:-BRIEF WIRINGS:-

Yellow Jack Spreading.
Chattanooga, Sept. 23.—This city is maintaining strict quarantine against yellow fever cities of Georgia, which will probably include Atlanta.

A Lift for Silver.
London, Sept. 23.—Despatches from India indicate that there is a strong and growing sentiment in that country in favor of a return to the free coinage of silver.

Death Sentence Commuted.
Jefferson City, Sept. 23.—Gov. Stone this morning commuted the death sentence of John Mosley, of Pemiscot county, sentenced for murder, to imprisonment for twenty-five years.

The White-backs Rest.
Milwaukee, Sept. 23.—The $5,000 race from Chicago to Milwaukee between the white-back steamer Columbus of Chicago and the Goodrich line steamer Virginia, was won by the Columbus.

Work for 1,000 Men.
Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Every department of the large plant of the Otis Steel company is in operation again except the plate mill. It is understood that the Otis company has closed some big orders and that the immense plant, which gives employment to nearly 1,000 men, will be running in full blast within a few days.

Another Santa Fe.
Buenos Ayres, Sept. 23.—It is now said the rebels have destroyed the railroad bridge at Santa Fe, on the line of railroad leading to Tucuman. By this the rebels have prevented ex-President Pellegrini, with a force of 15,000 men, from reaching the disturbed districts and placed the government forces in a very unenviable position. Later—the government forces have regained possession of the railway and expect to occupy the capital of San Miguel de Tucuman to-day.

Corporations and Trusts.
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 23.—The secretary of state has sent to the postoffice for mailing over 25,000 letters. This enormous mail was the result of an act passed by the last legislature directing the secretary of state to send out Sept. 1, a letter of inquiry to each corporation doing business in Illinois, requiring it to make affidavit as to its connection with trusts.

Improvement in Chicago.
Chicago, Sept. 23.—Deposits are increasing with all the banks. A report was current in New York yesterday that Chicago Gas would pay its dividend in cash instead of bonds, as originally decided. The directors of the Chicago breweries have declared an interim dividend for the six months ending March 31, 1893, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum.

Regulators Indicted.
Quincy, Ill., Sept. 23.—The grand jury has returned indictments against fourteen white-caps, who are prominent residents of Kingston, for wilful and malicious murder. Last July these men went to the house of Mrs. Kittie Breckenridge and killed a traveling man who was spending the night there. Two of the most prominent attorneys in the district have been engaged to defend them.

The Fire Killed Claims Two Victims.
Spokane, Sept. 23.—Early this morning a fire broke out at the fine residence of Moses Lindsey at Cheney, near this city. Two persons were burned to death. Lindsey and other residents escaped by jumping thirty feet and Lindsey and a man named Ward were severely injured. Those that escaped did so in their night clothing and some were severely burnt. The loss is $20,000.

Western Kansas Farmers.
Topeka, Kas., Sept. 23.—The Populist state authorities having failed in their scheme to collect seed grain for the unfortunate farmers of western Kansas, the Ancient Order of United Workmen has taken hold of the project, and Grand Master Murphy, of the order in Kansas, has issued a circular to all lodges, appealing for contributions. Eleven thousand bushels of seed grain are needed to put those farmers on their feet again who lost all their crops by this year's drought.

THE U. S. A. BORROWER.

The Cleveland Administration Trying to Get Gold in France.

London, Sept. 23.—A dispatch to the Economist from Paris says negotiations had been started by the United States government to raise a loan of $50,000,000 in gold on 2½ per cent bonds, but have failed and are in a state of collapse owing to the demand made by the financial syndicate that was to advance the money and the intervention of the French government, both insisting on a reduction of the McKinley tariff on goods manufactured in France and imported into the United States in return for permitting the official listing of the proposed issue of bonds on the Paris bourse. The United States government declined to consider this proposal and steps are now being taken in London for the placing of these bonds and for the raising of the loan.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Secy. Carlisle says the London Economist's article regarding a French loan is unfounded.

WASHINGTON GRIST.

U. S. Attorney Hemingway Confirmed
—Hoke Smith Repudiates that Famous Pension Order.

The Repeal Bills in Fresh Complications—Voorhees at Quits with the President—Tariff Tinkers.

JUDGE HEMINGWAY CONFIRMED.
Washington, Sept. 23.—The senate yesterday confirmed the nomination of John Balfour Hemingway to be United States attorney for New Mexico.

THE SITUATION.
Washington, Sept. 23.—The repeal senate have admitted on the floor of the senate their inability to force a vote by the continuous session movement. Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, made this assertion in advocating cloture, and no one undertook to deny his statement. Everybody realized, too, and no one more than Vices President Voorhees, that no such rule as this can be brought in. Senator Voorhees states that not more than eight votes could be mustered for cloture in the senate at this time.

It can easily be seen now that the silver men are in the saddle and there is no possible way in which the opposition will ever be able to unhorse them. There may be no new legislation favorable to silver while Cleveland is president, but if there is not the present Sherman law is sure to stand.

THE TARIFF TINKERS.

Chairman Wilson, of the ways and means committee, has announced that the Democratic members of the committee would at once commence work on a new tariff bill. At the conclusion of the public hearings on Wednesday Mr. Reed made a motion that the hearings be continued for two weeks, but this motion was promptly voted down by the majority, who seem anxious to get at the work to report the bill to the house at the earliest possible date.

DOUGHT HIS OFFICE.
President Cleveland is "roasted" to a turn by the New York World for his appointment of James J. Van Alen as ambassador to Italy. The World claims that Van Alen contributed $50,000 to the Democratic national campaign fund in 1892, and his reward is this appointment. The World quotes Van Alen as saying that America is not a fit place for ladies and gentlemen to live in. This paper declares that the senate will probably not confirm Van Alen's nomination.

THEY WANT DELAY.

An editorial in the New York Tribune, printed with double-headed emphasis, advises the members of the committee to block the passage of the Sherman repeal bill till the Democrats consent to abandon their effort to repeal the federal election laws. The editorial, which doubtless was prompted by Hoar, Lodge, Chandler and other New England Republicans in congress, has attracted much attention here.

IN A MERE SURELY.

The indications are that the election bill will replace the repeal bill in the senate as soon as it passes the house, and the shrewdest observers declare that neither the tariff, election nor repeal bills will pass the senate.

VOORHEES IS REAL THIED.

The appointment of an internal revenue collector for the Terre Haute district, in opposition to the candidate who was especially championed by Voorhees, is not relished by the latter. It has also come to his ears that the president regards the senator as only half-hearted in the contest for repeal of the Sherman law; or if not that, as lacking in ability to manage the campaign against silver in the senate. Mr. Voorhees is alleged to be very much disheartened and disgusted.

U. S. PENSIONERS.

Pension Commissioner Lochran submitted his annual report to the secretary of the interior. The number of pensioners on the roll of the bureau is 956,012, a net increase of 89,944 during the past year. During the year, 24,716 claims for increase of pension and 81,990 for additional pension under the act of June 27, 1890, were allowed. In the same time 115,122 claims for pension and increase were rejected. Claims pending consideration July 7, numbered 711,150. The amount of money paid for pensions during the year was $156,740,447. The balance at the close of the year was $2,487,371. The appropriation for the fiscal year, Commissioner Lochran states, will be ample and the estimates for the fiscal year 1895 amount to $162,631,550.

HOKA SMITH EXPLAINING.

Hoke Smith, secretary of the interior, says he has been grossly misrepresented in the pension question. He says the order of Comr. Lochran that pensions should be dropped from the pay rolls sixty days and then substantiate their claims anew or suffer permanent suspension, did not have his approval and was issued without his knowledge.

MONEY FOR STRIKERS.

London, Sept. 23.—The Derbyshire Miners association sided by the Gladstonian members of the house of commons have raised sixteen thousand pounds in solid cash to enable them to pay strikers and miners out of employment. In consequence of this aid the strike now on among the Derbyshire miners may be continued indefinitely. The miners and their friends are jubilant.

Enster.
New York, Sept. 13.—Money on call is 2 per cent.
Silver 78½¢.

Wheat Previous.
London, Sept. 23.—Wheat fell to the depth of four inches over the northern part of England.

Provision Market.
Chicago, Sept. 23.—Wheat is firm owing to heavy exports; Dec. 70½¢. Corn dull, Oct. 41½¢. Provisions slow; Jan. pork, $14.05.

Denies a Rumor.
Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 23.—Gov. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, denies the report that it is his intention to resign and accept a position with the Lehigh Valley Railroad company.

Retired Through Old Age.
St. Louis, Sept. 23.—The papal delegate, Monsignor Sattoli has depaged Archbishop Kendrick and Archbishop Heron has been vested with all power in the premises.

Rock Island Strike.
Topeka, Sept. 23.—The grievance committee of switchmen on the Rock Island road have declared a strike. The night force at Herington, Kas., refused to work last night, but the day force keep their places. All quiet.

An Ancient Cause.
Belford, Pa., Sept. 23.—In the suit of Long & Ligg vs. the Lehigh Valley Coal company for 12,000 acres of valuable coal land in the Snow-shoes territory, the jury today returned a verdict in favor of defendant. The case has been pending for twenty-one years.

Coming of a Great Race.

New York, Sept. 23.—The Campana with Lord Dunraven, owner of the Valkyrie, arrived this morning. He said the countess and other ladies of the English party will be aboard of the Valkyrie in its contest with the Vigilant, the U. S. racer.

AWAY UP.

Splendid Showing Made by the Bank Statement Issued this Morning.

New York, Sept. 23.—The bank statement issued to-day shows that the reserves have increased $7,800,000 during the past year. Loans have decreased $7,225,000; specie increase, $5,205,000; legal tender increase, $3,411,000; deposits increase, $8,673,000; circulation increase, $887,000. The banks now hold $16,610,000 in excess of the 25 per cent rule.

OFFICIAL GOSSIP.

Frank Otis has been appointed postmaster at Mesquite, Dona Ana county, N. M., vice Sydney Chinoweth, resigned.

Col. C. G. Coleman, special agent of the general land office, has been assisting in looking after official matters in the Cherokee strip for three weeks past. He was at Springer yesterday, and is expected to arrive here to-night.

For four months or more the people of Mora and eastern San Miguel counties have been complaining of petty annoyances from a band of some 200 Jicarilla Apaches which left the reservation in Rio Arriba county when J. H. Robertson was agent. After repeated calls upon the Indian office, Capt. J. L. Bullis has received authority to go after these stragglers and return them to their reservation. He left for Mora this morning on this mission.

The two Syrians, Nasir Zora and Antonio Ymeen, who were accused last month by old man Gregorio Casados, of La Villita, Rio Arriba county, of robbery and firing a shot that killed Casados' wife, were before Judge Seede this morning for a second time, having been held over by request of the district attorney. There was no evidence whatever against the men and they were set at liberty.

A Good Example.

Jose Ma. Barola and Polito D. Larosa were in Las Vegas last Thursday with four strings of mountain trout numbering 119 in all. In their ignorance of the law, they attempted to sell the fish on the streets. They were soon arrested and taken before Judge Wooster, who fined them $50 and costs, and suspended the fine during good behavior. The fish were caught in the upper Gallinas.

Agent Smith Promoted.

W. M. Smith, for six years past local agent for the A. T. & S. F. railroad company here, was notified last night that he had been transferred to Trinidad, where he will proceed at once and enter upon higher and more responsible duties as local agent and commercial agent. For the present Chief Clerk Nichols will have full charge of this station.

This promotion is more than deserved by Mr. Smith. He has been with the Santa Fe company since its entry into New Mexico, serving formerly as agent at Los Lunas and later at Bernalillo. He is a faithful, competent and popular railroad man, well up in all the details of railroad work and a mighty good citizen. May success continue to attend him in his new field.

We beg to announce that we still have a good assortment of dress goods, flannels, underwear, hosiery, etc., on hand, all of which will be sold regardless of cost. Grunsfeld, Luedheim & Co., at the Second National bank.

Army Notes.

Leave of absence for one month is granted 2d Lieut. Samuel B. Arnold, 2d cavalry, Fort Grant, A. T.

Leave of absence for fifteen days is granted 1st Lieut. Daniel A. Frederick, adjutant, 7th infantry, Fort Logan, Colo. 2d Lieut. Warren B. Fox, 10th infantry, having been absent from duty over three months without leave, is dropped from the rolls of the army for desertion.

Major A. H. Bainbridge, 10th infantry, recently detailed as Navajo Indian agent, does not desire the duty named and the order detaching him may be revoked at an early date.

NEW MEXICO MINES.

Another Dry Washer Discovered—Facts Wanted—Good Ore from Many Mines—Active Silver Camps.

The Albuquerque Democrat asserts that a rich gold strike has been made in the Manzano mountains, and the Albuquerque Times declares the gold which a new dry washer patented by a Mr. Schwartz, of that city, has been able to save in the placer fields east of Bernalillo is "something startling." Facts, however, are what the dear people and the mining fraternity find and newspapers would no doubt like to have. Particularly is this the case with the so-called dry washers. If a dry washer has been invented at Albuquerque or anywhere else that can really be operated without water it is worth, at a conservative estimate, about $100,000,000 to New Mexico. It is therefore incumbent upon the Times, as all other newspapers in this territory, to deal in cold facts and figures and not glittering generalities when speaking of alleged phenomenal results thus obtained.

A SMELTER IN PROSPECT.

There is a prospect that a large smelter will be erected at Deming in the near future. If the price of lead should remain at as high a figure as it is now, there would be no difficulty in getting ore enough to keep a large smelter in operation there. The coal and coke would be supplied by Cerrillos.

A STONE FIND.

Louis Osmar the other day brought in from the Red river country some fine specimens of alum and a building stone which promises to be of great value. The stone is a variety of lime formation, rather of a milk-white tint; and when first quarried can be whitened with a knife into any shape. On exposure to air for a few days it hardens and takes a good polish.—Las Vegas Optic.

SOON TO RESUME.

Mine owners at Cook's Peak are preparing to resume work. The advance in the price of lead has made it possible to operate the mines there at a fair profit and if there be no serious break in the lead market the mines at Cook's Peak can be operated steadily. There are thousands of tons of ore in sight which can be taken out at small expense.

CHEERFUL NEWS FROM MOGOLLON.

On the Little Fannie mine, in the Mogollon district of Socorro county, which is being leased and operated by H. R. Bledsoe of St. Louis, a magnificent body of ore has been opened up. The mill is being run on ore from the east drift

HUNTING FOR GOLD.

Flint bearing a small quantity of gold was discovered several years ago on the flats east of Vaud, but nothing resulted from the discovery. For some ten days past several parties have been prospecting in that locality and have staked out a claim on the strength of finding what they believe to be gold. The usual mysterious methods of miners have been adopted, an old California prospector employed and precautions taken to keep the exact location a secret. O. G. Myhre, J. T. Hartigan, Mr. Lowe and Mr. Winslow and five others are interested. The find is near the river—Eddy Argus.

AS LARGE AS EVER.

All the mills at Pinos Altos are at work and the results which are being obtained are satisfactory. The output of the camp is as large now as it ever had been and the probabilities are that it will be increased considerably by the end of the year. There will be plenty of water to keep the mills running for some months to come.—Silver City Sentinel.

GRANT COUNTY PLACERS.

There are quite a number of men at work in the placers in the Burro mountains. The dirt is rich enough to pay well and it is quite probable that a company will be formed to carry on operations there on a large scale. Water will have to be brought some distance and at considerable expense but the placers are thought to be of sufficient extent and richness to warrant the expenditure of a large sum of money to get water on the ground.

DEMAND FOR LEAD.

It is expected that the Denver Ore Sampling Works will be started up again in a few days. The demand for lead ores has increased considerably since the first of the month and the outlook is more encouraging now than it has been for some time.

GREAT ACTIVITY.

Mogollon and Cooney are the best mining camps in New Mexico to-day, employing more men, paying out more cash and producing more gold and silver than probably any other place in all the southwest. The fifteen stamp mill of the old reliable Maud S. mine, (the Colonial Mining Co.) keeps steadily grinding away day and night. Another fifteen stamp mill keeps turning out gold and silver bricks with equal regularity from the Little Fannie mine. The new cyanide process mill on the Deep Down property has so far run with unqualified success, saving all the gold in the ore and as high a proportion of silver as is done by the stamp mills at a less cost; if after an exhaustive trial this result is found to continue, the mill will be doubled, or if (which seems unlikely) it should turn out unprofitable, an amalgamation plant will be substituted and the bullion output be kept up. On Mineral Creek Capt. Cooney's five stamp concentrating mill will be finished within the next couple of weeks to operate on the copper, gold and silver ores of that part of the camp. Besides these mills a great deal of important development work is being done on many other mines, notably on the Queen and others owned by Capt. J. N. Sawyer and Galveston capitalists.—Silver City Sentinel.

He Knew.

Head of Firm—Have you had any experience with double entry?

Prospective Book-keeper—I should say so! I've been shipping clerk for one of the largest houses in the trade.

Head of Firm—But you didn't learn anything about double entry, did you?

Prospective Book-keeper—Certainly, sir. When the goods were shipped I made one entry, and when they were returned I made another. Ain't that double entry?

—Clock Review.

His Personal Experience.

Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his 6th term as speaker of the assembly of New York, writes:

I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of Allee's Catarrh Plasters. I have used them for twenty-five years past, and can conscientiously commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago, when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured, I gave them a thoroughly trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely relieved. On another occasion, when suffering from a severe cough, which threatened pulmonary difficulties, which I was recommended to go to Florida to relieve, I determined to test the plasters again. I applied them to my chest and between the shoulder blades, and in less than a fortnight was entirely cured. On still another occasion when suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the shoulder to such an extent that I could scarcely raise my arm, I again resorted to the plasters, and within a few days the rheumatism entirely disappeared. I have them constantly by me whether at home or abroad. My family as well as myself have found them to be a sovereign remedy, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me in a week. I desire, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way of doing it than by giving you my personal experience."

More Than Money.

Mister, he said to a restaurant man on Randolph street, I've lost me wallet through your front grating. Kin I go down after it?

Boy, don't bother me. But I want me wallet. I'll bet you didn't have 10 cents in it. I know I didn't, but it's de private papers of no use to any one but de owner—that I want to recover.

He was permitted to recover it.—Detroit Free Press.

A Saffron Colored Index.

Of the condition of a bilious stomach and sluggish liver is the human countenance. Not only the skin, but the eyeballs, are tinged with the yellow hue when the bile gets into the blood. Besides this, sick headaches ensue, the tongue becomes furred, pains are felt in the liver and through the right shoulder blade, and dizziness is experienced upon rising from a sitting or recumbent posture by the bilious invalid. For these and other indications of biliousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a sovereign remedy. It is also efficacious in chills and fever, dumb ague, acute catarrh of the kidneys and bladder, rheumatism and nervousness. It stimulates, restores digestion and sleep, and tends greatly to mitigate the infirmities of age.

Could Not Be Matched.

A well-known music-hall comedian once entered a hatter's establishment in Regent street to have his hat ironed. While standing bareheaded in the shop a certain bishop came in and, mistaking him for one of the assistants, handed him his hat with the remark: Have you a hat like that?

The comedian took the hat, which was of the shape usually worn by the bishops and after turning it about and apparently well examining it he handed it back. No he said, but if I had it'd be hanged if I'd wear it.—Tit-Bits.

Sudden Death! That Startling News Heading.

The public is becoming accustomed to the above heading, but nevertheless it always conveys a shock. Sudden death is a vast majority of cases results from heart disease, manifested by any one or several of the following symptoms: Short breath, palpitation, irregular pulse, wind in stomach, pain in side, shoulder or arm, under left shoulder blade, between shoulders or in bowels, irregular or intermittent pulse, oppressive feeling in chest, choking sensation, weak or hungry spells, difficult breathing, swelling of feet or ankles, dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure speedily remedies all these. Sold by A. C. Ireland, Jr., on a guarantee, who will give you his elegant book, free.

Fame.

A statesman from New York was indulging in a little social relaxation. The lady with whom he was conversing undertook to give the conversation a little life by the remark: Don't you think Burns poetry is beautiful?

A shade of haughty indignation swept over his face, but he answered gently: Mr. Byrnes, madame, is superintendent of police, not a poet.—Detroit Free Press.

Mr. Thomas Bates, editor of the Graph in Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this medicine to any person suffering from such a disease, as it is my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Cholly—I've just done a clever thing. George—What was it?

Cholly—I bought a lot of woses now when they're cheap, so I won't have to get any in the winter.

A little boy of Mrs. McDonald's, living near here, fell against a red hot stove and was fearfully burned. The pain was terrible, and it was thought the burn was so severe as to scar the child for life. I sold the lady a bottle of Pain Balm, which, after greasing the sore, she applied. It soon removed all the fire and eased the pain, and in ten days the boy was well, no trace of the scar remaining. A. D. McLaren, Keyport, Clinton county, Ill. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Who is the greatest man in the senate? Senator Cuff. His speech on silver lasted four days and in it he expressed two distinct ideas.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kansas) Chief. Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually proceed that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Poor Thing.

Jones, your dog barks so much at night that I haven't had a quiet sleep for a week. Great Scott! Does he bark as much as that? I'm afraid he isn't well.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by A. C. A Good Reason.

You see that good looking girl over there? Well, I could have married her long ago.

And why didn't you? Because she wouldn't have me.—Schalk.

Assurance.

Maad Muller—Will you love me when I am old?

Van Arndt—My darling, I do love you.

In Vino Veritas.

I hear Harry Havenaght was in such a state yesterday that he had to be brought to the ball.

Yes; they'd been bringing him so many balls at the club that he thought it only the fair thing.

"A BUD"

—to be beautiful and charming must have perfect health, with all that it implies—a clear skin, rosy cheeks, bright eyes and good spirits. Every young girl needs the wisest care as she enters womanhood. The troubles that are to be feared at this time have a positive remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a generous, supporting tonic which builds up and strengthens the system, and regulates and promotes every proper function. You'll find that the woman who has faithfully used the "Prescription" is the picture of health, she looks well and she feels well. It's the only guaranteed remedy for all the functional disturbances, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of womanhood. In "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, bearing-down sensations, internal inflammation, and kindred ailments, if it over fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

BE KIND TO A LOVE.

Be kind to a love. If a good woman love you and you can't return all her tenderness, tread lightly on that love lest she rise above you. And you learn to love her when her love is dead.

Be kind to a love. Your beauty was given, a fair woman, that you might lift mankind above the world and its woes. 'Twas sent you from heaven. Be careful and constant and kind to a love. For the heart that returns to a love long neglected. To hear the old story that never grows old. And claims the caresses so often rejected. Will contrive to learn that love has grown cold.

LIZERUNT.

Somewhere in the register was written the name Elizabeth Hunt, but 17 years after the entry the spoken name was Lizerunt.

She worked at a pickle factory and appeared abroad in an elaborate and shabby costume, usually supplemented by a white apron.

Without she was something of a beauty—that is to say, her cheeks were very red, her teeth were very large and white, her nose was small and snub and her fringe was long and shiny, while her face, now washed, was susceptible of a high polish.

Many such girls are married at 16, but Lizerunt was much belated and had never a bloke at all.

Billy Choze was a year older than Lizerunt. He wore a billycock with a thin brim and a permanent dent in the crown. He had a bobtail coat, and his collar was turned up at one side and down at the other, as an expression of independence. Between his meals he wore his hands in his breeches pockets. He lived with his mother, who mangled.

His conversation with Lizerunt consisted long of perfunctory nods, but this especial Thursday evening, as Lizerunt, making for home, followed the fading red light, great things happened.

For Billy Choze, slouching in the opposite direction, lurched across the pavement as they met, and taking the nearer hand from his pocket caught and twisted her arm, bumping her against the wall.

"Garn," said Lizerunt, greatly pleased, "le' go!" For she knew that this was love.

"Where yer aint to, Lizer?"

"One, o' course, chokey. Le' go!" and she snatched in vain at Billy's hat.

Billy let go and capered in front. She feigned to dodge by him, careful not to be too quick, because affairs were developing.

"I sy, Lizer," said Billy, stopping his dance and becoming businesslike, "go in anywhere Monday?"

"Not along o' you, chokey. You go long o' Beller Dawson, like wot you did Easter."

"How Beller Dawson; she ain't no good. I'm goin on the flats. Come?"

Lizerunt, delighted but derisive, ended with a promise to "see." The bloke had come at least, and she walked home with the feeling of having taken her degree.

She had half asmed herself of it two days before, when Sam Cardew threw an orange pod at her, but went away after a little prancing on the pavement.

Sam was a smarter fellow than Billy and earned his own living. Probably his intentions were serious, but one must prefer the bird in hand.

There is no other fair like Whit Monday on Wansted flats. Here is a square mile and more of open land where you may howl at large. Here the public houses are always with you; shows, shies, swings, merry-go-rounds, fried fish stalls, donkeys, are packed closer than on Hampstead Heath.

Also you may be drunk and disorderly without being locked up, for the stations won't hold everybody, and what all else has pulled you may fire to the turf.

Hereinto Billy and Lizerunt projected themselves from the doors of the Holly Tree on Whit Monday morning.

But through hours and hours of fried fish and half pints both were conscious of a deficiency, for the hat of Lizerunt was brown and old, plush it was not, and its feather was a mere foot long and very rusty black.

Now, it is not decent for a factory girl from Limehouse to go bank holidaying under any but a hat of plush, very high in the crown and of a wild blue or a wider green, carrying also an ostrich feather, pink or scarlet, or what not that springs from the fore part, climbs the crown and drops as far down the shoulders as may be.

Lizerunt knew this and would have stayed at home without a bloke, but a chance was a chance.

Billy, too, had a vague impression—muddled, but not drowned in half pints—that some degree of plush was con-dign to the occasion and to his own expenditure.

Still there was no quarrel, and the pair walked and ran with arms about each other's necks, and Lizerunt thumped her bloke on the back at proper intervals, so that the affair proceeded very regularly, although in view of Lizerunt's shortcomings Billy did not insist upon the customary exchange of hats.

Everything went well and well enough until Billy bought a ladies' tormentor and began to squirt it at Lizerunt.

These two fighting for her! Here in the public gaze on the flats! For almost five minutes she was Helen of Troy.

And in much less Billy tasted repentance. The haze of half pints was dispelled, and some teeth went with it.

Presently he rose and made a running kick at the other, but being thwarted in a bolt flung himself down, and it was like to go hard with him at the hands of the crowd. Punch, you may, on Wansted flats, but excretion and worse is your portion if you kick anybody except your wife.

But as the ring closed the helmets of two policemen were observed working inward above the surrounding heads, and Sam Cardew, quickly assuming his cloak, turned away with such an air of blamelessness as is practicable with a damaged eye, while Billy went off unheeded in the opposite direction.

Billy was all very well, but Sam was better. She resolved to draw him for a feathered hat before next bank holiday. So the sun went down on her and her bloke hanging on to her and her struggling toward the Remford road with shouts and choruses. The rest was trumpery, low music hall, half pints and darkness.

Billy took home his wounds, and his mother, having moved his wrath by asking their origin, sought refuge with a neighbor. His revenge he accomplished in two installments. Two nights later Lizerunt was going with a jug of beer when somebody sprang from a park corner, landed her under the ear, knocked her sprawling and made off to the sound of her hullaballoo. She did not see who it was, but she knew, and next day Sam Cardew was swearing head' brock Billy's back.

He did not, however, for that evening a gang of seven or eight fell on him with sticks and belts. (They were Cateaway chaps, while Sam was a Brady's man, which would have been reason enough by itself, even if Billy Choze had not been one of them.)

He lay at home for nearly four weeks, and when he stood up again it was in many bandages. Lizerunt came often to his bedside, and twice she brought an orange.

But the weeks went on. It was a month, and Sam had left his bed, and Lizerunt was getting a little tired of bandages. Also she had begun to doubt and consider bank holiday—scarcely a fortnight off.

For Sam was stone broke, and a plush hat was further away than ever. And all through the later of these weeks Billy Choze was harder than ever on his mother.

There was a milliner's window with a show of nothing but fashionable plush and feather hats, and Lizerunt was lingering thereabouts one evening when some one took her by the waist, and some one said: "Which d'yer like, Lizer? The yellor un?"

Lizerunt turned and saw it was Billy. She pulled herself away and backed off, sullen and distrustful. "Garn," she said.

"Straight," said Billy. "I'll sport yer one. No kid, I will."

"Garn," said Lizerunt once more. "Wot yer gettin at now?"

But presently she approached less guardedly, and she went away with a paper bag and the reddest of all the plushes and the bluest of all the feathers, a hat that challenged all the flats the next bank holiday.

As for Billy, why, he was as good as another, and you can't have everything, and Sam Cardew, with his bandages and his grunts and groans, was no great catch after all.

This was the wedding of Lizerunt, for in a few months she and Billy married. And they lived with Billy's mother.—National Observer.

What Is Done With Old Shoes.

"What do we do with old shoes that are left here?" said a shoe dealer, repeating a customer's question. "Well, we never do anything with them. There's a pile in the yard now waiting for the ash man to carry off. If while it is there any old bum wants to be shod, we send him out and let him take his pick. But I know one shoe store that keeps all its castoffs for a collector. In fact, I'm not sure that he doesn't pay a little something for them. Haven't the least idea what he does with them, but shouldn't wonder if you could buy the best of them afterward in Hester street for 10 cents a pair, and for all I know, some of them may be worked over into cheap stock."

Where to Stop in Chicago.

The perplexing question which is every day asked by people who desire to go to Chicago to attend the World's fair is, "Where are we going to stay when we get there?" This is easily answered, and if you will go to the ticket agent of the Santa Fe, Mr. W. M. Smith, he will tell you.

Arrangements have been made for the distribution by the Santa Fe company of a pamphlet entitled "Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair." This is a reliable pamphlet containing the names and addresses of about 9,000 families who will furnish accommodations to visitors from May 1 to October 31, 1893. The pamphlet also contains sectional maps which will enable the intending visitor to select any quarter of the city that he would prefer. Correspondence can then be carried on and definite arrangements made as to when visitors arrive in Chicago they can proceed at once to their quarters.

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for scalds, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles. New Mexico Drug Store.

Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the liver that causes indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. H. Wharton, Baltimore, Md.
"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. No good medicine deserves universal commendation."

FAIR ECHOES.

Ritchie, the Albuquerque young man who won the five mile cycle race, royally entertained the visiting wheelmen. The Albuquerque cycle players scooped the capital city players this year, and won everything in sight including the championship.

The Ramona school brought back from the fair four blue ribbon or first prizes and one second prize. Prof. Chase is well satisfied.

Adolph Fischer will hold the territorial cycle championship cup for one year, and if he wins it at the next fair it becomes his personal property.

The receipts of the fair were good, better even than the most sanguine expected. The attendance, while not as large as last year, was satisfactory, especially the last two days.

All visitors contend that Dr. Andrews' Johnny Wilkes trotter is entitled to the $200 purse in the race with Poppy, the latter being over age. The decision on the protest has not yet been made.

Will Clark, formerly of Santa Fe, was one of the professional battery from Denver imported by Albuquerque to wipe the earth with the Santa Fe boys—but 16 to 9 in favor of Santa Fe was the score nevertheless.

There is some talk that a match will be made between John Pichler, owner of Billy, and F. E. Sturges, owner of May Queen, for a match race for $2,000 a side, the race to be trotted in sixty days.

In the base ball match yesterday the score stood Albuquerque 15, Las Vegas 9. The Las Vegas boys are not satisfied with their defeat, and will remain over, playing the Browns again at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24.

Two coach loads of people returned from the fair this morning, among them being the members of the 10th infantry band, most of whom are suffering not a little from repeated attacks by droves of mosquitoes during their absence. N. B. This is no joke.

Frank Lee, W. Baker, E. C. Sperry, F. H. Hudson, R. H. H. and others, who were entered for the consolation bicycle race yesterday. The first four withdrew at the last moment, leaving the contest simply in the hands of Helwig and Romero, of Albuquerque, the former running the mile in 4:12.

Lizzie S. of Denver, May Queen and Billy Teague, of Albuquerque, went in the principal race yesterday. In the second heat, Lizzie S. not only won the heat and race, distancing her competitors, but covered the entire mile without a skip in the remarkably fast time on a half-mile track in 2:23 1/4, winning the purse of $200 hung up by the association for any horse beating 2:25.

A THRIFTY SUBURB.

An Early Morning Drive to Agua Fria and What Was Observed by a News Seeker.

The other day it was stated in these columns that the best corn crop hereabouts in ten years is now ripening. This morning a news hunter drove six miles down the valley and found the above statement to be more than correct, for on every hand were seen not only first-class crops of corn, but extraordinary heavy fields of oats, alfalfa, beans, peas, hay, etc. About Agua Fria large ricks of the latter are being put up for winter. The first crop of beans and peas has been harvested and threshed and a second crop is now maturing. Two full cuttings of oat hay are assured, and the wheat yield is more than was hoped for early in the season.

Thus the people of the Agua Fria region will go into the winter in better general condition than for years. They are a thrifty class as a rule; far more so than ordinary, and the pastor in charge of the Catholic church there compliments them on this account and says a more peaceable and law-abiding neighborhood is not to be found in the country.

SATURDAY SALAD.

A GOSPEL EPISTLE.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—My Dear Janet: Now that the silver panic is nearing its end, I suppose we may think of something to wear. Much to my grief, sleeves wax larger and yet more large. In fact the newest modes show no departure from the spring styles as regards skirts, but there is an elaboration of puffs and frills around the forearm that is absolutely bewildering. Some of these sleeve novelties bear such inspiring names as "leg o' mutton," "elephant's ear," and "pumpkin puffs." And if when we are clad in our best we resemble any of the aforesaid objects, no wonder a cynical critic writes: "The fashionable woman of to-day resembles a big upward sloping squaw, with an apple set above it, and topped off with a smallish potato."

There is a whisper in the air that paniers are to be worn. If fair woman looks aggressive in the shoulder decoration of puffs, bustles and epaulettes what will the effect be when the hips are adorned in like manner? Paniers mean that we are returning to the age of the tightly laced waist, the short skirt, the elbow sleeves. Alas! for those who have discarded stays and gone in for high kicking and gymnastic laurels.

Mrs. Stevenson, the pleasant wife of the vice-president, is well up on dress matters, and lately wore a gown of dull black silk, which besides the usual amount of sleeve and shoulder trimming was likewise decked at the hips with a number of small tulle ruffles. The skirt is short, slightly bell—a very pretty and significant costume, it marks the beginning of the new era.

Baby Esther is the most popular piece of femininity on the continent. Mrs. Cleveland and even Baby Ruth are in the rear. At every gathering, official, social, formal or otherwise, her merits are discussed in glowing terms. Up to this date in her infant career, "none knew her but to love her, none name her but to praise." I wonder how it will be fifty years hence. Mrs. Cleveland receives a prodigious lot of presents, mostly of fruit and flowers, in a congratulatory way. The Italian Board of Trade recently presented her with a magnificent assortment of tropic luxuries—a very graceful and thoughtful act of courtesy, everyone thought, except a Celtic friend of fruit in the Centre market. "The like of 'em," he sniffed, displaying a lot of peaches, pears and grapes that were as near perfect as anything on the footstool can get, "sending the president's wife their unwholesome stuff, when our own country can give her these."

Another very interesting personage these days is Richard P. Blain, of Missouri, silver's most steadfast advocate. Mr. Blain is a man with a hobby and he has it no matter what the obstacles. Just before his last nomination, some of his friends desiring to add glory and power to their old favorite, tried to annex a prosperous and enterprising city to his district. The champion of silver was disconsolate. "Gentlemen," he said, "if you annex Missouri to my district I will accept the nomination. There are lots of young politicians there that will be the backbone of my bill!" So the old boundaries were retained. Personally, Mr. Blain is much liked; he has a fund of dry humor and his ability and integrity are unquestioned. Mrs. Blain is a member of the celebrated Ewing family, which has contributed more than its quota of the good men and women of our country. Although young and exceptionally handsome, Mr. Blain does not figure in the social whirl. Her interesting family, six children, and her husband's arduous devotion to his calling make her domestic duties too engrossing to permit of gayer ones. She has most materially aided his success, not indeed by electioneering, lobbying or endeavoring to mold his opinions, but by attending with scrupulous care to the ways of his household.

When the young man meets his lady love after her return from the summer outing, he is shown a collection of vacation souvenirs. Collections of every description are thefad. Ambitious belles have an assortment of ball programs displayed with signs that would baffle a student of hieroglyphics. The girl who has journeyed by the sea has boxes and bags of treasures. Delicately fashioned ocean weeds, some green, some red, some deep dark olive; and lovely little shells and pebbles daintily as precious stones, all of which, if she is a maiden of good taste, will make an attractive corner in the drawing room. Barrel spoils are to be despised. No one tires of ferns; if properly cured, they look fresh and pure as when first stolen from their shady homes, and pretty wild flowers, bunches of mosses and lichen make a pleasing innovation for a scrap book. "Well," said a young girl to her friend, when she had viewed a collection of these vacation treasures, "you have been much more fortunate than I; I collected nothing but a most enormous appetite, a desire to do nothing and a profusion of snoring."

Good-bye, dear Janet, with much love, your friend,
MARGARET BERRY.

A HAPPY AFFAIR.

Saturday, the 16th of September, being the day appointed as New Mexico day at the Columbian exhibition, some little notice is due to the way in which the day was celebrated by some of the Santa Feans who could not attend the fair on that day. Early in the morning Mrs. L. B. Prince took a party up the picturesque canon. The party consisted of Col. and Mrs. Pearson, Dr. and Mrs. Kimball, Capt. and Mrs. Kirkman, Mr. A. C. Monk, Mr. Stokes, Miss Clair Gullford and Mr. Hugh Kirkman. A delightful day was spent in the mountains and about 8 o'clock p. m. the same party appeared at the residence of Major R. J. Folen, the territorial treasurer. Major and Mrs. Folen had attained their crystal anniversary, having been married fifteen years ago on the 17th of September. The party from the canon was augmented by Gen. and Mrs. E. B. Bledet, Mr. and Mrs. Little, Messrs. L. A. and James Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Harry Clancy, Miss F. Hughes and Dr. D. W. Manley. The face of the Liberty bell, which was rung in Chicago at noon, Mrs. Prince took with her tied with white ribbon and trimmed with white flowers. At midnight Mrs. Prince delivered a short and prompt poem on the crystal wedding and rang a chime on the bell which was taken up by each guest in turn, thus closing the New Mexico day in Santa Fe as it was begun in Chicago by ringing the new Liberty bell.

Las Cruces is rapidly filling up with health-seekers, and even those early in the season possess many attractions. Those who are fond of field sports find thereabouts small game, such as quail, snipe, ducks, pigeons, rabbits, etc., unusually abundant. Fruit also is still in its prime, very plentiful and of superior quality. Among the recent arrivals at the Alameda, at Las Cruces, managed by J. K. Livingston, are Prof. Francis L. Kendall and wife, of Williamstown, Mass., and Mrs. F. B. White and daughter, of Illinois. Prof. Kendall has for some years been connected with Williams college, one of New England's oldest and best educational institutions and comes to Las Cruces for the winter, through the advice of a Boston physician, in hopes of overcoming a serious throat trouble.
