GUTHRIE, O. T., March 24.—Thirty leading negro Republicans of the territory, including some men of national reputation, have issued call for a convention of negro voters of Oklahoma in this city April 12 to organize an independent political party. It is expected to start here and push the organization among all negroes of the south and west.

G. Warner; secretary and treasurer, C. H. Calf; secretary, Guy Phillips; second secretary, J. W. Ireland; local treasurer, D. S. H. Smith.

Oxford and Cambridge at Chess.

Heber Clark on the Silver Question.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 24.—The annual board of trade banquet is to be held this evening and the occasion promises to be one of the most interesting of its kind in the history of the organization, inasmuch as the directors have secured one of the ablest and best informed men in the country to deliver an address on the silver question. The speaker will be Charles Heber Clark, secretary of the Manufacturers' club of Philadelphia.

After the Newspapers.
ALBANY, N. Y., March 24.—Mr. Martin, Democrat, of New York, has introduced in the assembly a bill drawn on the lines of the Alford bill, recently passed by the California legislature, making it a misdemeanor for a proprietor or the publisher to misrepresent the circulation of his publication for the purpose of securing advertising or other patronage.

There Will Be Bloodshed.
LONDON, March 24.—A correspondent of the Daily Dispatch, who is traveling in Ulster, writes that preparations have gone so far that nothing can prevent bloodshed in case the home rule bill is passed. Despite the denials of Mr. Morely, chief secretary of Ireland, the correspondent says it is certain the military authorities have accommodations for a formidable body of troops.

Packery and Stock Yards.
FORT WORTH, Tex., March 24.—One of the greatest transactions ever consummated in the south has been closed here in the packery deal, by which a Boston syndicate, headed by W. W. Simpson, of Boston, secured the great Fort Worth packery and stock yards. The forfeiture for the first payment was promptly put up. Mr. Simpson declares this will be the third greatest cattle market on the continent, one to acquire national and international reputation.

Clemency for the Bakerville Murderers.
ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 24.—The sentences of Will and Tom Whitson, murderers, who were to hang at Bakerville to-day, have been commuted by Gov. Carr to thirty years in the penitentiary. These were two of the men supposed to have been lynched at the time of the alleged riot in Bakerville, in which the press of the country was falsely informed that a hundred or more of the posse and assailants had perished.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Another List of Nominations—Who They Are—A New Statistician—Capital Notes.

NEW NOMINATIONS.
WASHINGTON, March 24.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate:
John S. Seymour, Connecticut, commissioner of pensions.
Max Judd, Missouri, consul general for the United States at Vienna.
John G. Carter, Louisiana, commissioner of revenue for the district of Louisiana.

Silas W. Lamont, Wisconsin, commissioner of general land office.
William H. Sims, Mississippi, first assistant secretary of the interior.
Edwin A. Powers, Washington, D. C., to be assistant commissioner of general land office.

Henry C. Bell to be second deputy commissioner of pensions.
Horace H. Lorton, Tennessee, to be United States circuit judge for 6th judicial circuit.

To be marshals of the United States: Frank White, Nebraska, for the district of Nebraska; George P. Peffer, of New Jersey, for the district of New Jersey.

WHO THEY ARE.
John S. Seymour is a lawyer by profession, about 45 years of age, and a resident of Norwalk, Conn. Two years ago he was elected state senator, which was his first public service. At present he is state insurance commissioner.

William H. Sims, assistant secretary of the interior, has a fine record in his native state of Mississippi. He was a soldier of the confederacy and left a leg upon the field of battle. He is a resident of Columbus.

Henry C. Bell, appointed second deputy commissioner of pensions, has been for several years a clerk in the pension office and has risen by merit to a position of responsibility there. He is a native of Illinois. On the last report of the department he is carried as a third-class clerk at $1,600.

Horace H. Lorton, nominated to be judge of the 6th judicial district, is a present chief justice of the supreme court of Tennessee. President Harrison nominated Benjamin Hanchett, of Michigan, for the place, but the nomination was not confirmed. Judge Lorton is regarded as the ablest jurist in his state.

E. A. Powers is a lawyer of Washington. He is a native of Connecticut. Some years ago he went to South Dakota and began the practice of law, but two or three years ago he transferred his practice to this city, where he has been acting in the capacity of counsel for the National Forestry association, of which he is an active member.

S. W. Lamont, of Wisconsin, commissioner of the general land office, is a warm personal friend of Senator Vilas and received the unqualified endorsement of that gentleman. Mr. Lamont is a native of New York, but went to Wisconsin before the war, and at the breaking out of that struggle joined the army and served as a captain. He has served his state as senator and district attorney, and as a county judge.

WASHINGTON WAITS.
The Missouri congressional delegation has involved itself in a pretty row over the federal patronage.

One of the most interesting developments of the day at the White house was the fact that the secretary of the commission of pensions had been offered to ex-Congressman Wheeler and declined.

Postmaster General Bissell tells the congressmen that thus far not a single postmaster had been appointed who had not the endorsement of a member of the congress. He thought, however, that the question of candidates should, in a measure at least, be decided by the people of the locality.

See, Morton has appointed Judge Henry A. Robinson, of Detroit, Mich., statistician of the agricultural department, vice J. R. Dodge, whose resignation was yesterday accepted, to take effect April 1. Judge Robinson, who is the labor commissioner of mines, was backed for the position by Don M. Dickinson and Private Secretary Thurber. He is an expert statistician.

He Has Two Wives.
Wm. I. Riker, a telegraph operator for the A. & P. road at Albuquerque, discharged for cause a day or so ago, is in more trouble. His wife has petitioned the supreme court of Kings county, N. Y., for divorce on the ground that he had a wife living from whom he had never been divorced; that her name was Jennie D. Riker, and that Riker had been married to her on April 2, 1883, by the Rev. David S. Parmelee, at Manassas, Monmouth county, N. J. She alleges further that prior to the plaintiff's marriage to Riker he exhibited to her a paper, which he assured her was a "decree of divorce absolute," and which purported to be issued "in accordance with the laws of God and of Mammon" by the New Jersey court of errors and appeals.

The hearing of Juan Gonzales who shot and killed Sereviano Pena, at Galisteo, on Sunday night, and Ambrosio Madrid, charged with being accessory to the crime, was concluded before Squire Garcia this forenoon. There were five witnesses examined and the evidence showed that the crime was brutal and unprovoked. Gonzales admitting that he was drunk when he fired the fatal shot. Both men were recommended to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Trusts and Combinations.

Are unpopular. But there is one form of trust against which no one has any thing to say. That is the trust which the public repose in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the best of it is the trust is fully justified by the merit of the medicine. For, remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

The A. & P. Troubles.

All trains on the A. & P. road are again delayed to-day, and while the stormy weather has something to do with it, the labor controversy undoubtedly is also largely responsible for the irregular movement of trains. No east-bound train came in over this road last night and this morning's mail train from the south will not get in before 12 o'clock to-night. There has been no tie-up of the road ordered by the Brotherhood of Railway Employees, but matters are rapidly nearing a crisis so far as this particular new organization is concerned. As to the position of the A. & P. management and the older labor organizations the Albuquerque Citizen of last evening says:

"Mr. T. R. Gabel, general superintendent of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, is to-day in receipt of telegrams from Mr. P. M. Arthur, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive engineers, and Mr. F. P. Sargeant, grand master Brotherhood of Locomotive firemen, in which they advise him that they have telegraphed representatives of their orders here that they must, comply strictly with the laws governing those orders and conform in every particular to the schedules now in effect with the railroad company. This is additional evidence of the honorable and conservative spirit that has always characterized the chiefs of these organizations, and which has placed these orders at the high standard they now occupy."

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism, but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hip and leg, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and get well in one day. 60 cents per bottle for sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr."
