On Dec. 3, the Telecommunications Employees Association (ASTELL) called off a work stoppage after Treasury Police chief Col. Roberto Pinada promised to release union leader Edward Bazan on the same day. (See CAU 12/05/90 for previous coverage of Bazan's arrest.) ASTELL leaders said that if Bazan was not released, the strike would be resumed. (Basic data from 12/07/90 news summary by Salpress)
