St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The League of Leagues has adopted a resolution condemning the proclamation of martial law in Poland as an illegal measure directed against the Polish emancipation movement.

The Bursky Slovo prints a dispatch from Warsaw describing a conversation with Governor General Sazonov had with a deputation of prominent Poles, during which he distinctly announced that he would not allow the organization of a municipal militia. Moreover, he added, he would neither remove the troops from the city nor from the streets, and he warned the deputation that he was prepared to deal with the situation should the agitation be communicated to the masses.

In addition to increasing the pay of the rank and file of the army, the war department has decided to reduce the terms of service by one year. The present pay of the infantry is eleven cents per month, and the cavalry fourteen cents per month.

The fears of the wholesale pillage and murder of the Jews and intelligentsia by the "Black Hundred" has not entirely disappeared, although the strictest precautions have been taken against mob outbreaks.

Two students were beaten to death near the Obvorny canal last night, three house porters were murdered at their doors, and many domestic servants left their masters' houses to join their mistresses that labor was no longer necessary, as now everybody was on a equality, having become "citizens," and would receive government pensions.

Difficulties Are Enormous.
An eminent diplomat, speaking of the situation today, said:

"The difficulties which confront Count Witte on every side are enormous, and would overawe a man of less dominant will and capacity. His task is almost superhuman, but I do not regard it as impossible."

SUCCESSFULLY RESIST TROOPS

London, Nov. 13.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says that 24,000 Georgian armed with modern rifles, hold Georgia (in Transcaucasia) despite the three important Russian forces converging thereupon, and that, except for runners, Georgia has been completely isolated for many days.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS
DEMAND EIGHT-HOUR DAY

St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—As the next step in their program the social democrats have decided to attempt the enforcement of an eight-hour day in all factories of St. Petersburg. The workers in a number of big factories have already resolved to work only eight hours for their present pay, and to cease work entirely if the employers attempt to enforce the old scale.

SERIOUS REVOLT IN FINNISH GARRISON

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 13.—A revolt broke out yesterday in the garrison of Sveaborg. Hundreds of the soldiers, who have been in the fortress since the day of the revolution, refused to obey orders, expelled the civilians from the precincts of the fortress and several of the barracks, threw beds, chairs and kitchen apparatus out of the windows. They then opened negotiations with General Kallander and Governor Wijkström, who promised to remedy their grievances and to give them easier terms of service. There was no bloodshed.

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—Max Butowski, a Russian Jew resident in this city, has received a cablegram stating that his entire family has been murdered by Russian soldiers in Odessa. The family consisted of his father, mother, married sister with five children, her mother and his aunt and her six children—25 persons in all. He said they resided in the Christian section of Odessa.

MESSAGE
SIELLEDAnother Feeble Suggestion
From Chicago's Mayor.SUBMITS ORDINANCE WHICH MEETS SAME OLD FATEAsserts He Could Bring About Municipal Ownership by Agreement or Condemnation or Build Parallel Lines.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Another ordinance providing for steps to secure municipal ownership of street railways in Chicago was submitted to the city council tonight by Mayor Dunne. The ordinance was accompanied by a message to the aldermen which gave three ways in which Mayor Dunne asserts he would be able to bring about municipal ownership. The first plan is by reaching an agreement with the traction companies by which the property could be transferred to the city at a price decided upon by arbitrators.

The second is by condemnation of the property of the street railway companies under the provisions of the Mueller act.

The third method is the one which the mayor has already presented as an alternative to his contract plan. It is for construction of municipal street railway lines which will parallel the lines of the existing companies.

The ordinance which accompanied the mayor's message asked that authority be given to place on the ballot at the spring election the question whether the city shall issue Mueller bill certificates to the amount of $5,000,000. This sum, it is declared, by the mayor, is needed for the reconstruction of the lines and for the purchase of the unexpired franchises of the existing companies.

The ordinance and the ordinance were referred to the committee on local transportation, the same fate as that which met the other propositions submitted to the council by the mayor in regard to the municipalization of the Chicago street railways.

ANDREWS DENIES
CHARGES IN TOTOFILES AFFIDAVIT OF DEFENSE
IN REPLY TO SUIT OF RECEIV-
ER CUNNINGHAM

Pittsburgh, Nov. 13.—William H. Andrews, territorial delegate from New Mexico, filed an affidavit of defense today to the suit entered against him by John B. Cunningham, receiver of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny.

Andrews denies the debt of $10,000, alleged to be due on two checks, claimed to have been drawn by F. R. Nichols, on "The Enterprise National bank" to order of Nichols as bearer, and the other to the order of Andrews. He avers that both checks were drawn at the instance and request of the cashier of the bank, for the accommodation of the bank to secure certain currency thereon for the use of the bank, and which currency to the amount of $10,000 was secured thereon to other banks in Pittsburgh, and paid and delivered into the hands of Nichols, and custody of the Enterprise National bank, on or about the date of the drawing of the check.

Andrews avers that neither he nor Nichols ever in any way, directly or indirectly, secured any benefit, advantage, credit or cash, upon, or by virtue of the checks.

Andrews avers further that on November 1, 1905, he paid Receiver Cunningham, $17,745.00 in cash, in account of the claim made in this suit. He denies he ever at any time unlawfully and fraudulently conspired with Nichols, T. Lee Clark, cashier, or any other person, to unlawfully procure any funds, or the bank requested Nichols to execute any of the negotiable instruments sued upon, in pursuance of any unlawful conspiracy, or that Frank J. McManus and A. L. Bentley, or either of them, or both, ever made any negotiable instrument sued upon in this case at the instance and request of the defendant in pursuance of any unlawful conspiracy.

The defendant says that he never any way procured from the Enterprise National bank any money upon any written instrument sued upon in this case, or in any other way, in pursuance of the result, or because of any unlawful or fraudulent arrangement or conspiracy with the officers of the bank or any of them, or with any other persons; and he avers that all transactions with the bank, including those sued upon, were regular, legitimate, and done in the due course of business, and in accordance with correct banking usage and practice.

James T. Arnold, another of the sureties on some of the bonds given by the Enterprise National bank directors, accepted any negotiable instrument to secure state deposits, obtained a rule in common pleas court number two today requiring the commonwealth of Pennsylvania to show cause why the judgment entered against Arnold should not be opened up and he be let into a defense.

Arnold's petition disclosed the fact that he has not been connected with the bank for four years.

DURING BOXER MOVEMENT

Berlin, Nov. 13.—The foreign office says the dispatch of the London Daily Telegraph from Tokio, published today, saying that an agreement has been concluded between the German governor of Kiaochow and the Chinese governor of the province of Shantung under which Kiaochow was evacuated in January and Kaomi six months after the signature of the agreement, is a mixture of truth and error.

The facts are that Emperor William at the time when he proposed to the emperor of China the withdrawal of the foreign troops from the province of Chihli, except the legation guards, also proposed on his own initiative to evacuate Kaomi and the town of Kiaochow, the latter being in the interior and both outside of Germany's sphere under the lease of the contract. They were temporarily occupied at the time of the Boxer movement as a precautionary measure and their evacuation was never meant to be permanent. The emperor's proposal was communicated to the Chinese government through the German minister, Dr. Baron von Schlegel, and was accepted by the Chinese government before Baron Komura's arrival in Peking as the special envoy of Japan.

The measure is no sense due to Japanese pressure. Moreover, a question of the withdrawal of the German troops from Kiaochow territory does not exist. The treaty by which Germany leased the Kiaochow district remains in force and unimpaired.

SERIOUSLY INTERRUPTS NAVAL PROGRAM.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The union of the government arsenals and other naval yards at Toulon, Brest and other naval headquarters has ordered a general strike beginning tomorrow. This threatens to seriously interrupt the naval construction program. The military forces are being concentrated to preserve order at the ports. The strikers claim that liberty of speech is denied them by the dismissal of workmen who criticize the naval administration. The federation of government employees has issued an appeal to the employees of the post and telegraph department, the mint, military arsenals and tobacco and match and other state industries to give their moral support to the naval strikers.

FROM TAKING NITRO-BENZOL
IN PLACE OF WHISKY.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Toledo, Ohio, says: After having stood on his head for thirty hours to stimulate action, Frank Perry died last night from a large dose of nitro-benzol taken by mistake for whisky. In the first efforts to assist him his family discovered that when he was held head downward the heart action was strong. So they kept the poisoned man in that position and kept on administering antidotes until he died.

Gallup, N. M., Nov. 13.—The serious nature of the trouble on the Navajo reservation last week, resulting in the calling out of troops from Fort Wingate, is just becoming known here. Indian Agent C. N. Perry, of the Fort Defiance station, was taken prisoner by Navajos from Round Rock and was held by the Indians for three days before news of the approach of troops caused them to release him.

The trouble seems to have resulted from an attempt by the Indian police under instructions from Agent Perry to arrest certain Navajos near Chinlee who had been charged, with assaulting an Indian girl. The police were imprisoned by the Indians from Round Rock and Agent Perry, on hearing of the trouble and going out to see what he could do, was himself taken prisoner about forty miles from Fort Defiance. He was not mistreated but the Indians merely held him for assurance that he would not proceed against the men charged with the assault.

The affair as reported to headquarters soon after Perry's capture which was reported by G. Dodge, the trader, at Round Rock, and a detail of ten troops was ordered out from Fort Wingate to release him and quiet the Indians. The Navajos on hearing of the approach of the troops set Perry free. The troops not being needed, have returned to Fort Wingate, where instructions are awaited whether to proceed against the Indians. The Indians from Round Rock are camped in a canyon near the Arizona-New Mexico border and no further trouble is expected here, although there are many rumors that the Indians are defiant and ready for a fight. It is believed in Gallup that a large body of soldiers will be sent to round up the renegades. Williams, the man who carries the mail to Fort Defiance and other stations in the reservation, has declined to make the trip again until the trouble is over, unless a guard is furnished so that definite news is had to obtain. The affair has caused some uneasiness among white men on the reservation, but it is not believed that any great number of the Indians can be excited by the little uprising.

Indian Agent Perry has been one of the most popular government men on the reservation and has been the friend of most of the Navajos who call him "Nartana Yashi," or Little Chief.

LETTER PUTS GRAVER LIGHT ON THE ROUND ROCK TROUBLE

Letters received in Albuquerque by A. C. Roberts, although whose wife is a teacher at Fort Defiance, puts a much more serious light on the trouble with the Navajos from Round Rock. According to the latest letters, the white men on the reservation are very uneasy and the Indians are restless and defiant. Mrs. Roberts describes the assault on the girl as most brutal and declares that the Indians finally refused to be arrested or to allow any of the tribe to be punished for the crime. She says that there are rumors of threats to kill all the white men on the reservation and the women at Fort Defiance are anxious to get to the railroad.

VISIT KING EDWARDPrince of Battenberg Expresses Great Admiration for American Fleet and Naval Esprit de

New York, Nov. 13.—Prince Louis of Battenberg passed today in a fashion that would have tested the stamina of a political candidate engaged in a campaign of the whirlwind order, and stood the strain with a fortitude worthy of a British admiral.

He began the round of entertainments with a reception at the Chamber of Commerce, where he was greeted by a representative gathering of captains of commerce and finance. After a brief breathing spell, he was whisked down to Coney island, where he and officers of his fleet, with Admiral Evans and other representatives of the American navy, attended a great banquet given by the blue-jackets of the American warships to their British cousins.

From the banquet a special train took the prince and his suite back to New York in time to appear at the Horse Show, where his entrance was the signal for a tumultuous welcome from a great assemblage, representative of the fashion and wealth, not only of the metropolis, but of all principal cities of the Union.

From the Horse Show, the prince proceeded to the Lambs' club, where he was the central figure of a samuel attended by the most prominent Lambs of the United States, which was continued until the small hours of the morning.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Prince Louis had this to say to a correspondent just previous to leaving Washington: "As a seaman I was much impressed with the American fleet as it lay at anchor off Annapolis. Its appearance, the smartness of the officers, and the discipline of the men all gave evidence of efficiency. And equally impressive was the review of the cadets which showed the thoroughness of their training and the magnificent esprit de corps that prevails there."

"I had long looked forward to knowing the president, and he was good enough to give me that opportunity at dinner at the White House on Saturday. I was greatly impressed with his strong personality, with his individual strength, his comprehensive knowledge, his democracy, but at the same time his dignity. He looks what he is—the masterful ruler of a masterful people; determined, courageous, bold. I am only sorry that I cannot see and know more of an extraordinary as well as a charming man."

New York, Nov. 13.—At a meeting held tonight at the office of former judge Alton B. Parker, at which were present twelve attorneys, all of whom have been retained to represent Mayor McClellan tomorrow, when the board of canvassers will meet, it was decided to rely entirely on the existing election decisions and the law as it is recorded in the statutes. Mr. Parker pointed out that there was only one question involved, and that was covered by the decision of the court, of appeals which was written by him. He said that it was a dangerous practice to open the ballot boxes, and in his opinion not within the province of the law.

New York, Nov. 13.—Statements of an entirely new and interesting character are looked for, says the Tribune, when James Hazen Hyde takes the witness stand before the legislative insurance committee this week. Despite the nature of the Hendricks and Frick reports, and the many exposures that have been made since the Equitable imbroglio began, Mr. Hyde is expected to cause at least one sensation in his testimony.

John R. Hedgeman, president of the Metropolitan Life, it is believed, will take the stand when the committee resumes its sessions tomorrow morning. Halcyon Fiske will probably follow Mr. Hedgeman. Mr. Hyde, according to his intentions yesterday, will begin his testimony tomorrow. As the result of this testimony Jacob H. Schiff may be recalled to the stand.

The Equitable witnesses will include likewise Senator Chauncey M. Depew, General Louis Fitzgerald, Edward H. Harriman, Gage E. Tappan and Geo. T. Wilson. It is said that the committee will make a formal request to President McCall of the New York Life that "Judge" Hamilton return to this country and state the facts of the Equitable. Mr. Fields and Thomas D. Jordan, the ex-controller of the Equitable, Mr. Fiske was, by last accounts, in California.

MCCALL SAYS HAMILTON IS NOT HIDING OUT

New York, Nov. 13.—John A. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance company, was called before the Armstrong committee of insurance investigation today and peremptorily ordered to demand the return from Europe of the money expended by him and of the balance which he owes to the New York Life.

Mr. McCall denied that it was the policy of his company to have Mr. Hamilton remain in Europe, and that this investigation had been concluded and said that, on the contrary, he would very much like to have Hamilton return.

McCall replying to Hughes, counsel for the committee, said he had called for the attention of the board of trustees of the company to his testimony before the committee relative to Hamilton and gave Hughes a copy of his statement, which said that if Hamilton did not return to the New York Life he would sum of $235,000 by December 15 he would himself pay it to the company. Another interesting line of examination was opened up just before adjournment for the day when John McGuinness, an employee of the Equitable Life, was called. He produced letter books and memoranda which Hughes read and was in the midst of the reading when an adjournment was taken. These were instructions from former controller Thomas D. Jordan, of the Equitable, to A. C. Fields, relative to the killing or assisting the passage of every bill introduced into the legislature that would affect the interests of the insurance company or of any of its officers.

This line of examination will be followed out when the sessions are resumed tomorrow.

Other witnesses today were John R. Hedgeman, president of the Metropolitan Life and Vice President Fiske, who were interrogated along the line of recent activities, local expenses of the methods of acquiring properties and the methods of acquiring properties and the fact was brought out that the fire insurance firm that places all the risks on the properties of the Metropolitan is composed of W. D. Edminster and S. B. Dutton, the latter a director of the Metropolitan Life.

The low rate of interest at which Mr. Hedgeman secured loans, and the reason of the rebates of this interest that Mr. Hedgeman received from the old firm of Vermlire and company, was testified to by several members of that firm, which has since gone out of business.

This firm was the banner of the Metropolitan Life, but since last March the business has been taken over by W. A. Reade and company. Mr. Reade was a witness today and said that Hedgeman got these loans at a rate below the market rate because Mr. Hedgeman had been a client for a number of years and because of the volume of business he transacted with the firm of Vermlire and company.

TERRITORIAL FAIR ASSOCIATION TO INCORPORATE

Committee of Fifteen Will Select New Officers.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING
OVER ZIEGER'S LAST NIGHT

At last night's meeting of the Territorial fair executive committee in the hall over Zieger's, it was voted that the Territorial Fair association be incorporated according to law with the principal place of business of the corporation to be designated as Albuquerque. The resignations of the officers elected at the last meeting were duly accepted and a committee of fifteen was elected to choose officers for the twenty-sixth annual fair. The meeting was called to order by President W. H. Greer with Secretary D. K. B. Sellers in the chair. Col. Sellers arose and addressed the meeting, outlining suggestions for the future conduct of the Territorial Fair association which met with the approval of the committee. Col. Sellers said he believed that nothing would be more effective in giving the association stability and prestige than to have the organization duly incorporated in the office of the secretary of the territory, setting forth the objects of the association and designating Albuquerque as the principal place of business, thus making the territorial fair a permanent Albuquerque institution and placing the association on a solid foundation. "If the fair ever gets an appropriation from the territory," said Mr. Sellers, "it will have to be incorporated. If we incorporate, it will make Albuquerque the permanent seat of the fair, as all the territory is agreed it should be. It will give an added sense of responsibility all around and I think will work wonders for the future of the fair."

The matter was discussed freely by the many gentlemen present and met with universal approval. It was thereupon voted that the new officers of the fair be instructed to take steps towards the incorporation of the association as soon as possible.

Preliminary to proceeding with the election of new officers the former resignation of President-elect George L. Brooks, Secretary-elect D. Rosenwald, Treasurer-elect J. H. Herndon and Vice-President-elect B. Spitz, were accepted.

After some discussion, Mr. Mandel made a motion to the effect that a committee of fifteen be elected by the executive committee to proceed with the selection of new officers for the twenty-sixth annual fair on behalf of the association.

Frank Ackerman amended the motion to the effect that the chair should appoint the committee of fifteen to proceed with the selection of new officers for the twenty-sixth annual fair on behalf of the association.

The chair appointed Messrs. E. L. Washburn, Harry H. Weiler, and Joe Walker, as the committee to submit a preliminary list of names. The committee retired to an upper room and returned with the list from which the following were selected by the meeting by ballot:

B. H. Briggs, chairman; P. F. McCanna, D. A. Macpherson, W. T. McCreight, Felix H. Lester, Thomas H. Hubbell, M. Mandel, B. Spitz, W. H. Greer, George P. Learnard, David Rosenwald, E. Newcomer, Dr. J. F. Pearce, O. N. Marron, and J. H. O'Reilly. The committee immediately went into session and deliberated on the choice of officers until a late hour last night.

It was thought best by the meeting to choose the new officers in this manner to obviate the waste of time caused by the uncertainty as to whether officers elected in meeting of the whole committee would accept the office tendered them. The committee was elected with a view to selecting men about whose acceptance there shall be no doubt.

A sub-committee of three, consisting of D. A. Macpherson, W. H. Greer and B. Spitz, was appointed by the committee of fifteen to report on the official meeting which will be held next Tuesday night.

Last night's meeting was well attended and harmonious and a general disposition was shown to give the association down to business under new leaders as soon as possible. It is believed that the incorporation of the organization will do much toward putting the whole proposition on a sound basis.

YOUNGSTER OF THREE WANDERS AWAY

JOE BACHECH'S LITTLE SON WAS INVESTIGATING RAILROAD YARDS.

The police were called upon yesterday to find three missing children, all so small that their parents feared for their safety. All were recovered without trouble, the case of the three-year-old son of Joe Bachech, the South First street liquor dealer proving the most difficult. Young Bachech, who has only recently acquired the art of walking, wandered away shortly after the noon hour and had been gone an hour or so when he was missed. The neighborhood was searched, but he was not to be found on North Second street. The police were notified and a search of an hour or so discovered the youngster calmly walking down the Santa Fe yards, fully a mile from his home. He was footling it down the track, hugely interested in passing switch engines and strings of cars. The adventurous three-year-old will be more closely watched in future.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies: those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers: those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the

WOMAN CAUSED THE MURDER OF WARREN MIDDLETON IN RATON

Cabe Adams Puts Five Bullets Into Victim.

TUCUMCARI DEPUTY SHERIFF
AVENGES BREAK-UP OF HOME

Special to the Morning Journal.
Raton, N. M., Nov. 12.—Deputy Sheriff Cabe Adams, of Tucumcari, who shot and killed Warren Middleton on the streets of Raton, Saturday morning, is held in jail here awaiting indictment. It is expected that Sheriff Street of Quay county will arrive soon in response to a telegram sent him by Adams immediately after the latter's arrest. There are no new developments in the case aside from the fact that jealousy of his divorced wife caused Adams to take the life of Middleton.

Two years ago during the absence from Tucumcari of Adams, who is a well-known cattleman, his wife, who is about twenty years of age, and quite pretty, got a divorce. Middleton, who was formerly married, also got a divorce and last August took to wife the former Mrs. Adams. Three months ago he came to Raton with his bride and secured work as a truckman for the Santa Fe company.

Adams says that trouble between himself and Middleton over the woman was the cause of the tragedy, but refuses to give further details of the events that led to the shooting. Mrs. Middleton also refuses to talk.

Murder Was a Deliberate One.
The shooting took place Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock, near the corner of Cook avenue and First street, in front of the establishment of the Raton Cleaning and Pressing works. Middleton emerged from the cigar store near the Palace saloon and as he stepped out, Adams at the same moment appeared from the alley back of the saloon. With an oath he cried, "Here, now I've got you" and as the other man turned toward him he fired two shots in rapid succession at Middleton. At the first shot his victim gave an involuntary cry twice, and fell as the second bullet pierced him. Adams then sent three more bullets into Middleton's body after he fell.

The first bullet entered the right arm and came out in the right breast; another entered the skull two inches above the left eye, two more entered the body under the left arm, and one pierced the heart.

Adams immediately walked into the Palace saloon and gave himself up. The shots were fired from a 45 calibre Colt's revolver. A 22 calibre automatic gun was also found on the deputy sheriff when he was arrested by Sheriff Marion Littrell, of Colfax county.

The shooting caused the most intense excitement. In five minutes a big crowd surrounded the dead body of Middleton and it was half an hour before the remains were taken to an undertaking establishment. While on his way to the jail Adams remarked to Sheriff Littrell:

"When a man breaks up your home and takes from you all your happiness what can you do but kill him?"

Adams is 24 years of age, is tall and well built and has always borne an excellent reputation.

Middleton was ten years the senior of his murderer and has been quiet and well behaved since his arrival in Raton a few months ago.

GOVERNMENT CASE AGAINST SANTA FE ON THIS WEEK

Proceedings Based on Alleged Violation of Injunction.

MILTON D. PURDY HANDLES
CASE FOR UNCLE SAM

The proceedings of the United States government against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company will come up in the United States district court in Kansas City on November 17. These proceedings are based on the alleged violation of the injunction issued by Judge Grosscup, charges having been made that the Santa Fe paid rebates to the Colorado Fuel and Iron company after this injunction had been issued against the paying of rebates. This is the case in which Paul Morton, former secretary of the navy and now head of the Equitable Life Assurance society, was involved when he was the second vice president of the Santa Fe.

Another case in which the Santa Fe is involved is known as the Hutchinson salt case. In the first case, denial of the payment of rebates will be made by the railroad company, while a motion to quash the proceedings has been made in the salt case.

Milton D. Purdy, assistant United States attorney general, will prosecute the cases for the government, and he is expected to reach Kansas City early next week.

SANTA FE MAKES CONCESSION TO SHIPPERS

An important concession to the requests of orange shippers has been announced by the Santa Fe Railway company in a marked reduction of the minimum weight of shipments, demanded by the railway company to the carload.

Heretofore an arbitrary minimum of 26,000 pounds has been demanded by the railways irrespective of the capacity of the cars. These vary from 26 to 40 feet in length. The shippers claim that the former minimum weight of 26,000 was too high for the shorter cars and crowded the fruit to an extent that militated against its carrying.

This fact of varying length of cars has been recognized by the railway companies and they have now made a minimum of 24,190 pounds or 328 boxes of oranges for the 36-foot cars, and one of 27,600 pounds or 384 boxes for the 40-foot cars.

On lemon shipments the minimum for the 36-foot cars will be 24,190 pounds and on the 40-foot cars 26,200 pounds.

This ruling will be in effect in a few days' time, when the circular will be issued.

THANKSGIVING DAY RATES.

Rock Island Will Sell Excursion Tickets.

A movement has been started by the Rock Island in the matter of holiday rates that is practically unknown in the west. Announcement was made yesterday by the passenger department of that system empowering their agents to sell excursion tickets on account of Thanksgiving, at one and one-third fare for round trip where the regular fare did not exceed $6. This rate will not hold good for Kansas City, and the announcement further states that the rate will not be effective in Oklahoma. The dates of the sale will be Nov. 29 and 30, with final return limit on December 4.

This special rate has never been given by any road for Thanksgiving in this state, but other roads will doubtless make similar announcements following the Rock Island's lead. The rate will be effective on the Frisco and Choctaw as well.

HURLEY TELLS ONE ON SANTA FE CONDUCTOR

James E. Hurley, general manager of the Santa Fe system, says this is the best story he ever heard on a railroad man.

A man in a country town went crazy on hypnosis. He imagined he was the greatest hypnotist on earth. He was a powerful fellow and the officers knew that he would put up a hard fight if he knew they were taking him to the asylum. So they evolved a scheme. They told him that there were some people in the asylum who would unravel a thrilling story if they were hypnotized, and wanted him to do the job. He consented. The officers boarded the train with him bound for the asylum. When the conductor came along the crazy man began telling of his own hypnotic powers. The conductor didn't believe him.

"I'll just hypnotize you to prove it," said the man.

"Fire away," said the conductor.

The man made several passes with his hands in front of the conductor's face and said, "You are hypnotized."

In order to pacify the man the conductor said he was.

"You are a railroad conductor," said the hypnotist.

"That's right," said the conductor.

"You are a good conductor," went on the hypnotist.

"Right again," said the conductor.

"You don't smoke, chew, drink or swear at passengers?"

"None."

"You are honest, turn in all tickets and money you collect from passengers. In fact, you do not steal a cent?"

"That's right," said the conductor.

"What a fine fellow you would be in if I left you in this condition," drawled the hypnotist.

Fireman Badly Hurt.

Mr. Clellan who is employed as fireman had the misfortune on Sunday evening to slip and fall from his engine and had not the engine been moving slowly he would probably have been killed, says the Gallup Republican. As it was, he sustained a severe fracture of the elbow and was considerably bruised. Dr. W. H. Burr attended him and in dressing the injury it was necessary to remove two small pieces of the shattered bone. Mr. Clellan is doing as well as could be expected, but he suffers a great deal and it will be some time before he is ready to work again.

Gets $5,000 for His Eye.

A jury in the district court brought in a verdict for $5,000 late last night in the case of Jesse A. White against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, says the Topeka State Journal. Jesse White, the plaintiff in the case, was a night operator at Lake View, Mo., in 1902. During one of the coldest nights in January of that year when the snow was blowing and drifting on the railroad tracks, and it was impossible to keep the tracks open for traffic, he received a message from an operator up the line, saying: "If you want to see the snow fly, go to your west window when number four goes through." Number four referred to was the Santa Fe fast train scheduled to make nearly 50 miles an hour and on this night had a snow plow attached to the front of the engine and was bucking snow in an effort to keep the track open. As the headlight of the engine came in sight the operator stationed himself at the west window and awaited the on-coming train to witness the flying snow as the snow plow cleared the track. The performance was a success from the standpoint of the crew who were clearing the track, but not so from that of the operator, who was the sole spectator. The snow plow struck a pile of cinders and snow just before it came to the depot platform and threw them with such force that the window at which he was standing was demolished. When the operator came to, it was to find that he had lost the sight of one eye which had been cut out by the flying glass and that he was otherwise badly injured.

One of the features of the case was the admission of a dream as evidence. E. B. Pasley was learning telegraphy in the office at the time and was the man who discovered the operator and administered first aid. He testified that he was asleep and dreaming of a fearful train wreck at the time that the accident occurred, and that he dreamt that a train had been wrecked and had buried the little depot under the engine and cars. He rushed into the operators room and found it filled with steam caused by the snow which had been piled on the stove and was melting, and worked some time trying to rescue his friend before he realized that there had been no wreck and that the damage had been caused by the weight of the snow and cinders which had been thrown against the window of the station.

The plaintiff in the case, Mr. White, is wearing a smile on one side of his face this morning with a glass eye on the other, and as he was awarded but half the damages asked for, these conditions seem entirely proper.

America, the Favorite Country.

Our country is the favorite among emigrants from Europe, for out of a total of 24,000 persons who left their ports in the early part of the year 1905, 900 came to the United States, the balance being distributed all over the rest of the world. Among medicines there is also a favorite, namely Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In thousands of homes in which it has once been used it reigns supreme. Past experience has proven that it cures heartburn, bloating, vomiting, poor appetite, belching, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, chills, colds or malaria. Women and girls who need a tonic each month cannot find one to equal the Bitters and thousands are taking it with great satisfaction. A fair trial will convince you of its value. For sale by all druggists.

Wanted to Be Put in "A Box."

What a Fall Was There

HERE was a very pathetic scene at the officeholders' convention in the old "dobe" palace at Santa Fe last Friday, which seems to have escaped the attention of all the reporters. The Globe-Democrat came while the convention was in session, and one of the delegates, who could read English, found a special dispatch from Washington which stated positively that the president had determined to urge single statehood in his message. And the exuberance of joy which followed this discovery can be better imagined than described. The directors, and commissioners, and trustees, and attorneys, and members of boards, and first and second assistants of everything, were all as happy as though they had been at camp meeting and had just got religion. But the joy was short lived, and that's the pity of it. In the midst of the abounding hilarity the gentleman who had brought the good news reached the end of the dispatch, and as soon thereafter as he could catch his breath, he arose and in a very funeral tone delivered himself of words and figures as follows, to-wit: "Say, fellows, this d— thing means the other way. When the president says he is going to favor single statehood in his message, he means he is going to advise congress to make a single state of the two territories!"

The deep, depressing gloom, which settled over the "dobe" room, immediately following this announcement, was so thick you might have cut it with a knife, and the language which prevailed there for a few minutes wouldn't do to print.

True American Sentiment

AD the "Chronicle" been published in New York it is improbable that it would have supported Mr. Hearst in the contest just closed, but if as a matter of fact he received one more honest vote than Mayor McClellan he should have the office if it requires the entire force of the United States to seat him. The one chance which Mayor McClellan has to regain something of the national prestige which he has just lost is to join heartily and sincerely with Mr. Hearst in going to the bottom of the alleged frauds, with the intent that in good faith the man who was elected mayor shall be seated as such. No American, thank heavens, can ever hope even to be considered for high office who has ever in his life knowingly profited by a fraud on the ballot.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Thousands of republicans and citizens' union members are writing letters to Hearst urging him to prosecute the case with all the vigor he can summon, and pledging him their support. He will have help and good wishes from all parties and all localities. A much larger issue than municipal ownership is involved in Mr. Hearst's fight. The question of a free ballot and an honest count is at stake. This is something which will appeal to public spirited citizens all over the country. Nobody in this contest cares today about the policies for which Mr. Hearst stood in the election. All that is at issue is whether he received a plurality of the votes which were honestly cast. On this question Mr. Hearst will be backed by the republican party of the country as well as by all other men who are determined that a republican form of government shall be maintained in the United States.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE moral tone of Albuquerque is unquestionably higher than it was a few years ago. It may be noticed that the printers on the Monday Morning Journal now pull down the blinds when they go to work Sunday evening—and that's an indication of progress. Even the simple fact that a printer on a seven-times-a-week paper knows when Sunday comes is of itself substantial evidence that the tide of religious sentiment in the community is coming up.

Definition of Honesty

HERE are men who do not divide actions merely into those that are honest and those that are not, but create a third sub-division—that of jaw honesty, of that kind of honesty which consists in keeping clear of the penitentiary. . . . The distinction upon which we must insist is the vital, deep-lying, unchangeable distinction between the honest man and the dishonest man. . . . There are men who use the phrase "practical politics" as merely a euphemism for dirty politics, and it is such men who have brought the word "politician" into discredit. There are other men who use the noxious phrase "business is business" as an excuse for every kind of mean and crooked work, and these men make honest Americans hang their heads because of some of the things they do. . . . The scoundrel who falls can never by any possibility be as dangerous as the scoundrel who succeeds, and of all the men in the country, the worst citizens, those who should excite in our minds the most contemptuous abhorrence, are the men who have achieved great wealth, or any other form of success, in any save a clean and straightforward manner.—President Roosevelt at Atlanta.

THE general manager of the Santa Fe refrigerator dispatch line, who admits violations of the rebate laws, is apparently trying to get into line for a life insurance presidency at $50,000 a year.—Springfield Republican.

Has Injured New Mexico

VERY fair idea of the great injury that has been done to New Mexico by the exposure of the crooked methods of her delegate elect can be obtained from the subjoined dispatch which recently appeared in the papers of New York and other eastern cities. It is dated from Washington and reads as follows:

"The cause of statehood for New Mexico, either singly or jointly with Arizona, has been greatly injured by the revelations in Pennsylvania connecting 'Bull' Andrews with the wreck of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny. Andrews' attorneys have admitted that he borrowed heavily from the bank through Cashier Clark, the money being devoted to the building of the Santa Fe Central railway in New Mexico. Bonds of the railway were given as security for the loan, and failure to realize on the bonds was one reason for Cashier Clark's suicide. His brief note to his wife, in which he said 'Andrews worked my ruin,' tells the whole story and is universally believed here.

"Bull" Andrews was a protégé of Matt Quay and is a brother of Wesley R. Andrews, republican state chairman of Pennsylvania. The latter is also a clerk in Senator Penrose's committee on postoffices and post roads in the senate. 'Bull' Andrews, by employing Quay methods in New Mexico, elected himself territorial delegate, and if New Mexico had been admitted as a state last winter he would have been elected United States senator. As matters now stand it is admitted here that since the Andrews exposure it is impossible for New Mexico to get into the union as a state, and it will take a hard fight to get her in, even as a part of Arizona."

In the gloaming, Oh my darling,
As the shades of night advance,
Lo! A ghastly apparition—
Can it be we're seeing haunts?

Ah! 'Tis but the Twilight Squeaklet
That affrights our startled glance—
In its daily, one-month-after Double shuffle song and dance.

"When you print the news," says the Albuquerque Morning Journal, "you don't have to be in a hurry, and complicated argument to let the people know." And the Journal might have added "when your newspaper space is worth anything you don't have to fill it with frantic appeals to the people to advertise."—Nogales Oasis.

Verily the fame of the Squeak is spreading abroad.

The Almanac is calling itself out on a sort of "Passive Resistance" strike against joint statehood. In other words the Almanac will be a dead and ossified drag on the chariot of progress, as usual.

The naval academy faculty say they fear the boys won't be manly if they don't scrap. The mayor is the man with a little foot ball game or two, now and then?

That little expose of the piker news policy of the Twilight Squeak seems to have hit the squeak in a tender spot. It brought forth at least two solid columns of hysterics.

The Citizen's sensational scoop about the late lamented Christopher is only eclipsed by its electrifying beat on the president's proclamation.

Miguel has officially proclaimed that all must give thanks. It would be interesting to know just what Miguel is most thankful for.

The Citizen is investigating a sensational rumor to the effect that Columbus was only in a trance and not dead as reported.

The scenes of wild enthusiasm at the meeting of the central committee in Santa Fe were probably never equalled in the territory.

"The afternoon paper reaches the homes," says the Twilight Squeak. That might be true of an afternoon NEWS-paper.

The Squeak is now making strenuous efforts to scoop the Santa Fe Almanac on the Declaration of Independence.

Speaking of the governorship, there's a good old song to the effect that "Nothing's too good for the Irish."

The government should detail Miguel to put a scare on those Navajos.

'Slavo is game, anyhow.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Now, therefore, We, Miguel the First, in the eighth and last year of our reign, on the eleventh month, on the nineteenth day of the month, do duly and formally proclaim that Thursday, the 26th day of November, Anno Domini 1905, be set aside as Thanksgiving day. We know that it will be Thanksgiving day whether we proclaim or not, but then as we are going out of the proclaiming business poco pronto, we think that we'll get in as many ticks as we can before we vacate. We proclaim that on this solemn occasion the ax shall fall on the neck of the festive turkey, emblematic of the dull and horrible thud with which the ax is going to fall on our official neck. We proclaim further that each and every one of our subjects shall be requested to give thanks, including our devoted vassals, Tomas Hubbell, Francisco Hubbell and 'Slavo Vigil of the county of Bernalillo, as: We also hereby issue our decree that all those who refuse to give thanks shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred plunks or imprisonment in the Bernalillo county jail for not to exceed sixty days.

We further proclaim that we personally are deeply thankful for the following blessings:

We are thankful that we held on to our job as long as we did and played in such luck while we were it.

We are grateful that we are going to have plum pudding this Thanksgiving, even though it be the last time.

We are thankful that the writ of prohibition didn't prohibit.

We are thankful that we will have a little Pie left for this our last Thanksgiving feast on this throne.

We are deeply grateful to an All Wise Providence that our dear son, Miguel the Two did not get kidnapped.

We are thankful that our official automobile is in good running order.

We give thanks that we won't have to make any more speeches.

We are thankful that we had such a Nice Long Rest in a Quiet and Restored Spot Far from the Madmob Crowd and the Strenuous Fights Against Entrenched Graft.

We are further thankful that this is a good sheep year and that we have a big wind of wool over in east were it.

Mexico which will keep the coyote from the door after we leave our present highly lucrative position.

We are thankful that we have got off with our little lunge game for eight long and remunerative years.

We are glad that we have been able to share our prosperity with our good friends, Max and Burke, and that they have thus been able to keep the Giant Specter of Poverty from climbing in the kitchen window.

We are thankful the Big Stick didn't hurt us any harder than it did.

We are grateful to an omniscient Providence that statehood didn't come until our term was ended anyway. After we have left the Pie Counter we don't much care a darn what kind of booming statehood the territory gets.

We do hereby choke off this proclamation by announcing that it is our inflexible will to get out of the gubernatorial chair in a day or two, and retire to private life where we may make out a precarious existence in a manner less exciting and wearing on the nerves than fighting entrenched graft.

We absolutely won't consider a third term under any circumstances whatever—unless perchance it be offered us.

Witness our hand and the great seal this nineteenth day of November in the last year of our reign.

BAD TIME TO WEAR FALSE WHISKERS IN ALBUQUERQUE

Persistent Young Man Held for Investigation.

LANSING AND GALE
MAY BE RELEASED

The police were called to a Tijeras road residence at 7:30 last night because a man had been seen crossing the lawn toward the rear of the house. The officers were on the ground five minutes after the call but the man had disappeared. Aside from this no further trouble from the small robbery had been reported up to a late hour last night, and the chase for the men who are believed to be responsible for the six burglaries already committed is growing so hot that it is not believed they will attempt any further work just now.

One arrest has been made in connection with the burglaries. E. W. Van Walke, a brass foundry man employed at the Santa Fe shops, and living in the Hope flats, was arrested last night by Officer Kennedy and detained for several hours at the police station while a little investigating was done.

Chief McMillin, who examined Van Walke, is inclined to believe his story, but his persistence in wearing false whiskers has placed him under suspicion and was held until midnight while an investigation was being held. Van Walke is married and is considered a steady workman at the shops. Sunday night he was stopped by Chief McMillin while walking down Second street. He was wearing false mustaches and beard, and these attracted the attention of the officer. A command to stop was unheeded by Van Walke, and then Chief Kennedy stopped him and removed the false whiskers. The man said he had been out playing a little joke on some of his fellow employees, and when warned that it was dangerous to be wandering around in disguise just now, Van Walke promised to desist playing jokes.

The man talked to some extent with descriptions of the man seen about the Minneapolis house before the robbery there a week ago, and he was placed under observation. Last night about 7:30 he came out of his house, again adorned in the false whiskers. Officer Kennedy ordered him to halt. He paid no attention but kept on his way. The officer then drew his gun and gave the order again when Van Walke stopped. He told the same story about going out to play jokes on his friends. He was held until one or two men who believed they had seen the window raiser had an opportunity to look him over.

May Release Lansing and Gale. Unless complaint is filed today against Lansing and Gale, the two men arrested Sunday night after telling the police a story about a battle with an officer at Isleta the night before, the men will be released. Chas. Mainz, officer at Isleta, came up yesterday morning and went before the men. They at once declared him to be the man who had ordered them off the Isleta platform, and who later shot Lansing in the leg for refusing to go.

Mainz laughs at the story and produces several Santa Fe officers to prove that he was here until 2 o'clock Sunday morning, and consequently could not have done the shooting. Other Isleta people say that no shooting was done there Saturday night or Sunday morning.

Officer Davis who shot at a man in the Santa Fe yards Saturday night is practically certain that Lansing is his man and in this he is sustained by Officer Wells, who led the chase for the men who were trying to rob the Gross Kelly warehouse. Chief McMillin says he will release the men this morning unless complaint is filed against them.

Painter Arrested for Larceny. Clarence Murphy, a painter, was arrested last night and lodged in the city jail on a charge of larceny brought by E. A. Farrell, a contractor. Murphy is charged with the larceny of a number of paint brushes and a quantity of paint from his shop. The case will be heard this morning at 9 o'clock.

B. Ferguson, Mr. Huning's daughter, with abundant provision for his grand-children. Cash and cash values left by Mr. Huning are divided, one-half going to his wife, the remainder being divided between his son and daughter. Mrs. Huning, Arno Huning and Hon. H. B. Ferguson are named executors.

FIRST BRIDGE COMPLETED ON SANTA FE CUT-OFF

CONSTRUCTION TRAIN CROSSES
HUGE STEEL TRUSSES AT MOUTH OF RUGGED ABO CANYON.

Yesterday the first bridge on the Tucson cut-off, just at the western entrance to Abo canyon where the line crosses the Manzano mountains, was completed and a construction train passed across it last night.

The bridge is an immense one and the job of putting it in place constituted quite a little feat of engineering. The bridge is 100 feet above the bed of the canyon, and the middle span is 80 feet in length.

The bridge is built of huge steel trusses and is of massive construction. It is set on equally massive concrete abutments that have been in process of construction for the past two years. As the train leaves the bridge it plunges into one of the deepest cuts on the line.

All the stone and concrete work on the piers for the various bridges in the Abo Pass has been completed and the rest of the steel work will be put in place rapidly. All of the bridges have been placed away above the highest possible water mark and have been built to withstand the ravages of time and weather almost indefinitely. The seven bridges in the first three miles of the canyon take up a large part of the entire cost of the cut-off.

J. B. Manby known throughout the west as one of the most extensive buyers of sheep and wool, came to Albuquerque yesterday from Magdalena, where he has just completed the loading of what is probably the biggest single shipment made out of the territory this year. Mr. Manby has purchased from Solomon Luna and others in the Magdalena district five trainloads of lambs which have just been sent out, part to Colorado and the rest to Kansas City and Oklahoma. The cars are all double deckers and the shipment is one of the largest ever made out of New Mexico. Thousands of dollars has been left in the Magdalena district this year by the sheep buyers who have bought heavily of what is said to be the finest lamb crop on record.

Martinez Forged Orders. Felix Martinez was arrested this week for forging orders on Raton merchants, using the name of Mr. Wilson, the manager of the Chilocora coal company, says the Raton Range.

Martinez had been employed at the mines until a few days ago. When he was discharged he came to Raton and forged and passed orders on several business men. Mr. Wilson was informed of the fact and he at once had Martinez arrested. It is alleged that this is not his first offense.

Part of the goods were recovered and Martinez will probably raise the necessary money to free himself.

KELLY MINE.

The Morning Journal yesterday received information from a reliable source that an important mining deal is under way for the sale to eastern investors of a group of claims in the Magdalena district adjoining the famous Kelly and Graphic mines.

R. W. Hadden, a mining engineer representing the eastern capitalists, has been in Albuquerque investigating conditions affecting the property, and will go to Kelly during the week to complete his examination and report. Should his examination confirm the reports which have already been made the deal will be immediately consummated, and development on the property started at once.

Local parties who are familiar with the past history of the Kelly and Graphic mines predict the making of another great mine in the Kelly district.

ABATEMENT PLEA IS OVERKILLED BY JUDGE ABBOTT

Late County Grand Jury's
Work Will Stand.

RULING IN M'CLURE CASE
APPLIES TO ALL OTHERS

The indictments found by the late Bernalillo county grand jury will stand as valid.

Judge Abbott yesterday afternoon handed down a decision in which he overrules the plea in abatement filed by counsel for Emilio McClure, charged with murder, with the statement that the ruling would apply in all other cases in which similar pleas have been filed.

Plea in abatement attacking the validity of the indictments found by the late grand jury were filed in the cases of McClure charged with murder, Frank A. Hubbell charged with embezzlement and misappropriation of public funds, Estelito Vigil, under indictment on similar charges, and one or two Albuquerque saloon owners indicted for operating gaming tables without paying the license. The court ruling is made on the McClure case, which was first presented, but holds for the other actions as well and as a consequence all will come to trial in due course of business in the district court.

The validity of the late grand jury was attacked by counsel for McClure and the others on the ground that one member of the jury served through the sitting when another man had been summoned, and on the additional ground that one member of the jury lived outside of Bernalillo county and within the limits of the territory.

Judge Abbott's ruling on this question is of deep interest and is given in full below:

Territory of New Mexico. In the District Court, Bernalillo County.

Territory of New Mexico, vs. Emilio McClure, No. 3027.

Opinion Upon Plea in Abatement.

An indictment against the defendant for murder was returned by the grand jury, Bernalillo county, September 26, 1905. It is claimed in support of the plea to abate the indictment thus found that the venire for the jurors was not issued to or served by the sheriff of said county, as required by law.

This court has already passed on the same question, in effect, in Hubbell vs. Armijo, No. 4876, and on appeal the case has now come to this court of the territory for decision there.

It is alleged, however, that the grand jury which brought in the indictment was not made up as required by law, in that, as alleged, one of the members of the grand jury, was not drawn from the box containing the names of the persons listed for jury duty in Bernalillo county, to-wit: December 26, 1905. A SAN FRANCISCO PHYSICIAN

Uses Herpicide Successfully in Treating Syphilis of the Beard.

He says: "I recently treated a case of syphilis (similar to 'barber's itch') of the lower lip, with Newbro's Herpicide. There was an extensive loss of beard with inflammation extending well down on the chin. The result of the application of Herpicide was most gratifying. The loss of beard ceased and a new growth of hair is now taking place over the once inflamed area. (Signed.)"

WOMAN GOES ALONE INTO WILDS AFTER BROTHER'S BODY

Miss O'Daly Penetrates the Depths of Sinaloa.

PEONS BEAR COFFIN FOR BODY OF MURDERED MAN

Miss Jimena O'Daly, of Nogales, is now in the mountains of Sinaloa, Mexico, seeking the remains of her murdered brother, that she may have them brought back to the home of his family and given Christian burial, says the Nogales Oask.

Hundreds of miles from a railroad and far inland from the coast, she has made a journey by rail, by water, by stage and later by whatever conveyance might lead her to the less settled country through which she journeyed, that would try the endurance of a strong man.

With her into the mountains of that strange land, she has had to bear a coffin into which to place the remains of the murdered man.

William V. O'Daly was killed almost three months ago. As heretofore told there was no witness to the tragedy and the slayer when captured told a story of a fight in which he was compelled to kill his employer in self defense. Miss O'Daly at once announced her intention to investigate the tragedy and do all in her power to disprove the improbable report. She had known her brother to denounce in strong terms men who had been unnecessarily harsh with such people.

Three weeks ago she left Nogales alone to make the journey into the almost unsettled section of Sinaloa, where the killing occurred.

From the Indian trail which she tracked and captured the murderer, Miss O'Daly learned in detail the story of the killing.

They told her that her brother, while riding along, was shot from behind; that the servant stepped up close behind him and shot him in the back. Powder marks showed that the weapon used had been held close to the victim. The sudden shock caused the wounded man to pull his mule up so quickly that the animal slipped and the injured rider, falling off, was trampled at once with the assassin, preventing him from firing a second time. Terror-stricken, the man beat his victim on the head with the revolver, then broke away and fled. The wounded man was able to draw his gun and shot at the fleeing murderer, but to his weakened condition could not shoot with his wanted precision.

AN OPEN LETTER

To Our Patrons and Friends

We have entered into a contract with Mr. Geo. W. Hickox, agreeing to sell to him our Jewelry Business, including stock, fixtures and good will, Jan. 1, 1936. One strong feature of our agreement with Mr. Hickox is that we promise to reduce our inventory large and complete stock to the lowest possible point before that date and with this end in view, we will begin, Saturday, Nov. 4, a SPECIAL CLOSING OUT SALE to continue until Dec. 31, at which time we positively retire from the Jewelry business, having arranged to go into the manufacturing lumber business in British Columbia.

Our business in Albuquerque has increased steadily year by year, and grateful for this, we propose for the next two months, to cut out the big end of our profits and to give you such a genuine bargain sale of really fine, high-grade goods, as never has been offered in our city.

We invite you to make your selections now and avoid the rush of the December trade. We have ample vault-room and will gladly lay aside the goods you select, until you are ready for them. We have been in the Jewelry business 26 years, and have never yet advertised a fake sale. In this sale we will offer you rare bargains in Diamonds and Fine Watches. Every sale will be backed by my personal guarantee. Mail Orders solicited and satisfaction assured.

The Wilson Heater with the celebrated Hot Blast Down-Draft is the only heater which actually burns all of the fuel put into it. The Hot Blast Down-Draft creates perfect combustion and the fumes which rise from the fuel, ordinarily escaping unburned in other stoves, are all consumed and turned into heat in the Wilson. It has been ascertained that the fumes which arise from the fuel constitute 40 per cent of the entire heating power of the fuel. Buy a Wilson and get all the heat you are paying for.
