HISGEN FLAYS TAFT REPLIES BRYAN AS POLITICAL FAKIR

Asserts Democratic Candidate Knew About Haskell's Connection With Standard Oil For Many Months.

DECLARES RESIGNATION IS CONFESSION OF GUILT

Hearst Given Credit for Driving Representatives of Predatory Wealth Out of Both Older Parties.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Kansas City, Sept. 26.—Thomas L. Hisgen, candidate of the independence party for president, addressed a large crowd in Turner hall today. During the day he was tendered a luncheon by the city club, made up of business men, was taken on an automobile ride about the city and just after the evening meeting held a reception in the parlors of the Baltimore hotel.

Mr. Hisgen spoke of the resignation of T. C. Du Pont and Charles N. Haskell and declared that in these resignations it is equivalent to confession. He declared that Mr. Bryan had known of the charges against Haskell months ago and he spoke of the democratic candidate as a political faker, saying: "If Bryan is sincere let him get right with the people."

In the course of his speech Mr. Hisgen said:

"Since the beginning of the independence party campaign Mr. Hearst, myself and the other speakers have been trying to impress upon the minds of the people that there is an urgent demand for a new party. We have advocated this because of the fact that the two old parties have fallen into the control of the same power, the corporate wealth of the country."

"Today the new independence party in its first national battle and within a few weeks has established the truth of our assertions in a way that has startled the country and shocked the leaders of the two old parties."

"Daniel Webster once declared 'suicide is a confession, in his arguments in connection with a murder case that he was trying. If he were living today and taking part in a national campaign he would be compelled to assert that resignation is confession."

"The independence party through Mr. Hearst charged Senator Foraker with being a tool of the Standard Oil trust. Foraker has confessed and has practically stopped down and out of the grand old party."

"The independence party through its speakers charged the republican party with having put at the head of its speaking bureau T. C. Du Pont, one of the owners of the powder trust, which the government is now fighting. Du Pont did not of course attempt to deny this and today you can read his resignation in the newspapers as a conspicuous figure in the Taft campaign."

"So much for the republican party at this time. We charge that it is being run by the trust and we claim that we have made good the charge."

"We made the same charge against the democratic party and showed that Charles N. Haskell, treasurer of the democratic national committee, was connected with the Standard Oil company as one of the powerful political friends of this great corporation. Haskell denied it and Bryan rushed to the support of his friend."

"Today you may read of Haskell's resignation and his resignation is a confession, because he hung on just as long as he could without being kicked out by the decent democrats who still believe that they can reconstruct the old party."

MAXINE ELLIOTT WILL NOT CONTEST DIVORCE

Reno, Nev., Sept. 26.—Maxine Elliott, the wife of Nat Goodwin, will not contest his suit for divorce, which was presented here last Monday. This fact was made known today, when her appearance was made through her attorneys in the district court.

A considerable mix-up in the names occasioned some argument and caused a postponement until next Friday. The complaint was issued against Jessie Hall Goodwin, the answer was signed Jessie Dermot Goodwin, and the power of attorney was Maxine Elliott.

At the suggestion of the court it was agreed by both sides that the complaint should be amended to conform to the name in the answer, Jessie Dermot Goodwin, waiving notice being agreed to, a properly signed power of attorney is to be mailed to her attorneys, which should be returned here by next Friday.

TAFT REPLIES TO FORAKER CHARGES

ACCUSES SENATOR OF MISSTATEMENT OF FACTS

Candidate Says He Used Private Car, Which He Paid For at Regular Rate, on Trip to Lake Erie.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Minneapolis, Sept. 26.—The fourth day of William H. Taft's speaking campaign ended here tonight with the delivery of his views in favor of postal savings banks and in opposition to the Bryan theory regarding government guarantee of bank deposits. Taft will rest from his labors here tomorrow and continue with his whirlwind methods Monday.

Judge Taft today made answer to the criticism of himself by Senator Foraker. He had recommended Judge Doyle, a private individual for judge because of Doyle's great professional attainments and high character. In doing so he explained to the president that Doyle had acted as attorney for the Standard Oil company and other corporations.

The president had chosen to appoint Judge Taylor instead. As to Mr. Foraker Mr. Taft commented that he "argues that this is a justification for him, while a senator of the United States, in accepting professional employment from the Standard Oil company and in making what was in effect a newspaper partnership with the Standard Oil company to control an organ of public opinion."

As to the second charge of Mr. Foraker, that Judge Taft rode to Middle Bass in the private car of Mr. Lewis and on the yacht of Commodore Richardson, of the alleged glass trust, Mr. Taft said that he used a private car which he paid for, and that the boat he rode on was that provided for by the Middle Bass club, whose guest he was at the time. Mr. Taft's statement follows:

"First, Senator Foraker says in his statement that I recommended Judge Doyle for a United States judgeship in Northern Ohio and the president acquiesced in the recommendation when we knew that he was attorney for the Standard Oil company and argues that this is a justification for him while a senator of the United States in accepting professional employment from the Standard Oil company and in making what was in effect a newspaper partnership with the Standard Oil company to control an organ of public opinion."

"Second, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Third, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Fourth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Fifth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Sixth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Seventh, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Eighth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Ninth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Tenth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Eleventh, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

"Twelfth, Senator Foraker refers to my alleged receipt of favors from C. T. Lewis, partner of Judge Doyle and the president, as between Doyle and Taylor, also an able man, preferred Taylor and appointed him, not as I received it for any reason discernible to Doyle but because Doyle's very many corporate professional associations would make him less acceptable to the public and might interfere with his usefulness as a judge."

morning at Cedar Rapids and continued northward up through Iowa into Minnesota and ending with mammoth meetings at the Twin Cities tonight. An even dozen speeches were made by Mr. Taft each to a decidedly larger audience than could hear him, although there was a noticeable improvement in his voice during the day. In Iowa the train was accompanied by local committeemen and congressmen from that state and in Minnesota the speaker's list was augmented by Senator Clapp, Congressman Davis, Stevens, Tawney and Steenerson and Jake Jacobson, republican candidate for governor, beside a large number of local politicians. The big meeting came at the end of the day at St. Paul. The candidate was taken to the Auditorium, where he delivered a brief speech on the general policies of the republican party, contrasting them with those of the democratic party. The Auditorium was crowded to its capacity and the meeting was one of great enthusiasm. The St. Paul stop occupied more than an hour, when the journey to Minneapolis was made. Here too, the meeting was held in the Auditorium, the capacity of which was taxed to the utmost. Elaborate arrangements for escorts, bands and automobiles were carried out in each city and political enthusiasm was at a high pitch.

At Fairbault, Mr. Taft was invited to take a seat on a large elephant which was led to the rear of his train. The animal was decorated with the familiar "G. O. P." sign and was ridden by what the candidate declared to be "a very pretty girl."

"I would like mighty well to be up there with you," he told her while the crowd laughed, "but I know you have not a derelict strong enough for me to mount. But just the same I believe I could ride that animal with great success."

The day's program consisted of speeches at Cedar Rapids, Vinton, Waterloo, Cedar Falls and Waverly Junction, Iowa, and Albert Lee, Fairbault, Northfield, Farmington, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

"If I am elected, as I expect to be, I shall have the greatest pleasure in pledging in the presence of this grand audience all the energies and abilities of which I am capable to continue the Roosevelt policies; to make business honest and to keep every man within the law, be he humble or rich," was the climax of the speech he delivered to the large audience in the Auditorium at St. Paul.

Through a misunderstanding, the Taft train was delayed in the yards at St. Paul one hour. This time was utilized by the candidate in a private conference with Frank J. Kellogg, the special attorney in the trust prosecutions.

New York, Sept. 26.—An Italian of huge proportion with swarthy face and a bandana handkerchief around his neck, created a wild scene in Washington Square park today when he tossed his hat in the air and drew a big revolver from his pocket full of holes. The park was filled with loungers at the time and the sight of the brigand like figure with the blazing weapon in his hand sent them scurrying in every direction. The man paid not the slightest attention to his surroundings, however, and when the hat riddled with bullets had fallen to the ground he calmly tossed it in the air again and renewed the fusillade. The gun had been twice emptied when two policemen rushed to the park. When the Italian saw the officers he darted away like a deer bounding over fences and other obstructions with an agility that soon left his pursuers far in the rear. He was finally captured by policemen who had circled around the park. He put up the hardest kind of fight before he was arrested, and was sent to the psychiatric ward of Bellevue hospital in a straight jacket.

GOVERNOR IS NOW SURE OF STATEHOOD

Declares Opposition Is Fast Fading, and That Admission at the Short Session Seems Certain.

ARRIVES WITH GENERAL BELL THIS MORNING

Executive Back From Hurried Trip To Washington; Believes Attendance at Congress Will Surpass all expectations.

Governor Curry returned to Santa Fe yesterday from Washington, where he went a week ago as the special representative of the Sixteenth National Irrigation congress to present to President Roosevelt the invitation of the congress to attend its sessions. Although the president has determined not to leave Washington at present, and therefore declined the invitation to attend the congress, the governor's visit was successful in the extreme and of very great importance to the congress, since he was able to bring with him the acceptance of Senator Stanford, who had been invited to attend, and since several important matters in connection with the congress and the exposition were satisfactorily adjusted by him during his brief stay.

The governor will arrive in Albuquerque on the California limited at noon today and will immediately take up his residence in the Alvarado, where he will remain until the close of the exposition. Such part of the equipment of the executive office as is necessary to the transaction of business will come to Albuquerque, and this city will be the headquarters of the territorial government for the next two weeks.

With Governor Curry this morning will be General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the United States army, who is coming to attend the sessions of the irrigation congress, and who will be here until near the close of the exposition. Governor Curry will meet General Bell at Lamy this morning.

Attendance at Congress Will Be Record-Breaking—President Roosevelt will not leave Washington at present and our invitation that he attend the congress was therefore declined," said Governor Curry, replying to questions asked by the Morning Journal over the telephone last night. "The president, however, takes very keen interest in the work of the congress, which he considers one of the most important of the unofficial organizations in the nation. He has written a letter expressing his regret at being unable to attend as Chairman Hopewell, of the board of control, and will send his personal representative to Albuquerque."

General Bell will arrive in Albuquerque tomorrow and there are several other distinguished men who will be among the visitors during the week. I met a number of very prominent men who had expected to come to Albuquerque, but the closing days of the campaign make it difficult for almost all of the men prominent in public life to leave. It is reasonably certain, however, that the attendance at the congress will be more than satisfactory. General Wright, the secretary of war, had expected to come, but it is impossible for him to leave Washington just at this time. General Bell, however, will have with him during the week a number of distinguished army men, and the war department will be well represented. The department, in fact, has done everything in its power to advance the success of the exposition. Every reasonable request we have made has been granted, and we have cause to feel very grateful for the cordial co-operation that has been accorded to us."

Believes Statehood Sure at the Short Session—"I am more than ever convinced," said the governor, "that we are to be admitted to the union at the short session of congress. The president, personally, feels very kindly disposed toward New Mexico, will recommend the admission of this territory immediately in his message to congress and will do everything he can to advance our interests. Moreover, I met a number of members of congress, both senators and representatives, who have been opposed to our admission in the past, who have withdrawn their opposition, and to my mind our admission at the short session is reasonably certain."

National Campaign Grows Warm in the East—"The national campaign is growing decidedly warm, and in the east there is little time for anything aside from campaign business. The Hearst-Foraker controversy has, of course, attracted a vast amount of attention and has caused a flurry of excitement. Mr. Foraker's position, however, is not likely to have any effect upon the result even in Ohio, and there is very little reason to question the certainty of Mr. Taft's election. The democrats are making the most vigorous campaign they have made in years and express much confidence. They are, moreover, united in several states, where in the last two campaigns they have been more or less divided, while the republicans in one or two states are disturbed by factional differences. These, however, will have passed away before the close of the campaign, and Mr. Taft's election, in the minds of the best informed men, seems to be assured."

was connected with the Standard Oil company, I have a right to assume that if so serious an objection had existed to Mr. Haskell's election and had been a matter of common notoriety in Ohio, as you say, Judge Taft would have felt it his conscientious duty to warn the people when he spoke in Oklahoma. If he did not have the knowledge, why can it be assumed that I had it? And if he had it, how can you excuse his failure to communicate the information to the people of Oklahoma? If you feel it your patriotic duty to denounce Mr. Haskell when he is only a member of the national organization, how much more would Mr. Taft have felt it his patriotic duty to denounce Mr. Haskell when he was aspiring to be the chief executive of a great state.

"I could have had no knowledge of the suit to which you refer when he was appointed chairman of the resolutions committee of the national convention because the suit was begun while he was at Denver and as matter of fact I did not know anything of the nature of the suit until he was made treasurer of the national committee and no fair-minded person can decide upon the merits of your charge without an examination of the provisions of the enabling act passed by republican congress and the provisions of the license of franchise issued to the oil company by your administration.

"I need hardly refer to the newly found evidence upon which you try to much stress, viz: The article in the Outlook of September 5. My attention was never called to that article until I read the published copy of your letter, and while I have great respect for the Outlook, and I suppose I have for the writer (although you do not give his name) I would hardly feel justified in deciding as promptly as you do, on an ex-parte statement without investigation.

"You present an indictment against our platform declarations on the trust question, but you don't refer to all of the planks and don't deal justly with those to which you do refer. Our platform declares in favor of the vigorous enforcement of the criminal law against guilty trust magnates and officials. Your platform does not contain any such demand. Why do you say that your platform is better than ours in that respect? Our platform demands that corporations beyond a certain size be compelled to sell at the same price in all parts of the country, the allowance being made for the cost of transportation. Will you deny that this is in the interest of the consumer and in the interest of the smaller competitors? We present a plan under which no corporation will be permitted to control more than one half of the total product. It has been stated that the steel company with your express consent, purchased of its largest rivals and thus obtained control of more than 50 per cent of the output. Will you insist that in permitting this you showed less favor to the monopolistic corporations than I do in opposing them? You quote at length from a speech made by Governor Hughes in which he ridicules one of our anti-trust remedies. Is this the same Governor Hughes who was counted as one of the "allies" who endeavored to defeat Mr. Taft when, as you insisted, Mr. Taft represented the "reformers" of your party and his opponents the reactionary element? Did not Governor Hughes have the support of the New York delegation in the convention and is not New York the home of most republicans most conspicuous in their connection with the law-defying corporation? You are certainly aware of the fact that in the statement filed by George B. Sheldon, treasurer of the republican state committee two years ago, after Mr. Hughes' election, it appears that the following contributions were made to the campaign fund: J. P. Morgan, $20,000; John D. Rockefeller, $5,000; and Andrew Carnegie, $5,000; Charles M. Schwab, $2,000; John W. Gates, $2,000; W. E. Corey, $2,000; W. Nelson Cromwell, $1,500; W. F. Havemeyer, $800; B. N. Duke, $500. Several of these men are known to be officially connected with the trusts. Would the fact that these gentlemen contributed to his campaign strengthen or weaken his testimony against the trust magnates of our anti-trust remedy?

"You cannot have failed to notice that Governor Hughes in his speech assumed the role of the critic and not of the constructive statesman. Anyone possessing vivid imagination and a pen can find objections to remedial measures. Lord Macaulay is quoted as saying that eloquent and learned men could be found to dispute the law of gravitation if there were any advantage to be gained by it. But when known abuses are to be cured, an ounce of remedy is worth a pound of fault finding."

"As you quote from Governor Hughes, I take it for granted that Mr. Taft has not yet expressed himself in a satisfactory manner on the subject for you would naturally prefer to quote from the presidential candidate wherever or whenever possible.

"You say, let us repeat that no law defying corporation has any other reason to fear from you save as it will suffer in the general paralysis of business etc. Referring to the last part of the sentence first, I might question your ability to act as an expert as to panic preventives, since you now have one on your hands, but as to your charge that no law defying corporation has reason to fear the direct effect of the anti-trust remedies which I favor, permit me to suggest that your testimony on this subject is not conclusive. You are a witness to the election must be taken into consideration in weighing your testimony. There is better evidence. The trust magnates know their own interests and they are supporting Judge Taft. Not one of the trust magnates helped to secure your nomination, while it is a matter of common notoriety that they were conspicuous in the republican convention and it is equally a matter of common notoriety that they are supporting your party in this campaign. If you will name a single official connected with a single law defying corporation, monopoly, or trust who has declared or will declare that he is supporting me, I will publicly warn him that I will enforce against him the present criminal law and will enforce against him also the laws demanded in the democratic platform as soon as these laws can be enacted.

"But there is another fact which raised a presumption in favor of our party and against your party. I referred to it in my former letter to you, but you inadvertently overlooked it in your reply, and the members of your cabinet called in for consultation evidently did not notice it. I stated that we had not knowingly received a dollar from any official connected with a corporation known as a trust and that any money so received will be returned as soon as we received knowledge of the fact. I now remind you that your convention deliberately rejected, by a vote of 9 to 1, the plank favoring publicity as to campaign contributions. Mr. Taft has repudiated the action of the convention and rebuked the members of the convention by declaring himself in favor of a publicity law, but he favors publicity after the election, while we favor publicity before the election. Which do you regard as the better plan—to let the people know before the election what influences are at work, or to let them know after the election? Are you willing to say that any public interest was served in 1904 by concealing until after the election the contributions made to the republican campaign committee by Mr. Harrison and those collected by him from others? Are you willing to say that the publication before the election of the contributions then made would not have affected the election? As I have said, we shall publish the names of contributors above $100 dollars. Will you ask your national committee to publish before the election the contributions above $100 dollars? Or, if you regard this as too small a sum, the contributions above a thousand dollars, or if this is also too small the contributions above ten thousand dollars? If not, what reason can you give to the public for not doing so? I insist that our willingness to let the public know the sources from which we receive contributions raises a presumption in our favor that must be overcome before you can ask the people to accept your statement that the law defying corporations have more to fear from republican success than from democratic victory.

In conclusion you say that you ask support for Mr. Taft because he stands for the moral uplift of the nation, because his deeds have made good his words, and because the policies to which he is committed are of immeasurable consequence alike to the honor and the interests of the whole American people? I dare to compare my efforts for the moral uplift of the nation with his efforts, his deeds with his words, and the policies to which I am committed with the policies to which he is committed and more than that if I may assume that if he will follow in your footsteps I dare to compare my ideal of the presidency with him. I don't regard it as proper for the president to use his prestige, his influence, or his patronage to aid one member of his party as against another who aspires to office and I regard it as a violation of the obligation that the president owes to the whole people to use an office that belongs to the whole people as a party asset for the advancement of a personal friend and a political protégé. Believing that the president should not be tempted to use that power for his own advantage—and it is equally repugnant to the spirit of our institutions that he should use it for any one else's advantage—I tried to secure an amendment to the constitution limiting the president to a single term, and I have announced in three campaigns that if elected I would not be a candidate for re-election. I believe the occupant of such a high office should be absolutely free to devote himself unobscuredly to his country's welfare and I am sanguine enough to believe that if entrusted to power I would be able to make my administration so successful that the members of my party could, without interference from me, select the one most worthy to carry on the work begun by me—so successful that the administration would speak for itself, and that it would not be necessary for me to defend it in bulletin or pronouncement. I think I could in this way give to the members of the opposite party, as well as to the members of my own party, a "square deal."

"Very truly yours,"

"WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN"

RIDICULES TAFT FOR WANT OF CONFIDENCE IN PLATFORM

Milwaukee, Sept. 26.—Paying his first visit to Wisconsin during the present campaign, W. J. Bryan, following closely on the heels of his republican opponent, W. H. Taft, tonight in a speech here to the vast audience assembled in Riverfront rink, criticized his attacks on the republican platform and held Mr. Taft up to ridicule for not being in sympathy with the principles enunciated by the Chicago convention. He dwelt at some length on the labor planks of the Denver platform and justified them on the ground that justice to the workingman demanded remedial legislation to ward this class. He also discussed the tariff, publicity of campaign contributions and the election of senators by direct vote of the people, and made a strong plea for the election of John A. Aylward, democratic nominee for governor, as well as for the success of the democratic congressional ticket, on the ground that a democratic congress will be necessary in order to carry out the policies of a democratic president. At Kosciuszko park he spoke to a big audience, and also to the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association.

On his way here from Chicago, Mr. Bryan talked briefly at Woodstock, Ill., Harvard Junction and Caledonia, Ill., and at Beloit and Janesville, Wis., at all of which places he was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd. At several other points he shook hands with a number of people. The employees of the overall factory at Beloit presented to the democratic candidate a pair of specially made overalls, bearing his name worked in the cloth.

The trip to this city from Madison was made in a special train provided by Mayor Rose, of Milwaukee, who was Mr. Bryan's host while here.

A feature of the visit to Madison was the presence in the hall in which Mr. Bryan spoke of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette, who occupied a prominent seat among the audience, and who, in response to a direct question by one of his admirers, if Mr. Bryan's argument on publicity of campaign contributions before election was not "all right," responded, "Yes, it is."

Mr. Bryan is due in St. Paul early tomorrow, when he will confer with Governor Johnson over the situation in the northwest.

ROOSEVELT HAS REPLY

Washington, Sept. 26.—President Roosevelt is expected to issue a statement tomorrow in reply to Mr. Bryan. The president retired too early tonight to receive Mr. Bryan's latest communication. He, however, had been expecting it, and had deferred on that account the issuance of a statement which he had already prepared in more or less tentative form. It was felt that it might avoid the necessity of two statements by awaiting the expected Bryan letter, which was promulgated tonight.

INDIANA LOCAL OPTION

ACT SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

Indianapolis, Sept. 26.—Governor J. Frank Hanley late today signed the Cox county option bill, which passed the house this morning by a vote of 55 to 45. The measure passed the senate several days ago. Opposition to the measure has been very pronounced by the liquor element.

The Cox county option bill provides that upon 20 per cent of the voting population signifying their desire, a social election shall be held to decide whether that county shall have saloons or not. If it is decided the county shall be "dry" no change can be made for two years, after which time another election can be held.

This was one of the measures for which Governor Hanley called the extra session of the legislature.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

With both the New York and Chicago National league teams playing double-headers yesterday and only one point in percentage separating them in the lead in the pennant race, the results of the games were awaited with deep interest. As both teams won two games each there was no change in their standing. New York maintaining first position. Pittsburgh won from Boston, thus keeping within striking distance. The standing of the teams in the National league pennant race follows:

Won.	Lost	P.C.
New York	90	.52
Chicago	83	.54
Pittsburg	82	.55
Philadelphia	77	.55
Cincinnati	70	.54
Boston	60	.55
Brooklyn	48	.55
St. Louis	48	.56

In the American league Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis are having a close fight for the lead. Cleveland and Chicago won a game each yesterday, while St. Louis dropped a game. Thus Cleveland holds the lead by the narrow margin of two points, with Detroit second and Chicago only four points behind the second team. The standing of the clubs follows:

Won.	Lost	P.C.
Cleveland	84	.52
Detroit	82	.51
Chicago	82	.52
St. Louis	79	.54
Boston	70	.54
Philadelphia	65	.56
Washington	61	.58
New York	47	.54

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York Defeats Cincinnati Twice.
New York, Sept. 26.—Steadily by Mathewson's strong right arm, the New York team today atoned in part for yesterday's double-header defeat by landing a double-header victory from Cincinnati, the scores being 6 to 2 and 3 to 1. The 32,000 spectators who had followed the players with great enthusiasm left the field at the close convinced that New York can get the pennant, for the complete reversal of its unattractive form of yesterday seemed to indicate that Manager McGraw was right when he expressed the opinion this afternoon that the setback resulting from putting in the box the new invoice of pitchers would be easily overcome.

But Chicago's duplication of her double victory with Brooklyn means that New York must put up highest grade baseball in the remaining eleven games it has to play. Chicago has but six games more to play before the end of the season.

Mathewson's pitching was the feature of the first game. There was never any doubt what the result would be. In the second game Tenney lined out a home run.

Chicago Captures Double Header.
Brooklyn, Sept. 26.—Every one of the 12,000 persons who witnessed the games played today between Chicago and Brooklyn was impressed with the clean-cut work of the world's champions. Manager-Captain Chance selected Reulbach to pitch the first game with Kling behind the bat. That he made no mistake in his choice was fully proved by the 5 to 0 shut-out scored by Reulbach, and Chance sent the same batteries back to work out the second game. Reulbach did not seem to be a bit tired. He played his position so effectively that a 3 to 0 shut-out was the result. Superb baseball in every detail was played by the victors and the only one to make an error was Reulbach in the second contest. He received fine support by all his clubmates.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26.—Philadelphia broke even with St. Louis here today.

Pittsburg 5; Boston 0.
Boston, Sept. 26.—Pittsburg defeated the locals, 5 to 0, today in a good played game.

American League.
Cleveland 5; Washington 4.
Cleveland, Sept. 26.—Cleveland held onto first place today by winning from Washington, 5 to 4, in the most exciting and enthusiastic game of the season. Cleveland's six errors allowed Washington to take a four run lead. Then Cleveland bunched five hits and scored three runs off Hughes in the fourth. Johnson went in with only one out and stopped the scoring until the seventh, when Cleveland tied the score on hits by Bradley and Lajoie. The game was won in the eighth on Russell's single. Johnson's error and Perrin's single. Liebhart, who pitched the last five innings, struck out Tannehill, Edmundson and Milan in the ninth. After the game the crowd, with three bands, paraded the field for half an hour.

Score. R. H. E.
Cleveland.....000 000 118—5 12 6
Washington.....002 000 000—4 9 2

Detroit 3; Philadelphia 2.
Detroit, Sept. 26.—Only one man passed first base on Donovan until the ninth and seven batters were struck out by him in the first three innings, six of them consecutively. Detroit bunched hits twice for runs and lost two other chances by reckless baserunning. The visitors got four clean hits in the ninth and had two on bases when the game ended.

Score. R. H. E.
Detroit.....100 000 208—3 12 0
Philadelphia.....000 000 002—2 7 0
Batteries—Donovan and Schmidt; Plank and Powers.

Chicago 12; New York 0.
Chicago, Sept. 26.—Chicago shut out New York here today, 12 to 0. A total of thirteen bases on balls, a couple of wild pitches, the hitting of two Chicagoans by pitched balls, coupled with opportune hitting and a few sacrifices, was accountable for the visitors' defeat. Smith, who pitched most of the game for Chicago, had little difficulty in holding his opponents safe. Ball twister's ankle in the seventh and retired from the game.

HASKELL DEFENDS ACTION IN PIPE LINE CASE
Letter To Roosevelt Holds President Personally Responsible For Franchise Which Rendered Oklahoma Officials Powerless.

[By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire]
Kansas City, Sept. 26.—Governor Charles N. Haskell passed through this city tonight on his way from Chicago to Guthrie, and gave to the Associated Press a letter addressed to President Roosevelt, defending Haskell's attitude toward the Prairie Oil and Gas company, and assailing the president for granting before statehood, a franchise in Indian Territory for a Standard Oil pipe line at the request of Senator Chauncey M. Depew.

"You know," writes Haskell, "that Senator Depew was the greatest Standard Oil representative in the Senate." Governor Haskell's letter says:

"In regard to the Prairie Oil and Gas company oil pipe line franchise in Oklahoma, I said that the secretary of the interior granted this franchise before statehood; that federal courts would prevent our state's interference; and that we are compelled to treat it as we find the grant, and that hence I properly dismissed the suit brought by our attorney general without my approval.

"Ex-Secretary Hitchcock says he did not grant any franchise. Secretary Garfield says he did, but the state's power is just limited to control it, and that I am quibbling. The press reports this morning say that Hitchcock, in hearing that company's application for a franchise in the year 1904 (three years before statehood), hesitated about granting it. Whereupon Senator Depew and others went over Hitchcock's head to you, Mr. President, and got an order to the secretary to make the grant.

RIDDER SUCCEEDS HASKELL

New York Newspaper Editor
Named as Treasurer of Democratic National Committee.

[By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire]
New York, Sept. 26.—Herman Ridder, editor of the Staats Zeitung and vice chairman of the publicly bureau of the democratic national committee, was tonight appointed by Chairman Mack as treasurer of the national committee to succeed Governor C. N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, who resigned his position early today in Chicago.

The appointment of Mr. Ridder as treasurer of the committee, was made shortly before Chairman Mack's departure for Buffalo. He will be in Chicago Monday morning. The chairman called Mr. Ridder on the telephone and asked him if he would accept the position, and Mr. Ridder agreed to take up the work of securing funds to conduct the democratic national campaign. Mr. Ridder will spend much of his time in the Chicago headquarters.

The appointment of Mr. Ridder came as a surprise to national committee men here, who had been given to understand that a western man would be selected. Mr. Mack said:

"I am very much pleased that Mr. Ridder has seen fit to accept the trusteeship. He is the very type of American business man and whose associations and connections will not bring him under charge of the suspicion of having to do with those corporations to which democracy is opposed."

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The university is closed for the Irrigation congress and Territorial fair. The large exhibit being made in the university building on the grounds requires the presence of most of the faculty.

John B. Terry, of the Class of 1899, visited the university last week, after an absence sufficiently long to note some changes about the campus. Mr. Terry is a chemist with the Continental Oil company at Point Richmond, Cal.

Grover C. Emmons, of the college senior class, entertained a room full of young democrats and others at one of the noon hours last week. Mr. Emmons is up to date on political matters. He owns a good phonograph and has secured some twelve or fifteen records of choice extracts from the speeches of William Jennings Bryan, candidate for president of the United States. These addresses were on political and economical questions largely, and were delivered in clear, distinct tones, so that every word could be understood.

The senior class of the normal department has chosen the chrysanthemum for the class flower, and green and pileen for colors. The flower and colors will combine beautifully in decorations.

Miss Janet Bryson on Friday received the sad news of the death of her mother, who lived in Ohio. Miss Bryson would be unable to reach home for the funeral and will remain in Albuquerque until the university resumes work after the fair.

Strangers at the congress are cordially invited to visit the university building at the exposition grounds, and also inspect the buildings on the campus one mile east of the city.

The main work of remodeling the administration building is nearing completion. The addition of the unique porches on the east and the west, the buttresses at the corners, and the new buildings added combine to make an interesting study in architecture. The covering of the walls with cement will not be done until after the fair.

The football team of the Socorro School of Mines has asked for two games with the varsity team in November, one of them to occur on Thanksgiving day. Manager Lee will doubtless arrange for these games.

eral of the foremost concert voices of the United States, and a number of the leading musical organizations of the West.

By this evening every member of the chorus of 100 voices with all of the soloists, will have arrived in Albuquerque, and the final rehearsal of "The Golden Legend," Sullivan's beautiful cantata, which is to be produced on Wednesday night, will take place in Convention hall tomorrow night. Seats for "The Golden Legend" and also for the concert on Friday night, are going rapidly and music lovers, who desire to obtain good seats, should get in line early on Monday morning.

The Chihuahua band arrived in Albuquerque yesterday morning and gave its first concert yesterday afternoon, in the form of a serenade to Mayor Lester.

The band will be heard in concert again this evening in front of the Alvarado hotel and at 3 p. m. in Robinson park. By Tuesday night there will be ten bands in Albuquerque, and band music will be so abundant that it will be found on every street corner.

The Oker orchestra from Emporia, Kansas, arrived yesterday and will rehearse with the congress chorus today and tomorrow. The Euterpean quartette, of Los Angeles, which will take part in the concert with the Mexican band on Friday night will arrive in Albuquerque tomorrow, and with the arrival of Mr. Dupuy, the tenor, the list of principals for "The Golden Legend" will be complete.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

The Great DANDERINE Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results.

It enlivens and invigorates the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, resulting in a continuous and increasing growth of the hair.

Letters of praise are continually coming in from nearly all parts of the country stating that Danderine has renewed the growth of hair in cases that were considered absolutely hopeless.

A lady from Brooklyn writes: "After a short trial my hair stopped falling, and I now have a lovely head of hair, very heavy and over an inch and a quarter long."

Danderine stimulates the scalp, makes it healthy and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp invigorator known. It is a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a small bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land; 3 sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00

Free To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the Keweenaw Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

be on Wednesday night in "The Golden Legend."

While "The Golden Legend" will be the chief musical event of the week, and while the presentation of the Sullivan composition constitutes the most pretentious musical effort ever made in the Southwest, the concert on Friday night will be none the less enjoyable and will be fully as popular, if the advance sale of tickets is an indication.

The Mexican band, while its open air work is excellent, is at its best in orchestral work, and its program for the Friday night concert will be a splendid one. Add to this the work of the Euterpean quartette and the program becomes a very strong one.

The management of the concerts has allowed twelve hundred seats to be sold for each concert to Albuquerque people. The balance of the seating capacity of Convention hall will be reserved for visitors.

WOULD LIKE TO HEAR FROM SOME ASPIRING FIGHTER

Manager of Ring Wonder Anxious to Pull off a Bout in This City During Irrigation Congress.

That Battling Nelson and Joe Gans are not the only fighters with "some class" was very evident on the night of September 23, when the Wild Cat Kid, of Los Angeles, and Fay Thompson, of Dallas, Texas, met in a fast and furious five-round boxing contest in Cocorco. While neither man had been sufficiently trained for the bout there was some classy fighting and everyone was satisfied that the fighters were not playing ping-pong. It is the intention of Mr. Wachter, Thompson's manager, to give the fans of Albuquerque a chance to witness an interesting mild sometime during the Irrigation Congress. Mr. Wachter will be glad to hear from any aspiring fighter of the middleweight class—and as "Coke," the "Wild Cat Kid," said he would be in Albuquerque during the congress, I would like to hear from him, and issue through this medium a special challenge—and ask that he either accept or hold his peace forever.

The following program was rendered: "Trauernd," Schumann, George Walker; "Angels' Serenade," Braga; Lorna Lester; "Les Regrets," Op. 62, Charles Dancla, Mildred and John Bates; "Lorelei," De Slicher, Roberta Johnson; Air from "Mignon," Thomas, Bruce Ramsey; Minuet, De Beriot, Treasure Hartman; "Délirium D'Amore," Op. 39, Alard, Clarence Bothe; National Melodies, Saenger, Joe Schreiber; Valse Moderato, Edwards, Grace Stortz; Andante Religioso, Mason, Hazel Stone; "Le Barber de Seville," Op. 39, Alard, Frances Bothe; Lullaby, Bousley, Arthur Becker; "Ave Verum Corpus," Mozart, Miss Olga Solke; Menuetto, Mendelssohn, Bruce Ramsey, George Walker, Clarence Bothe. After the program, dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

DOCTORS ENDORSE HERPICIDE Because Its Formula is Submitted to Them.

Alexander McMillan, M. D., a prominent physician of Lansing, Michigan, writes: "On three cases I have tested Herpicide for dandruff and the result has been all that could be desired."

Herpicide is made upon an entirely new principle, that is, that dandruff and falling hair are caused from a microbe that infests the hair bulb, and by destroying the microbe, one's hair is bound to grow luxuriantly. Herpicide is the only hair remedy, that claims to, and really does, destroy the dandruff germs.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

Use and Recommend

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

MISS MILDRED HOLLAND

the charming and deservedly popular theatrical star, writes as follows:

"I am delighted with Newbro's Herpicide. It is just what I have been looking for. I find that it not only prevents dandruff, but that it stops the hair from falling out. It is a most delightful hair dressing, and no lady's toilet table is complete without it."

(Signed) MILDRED HOLLAND.

A woman to be pretty must have pretty hair. There is a subtle charm about beautiful hair that lends more to personal adornment than all of the skill of all of the "beauty doctors" combined. The hair need not be of extraordinary or abnormal length, but it must have that distinctiveness of appearance that comes from intelligent care, and is the result of perfect hair health.

The most cultured ladies in every community use Newbro's Herpicide; and when you see a head of hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, it is a fairly good indication that Newbro's Herpicide has been used.

A common cause of dullness of the hair is the presence of fine dust and soot in the streets that is kept in constant motion by trolley cars, automobiles, etc. This fine dust—frequently laden with disease germs—adheres to the hair and dulls its natural luster.

A delightful way to cleanse and beautify the hair is to moisten a cloth with Newbro's Herpicide and draw it carefully through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. It may be done daily, or less often, as desired.

The result of this cleansing process will prove a surprise, not only in the amount of dirt removed, but in the added beauty of the hair and the sense of cleanliness and comfort that follows. Shampooing will also remove this dust, but too frequent washing of the hair is harmful.

Newbro's Herpicide is the Original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ." It eradicates dandruff and stops falling hair. It is the only real scalp prophylactic in existence. A delightful and refreshing hair dressing. Stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act, June 30, 1906. Serial No. 915.

Two Sizes, 50c and $1.00 at DRUG STORES.—Send 10c in stamps to THE HERPICIDE CO., Dept. L, Detroit, Mich., for sample.

APPLICATIONS AT PROMINENT BARBER SHOPS

PREPARATION FOR CONGRESS AND EXPOSITION IS NOW DRAWING TO A CLOSE

Small Army of Exhibitors at the Exposition Grounds Working Night and Day to Install Displays Before the Opening Day, With Prospect That Every Exhibit Will Be in Place on Time; Yesterday's Big Crowd of Arrivals Will be Over-Shadowed by Rush of Visitors Today.

INDICATIONS NOW POINT TO THE LARGEST ATTENDANCE OF DELEGATES CONGRESS HAS KNOWN

It was in September of the year 1542, a trifling matter of three hundred and sixty-six years ago, that Francisco Vazquez de Coronado, great captain of the Conquistadores, with his trusty lieutenants, Alvarado, Cardenas, Castaneda and the rest of that daring band, returning southward from their camp at the Indian pueblo of Cheyue, came to the banks of the Rio Grande and pitched their tents where now is Albuquerque.

It is quite safe to assume that were it possible for Coronado and his men to return just now to their ancient camping ground, the breasts of those brave Spaniards would swell with pride as they looked abroad over the land of their discovery. It would not be difficult and it would require no traveling for Coronado to acquaint himself with the new conditions in the transformed land; for at Albuquerque, almost upon the site of what tradition and a bit of authentic history tell us was the actual camping ground of the explorers are now assembled splendid collections of the products of the fields and orchards, mines and factories of all semi-arid America. So that the man who cares to do so may without going outside the exposition grounds in Old Albuquerque inform himself with satisfying thoroughness of the lands, the farms, the mines and manufactures of the irrigating systems; in a word, of all that constitutes the vast wealth producing resources of the great southwest. Coronado and his men made their venturesome trip in search of gold. In the exposition grounds stands an exact reproduction of a single coal mine in the southwest which has produced wealth beyond the wildest dreams of Coronado and which stands as the representative of a natural resource and an industry which in working away with cheerful determination to get everything ready, and the finishing touches attached before the show opens. It is interesting, and it is likewise a fine example for the youth of the land, a little walk through the buildings, although unfortunately the youth are not allowed to walk through, to see the dignified forms of Commercial club presidents and secretaries, wealthy cattle growers and alfalfa planters, college professors and fruit growers who haven't packed an apple box since their first crop came in, peering curiously while they elevate piles of alfalfa into position and swearing softly as the hammer misses the tack. It is not an exaggeration to say that a small army of men is at work at the exposition grounds. They are making very rapid progress, and it now seems quite sure that practically all exhibits will have been placed before the opening hour. The handsome little Colfax county building is almost ready for visitors. Its appearance has been vastly improved by the huge walls and pyramids of coal and coke which have been built up along the approaches. The forestry building is complete, the unique building which the university has prepared is about ready, and the big coal mine, with its patent visitor-registering gate, is all prepared for the opening day, huge iron gates closing the mine entrance until the show begins.

The Santa Fe's enlarged building, where Mr. R. E. Wilson has been industriously at work for days, is more nearly complete than any of the larger exhibit buildings, and all work there will have been finished by tomorrow morning. The building is a veritable wonderland of exhibits, in every form and of almost every class known to western America.

The San Miguel county building, decidedly unique with its thatched roof of wheat and oats from the mesa lands near Las Vegas, is rapidly nearing completion and will have been finished and all the exhibits installed before Monday morning.

The machinery sheds are literally crammed with machinery of almost every description from a coffee grinder to a threshing machine. There are pumps of every size and variety, engines, boilers, tanks, moving machines, wagons and buggies and automobiles. It is beyond question the largest collection of machinery for exhibition ever made in the southwest, and would go to justify to an exposition built upon a far larger scale.

In the three main buildings the hammers are working steadily and exhibits are taking form very swiftly. The Las Cruces and Mesilla valley and Agricultural college section of the main building went a long way toward completion yesterday, as did the Bernalillo county section, with its striking decorations of green tamarack and red chili. The Pecos valley exhibitors have been delayed by the non-arrival of cars, but they are working steadily, and with the cars which arrived last night and will arrive today, the exhibitors will be able to complete their section before Monday night. The mineral exhibits from Grant and Socorro and Colfax and other counties are being installed and New Mexico's portion of the exposition will be far more complete than had been expected. There are but a few of the exhibits which are being installed. They come from almost every section of the west; from Oregon and Washington, from Wyoming and Montana and Utah. The exposition has been carried out upon a far larger scale than the original plans called for, and it will be well worth the careful study and the attention it will receive.

The exposition grounds, hand stands, grand stands, walks and driveways are being put in condition rapidly and the Old Albuquerque road will have been completed by Monday night.

ALL ALBUQUERQUE IN RUSH OF PREPARATION

Albuquerque in the business district reached the height of the preparatory rush yesterday. Decorations are going up on every hand and the streets are filling with booths. The arrival of the curatorial company tonight will about fill all available street space. The architects have wisely kept the busier streets open and no closing of streets is to be allowed. There is not a vacant lot or a vacant space within five blocks of Second street, however, that has not been occupied or engaged, and space is going at a premium. Albuquerque has gone in for decoration on a somewhat elaborate scale, and when the lights are all turned on Tuesday night the effect will be decidedly pleasing.

SOLDIERS COMING BY THE TRAINLOAD TODAY

Along with the visitors who began to arrive in numbers yesterday, and who are rapidly filling the hotels,

there came a small army of carnival people, small show people, restaurant men and others attracted by the carnival features of the exposition. But today a small army will invade Albuquerque, which will make yesterday's crowd of arrivals look very small. A very considerable portion of the United States army's detachment, now stationed in the department of the Colorado will arrive during the day. The troops of the Twenty-first infantry

from Fort Logan will arrive in a special train this morning, with their band and equipment, while this evening's train from the west will bring the cavalry from Fort Wingate. General Holt, chief of staff, and General

Thomas, commanding the department of the Colorado, will arrive during the day.

The cadets from the Rowell Military school are expected Monday morning, as are the cadets from the Agricultural college, making a military force of formidable proportions.

The assembling of the irrigation congress delegates has begun, so many delegates arrived yesterday that the board of control last night issued a request to delegates to call at headquarters and register in order that all delegates may receive proper enrollment. It is becoming plain that not only will the exposition crowd be greater than had been expected, but that the attendance of delegates will be considerably larger than the estimate from correspondence in hand at headquarters a week ago. The success of the congress is assured and a number of the veteran attendants at other sessions who arrived yesterday expressed the belief that it would be far and away the most successful gathering of the congress in the sixteen years of its history.

COMPETITION BEGINS FOR THE SEVENTEENTH SESSION

Among the first arrivals have come the boosters who are paying the way for an invitation to the congress for its next session. The principal competitors thus far are Spokane, Pueblo and Salt Lake City. All of these cities will have large delegations here, and the competition may become keen. Today will see the arrival of a large number of delegates, congress headquarters having been flooded yesterday and last night with requests for rooms and announcing arrivals. The regularly organized reception committees will begin their work today.

BIG AUTOMOBILE PARADE WILL BE THURSDAY NIGHT

Arrangements have been made to hold the grand annual parade of the New Mexico Automobile association on the race track at the exposition grounds next Thursday night. This will be one of the most beautiful spectacles of the exposition and there will be close to fifty automobiles in line, all brilliantly illuminated.

The association has appointed Dr. James H. Wroth, R. E. Putney and W. A. Chapman delegates to the good roads meeting to be held here during the irrigation congress.

SOCORRO MEN ARRIVE WITH MINING DISPLAY

Conley T. Brown, A. K. Adams and R. V. Smith, of Socorro, arrived in the city yesterday in charge of the Socorro county mineral exhibit which is being placed in its space at the exposition grounds. This is one of the finest mining displays at the exposition and includes samples of minerals from the rich Mogollon, Kelly, Magdalena and Socorro districts and elsewhere.

MONTEZUMA BALL IS TO BE BRILLIANT FUNCTION

Committee Plans To Make Seventh Annual Social Event
in Honor of His Majesty Surpass all Previous Efforts.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the seventh annual Montezuma ball is nearing the completion of its plans, which this year are on a scale never before attempted. The first Montezuma ball was the first social function to take place in the Alvarado hotel. Since that time each year has seen a more pretentious entertainment, more elaborate decoration and a greater demand for tickets.

This year, owing to the great increase in the number of fall visitors, it has been found necessary to limit the sale of tickets so that the floor of the Alvarado ball room will not be overcrowded. The tickets will be placed on sale Monday, and when the limit has been reached sale will be stopped.

The decoration of the Alvarado this year is already so elaborate that very little additional effort will have to be made by the committee in that direction. The west veranda of the hotel, always used as a cafe during the ball, is already furnished and ready for use, and the usually troublesome matter of decoration and equipment is therefore done away with.

The presence of Governor Curry and his staff, the long list of army officers and the much longer list of distinguished civilians who have expressed a desire to attend the ball insure that it will be an event of unusual brilliancy.

The tickets are to be placed on sale tomorrow morning at Matson's, at the J. H. O'Reilly company drug store, at the Alvarado news stand and at the desk at the Commercial club.

COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the scientific and investigation turned fully upon his formula, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest trees, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on each bottle wrapper—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that), yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption. Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—more than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

RAMS For Sale

We have at our ranch at Shoemaker, N. Mex., 300 Rambouillets, 250 Delaines and 50 Hampshires. These rams are bred by the Butterfield Livestock Co., at Weiser, Idaho, one of the best breeders in the west, and are as good as can be found anywhere for wool and mutton qualities combined; the 50 head of Hampshires are strictly a mutton type, and any one breeding to sell all their lambs should see this stuff. Those coming to the ranch should catch No. 1 from the north and No. 10 from the south; stop at Shoemaker; phone out to the ranch and we can be there in 20 minutes to meet them, as we are only 2 miles from the station. Will have 100 head of these rams at Albuquerque during the fair, so sheep men can see what they are. Prices to suit the times. Rams have been at the ranch since 5th of August, and are acclimated, and in fine condition for service. For prices, etc., address

HUGHES NOTIFIED OF HIS RENOMINATION

New York Candidate Makes Whirlwind Tour of Brooklyn.

New York, Sept. 26.—Notified today of his renomination, Governor Charles E. Hughes made a whirlwind tour of Brooklyn tonight, addressing three big mass meetings, attending a dinner and a supper and holding an impromptu reception following the notification ceremonies in the Union League club and preparing to leave early tomorrow for Indianapolis where he is to continue his efforts for the national republican ticket in an address Monday. The official notification was made at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, but the governor did not deliver his speech of acceptance until the first of the evening's meeting, which was presided over by Timothy L. Woodruff, Governor Hughes was warmly greeted wherever he appeared in Brooklyn and at each of the three notification meetings the halls were crowded to their capacity.

All of the candidates on the state republican ticket were notified along with Governor Hughes and their presence in Brooklyn was made the occasion of the formal opening of the campaign in Greater New York.

At Prospect hall, Brooklyn, the governor at some length, reviewed the work accomplished under his administration, defending and explaining the different policies as they were reviewed. He placed special emphasis upon public service commission act, banking and insurance laws, forest reserves and water development acts and concluded with a spirited defense of the anti-race track legislation in which he declared that he was not opposed to legitimate sport. Secretary Garfield also spoke.

ALBUQUERQUE WILL BE PERMANENT HEADQUARTERS

Knights of Pythias Expect to Make This City Home of the Grand Lodge for New Mexico.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of New Mexico, will convene in Albuquerque on Thursday, October 1st, for a session of three days. The local committee of arrangements which has been busily preparing for the event for some days past, is now ready to receive its guests and the prospect is that the attendance will exceed that at any previous session since the New Mexico grand lodge was organized. The first day will be devoted to the business of the order, the election of officers and other matters of routine, while the second and third days will be devoted to social gatherings and the ritualistic work of the order.

The most important matter to come up will be the selection of a city for the permanent home of the grand lodge for the territory, the selection being with a view to a building for the use of the lodge. It is now considered certain that Albuquerque will be the choice of the order.

ADJOURNS COURT IN SANTA FE

Judge McFie Announces a Recess Until Close of the Exposition, and Will Attend.

Chairman Hopewell, of the board of control, received a letter last night from Judge John R. McFie, of the first judicial district court in Santa Fe, stating that he had adjourned the court now in session there until the close of the exposition. Judge McFie is a member of the territorial reception committee and will come to Albuquerque to remain until the close of the exposition. In his letter to Chairman Hopewell, Judge McFie says that he is ready to do everything in his power to make the "World's Fair," as he pleasantly entitles it, as successful as possible. Judge McFie's action is in line with that of practically all citizens of New Mexico, who are putting aside all but the most necessary and urgent business until the territory shall have demonstrated its ability to play hosts to the nation.

Judge and Mrs. Fink, of Helena, Arkansas, are in Albuquerque for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Schloss, of North Eleventh street.

CONVENTION HALL WILL BE AN ART GALLERY

Santa Fe's Magnificent Collection of Paintings of Western Scenes Now Being Hung.

Abuquerque's new convention hall will be something more than a convention hall during the session of the National Irrigation congress. It will be an art gallery as well, and it may be said in passing that the collection of paintings now being hung there is one of the most valuable and one of the finest from the standpoint of artistic merit in the United States.

Mr. W. H. Simpson, advertising manager of the Santa Fe railroad, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday to take charge of the hanging of the pictures which are the property of the railroad company, a collection which it has required years to make, and at a cost of close to $100,000. The paintings, which range in size from the huge canvases of Moran and Gordon down to tiny water colors and sketches signed with names equally well known to American art. The collection has been for some time in the Santa Fe's general offices in Chicago, and has been brought almost entire to Albuquerque. Mr. Simpson, whose artistic temperament and judgment are very clearly shown in the remarkably successful use he has made of the picturesque Indians and the magnificent scenery along the Santa Fe lines in the west, is giving his personal direction to the hanging of the pictures and is placing the paintings not only to take full advantage of the light, but to make the most pleasing effect for the great room. The paintings are just sufficient to turn the convention hall from an ordinary, well built and comfortable hall into a room of character and beauty. The bringing of this collection of paintings to Albuquerque is one of the most helpful things the management of the Santa Fe railroad has done in its work for the irrigation congress.

Mr. Simpson will remain here until the close of the exposition.

Delegates and Visitors Thronging Albuquerque in Preparation For Great Irrigation Convention

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS POURING INTO THE CITY

Representatives of Many Nations To Attend the Irrigation Congress Are Arriving on Every Train; Will Be Largest Gathering of Men of World-Wide Note Ever Held in the West.

Two days before the opening of the Sixteenth National Irrigation congress the city is already full of men of international repute from various quarters of the globe. Numerous large delegations arrived last night and more are coming in on every train. Major General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the United States army, accompanied by Brigadier General Thomas, commander of the department of the Colorado, with Governor Curry are expected to arrive today. M. Rene Tavernier, chief engineer of the department of public works, France, and party, have arrived; Tullio Larrinaga, resident commissioner of Porto Rico to the United States, will be here tomorrow; W. A. Beard, president of the Fifteenth National Irrigation congress at Sacramento, with Richard Kent, of Sacramento, who gave the Redwood park to the government, are in the city. Leoncio Mosquera, delegate from Porto Rico, C. J. Blanchard, chief statistician of the United States reclamation service; Major Aaron Gove, the distinguished expert on beet sugar manufacture; C. L. Mott, James J. Hill's right-hand man and immigration and industrial agent of the Northern Pacific system; Geo. E. Harzow, vice president of the Sixteenth congress, and dozens of other men almost equally well known, are in the city. On Wednesday the Santa Fe official will arrive here. President E. P. Ripley and Paul Morton and other directors of the Santa Fe corporation and many other distinguished visitors will be on the ground when the congress opens. Altogether there is assurance now that this congress will see the largest gathering of men of world-wide note that ever convened in the west.

Chairman Hopewell of the board of control received a telegram last night from Secretary Leach at Washington, saying that the president had instructed him to notify the board that Assistant Secretary Wm. C. Wheeler of the department of commerce and labor will attend the congress instead of Assistant Secretary Frank Pierce of the department of the interior. Mr. Wheeler is expected to arrive Wednesday.

The officials of the board and the members of the executive committee spent a busy day yesterday extending official greetings to the various prominent men who have arrived in the city. They were aided by various citizens of Albuquerque and the people generally are showing a spirit of hospitality to the visitors which augurs well for the success of the occasion.

NEARLY A MILLION ACRES NOW UNDER IRRIGATION

UNDER PROJECTS OF THE RECLAMATION SERVICE

C. J. Blanchard, Chief Statistician, Gives Interesting Summary of Work Accomplished After Several Months in the Field.

C. J. Blanchard, chief statistician of the United States reclamation service, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Yuma, Arizona, where he has been for several days inspecting the progress being made on the Yuma project. Mr. Blanchard will deliver an address before the irrigation congress on Thursday evening. It is his intention to illustrate his lecture with moving pictures and illustrated slides. An expert moving picture operator will arrive here within a day or two from Washington to handle the illustrated part of the address. Mr. Blanchard has been in the field for several months past and has inspected nearly every important government irrigation project now being constructed.

"I find the work on all projects progressing rapidly," said Mr. Blanchard last evening. "A number of them are nearing completion and we will be able to place homesteaders on the land within a very short time. There is a very widespread interest in the reclamation work among all classes of people, and especially among those farmers who are in fairly comfortable circumstances in the congested districts in the east and middle west and who desire to emigrate to a new country and commence life again under much more favorable conditions. Over two thousand inquiries a week are received at my office in Washington, asking for information regarding

One of the unique exhibits to be made by the Santa Fe railway company at the Santa Fe building during the irrigation congress, will be an interesting display of sugar beets, and the various operations which the beets go through before they are developed into sugar. A complete testing plant has been erected on the grounds and machinery for topping, thinning and otherwise treating the beets has also been placed in position. The exhibit and demonstrations will be of especial interest to the farmers of the Rio least five of them to the display and they will have the satisfaction of seeing their own product go through all the different operations which are actually performed at the factories in the Arkansas valley in Colorado. The exhibit is in charge of Prof. W. H. Olin, of the Fort Collins, Colo., agricultural college, and T. C. Together with Mr. Olin, Mr. Garlington will make a number of demonstrations and deliver lectures on the beet sugar proposition and will endeavor to furnish the visitors to the exhibit with information which will be invaluable to them in their efforts to successfully carry on the industry.

FRENCH ENGINEER AND PARTY ARE IN CITY

M. Tavernier Much Interested in Irrigation Construction in the United States.

M. Rene Tavernier, chief engineer of the department of public works of France, detailed by the ministry of agriculture to attend the Sixteenth National Irrigation congress and to inspect the construction of great irrigation projects in the United States arrived at the Alvarado yesterday accompanied by his son, M. Leon Tavernier, and his friend, M. Pierre Villard, the latter a very distinguished French man and president of the Societe de Politique Economique of Lyons.

While M. Tavernier speaks little English, his son is familiar with the language. The party are being assisted very materially by J. L. Labriere of this city, who speaks French fluently, and is extending the courtesies of the city to the visitors.

"I am much pleased with the great courtesy and affability which has been shown me by the people of this part of the country," said M. Tavernier yesterday to Rev. E. McQueen.

There were over 100 men at work on the Elephant Butte project on the Rio Grande near Eagle and that the work was being carried on with as much speed as possible. The majority of the working force is at present engaged in prospecting for permanent foundations for the main dam. "When the Elephant Butte is completed," said Mr. Blanchard, "New Mexico will have the largest irrigation project in the United States. There will be over 130,000 acres of land reclaimed and put under ditch. When completed the dam will have cost over $500,000, will be 255 feet high at its highest point and will back water over forty miles. The dam will contain enough water to irrigate 2,000,000 acres a foot deep. Only seven-tenths of a foot, however, is necessary to irrigate an acre. In addition to this, the Elephant Butte dam will furnish water sufficient to irrigate 50,000 acres of land on Mexican soil. The Mexican government is entitled to this amount of water under the treaty between Mexico and the United States. Mr. Blanchard says also that the Carlsbad project is proving very satisfactory and that the country under it is settling up very fast."

Gray, committeeman on foreign representation, who is receiving the foreign visitors to the congress and whose linguistic accomplishments have been in great demand of late. "I am altogether pleasantly surprised moreover at finding this pretty hotel of your wonderful arroyo system."

The distinguished engineer will especially look after the success of vine-growing by irrigation in the southwest, a subject in which France is especially interested. Yesterday the party drove out some miles from the city to inspect a vineyard owned by a local Frenchman and today they will go to Santa Fe. After the irrigation congress the gentlemen will go to inspect the work on the Carlsbad project on the Pecos river, the site of the Elephant Butte dam on the Rio Grande and the Roosevelt dam in the Salt river valley of Arizona. M. Tavernier will have an important paper before the congress.

DR. NACAMULI REPRESENTS ABSENT AMBASSADOR

Rev. Mr. Gray has received a telegraphic message from Italian Ambassador Baron Mayor des Planches from Manchester, Mass., deeply regretting that he cannot attend the irrigation congress, owing to the fact that his government has expressed a wish that he attend the international tuberculosis congress at Washington. The ambassador deputes Dr. V. Nacamuli, Italian consular representative in this city, to act as his special representative at the congress. Rev. Mr. Gray replied by wire accepting the services of Dr. Nacamuli.

CAPE COLONY DELEGATE NOW EN ROUTE HERE

Rev. Mr. Gray received a wire from Carlsbad yesterday saying that Mr. O. A. Oosthuisen and wife from Cape Colony, South Africa, who are to attend the congress. Mr. Oosthuisen as a delegate has arrived there and are being entertained at the Gray home. They were to be given a reception last night and will at once come to Albuquerque.

SAYS PORTO RICO IS READY FOR STATEHOOD

MAJOR GOVE TELLS OF GREAT RECLAMATION PROJECTS THERE.

Irrigation Congress Delegate from Rich Island Tells of Great Reclamation Projects There.

"With more and better schools than under 400 years of Spanish rule, with splendid sanitary conditions, unsurpassed highways, vast resources and a thrifty and industrious, intelligent population, Porto Rico, we believe is fully able to take up the responsibilities of statehood in the union," said Leoncio Mosquera, C. E., of Mayaguez, Porto Rico, to the Morning Journal yesterday. Mr. Mosquera is a delegate from Porto Rico to the irrigation congress. He will be joined here Monday by Senor T. Larrinaga, C. E., resident commissioner from the island to the United States of America. It is expected that Auditor General Cabot of Porto Rico, may also arrive before the congress is over.

Mr. Mosquera, while a young man, is thoroughly conversant with conditions throughout the tight little island to the south, and an enthusiast on the subject of developing the resources of Porto Rico.

"Irrigation is a live topic in Porto Rico at present," said the delegate. "Governor Post has been holding meetings, conferring with the farmers and otherwise arousing interest in the matter. At present irrigation is practiced to a small extent in the island, the waters of a few small streams being diverted for the benefit of small acreage of crops, but the science of irrigation properly speaking is not practiced in Porto Rico at present."

"With five million dollars from the government, Porto Rico now looks forward in particular to reclaiming by scientific irrigation a large part of the southern half of the island. Porto Rico as physical features are peculiar. A chain of mountains runs clear across the island from west to east. The prevailing winds are from north to south. On the north side of the mountains the rainfall is some fifty inches annually—very slight, comparatively.

"It is proposed that the government build reservoirs to converse the waters of mountain streams in the east end of the range, a great tunnel through the mountains being part of the scheme. By this means sugar cane, which requires a large amount of water, can be grown all over this section of the island, which is at present comparatively valueless for agricultural purposes. The land itself is superior to the cultivated land of the north half of the island and with plenty of water will produce wonderfully. This project is known as the Patillas project. It is a wonderful scheme, fully feasible in every part and will work marvels for this section of Porto Rico."

"The improvement of the people of Porto Rico under American rule has been phenomenal. Practically all of them know how to read and write; the people have caught the contagion of the American spirit of push and enterprise; their cities are sanitary and well kept; and the system of public roads one of which Porto Rico is proud, especially the great military road running from San Juan to Ponce, eighty kilometers in length and scenically most beautiful. Improvements in the harbor of San Juan are making it one of the best harbors in the world; railroads are building and progress and enlightenment are evident everywhere."

"Porto Rico contends with Egypt the distinction of being the most densely populated country in the world as there is now a population of one million and twenty-five thousand people in the island being some 3,600 square miles in extent."

Mayaguez, on the west coast of the island is in the coffee raising section of Porto Rico.

Messrs. Larrinaga and Mosquera will have something to say to the irrigation congress about conditions and prospects in the island.

Commissioner Larrinaga is now on his way to Albuquerque, after a trip to Berlin, where he was one of eight delegates appointed by President Roosevelt to the Interparliamentary congress. Delegate Mosquera arrived here direct from New York, where he was to have met Mr. Larrinaga, but missed him, owing to the fact that the commissioner was delayed in sailing.

The Porto Rico exhibit at the exposition is to consist chiefly of tobacco, coffee and cane sugar.

Mr. Mosquera is supervisor of the Patillas irrigation project and one of the most capable engineers in the island.

SUGAR PYRAMID AT EXPOSITION GROUND

130,000 POUNDS OF THE CRYSTALIZED BEET

Novel Exhibit Being Installed; Major Gove Talks of the Great Beet Sugar Industry.

One hundred and thirty thousand pounds of beet sugar, manufactured from sugar beets grown by irrigation, will be one of the most interesting displays at the exposition during the next two weeks. This sugar, in sacks, is now being placed in position under the direction of Major Aaron Gove, of Denver, who has few superiors as an authority on the beet sugar industry anywhere.

Major Gove will give an address before the irrigation congress next week on this very important subject.

The sacks going to make up this sugar mountain, will be labeled, each with the name of the state now producing sugar beets by irrigation and manufacturing beet sugar. New Mexico will be among the number, which will also include Colorado, California, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming, Montana, and many others.

Major Gove has made an extensive study of the raising of sugar beets, and the manufacture of sugar, all over the world, and not long ago returned from a stay of five years among the sugar plantations of the Philippine Islands. More recently he has been in the East in the interest of the industry. He is enthusiastic over the sugar producing possibilities of the West and Southwest, in which he sees the solving of a great economic problem.

Major Gove is fairly bristling with facts and figures relating to the consumption of sugar in the United States and the world, and the profits awaiting the farmers of the South-west when the sugar beet raising becomes, as it is bound to become, one of the greatest industries of this part of the country.

"The United States is now paying a million dollars for every day in the year for sugar; three hundred and fifty millions a year," said Major Gove last night. "Last year one hundred millions were spent by this country for imported sugar. There is absolutely no reason why Americans should not pay this enormous sum to themselves, for labor at a dollar and a half a day, instead of for labor hired in the tropics at ten to fifteen cents a day. Last year we ate seventy-nine pounds of sugar per capita. The consumption is rapidly increasing and the demand may be expected to become much greater in the next few years. Last year the people of Italy ate only seven pounds apiece; Germany sixty pounds per capita; and the United Kingdom, which alone beats our record, consumed ninety pounds per capita. Much of the sugar used in Great Britain however went into jams, preserved fruits and other goods for exportation.

There is no reason why the United States should not manufacture every pound of sugar used in this country. The manufacture is rapidly increasing throughout the West and North. And now here comes the important point. The department of agriculture has established, officially, the fact that New Mexico can produce beets equal in percentage of saccharine matter to any other state in the union. All that is needed is assurance of sufficient acreage to give them the material."

"The factories—and the average factory, by the way, costs about a million dollars—will come when the farmers raise the beets and when the capitalists are assured of the integrity of their investment, which is only threatened now by the uncertain action of congress as regards protection of the industry. If Pennsylvania, steel and New England manufactures are protected, it is hardly reasonable not to protect the farmer of the arid West, who, for the first time asks protection for his product. He pays a protective price on every tool he uses, from his shovel to his barbed wire."

This and other phases of the matter will be fully discussed by Major Gove in his paper before the congress, which will be one of the most interesting and most important addresses of the session, just as the raising of sugar beets promises to become one of the most important possibilities of the irrigated lands of the Southwest.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Sept. 26.—The narrowing fluctuations in today's stock market followed the usual precedent after the more excited the violent fluctuations of the early part of the week. A downward plunge in prices followed by a rebound of corresponding violence is almost invariably followed by a succession of decreasing swings leading to a subsidence into dullness as the prelude to new issues. No such new issues were presented in today's news. The lack of authoritative confirmation for the rumors of completed plans for supplying the Rock Island system with needed capital put the spectacular movement in the securities of that company under suspicion of a stock market device. Their advance hurt rather than helped the general market which showed weakness even before the sharp reaction in the Rock Island issues themselves. The Mercantile agencies reported an improving tendency in commercial affairs but in conservative fashion.

Growing attention is given to the radical reduction being effected by railroads in their operating expenses. Reports on 172,135 of mileage for July show a cut in operating expenses compared with last year of $20,690,375 against the decline in gross earnings of $27,263,116. The financial Chronicle points out the important fact that the comparison is now with the period last year when expenses were on an extraordinary scale owing to congestion of traffic and urgency of shipments so that economical measures were then impossible. It is common knowledge also that the railroads are keeping repair work and improvements down to the lowest point practicable. Closing stocks:

Chicago Board of Trade.
Chicago, Sept. 26.—The net result of a quiet session of the wheat market was a slight decline, 1/4 for December. Corn and oats gained 1/4 and provisions 1/4 @ 7 1/2.

The volume of wheat which changed hands today was small, and the range of prices narrowed, never getting far below or above last night. December wheat closed 1/4 @ 7 1/2 under yesterday at 10 1/2, corn was dull easy early but firm later. Support was good because of predictions of frost. Local receipts numbered 194 cars, 67 of contract grade.

Save for the selling of October had the provisions market was neither interesting nor active today. Closing prices 2 1/2 @ 7 1/2 over yesterday were indicative rather of lack of pressure than support. After a few early sales there was no pressure on the oats market and prices were maintained with little effort in the stagnant condition of trade.

Weekly Bank Statement.

Circulation, $54,116,500; decrease, $232,500.

Legal tenders, $80,328,800; increase, $664,300.

Specie, $321,194,500; decrease, $2,500,400.

Reserve, $401,528,300; decrease, $1,836,100.

Reserve required, $351,482,750; decrease, $1,657,125.

Surplus, $50,390,550; decrease, $118,975.

Ex-U. S. deposits, $452,373,600; decrease, $174,100.

The percentage of actual reserve of the clearing house banks at the close of business yesterday was 28.56.

The statement of banks and trust companies of Greater New York not members of the clearing house shows that these institutions have aggregate deposits of $1,044,808,200; total cash on hand $98,925,500 and loans amounting to $949,792,800.

Salesmen Wanted

We want a number of experienced salesmen. We would particularly like to secure men who are acquainted in their own locality, and who can get results. If you are anxious to become associated with a large corporation, where there is opportunity for advancement for hustlers, write us. You can give all or a part of your time to this proposition, although a few days experience will convince you that it is the best money-making proposition you ever tackled. If you have had experience as insurance solicitors, real estate salesmen, or in fact in any line where sales ability counts, write us immediately.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

The charges made against Senator Foraker by Mr. Hearst, and so hastily and indelicately indorsed by President Roosevelt, are promptly met by a full and specific reply by the Ohio senator which can not fail to convince any unprejudiced man that Mr. Foraker has been wronged, and the injury thus done him can not fail to react upon the republican party. Taken all together, the episode somehow calls to mind a little Bible story which we reproduce below. You can make your own application of it.

"Then the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves together to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon, their god, and to rejoice; for they said our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hands."

"And it came to pass that when their hearts were merry, they said, call for Samson that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of his prison house and he made them sport, and they set him between the pillars."

"And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, 'Suffer me that I may feel the pillars on which the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.'"

"And the house was full of men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women that beheld while Samson made sport."

"And Samson called upon the Lord and said, 'O Lord God, remember me. I pray thee, and strengthen me. I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.'"

"And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand and of the other with his left."

"And Samson said, 'Let me die with the Philistines,' and he bowed himself with all his might, and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which Samson slew at his death were more than he slew in his life."

TIME WORKS WONDERS.

The whittling of time brings about many strange conditions. For instance, the Boston Herald inquires:

"How can Richard Olney, of all men, submit to the leadership of a candidate who called Grover Cleveland 'a hummer-streer'?"

And in commenting upon this inquiry, the Washington Star (republican) says:

"This fixes the standard above the politics of the day. Mr. Olney, having entered politics, must do as the politicians do. Note the record of the campaign."

"Mr. Bryan characterized Roger Sullivan of Illinois as a highwayman, but the highwayman is now Mr. Bryan's hope and stay in the Sucker state. The characterization was not made in a Pickwickian sense. Mr. Bryan meant what he said, and Mr. Sullivan so accepted it. But four years have rolled around since then, and each man now needs the other in his business. Hence the forgiving, if not the forgetting. Mr. Sullivan, this year, is not trying to rob Mr. Bryan."

"Few men have exchanged bitter personalities than Mr. Bryan and Henry Watterson. And yet they are as brothers today. Mr. Watterson, by invitation, has been a guest at Fairview, and is now exerting himself to the utmost in behalf of Mr. Bryan's candidacy. If there is such a thing as a Bryan cabinet introduced to the country next March, Mr. Watterson may be a member of it."

"Four years ago Mr. Bryan denounced the candidacy of Judge Parker for the St. Louis nomination as unworthy of success. After it was made he supported it. After the election the friends of Judge Parker expressed doubt as to the sincerity of Mr. Bryan in the campaign. Today Mr. Bryan and Judge Parker are sworn friends, and the former was a guest of the latter at Esopus Sunday last.

"Mr. Bryan held Mr. Gorman at arm's length; doubted his democracy, and denied him a place among his advisers in 1896. Today the men who served as Mr. Gorman's lieutenants in Maryland in the day of his supremacy there are Mr. Bryan's sole reliance in the state. They have accepted him, and he has been glad to accept them."

"But Mr. Olney has shown a sweet spirit of gentleness and forgiveness in a matter personal to himself. The newspaper he selected for making his announcement to the country in behalf of Mr. Bryan tried strenuously in 1893-94 to induce Mr. Cleveland to make a change in the department of Justice. It held that Mr. Olney as attorney general would not prosecute the trusts, and should be replaced by a man who would. Its efforts came to nothing. Mr. Cleveland standing by his friend, but they never ceased for a day. The racket was the very liveliest of that time. Mr. Olney can not have forgotten it, and so must have forgiven it."

"There are Cleveland men who have not forgiven, and never will forgive, Mr. Bryan for his denunciation of their old leader, but they are not seeking office. Either they have never held office, and have no disposition that way, or else have had enough of office."

All of that may be, and really is, the truth of history, but will any one tell us where or how a republican journal like the Star expects to make any votes for the republican candidate by calling attention to it? To our way of thinking all the facts set forth above look like good ammunition for the enemy, but not for us, because they tend to show that all the men who were responsible for Bryan's defeat in former campaigns are now rallying around his standard—and if we wanted to help his cause, what better argument could we use than that? People are like sheep to the extent that they follow the bell wethers."

A STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN.

The Washington Post expresses the case correctly with regard to the great body of the American people, irrespective of party, when it says the people are wide awake now, watching the national campaign with an eye that can not be deceived. They are demanding more than they ever demanded before. They want publicity of campaign receipts and expenditures—publicity before the election—so that there will be no mortgage on the next administration in the shape of promises to campaign contributors. They want open speech on the issues, frank, flat-footed expressions that can not be misunderstood. They want all rotten, weak and dead timber eliminated from the campaign. They want vigor and courage and progress.

The presidency is a man's fight. Let it be conducted by real men, in behalf of real men. Let the crissles and lame ducks go to the rear and get out of sight! The candidate or the party that hesitates or equivocates in the sight of the people this year is lost.

JULIA WARD HOWE.

A Newport special to the New York World gives this personal item relating to one of the most famous women of the world:

"The venerable author of the 'Battle Hymn of the Republic,' Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, in the eighty-eighth year of her age, returned to her country seat at Portsmouth, near the farm of the Vanderbilt 'boys' tonight, after making what she said was a farewell visit to her only son, Professor Henry M. Howe, at Bedford, N. Y."

"Mrs. Howe was met at the pier by her daughters, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Maud Howe Elliott."

"Mrs. Howe appeared, despite her years, in a good physical condition. She said: 'I have made my last visit.' She was begged by her daughters not to take the big journey to New York state, but she insisted."

THE WOMAN IN POLITICS.

We have heard and read a great deal of theoretical nonsense about "the woman in politics," but over in Missouri they have the real thing. Missouri democratic party workers take orders, suggestions and advice from a girl. She is Miss Anna J. Goldstein, of Macon, Mo., secretary to Harry M. Rabey, chairman of the state committee.

She is the active head of the headquarters and during Rabey's absence, which is most of the time, she is acting chairman and political "boss." For several weeks she has been treasurer. The politicians and party workers rather like the novelty and seek her advice.

A QUEER FREAK.

A news item from Fort Jarvis, N. Y., says the drouth up that way has caused a queer freak in nature. Highway commissioners in the country districts repairing the roads with fine crushed stone are bothered because the top dressing is blown away by winds, through lack of rain to hold it down.

Migratory birds going south fly backward to keep the dust out of their eyes.

And we would suggest that if there is to be any more dust kicked up in national politics than is being raised just now, it would be well for politicians to follow the example of the birds.

The great rattling among the dry bones of politics that has taken place within the last few days has caused such a general unsettlement of things that it is difficult for the politicians of either party to tell where they are "at." The best that either side can hope for, under the circumstances, is that "the other fellows are worse hurt than we are."

The Topics State Journal (republican) says: "There's plenty of evidence floating around now that the republican leaders have already picked out 'the goat' on whose hide will be tacked the burdens for defeat in the event that the republican candidates are unsuccessful at the polls. His name is Hitchcock and he is chairman of the republican national committee."

While the Hearst charges against Haskell may not have been fully sustained by positive proofs, the grounds of suspicion were sufficiently strong to warrant the action that has been taken by the democratic committee in causing Governor Haskell to step down and out. And it is difficult to believe that Mr. Bryan was not aware of this from the first.

The great trouble with President Roosevelt is that he does things first, and thinks about them afterwards, if at all. It would be worth many thousands of votes to the republican party at this time if he had reversed the order of his methods, even a few weeks ago.

San Marcial News Notes.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]
San Marcial, N. M., Sept. 26.—A number of San Marcial men, who have been interested in a mine about four miles from the Elephant Butte dam, near Engle, report that a new find has been made in a ravine 200 feet below the place they are now digging. Steel galea in good quantity was found and it is thought a high grade silver ore will be found also since it is usually found with the steel galea. The vein is about a two and a half foot one. A contract for a seventy-foot shaft had already been let and they immediately extended the contract for thirty feet more. The men brought numerous specimens home with them. Among those interested in the mine are Clarence Price, Mike O'Sullivan, John Finney, Tom Smith and W. J. Hanna.

C. L. Harley returned Friday morning from a several months' stay at Santa Rosa.

Mrs. Hugh Williams, of Deming, is a San Marcial visitor this week.

Thomas Forest and Earl Warren came up from Engle Friday, the former to receive treatment from Dr. McCrory.

W. J. Joyce, G. A. Kaseman and O. N. Marmon, all from Albuquerque, were in town during the week.

A dance was given by Mr. Pixley and Miss Platt Friday night, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Walter Todd, of Los Angeles, is visiting at the home of Thad Mosman.

Charles Lewis was a visitor from Socorro Thursday.

"LITTLE JOHNNY JONES" COMING

Splendid Musical Success at Elks' Theater During Irrigation Congress, Oct. 3.

This city will have the opportunity of witnessing last season's most emphatic musical success, "Little Johnny Jones," this notable attraction being booked for the Elks' theater October 3rd. No musical play presented last season enjoyed such phenomenal prosperity, it having played eight different engagements in New York City during the season, covering a period of six months. It was also seen for two weeks in Boston, four months in Chicago, four weeks in Philadelphia, and all the other principal cities. "Little Johnny Jones" was written by George M. Cohen, who also composed the music and has personally staged the present production. Probably no writer of musical comedy has had so many distinct successes as Mr. Cohen. "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," "George Washington, Jr.," "Running For Office" and "The Governor's Son," which attained great popularity, being the work of his pen. "Little Johnny Jones" is conceded the best work that Mr. Cohen has yet offered the public. It has a pretty and interesting story concerning the adventures of an American jockey who goes to England to win fame and fortune on the English turf. There is a plot which holds the attention of the audience from first to last, which is some lively and very tuneful music during the three acts, and each one of the songs attained a very wide popularity last season. The production that will be seen here is very large and complete, embracing three mammoth stage settings showing exterior of the Hotel Cecil in London, the steamship pier at Southampton, and a street scene in the Chinese quarter of San Francisco. The company that will present "Little Johnny Jones" in this city contains seventy-five people and embraces in its cast of principals many stage favorites. The chorus is promised as very large and proficient, numbering over forty people. As "Little Johnny Jones" will doubtless prove one of the big events of our local theatrical season a crowded house is assured in advance.

Committee on the SANITARIUM
REPORTS

Much Interest in Matter Displayed at Meeting of Synod at Silver City; Sessions Will Continue Three Days.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal]
Silver City, N. M., Sept. 25.—The report of the committee on the national tuberculosis sanitarium to be erected by the Presbyterian church on the mesa east of Albuquerque was one of the interesting features of today's session of the meeting of the synod of New Mexico of the Presbyterian church. The synod, which includes five presbyteries in New Mexico and Arizona, convened Thursday evening with a large attendance of ministers and several elders. Rev. Jonathan W. Purcell, Ph. D., pastor of the church at Santa Fe, preached a forcible sermon in the unavoidable absence of Rev. Manuel Madrid, the last presiding officer. The ballot for moderator for the ensuing year resulted in the choice of Rev. Frank C. Reid, of the presbytery of Phoenix. Rev. W. A. McCammon was elected clerk.

The regular business and public services of the synod will continue three days.

The report of the sanitarium committee, of which Rev. Ralph Smith is financial agent, showed that the project is progressing satisfactorily, and was listened to with considerable interest. The temperance report was read today, reciting the victories of this cause during the past year, and the promising outlook. The report of Rev. John R. Gass, D. D., of Albuquerque, synodical missionary, is a special order of business for Saturday afternoon.

Best Treatment for a Burn.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It always relieves the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE.

Road Tax Now Due.

The law requires every able bodied man, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, to annually pay a road tax of three dollars or, in lieu of such sum, to labor on the public road three days. Sec. 1, Chapter 53, Acts of the 17th Legislature Assembly.

The supervisor of Road District No. 3, comprising Precincts Nos. 13 and 25, which precincts include the City of Albuquerque, accepts the office without compensation and is devoting time and energy to the discharge of the duties of the office to the end that proper use be made of the road fund and that we have good roads. The character of roads to be built and the line of work are determined by the Good Roads Association.

Mr. S. M. Porterfield is authorized to receive payment of the road tax and for the convenience of the public will make calls when he can do so or payment can be made at Porterfield and Co., 216 West Gold avenue. The law will be strictly enforced.

club, recently organized by lovers of skating, has made arrangements to secure the rink two nights out of the month. The first party will be held Monday evening. The general public will be admitted to the moving picture program in the early part of the evening, but the privilege of skating will be reserved for the members of the club and their friends. The club numbers about fifty charter members.

William M. Nichols, of Belen, and Miss Lyle Hanlon, of Mountainair, were married last night at 9 o'clock at the residence of Charles Watlington, 317 North Fourth street, Dr. Charles
E. Lukens performing the ceremony.

The wedded pair, who will reside in San Marcel, left last night for an extended southern honeymoon trip. Mr.
Nichols is a conductor on the Santa Fe, and Miss Hanlon comes of a prominent family at Mountainair. Both are well known and popular.

The ladies of the Altar society of the Immaculate Conception church are preparing to serve a supper in St.
Mary's school hall next Wednesday and Thursday from 5 to 7 p. m. The ladies having the affair in charge are noted for their culinary abilities and will endeavor to sustain their past reputations in this line. A tempting menu will be served each night. The proceeds from the affair will be turned over to the Immaculate Conception church fund.

W. A. Lamb, of Denver, representative of the Hendrie & Bolthoff Manufacturing company, and W. A. Jackson, erecting engineer of the company, are in the city in charge of the installation of an exhibit at the exposition grounds. The exhibit will be a demonstration of pumping for irrigation by gasoline and electricity, this company being one of the largest manufacturers of such machinery in the west. The company has also offered a fine engine as a trophy at the exposition.

Edouard Dorn, the famous French master of Brussels, characterizes the work of Bruno Diekmann on the violin as the perfection of interpretation; his singings parts equal to the human voice; the more masterful passages wonderful in tone and his chord on the G string like the beautiful notes of an organ. Mr. Dieckmann spent two years in study under this famous artist. So fond was the master of his pupil that he permitted
Mr. Diekmann to copy the original manuscripts of Ysaye's scales and principal exercises. While at Ostend on his summer vacation Dorn continued to teach Mr. Diekmann. The latter will appear with other local artilists next Thursday, Oct. 1, at the opera house under the management of the Woman's club. Tickets $1 at Mat-son's.

The new bill of pictures at the rink tonight promises to be a very attractive one. The program consists of a feature film, "Lady Audley's Secret," a series of pictures taken from the celebrated novel of that title; "The Messenger's Mistake," a very attractive picture, and "Peck's Bad Boy." The latter film is a genuine laugh producer. These three new pictures will be shown for the first time this evening.
On tomorrow (Monday) evening, the rink will give the usual moving picture program, but skates will be sold only to members of the Skate club, which has chartered all the skates for that night.
