medicine Order

OFFICIAL announcement has been made from the department at Washington that the recent ruling of Commissioner Yerkes requiring special licenses to be taken out by dealers in proprietary medicines consisting largely of alcohol does not apply to toilet articles no matter what quantity of alcohol may be contained therein. This was announced by the commissioner in response to an inquiry regarding the construction of the ruling in question. And such preparations as essences and extracts of vanilla, cinnamon, etc., as are known to the legitimate grocery and drug trade as household articles for culinary and other uses and not as beverages, do not fall within the meaning of the recent order. Where, however, alcoholic compounds called essences of lemon, vanilla, cinnamon, etc., or so-called essences and tinctures of ginger contain a mere trifle of medicament, the main constituent being alcohol, and these preparations are found by the local internal revenue officers to be generally sold or used as beverages, every merchant selling them without holding the requisite special stamp as a liquor dealer under the internal revenue laws will be liable to criminal prosecution in addition to the assessment against him of special tax and penalty. But our New Mexico dealers rarely handle such "beverages." Alcohol under such disguises is put up especially for consumption in the prohibition states. Here persons who need whisky can get a much better article for less money at the saloons.

Municipal Ownership

AS BETWEEN those who advocate the government ownership of everything and those who stand upon the opposite side of that question, the following paragraph taken from a leading article in the New York Globe draws the line right down to the center; and it is difficult to see how the two classes could be better or more correctly differentiated. Speaking generally, a young man, whose opinions are colored by his notions of the desirable, is more likely to be an advocate of municipal ownership than an old man, whose opinions are colored by his notions of the attainable. The old separation which divides mankind into Platonists and Aristotelians applies. The illusioned who with lofty hope travel along the high road of a priori do not agree with the disillusioned who feel that the only safe procedure is to pick a path along the low road of a posteriori. The idealist, his fancy caught by the thought of great public utilities operated solely for the common good, is possessed by an enthusiasm that is generous, even though ill-advised; the practical man, buffeted by experience and knowing human society as it really is, studies the character of the means that must be used rather than the perfection of the end that is sought. One acts as if things were altogether as they should be; the other accommodates himself to things as they are.

A SCIENTIST has declared that the bite of a pretty girl is more deadly than that of a snake. But our girls don't bite.

THE report particular seemed to serve Secretary Shaw very well at a banquet addressed by him in Florida, says the San Francisco Chronicle. Several persons seated about the festive board were theoretical free traders, but when Mr. Shaw put it squarely to them whether they would like to have their own special products put on the free list they all turned protectionists. It is wholesome once in a while to remind the beneficiaries of the protective system that it is practically national in its operation, and that it can only work well while the spirit of give and take prevails. There is nothing selfish about the policy, although many of those who enjoy its benefits would like to act selfishly. But they are compelled to help their neighbors and in doing so they help themselves. That is the beauty of the protective system.

FAVORS THE POPULAR SUBSCRIPTION PLAN

Editor Morning Journal.

Dear Sir:— Apropos to the present discussion of territorial fair matters, as a subscriber who has had some "inside" information as to the management of the fair just closed, I am asking your indulgence to venture one or two observations.

To anyone who has looked into the matter at all, it is apparent that there are three channels from which the association must derive most of its revenue: (1) Subscriptions. (2) Concessions. (3) Come and go stand receipts. The first depends of course on the liberality of the business men, and the success of the so-called. The second upon the good judgment and conscientious efforts of the management. As to the third, it seems to me there is ground for discussion. At the late fair the crowds were the largest ever recorded, yet the receipts were disproportionately small. Every business man in Albuquerque knows the reason for this—the use and abuse of an oversupply of passes. Just why these passes are issued in such form that they can be passed in and out of the grounds, tossed over the fence, or their use sold outright for consideration, the writer does not understand. Would it not be more businesslike to issue to every subscriber a proportionate number of tickets, each ticket detachable and void thereafter, as is done at state fairs in eastern states. Certainly no honest subscriber could object to this, and the dishonest holders of passes during the last fair have cost the association a pretty penny. On each ticket in the "come" coupon books used during the last fair was the statement "void if detached," or words to that effect, yet the secretary took them off miscellaneous and they were honored at the gate. A subscriber who gives $25 and receives the advertising, and indirect benefits of the fair, knows there is something wrong in the management and gets $20 worth of passes. I believe business men would rather receive passes in proportion to their subscriptions, and pay for additional admissions, than to be confronted with the present disagreeable condition of affairs.

I note that the only plan under consideration by the association thus far to meet the deficit is for subscribers to the late fair to subscribe in advance for season tickets next year, entailing in expense of from $4 to $20 each. This is no doubt a good plan, but if the passes are issued in the same form for next year as they were for this year, nothing will be done in other towns on similar occasions, and could be made, if successful, a great advertising success for the town and the fair. It seems to me the business men have their share in supporting various public enterprises, and that a small contribution like this from the taxpayers in general is not an unfair request. The greatest good the territorial fair does Albuquerque is to bring outside people here to see our city, and show them its advantages as a place of residence. The business men do not receive all the advantages thus accrued. It is a well known fact that property increases in value only in a growing town, and whatever helps the town's growth helps every property owner in it. I believe there are 4,000 people in Albuquerque who would cheerfully and voluntarily go to see the fair association put on its feet, and give the management a chance to start with a clean slate for the Biggest and Best Ever—the Twenty-Sixth Annual Territorial Fair of New Mexico. A SUBSCRIBER.

Albuquerque, Oct. 23.

Power Going to Waste.

The Paris edition of the London Daily Mail says that Lake Titicaca, the largest lake in Peru and the highest navigable lake in the world, is to be tapped for the purpose of securing electric power. It says further that the power will be utilized to supply motive force for the southern railways of Peru, and probably also to provide electricity for lighting and other purposes in the province.

M. Emile Guarnini, a well known electrical engineer who has been commissioned by the Peruvian government to estimate the resources of Lake Titicaca, has returned from his mission full of enthusiasm. At present the southern railways of Peru consume about 140 tons of coal a day. The cost of this by the time it has been transported to the place of use, has amounted to at least $9.75 a ton. This means an average expenditure of $1363 a day, or $475,357 a year for motive power on the railways. The interest on the capital necessary for the installation of electric power would, according to M. Guarnini, fall far below this sum, and in addition the electrical supply could be used for other purposes during the night as the trains are run only in the day-time. By utilizing a stream at Arequipa Mr. Guarnini thinks that a force will be obtained, according to 5,000 horse-power, the cost of which, by supplying the railway. The surplus, M. Guarnini says, could be used for lighting the towns, for agricultural and mining operations, and perhaps for electric navigation. Above all, M. Guarnini urges the establishment of factories at the point on the coast nearest the lake, where small and valuable articles could be manufactured for exportation to Europe and the United States. The scheme, he realized, should enable Peru to take a prominent place among the manufacturing countries.

BEAT SQUAW FOR BEING POSSESSED OF AN EVIL SPIRIT

Indian Will Be Tried for Deed at Phoenix.

TOUGH BATCH OF CRIMINALS
IN HANDS OF THE GRAND JURY

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 25.—Among the twenty-nine prisoners now held in the jail here to await a hearing before the grand jury is an Indian named Yukonina, who is charged with the murder of a woman, who is a Maricopa Indian living in this county, was arrested for assault with intent to murder. There is an aged squaw of the tribe who is a sort of prophet and "medicine woman," and who predicted some time ago that Yukonina's wife would die within a certain time. True to the prediction the squaw of Yukonina died. The famous Yukonina, believing the old squaw to be possessed of a devil and responsible for the death of his own squaw, hunted her up and gave her a terrific beating with a heavy club, leaving the aged woman almost dead and terribly injured. There is small doubt that Yukonina meant to kill the old woman.

A Tough Batch.
The prisoners now in jail are about the toughest batch that have been in the county for some time. In the crowd are two murderers, the rest being held for lesser offenses. The murderers are Orlando Douglas and Pedro Santa. The latter is the man who killed a fellow countryman at Buckeye two weeks ago. Douglas killed another Mexican a couple of days ago.

The Phoenix Gazette says of the cases: Vicente Romero, charged with assault to commit rape, is probably the meanest prisoner in the jail. He is a sulky and vicious fellow and his crime was very brutal. His intended victim were two old Mexican women over 40 years of age and very feeble. He is a husky and brutal looking fellow, 35. There are two charges against him.

Vicente Valenzuela is charged with burglary. He has been in the penitentiary. He is the husband of Concepcion Valenzuela, a woman who lives in a store. He had in his possession about 150 different kinds of keys and several skeleton keys.

William Bryant is charged with embezzlement. He is charged with constructive criminal assault. Al Pulverer is charged with robbing a man in a local saloon. Pulverer is no stranger at the jail and he has been within the walls of Yuma's prison. Mule, an Indian, is charged with disfiguring and changing brands on cattle. Pablo Diaz is charged with robbery. He stole a large number of eggs from a house at Tempe. The Moya is charged with burglary. E. J. Brown rolled a man in the star looking house a few nights ago. M. C. Mabeo, grand larceny; Ramon Eliza grand larceny; David, assault to commit rape; David is a man near middle age and his intended victim was a child of six years. Emabola Hernandez is charged with grand larceny. Gabriel Molina is charged with rape. D. P. Williams is charged with grand larceny. He stole a wheel. Jacob Sharp is charged with a similar offense. B. C. Cline was answer to charge of grand larceny for stealing a wheel. A. L. McGowan is charged with grand larceny. He embezzled a bill of large denomination from a man in Tempe. Isadore Pina stole a wheel and is charged with forgery. Juan Yijeco stole a bicycle and was arrested with this crime. Bicycle stealing has been a misdemeanor up to the session of the twenty-third legislature when a law was passed making the offense a felony.

The following are the members of the grand jury:

W. A. Wilson, J. A. Marshall, Chas. Cartwright, Dwight B. Heard, H. H. Dana, Charles Goldman, J. C. Good, John R. Brichett, Ernest Elie, W. H. J. Plummer, Clyde S. Evans, W. H. Brown, E. W. Wholesale, J. C. Norris, John R. Norton, T. E. Farish.

APACHES ON WAR PATH IN MOGOLLONS

TONTOS ARE KILLING DEER AND STEALING HORSES IN THE MOUNTAINS.

J. M. Aiken, P. P. Hastings, A. W. Dunn, of Columbus, Ohio, and H. F. Watkins, of Kingman, have returned from an eighteen-day hunting trip covering a circuit of 225 miles in the Mogollon mountains and embracing the unfrequented districts in and around Baker's Butte and Pine Springs says the Prescott Journal-Miner.

Charley Shout accompanied them and had charge of the supply and pack outfit. Arriving at Hart's sheep ranch in the heart of the Mogollon mountains, they discovered that the place had been robbed the day before by a band of roving Tonto-Apaches who were in that vicinity on a deer hunt. These Indians practically killed all the deer in that section, and not having enough horses to pack away the game, appropriated one of the pack horses belonging to Aiken and Hastings and took it along with them. Sheriff Henderson of Coconino county, with a large posse, went on the trail of the redskins when the party left that section without any big game. They had to content themselves with turkey and quail, which were plentiful all through the mountains.

There have been many complaints this season that the Indians were killing the deer in violation of the law and these reports are now confirmed. Mr. Hastings says that the Apache have cleared out the game in that section, and the hunters are very wroth over the fact that they had their long and arduous trip without obtaining any big game. These redskins are believed to be from the White mountains.

The Theater

It is quite appropriate that a beautiful Southern girl should play the part of the little rebel in Polly Primrose, the war story which is to be presented here on October 28, under the management of D. L. Williamson and Miss Arden, who is to enact the title role is a native of Louisiana. She has a high reputation for art won in many cities.

Carol Arden as "Polly Primrose."

leading roles, but those who have had opportunities to compare her varied performances are disposed to think that she is a little better in this form than in any other of her parts.

Mr. Justice, the Carle of the play, has been a favorite with New York audiences for several seasons and the company that is to support them has been selected with a special view to their fitness for their several parts. The play has had a fine run so far. The season and will doubtless be followed by a thorough house here on October 28.

"The Chaperons" Coming.

The big musical comedy, "The Chaperons," which has been heard, will be the attraction at the Elks' opera house, Friday night, November 3. The merry balance of music and mirth interpreted by a company of more than fifty people comes to this city with the utter endorsement of every large city in the country. The present is a fifth season and its popularity is due to the fact that it is the only new scenic and costume production of the present season. "The Chaperons" is said to display a wealth of gorgeous costumes, some lavishly scenic, and to be presented by a company of exceptional merit. Among the members of the company are: Madelyn Marshall, Ruth Lloyd, Doris Goodwin, Harry Ladell, John Price, George Lybeker, Frank Woolley and others.

A Musical Treat.

With the "Uncle Josh Sprucey" company, which comes to the Elks' theater for one night on November 5, is the celebrated Sprucey orchestra of eight soloists. This musical organization has a world-wide reputation and is under the direction of a talented leader and composer of music. A very popular program is rendered every night. A big band is carried by the company, and a novel and unique parade is given at noon daily and includes a concert by the band. A curfew of special scenery and mechanical effects are used. The realistic scene and scenic effects are of the most startling pieces of stagecraft ever produced. Twenty people are in the company, which is the largest production ever attempted at popular prices.

Base Ball Season Over.

Millions of base ball admirers, who thoroughly enjoyed the game, were "elated" to see the season close, but will regret to know that even now plans are being made for next season. It is also interesting to every die man and woman to know that in Foster's Stomach Bitters they have the best health maker and preserver ever compounded, and being backed by over 50 years of cures, is the one they need to make them strong and robust again. It tones up the system, stimulates the flow of gastric juices, cures the bowels, opens and cures indigestion, heartburn, indigestion, dyspepsia, general debility, female complaints, dizziness, cramps and malaria, fever and ague. Don't fail to try a bottle at once. For sale by all druggists.

LOVE LETTER LEADS TO ARREST OF FORGER

JOSEPH O'NEILL GETS COMMUNICATIVE
AND IS NOW IN TOLLS OF THE LAW.

A lost love letter coupled with a mistaken effort to be gay with the native, are the reasons that have led to the arrest of Joseph O'Neill, who is wanted in this county for forgery, but more immediately wanted in Phoenix for robbery, says the Prescott Journal-Miner.

Deputy Sheriff Cunningham, of Phoenix, located the man, and took him to that place last evening. O'Neill drifted into Phoenix a couple of weeks ago, and while making a residence of a corral, stole a coat and several other articles belonging to a Floyd Burnister, who is employed in the Indian reservation. In the coat was a love letter that had been written to Burnister by his sweetheart at the time he was in this county. O'Neill read the letter and found it an opportunity to have some fun. He has an uncle living at Cherry creek, and before he found the letter he had already determined to go there.

Arriving there he soon formed the acquaintance of the young lady and talked with her about Burnister. He told her of matters which greatly surprised her, for she had supposed them to be known only to herself and her sweetheart. Finally O'Neill's idea of a joke prompted him to tell her about the letter, though he did not tell her how it came into his possession. In a more or less indignant frame of mind she wrote Burnister, chiding him for his carelessness with her letters, which were not intended for profane eyes.

Now Burnister was not entirely without powers of deduction. He remembered where he had left that letter; he remembered that the coat had been stolen, and he knew that O'Neill

You can trust a medicine tested sixty years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! had stolen it along with the other plunder. Somebody at Cherry creek had informed his girl about the letter, which had been a secret between himself and his sweetheart. Therefore, O'Neill must be at Cherry creek. This very broad clue was given to the Phoenix authorities, and as a result Deputy Sheriff Cunningham has a man who is wanted at Gila county for committing several forgeries.

SOME SIGNS THAT TELL HOW THIS CITY IS GROWING

Three Hundred Water Connections Within a Year.

NEW POSTOFFICE QUARTERS
ALREADY OVERCROWDED

Ask a real estate dealer if Albuquerque is on a boom and he will inform you frigidly that there's nothing to it. He will say that it's just a healthy growth, and just what was to have been expected. It is not exactly a boom, but it is a growth that is as healthy as could well be desired. It is in fact a robust growth—a growth that is almost strenuous. Building operations have never been quite so active here before and there are indications that the coming year will see nothing but a steady increase in this activity and a steady spreading out of Albuquerque in all directions.

What Water Connections Tell.
Tell the average man that there have been three hundred water connections made in residence districts in Albuquerque within the past eight months and he will stare at you and ask what about it.
When you tell him that it means that just that many new homes or about that many new homes, then he opens his eyes and recognizes that the town is growing. The matter of water connections alone is sufficiently interesting. It is safe to assume that at least four-fifths of these three hundred connections represent new houses and a trip around Albuquerque will show that the new houses are occupied, down to the last one. These water connection figures alone represent an increase in the population of Albuquerque in the period mentioned, of at least 1,500 people.

More Letter Carriers Needed.
It pays to stop and look back once in a while, just to see how far we have moved along, and according to Postmaster Hopkins, we have moved quite a bit within the past half year. The postmaster has his application under consideration in the postoffice department for two additional carriers for the city delivery. Were both in service now both would have all the work they could do, with very little lessening of the burdens of the present force. The mails into Albuquerque, according to the postmaster, have grown so heavy of late that it is now almost impossible to handle them as they should be handled with the space and employees now allowed. The postoffice was enlarged by some twenty-five feet in length of building less than two months ago. It is now too small and the mails to be handled grow heavier every day.

Lots of Passengers Coming In.
Every train from the east these days brings its quota of people for Albuquerque. Monday and Tuesday of this week there were more than one hundred strangers, passengers for Albuquerque, aside from the usual run of travelers, and according to the conductors, they have come here to stay. Last night the number was almost as large.

The indications are that the winter population will be larger than ever before, and while there are none of the indications that go with a boom, as can be seen from the lack of speculative activity in real estate, the growth is rapid enough, and substantial enough to cause the heart of the loyal citizen of Albuquerque to swell up with satisfaction.

SHAW'S BILLIARD PARLORS MAKING A HIT

ELEGANT NEW ESTABLISHMENT ON RAILROAD AVENUE IS BEING WELL PATRONIZED.

The attractive billiard and pool parlors of William Shaw on Railroad avenue are proving extremely popular with the people of the city, and the five billiard tables are surrounded all day and all evening with a crowd of enthusiastic devotees of the game. The room is a spacious one, handsomely fitted up and with gentlemen at the tables, and is a thoroughly first-class establishment in every way. Mr. Shaw's desire to furnish a clean, refined place of amusement for young men, and old ones, too, for that matter, where they can spend the evening pleasantly playing the fascinating game or in social intercourse with agreeable people, has been well rewarded. The proprietor has furnished a splendid place of amusement for pleasure seekers, and wants to cater only to the best class of the people of the city. Such a place where young men can spend their leisure time without being obliged to go to saloons or other places has been badly needed in Albuquerque and will supply a long felt want.

"I was confident the people of Albuquerque wanted such a place of amusement," said Mr. Shaw last night, "but the generous way the place has been patronized since I opened the doors has surprised me. I have had all the business I have been able to attend to during the last few days and have been feeling pretty good over the comments that have been made. I have gone to a good deal of expense getting ready for business here. My tables are the heaviest and most expensive obtainable and all the rest of the paraphernalia is as good as I could find anywhere. Among the best people of the town have been dropping in to have a game, and I am securing exactly the kind of patronage I wish."

A Judicious Inquiry.
A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know that there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

Colonist Rates to the Northwest.
Commencing September 15th and daily thereafter until October 31st, the Santa Fe will sell tickets to Billings, Butte, Helena and Missoula at a rate of $33.95; Spokane and Walla Walla, $36.45; Portland, Seattle and Tacoma, $38.95. For particulars call on any agent of the Santa Fe.

TERRITORIALISMS

William Latimer committed suicide in Phoenix last Sunday by drinking carbolic acid.

Two school buildings have been closed in Phoenix on account of diphtheria, but an epidemic is not feared.

Artesian Water at Douglas.
At a depth of 303 feet artesian water was encountered in the Copper Queen well west of the smelter Friday last, and the flow has been continual ever since. Ten gallons per minute are now flowing over the casing which is eighteen inches above the surface. The well is being bored deeper with the expectation that the artesian flow will be much increased.

Bughouse Reservoir Delayed.
It had been hoped that the reservoir at the New Mexico insane asylum, which is being built to contain the overflow from the artesian well for irrigating purposes, could be finished in three weeks, but Contractor Edward Holt says that if cold weather sets in too quickly, it will prevent the completing of the concrete work and seriously delay the project.

Crippled Cowboy.
Bill Anderson, the cowboy and professional steer-tyer, arrived in Mesa yesterday in a badly crippled condition and it will be sometime before he will be able to resume work. He had roped a steer on the Sunflower range, and it dragged him and his horse over the side of a mountain. Anderson's foot was crushed but the horse escaped unhurt.—Phoenix Republican.

Brought an Insane Man.
Henry Henderson and J. D. Bailey, the sheriff and a deputy from Coconino county, arrived in Phoenix Monday morning from the north, bringing to the territorial asylum for the insane a patient committed from Flagstaff. The insane man is Robert Cahill. He had recently arrived in Flagstaff from Pittsburgh, Pa. Although not a violent patient, he had in many ways shown his inability to care for himself, and it was deemed wise by the authorities to commit him to the asylum.

Salton Sea Not New.
According to Mrs. M. A. Osgood, who has resided in Tucson for the past twenty-two years, and who paid her first visit to Arizona forty years ago, the Salton sea is not new. She says that the sea was a reality in July, 1865. At that time she was returning to California with her husband, who was a California soldier. She had come to Arizona in April of that year on her honeymoon, having been married but a few days before to her soldier husband in San Francisco, who was ordered to this territory to aid in subduing the Apaches.

Whiskey Kills Child.
The youngest case of alcoholism reported lately was in Globe, where Juan Acero, a five year-old, died from drinking whiskey, accidentally of course, for he did not realize what he was doing. His father, who is a well known blacksmith and whose name is also Juan, had a pint flask of whiskey in the house, and after taking a drink from it, left it where the child got hold of it and drank the rest. The boy fell into a stupor and a physician was summoned. In spite of all that could be done for him the boy died the next morning. The body will be brought to Tempe for interment.

Yaguas Are Worsted.
Will Hagen, who came up from the San Francisco mine in the southern part of the Arizona district of Sonora, reports to a Tucson paper that just before he left Cananea word was received by the officials there that a fight had taken place between an American prospector and a band of Yaqui Indians down near the river. Contrary to the usual outcome of these affairs, the American came off victor, killing two of the Yaguas and putting the others to flight. The prospector, whose name is not yet known, but who will shortly give out an official report of the battle, was traveling over a well known trail when the Indians attacked him. He was without companions, but had the right sort of stuff in him in the way of fighting blood, and gave the marauders better than they sent.

Colorado River Levee.
Concerning the building of the Colorado river levee the Yuma Enterprise says: The grading camp of Miller & Peaseley, contractors on the levee on the Arizona side of the Colorado river, below Yuma, is located on W. O. Harris' place, about two miles from Mah street, and one-half mile from the city limits. The right of way has been cleared for about one mile, and over a quarter of a mile of the bankment is half done or better. The work starts at the Farmers' Gravity canal, about 500 feet from where it leaves the river, and they are working down the river from that point. The dirt is being taken from the river side and forty feet away from the base of the embankment. The levee will be only about six feet high at the place where they are now working, and the soil is sandy loam, so that the work will move rapidly until they get into the annual overflow where high banks will have to be built out of the adobe soil. The work is being done with Fresno scrapers. There are from twenty to thirty mule scraper teams at work, and they expect to put on more in a few days. The stock is owned by the company, but their help is mostly hired. They have a well equipped blacksmith shop and furnish tents and board to their men.

The Wilson Heater with the celebrated Hot Blast Down-Draft is the only heater which actually burns all of the fuel put into it. The Hot Blast Down-Draft creates perfect combustion and the fumes which rise from the fuel, ordinarily escaping unburned in other stoves, are all consumed and turned into heat in the Wilson. It has been ascertained that the fumes which arise from the fuel constitute 40 per cent of the entire heating power of the fuel. Buy a Wilson and get all the heat you are paying for.

Good Clothes

EVERYBODY knows, now-a-days, that only a few obstinate men continue to have their clothes made to order. Perhaps they do it because they dislike the term "ready-made." In most cases they like to pay for a fashionable tailor's label. These are the only two plausible reasons. On the other hand there is every reason why a man should economize when he can get absolutely the best there is to be had by patronizing the clothing store that he knows can meet his requirements. It then becomes largely a question of quality and right price. We know exactly where we stand on this question; and in offering a complete line of our guaranteed clothing we present clothing that stands pre eminent in the quality of its goods and workmanship, and unsurpassed for the style features. We commend it to your good judgment.
