CHILDS PASSES AWAY.

The Typical American Citizen, Journalist and Philanthropist Called Hence This Morning.

Eulogies By the Philadelphia Press—A Business Romance—The Funeral Arrangements.

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—George W. Childs, editor and proprietor of the Public Ledger, died at his home this morning, surrounded by his family and friends. Mr. Childs suffered no pain and his end was peaceful; he had been unconscious for three days except at intervals. The change for the worse became manifest at 9:30 last evening. His pulse faltered and he failed rapidly. His lower limbs were not paralyzed as has been stated.

NEWSPAPER COMMENT.
The Record says: "Philadelphia has lost her most famous citizen, the best known private citizen of all America, indeed, is dead. The name of Geo. W. Childs has long been a household word. He has stood to Europe for years as the typical American, the highest representative of the non-office holding, free men of the nation."

The Times says: "There are few men whose lives better illustrate the possibilities of preference in a country like this, where success is not dependent upon inheritance, than that of Mr. Childs. The annals of many men of modern history who have risen from obscurity and small beginnings to prominence or fortune do not furnish any record more striking, nor none that will ever be more interesting than the career of this philanthropic newspaper publisher, whose name is so familiar."

The Press says: "The life of George W. Childs is like a romance, a romance with many lessons. Alone and almost penniless at the age of 12 years he stood at the bottom of the industrial ladder. He youthful eye caught something at the top and slowly, with firm grip and careful step, he made the ascent that seemed impossible to many another, and as he worked and won he looked for others to share his success until all over the world the name of Geo. W. Childs was known as that of a LIBERAL PHILANTHROPIST and upright business man. If the record of his life, wrote he on one occasion, 'has any value, it is in showing that it is not necessary to succeed in business that a man should indulge in sharp practices.' Again he said: 'I have derived and still find the greatest pleasure in my life in doing good to others.' These two sentences alone tell the history of one whose loss the world mourns, one who has risen from the shoemaker's bench to high dignity. It was not alone that a friendless little shop boy, in a strange city, has risen to a prosperous, brighter and social sphere. That is no longer an astonishing romance in modern life, but he possessed in an eminent degree what had won him those very riches, greatness of character. His life will always be held as a beacon light among men, and even to-day his name stands for a noble FORTUNE."

Mr. Childs' fortune is believed to be a large one, but whether it is one million or ten is a question only those intimately associated with his affairs can say. He was in receipt of a very large income for many years, but while his income was so large his expenditures also were great, especially in support of education and charitable institutions and in direct charities. The profits from the publication of the Ledger are said to average as high as $1,000 a day. His large interest in the Public Ledger will be absorbed by the A. J. Drexel estate, and it is probable that both his wishes and those of his partner in the paper, the late A. J. Drexel, will be carried out by the present publisher, George W. Childs Drexel. The latter young gentleman was associated with Mr. Childs as the publisher in September last. It has been said, indeed, by many who are well acquainted with Mr. Childs that he would make his namesake his heir, particularly in view of the fact that he had no children. It will probably be found, however, that Mr. Childs left many specific bequests in his will, and provided that a large number of people dependent on his bounty, both in and out of his business, shall be continued in their good fortune while they live. His valuable collection of manuscripts and relics he gave to the Drexel institute a year ago.

CONDOLENCE OF THE PEOPLE.
As early as 10 o'clock telegrams of condolence began to pour into the Ledger office. These were sent to Mrs. Childs. Arrangements for the funeral are in the hands of J. M. Paul, Jr., son-in-law of the late A. J. Drexel, and a close personal friend of Mr. Childs. It will probably be late this afternoon before it is decided whether the funeral will be public or private. If the wishes of Mrs. Childs prevail the ceremonies will be of a private character. Friends of the dead man are urging, however, since Mr. Childs was one of the best known public men in the country, that the obsequies be public. It is believed the remains will be placed in the Drexel mausoleum in Woodlawn cemetery, beside those of his life long friend and business partner, A. J. Drexel. This is believed to be the wish of both Mr. and Mrs. Childs.

Gen. Thomas on Top.
Chicago, Feb. 3.—At the directors meeting of the American Straw Board company today Gen. Samuel Thomas was elected president.

A Crisis in England.
New York, Feb. 3.—A London special says: A political crisis is apparently at hand and it looks like the resignation of Gladstone and dissolution of parliament.

Republican Statehood Schemes.
Salt Lake, Feb. 3.—Ex-Congressman John T. Caine arrived here yesterday from Washington. He says the passage of an enabling act by congress for Utah statehood may be delayed for some time by the debates on the election bill, the Wilson tariff and the Hawaiian matter. Then there is a hitch because of the proposition to attach Utah to Nevada and unite Arizona and New Mexico. But the Utah-Nevada proposition will fail. Neither commonwealth wants the other, and certainly Utah does not want to be "attached to a corpse," he says. Both of the Nevada senators are now opposed to it, though Stewart did favor it.

In the Tolls.
New York, Feb. 3.—H. B. Chamberlin, president of the Chamberlin Investment company, of Denver, is held here under $5,000 bonds to answer a charge of obtaining $5,000 by false representation from John Paisley, of the shoe firm of J. Paisley & Son. Paisley claims that he was induced by Chamberlin to purchase 100 shares of the Fort Worth Park Place Land company, of the par value of $100 each at $50 a piece, Chamberlin telling him that he would get his money back in three years and still have his investment. Chamberlin also sold him 490 acres near Fort Worth, Texas. Paisley states that he went down to Texas and then discovered that the company never owned the tract of land represented, but he has not been able to collect any of his $3,000, notwithstanding.

Advice from Iowa.
Des Moines, Feb. 3.—In the house today Representative Blanchard introduced a joint resolution asking the Iowa members of congress to use their influence against the issuance of gold bearing bonds and for the issue of silver certificates instead, for the coinage of the silver on hand, and for the payment to all soldiers of the difference between greenbacks and gold on all salaries paid them between 1862 and 1865.

About Mrs. Maybrick.
London, Feb. 3.—The Land and Water to-day says that it believes Mrs. Maybrick will soon be quietly liberated if the friends of the imprisoned woman will cease their "ill-advised agitation." "That Mrs. Maybrick is not already free," the paper continues, "is due chiefly to these absurd friends, who with every stupidity tried the greatest folly of all, a petition signed by some meddlesome Americans because forsooth she is a fellow-citizen of theirs."

WOOL SALES.
A Most Active Demand Developed at Boston During the Past Week.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 3.—The past week has developed the most active work in the wool market which has been experienced since the opening of the new year. The sales of fleeced medium and territory in greasy and scoured territory of similar grades have been large. More than a million pounds of fine medium and medium territory in the greasy were sold this week. The strictly fine XX staple wool costs as high as 37 and 38 cents, the fine medium at 35 cents and the medium at 25 to 31 cents. The sales of the week amount to 2,725,000 pounds. The sales since January 1, 1894, amount to 9,189,000 pounds, against 19,553,850 pounds a year ago.

Mr. Money and Democratic members of the foreign affairs committee, carried unanimous consent for consideration of the joint resolution approving the conduct of Admiral Benham in the harbor at Rio.

GORMAN ON SILVER.
In the senate, Senator Gorman, Democrat, of Maryland, asserted that the Republicans were responsible for the existing condition of the treasury. He, however, took occasion in reference to the claim of Senator Teller, of Colorado, that the repeal of the Sherman law was responsible, to say: "I believe with the senator of Colorado; there is much in the statement that the legislation upon silver is in part responsible for the situation."

NORTH AND SOUTH LINE.

Texas Giving Much Encouragement to the Promoters of the Anti-Monopoly Road.

Topeka, Feb. 3.—The projectors of the Populist railroad, known as the North and South Line, seem to have struck a bonanza in Texas. Chairman Close, who is also Gov. Lowelling's private secretary, returned to day from a two week's visit in Galveston and southern Texas in the interest of the proposed anti-monopoly road. In a talk on the subject this evening Close says: "Work will actually begin on construction within forty days. Port Bolivar Township company has given a half interest in 2,800 acres of land providing we make that port the terminus of the road which we have decided to do. As soon as fifty miles shall have been built the citizens of Galveston will give us $500,000 and we have had offers from towns all along the line of the proposed road."

COLD WEATHER AND CATTLE.

Not As Much Damage Done in Texas As Reported—Only Weak Stock Dying.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 3.—Careful inquiry has developed the fact that last week's storm was not as severe as first reported. In southern Texas the damage is greatest. In a few southern counties quite a number of cattle are reported dead from the cold rain and freezing weather that followed. In the western part of the state there was but little loss among live stock. Wehnsell, of Veniti, says the storm was more severe in the territory than in this section and was hard on cattle. A large part of the cattle there are strong and in very good shape and can go through a great deal of cold weather, but those that are thin or weak will die in large numbers.

Denver Deviltory.
Denver, Feb. 3.—Pat Phillips, a saloon keeper at No. 1918, Market street, quarreled with his wife this morning because she arose earlier than he wished. She left the bed room, closing the door after her. Phillips got up, seized a Winchester and fired through the door, the ball taking effect in the woman's side, from which she will die. At the police station this afternoon Phillips declares the shooting accidental.

Napoleon as an Autocrat.
Paris, Feb. 3.—M. Bretonne has published in the Nouvelle Revue letters of Napoleon, which were repressed by Marshal Vaillie and Prince Napoleon. One of the letters, dated Rambouillet, 1807, is addressed to Fouché. Napoleon says: "Order the arrest of Kuhn, the American consul at Genoa, as the bearer of a Maltese Cross, given him by the English because he is their agent. Have his papers seized and examined. He is to be kept in secret until I have read the letters. I am displeased with you for communicating with the American embassy. My police should not shrink from arresting even the Austrian ambassador if I suspected him of treason."

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the south-west.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3.

The Mesilla valley is making substantial progress. The Goodman broom factory at La Mesa is sending large consignments of goods to the Arizona and California market.

Beef cattle are quoted in Chicago at 20 to 25 cents higher, with no top cattle offered for sale. At Omaha and Kansas City also the market is steadily becoming stronger and higher. Hold your beef for an advance.

WASHINGTON dispatches give a positive denial to the declaration, so assiduously circulated by the Republican press and enemies of statehood, that President Cleveland is against the admission of the territories as states. The story was circulated for a purpose, of course, to discourage those who are manfully pushing this movement. The New Mexican has it direct from citizens who have personally conversed with Mr. Cleveland on the subject that he is the friend of New Mexico in this matter and has every reason to feel that the enabling act will be passed by congress shortly.

JOHN SHERMAN AND STATEHOOD.

The New Mexican is highly gratified to learn that Senator John Sherman, the anti-slavery statesman from Ohio, is anxious to vote for New Mexico's admission to statehood. The change in the gentleman's views on the subject has been brought about probably by the discovery that New Mexico produces thrice as much gold as she does silver—for if there ever was a statesman who loves the yellow stuff it is John Sherman. In all seriousness, however, it may be said that Mr. Sherman's efforts to turn a political trick in New Mexico for the benefit of his party, is very gauzy. Hear him:

"A general policy has been adopted of giving the territories state government as soon as the population is sufficient to justify it."

Buncombe! The implication is that the Republicans in congress have adopted a "general policy" on this question. When did they? When did the Republicans of congress ever show any real zeal in trying to bring New Mexico into the sisterhood of states? What does Mr. Sherman mean by the "necessary population"? If he speaks truth why was not he and his party for admission ten years ago, or five years ago, or in the last congress, when New Mexico went to Washington praying for statehood, for justice and full American citizenship, with a larger population than that which all but four states in the union had when they were admitted? Oh, no, Mr. Sherman, your statement won't hold water. Nobody in New Mexico can be caught for the Republican party by any such chaff as this.

PULL TOGETHER.

The venerable adage, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall," should be kept conspicuously posted up in every city or town that aspires to keep up with the procession that is moving swiftly toward the end of the 19th century. No city can hope to hold its place unless its people are mindful of this maxim. Many hands are required to build a city and they must work together. Chicago is a grand example of what unity of purpose will accomplish. The magnificent White city, the noblest exposition the world ever saw, was not the handiwork of a few men. It chiefly was the achievement of the people of Chicago—nearly a million—all working together as one man. When Chicago day came every man, woman and child in the city made it a point to attend the fair. It thus happened that the number of paid admissions that day was 716,881! The lesson is obvious. The spirit that animates the people of Chicago would build a city anywhere. The prospects of Santa Fe appear brighter than ever before. The early completion of our water storage and irrigation system is now an assured fact. This alone, if properly supported, is sufficient to transform the historic capital into a prosperous modern city. The outcome is in the hands of those whose homes and property interests are here. A strong pull and a pull all together will accomplish the desired result. Let each individual resolve faithfully to do his full share toward promoting the common interests of the community, and let all resolve to labor together and the future prosperity of Santa Fe is assured.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Las Vegas Optic professes to doubt the truth of the New Mexican's proposition "that the higher the tariff the lower the price of wool." Nevertheless all well informed people know that it is true. The Republican policy of protecting wools by high tariff taxes was entered upon in 1867. Since then that policy has prevailed. It blossomed out in its greatest glory in the McKinley law, which is now in full force. The market value of wool was from 45 to 65 cents per pound in 1867. The quotations have steadily weakened from that time, until, in the present year of grace, with an average tariff tax of 44 per cent, wool is only worth from 5 cents for common coarse to 35 cents for secured fine medium.

These are indisputable facts and amply sustain the New Mexican's statement. The reasons are not occult. The unvarnished truth is that woolen fabrics can no more be manufactured in the United States at a profit, without an admixture of imported wool, than smelters can be profitably conducted on one class of ore. It thus happens that the tariff tax on wool has disabled American woolen manufacturers to such an extent that many of them have been forced to close their factories and all are in a languishing condition. Hence the price of wool has steadily declined. Hence the demand for wool has decreased and the demand for shoddy has increased. This is as plain as the proposition that transferring a dollar from one pocket to another never enriched anyone.

But the mischievous protective tariff system goes further. It takes $5 out of the wool grower's pocket and gives him back one. It wrongs the great mass of the American people in about the same ratio. For the purposes of this article it is simply necessary to cite that the full value of woolen goods made in this country last year was $35,792,905, while the people the same year paid taxes to the amount of $34,298,606 (more than 95 per cent) on the woolen goods they consumed. During the same period the taxes paid by the manufacturers on raw material was $7,799,085. Free wool means better prices for the commodity, the use of less shoddy, and better and cheaper clothing for the people.

Press Comments on Territorial Affairs.

Good Times Coming.

Confident statehood upon New Mexico and she will rapidly forge to the front rank of the most prosperous, the most progressive and the most attractive states of the American union.—Eddy Daily Current.

They Loved Frank Chavez.

No doubt the Borregos and the whole outfit "loved" Frank Chavez like a brother"—else why did they kill him—to get him out of this "wicked world," or that the "Republican gang in Santa Fe might rule."—Las Cruces Independent-Democrat.

Wriggling as Usual.

The Citizen tries hard to wriggle out of the hole it got itself into when it stated that the Republicans are in favor of statehood for the territories, and goes back nearly twenty years for part of its proof. The fact remains that the members of that party in congress prevented the passage of Mr. Joseph's enabling act just before the holiday adjournment by refusing to answer roll call.—Albuquerque Times.

The Proper Sentiment.

The sentiment expressed by the Citizen is unworthy of an American citizen, and would lead a stranger to believe that no man had a right to live unless he believed in the Republican gang at Santa Fe, and that anyone putting such unbelievers out of the way should receive the protection of the law. What all good citizens want, irrespective of party affiliations, is protection for life and property for Democrats, anti-ring Republicans, Populists, or anything else, and punish

BABY RUNNING SORE.

Worst Sight Ever Seen. Legs, Hands, Arms, Body One Solid, Deep, Running Sore.

Began Using CUTICURA. In Two Weeks Great Improvement Followed by a Complete Cure.

My child began to be sore when two months old—Eczema on his face and head. It rapidly spread over all his body. Every one who saw him said he was the worst sight they ever saw. He had to be bound in linen cloths over so many times a day, and then he would crawl fast to his mother. I could not dress him alone for months. His little legs, hands, and arms were just one solid deep running sore. He was so sore all over, but the deepest on his arms, legs, and face. His face and ears had great deep cracks in the flesh, and were even so sore that he did not look like a child. His were the worst sores I have ever seen of the kind. We began using the CUTICURA REMEDY, and in two weeks we could see a great improvement, and now he is completely cured. His skin is smooth and white, and he seems entirely well. (Portrait included.) We are so thankful. I would like to tell everyone who has a suffering baby about CUTICURA.

Mrs. FRED. BARRETT, Winfield, Ingham County, Mich.

GEN. JULIAN AT WORK.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean a few days ago contained a vigorous and eloquent historical sketch of Thomas Morris, a Jeffersonian Democrat, who led the van in the United States senate against slavery, from the pen of Geo. W. Julian. The article is entitled "Slighted by History," and its purpose is to rescue a noble name from forgetfulness. Gen. Julian will be remembered as the surveyor general of New Mexico under the first Cleveland administration. He is living quietly at his home in the suburbs of Indianapolis. His physical health is excellent and his literary work proves that his mind is as clear and active as it was forty years ago.

MAJOR AND MRS. KIMBALL'S RECEPTIONS.

Major and Mrs. James P. Kimball gave elegant receptions to their friends on Wednesday evening, Jan. 24, and again on last Wednesday evening. Both were most enjoyable. In addition to the interchange of bright social conversation incident to congenial gatherings of the kind, recitations and music of rare merit were given. The program for the first evening was as follows:

Music—Folk Songs—Mrs. Kirkman.
Russian Song—Miss Kimball.
"My Ain Country"—(Scottish Song)—Mrs. Kimball.
"It was a Lover and his Lass"—Folk Song from "As You Like It" (duet)—Mrs. Kirkman and Mrs. Kimball.
"Edward"—Scottish ballad (recitation)—Mrs. Kimball.

The program for last Wednesday evening was as follows:

Music—Selection from the opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni.
Intermezzo (piano)—Mrs. Kirkman.
"The Song"—Mrs. Kimball.
"Oh! Monsieur"—Monologue from the French comedy—Mrs. Kimball.

About thirty-five persons were present each evening. Mrs. Kimball was charmingly assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. E. P. Pearson and Mrs. J. T. Kirkman, while Mrs. Littell presided over dainty repasts in the dining room.

It would be almost presumptuous to praise the recitations of such a brilliant dictionist as Mrs. Kimball. She has already favored her friends with several genuine treats and they are eager for more.

As the hours went by the company enjoyed seeing many rare pictures, interesting curios and bric-a-bac brought by Dr. and Mrs. Kimball from foreign lands.

FOR CHARITY SAKE.

Several of the ladies now visiting St. Vincent sanitarium have become deeply interested in the welfare of the sixty-old little motherless tots in the territorial orphan's industrial school, and they have decided to take the public into confidence in an undertaking calculated to benefit these little wards of Sister Victoria. Accordingly a public tea will be served at the sanitarium in two evenings next, between the hours of 7:30 and 9 o'clock. There will be refreshments, a lemonade and candy stand, and tea to order in all manner of forms, while vocal and instrumental music will prove not the smaller attraction. The citizens of Santa Fe who are charitably disposed toward these children, and who realize the good that St. Vincent sanitarium is doing toward attracting attention to Santa Fe as a health resort, are cordially asked and urged to aid in making the revenues on this occasion what they should be. The affair is being directed by Mrs. Oliver Goldsmith, Miss Ferguson and the Misses Fairchild, of Madison, Wis., and Miss Butler, of Philadelphia, charming ladies, who will be delighted to give all a hearty greeting.

AN HISTORIC CHARACTER GONE.

Gen. Horace Brooks, U. S. A., retired, died January 13, 1894, while on a visit to one of his daughters at Kissimmee, Fla. Among other things the U. S. Army Journal has this to say of him:

"He received the compliments of Gen. Mansfield, inspector general, for having one of the best drilled companies in New Mexico, in 1857; received the formal thanks of the citizens of Santa Fe, New Mexico, for cutting through the Palace and placing the mountain howitzer in position to flank the plaza, there being fears of an insurrection of the Spanish population, which caused the Americans to stand guard night and day on garrison and frontier duty, including the Utah expedition, Indian skirmishing and the border troubles near the headwaters of the Kansas river, while stationed at Fort Marcy, N. M."

His mother was Maria Gower Brooks, a celebrated poetess, known to the literary world as "Marie del Occidente," the author of "Zophiel" and other poems.

MONDAY'S PARTY AT THE PALACE.

On Monday evening next at the Palace hotel will be given a subscription dance and supper tendered by those residents of the capital city who have accepted courtesies during the past season at the hands of the officers of the U. S. army and their ladies at Fort Marcy. The affair is to be unofficial in all respects, but nevertheless promises to be highly enjoyable. Mr. Arthur Boyle, of Clarendon gardens, will elaborately decorate the dancing apartment, and in the dining hall Col. Shelby, manager of the Palace, is expected to serve one of the most delicious spreads imaginable.

A SPLENDID WORK.

A 400 Page Volume on New Mexico Issued by the New Mexico Bureau of Immigration.

From the New Mexican Printing company's presses is now being issued the book entitled "New Mexico," published by the territorial Bureau of Immigration, and arranged, compiled and edited by Col. Max. Frost, secretary of the bureau. The book contains about 400 pages, 800 of which are reading matter and 100 illustrations. Among the latter are fifty fine half-tone engravings representing landscapes, buildings, towns, etc., in all sections of the territory. The subjects treated are as follows: A general article on New Mexico containing particulars concerning the territory at large and each county; an article on irrigation; one on mining; separate articles describing in detail the advantages and resources of every county in New Mexico; one on climate, one on education, on Indians, live stock, hot springs, staple products, property and historical.

The literary work is excellent and the data most valuable. Indeed the book is as full of information as a first-class account is of meat. The magnificent resources of this territory, its climate, geography, geology, history, statistics, present condition and future prospects are fully, fairly and truthfully set forth therein.

The illustrations are gems of art and add much to the value of the book. A very good map goes with the work.

The edition amounts to 10,000 and will be distributed free of charge, postage alone being required. The A. T. & S. F. railroad will distribute thousands of these copies in Great Britain, where they will do the most good, and also in this country where the best results can be obtained. The different bureaus of immigration, statistics and labor and public libraries in the United States will be supplied, and Gov. Thornton will send copies to the governors of states and territories throughout the union. Delegate Joseph has kindly consented to furnish members of congress, and especially the members of the senate and house committees on territories, with copies, which, in the light of the fact that an enabling act is now pending, will do the territory much good.

Every bit of this work was done in the office of the New Mexican Printing company, except the cuts for the illustrations, which were prepared by Vandercreek & Co., one of the best engraving firms of Chicago.

From any standpoint the book is of value. The people of New Mexico may well be proud of it, because it presents the territory and its resources and conditions as they should be presented. The officers of the bureau may well be satisfied over its achievement. On the other hand the typographical make up of the book demonstrates the plain fact that the people of New Mexico have in the New Mexican Printing Co. an establishment that is fully up to the times, a home institution, that is working constantly and energetically for the advancement of the people of New Mexico.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE FEDERAL BUILDING.

U. S. Collector Shannon, ex-officio custodian of the federal building, sometime ago received authority from Washington to make important improvements in the building mentioned and in the surrounding grounds. It appears that the ground immediately north of the building, lower than the street level, and above, whenever heavy rains come or snow was melting water stood there in a pool and sometimes flowed over into the basement. The sinking of the water gradually weakened the foundation and caused the northeast corner of the building to settle. Mr. Shannon has obtained this by filling in lower than the street level, and above, whenever heavy rains come or snow was melting water stood there in a pool and sometimes flowed over into the basement.
