A RUMORED BATTLE.

A Japanese Defeat Reported—Both Sides Said to Have Lost Heavily—Movements of the Chinese.

Shanghai, Oct. 20.—Four vessels of the Chinese southern squadron have arrived at Wei Hai Wei. The Chinese steamer Tang Chow which has arrived here reports that the two Chinese iron clads and one Chinese cruiser which have been under-going repairs at Port Arthur have reached Wei Hai Wei. The other Chinese war ships will require more extensive repairs and the departure from Port Arthur may be delayed some time. Renewed rumors are in circulation that a BATTLE HAS BEEN FOUGHT on the Yalu river between the land forces of the Chinese and Japanese.

No accurate details are obtainable, but according to one rumor the Japanese have been repulsed with a severe loss on both sides. As the Chinese do not claim a victory, this report may turn out to be incorrect. It is believed, however, that fighting actually occurred.

ANOTHER REPORT. London, Oct. 20.—A dispatch received from Shanghai to-day says that according to Chinese advices a severe battle has been fought on the lower portion of the Yalu river. The Japanese are said to have crossed the river and attacked the Chinese, but after some fierce fighting the Japanese were repulsed. Both sides are said to have lost heavily. The Chinese do not claim a conclusive victory, but they declare that they still maintain their position. No confirmation of the dispatch is obtained.

Maryland Justice.

Upper Marlboro, Md., Oct. 20.—Stephen Williams, the negro who assaulted Mrs. Hardesty on Wednesday night and confessed the same, was taken from jail at 3 o'clock this morning and hanged.

Girls on a Strike.

City of Mexico, Oct. 20.—The strike of the girls in the cigar factories caused by the introduction of cigarette machines is spreading. Thousands are now out. They smashed the windows of the El Modelo factory and would have captured the place had not the police and soldiers been dispatched to the scene.

ONCE AGAIN.

New York's Ex-Policemen Again in the Tolls of the Law.

New York, Oct. 20.—Upon court warrants issued last night the following ex-policemen were arrested to-day: Ex-Captains Doherty and Ward, Detectives Hook and Meenan, ex-Sergeants Liebman, Parkerson, Jordan, Clark and McKenna. The warrants were issued on charges brought out before the Lexow committee and substantiated at the defendants' trial before the police court on which occasion they were dismissed. The alleged offenses consist chiefly of extortion.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Oct. 20.—The weekly bank statement shows the following: Reserve, increase, $1,116,553; loans, increase, $604,300; specie, increase, $1,407,000; legal tender, increase, $1,581,300; deposits, increase, $3,847,800; circulation, increase, $168,388. The banks now hold $62,513,775 in excess of the 25 per cent requirements.

THE DYING CZAR.

Barely Alive at Last Reports—Many Prayers—A Cancerous Tumor.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—The latest report received from Livadia this afternoon indicates that although the czar is still alive he is rapidly becoming weaker.

PRAYERS are being offered up to-day throughout the Russian empire for the recovery of the czar. Great impatience is manifested at the scantiness of official news sent out in regard to the condition of his majesty.

AN INCURABLE CASE. Paris.—The Figaro declares the czar is suffering from a tumor below the left kidney respecting which the doctors disagree. Prof. Zacharin is convinced that it is cancerous and impossible to operate upon.

FRANCE PRAYS.

The Temps says there is not a corner of France where prayer has not been offered up for the recovery of the czar.

THE LATEST.

Berlin.—The Zeitung has information late this afternoon to the effect that the death of the czar is momentarily expected.

CONDENSED NEWS.

In the Boston races to-day, Alix won first and second heats easily. Time 2:09 and 2:14 1/2.

Gen. Harrison left Fort Wayne at 9 o'clock to-day and will make his first stop at Columbus City.

James Anthony Froude, the historian, died this morning in London.

Indicted for Fraudulent Entries.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 20.—The first of those indicted by the federal grand jury for alleged fraudulent entries upon lumber lands in Ashland district, Arthur R. Osborne, was arraigned to-day before Judge Bonn. Osborne pleaded not guilty, and was put under a $1,000 bond. The others named in the indictment are Robt. C. Heydlauff, receiver of the Ashland office under Harrison, and Warren E. McCord, brother of ex-Congressman Myron T. McCord.

THE ROOSTER OURS.

The Colorado Courts Decide that That Game Bird is Democratic and Not Populist.

Denver, Oct. 20.—The district court to-day decided that John T. Bottom is the regular Democratic nominee for congress in the first district and has issued a writ of mandamus requiring Secretary of State McCles to have Bottom's name placed under the Democratic emblem, the rooster, instead of Congressman Pence's.

Four Masked Burglars.

Cleveland, Oct. 20.—At North Dover last night four masked men battered down the office door of the C. M. O'Viatt Manufacturing company, after the night watchman had refused them admission. They bound and gagged the watchman, then drilled the safe and blew it open with dynamite. They did not obtain much money.

GIGANTIC FRAUD.

Pennsylvania Pool Investment Concerns Forced to the Wall—A Mammoth Steal.

Pittsburg, Oct. 20.—The discretionary pool system is on the rocks in Pittsburg. These concerns have been springing up almost daily and it is estimated that they now hold between $37,000,000 and $40,000,000, representing some 50,000 investors. Their clients are workmen, wash women and farmers who were dazzled by the prospects of securing from 20 to 100 per cent a month on investments. For several days the local newspapers have been showing up the impossibility of the pools lasting any length of time. This morning there was a panic stricken rush of investors upon the discretionary pool known as the Public Stock Exchange. As soon as the rash began the managers announced that they were the victims of a conspiracy of the banks and fell back upon the clause in their agreement by which they can require several days' notice of withdrawal. A short time later a rush began on the Pittsburg syndicate. Investors were paid noon when the managers announced that the concern would only pay during banking hours, and would resume at 9 a. m. on Monday. It is anticipated that within three days almost every discretionary pool in the city will be wiped out.

These discretionary pools are a combination syndicate in which the money deposited is to be invested by the brokers according to their discretion in stocks, bonds, grains and provisions. Monthly dividends to be declared on the profits. The pools have been in operation for several months and dividends were declared regularly.

Church Announcements.

Services at the church of the Holy Faith last Sunday both morning and evening were well attended. The experiment of an evening service is proving a success. Something should be said of the recent development of the choir and of the excellent assistance rendered in the musical portions of the services by Miss Hurt, the accomplished organist. To-morrow, 22d Sunday of the Trinity, morning prayer will be read at 11 and evening prayer at 7:30. The rector will preach at both services.

Services in the M. E. church, Oct. 21st as follows: Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Junior Epworth League at 3 p. m. and the Senior at 6:30 p. m. Visitors and travelers are welcome to all the services.

On Oct. 21st there will be the usual services at the Presbyterian church. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., morning and evening services at 11 and 7:30 respectively. Both sermons will have reference to various aspects of the temperance cause. Meetings of the Y. P. S. C. E. at 3:15 Junior; at 6:30 Senior.

There will be the usual services at the several Catholic churches to-morrow. Sermon in English at the cathedral at 9:30 a. m. conducted by Vicar General Fourcigny.

GOOD TIMES COMING.

The Iron and Steel Mills of the East Are Enjoying an Era of Great Prosperity.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—Iron and steel mills in this locality are enjoying an era of unprecedented prosperity. At the Pennsylvania steel works the production of rails and Bessemer steel last week was the heaviest for years. The three furnaces in blast averaged nearly 300 tons daily. For three days the Bessemer mill averaged 120 blooms every twenty-four hours. The mill made 4,000 tons of rails during the week, the largest production in its history. On Thursday 816 tons were turned out—nearly a ton to every two minutes. The company has received a contract for 1,000 tons of girder rails from the Chicago Street Railway company, of Chicago, and another large contract from Covington, Ky. There are 4,000 men employed in the steel works.

HERE'S A SHOWING.

Progress at the Agricultural College Under Its New Management—An Increase of 75 Per Cent.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

Mesilla Park, Oct. 18, '94.—It affords me great pleasure to report that the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts is still increasing its attendance in every department. The enrollment at present is as follows:

Seniors, 3; juniors, 7; sophomores and juniors, 20; special, 2; total, 32. Business department, 25; third year preparatory, 22; second year preparatory, 39; first year preparatory, 29—96. Total—147.

It is doubtful whether any agricultural college in the United States will make a better showing as to increase of attendance this year than does our own. The per cent of increase has already reached 75, and we have no doubt of our ability to make it reach 100 during the year. The preparatory department already has a larger enrollment than the entire college had last year. The increased attendance has been secured in the face of many and great difficulties. The change of management was severely criticised by several of the Republican papers, and especially by the Albuquerque Citizen and Las Vegas Optic; and dire disaster was predicted for the most important institution in the territory. Their prophecies have as usual been false. In spite of the venomous attacks of its new management, the hard times and general depression, the opposition of one regiment and his friends, and the constant criticism and misrepresentation of the Las Cruces "correspondent" of the Citizen, the college has prospered beyond anything in its previous history. The faculty are united and harmonious and more and better work is being done than ever before. If anyone doubts this let him visit the institution and show to the contrary. Visitors are welcome, and the most careful inspection is expected and desired. The people of the territory would like to hear something concerning the growth and prosperity of the university under its new executive. Both of these institutions will likely be asking for additional appropriations from the coming legislature. It is certainly in order to hear what they are accomplishing with the present appropriations.

WITH A RAZOR.

Ricardo Branch Carves Up Pedro Garcia at Cerrillos—A Drunken Brawl.

A serious cutting scrape occurred at Cerrillos yesterday morning which came near resulting fatally. On Thursday the miners near Cerrillos were paid off, about $18,000 being paid out. Two of the workmen, Ricardo Branch and Pedro Garcia, who it seems had a long-standing grudge, decided to settle it on the occasion of their coming to town to spend their money. They met in the back of H. C. Kinsel's store. Garcia drew a razor, cutting Branch on the face and neck and severed an artery on the temple. His shoulder blade and arm were also seriously hacked and cut. Mr. Kinsel and Postmaster Lyon, in attempting to pull Branch off, had a little set-to with him also, but a gun which Mr. Lyon promptly pulled on his assailant put a quietus on him. Dr. Palmer, by putting thirty-four stitches in Garcia's face and about a dozen in his body, succeeded in putting him on the way to recovery. He is fearfully disfigured, however.

Upon a commitment trial it developed that Garcia was the aggressor and that Branch was acting largely in self defense. He was put under a $200 bond which was promptly given.

A Marvelous Showing.

The U. S. Government, through the Agricultural Department, has been investigating the baking powders for the purpose of informing the public which was the purest, most economical and wholesome.

The published report shows the Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful preparation, absolutely free from alum or any adulterant, and that it is greatly stronger in leavening power than any other baking powder.

Consumers should not let this valuable information, official and unprejudiced, go unheeded.

WE LEAD THE WORLD.

An Address to the Climatological Association Which Shows Up Santa Fe's Climate in Great Shape.

At the recent annual meeting of the American Climatological association in Washington, D. C., Dr. Samuel A. Fisk, of Denver, read a paper on the climate of the Rocky mountain region, the figures of which show up Santa Fe's climate in a very complimentary light. While, of course, as a resident of Denver, it was to Dr. Fisk's interests to present the Colorado Rocky mountain region as the best resort for health-seekers, a careful study of his figures shows Santa Fe to possess all of Colorado's advantages to the highest extent and its disadvantages in the least degree. Dr. Fisk makes Santa Fe throughout his whole article

A BASIS OF COMPARISON

with Denver. He calls attention to the fact that Denver is about 1,800 feet lower than Santa Fe; and that in its relative humidity it does not rank quite as high as Santa Fe. Continuing he says: "A glance at the table of absolute humidity, by which I mean the actual number of grains of vapor contained in a cubic foot of air, will show that Denver is outranked only by Santa Fe."

Referring to the next characteristic of climate, which is rain and snowfall, Dr. Fisk says that the mean for ten years gives Denver only 15.33 inches, which, while much less than in most places, is "somewhat in excess of the rain and snowfall of El Paso, San Diego and Santa Fe."

WAS EVIDENTLY MISINFORMED

in his next statement, which is to the effect that the Denver mean temperature "is exactly the same as in Santa Fe" for the official records show that Santa Fe's mean summer temperature is 15 degrees lower than Denver's and its mean winter temperature is 15 degrees above that of the boasted Queen of the Rockies.

He goes on to say that Denver "ranks along with St. Paul, Santa Fe and Fort Grant" in the average daily velocity of the wind for the past ten years; and says that, in the matter of absolutely clear days, a number of cities outstrip Denver, adding: "The figures show that El Paso and Fort Grant greatly outnumber Denver in the number of clear days, averaging the one 67 and the other 57 in a year than Denver. Los Angeles shows a preponderance over Denver of 28 absolutely clear days, San Diego of 12 and Santa Fe of 36."

ABSOLUTELY CLEAR DAYS

Dr. Fisk suggests, however, that the true test of climate is the number of absolutely cloudy days, "for these are the days upon which it is not possible for invalids to go out at all. As to this point he says: "Here we find a preponderance in favor of El Paso of 18 days and of Fort Grant 6 days, and Santa Fe 5 days in a year."

Speaking of seasonal sunshine, Dr. Fisk says: "The tables on this point are quite full. In the year 1892 we see that there were fifty-nine days that were wholly cloudy in Denver which is somewhat in excess of the average obtained by a previous table. Glancing through the table it is seen that this is in excess of that which existed

IN EL PASO AND SANTA FE,

but that it is greatly under San Diego, San Antonio, Los Angeles, Jacksonville, Augusta and Tucson, and still more decidedly under Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Chicago and Boston, maintaining, in this particular, the reputation of Denver as a resort characterized by an open sky."

As to the hours of actual sunshine, the doctor draws this conclusion from the records: "The table shows clearly the great excess of hours of actual sunshine in Denver over either Philadelphia or Washington, though not as great as are found in Santa Fe or Tucson."

He concludes his article by a reference to the accusation of high winds at Denver, adding that "of winds blowing forty miles an hour or more, in the year 1892, we only had three such winds in Denver, as against fifteen in El Paso,

THREE IN SANTA FE

and seven in Tucson, and as against three in Washington, five in Philadelphia, six in New York, fifty-nine in Chicago and eight in Boston; which fact would possibly astonish our critics."

Dr. Fisk's article makes very interesting reading, both on account of his reputation as an authority on climate and because of the splendid showing it made for Santa Fe's advantages to the notable convention before which it was read. The only wonder, after reading its conclusions in favor of our city as a health resort, is that Dr. Fisk does not immediately come to Santa Fe to live, and at the same time advise all his patients from the east to do likewise.

The Raton Killing.

Dave Collins, the man who was arrested for killing Barney Clarke at Raton last Sunday, was seen with a rifle near the place of the killing shortly before it happened. The coroner's jury were unable to agree that Collins was the guilty party, however, and a commitment trial before a justice of the peace was had and Collins was sent to jail in default of $10,000 bail.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20.

Democratic Ticket

FOR DELEGATE TO THE 54TH CONGRESS, ANTONIO JOSEPH.

THE McKinley law extended to the sugar trust benefits which may be represented in amount thus:

The Democratic tariff bill reduced those benefits nearly one-half:

After the December session of congress, the following a good deal more than represents what will be left of the sugar trust:

This is about as good a year as any to clip Tammany's tail. Decent Democracy will do it.

See that your name is kept green in the eyes of your countrymen by examining the registration lists.

DEMOCRATS, remember the friends of 1882, and keep your eyes on Valencia county supporters of Catronism.

PLAIN Americans are not good enough to serve the household of Lord Morton, the Republican nominee of New York. What a mess the ex-vice president has got into by importing those Englishmen to act as servants in his home!

When it became evident last week that the Republican factional fight in Bernalillo county could not be healed, Boss Catron threatened to take his doll rags and go home, saying he wouldn't play any more at hunting a seat in congress. Veremos!

THE New Mexico agricultural college is making splendid progress under its present management. An increase in attendance of 75 per cent over that under the Hadley-McFie regime is something that the people may well be proud of.

NEITHER the lynching of negroes nor the mowing down of citizens by the guns of Ohio's state militia seem to be sufficient to keep McKinley on his own roost long enough to attend to public business. He's loaded with another high protective speech and has gone down to spew it out through the same quill used by the Louisiana sugar planters.

THE fact that the national Republican campaign committee has united with that institution of religious bigotry, the A. P. A., to prevent New Mexico's admission as a state enjoying all the rights of free American citizenship, ought to add 40 per cent to the vote for Joseph and statehood on November 6. Now let New Mexico stand together for statehood regardless of all other considerations. The best interests of our people demand united action.

GRAT gobs of campaign persuasion in the shape of cold cash have been distributed by Boss Catron, in person, among the voters of Bernalillo and Socorro counties this week, and several additional installments of boodle have been set afloat in Santa Fe, San Miguel and Rio Arriba counties. Every effort to win by fair means has been abandoned. The corruption fund will be used with a lavish hand from this time on.

AS TO GOOD INTENTIONS. The Santa Fe county commissioners seem to have entirely overlooked the fact that there is a very hot and stingy place that is said to be paved with good intentions. It is quite too late now for them to boast of what they "intended" to do toward improving the county, putting in bridges here and turnpikes there, and all that sort of thing. They've had two years in which to show their hand and their chief occupation seems to have been the embezzlement of Sheriff Cunningham in every manner, large and small, possible. Next week they will doubtless put forth through Mr. Catron's Water street organ another list of their good intentions setting forth how they "intended" to build a boulevard to the top of Baldy mountain; how they "intended" to erect factories to extract grease from the grease weed and soap from the soap weed that abounds on the adjacent valley lands; how they "intended" to place pure cottonseed oil on the back of every native sheep, and erect a plant for the extraction of ammonia from ancient goat corals—all these things they'll promise, no doubt, to accomplish, if the people permit Catronism to longer reign supreme in the management of Santa Fe county affairs and will only pull off Sheriff Cunningham and give them pliable tools to serve as sheriff and tax collector.

A chapter on what the county commissioners know of Boss Catron's record as a tax dodger would be much more timely and to the point.

PRESS COMMENTS.

The Republican Nominee. Mr. Catron is mistaken if he thinks his reputation places him above suspicion and makes it unnecessary for him to defend himself against charges of wrongdoing. He has not been charged with murder, but the evidence points him out as the supporter, protector and intimate associate of an organized band of assassins, and a man unfit to represent a law abiding people.—Las Cruces Independent.

A Terrible Indictment. The bloody hand has bled down to Las Cruces the other day to address the voters and tell them he wanted to go to congress, and demanded under all sorts of pains and penalties that they should send him there, he found the town placarded with posters on which a bloody hand pointed to a copy of Juan Gallegos' celebrated sworn statement. This rather took some of the effrontery out of even his brazen associate of murders, and cast a damper over the meeting. It will be remembered that Gallegos swore that he was solicited to murder Frank Chavez, and was promised Catron's protection and $700 of Catron's money; and even a Republican judge stated that he believed Gallegos was testifying truthfully. This is the man the Republicans of New Mexico allow to lead them.—Silver City Sentinel.

Bluff Won't Go This Year. Despite the falsehoods of the Santa Fe New Mexican and other Democratic papers in New Mexico, the wool produced in this territory have not advanced in price, but if anything, are lower in value than they were three months ago.—Santa Fe Republican.

Let us see how this bold assertion of the Catron Santa Fe organ agrees with facts. In the fall of 1895, under the full operation of the McKinley act, Blas Lucero, of this county, sold his wool to Rosenwald Bros. of this city, for 3 1/2 cents per pound, and that after a liberal deduction was made for "heavy weight." The highest price paid for wool last fall was 6 cents a pound. On Monday 100 bags of the same grade of wool were sold here for 8 cents a pound. Does this look as if the price of wool had not risen? Facts are facts, and the Republican must have an inferior opinion of the intelligence of its readers when it tries to pull the wool over their eyes with such bald-faced, groundless assertions. Bluff and bluster won't win this election.—Albuquerque Democrat.

Spitting Blood
Given Over by the Doctors!

LIFE SAVED BY
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Seven years ago, my wife had a severe attack of lung trouble which the physicians pronounced consumption. The cough was extremely distressing, especially at night, and was frequently attended with the spitting of blood. The doctors being unable to help her, I induced her to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was surprised at the great relief it gave. Before using one whole bottle, she was cured, so that now she is quite strong and healthy. That this medicine saved my wife's life, I have not the least doubt."—K. MORRIS, Memphis, Tenn.

CATARH

IN CHILDREN
For over two years my little girl's life was made miserable by a case of Catarrh. The discharge from the nose was large, constant and very offensive. Her eyes became inflamed, the lids swollen and very painful. After trying various remedies, I gave her the first bottle of Catarrh. The first bottle seemed to aggravate the disease, but the symptoms soon abated, and in a short time she was cured.

Grand Canon of Colorado River. On the Santa Fe route, in northern Arizona, 1,200 miles from Kansas City, is the town of Flagstaff. A tri-weekly stage line runs from Flagstaff to the Grand Canon of the Colorado river. More than a mile in depth, this is the sublimest of gorges—a Titan of chasms. Twenty yokes might be hidden unseen below, and Niagara would look scarcely larger than a brook.

Don't fail to visit this first wonder of the world. You can "read up" about it by asking G. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A. A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kas., to mail you a free copy of an illustrated book describing this terra incognita. The book is no common affair; but is entertainingly written, beautifully illustrated and a gem of the printer's art.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Appended is the full text of the platform adopted by New Mexico's Democratic party at the Las Cruces convention. Whereas, during the past thirty years the so-called principle of protection has reigned supreme and has plunged American industry into the depths of financial distress which has culminated during the first two years of Democratic administration and which was most deeply felt before the Democratic congress had performed one act of legislation, fully establishing the fact that the Republican legislation of the past thirty years was wholly in the interest of monopoly at the cost and ruin of labor and industry.

Therefore, we commend President Cleveland for his splendid effort for the great Democratic principles of tariff reform, and, although disappointed that more was not accomplished, we congratulate the people upon securing such an excellent and advanced effort at a reform of a robbery tariff that has worked to the disadvantage of the producing classes; and we further commend the administration for the great reduction in useless expenditures in the government departments of Washington, whereby millions of dollars are saved every year to the tax payers of the nation.

Believing that the restoration of silver as money of ultimate payment and standard of value, in equal terms with gold, with no discrimination against either metal, at the ratio which existed prior to the demonetization of silver by the fraud of the Republican party of 1873, is the issue of foremost concern and greatest importance to the people of this territory and of the United States, and that the change from the double to the single standard, has been, and will continue to be, until reversed, a grievous and growing wrong to the people of this territory and of the United States, and believing that a large majority of the Democrats of this territory so feel, and that the time has come when the welfare of the Democratic party in this territory demands a plain and unequivocal declaration on this subject; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Democracy of this territory by their representatives in convention assembled, hereby declare in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, at the ratio of 16 to 1, as it existed prior to its demonetization by the Republican party in 1873. And we pledge ourselves not to support by word or vote any one who is not heartily and earnestly in accord with the above declaration.

The enactment of the law taxing incomes of $4,000, we refer to, as an illustration of the spirit and purposes of the Democratic party to relieve the toiling masses and place the burden of taxation upon those best able to endure them. And we call upon our national congress to further carry out the spirit of this enactment until the hoarded capital of unlawful combinations and trusts shall be made to bear its just proportion of taxation.

We congratulate the people of New Mexico upon the repeal of the federal election law making it no longer possible for unscrupulous Republican politicians to surround the polls with unnecessary deputy marshals and through intimidation, violence and fraud defeat the honest will of the people.

We endorse without stint or qualification, the zeal of our delegate in congress, the Hon. Antonio Joseph, and we point especially to his persistent labors and the ripening fruit thereof in placing before congress and the nation the injustice of turning a deaf ear to our imploring cry for admission through the thirty years of Republican rule, which has made the territories of one-fourth the population of New Mexico were admitted.

We are proud of and stimulated by the splendid record of our delegate and go confidently before the people thereof, asking their confidence and support at the polls, and his hand may be applied for the final effort in the crowning work of the Democratic party for the admission of the territory of New Mexico to an honored place among the states of the union.

The warmest gratitude of the people of New Mexico is due to present territorial executive and his able and fearless assistants for exposing and bringing to deserved punishment the bands of outlandish thugs, murderers and assassins, who for so many years perpetrated their crimes of blood and murder, and Republican administration, and we assure him of the continued, earnest and loyal support of the good citizens in his vigorous efforts to enforce the law.

We demand such legislation, both national and territorial, as will give employees a just protection against the carelessness of corporations and guarantee to them the regular payment of their hard earned wages. And we pledge the Democratic party of the territory to the support of such equitable legislation as will be just to both labor and capital.

We again take the opportunity to speak out on the subject of statehood, demanding the immediate passage of the enabling act for the admission of New Mexico now pending in the U. S. senate, as a matter of right and justice and not as a matter of favor, believing earnestly that the greatest good in the history will come to the people of New Mexico through her admission into the Union of the states, and we pledge the united and unremitting efforts of our party to this cause.

We are unqualifiedly opposed to the violation of that portion of the Chicago platform of 1892, which guarantees to the people of the territories, Alaska and the District of Columbia the appointment of federal officials from the bona fide residents of the districts in which their duties are to be performed, and demand a return to the principles which guarantee home rule by the people of the territory; and we further declare the appointment of any non-resident federal official for New Mexico too much like a return to the Republican practices of the past to be acceptable to the people of this territory.

Proposals for Buildings.

U. S. Indian Industrial School, Phoenix, Arizona, Oct. 9, 1894.—Sealed Proposals, endorsed: "Proposals for Buildings," and addressed to the undersigned at Phoenix, Arizona, will be received at this school until 1 o'clock p. m. of Wednesday, November 7, 1894, for furnishing the necessary materials and labor and erecting and completing on the sites selected therefor, at this school, one (1) frame dormitory building, and one (1) brick employees' quarters, all according to the plans and specifications which may be examined at the office of the New Mexican of Santa Fe, New Mexico, and at this school.

Proposals must state specifically the proposed price of each building, and the length of time proposed to be consumed in the construction. A form of proposal is attached to the specifications. The attention of bidders is invited to the act of congress, approved August 1, 1892, entitled: "An act relating to the limitation of the hours of daily service of laborers and mechanics employed upon the public works of the United States and of the District of Columbia;" also to the act of congress approved August 13, 1894, entitled: "An act for the protection of persons furnishing materials and labor for the construction of public works." The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or any part of any bid if deemed for the best interests of the service.

CERTIFIED CHECKS.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or draft upon some United States depository or solvent National bank in the vicinity of the residence of the bidder, made payable to the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for at least five per cent of the amount of the proposal, which check or draft will be forfeited to the United States in case any bidder or bidders receiving an award shall fail to promptly execute a contract with good and sufficient sureties, otherwise to be returned to the bidder. Bids accompanied by cash in lieu of certified checks will not be considered. For further information, apply to:

May be derived from an ocean voyage and foreign travel. But before one gets one's "sea legs" on, as the sailor says, the abominable quins, begotten of sea sickness, have usually to be gotten over. Delicate people suffer, of course, more than the robust from this ailment, but few sea travelers escape it. Against the frightful nausea it produces, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a reliable defense, and is so esteemed by tourists, commercial travelers, yachtsmen and mariners. An ailment akin to sea sickness often afflicts land travelers with weak stomachs. This is often brought on by the jarring of a railway train. Disinfectant in the gastric region from this cause is always remedied by the Bitters, which also prevents and cures chills and fever, rheumatism, nervous and kidney trouble, constipation and biliousness.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs, the nervous system is like a telegraph system, and if the central station is deranged, the lines will be cut, and the message will not be sent. The little line of nerves which connect the brain with the rest of the body, if deranged, will cut off the nerve force from the rest of the body, and the system will be deranged. The nervous system is a wonderful system, and if it is deranged, the whole system will be deranged. The nervous system is a wonderful system, and if it is deranged, the whole system will be deranged.

HUNTING A LEGACY.

The 17th of June, 188—, was an important day for Henriette Bardonnell, milliner at Rouen.

She was seated at about 10 in the morning in front of her window, which faced on the Rue des Charrettes, busy shaping and trimming a superb bonnet, when Mme. Dufresnes, her employer, opened the door suddenly, and flourishing a paper burst into the room.

"Henriette! Henriette! Haven't you read it? Don't you know?" shouted she, out of breath. "Look, see!"

And she thrust the paper—the Petit Rouennais—under her eyes, pointing out a notice on the fourth page as follows:

Mme. Henriette Emillienne Bardonnell, daughter of Pierre Auguste Bardonnell, late piano tuner Rue de Grand Pont, at Rouen, is requested to send her address to M. Thiebault, lawyer, 52, Place du Vieux-Marche, Havre property.

"You must write the lawyer at once my dear—at once!"

"Yes, I am going to, of course, Mme. Dufresnes, right off," said Henriette.

The following evening, in reply to her letter, Mlle. Bardonnell received word from M. Thiebault asking her to come at once to his office.

To pay current expenses a check for 50 francs was enclosed. Decidedly things were looking well, and Mme. Dufresnes remarked upon it.

"You were born with a silver spoon in your mouth, my dear. I have always said so. And M. Leonce—he, too, is very happy, is he not? Is he going with you to Havre?"

M. Leonce, or Leonce Lecarpentier, was the son of a linen draper on the Quai aux Meules, a promising young bachelor of 28, blond and hearty, but as gentle and timid as a lamb.

Employed in his father's shop, for papa Lecarpentier did not believe any more than was necessary in throwing his money into the gutter, Leonce could only indulge himself in the purchase of the prettiest little milliner.

A bracelet or a gown on her birthday or at New Year's, a few penicils on Sundays during the summer and a few parties occasionally, and that was all.

Restraint, however, by paternal and business exigencies, Leonce had to let Henriette take the journey alone from Rouen to Havre.

The lawyer's office was in the second story of an old, dilapidated structure at the end of a courtyard.

M. Thiebault, a thin little man, with large, deep-set eyes under his large copper rimmed spectacles and a black velvet cap on his head, motioned to the young girl to take a seat on his left opposite the window.

"Mlle. Bardonnell, I suppose?"

"Yes, sir."

"You have taken care to bring your certificate of birth, as I suggested?"

"Here it is, sir."

The lawyer unfolded his paper and carefully read the statement.

"Pierre Auguste Bardonnell—so far so good. Correct. Your father left France about 1850, did he not, miss?"

"Yes, sir. I was then 5 years old. We were going to meet him in New York. My mother has often told me the story. He wrote us three or four times, as nearly as I can remember. But we never received any further news from him—never. My mother has been dead six years, and I have no living relation except a cousin at Elbeuf."

"Your father, miss, died on Jan. 22, 1879, in South America, leaving a fortune valued at 300,000 francs, or 600,000 francs, of which you are the sole heir. To enter into the possession of the whole of this fortune it will be necessary for you to go there in person in order that you may see my colleague, M. Guastella, who is the executor."

"Go way down there? But, monsieur, I—"

"We shall advance the necessary amount. Have no fear on that score."

"And when must I start?"

"Let us see—the Bureau—the Meuse—Friday, Saturday. Ah, here it is—the Meuse, for Buenos Ayres. You will sail next Monday. That's rather soon. You have just time to get back to Rouen and make your preparations. I shall expect you then, mademoiselle, on Monday next without fail."

Twenty-five days after Henriette Bardonnell, fortified with M. Thiebault's instructions and suggestions, and with the address of M. Guastella, Anibal Guastella, abogado, 182 Bolivar street, in her pocket, landed at Buenos Ayres, and was received by a man in a top hat, so favorably named De la Bonne Poire.

Within an hour after Henriette's arrival and before she had finished her dinner all her neighbors at the table, as well as the proprietor and three servants, who spoke French, were already informed of the motive and the object of her journey.

One of her neighbors, the one on the right, was an elegant and seductive Spanish gentleman of 30 years, who murdered French dreadfully. He answered to the name of Manuel Alvarez and lived at Montevideo, where he was in the cattle business.

Like a gallant Hidalgo, he offered to aid Henriette in her search, if she needed him—in short, he was at the service of mademoiselle.

The following morning early Henriette, with an interpreter, went to Bolivar street to the address of the advocate Guastella.

No Guastella at the number mentioned, not even an abogdo in the building. Nor was he in any of the neighboring buildings.

business agents. But no Anibal Guastella, no Dardonnell property—nothing. M. Manuel Alvarez undertook to introduce her to the French consul.

"I regret exceedingly, mademoiselle," replied this functionary to Henriette, "to dispel such an agreeable illusion, but if there had been here an unclaimed French property I should have been the first to know it, and there is none. You have been made the victim of a hoax."

Henriette, when she returned to the hotel, followed the consul's advice by exploring her memory to find some one who had a personal interest in expatriating her and in getting rid of her.

And she found some one without great difficulty. It was Leonce's father, the old scamp of a papa Lecarpentier. Not a doubt of it.

On her account Leonce had let slip several good matches, a Mlle. Contois of Lisieux among others. Now they were scheming to make him marry Mlle. Hennequin, daughter of a merchant of the Rue St. Sever.

"For how many sons did he buy the complexity of that Havre lawyer. But wait, just wait, old wretch! There are judges in France. They give damages. He laughs best who laughs last."

And bolting with indignation and rage Henriette went back to the consulate, and though without funds asked to be sent back home.

They promised a favorable reply to her request, but she must wait a fortnight. No boat would leave for France before the end of that time.

One evening as she was walking on the arm of M. Manuel Alvarez and telling him of her mortifications that wealthy and seductive Spanish gentleman murmured tenderly:

"Enriqueta, milgnon, suppose, instead of returning to Europe, you should stay here with me."

Five years later, one morning in May, Mlle. Manuel Alvarez, nee Bardonnell, stepped from a train at the Rouen station and directed her way toward the Rue des Charrettes.

She did not wish to go through France when she was traveling with her husband without seeing again her native city.

Mme. Dufresnes kept Henriette to dinner and brought out for her the very best. "Oh, do, do, I always told you that you were born lucky. Don't you remember it?"

"And the Lecarpentiers and my little Leonce? What have become of them?"

"What has become of them? Oh, my dear Henriette, the good God has given them their punishment."

"The linen business ran out. It is two years ago since the firm of Lecarpentier & Son failed and gave up business."

"Four months after you went away Leonce married Mlle. Fellette Hennequin, whose father kept a large shop."

"I know. And didn't the marriage turn out well?"

"You can't really say that it did. M. and Mme. Leonce left Rouen when the failure came. They are probably living wretchedly somewhere, in Paris perhaps. As for papa Lecarpentier, his troubles have affected him so that he is in his second childhood. He is begging. When you go, you have only to turn up the street and you get in front of the theater, and there you'll see him."

Arrived at the end of the street, Henriette saw seated on a little stool an old babler who handled feebly a wheezy old accordion.

"Don't you remember me, papa Lecarpentier?"

The poor wretch interrupted the fearful strains of his instrument and fixed on the young woman a stony, fixed stare.

"You played me a villainous trick, in your day, with your story of the property in America. But that's all over now. Come, old scamp, here's something for you."

And she let fall into the beggar's cap all the gold she had in her purse.—From the French of Albert Cim.

After His Money's Worth.

Colonel Frank Bradley went into a well known restaurant the other day, when, looking over the menu card, his eyes fell on "Purée tomato a la St. Julien."

With the air of a learned professor, the ancient Celtic language, he looked up at the bearded waiter and solemnly said, "Purée tomato St. Julien."

"Yes, sir," answered the gentleman of the cloth hammer coat and white gloves, and presently he came back with some blood colored fluid and set it down before the hungry broker.

"What's this you got here, son?" asked the broker.

"Tomato soup, what you o'd'd."

"No, I didn't order tomato soup. I ordered purée tomato St. Julien. You take this back and get me what I ordered. I don't want any of your low down English dishes. I only eat in French, sir. If you are going to put on lugs in this hash house and print in French, then by the Apostle Paul I shall no longer eat in English. My eyes and ears are not to be trifled with. You don't palm off to me any red liquid like that and make me believe it has been garnished and seasoned with purée tomato a la St. Julien or St. Julia."

St. Peter either. You've got to elude a few false p's, a felo de se or two and three or four femme de chambre before my palate can put up with it. You see there is a telegraphic connection between my eyes and my palate. You go and get me some purée a la la bours and Champs Elysees of tomato and sauerkraut or I'll cut you off, cut you off p. d. q. without a tip."

"Yes, sah," answered the waiter, the corners of his mouth having joined the back of his head, "dat's jes' what I tole de boss would happen if he didn't dole de French entanglements alone. I told him dat would be a resurrection heah."

Bread on the Waters.

Two gamblers were hiving the sunshine on one of the business corners when an old man hobbled by. He had signals of distress all over him. As the dying driver of a Montana coach said of himself, this old man was on the down grade and could not reach the brake. This man was once a police justice in this city. The gamblers stepped aside to let him go.

"The old man is pretty feeble," said one of them.

"He saved us many a dollar."

"That's what he did, old man. When the 'little' (detail) used to run us in, the old man would fine us $5 or $10 apiece and save us expense of making defense in the criminal court."

"Many a time."

"Let's take $500 out of the game and make him a present of it. He needs it now."

"That's more than I've made in my game lately, but I'll go you."

Isn't that odd?

No, there's a nigger inside of the alligator.

The Best Line East.

Is unquestionably the Burlington route.

In point of equipment, time and service it is conceded to be superior to all other lines.

The fast vestibuled "flyer" leaving Denver daily at 9 p. m., reaches Chicago at 8:20 a. m. and St. Louis at 7:20 a. m., the second morning, in ample time to connect with all fast trains for the east and south.

It is also a fact worth remembering that the Burlington is the only line running through trains over its own tracks from Denver to Chicago and St. Louis without change of any class of cars.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, U. S. Indian Industrial School, October 23, 1894.—Sealed Proposals, endorsed, "Proposals for Beef Net, etc.," as the case may be, and addressed to the undersigned at Santa Fe, New Mexico, will be received at this school until 1 o'clock p. m. of October 26, 1894, for furnishing and delivering at this school about 60,000 lbs. of beef net, 12,500 lbs. of oats, 12,500 lbs. of corn, 12,500 lbs. of feed, 26 tons of hay and 20 tons of coal. The coal must be clean and free from slate and dirt. Oats must be bright and clean, well sacked, and weigh not less than 32 lbs. to the bushel.

Corn must be sound and clean; to weigh not less than 56 lbs. to the bushel, and to be delivered in sacks of about 2½ bushels capacity, made of 8-ounce burlap, well sewed.

Beef must be good in quality and condition, fit for immediate use, and from fore and hind quarters meat proportionally, including all the best cuts thereof. Beef from bulls, stags or diseased cattle shall not be delivered. The necks of the cattle slaughtered for beef shall be cut off at the fourth vertebral joint and the breast trimmed down; the shanks of fore-quarters shall be cut off four inches above the knee joint, and the hind-quarters eight inches above the hook joint. Necks, shanks and kidney tallow will not be received. Delivery must be made at such times and in such quantities as may be required by the undersigned.

Feed must be of clean corn and oats, fresh ground, of good, sound grain. All articles will be subject to a rigid inspection.

Proposals must state specifically the proposed price of each article offered for delivered under a contract.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or any part of any bid if deemed for the best interest of the service.

CERTIFIED CHECKS.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or draft upon some United States depository or solvent National bank in the vicinity of the residence of the bidder, made payable to the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for at least 5 per cent of the amount of the proposal, which check or draft will be forfeited to the United States in case any bidder or bidders receiving an award shall fail to promptly execute a contract with good and sufficient sureties, otherwise to be returned to the bidder.

Bids accompanied by cash in lieu of a certified check will not be considered. For further information apply to

CATRON'S CLUB.

It Beats the Kickers Into Line and Names a County Ticket—The Same Old Crowd in Control.

The Republican county convention met this morning at the court house. The same old faces that have favored this county with ring rule, lawlessness and public corruption for the last decade, were seen on all sides.

Candidate Thomas B. Catron moved among the delegates with that slow majestic tread which has become as well-known as himself, pulling at his watch-chain with his left hand, the other in his pocket. Ever and anon, he would call aside one or another of those in attendance. On such occasions, his right hand would be temporarily withdrawn from his pocket, for what purpose or with what contents "deponent sayeth not."

Law Partner Spiess was on hand with a broad smile beaming forth from the top of a brand new cravat. That the color of this was taken as significant of the fate of the candidate for the council which was to be conferred on that gentleman a little later. Mr. R. E. Twitchell, the sub-chairman of the campaign, sat just below the rostrum upon which the temporary chairman was seated and at proper intervals sat down severely upon that offering official. Mr. Twitchell's ebullient countenance and silvery voice were both very much in evidence and the latter was utilized in many instances in the delivering of some very pretty little speeches.

Ex-Gov. Prince was not on hand; a special emergency called him away from town. Neither was Mr. E. A. Fiske there; it is supposed that law business prevented his presence.

It was also noteworthy that the SANTA FE BUSINESS MEN, who are Republicans, were very conspicuous by their uniform absence.

Mr. Antonio Ortiz y Salazar called the convention to order and nominated as temporary chairman, W. B. Sloan. Mr. George W. North, of Cerrillos, was chosen as temporary secretary, and County Clerk Romero del interpreted act for Mr. Twitchell's honeyed words and for the more prosaic efforts of the others.

THE MACHINE AT WORK.

Dennis Coughlin, Cerrillos; R. J. Ewing; Glorietta; Faundo Pino, Galisteo; Agustín Maes, Santa Cruz; R. M. Carley, San Pedro, and Juan M. Vigil, of San Ildefonso, were named as the committee on credentials on motion of Mr. Aniceto Abeytia.

When it came to naming the committee on credentials a sparring match took place between Chairman Sloan and Assistant Chairman Twitchell, which resulted in the former exclaiming, "The chair subsides." The committee was then named as follows: Antonio Abeytia, J. V. Conway, H. C. Kissell, Chas. Conklin, Cristoforo Pino, Manuel Gonzales, Jose Amado Lucero.

The committee on resolutions consisted of T. B. Catron, R. E. Twitchell and one member from each precinct.

A motion, made to the effect that upon adjournment the convention should not meet until 2 o'clock, afforded Mr. Twitchell an opportunity to deliver the speech which those present had observed he was laboring under. Mr. Twitchell took the position that the delegates should have more time to deliberate on the resolutions. He declared intention that he, with the aid of others, would unite in these resolutions in consigning the present administration to "the depths of oblivion" or awakened not even a suggestion of applause. After a committee on rules had been appointed Mr. Twitchell fired off the second installment of his speech by suggesting that all Santa Fe ladies, of whatever politics, be invited to attend the convention this afternoon and the ratification meeting to-night. This was carried with an enthusiasm that indicated an earnest desire on the part of the convention to fill the

in the rear of the hall. The committee on credentials here submitted their report.

Mr. Charles A. Spiess then took the floor to move that Mr. James Devine and Mr. J. T. Williams be added to the list of Cerrillos delegates.

Mr. Spiess spoke very feelingly of how the people had been robbed of their liberty by the administration and by the judiciary. It was noted by those present that Mr. Spiess laid some emphasis upon the word "judiciary." Messrs. Williams and Devine were added.

Mr. Twitchell thereupon rose to deliver the third installment of his speech, when Chairman Sloan, doubtless to head off the coming storm of eloquence, said: "Let me first state the motion."

"Wait a minute; we all understand the motion," replied sub-Chairman Twitchell; the chair "waited" and again "subsided," and the motion was never stated. Mr. Twitchell's third speech was very vehement in its abuse of the national administration, but his hearers his mentioning of President Cleveland's name. At the conclusion of Mr. Twitchell's third speech, the convention adjourned until 2:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session of the convention the committee on permanent organization reported as follows: President, R. E. Twitchell; vice presidents, Antonio Ortiz y Salazar and G. W. North; secretaries, W. B. Sloan and Ambrosio Ortiz; interpreters, Atanacio Romero and John V. Conway.

In taking the chair, Mr. Twitchell delivered the fourth installment of his speech.

On recommendation of the committee on rules, the rules of the Red congress were adopted as an order of procedure. The report of the committee on resolutions was read by Mr. Charles A. Spiess. The resolutions were of the stereotyped, anti-administration, calamity-howler order.

THE NOMINATIONS.

The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted. The convention then proceeded to the selection of candidates. Mr. R. E. Twitchell vacated the chair and delivered the fifth and last installment of his speech, in the course of which he nominated Mr. Charles A. Spiess. Mr. Spiess was nominated by acclamation.

Sam C. Hardesty, of Cerrillos, and T. J. Helm, of Santa Fe, were nominated for the legislature.

Probate judge—Aniceto Abeytia.

Assessor—Atanacio Romero.

Treasurer—H. B. Cartwright.

Sheriff—Ambrosio Pino.

Collector—A. L. Morrison and Juan J. Ortiz were placed in nomination and Morrison was snubbed under, he receiving 21 votes to Ortiz 31.

This result caused a big crack in the slate and the band here played "Listen to my tale of woe," while Chairman Twitchell retired for consultation as to further procedure.

Later Marcos Castillo was nominated for superintendent of public schools; J. J. Conner—Antonio Alarid.

At 4:45 p. m. the convention got into a hot fight over the nomination of county commissioners, A. L. Kendall being opposed by the G. W. North element, and a recess of ten minutes was taken.

Later—The nominees for commissioners are: Charles W. Dudrow, A. L. Kendall, Pedro A. Lujan.

SATURDAY SALAD.

A JOLLY PARTY.

An interesting party of young people have been spending the last few days in the city and have been the object of a good deal of attention. The party is composed of Mr. S. A. Van Dusen, of New York City, more recently of Fairplay, Colo.; his son, Mr. R. M. Van Dusen, who has just graduated from Buchtel college, Ohio; Mr. W. H. Ide, of Columbus, Ohio, who has just finished his course at Harvard; Mr. H. I. Danton, of Canandaigua, N. Y., who has just graduated from the University of Michigan; Mr. G. B. Conner, lately connected with the National bank of Haverstraw, N. Y., and Count G. T. Di Keraga, of New York City, a native of Italy. These gentlemen are traveling through the country by wagon for the double purpose of gaining pleasure and trying to get a good deal of money. They left their common meeting place in Colorado on October 1, coming down the Rio Grande railroad through the various places of interest. There are a number of very fine musicians in the party and a jolly time they are having all the way. They left today for Golden, from which point they go to Arizona, via Albuquerque. After visiting the Grand canon, the party will go into southern California, returning east about midwinter by a more northern route. Their tent, which has been pitched near the Gaspar avenue bridge, has been freely visited by the many friends this happy party have made in Santa Fe.

SMALL TALK.

Mr. T. J. Helm has returned from a trip to Denver.

Hon. Lorion Miller is spending a few days in Albuquerque.

Miss Dolis Stamb has returned from a trip of several weeks east.

Mr. Louis Baer, of Albuquerque, has been spending the last two or three days in Santa Fe.

Gov. Thornton and wife and Mrs. Duncan will return to-night from their visit to Roswell and Eddy.

Archbishop Chapelle is visiting in Philadelphia at present. He will be in Washington next week.

A telegram received from U. S. Attorney Reynolds this morning announced that he leaves Guadalajara, Mexico, tomorrow on his way back to Santa Fe. Justice Fuller and party accompany him.

Mr. Henry C. Wisner writes the New Mexican from Detroit that he and Mrs. Wisner expect to spend the winter in New Mexico, arriving about November 1. Mr. Wisner and his charming wife were visitors here last winter and their many friends will be glad to welcome them once more.

Mrs. Reed, a handsome and charming lady from New York, is sojourning in the city and tenderly administering to the comfort of an invalid child. They are quartered in the Gallegos block. Mrs. Reed's husband was a lieutenant in the regular army and some thirty years ago was stationed in Santa Fe.

Sister Charles Regina, assistant of the noble order of the Sisters of Charity at the mother house, and Sister Maria Teresa, of Cincinnati, will reach the city tonight on a visit to the Sisters at St. Vincent's sanitarium. Sisters Fidelis and Hyacinth, of Albuquerque, and Sister Basilis, of the Glookner sanitarium, Colorado Springs, will accompany them.

Mrs. George W. Knebel entertained a number of lady friends very pleasantly at tea Tuesday evening. The table was tastefully decorated with flowers and the appointments of the occasion were all in keeping with the reputation of the hostess. Those present were Mrs. Knebel, Mrs. Hickox, Mrs. Franz, Mrs. Crichton, Mrs. Reiser, Mrs. Fiske, Miss Franz and Mrs. Bishop.

Miss Kilbourne entertained a few friends at a musical Friday evening. Selections were rendered by Miss Kilbourne, Mr. Joe Kilbourne, Miss Helm, Mr. Arthur Seligman and the Messrs. Baker. Delightful refreshments were served and the evening proved a most delightful one. Those present were Miss Hilfield, Miss Helm, Mr. Seligman, Mr. Ide, Mr. Van Dusen, Messrs. Wallace and Francis Baker.

The Santa Fe Social club gave a very delightful dance last Tuesday night. A large crowd was in attendance and the occasion proved most enjoyable. Among those present were Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Ed. Franz, Mrs. Lorion Miller, Mrs. Hilfield, Mrs. J. B. H. Hemingway, Mrs. George Hemingway, Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Horsey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Misses Hilfield, Seligman and Kilbourne, and Messrs. Wallace Baker, J. D. Hughes, George Brady and F. C. Alley.

Some of the most talented musicians of the city have formed an orchestra composed as follows: Mr. W. E. Griffin, 1st violin; Mr. Arthur Seligman, 2d violin; Miss Addie Schormeyer, cornet; Mr. Vicente Lorenzo, cello; Mr. Phil Harmon, flute; and Mrs. Griffin, pianist. The orchestra will render music at private entertainments and their combined talents will be the source of much pleasure to their fortunate friends. The orchestra will shortly be increased to a dozen pieces or more.

Mrs. J. B. H. Hemingway delightfully entertained a number of her young friends with a musical musicale Wednesday evening at the Palace. Selections were rendered by Mrs. Lee Brown, Miss Hurt, Mr. Gortner and the Messrs. Baker. Refreshments were served during the evening, and on the whole the occasion in the completeness of its pleasure was characteristic of the charming hostess. The guests were Mrs. E. L. Hall, Mrs. Lee Brown, Mrs. Clausen, Mrs. George Hemingway, Misses Loomis, Helm, Hurt, Gortner, Kilbourne, Marie Spiess, Lynch, Holzman and the Messrs. Baker and Messrs. C. A. Spiess, R. C. Gortner, Francis and Walter Baker.

Mr. A. Staab, who has just returned from a trip to Europe, was on the steamship Lucania of the Cunard line, which broke the record for trans-Atlantic travel about a month ago. The exact time between Queenstown and Sandy Hook was five days, seven hours and forty minutes, which was exactly fifty minutes quicker than the Atlantic had ever been crossed before. Mr. Staab left Liverpool at 5:45 p. m., Saturday, September 22, and on Friday, the 28th, he was in his New York hotel at 8 p. m. After reaching New York Mr. Staab took a trip up to Boston to visit his sons who are at Harvard. He says that they have successfully entered the junior and senior classes. Mr. Julius Staab the latter. Mr. Staab says that matters east are brightening up considerably in the business world.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

A splendid rain fell last night. Regular meeting of the W. B. T. at 2:30 on Monday.

Mr. A. B. Renshaw now has his office with Mr. E. A. Fiske.

Clarence Griffin, Frank Andrews and W. J. Eaton started out this afternoon for some quail shooting down below the Cienegillas.

The supreme court meets Monday week, the 29th, for the purpose of delivering opinions and hearing some cases still standing on the docket.

On Tuesday, October 23, the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give an oyster supper in the Delgado store formerly occupied by Mr. Bishop.

The Democrats of precincts 3 and 4 will hold rousing rallies to-night, the first at Pascual Padilla's house and the second at Gonzales' hall. Fine speeches will be made by leading Democrats.

Mr. L. G. Reid left to-day for Mora to become interpreter in Judge Laughlin's court, relieving Mr. Romero, whose business calls him back to Santa Fe Democratic headquarters.

Mrs. Annie Spurlock, matron at the Indian school, has resigned. She left yesterday for Mojave, A. T., where she has accepted a position. Her successor will be appointed at Washington.

Mr. George W. Knebel has been appointed by Judge Laughlin as special master in the case of Odaville Yates vs. Lincoln-Lucky & Lee Mining company, Mr. J. H. Sutherland and Judge Downs represent the respective parties.

S. M. Folsom's attorneys have applied to Judge Sanborn, of the U. S. circuit court of appeals at St. Louis, to grant the release of their client from the penitentiary on a writ of error. The case comes up for hearing on the 24th inst. As the supreme court of the U. S. has decided, in the case of the Aztec Mining company vs. Ripley, that the court of appeals has only very limited and specific jurisdiction in reviewing the acts of a territorial supreme court, the chances are that Judge Sanborn will promptly deny the writ.

Word comes down from Trinidad that James Garland, an old Santa Fe resident, was seriously injured a few days ago at Clayton and was sent to the hospital at Trinidad with a broken arm to nurse. Jim is an old veteran member of Carleton post and is a hard citizen to kill.

Mr. S. S. Beatty, the live and enterprising Water street grocery man, has received five carloads of grain, flour, etc., in the past four days, one coming over the Santa Fe and four over the narrow gauge road, and by buying in these large quantities he can give his many patrons the benefits of always receiving fresh goods and at figures that other merchants will find it hard to compete with.

Much interest is developing in the handicap bike race from Santa Fe to Lamy to-morrow afternoon. There will be a dozen or fifteen wheelmen "in it."

Messrs. Moore, Shurtz, Coddington, Scott and Lewis, well known wheelmen of Albuquerque, telegraph that they are on their way up from the Duke city on their wheels and will arrive at 5 p. m. They will join in to-morrow's race, leaving with the "scratch men" at 8 p. m. The start will be made from the plaza.

clever man, leaves to-day for Las Vegas where he enters the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine company. While Mr. Newhall will thus be absent from Santa Fe for business reasons, his family will still remain in this city and he will therefore be over often to see his old friends. Mr. Newhall has a great many good stories to tell about his recent trip to the Odd Fellows gathering at Chattanooga, Tenn. He says that he was kept busy half the time answering questions about New Mexico and he is certain that with statehood this territory will have thousands of immigrants from all parts of the country.

Mr. S. A. Van Dusen, who is in the city for a few days, is extensively interested in mining interests near Leadville, Colo. He is, in addition, one of the original Populists of Colorado. He says Waite will be re-elected. Mr. Van Dusen came down to Santa Fe along the line of the narrow gauge road. He talked with a great many people about territorial politics on his way down and he says that almost without exception those whom he met were for Antonio Joseph.
