

Mexican Engineer Murdered In Guatemala City

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, October 5, 1990

On Oct. 3 in Guatemala City, police reported that Mexican engineer Carlos Arturo Casas Sales, whose body was found Oct. 1, died from gunshot wounds. The police indicated that Casas Sales was abducted by unidentified persons, and later assassinated. (Basic data from Notimex, 10/03/90)

-- End --