BRIEF WIRINGS.

An Appointment.
WASHINGTON, May 26.—The president has appointed William E. Quinn, of Michigan, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Netherlands.

Between two Capitals.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 26.—The bicycle relay ride from here to Frankfort, Ky., begins to-day. A message from Gov. Altgeld to Gov. Brown is to be delivered to the latter to-morrow evening.

Brooklyn's Children's Day.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 26.—Brooklyn to-day celebrates its annual unique event—Children's day. The public and the Sunday schools pour out their thousands, and a line of 70,000 is formed and reviewed by the city officials.

Will Enjoin Them.
CHICAGO, May 26.—The first shot in the Sunday opening fight has been fired. U. S. District Attorney Mitchell, following a conference with Attorney General Olney, in Washington, has sent a lengthy telegram of instructions to Assistant District Attorney Hand, in Chicago. That official has already begun the work of drawing up a bill for an injunction restraining the World's fair officials from opening the fair gates Sunday. The application for an injunction will be filed in the United States district court as soon as completed, which will be to-day or to-morrow.

To Hang To-day.
AUGUSTA, Ga., May 26.—Henry Ramsey, the negro murderer of Marshal Bob Harris, is to be hanged here to-day.

Columbia, S. C.—George Kinard, an aged negro, was last April found guilty of a brutal assault on Mrs. Addison, a white woman living at Irmo, and sentenced to hang to-day. On his trial it was sought to be established that the tracks leading to the place where the crime was committed were his, but an exhibition of his feet in court disproved it. It was sworn that the assailant whistled at the time of the assault, but Kinard had two front teeth out, and it was demonstrated that this precluded whistling. The woman, however, swore to his identity unhesitatingly, and that sealed his fate.

Another Defect.
WASHINGTON, May 26.—Attorney General Olney has received a telegram from New York stating that Judge Lacombe, of the circuit court of New York, had decided that section 8 of the Tamm law, though decided to be constitutional, was still ineffectual, because no provision is made how or by whom the order of deportation of Chinese is to be executed. This is said to be a new question which was not raised or in any way involved in previous appeals.

Severed the Arabs.
CHICAGO, May 26.—Fire broke out yesterday in the stable sheds at Garfield park. The noted resort is being used by a band of Arabs in giving performances somewhat similar to those of the wild west shows. The men all escaped, but three camels, seven blooded Arabian horses and 500 feet of sheds were consumed. There was some scene of confusion during the conflagration. The Arabs were frantic and considerably hampered the work of the fire department.

The Arabs assert that the loss is $40,000. A report from one of their Bedouin cigarettes is supposed to have caused the blaze.

FINANCIAL.
The Administration Paying Every Wire Against the Sherman Silver Act.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The president and Sec. Carlisle realize that they have a strong field for missionary work in order to secure the repeal of the Sherman silver law. The administration has insisted all along that the Sherman law is not responsible for the gold stringency at the treasury department. In a table which has just been prepared by the secretary of the treasury the fact is set forth very plainly how $45,000,000 of gold has disappeared during the last year from the vaults of the treasury for which nothing was gained in return except silver bullion. More than $55,000,000 worth of coin certificates were issued last year for the purchase of bullion under the Sherman law. Of these $45,000,000 worth were presented to the sub-treasuries for their redemption and they were redeemed in gold. Sec. Carlisle has sent forth this array of figures as a danger signal. To the administration it indicates the impossibility of keeping gold in the treasury so long as the holders of certificates issued for the purchase of bullion insist on immediately presenting them to the treasury for redemption in gold. It will not be long, according to the idea of the government financiers, until the country will be brought to a silver basis by withdrawing every dollar of gold from the treasury.

Silver men claim a majority in the next session. But it may be stated now that every influence of the administration will be brought to bear to secure the repeal of the Sherman law as one of the very first acts of the extra session. The opponents of that measure have been at work industriously since the adjournment of congress and claim that they have some surprises in store for the silver men.

SHOT HIS FRIEND.

John E. Eberle Did It by Accident and Blows Out His Own Brains.

John E. Eberle committed suicide at Silver City day before yesterday. Eberle shot a man at Silver Creek a few days ago and at the time it was incorrectly reported that the man was Sam Settle, but the wounded man's name is Phoenix. Eberle was brought to Silver City Tuesday evening and wanted one of the guards to get a physician to go to the Mogollons to attend Phoenix, saying that he would give $500 for a doctor to go out there. Eberle said that it was an accident that the pistol went off and shot Phoenix. Wednesday morning the guard who was with Eberle all night at Broadway hotel, watching him, left Eberle in bed and went out to see about getting breakfast. The guard left a double barrel shot gun in the room with him. He had been gone but a very short time when a terrible explosion was heard. Eberle had placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and fired. The whole top of his head was blown off and his brains were scattered around the room.

Eberle was one of the oldest residents of the Mogollon mining region and was the owner of some very valuable property there. He sold the famous Col. Confidence group of mines there about four years ago, and only a few weeks since received the final payment. He had property also at Los Angeles, Cal., and his body will probably be sent there for burial.

Phoenix, the man whom Eberle shot, is in a precarious condition, but it is possible that he may recover.

THE RAILROADS.

The destruction of the A. & P. bridge over the Rio Puerco by fire yesterday delayed traffic over that line.

There is no doubt about the Union Pacific railroad building into Raton at an early date. It is now within eighteen miles of there, says the Range.

A. G. Thompson, general passenger agent of the Texas system of the Santa Fe, has been transferred to a similar position on the Atlantic & Pacific.

The White Rock canon bridge on the Santa Fe Southern road was burned last night. It is being rebuilt to-day, and until finished trains will transfer across the break.

Gen. Supt. Miller, Chief Engineer Harris and Chas. B. Eddy went to Pecos on a special train the other day to arrange for yard room for the cars of material that will be coming soon for the Pecos Valley railroad extension—Eddy Argus.

Only two baggage cars are now employed on the A. & S. F. in and out of El Paso, the other cars being required elsewhere. The road has in use every makeshift of a car it owns, and business in both the freight and passenger department is so heavy as to cause difficulty in handling it.

$50,000 BLAZE.

San Marcial Visited by a Disastrous Conflagration Last Evening.

San Marcial suffered a disastrous conflagration last evening. The fire originated in W. B. Dawson's short-order restaurant at the corner of Railroad and San Marcial avenues, and spread rapidly northward. The losses are: Two-story building, owned by Fred Geisler, of Arkansas City, Kas., and occupied by Dawson, $2,500, stock, $800; one-story frame building, owned by Luis Hunsing, of Los Lunas, and occupied as a saloon by Armstrong Bros., loss on building $1,000, on stock, fixtures, etc., $1,000; one-story saloon, owned by John Longworth, loss on building $500, stock and fixtures, $300; one-story wooden store building of J. B. Allen, loss on building $1,500, stock carried about $2,000, partially saved; restaurant building of wood, owned by A. L. Kane, loss on building $800, furniture mostly saved; one-story wooden store building with adobe fire walls, owned and occupied by J. N. Bayles with a stock of groceries and bank, loss on building $2,500, stock carried about $10,000, partially saved; a wooden and adobe building, one-story, owned and occupied by J. E. Nichols as a barber shop and lodging house, loss on building, $1,200, furniture saved; two brick and adobe buildings owned by W. J. Hanna and occupied as a restaurant and meat market by Joseph Montgomery, loss on building, $2,000, furniture saved; a wooden livery stable owned by W. J. Hanna, loss on building, $1,200; adobe store and dwelling house, owned and occupied by A. Schey, loss on building, $1,500. The flames also communicated to the new open house located on San Marcial avenue, back of the building in which the fire started, and it was totally destroyed. The loss on this building, which was a two-story adobe, is about $5,000. The loss on buildings is not far from $25,000, and with the loss on goods, furniture and fixtures will make an approximate total destruction of not far from $50,000 worth of property. Considerable insurance was carried both on buildings and stocks, but as the only insurance agent, J. E. Nichols, was one of the victims of the fire, and some of the insurance was held by Socorro agencies, it is impossible to give figures.

TERRITORIAL TIPS.

RATON RANGING.

A big charity ball takes place to-night. Hon. Casimiro Barah, of Las Animas county, Colo., was in Raton Tuesday on business.

Last week the board of directors of the Maxwell Land Grant company held its annual meeting at the general office in Raton.

Mr. Chas. A. Fox, for a number of years the active and efficient agent of Wells-Fargo in Raton, resigned last week, and F. D. Hunt, the gentlemanly agent of the A. T. & S. F., now has charge of the express business and the office is in the depot.

If the farmers under the Colfax county ditches would turn their attention to raising sugar beets, an industry would be opened up that would give employment to a large number of people and speedily enrich the tillers of the soil in those localities.

The following officers were elected by the Commercial club for the coming year: President, T. W. Collier; 1st vice president, D. W. Stevens; 2d vice president, D. Riddon; secretary, V. E. Heatwood; treasurer, C. N. Blackwell; directors, M. P. Pels, J. J. Shuler, J. W. Dwyer, C. M. Bayne, Simon Cohn.

CLAYTON CHUMUS.

Clayton is preparing for a big celebration July 4.

Louis A. C. de Baca has been doing some surveying for Louis F. Garcia, who has bought up twenty-one claims on the Trampers.

Jim Smith has just returned from the Cimarron, and reports plenty of water everywhere. The water holes on the prairies as well as the creeks are full.

Numa Raymond, of Las Cruces, arrived in town the latter part of the week. He expects his herd will arrive here in a few days, when they will be shipped from here to the northern country.

We need county record books but we don't know the amount, style or quality of said books. We are compelled to go 200 miles to the nearest county seat to find out what we need. It will cost some one of the board time and money to find out what we need, it can not be ascertained without expense—who wants to take the risk? The law makes no provision for pay to do this work, and still it must be done.—Enterprise.

GRAND COUNTY NOTES.

Edward Henry, of Las Vegas, insurance adjuster for the companies operating in New Mexico, came down to adjust the losses of John Brockman on the Miller residence and of Robt. Redding at Lone Mountain.

James S. Carter went out on yesterday's train to Silver City, where he will be married about June 1 to Miss Cornelia Breckenridge, an estimable young lady of that city, well known to many of the best people of Silver City with whom she spent a few months visiting two years ago.

There is a rumor among some of the cowboys recently coming up in the vicinity of Thompson's canon, on the other side of the Burros, that Kid and nine of his men were camped near there last week and that a white man was feeding them.

The Enterprise to-day publishes seventy mining patent notices, rendering it necessary to issue a supplement. One lot of the notices for claims of one company occupies more than fourteen columns of space and contains more printed matter than ever published in one single advertisement before west of the Missouri river.—Enterprise.

Should Fort Bayard be abandoned in the near future, as some rumors probably not very well founded would seem to indicate, there would be a rush for the mineral lands now held in the reservation. It is claimed that copper, iron, lead, gold and silver are known to exist there, probably in paying quantities. The lack of authority to mine on the reserve and the desire to keep things mum by those who are posted, until a chance is offered to make locations, have prevented any general knowledge as to the mineral wealth there.

EDDY HOOKS.

Messrs. Witherspoon and Dorkin went down to Black river a few days ago and caught forty fish.

Dr. Clough, of Denver, came in last week and took up his abode with the Colorado colony near Riverton.

Frank Battelle was arrested upon complaint of W. T. Doster, for catching and offering to sell fish. He was discharged.

Archibute Douglas is preparing plans for a $2,500 residence on Canal street for H. P. Brown, cashier of the First National bank.

The little Russian mulberry trees planted in the yard of the Pecos Valley railway offices last season now have ripe berries on them.

On the Hagerman farm is some alfalfa now in its fourth season. It is estimated that the first cutting this year will give a yield of two and a quarter tons per acre. The alfalfa is waist high almost.

Silken Bros. have placed an exhibition in the Immigration office, a sheaf of rye, grown this year, the longest stalks of which measure four feet, ten inches in length. They have twenty acres of rye that is as fine as has ever been grown anywhere.

The thirty-acre prunes orchard on the Hagerman property, adjoining Eddy, is one of the most successful and beautiful places in the Pecos valley. These trees were planted in February. These trees to about eighteen inches in height, and have grown from six inches to a foot, since that time.

Engineer Reed is now working on estimates and plans for the Hondo reservoir. Some work has been in progress all winter, but the task is now to be rushed. As soon as the plans are completed a large construction force will be put on. General Manager Eddy says the reservoir will be finished and in readiness for storing flood waters of the coming fall rains.

The board of school trustees have engaged Prof. J. A. Wood, of Winfield, Kas., as principal of the Eddy schools. He is now vice-president of the Southwest Kansas college, and is highly endorsed throughout the state. He will have a new $9,000 school building to begin in when he goes to work. The schools are to be graded and made first-class.

"Brace Up."

Is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all tired out, weak, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite, is really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's and it will brace you up."

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the south-west.

FRIDAY, MAY 26.

The Chicago World's exposition is to be opened on Sundays; this will be pleasing news to a large majority of the people of the United States.

The Infanta Eulalia is satisfied with her reception and treatment in this country and therefore let us all be happy. Enough blessing for one day this.

The senate investigating committee will soon be in New Mexico; now, boys, be on your good behavior, will you, especially you over there in San Miguel county.

Owing to a change in the directorship of the Bureau of American Republics, the people have found out, that such a one exists and that it is costing considerable money; times being hard, why not abolish that along with many other soft government snags?

J. G. ALBRIGHT, proprietor of the Albuquerque Democrat, is a candidate for appointment as secretary of New Mexico, and his candidacy is a thorn in the sides of Delegate Antonio Joseph and his comrades. Why this should be the case is not very apparent.

The Mesquero Apache reservation in this territory might, with much propriety and benefit all around, be cut down from 450,000 acres to 150,000. There are less than 500 Indians on that reservation now and the amount of land contained therein is out of all proportion to the number of Indians.

At the next election the people of San Miguel county, if they have the good sense and courage, will probably vote so that men will be selected to hold office who will catch criminals and suppress crime; that was a grand and tragic mistake they made last fall in their election; they are paying for it now.

ABOLISH THE SINECURES.

GENERAL WADSWORTH, commissioner of railroads, is making a tour of the Pacific railroads and is in the great west now; his job is one of the smoothest and easiest in the country. He has absolutely nothing to do except to draw his salary and travel in special cars. There are a good many sinecures under this great and glorious government that should be abolished; here is one way in which the Democratic administration and the Democratic congress might act in the direction of saving money and lighten the burdens of the people; but it will not be done, mark the prediction; quite the reverse, the soft jobs and the useless ones will be increased rather than decreased in the coming two years.

NEW MEXICO'S WOOL INTERESTS.

Referring to the meeting of the Texas sheep men which is called to protest against free wool, the Las Vegas Stock Grower, which claims to represent the cattle and sheep interest of New Mexico preaches the following inglorious homily:

"This coming from one of the largest Democratic states in the Union, and which is also the largest wool producing state, should have some force with the national government, and keep them from jeopardizing the prosperity of one of the largest industries of the west, as well as one which is a large factor to the income of the farmer throughout the whole Union. Unless the president and congress are wholly blind to the welfare of this industry, they will give heed to the cry of the people engaged in it. We can conceive of no greater injustice to the people of the whole country than the removal of the tariff on this staple."

However, this homily will do no good. In all likelihood wool will be placed on the free list. The territory is represented in congress by a free trade Democrat and its wool interests and sheep raisers will suffer accordingly.

OUR MEXICAN NEIGHBORS.

The United States and Mexico have made rapid progress toward "getting together" during the past year. Largely through the influence of the press and under the fostering care of the Harrison administration, American manufacturers have been attracted to that country with in, say eighteen months, until now the manufactured products of this country have a permanent foothold down there. Our exports to Mexico have increased fourfold, and those of Germany and France, heretofore exclusively used there, have correspondingly diminished.

This felicitous state of things will be further stimulated by the fact that 15,000 or 20,000 citizens of Mexico are soon to be looking toward the World's fair. One excursion agency has booked thus far 10,000 people in Mexico who will visit the fair, the first installment arriving this week, and specially elaborate preparations are being made, both in St. Louis and Chicago, to entertain the visitors. On Sept. 15 occurs "Mexico Day" at the great fair and the thousands of our neighbors who attend at that time will go forth in a manner that will go far toward keeping up the growing friendly sentiment than any other thing possibly could.

THE SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

Consistent.

There is scarcely a prominent Cleveland organ in the country that is not attacking the American side of the Behring sea dispute.—Elmira Advertiser.

Short on Relatives.

Fears are entertained that Sec. Carlisle may run short of relatives before he gets all the positions in the treasury department filled.—Detroit Tribune.

Madder and Madder.

If there are any sadder or madder men than the Indiana Independents, who supported Grover Cleveland on the reform issue last fall, they are the Independents of Massachusetts.—Boston Journal.

Incredible.

David B. Hill's latest appearance in a public capacity makes it seem stranger than ever that any one should have thought of him seriously as a candidate for the presidency.—Providence Journal.

Save in His Own Country.

In arranging his lecture tour Senator Peffer, of Kansas, has had regard to that suggestive scripture which declares that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country. All of his dates are outside of Kansas.—Kansas City Star.

An Investigation Within Limits.

President Cleveland seems to be anxious to limit the investigation of the New York custom house to the last four years. Otherwise he would not have appointed his collector of customs of four years ago to do this party job. Sometimes comparisons are odious.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Against Gladstone.

English society is opposed to home rule. The low-necked ladies of the drawing room plane of existence do not like Mr. Gladstone. It is hoped that the statesman, fortified with the dignity of years, and accustomed to the tools of the trade, will be able to stand even this latest and severest blow.—San Francisco Examiner.

The Trusts Will be Reached.

Under the new state law of New York a man who takes part in a combine or trust is liable to a fine of $50,000 or imprisonment for one year, or both. People will eventually reach all such extortions. They are un-American and must go. Live and let live is the American maxim.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Mr. Cleveland's Civil Service Reform.

A Washington dispatch this morning directs attention to Mr. Cleveland's civil service reform proposals, and his failure and the failure of his subordinate to carry them into effect. The failure is especially notable in the consular service. Some of the most conspicuous lapses from reform principles in this service the Tribune has already emphasized. This work is under the care of Josiah Quincy, and it is plainly time for him to be taken in hand. The president can not be ignorant of what Mr. Quincy is doing; still, he may not realize the full force and meaning of the assistant secretary's remarkable course.—New York Tribune.

Protection in South Carolina.

In rejoicing over the proposed building of a $200,000 factory in a neighboring town the Charleston News and Courier, one of the ablest southern organs of "tariff reform," declares that "the day is not far distant now when South Carolina will not only manufacture every pound of cotton it grows, but will have to import from other states to supply the demands of its mills. The record for the past few months is a new mill every week." That "culminating atrocity" known as the McKinley law scatters its blessings with an impartial hand. The state that gave John C. Calhoun to free trade and secession is equally favored with the rest of the Union.—New York Press.

Army Officers as Indian Agents.

See. Hoke Smith has reached a wise conclusion in determining to give the preference to army officers in appointing Indian agents. He will place, nearly all the agencies in the hands of army officers, who make better agents, undoubtedly, than most of the men appointed from civil life. They know how to make the Indians behave themselves, and this is what a great many of the other agents are unable to do. The Indians appreciate the difference, and they are less disposed to make trouble when an army man is over them. Of course none but experienced officers should be appointed. It would be absurd to appoint young men who have just graduated from West Point and have no experience of frontier life. The determination of Sec. Smith in this matter, taken in connection with other things, justifies the hope that Indian affairs will be exceptionally well managed during this administration.—Denver Republican.

Minister Stevens Did his Duty.

Minister Stevens, who has been succeeded at Honolulu by Commissioner Blount, since made Minister Blount, will return home in the near future. He will land at San Francisco and travel across the continent to his home in Maine, where he has lived the close friend and neighbor of the dead and lamented Blaine. The patriotic people of San Francisco are preparing to give him a royal welcome home. He ought to have an ovation as he travels across the continent. He is worthy of it. He caused Old Glory to wave in triumph over the islands of the Pacific, a protection for the inhabitants, and a protest against the influence of foreign governments from Great Britain to Japan. He met the situation bravely as an American patriot, and is worthy to receive the plaudits of his countrymen. He did his duty. While he was still the accredited minister, the present administration sent an ex-rebel to Honolulu, who without authority except that of the president, who had no constitutional power to appoint a "special commissioner" with such powers, headed down the flag. The American people can give Minister Stevens a welcome home which will be a protest against the unpatriotic policy of the present administration.—Des Moines Register.

BACKED UP

by a cash offer—the statements that are made by the proprietors of Dr. Sago's Catarrh Remedy. They say that their medicine will cure, perfectly and permanently, the worst case of Chronic Catarrh in the Head—that not only Catarrh itself, but all the troubles that come from it, and every thing catarrhal in its nature, are cured by the mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties of their remedy.

They can't say any more. Probably every medicine for Catarrh claims as much. But it's one thing to promise a cure—it's a very different thing to perform it. The proprietors of Dr. Sago's Remedy want to prove that they mean what they say. So they make this offer: If they can't cure your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case or how long standing, they'll pay you $500 in cash. You're sure of the money or a cure. Isn't such a medicine worth trying?

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the Little Regulators.

Where to Stop in Chicago.

The perplexing question which is every day asked by people who desire to go to Chicago to attend the World's fair is: "Where are we going to stay when we get there?" This is easily answered, and if you will go to the ticket agent of the Santa Fe, Mr. W. M. Smith, he will tell you. Arrangements have been made for the distribution by the Santa Fe company of a pamphlet entitled "Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair." This is a reliable pamphlet containing the names and addresses of about 9,000 families who will furnish accommodations to visitors from May 1 to October 31, 1893. The pamphlet also contains sectional maps which will enable the intending visitor to select any quarter of the city that he would prefer. Correspondence can then be carried on and definite arrangements made so that when visitors arrive in Chicago they can proceed at once to their quarters.

Seventy-five Convulsions, A Thrilling

There is no one but at some period in life has an experience that stands out prominently beyond all others. Such is the case of John B. Collins, of Romeo, Mich., who says: "From September to January, before using Nervine, I had at least seventy-five convulsions. After three months' use I have no more attacks." Dr. Miles' Restorative & Nervine also cures nervous prostration, headache, poor memory, dizziness, neuritis, etc., and builds up the body. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., and J. R. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained twenty pounds of flesh by taking it. Sold by A. C. Ireland, Jr., on a guarantee. Get the Doctor's book, free.

Robert—Mamma, my stomach says it is dinner time.
Mamma—You'd better go and see what time it is.
Robert (after an inspection of the clock)—Well, mamma, my stomach is three minutes fast.—Life.

Amazing Fact, Suspected by Comparatively Few.

Things that embody the most truth are frequently among the last to be realized. Incredible as it may seem, one in four has a weak or a diseased heart, the early symptoms of which are, short breath, oppression, faint and hungry spells, fluttering, pain in left side, smothering, swollen ankles, dropsy, wind in stomach, etc., and build up the body. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., and J. R. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained twenty pounds of flesh by taking it. Sold by A. C. Ireland, Jr., on a guarantee. A Mistake at Any Rate.

Freshleigh—I hear that young Rashleigh has gone and married some obscure person without any family at all, don't you know?
Wisehead—What, a messianic?
Freshleigh—No, that's not the name; a Miss Thompson or Tompkins, or something like that, I think.—Vogue.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does.

I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—for occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 80 cent bottles for sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Tenant—I sincerely hope he has, for I've tried to and failed.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A Well-Matched Pair.

Why suffer from dyspepsia, biliousness or any disease of the liver when you can be cured by Simmons Liver Regulator?

Like Lightning.

"Are you quick?" asked the hotel proprietor of the man who wanted employment as a waiter.
"Like lightning," was the reply.
"You can wager your existence that you will be like lightning so far as I am concerned."
"How is that?"
"You won't strike twice in the same place."

The Office-Seeker.

He had been seeking office, but was now on his homeward way.
"I say," he exclaimed to an old acquaintance whom he met on his journey to the depot, "you people aren't worrying about your office supply this summer, are you?"
"The subject has been giving us some bother," was the reply.
"It is unnecessary."
"Do you think so?"
"Of course I do. You noticed how late spring was, didn't you?"
"Yes."
"Well, you can't keep office-seekers out of Washington, and you can depend on getting a cold wave every time one of them strikes the executive mansion."—Washington Star.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus.

He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which he took at once. The result was immediate relief and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

A Play of Words.

"I saw you at the party yesterday, but you didn't give me a chance to speak to you."
"Ah, friend, I was swimming in one ocean of bliss. Do you happen to know Franklin S.—?"
"Hah! but she was fishing for you, eh?"
—Lustige Blätter.

His Reason.

The Wife—Do you really love me more and more every day?
The Husband—Yes, darling, for you do not play the piano nearly as much as you used to.—Vogue.

Stimulate the Blood.

Brandreth's Pills are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body—they may be called the purgative, sudorific and diuretic medicine. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease no matter by what name it may be called. One or two of them taken every night will prove an infallible remedy.

Retired in Disgrace.

"Strange death, that of the colonel?"
"Yes; ain't been the same man since the war; got so he couldn't tell a horse's age or kill a man at twenty yards, and he just went and died!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Check the First Approach.

Of rheumatism, and further attacks may be escaped, if proper precautions against exposure are taken, and there be no hereditary predisposition. Unfortunately, people who ultimately become chronic sufferers, too often neglect the trifling twinges and premonitory stiffness which herald the advent of this agonizing malady. Among the diseases for which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been found efficacious is this one, and the medicine being perfectly safe, it is certainly to be preferred to drugs used for its cure, which are frequently useless, and nothing more or less than poisonous. The substitution of this pleasant and pure blood depurant for medicinal life in a slight overdose, is a measure which may fitly be urged upon persons who desire to obtain relief safely, or who have failed to obtain it from the numerous pseudo remedies for this disease in the market.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous.

It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effective remedy known for the diseases. Mr. C. B. It is equally beneficial for lame back, pain in the side, pain in the chest, lameness, and in all painful affections requiring an external remedy. A piece of flannel saturated with Pain Balm and bound on the seat of pain is superior to any plaster. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Her Spotted Deer.

Two young ladies were examining the animals at the zoo last Sunday.
"Oh, what a beautiful spotted deer!"
And the other woman bowed her head and wept.
"Why, what is the matter with you now?"
"You don't know how it hurts my feelings to have you talk about spotted deer!"
"You had a spotted deer?"

IRRIGATION RATES.

The Water & Improvement Company Progress—Making Contracts for Water—The New Mains and Meters.

Many citizens are responding to the invitation of the Water & Improvement company and calling at the office to make application for the introduction of water into their premises. Their blank applications contain this clause referring to rates:

"For domestic and irrigating purposes combined, 75 per cent of the regular domestic rate, and in addition thereto 1 cent per 100 gallons by meter measurement. As a sufficient guarantee to the company for the irrigation privilege I agree to use not less than 10,000 gallons per acre per month for my entire premises between the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October. The rates above specified to commence as soon as the company is prepared to deliver water to said premises."

"The regular domestic rates" referred to are fixed by city ordinance, and can be readily ascertained by those interested; but it is the rate per acre for irrigation purposes that the gardener and orchardist is most interested in. This rate the company has fixed at $6 per acre per "irrigation year," which in reality is six months, from April 1 to October 1; or, in other words, it is $1 per month for the irrigation season, the applicant agreeing to consume, or let stand, for not less than 10,000 gallons per acre each month for this period of time. Standard meters will be put in to indicate the quantity of water used by every customer. This scheme eminently fair both to the company and the consumer. The minimum quantity, 10,000 gallons per month, is reckoned to be about the average quantity necessary in this country to obtain the best results. In California some irrigators use less, others more, but it is an established fact that less water is required for a certain crop in this country than in California. As to the fairness of the irrigation rates established by this company, it is said that it is much lower than the average throughout the west where results of the use of water are anything near as great as they are here. Local orchardists will clearly note this when they come to make a comparison between $6 a year per acre and what it cost them at present to secure water (and the supply is never equal to their needs) from the ditches. For instance, a man with a two-acre orchard and garden now pays for the ditch service, poor as it is, from $15 to $18 a year, whereas with the pipes on his premises water in sufficient quantity and subject to use at any moment, costs him $6 per acre or $12 per year for his whole tract. As to when the laying of the new mains will commence the public will be pleased to learn that ten days more will find this work in progress. President L. A. Hughes returned last night from San Pedro and reports the work of taking up of the twenty-one miles of wrought iron pipe going on rapidly. Beginning next week shipments of pipe will begin from Barnhill station, and Engineer Howells says they will begin laying them at once upon their arrival.

THE MINES.

Big Placer Mining Project for San Pedro—Recent Rich Strike in the Mogollons.

A party of noted New York capitalists have been quietly looking over the ground at San Pedro for some days past with a view to starting a mammoth placer mining enterprise in south Santa Fe county. Messrs. H. H. Armistead and Dr. N. W. Kingsley, of New York; Geo. Geo. C. Chester and wife, and Col. Wenner, of Rochester, and Major Beale, of Pennsylvania, compose the party. The gentlemen of the party are interested in carrying on the water development now under way, the object being to procure water for hydraulic mining, which, if successful, will enable the placers of that section to be worked to a profit. The experiment in progress is the driving of an eight-inch well on which a considerable shaft has been made. The test will be thorough. Taking the water supply already developed at a moderate depth as a basis, the chances are in favor of successful results from the experiments of this company in which case it will prove of great benefit and interest to south Santa Fe county. Mr. Jenkins, of England, is the local manager at San Pedro, and Hon. J. B. Mayo is interested in the deal. Mr. Armistead was on the ground two years ago and located several thousands acres of placer ground in that locality. Dr. Kingsley is thoroughly familiar with the rich resources of that section, having years ago been at the head of the San Pedro Copper company.

RICH GOLD FIND.
A correspondent at Mogollon writes: "The generally accepted theory is, that gold is where you find it. John Miller, an old prospector, arrived in camp yesterday afternoon and displayed considerable gold quartz, some of it exceptionally rich. He had in addition a pound or more of the yellow stuff, which he claims he panned out and washed on the ground. Miller says the veins range from six inches to four feet six inches in width. He says the claims are on Pine Creek, some five or six miles from Holt's ranch, and that all the country is located. He says furthermore that twelve claims have been located, which comprise everything in sight. His display of the glittering metal created no undue excitement here, as we are accustomed to seeing and handling rich ore every day. The trend of the vein is from northeast to southwest, and it can be distinctly traced as it cuts through the country."

THE LAS VEGAS AFFAIR.

Further Details of the Pagosa Pasture Double Murder—A Shocking Crime.

The bodies of Benigno Martinez and Juan Gallegos, the two men found dead near the Pagosa pastures, have been brought into Las Vegas. Martinez was shot through the head in two places, one ball entering the right ear and coming out at the left, the other entering below the right cheek bone and coming out at the top of the skull. Gallegos had been shot but once, the ball entering the right eye and penetrating the brain. The head of Martinez had been beaten into a jelly, every bone of the face having been smashed to pieces. A fifteen pound stone was found covered with blood, hair and brains. The two blankets of the men were found very bloody, showing that they had been shot while sleeping.

Their feet had been tied together, and the ropes fastened around the neck of a burro, so that the bodies had been dragged to a considerable distance from where the murder had been committed.

There were no signs of violence at the Martinez sheep camp, though it was evident that the camp had been selected, supplies unloaded, and a fire started the evening before. No evidence could be found that the men had slept there, but about three-quarters of a mile away, were found two blankets, one slightly bloody and one saturated with blood, while near by was a stone weighing slightly fifteen pounds, covered with blood, brains and hair. Here is where the men were killed, and it is evident they were asleep at the time, wrapped in their blankets.

At the camp could easily be perceived the tracks of three horses, while it is known that Martinez and Gallegos had no horses. The conclusion is that three men participated in the murder, two of them shooting Martinez, and one of them shooting Gallegos. The theory is that after the bodies had been rounded up for the night, and the men had gone into camp, by some means the sheep had been stampeded. The herders followed them up, and as is the custom, when the animals had quieted down, the herders took their blankets and went to sleep, not themselves returning to camp or attempting to drive the sheep back.

The sheep were found near by and not badly scattered, but no effort was made to count them. It can not, therefore, be said whether sheep stealing was the motive of the crime. This idea, however, seems to be negated by the barbarity of the murder, which would indicate a personal malice rather than a mere desire to steal. So, too, the circumstances would indicate that Martinez was the object of the murderers' vengeance, and that Gallegos was killed merely to prevent his knowledge of the crime. On the other hand, Martinez did not belong to any of the political parties, took no part in politics, was a quiet man, and one who attended strictly to his own business.

There is considerable excitement at Las Vegas over the affair and hundreds of people visited the undertaker's rooms yesterday to view the bodies. Sheriff Lorenzo Lopez, Tom Clay, Ira Gale, Frank Forsythe and others went out to the scene of the tragedy yesterday afternoon, taking with them the bounds from the penitentiary. Later developments are awaited with interest.
