HEARST GETS UNPRECEDENTED MAJORITY

Multifarious Journalist Chosen for Gubernatorial Race at Close of Strenuous Convention of New York Democrats.
GOES TO BED WITHOUT EVEN SAYING THANK YOU
Platform Drawn Up at Buffalo
Makes the Usual Glittering Promises and Declares That Democracy Beats Socialism.
VICTORY WON IN FACE OF FIERCE OPPOSITION

Nominee Arraigned Amid Storms of Cheers and Hisses
in Series of Remarkable Speeches.

Convention Hall, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 27.—At a session which began at 7:45 last night and continued until 2:30 this morning, the democratic convention nominated a state ticket with William Randolph Hearst at the head of it. Mr. Hearst already was in the field as the gubernatorial nominee of the Independence League, which he was instrumental in organizing. The democrats also took from the Independence League the nomination of Lieutenant Governor and John S. Wadden, of Monroe, for secretary of state.
The other nominees have no place on the Independence League ticket.
Mr. Hearst was nominated with 209 votes, only 226 being necessary for a choice.

Congressman William Sulzer received for governor 124 votes and John A. Dix, of Washington county, received the complimentary vote of 17 delegates, making 450 in all.
The nomination of Mr. Hearst was made in the face of the bitterest opposition ever waged in a democratic convention in this state. The minority which cast its ballots for Mr. Sulzer has known for several days that it was beaten.

This fact was made sure in the last session when a test vote on the majority report of the committee on contested seats showed Hearst supporters to be in absolute control. Under the guise of advocating the candidacy of Mr. Sulzer, a member of Mr. Hearst's party opponents took the stage and amid storms of cheering and hissing, denounced and arraigned the man they knew was to be the party's candidate in the most remarkable series of speeches ever hurled at a man to be named for the highest office in the gift of the convention.

The advocates of Mr. Hearst answered these attacks, the most effective of the utterances being uttered in his behalf by Congressman Bourke Cochran, of New York, who declared that Mr. Hearst was not his personal choice, the demand that he be nominated having come from every section of the state, and was not to be denied.

The Ticket.
For Governor—William Randolph
Hearst.
For Lieutenant Governor—Lewis S.
Chanler, of Dutchess.
For Secretary of State—John S.
Wadden, of Monroe.
For State Controller—Martin H.
Glynn, of Albany.
For Attorney General—William J.
Schuyler Jackson, of Buffalo.
For State Treasurer—Julius Hauser, of Suffolk.
For State Engineer and Surveyor—
Frederick W. S. Keene, of Queens.

MR. HEARST RETIRES TO SLEEP OVER MATTER
New York, Sept. 27.—Notice of Mr.
Hearst's nomination by the democratic state convention at Buffalo was telephoned to his residence at 2 o'clock this morning. At the home it was stated that Mr. Hearst had retired for the night and would make no statement at present.

CONVENTION HALL PACKED AND ENTHUSIASM RAMPANT
Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Convention Hall was packed to overflowing tonight at 7:55, when the twice postponed second session of the convention was called to order. It was realized that this was the crucial meeting of the convention when the platform was to be adopted, the candidates named and the most bitter convention fight the democratic party of this state has ever known brought at least to a temporary conclusion.

The enthusiasm which was lacking yesterday was rampant tonight. The committee on contested seats of the democratic state convention found itself divided 24 to 21, regarding the 21 contests involving 62 seats in the convention.
The majority report was regarded as a Hearst victory.
The fifteen Murphy contestants in the five New York county contests were given the place of the McCallan delegation.
The Hearst men in Queens county were given seats, and the Hearst contestants from up-state also found favor in the eyes of a majority of the committee.
The minority report was presented by John B. Stanchfield, who said he was opposed to Hearst, but declared that if Hearst had come to the con-

Nominee Declares He Will Give
"Sane, Efficient and Honorable Administration, Free
From Taint of Bossism."

Oyster Bay, Sept. 26.—The following telegram, sent by the president after he had been notified of the nomination by the republican state convention of Charles E. Hughes, for governor, was made public tonight:
"Charles E. Hughes: I rejoice for the sake of the cause of good citizenship in your nomination (Theodore Roosevelt)."
Chicago, Sept. 26.—Paul O. Stensland, self-confessed embezzler of $400,000, was due chiefly the collapse of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary within three hours after his arrival in Chicago today from the east, and before another three hours had elapsed the convicted bank president had begun service of the sentence at Joliet.
Stensland pleaded guilty on two indictments, one charging embezzlement and the other charging violation of the state banking laws. A fine of $120 was imposed on the latter charge, which was based upon the acceptance of $60 in deposits after the bank was insolvent. The sentences imposed which will operate concurrently, are from one to five years and one to ten years, making the longest term the prisoner will be compelled to serve not more than ten years.
Stensland's arrival in Chicago was greeted by a crowd of several hundred persons, who awaited the coming of the Twentieth Century limited on which the prisoner and his captors were passengers.
The crowd was demonstrative, although offering no violence and the effect upon Stensland was noticeable.
He became nervous and seemingly apprehensive of bodily harm. State Attorney Healy was waiting in his private office for the arrival of Stensland and the prisoner was hurried, haggard and trembling through a double line of police, into Mr. Healy's presence.
A conference lasting over one hour concluded with Stensland and Healy and several attaches of the office.
What Stensland made known to the state's attorney was not divulged. After the conference Mr. Healy said:
"Stensland made a full confession of everything connected with the affairs of the bank. He has told us of his own acts and of the acts of others.
What he has revealed makes the bank affair less dark for himself."
The court proceedings which followed immediately were conducted hurriedly. Stensland was uncompanied by friends or attorney during the entire proceedings.

HUGHES PROMISES TO GIVE A "SANE" ADMINISTRATION
New York, Sept. 26.—Charles E.
Hughes received the notification of his nomination for governor by the republican convention today, in his home at West End avenue, where his wife and daughters live. Immediately he forwarded a formal message of acceptance through Senator Alfred R.
Page. Mr. Hughes was content to allow this message to be his only public utterance at this time, a message in which he pointed out that he accepted without pledge other than to do his duty according to his conscience and in which he declared that if elected it would be his ambition to give "a sane, efficient and honorable administration, free from taint of bossism, or of servitude."

FAST WORK MARKS THE CONVENTION PROCEEDINGS
Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Expedition marked the second and final day of the republican state convention. From early this morning, when it became known that Charles E.
Hughes, of New York, would be nominated for governor by acclamation, the other proceedings practically became formal and were pushed to completion with the utmost speed.
The selection of the remainder of the ticket and the choice of a new state chairman were accomplished before the convention assembled, and it only remained for the convention to ratify all that had been arranged and to adjourn.

The session of the convention lasted about two hours and in that time the permanent organization was affected, the chairman, State Senator W. W.
Armstrong, of Rochester, delivered his speech, the credentials committee reported and its report was agreed to, the platform was read and adopted and a complete state ticket nominated.
The events leading up to the nominations today were interesting and involved innumerable conferences throughout the night. When the opposition to Hughes found it impossible, or at least inadvisable, to nominate Bruce for governor, and began seeking elsewhere for a candidate, defeat for the old time leaders and victory for the new and almost unknown leaders followed swiftly.

First Republican County Convention Held

Ever Placed Before Voters.

The long suffering republican voters of Bernalillo county, weary of years of one man domination; weary of Hubbell gag rule and Hubbell mob control; aroused and angered by the packed and stolen primaries held throughout the county under Hubbell's orders; and especially angered by the refusal of Hubbell and his followers to seat legally elected delegations of republican voters sent to the convention by overwhelming majorities from the several precincts, yesterday asserted their rights as American citizens and honest republicans, marched from the gag ruled Hubbell meeting, formed the first republican convention held in Bernalillo county for years, elected a full delegation to the territorial convention in Las Vegas, and nominated a complete ticket for the county officers—the strongest ticket ever placed before the voters of this county.

It was a formal declaration of war boss rule. There was no mob of spoils

For probate clerk—Arthur E. Walker, of Albuquerque, the present incumbent.

For treasurer and collector—Dr. Louis H. Chamberlin, of Albuquerque. For assessor—Sigfried Grunfeld, of Albuquerque.

For county superintendent of public schools—Andrew B. Stroup, the present incumbent.

The ticket named, the convention quickly adjourned, a crowd of three hundred delegates and their friends from the country precincts marching down Railroad avenue, led by a band, to disperse at the corner of Railroad avenue and Second street.

A meeting of the central committee was held immediately and the county and legislative ticket was ordered filed with the probate clerk under the emblem of the republican party of the territory, which was done.

It was not a showy convention, this first republican convention Bernalillo county has seen for many years, but it was intensely in earnest. It was there for business, for the reorganization of the republican party of the county.

The reorganization was accomplished and the delegates left for their homes. Many of them had driven many miles from distant country precincts to be present personally to demand their rights and not receiving them, to take them.

The Hubbell Meeting. There was a marked difference between this convention of Bernalillo county republicans and the Hubbell meeting in the Elks' theatre, from which the legally elected delegates were excluded by Hubbell's orders.

The Hubbell convention was called to order shortly after 10 o'clock, after a caucus in the Elks' theatre behind closed doors, from which the delegates from the country precincts were excluded.

When the doors were opened, Hubbell's delegations from precincts 12 and 20 and a few of his followers from the country were seated in the first four rows of seats. The legally elected delegates filed into the theatre; they came from every precinct and in almost every case the delegations were complete. They and their friends filled the theatre back to the walls.

The former boss called the convention to order. He made a speech covering half an hour in which he discussed in his usual happy style every question before the people of the territory from statehood up and down. He endorsed joint statehood strongly and endorsed Delegate Andrews, then he turned to county affairs. For the first time in his interesting career Hubbell admitted publicly that there was a fight on. He was looking down into the faces of the men from the country who were there to demand the seats to which they were entitled, and he was hardly in a position to deny the existence of what he chose to call a "fight."

It was not a Hubbell speech, similar to the many others to which the people of Albuquerque and the republican voters of the county have been treated in the past ten years.

Hubbell denied that a county ticket was to be nominated by his convention, although the statement to that effect had come from his own followers. He said that the convention had been called for the purpose of naming delegates to Las Vegas, and for that purpose only, although his call read "and for such other business as may come before the convention."

Then came the nominating of the Hubbell temporary officers. W. H. Greer, a member of a contested delegation, nominated W. H. Greer, a member of a contested delegation, for chairman. Hubbell was proceeding to tell the convention what it should do about the nomination, when some obnoxious follower demanded a vote on the nomination and in spite of a roar of noes, from the delegations behind the first four rows, Mr. Greer was declared temporary chairman, and escorted to the chair by a committee composed of W. H. Greer, Mauroino and Tomas C. Gutierrez, all members of contested delegations.

EMINENT ATTORNEY APPEALS TO HIS FELLOW DEMOCRATS

Mr. Childers on being introduced with the usual round of hand-shaking, addressed the convention. Mr. Childers made a somewhat extended speech. He said that the convention was a "fight" on, and it seemed to worry him. Mr. Childers took considerable time to deny that the primaries had been stolen. He did not refer to the primary held in the saloon of the honorable Edw. Vigil in Barcelona, nor did he refer to the primary in Greco, in which the chairman declined to entertain any nation but one to the hour. He denied the theft of the primaries and length. He declared that the primaries had not been stolen, in spite of "statements to that effect made by a faction—a very small fraction of the press."

Mr. Childers referred to the exposure of the stolen primaries by the Morning Journal and to the Morning Journal as the "faction."

The word seemed to please the eminent attorney, he smiled it in his mouth and let it out a few times.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain "laws of nature." But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal is not only every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes, criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weaknesses, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce's makes the most wonderful remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ills—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which the treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prolapsus, inversion and retroversion of the uterus or other displacement of the womanly organs, it is very necessary in addition to taking his "Favorite Prescription" they abstain from being very much, or for long periods, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining, say kind should also be avoided. As much out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held absolutely confidential.

more. It lulled him into dreamland, and in some way he drifted back to the days not many years ago when he was not personally conducted by Hubbell, for suddenly he burst forth with: "AND NOW MY FELLOW DEMOCRATS!"

Even the well trained Hubbell followers could not quite stand for being called democrats; while the republicans let out a roar of amused protest which could be heard around the block.

It was a somewhat painful moment for the eminent attorney. He backed up and started over, while the roar from the floor of the house grew in volume, but it was apparently no go. It seemed difficult for Mr. Childers to get back into his republican frame of mind, a faint rose blush appeared on his cheeks, a delicate and wavering smile followed and then with a rush the memory that he was personally conducted seemed to come back to him and he proceeded with his speech, but the word "faction" appeared to have lost its pleasing flavor.

Mr. Childers after some further remarks called for the nomination of a temporary secretary. P. Hanley, member of a contested delegation, was nominated by Maynard Gunsul, member of a contested delegation, and Edw. Vigil, Ysidro Sandoval and Mr. Gunsul honored Mr. Hanley with their escort to the platform, where he took his seat without making a speech, a fact which caused a murmur of wonder if he, too, was not personally conducted.

Thomas N. Wilkerson, member of a contested delegation, then moved for the appointment of committee on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions. This motion was declared carried, and the following committees, all members of contested delegations, were appointed:

Credentials—P. Hanley, chairman; Cipriano Salazar, George Craig, T. S. Hubbell, Nicholas Herrera. Resolutions and Rules—W. H. Greer, chairman; W. H. Greer, Pedro Aranda, J. P. Hubbell, Melville Summers.

Permanent Organization—Thomas N. Wilkerson, chairman; W. S. Strickler, Tomas Gutierrez, Jose Trujillo, Atanacio Barela.

Contestant Refused a Hearing. When the committees had been appointed, B. Ruppe, representing the delegation from Precinct 12, asked that ten minutes be given in which to present the credentials of that delegation.

The chairman announced that he would not recognize Mr. Ruppe, according to a ruling of the central committee. He said that the committee had held a meeting the night before and that a list of precinct delegations had been made out on regular precinct organizations—the Hubbell organizations.

Hubbell then moved a recess during which credentials could be presented to the credential committee. The recess occupied more than an hour. Precincts after precinct went to the committee with its contest all in due form, and each and every one was systematically turned down. During the recess Nestor Montoya made a long speech. He drew nothing but restless movements from the delegates, contestants and contestants who sat in their seats quietly through it all. Then they began playing one after another, until both ran out of selections and began on the program again.

A man relieved the monotony by having an epileptic fit, but he didn't relieve it long. The fact is, that every precinct in the county came forward before the credentials committee, and through its chairman, presented a contest, showing primaries secretly or illegally held, with the exception of Old Albuquerque, where the primaries were regular and where they were carried against Hubbell by overwhelming majorities.

The Committee's Astonishing Report.

The committee's report was as follows: Mr. Chairman:—Your committee on credentials, after examining the credentials of the different delegates, and passing upon contests that have been presented before us, we find that the following delegates are entitled to seat and vote in this convention: Precinct No. 1, San Jose—Gregorio Barela, Andres Choleas, Pedro Apodaca, Frederico Padilla.

in this city or any other county in the territory.

The Hubbell central committee had previously announced through the newspaper that the opposing forces, the republicans, had named the precinct of San Jose. Yet the Hubbell delegation was seated.

And in Old Albuquerque, where the vote was 200 to 10 against Hubbell, where the primaries were regular to a degree in spite of the efforts of the Hubbell chairman to make them irregular, the committee recommended that both delegations be seated, a compromise, showing that the committee knew itself to be wrong, since both sides could not have been right.

The republican delegates waited until the report was finished and adopted. As the Old Albuquerque delegates were read Probate Judge Romero was heard to remark softly, "Thank you, gentlemen," and that was all. A smile went around the house, even over the heads of the Hubbell delegates.

When the reading of the report was finished and the report had been adopted, the republicans got up and marched out of the theatre. Elks' theatre looked like a graveyard when the contesting delegations had left. It was vacant. Only the four front rows were filled.

The republican convention went on to its conclusion in the armory while Hubbell completed his convention in the theatre.

The committee on resolutions presented a report and in this report is something that deserves commendation, for the report endorses Governor H. J. Hagerman, of New Mexico. The report follows:

The republicans of Bernalillo county in convention assembled do hereby declare:

First, That we unqualifiedly endorse the administration of President Roosevelt, and congratulate the country upon the magnificent record made by the republican party in congress during the last session of congress.

Second, We heartily approve and endorse the administration of Governor Hagerman, and congratulate him upon his desire that his administration of the affairs of our territory shall be for the equal general good and betterment of all, and commend him as an honest, able and efficient servant of the people.

Third, We endorse the course of our delegate in congress, the Hon. William H. Andrews, and thank him for his efforts in securing legislation beneficial to the territory of New Mexico, and especially for his marked success in securing an appropriation of $100,000 towards the erection of a public building in the city of Albuquerque.

Fourth, We extend to the Hon. J. O. Bursum, chairman of the republican territorial central committee the thanks of the republicans of Bernalillo county for his able, efficient and faithful services to the republican party, formerly chairman of the territorial committee, and also as chairman of the county committee.

Fifth, We also extend to Hon. Frank A. Hubbell our thanks for his long and faithful services to the republican party, formerly chairman of the territorial committee, and also as chairman of the county committee.

Sixth, We endorse joint statehood for the territories of Arizona and New Mexico under enabling act recently passed by congress, and instruct our delegates to the territorial convention at Las Vegas to do all in their power to secure an unconditional endorsement of joint statehood by that convention.

Seventh, We instruct our delegates to the Las Vegas convention to do all in their power to secure a declaration in the platform adopted by that convention in favor of the reduction of fees and salaries in New Mexico, and the substitution of salaries for fees wherever practicable.

W. H. GILLENWATER, Chairman.

MELVILLE SUMMERS, Secretary.

A committee of three was appointed to select delegates to Las Vegas and the report of this committee was one of the most interesting acts of the Hubbell convention.

Demanded Sixteen Delegates. Although according to the ruling of the territorial central committee Bernalillo county is entitled to but one delegate in the Las Vegas convention, three of which were voluntarily added by the territorial committee as a gift after Hubbell and his followers had been seated and elected.

Hubbell, it is understood, expects to force his other seven delegates into the Las Vegas convention. The delegates named are as follows:

Frank A. Hubbell, W. H. Greer, W. H. Greer, T. N. Wilkerson, M. E. Hickey, Severo Sanchez, W. S. Strickler, T. S. Hubbell, Louis Ingley, George Leonard, Isidro Sandoval, Charles Chadwick, Nicholas Herrera, M. C. Ortiz, E. W. Dobson and Tomas Gutierrez.

The delegation was instructed to vote on the unit rule.

The name of J. Porter Jones was later substituted for that of Tomas Gutierrez, who withdrew from the delegation.

Hubbell then occupied the convention for a short time with another typical speech in which he declared bitterly against the republicans who had left the theatre to hold a republican convention. The meeting then adjourned. It could hardly be called an enthusiastic convention. Even the third enthusiastic cheering, as plentiful in a Hubbell convention, was a little bit flat and throughout the proceedings there was a cheerless tone which became even more gloom toward the latter part of the meeting.

Thus there were two conventions held in Bernalillo county yesterday, one a republican convention, held because delegates legally elected to seats in a convention supposed to have been called a republican convention, were refused their seats with as barefaced an exhibition of political brigandage as even Hubbell has ever dared to make.

The other, a Hubbell convention, composed of delegates named by Hubbell, governed by chairmen named by Hubbell, cheered with speeches made by Hubbell.

The one was a convention of republican voters.

The other a meeting of Hubbell.

It remains to be seen whether stolen primaries, illegally seated delegates, and disregarded contests, or a manly, straightforward movement of republican voters owned by no man, will win.

NEW TRANSCONTINENTAL SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN

Double Daily Service on Sunset Route to Be Established Between New Orleans and San Francisco and Intermediate Points—Starts November First.

On November 1st another through train running each way will be put on the Southern Pacific and the Galveston and Houston lines between San Francisco and New Orleans according to General Agent A. W. Chapman of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio. This will make a double daily service between these two cities and intermediate points, says the El Paso Herald.

The new train will be Nos. 7 and 8, which at present run between San Antonio and New Orleans and, on the Pacific coast, between Los Angeles and Oakland, Cal. The plan is to extend this service between Los Angeles and San Antonio, thereby making another through train from the coast metropolis to the Crescent city.

So far the schedule of the new train has not been determined. It is said that the reason for the two new daily trains each way is because the Southern Pacific expects a larger passenger traffic on its Sunset route this winter than it has ever had. The trains, Nos. 7 and 8, were run through from San Francisco to New Orleans for a period of about three months three years ago. It is stated that the service was taken off because it was not paying the lines to run the double daily service. Now it is claimed that the winter business will necessitate the installation of the extra train, and it will be put on for this season.

ORGAN MINING DISTRICT NEVER LOOKED BETTER

A number of eastern capitalists, some of them interested in property in the Organ Mining district and some of them just looking over the field, were at the Sheldon hotel in El Paso Monday evening, returning home. They attended a directors' meeting of the Stephenson-Bennett Mining company at Organ and looked over the property of this and other companies in that camp. All are enthusiastic over the prospects and declare that they believe there is a great future for mining in the Organ.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Stephenson-Bennett company the following attended: F. M. Johnson and G. A. Chapin, of Belleville, Mo.; E. R. Townsend, of Kansas City; C. B. Gill, of Las Cruces; J. L. McCullough, of Las Cruces, and A. M. Peck, of Kansas City. The board ordered the development work continued and ordered the erection of a 250-ton mill. A 60-ton mill is now in operation, and the new mill is to be erected in addition, to enable the company to treat its ores as fast as they are taken out. All the concentrates are hauled by wagon to Las Cruces and then shipped to El Paso for smelting. The company has been shipping four months, and this has demonstrated the ore is there, the directors believe. The directors were gratified at the report of General Manager McCullough that for the last thirty feet the miners have been drifting on copper ore that runs 20 per cent, which is considered pretty good for a silver and mine. In the 200 feet of drifting that has been done recently three copper chutes have been cut, it is stated. The silver-lead ore body is now 500 feet long, it is reported and five to thirty feet wide, on the 200 foot level. The directors were all pleased with the prospects, and the other visitors, including Judge R. T. Harvey, a banker, and J. D. Holden, a wealthy business man, of Eldon, Mo., and G. R. Follett of Newton, Kan., are just as enthusiastic. "It looks like the Maker was kind in his distribution of things in the Organ," said Judge Harvey. "He seems to have put plenty of ore in the rocks, plenty of water in the ground and located it close enough to El Paso to enable the shipment of ore to be made with profit. There seems to be an unlimited supply of ore up there." The others nodded assent.

The visitors report improvements in other property as well as the Stephenson-Bennett. The Torpedo company has just received two big No. 13 Cameron pumps for unwatering, but the water has already been lowered considerably in both the Torpedo and the Memphis, by the constant pumping in the Stephenson-Bennett mine.

The Excelsior people are shipping ore to El Paso at present. It is stated, and are putting in new machinery. Mr. McCullough talked American mining congress enthusiastically while here and says the Organ Mountain association, of which he is president, is going to send a display and delegates to the meeting in Denver on the 16th of next month. "Every camp in the southwest should send a display and delegates," he declared, "to keep our section before the congress, for we want the country again in a year or so and we must not let them forget us. Japita is going to send a display. I have been informed, and I hope the entire southwest will do the same."

Mr. McCullough reports an abundance of birds in the vicinity of his camp.

A Running Match.
The El Paso boys took only one game at Albuquerque Saturday, but they made twenty-eight runs during the day. Perhaps they thought it was a running match.—El Paso News.

Elect the Right Men.
Be sure and elect members of the territorial legislature who will not require one or two roundabouts to wait on him during the session, watch all the dog fights, sharpen pencils, strike matches to light cigars and the like, all at public expense, as has been the practice heretofore. The general government furnishes about all the hired hands actually needed during these sessions.—White Oaks Outlook.

For the Good of All.
All honest citizens of New Mexico, regardless of politics, should support Governor Hagerman in his efforts to give the territory an honest business administration. Will the Santa Fe New Mexican dispute this on account of the Record being a democratic paper? Governor Hagerman has no business to conduct his office for the benefit of the republican party—and the Record believes that he was sincere when he said in his first public speech after appointment, that it was his purpose to serve the whole people, regardless of party, race or creed.—Roswell Record.

Must Show the Books.
This paper has not as yet expressed an opinion in the much discussed Purnum embroglio, and probably will not until those vitriolic volumes of accounts, which have flown away as mysteriously as back to roost once more on their accustomed shelves, and that payment of $700, which was not made until after the investigation was begun, is explained away.

However, those over zealous friends of that gentleman who are seeking to belittle the report made by the accountant at the behest of the governor seem to forget that in doing so they bring into question the integrity of the governor himself who ordered the investigation to be made, presumably for cause. The people generally are disposed to give Governor Hagerman as much credit for honesty of purpose and square dealing as they are the late superintendent of the pen.—White Oaks Outlook.

For the Good of the Party.
Governor Hagerman has certainly stirred up the animals in New Mexico. He has evidently determined to sweep packs and have a new deal, and heads are falling like leaves in November. The republican party is worse divided than usual, and the unique spectacle is presented of a democratic territorial convention endorsing a republican governor. New Mexico is doubtless to benefit from the general stirring up. If the men under charges are exonerated it will at least clear the atmosphere, for there have been rumors of unpleasant things for a long time. If real culprits are caught and punished the territory will be greatly the gainer, and the republican party will gain most of all, for no party ever thrived for long on pacifism. The democrats in New Mexico are undoubtedly growing stronger and the time will come when the territory will become competitive with Arizona as today.—El Paso Herald (rep.)

Punish the Guilty.
Certainly, if Purnum is guilty of any irregularity in his conduct as superintendent of the New Mexico penitentiary, show it up and let him answer to the wrong that he has done to the tax payers who placed him in that important position; a square deal is the policy of the government, and it is right that it should be from comparable to president. And again, if after he has had a square deal it is shown that he is not guilty of the irregularities charged, then let his enemies acknowledge his integrity and give credit where credit is due. Mr. Purnum's friends believe he is right and will not accept his condemnation until he is proven in the wrong. On the other hand the people do not question the motive of Governor Hagerman in whatever part he has or may take in this matter, and it is his duty as the people's executive to clear up any charges that may be made against any territorial institution, and it is not necessary that his actions should in any manner be directed against Mr. Purnum personally. In the event that penitentiary records are regular, then, Mr. Purnum is vindicated and all charges against the institution are cleared forever.—Tacumcari News.

Pain From a Burn Promptly Relieved
By Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James H. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drove out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by all druggists.

TERRITORIAL JURY REURIS FOUR INDICTMENTS

District Court Adjourns for the Afternoon, With Several Cases Scheduled for This Morning.

Four indictments have been returned this morning by the territorial grand jury which was empaneled Tuesday, two of which are against prisoners in the county jail charged with minor offenses. The other two are against persons not yet under arrest and the names have not been made public.

The United States grand jury is still in session.

Yesterday the territorial petit jury found a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the case of S. Alexander vs. Susana Luna y Ortiz, the action being to recover on a note for $351, represented to have been given in payment of a certain life insurance premium.

There being no cases ready for hearing the territorial petit jury was given a recess at noon yesterday until 5 o'clock this morning.

WALTON SURE OF MR. LARRAZOLA'S ELECTION

Unofficial Committee Secretary Gives El Paso Little Confidential Talk on How It's All Going to Turn Out at the Good Old Election Time.

Hon. O. A. Larrazola, democratic nominee for delegate to congress from New Mexico arrived in the city yesterday morning from Las Vegas and took quarters at the Zeigler, where he was joined last night by W. F. Walton, secretary of the democratic territorial central committee and Col. H. H. Howell, says the El Paso Times.

"I feel confident," said Mr. Walton last night, "that we are going to elect Mr. Larrazola this year. He is one of the ablest men in the southwest. The republicans of the territory have no man to match him in ability and he will reflect credit on our territory at Washington. When Mr. Larrazola ran before he was handicapped by the statehood issue, a large number of democrats believed that it would be as to get statehood to have the territory represented by a republican, but they all know better now. Even the most stupid and prejudiced of the republicans have been convinced that a republican administration will not give New Mexico statehood and Arizona will always bar admission on the jointure program. What New Mexico needs is congress in a matter of ability to command respect and admiration. Mr. Larrazola will do it, and I believe the people are going to elect him."

Mr. Larrazola formerly lived in El Paso. He served this county as district attorney and he was an able and conscientious official. He is one of the ablest young men in the southwest and if he goes to congress New Mexico will feel proud of him.

THE ROMANTIC HISTORY OF SOME FAMOUS MINES

Wonderful Tales of Fortunes Made in an Hour by Prospectors Who Have Found World Famous "Nuggets."

The history of mining, with its many instances of sudden leaps from poverty to wealth, has always interested the public. The discovery of gold in California in 1848, and that of Australia in 1851, the world has been furnished with many true tales of fortunes having been made with one lucky stroke of the pick.

Among the many fortunes found in a single lump of gold, we believe the two greatest were found in the fields of Australia, and are entitled to first place. The first nugget found weighed 2,215 ounces. Estimated at $20 per ounce, this nugget was worth $44,340 and was named "Welcome Stranger."

The second nugget was named "Welcome Stranger" and weighed 2,265 ounces, valued at $45,360. $34,000 was the gold in these nuggets that they netted their owners over $40,000 each.

Another instance worthy of citation in the same country is where three or four miners, miners, had worked hard for a number of months digging for gold, and becoming discouraged had about lost hope, when they concluded to dig one more prospect hole and if it failed they would abandon the task and seek other fields; at nine feet they found gold and in a few hours took out 120 pounds of gold, valued at $28,000. Another instance of note was made in California in the year 1848, when Oliver Martin uncovered a nugget weighing 151 pounds and valued at $28,240. Aside from the many large fortunes found in nugget form, thousands of millions have been taken out by the sluicing process. Most of the colossal fortunes amassed in placer mining have been acquired in that manner. When we speak of silver mining everyone acquainted with American mining history will at once think of that notorious mine, the old Comstock of Virginia City, Nevada, where Markay, Fair, Flood and O'Brien amassed fortunes which dwarfed the fortunes of every other mine owner in the United States at that time.

The Comstock was first discovered in 1858 and in 1873, at a depth of 800 feet the largest body of silver ever uncovered in the known world was found and for three years after the bonanza strike silver was extracted from the mine at the rate of $3,000,000 a month, and the old resort building which housed the miners of $100,000 worth of bullion daily for 1,000 days, is still standing. During the twenty-three years of successful operation the mine yielded about $150,000,000. At its time since the mine has been abandoned though active mining ceased for some length of time after the demonization of silver, but of late years active mining has been carried on and much valuable ore has been taken out and it is safe to say that for a generation to come the Comstock will remain a producer.

KANSAS CITY LOOKS AT THE PECOS VALLEY CAR

Two-Pound Onions and Eight-Pound Watermelons Among Features Which Make Eyes of Missourians Popcorn Under Supervision of Santa Fe Railway.

For the purpose of exhibiting the resources of the Pecos valley in New Mexico, a special exhibit car has been placed on the tracks at the Union depot, where large crowds were yesterday shown products of the southwest. The car is under the supervision of the Santa Fe railway, which is interested in promoting immigration to the valley, says the Kansas City Journal.

In charge of the car paint vivid pictures of the resources of the valley, illustrating them with the exhibits in the car. They claim that the crops of alfalfa can be raised in a year and, at the minimum price and yield, nets the grower $45 per acre. This is said to exceed the cost of much of the land.

The force of water from the artesian wells which are dug is one of the marvels of the country. Wells frequently spout water four and five feet while one near Artesia, N. M., throws a large volume of water ten feet into the air. This supplements the work of irrigation and is one of the resources highly valued.

Among the exhibits that attract special attention are onions weighing

A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. SHIPROCK INDIAN SCHOOL ONE OF BEST IN WEST

INTERESTING DESCRIPTION OF THE NEW BUILDINGS

Big Institution for Benefit of Navajos Complete in Every Detail, and Doing a Great Work for the Redskins.

One of the notable institutions of northwest New Mexico which is now growing into importance is the San Juan training school and agency at Shiprock, which is located in the summer of 1904, and which has rapidly grown into an institution which will be of great advantage to the people of the Navajo tribe, both individually and collectively.

A writer in the Farmington Enterprise says: The agency is located about 32 miles west of Farmington, near the San Juan river, on a level plain in the edge of a fine natural grove of large cottonwoods, well in on the Navajo reservation.

The whole institution, when completed as planned, will cover about six blocks, which will be beautifully proportioned with a view to utility and magnificence. Young trees have been arranged among the larger ones and walks and drives among fine buildings, beds of flowers and shady nooks.

The institution consists of two separate departments, the agency proper, which deals with the Indians in matters of business, and the school, which deals with the education of the children.

Agency Buildings in Use.

The agency buildings now in use are as follows:

Superintendent's residence, a stone building of seven rooms, very neat and well arranged, with ample porches and surrounded with fine grounds.

A temporary office of two rooms built of straight, peeled spruce logs, very comfortable, and a fine example of the use of native material.

Four residences of three rooms each for the use of white agency employees, built of adobe; and four of two rooms each, of the same material, for Indian employees; also two or three of two rooms each, built of logs. The adobe buildings for the white employees are to be finished in gray plaster with black pointing, and the others in red, with white pointing. These are arranged alternately, a white employee's residence, then an Indian's, so as to give the Indian a better example of the white man's mode of living.

A long low warehouse of several apartments in which all kinds of supplies are kept to be dispensed in exchange for Indian labor, the old system of issuing rations having been entirely abandoned and the more effective one of requiring the Indian to work for what he gets dispensed.

The blacksmith shop, carpenter shop and other minor buildings are located near the warehouse and are all well equipped with supplies and machinery and at a little distance from them is the stable where the thoroughbred jacks are quartered. The Indian having recently been interested in the raising of mules.

A camp house and a few other buildings of lesser importance complete the list of agency buildings now occupied.

To Be Constructed.

Plans have been drawn for the agency office building, which will be of four rooms and modern in every respect, and also for a much larger warehouse, and when these buildings are completed those now in use for these purposes will serve as quarters for more agency employees.

School Buildings.

A four room school building, consisting of dining room, kitchen, storeroom and school room, built of spruce logs, neatly pointed up with lime and mortar, now serves for the carrying on of day school, and at which the attendants are given instruction in housework and cooking as well as mental training. This building will be used for this purpose only during the construction of the more extensive buildings hereafter described.

Under Construction.

The buildings now being erected by the contractors, and which are about one-half completed, are as follows:

A main building, 80 by 83 feet, of three stories, first story for steam heating apparatus for the building, temporary chapel and assembly room, and several storage rooms; second floor pupils' dining room and kitchen, employees' dining room and kitchen, and the bakery; third floor, ten employees' rooms and large sitting room, clothes closets and toilet rooms adjacent to all apartments.

Two dormitories, one for boys and one for girls, each 36 by 60 feet in size and arranged as follows: First floor, heating apparatus, clothes rooms, play rooms and other rooms; second floor, temporarily for school rooms, later to be used as dormitory; third floor, dormitory. All these buildings are, first story of stone, brick from that up.

A school warehouse for supplies 20 by 50 feet and a laundry with up-to-date machinery and 20-horse power engine and boiler to furnish ample power.

A barn, which is a first class brick building 36 by 72 feet and alone will cost over $10,000, is located near the school buildings and will be used for the purpose of instructing the pupils in the care and use of horses, as well as accommodating sufficient horses for agency use. It has harness, feed and carriage rooms and a mow that will hold fifty tons of hay.

Additional Plans.

A large school building not yet contracted for, is included in the plans, which when completed will relieve the deming man makes attempt at suicide

John Lester, Despondent Over Frequent and Terrible Losses, Takes Poison and Is Saved From Death After Long Struggle.

Correspondence Morning Journal, Deming, N. M., Sept. 26.—Despondent over the losses incurred during the year yesterday in his residence, John Lester last night made an attempt to end his life by taking poison.

Physicians were immediately called by his family and after working most of the night he was pulled out of danger. Some six months ago Mr. Lester lost his wife, and a few weeks later his eldest daughter died, and the loss yesterday preyed on his mind till he made the attempt to end his life. He is all right this afternoon and is in very good spirits and no fear is expressed that he will again make an attempt at suicide.

John Barber, of Lordsburg, who was tried and convicted last week at Silver City of attempting to poison a minister near Lordsburg last spring, while awaiting his sentence yesterday, took poison and died last night in Silver City.

LARGE LOTS OF WOOL GOING AT HIGH PRICES

Conditions in Boston Market Show Decided Improvement According to Bradstreet's. Several Million Pounds Sold.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Conditions in the wool market show a decided improvement. Interests which have been holding off having entered the market and taken large lots at full quotations, according to Bradstreet's. Several million pounds were sold within the week, including over 2,000,000 pounds to the leading interest. Manufacturers have let their stock run down to such a low point this year that even the large sales of the past week have been accompanied by urgent requests for prompt shipment. This shows a healthy condition of the market, as the wools are needed for immediate consumption, and confirms the idea that there is little speculation going on. Worst manufacturers report a good business, as do markets of better grades of wools and dress goods. Cheap cashmere and cotton warp goods, however, are quiet, but as makers of these take very little wool the state of trade in them is but a small factor in the market for wool. If there has been as rumored, an attempt to break prices for wool, it has utterly failed, so far as the Boston market is concerned, for full prices prevail and no weakness can be detected in any grade. Sales of the week included lots of fleeces, territories and scoured wools, and considering the small stocks of Texas and California wools in the market, the movement of those wools was very good. All three-eighths and half-bloods have sold well, particularly Montana and Wyoming, which made up the bulk of the week's sales on a basis of about 26¢ to 28¢ for the latter and 26½¢ to 28¢ for the former. Fine washed delaines sold at 37¢ cents, and XXX at 34¢ to 34½¢ cents.

As a dressing for sores, bruises and burns, Chamberlain's Salve is all that can be desired. It is soothing and healing in its effect. Price 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

They Deliver the Goods.

The secret of success in theatricals is to deliver the goods, then keep on delivering them; the public will do the rest. For nine months, the Frank Rich Stock company have delivered the goods in El Paso and the public have supported them royally. They close their season of nearly 400 performances there next Saturday night and come direct here, opening at the Elks' theater on Monday night, in "His Honor, the Judge." This company carries no stars nor does it feature any one person in the cast to the detriment of the others. The object is to give snappy, clean cut performances with a cast of uniform excellence. Their signal success at El Paso intimates that they surely must do this.

IMPORTANT TELEGRAMS

So many people are recovering from Bright's Disease and Diabetes in Kansas City, Mo., that the Kansas City Daily Journal wired San Francisco, where the new specific was discovered, to see if the same thing was occurring there. Here is the telegram and its reply:

Nobody in the world would dare use the names of these great dailies in this way if the above was not strictly true.

"The best is the cheapest" isn't true of everything; but it's true of clothes. All-wool fabrics wear longer, keep shape better, hang better, and fit better than "mercerized-cotton" fabrics; and these are the things you want your clothes for.

All-wool clothes will cost you more than part cotton, of course, the point we make is that even at the higher prices they're cheaper.

It is a real economy to buy a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit, and pay $18 or $20 or $25 or even more, instead of putting $12 or $15 into a suit that's made of a "mercerized-cotton" fabric which will fail absolutely to do the things you expect of your clothes.

You may save a few dollars; but you lose money in the end by buying such clothes.

ALBUQUERQUE - - - - - NEW MEXICO

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 27, 1906.

The Party Organized

THE delegates to the republican convention yesterday, who were elected by the republican voters of the several precincts of the county, were ruled out of the convention, and their seats were given by the machine to persons who were not elected by the voters of the precincts which they pretended to represent, and who did not in any sense represent the republican voters of Bernalillo county any more than they represented the democratic voters of Chaves county. They were simply creatures of the Hubbell machine, which the machine, assisted by a few kaisomined democrats, put forcibly into the seats of the regularly elected republican delegates.

The regular delegates then organized in another room, appointed their delegation to the territorial convention, and nominated a full county ticket, which will be presented to the republican voters for their suffrages at the November election.

The party had been left without an organization in the county, by reason of the fact that the late county chairman had neglected or refused to discharge the duties of his office, and had attempted to throw the management of the party affairs into the hands of an irresponsible mob. Thereupon the delegates who had been elected by the republican voters of the county, who constituted a large majority of the convention, immediately upon being prevented from taking their seats by the Hubbell machine, proceeded to organize a republican party in the county and set up the necessary machinery to conduct the party business.

All the republicans of the county except those allied to the Hubbell machine will approve of this course, and will recognize the organization thus perfected as the only republican organization in the county of Bernalillo.

The ticket has been duly filed and registered under the republican party name and emblem, and if the Hubbell disorganizers decide to run a ticket they will have to run it under its proper name.

The republicans of other parts of the territory, as well as those of this county, will learn with pleasure that at last we have a real republican organization in Bernalillo county.

The Way to Get Statehood

THE Journal was the first joint statehood advocate among the newspapers of New Mexico, and was making an earnest fight for the cause when many of those papers and politicians who now pretend to be in favor of it were making just as earnest a fight against it. But when it became clear, beyond any room for doubt, that Arizona would not accept the jointhood proposition, and as the law gave to that part of the proposed state full power to turn down the proposition without regard to the will of the majority, everybody could see that the joint statehood cause was hopeless, and we plainly said so.

But we said at the same time, and have said a hundred times since, that the best way, and as we believe a reasonably sure way, to secure statehood for New Mexico alone, is to give a rousing big majority for the pending jointure proposition, thus showing to the congress and the whole American people that while New Mexico is and has always been ambitious to become a state within her own limits, she is patriotic enough to bow to the wishes of the nation as expressed in the policy of the republican party and the Roosevelt administration, by accepting statehood in conjunction with Arizona. And the people of the territory should bear this fact in mind when they go to the polls in November.

Joint statehood is no longer a live issue, but every vote that is cast for it in this territory at the coming election will have weight with congress and the country in favor of statehood for New Mexico alone, so that as a matter of fact, when you vote "yes" on the pending proposition you will not, in reality, be voting for joint statehood with Arizona, but for single statehood for New Mexico, because as we have said many times before, the joint statehood issue has already been settled in the negative by the people of Arizona, and the vote on the question here will be understood and accepted by congress as simply registering the popular sentiment of New Mexico in favor of statehood on the best terms possible, which now means single statehood for this territory. Hence the people of New Mexico, and especially the republicans of the territory, should put forth their best efforts to make the majority for the proposition as emphatic as possible.

Why this is a matter that appeals especially to republicans, is thus plainly and very correctly stated by the Las Vegas Optic:

"It might as well be admitted that the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory to statehood will give the democratic party two more senators and two or three congressmen. It is certain that New Mexico and Arizona combined will send republican senators and republican representatives. Are New Mexico republicans to assist the democrats in materially increasing their strength? If they are, their republicanism is only a name to conjure by, and is not founded upon principle.

"But there is another phase of this question which is, in the highest degree, important. It is to be supposed that many republicans who oppose jointure, do so because they believe in separate statehood. New Mexico can strike no more effective blow at separate statehood than by voting to defeat jointure.

"The views of a great many republican congressmen are well known. They are not disposed, if New Mexico votes to accept the behest of the party, and Arizona declines to do so, to make us suffer for the fault of our neighbor. There can be no doubt that a republican congress and a republican president will agree to admit republican New Mexico alone, and either divide up Arizona and parcel her out among other states or allow her to remain a corporation ruled territory indefinitely."

YEAR after year Socorro has sent one of the very largest of all the delegations to the territorial fair at Albuquerque, and this year proves to be no exception to the rule. It is to be hoped that the Duke City appreciates this fact.—Chieftain.

Our neighbor may be assured that the people of Albuquerque do appreciate that fact, and whenever Socorro gives them a good opportunity to return the call, they will be there.

ONE might think from reading the editorials in the Hubbell organ, or listening to the speeches made by the Hubbell peons, that the leading issue in the present campaign was the Morning Journal. And indeed, so far as they are concerned, it is, for their cause, can only succeed in the darkness, and the Journal turns the light on them. As Uncle Chet Thomas, of Kansas, used to say, "It pesters 'em a mite."

CURRENT rumor has it that the Santa Fe road is in some danger of falling into the hands of the Standard Oil people. Well, those who are down need fear no fall, and it would not be possible for the Standard crowd, or any other crowd, to make the road discriminate against the business men of Albuquerque much more than it does now.

THE delegation which will present itself from this county at the territorial convention bearing the certificate of "regularity," was chosen by the machine, and the republican voters of Bernalillo county had no more voice in their selection than the sheep on the plains.

AN ODE TO FRANCISCO.

His coat is of sack cloth, though cut a la mode;
His hair is with ashes o'er spread.
He stealthily creeps where so proudly he struts.

There's a penitent droop to his head.
'Tis sad to behold such a contrast complete
To the man who of yore seemed to toss

The world like a ball in a game at his feet.
He was once a political boss.

The Evening Citizen stands for gas rule.

The Evening Citizen stands for mob politics.

The Evening Citizen stands for "voting sheep."

The Evening Citizen stands for "clinging assessments."

The Evening Citizen stands for robbing the county schools.

The Evening Citizen wants Sheriff Armijo to pinch himself.

The Evening Citizen is the official organ of political thuggery.

Francisco can't understand why the republican party has bolted him.

The Evening Citizen is against a business administration of the county affairs.

The Evening Citizen is championing the men who bankrupted Bernalillo county.

The Evening Citizen believes in the good old axiom, "To be with the taxpayer."

"My Fellow Democrats," said the eminent attorney. Does six or seven years seem so short to Mr. Childers?

The Evening Citizen gravely informs us that Mr. Grandville Penitence was a "member of the bureau of irrigation board."

The Evening Citizen will never get in the Judas Iscariot class. It would compromise on fifteen pieces of silver in a minute.

It was really surprising that such an able man as the eminent attorney should have neglected to remember his last political switch.

Things are looking up. The Almanac has awakened from its trance and honored the Morning Journal with another graceful recognition.

Taft has arrived at the very sensible conclusion that the only way to make Cuba happy is by means of a good old fashioned spanking.

Does the Twilight Squeak imagine that the people have forgotten that Frank A. Hubbell was forced by the courts to disgorge several thousands of dollars he stole from the county schools?

The Evening Citizen stands for Escalante Vigil, the superintendent of schools who could neither read nor write, who was unaware of the death of Christopher Columbus and who holds primaries out behind a saloon.

In the Almanac's latest bouquet we note such familiar phrases as "Impotent Rage," "Silly Hatred," "Dastardly Envy," "Tax Dodgers," "Knockers," "Bitter Hatred," and "Vindictive Animosity." The venerable grafter's imitable style has not changed.

That funny old Almanac has a plaintive wail about being a friend of Albuquerque and tells the reader pathetically how it has made a great personal sacrifice to aid the territorial fair and do good to the Duke city.

The aged Pharos could help the territorial fair or Albuquerque in no better way than by attacking both.

The Evening Citizen realizing the eternal fitness of things, in the issue containing an account of the Hubbell sag convention publishes an interesting cartoon of "The Boss."

Nothing could be more appropriate although it feared the cartoon got in without the boss's sanction. The cartoon represents a plethoric individual with the usual bay window and fat cigar ensigned in an immense easy chair, lazily operating an electric switch, which is marked "Newspaper Proprietor."

That Little Willard should have his relation with Don Francisco shown up so graphically is inconceivable. It must have been an accident.

Behind the big boss writes the small figure of the Common Gezer, holding a live wire. This is one mistake. In the case of ex-Boss Hubbell and the people, the former has grasped the live wire.

The World's Railways.

Although the European countries started building railways earlier than the United States, statistics show we are now far ahead of them all, in fact we have got over ten per cent. more miles of main track than the whole of Europe combined. This remarkable showing is probably only equalled by one other and that is the wonderful record of cures made by the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

It was first introduced 33 years ago and today is far ahead of any other stomach remedy in prestige and cures. If the stomach is weak, tongue coated, appetite poor, or bowels constipated, we know of nothing that will do you so much good as a few doses of the Bitters. Try it and see. It always cures indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, flatulency, female ill or malady.

HEARST GETS NOMINATION BY DECISIVE MAJORITY

vention untrammelled by any tie, such as the Independence League, he would have been the nominee of the democrats without a dissenting voice.

"Never," yelled a delegate. Mr. Stanchfield advocated the nomination of Representative William Sulzer, for governor and the mention of the name provoked a considerable volume of applause.

Senator Thomas F. Grady presented the majority report, including a general defense of Tammany.

He closed with an appeal for the nomination of William R. Hearst, and there was great cheering.

Senator Grady was loudly applauded when he said in closing:

"I love my country, I love her institutions. I desire to see the one survive and overcome every danger and the others established upon a firm foundation that they may ever remain with this people."

"And I believe that the continuance, the perpetuation and the triumph of the democratic party is necessary for this, and in this action I believe that for the triumph of the democratic party is necessary, the nomination for governor of William Randolph Hearst."

On the question of substituting the minority representative for that of the majority a roll call was demanded by Mr. Stanchfield. This vote was regarded as a test of the Hearst strength.

King's county cast 62 votes for the substitution of the minority representative. This showed Senator McCarron opposed to Hearst.

Leader Murphy of Tammany Hall cast 93 votes "No."

The motion was lost by a vote of 244 to 142.

This forecasted the nomination of Hearst and there was a storm of cheers.

The majority vote was then adopted via voice. William Nixon was elected unanimously as permanent chairman, and he at once called upon Congressman W. H. Coker to submit the report of the committee on resolutions and platform.

Following is an abstract of the report:

The Platform.

"We affirm it to be as much the supreme duty of the government to prevent any man from taking by violence, fraudulent device or legislative power one dollar of the property of another man as it is to protect every man in the enjoyment of all property, however extensive, produced by his own labor."

"We therefore denounce republican high protection, which enables a few to plunder the whole body of their fellow citizens by charging extortionate prices for the necessities of life and the essentials of industry."

"We deplore the most sinister consequence of the correction and graft which degrade our political and industrial life, the widespread distrust and discredit of republican rule which they have produced and which have led many men of undoubted patriotism to listen patiently, if not approvingly, to proposals of the socialists, which if adopted, must inevitably wreck the foundation of republican government and endanger the entire fabric of Christian civilization."

"We hold that the cure for these abuses is not in socialism, which by enormously extending the power of government must aggravate them, but in democracy, where by excluding the government from the sphere of whatever with private industry, must cure them."

"Every proposal that a municipality assume the operation of all public utilities and industries, or that they use them regardless of what the service may actually cost, is an attempt to force some men to bear the expense of others, because where the outlay for operation exceeds the earnings the deficit must be made up by taxation, and this would be socialistic and therefore hostile to justice and subversive of democratic government."

"It is the duty of the government, therefore, to ascertain the actual cost of operation of all public service corporations and to fix from time to time reasonable rates for the service they perform."

"We denounce as a crime against morals and decency the refusal of the republican administration to permit an investigation of the different departments, especially the banking departments, of the government, we promise that there shall be an impartial investigation of every public department of the state."

"We demand the passage of such legislation as will deal effectively with the whole subject of life insurance and encourage this form of economy by making its fruits absolutely secure."

"We are resolved, above all, that every rogue who has aided in planning this plunder, who has enriched at it or shared in its profits, shall be pursued by every punitive weapon of the law wielded by honest, fearless, loyal public prosecutors."

"We asked the federal government to exercise its influence to bring about speedy cessation of the atrocities now being committed against the Jews in Russia."

"In common with the democrats of all states, and expressing the sentiment of the high minded citizenship of the republic without party, we view with pride and satisfaction the hospitality and acclaim which have been accorded, at home and abroad, to that great democratic leader and typical American, William J. Bryan, to whom the democrats of New York extend most cordial and sincere congratulations."

THE WINNING STROKE

If more than ordinary skill in playing brings the honors of the game to the winning player, so exceptional merit in a remedy ensures the commendation of the well informed, and as a reasonable amount of outdoor life and recreation is conducive to the health and strength, so does a perfect laxative tend to one's improvement in cases of constipation, biliousness, headaches, etc. It is all important, however, in selecting a laxative, to choose one of known quality and excellence, like the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., a laxative which sweetens and cleanses the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after effects, as it acts naturally and gently on the internal organs, simply assisting nature when nature needs assistance, without griping, irritating or debilitating the internal organs in any way, as it contains nothing of an objectionable or injurious nature. As the plants which are combined with the figs in the manufacture of Syrup of Figs are known to physicians to act most beneficially upon the system, the remedy has met with their general approval as a family laxative, a fact well worth considering in making purchases.

It is because of the fact that SYRUP OF FIGS is a remedy of known quality and excellence, and approved by physicians that has led to its use by so many millions of well informed people, who would not use any remedy of uncertain quality or inferior reputation. Every family should have a bottle of the genuine on hand at all times, to use when a laxative remedy is required. Please to remember that the genuine Syrup of Figs is for sale in bottles of one size only, by all reputable druggists, and that full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co., is plainly printed on the front of every package. AN ASPIRING MAN FROM QUAY COUNTY

S. C. Pandolfo of Tucumcari Out for Democratic Nomination for Council From Guadalupe-Quay Legislative District.

(Tucumcari News.)

S. C. Pandolfo has authorized this paper to announce his candidacy for the democratic nomination for representative for the counties of Guadalupe and Quay, the eighth legislative district, to the thirty-seventh legislative assembly, subject to the action of the legislative convention. Mr. Pandolfo has been a business man here for about four years and has helped to build Tucumcari from a small village up to her present prosperous proportions. He owns valuable real estate and business property here and has built up by energetic efforts an insurance business that now embraces all sections of the territory touched by the Rock Island and Southwestern railway lines and has a profitable business and finely equipped offices in El Paso, Texas. Pandolfo belongs to the conservative school of democrats and offers, if elected to the legislature, to represent the people regardless of political doctrines. He is a man who has had splendid educational opportunities and his ability will not be questioned. He has always been a consistent worker in the ranks of his party and never previous to this time asked for political preferment. Being identified with these counties in a business way and having his home here he is ambitious to do something for them in the way of legislation that will redound to our lasting benefit. Among other things he promises what every legislative candidate should be pledged to put forth his greatest efforts to accomplish, and that is to secure an act to square up Quay county on the north by giving us a slice of the Bell pasture. This would square the county and remedy the injustice done us in the beginning. Pandolfo promises in the event of his election to carefully guard the interests of Quay and Guadalupe counties.
