MAXWELL GRANT.

Settlers on the Colorado Portion of It Demand Action by the State Land Board.

Denver, Sept. 29.—At a meeting of the state land board, Gov. White presented a petition which had been received from a large number of settlers on the Colorado half of the Maxwell land grant. They asked him that he should endorse a petition that 200,000 acres lying within the out-boundaries of the Vigil and St. Vrain grants, Larimer county, shall be thrown open to settlement. The act of 1860 declared it public land, and yet, despite the repeated decisions of courts and the rulings of the general land office, the Maxwell company has succeeded in deterring its declaration as public domain. The settlers desire to know whether their petitions should be longer treated with contempt. The Maxwell Land company has a big deal on foot in land which it desires to sell to the Coal & Coke company at Sopris, the communication says, and for that reason will probably resist any action by the government.

The governor was instructed by the board to endorse the petition and ask that the prayer of the settlers be granted. This is an important step because it may have a weighty influence toward securing a final settlement of this long standing dispute of an area of valuable farming country which could be made to sustain 20,000 to 30,000 people were the titles once determined.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Silver's Enemy for Director of the Mint—Philadelphia Business Men Want Silver Money.

The Lucas Arid Lands Bill—Wolcott Calls Down Gorman—National Notes.

WATER OF SILVER.
Washington, Sept. 29.—President Cleveland created no surprise when he sent the name of Robert E. Preston, of the District of Columbia, to the senate as director of the mint. Preston has displayed enough loyalty to silver for the past few months to win him his position. As acting director he has gone even further than carrying out the base designs of the president and Sec. Carlisle in their warfare against silver. He has continually violated the Sherman act.

IRIGATION OF ARID LANDS.
Representative Lucas, of South Dakota, has created an amount of interest in the west with the irrigation bill he introduced a week ago. Hundreds of letters are coming to him daily from Colorado and other western states interested in the reclamation of the arid lands, asking as to the extent and purpose of the measure he has presented to congress.

It seems that the plan he has brought before congress is the most feasible, according to his correspondents, that has yet been presented at any previous session. If the matter can be handled in the right way there is a strong hope among the western members that some such law as is proposed by Mr. Lucas can be passed during the 53d session. Representatives Pence and Bell, of Colorado, will support the Lucas bill.

GROWING INTERESTING.
Dubois' resolution concerning the vacancies in the senate from three western states and Wolcott's speech thereon stirred up a hornet's nest in the senate. Wolcott's speech was a defiance to the repealers to do their worst, and a declaration that, do what they might, their efforts would be in vain.

He told them very plainly that he understood their program to force a vote if possible by night sessions and forced Gorman to show his hand for the first time in the session. A critical time is evidently approaching in the consideration of the repeal bill.

It is evident that the repealers will bend every energy to get it out of the way before the election bill can be reached and they will make superhuman efforts in that direction next week, if not before.

THE 10 PER CENT TAX ON STATE BANKS.
The house committee on banking and currency today granted a hearing on the bill of Congressman Oates, for the repeal of the 10 per cent tax on state banks. Congressman Oates appeared before the committee and made an elaborate argument in favor of his measure.

GOOD FOR CAMEROON.
In the senate today, Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, presented a petition from Wharton Barker, of Philadelphia, and many business firms asking of congress legislation to preserve and protect the integrity of silver as a money metal.

NATIONAL NOTES.
The Torrey bankruptcy bill will probably not be reported for another month.

The president will soon discontinue receptions to the public, which have been three times a week, substituting special receptions to visiting bodies whenever occasion justifies.

The nomination of James Van Alen as ambassador to Italy is before the senate committee on foreign relations, but a division is expected. The report will probably be against confirmation.

SENATE CONFIRMATIONS: W. H. Jones, of Illinois, first assistant postmaster general; Kerr Craig, of North Carolina, third assistant postmaster general; B. F. Alford, of Kentucky, surveyor of customs, Louisville, Ky.; J. A. Michel, collector of customs, Brazos de Santiago, G. P. Finlay, collector, Galveston; P. Dubelle, of Texas, consul, Rheims, France.

Reciprocity.
Madrid, Sept. 29.—The Spanish government is investigating a claim for indemnity presented by Maximo Antonio Moda, an American citizen. Moda is a native of Cuba and fled during the rebellion to the United States. His Cuban estate was confiscated after it had been sold to an American syndicate for $5,000,000. The syndicate has now made a demand upon the Spanish government for indemnity in the sum of $1,500,000. If the claim is allowed it is understood the United States will reciprocate by liquidating Spanish claims against the American government.

MANY LIVES LOST.

A Cave-In in a Mine—Only Eighteen Out of Sixty-Five Escape—Heart-rending Scenes.

Ishpeming, Minn., Sept. 29.—A very serious and disastrous cave-in and fall of earth in the Mansfield mine near Chrysal Falls this morning entombed sixty men and miners. The situation is awful and heart-rending. Rescuing parties are doing everything in their power but the chances for reaching the entombed men alive are very slight.

The Mansfield mine is seven miles east from Chrysal Falls and is in Mononome county; the main shaft of the mine extends under the Michigan river. When the cave occurred it turned this stream into the mine flooding instantly about sixty men in the mine, eighteen of whom escaped. It is believed impossible to rescue others, and J. W. Longen, of Marquette, the owner of the mine, estimates the number of victims to be thirty-seven, most of them Cornishmen with large families.

Provision Market.
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Wheat is dull and easier; Dec. 63½. Corn dull and easy; Oct. 39½. Provisions unchanged; Jan. pork $13.70. Lard $7.9½. Ribs $7.15.

Looking Brighter.
St. Wayne, Sept. 29.—Next Monday the Pennsylvania shops here will commence an eight hour daily schedule and run six days in the week. They have been operating only three days in the week. Over 1,000 employees are on the pay roll.

Strikers Win.
Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 29.—An agreement has been signed by the Union Rolling Mill company to employ 400 members of the Amalgamated association of iron and steel workers until July 1 next and pay the regular scale of wages.

NEGROES LYNCHED.

Five Men Strung Up by a Mob at Mt. Vernon, Ga., To-day.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 29.—To-day at noon five negroes were hanged together at Mt. Vernon, Ga. Three of them had murdered Alexander Peterson, a rich merchant, and the fourth killed a 6-year old child of the fifth negro, who also was regarded by the mob as a bad man.

All Trains to Be Armed.
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Armed men will accompany every train hauling express or mail cars from Chicago to any point east, west or south in the future. Two roads have already determined to arm their men, and in a few days orders will be issued to any other roads running into Chicago to supply Winchester to all trainmen connected with trains hauling express cars. This has been found a necessary provision, owing to the reported robberies and attacks on trains supposed to be carrying a large amount of money.

The Condens Win.
Colorado Springs, Sept. 29.—The annual meeting of the Cook's Peak Mining company, of New Mexico, resulted in an unexpected victory for the E. G. Condon interest.

J. R. Stuyvesant, of New York, one of the large stockholders, was present and held the balance of stock. As he was a Condon man the voting was all one way, as W. P. Bourright, the leader of the other faction, was not present. He represented the minority and held a large number of proxies, but he has been hunting during the past few weeks in the northwestern part of the state and missed his train last night at Glenwood.

Sam Sing, a Chinaman, a youth not yet grown, who is here attending the public school, on Sunday joined the Methodist church, on a letter from the Southern Methodist church at Cerrillos.

The Albuquerque fair has again proclaimed that Las Vegas is certainly asleep on her rights and her advantages, also she would have a fair of her own, yearly bringing $25,000 to $50,000 to the town, instead of spending $2,000 to $5,000 at Albuquerque. What is yearly spent by this town at Albuquerque, would make a successful fair here—Optic.

Suit was brought before Justice Jose L. Galindez, by Agapito Jaramillo, against Jose Ignacio Martinez, his son and his brother, for assault with intent to commit murder. The judge bound the defendants over to await the action of the grand jury, in the sum of $300 each. All the parties interested are from near Rosinda.

L. W. Hinckley, of Denver, who had Lizzie S. and E. W. L., two fast trotters here during the fair, has returned home with his horses. He also took with him Chas. RATON RANGINGS.

The mines at Blossburg are idle this week while the company is putting in the new cable.

Chas. Groover, of Blossburg, while out hunting on the mesa north of that place last Saturday, had his left hand torn off by the bursting of his gun barrel. The injury was so serious that amputation of the arm above the wrist was necessary.

Typhoid fever is now quite prevalent in the thriving town of Blossburg, and it is increasing. This state of affairs is wholly due to the bad sanitary condition of that town. It is well known to the thinking people of that otherwise prosperous town that unless something is done toward cleaning up and keeping clean the streets, alleys and premises, sickness will prevail—Range.

THE SAN FRANCISCO Examiner, the leading Democratic paper on the Pacific coast, supports President Cleveland no longer because "he refuses to be Democratic and to fulfill the pledges of his party." But there is treason in the Democratic camp and it's growing.

THE Baltimore Sun asserts that the real cause of the present Brazilian revolution is "too much money;" the sooner then, we have a Brazilian revolution in this country, the better. The people of this country can never have too much money; they can spend all they get and that in great style.

THE states that by the suffrages of their citizens installed the present administration, now find themselves delivered over as satrapies of Wall street. If they do not bend to the will of power that is, their needs and requirements are overlooked; and it is no use to "kick against the pricks."

THE situation in the east is critical. The army of the unemployed increases; winter is at hand, and the toll gathered of Wall street intimates that unless their wishes as to silver are gratified, there will be another shake up of securities. There is a fable about Sampson and the temple of Dagon that might be studied with advantage these days.

MISS POLLARD's little bill against Congressman Breckenridge is giving the latter some trouble; the Hon. Mr. Breckenridge has helped to pass a good many bills in his service as a congressman, but a dollar to a cent, he can't pass Miss Pollard's bill and the two babies accompanying it without some trouble. He hates that sort of trouble, he says. Nothing very singular in that; any other man would also.

NEWS SPECIALTIES.

The New Mexican would call the attention of the reading public to the fact that a specialty is made in these columns to giving news that particularly pertains to the west and southwest. While our telegraphic service gives in a concise, condensed form all the news of the day covering the world at large, at the same time the news specialties of this journal consist of national capital, territorial capital and territorial news in general. These features have been given and will continue to receive particular attention for the reason that the people of New Mexico are vitally interested in all Washington happenings, almost as much as they are in the territorial capital and news covering all sections of New Mexico. Every citizen who wants straight information on all things pertaining to New Mexico must read the New Mexican.

NOTE HIM DOWN.

Mr. Cleveland certainly has his nerve with him. In the face of all that has been said in the west and south of the conduct of Robert E. Preston, acting director of the mint, toward anything like reasonably fair treatment of silver, the president has nominated this man to be director of the mint. It is susceptible of ready proof that Preston has used his official position in every way possible to crush silver and give out false statements, under the guise of official information, relative to the amount of silver in circulation, and in divers ways done all he could to injure the white metal. Let him be dealt with as he deserves, for he is really one of the originators of the idea of arraigning one section of our great country against other sections. His ideas are neither patriotic nor honest, and the west will owe a debt of gratitude to every senator who votes against his confirmation.

THE U. S. CENSUS.

When Completed, It Appears Like the Day-Book of Noah or Abraham's Ledger.

The latest report shows that the census of 1890, upon which 1,050,000 are vigorously working in the year 1893, cost last year $9,486,682, and there is every reason to believe that work on the census of 1890 will continue until it is time to take the census for the year 1900 and will cost several millions of dollars yet. While there remain five years in which to protect the American people'shold improve time in taking precautions against the repetition of a costly folly. A census primarily means the ascertainment of the population of a given district. It does not mean the collection of a vast amount of knowledge of doubtful value rendered absolutely useless by delay in its publication. The volumes containing the census of 1890 will be of no more use when they appear than the day-book of Noah or the ledgers of Abraham. The census of England is taken in a few days. The system adopted in this country in the year 1890 should be the same, and with the ascertainment of the population and its publication, the work should end. The government of the United States should not devote its means to the publication of useless, belated and outworn statistics.—Kansas City Star.

THE SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

Held It Fast.

When confidence returns it should be immediately coined into dollars, so that it cannot again escape.—Memphis Appeal.

Hope Peffer.

Senator Peffer says the right will triumph yet. It will, senator, it will. Hope on, hope Peffer.—Chicago Tribune.

Where Illinois Draws the Line.

Illinois has an anarchist for governor, but it draws the line at train robbers. If these gentry of the Winchester were received everywhere as they were on the Illinois Central train there would be fewer of them.—Quincy, Ill., Whig.

A Heroic Remedy.

The trouble is that we do not promptly hang the man who is clearly responsible for these railway "accidents" in this country. All railway collisions are due to negligence on the part of employees. When the responsibility is fixed punishment should follow. A hanging or two would make railway travel in this country 75 per cent safer.—New York Advertiser.

Another Democratic Voice.

There is room for a good deal of difference of opinion as to the policy of pressing at this time the bill to repeal the federal election laws. Our own conviction is that it would be far wiser to postpone action in the matter until the Sherman act is disposed of. That is the chief business of the session, and there is no immediate or pressing need for action on the laws referred to.—Detroit Free Press.

STAR EYED GODDESS.

Col. Watterson is Disturbed and Calls on the Spirits to Stop for the Present on the Federal Election Law Repeal.

Without Republican votes in the senate the Voorhees bill can hardly hope to pass that body. Partisan rancor needs to be kept in abeyance till repeal is assured. The first passage at arms in the house over the federal election laws shows that the question has lost none of its old power to excite partisan energy and to stir the fighting blood of every faction. It crosses more of feeling, good and bad, than any cold question of finance. A very little debate of it will heat the political furnace, while the introduction of a new issue of such importance may be readily used as an obstruction to the work for which the extra session was called. That is a risk which the Democratic party can not afford to take. Everything in good time, and all will be done at last. For the present the agitation of the matter of federal election laws is so inopportune that it will be set down as a device of the silver men to defeat the repeal of the Sherman act. It is a device to which conservative Democrats will not lend themselves. The business world demands the repeal of the vicious silver law. It has inaugurated a revival of activity in confident anticipation of that repeal. If now hope be stricken to earth and delay be lengthened into defeat, the responsibility for the relapse into financial and commercial depression would be one which the Democratic party would not care to shoulder.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

FREE WOOL.

The Repeal of the Tariff on Wool Means the Destruction of the New Mexico Wool Growers.

The mass meeting of wool growers, wool dealers, cotton planters and others interested in the production of so-called raw material for textile industries, to be held on the World's fair grounds in the closing days of September, ought to be attended from north and south, from east and west. As Mr. William Lawrence, president of the Ohio Wool Growers' association, stated in his recent address at the Ohio State Fair, free wool would substantially destroy the American wool growing industry, and thereby injuriously affect all others, especially depressing the price of farm products, and impairing the value of farms. Every intelligent man who has studied the subject, as Mr. Lawrence declared, knows that the wool growers of the United States can not successfully compete with the wool growers of Australia, of the Argentine Republic, of South Africa and of other countries similarly situated, where sheep require little or no winter feeding, where pasturing can ship wool by sea to Boston, one-half a cent a pound, while American wool growers in the new states and territories have to pay the freight of three cents a pound.

The wool growers owe it to themselves and to the greatest cause of American industry, to see that the Democratic party do not have the excuse of ignorance for establishing free wool. Republican employers and employees in textile industries have no desire for free wool; they have no desire to see any American industry stricken down, even under the pretense of advantage to themselves. They know that the cause of one is the cause of all and that the free trader is a foe to manufacturer and wool grower alike. The great west is specially interested in the protection of the wool growing industry, and the voice of the west should be heard in no uncertain tone in the coming meeting at Chicago.—New York Press.

Call for Irrigation Convention.

THE TERRITORY OF NEW MEXICO, EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

SANTA FE, N. M., August 2, 1893.

To the People of New Mexico, Arizona, Western Texas, and of the State of Chihuahua, in the Republic of Mexico:

WHEREAS, All of the citizens of the above states are actively interested in the irrigation industry, and are in a large measure dependent upon irrigation for the development of their agricultural resources; and

WHEREAS, A large proportion of the people in the territory of New Mexico, of the western portion of the state of Texas, and of the northern portion of the state of Chihuahua are largely dependent upon the Rio Grande river for their water supply for irrigation purposes; and

WHEREAS, The greater portion of said river passes away during the season of the year when not needed for purposes of irrigation, which, if saved and utilized, would thereby greatly add to the wealth and prosperity of said region; and

WHEREAS, Large quantities of the water of said river which have for many years been appropriated and used by the citizens residing in the valley thereof, south of Albuquerque, for the purposes of irrigation, and upon the continual use of which depends the life and prosperity of the community, have been wrongfully appropriated and diverted to other uses by the residents near the headwaters of said stream, in Colorado, thus causing a water famine in the lower valley, which from year to year grows greater, until the agricultural interests are in imminent danger of destruction unless such diversion be checked.

Now, therefore, for the purpose of counselling together, and of devising and adopting such lawful and proper means and diversions of the water of the Rio Grande, and of storing and preserving in reservoirs the spring and storm waters that now go to waste annually, and of discussing and considering all important questions relating to irrigation laws, irrigation securities, irrigation methods, and to devise and agree upon some general and uniform plan of action looking to the development of the agricultural, viticultural and horticultural resources of such region, by saving and utilizing the waters thereof, a mass convention of the citizens residing in said portion of said states and territories is hereby called to meet at Denver, in the territory of New Mexico, on Tuesday, November 7, 1893, and subsequent days.

All persons resident within said portion of states and territories are respectfully requested to attend and participate in the deliberations of said convention, and all counties, municipal corporations, irrigation, aqueduct and canal companies, boards of trade and chamber of commerce are invited to send delegates thereto.

SHOOTING STARS.

You will seldom need a doctor if you have Simmons Liver Regulator handy.

Convinced of It.

He—And you really have been true to me all the time I was in the city toiling at my desk?
She—I have.
He—I believe you, darling, for I have seen the hotel register and not a single man has been here since you came.

Mr. Thomas Batts, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this medicine to any person suffering from such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Better Unsaid.

Paterfamilias (to unexpected guest)—Why didn't you send us word you were coming? Pot luck, you know, my boy! Hope you have managed to make out a dinner.

Unexpected Guest (politely)—Bless you, old man! I hope I may never have a worse one.—Life.

A Remedy of General Utility.

It is among the follies of which the manufacturers of many proprietary remedies are guilty, to term their medicines "panaceas," or to claim for them the quality of panaceas. There is no such thing as a "panacea" which means a remedy adapted to all diseases. This absurdity has never been perpetrated by the proprietors of Chamberlain's Stomach Bitters. But they do claim, and with justice, that it is a remedy of general utility, and this because it restores that regular and vigorous condition of the stomach, liver and bowels which conduce to the recovery of general health. Thus it fortifies the system against malaria by infusing stimulating and cleansing action of the organs which, as long as they go right, are the best guaranty against an endemic malarial like chills and fever. It accomplishes a double purpose by stimulating activity of the kidneys, since it not only prevents their disease and decay, but expels from the blood through them all impurities that cause rheumatism, gout and dropsy. Use it with confidence.

Hadn't Forgotten.

Didn't you tell me when I helped you years ago, said Downtheloose to Upintheair, that you'd always remember it, and that you'd share your last crust with me?

I certainly did; and I will when I get to it.—Life.

An Undisputed Test of Merit.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than 150,000,000 persons must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in Brandreth's Pills. This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, constipation, rheumatism, liver complaint, biliousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of blood.

Brandreth's Pills are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store either plain or sugar coated.

The Long and Short of It.

Auntie—And how was mamma dressed at the party, Tottie?
Tottie—Why, she had a pity, wite, long short dress—

Auntie—But, dear, how could it be both long and short?
Tottie—Why it was long at the bottom and short at the top—Exchange.

Astonishing Fact, Suspected by Comp.

Things that seem the most truth are frequently among the last to be realized. Incredible as it may seem one in four has a weak or a diseased heart, the early symptoms of which are, short breath, palpitation, pain in left and hungry spells, fluttering, pain in left side, smothering, swollen ankles, dropsy, wind in stomach, etc. Levi Logan, Buchanan, Mich., suffered from heart disease thirty years. Two bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured him. "The effect of your New Heart Cure is wonderful."—Mrs. Eva Dresser, McGregor, Iowa. This favorite remedy is sold by A. C. Ireland, Jr., on a guarantee for the Doctors book, "New and Startling Facts," free.

The Inconsistent Tramp.

Tramps are very inconsistent. How so?
Why, they have a decided objection to keeping their own person clean, yet they are constantly scouring the country.

Ignorance of the merits of De Witt's Little Early Risers is a misfortune.

These little pills regulate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, and breath, constipation and biliousness. New Mexico Drug Store

Hard Times, Indeed.

Wilder—These are hard times. Why, I heard of a man the other day who couldn't raise money even on government bonds. Slimwit—Indeed! what was the reason?
Wilder—Well you see, he didn't have the bonds.—Shoe and Leather Reporter.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory

reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Departed Joys.

No more she walks the wave washed beach,
Or lilylike basks in summer joys;
The school matron's back again to teach
The little girls and little boys.

Her life to-day some pleasure lacks;
She misses—if she'd speak with candor
The yachts by day and little smacks
At night on the hotel veranda.

Science and Appetite.

The old gentleman who takes an interest in natural history was very happy. Congratulate me! Congratulate me! he exclaimed.
What for? asked his nephew.
I have just discovered a rare bird.
Oh, replied the young man as he turned back to his book, You'll get used to that after you've been here awhile.
Do you mean to say that such discoveries are frequent?
Yes. Almost any restaurant will cook 'em that way, unless you tell 'em not to.—Washington Star.

I suffered from biliousness, indigestion, etc. Simmons Liver Regulator cured after doctors failed.—W. D. Bird.

And It Would Remain His.

What time have you? inquired the oily pick pocket, approaching the stout man with the heavy watch chain.
My own, said the stout man, and without taking his watch out.

Seventy-five Convulsions A Thrilling Experience.

There is no one but at some period in life has an experience that stands out prominently beyond all others. Such is the case of John B. Collins, of Romeo, Mich., who says: "From September to January, before my nervous system, I had at least seventy-five convulsions. After that time I have no more attacks." Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine also cures nervous prostration, headache, poor memory, dizziness, neuralgia, etc., and builds up the body. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., and J. R. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained twenty pounds of flesh by taking it. Sold by A. C. Ireland, Jr., on a guarantee. Get the Doctor's book, free.

A Situation.

Playwright—I've got a great situation for the third act.

Manager—What is it?

Playwright—The leading gentleman stands on his head.

Manager—By George, that's a great one.

A little boy of Mrs. McDonald's, living near here, fell against a red hot stove and was fearfully burned. The pain was so severe as to send the child for life. I sold the lady a bottle of Pain Balm, which, after greasing the sore, she applied. It soon removed all the fire and eased the pain, and in ten days the boy was well, no trace of the scar remaining. J. D. McLaren, Keyport, Clinton county, Ill. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

Time Enough to Ripen.

The Slow Witter (who has been tardily delivering dinner to a guest)—I'm afraid I can't give you any watermelon, sir. Those we got ain't ripe.
The Guest—Never mind. It'll be ripe by the time you get it here.

Miles' Nerve & Liver Pills.

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves: A new discovery. Dr. Miles' pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequalled for men, women, children. Small size, mildest, surest, 50 cents 25 cts. Samples Free, at A. C. Ireland, Jr.

A Believer in Osculation.

I see by the paper that in Paraguay custom requires a gentleman to kiss every lady to whom he is introduced. Indeed? Then with all our boasted civilization it seems that South America is ahead of us in some things.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Trough (Kansas) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten out one in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by A. C. Ireland, Jr.

He Frightened Him.

The Photographer—Mrs. Chinner's portraits are not quite ready yet, but they will be finished by to-morrow. It will be a speaking likeness.
The husband—Heavens! I hope not.

To think "nothing else you" is a symptom of dyspepsia. Take Simmons Liver Regulator.

Looking Out for Her Rights.

Do you ever get your husband to match a ribbon or piece of goods for you?
No, indeed. My husband has pleasures enough of his own, and I want to have all that belong to me.

Don't suffer from dyspepsia. Take Simmons Liver Regulator. It always cures.

What She Meant.

And you refuse me after all that you have said! he exclaimed.
Yes.
Because I am not rich?
Yes, George; that is why.

Yet you said that you could be content with love in a cottage, he went on bitterly.
Oh George! That was three months ago. I meant a cottage at a summer resort, you know.—Washington Star.

Grand Canon of Colorado River.

On the Santa Fe route, in northern Arizona, 1,262 miles from Kansas City, is the town of Flagstaff. A tri-weekly stage line runs from Flagstaff to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. More than a mile in depth, this is the sublimest of gorges—a Titan of chasms. Twenty Yosemite might be hidden unseen below, and Niagara would look scarcely larger than a brook.

Don't fail to visit this first wonder of the world.

You can "read up" about it by asking G. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A. A. T. & S. F. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., to mail you a free copy of an illustrated book describing this gorge in its entirety. The book is no common affair; but is a wonderfully written, beautifully illustrated and a gem of the printer's art.

When Your Eye Strikes This Stop and Read It.

The famous hot springs of Arkansas, world renowned for their health qualities, and as a health and pleasure resort, can be reached quickly in Pullman buffet sleeping cars from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo via the Missouri Pacific railway. Sufferers of "grippe," influenza, and all kinds of diseases can obtain relief by a visit to this famous sanitarium.

All Right.

Mr. Richard Harding Davis, in "Ranch Life in Texas," says that a live steer of horse is just as valuable in Texas as in the east—on more.
On the road from Corpus Christi the conductor sprang from his chair in the baggage car one day and shouted to the engineer that he must be careful, for we were in Major Benton's range and must look out for the major's prize bull, and the train continued at half speed accordingly until the conductor espied the distinguished animal well to the left and shouted:
"All right, Bill! We've passed him; let her out!"

In Boston.

Mr. Rawston—Do you enjoy taking a stroll with your pug, Elsie?

Elsie—I am fond of perambulating with my reticence.—Truth.

With Good Reason.

The introduction in our cities of apartment houses in which a considerable number of families live under one roof has given rise to many amusing occurrences. In an eastern city recently two physicians were walking together on the street, when one of them lifted his hat to a lady whom they met.

"A patient?" asked the other.

"Oh, in a way," answered the first doctor. "I treated her the other day for a small difficulty."

"What was it?"

"A wart on the nose."

"And what did you prescribe?"

"I ordered her to refrain absolutely from playing the piano."

The other doctor was astonished. "Ordered her to leave off playing the piano?"

"For a wart on the nose! Well, I can't understand your treatment."

"If you knew the circumstances, you would," said the first doctor. "She occupied the flat just under mine in the apartment house."

"Ah, now I understand!" said the other. "Yours! Your companion."

Interesting, but Sensitive.

"What an interesting animal!" exclaimed Fwedly, approaching the cage of the orang outang. "I wonder, how large, if I'm distantly related to him?"

At this point Fwedly was interrupted by a scream from the caged animal, so full of anguish, horror and sudden, desperate, un-governable rage, that the entire menagerie was thrown into a state of violent excitement, and the keeper hastily ushered the young man into the apartment where the mummies and stuffed snakes were on exhibition.—Chicago Tribune.

An Inventive Genius.

Little Boy—What's a genius?

Fond Mother—A genius is a very smart person.

"Well, I am one. Teacher said so."

"Did she? Bless her heart! Of course you are."

"Yes! She said I had a genius for inventing."

"That's glorious! What did she say you could invent?"

"New ways to spell words."—Good News.

A Preliminary Issue.

"Where are we going to lunch—at Delmonico's, or some other place?" asked a newly young man of Charlie Bondclipp, with whom he used to be intimate in his more prosperous days.

"That depends," replied Bondclipp seriously.

"Depends on what?"

"On who is going to pay for the lunch."—Texas Siftings.

Too Imperious.

Miss Struckle—Mother, you are too imperious in your behavior.

Mrs. Struckle—Too what?

Miss Struckle—You shouldn't order people around the way you do.

Mrs. Struckle—I'm rich enough.

Miss Struckle—Yes, but I'm afraid folks will suspect that you began life as a cook.—New York Weekly.

Possibly True.

"Well, what fish yarn have you now?"

"You know Pickett's brook?"

"Yes, I do. Forty-pounder, I suppose—and you threw it back."

"Nope. Fished there for eight steady hours and never got a bite."—Harper's Bazar.

Not Tested Yet.

Laura—What a quiet young man Mr. Timpinkins is!

Flora—Have you invited him to dinner?

"No, not yet."

"Before you call him wait until you hear him eat."—Texas Siftings.

Hard Luck.

Reals—Is Bagley head over heels in debt?

Reals—Yes, I hear so. He signed a contract with his tailor to pay $2 a night for the hire of a dress suit until he returned it. After the second night it was stolen.—Truth.

Placed.

Jack A. Knape—Aha! So you spent last evening at Miss Sears', did you?

Hiram Scamron—How did you guess it?

Jack A. Knape—I recognized the tidi on the back buttons of your coat.—Exchange.

A Great Trip.

She—This is such a stormy season to cross the Atlantic. Was your voyage over remarkable in any way?

He—Well, I should say so. I held four seas twice.—Vogue.

Puzzles For the Postoffice.

"So am I. Yesterday I mailed a Columbus stamp without putting the letter on it."—Life.

MR. YANG YU.

The New Chinese Minister—His Suite of 82 Personages—Two Grown Daughters.

The new Chinese minister, Yang Yu, is about 50 years of age, and quite stout, with a round full face. His eyes are dark and piercing, peering out from beneath a high forehead, and he wears the thin black mustache and goatee that are distinctive of the oriental. He moves about with the air of dignified self-possession which is also characteristic of high bred Chinamen. In rank Yang Yu is but a few degrees removed from royalty, and he comes to the United States as a more influential representative of the emperor and one of greater prestige than any of his predecessors. He is favorably known to the foreign residents in China, these esteem him by his energetic attention to their interests at the time of the riots at Wuhu, and he is reputed to be an enlightened and very broad minded official.

The new envoy travels in great splendor, and when he disembarked from the Pacific at San Francisco, August 15, he was followed by a suite of eighty-two persons, whose baggage, as weighed at the custom house, aggregated eighty tons. All of these attaches did not accompany Yang Yu to Washington, however; some of them being destined for diplomatic service at Madrid and Lima, as the minister is accredited to those capitals as well as to Washington. In the suite were several young Chinamen who had been educated at American colleges, and of whom one of the most interesting was a young man named Mun Jow Chung, still remembered at Yale as the coxswain of one of the university crews.

Next to their flowing robes of silk and brocade, their odd, particolored hats, and the other articles of attire in which the minister and his suite were magnificently equipped, the people of San Francisco and Washington have been most directly interested in the women of the party—the minister's wife, the five ladies of rank who attend her and her two daughters, who are fast approaching the "coming out" age, and may eventually make their debut in the society of the capital. Yang Yu himself is rarely visible; a profane eye in the Chinese custom she lives a life of almost hermitic seclusion, dining alone and seeing no one, for visitors are not permitted to enter her apartment.

Where to Stop in Chicago.

The perplexing question which is every day asked by people who desire to go to Chicago to attend the World's fair, "Where are we going to stay when we get there?" This is easily answered, and if you will go to the ticket agent of the Santa Fe, Mr. W. M. Smith, he will tell you.

Arrangements have been made for the distribution by the Santa Fe company of a pamphlet entitled "Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair." This is a reliable pamphlet containing the names and addresses of about 2,000 families who will furnish accommodations to visitors from May 1 to October 31, 1893. The pamphlet also contains sectional maps which will enable the intending visitor to select any quarter of the city that he would prefer. Correspondence can then be carried on and definite arrangements made so that when visitors arrive in Chicago they can proceed at once to their quarters.

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles. New Mexico Drug Store.

DYSPEPSIA

Is that misery experienced when suddenly made aware that you possess a diabolical arrangement called stomach. No two dyspepsias have the same predominant symptoms, but whatever form dyspepsia takes

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing is certain no one will remain a dyspeptic who will Start the Liver working and all bodily ailments will disappear.

"For more than three years I suffered with dyspepsia in its worst form. I tried several doctors, but they afforded no relief. At last I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which cured me in a short time. It is a good medicine. I would not be without it."—JAMES A. ROANE, Philadelphia, Pa.

OFFICIAL GRIST.

Indian School Changes—The New U. S. Attorney Sworn in—Supreme Court—Official Notes.

Mr. Thos. W. Jones, special agent of the interior department attached to the U. S. Indian bureau, arrived here yesterday from Warrenton, Va., and has taken up his headquarters at the government Indian school. He comes to remain some time, as the transformation of this institution into a normal school for the training of young Indian men and women as teachers has been given over to his control. Mr. Jones is a very agreeable gentleman and evidently knows just what he is here for. He takes hold of the work in earnest, and with no little enthusiasm, and says the change is not only going to be of benefit to the cause of Indian education but will make this institution of much greater value to Santa Fe than any ordinary Indian school.

After the pupils now at this school have all been sent away and distributed to other schools, a new corps of teachers will be provided and the higher grade pupils will be brought here. These pupils will be selected from the Indian schools all over the country and will constitute the very brightest in all these schools. These young men and women will be given a thorough training here in all that pertains to school teaching. About 200 pupils will probably be on hand at the opening of the school one month hence.

SWORN IN.

Hon. J. B. H. Hemingway received from Washington last night his commission as U. S. district attorney for New Mexico and he was in rather a pleasant frame of mind when he walked into Sec. Miller's office this morning, presented the all-important document and requested to be sworn in. Judge Hemingway will enter upon his official duties on Monday next. Mr. Fiske's resignation taking effect on that date. His first duties will be in Albuquerque where the U. S. district court opens on Monday. Judge Hemingway will make his home in Santa Fe and is now looking up rooms suitable for office purposes.

Chief Justice O'Brien and Justice Seeds opened an adjourned term of the territorial supreme court this morning and took a recess until 2 p. m. to-morrow. A telegram from Justice Fall at Las Cruces stated that his washouts above Albuquerque prevented his arrival. Justice Lee is also detained at Albuquerque by this cause. Justice Freeman is at Eddy and is not expected to be present at this short term. It is probable that to-morrow's session a further recess will be taken till Monday, by which time Justice Fall is expected to arrive and make a quorum.

OFFICIAL NOTES.

Chief Justice O'Brien's resignation takes effect on Monday next. The appointment of Col. Thos. Smith as his successor has not yet been confirmed by the senate.

At the New Mexico school for the deaf, dumb and blind there are nine pupils in attendance, two of whom are blind. The superintendent is advised of the arrival shortly of a number of pupils from various parts of the territory.

James Marshall and Joseph Blachan, having served one year in the penitentiary for horse stealing in Eddy county, were released yesterday. They had complied faithfully with the rules of the institution and as a reward they were given certificates by Acting Governor Miller restoring them to full citizenship.

Judge A. A. Chapin, of Fort Wayne, Ind., special agent of the interior department to investigate Indian depredation claims, arrived from the north last night. He has been engaged in San Juan, Taos and Rio Arriba counties for more than a month and has about cleaned up all claims in his hands in which citizens there are interested. Judge Chapin will be here a week or so to take testimony in numerous claims heretofore and goes then to Albuquerque on similar duty.

World's Fair Exhibit.

The special car sent east this week to carry additional exhibits to the World's fair was supplied with a fine collection of fruits and other products from the Maxwell ranch. Among other articles were a collection of fruits from J. B. Dawson's orchard under the Vermojo irrigation system; gramma grass, barley and wheat; apples of phenomenal size from M. E. Davis' farm; and a shock of corn composed of stalks eleven feet and eight inches high from Harry Smith's farm near Raton.

Collax county will add very largely to the credit of New Mexico in the above named items.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

There will be a special meeting of the W. B. T. U. Saturday, at 3 p. m. Muster and inspection of the troops at Fort Marcy to-morrow forenoon at 10 o'clock.

The New Mexican daily telegraph service gives the latest and most interesting news of the day.

Job printing of all descriptions done cheaply, well and quickly at the New Mexican printing office.

The Rio Santa Fe was on a boom all night and its roar as the precious water went to waste could be heard all over the city. A few more storage reservoirs should be built.

How about the establishment of a race track? What's the matter with the organization of a local company and going into this enterprise for the profits that are in it? Let the points for and against be canvassed and discussed.

Fully a dozen people had planned to depart yesterday over the narrow gauge for Taos to witness the San Geronimo Indian feast which occurs there to-morrow, but were prevented from so doing by the washouts on the narrow gauge.

The following is the program for this afternoon's plaza concert by the 10th infantry band:

March—On the Square..... Alexander
Overture—Brumswick..... Rollinson
Waltz—Ella..... Cardozo
Selection—The Indian Question..... Lavallee
Polka—Two Little Butterflies..... Kling
Galop—Deille..... Arben

The city authorities have public sentiment strictly with them in their work of opening new streets. The time has come when narrow, crooked lanes must give way to broad modern thoroughfares if the capital city is to be beautified and improved. The longer the work is delayed the more expensive and difficult will it be. This is a matter that should have attention now.

HALF MILLION DOLLARS.

The Actual Value of the Water Wasted Here During the Past Thirty-two Hours.

The rain storm that for thirty-two hours was stationary over the valley of Santa Fe, passed off at an early hour this morning and the sun came out with its usual glorious rays. All that is left of the storm is a few figures on the weather observer's charts, and about 50,000,000 gallons of water in the reservoir now nearing completion.

What the possibilities of it were, however, is another thing. According to the weather observer's reports 2.33 inches of rain fell at Santa Fe. The rain was at no time violent, but for its thirty-two hours duration was gentle and steady. In the canons and mountains east of the city the storm was blinding. It is not out of place, therefore, to increase the observer's figures to three inches for that locality; which would give a precipitation over the watershed of the Rio Santa Fe of 11,300 acre feet; or enough water to irrigate that much land during one year. Estimating the average profit from fruit near Santa Fe at $50 per acre, this town can just consider itself out $500,000 because this water was not caught and stored in reservoirs. This would pay outright for considerable storage capacity.

The New Mexican is constantly dining this fact into the public ear; but time is passing without result. Nothing need be said of the amount that could be saved on the Nambie. It is bad enough to have the Santa Fe sun, coming as it did at the very best possible time to make spring irrigation most successful.

Cerrillos Product.

Until recently, for nearly a year, no Cerrillos soft coal could be had in this town, consumers being compelled to use the Raton article. The latter was very poor, requiring nearly as much wood as coal in order to burn it at all, and then having a refuse of cinders nearly equal in quantity to the coal originally used. The Cerrillos coal is not so. It burns up readily and satisfactorily, leaving a residue of but a small quantity of ashes. It has no slate or rock-like lumps, and is cheaper than the Raton coal at half the price. It is to be hoped the coal company at Cerrillos will keep the Las Vegas dealers supplied.—Las Vegas Optic.

Didn't Have Authority.

Under the caption, "Mysterious Blaze," you say that we refused to tell the amount of insurance carried by our agency on the property damaged by the recent fire. You might have stated just as we have to your reporter the reason for such refusal, viz: That we had no authority to give publicity to the subject in question. We referred your reporter to the assured for information. We did not hesitate in stating that the loss was "amply covered by insurance." Very respectfully,

A Fatal Opal Pin.

Mr. F. O. Douglass, of this city, had a large opal scarf pin, says the Gallup Gleaner, and on one occasion, Mr. Coffman, railroad man, seeing that the pin was loose in the scarf, excused himself to Mr. Douglass and pushed the pin back to its place, and a day or so later Mr. Coffman was run over by railroad cars, or the switch engine, we do not exactly remember which, in the yards at Albuquerque and was killed. Sometime afterward, Mr. Taylor a veteran engineer, made the same remarks to Mr. Douglass, and pushed the opal scarf pin back into place in the scarf, and that night he met his death in the fatal head end collision at Blue Water, with three others. Sunday last the late Wm. Judson and Mr. Douglass were talking when the former said, "excuse me Fred, you are about to lose your scarf pin." He then pushed the scarf pin into its place, and next day at 11:30 he was run over by cars and injured fatally. Mr. Douglass has given the pin away.

THE WASHOUTS.

No Train from the South Before Sunday—Work on the Narrow Gauge—Scenes at Lamy Junction.

South bound passengers came back from Lamy junction this morning and said that A. T. & S. F. train men do not anticipate the movement of trains between that point and Albuquerque before Sunday, and some fix the time for the resumption of through traffic on the main line as far off as Monday night.

The washouts are more serious than at first reported. There is a big break of 700 feet in the track at Rogers' bend in the Galisteo, near Waldo station and near Wallace is another, and still another in the vicinity of Algodones. At some points the mountain torrent was swift enough to tear out telegraph poles by the roots and let down the wires, so that definite information as to the extent of the damage was not early obtainable even by officers of the road. An army of men is at work at half a dozen points in the washed out district, and eight or ten trains are engaged in hauling bridge timbers, piling, etc., from Las Vegas, Albuquerque and Cerrillos to the scene of the breaks. Some estimates yesterday placed the washouts at fully ten miles of road bed, and passengers who came from Lamy today are inclined to believe this, and quote the auditor of the Harvey dining stations as saying it would be Sunday night or later before even an attempt at transferring mail and passengers may be made.

In the meantime and for two days past lively scenes are transpiring about Lamy junction. The railroad company is feeding forty or fifty south-bound passengers, there and the number is augmented by every train coming from the east. Yesterday there was much complaint about the table fare and sleeping accommodations and the passengers made such a protest as resulted in the taking of steps to immediately appease the passengers. Still the crowd is at much inconvenience.
