

12-7-1990

Guatemala: University Students Targeted By Death Squads

Deborah Tyroler

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen>

Recommended Citation

Tyroler, Deborah. "Guatemala: University Students Targeted By Death Squads." (1990). <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen/4789>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Latin America Digital Beat (LADB) at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in NotiCen by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact amywinter@unm.edu.

Guatemala: University Students Targeted By Death Squads

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, December 7, 1990

In a recent report, Cerigua quoted Association of University Students (AEU) leader Byron Cruz as saying that death squads are now threatening individual students instead of student associations or leadership councils. He mentioned the murder of an economics student at San Marcos University on Nov. 30 as a case in point, as well as the discovery of a body during the past week of a student who had disappeared a few days earlier. (Basic data from Cerigua Weekly Briefs, 11/25-12/01/90)

-- End --