The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29.

The dark horse from Missouri seems to be strictly in it with this administration.

Up to date the so-called office brokerage triumvirate and its pets are scarcely able to make much of a boast.

Fair play is a sentiment very dear to every true American heart. Let's have fair play in the matter of the Santa Fe county sherienvity.

No sheriff or collector has ever performed his official duty more faithfully than the present sheriff and collector of Santa Fe county, Chas. M. Conkline.

Silver's depression makes it all the more necessary that the west shall be alert and hard at work. Make the southwest Silver convention a rouser.

And now the staid, safe and rich old city of Baltimore is compelled to resort to clearing house certificates to carry its banks through. Silver would help them a great deal more.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND doesn't seem to realize that New Mexico is a long way from the state of Missouri. Hence he has put several of his admirers out this way in a veritable "state of misery."

As far as the people are concerned they can have no serious grounds for complaint as long as the president will continue to give them such men as Chas. F. Easley and J. H. Walker to fill the offices which good Republicans must give up. All's well that ends well in this case as in many others.

The news dispatches inform us that Geo. W. Snow has been appointed surveyor General of Utah. This is carrying out the bargain made by the democratic officials when they broke loose from the Liberals or Gentiles and confederated with the Mormons. This is consistent with the democratic rule or ruin policy. They would sooner control Utah through the Mormons than follow out the plain dictates of modern progress. Just so Gov. Altgelt favors the anarchists in Illinois.

HONEST GROVER.

A few days since an English manufacturer during an interview with the president said, "we have heard a good deal about the new tin plate works in America, and I would like to get some information about them." Mr. Cleveland replied that he had been looking for them and could not find them. At the time this ingenious conversation was going on a report made by Col. Ayers, special agent of the government, showing that 31,000,000 pounds of tin and tinned plate had been produced in the first three months of this year by the factories the president of the country could not find and knew nothing about, was on file in the treasury department. We suppose Cleveland's time is so much taken up with gold that he can not get down to tin.

SILVER IS DEPRESSED.

The mints in India have closed down. Silver under the bear influences of the monometallists is therefore down. This is not surprising. In 1891 and 1892 there was less silver produced than money and the mechanic arts demanded. Yet silver did not rise to par because these same gentlemen were not compelled to accept it as a legal tender, and consequently could give in its value. The Indian mints do not coin for private account 1 per cent of their output. This, however, does not matter. Wages are paid in silver and all other debts in gold. Therefore there millions in it. Silver buys as much bread, cotton, coffee, wool and tea as it did in 1873, when it was at a premium over gold. This metal has not depreciated, but gold has increased in value. If you look at this phase you will see where the millions come in. Compare prices and see if this is not correct.

AN INTERNATIONAL IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

As an outgrowth of the irrigation congress held in Salt Lake City, September 15, 1891, an international congress of irrigators has been called to meet at Los Angeles, October 10, this year. The importance of this will be seen from the fact that in 1890 there were 7,577,000 acres actually irrigated for crops in the United States. California contained 3,444,000 acres, and there were in the United States 16,367,794 acres under ditch. Los Angeles is the metropolis of the most beautiful irrigated region in the world. Pasadena, Pomona, Redlands, San Diego and San Bernardino are within easy reach. It is a revelation of beauty born from the arid desert. New Mexico is vitally interested in this congress as its legislature has proposed to congress the only practical solution of the arid lands question. While it is opposed to actual session of the lands to the states and territories, it proposes a liberal policy of encouragement for actual reclamation. A strong delegation should be sent to Los Angeles to interpret the memorial of the legislature and of the Las Vegas Irrigation convention.

TRUTH FROM DEMOCRATIC SOURCES.

Whatever a man's belief may be as to the propriety of maintaining a protective tariff on wool, he cannot deny that merely the prospective removal of the duties imposed by the McKinley bill has lowered prices to a discouraging figure. For years we have been told that free wool would benefit not only consumers but producers as well. Statements were freely made by those who presumed to know whereof they were speaking that the removal of the wool tariff would result in increasing rather than decreasing prices. This has been abundantly disproven, even before the trial of the free wool experiment. With the advent to power of the party of tariff reform came a lowering in prices unparalleled in the history of the trade.

The growers of 325,000,000 pounds of wool in the United States will be compelled to accept fully $15,000,000 less for their product than would have been received under assurance of a continuation of the protective policy. Although wool prices have gone down in anticipation of a removal of the tariff, prices on wools have remained stationary. There is no indication that free wool would be beneficial; there are many indications that it would not.

The above from the Field and Farm is quoted approvingly by the Las Vegas Stock Grower and we commend it to the careful consideration of our wool growers who voted for Joseph, knowing him to be the advocate of the very policy which has already resulted so disastrously. If anything can open the eyes of those people to the insanity of supporting the Democratic enemies of their industries and consequently of themselves and their families, it seems as if the experience gained since Cleveland's election would do so. An honest delegate ought to stand by and defend the interests of his constituents but Joseph has not done so. He knew what ruinous effects free wool would produce, but with that knowledge he deliberately misled the honest men who have trusted him so long to be betrayed and ruined at last. Harrison went out leaving the wool growers prosperous and happy; four months of Cleveland has cost them $15,000,000, and worse coming. The wool growers convention which meets on July 5th ought to speak in no uncertain tones to the delegate. Resolutions should be passed calling him to oppose the ruinous policy of free wool and, if he refuses, calling on him to resign and make way for some man who will defend the people's rights and interests. There is no time for polite speeches when the wolf is at the door.

THE SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

So do the Wool Growers.
There is an occasional intimation in the editorial columns of the New York Tribune that last November's election figures are rather hard to digest.—Washington Post.

But They Won't Vote for Them.

The Louisiana sugar planters who voted the Democratic ticket will now depend upon Republican congressmen to preserve the fostering bounty upon their product.—New York Press.

But They Won't Have The Currency.

If we ever have state bank currency again, that part of the currency coming from Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee and Arkansas, states which broke faith with their creditors, will be shunned by the rest of the country.—New York Tribune.

Bad Example.

The participants in the famous Kansas legislative war must have set bad examples to the statesmen of Europe. Hardly a day passes that there is not an exhibition of the liveliest character in some body of law makers. Next week Germany's reichstag will add its quota to the sport.—Kansas City Star.

United States Always Ahead.

The tragic fate of the Victoria points to the condemnation of the colossal naval vessels which have heretofore been in favor with the English government. The fatal lack of security which these mammoth floating arsenals have discovered in times of peace affords some idea of how unavailable they would prove in marine warfare. While devoting its attention almost exclusively to the arts of peace, the United States has made the discovery that the light, swift, well equipped cruisers which constitute its navy are worth more than all of the cumbersome men-of-war which rich in British harbors.—Kansas City Star.

The Rub is How to Do It.

The Democratic party is pledged to the maintenance of the public credit and to a sound currency—the silver dollar must be worth as much as the gold dollar and "all paper currency must be as good as gold." We are, therefore, in favor of repealing the 10 per cent tax on state banks of issue if that currency issued by such banks be as good as gold and of equal exchangeable value with the gold and silver money of the government in all markets and in the payment of all debts, public and private.—Charleston News and Courier.

True in Some Instances.

The Topeka Capital Interviews a Popular assessor who says: "Since I have been engaged in the work of assessing the railroads I find they are assessed in excess of almost any other class of property." This is doubtless an honest fact. It is a common thing for cities and counties to give a bonus to build a railroad, and soon as it reaches them and begins business they treat it as an open enemy and a foreign corporation and pile on every burthen the law allows. Men whose lands have been doubled in value because of the railroads—as is the case in Kansas—have been loudest in denouncing railroads as inimical to the farmers' interests. It is high time that railroads were given the honest treatment given all other properties.—New York Tribune.

Where to Stop in Chicago.
The perplexing question which is every day asked by people who desire to go to Chicago to attend the World's fair is "Where are we going to stay when we get there?" This is easily answered, and if you will go to the ticket agent of the Santa Fe, Mr. W. M. Smith, he will tell you.

Arrangements have been made for the distribution by the Santa Fe company of a pamphlet entitled "Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair." This is a reliable pamphlet containing the names and addresses of about 9,000 families who will furnish accommodations to visitors from May 1 to October 31, 1893. The pamphlet also contains sectional maps which will enable the intending visitor to select any quarter of the city that he would prefer. Correspondence can then be carried on and definite arrangements made so that when visitors arrive in Chicago they can proceed at once to their quarters.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making De Witt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation. New Mexico Drug Store.

Important Announcement.
To Those Who Contemplate a Trip to the World's Fair.

All the talk in the world will not convince you as quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for scalds, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles. New Mexico Drug Store.

The Accommodating Boarder.
The boarder was grumpy that morning, and the landlady was doing the best she knew how.
"Buh," he exclaimed, "this coffee is miserable. It's the weakest stuff I ever saw."
"Well, Mr. Feeder," she said reproachfully, "you shouldn't jump on it so if it is weak to defend itself. You should at least select something of equal strength with yourself."
"I will," he growled. "I'll do more. I'll take something stronger than myself. Where in thunder did you get this buttermilk? And the gentle landlady burst into tears.—Detroit Free Press.

Those Needless Questions.
Billy Mackintosh—Looks like rain, doesn't it?
Tommy Coverote—Yas. Fact is, it is rain, don't you know. Whatcher think it was, coffee?—Harper's Weekly.

His Friend.
Dr. Liddell's morning loves were crowded beyond description. It was his pride and boast that he could feel his patient's pulse, look at his tongue, sound him with a stethoscope, write his prescription and pocket his fee in a space of time varying from two to five minutes.

One day an army man was shown into the consulting room and underwent what might be called the instantaneous process. When it was completed, the patient shook hands with the doctor and said:

"I am especially glad to meet you, as I have often heard my father, Colonel Forester, speak of his old friend, Dr. Liddell."
"What?" exclaimed the doctor. "Are you Dick Forester's son?"

"Most certainly I am."
"My dear fellow," exclaimed the doctor, "fling that prescription into the fire and sit down and let me have what the matter with you is."—Yankee Blade.

Not So Bad.
The manner in which the blue sash was adjusted about his slender waist, his hair at once the recent graduate of some leading institution of female learning. The confession was corroborated by the faraway look in her eyes.

"And so?"
It was a man with a large red neck and an aspect of indifference to the stringency in the money market who addressed her.
"My little girl didn't take first honors."

She tossed her head.
"Well I should say." She was decidedly impatient.
"Not. I ain't quite so homey as all that. Third place is bad enough. Hub, a!" And the girl glanced daggers.—Detroit Tribune.

An Honest Wooer.
The Heiress—Why do you wish to marry me?
The Impetuous—You wish me to answer your question.
The Heiress—Yes.
The Impetuous—Without concealment or prevarication?
The Heiress—Yes.
The Impetuous—Because I want you to be my wife.—New York Press.

He Had.
"Have you ever taken any pains to collect this bill against old Meddlergrass?" inquired the head of the firm.
"Pains?" exclaimed the bill collector. "Pains, did you say? Great Scott! I have climbed a dozen barbed wire fences, been chased by a bulldog and picked half a pint of bird shot out of my legs. By George, sir, I have!"—Chicago Tribune.

Miseries of Managers.
Stage Manager—Great snakes! Stop! Don't move that scene yet.
Supé—It's most time.
Stage Manager—Don't touch it. Juliet is there dead in the tomb. If you move that canvas, it will fall in a draft, and she'll sneeze.—Texas Sittings.

Must Have Been.
"How do you know that this is the same blind man you helped before? This may be an old fraud."
"John, how perfectly heartless and suspicious you men all are. Didn't you notice he knew me half a block away?"—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Mythological Information.
"Who was Ajax?" said the teacher to a pupil.
"He was a capitalist," replied one.
"How do you make that out?"
"He died the lightning to strike."—Brooklyn Life.

Brief.
Magistrate (to prisoner)—Have you any remarks to make?
Prisoner (a lawyer)—Yes, your worship. Your hair wants cutting.
Magistrate—So does yours. Three months!—Tit-Bits.

Where He Had Gone.
"Where is the man who keeps this restaurant?" said the disgusted patron.
"He's gone out to lunch," replied the cashier.—Truth.

Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the liver that causes indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from those troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. H. Wharton, Baltimore, Md.
"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. No good medicine deserves universal commendation."
