NOTES FOR THE CANAL

House Passes Appropriation With a Rush.

TILLMAN WOULD INVESTIGATE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

Pitchfork Senator Exploits Pungent Resolution in Fiery Speech.

Washington, Dec. 7.—An appropriation of $11,000,000 was voted today toward the construction of the Panama canal. The amount was a compromise between the $16,500,000 carried in the bill under consideration and an estimate of something over $6,000,000 recommended by Mr. Williams, democratic leader, to carry on the work until the middle of January. Mr. Hepburn, in charge of the bill, suggested that something over $11,000,000 would carry on the work until March.

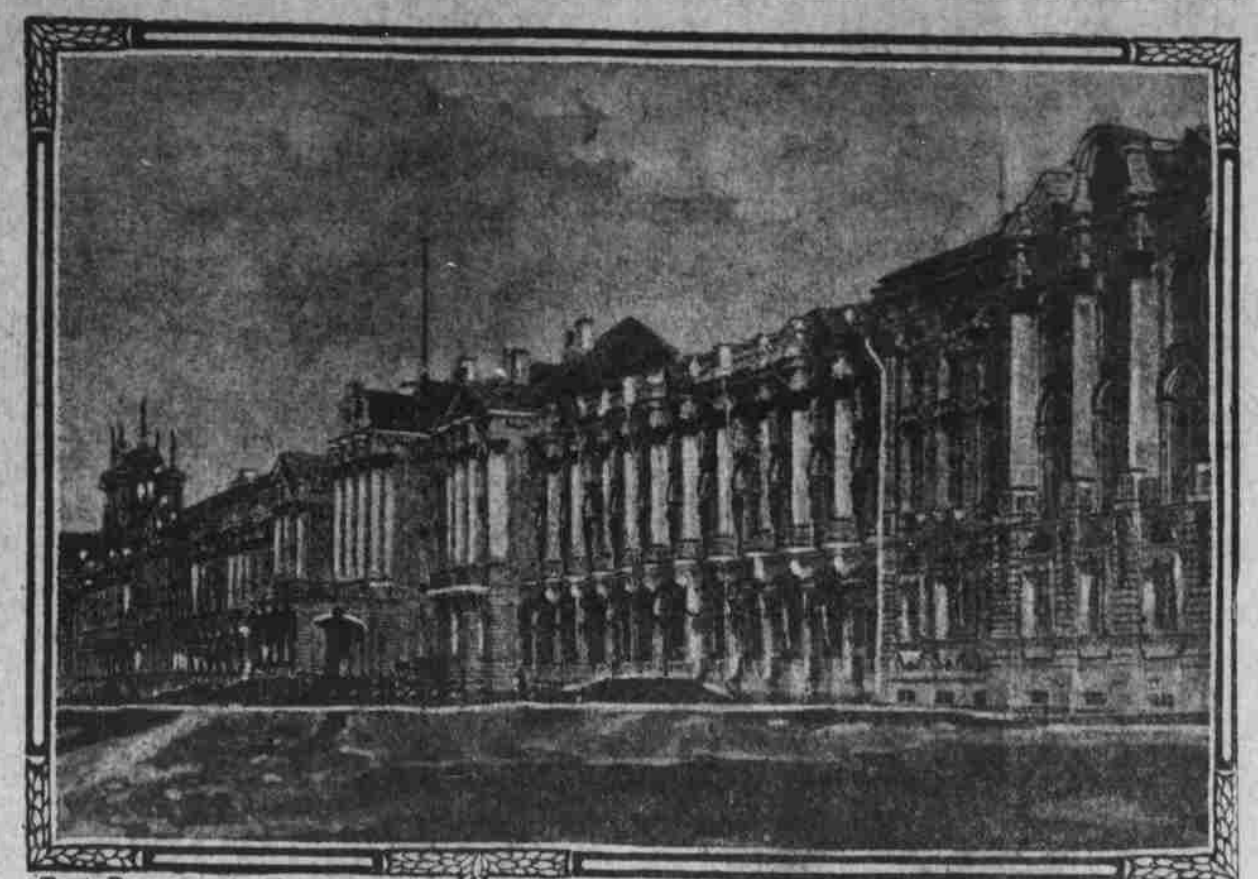

There was no intention manifest to delay the work, the only argument being that closer scrutiny might be had of the estimate. The bill was amended in accordance with suggestions by Mr. Mann, directing the president to require annual reports from canal construction officers, covering all details of the work; requiring such employees to give concise information as to money received and expended; and to that received by operation of the property of the Panama railroad. Otherwise the bill was not amended and it contained, besides the appropriation a provision recommending a tax disability against the proposed bonds to be issued for the construction of the canal, thus placing the bonds on a footing with other government bonds, as available for security for national bank circulation and to reimburse the treasury for the money appropriated in the bill.

The bond provision in the bill was a point of attack today. Mr. Williams offered several unsuccessful amendments, all seeking to abandon the policy of issuing bonds for the canal work on the ground that there is sufficient available funds in the treasury to meet all needed demands for the canal work. Mr. Overstreet did not succeed in amending the bill so that the $10,000,000 already expended in canal construction might be refunded to the treasury from the sale of the canal bonds. The bond policy of the two parties occupying the White House has been a subject of debate and resulted in fruitless political discussions.

Secretary Taft, accompanied by the auditor and purchasing agent of the canal commission, came to the capitol and remained available to give any information that might be asked for on the floor, but they were not called upon. With the bill out of the way, and no committee appointed to consider the bill, the several thousand measures that have been introduced since the session began, the house adjourned until tomorrow.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS
OCCUPY TIME OF SENATE
Washington, Dec. 7.—The subject of campaign contributions by insurance companies occupied the major portion of the session of the senate today. It came up with Mr. Tillman's resolution calling for an investigation of national banks aid in politics, and was exploited by the South Carolina senator in a speech of some length. The address dealt with the president's recommendations for the punishment of bribery in elections; with Senator Platt's testimony before the New York investigating committee, and with various other pertinent matters. It was couched in characteristic language and attracted much attention. The resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to report whether the reports of the national examiners show that the banks have made campaign contributions in recent years was adopted at the close of Mr. Tillman's remarks. A large number of bills were introduced, among them being a joint statehood bill.

TOLSTOI SAYS THERE IS NO REAL DANGER

Russia Can Never Have a French Revolution.

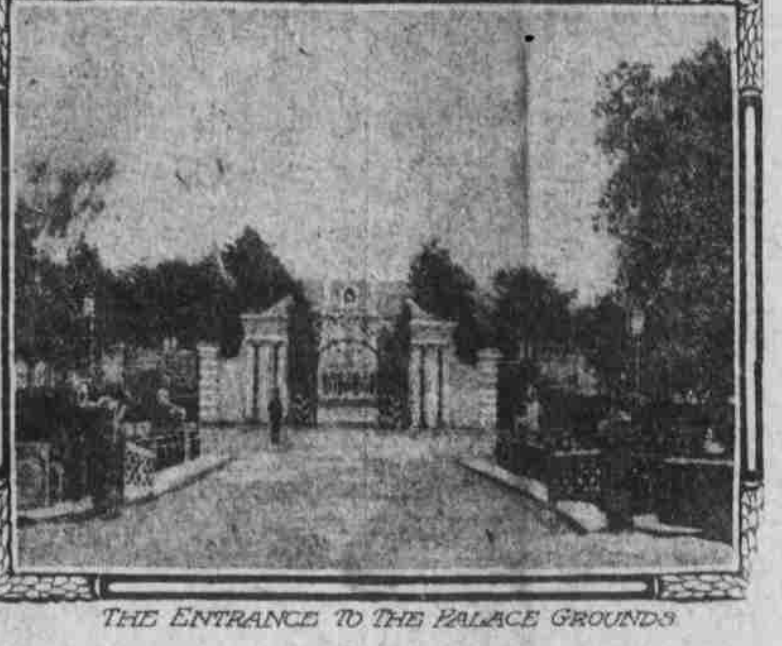

SAYS PEASANTS ARE THE FINAL DECISIVE FACTOR

New York, Dec. 7.—The Herald's European edition publishes the following from its Berlin correspondent: "The correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt has just obtained the following statement from Count Tolstoy regarding the situation: "I do not regard the situation as dangerous. A revolution such as the French one can never happen in Russia. Such proceedings do not correspond to the character of the Russian nation. I do not consider the peasant risings so serious as reported. The peasants have become more venturesome, but when the Cossacks appear they will desert. There is only a small party of revolutionary agitators who desire disorder. "Russia possesses eighty to ninety per cent. agrarian population, and therefore the workers in a few large towns do not come into consideration, but the peasants are the decisive factor. I am not in accord with the government and can only say that up to this time the present government has been upheld by force, and in the future it must rely on benevolence and love."

GERMAN SQUADRON MAY RESCUE THE CZAR
St. Petersburg, (undated), via Eyd-Kuhnen, East Prussia, Dec. 7.—It is reported from Cronstadt that a German squadron has been sighted in the Baltic sea near the Russian coast. Rumor attributes the appearance of the squadron as preparatory to the flight of the Russian imperial family.

Sakharoff's Terrible Atrocities.
St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—The news of the assassination of General Sakharoff, former minister of war, who was shot by a woman in the governor's palace at Saratoff December 5, had been passed by the most horrible stories of the manner in which Sakharoff had been repressing agrarian disorders. He corralled the peasants with Cossacks and then had them beaten with whips. When the woman who shot Sakharoff was arrested, she declared she executed the decree of the terrorist section of the social revolutionists. She has not yet been identified. The following is the description of Sakharoff's arrival at Hovonschina, one of the villages of the province of Saratoff. "He came with Cossacks and artillery. The peasants were surrounded by Cossacks and Sakharoff addressed them, demanding that they surrender their leaders. The village elder replied but gave the general no information. The elder was immediately beaten until he lost consciousness. Sakharoff then retired to his room, leaving the peasants at the mercy of the Cossacks, most of whom were drunk, and they began torturing the peasants, pulling out their hair and beating and even tearing pieces of flesh from their faces. Thirty-three peasants were thus maltreated."

Telegraphers Still Out.
Moscow, Dec. 7.—The elaborate measures taken by the police and military for protection of men who are willing to return to work have failed to induce any striking telegraphers to resume their employment. A meeting of 2,000 strikers today unanimously pronounced against yielding. The Finnish delegation declared that all telegraphers of Finland were ready to enter the union and support the strike.

BANK ROBBER SUSPECTED OF SWINDLER FLEECD SANTA FE HOTEL MAN OUT OF $700

Special to the Morning Journal.
Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 7.—W. O. Ptery, who passed worthless checks to the extent of $500 in this city last September, and who posed as a personal friend of President Roosevelt, is being held here to the extent of $500 in payment of balance due, afterwards stopping payment on the $100 check as he said he thought the $500 ought to satisfy the bill. Ptery is a carefully guarded prisoner at the county jail. If no news comes from Colorado, he will be taken back to the Indian territory, where he will stand trial for bank robbery. The officers are of the opinion that the story told yesterday to the effect that he had money in the bank at Santa Fe and that he only took what belonged to him, is a baseless pure and simple. The authorities are investigating the murder in Colorado, which he speaks, and advises are expected in a day or two as to where and when the crime was committed. WILL FINISH RIVEN CUT-OFF IN ONE YEAR MORE
Will Reduce Chicago-Los Angeles Run to 34 Hours.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 7.—Work on the big Helen cut-off on the Santa Fe line in New Mexico is progressing rapidly and it was stated at Santa Fe headquarters today that construction work will be completed about January 1, 1907. It will be several months later, however, before limited trains will be operated over the new route through New Mexico. Eventually this cut-off will reduce the running time between Los Angeles and Chicago to about fifty-seven hours. It is stated that 2,000 men and half as many teams are at work in Abso pass, New Mexico, where the work of overcoming the engineering problems has been going on for the past two years. It is estimated that the shortening of the Santa Fe by way of the Helen cut-off when completed will have cost $10,000,000. The operation of limited trains over the new line will cut out some of the most important points on the present route. The distance will be reduced to ninety miles and the highest mountain range on the Santa Fe line will be avoided as well as the stretch of road which has caused the Santa Fe much trouble and delay the past few years from washouts.

DISCUSSED THE KAISER.
Young Ladies Expelled From Germany for Lew Majesté.

London, Dec. 7.—According to the Berlin correspondent of the Morning Leader, two young American ladies have received an expulsion order, requiring them to cross the Prussian frontier in twenty-four hours. Their crime is less majestic. They committed the heinous offense of speaking disrespectfully of the Kaiser in a train. They were overheard by a government official conversant with the English language with the above result.

TEN KILLED JEROME IS THE GOVERNOR IN HEAD ON COLLISION NOW FACING CALLS CHARGES

Frightful Accident on Union Pacific in Wyoming.

FIVE BODIES BURNED BEYOND RECOGNITION

Confused Orders Cause Overland Limited to Hit Freight—Nineteen Badly Hurt.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 7.—Ten persons were killed and nineteen injured, eleven of them railroad employees and eight passengers, by a head-on collision on the Union Pacific between a freight train and Overland limited passenger train. No eastbound freight train was on the track at 3 o'clock this morning. Five of the bodies of the dead were burned beyond recognition in a fire which destroyed the mail car, combined dynamo-baggage car and dining car. Two of these are known to be mail clerks, and the other three were cooks who were sleeping in the diner.

The mail and dining cars were the scenes of the greatest fatality, three mail clerks and three cooks being killed outright and one other clerk being perhaps fatally injured, his skull being fractured. Electrician Stigers and his assistant, Frank McKenna, were in the baggage car, immediately following the engine and were also killed outright. From Union Pacific headquarters it is officially announced that the wreck was caused by the engineer and conductor of the freight train confusing their orders. The freight train, which had four passenger trains, the last of which was the Overland limited, at Absey, a siding five miles west of Rock Springs. The freight took the siding in a short distance of the Wyoming, which were running close together, had passed Absey, the freight started west without waiting for the Overland limited. This later train and the freight came together, head-on, one and a half miles west of Absey. Engineer Frank, of the freight, is among the killed, and his fireman, Oscar Peterson, was seriously injured. Conductor Roy Burdell, of the freight, admitted that he had become confused, thinking that all the trains which he expected to meet at Absey had passed. Fortunately the wreck occurred within a short distance of the Wyoming state hospital, which is located near Rock Springs. The injured were all removed to that institution.

The two engines, the diner, baggage and mail cars were completely wrecked and took fire immediately following the wreck, being completely destroyed. Two mail clerks and the three cooks were pinned beneath the wreckage and were completely killed and their bodies incinerated beyond identification, were later removed from the wreck. The bodies of the other employees killed were removed before the fire reached them.

Gas Lighting Plant Lets Go With Terrible Results.

Wichita, Kas., Dec. 7.—Patrick Kennedy, house man at Mount Carmel academy, a Catholic girls' seminary, was killed by a gas explosion of the school's gas lighting plant tonight. He entered the building with a lighted lantern when the explosion occurred, hurling his body hundreds of feet into the air. The body went over the stable a hundred yards distant and was torn to shreds. The explosion wrecked the plant and building and shattered the windows of the main building, causing a panic among the 300 girls attending the school.

Criminal Action Confronts Insurance Grafters.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WANTS THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Yesterday's Hearing Brings Out More Interesting Side Lights on the Mutual Reserve.

New York, Dec. 7.—Attention was directed today to the possibility of criminal action growing out of the investigation of life insurance methods by a vital paid by District Attorney Jerome to the legislative committee which is holding its hearings in the city hall today. Mr. Jerome said that he wanted to find out when he could get possession of a copy of the report of the committee. Chairman Armstrong, at ready has said that he hopes to have it ready for the legislature when it meets next January.

Counsel for Thomas F. Ryan, who bought the James H. Hyde stock of the Equitable Assurance society, conferred with Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the investigating committee today, and said afterward that Mr. Ryan is holding himself in readiness to testify before the committee. One of the points brought out by Mr. Hughes in today's hearing was the fact that the Mutual Reserve Life insurance company had paid $124,000 to the widow of Edward B. Harper, former president of that company, since Mr. Harper's death in 1895. The money is derived from commissions which former President Harper drew on all the business written by the company, and which he has since remitted, continues to receive the commissions.

Incident to this inquiry, Mr. Hughes in today's hearing said that $3,000 had been paid to President Frederick A. Burnham of the Mutual Reserve in 1896, and concerning which Vice President George D. Edwards testified that company testified that he knew nothing. The bookkeeper who made the payment from a contingent fund, said he did not know what it was paid for. The affairs of the Security Mutual Life Insurance company of Birmingham, N. Y., again were under investigation today.

One of the interesting facts brought out was the statement of President Charles M. Turner of that company, that he had employed a few years ago T. H. Keefe, one of the clerks in the office of the superintendent of insurance at Albany, to act as consulting actuary of the Security Mutual company at $1,000 a year.

Watercross Sells for $71,000.
New York, Dec. 7.—Watercross, a brown stallion, sixteen years old, by Springfield-Wharfale, bred by Lord Falmouth in England, was sold by auction today for $71,900 to J. B. Haggin.

The price paid for Watercross today was the third largest ever paid for a horse by an American owner. Watercross is the sire of the Watercolor, Waterboy and many other horses prominent on the American turf.

Italian Ministers Resign.
Rome, Dec. 7.—At a meeting of the council of ministers today Signor Tittoni, minister of foreign affairs; Signor Majorana, minister of finance; Signor Caproni, minister of the treasury, and Signor Rava, minister of commerce and agriculture, who were responsible for the commercial modus vivendi with Spain, which is causing the Italian government to follow at the disposition of Premier Fortis. The premier said he would prefer to receive the resignation of all the members of the cabinet. It is expected that these resignations will be handed in as soon as the measures now pending in parliament have been discussed.

Tucker Got Off for Berlin.
London, Dec. 7.—Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition company, left London for Berlin today. He has no doubt that the invitation to participate in the naval and military displays at Jamestown in 1907. Before leaving Mr. Tucker had conferred with the minister of the treasury, Secretary Lansdowne and Archbishop of Canterbury. Interviews with all the heads of the admiralty and the war office, who promised all the assistance in their power to make Great Britain's contribution to the pageants fully in accordance with her standing as a naval and military power. The admiralty has already given instructions for the preparation of an exhibit of modern inventions in instruments of warfare, which will include many models requiring much time to prepare.

Says Tomas Was Only Trying to Annoy Clancy.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY FILES FULL AND EXPLICIT DENIAL

Gives Detailed Explanation of Lutheran Church Deal Which Was Called in Question by Hubbell.

The charges of ex-Sheriff Hubbell against District Attorney Clancy have fallen flat. The governor has announced that he has no confidence in the good faith of Hubbell in bringing the charges, and believes that Clancy did it to make trouble for the district attorney and get even with him for causing the former sheriff's removal. The governor further says that he has looked into the matter and finds that the charges of non-performance of duty on the part of Mr. Clancy are trumped up and flimsy and have no foundation in fact.

Mr. Clancy filed an answer which denies the charges at length and explains in detail his connection with the Lutheran church episode. The executive order also says that the governor has considered the sworn answer of the district attorney to the charges and is satisfied there is no truth in the latter. The official order is as follows: Executive Order, Santa Fe, N. M., December 6, 1905.

In the matter of the charges brought by Thomas S. Hubbell against Frank W. Clancy, district attorney for Fernalillo county, asking for the summary removal of the said district attorney for failure to perform his duty under chapter 113, of the acts of the legislative assembly of 1905. The sworn charges of Thomas S. Hubbell, the sworn answer and explanation of Frank W. Clancy, district attorney, having been fully considered by me, are hereby dismissed.

First.—Because Frank W. Clancy has filed in this office a full and complete answer and explanation of the charges against him, which Thomas S. Hubbell denies his charges, and the same are sworn to by the said Frank W. Clancy, and I am satisfied of the truth of his explanation and answer made by him.

Second.—No complaint whatever appears to have been made against the said Frank W. Clancy, other than the said Thomas S. Hubbell, as not even the members nor officers of the church referred to in the charges, nor the city or county authorities, have made any complaint whatever against the said Frank W. Clancy, district attorney.

Third.—Because I have no confidence in the good faith of Thomas S. Hubbell in preferring such charges, but on the contrary I feel satisfied that the purpose sought to be accomplished by his action is to annoy and embarrass the said district attorney, who has at all times demonstrated his willingness to enforce the law and prosecute crime; and that this matter is hereby dismissed from further consideration. Done at the executive office this, the 6th day of December, A. D. 1905. With my hand and the great seal of the Territory of New Mexico, MIGUEL A. OTERO. By the Governor, J. W. RAYMOND.

The District Attorney's Answer.
Mr. Clancy's answer to the charges of Mr. Hubbell is full and explicit. Some of the salient points are: "I asked Mr. Clancy for a copy of his answer but the district attorney did not think it proper to make public his reply until it had been considered by the governor. Now that it has become a matter of public record Mr. Clancy yesterday furnished the Morning Journal with a copy."

any reputable citizen who might come forward and make complaint, to prosecute offenders. Until last spring, no one, not even Mr. Childers, who is a member of the Masonic order whose hall is referred to in the address written by him and signed by Mr. Hubbell, had ever made any such complaint, nor has any complaint ever been made since the date stated. After the opening of the March term of the district court, and while the grand jury was in session, Mr. Childers and I think two others, members of the German Lutheran church, came to me and complained with great feeling about the conditions prevailing in the vicinity of their church. They made no demand, as Mr. Hubbell asserts, that I should enforce the law, for no demand was necessary as they were well aware. I told them that I would promptly act in the matter, and I started them on their way, saying that I would be necessary in the way of evidence, and they departed with the purpose of getting the witnesses just as I wanted them.

Shortly after this, I was called upon by the city attorney, the city marshal, and I believe by one or two others connected with the city government, who begged me to do nothing which might have the effect of driving the persons engaged in the business of prostitution away from the quarter of the city where they are now practically limited and confined, thus scattering the evil throughout the city and making it much more difficult for the city authorities to guard, repress and control. These considerations I felt could not be ignored, but it was difficult to see what could properly be done. I could not now say whether I first thought of the possibility of the church being sold, or whether it was suggested to me by someone else, but I do remember that it met the heavy approval of everyone to whom it was mentioned. Including Mr. Hubbell when I spoke to him about it later. When I spoke to Mr. Childers on the subject, he said that the church had already been sold to its property so that they could build in a less objectionable part of the city, but the neighborhood was so bad that they could not get a fair price, and I think he told me they wanted only $3,000 for it, and that the congregation was so poor that they could not afford to sacrifice the property. He and his associates approved of what I proposed, appeared anxious for its success, and I believe have been entirely satisfied with the result.

Object of the Statute is to protect every school house, college, seminary, or other institution of learning, or any church, opera house, theater, hall of any benevolent or fraternal society or any other place of public assembly, from the existence of any house of prostitution within 750 feet. If a prosecuting attorney can accomplish the purpose of a remedial statute of this kind without the necessity of resorting to prosecutions, especially when such prosecutions would put money in his own pocket, he is not to be condemned. Moreover, it is probable that no amount of prosecutions would have been efficacious in bringing about the desired result. I might have filled the dockets of the court with an enormous number of cases, as the statute makes each day of offending a separate offense, in each of which I could have collected fees from the court, and yet it would have been impracticable to try more than a few of them at a single term of court; and in the meantime, either the church would have continued to suffer or the social evil would have been scattered throughout the city, or probably both of these things would have happened. Even had a few cases been tried, convictions would not have been certain.

Under these circumstances, I did what was undoubtedly the wisest and best that could be done. A prosecuting attorney must always exercise a discretion as to prosecuting, or refusing to prosecute, and this is especially true in cases of such statutory misdemeanors, the law as to which is intended to abate public nuisances. I went to Mr. Hubbell, not because I was a sheriff, but only because I knew of no one else by whom the class of people affected could be so quickly and certainly reached. I did not instruct him, as the affidavit asserts, to inform Mr. Badaracco, Al. Viviani and L. Grady that unless they purchased the church, I would proceed to prosecute them. I know that I never heard Grady's name mentioned in the matter, and to the best of my recollection, I did not hear anything about Badaracco. I did hear Viviani spoken of by Hubbell, and perhaps by others at an interested party. I never mentioned any particular person to Mr. Hubbell. I told him that the owners of property rented for immoral purposes, the managers of such places and their inmates—everybody interested, without specifying individuals—would better get together and buy the church, or prosecution would be instituted against them. From day to day he reported to me that negotiations were going on, and he had numerous reasons why matters were delayed, among which I remember one was that the church property, most prominent and prosperous women in the business, whose name I do not recall, was in California, and that the other interested parties would not move until she returned which would be in a few days, as she had been telegraphed for. He also talked to me with some display of feeling about the church people asking too high a price for their property, evidently expecting that I would advise them to come down, which, of course, I would not do. I kept talking to him of the approaching discharge of the grand jury and of my desire to have something done before that body was dissolved, believing that he thought I could do nothing without the grand jury, and suspecting him of trying, through deceptive expectations of the purchase going through, to delay me until the grand jury should be gone. After the grand jury had been discharged, however, I told him that it did not make any difference, the church people were ready to make affidavits in support of their statements, and prosecutions would go on all the same. Almost immediately after this, I was informed that the purchase and sale had been agreed upon, but I did not know who the purchasers were.

Believes He Performed His Duty. I desire to say, although no such charge is made by Messrs. Childers and Hubbell, that I never made any promise to these people, through Mr. Hubbell or anyone else, that they would not be prosecuted if they bought the church property, but said only that they certainly would be prosecuted if they did not buy it, and that I would remove the cause of complaint. I shall always believe that I performed my whole duty in the most complete manner possible, when I relieved the church from the annoyance, humiliation and injury at which the statute was aimed, and put it in the power of this little congregation to build another and better edifice in a different part of the town, which I am told is now nearly completed. As to whether services have been held in the church since last spring, I do not know, but if they have been, it is undoubtedly because the members had no other place in which to meet, and no money to spend for the renting of any building while their new church was being built. At any rate, they have made no further complaint. I am unable to see that any hearing, investigation or taking of evidence is necessary or desirable as to these

A DUTY WOMEN OWE THEMSELVES.

"Good actions speak louder than words," so too, does the testimony of many thousands of women during a third of a century speak louder than mere claims that backed by a guarantee of some kind. That is the reason why the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are willing to offer $500 reward for women who cannot be cured. Such a remarkable offering is founded on the long record of cures of the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. If there is an invalid woman, suffering from female weakness, nervousness, or falling womb, or from leucorrhea who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription without complete success, the proprietors of that medicine would like to hear from such persons—and it will be to her advantage to write them as they offer, in perfect good faith, a reward of $500 for any case of the above maladies which they cannot cure. No other medicine for women's ills is possessed of the unparalleled curative properties that would warrant its makers in making such an offer.

The sisters of the Good Shepherd, at their convent, Four Ladies of Wood's Carriage Ohio, use a great deal of Dr. Pierce's medicine; they say, in a recent letter to Dr. Pierce: "We beg to assure you of the great benefit their medicines give our ailing ones. We cannot sufficiently recommend their excellence."

When the druggist says he has something that is as good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, just tell him, "There's nothing just as good." He says so because he hopes to make a better profit by his own mixtures than he could by the sale of long experience and success that Dr. Pierce's medicines have. Then, too, many patent medicines advertised as tonics, contain large quantities of alcohol. Dr. Pierce guarantees that his "Prescription" does not contain a particle of alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice—sent on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for a copy in paper, it stamps in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It is a good thing to keep Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in the house. One Pellet is a laxative, two a mild cathartic.

charges, and I submit this as a complete explanation of them. If, however, it should appear to you that there is any point as to which you wish to hear further from me, I hold myself subject to your orders.

Very respectfully,
FRANK W. CLANCY.

THE DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

TENDERS RED MEN A SURPRISE PARTY

Navajo Tribe, No. 3, Improved Order of Red Men, has taken on a new lease of life since the visit of the territorial officers and other prominent members of the order to this city. The membership of the order in Albuquerque is now well on toward the 200 mark and the lodge is one of the most prosperous in the city.

The organization of the ladies auxiliary known as the Degree of Pocahontas has greatly strengthened Navajo Tribe, as the new organization, starts off with about thirty members, all enthusiastic to a degree.

Navajo Tribe was deep in council last night in the Red Men's hall, supposedly safe and secure from all interruption, as the doors were locked and guarded lest some paleface perchance might intrude upon the pow-wow. Imagine therefore the amazement of the Red Men when without word of warning thirty "squaws" came trooping into the council chamber as gay as you please. The braves couldn't imagine for the life of them how the daughters of Pocahontas ever got in, but the women did anything when she puts her mind on it. Well, to make a long story short the ladies brought along enough good things to eat to supply all the Red Men in the territory and a royal feast was spread in honor of Grand Sachem, Leon L. Godechaux of the jurisdiction of New Mexico, who was present. A delightful evening followed.

The new chiefs in the Degree of Pocahontas are as follows:

MAKES VIGOROUS PLEA FOR NATIVE NEW MEXICANS

E. V. Chavez Sends a Letter to Beveridge.

DEFENDS SPANISH BLOOD
AGAINST EASTERN PREJUDICE

Eminent Attorney Declares He Believes Joint Statehood Is Desirably To Be Wished.

Hon. E. V. Chavez, one of the most eminent attorneys in the southwest, and for many years one of the most prominent and progressive citizens of Albuquerque, has sent to Senator Beveridge a most eloquent defense of the native people of New Mexico. Mr. Chavez declares that his countrymen want statehood at the hands of the present congress and although they have a due regard for the name "New Mexico," they are willing and eager to accept joint statehood under any name in order to enter the Union. The letter is as follows:

Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 4, 1905.
Hon. Albert Beveridge, United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—Believing that the question of joint statehood between New Mexico and Arizona, which is now so much agitating the minds of the people of these two territories will again be discussed in congress during its present session, and claiming the right which every American citizen has of expressing himself upon important questions like this, especially upon this particular one which is of so much consequence to us, the residents of this territory, you will, I have no doubt pardon this liberty I take in expressing my views upon this question.

As you will see from my name, I am a native born New Mexican, having no other blood in my veins than that brought to this country many centuries ago by the conquistadors of old Spain who first planted the Cross of Christianity and civilization upon this continent. You may know that I am proud of that ancestry, but if I am not more so than that of being a free American citizen.

In reading the very able speeches made by great, wise and worthy senators, I am sorry to find that one of the strongest objections, if not the strongest for letting New Mexico in as a state jointly with Arizona, is that the majority of its residents are of the race and blood to which I belong. You cannot imagine how much it grieves us to hear our people denounced as ignorant, inferior and unworthy of being the name "Americans." What right have those who are opposed to us to say that we are not, generally, as worthy of that title as are Americans of other nationalities? Is it not true that the true American has no particular ancestry and that he does not belong to any particular race? Are not Americans of English, Irish, German or French blood, all equally as good Americans, if they are good citizens otherwise? And if this is so of these, why should not the American of Spanish ancestry be as loyal, as true and as worthy an American as any other? If these gentlemen will come to New Mexico we will show them hundreds of graves where are buried Americans of Spanish descent who fought and died to preserve our united country. We will show them children of those brave men who inherited their memory and because they died for their country. If they will come among us they will find that we are Christians and that we worship the same God that they do, and that we follow the same code of ethics and morals that they do. That we understand and appreciate the greatness of our country and love our flag and institutions as they do. Let them ask the so-called Americans who came long ago from the eastern states and settled and lived among us, what kind of people we are, ask those who have married our daughters, if they have not made good, Christian, obedient and dutiful wives; let them inquire from those who have been put over us as governors, judges, etc., whether or not we are a law-abiding, God-fearing people who admire and respect the laws of our country. They will find that thousands of our people were fighting for the American flag long before many of our critics even knew how to speak the English language, or that such a country as the United States existed. Our ancestors have lived on what now is American soil even so long ago as the Pilgrims who landed at Plymouth. What other test would they have for a good, true American citizen? Do they object to us because all our people do not speak the English language? Let us tell all those that some of our most patriotic and enthusiastic Americans are those who do not speak English, and some of the most eloquent speeches about the greatness and beauty of our country that I have ever heard, have been delivered in New Mexico in the Spanish language.

Joint Statehood.

I have, in my humble way studied the matter of statehood either singly or jointly with Arizona, and I, as well as many of my compatriots have come to the conclusion that joint statehood with Arizona is more beneficial to the mass of the people of both territories than single statehood would be. By having one state of both territories we will have the combined resources of both territories to support the machinery of one government, and instead of increasing the taxes, say of New Mexico, to support the name "New Mexico," and would very much regret to have it changed to any other, but the real benefit derived from joint statehood will be of so much advantage to us that I for one am willing to sacrifice the name of New Mexico which, after all, is merely a matter of sentiment. I also think that joint statehood will be of so much advantage to us that I for one am willing to sacrifice the name of New Mexico which, after all, is merely a matter of sentiment.

Very respectfully,

very beneficial and would be to the interest of the masses of the people. Very much more could be said on this important subject but for fear this letter is too long already, I desist from saying more.

Very respectfully,
E. V. CHAVEZ.

Millinery Department Clearance

Fine Trimmed Hats—An Opportune Sale

An immense range of styles was necessitated in our displays of High Grade Millinery to supply the demand of the past few weeks. Our desire to clear out the remainder of our imported models resulted in interesting price reductions of these splendid Hats. This opportunity will appeal especially to late choosers. The prices that will rule this most exceptional trade event are absolutely the lowest ever offered—in most instances less than one-half, after one-third and one-quarter actual value.

Hats that were $20.00, now $12.50; Hats worth up to $15.00, now $9.00; Hats that were $12.50, now $7.50, and about 25 Hats worth up to $7.50 reduced to $3.98.

Pure Linen Handkerchiefs at Prices

.....Worth Profiting By.....

In judging Economist Handkerchief offerings by others, remember that ours are always on a pure linen basis; and that even then, by virtue of our large distribution, our prices are lower than those based on the part-cost of handkerchiefs, cunningly misrepresented, that are so generally sold. Of course, dot-on has to be used for embroidery; and most of the lace used on handkerchiefs is cotton lace; but the cloth of the handkerchiefs we sell is pure linen—unless it's part or all silk, or we state cotton. That statement applies not only to the following offerings, but to our entire stock. (And our regular prices, by the way, on staple lines of handkerchiefs, are low enough to merit an interesting story by themselves.)

Women's Laundered Handkerchiefs, hemstitched, embroidered Irish linen.....20c each; 3 for 50c Hemstitched or Scallop Hand-Embroidered Irish linen at 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00

Lace Edged, with linen center, at.....25c, 3 for 50c, 25c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Hemstitched, Hand-Embroidered Irish linen; put up in six assorted patterns in a fancy box, at.....$1.50 and $3.00

Plain Hemstitched, all ydths hem, Irish linen, at.....5c, 10c, 15c, 2 for 25c, 20c, 3 for 50c, 25c, 35c Plaid, Checks and Stripes, hemstitched, Irish linen at.....20c, 3 for 50c, 25c, and 3 for $1.00

The Hearst Contest

THE re-count of the votes cast at the late city election in New York is steadily going on, though the work progresses slowly and it is going to be a long job. Only about six per cent of the boxes have been opened and the ballots counted thus far, but it is stated as a remarkable fact that up to this time not a single box has been examined in which the contents tallied exactly with the return—and another remarkable feature of the investigation is the fact that all the mistakes made by the election officers were in favor of McCallan, while the corrections invariably decrease his vote, and increase that of Hearst. If the remaining boxes show up substantially the same as those that have been examined, the result will show a majority for Hearst of about nine thousand, instead of a little over three thousand for McCallan, as shown upon the face of the returns.

The uniformity of the fraud in all the various precincts, shows that the Tammany chiefs have the business reduced to an exact science. They knew before hand just about what the vote was going to be, how it was going to be divided, and how many votes they had to fake for McCallan to bring him out ahead of Hearst. The sum total to be manufactured was then divided up among all the several precincts, so that the number of miscounts at any one place was so small that it might pass for an ordinary mistake. Considering the magnitude of the vote to be cast, that was fine work. Our bosses in Bernallillo county used to do some rather artistic business in the way of making the tally sheets fit the emergency, but they were the merest novices as compared with the finished workmen of Tammany.

A Sure Thing

ALL the signs of the times now indicate that joint statehood for New Mexico and Arizona is a sure thing—or rather, we should say, that the passage of the joint statehood bill by congress is practically assured, but after that is done, and a constitution is framed, and all the preliminaries arranged, the bournons will move heaven and earth to defeat the measure before the people. And since the railway companies, and all the big mining companies are with the anti's, it will be seen that practically all the money is on that side, and the campaign is going to be a battle royal. This is the part of the line that now requires attention. The setting aside of Governor Otero, with his pernicious influence against the cause of statehood is, of course, an important reinforcement for the other side, but there is a great deal more than that to be done. The rich corporations will pour out their money liberally, and their blowers and strikers will soon be at work all over both territories, hence the plain people, who desire to become citizens of the United States, in reality as well as in name, must not lose sight of the fact that they have a big job before them, and that they who would be free, themselves must strike the blow.

MAYOR MCCLELLAN appears to be changing his mind. The high-class weekly papers of New York have made him believe that it is of more consequence that he should hold office than that the sacredness of the ballot should be respected. In other words, he is ready to take off with the taint of fraud attached to it.—San Francisco Chronicle.

MR. TORRANCE says the Santa Fe Central has no debts in New Mexico except a few small obligations. Paper to the amount of $75,000 is probably a small amount to Mr. Torrance, but it happens to be quite a sum to the unfortunate institution in New Mexico that has the bad luck to be caught with it on hand.

The Wallace Matter

SECRETARY TAFT'S annual report is a very voluminous document. The secretary, after giving the usual space to a comprehensive review of the affairs of the army proper, takes up the subject of the Panama canal and goes over the entire affair very thoroughly, giving more than a third of the entire report to this one subject. Touching the matter of the late chief engineer, Wallace, who left his job so suddenly, and whose summary action has called forth volumes of criticism, through the press and otherwise, Mr. Taft says:

"Mr. Wallace feels that I have done him great injustice. He says that money was not the only consideration which led him to sever his relations; that there was too much red tape in the government's methods of business, and that the health of his family and other controlling reasons led him to his conclusion, but that at our interview he was so embarrassed by my evident feeling on the subject that he did not do himself justice in stating fully the cause of his withdrawal. He says that he was not under any contract obligation to stay, and that he might never see his relation at any time. If Mr. Wallace was influenced either by considerations of the health of his family or by a feeling that governmental methods were so in conflict with successful business methods that he felt that the job was too difficult for him, or by any other good cause, and the charge that more pecuniary motives influenced him did him injustice, I deeply regret it; but I submit that my inference was justified by his failure to mention any reason for his action except a higher salary."

"The publication of the interview with Mr. Wallace was made after consultation with you, and was made not for the purpose of punishing Mr. Wallace, but because the public were entitled to know the facts and because it was hoped it would discourage others engaged in responsible positions in the construction of the canal from withdrawing at critical stages of the work without sufficient notice. This is all there is of the Wallace incident, except that I have been very glad to assure the advisory board, or the board of consulting engineers, that I believed Mr. Wallace to be an able, experienced engineer and an honest man who had large opportunities for acquiring information which would be valuable to them. I advised them to call him. Mr. Wallace has fully and freely responded to the call, has answered all questions, has given the board valuable information, and has declined any compensation whatever."

THOSE citizens of Albuquerque and other sections of New Mexico who will be in Washington next week will have an opportunity to hear Miss Claude Albright, one of the fair daughters of this city, sing in opera under an engagement with the Savage Grand Opera company, at the Columbia theater, where she will appear every evening during the week. It would be a handsome compliment to Miss Albright, and one that she would no doubt highly appreciate, if the New Mexico people at the capital should tender her a New Mexico benefit some evening during the week by going in a body to hear her sing. And such a course would incidentally give the cause of statehood a big boom, by calling attention to the territory and teaching members of congress through an object lesson, that a section of the country able to produce such a representative as Miss Claude deserves to be received into full fellowship in the union.

Stories of the Streets and of the Town

The Laundry Is a Cat to the Good.

There was a badly startled laundryman in the Albuquerque steam laundry yesterday.

He had a black and well behaved man. But he really believed for a few moments that he must have fallen off the water wagon unaware. A big basket of clothes had come in from San Marcelino to be laundered, and the man in question, the "marker," was busily engaged in diving into the depths of the basket and bringing forth various and sundry articles of wear. About the fifth dive into the basket's recesses he let out a yell which would out-Comeanche any Comeanche that ever lived.

He had grabbed a huge black cat, five and scratching, which gave a jump from the receptacle and went over the astonished marker's head onto the floor.

After sizing up the situation, the cat decided everything was all right, stretched himself nonchalantly and curled up in the corner and went to sleep as calmly as you please. He is now a fixture in the establishment—until San Marcelino is heard from.

He was a lucky cat. If they had laundered him, then the prospect makes one shudder.

Lamy Was a Sacred Thought.

It was in the Sturges the other evening.

Hon. Thomas B. Catron of Santa Fe, was sitting in the office at a late hour, patiently awaiting the arrival of those "on time" trains.

"Well, Mr. Catron," remarked a friend who had been trying to join the "opposition," "you can be glad you aren't waiting at Lamy, anyhow."

"Lamy?" said Mr. Catron, innocently.

"Yes," said the other man. "You know you've spent a third of your life at Lamy."

"There was a pause."

"Young man," said Mr. Catron, with deep solemnity, as if he were weighing each word with the utmost care, "I do not understand you. I have never regretted one moment I have spent at Lamy. Some of the highest and noblest thoughts have come to me as I sat in silent contemplation of the beauties of nature on that station platform."

Solemn stillness followed, which was broken only when the jocular man rose hastily and went down to the bar.

Where It Isn't Appreciated.

On the morning that the Morning Journal issued the president's message as a big four-page supplement, a well known Albuquerque business man sat down at the breakfast table and while his wife poured the coffee he sat with his head buried in the paper.

"John," said the lady who presided at the coffee pot, "seems to me to be a man I'd offer the paper to my wife after I'd read it for a half hour or so."

"Oh, excuse me, my dear," said the man of the house as he handed over the supplement and dove into the first section again.

She opened it expectantly.

"That," she said, "I don't want that silly old president's message. I want to read about those lovely new cushion covers that you can get for only forty-nine cents. You're the meanest man I know! So there!"

And she set the coffee pot down with such a jolt that it clattered all over the table cloth.

"Gasbilitis."

Manager Downey, of the Gas company, came into the Journal office laughing so hard that the office boy started to ring up a doctor.

"Never mind," said Downey. "I was just reading a piece in a Denver paper about a new disease they call 'gasbilitis.' Listen," and he read, with some difficulty:

"Its origin is dubious, but it is believed to come from the use of a gas stove in cooking. This in some way affects the food. The disease, it is thought, is much more to be feared in the winter than in the summer. It recurs once a month, say the doctors who have hitherto been skeptical, but did not know its name. The symptoms are easily known. Toward the end of the month a sinking sensation takes place in the heart, and a period of extreme depression sets in."

The attacks are regular as long as gas is used, but they are only temporary, and last for a few days. No fatality has yet been recorded, except where the victim has become so insensible that he has blown his brains out.

"The disease is very common. It severely shocks the mind, and leaves the sufferer in a stupor for a few days, but this wears off."

And Downey went out. The last seen of him he was two blocks up the street and still laughing.

Impressions of a Congress Man.

His life is rosy without doubt; His sorrows are but few. With lots of things to talk about And nothing much to do.

Gentle Egotism.

"It is said that Shakespeare never realized what a great poet he was."

"How could he," rejoined Mr. Stormington Barnes. "He never heard myself and company recite his lines."

Heat of Incandescent Lamps.

It has been pretty well dimmed into the ears of almost everybody that electric incandescent lamps are likely to set on fire inflammable materials with which they are brought into close contact—paper shades, for example, textile fabrics in show windows, etc., and that accordingly their fire danger is a thing to be reckoned with. The fact that the light was not naked unfortunately in some cases gave it an air of security which, in reality, was lacking and led to accident. This has latterly been further emphasized by investigations conducted by one of the British government inspectors of coal mines with incandescent lamps as used in underground coal workings. These investigations are said to have shown, among other things, that when a sixteen-candle-power lamp was covered with coal dust the generation of heat was so rapid that within four minutes a temperature of 450 degrees Fahrenheit was attained and the bulb burst. In another case a 100-volt sixteen candle-power lamp was imbedded in a heap of coal dust. Within three minutes smoke was emitted from the dust, and in another case where the lamp was simply laid down upon the dust flame burst out in the course of twenty-five minutes. Colliery managers, it is urged, should therefore impress upon the miners the great danger, when stopping work for a few minutes, which attends the laying down of the lamp upon the ground. It should always be suspended with the bulb free from contact on all sides. Every one should also be taken in handling the globes so as to avoid breakage, as the instantaneous exposure of the incandescent filament when the bulb bursts may be sufficient to create a violent explosion should any fire-lamp be present. A recent disastrous explosion in a French coal mine is said to have been brought about by such an occurrence.—Cassier's Magazine.

DAIRY EMPLOYEE DROWNED WHILE WASHING CANS

Deplorable Tragedy in Wash
House of Albers Brothers.

RUDOLPH SPINNER STRANGLES
WHILE IN EPILEPTIC FIT

Unfortunate Man Falls Forward Into
Tank and Drowns in Eight
Inches of Water.

Rudolph Spinner, an employee of Albers brothers dairy met death by drowning yesterday in the wash house of the dairy while in an epileptic fit.

The tragedy occurred about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Spinner was in the wash house as usual engaged in cleaning milk cans when without warning he was seized with a fit and fell forward into the tank which contained about eight inches of water. His head went under the surface of the water and he was unable to move on account of his condition he died in a few moments from strangulation.

The trough in which the unfortunate man was drowned is 3 by 5 feet and about two feet deep, built of heavy plank and lined with tin.

Spinner was found by several other employees of the dairy shortly after 5 o'clock, when they went to the wash house. From the appearance of the cans it is thought that he had been dead about a half hour. He was in the habit of cleaning up the cans at night to have them ready for the wagons in the morning, but in this case had not finished them on the previous evening and went a little earlier than usual to the wash house to complete the job.

A coroner's jury was impaneled by Justice Jose Miguel Chavez, of Old Albuquerque, which brought in a verdict that death was caused by strangulation and that the primary cause was an epileptic fit. The body was removed to the morgue. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from Borders' chapel.

Rudolph Spinner was 23 years of age and was a brother of Mrs. I. Albers. He was also a brother of Mrs. Herman Blaser and Mrs. J. Korber. When a small boy he was kicked by a horse and has since that time been afflicted with epilepsy. Of late the spells have been more frequent, but they have been so common with him that no one has paid any particular attention to his case, as he would ordinarily recover from the fits within a half hour and would seemingly suffer no ill effects.

DARING MOTORISTS TO CROSS THE DESERT

WILL ARRIVE HERE THIS MONTH
ON REMARKABLE JOURNEY

About Wednesday, December 20, two daring automobilists in a sixteen-horse power touring car are due to reach Albuquerque, on one of the most remarkable "devil wagon" trips ever undertaken. The eyes of the entire motoring world will be fixed on these two men and their machine as they leave Los Angeles, cross the great American desert and the huge uplift of the Continental divide, and spin on clear across the continent to New York.

Experts have declared it impossible for an automobile to cross the sandy wastes of California, Arizona and New Mexico, but these bold chauffeurs are determined to show the experts a thing or two. Their arrival in Albuquerque will be awaited with interest.

The automobile is the Reo Mountaineer of New York city, and the men are Percy F. Megargel, of the Buffalo Automobile club and American Motor League, and David P. Fassett, an expert mechanic from the Reo factory at Lansing, Mich. Megargel has twice driven an automobile across the continent, and has equipped the Reo car with every appliance that two years of almost constant touring through unknown regions has suggested. Both he and Fassett are men accustomed to roughing it and perfectly fearless. Will they succeed? is the question asked by every automobilist who reads the automobile publications and has followed the adventures of the Reo Mountaineer on its trip from New York to Los Angeles. If they fail to conquer the desert, they will have done what numerous others have; if they succeed they will demonstrate that the auto can go where even the horse cannot follow.

The car that will be used on this hazardous undertaking is the same stock Reo that left New York city last August, bringing the two men and their seven hundred pounds of baggage across the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon and California. It has run in all something like 7,000 miles, but an examination of the engine and running gear shows that it is still good for several thousand miles of sandy desert. snow-clad mountain and lava roads that separate Los Angeles from the New York metropolis.

We take this opportunity to inform our friends that our party and dinner will take place Wednesday evening, December 13th, instead of the 14th.

GOOD FLOW OF WATER IS STRUCK IN TERRACE ADDITION

M. P. Stamm, of the Terrace Improvement company, says that the big well drilling outfit now at work on the mesa south of the University and east of the Terrace addition, struck a good flow of water at a depth of 193 feet yesterday. He believes they have found an inexhaustible supply of the purest water.

"We expect to go about fifty feet deeper," said Mr. Stamm to a Journal reporter, "at which depth there will be plenty of water to supply the new Terrace addition. This will be approximately as deep as the well at the University. The well will be cased immediately and the big steel supply tank will be placed in position as soon as possible. As stated before a power line will be laid to the well and the water will be pumped into the reservoir by electricity."

THE STORY OF VINOL

By J. H. O'Reilly Company of Albuquerque.

"Our experience with medicines extends over many years. We have had ample opportunity to watch thousands of them and their results, and we can honestly say that we've never sold a medicine in our store that gives more universal satisfaction than does Vinol. This is because Vinol possesses intrinsic merit, and we want everybody in Albuquerque to know more about it, and why we stand behind it.

For centuries cod liver oil has been recognized as the grandest of all body-building agents for wasted human strength and vitality—yet on account of the disagreeable odor, taste and heavy indigestible oil which envelops its curative elements, it invariably closes the system, upsets the stomach and its virtue is lost.

Now modern science has proved that the oil or greasy part has no value, either as a food or medicine, and the medicinal elements of which there are about fifty different kinds in the cod's liver represent all the tonic, body-building and curative powers of this famous old remedy.

After twenty years of study two eminent French chemists discovered a way to separate all these medicinal elements from the oil and livers and give to modern medicine all the valuable curatives of the cod's liver without a drop of the useless oil, and thus made Vinol.

Vinol, therefore, is guaranteed to contain in a highly concentrated form all of these medicinal curative and body-building elements actually taken from fresh cod's livers, without oil, and for this reason it is fast superseding old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

As a body-builder and strength creator for old people, weak women, puny children, for the anemic and after sickness, and for all pulmonary troubles we honestly believe it has no equal." J. H. O'Reilly Co., Druggists.

ONE DIAMOND RING STIRS UP ALL KINDS OF TROUBLE

Yesterday in the court of Justice George R. Craig was heard the suit of Mrs. Fannie C. Gravelle vs. L. G. Rosenfield, a civil action for the possession of a diamond ring. There is quite a history in connection with the ring. George Miller came to the city several months ago, went to work at the Santa Fe shops and came to board at the Gravelle home. Mrs. Gravelle then had two diamond ear rings. Later Miller took the ear rings to a prominent jeweler where he had the diamonds set in a ring. Miller wore the ring at different times and one day he and the ring disappeared simultaneously. Miller went to Douglas, Ariz. Before leaving he pawned the ring to Rosenfield for $15. Later he wrote to Mrs. Gravelle and sent her the pawn ticket and Mrs. Gravelle now wants to regain possession of her property without paying the $15 and interest which is due Rosenfield.

Mrs. Gravelle went to Rosenfield and demanded the ring. Rosenfield wanted what he claimed was due him. Mrs. Gravelle secured a writ of replevin, put up a bond and got possession of the jewelry, which she says is worth $50.

Attorney Felix Lester represented the plaintiff in the case at the trial yesterday and Hon. T. N. Wilkerson, the defendant. Mrs. Gravelle claimed she told Chief McMillin and a policeman of the loss of the ring and who had taken it, but these officers were put on the stand and denied her story. At the conclusion of the case the Justice took the case under advisement and will give a decision later. In the meantime Mrs. Gravelle has possession of her diamond ring.

Fixing the Bridge.

County Surveyor Don J. Rankin returned yesterday evening from a trip to Corralles where he went to supervise the work of repairing the bridge across the Rio Grande. Mr. Rankin has a big force of men at work on the dilapidated structure and says that by Saturday evening he expects to have it completed. The bridge has been practically impassable and its restoration will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

EXPANSION STILL THE POLICY OF THE MORNING JOURNAL

Another Big Improvement To Be Made in Plant.

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT TO BE DOUBLED IN SIZE

Another big improvement to the Morning Journal's already big plant is now in contemplation and will be put into execution in a short time.

As stated before in these columns the Morning Journal is a believer in expansion. At regular periods during the last few years the Morning Journal has had to tear down its barns and build greater in order to keep up with its rapidly increasing business, and to satisfy the consequent demand for more space. Each time it was thought that the addition of more space would be sufficient to accommodate the newspaper's business for a long time. In each case it has been discovered that the growth of the Journal was entirely miscalculated. And so the Morning Journal is going to expand again.

As soon as Mr. E. B. Christy gets the plans and specifications completed this newspaper will build an addition to its establishment which will practically double the present capacity of the mechanical department.

The present big building will be extended clear back to the alley between Gold and Silver avenues. The addition will be about 5000 feet of brick.

The addition will include a big storehouse for the mammoth rolls of paper used in the Morning Journal's huge duplex printing press. The only one of its kind in New Mexico. It will double the space now used by the Morning Journal's bindery, already acknowledged to be one of the most complete and most extensively equipped in the territory. Messrs. Mitchell & Lithgow, managers of the bindery, have been cramped for space in the past, and the new addition will give them the space they need.

The addition will give much extra floor space to the Morning Journal's big job department, which now occupies more and better work than any other job printing establishment in the territory. It will give more room for the big presses, more room for the metal and proofing rooms and the heating plant, and more room all around, and it will make a newspaper printing and binding plant which will compare favorably with any in the southwest.

The Morning Journal is still expanding. There's no telling where it will stop. It really seems that the present improvements ought to "hold us for a while," but you can't sometimes tell where a newspaper is growing like the Morning Journal.

It has only been a month or two since the Morning Journal finished an entire re-arrangement of the plant by which the composing room, the press room, the editorial room, the heating plant, and more room all around, and it will make a newspaper printing and binding plant which will compare favorably with any in the southwest.

The Morning Journal is still expanding. There's no telling where it will stop. It really seems that the present improvements ought to "hold us for a while," but you can't sometimes tell where a newspaper is growing like the Morning Journal.

THOMAS TRIES TO MAKE THE COUNTY HOSPITAL A REFRIGERATOR

William Thomas, superintendent of the county hospital of Bernalillo county, is in for an official investigation at Prescott. It is charged that Thomas has been freewheeling to death, or approximately to death, the inmates of that institution and the citizens with wealth. The board of supervisors will take up the matter and endeavor to find out if Thomas has indeed been trying to make a refrigerator out of the hospital.

From reports that have reached some of the members of the board, since the recent cold spell started in this section, it seems that the inmates of that institution who were unable to help themselves were in an almost frozen condition at times, caused by the scarcity of fuel to keep the different apartments of the institution in anything like a comfortable condition.

Investigation by a member of the board of supervisors is said to have revealed the fact that the reports were found to be suffering from the absolute need of fuel to keep the stove in their wards heated enough to make the place comfortable for most of the inmates, much less the inmates who, from force of circumstance, are compelled to seek relief from the county hospital.

Some of the inmates, it is said, have gone to a neighboring farmhouse to keep warm, and it is known that three of them came to Prescott a couple of nights ago and thawed out themselves around a stove in one of the saloons.

It is part of the contract of Thomas that he should supply food, fuel, medicine and clothing to those in his charge, hence the complaints are directed against him individually. In his behalf it is urged that he has been in ill health, and has been unable to give the time to supervising the institution that it needs.

A fatal mistake is often made by the wisest of Albuquerque people. It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache. Backache is the first symptom of kidney ills.

Serious complications follow. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly. Don't delay until too late. Until it becomes diabetes—Bright's disease. Read what an Albuquerque citizen says:

Mrs. J. H. Smith, of 115 Haining Ave., wife of J. H. Smith, deputy sheriff, says: "I have had backache for a month so severe that every movement I made hurt and I never knew the muscles of the back brought a twinge which could only be described as excruciating. I went to a local drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills and took them. The remedy stopped the annoyance. Since then I have had no necessity to use Doan's Kidney Pills nor any other medicine for aching across the small of the back."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

LOCKHART CLAIMS HE GRUBSTAKED A BAD PROSPECTOR

Famous Washington Mine
Case Still On.

EMELIO M'CLURE IS REFUSED
A CHANGE OF VENUE

The case of Henry Lockhart vs. the Washington Gold and Silver Mining company, is still being heard before Judge Abbott in the district court. Lockhart is suing for an interest in the Washington mine in the Cochiti mining district. Lockhart claims that he "grubstaked" a man named Charles Filkey to go to the Cochiti mining district, locate mining property and do the assessment work on the claims and that they were to be equal partners in the property so located. He claims Filkey went to Cochiti and located a number of properties, among them one being named the "Sampson," but that he failed to do the work on this claim, and that he conspired with Frank Fagley and Lee Walker, both now dead, to permit them to relocate the property under the name of the Washington mine, which was done by Walker, Fagley, Leeds and Johnson. They afterward incorporated the Washington Gold and Silver Mining company. The mine has been in litigation since 1892 in ejectment and chancery suits, which were carried to the supreme court of the territory and decided in favor of the defendants. The latter have also received a United States patent to the ground. The present suit on trial is a chancery suit which was originally brought in 1894, and in which fraud and conspiracy was alleged. The case will take a week or more to complete. The plaintiff submitted his side of the case some time ago and the taking of that evidence consumed ten days. Now the defendants are presenting their side and as there are a number of witnesses several days will be consumed in the taking of testimony after which the arguments will be heard. W. B. Childers and E. W. Dobson are attorneys for the defense and H. B. Ferguson is appearing for Lockhart.

McClure Refused Change of Venue.
An order was made in the case of the motion of Emilio McClure for a change of venue from the county of Bernalillo on Wednesday afternoon. McClure, who is charged with a brutal double murder, was refused a change of venue.

To Call Criminal Docket.
The criminal calendar will be called in the court of Judge Abbott on Monday morning next. The petit jury has been called for 10 a. m. on that day.

Police Court.
A. C. Bowen and S. H. Nofley, carpenters who have been at work on the new Romero block on South First street, are each mourning the loss of a full set of carpenter's tools, which were left at the building Wednesday morning and which Grover Hughes, all three bricklayers, were given five days each, while another bricklayer named Schweiger was dismissed on promise that he would at once get busy laying bricks. John O'Donnell was given ten days on the streets for resisting an officer and saying bad words. Thomas Morales was invited to get out of town, and an Indian named Flores was given ten days for being a generally bad character and no-gooder.

CHARLIE MAINZ DISPERSES BUNCH OF ARMED HOBOS NEAR RIO PUERCO

The hobo question is growing to be a very serious one on the Santa Fe and the Great Unwashed are traveling in bunches of ten or twelve over the west end. Many of them carry revolvers and are dangerous characters. Yesterday morning shortly after midnight Officer Charles Mainz was notified by wire that there was a party of ten knights of the road near Rio Puerco, and that they had arms and the residents of that section and the Santa Fe agent were fearful that they might commit some violence. Mainz went out on delayed No. 1. He says that they were armed, but that he convinced them in his own inimitable way that they had to move, and the last he saw of them they were moving at a 1:04 p. m. toward the sunset.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Strookkeeper N. M. Rice, of the Santa Fe system, and General Purchasing Agent W. E. Hodges arrived in Albuquerque last night aboard Mr. Hodges' private car and will stop off for a day before proceeding over the coast lines. They are out on the general inspection of the storerooms of the system and were met at the train last night by Strookkeeper I. J. Custer, of the coast lines, who will accompany them on their trip.

General Manager A. G.
