Lesnet's bondsmen will have his shortage to make good. This shortage accounts for his absence, and all his friends are shocked at its discovery. Lesnet has some property which his bondsmen will try to utilize in order to save themselves on their obligations. There is no man in this community who has heretofore been held in higher esteem by our citizens, than Receiver Lesnet. The worst feature in his defalcation and desampment is that he leaves an invalid wife and seven small children in straitened circumstances.

SAN JUAN SIFTINGS.
The lumber has been delivered at the Kutz arroyo for the flume of the south side canal, and work will be commenced at once under the direction of Mr. Blahop.

LINCOLN COUNTY NOTES.
The White Oaks school board has decided to hold an election, as required by law, on the 22d day of April, to vote bonds for the construction of a public school building.

Gambling will soon be one of the lost arts in White Oaks. The new license of $200 payable in advance, for the right to operate only one single game, has knocked the "boys" off the Christmas tree.

A Tulare correspondent writes: "The sharper who was recently trailed at White Oaks, for fraudulently representing a sailing and loan association of Denver has been at work here, and has succeeded in victimizing several of our citizens—after which he skipped by the light of the moon."

W. T. Bowman, of the Penasco country, reports that the mountain fever has prevailed there for several months. Five people died in his neighborhood. There has been a diphtheria epidemic and several recent cases have been reported. Over on the Rio Grande side of the mountains,

Trusted the Fisherman's Scales
"Have you got your scales with you?" said the trout to the sucker.
"I have," answered the sucker. "Why?"
"Well," said the trout. "I'm going to take that fish, and I'd like to be weighed before I leave the brook, just for my own satisfaction."—Puck.

The Noble Art of Self Defense. Met forth by an Authority.
Self defense instinctive. Persons who find themselves afflicted with heart disease as manifested by its many symptoms, palpitation short breath, irregular pulse, pain in side or shoulder, another, fainting or dropsy, etc., naturally desire a defense against what may terminate fatally. For the express purpose remedy has been devised by Dr. Miles New Heart Cure, sold by A. C. Ireland, Jr., on a guarantee. Mrs. O. F. Perkins, of Northwood, Ia., says, Dr. Miles New Heart Cure, saved her life. She suffered from palpitation and heart would frequently beat as high as 125 a minute. Was not expected to live. Was a mere skeleton, no relief from physicians. New Heart Cure cured her.

A Modest Maid.
Young Lochinvar came down from the west,
By affection deep incited,
To claim the maiden most modest
To whom his mother was pledged.
"Oh, Mary mine! My matchless maid!
You know I love you madly,
And I have built a home," he said,
"Which needs your presence sadly."
"Tis but a modest little nest,
The rooms are two in number,
One room to cook in, one for rest,
All built of unadorned lumber."
"Why, John!" cried she. Her burning face
She hid upon her breast.
"How can one build a modest place
With lumber all unadorned?"
Terra Haute Express.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are known to be the safest, surest, and best purgative medicine ever offered to the public. They are mild, yet certain in their effects, give tone and strength to the stomach, and keep the system in a perfectly healthy condition.

What She Wanted.
In a furniture store:
Who is that very homely woman?
She is one of our best customers.
What did she sell her to-day?
A full-length mirror.
There is no reason why customers should be allowed to suffer from loathsome scrofulous sores and glandular swellings when such a pleasant, effective, and economical medicine as Ayer's Sarsaparilla may be procured of the nearest druggist. Be sure you get Ayer's.

His Status.
What is the social status of that young flibberty, who comes to see our Mary? asked Mr. Fangle.
Oh, he never stays later than 10 replied Mrs. Fangle.—Drake's Magazine.

Copy of Original.
VAN WART, Ohio, July 11, 1899.
Gents—This is to certify that I had been called to attend to a case of a lady who had been drawn over to one side. My hip was in so that she could lay her hand in the cavity, and I could do no work for over one year. I tried some of the best physicians and did almost everything I could hear or think of, and nothing did me any good until I purchased a bottle of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, of Hines & Son, druggists, Van Wert, Ohio. Four bottles cured me and have never had it since.
We certify to the above testimonial.
Hines & Son, Druggists.

What He Could Give.
No, said a merchant to a traveling man, I get all I want from another house in your town; I never did like you firm very much, anyhow. It's no use to talk, you couldn't give me anything.
Oh, yes; I can give you something.
What is it? asked the merchant, his curiosity at once aroused.
I can give you 2 per cent discount for cash.—Merchant Traveler.

Mother's Recommendation.
We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and more are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say that it has broken up bad colds in our children.—Centerville, South Dakota, Citizens. 50 cents bottles for sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

A Benefit Entertainment.
Of course, said Blifkins, discontentedly, I ain't the man to hesitate for a minute or complain when it comes to helping those who are in distress, but if you figure it right down I am a good deal of a fool to suffer myself.

You a flood sufferer!
Well, I should say so. I have been with my wife for four amateur theatrical entertainments and two strawberry festivals in the past two weeks.—Merchant Traveler.

Birds of Passage
Between this and the other side of the broad Atlantic, in the shape of tourists, commercial travelers and mariners, agents "on the road," steamboat captains, ship's surgeons and "all sorts and conditions" of travelers, emigrant and new settlers appreciate and testify to the preventive and remedial properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in sea sickness, nausea, malarial and rheumatic trouble, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. Against the prejudicial influences of climate, crudely cooked or unaccustomed diet and impure water, it is a sovereign safeguard, and has been so regarded by the traveling public for over a third of a century. No form of malarial fever, from the calenture of the Pacific and the broken bone fever of the Mississippi, to its milder types, can resist the curative action of this benignant preserver and restorer of health, a veritable boon to persons in feeble health or liable to incur disease.

The Voice of Experience.
"And those are some of the letters she has sent you? I am afraid she is possessed of neither womanliness nor sentiment."
"What gives you that idea?"
"On none of the letters is the writing crossed. No true woman ever found one sheet of paper large enough to contain all she wanted to say. She would cross her lines once at least. I'd advise you to be careful and not get entangled by that girl."

Cholera in Pennsylvania.
Swickley, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for it. Several persons who had been troubled with cholera for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine.

A Peculiar Family.
"That office boy of yours seems to be quite smart and intelligent."
"Yes; and he comes of a very peculiar family."
"Indeed?"
"Yes. There is never any sickness in it during the winter. His uncles, aunts, grandfathers and grandmothers all die in fine weather. In short, during the base ball season."

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and had a number of different remedies, but was none of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that he is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Why He Bought His Wife Flowers.
"The scent of the violets makes Patti so hoarse that she can scarcely speak," said Gasser to Chinner.
That evening Mr. Chinner took home a large bunch of violets to Mrs. Chinner.

Get the Genuine.
If you suffer with lame back, especially in morning, Alcock's Plasters are a sure relief.
If you can not sleep, try an Alcock Plaster, well up between the shoulder blades—often relieves—sometimes cures. Try this before you resort to opiates.
If any of your muscles are lame—joints stiff—feel as if they wanted oiling—or if you suffer with any local pains or aches these plasters will cure you.
If you use them once you will realize why so many plasters have been made in imitation of them. Like all good things, they are copied as closely as the law allows. Don't be duped by taking an imitation when it is as easy to get the genuine.
If you always insist upon having Alcock's Porous Plasters and never accept a substitute you will not be disappointed.

A Sure Sign.
When the maiden lifts her foot to her knee As she sits herself down to chin To a caller, the act is a sign that she is leaving the manella.

Some of the Evidence
Unquestionably one of the greatest men in history today is Dr. W. H. H. of Highlands, Colo.

Miss Mary E. Harlow
Noticing the accounts of the cure made by Dr. Harlow in the daily paper, I concluded to take my little daughter to him, which I did. He informed me that the child could be cured by proper treatment. I placed my daughter in his care. The doctor gave me one of his London Steam Inhalant Atomizers, which I took home and used on my little daughter three times a day, and all her bad symptoms have left her. She has gained rapidly in strength and looks better than she ever did, and is now entirely well. The treatment is painless, and the child would cry to use the inhaler, and it is empty wonder how early a child can be treated. I am confident there are many parents neglecting their little ones by letting them suffer from coughs and colds. I would advise you to move them with all means when you have the opportunity.
Dr. Charles Hume gives his London Hospital treatment. His office are in the Peoples Bank Building, Room 212, Denver, Colo.
Patients at a distance are treated as success falls as those who visit the office. A carefully prepared symptom blank is sent to all applicants.
