ST. PETERSBURG CALM BEFORE STORM
MORE ATROCITIES IN THE PROVINCESSOCIALISTS ARMING PEOPLE FOR FINAL
FIGHT TO THE DEATH

Huge Demonstration in Capital Is Postponed.
"People Will Give Battle When Ready
Not When Trepoff Wants It."

WARSAW CRIES "GOD SAVE POLAND"
KISHINEFF STILL A SLAUGHTER HOUSE
AWFUL BARBARITIES IN ODESSA

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—Sunday happily passed in St. Petersburg without disorders or bloodshed. The social democrats and revolutionists had planned a mammoth demonstration in connection with the funeral of those killed in last week's riots and it was intended to form gigantic processions, representing the various industrial organizations, in the suburbs, and flying red flags, to bear the bodies of "martyrs" in state funeral to the center of the city. These processions were to unite at the Kazan cathedral where the passions of the crowd might be fired by revolutionary orators. Last night, however, when it became known that General Trepoff would not permit the big demonstration threatening disorder, and that the mayor had issued a proclamation saying that the streets were not place for the airing of political grievances, the socialist leaders called off their plans declaring they feared "this demonstration of the people was marked for slaughter, for which they are not prepared at present. The people will give battle when ready, not when Trepoff wants it."

Accordingly the funerals were held in private and the workmen attended memorial services in the various mills. Although the demonstration was formally abandoned, tens of thousands of spectators flocked to the Nevsky Prospect. The broad thoroughfare in front of the Kazan cathedral was blocked by a great crowd of people, but no attempt at disorders and no occasion for the use of the squadrons of Hussars, Cossacks and Cuirassiers held in reserve in the side streets. Revolutionary leaders here anticipate a period of comparative quiet and speak of the great strike simply as a "maneuver" which forced the autocracy to make concessions.

Fight Not Nearly Ended.
"We have no intention of ending the fight now," said one of them today, "but will organize and arm the people for the final struggle. We ask nothing from the bureaucracy and only by a popular uprising can we achieve our aim, which is a constituent assembly."

While news received from the provinces indicates that something like normal conditions are being restored in many regions, the situation continues grave in the Baltic provinces, Caucasus, Odessa and other places in the south, where outrages generally have taken anti-Jewish nature.

American Interests Safe.
Thomas A. Keenan, American consul at Odessa has sent a telegram to the American embassy, saying that since Tuesday, the blood of Jews has continued to flow and he estimates the number in thousands. Artillery, he says has been employed to suppress rioting and the Jews have fired from the windows upon troops in the streets. Fortunately, he adds, no American interests are unaffected.

Indescribable Horrors Continue.
Fatal encounters between the soldiers and populace and anti-Jewish excesses are reported from many places in the provinces. Yesterday and today at Kremenchuk twenty persons were killed and eighty injured. At Kuznia a military train was wrecked and nine soldiers killed. After the collision the revolutionaries opened fire on the train and the troops replied in kind. There were several killed or injured on both sides. At Berdicheff several persons were killed or injured and at Minsk serious rioting arose through the troops preventing a meeting of citizens. The troops fired volleys into the crowds and there was intermittent firing for a long time. Hundreds were killed and six hundred wounded. Indescribable horrors are being witnessed every day. The massacre and pillage of Jews continue at Kishineff.

Anti-Semitic Rioting Is Reported to Be Going on in Kherson, Ekaterinoslav, Vasilkoff, Kaluga, Ivanovo, Voznesensk, Moghileff, Kozel and Uman.
At Akerman many were killed and at Rostoff-on-Don about a hundred were killed or wounded. The Cossacks assisted in pillaging. A delayed report from Baku dated November 2 states that an Armenian having fired upon and thrown bombs at a patriotic demonstration, serious encounters and incendiary followed, several persons being killed.

BODIES OF MURDERED JEWS FEARFULLY MUTILATED.
Odessa, Nov. 5.—A tour of the city and part of the suburbs today found all quiet. Whole rows of shops that were pillaged have been boarded up. The poorer Jewish quarters suffered most and the principal streets with few exceptions were untouched. Russian shops are marked with crosses pointed on the shutters and the private houses with ikons, so as to protect them from the mobs.

Peasants armed with scythes tried to enter the city Saturday to loot the place, but they were driven back by the soldiers.

The casualties in Saturday's disturbances exceed 140 and those of the preceding three days which have been verified number nearly 5,400. The slandering continued early this morning in the outlying districts, but today the city is relatively calm, though the population is still anxious.

The latest accounts of the devastation in the Jewish murder add horror to the situation. Besides numerous mill, all the batteries and nearly 600 houses have been destroyed. The Jews killed in every circumstance were treated with revolting barbarity. Their heads were battered with hammers; nails driven into their bodies, their eyes gouged out, and ears severed. Many bodies were disemboweled and in some cases petroleum was poured over the sick found hiding in cellars, and they were burned to death.

It is alleged that the police and soldiers everywhere marched at the head of the mobs, inciting them to destroy the Jews by crying, "The Jews have killed our emperor," and similar expressions. While the mobs were engaged in slaughter, the soldiers busied themselves pillaging cash and jewels, leaving the household goods to the mobs. The owners of many houses got rid of the contents by payment of a ransom to police. The police prevented one from arresting looters and prevented also Red Cross workers from aiding the wounded, actually firing upon those engaged in this work. A band of students removed much of the stolen property to the university while they also took twelve dead bodies of anti-Jewish demonstrators, whose relatives today besieged the university, claiming the corpses and demanding the release of the demonstrators who were confined in the university. They threatened otherwise to burn the university and kill the professors. Measures were thereupon taken to transfer these prisoners to the regular prison.

"MURDER FOR CONSTITUTIONAL RUSSIA" CITY STUDENTS.
Rome, Nov. 5.—At the reopening of the university, the students, finding among them two Russians, made an enthusiastic demonstration, crying: "Murder for constitutional Russia!" They then carried the Russian students on their shoulders. Speeches were delivered and it was agreed to organize a meeting of all Rome associations in favor of free Russia.

BLOOD FLOWS IN FIGHT IN STREETS OF TITIS.
Titlis, Nov. 5.—A patriotic demonstration today was participated in by 20,000 persons. While the procession was passing along Gotswinkl Prospect the firing began. Bombs were thrown at the troops who answered with rifle shots. The dead numbered ten and there were many injured. In another place a crowd of school pupils with revolutionary flags collided with a loyal demonstration. The troops fired in the air with a view to dispersing the crowds and a general encounter ensued in which four were killed and seventeen wounded.

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS CRY, "GOD SAVE POLAND"
Warsaw, Nov. 5.—Great patriotic demonstrations were held in the streets today by crowds estimated at 200,000 persons. Processions headed by clergy singing "God Save Poland," paraded the principal streets, which were elaborately decorated. The balconies were filled with spectators. The citizen guard maintained exemplary order and the military marched in the side streets had no occasion to interfere.

An attempt by Russian loyalists to organize a procession was a complete failure, barely 50 persons taking part in it. The Jewish militia, armed with revolvers, is guarding the Jewish houses in the outskirts of the city. The militia shot and killed four disguised detectives found trying to provoke disturbances. The governor yesterday warned Polish newspapers that unless they submitted to the censorship their offices would be closed. Two papers persisting in their disregard of this order have been shut up and sealed by troops. The houses of all the Polish nationalists were illuminated tonight. The funerals of victims of disorders at Lodz, which were held today, were attended by 240,000 persons. There were revolutionary speeches, but no disorders.

AMERICAN INTERESTS DEMAND PROTECTION
St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—From Riga, Consul Bornholdt telegraphed Charge d'Affaires Eddy today that the situation is extremely serious, that considerable American interests are endangered and demanding military protection. Eddy immediately saw Count Lamsdorff, foreign minister, who promised to afford protection. Bornholdt later telegraphed that a military guard had been placed at the consulate. A similar appeal arrived today from George R. Martin, American consular agent at Rostoff-on-Don, where also there are American interests. Eddy dispatched a note to the British, German and Austrian embassies and they practically united in a joint representation, to which Count Lamsdorff and General Trepoff promised that all foreign interests would be safeguarded. Other dispatches received from Odessa say that Cossacks and infantry fought a regular battle with Jews and revolutionaries who were concealed in houses and gave the dead at 300 and the wounded as over 5,000.

Loyalists Attack "Intellectuals."
Vladka, Russia, Nov. 5.—The loyalists held demonstrations today and paraded through the town. They attacked the "Intellectuals," many of whom were killed or wounded. The chief of police has been dismissed.

TROOPS CHARGE PRAGUE MOB
VIENNESE RAISE RED FLAG

Prague, Nov. 5.—Thousands of socialists held suffrage demonstrations today, leading to serious disorders which continued all day long. The morning gathering was at Wenceslao Platz, and crowds hooted and eventually fired on the police. After ineffectual attempts to clear the streets, it was found necessary to summon troops to disperse the mob. The rioting was resumed in the afternoon. A barricade was erected by the demonstrators which the troops stormed and destroyed. Mobs driven from one point constantly assembled at another. Rioting continued in the suburbs until late in the evening. The day's casualties were one killed, 47 seriously and 150 slightly injured, and 130 persons arrested. Fully 50,000 demonstrators took part in the disorders. Quiet has now been restored and the authorities have resolved to resort to martial law if the disorders are repeated.

SOCIAL SUFFRAGISTS PARADE IN VIENNA
Vienna, Nov. 5.—A social suffrage demonstration on the Ringstrasse was attended by 5,000 persons. A strong force of gendarmes was stationed along the streets but did not interfere with the demonstrators, and the socialists were even permitted to hoist red flags over the Reichsrath building. There were no disorders whatever and similar demonstrations are reported from Leimbach, Graz, Klegentard, Bruenn and elsewhere.

The Neue Presse states Premier Gaudoh von Frankenthur will introduce a universal suffrage bill at the reopening of the Reichsrath.

ENORMOUS CROWDS SEE
GOTHAM CAMPAIGN CLOSE

Utmost Efforts of Police Necessary to Handle Thousands Who Pack Streets—Candidates Are All Confident.

New York, Nov. 5.—Enthusiastic rallies by the democrats and municipal ownership league at the Hippodrome and at Madison Square Garden respectively, marked the close of the political campaign tonight. An audience of 12,000 persons filled the gardens, and thousands of women and children surrounded the buildings and clamored for admission, defying the efforts of four hundred police to preserve order. It was only after a troop of mounted men had slowly forced the crowd back that Madison avenue in front of the garden was cleared. There were similar scenes outside the Hippodrome where, after the building had been packed to its capacity and the doors closed, a crowd of more than 10,000 persons filled the adjacent street and fought to enter the building. The crowd was augmented by the arrival of several thousand men who had been unable to make their way into the garden and for a while wild scenes of disorder prevailed. The police again were forced back but finally by sending squads of mounted men to ride along the sidewalks while men on foot advanced along the roadways the streets around the Hippodrome were cleared. Throughout the disorder both at the Hippodrome and the garden the police refrained from using their clubs. No one was seriously hurt and no arrests were made.

William Randolph Hearst was the principal speaker at the garden and was received with an outburst of cheering which lasted nearly twenty minutes. Hearst evoked another great demonstration when he presented the morale of the organization workers and of confidence in his leadership, and with victory in sight, has never been better than it is today.

GOVERNOR SENDS MILITIA TO HUNT DOWN MURDERER

Soldiers Lose Three Men in Desperate Assault on "Blind Tiger" and More Bloody Fighting Is Expected.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 5.—A special to the Journal and Tribune from Middlesboro, Ky., tells of a reign of terror in the border line city that threatens to rival in violence the bloody feuds of Breathitt county. The Middlesboro militia company spent Sunday afternoon in the mountains after a lawless gang said to be headed by Frank Ball, wanted for the murder of John Bolen, a barber.

Ball is reported to have with him a crowd of at least forty men who intend to resist his arrest to the last. Four miles from Middlesboro the soldiers today attacked a "blind tiger," and riddled it with steel bullets. They succeeded in capturing nine men. Returning to town roll call of the company showed the absence of three men, whose whereabouts are unknown. Tonight the town is comparatively quiet, but all telephone wires have been cut except the line to Knoxville.

Governor Beckham has been asked to send more soldiers, and another company is expected tomorrow, as the local militiamen are worn out by the constant duty of the past three days. The Middlesboro company is in charge of Captain George W. Albrecht, a leading citizen, who up to September, was editor of the Middlesboro News. Secrecy is preserved by both citizens and soldiers, and it is reported that the telegraph office has been warned not to send out news of the disturbance to any papers.

TOURISTS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM BULLETS.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—A special to the Journal from a staff correspondent via Middlesboro, says:

"The militia and a sheriff's posse attacked Ball's blind tiger this afternoon. Two men were wounded. 'Shelby Ball, brother of Jack Ball, who is wanted for murder, is thought to have been shot."

The attacking party fell back slowly toward Middlesboro. A party of Indianapolis tourists had a narrow escape from flying bullets. The Balls have cut telegraph wires in Cumberland Gap. The Louisville & Nashville railroad has been asked for arms and ammunition by the militia and the posse. The attacks on Ball's stronghold will be renewed tonight."

MANIAC SHOTS
VICTIMS FROM AMBUSH

TELEGRAPH OPERATORS SHOT NEAR HELENA BY WILD MAN OF THE HILLS.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 5.—A. K. Arpin, whose home is in Salt Lake City, and C. David, of Ontario, Cal., were shot and seriously wounded this afternoon a short distance from this city by men supposed to be insane. The men are telegraph operators and were walking in the hills. They had passed a mine dump a few feet from a bullet struck Arpin in the left thigh. Another fired at the same instant struck Dolive in the groin. Dolive took refuge behind a rise in the ground and saw a man running away. The wounded men were brought to town, and while their wounds are serious, they are not believed to be mortal. An insane man has been reported in the hills near Helena for several days, and the sheriff's officers have been hunting for him. It is believed he is the man who did the shooting. A search in the hills until night for the man was unavailing. The insane man is laboring under the belief someone is trying to jump his mining claim.

THOUSANDS REGISTER
ILLEGALLY IN NEW YORK

SUPERINTENDENT OF ELECTIONS PREPARING TO NAB ALL THE FRAUDULENT VOTERS.

New York, Nov. 5.—That a vast amount of illegal registration especially in the down town sections of the city has been discovered by the agents of State Superintendent of Elections Morgan was stated today at Morgan's office. In some instances the same individuals appear to be registered more than a dozen times from different addresses. The superintendent will obtain from the police magistrates tomorrow more than 1,000 warrants which will be served in the evening of the persons named presenting themselves at the polls. In addition to those he will furnish the police with "orders of arrest" lists containing the names of 2,000 persons against whom there is evidence of illegal registration. The inspectors of election will also be supplied with challenge lists containing from 5,000 to 8,000 names of persons whose right to vote is suspected.

Every preparation has been made to secure complete harmony between the police and state deputies, 350 of whom will be on duty on election day.

SUSAN GEARY

FIND COMPLETES DISMEMBERED BODY OF M'LEOD'S VICTIM

Missing Nurse Only Accomplice in Famous Suit Case Murder Who Has Escaped Clutches of the Law.

Boston, Nov. 5.—What is confidently believed to be the head of Susanna A. Geary, the dress suit victim, was recovered in a leather hand bag from the bottom of the harbor today. It was dragged to the surface very near the point where Lewis Crawford and William Howard, who have confessed to disposing of the dismembered body of the girl, said they dropped it. The head completes the body of the girl. The trunk was found September 21 and the limbs picked up October 27. The leather bag in which the head had been placed together with thirty-four of the dismembered body, was apparently from the place where it was taken. The bag with its contents was taken to a Howard street undertaking establishment and will be viewed by medical expert Harris tomorrow. The head was in a good state of preservation. It is thought by the police that it will be readily recognized as that of Miss Geary. The police today continued the search for Mary S. Dean, who is said to have had charge of the home in which Miss Geary died after being removed from the Tremont street resort. The hunt for the woman was without result and it is believed that she left the city as soon as she learned of the arrest of Crawford and Howard. Crawford and Howard will probably remain in New York for several days, until the necessary papers for their extradition are approved by Governor Higgins.

Morris Nathan, the lover of Miss Geary, will be arraigned in court tomorrow on the charge of abetting the search for Mary S. Dean, who is said to have had charge of the home in which Miss Geary died after being removed from the Tremont street resort. The hunt for the woman was without result and it is believed that she left the city as soon as she learned of the arrest of Crawford and Howard. Crawford and Howard will probably remain in New York for several days, until the necessary papers for their extradition are approved by Governor Higgins.

KELLY ATTACKS EDITOR OF TOPEKA JOURNAL

KANSAS TREASURER SAYS HE WON'T WASTE WORDS ON M'LENNAN NEXT TIME.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 5.—Thomas T. Kelly, state treasurer of Kansas, and Frank P. MacLennan, publisher of the Daily Journal, engaged in a personal physical encounter at the rooms of the Elks lodge here today. The collision was the result of a fight which MacLennan has been making on Kelly through his paper. Kelly started the trouble today, it is said, by approaching MacLennan and telling him, "He ended up his trade by aiming a hard swing at MacLennan's head. The blow glanced and MacLennan turned and retreated down the corridor. At this point Eugene Scott, an employee of MacLennan, ran to the rescue of his employer and struck Kelly twice without inflicting serious damage. Mutual friends then intervened and the men were parted. Treasurer Kelly protesting that the next time he would not be so easily won, he would waste any time in conversation, and that the effect would be more serious than the results of today's encounter. After the trouble today, Kelly is said to have stated he has been looking for MacLennan for some time but has not been able to find him. It is stated that Kelly said he would require and receive complete and personal satisfaction before he was through with MacLennan.

As a result of the demonstrations today the university has been closed until further notice.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 5.—United States local inspectors Bolles and Bulger handed down a decision Saturday suspending for six months the license of Pilot C. B. Both sentences will run concurrently, so the time suspension will cover the period of six months only.

PROPERTY OWNERS WANT NORTH FOURTH STREET PAVED

Circulating Petition to City Council.

CITY HAS REACHED DIMENSIONS WHERE PAVING IS A NECESSITY

A petition is this week being circulated among the property owners along North Fourth street. The petition will be presented to the council soon and will ask that body to have North Fourth street all paved from Railroad avenue to the Mountain Road, assessments to be made for the cost upon adjacent property holders.

The petition is very broad in its scope. It does not specify what kind of paving is desired but states the willingness of the petitioners to accept the dictum of any competent expert on this point.

If the petition meets with the favor of the city council and that body sees the way clear to grant it, it will be a most important step in the municipal improvement of the city of Albuquerque. The city has attained a size when paved streets are becoming a necessity. Adobe surfaces very well in weather that is not too dry and not too wet, but the demands of traffic and the general use to which the main thoroughfares of the city are now subjected, makes paved streets a consummation devoutly to be wished.

If the petition goes through, North Fourth street, already one of the handsomest residence streets in the city will be made one of the prettiest highways in the southwest. When once the ice is broken by paving this street, it goes without saying that the rest of the city will be paved just as fast as money can be spared to defray the expense.

"Albuquerque is getting to be a city in the real sense of the word," said one of the signers to the petition to the council yesterday.

"Improvements are coming thick and fast—fine business blocks, handsome residences, tree-lined avenues, manufacturing and stores. While the streets are kept in this rate condition considering the material with which they are made, things have come to a pass when the adobe contrasts unfavorably with its surroundings.

"The most important result to be achieved by getting the streets paved is the elimination of the seas and rivers and gulfs that make the thoroughfares all over Albuquerque impassable after such a rain as we have just had. It is impossible to drive the water off and it stands, anywhere from ankle to knee deep. Even a short rain will leave enough standing water to make the streets sloughs. With a hard, arched pavement and concrete gutters, this nuisance could be done away with entirely.

"I would suggest that North Fourth street be paved with fine gravel and crushed rock, with hard cement gutters on each side. Up in the sand hills on the south side of the city, there is material to pave the whole city and cheap as dirt. When this gravel and crushed rock is rolled with a heavy roller it becomes as hard as flint and makes the best pavement in the world—the best and the cheapest. It is proof against wind and rain and floods, and everything else and becomes as smooth as asphalt.

"I suppose there is really no question in the minds of the people that we need paved streets. It is only a question of realizing how badly we need them, and defraying the expense."

FEARFUL HAVOC OF OKLAHOMA TORNADO

EIGHT KILLED, FOUR FATALITY AND TWENTY-SIX SERIOUSLY INJURED BY STORM.

Mountain View, Okla., Nov. 5.—Eight persons were killed and thirty injured, four fatally, by yesterday's storm. Following is the revised list of deaths:

W. T. WHITE.
FRANK W. CLARK.
J. S. BARKLEY.
MRS. JENNIE JONES.
MRS. W. M. HOLT AND TWO SMALL CHILDREN.
MRS. ROBERT HULME.
FATALITY INJURED:
Mrs. J. S. BARKLEY.
Ed. Hollie.
Mrs. E. McBride.
Child of W. N. Holt.

No damage was done outside the town. The pathway of the tornado was about 100 yards wide and only one mile long, but in this small area the havoc was great.

The farmer's cotton gin with heavy machinery and massive timbers is a complete wreck. In this building J. S. BARKLEY, employed as a packer in the gin, was crushed to death. His body was found pinned under the debris, near the press, his head and shoulders crushed into the ground. BARKLEY's home, which was near the gin, was carried about 100 yards and dropped. Mrs. BARKLEY was found imbedded in the mud in the street, her head and face covered with wounds.

A large two-story school house was lifted straight up in the air, turned completely over and crashed down upon the roof just beside the foundation. The Methodist church is also a complete wreck. The Christian church, which was used as a school building, was totally destroyed. Many residences were unroofed. The sides of some houses were crushed.

Another Football Victim.
San Jose, Cal., Nov. 5.—Clarence Van Boklen, a young student of the Santa Clara high school, died yesterday at a local sanitarium from the effects of a crushed skull, which injury he received during a football game between Santa Clara and San Jose high schools.

Still Eating Regularly.
In a farewell letter to his wife, T. Lee Clark, cashier of the wrecked Enterprise National bank, said that Delegate W. H. Andrews, of New Mexico, had worked his ruin. To avoid the humiliation and shame of exposure, Clark took his own life. When last heard from Delegate Andrews was still enjoying life and three meals a day.—El Paso Times.

A Finish Fight Coming.
Already it is apparent that there is going to be a big contest in the next New Mexico legislature and that over the passage of a stringent anti-gambling law. Public sentiment against the evil is fast crystallizing throughout the territory.—Alamogordo Advertiser.

ALBUQUERQUE WITH THE LID ON

He was the most dejected looking individual in Albuquerque as he stood on the corner with a look of utter disgust on his face.

"I made a thorough canvass to see if the lid was really on," he said dolefully. "And the answer is—no."

"I got the blither I got. I thought maybe it was all a fake, but, gents, the lid is on all right. I went to the front door and to the back door of seven saloons on Railroad avenue. I couldn't raise even an answer in six of them. When I got to the seventh I knocked and shook the door and hanged on it till I thought I'd have the whole police department around my ears. Finally I heard somebody inside say:

"Aw, cut it out. This is Sunday. Ain't you got no religion at all?"

"Just one pint bottle of whiskey," I says, as persuasive as I could.

"Not on the Lord's day, says the voice, real solemn."

"Well, the more we argued the dryer I got, and finally he says, 'Well, wait a minute and I'll fix you up. If there's no police in sight.' So he rummaged around and rattled glasses inside a few minutes, and then he comes to the door and says, 'Here you are. Is the coast clear?'"

"Yep," I says, getting excited.

"All right," he says, and chucked a bottle through the door and slammed it quick.

"You can't blame me for being in this condition, gents. It was a bottle of water."

"What are you drinking today?" asked a well known druggist, as he stuck his head in the door of the Journal office to say good afternoon yesterday.

"Is the lid really on tight?" asked the Space Filler, with a brave show of ignorance on the subject.

"Tight as a drum," said the druggist with a grin. "You couldn't break into a saloon with a pile-driver and a battering ram. I have had at least a hundred people call at my store today for whiskey. Of course, there was nothing doing, as I wouldn't sell it under such circumstances without a doctor's prescription. I received several prescriptions yesterday, and of course filled them but was under the painful necessity of turning most of the applicants away. It was comical to see the excuses some old toppers I know gave for asking for whiskey. One man had a terrible attack of grippe and another was half dead with the rheumatism, and another had chills and fever, and another was close to death with the toothache. The other druggists tell the same story and that's the best proof that the cover is on."

"How was the patent medicine business?" asked the Innocent By-stander, gravely, to the pill-roller.

The druggist laughed. "Well, we did dispose of a few bottles of Jackson's Balm of Gilead and Patterson's Purifying Ointment. But that's another question. Perfects hasn't put the lid on patent medicines yet."

"Have a quiet day today?" asked the Journal man of a popular and well known dispenser of alcoholic stimulants last night.

He smiled. "Bunch of us took a little duck hunting trip down the river. Of course, it rained some, but we were fixed for it. Don't know what the other saloonkeepers have been doing, but they have been probably at home in the bosom of their families, reading a Sunday paper or playing horse with some of the kids. Some of 'em will go to church tonight. I don't think the saloonkeepers and bar-tenders really suffer very much from not having to work on Sunday. Far as I can see, the saloon men are pretty well satisfied as long as the lid's got to be put on. It's harder on the poor thirty citizen than anyone else, I guess. I'm satisfied, if the rest of 'em are. And if the people want the saloons closed Sunday, they ought to be closed."

"What do you think of Sunday closing in Albuquerque as far as you've seen it?" was asked a well known merchant by the Journal yesterday.

"It's a first-rate good thing," said the business man emphatically. "If the lid is on the statute book, it ought to be enforced. I believe that is the general sentiment of the better class of Albuquerque people when you come to summer it down. There's a lot of money spent in this town for whiskey on Sundays, ordinarily, and if it isn't spent for that it will be spent for something worth while. They'll spend it for dresses for their wives and—"

"Tickets to the next Territorial fair?" prompted the Innocent By-stander.

"Well, maybe so. But they'll spend it for something better than booze, I'm certain of that. And it's time Albuquerque was getting in the procession. Sunday closing has been tried in New Mexico and Arizona and has been a success everywhere."

"I've been over in a certain pool room," said a man about town to the Space Filler last night. "There's a regular mob in there. They're lined around those pool tables ten deep, and actually fighting to get at the slot machines. I got out so I wouldn't get any bones broken in the crush. Never saw such a push in one place in my life. I bet they'll have to get a force of blacksmiths and mechanics to mend these slot machines, the way they're working them now. It's fierce. I'll bet that's the biggest business slot machines ever did in this town. And there's such a mob around those billiard tables you can't handle a cue."

"Funny, how popular our telephone has been today," said the proprietor of a well known hotel with bar attached. "You know the telephone's in the bar. Citizens have been coming in all day and rattling the door and trying the knob and it's a severe blow to them to find everything locked."

"What did you want?" the clerk would say politely to some of the inebriated citizens. "You know all saloons are closed today."

"Oh, just wanted to use the telephone," "Never saw so many people want to use a telephone in one day before. It's really odd."

"Boss, can't ye let me have just ten cents or a nickel to get a feed?" asked a hobo of an Albuquerquean yesterday evening.

"Just step around the corner to the saloon," said the man addressed. "I'll be in in a minute and fix you up."

"Oh, thanks, boss," said the astonished pedestrian, as he hiked around the corner. He started to open the door, and found it locked. Then it dawned on him and he made a sprint for the place where he met the generous individual.

Nobody was in sight.

If that hobo meets the generous individual on a dark street some night, there'll be a case for the police.

NIP IT IN THE BUD

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market today.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide company, Detroit, Mich. B. H. Briggs & Co., special agents.

Distinctly Different, In Every Way the Best

The Weekly Globe-Democrat, of St. Louis, covers a field peculiarly and exclusively its own.

It is issued twice every week. A big SEMI-WEEKLY paper. Eight to ten large pages every Tuesday and Friday. One Dollar a year.

Nothing particularly different, you say, about that, there are other "Twice-a-Week" papers.

Yes, but similarity ends there. No other paper is like the Globe-Democrat in any other respect. No other paper equals the Globe-Democrat in any respect.

An entirely unique feature of the Globe-Democrat, a feature which is highly prized by its readers, is its systematic method of preserving and presenting the CONTINUITY OF NEWS.

The two papers each week, Tuesday and Friday, are carefully prepared with the view of giving the complete news of all the world for that week.

They are so combined in the make-up as to form continued and connected stories of the various important events showing the developments from day to day and the final results.

Other weekly and twice-a-week papers, as a rule, print only a few telegrams of the day of issue.

The "Twice-a-Week" Globe-Democrat gives the telegrams of every day in the week more comprehensively than the average Daily, and of more value to the average reader.

Moreover, the "Twice-a-Week" Globe-Democrat is not simply an echo of the Daily edition.

It is a separate and distinct publication, especially prepared to supply the requirements of people who want all the news of all the earth—and something more.

It presents the World's daily history in concise but complete form. It is of equal interest in all parts of the United States. It is invaluable alike to men and women, young and old.

It thoroughly provides for every member of the family. In high-grade literature it particularly excels. Its market reports are correct and complete in every detail.

Its departments devoted to "The Home," "The Farm and Garden," "The Family Circle," "The Sunday School," "Science and Industry," are each and all THE BEST of their kind and either one is more than worth the subscription price of the paper.

In politics it is strictly REPUBLICAN, but it is above all a newspaper, and it tells the truth without fear or favor. It has no equal or rival as a great National news and home journal.

Remember the price, only One Dollar per year—104 papers—less than one cent a copy. Postage prepaid.

You will make no mistake if you send $1.00 TODAY for a year's subscription. Or you can get your own paper ONE YEAR WITHOUT COST by inducing two of your neighbors to subscribe and sending their names with $2.00.

FREE SAMPLE COPIES, containing order blanks and full particulars, will be cheerfully furnished upon receipt of postal card request. Address Globe Printing Company, Publishers.

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1905.

A Marvelous Growth

IN THE forty-one weeks of the present year that have passed orders have been placed for 136,672 new freight cars, against 155,248 in the fifty-two weeks of 1902, heretofore the record year. Commenting on this fact the New York Globe says: No stronger evidence could be given that the railroad managers expect a continuance of prosperity. The new cars will not be available for this year's business, but so certain is it deemed that the traffic to be moved next year will be larger than the traffic of this year that the enormous expenditures have been authorized. With the new equipment it would seem that we should have no more of the chronic shortage of cars for moving crops. Yet it will probably be not so. As in New York rapid transit cannot be provided fast enough to eliminate the "standee," so the business of the country grows at such a rate that the 136,672 cars will be absorbed and the cry still goes up for more. In 1880 the ton mileage per capita was 645, and in 1893 2,155. Our population increased 60 per cent in twenty-three years, and our freight traffic 435 per cent in the same period.

FRANK A. VANDERLIP, president of the big "Standard Oil" bank of New York, made an address before the Commercial club of Chicago in which he declared himself in favor of workingmen's and old age pensions. Among men whom he met while in Germany recently he found sentiment generally favorable to the state system of such pensions which is maintained there. It tends to bring employers and employees closer together, he said, and to improve the loyalty of the working people to the government.

THE ministers of Denver have been conducting a successful movement against public gambling. They have now banded together to suppress the flaunting of vice, which disgraces that city. A similar movement is under way in Kansas City.

Dr. Behring's "TC"

DR. EMIL VON BEHRING'S alleged "cure" for tuberculosis is still calling out a good deal of discussion, and everything in this line is peculiarly interesting here, by reason of the fact that so many of the citizens or sojourners in this part of the country have come here seeking relief or escape from the "white plague." It is said that the only details yet obtainable regarding the doctor's "cure," which he calls "T. C.," indicate that it is prepared from the purified bodies of tubercle bacilli.

He recognizes, we are told, three groups of substances contained in the bacillus which it is essential to remove. After this is done in various ways, there remains what Prof. Behring calls the "rest bacillus," which retains the shape and general appearance of the original germ. By appropriate methods still kept secret, these rest bodies can be transformed into a structureless pulp, suitable for absorption by certain of the body's cells. When this pulp is thus absorbed, peculiar changes are produced in the cells, and a condition of immunity begins to develop in the body, which, so Dr. Behring claims, renders its tissues immune to the attack of the tubercle bacilli. The Lancet speaks of this as a cellular rather than a humoral or antitoxic immunity, whatever that may mean. Dr. Behring is convinced that "T. C." can be made in vitro in a fashion which will enable it to be used as a cure for human tuberculosis. Until this has been proved he does not intend to publish full details. It has thus far apparently been elaborated only in the bodies of a few laboratory animals, such as the guinea pig.

Professor von Behring has chosen to surround his announcement with so much mystery, with so many of the features usually accompanying the "great discoveries" of knaves, or what Dr. Brudenell Carter has called enthusiastic fools, that no intelligent account of it is as yet possible. Despite his very high standing as a scientist, and his previous success with a diphtheria antitoxin, condemnation of his method of announcing the "new cure" has been universal. The New York Globe says he has been either too frank or not frank enough. If the experimental work has reached a stage where his claims are really justified, the seriousness of the problem which such a cure would solve demands that every available physician be put to work testing, verifying, and perhaps perfecting it. If the announcement was premature, it was extremely ill advised, and almost brutal when one thinks of the thousands of sufferers whose hope is to be eventually turned to still more bitter disappointment. As the Lancet truly says, the International Tuberculosis congress, on which the attention of the entire civilized world was focussed, was not at all a suitable place for announcing the half-finished work.

All Prices Advancing

THE director of the mint, in his annual statistics on gold production, places the world increase during 1904 at $22,000,000 in a total of $347,000,000. South Africa has now recovered all the falling off caused by the Boer war and by the prolonged labor troubles in the few years succeeding. Its output is set at $5,000,000, a gain of $18,000,000 over 1902. Next to Africa in point of increase comes the United States, with a gain for the year of $7,000,000 in a total of $30,000,000. It is interesting to note that the three largest gold producing countries of the world—Australia, Africa, and our own country—are turning out almost the same aggregate each, the difference between the first and last named—representing the largest and the smallest of the three—being only $7,000,000.

Director Roberts goes on further to estimate an increase of $25,000,000 in the world's output for the calendar year 1905, and a still greater increase in 1906. It thus appears that the annual rate of gold increase from now on during the next few years will be somewhere between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000. In fourteen years, at this pace, the present world output will be doubled.

This prospect is one to which economists and financiers are devoting particular attention to the broader survey of financial economic conditions. The inevitable effect of this great gold inflation will be to raise prices for everything except obligations for which there is a fixed money value.

THE CHINESE MOTHER.

Paul Stuart Hunter.

(The Pilgrim in November.)

The Chinese mother is very fond of her children. She is happy in their company and spends much time caring for them. In a Chinese family the birth of a child is a greater event than with any other Orientals. Long before the child is born the mother performs rites and ceremonies to propitiate the gods that her child may be a boy. After birth, the little fellow is wrapped in old rags, and in winter is sometimes put in a bag of sand sewed close around its neck to keep the little one warm. Great rejoicing follows the birth of the child if it is a boy, otherwise there is an air of chastened disappointment. But good Chinese parents make the best of their little lasses becoming very fond and even proud of them. I have known more than one Chinese father to exhibit his toddling wee girl for approval, though always with the customary national verbal deprecation of what belongs to one. Indeed, the evidence of excessive civility may be found everywhere in this strange land. It is good form to visit what is mine, and to land what is thine. "My good-for-nothing family are all still troubling the earth with their presence. How is your honorable family?"

The fact that Chinese custom has become molded into certain set forms has misled many travelers. It is, for instance, a generally accepted custom in this country that a gentleman should remove his hat when he meets a lady with whom he is acquainted, but a Chinese visitor would fall into error if he assumed that this implied that women, therefore, reduced men to social servitude. So in China, a woman waits on her husband while he is eating because it has been the custom from time immemorial. In the same way if they were traveling he would walk beside the cart while she rode.

The education of their children is a matter of no small interest to the affectionate Chinese mothers. They watch the little one from the day he is born, to note superstitious signs. Let him cry lustily, and he will live long, say the old grannies. If he teeths or walks too soon he will grow up unlovable in disposition. At first, the little Chinese are not very attractive objects, presenting rather a scaly appearance, due to the custom of not washing them lest they catch cold. A month after his birth, the boy's head is shaved. A great feast is prepared and celebrated, the child now receiving his "milk-name." When he enters school this name is changed, as it is once more when he receives his degree.

Not Always Easy.

There is a strong sentiment running about which has for its purpose the reading of Hearst out of the democratic party. Well, what about his syndicate of newspapers. Are they likewise to be read out of the party? Probably Hearst will have something to say on this matter. Those people who talk of reading people out of a political party are generally in the party for swag alone. Principle seldom or even troubles them. Hearst will do just as he pleases about the matter and the democrats will always be ready and willing to accept his great journals to advocate their cause at any price.—Tucson Star.

Advertise the Springs.

Not enough is being done to advertise New Mexico's hot and medicinal springs and to exploit them for the benefit of suffering humanity. With good accommodations and proper advertising, the hot and mineral springs of the territory would eventually attract as many people as do the famous springs of Bohemia. New Mexico is not only blessed with a climate that is a boon to healthseekers but it also has the mineral waters that are efficacious in the cure of many of the worst ills with which the human flesh is cursed, says the New Mexican. Las Vegas has much to advertise in this direction.—Las Vegas Optic.

Timely Suggestions

We are surrounded by suggestions of approaching winter, but the most suggestive thing to be seen is our large line of High Grade Heaters. They suggest to the mind and picture to the eye howling winds and drifting snow on the outside, and a warm glow within, which is the result of the highest art in stove-making. It radiates a glowing warmth evenly all over the room, or two or three rooms if you have them connected.

SAYS SLAYER OF HIS BROTHER IS SAFE IN PRISON

Giles Believes Pemberton Will Get Justice.

KILLER AT LIBERTY FOR SEVERAL DAYS

Robert Giles, of Danbury, Texas, returned to Albuquerque yesterday morning from Winslow with the body of his brother, George Giles, who was killed there by Pe Pemberton, a gambler, a week ago. The Texas man says that identification is complete and that there is no doubt that the dead man is the brother from whom he had not heard for five years.

Mr. Giles left with the body of his home last night. He says that Pemberton has been arrested and that he is now in jail in Holbrook without bail.

Giles, who was night marshal of Winslow, attempted to stop a fight between Pemberton and a roulette dealer named Walter Darling, when Pemberton drew his gun and shot the officer several times, killing him instantly.

It was reported that considerable indignation existed in Winslow because of the fact that Pemberton had not been arrested and had been allowed to go his way unmolested. The report is only partially correct. Pemberton, while he was not in jail for several days after the killing, was under surveillance of a sort and immediately after the preliminary at which he was bound over to the grand jury, he was taken to Holbrook where he is in prison.

"I have nothing to complain of as to my treatment in Winslow," said Mr. Giles, brother of the dead man yesterday. "There could have been no kinder treatment than that which I received. Everything was done for me and there were plenty of hearty expressions of regret at my brother's murder. It was a murder, as cold blooded as one I have ever heard of, and I have heard of a good many being served years as an officer in Texas."

"I believe that Pemberton will be brought to justice. I cannot see how he can escape hanging unless he breaks jail and after what has happened it is not likely that he will get a chance. I heard on my way out that the sheriff had said that he would never hang Pemberton, because Pemberton had once saved his life. The sheriff probably will not hang Pemberton, for his term of office will expire before the man comes up for trial and I guess he will not be a candidate again. He did not affirm or deny having made that statement when I asked him to rectify it. The facts are that he said he didn't put Pemberton in jail at first, because he said he never had put a white man in the jail in Winslow. I told him that any jail was good enough for a murderer and provided it was strong enough to hold him. He said he was responsible for Pemberton and that he put him in jail as soon as he was committed, which is the truth. But my brother was shot on Saturday night and the man who shot him wandered around free until Thursday following. It don't look right to me. My brother was a peaceful, law-abiding man and he took the office in Winslow because he was urged to by the people. He was simply doing his duty and was murdered in cold blood for doing it."

BIG GAS EXPLOSION DESTROYS A BANK

THREE DEAD AND THIRTEEN INJURED IN ACCIDENT AT ISHPEMING.

Ishpeeming, Mich., Nov. 5.—Three children are dead and thirteen injured, one fatally, as a result of an explosion here today which completely destroyed the Miner's National bank.

The dead: STEVEN GOODMAN, aged 12 years. ALICE MOORE, aged 10 years. EDWARD M'GRATH, aged 12 years. The fatally injured: James F. Mullin.

Gas leakage in the basement of the bank building was responsible for the explosion and loss of life.

The victims were all church attendants on the way home from mass. Anderson and Peterson, steam fitters, had been engaged to make repairs to the heating plant and as they entered the building they detected the smell of gas. They thought little of the circumstance, however, and as they passed into the furnace room struck a match to the gas jet. There was a terrific explosion. The steam fitters were blown through the doorway at the rear of the building, while the building collapsed, falling into the street a mass of ruins. A crew was switching cars on the sidetrack near the bank, and the cars blocked the crossing when the explosion occurred. Many persons were standing on the walk awaiting the passing of the cars, and thus were within reach of the explosion. There were a number of narrow escapes from death or serious injury. James Mullin was in the office in the bank building when the accident occurred, and he was not taken from the debris until the rescuers had worked for two hours clearing away the wreckage. The bodies of the killed are fearfully mangled. The safety deposit vault in the bank was uninjured.

Casks Drift to North Pole. Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—After a drift of 3,000 miles, the course of which has probably taken them over the north pole, two casks set adrift by agents of the Philadelphia Geographical society have been recovered. Cablegrams announcing this were read by Henry G. Bryan, president of the society here today.

Thirty-seven casks were set adrift at various times in 1899 and 1901 with instructions within for the finders to send word as to time and locality to the society. The idea was to prove theories as to the Arctic currents, and it is believed that the finding of two of the casks will be an aid to science and to future Polar expeditions.

Admiral Melville and his fellow members believe one of the casks may have passed directly over the polar cap, but this cannot be definitely determined, as they have drifted 3,000 miles. The cask believed to have gone over the pole has followed the course of the Jeannette and the Fram.

One was found on the northern coast of Siberia, near Randall's island, and another, set adrift in 1899, was found on an ice floe off the north coast of Iceland, near Cape Barrow.

CASTRO TRIES LITTLE BLUFF ON FRANCE

SAYS IF GOVERNMENT WILL BE GOOD, HE MAY CONSENT TO COMPROMISE.

Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 5.—The government on Saturday delivered to Mr. Russell, American minister, a note reaffirming the willingness of the government to withdraw its note concerning M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires at Caracas, if the French government would likewise recall its request that Venezuela withdraw that part of its note which gave notice that Venezuela would not treat further with M. Taigny until he apologized for his statement that the French cable company has been treated unjustly. The note says the government will permit the French cable company to transmit cables from Caracas and coast offices if the company will undertake to make satisfactory arrangements with the government within eight weeks, and that failing to do so that government will proceed with the execution on the mandate closing the office of the company.

Sues Husband's Lynchers. Owingville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Mary Jane Thacker, of Fleming county, who lives twenty miles from here has instituted suit against George and Perry Gordon and forty eight other Fleming county citizens for $50,000 for the lynching of her husband, William Thacker, whom a mob took from the Flemingsburg jail and hanged on a telephone pole.

The lynching occurred in July, 1902. Since then Mrs. Thacker has been acting as a detective until she discovered sufficient evidence for a suit.

The case will be tried at the next term of the United States court at Covington, Ky.

Thacker had quarreled with the sixteen-year-old son of George Gordon, and shot and killed him with a rifle.

THINK THEIR SON HAS GONE TO BEET FIELDS

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD BOY MISSING FROM HOME SINCE SATURDAY MORNING.

The parents of Leo Baca, aged fourteen, living at 909 South Third street, are anxious about the lad, who has been missing from his home since Saturday at noon. Young Baca was employed at the Economist dry goods store, and left for his work as usual after having the noon meal at home. He did not come home at night, and had not put in an appearance at a late hour last night. His father says he is a steady, reliable lad, and not the kind to run away. He believes the boy has been induced to go to the Colorado beet fields by one of the agents who have been looking for help here recently.

The police are inquiring for the boy.

FARMERS MADE MINCE MEAT OF FORT BLISS TEAM

Score at El Paso Was 17 to 0.

TEAM WORK AND SPEED WON GAME FOR THE PARK

Correspondence Morning Journal. El Paso, Texas, Nov. 4.—There is no telling which way the wind will blow but the college people from Mesilla Park know which way the football game between the teams from Fort Bliss and the college went at Washington park this afternoon.

Averaging more than ten pounds a man lighter than their opponents the plucky little team from the park played the game to the tune of 17 to 0 in their favor. Nothing more than the excellent team work and the helping each other along won the day for the "Farmers."

There is no telling what the score would have been had the field been dry and hard, but the rains of the past few days made the field a little heavy. A heavy field usually is to the advantage of the heavier team, and had the Fort Bliss team played more together the result might have been different.

The game started with the kick-off by the College to Fort Bliss, who carried the ball by plunges between the tackle and end until they reached the twenty-five yard line. The college boys rallied and held the fort and gained possession of the ball on downs. The first play on the college part was a play around left end, by Heide, which netted a gain of ten yards. At this place the great team work of the college made itself manifest by line plunges which netted five yards at a clip. After twelve and a half minutes of play, Newberry was hurried over for the first touchdown. Goal was missed.

The college then kicks to Fort Bliss and downed the runner on their fifty-yard line. The fort gained twenty yards and lost on downs. College then took the ball but it soon went back to Fort Bliss on a fumble. The fort made their only gain here around an end which netted eight yards. The college held and with the ball plunged for a touchdown, making the score 11 to 0.

And so it went until the call of the whistle, and the score stood 17 to 0. The college and the Fort Bliss boys play again at Mesilla Park December 9.

The college boys leave for home this evening feeling hilarious as they did not expect such a victory.

RATHER GOOD THING IN MONTANA SHEEP

INVESTMENT OF $2,000 RETURNS $10,000 IN TWELVE MONTHS.

Never before in the history of the sheep business in Montana have the flock growers been more prosperous or have greater profits been realized by those who invested in the wool-bearing animals last fall. In many cases owners have made several hundred per cent profit in a year.

The striking illustration of the profits realized is at hand in the experience of a well known sheepman. By paying $1 a head more than the estimate they can buy ewes, get a lamb worth $2.50 and ewe valued at $1.50 and the expense of wintering will not be greatly increased.

The shipment of sheep from Montana this year has been unprecedented. Buyers have been here from Colorado, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and other sections, whereas in previous years they obtained their sheep for numerous directly from the big markets.

WORKS WONDERS.

A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. It cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Albuquerque testimony proves it.

J. H. Cross, of 53 South First street employed in the Santa Fe shops, in the mill department, says: "Exposure and sitting on damp logs and cold stoves while in the mountains some months ago, brought on itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles. While not severe or serious they were very annoying and I put off doing anything to get relief until compelled to. One evening I stepped into the Alvarado Pharmacy and asked Mr. Briggs for something to bring relief. I finally decided upon Doan's Ointment. The first application gave relief and in a short time I was practically cured. I have great confidence in this remedy for what it did for me. I never used anything which was so soothing and healing. I recommend it to others and know they will not be disappointed in the results if they give it a trial." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Cleaning Process. The political and financial house-cleaning now in progress in the United States is probably without a parallel in this or any other country. It is wholesome and we shall like it when we get used to it. Timid souls may shrink with fear that the country is going to perdition, but a resolute purpose to make the cleaning process thorough and lasting is the best possible guarantee of safety.—Socorro Chieftain.

PAINFUL PERIODS

Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. If it is painful or irregular something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

More than fifty thousand women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes painful and irregular menstruation.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases. The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes of 540 N. Davidson Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

"Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the East advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural, every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

"I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills."

The Southwestern Press

What's the Use. In the midst of our jubilation over the probable permanency of the Salton sea, some one reminds us that it crosses the right of way of the San Diego & Phoenix railroad.—Phoenix Republican.

Broke the Sunday Law. Quite a number of citizens from Dexter were arraigned in district court on the territorial side yesterday afternoon on the charge of violating the Sunday law. A few from Roswell were arraigned on the same charge, but the cases against the Roswell citizens were nolleed. In each case the district attorney pleaded guilty, and were given a light fine and suspended during good behavior.—Roswell Record.

Why. A few months ago Mayor Edward F. Dunne, of Chicago, went into office in great shape and as a great man. He had beaten the republican candidate for the same office by a satisfactory margin. He was considered the savior of the Windy city. Since then, he has been dwindling and dwindling in importance and official size until now he is considered very "small potatoes" in general, but particularly good at drawing his salary. Sooner or later men must sink to their own level and they do.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Ground Rental May Be High. It is a poor week, indeed, in New Mexico these days that does not see a new sanitarium started somewhere within its broad confines. Santa Fe is the latest fortunate town and Dr. J. H. Sloan, a prominent physician of that place, is the promoter. He proposes establishing an institution modeled after the famous sanitarium of the Black Forest in Germany and work has already started up. Ground rental for sanitarium in New Mexico will soar skyward in a few years and skyscrapers will come into demand. But don't hold your breath.—Silver City Enterprise.

The Connection? Representative Tawney is inclined to hitch up statchord for Arizona and New Mexico to his tariff revision chapter. And the sunny southwest while in no wise disinclined to tie up with almost any old thing that will help along, is nevertheless disposed to query in the most differential way possible, what the connection is.—Arizona Journal-Miner.

Going to Suit. Notice is hereby given that the Enterprise will refuse to maintain the fact that straight passenger train until it actually pulls into the Silver City station. Our reputation for veracity has been seriously impaired by giving credence to reports that the Santa Fe had actually become ashamed of its service on the Silver City branch, and was to inaugurate a new era of things and the very need of the reform led us to believe it to be true. We expected the new service to be inaugurated Wednesday, November 1st, but instead the train came in that day more heavily loaded with freight cars than ever. So we have given it up and will now depend upon Providence.—Silver City Enterprise.

How Unkind. During the campaign last fall republicans called your attention persistently to the "connections" of W. H. Andrews in the east, and urged the intimacy of his association with the Quay people as an ample reason for his election as territorial delegate. Mr. Andrews invited us to contemplate the Santa Fe Central railroad as his personal achievement for the territory and promised each isolated spot an extension, each railroad center a new connection. With these appeals still fresh in memory, we are bound to con-

OFFICEHOLDERS ONLY OPPONENTS OF STATEHOOD

Washington Newspaper Reviews the Situation.

GOVERNOR NATURALLY
WANTS TO HOLD HIS JOB

That the statehood question is not being overlooked in Washington is a part of the program of the coming congress is shown by the large amount of space devoted to the matter by the Washington newspapers.

In a recent issue the Washington Star has the following:

Notwithstanding the failure of the bill providing for the admission of two new states at the last session of congress a determined effort will be made this winter to secure the passage of a two-state bill based upon the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as a single state. Since last March the factors opposed to and favoring this proposition have been hard at work in both of those territories. From advice received in Washington recently there is evidence that great progress has been made toward the end of securing a demand from New Mexico and Arizona for the joint admission of those territories. One statement is to the effect that two-thirds of the people of New Mexico now favor joint statehood.

The chief opposition to this proposition comes, it is said, from the present governor and the territorial officeholders, who naturally wish to continue their offices, which under joint statehood would be terminated. In Arizona where at one time the fiercest opposition to joint statehood developed, that cause has made material progress and four of the leading newspapers in the territory are now earnestly advocating the passage of such a bill, both in the public press and on the stump. The list of these advocates of joint statehood includes Col. F. C. Almsworth, who was United States district attorney under President Cleveland, and D. G. Chalmers, speaker of the twenty-third general territorial assembly.

Mining and Railroad Interests Oppose.

The center of opposition in Arizona is Phoenix. This is natural because that city fears that in the event of joint statehood it would lose the state capital. The mining interests of the territory are also against it, it is said, because they do not want a billion tax law passed, which would make them pay taxes to the state. They now control the territorial situation, and it is believed that they would control the situation if Arizona were admitted as a separate state.

It is also claimed that the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific railroads are opposed to the measure of joint statehood, which would give only two senators in congress instead of four falling to Arizona and New Mexico if admitted separately.

Finally the politicians as a class are rated as opposing joint statehood because under such a statehood there would be twice as many offices.

A Crafty Game in Indian Territory.

As to Oklahoma and Indian Territory it is understood that quite recently a scheme has been devised by a newcomer in the latter to secure separate statehood for Indian Territory. Those behind this movement have worked very craftily. It is understood that they have gone to the Indians and told them that if the Indian Territory is admitted separately from Oklahoma the Indians will be in complete control of the situation. They then have gone to the whites and told them that the way to get rid of the Indians is to have the territory made a state. They have secured the division of the territory into counties and have started a county seat fight in each of these organizations requiring everybody to vote on the constitution before they vote on the county seat. In this way towns that are against the proposition of separate statehood are likely to vote upon it and perhaps for it for fear of losing their chances of securing a county seat town.

There is no belief among those who advocate the two-state measure that a bill providing for separate statehood for Oklahoma could ever pass. It is still the intention to combine Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state organization, and there is little doubt that such a measure would pass on its own merits.

The Liquor Interests.

There is still one more factor in favor of separate statehood for Oklahoma, the liquor interests. On account of the Indians an amendment granting prohibition to the new state of Oklahoma was added by congress last session to the bill that failed. The interests of the liquor men are naturally menaced by this provision and they believe that with Oklahoma standing separately from Indian Territory they would have a chance of admission without the prohibitory clause, whereas they fear that if the two territories came in together that clause would again be enacted.

CATRON BUYS COLORADO MINE

SANTA FE MAN GETS INTEREST IN PROPERTY NEAR SILVERTON.

A dispatch from Silverton, Col. says: The one-sixth interest of Charles Thayer of Santa Fe, N. M., and one-sixth of the interest of George Bibbs of this city, in the Fairview-Thunder property, located near the great Champion mine on Siltan mountain, just above the town of Silverton, has just been sold to Thomas B. Catron of Santa Fe. The amount of the purchase price cannot at this time be ascertained, although it is understood to have been a handsome figure. This property is regarded as one of the most promising on Siltan mountain, especially since the adjoining Champion group has developed into one of the biggest producers in San Juan county. Development on the Fairview-Thunder property has been in progress for years under the management of George Bibbs who has had the utmost confidence in the group. Mr. Catron was one of the original stockholders in the company, and has evidenced his faith in the property by this last purchase. But a few feet farther is yet to be run on the large tunnel now under way before the main vein of the group will be cut and it is expected that before the first of the coming year the Fairview-Thunder will have taken its place among the really big mines of the district.

MAN WITH TENTS FOR SANITARIUM REACHES LAS VEGAS

Ready to Put Up 500 at Once.

FRATERNAL CITY WILL NOW
SOON BECOME REALITY

Correspondence Morning Journal.

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 4.—James A. Walker, the man who has the contract to erect all the tent cottages to be used by the National Fraternal Sanitarium company, arrived in the city today to establish his branch factory for furnishing the tent materials. The instructions from the sanitarium managers are that the contractor shall build the tents in colonies of 100 each, until 500 shall have been built. Then a halt is to be called until the first 500 tents are nearly all occupied, when another 500 will be begun.

The main factory is at Rockford, Ill., but so many tents will be required by the sanitarium that Mr. Walker has decided it will be better to manufacture them here. His standard tents are eighteen feet long and twelve feet wide, erected on a substantial frame, divided into apartments and equipped for six persons. They are so built in sections as to be easily portable and can be taken down and erected in another location in two hours. The arrangement for heating, lighting and protection from storms is ideal. November 15 the control of the sanitarium passes from the hands of the present board of directors to a committee of fifteen appointed by the two great fraternal organizations, the American Fraternal congress and the Associated Fraternities, representing ninety-nine fraternal orders. Every member of the present board of directors has voted to hand over the management to the committee which directly represent the orders which have voted assessments for the maintenance of the institution.

While it is not intended to open the Montezuma until January 1, the tents will be occupied as fast as completed.

Las Vegas Has Green House.

Las Vegas has long needed a green house, and now the want is going to be supplied. I. G. Hazard has let the contract for the erection of six hot houses 125 feet long and sixteen feet wide. He is spending $5,000 on the buildings and will expend $1,000 for a large variety of flowering plants and greenery.

Dollar Gas Proposition.

The application of H. E. Hoke and associates of Philadelphia and Chicago for a gas franchise, has brought an application for a franchise to make dollar gas from W. H. Colburn, the Colorado Springs capitalist, who owns the plants in Colorado Springs and Canyon City. Mr. Hoke lowered the terms in his franchise to $1.50 for both illuminating and heating gas. The council has taken both applications under consideration, and will probably settle the matter next Wednesday evening.

A Busy Town.

Las Vegas presents a busier appearance than it has for years. Work is being actively pushed on the new Agua Fria block, the new business block for Jones & Pierce; the Santa Fe office building and the new hotel. A. C. Wheeler has plans drawn for a two-story business block and work will begin next week. Many new residences also are projected. Real estate transactions are numerous and the value of property has risen. Eleven thousand dollars was refused yesterday for a fifty-foot lot on Douglas avenue, some distance from the business center of the city.

Phelps Dodge Line.

Las Vegas have received assurance which they believe are certain of the definite intention of the Phelps Dodge company to build the Dawson cut-off through Las Vegas. It has been decided that the junction with the El Paso & Southwestern will be at Torrance. The preliminary survey has been completed and a force of engineers have started a permanent survey. Right-of-way agents are in the field securing land for the road.

No better goods in this line are being shown than our stock. We carry no seconds, nor dyed-rotted hose, and, no matter what the quality is, will cheerfully refund the purchase price to dissatisfied purchasers. We Wish to Call Special Attention to Our Gentle- men's Furnishings & Hats

In this department we are showing the newest and most stylish articles. Fashion decrees that well-dressed men must wear white shirts—either soft pleated bosoms, or plain stiff front. Men's Undertwear

In both Union and two-piece suits—cotton, cotton and wool, silk and wool, and all wool, from 70c to $6.00 per suit. Every quality the best money can buy at the price, while the margin of profit is the smallest ever asked in Albuquerque—Satisfaction or your money back.

Men's Hats & Caps

All the latest shapes in Soft, Derby, and Silk Hats, and a choice selection of Caps are on our shelves—nothing old, nothing shop-worn. It will pay every man in the city to see our line of these goods before buying—if you don't buy, new ideas as to styles and qualities will be gained, which will guide when the purchase is made.

To Sum the Whole Matter Up in a Few Words—

The Globe Store

IS THE PLACE FOR RELIABLE DRY GOODS, LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHINGS AND SHOES, WHERE BUT ONE PRICE IS ASKED EACH AND EVERY CUSTOMER; WHERE GOODS ARE SOLD ON THEIR MERIT AND QUALITY; WHERE "JOB LOTS" AND "SPECIAL SALES" STUFF ARE NEVER BOUGHT OR OFFERED FOR SALE.

AN OPEN LETTER

To Our Patrons and Friends,

We have entered into a contract with Mr. Geo. W. Hickox, agreeing to sell to him our Jewelry Business, including stock, fixtures and good will, Jan. 1, 1935. One strong feature of our agreement with Mr. Hickox is that we promise to reduce our very large and complete stock to the lowest possible point before that date and with this end in view, we will begin, Saturday, Nov. 4, a SPECIAL CLOSING OUT SALE to continue until Dec. 31, at which time we positively retire from the Jewelry business, having arranged to go into the manufacturing lumber business in British Columbia.

Our business in Albuquerque has increased steadily year by year, and grateful for this, we propose for the next two months, to cut out the big end of our profits and to give you such a genuine bargain sale of really fine, high-grade goods, as never has been offered in our city.

We invite you to make your selections now and avoid the rush of the December trade. We have ample vault-room and will gladly lay aside the goods you select, until you are ready for them. We have been in the Jewelry business 26 years and have never yet advertised a fake sale. In this sale we will offer you rare bargains in Diamonds and Fine Watches. Every sale will be backed by my personal guarantee. Mail Orders solicited and satisfaction assured.

SUE NEW MEXICAN FOR ACCOUNTING

DENVER REAL ESTATE DEALERS WOULD COLLECT COMMISSION ON BIG LAND SALE.

In order to compel an accounting from O. Hill Howard of New Mexico, on a deal involving thousands of dollars, I. R. and J. C. Porter yesterday brought suit in the district court, asking that a receiver be appointed to look after the proceeds of the sale of 156,000 acres of ranch land and that a restraining order be granted to prevent the payment of money due on notes to Howard by the Irrigation Lands company, says the Denver Post.

The plaintiffs sold the land for Howard sometime ago. The agreement, the complaint avers, was that the net price to be received by Howard was 75 cents per acre and that all money which should be paid over and above that amount should go to the Porter for making the sale. The plaintiffs sold the lands for $250,000, just $122,000 more than Howard had asked, and they claim that amount as their due.

The complaint sets out that the consideration paid by the purchasing parties was largely in notes and shares of stock, and that if the proceeds of the sale be allowed to remain in the possession of the defendant, who is insolvent, the interests of the plaintiffs will be seriously crippled. Their application for a restraining order directed against Howard was granted, Howard having received notes covering the $250,000 without even forwarding a part payment to the Porters. They are suing for an adjustment through the appointment of a receiver.

Wanted.
A chance to estimate on making your account books and special ruled blanks, Mitchner & Lithgow, bookbinders, at the Journal office.

Cord of Thanks.
Mr. Oakey Clifford wishes through the columns of this paper to extend his sincere thanks to his friends and neighbors and especially to Mr. A. B. Borden, for their many tokens of sympathy and their kindness at the time of the death and funeral of his mother.
