TROOPS SLOWLY CRUSHING LIFE OUT OF FIERCE MOSCOW REBELLION

Fire Adds Horror to the Turmoil—St.
Petersburg Quiet—Flames of Rebellion Expected to Again
Break Out in Odessa.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—(11:55 p. m.)—Emperor Nicholas and Count Witte received tonight a report from General Doubasoff, governor general of Moscow, saying that the revolt there had failed; that the military had the situation in hand and that whatever disaffection may have existed among the troops had been overcome by attacks on them by bombs and revolvers, to which they had been subjected from the roofs of houses and which had so enraged them that they could hardly be restrained.

Although the rebellion may flare up immediately elsewhere and although there already is an indication of another upheaval at Odessa, if the attempt at armed rebellion in Moscow should be crushed the leaders of the "Reds" will have received a blow from which they cannot quickly recover.

Count Witte is not so blind as to believe that the revolution can be stamped out, but with the present demonstration of the lengths to which the "Reds" are willing to go, he hopes that the revolutionaries will be forced to their senses and aid in countering order and in accelerating the convocation of the Duma, the law governing the elections to which was published today.

Among the developments here today the most important was the capture of the leaders of the "Fighting Legions," which it is believed ends the danger of an attempt at armed uprising in St. Petersburg. This capture, it is understood, places in the hands of the government complete information regarding the revolutionary plans and the places where arms are concealed, as well as disclosing the weak spots in the army.

Shortly before 9 o'clock tonight the correspondent of the Associated Press telephoned from Moscow that there seemed to be no longer doubt that the insurrection was collapsing. The insurgents still held the quadrangle in which the workmen's council was sitting as a revolutionary committee but only because Governor Doubasoff was not yet ready to give the coup de grace.

Firing continued intermittently throughout the day. At 5 o'clock automatic guns were being used in Strasser square, but the insurgents were becoming exhausted after their four days' efforts and the fighting was rapidly degenerating into guerrilla warfare.

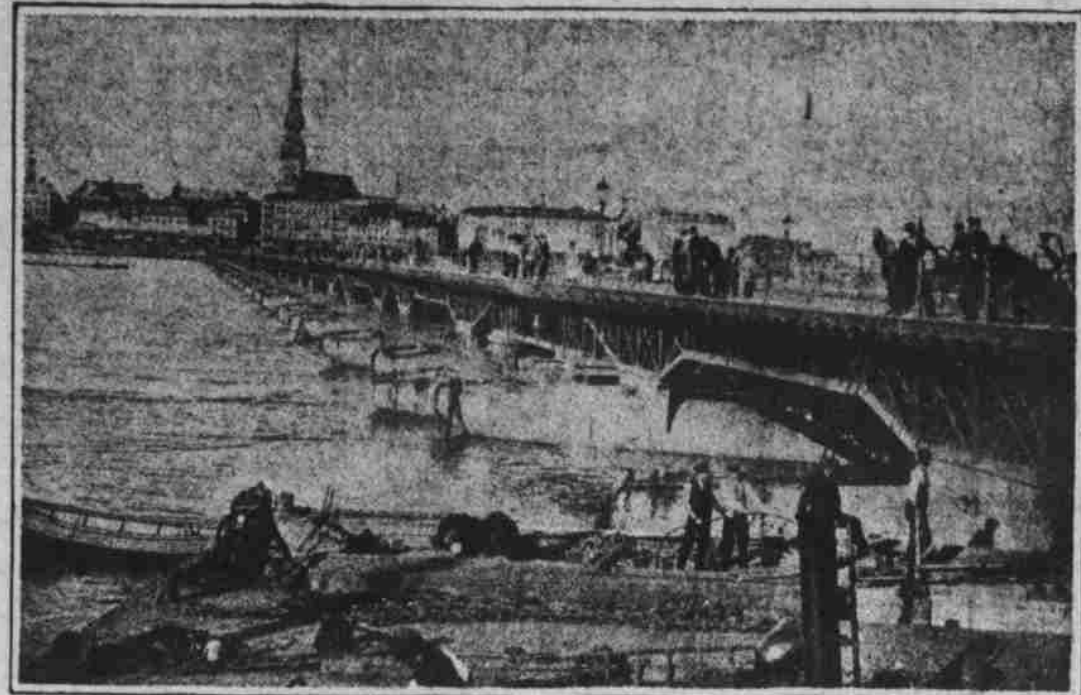

The insurgents were defending themselves with revolvers and bombs, as they were being hunted from house to house.

INSURGENTS NO LONGER HAVE SLIGHTEST CHANCE
St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—(7:50 p. m.)—The revolt at Moscow has practically been crushed.

A correspondent of the Associated Press telephoned at 7 o'clock tonight that the insurgents no longer have chance and that they are making a last stand. He predicts that there will be no further heavy fighting.

All troops, he says, are now fighting on the side of the government.

Scene in Baltic City Where Rioters Have Held Sway

VIEW OF RIGA FROM THE PONTOON BRIDGE

Police and troops in St. Petersburg today surrounded and captured all members of the executive committee of the fighting revolutionary organization while they were discussing plans for an armed uprising, as well as large quantities of arms, bombs, etc.

It is understood as a result of these captures the government has obtained extremely important information concerning the connections formed by the revolutionaries with the army. A man named Schoolman was at the head of the executive committee, which numbered 47 members.

The government is confident that these captures put practically an end for the present to any attempt to repeat in St. Petersburg the uprising at Moscow.

The correspondent says that the entire population of the city is terror-stricken, and that after dark the back streets present a weird and ominous appearance. As he drove to the telephone station he saw only a few civilians who were slinking along by the sides of walls, so as to avoid the police and cavalry patrols, who fire without challenging.

The windows of the houses are stuffed with mattresses and blankets, and no light is showing. The police carry rifles with bayonets fixed.

General Doubasoff is enforcing the most rigid martial law, and no person is allowed on the streets after 9 o'clock at night.

About one-third of the workmen have left the city and are traveling on foot to the villages, some of which are hundreds of miles distant.

Among the lower classes which do not sympathize with the desire to overthrow the emperor, the feeling is becoming intense, and in many cases strikers have been beaten to death.

The correspondent predicts that the crushing of the rebellion is likely to be followed by the most horrible atrocities, if the "Black Hundreds" are let loose.

General Doubasoff, unknown to the public, is directing matters from his headquarters in the Metropolitan hotel, which is barricaded and defended by machine guns. The concentration of the troops in the city to fight the insurgents, allowed the strikers and revolutionaries a free hand in neighboring industrial towns like Petrov and Luberitz. In the former place 300 armed men were sent to reinforce the insurgents, and at Luberitz the situation became so threatening that Mr. Purdy, vice president of the New York Albrake company, the works of which in that town are valued at $1,000,000, sent an urgent message to the governor general today through the American consul, appealing for the protection of the property and of the one hundred American employees there.

General Doubasoff promptly dispatched a squadron of dragoons, and this fact is considered as the best proof that he is confident that he has the situation in hand.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND ARE KILLED OR WOUNDED

London, Dec. 26.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "Governor General Doubasoff, telegraphing yesterday reported that 15,000 persons had been killed or wounded at Moscow."

The latest news from Moscow says that the first regiment of Don Cossacks, the Tver Dragoons and the Nevskii regiment of infantry mutilated and are confined to their barracks. "An informed from a good source that 2,000 persons were killed and 10,000 wounded. The revolutionaries are making no headway, but they show no signs of exhaustion."

ARMED LETTS FLEE AFTER PILLAGING CHURCHES

Pskov, Northwest Russia, Dec. 26.—Armed Letts who crossed the line of the railroad between St. Petersburg and Berlin at Redjitz, after burning and pillaging estates and tearing down images and other sacred relics in the churches, retreated to the eastward. Troops from St. Petersburg are pursuing them.

Merritt Says President Roosevelt's Desire Is Just to "Run Things"

New York, Dec. 26.—Assemblyman E. A. Merritt, Jr., candidate for speaker of the state assembly, said today that he expects to go to Albany tomorrow and will open headquarters there.

"I shall be in this fight until the finish," said Mr. Merritt. "I do not know of any compromise. They cannot compromise with me."

Speaking of the endorsement by President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins of the candidacy of J. W. Vadsworth, Jr., for the speakership, Mr. Merritt said:

"I am receiving letters from up the state, some of which say that Charles the First's head was cut off for less. The sentiment up there against interference by the governor and president is pronounced and growing. They have lost sight of Odell and Higgins in this matter and are giving their attention to the fight of the assembly to elect its speaker."

"This interference is a part of President Roosevelt's plan to secure control of the party organization in other states as well as New York. They want to get control of New York first, but the president is trying it also in Connecticut and Ohio. They are trying to get the two senators out in Connecticut, but I think they will have a fight before they get through with Frank Brandegee. I do not know whether the president's action comes from his natural desire to run things or to advance his rate legislation which I am inclined to favor."

look this afternoon. Notwithstanding the decision of the workmen's council to continue the strike, many of the strikers broke away, including about one-third of the employees of the Pullman iron works, several in other factories and a portion of the mill men. It is evident that the leaders must precipitate matters or the strike will go to pieces. From the standpoint of the leaders all now depends on the situation at Moscow.

A telephone message just received by the Associated Press from Moscow says the soldiers are hemming in the main body of the insurgents in the quadrilateral near the Brest railroad station bounded by Tverskaya street and Tverskoi-Sadovaya and Broula boulevards. In this quadrilateral the insurgents have fortified every inch of their lines with felled trees and telegraph poles and street cars in front of which they have constructed a net work of entanglements. Artillery is being used mercilessly.

Two of the four grenadier regiments have returned to duty and are fighting on the side of the government. Troops also have arrived from St. Petersburg.

The fires which destroyed the Brest station and other places last night have been practically extinguished, and the danger of destruction of the city by fire seems to be over for the present.

WARSAW MENACED WITH ARMED INSURRECTION

Warsaw, Dec. 26.—The street railway employees struck tonight and the employers of the steam railroads are expected to follow suit. The revolutionaries are threatening an armed insurrection similar to that at Moscow. The military authorities are making every preparation, and have ordered the entire garrison to be ready for an emergency. Detachments of infantry occupy the railroad stations.

The authorities have arrested many members of trades unions and a number of revolutionaries.

TO FORCE WEAK-KNEED STRIKERS INTO LINE

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—The workmen's council today decided to take the most energetic action toward workmen who refuse to join the strike.

day forenoon, however, the artillery, however, was again active at the Brest railroad station.

Leaders Are Students

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Herald cables the following under yesterday's date: "A member of the executive committee said today: 'In spite of the outward appearance of delay, we are thoroughly satisfied with the strike. In the outskirts of St. Petersburg all is quiet. The strike is now gradually working inland. The tramway men received their wages today; tomorrow they will strike. On the Little Prospect last night 400 of our armed men were out. The police surrounded one leader, pointing revolvers at his head. We dropped twenty of them. Further demonstrations of 200 soldiers took place. The Cossacks tackled them with the result that sixty-four were wounded. Our entire armed force tonight is ready for emergencies. Today we passed resolutions to resort to extremes.'"

Fires Light Up Sky

St. Petersburg, Dec. 26.—Yesterday's fighting at Moscow occurred mostly at some distance from the center of the city. The revolutionaries abandoned the Tverskaya thoroughfare as it is too easily swept by artillery and concentrated their forces in the narrow winding streets. The mortars of Moscow are filled with the dead, the hospitals are unable to find room for the wounded and many private houses are filled with wounded people. Numerous fires which occurred at different points throughout Moscow lit the whole sky last night.

HOWARD CHENOWETH ESCAPES FROM SILVER CITY JAIL

Masked Men Lock Jail in Condemned Man's Cell.
El Paso, Tex., Dec. 26.—Howard Chenoweth, under sentence of fifty years for killing City Marshal Kilburn at Silver City, N. M., was rescued by masked men last night who held up the jailer and locked him in Chenoweth's cell.

UNCLE SAM WON'T MEDDLE IN DOMINGO

Islanders Will Be Allowed to Fight It Out.

AMERICAN INTERESTS WILL BE CAREFULLY PROTECTED

After Conference Between President and Cabinet Officers It Is Decided Not to Butt In.

Washington, Dec. 26.—For the present there will not be any interference by the United States in the difficulty which has arisen in San Domingo. The trouble is regarded by the state department as entirely an internal one and so long as outside interests are not menaced this attitude of non-interference will be maintained. If, however, conditions should change materially, and lawless acts should be committed against Americans and American interests and involving the collection of the Dominican customs by this government, or other acts of violence occur which in the opinion of the officials here would make it proper for this government to interfere this step will be taken and measures adopted to quell the trouble. This decision was reached by the state department during the day and was confirmed at a conference at the White House today in which the president and Secretaries Root, Taft and Bonaparte participated.

Conditions Are Serious

Washington, Dec. 26.—Advisers received by cable at the state and navy departments from Santo Domingo indicate that a serious condition of affairs exists there. The captain of the port of Puerto Plata has been shot and killed during the insurrectionary movement and the governor of that province has defied the general government and barricaded the town. The Dominican government has issued a decree removing the governor.

Morales Will Start Something

Washington, Dec. 26.—The secretary of war today received the following cablegram from acting comptroller and receiver of Dominican Customs Edmundo, dated Santo Domingo: "Carlos F. Morales, dissatisfied with cabinet support, left the capital last night with a few followers. A conflict between the two forces is imminent, probably in the vicinity of San Juan or of Puerto Plata. Carlos F. Morales may make an attempt to establish a new capital and create a new cabinet. Political excitement prevails but there is no disturbance here."

NINE POISONED AT BANQUET

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 26.—Further news from Torreon, Mexico, where leading citizens were poisoned at a banquet Saturday night, says that nine were dead and many others ill and that the poisoning was part of a political plot. Strychnine was put into a bowl of punch. All the dead are said to have been of one political faction. Members of the opposing faction who attended the banquet were not affected by the punch they drank.

HORSES DIE BY SCORES

New York, Dec. 26.—Afflicted with spinal meningitis, more than a score of horses dropped in the streets of Williamsburg today, and at least half of them succumbed to the disease before a veterinary could reach them. Every veterinary surgeon in Williamsburg was called into service and they were busy from before daylight until late tonight trying to check the spread of the disease. Up to six o'clock one veterinary had been called to attend eighteen cases, nine of which were fatal. All the animal hospitals are crowded with horses which have only a slight chance to recover.

Yonkum Denies It

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 26.—B. F. Yonkum, executive head of the Rock Island and "Frisco" systems who arrived from Chicago last night, today denied the recent report that the "Frisco" was seeking an outlet to the South Atlantic seaboard. He said: "You may say that the Frisco will not be extended in that direction. The Frisco and Rock Island have no designs on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and never had."

POPE EXPLAINS BREAK WITH THE FRENCH

Declares State Responsible for Separation.

WHITE BOOK ISSUED BY
VATICAN ON THE SUBJECT

His Holiness Endeavors to Place All
Onus for Trouble on the Secular Side.

Paris, Dec. 26.—A French translation of a Vatican white book regarding the separation of church and state reached Paris tonight. The book disclaims any intention of replying to those whom it calls the detractors of the church, and expresses the desire not to offend anyone, saying that its chief objects are to enlighten public opinion regarding the facts and to prevent the handing down of misstatements connected with the history of such an important event.

In the leading chapters an effort is made to demonstrate that the entire onus for the rupture between the Vatican and the French government and the resultant separation of church and state rests with various French cabinets, the members of which pursued an anti-religious policy, including the suppression of the congregations and of religious instruction in the schools.

The book next proceeds with the refutation of the accusation that separation was rendered inevitable by the attitude of the church. It declares that this charge was made because French statesmen knowing that the people of France had no desire for separation, wished to disclaim responsibility for the sequence which it is pointed out would be equally serious for France and for the church.

CONSUL WILL INVESTIGATE

Washington, Dec. 26.—The state department telegraphed Consul Miller at Chihuahua, Mexico, the nearest consul to Diaz, the scene of the recent killing of Rutherford and McMurray, to proceed immediately to that point and investigate the case. Finstad, owner of the ranch where the tragedy occurred, and "Shorty," a cowboy, are held in jail on the charge of having committed the crime, notwithstanding their protest that it was the work of Mexican brigands, and Mr. Mills will see that they have a fair hearing.

PHILADELPHIA JACK WOULD TACKLE THE BIG MITT

O'Brien Now Anxious to Enter Ring With Jeffries.
San Francisco, Dec. 26.—"Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, the pugilist who recently defeated Fitzsimmons, just before starting for the east, authorized the issuance of a challenge to James J. Jeffries, the retired heavy weight champion. Any terms that Jeffries might demand, he said, would be accepted. O'Brien then admitted that most people would think his chances slim, but so he added they thought of the outlook for Corbett when the latter met John L. Sullivan.

Anacosta's Dividend

New York, Dec. 26.—A dividend of $7 1/2 cents per share on Anacosta copper was declared today. This is accepted as quarterly dividend against the semi-annual dividend declared heretofore. The last dividend preceding this one, which was declared three months ago, was at the rate of $2.50 per year, and nine months ago a dividend of 75 cents, or $1.50 annually. As Anacosta is controlled largely by Amalgamated Copper, it is expected the dividends will go largely into the treasury of the Amalgamated.

Piery in Santa Fe

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 26.—O. W. Piery, wanted here on a charge of securing about $600 on worthless checks, cashed by the proprietors of the Claire hotel and bar, has been brought here by Under Sheriff Jose L. Lopez, from New York city and lodged in jail. He will be given a preliminary hearing upon the return of Judge John R. McPhee who is now visiting in the east.

Piery was Arrested at a Hotel

New York city by Pinkerton and city detectives. He came to this city without fighting requisition and says he can clear himself of the charges. Piery said while here that he was an ex-judge of the territorial courts of Oklahoma and he still maintains that this is true and can be easily proven.

Mate Williams After Being Without Food for Four Days Tries to Eat Oilskin Coat.

Tampa, Fla., Dec. 26.—The schooner Sakata, of Passhero, N. S., has been wrecked and its entire crew of at least seven men drowned, except Mate John F. Williams of St. Johns, N. B. The drowned include John Conlon, managing owner of the schooner, and his son.

The wreck was reported by Captain Lermont, of the schooner Helen Thomas, which arrived at this port today from Galveston.

Captain Lermont first sighted the capsized schooner on December 23. He sent a boat to the wreck. The men found Mate Williams clinging to the vessel, and he had been without food or drink for four days. Hunger had forced him to eat a portion of his oil coat. The wrecked schooner was bound for Havana.

EARTHQUAKE IN TURKEY

Boston, Mass., Dec. 26.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions today received a cablegram from Constantinople announcing a severe earthquake in the Harpoot Vilayet in its eastern Turkish mission, which destroyed many houses and made many people homeless and destitute. The dispatch adds that relief is needed.

This region is said to be very densely populated, largely by Armenians. It is one of the sections of Asiatic Turkey devastated at the time of the Armenian massacres in 1895. Harpoot is the center of one of the largest mission stations of the American board in Turkey. It is the seat of Euphrates college, with nearly 1,000 pupils, of a theological seminary, of a medical institution, and the headquarters of a large evangelistic work covering that entire district.

CHARGES AGAINST PARKER NOT SERIOUS AS REPORTED

Department Says Vinita Man Is Not Compromised.

Special to the Morning Journal.
Washington, Dec. 26.—Officials at the department of justice do not take seriously the charges preferred against L. F. Parker, Jr., of Vinita, recently appointed United States judge for the northern district of the Indian Territory. When seen today a high official at the department acknowledged the charges against the Vinita man, but said the money involved was much smaller than $2,200, previously stated in these dispatches. It was inferred from his remarks that the transaction between Parker and the liquor men took place after Parker severed his connections with Soper as assistant United States attorney and that the transaction was such as not to compromise Parker. This information was given with the understanding that it did not represent the final action of the department.

ATHLETICS TAKE UP FIRST DAY OF THE CONVENTION

New Mexico Educators in City in Force.

HEADS OF TERRITORIAL INSTITUTIONS ALL PRESENT

The annual session of the New Mexico Educational association began yesterday with nearly a hundred members present. The end of the first day's program demonstrated that the meeting of New Mexico students and teachers and professors in the interest of the cause of education is to be by far the most successful yet held by the association.

At 10 a. m. was held the business meeting of the council with a discussion of the school laws of the territory.

At 2 p. m. the meeting was formally opened by President W. G. Tigh, who made a most inspiring and forceful talk on the value of "Optimism" to the school teacher, taking the stand that this quality is absolutely indispensable to success in education. According to Prof. Tigh, optimism is the key note to a well rounded and true education.

The president's address was followed by several papers on physical training. Ralph Tascher of the University presented in most convincing form the student's view, in which he made a strong plea for a recognition of the importance of clean athletics in the school. Mr. Tascher brought out forcibly the point that one of the best means of keeping up the athletic standard is to compel a certain standard of excellence in inter-scholastic games, etc.

As J. W. Oliver of the Indian school and H. F. Thomas of Farmington, were unfortunately not present to give their boarding school and grammar grade views, next on the program was Prof. J. O. Miller of Mesilla Park, who spoke from the standpoint of the preparatory schools. Mr. Miller, who is coach of the A. and M. college football team, had a most interesting paper.

Prof. Martin F. Angell of the University of New Mexico then followed with a clever paper on the college view, which brought out some strong points in favor of physical training for the collegian. Mr. Angell quoted statistics to show that football of the collegiate variety is not as dangerous as its reputation, and when played as it should be is not at all so. Mr. Angell made a plea for plenty of outdoor gymnasium work.

The subject was then open for discussion and suggestions were offered by Prof. Tigh, Prof. Hiram Hadley, Prof. Grant of Las Vegas, President Foster of Las Cruces, and C. M. Light of Silver City.

Today's Program.

Lead Pencils Spread Disease.
Topeka, Kan., Dec. 26.—Investigation by the state board of health disclosed that the epidemic of diphtheria at Yates Center was caused by the public ownership of lead pencils. The school board buys pencils for the pupils and these are gathered up each night and distributed in the morning. One child contracted diphtheria and in a few days the disease was communicated to fifty pupils by means of the pencils. The state board ordered the pencils destroyed and the system abolished.

Court Martial Ready.
Annapolis, Md., Dec. 26.—From the staff of the naval academy, Prof. Philip R. Alger and Lieutenant Commander L. M. Nulton have been detailed as members of the court martial that will try Midshipman Tremmoor Coffin, Jr., on the charge of hazing Midshipman J. P. Kimbrough. Lieutenant Commander A. L. Harrison has been designated as judge advocate. The charge and specification have been prepared by the naval academy authorities and will be served upon the accused tomorrow.

Predicts Suffering for Japs.
Victoria, B. C., Dec. 26.—Clay Macaulay, of Boston, a recognized authority on Japan, returned from another visit by the steamship Tremmoor today. He said there would be considerable suffering in Japan following the return of the army from Manchuria. The Japanese government, confronted as it was by grave financial problems, could not undertake governmental relief as would the United States. The distress during the next few years will be very great.

"Julius Caesar" in Rome.
Rome, Dec. 26.—Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" never before performed in Rome, was produced last night before the king and queen. The stage setting was an exact reproduction of ancient Rome.

Like Old Times in Kentucky.
London, Ky., Dec. 26.—News reached here last night of the killing of a deputy sheriff and two other men at the Elk Fork turkey shoot. A dispute arose and John Duff and Jake Wilson shot and killed Joseph Wilson and Alexander Little shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Lee Roberts. Duff and Wilson were arrested, but Little escaped.

Snyder, former banker at Olin, whose failure cost depositors $100,000, and who fled and was later arrested at St. Louis, was sentenced today to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and costs. Snyder pleaded guilty to fraudulent banking but his creditors signed a plea for clemency.

Rash Policemen.
Torrington, Conn., Dec. 26.—While attempting to arrest a party of Italians who were fighting a policeman, Robert Newitt was fatally shot and Chief of Police L. S. Hull was stabbed early to day. Eight Italians were shooting at each other when the police appeared and the Italians turned their weapons against them. Chief Hull is expected to recover.

GOLD FROM RUSSIA.
Over Three Million Arrives at Berlin to Redeem Treasury Notes.

Berlin, Dec. 26.—Gold has begun to arrive in large quantities at the Imperial Bank of Germany, from St. Petersburg. About $3,750,000 arrived yesterday, while the amount included in the last bank return is understood to be about $7,000,000. The movement is expected to continue until a total of $25,000,000 is reached.

The best authorities say that the gold is intended to redeem the issue of Russian treasury notes sold in Germany, France and Austria, in May and June, through the Mendelssohn Bank of Berlin and the notes will mature in February and March.

Rumors to the effect that the Russian treasury will be unable to pay the January coupons of the foreign debt have been set at rest by the announcement that it is in readiness to pay immediately and that, indeed, payment has been going on since last week.

Italy's Tobacco Destroyed.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Mr. W. T. Dunnington, who is the buyer for the Italian government of tobacco purchased in this country for the Italian monopoly, is in Washington, accompanied by counsel, to endeavor to elicit federal aid in the prevention of destruction of tobacco in Kentucky, where a feud exists between tobacco growers and dealers. He claims that a great deal of the tobacco that is being destroyed is the property of the Italian government, and thinks that the United States should protect it. Mr. Dunnington will see the secretary of state and lay his complaint formally before him.

To Consider Ammunition Supply.

Washington, Dec. 26.—A meeting of the joint board, consisting of a representative from the ordnance department of the army and an officer from the navy, appointed to consider the subject of ammunition supply, will meet in Washington soon. The work laid out for this board contemplates that it determine the present supply of ammunition in this country, and the adequacy of existing powder concerns for supplying the needs of the army and navy if war was threatened, and the extent to which the present manufacturing capacity could be expanded in case of war.

Relief of Wrecked Seamen.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Secretary Root has sent a letter to congress recommending that appropriations for the relief of wrecked American seamen be extended to those wrecked off the Isthmus of Panama. The letter says the status of the isthmus is not clearly defined, but that unless the isthmus is to be treated by the United States as foreign territory the provisions for the relief of seafaring Americans who come to grief must be extended to the isthmus just as they are to the Philippines, Porto Rico and Hawaii.

All Quiet in Shanghai.

Shanghai, Dec. 26.—All is quiet here. A force of 250 men has been landed from the British cruiser Audacious and bluejacket guards are maintained, all through foreign consessions. The British ambassador Twinnan, will resume the fixed court tomorrow. The Chinese officials have tardily issued warrants for the arrest of the promoters of the riot, who have already escaped.

TWELVE YEARS AGO RECEIVERS HAD THE SANTA FE

Most Marvelous Railway
Record in America.

HURLEY ENTHUSIASTIC
OVER SYSTEM'S CONDITION

Twelve years ago last Saturday, December 23, 1893, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company went into the hands of receivers, and for many months succeeding that date things looked black for a successful future for the big railroad in the tottering property gained in system. But when the work of the receivers was concluded in about two years and a reorganization effected, strength and with leaps and bounds sprang to the position it occupies today—one of the most substantial railroad properties in the country.

When the road went into the hands of the receivers not one of those who knew the possibilities of the many lines composing the system, had the temerity to dream that if the property was saved, it would within a dozen years, and this is a short time in the life of a railroad considerably more than double its earning capacity and become one of the big dividend-paying roads of the west.

Details of the bankruptcy of the road, the appointment of the receivers, their work and the reorganization of the property, are matters of railroad history which are generally known in this part of the country. During the financial depression of 1893, the Santa Fe, with all others suffered, and that depression was worse in the territory tapped by the railroad than anywhere else. Bottoms dropped from all sorts of booms in cities and towns all along the line. Property values were becoming poverty-stricken. There was no business for railroads or any other industry for a time. Those managing the Santa Fe had just undertaken the augmentation of the system. It was found necessary to default in the payment of interest on the bonds of the company and this resulted in some foreign bondholders bringing suit for the appointment of receivers. This suit was successful and J. W. Reinhardt of New York, then president of the company; John J. McCook, of New York, and Joseph C. Wilson, of Topeka, were named as the receivers. Theirs was no easy task and some months after the creation of the receivership Mr. Reinhardt retired from it and was succeeded by Col. Aldace F. Walker, of New York.

On more than one occasion the receivers thought that they would have to wind up the affairs of the corporation but money men eventually came to the rescue and two years after the receivers were appointed a reorganization of the property was effected and they were discharged.

Wildly Tided Over Crisis.
During the first few months of the receivership hardly any of the force in the general offices received any pay and there are many working in the offices now who remember these hard times. It is not generally known but it is a fact that the late Edward Wilder, secretary and treasurer of the company did as much as any one man to keep the property afloat, and on several occasions when a crash seemed imminent he borrowed some hundreds of thousands of dollars on his own name to tide things over.

But after the reorganization a change for the better was not long in coming and it has continued ever since. Nothing shows better the most remarkable progress made by the road in the ten years since the reorganization than a glance at the gross earnings of the company. For the first six months after the reorganization ending June 30, 1896, the gross earnings were $13,596,324. For the succeeding year up to June 30, 1897, they were $20,621,230, and for the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, they totaled in round figures $69,000,000.

When James B. Hurley, general manager of the company, had his attention called to the fact Saturday that it was the anniversary of the road's going into the hands of receivers, and had looked up the figures given above, he was greatly surprised at the actual growth in the gross earnings of the road.

Hurley Says It Was Wonderful.
"It is a most remarkable showing," said Mr. Hurley. "I know that the progress had been wonderful but not to such an extent. It was my impression that the gross earnings for the first year after the reorganization were around the forty-million mark. Think of it, the road within the last eight years has considerably more than doubled its earning capacity. It is a record that has few equals. For the month of October of this year the gross earnings on that part of the system under my charge were $4,092,524, and for the entire system $6,792,250, or a good deal more than one-fourth of the entire gross earnings of the first year after reorganization. Of course these gross earning figures show the progress of the company, but they hardly tell the real story of what has been done. It would be pretty hard to give an idea of it offhand. But since the time of reorganization every mile of steel on the entire system has been relaid with heavier steel, and some portions of it have been relaid two and three times. Improvements of all sorts have been rebuilt and replaced by new ones. Mammoth elevators and ice plants have been erected. In fact improvements of all kinds have been made on all parts of the property and at a great expense. Millions have been spent for equipment. An idea of the amount of money that has been spent for improvements may be gained when it is known that on the Santa Fe system under my jurisdiction, $6,000,000 was expended for improvements this year.

"It is certainly a wonderful record for progress that the company has made during the few short years that has elapsed since it went into the hands of receivers."

HANDCAR SPILLS SECTION MEN ALONG TRACK

Another Santa Fe wreck occurred Saturday at Devore siding in Cajon pass, the "spill" this time being a handcar loaded with section men. Eight men, including Section Foreman John O'Rourke of Hesperia, were more or less seriously injured. The strange feature of the accident was that the derailment of the car was caused by one of the Mexicans falling off the front end of the car, it being derailed by running over him.

The injured and their injuries are as follows: Section Foreman John O'Rourke, nose broken and mouth injured; D. Chavez, arm badly lacerated from car running over his body; M. Cruz, serious internal injuries about the chest; Y. Ramirez, arm lacerated and three ribs broken; A. Caarion, left leg lacerated and bruised; F. Agualla, ear torn and leg bruised; R. Huerta, arm badly bruised; T. Urbina, bruised about the hands and face.

Chavez and Cruz were both quite seriously injured and were removed to the local hospital in Los Angeles in the afternoon.

BIG ENGINE RAISED FROM SEA AT REDONDO

Santa Fe engine No. 3 which took to the salty sea from a Redondo pier a few weeks ago, was raised from the waters and the workmen were just congratulating themselves that the big engine was safe and sound on the pier again, when a big cable broke and the tender went rolling back into the sea. The engine remained on the pier all right and will at once be brought to the San Bernardino shops for general overhauling. The tender will again be raised and brought in later.

The method of raising the engine is interesting. Lines of pipes were driven on each side of the engine, and it was hoisted between them by means of strong cables. When the engine was raised to the proper height timbers were placed crosswise under the engine from the piers, thus making a floor for it to rest upon. It is understood the engine is not seriously damaged.

Need of Better Roads

PERSONS who attempted to drive over any of the country roads in this vicinity, a few weeks ago, before the cold weather hardened the mud, do not need to be told that there is a grand opening in this country for a "good roads" movement. We believe it to be entirely within the boundaries of the truth to say that there is not within the whole of Bernalillo county, a mile of road, in the sense in which the term is used in the states. We have trails, leading from one settlement to another, but in a large majority of cases they have no legal existence, and may be moved at pleasure, or fenced up altogether by the men whose lands they cross. And in the few instances where they have been surveyed and legally "located," they are not roads, but merely the places where roads may lawfully be made. In dry weather they answer the purpose, and enable the people to get from one place to another, but during such weather as we had most of the time for three months immediately preceding the present cold spell, they were absolutely impassable for loaded wagons.

Like conditions exist nearly all over the territory, and for the same reason that the Arkansas man didn't mend his roof—in dry weather it was good enough, and in rainy weather he couldn't work. As a rule we have mud-producing weather so rarely in New Mexico that the people do not regard it as winter while to make preparations against such times. But Bernalillo county is big enough and rich enough to make itself an exception to the general rule, and it is particularly discreditable to us to allow the present conditions to continue. There is a good territorial law on the subject, and all that is necessary is to have it enforced. Every able-bodied citizen is liable for a tax of three dollars a year for road purposes, or three days' labor on the roads of his district in lieu of the cash. This would furnish an ample revenue for maintaining good, well worked roads in every road district in the county, and if we do not have decent highways it is nobody's fault but our own.

A Dangerous foe

IN THE current issue of the Railroad Gazette, George Westinghouse calls attention to the very serious problems that are raised in the modern city by electrolysis. The voracious "escaped currents," he says, attack lead pipes and steel beams on sight, and actually either eat them in two, or so weaken their structure as to jeopardize the safety of the building of which they form a part.

The New York Globe, in commenting upon this letter says: The subject has been repeatedly raised for public discussion in connection with the great steel-framed office buildings, the elevated structure, Brooklyn Bridge, and underground water and gas pipes. There has hitherto been no apparent unanimity of expert opinion as to the best practical way of preventing such serious damage.

Now Mr. Westinghouse says the subway pillars and roof are in danger from the direct current used in the third rail. No blame, he continues, attaches to the engineers making such installations in the past, because only this year has the single-phase alternating current motor been made commercially available. He states his belief, however, that the few direct current systems already substituted for steam will in their turn soon be displaced by the alternating current motor.

IT IS said that the people of Russia are too ignorant for self-government, but there appear to be a number of them who know how to manage a campaign so as to quickly bring the most powerful autocracy the world has ever known to its knees.—Dallas News.

LOOKS as if there soon would be "plenty of room at the top" in the life insurance business.—New York Herald.

A NEW ENGLAND teacher, in a recent lecture, put Judge Lindsay, of the Denver Juvenile Court, among the four really great men of the day in this country. This is because of his success in handling juvenile incorrigibles. Upon examination his plan is found to be the provision of some occupation. His theory apparently is that the child who is old enough to steal is old enough to work. When one is caught stealing he is given his liberty on parole, and if possible some honest occupation is provided for him, or he is kept at school, but always under the eye of the court. He enters into an agreement with the Judge, and if his part is not kept escape is impossible, and he is ordered into court at once.

The Walsh Bank Failures

THE Chicago Tribune commenting on the Walsh bank failures says: "The trouble was due to the managing officers of the bank being interested in outside enterprises requiring the use of large amounts of money which they supplied from the funds of the bank in larger and larger amounts. No bank whose officers are using its money to any considerable amount, is ever free from danger. They do not all fall by any means, of course, but when a bank does fail it is almost invariably from this cause."

"There is seldom a failure which is not due to excessive loans, either directly to the officers or to various concerns in which they are in some way interested."

"There was no money stolen from the Walsh banks, or any shortage in their securities, as there was, for instance, in the Enterprise bank of Allegheny, Pa."

"But Walsh branched out more and more into other enterprises. He owned a large Chicago newspaper, three or four railroads, coal mines, quarries, and had real estate and property of every description."

"Instead of heeding warnings and reducing his loans, he kept on until the strain was too great and he had to fail. As soon as we got the figures from the national bank and the two state institutions based on simultaneous examinations it revealed the fact that the total amount of loans to his institutions was so large that not one of the three banks could continue without help."

The clearing house committee of Chicago investigating the affairs of the wrecked Chicago National bank of which John R. Walsh was president found that nineteen clerks in the employ of Walsh had borrowed $92,000 each or a total of $1,748,000. This money was used in the various newspaper, railroad and quarry enterprises in which Walsh was the owner.

According to the national banking laws a national institution may not loan an amount in excess of one-tenth of its capital stock to any individual borrower. The capital of the Chicago National is $1,000,000. A loan for $92,000 is comfortably below the legal limit.

The clearing house association makes a practice of calling for statements of loans which reach the legal limit. As the borrowers only asked for $92,000, instead of $100,000, the federal statute was technically not violated, while the rules of the clearing house were observed to the extent that the association was not privileged to pass upon these borrowings, and consequently knew nothing about them.

Dogfish. From the London Chronicle. Why should not the dogfish be caught and sold for food? asked Lord Henage in yesterday's issue, apropos of a recent "plague" of this fish off the Devon and Cornish coasts. The answer is that there is no reason except the name. Try and imagine the horrified look of a sium child if, when calling for a "penny middle and a 'aporth' at the local fried fish shop, he were asked which was preferred "dogfish or catfish." Yet the latter is frequently and easily disposed of in all the poorer districts of London under the euphemistic name of rock salmon. Why not christen the dogfish American turbot, or some other nice name, and eat and enjoy it under a pleasant title?

STABBING AFFRAY IN LUMBER CAMP MAY MEAN MURDER

Martin Liese Fatally Wounded
by Tom Maxwell.

ASSAILANT NOW HIDING
IN MOUNTAINS NEAR ROWE

Sheriff Baca of Valencia County
Leaves With Posse to Capture Fugitive.

Martin Liese, a lumber jack in the employ of the Horabin-McGaffey company in the Zuni mountains was stabbed twice through the lung in an affray at the Keiner lumber camp yesterday by Tom Maxwell, and is not expected to live. Maxwell is in hiding in the mountains near Rowe camp. Liese will be brought in to this city this morning and placed in the hospital if he is alive upon his arrival here.

He is dangerously wounded and when he left Thoreau last night it was not expected that he would survive more than half the journey to the hospital.

Mr. McGaffey received a telegram yesterday morning asking that the sheriff of Valencia county be sent at once with a posse to capture Maxwell who had escaped, heavily armed, and defied arrest. Accordingly a message was sent to Sheriff Carlos Baca at Los Lunas who with a posse immediately drove overland to this city, reaching here in time to take the train for the west last night.

Maxwell is well known in this city. He was the big cow-puncher who wanted to ride "Star," the outlaw terror at the last Territorial fair, but who was refused the privilege. He has heretofore borne a peaceable reputation, but from last night's news from Thoreau it is probable that he will have a first class murder to answer for. Maxwell is known to be a desperate man, however, when cornered, and Mr. Baca and his deputies expect serious trouble before he is captured.

Both Maxwell and Liese were drunk when the stabbing occurred.

BIG SOFT COAL MINE AT MADRID IS A FURNACE

Stubborn Fire Rages in Depths of the Colliery.

MAIN TUNNEL BULKHEADED TO SMOTHER CONFLAGRATION

The big bituminous coal mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, at Madrid, is on fire and the main tunnel has been bulkheaded in the hope of smothering out the flames, which are raging in the subterranean depths.

The fire started in the mine on last Saturday and every effort has been made since that time to extinguish the flames without avail.

Yesterday the fire fighters were driven back by the smoke and gas. As a last resort a bulkhead was erected in the mine and it is hoped that the fire will smolder itself out.

It was impossible to determine the exact extent of the fire. The flames gained headway with great rapidity after the start and the whole interior is said to be a seething mass of flames. The fire is so far back in the mine that it is very difficult to combat and many of the men were nearly overcome while aiding in the work of smothering the blaze.

The mine is one of the biggest producers of soft coal in the territory and the C. F. & I. company has been furnishing a large tonnage to the Santa Fe and other railroad companies from this mine.

The conflagration has thrown about two hundred men out of employment temporarily and the loss will amount to several thousands of dollars. The exact amount of the damage will not be known until the bulkhead is removed, and it may result in the permanent closing of the mine.

COAST LINES STOREKEEPER TO BE MOVED TO SAN BERNARDINO

After the first of January it is announced that the office of storekeeper of the coast lines will be removed from Albuquerque to San Bernardino, as the California city is much more central for the coast lines, of which Albuquerque is the extreme eastern terminus.

Storekeeper F. J. Custer when interrogated concerning the rumor yesterday corroborated the story. Mr. Custer and General Storekeeper N. M. Rice, of the Santa Fe, were in San Bernardino recently arranging for the transfer.

They will entail the removal of an office force of about ten men from this city to San Bernardino.

The many friends of Mr. Custer will regret to see him leave this city, and the same applies to the capable force of clerks working under him. The office of coast lines storekeeper has been located in Albuquerque for many years.

Police Court.

John Murphy, an old offender, was sentenced to do thirty days in police court yesterday morning. Murphy is a bad hombre with the jim-jams and has been in court on several different occasions for being drunk and creating trouble.

John Rhodes and George Harrison, two saddle-colored descendants of Ham, were before his honor for being drunk and fighting. It developed in the trial that Rhodes started the trouble. He was given five days and Harrison was discharged.

Thomas Brady, who has been filling the position of "king-snipe" on the Belen cut-off, came to the city to celebrate Christmas and got in the clutches of the law. Brady claimed to have been robbed of $200, but his money was located at Belen, where he had left in charge of a friend. He will tie himself to the cut-off town this evening.

DESPERATE NEGRO THOUGHT TO BE HIDING HERE

Officers on Lookout for Escaped Convict.

TOOK TWO SHOTS AT
OFFICER MAINZ AT ISLETA

O. P. Hovey, of Bernalillo, Sandoval county, arrived in the city last night and is registered at the Sturges European. Mr. Hovey is a deputy sheriff of Sandoval county and is in the city looking for James Sanders alias James Gibson, who escaped from the territorial penitentiary at Santa Fe on the 19th of December.

Sanders was seen at Bernalillo, on Christmas night and was on Santa Fe train No. 7, coming toward Albuquerque. He is heavily armed. A strict watch is being kept for him by the officers of the different counties and cities of New Mexico and a squad of the territorial mounted police are also out looking for him. He is now believed to be in hiding in this city.

Sanders, who is a negro was doing time in the penitentiary for burglary and larceny and is described as follows: Age, 24; height, 5 feet 4 inches; weight, 160; wearing dark gray suit of clothes and black hat with high crown; body marks, scar on left side of head, scar on left shoulder, scar on right foot, scar on right knee.

It is understood that the escaped convict is heading for Texas, which is his native state. There is a reward of $50 for him.

The officers at all points on the road have been notified and he will undoubtedly be captured before he gets very far from this city.

PROBABLY MAN WHO TOOK A SHOT AT MR. MAINZ

Early yesterday morning as No. 7 reached Isleta a negro of the description of Sanders was chased off the blind baggage by Special Officer Charles Mainz. A pistol duel took place between the two, which frightened the passengers on No. 7, who believed that the train was being held up. The negro took two shots at Mainz, both of which went wild, and Mainz took a shot at the negro, who made his escape. Mainz stated that he could have easily have dropped the negro and believes that he had sufficient cause, but to avoid trouble he let him go. Mainz telegraphed to Belen to intercept him, but he has not been seen there and there is some doubt in the minds of the officers as to whether Sanders made his way back to this city or went west. The local officers are of the opinion that he came to this city, as he is known to have friends here.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's for One Thing Only, and Albuquerque Is Learning to Appreciate This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success. Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They cure sick kidneys. They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is Albuquerque evidence to prove it.

Mrs. W. C. Wood, residence 120 South Broadway, says: "When a visit to Fall River, Mass., I learned that Doan's Kidney Pills had been a household necessity in that city for years. Naturally when a person has backache themselves and friends, acquaintances and relatives continually insist that a particular remedy shall be tried, you at last consent. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, long before they were so extensively known in New Mexico as at present. I have not the slightest hesitation in publicly stating that I know from experience as well as observation that this remedy can be absolutely depended upon in all cases of kidney complaint causing backache, lumbago or other symptoms which follow in the wake of that far too prevalent annoyance."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE MAN WINS CONTEST

While Meadow City High School Gets Second.

FIRST ANNUAL ORATORICAL PROVES HUGE SUCCESS

The first annual interscholastic oratorical contest held last night at the Elks' opera house was a notable success. As a result of the event, Donald Young of the Agricultural college preparatory department was awarded the first prize, given by O. A. Matson, and Francis D. Clark of the Las Vegas high school received the second award, presented by Leonard & Lindemann.

The contestants were greeted by a full house and each one acquitted himself or herself with the greatest credit. The innovation is one which has aroused the enthusiasm of students and educators all over the territory and the contest hereafter will be a regular annual event. It is expected to prove a great stimulus to the territorial study of public speaking, one of the most important adjuncts of a college curriculum.

Elmer Sackett, of the Albuquerque high school, was first on the program with a good oration on "A Great Conviction of the World." She was followed by Lillian E. Winders, of the Gallup high school, who had an exceedingly bright dissertation on "Woman's Sphere in Life," which was much enjoyed and heartily applauded.

Donald Young, the prize winner from the preparatory department of the Agricultural and Mechanical college at Mesilla park was the next speaker. His oration on "Citizenship," was remarkably well prepared and well delivered, although Mr. Young's gestures were not as easy as they might have been. The young orator's speech, however, entirely pleased the audience, who were with him in the decision.

May Ross, of the Las Vegas normal university was next with a most clever oration on "The Power of Imagination," and she made a decidedly good impression. Lawrence Hield, of the preparatory department of the University of New Mexico, followed, taking as his subject, "Abraham Lincoln."

Lawrence D. Clark, of the Las Vegas high school, spoke on "A National Menace." His effort was a splendid one and he received generous applause. Miss Laura Wood, of the Santa Fe high school, was last on the program with a sparkling oration on "Twentieth Century Patriotism."

The program was a genuine treat from start to finish and every member of the packed house enjoyed the contest hugely. It was a forcible object lesson on the splendid development of the schools of New Mexico, and the contest which is to be an annual event hereafter will be most popular. The evening's entertainment was made much more enjoyable by the excellent music which varied the program. Miss Campbell, after singing Marchetti's "For All Eternity," which brought forth a most enthusiastic encore, sang another little song which also made a hit. The orchestra added greatly to the felicity of the occasion with several masterly selections.

While the judges were making their decision, the "Varsity, A. and M. college and the Albuquerque high school made things exciting for a while with their yell, the "Parsons," especially raising the roof after it was announced that one of their college mates had won the first award.

CHRISTMAS GIFT FOR SLAVIO IS $50 AND COSTS

PAYS PENALTY FOR ASSAULT UPON ABRAN DIMAS

One Eusebio Vigil, known to fame as the former superintendent de escuelas de condado de Bernalillo, was the recipient of a handsome Christmas gift yesterday from Judge Ira A. Abbott of the district court.

The gift consisted in a fine of fifty dollars and costs, making a grand total of $95. As a token of his appreciation Slavio tendered in return the full amount, including the costs, breathing a whispered prayer of thankfulness that he was not given a sentence in the county jail.

It will be remembered without difficulty that Slavio was recently convicted of plain assault without any force, upon the person of a small man named Abran Dimas, at which time Slavio did strike, beat and snarl said Abran upon the head with a heavy loaded quirt. This occurred on the 29th day of June, 1904. Strenuous efforts, it will be recalled were made to have Slavio indicted at the following session of the grand jury but for some mysterious reason Slavio was not indicted. The last grand jury, however, returned a true bill, Slavio was tried and found guilty, and upon the payment of the fine the incident is now regarded as closed. At least Slavio doesn't want to hear any more about it.

M'CLURE GETS LIFE SENTENCE IN PENITENTIARY

Will Be Taken to Santa Fe by Sheriff Today.

DEFENSE MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR COURT'S CLEMENCY

Emello McClure, convicted of one of the most brutal murders ever committed in New Mexico, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Abbott to ninety-nine years in the penitentiary. Sheriff Perfecto Armijo will leave this morning for Santa Fe with the prisoner who will at once begin the serving of his term.

The matter, with which the readers of the Morning Journal are familiar, was an unusually cold-blooded and wanton crime. The victims of McClure were Nicholas Sanchez and Carmel Bani and the murder took place at La Posta, crossing on the Rio Puerco last June.

McClure killed both men with an axe and threw their bodies into an eighty-foot well. There were four in the party, coming in to Albuquerque with wool from Sanchez' ranch, and for a time there were grave suspicions that Andalacio Padilla, the boy, whose life was spared, knew of the murder than he desired to tell. Until a few days ago when he pleaded guilty, McClure protested his innocence.

McClure is a half-breed negro and native and he has borne a bad reputation in the county since he was a boy. It is said by some that he is a degenerate and that his mind is unsound.

Yesterday morning Judge W. C. Heacock made an eloquent plea on behalf of his client, and gave a brief history of the life of the boy. He stated that in his opinion, and in the opinion of many others, the boy was not mentally what he should be and recited an instance which occurred several years ago in which McClure was hanging up by the neck in the zone of making him confess to some crime. The extreme brutality of the crime, however, made the court feel justified in giving the prisoner the extreme imprisonment.

STANTON BOUND OVER FOR KILLING INDISPOSED CALF

Respected Citizen Is Placed in the Jugoado.

DEFUNCT BOVINE STIRS UP
ANIMOSITY IN BARELAS

There is again something doing in Barelas, the storm center of Bernalillo country. This time Slavio is not directly concerned. In fact, roughly speaking, Slavio can be said to be concerned more by analogy than otherwise. For the leading role this time is being played by a calf. At least the calf occupied the center of the statute previous to the grand finale of the tragedy.

The half-starved bovine which by its innocent bawling annoyed the neighborhood, was relieved of its misery by A. B. Stanton, a veteran of the civil war, who shot the poor animal with the same old army gun which saw service at the battle of Pigeon Ranch. Leandro Aldarez, Leandro, highly wroth, went to the office of Justice Felipe Romero, at Los Ranchos de Albuquerque and caused a warrant to be sworn out for the arrest of Stanton. The papers in the case were served by Constable Apodaca, who arrested Stanton and put him in jail without ceremony.

Yesterday the case was given a hearing in the court of Justice Romero and Stanton was held to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000 bonds on the charge of killing cattle.

Stanton is an old and respected citizen of Bernalillo county. He has been "fermiste" the gang of corrupt politicians who have been holding office in Bernalillo county, and has incurred the enmity of a number of Slavio's henchmen in Barelas. Stanton claims that he can prove that the calf in question was not fed or cared for, and that his killing the animal was an act of humanity.

Stanton's friends are highly indignant at his incarceration and claim that it is political spite work. Friends of the calf assert that Stanton committed murder in the first degree and allege that the bovine was wantonly cut down while in the full bloom of young calfhood. Stanton says that the untrained voice of the calf made life miserable and night hideous for himself and family and that in view of the animal's emaciated condition, it was an act of philanthropy to put it out of its misery.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE WILL ORGANIZE IN CITY TOMORROW

At 9 o'clock tomorrow morning at the First Methodist church in this city a meeting will be held for the organization of an anti-saloon league for New Mexico and Arizona. The meeting will be presided over by Rev. W. W. Havens, acting superintendent for New Mexico and Arizona. Delegates will be present from the Christian Evangelical denominations and from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The sessions of the convention will be open to the public and the published announcement asks that all friends of the church as opposed to the saloon and its kindred evils are urged to attend.

Mr. Havens is a well known organizer for the league and has been prominent in the work of the organization in the east. The league has its strongest hold in Ohio, where during the recent campaign it was a very considerable factor in the defeat of Herrick for governor.

CUPID'S MIRROR.

"The beauty of a woman's face or figure is but the external sign of the good health within," says Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the specialist in women's diseases.

Further, to be happy and beautiful, one must naturally have good health. Now, if a woman has drags down feelings, together with constantly returning pains and aches, a too great drain upon her vitality and strength, she will never look beautiful. The feelings of nervousness, the belogged mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, all result from those disorders peculiar to women, and the only way to effect their cure is to strike at the source of the difficulty. There is every reason why she should visit some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century like Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge.

During a long period of practice, Doctor Pierce found that a prescription made up entirely of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, cured ninety-eight per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in a form that can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

In many cases Dr. R. V. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will fit the needs and put the body in healthy condition.

So sure of it is Dr. Pierce, he offers a reward of $50 for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering you a cheap substitute.

Send in encient stamps to pay expense of mailing and get Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper covers, free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

Lassoed White Deer.

One of the most novel captures of wild game ever made in that which took place last Wednesday afternoon under the rim rock of the Mogollon mountains near Jerome, when a rancher by the name of Ames chased and lassoed a deer, and now has the creature in his possession in Jerome.

Yuma Grown Brooms.

A feature of the Yuma county fair exhibit, being collected by Commissioner Townsend, is a couple of brooms made by A. Hanna, of Yuma valley. The corn from which the brooms are made was grown in this valley and is a splendid specimen of long fine husk.—Yuma Sentinel.

Awful Slaughter of Rabbits.

T. A. Riordan, T. A. Flynn and John Criez returned today from a rabbit hunt at Canyon Diablo. They reported they killed fifty-three. We saw one which looked like it had died from fright of continuous firing, and we have concluded the count is fifty two short, or they would have shown them.—Flagstaff Gem.

Another Company for Hanover District
The Rip Gold Mining company was organized in St. Louis on the 9th with a capital stock of $500,000 with Thomas H. Forrester as president; Marshall D. Gibson, vice president; Thomas P. Plumridge, secretary and Treasurer, and Thomas L. Gibson, general manager. The company was organized for the purpose of working properties in the Central and Hanover districts.

Silver City Affray.

Robert L. Steele was severely cut in the side and on the arm at the Silver City club house in a controversy had with another party alleged to be M. R. Ballou. The latter was arrested on the charge, but was later released, no complaint having been sworn out against him and no evidence being forthcoming. Considerable mystery surrounds the unfortunate affair, no one seeming to know who did it or how it was done, the injured man himself, it is reported, refusing to discuss the matter.

His Name is "Ham and Eggs."

A Mexican bearing the euphonious name of Ham and Eggs who spent nine months of 1904 in the county jail, but so far has kept out of the place in 1905, went into the Roberts and Leahy Mercantile company's store the other day to buy his Christmas presents, says the Lordsburg Liberal. He thought there were no one to wait on him, and so helped himself. He picked out a handsome toilet box, and as the wrapping paper was not handy put it under his coat. He did not understand how to work the cash register, and so dodged it. As it happened Mr. Leahy saw the operation, and introduced Ham and Eggs to Judge McGee, who sent him to jail for ninety days to give him a chance to compare the board furnished by Sheriff Farnsworth with that dealt out by Sheriff Blair.

Had Their Nerve.

Ex-Delegate Rodey, accompanied by W. B. Childers, E. A. Miera and J. J. Sheridan, passed through the city Friday, en route to Tucson to hold a joint statehood meeting. The gentlemen certainly had their nerve with them to go into that anti-statehood hotbed, Tucson, to hold a joint-statehood meeting, but then none of the four has ever been accused of lacking in nerve, in a good cause.—Lordsburg Liberal.

He Was Stowed Up.

Dr. Stowell was called to Brock's ranch by telegram last Saturday to attend to the injuries of Sam Barnett, who was badly hurt by a horse falling on him. Barnett was unconscious when the doctor arrived at the ranch and it required several hours' attention from the doctor to bring him to consciousness. An examination showed that the patient had sustained a broken shoulder blade, as well as a dislocation of the shoulder and four broken ribs.—Silver City Enterprise.

ABSINTHE MADE HIM WANT

A TON OF CORN HUSKS
Laboring under the hallucination that he had drowned a thousand monkeys and that his friends had been turned into his enemies, J. C. Burle, known as "Frenchy," was adjudged insane yesterday by Judge Hicks and committed to the territorial asylum, says the Prescott Journal-Miner.

Testimony was given by witnesses relating to various phases of a freaky disposition, one instance being where he had gone to an acquaintance to secure a loan of money with which he desired to buy a ton of corn husks with the object of disposing of them to tame manufacturers. It is said that excessive use of absinthe was the principal cause of his demented condition.

FALLING PLASTER ALMOST

LAYS OUT THE COURT
Judge Kent had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday morning says the Phoenix Republican. A section of the ceiling of the court room directly over his head fell and grazed his arm. The section was about five feet long and two feet wide. If the judge had been sitting in his usual position the plastering would have fallen on upon his head. It happened, though, that at the moment he was leaning forward on his desk speaking to one of the attorneys in the case of Wedgeworth against Davies. The incident disclosed that the judge is in possession of finely trained nerves or none at all, for he did not manifest the slightest perturbation. He looked at the ceiling and remarked that he thought there would be no further precipitation of plaster. The bystanders believed that it had only begun to fall. The bailiff took a long pole and knocked all the plastering off that seemed loose and the trial of the case in hand proceeded.

A Shoe Store in the Making

The shoe business of this clothing store has been built. It is yet possessed of a healthy natural growth. It began small—it expanded—it is still building. Today we sell three times the number of shoes we sold three years ago, six times the number we sold five years ago. WHY? It grew for three main reasons, viz:

Hanan Shoes — Douglas Shoes — Guaranteed Quality

Years ago we sold any make of shoes. Now we concentrate our efforts in selling the two best lines in their respective classes, and guarantee every pair to give entire satisfaction.

Hanan Shoes sell at $5.50 to $6.50.
Douglas Shoes sell at $2.50 to $5.00.
