

12-7-1990

Guatemala: Electricity Towers Near Antigua Damaged In Bombing

Deborah Tyroler

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen>

Recommended Citation

Tyroler, Deborah. "Guatemala: Electricity Towers Near Antigua Damaged In Bombing." (1990). <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen/4787>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Latin America Digital Beat (LADB) at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in NotiCen by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact amywinter@unm.edu.

Guatemala: Electricity Towers Near Antigua Damaged In Bombing

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, December 7, 1990

On Dec. 6, army and police spokespersons said presumed rebels dynamited two electricity towers on the outskirts of Antigua at 10 p.m. on Wednesday evening, causing a blackout in the eastern half of the city. The spokespersons said the identity of the saboteurs was not known, although guerrillas have bombed numerous electricity towers in recent months. (Basic data from Notimex, 12/06/90)

-- End --