The Free Sugar and Other House Bills in the Senate—Republicans Getting Rattled.

Bailey, of Texas, Has a Scheme—After Those A. T. & S. F. Rebates—Free Admission of Silver-Lead Ores.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Representative Bailey, of Texas, desires to rid congressmen of all complicity in office seeking and has introduced the following bill:
"That from and after the passage of this act no senator or representative in congress shall directly or indirectly solicit or recommend the appointment of any person to any office under the United States government.
"Provided, That this act shall not be construed to apply to offices of the house or senate."

VIOLATION OF THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACT.—The interstate commerce commission has had under consideration for some time the charges of remission of millions of dollars in rebates to the shippers over the interstate commerce laws. The charges are the subject of a thorough investigation by J. T. Marchand, clerk of the commission, who was detailed by the commission to make the examination.

MEETING OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.
The senate finance committee met at 10 a. m. to further consider the free sugar and other separate tariff bills which were referred to it yesterday. The Republican members of the committee said that they would not take the responsibility of reporting these bills and if the Democrats desired to have them reported they must do it with their majority vote.

The committee immediately adjourned and a meeting of the Democratic leaders was held to consider the filling of the vacancy in the finance committee.

SELECTION OF SENATOR WHITE, OF CALI-FORNIA.—The Democratic steering committee met with Senator Cockrell in the committee room immediately after the adjournment of the senate committee. They were not long in deciding on Senator White, of California, to fill the vacancy in the finance committee and Senator Harris was instructed to present his name to the senate. While there was some opposition in the steering committee to the election of White on the part of members who supported the supplemental tariff bills, a large majority was favorable to his selection.

CAUSES LIVELY DEBATE.
The attempt in the senate to fill the vacancy in the finance committee by the appointment of Senator White to the vacancy left by Senator Chandler. The Republicans insist that the motion must go over under the rules. Quite a spirited discussion arose over the question.

CHANGE OF PROGRAM.
Senator Harris' motion for the appointment of Senator White to the vacancy in the finance committee has been withdrawn. Senator Harris later put his motion in the form of a resolution and it goes over till to-morrow.

NO MORE TARIFF LEGISLATION.
Senator Murphy, of New York, offered a resolution in the senate to the effect that there be no further legislation on the tariff this session in view of Secretary Carr's letter. He asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration but it went over on the objection of Senator Cockrell.

THE SENATE.
The conference report on the deficiency bill has been submitted to the senate and agreed to. At 1:40 p. m. the senate adjourned till to-morrow.

FREE SILVER AND LEAD.
The ways and means committee voted to-day to present a fifth supplemental tariff bill making silver and lead ore free of duty. The Wilson bill made these ores free, but the senate put a duty of 3¢ of a cent a pound on them. At a meeting today the Democrats voted for a free silver and lead bill and the Republicans voted against it.

The motion was carried and Representative Tarsney, of Missouri, will make the report Monday. During the meeting Representative Payne, of Republican of New York, facetiously asked the chairman if it would be in order to move that the president be requested to return the original tariff bill for repairs. The chairman declared the motion out of order.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS IN CAUCUS.
The Republican senators decided to hold a caucus after the senate adjourned to-day and consider the question of party action on the appointment of a member on the finance committee and the policy to be pursued generally in reference to the free sugar bill and the other supplemental bills. It appears that the sentiment in the party is divided and especially on the question of opposing Senator White's appointment to the finance committee.

A TIMELY ACT.
The house committee on judiciary today decided to favorably report Senator Hill's bill for the exclusion of alien anarchists, which passed the senate.

Wellman Arrives.

Tromsø, Norway, Aug. 17.—Mr. Walter Wellman and party have arrived here from the Arctic regions, where their steamer, the Ragnvald, was recently crushed in the ice, compelling them to abandon their attempt to reach the North pole.

"Bitty" Stapleton Committed.

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—Billy Stapleton has been adjudged insane and consigned to the asylum for the insane at Agnew. Stapleton was at one time a well known sporting character on this coast, whose exploits were heralded from Portland to Los Angeles and who had a reputation as a "bloated" gambler in Virginia City, Salt Lake and Denver and in many western cities. His most notable adventure was the winning of $15,000 at faro in one week. After this clean up Stapleton bought an interest in a faro game, but got to playing against other games and his winnings went fast.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER.

Parport of the President's Latest to Representative Wilson.

New York, Aug. 17.—A World dispatch from Washington says: Chairman Wilson's letter from President Cleveland, written immediately after the announcement of the decision of the house to pass the senate bill, is a personal and apologetic one, but contains a highly significant reference to the present attitude of the Democratic party on the issue of tariff reform.

Mr. Cleveland said that as soon as he heard the news of the decision to pass the senate bill, he immediately thought of Mr. Wilson and at once sat down to write him a brief note expressive of his feelings, realizing fully the great effort which was brought by Mr. Wilson to bring about a different result, he knows his disappointment must be keen and lasting.
He urges him, though, not to despair, and says that he, too, has felt great disappointment at the outcome.

At one time the president says he had begun to doubt whether the Democratic party was, after all, the real party of tariff reform, but he had not permitted himself to entertain the thought, realizing that the party was composed of men of high character and high ability, and that the party must continue its crusade and its members must remain loyal to the cardinal principle of their organization.

At least half the letter is given up to admonishing Mr. Wilson that he must exercise great care in husbanding his strength and make complete restoration of health. The president urges him not to be cast down on account of defeat, but to devote his thoughts to regaining his full forces in order that he may continue the fight for tariff reform, in which the president assures him he will always be looked upon as a gallant leader.

A Neat Job.

Lyons, Aug. 17.—Santo, the assassin of President Carnot, was executed at 4:55 o'clock yesterday morning. Santo was guillotined in the public square. With a cry of "vive l'anarchie" on his lips, the head of the trembling assassin was separated from his body by the keen blade, and another anarchist had died for a mistaken cause. There were no unusual demonstrations attending the execution.

The Fighters.

New York, Aug. 17.—"I don't believe Corbett will agree to fight Fitzsimmons," said Pugilist Peter Jackson, when told of the movement to bring about a meeting between the men.

"Corbett wants to be an actor, and he won't be dragged into any more fights if he can help himself.
"I came all the way from San Francisco to arrange a fight with Corbett, and see how he has treated me. I have not been treated like a man. Corbett has been very unfair."

Jackson said as for himself, he was making no plans for the future. He has fully decided to go to Europe.

Too Much Fruit.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 17.—Though the fruit canneries are running at their highest speed, they are unable to absorb the immense supply of green fruit and enormous shipments are being made up to the east as well as to Europe. For the past three weeks 100 car loads a week have been sent out of Sacramento, while the San Jose districts have contributed 35 cars each week. The fruits going east are mostly peaches, pears, plums, apricots and nectarines, and their shipment will be continued until Nov. 30. Reports from various sections of the state say that the fruit crop exceeds all others, both as to quality and quantity.

Suspended Bank.

Ludington, Mich., Aug. 17.—The Commercial Savings bank, of this city, suspended business to-day. The officers will say nothing about its condition as yet.

Wife Murderer Hanged.

Polaski, Va., Aug. 17.—W. G. Taylor was hanged at Newburn at 11 o'clock today for the murder of his wife.

Plot Unearthed.

Paris, Aug. 17.—According to L. E.
Journal a plot to assassinate Premier Dupuy has been discovered. The premier is in the Verne les Bains, not far from the Spanish border. He is accompanied by three detectives, who are supposed to have discovered the plot through the presence of several militant anarchists in the neighborhood.

MINE RIOT.

Terminates in the Death of John Merritt, of Denver, and Three Mexicans.

Oaxaca, Mexico, Aug. 17.—The Anita mine in the Florencia district southwest of here was the scene of a riot between John Merritt, the American superintendent, and his four assistants and fifty Mexican miners. Merritt and three Mexicans were killed. The trouble grew up over the discharge of several miners by the superintendent. Merritt came to Mexico from Denver two years ago. His wife and children still reside in that city.

Death of Ex-Gov. Robinson.

Lawrence, Kas., Aug. 17.—Ex-Gov.
Elias Robinson died at his home in this city at 4 o'clock this morning. He has been ill for several weeks.

The President's Arrival.

Buzzard Bay, Aug. 17.—The light-house tender, John Rogers, with President Cleveland aboard, anchored off Gray Islands at 9:12 a. m. to-day. The president, with Dr. O'Reilly, went ashore immediately and reached Gray Islands at 9:32.

A Big Sale.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 17.—It was decided to-day that the sale of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad by the sheriff should take place Oct. 11, in this city. It will take $5,000,000 to redeem the property and it is practically assured that the Rock Island system will bid it in.

Loan to the Chinese Government.

London, Aug. 17.—It is stated in Japanese circles this afternoon that a dispatch has been received to the effect that the negotiations with Berlin for a loan to the Chinese government has turned out unsatisfactory and the negotiations have been transferred to London.

Satelli to Remain in This Country.

Rome, Aug. 17.—It is reported that the pope will shortly make Archbishop Satelli's delegation to the United States absolute and sovereign. Archbishop Satelli would not then be subject to the suggestion of the propaganda but to the pope alone.

Canadian Wool.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 17.—The several firms of wool dealers in this city have over a million pounds of wool stored away in the warehouses here, nearly all of which will be shipped to the United States when the new tariff bill becomes a law. The Canadian wool clip as well as the clip of last year is nearly all in the country warehouses.

Fusion of Populist and Greenbackers.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 17.—The fusion convention of the Populists and the following ticket: Secretary of state, Chas.
R. Martin, of Seneca county; judge of supreme court, E. D. Stark, of Cuyahoga county; commissioner of common schools, U.
J. Flannery, of Green county. Martin has been a Greenbacker since 1879 and all the other candidates favor the financial policy of that defunct party.

Probably Untrue.

Trinidad, Aug. 17.—A rumor has reached this city that Rev. A. P. Cobb, of Springfield, Ill., who left here Tuesday with a party for an outing in the mountains has been lost for two days. His friends here, however, do not credit the statement.

Texas Cotton Crop.

Fort Worth, Aug. 17.—Cotton picking in Texas has commenced in earnest and the compresses of the state open for business on September 1. Cotton exports estimates after a trip over the state the crop to be about 2,500,000 bales or one-half a million bales over last year's product. The season is about a week earlier than last year.

L. A. W. at Denver.

Denver, Aug. 17.—The weather this forenoon was perfect and there is every prospect of a fine day's racing. The L. A.
W., national tournament race for to-day is as follows: One half mile handicap; one mile open class A; two mile national championship; one mile lap class A; one mile western championship open to the members residing west of the Mississippi river; one-third mile open to class B; five mile handicap class A; one mile open handicap class B.

H. H. Maddox, of Asbury Park, attempted to beat the world's unopposed mile record of 2:11 5/8, made by A. Sanger, but failed. Maddox's time was 2:13 3/8.
Owing to some irregularity the 2:09 1/2

Indians are said to have been seen in the Animas valley, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Reliable men of the Haggin-Heard ranch saw them—seven mounted Indians with one led horse. These same Indians were seen, we think, near the appear to be on mischief bent.—Head-

S. K. Sydes is in receipt of a letter from Jim Johnson, informing him of the killing of William McElhany, alias "Portillo's Bill," at the Baca brothers' ranch, near Ende, while resisting arrest on the charge of cattle stealing. The killing occurred on the 5th inst. and the pursuing party was composed of John Legg, deputy sheriff of Chaves county, and R. Chandler and Cito Martin, of the Howley cattle company.—Optic.

Chamayo, in Colfax county, was treated to an old-time shoo-out last Saturday night. Four cowboys braced their nerves up to the standard pitch, with the proper stimulants, and turned loose with their six-shooters as they rode through the streets. Several bullets entered the house of Senor Chateau and narrowly missed some of his children. Two of the men were taken in on warrants issued by Justice Strivens, but the two who seemed to be the leaders, Frank Vance and Louis Chandler, escaped.

The Mormon colonies at Diaz, Juarez and Dublin, south of Deming, have had a wonderfully good season. The serial the acreage of land under cultivation has been doubled, and the colonists are greatly encouraged at the outlook.

Mr. J. Fawcett Smith, chief engineer of the Deming & North Mexican railway, returned Monday night from an extended trip into Mexico along the line of the proposed road and found on his return advice from Mr. John W. Young and information from London, which justifies him in saying the building of the road south from here is a certainty of the very near future, and that by the close of this summer or early in the fall the work of construction will be resumed and actively prosecuted.—Headlight.

J. M. Green arrived in the city this were turned over to Officer Hubbell. Mr.

Green is from San Miguel county, and states that on the night of the 8th of August two horses were stolen from his ranch. He trailed the horses to Chabon, this county, and yesterday found them in possession of Chaves and Quintana.—Al-

ANOTHER STRIKE.

And Now Free Gold is Found in a New
District in Rio Arriba County.

Correspondence New Mexican.
Vallejos, Rio Arriba county, Aug. 12.
—The writer of this was at Mr. Wilcox's camp, five miles below the plaza of Valle-jos, and saw the mineral containing virgin gold in good quantities. This is not "a boom" but the cold fact. Any one doubting the truth of this announcement can be undeceived by calling at the mine.
Mr. Wilcox shipped last week 1,000 pounds of ore and has not something over a ton more to be shipped as soon as he gets returns of the first shipment, which will no doubt be very favorable. The quantity of ore is not known but seems to increase as the mine is developed.
There is no desire on the part of any one in the new camp to get up an excitement, nor a disposition on the part of the writer to do so, for we have enough of misrepresentations in regard to many things that should be truthfully put before the public. But the gold is here to be seen with the naked eye by anyone and no doubt the papers will soon team with encouraging and truthful reports of this camp. So look out.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 17.

It becomes more and more apparent that this country should have a law regulating the publication of the financial statements of railroad corporations.

New Mexico's Democracy is going in to win this fall. Statehood and progress will be their motto. Read the convention call appearing elsewhere in this paper.

A LITTLE more than ninety days and congress will be in session again. Then New Mexico's statehood bill will become law—that is, provided New Mexicans behave themselves and do the right thing in the meantime.

Among other good signs of the times we note an advance in silver. As before remarked, the white metal is bound to follow the price of grain. If this fact can ever be got into the American farmer's head the fate of the monometallist and the Republican party will be sealed.

BROADSTREET has figured out the cost of the late sympathetic strike. The actual cost is put at $81,000,000, of which $55,000,000 or over two-thirds, comes out of the pockets of the workmen. The business men lost $26,000,000 and the railroads some $8,000,000.

The Indian appropriation bill for the year 1894 was $7,884,240 and for 1895 it is $9,338,880, a perceptible increase. It is explained, however, that the increase is caused by payments for lands; and that items for actual maintenance of the Indians are somewhat less than last year.

New Mexico stock men will rejoice with the Kansas over the coming of the rain to that state. Late as it is, it will help the corn crop and make good pasture, and such conditions in Kansas mean an increased market for the young beef cattle of this territory.

The free sugar, iron ore, coal and barbed wire bills passed so promptly by the Democratic house in the interest of the masses, have, by the aid of Republican votes in the senate, been put to sleep in the committee on finance. Now congress had better finish up the appropriation bills and quit.

If signs stand for anything the central west is about entering upon a veritable irrigation boom. In Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and Arizona enterprises of great magnitude are now under discussion, and as far as New Mexico is concerned there is, to our knowledge, some $20,000,000 of capital now only awaiting the settlement of the statehood proposition to pour in here for investment.

The Japanese do not like Russia as a near neighbor. But if the latter were to gain Port Lazarets and Great Britain were to gain Port Hamilton the balance of power might be preserved. These two nations are both seeking naval stations within the present limits of Korea. If they were to come to a mutual understanding these stations would probably be gained without the consent of China or Japan. There is more than one wolf just now after the Korean lamb. When Russia asserts that the autonomy of Korea must not be destroyed, and England echoes about the same idea, it is clear that both are viewing the conflict in the background from the point of self-interest. The wolf and the lamb are not far apart.

WHEELS OF SOBRIETY.
The whole surface of Great Britain is so intersected with good roads, and the towns paved with such smooth asphalt or wood, that the country has acquired the name of the Cyclist's Paradise. Any fine Sunday afternoon from 4,000 to 5,000 wheels may be seen parked at Haslemere, in Surrey. Tonyson's beautiful home, while the riders are enjoying their good shilling ride after the twenty miles' ride from London. There are taverns on the road and at Haslemere, where beer and spirits could be had at will, but these are patronized only by the residents; the riders invariably refresh themselves with non-intoxicants; in fact, throughout Great Britain, a million of men are practically abstainers because they are cyclists.

PRESS COMMENTS.

Republiate Them.

The true-blue Democrats of Hartford county, Maryland, at a meeting Saturday, paid their compliments to their senators in the following significant words: "We repudiate and condemn the obstructive and traitorous action of our senators from Maryland who grossly misrepresent their constituency at the behest of the sugar trust and other combines." Of German personally they said: "It is only consistent with the action of a senator who has published to the world his peregrinations through the fifth and mire of politics that he should longer consent to occupy the position he has sought to prostitute by his renegade course, conscious as he may be that he has betrayed the party." The best people of Maryland are aroused, and German and his set will find that their downfall will be sure.—Kansas City Star.

Power of the People.

That atrocity, the McKinley bill, is about to be wiped from the statute books by Democratic votes. The pledge of 1892 to the people is redeemed as far as the people have conferred the power. The tariff reformers could not control a senate to which a majority of real reformers had not been elected. The house has shown what honest reformers can do by passing bills for free sugar, free iron, free coal and free barbed wire. Having placed the blame for the incompleteness of the reform where it belongs, the house Democrats can adjourn in the "consciousness of duty done."

Now that tariff legislation is at an end for this congress, business men owe to the country an increased activity and confidence. The elements of prosperity are all with us. Set everywhere the example of faith and energy. Doubts about the laws are at rest. There is nothing else for business men to doubt except their own strength of will. Matters will not come right of themselves. Men must make them right. It is just about a year since the acute financial trouble began. It is just about time for the year of sharp revival to begin.—St. Louis Republic.

"Several years ago, my blood was in bad condition, my system all run down, and my general health very much impaired. My hands were covered with large sores, discharging all the time. I had no strength nor energy and my feelings were miserable in the extreme. At last, I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla and soon noticed a change for the better. My sores returned and with it, renewed strength. Encouraged by these results, I kept on taking the Sarsaparilla, till I had used six bottles, and my health was restored."—A. A. TOWNS, prop. AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

3,312,000 Acres.

Two-fifths of the entire area of the United States consists of arid land and upon 612,000,000 acres crops could be produced with water. At present only about one-half of one per cent of this land is under irrigation.

Only those who understand and appreciate these facts are aware of the importance of the subject of irrigation and of its connection with the development and prosperity of the entire country.

All phases of the problem will be discussed at the Third National Irrigation congress which convenes in Denver, September 3, and results of incalculable value to every citizen are expected.

In addition to the work performed, the visitor will be shown what has been accomplished by irrigation in different parts of Colorado and will be feasted on the luscious melons of Rocky Ford and the delicious peaches of Grand Junction; all results of irrigation.

SHOOTING STARS.

I don't believe this story of a woman having lived to the age of 99 years. I can't see why, when many live beyond that age.

Yes, but in this account there is no mention of her using tobacco right along. In the depths of misery. Though endowed with wealth "beyond the dreams of avarice," the wretched sufferer from chronic dyspepsia is plunged in the depths of misery from which he or she seldom emerges even for a day at a stretch. There is a way to down the imp. Invoke the aid of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and he departs. Keep using the medicine, and the relief you promptly experience finally becomes permanent and a thorough cure is effected. Heartburn, flatulence, indigestion and sinking at the pit of the stomach, nervousness, insomnia—these are symptoms first relieved and finally cured, with their cause, by this infallible reliable specific. Liver complaint and constipation, brother tremors of dyspepsia, are also sent to limbo by the Bitters. So are rheumatism, malaria and kidney complaint. Use this hopeful medicine systematically, not by fits and starts.

The Advanced Woman: The first thing we women will do when we get the chance will be to take that odious word "obey" from the marriage service. The Chronic Bachelor: You will do nothing of the kind. It will deprive the women of the pleasure of making the promise with a mental reservation.

Ayer's Agree Cure is an antidote for malaria and all malarial diseases, whether generated by swamp or sewer, neither quinine, arsenic, nor any other injurious drug enters into the composition of this remedy. Warranted to cure fever and ague.

As a Methodist I, of course, believe that the Methodists are right. And that we Episcopalians are wrong in everything? Oh, no! I have no objections to Episcopalians on side the fact that they keep open on Sunday.

Mr. Nataniel Mortenson, a well known citizen of Ishpeming, Mich., and editor Superior Posten, who, for a long time suffered from the most excruciating pains of rheumatism, was cured, eight years ago, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, having never felt a twinge of it since.

Your son is 21, and your daughter is older, is she not? Mother: Oh, no! I guess you've got it confused with the fact that she used to be. Are you satisfied with your son's progress in his music? Father: Perfectly; no one has moved out of the flat the last two weeks.

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 10 years of age, was terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her piano lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had that terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she has taken only three bottles of Nerveine she now weighs 110 pounds, her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and no money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miller's Nerveine has brought her. When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent us a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. H. Bullock, Brighton, N.Y.

THE GOLD HAT.

Mr. Peter Sloth, having sent his family out of town for the summer months, found that living alone in a huge and empty town house tinged his life with solitude and gloom.

All day he toiled and moped in the sweltering city, and then, after eating a cheerless dinner at the club, the evening diversion presented a daily problem. Staying at home and stewing in a gas lit room was out of the question, and yet all the outdoor summer amusements were, to a person of an orderly habit of life, at once ill regulated and hopelessly bohemian. Beer disgraced radically with Mr. Sloth, and music in all forms was positively distasteful to him. However, after a week or so of useless struggling, he relapsed into a morose state of Casino roof and Madison Square Garden.

One evening, at the latter resort, he was sitting in a sequestered corner, his eyes furtively fixed upon a lovely creature with vivid blond hair who sat in a box opposite and above him, when suddenly the man by whom she sat turned upon Mr. Sloth a look of such angry inquiry that, dropping his eyes with guilty rapidity, he met those of a young man hitherto unnoticed, who occupied the same table with himself.

The young man at once leaned forward and addressed Mr. Sloth in a long and incoherent sentence, the one intelligible word being "Wagner." Mr. Sloth was so taken aback by the whole proceeding that, forgetting his rule of never talking to strangers, and taking Wagner as a cue, he said, "Yes, Wagner undoubtedly knew how to make music, but would it fill a big hall," and then carefully regarded his companion.

He was a young man about 25 years old, dressed with an almost studied simplicity of detail, and about his half shut brown eyes lurked an expression of morbid kindness, which caused Mr. Sloth to glance suspiciously at the Rhine wine bottle standing upon the table. The bottle was empty. Not so the youth, who, moving his chair a little closer to Mr. Sloth, told a long and carefully enunciated tale about a man whom he had seen fall down an elevator shaft in Long's hotel. Mr. Sloth recollected that Long's hotel did not have an elevator, but making due allowance for his companion's supposed condition civilly refrained from contradiction.

Here the stranger suggested another bottle of the Rhine wine, but to this Mr. Sloth objected. Talk might with a stranger, but drink—never! So the young man, regretting that his companion would not join him, ordered another bottle for himself. The talk then became desultory, and upon the part of the stranger slightly incoherent.

At about 11 o'clock Mr. Sloth and his companion arose to depart, only to find upon reaching the door that the boiling heat of the day had given place to a fierce torrent of rain. The streets ran rivers, and the rain blew in big drops through the arcades of the Madison Square Garden. Mr. Sloth sought for the only refuge, and, though Mr. Sloth by no means liked the idea of driving about with an unknown and intoxicated youth, nevertheless to desert him seemed under the circumstances uncharitable.

Having discovered that they were going in the same direction, Mr. Sloth and the unknown entered a cab and drove off through the rain.

"Oh, yes," said the young man, as if continuing a discussion, "in northern India the elephant's foot is considered finer and more succulent than the turkey's fin." They talked in this way until they reached the front window of the cab, which forthwith stopped and pulled up on the right hand curbstone. He at once opened the left hand door and sprang into the street. Mr. Sloth, amazed, felt nervously for his watch, and then peered out of the window.

The cab had stopped one door away from a hat store, in front of which a huge gold top hat, shone, dripping in the glare of an electric light. Mr. Sloth had no sooner perceived the hat than he also perceived his companion dash madly at it, jump into the cab, and, after the hat, twist himself about and drop, hat in hand, to the ground.

This done, he rushed with his gleaming booty to the cab, hastily gave an order to the driver, and in a moment was sitting beside Mr. Sloth, the gold hat at his feet. Agitated to the point of suffocation, Mr. Sloth, now thoroughly aroused, protested bitterly. The young man seemed unrepentant, and the cab rattled noisily over the cobblestones.

"Oh, here," said his companion, after Mr. Sloth had blown off his indignation for about 10 minutes, "if you don't see the fun of the thing, I don't suppose that I can do anything about it. Goodbye!" And suddenly opening the cab door he sprang out, slammed the door and disappeared. Here was a most distressing situation—a pouring rainstorm, an elderly gentleman, a cab and a gleaming gold hat. The possession of a gold hat to a person of Mr. Sloth's position would be sure to bring with it much unpleasant suggestiveness. No one would believe the story of the young man, even when backed by the evidence of the cabman. Here, truly, was a dilemma. Brooklyn bridge was closely guarded by policemen; so also was the Battery.

In this case the last alternative of a desperate man—there is always the river—could not be considered. Mr. Sloth, in his agitation, had not looked out of the window for some time, and upon doing so he discovered himself driving through a city street, with car tracks and an elevated railroad on either side. Why, surely this closely resembled the Bowery, and yet what could he be doing in the Bowery? The cab was again stopped, and the driver said the young man who had got out had given him $3 and told him to go to the city hall. Suddenly an idea presented itself to Mr. Sloth. "Driver," he said, "go across the bridge, and when you reach Brooklyn drive out Flatbush avenue till I tell you to stop." In the wilds of Flatbush the hat should be hidden. They had proceeded about two blocks when suddenly the cab gave a lurch to the right and turned over on its side, and its occupant found himself flung violently forward and downward.

Another moment, and the gold hat, the umbrella and Mr. Sloth were hopelessly buried in the bottom of the cab. A confused noise of oaths and breaking glass assailed the ears of the unhappy gentleman. Then the cab door above him was wrenched open, and to his bewildered eyes appeared the blue coat, the brass buttons and the dyed mustache of a policeman.—New York Sun.

Know His Penchant.
At about 11 o'clock Mr. Sloth and his companion arose to depart, only to find upon reaching the door that the boiling heat of the day had given place to a fierce torrent of rain. Mr. Sloth sought for the only refuge, and, though Mr. Sloth by no means liked the idea of driving about with an unknown and intoxicated youth, nevertheless to desert him seemed under the circumstances uncharitable.

Entering For a Place.
The cab had stopped one door away from a hat store, in front of which a huge gold top hat, shone, dripping in the glare of an electric light. Mr. Sloth had no sooner perceived the hat than he also perceived his companion dash madly at it, jump into the cab, and, after the hat, twist himself about and drop, hat in hand, to the ground.

An Inevitable Conclusion.
This done, he rushed with his gleaming booty to the cab, hastily gave an order to the driver, and in a moment was sitting beside Mr. Sloth, the gold hat at his feet. Agitated to the point of suffocation, Mr. Sloth, now thoroughly aroused, protested bitterly. The young man seemed unrepentant, and the cab rattled noisily over the cobblestones.

ASSIST NATURE
A little now and then in removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels, and you thereby avoid a multitude of distressing derangements and diseases, and will have less frequent need of your doctor's service.

Of all known agents for this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best. Once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further their constipation, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from indigestion, constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. In proof of their superior excellence, it can be truthfully said, that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial. Put up in equal, glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, or to relieve distress after over-eating, take one after dinner. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

The Annual Reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic to be Held at Pittsburgh, Pa., September 1-15, 1894.

Already the old veterans, their families and friends, are figuring as to probable cost of trip, and deciding which route to take.

To enable them to make the journey at reasonable cost, and plan to advance for their great jubilee time, the Santa Fe route has just notified the chairman of the Western Passenger association that it will sell tickets for the occasion named on September 7 and 8, from points west of Missouri river, and on September 8 and 9 from points on and east of the Missouri river. These dates are placed early in the month so that visitors may witness the great naval reunion, which forms an important feature of the opening days of the encampment.

Besides convenient selling days, the Santa Fe also announces that it will honor A. B. tickets for return from its eastern terminals on any day within the final limit of Sept. 25 for tickets sold in territory east of Colorado common points, and Sept. 30 for tickets sold from territory west thereof. This concession will accommodate members of the G. A. R., and that is what the Santa Fe always aims to do. It tries to please its patrons. The rate is one fare for the round trip, added to the lowest rates authorized from Chicago and St. Louis, which makes a rate of $51.05 via Chicago and $48.55 via St. Louis to Pittsburgh and return. Santa Fe, the city of the Holy Faith of St. Francis, is situated on the site of an ancient Indian Pueblo called Oga-pa-ho-ge. It is probably the oldest civilized community in the United States and the most ancient of American capitals. The Spanish town was founded in 1605. Authorities disagree as to whether this city or San Augustin, Fla., were first founded. Santa Fe was first visited by American traders in 1804 and from that time dated a wonderful era of prosperity. The thrilling incidents of the old Santa Fe trail, starting from Westport, Mo., gave it a world wide fame.

THE WORLD'S ONLY SANITARIUM.
Prof. Mark Harrington, chief of the U. S. weather bureau, says: "Santa Fe is in the driest habitable part of the United States. This region is extensive, and changes in form from season to season, but Santa Fe is always in it."

It is situated in a charming nook of the Santa Fe range, and its climate is dominated by the influence of mountain peaks that tower nearly 14,000 feet high. Together with this it lies at an altitude of 7,015 feet, and latitude, about the 36th degree north, that gives it a peculiar advantage as a sanitarium. The elevation tempers the summer heats, which naturally should be that of Memphis, Tenn., or Bakersfield, Cal., and its southern situation reduces the rigors of winter. As an illustration, during the winter of 1893, the daily public concerts in the plaza were only stopped three times by weather, and last winter the omission did not exceed half a dozen.

The altitude compels the lungs to work, and no one in Santa Fe can be accused of being "too lazy to breathe," as a great physician expressed it. The rare, ozonated air permeates every cell of the lungs, and thus prevents hemorrhage.

NATURAL BEAUTY.
Even the inveterately lazy can enjoy life here as if they have money. To the east Old Baldy lifts a snowy dome in winter, and his steeply sloping forested sides in summer rival his winter beauty. In the winter the full moon at night and the sun by day turn his crest into a diadem of brilliants. To the west the Jemez and Valles mountains, scarcely less grand than the Santa Fe range, reflect the sunsets in a hundred glorious tones, while their purple based land an ideal background for all the splendor.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.
Among the most important public institutions located here, in spacious and attractive modern buildings, are the U. S. court and federal office building, St. Vincent's sanitarium, territorial penitentiary, New Mexico orphan's training school, St. Vincent's charity hospital, U. S. government Indian school, Ramona memorial institute for Indian girls, St. Catharine Indian boys training school, Fort Marcy barracks, St. Michael's college, Loreto academy, Presbyterian home mission industrial school for girls, New Mexico deaf and dumb institute, Catholic cathedral and four parish churches, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches, the governor's palace, the archiepiscopal residence of Archbishop P. L. Chapelle and many others, including first-class hotel accommodations, and several sanitary institutions for the benefit of health-seekers.

The U. S. court of private and claims in session here throughout most of the year, and the arguments therein, involving as they do points of historical and archaeological interest, are of special value, not only to the lawyer but to the layman.

RESOURCES.
Santa Fe county has an area of 1,498,000 acres and a population of about 17,000. The city itself contains over 10,000 actual residents. The valley soils are especially adapted to fruit raising, and the product is of the finest flavor and appearance. Peaches sweet as nectarine, plums and apricots, large and luscious, apples, pears, berries and all the hardy fruits flourish in abundance usually commanding a better and more remunerative market than even the California fruits. The cloudless, sunny days bring out all their fruit and saccharine qualities.

Large mineral deposits, including gold, silver, precious stones, principally the turquoise and garnets nearly as fine as rubies, and topaz, also; both bituminous and anthracite coal are found in giant veins. The two kinds sometimes run in parallel veins in the same mine. In addition to this "natural coke" is found.

PROSPECTIVE RESOURCES.
The Chicago Municipal & Investment company has completed a magnificent water works system just east of town, furnishing water under 140 pounds pressure. All the modern improvements in the way of aeration, etc., are provided. In addition thereto preliminary work is now being conducted on reservoirs and canals that will irrigate over 100,000 acres of splendid land in and around the city. These will undoubtedly be completed within two years, as every effort is being made to hurry their construction.

THE WATERS OF SANTA FE.
Dr. F. F. Darter, vice president of the American Health Resort association, says: "It is worth traveling miles to drink of such waters as flow through this deep cut in the mountains and supply the city of Santa Fe for domestic purposes and for irrigation of the fruit farms. The water is absolutely pure, cold and fresh from the melting snows above, or trickling from springs in the mountain side. It is free from all lime, alkali or other impurities so very injurious to the consumptive patient. Such water is a great boon anywhere and at any time, but here, where other features of sunshine and pure air combine to produce an ideal climate, it is of special value."

THE MILITARY POST.
Fort Marcy, at Santa Fe, is the oldest established military station on American soil. The Spaniards occupied it as such in 1602. Old Fort Marcy was built by Gen. Kearney in 1846; and the present site was occupied in 1850; the post is garrisoned by headquarters, the band and two companies of the 10th U. S. Infantry under command of Col. E. P. Pearson; its location here adds greatly to Santa Fe's attractions socially and commercially. The military band stationed here is one of the best in the army and renders delightful music daily in the public plaza for the pleasure of citizens.

COUNTY BONDED DEBT.

The City and County Authorities Trying to See What Can be Done to Scale it Down.

At a meeting of the county board of commissioners the following memorial was presented by a committee representing the city council:

To the Hon. Board of County Commissioners of the County of Santa Fe:
Gentlemen: At a meeting of the city council of the city of Santa Fe held on the 11th inst. the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this council representing one-third of the taxable property of Santa Fe county and one-third of the tax-payers therein that the board of county commissioners should at once take all honorable measures possible to present the financial condition of said county to the holders of its bonded debt and to urge them in some manner to compromise or reduce the amount thereof, so that the burden of the debt brought within the capacity of the people to pay the same; and while this council is utterly and entirely opposed to the repudiation of debt in any form it believes it will be for the best interests of the bondholders as well as the tax-payers that the debt of Santa Fe county be reduced to an amount which it is within the power of the people to meet. And for the purpose of properly presenting these views to said county board a committee of three be appointed by the council to prepare and present a memorial to this effect at the next meeting of such county board." And the undersigned were appointed as a committee to present the matter to your honorable board, and for that purpose we respectfully represent that the bonded value of this county is about three million dollars, that the bonded debt is about six hundred thousand dollars, or 20 per centum of the entire valuation of the county, to meet the interest upon which a tax levy of nearly 2 per cent is necessary to be levied, in addition to the tax for the necessary ordinary expenses of the county. That it is a notorious fact that many of the largest tax-payers of such county refuse and neglect to pay the levy made to meet such interest, while by reason of their poverty many other tax-payers are absolutely unable to do so. That in the present state of the law it is extremely difficult if not impossible to enforce such payment by levy and sale of property, and in the present financial condition of the territory, even if it were possible under the law to do so, it would be a grievous hardship and absolute confiscation of property, which is to be avoided if possible. In most of the western states this condition of affairs has existed as a result of over-bonded counties and communities anticipating benefits therefrom, which did not result, and in all such cases, after years of tedious and costly litigation and in many cases bloodshed resulting, a compromise has been effected between the bondholders and the tax-payers by which both have been benefited. It is believed in this instance that the holders of Santa Fe county securities would prefer having bonds to a much less amount upon which the interest would be paid promptly, were there reasonable certainty of their being redeemed when due, than to have the present amount of bonds under the present conditions. And it is further believed that a full and frank statement made by your board to such bondholders of the financial condition of this county, with a suggestion to such bondholders that an offer to scale down the bonds would be met by an offer of a fairness, and would be looked at from a business standpoint and might result in a very large reduction of our outstanding obligations, to the benefit of the entire community, and that such a proposition could not possibly result in any injury to the credit or good name of the county, but would be simply a plain business proposition to be accepted or rejected by the creditors of the county as they might deem best. And to this end the undersigned committee would urge action by your honorable body upon the lines indicated above at the earliest possible moment.

Very respectfully,
EDWARD L. BARTLETT,
CHAS. F. EASLEY,
JNO. P. VICTORY, Committee.

Accordingly, after some informal discussion, the county commissioners adopted the following:

Be it resolved by the board of county commissioners of the county of Santa Fe in session assembled, that,

Whereas, The city council of the city of Santa Fe has presented a memorial beseeching aid by the board calling the attention of this board to the financial condition of the county, the enormous amount of its bonded debt as compared with its taxable value, and the urgent business necessity for this county to endeavor by all honorable means to reduce the amount of said bonded debt by compromise if possible with the holders of the same; and,

Whereas, Said city council represents about one-third in number and value of the taxable property in said county, now, be it

Resolved, That this board hereby adopts the suggestions contained in said memorial and for the purpose of carrying the same into effect hereby requests the Hon. R. J. Palen, territorial treasurer, to prepare for the use of this county a complete financial statement of its assets and liabilities, and that the clerk of the board be directed when such statement is completed to send a copy of same, together with a copy of this resolution, to the bondholders of said county with a request to such bondholders to make such proposition in the premises to this board with reference thereto as they may desire with a view of effecting a compromise of such indebtedness.

VITAL STATISTICS.

An Official Call for Sanitary Statistics—A Chance for the City Council to Advertise Santa Fe.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

Santa Fe, Aug. 16.—The following letter is self-explanatory:

MARINE HOSPITAL SERVICE,
Washington, D. C. June 7, 1894.

To the Secretary of the Board of Health, Santa Fe, N. M.

Dear Doctor: I have the honor to call your attention to the following extract from section 4, act of congress, approved February 16, 1893: " * * * and the secretary of the treasury shall also obtain, through all sources accessible, including state and municipal sanitary authorities throughout the United States, weekly reports of the sanitary condition of ports and places within the United States, and shall prepare, publish and transmit to collectors of customs and to state and municipal health officers and other sanitarians weekly abstracts of the consular sanitary reports and other pertinent information received by him. * * *"

In conformity with the above, I have to inquire whether it will be practicable for you to make weekly reports to this office of the mortality in your city, for publication in the weekly abstracts of sanitary reports. The proper blank forms with franked envelopes for mailing same will be forwarded you on a receipt of an affirmative answer.

Respectfully yours,
WALTER WYMAN,
Supervising Surgeon-General, U. S. H. S.

At its next regular meeting I presented this letter to the city council and warmly urged upon that body the importance of taking some step or steps by which the desired information could be furnished to the Marine Hospital Service each week. The matter was, after some discussion, referred to a committee composed of Councilmen Delgado, Ortiz y Salazar and E. Andrews.

This committee reported that "there being no city records to give the information required, we have been unable to furnish the statistics. We find that a former city council had these matters before it once, but failed to pass an ordinance covering these points."

Finding there was no ordinance requiring a mortuary record to be kept and feeling that the keeping of such mortuary statistics is of great importance to the members of every community, I again appeared before the city council and submitted for their inspection copies of a pamphlet sent me by the surgeon general, Dr. Wyman. This little publication prints weekly the death-rate of all the principal cities of the world but with special reference to consumption of the lungs, yellow fever, smallpox, typhoid fever, diphtheria and other like diseases, so well known as powerful destroyers of human life.

Apart from the general sanitary benefits accruing to our city and its inhabitants, the fact of the name of the city of Santa Fe appearing in this publication, and the further fact that these reports get into the hands of thousands of medical men over the entire world—men who have a warm personal interest in such statistics, in my judgment, prove of sufficient moment to urge upon our city council the importance of making some provision to comply with the request of the surgeon general of the Marine hospital service.

No town or city can expect to maintain its claim as a health resort unless it has its statistics bearing upon life, death and general health daily recorded and ready at any time for comparison or inspection.

FRANCIS CROSSON,
City Physician.

A Romantic Institution.

Dr. Walter H. Osbourn, the pleasant Canadian gentleman who is here with his accomplished wife in search of health, yesterday presented his half dozen excellent diplomas to the county clerk and secured a license to practice medicine here. He was educated at the Columbia college of physicians and surgeons and was a student also in Paris and at Guy's hospital, London. There is a lively romance associated with the establishment of the latter institution, one of the first, if not the first medical institution of the world. Guy was a wealthy draper, and about 250 years ago he was engaged to be married to a beautiful English maiden. He waited at St. Bartholomew's church, Smithfield, for her until the hour of noon, but she failed to appear. This made of him a misogynist, but converted him into a philanthropist, hence it was that he devoted all his vast wealth to the founding of Guy's hospital.

The D. & R. G. Road.

There seems to be every reason to believe that the Cochiti district will have several thousand inhabitants in the course of a few months.

The development of the mines would create a valuable traffic for the railroad, some of which would consist of the transportation of ore to the Denver market. Already there is talk about the construction of a branch of the Santa Fe road to Cochiti, and it may be depended upon that that branch will be built if the district amounts to what is expected. The Rio Grande people ought not to hesitate to extend their Española branch so as to tap the Cochiti trade. In all probability it would be a profitable extension, and the business thus obtained would hold the San Luis valley line, which is not very heavily burdened with traffic just now. Whether the Rio Grande would be extended from Cochiti farther south is a question that might well be left to the future, but we are inclined to think it would be only a short time before it would be built to Albuquerque.—Denver Republican.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Biscuits, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache, 25c.
