On Nov. 4, Archbishop of San Salvador Arturo Rivera asserted that the Salvadoran military continues to obstruct the investigation into the November 1989 murders of six Jesuit priests, adding that military officers had destroyed key evidence. The prelate cited a recent report by UN special envoy on human rights in El Salvador, Pastor Ridruejo, who visited the country in October. Ridruejo's report said there had been no progress in the proceedings concerning the Jesuit case, nor on serious human rights abuses that occurred in recent years. (Basic data from AFP, 11/04/90)
