PANAMA CANAL

Congress Asks for an Itemized Expense Account.

HEPBURN SAYS MEMBERS WOULDN'T UNDERSTAND DETAILS

House Spends Four Hours Talking on Big Emergency Appropriation Bill--To Be Acted on Today.

Washington, Dec. 6.—With an opportunity for ultimate debate on the subject of the Panama canal, the house exhausted its oratory on that subject in a session of four and three-quarter hours today. The bill appropriating $16,500,000 for canal work, which was the subject for discussion, will be read for amendment and placed on its final passage tomorrow. The feature of the debate was the criticism indulged in by both republicans and democrats regarding the incompleteness of the statement of expenditures and estimates furnished by the canal commission. Mr. Hepburn, in charge of the bill, made some effort to show that while detailed estimates might be made satisfactory, at the same time members of the house were not in position to pass critical judgment on estimates on such work prepared by expert engineers who held responsible positions and had been selected entirely because of their fitness.

Bourke Cochran, of New York, took decided exception to this attitude on the part of Mr. Hepburn, applied it as affecting all matters of appropriation, and arraigned it as decidedly the wrong attitude of legislators. To enforce his argument he read the sentiment of the president in his message for economy and scrutiny of appropriations.

The so-called press agent of the canal commission was criticized by several speakers, and lack of definite information as to the existence of such a position was shown. The place was declared to draw a salary of $10,000 a year, and some curiosity was manifested to know what were its duties.

SPOONER SAYS PROCEEDINGS ARE "UNWORTHY OF SENATE"

Washington, Dec. 6.—The senate began business in earnest today. The session was of only a little more than two hours' duration, but in that time several hundred bills and resolutions were introduced and referred to committees.

There were resolutions dealing with the question of the national regulation of insurance companies, the incorporation of inter-state railroad companies and the contribution of funds to political parties by national banks. Mr. Spooner presented his railroad rate regulation bill; Mr. Gallinger, his merchant marine subsidy bill; Mr. Lodge, a bill providing for a maximum and minimum tariff rate schedule in the interest of reciprocity. Mr. Cullerton introduced a bill making it a penalty to use the money of insurance companies in politics.

The nearest approach to a controversy arose over a resolution presented by Mr. Newlands directing the inter-state commerce commission to draw a national incorporation account for railroads.

Mr. Spooner criticized the proceeding as unworthy of the senate.

Objection was made to the consideration of a resolution offered by Mr. Tillman for investigation of the subject of national bank contributions for campaign purposes, and the resolution went over for a day.

J. WALLACE RAYNOLDS SUCCEEDS IN LANDING IT

Washington, Dec. 6.—Among the nominations sent to the senate today was secretary of New Mexico, James W. Reynolds, of New Mexico.

Senator Lodge's Bill

Washington, Dec. 6.—Senator Lodge today introduced an amendment to the Dingley tariff law providing a maximum and minimum rate of duty so as to give preference and advantage to the products of those countries which do not discriminate against the products of the United States. It provides in specific terms for levying excess duties against countries which do not admit goods of the United States on terms equal to those granted to other countries.

W-Broad Rate Bill Re-drawn.

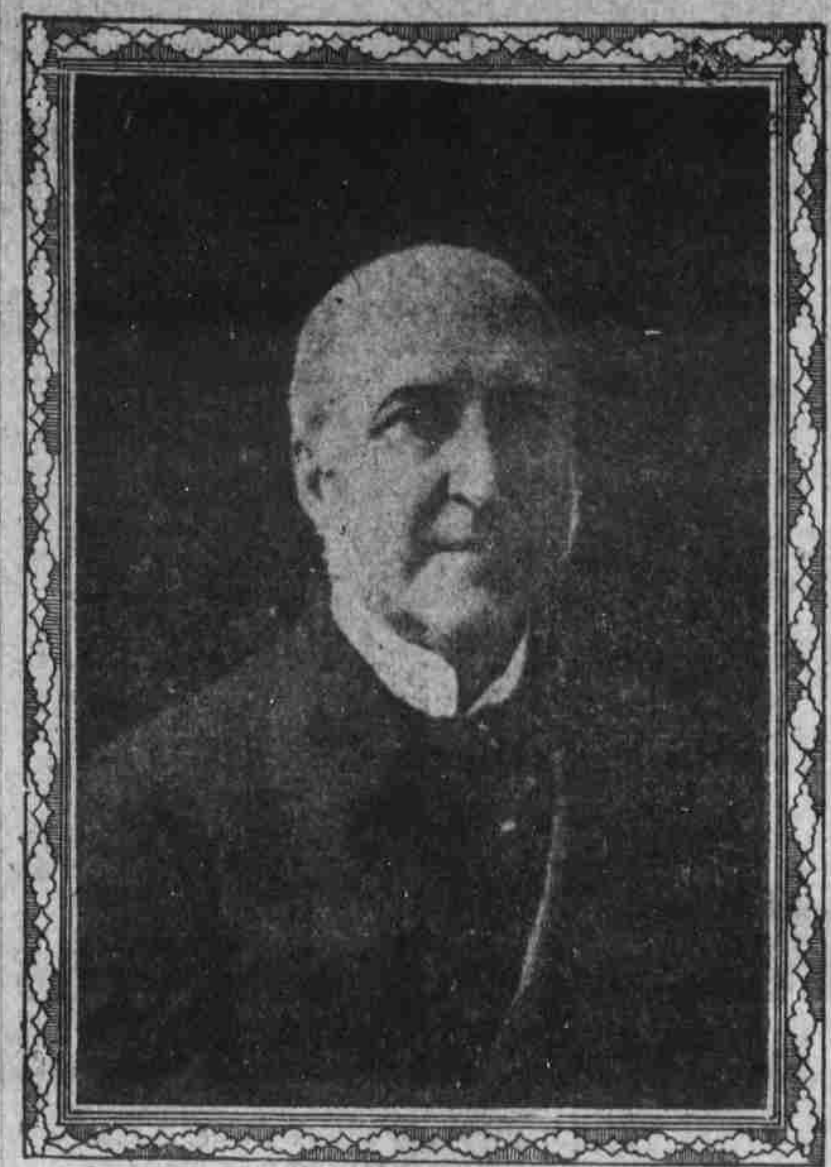

Washington, Dec. 6.—The Echols-Townsend railroad bill which passed the house last session has been re-drawn and was re-introduced in the house today by Townsend. The bill embraces all the features of the former measure, but is drawn so as to specify things which may be done by the inter-state commerce commission. In addition it has a publicity feature and gives jurisdiction over refrigeration and terminal charges. It also directly prohibits the carrier from granting any shipper the privilege of collecting his product and then granting special rate under short term provision for charging rates. As explained today, the Townsend bill expresses the ideas of the president in his message and will, if enacted into law amend the inter-state commerce law so as to make it more effective in securing justice between carriers, shippers, producers and consumers.

Beveridge Confident.

Washington, Dec. 6.—A canvass of the senate on the statehood bill, indicates, says Senator Beveridge that the bill will be passed this session by a good majority. He thinks the measure will be in the same form as reported at last session, which provides for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state and New Mexico and Arizona as one state. The bill containing these provisions has already been introduced by Representative Hamilton, of Michigan, chairman of the committee on territories. Beveridge has not determined whether he will offer an identical bill or whether he will wait for the bill to come over from the house.

Senator Depew Finally Succumbs to Pressure And Leaves Equitable

Smiling Statesman Resigns Without Explanation---McCall to Go Soon.

New York, Dec. 6.—The resignation of United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance society was one of the most interesting developments today in the situation growing out of the life insurance investigation. The senator's resignation was tendered to President Morton of the Equitable society in a brief note in which no reason for it was stated.

The notice was posted tonight that President McCall will resign from the New York Life before April next and that he does not tender his resignation at a meeting of the trustees next Wednesday he will refrain only at the request of the trustees, who, report says, do not wish to elect a temporary president.

The report also said the presidency of the New York Life has been offered to John Clafflin, a trustee of that company and president of the F. H. H. Clafflin company, and Mr. Clafflin has refused to accept the office.

The attention of the legislative investigating committee was devoted chiefly today to the affairs of the Security Life Insurance company of Birmingham, N. Y., whose president, John M. Turner, was on the stand.

Divine Sarah Clancy's Case Egged

Quebec, Dec. 6.—Rotten eggs were thrown at Madame Sarah Bernhardt after her performance at the Andolium last night because she displayed a number of people in this city on account of an interview she gave yesterday to a number of newspaper men. This interview appeared in L'Evening and was complimentary to the Canadian.

Lanette Succumbs to Ammonia.

Quebec, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Ida Berry, the demurest woman who after Friday last had held the town office at bay from her fort in the toilet room of a Frisco railroad coach on the tracks here, was removed today shortly before noon after she had been partially overcome by the fumes of ammonia. A bundle of rags saturated with the drug had been pushed through the window of the toilet room. Before surrendering Mrs. Berry fired one shot at her captors, but without effect.

Patrick to Be Sentenced.

most of the day. His testimony and the reading of contracts served to describe in detail the organization of the agency and investment company of Birmingham in 1893. This company paid the salary of the president of the Security Life Insurance company at first; advanced it money amounting to $87,000, agreed to furnish it with insurance business at the rate of $3,000,000 a year and received in turn a one per cent commission on all new premiums.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow.

SENATOR DEPEW'S RESIGNATION IS BRIEF AND POINTED

New York, Dec. 6.—The resignation of Senator Chauncey M. Depew as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance society was made public today by President Morton. Mr. Morton said that the resignation would be acted upon at a meeting of the directors December 27.

Senator Depew's letter was very brief. It read:

"I hereby tender my resignation as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance society.

"Yours very truly,
"CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW."

THREE BATTALIONS OF MOSCOW INFANTRY HAVE MUTINIED

London, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg dated December 5, says that 32 were killed and 400 wounded at Kieff after a regular battle.

A dispatch of the same date from St. Petersburg to another news agency, sent by way of Bydtkuhnen, says that three battalions of infantry at Moscow have mutinied, but no details are given.

The same dispatch says that a general strike has been declared at Khar'kov.

REVOLT OF ST. PETERSBURG GARISON IS EXPECTED

London, Dec. 6.—The correspondent of the Times at St. Petersburg says: "I am informed on excellent authority that a revolt of the St. Petersburg garrison is certain to occur."

The newspapers print harrowing details of the whipping by order of General Sakharoff of the peasants whom he was sent to pacify.

THE LANDLORD'S CONGRESS BITTERLY ASSAULTS WITTE.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 6.—The so-called landlords' congress at Moscow, which was comprised of representatives of reactionary organizations like the banner bearers and holy alliance of Russian patriots, seemed to have the cue to attack Premier Witte. Devalued reports of the session show that the congress bitterly assailed the premier who the speakers said, was leading Russia to perdition and pronounced for the emperor and against the revolution.

The Worst Is Over.

Paris, Dec. 6.—The foreign office here considers that the controversy between the powers and Turkey is practically closed and that only details remain to be settled previous to securing a satisfactory adjustment. The international diet remains intact pending the conclusion of these details.

WOMAN MURDERS
GENERAL

Anarchist Shoots Down Former War Minister.

TRAGEDY SPREADS TERROR THROUGHOUT ST. PETERSBURG

Witte's Influence Fast Waning and Military Dictatorship May Be Matter of Only a Few Days.

London, Dec. 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in a dispatch sent by way of Bydtkuhnen, East Prussia, says:

"Lieutenant General Sakharoff, former minister of war, was assassinated today."

The governor had deputed General Sakharoff to visit the province of Saratoff for the purpose of quelling the Agrarian riots there.

"A woman belonging to the so-called 'living columns' of the revolutionary movement, called at the house of the governor of Saratoff at noon today and asked to see General Sakharoff."

"She fired three revolver shots at the general, killing him on the spot."

The tidings reached St. Petersburg tonight. Count Witte charged Lieutenant General Readiger, minister of war, with the task of breaking the news to Madame Sakharoff.

"The event has created a profound impression in St. Petersburg, owing to fears that the revolutionists here will follow the example thus set."

The spectre of a military dictatorship, which has been looming on the horizon, is slowly gaining consistency and sharpness of outline.

"I am personally convinced that Count Witte's fall is the end of the good sense and political tact of the Russian thinking classes, which recently was as firm as a rock, is gradually weakening and with it his hopes for the carrying out of the liberties promised in the emperor's manifesto. There are signs of a collapse of the post and telegraph service. Two-thirds of the telegraphers are daily offering to resume work, but the rest are so doing because the wires have been cut by the stations fail to answer signals."

"Father Gapon has gone to Paris under very mysterious circumstances which I am not at liberty to unfold."

CRITICAL MOMENT FOR WITTE COMING FAST

Berlin, Dec. 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent, in a dispatch sent by way of Bydtkuhnen, December 5, says:

"The situation is visibly growing worse. The critical moment for Count Witte is coming when the liberal elements will demand his resignation. A resolution by the agriculturalists at Moscow demanding the immediate dismissal of the present cabinet denotes the beginning of the movement away from Count Witte, and signs indicate that this movement will gain in intensity soon."

SANTA FE IS VISITED BY A DISASTROUS FIRE

Fire on College Street Causes Loss of $150,000.

Special to the Morning Journal.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 6.—A disastrous fire early this morning on College street gutted the two and a half story frame house occupied by Mrs. T. A. Goodwin, causing a total loss of about $150,000. The loss on the contents was about $2,000. Practically nothing was saved.

The fire also damaged the adjoining residence of J. V. Conway, proprietor of the Normandie hotel, and threatened to spread to other nearby property. About 300 citizens hurried out to assist in the fire department and the blaze was finally brought under control. It was a hot and dangerous fire while it lasted.

FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT ADJOURNS IN ALAMOGORDO

Grand Jury Returns Five Indictments During Session.

Alamogordo, N. M., Dec. 6.—The fall term of the United States court for the sixth district, here adjourned after being in session for a week. The grand jury returned five indictments against several that were already on the docket.

There was only one jury trial: Juan Montoya, from Quay county, was tried for incest, the prosecuting witnesses being two daughters of the prisoner. The evidence was very strong against him and Attorney F. J. Malison, his attorney by appointment of the court, although he made a strong effort in his behalf, failed to prevent a verdict of guilty. Judge Mann sentenced Montoya to serve ten years in the territorial penitentiary.

A. S. Smith pleaded guilty to breaking in a sealed car at Santa Rosa last week and was sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary.

United States Marshals Forbes and Wiley, who have been in attendance on court, left for Santa Fe with the two prisoners last night.

while the government is inflexibly determined to carry out those reforms promised by the imperial manifesto of October 30th, it is impossible at one stroke to accustom the population to the administration of the new order of things created by the manifesto. Until the new legislation required by the reforms is effected, the old laws must be enforced, except where they are already replaced by temporary provisions. The note adds that drafts of provisional regulations governing the freedom of the press and the right of association have been completed, that deliberations regarding reforms of the council of the empire and the extension of the franchise are in progress, and that efforts at a national assembly are being expedited. At the same time measures are being initiated to cope with the disturbances which are endangering public security. M. Reigart, chief of the press censorship officers, has been relieved of his post at his own request.

At the review of the Simonsky regiment at Tsarskoe-Selo yesterday, the emperor addressed the troops, commenting on their tried loyalty. At a subsequent regimental banquet given by the officers, his majesty thanked the regiment for the exemplary services and expressed the hope that it would always show itself as firmly united as it was at present. Advice from Voronezh dated December 2 says that the soldiers of the disciplinary battalion are parading the town in gangs and intimidating the populace. One contingent, it is said, is touring the surrounding villages and estates and levying blackmail.

Strikers Urged to Stick It Out.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says: The central bureau of Moscow telegraph and postal employees sent the following telegram to all the cities in Russia: "All your demands will be granted, continue to strike. Trust in victory. The prospects are good. Witte agrees to everything. Only Burnov opposes. Remain firm."

Factories Go Into Bankruptcy.

Warsaw, Dec. 6.—Many smaller factories are going into bankruptcy because of inability to meet the additional expenses occasioned by the increase in wages. The postal and telegraph authorities estimate the government is losing $50,000 daily by the present strike, while the government's loss from tickets alone during the recent railroad strike is estimated at $15,000,000.

Reno Flea-Stricken.

Reno, Nev., Dec. 6.—For many weeks past the city of Reno has been infested with countless swarms of fleas and in addition to the discomfort caused by the biting propensities of the little insects comes the statement of Dr. J. H. Mason, of Chicago, that the fleas claim the genus of the great pneumonia in all its victims. The doctor makes this statement after a series of practical experiments and is very emphatic in dealing with the question.

The other residents of the city are investigating the matter, and it is found that Dr. Mason is correct some means will be determined upon to rid the city of the pests. It is also claimed by Dr. Mason that the fleas are probably totally responsible for the large number of deaths from pneumonia which recently occurred here.

Wants a Naval General Staff.

Washington, Dec. 6.—A necessity for the efficiency of the American navy, in the opinion of Admiral George A. Converse, chief of the bureau of navigation, is the introduction into the navy department of some "military administrative authority" to coordinate the technical work of the bureau, to be responsible for the organization and preparation of the fleet, and to advise in all military matters; that is the creation by law of a navy general staff.

This announcement in favor of the general staff idea is based on Admiral Converse's experience of thirty-four years in the service and forms a feature of his annual report, which was made public at the navy department today.

How Parsons Was Killed.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to the Tribune from the City of Mexico, gives further details of the accident in which James R. Parsons, United States consul general, lost his life last night. The dispatch says that he was driving with Mrs. Parsons and their son, was struck by an electric car. Mrs. Parsons was slightly hurt and her son was killed. The accident happened while the family were going to the Central station to bid farewell to the coachman hired to cross the street in front of the residence. The coachman tried to cross the street, but was struck by the electric car, crushing it against a trolley pole. Parsons' head struck the post, the whole body was taken to a police station where, according to police regulations, it still remains pending an order from a judge.

SEPARATION
AND STATE
AND STATE
THE CROWN

France Declares Her Emancipation From Rome.

STIRRING SCENES ATTEND THE PASSAGE OF THE BILL

"Long Live the Republic" Shout Enthusiastic Frenchmen as Epoch-Marking Measure Is Adopted.

Paris, Dec. 6.—The senate today after a long debate adopted the bill for the separation of church and state by a vote of 181 against 102. The vote was announced amid enthusiastic scenes and cries of "long live the republic" and "long live liberty."

Former Premier Combes participated in the debate contending that the measure assured neutrality of religion, moral liberation and social pacification.

This is the final parliamentary stage of the bill, which will be promulgated in the official journal tomorrow, when it will become effective immediately. The council of state will devote three months to the framing of the administrative details of the new regime.

The action of the Vatican regarding the law has not yet been definitely announced. The French clergy, while opposing the measure appear to be disposed to conform to the new system.

The public worship budget of 1906 will be reduced from $4,400,000 to nearly $4,000,000, consequent on the gradual diminution of the salaries paid by the state to the clergy.

The fundamental principles of the bill ensure entire liberty of conscience respecting religion, with restrictions concerning the exercise of religion, which are intended to preserve public order.

In the future the state will be entirely free from connection with all religious sects.

AFTER THE COLLECTORSHIP.

Garrett and Sharpe Go to Washington, Seeking Customs Job.

El Paso, Dec. 6.—The fight for the collectorship at this port is now on in earnest. Representative A. L. Sharpe, who has the backing of the local republican organization for the position, left for Washington Saturday night accompanied by J. A. Smith, to present his claims to the powers that be.

Collector Garrett also left for Washington Sunday night. He asserted before he left that he felt no uneasiness about being reappointed, but concluded to go to Washington to watch his opponent.

The local republicans are making a strong effort to prevent the reappointment of Garrett.

How Saboteur Kept Was "Rolled."

Seattle, Dec. 6.—Thomas Norton of Sacramento, wise to the ways of the world, through long service as a look-alike, kept a close watch on a man, dropped $10,000 here on a fake fight and then, after having had time enough to go home and get another roll, came back looking for more of the same game. But in the meantime the sharps that beat him had left town and Norton told his story to an unsympathetic police force.

The deal for Norton's trip was "traded" up in Sacramento. He was known there as a tight authority and a follower of the cock pit and dogs. He was led to believe that a sure thing, a man named Campbell whom he would back, had nothing else to do but lead a couple of times and win.

He was induced to come to Seattle, and a private fight was arranged on a large midway between Seattle and Tacoma. Norton's man lost in the third round, claiming a foul. Norton was not to return but when he went south to get more money. When he returned he found the sharps had fled.

A Cheerful Embezzler.

Caruthersville, Mo., Dec. 6.—When G. M. Gwin, cashier of the Bank of Hayti, Mo., walked off with over $18,000 funds of the institution last Tuesday he met the president of the bank at the railway station and engaged him in cheerful conversation on local affairs. Gwin set the time lock of the safe for seventy-two hours, and quietly he had two days' start before the directors could get into the vault.

In the safe he left two letters, one to President Dorris, saying the reason he left was personal, not for the sun, and the other for J. E. Franklin, the heaviest stockholder, explaining that he took the funds because Franklin had sharply criticized his methods of conducting the bank a short time before.

GOOD NEWS HEARD FROM PEARY EXPEDITION

Captain of British Bark Sighted Vessel.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 6.—Favorable news of Commander Peary's latest expedition in search of the north pole was brought to this city today by Captain Friable of the British bark Greenland, from the west coast of Greenland. The captain stated that it was the intention of Peary to put into North Star bay, with the expedition team ship Roosevelt, if the conditions were not favorable to going farther north.

Nationalists Howl Down Moderates in Convention.

WILL FOLLOW JOHN REDMOND TO THE DEATH FOR HOME RULE

O'Brien Outlawed in Stormy Gathering Which Yells for Freedom of Erin.

Dublin, Dec. 6.—The Nationalist convention passed resolutions denouncing the government of Ireland, outlawing William O'Brien and his supporters unless they signed the party pledges, expressing disbelief in the promises of the liberals, and pledging absolute support to John Redmond as leader of the Irish parliamentary leader. The moderates were howled down and their speakers forced to leave the platform.

The convention also passed a resolution condemning the proposed conference of the supporters of Lord Dunsany, Thomas W. Russell, Timothy M. Healy and John Dillon, on the ground that it would be interpreted as an abandonment of the claim for home rule.

The convention will continue tomorrow, but there is no evidence that the incoming liberal government can expect more support from the nationalists in the parliament than the unionists have received, unless Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman declares for home rule. The declarations of the leaders and the resolutions passed at today's session mean continued opposition to the government until absolute home rule has been granted to Ireland.

PATRICK AGAIN SENTENCED TO THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

Application for Writ of Error Acts as Stay of Execution.

New York, Dec. 6.—After making a final personal plea to the court in his own behalf Albert T. Patrick, the lawyer convicted of the murder of William Marsh Rice, tonight was sentenced to die in the electric chair, in the week beginning January 22 next.

Sentence was pronounced by Justice Rogers in the criminal branch of the state supreme court. Notice at once was given that an appeal to the supreme court of the United States on a writ of error will be taken. The application for the writ, it is said, will act as a stay of execution. Patrick was taken back to Sing Sing tonight.

FRANCE CRITICISES PRESIDENT'S POSITION ON MONROE DOCTRINE

Temps Says Reference in Message is "Extraordinary."

Paris, Dec. 6.—The Temps in a leading article this evening discussing President Roosevelt's message to congress says:

"The Monroe doctrine is given extraordinary proportions."

"It is no longer confined to forbidding European intervention in the American hemisphere, but is also extended against the simple seizure of custom houses, which is the sole means of effective reprisal against defaulting nations. The president has chosen the moment when France may be obliged to adopt measures of the same kind against Venezuela."

The Journal Des Debats also commends the extension of the Monroe doctrine.

ROOT REORGANIZING STATE DEPARTMENT

Will Make a Clean Sweep of the Attaches Now Under Him.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Secretary Root has decided to make a clean sweep of the employees in the state department. Within one year the secretary will have a staff of assistants practically new. And this is not in disparagement of the present force, but because Mr. Root is running this department the same policy to which he held in the war department, and which, more than likely, made his administration of army affairs such a decided success—he wishes to be surrounded by his own people.

His first step on coming to Washington was to dispose with Loomis as first assistant secretary. Then followed the transfer of Colonel William H. Mitchell from the chief clerkship to the consul generalship at Calcutta and the appointment of Mr. Denby in his place.

A third step was the removal of Pendleton King as chief of the bureau of indexes and archives and his appointment to be consul at Aix la Chapelle, at a substantial increase in salary. No one has yet been announced as King's successor.

The resignation of A. H. Allen as chief of the library and rolls is directly in this line. The greatest success has been maintained regarding this resignation. No one has been appointed to fill his place.

Although this completes the list of resignations and transfers, it is felt at the department that others are to follow.

No News From Britons.

London, Dec. 6.—The foreign office has not heard from the British embassy at St. Petersburg since the 30th. The last communication relative to British subjects in Russia said that most of those still there were business men who proposed to remain.

High Prices in Cotton.

New York, Dec. 6.—Another set of high records were made in the cotton market today and cotton was very active. The sales for the day falling just a little short of the million bale mark, according to estimates. The market opened steady at a decline of 5 points and closed steady at a net revenue of 6 to 9 points.

VETERAN TREASURER OF SANTA FE IS IN FAILING HEALTH

Edward Wilder Will Be Relieved of Part of Work.

WELLMAN AND SCOTT ARE APPOINTED HIS ASSISTANTS

Venerable Keeper of the Purse Strings Will Devote Time to Regaining His Health.

For the purpose of relieving Edward Wilder, secretary and treasurer of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company, from the necessity and responsibility of attending to the detail work of his office, the executive committee of the company has appointed Augustus G. Wellman as assistant treasurer of the company and J. Fred Scott as assistant secretary. These appointments were made at a meeting of the executive committee which was held in New York on November 18, and the regular circulars announcing them have not yet been issued, but will be within the next few days when the appointments will become effective and Mr. Wellman and Mr. Scott will enter on their new responsibilities.

Continued ill health on the part of Mr. Wilder is responsible for these appointments. His condition has been such for some months that he has been unable to visit his office except at rare intervals, and of late he has not been able to leave his home at all, although his present condition is not at all dangerous. He is holding his own and is able to be up and about the house.

During his long illness, however, Mr. Wilder has managed to keep in touch with the affairs at the office and has attended to much of the work demanding his personal supervision, and there is a lot of this at his home. But the executive committee has determined that he shall be relieved of as much of this work as possible, so that he will have little or no business affairs to worry over and can concentrate his attention on his health. In order that he might have personal representatives at the office, who could act for him with the necessary authority in emergencies, and in fact at all times in everything that pertains to the work of the office, the executive committee deemed it wise to appoint Mr. Wellman and Mr. Scott as assistant treasurer and assistant secretary.

In their new positions Mr. Wellman will look after the financial affairs of the office and Mr. Scott will devote his attention to those things which come up in the secretarial line. As a matter of fact these appointments will mean no radical change in the workings of the office, for since Mr. Wilder's illness Mr. Wellman and Mr. Scott have been attending to the affairs in the office, but it has been necessary for Mr. Wilder to pass on their acts. Now they will have authority to dispose of all routine matters which come before them, and while Mr. Wilder will continue still to direct the business of the office in a general supervisory way, he will be relieved of much responsibility and care. Mr. Wellman has been in the secretary and treasurer's office since 1882. For a year prior to that he was assistant to Thomas Nickerson, who was then president of the company and had his office in Boston. Mr. Wellman is a native of Boston, but has made his home in Topeka since coming there in 1882. He has served in almost every position in the secretary and treasurer's office and for a number of years and up to the present time he has held the responsible position of head bookkeeper.

Mr. Smith is an employee of the Santa Fe of twenty-seven years' standing. All of this time he has spent in the secretary and treasurer's office, starting in there in 1878. There is hardly a position in the office which he has not filled with credit, and for the last fourteen years he has been connected with the work in the office incident to the duties of secretary. Mr. Scott was born in Philadelphia and before coming to Topeka to work for the Santa Fe, he spent some time there in the mercantile business.

FLOOD CONDITIONS ARE ALLEVIATED

Phoenix is again on the map. After being out of commission for a number of days on account of high water, the Maricopa & Phoenix railroad is again in service, the damaged portions of the line having been repaired.

Regular train service has been resumed, and travelers are able to go in and out from Phoenix without interruption.

The Gila Valley, Globe & Northern railroad, which has been out of condition for more than a week, is again operating trains. El Paso freight officials, who had been notified to receive no freight for the Gila valley line, have been informed that traffic has been resumed.

ROCK ISLAND TO REBUILD ITS ENTIRE SYSTEM

Reports are to the effect that the management of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific has decided to practically rebuild the entire system, with a view to securing minimum grades on every division. The work has been entrusted to J. B. Berry, the new chief engineer for the road.

President Winchell hopes to be able to raise the average train haul to 350 tons per train, and if this is done it will result in a saving of several million of dollars annually in operating expenses. Since the advent of the Winchell regime on the Rock Island the average train load has increased from 135 to 225 tons. The averages for the last five years have been: 1901, 135 tons; 1902, 137 tons; 1903, 139 tons; 1904, 225 tons; 1905, 228 tons. The chief engineer will take three-tenths of 1 per cent standard grade and will approach it as nearly as possible on every division.

The Key That Unlocks the Door to Long Life

The men of the eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by all druggists.

An Inclusive Christmas Invitation!

Whether to Admire, to Buy, to Examine or Compare—the Invitation Includes Everybody.

THE TIME UNTIL CHRISTMAS DAY is very short and we would impress you that early looking makes easy choosing. From every manufacturing center on earth we have secured their best—of fabrics, neckwear, handkerchiefs, lace, ribbons, women's outer garments, hosiery, lingerie, books, art needlework, toilet articles, stationery, and what not. We have insisted upon the finest qualities, the most artistic designs, the most refined and harmonious colorings; in short, the things that are the most pleasing to the sense—not in mean assortments but in quantities that are amazing. These are reasons enough why we should invite you and why you should come. It is this practical and scientific consideration of the public's wishes and needs that not only places the Economist store high on a plane by itself, but makes it of the highest usefulness to the people. The thrives of Christmas shoppers that are even already seeking gifts and gift ideas enable us to demonstrate to the full our willingness to be useful in putting before you the choicest, in advising, in giving you any information as to what are appropriate and new for Christmas gifts. In all the thousand and one ways that a great store like this can aid you, our best is at your command. Satisfy yourself of our earnestness—NOW IS THE TIME.

Millinery Department Clearance

Fine Trimmed Hats—An Opportune Sale

An immense range of styles was necessitated in our displays of High Grade Millinery to supply the demand of the past few weeks. Our desire to close out the remainder of our imported models resulted in interesting price reductions of these splendid Hats. This opportunity will appeal especially to late choosers. The prices that will rule this time of the year are not to be missed. And our regular offer—in most instances less than one-half, after one-third and one-quarter actual value.

Hats that were $20.00, now $12.50; Hats worth up to $15.00, now $9.00; Hats that were $12.50, now $7.50, and about 25 Hats worth up to $7.50 reduced to $5.95.

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs at PricesWorth Profiting By.....

In gauging Economist Handkerchief offerings by others, remember that ours are always on a pure linen basis; and that even then, by virtue of our large distribution, our prices are lower than those based on the part-cotton handkerchiefs, cunningly merchandised, that are so generally sold. Of course (cotton) has to be used for embroidery; and most of the lace used on handkerchiefs is cotton lace; but the cloth of the handkerchiefs we sell is pure linen—unless it's part or all silk, or we state cotton. That statement applies not only to the following offerings, but to our entire stock. (And our regular prices, by the way, on staple lines of handkerchiefs, are low enough to merit an interesting story by themselves.)

Women's Laundered Handkerchiefs, hemstitched, embroidered Irish linen,20c each; 3 for 50c Hemstitched or Scalloped Hand-Embroidered Irish linen, at 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Lace Edged, with linen center, at25c; 3 for 50c, 25c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Hemstitched, Hand-Embroidered Irish linen; put up in six assorted patterns in a fancy box, at$1.50 and $2.00 Plain Hemstitched, all yalsts hem, Irish linen, at5c, 10c, 15c, 2 for 25c, 3 for 50c, 25c, 35c Plaids, Checks and Stripes, hemstitched, Irish linen at20c, 3 for 50c, 35c, and 3 for $1.00 Convent Embroidered Initial Linen Handkerchiefs at12½c, 15c and 20c A big assortment of Ladies Linen Handkerchiefs, with several styles of initials, from small script to the large block or Old English letter, at various prices upwards from$1.50 and $2.00 Our stocks are now complete with the best, latest and newest of Handkerchiefs of all kinds.

THE CHRISTMAS STORE IS READY AS NEVER BEFORE—READY WITH THE BIGGEST, BEST SELECTED STOCK OF HOLIDAY GOODS IN THE TERRITORY, AND ALL PRICED AT FIGURES IMPOSSIBLE OF DUPLICATION ANYWHERE.

ALBUQUERQUE ————— NEW MEXICO

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1905.

The Santa Fe Central

THE comprehensive statement given by Mr. Torrance, in yesterday's Morning Journal concerning the condition and prospects of the Santa Fe Central Railway company, is highly encouraging to the people of Albuquerque. If Mr. Torrance states the case correctly he has a million and a half of his own money invested in the enterprise, and it is therefore fair to assume that he knows whereof he speaks. He evidently understands existing conditions in this part of the southwest, and does not overestimate the importance to his company of the early completion of that portion of the line down Tijeras canyon which will give the road direct connection with Albuquerque. He sees that the road needs this connection, as a business proposition, and on the part of the people of Albuquerque we are fully warranted in saying that we are equally desirous of getting the road. We need it in our business. Our people fully appreciate the importance to them of that line, and personal interest, if no better motive, would cause them to wish it the highest measure of success—and a proper regard for the truth compels us to admit that the public in general will not take the trouble to go behind the returns to see where the money comes from.

It is true, and not at all strange, that developments in the matter of the Pittsburg bank wreck, as given to the public from time to time by the Associated Press as well as the local papers of Pittsburg, have served to shake the faith of many of our people in the completion of the line under its present management, and excite a reasonable fear that the work might be hung up indefinitely, hence if the apparently straightforward statement of the case given to the public by Mr. Torrance shall prove to be correct, as we hope it may, it will inspire new confidence in the enterprise, and cause the people of Albuquerque to regard it in a much more hopeful light.

Mr. Hopewell, the general manager of the line, assures us, without going into details, that the necessary arrangements have been made for the completion of the road to Albuquerque, and since Mr. Hopewell enjoys the confidence and respect of all our people this announcement from him will do much to restore public confidence in the successful outcome of the enterprise.

The Scenic Road

THE territorial highway commonly known as "the Scenic Road," is now complete from Santa Fe to Las Vegas, and the section next in order is that from Santa Fe to Albuquerque, the object being the ultimate construction of a first class wagon highway from the northern to the southern limit of the territory. The people of Albuquerque are more especially interested in the section from this city to Santa Fe than in any other part of the road, though of almost equal importance to us is the portion of the road leading to the south, and which, as we understand it, is to follow the Rio Grande valley. This part, we believe, is to come next, after the section to Santa Fe shall be completed.

The building of this road is a matter of more than a little importance to our people, and its location, especially through the mountains, is a work that ought to receive attention at our hands. This is an affair that the Commercial club might very properly take in hand, and we have no doubt that the territorial officials having the business in charge would cheerfully make any reasonable deviations in the line that the people through their representatives might request.

THE newly appointed governor of New Mexico stands for decency. The Santa Fe New Mexican stands for anything else. But the old paper has already begun to ply the new governor with laffy about what a nice fellow he is, and all that.

"Will you walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly," and "I'd like to see any d— administration change quicker'n I can," said the North Carolina postmaster."

THE editor of the Citizen thanks the editor of the Optic for the information that he, the Optic man, has been in New Mexico for fifty years. In our case, the sensation created by that information was one of surprise rather than of thankfulness, since the virile and robust manner in which the Optic editor thrashes around had led us to think that he had been here at least a hundred years.

A Big Job

COMMENTING upon the fact that Coach Reid, of Harvard, was summoned to the White House to talk over the situation, the Springfield Republican says: Mr. Roosevelt has undertaken a great task, if he proposes to solve the football question; it might be said that digging the Panama canal is a picnic in comparison with it. Still, he has put his hand to the plow, so to speak, in opening the White House to the original football conference early in the season. One regrets to observe that we have had an old-fashioned season of the game, culminating in a mighty roar of protest against its inhumanities, notwithstanding that in early October the president of the United States appealed to his young football friends throughout the land for a clean, irreproachable, above-criticism kind of sport, such as any fond father would love to see his son engage in. The season, in short, has not been altogether a happy one, in view of the president's intervention in the game which he loves so well and which he earnestly desires to have preserved for the sake of its many qualities. What his success will be hereafter no one would dare to say, yet this much is certain—if Mr. Roosevelt can put football beyond criticism, without abandoning it to its enemies, he will score one of the most illustrious triumphs of an illustrious administration.

CONGRESSMAN STEPHENS, of Texas, wants to find out something about the forest reserve scrip that is being located extensively on the choice lands of the Pecos valley. The congressman seems to think somebody has struck a soft thing in the lieu land business—and there are others who incline to the same opinion. Let Mr. Stephens probe the matter to the bottom.

THE perspicacious editor of the Las Vegas Optic has discovered by a careful reading of the president's message, that Mr. Roosevelt "inclines" toward joint statehood. Well, it really does look that way. The most reliable historian of the deluge informs us that when the water had risen above the hills—top an old fellow, standing on the highest peak, with his chin just above water, solemnly announced that "it looks like rain!" The Las Vegas pronouncement shows how history can repeat itself when the right man gets hold of it.

That my child, is the Twilight Squeak.
Oh, what a Funny name. Why do they call it the Twilight Squeak?
My child, I am surprised at your Stupidity. It is called the Twilight Squeak because it squeaks at Twilight.
What makes the Twilight Squeak act so Queer-ly?
It is having an Epi-lep-tic Fit.
What is an Epi-lep-tic Fit, mother?
An Epi-lep-tic Fit is a Combination of a Far-o-kyam and a Convulsion.
What makes the Squeak have Epi-lep-tic Fits?
Be-cause it is Very Mad.
But what makes the Squeak so mad?

Albuquerque's "Good Friend," the Almanac.
When it comes to the saloon, gambling and social evil questions in the Duke city, it must be admitted that the politicians of that town and the Albuquerque Yellow Journal are quite willing to leave bad enough alone.—The Almanac.

In a trial down in Tucson the other day, a "colored gentleman" undertook to show the board of supervisors, as evidence, how the game of craps is played. They had to adjourn the trial.

The funny old fossil at Santa Fe is now falling all over himself to soft-soap the new governor. But it is said the new governor is dead weight.

Now John Sharp Williams has introduced a bill in aid of prohibition. The next thing Henry Watterson will mount the temperance platform.

It is rather suspicious on the face of it that the Citizen has no idea of a special dispatch except a "fake concocted in the office."

The San Juan County Index says Mr. Hagerman has no coterie of "political parasites" attached to him. What a refreshing change.

Senators Burton and Mitchell have received a quiet tip from the august body to which they belong to "just keep away."

It is really funny to see the Evening Citizen throwing mud at its own news service.

It is too bad the way those poor defenseless insurance companies are robbed.

The Democrats are rapidly earning the sobriquet of the "Me Too Party."

Mr. McNary's views on statehood were just a little inopportune.

The Car is still "Inflexibly determined."

Passengers Prefer Steel Cars.

In the New York subway there is one steel car on every train, and it is a curious fact that this one car is packed, while the others have many vacant seats. The passengers realize that there is less danger of injury in the former than in the latter style. Thousands of people also realize the danger in allowing the system to become weak and rundown and the blood impure, and consequently "always keep a bottle of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters handy. It is excellent as a strength builder and tonic, and prevents disease from obtaining a foothold. Get a bottle without any further delay and you'll be thankful for taking the hint. It always cures indigestion, liver troubles, headache, bloating, heartburn, dyspepsia, indigestion, costiveness, chills, colds, or malaria. For sale by druggists and dealers everywhere.

SEALSHIPT OYSTERS

PURE FOOD

The only absolutely fresh, wholesome, appetizing oyster ever sold in bulk. They are practically shell oysters as they are merely slipped from their own shells into a porcelain-lined case which is sealed, thus forming a shell on a large scale. All the piquant "half-shell" flavor, the delicate tang given by the salt water, the smooth firmness, the nourishing quality, the natural color, are fully retained. No preservatives are ever used. THE ENTERPRISING BELL HOP GOT TO THE CASH DRAWER

TRIES TO SHORT-CHANGE POLICE AFTER CONFESSING TO THEFT

How Louis Mortimer's Burning Desire for a Bank Account Led Him Into the Toils.

Louis Mortimer, who has held the position of night bellboy at the Alvarado for sometime past, now languishes in the city jail with a charge of petty thievery against him.

Mortimer was arrested by Chief of Police McMillin yesterday and though he at first stoutly protested his innocence, he was confronted with the proof and confessed to a number of misdeeds. He is suspected of having stolen a grip containing wearing apparel and other valuables, confessed to robbing the cash drawer at the hotel of $17.30, stole a pipe from a guest and has done other small "jobs."

Mortimer, who is but 17 years of age, had a longing desire for a bank account, so he amassed a neat sum from tips and added to it each day by getting to the cash drawer in the early morning when the night clerk was busy with other matters. He was cautious and did not take to exceed four dollars at a time. The clerk pored over the books trying to locate where he was short, but after a time "got wise," took to watching the cash drawer, and caught the thief. Mortimer, when he confessed, went to the bank and drew enough money to make up his shortage. When he was counting the money out to the chief, he tried to "short change" him, but the chief refused to stand for his work, and got the full amount. He has not made good on his other thievery and is being held in the hope that he will produce the stolen goods. He is the son of a widow, and the authorities are willing not to prosecute him if he will produce the stolen goods.

The fourteen-year-old thief is one of the most astounding subjects the local police have had to deal with for a long time. He was put through a sweating process of several hours before he would admit his guilt and lied as cheerfully and calmly, one day after another, as if he were reciting a Sunday school lesson. He at first claimed that he had only stolen fifty cents. Later he raised it to a dollar and it was only after several hours of cross-questioning that he finally admitted stealing all the stuff that is missing. He appears to be extremely indifferent about his misdeeds and apparently has stolen for pure love of the sport. His swag is one of the most curious collections ever seen. It includes a small razor, a pocket thermometer and odds and ends enough to start a curiosity shop.

NEW GAS PLANT TEST PROVES ENTIRELY SUCCESSFUL

$22,000 APPARATUS NOW SUPPLYING LOCAL CONSUMERS

The new gas plant of the Albuquerque Gas and Electric Light and Power company was given a test last night under the supervision of two Denver experts, and found to work satisfactorily.

The men in charge of the test were M. E. Malone, superintendent of the Denver Gas and Electric company and Edward P. Gartland, an expert from St. Louis. The fires in the new plant have been burning for the past five or six days preparatory to the test of the big tank and now that the latter is found to be satisfactory the plant is in full blast and will afford an unlimited supply for Albuquerque consumers. The plant is a modern and up to date one in every particular and as it now stands represents a cost of about $22,000. When further improvements are completed by next spring the plant will cost $35,000 or $40,000, and will be one of the largest and most complete in the southwest.

The plant is built for an ultimate capacity of three hundred thousand feet of gas. At present its capacity is 140,000, another 100,000 foot holder being contemplated, to be erected in the near future. The tank now used at the new establishment is the regulation steel tank in a concrete reservoir. The new holder upon which work will soon commence will be all steel and all on top of the ground, one tank sliding in the other in the manner of a telescope.

The buildings just completed are all of solid stone and include a big retort house, purifying house and meter room.

With the new apparatus the company expects to satisfy the demands of Albuquerque consumers for a long time to come and will furnish an even and uniform pressure. The gas is strictly all coal gas.

Messrs. Malone and Gartland, who have been superintending the installation of the outfit, left last night for Denver after pronouncing the final test a complete success. This test is rather a delicate matter as an explosion is always more or less likely to occur.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER NEW MEXICO MINES

W. P. Bardshar, brother of Internal Revenue Collector H. P. Bardshar, of Santa Fe, who has spent a number of years in Arizona and elsewhere in the mining business, is now a resident of Albuquerque.

Mr. Bardshar and others own a large number of mining properties down in Socorro county. They own an immense ledge of ore which will run from 10 to 30 per cent native copper, which also shows sulphides, native silver and uranium, and runs over a half-ounce in gold to the ton. Mr. Bardshar has a deal under way for opening up the property and when the new company takes hold, it will put an up-to-date plant and set a big force of men at work.

"New Mexico has better mining fields than any state or territory of its size in the United States," said Mr. Bardshar yesterday. "The property in which I am interested is in Socorro county and I believe is on the same ledge as the one opened near Magdalena by the Kelly and Graphic people. We have done enough prospecting to prove that it is one of the biggest mineral deposits in the country and when I went to Denver with samples, the mining men of Colorado were greatly surprised."

There is plenty of coal a few miles from the property and I cannot for the life of me see why the mining investor is not paying more attention to New Mexico. I have been with the United Verde company of Arizona and I will venture to say that these are as good property in this territory as is owned by that company. If Arizona is laboring under the delusion that all of the good copper property is located down in that territory, all I have to say is that New Mexico has not been investigated."

The "Six O'clock Club."

A social organization known as the "Six O'clock Club," was organized last night under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Paul of the Lead avenue Methodist church. This organization will hold monthly meetings at which supper will be served and an interesting literary program given. Any man may join the club at any time upon payment of a fee of twenty-five cents which pays for his share in the monthly supper. The object of the organization is to afford an occasion for social intercourse to the members. Addresses on timely topics of general interest will be given at each meeting.

WORKMEN BUSY ON GALLUP-CLIFTON POWER LINE

Wallace Hesselde, the well-known contractor and builder, returned yesterday morning from Zuni pueblo and the Black Rock Indian agency, where he is completing a series of buildings for the Indian school which is to be established at the latter place.

Mr. Hesselde reports that work is progressing nicely on the new buildings and that they will be completed in a very short time.

He says that an electric power line has been surveyed from Gallup, N. M., where a plant is located, to Clifton and Morenci, Ariz., a distance of some 200 miles, that the preliminary survey has been approved and that the line-men are busy on the line. The line and power plant is being built by a company of Gallup capitalists and mining men of Clifton and Morenci.

Sub-stations will be put in at various points and the line will furnish power for the mining machinery of these two camps and also for commercial and lighting purposes. Gallup was selected as the location for the power plant on account of the many coal mines at that point.

CHICKEN THIEF MAKES BIG HAUL FROM COOP IN HIGHLANDS

The chicken house of Walter R. White, who lives on Railroad avenue, opposite the University, was entered by some person or persons unknown Tuesday night and several large and mostly hens, who have been busily engaged in the production of eggs, were removed. Their present whereabouts is unknown and their owner is mourning because they were first class poultry. Mr. White was awakened by a loud squawking in the chicken house and made a quick sprint for the scene of the trouble, gun in hand. He arrived on the scene, however, just too late, as the thief had fled with his booty. Mr. White, however, has surrounded the coop with an armed guard and any attempt at future depredations will probably result fatally.

HAS END OF THUMB CUT MORE BAGGAGE SMASHERS OFF IN SHAPER IN PLANING MILL NEEDED TO HANDLE LOCAL BUSINESS

J. W. Love, of the firm of Hull & Love, proprietors of the Albuquerque Planing mill, suffered a painful accident while at work in the mill yesterday. His left hand became caught in the shaper and the whole of the thumb was neatly cut off in a twinkling. A physician was hastily summoned and dressed the wound, which was extremely painful and will incapacitate the victim for work for some time to come.

OTT CLAIMS LOCAL OFFICER HELPED HIDE THE SWAG

San Francisco Crook's Astounding Charge.

YOUNG DEGENERATE BUSY CONTRADICTING HIMSELF

Man Who Stole $1,100 From Room-mate Says He Hid It in an Albuquerque Stable.

John H. Ott, the young man who was arrested here for grand larceny on telegrams from the San Francisco police, is evidently an all-around crooked proposition. According to the San Francisco papers, Ott has accused the Albuquerque police of aiding and abetting him in concealing the $1,100 which he is charged with stealing from a room mate named Johnson in the coast city.

It will be remembered that Ott was arrested and held here nine days awaiting the arrival of a San Francisco officer, and that he was finally taken west a few days ago by Detective Freel.

Upon his arrival in San Francisco, when Ott was asked about the disposition he had made of the stolen money, he intimated that Policeman Jordan of this city had aided him in hiding the swag, which he asserted he had buried "under Jordan's stable."

Policeman Jordan was astounded and somewhat wroth when a clipping to this effect from the San Francisco Call was shown to him by the Morning Journal reporter last night.

Ott's Astonishing Allegation. The article in the Call is as follows: "The police believe that John H. Ott, who was brought back from Albuquerque yesterday by Detective Freel, has cashed the greater portion of the $1,100 he stole from Frank Johnson in the city where he was captured."

On the return trip he hinted to Freel that Special Policeman Jordan, who captured him helped to conceal the money.

Ott told Freel that he had buried the money in Jordan's stable. He was permitted by his captor to go into the stable, and while there, he claimed, he "planted" the loot. The local police are confident that he had the money with him when he was caught in Albuquerque.

Freel had great difficulty in getting the prisoner. Jordan at first positively refused to surrender him until the reward of $25 was paid. After much bickering Freel finally wired to Chief Dinan for the money. The peculiar fact that Ott had only $180 when arrested roused Freel's suspicions. He remarked upon it to Jordan. The special finally let Freel take the prisoner without paying the reward.

Ott contradicted himself several times after reaching this city. Chief Dinan is somewhat in doubt as to whether his accusation against Jordan is true. He will wire Albuquerque and have the matter sifted to the bottom.

Ott, who is a bricklayer, robbed Frank Johnson, a brother in the craft, of $1,100 in this city several weeks ago. The chief of police received a letter from his wife in the east last Friday asking him to locate her husband. She is ignorant of his flight. Most of the money taken by Ott was in bills.

Jordan is indignant. As was stated in the Morning Journal at the time, only $180 was found upon Ott's person by Chief of Police McMillin, after the prisoner had been stripped and thoroughly searched. Mr. Jordan was detailed to keep Ott under surveillance, and accordingly took charge of the young man for over a week, until the officer arrived for him.

"It is the most astounding piece of ingratitude I ever heard of," said Jordan last night. "Ott was taken from the limited train here by Night Marshal Kennedy and Policeman Wagner and three days afterward the city marshal instructed me to keep him under surveillance. The boy appeared to be rather delicate and as he said he couldn't eat in a restaurant, I took him to my own house and fed him and made him comfortable. He was rather inclined to think the boy was imposed upon, until one day he said to me: 'Supposing I was found guilty of stealing that money, what could they do to me?'"

"Oh, you might get ten years in the penitentiary," I replied.

"Supposing the money was never found, what then?" asked Ott.

"That's enough of that," I said to Ott. "If you want to make any confession, you'll have to go to the city marshal." And that was the last he said on the matter.

"I might say further," said Mr. Jordan, with a smile, "that I haven't a leg at a stable or a hen coop or even a dog house on my premises."

While Ott was here he refused to divulge to the police what became of the money. He was alleged to have stolen, and protected his utter ignorance of any such theft. He told a Morning Journal reporter upon the night of his arrival that he "didn't know a thing about it." He is evidently a young degenerate if he made the statements attributed to him by the San Francisco police, who claim to have him dead to rights on the larceny charge.

Received No Reward. The statement that we got a reward for Ott's capture from the San Francisco authorities is wrong," said Chief McMillin last night. "We never got a cent for his capture and Freel didn't even offer to pay the young man's board, after we had held him for nine days and kept a man guarding him. As it is customary to pay a reward in such cases I wired to find out if one was offered for Ott. When I got a negative answer Ott was immediately turned over to Freel."

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Our Holiday Goods are now on display and we invite your early attention. Any article selected will be laid aside for you upon payment of a deposit.

DIAMONDS.—We are leaders in fine diamonds, both in solitaire and clusters. We have finger rings, earrings, brooches, studs, lockets, etc. We bought our diamonds long before the recent advance and our prices are lower than you can buy similar goods for anywhere. Ask for our special guarantee on diamonds.

WATCHES.—Of every description—silver, gold-filled and solid gold. We have good reliable gold-filled watches from $7.50 up.

JEWELRY.—Suitable for old or young. Rings, brooches, earrings, bracelets, neck chains, lozenges, etc.

SILVERWARE.—Everything suitable for Christmas presents, as well as for the table. Knives and forks, carving sets, nut sets, cake baskets, fruit dishes, tea sets, chocolate sets, water jugs, toilet sets, manicure sets, military brushes sets, jewel boxes, handkerchief and glove boxes, shaving and smoking sets, etc., etc.

CUT GLASS and Hand-painted China.—Compare our prices on these goods with others.

REMEMBER.—Everything we sell is absolutely guaranteed.
We are not selling out or leaving town. We have been with you 22 years and our establishment is one of the institutions of Albuquerque. Drop in and look around. You will be welcome.

About Your Own Purchasing of Your Own.....

Suit or Overcoat

At this season of the game, when one of the most foremost thoughts of everybody's brain is the purchasing of things for others; wouldn't it be well to remember that charity begins at home.

A hint should be sufficient.

Are you wearing last year's clothes?

The newest in everything here.

Suits at $10 to $30.

Overcoats at $10 to $27.50.
