REMEMBER THIS.

People who advertise only once in three months forget that most folks can not remember a thing longer than seven days.

THAT'S SO.

Trying to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl through a pair of green goggles. You may know what you are about, but nobody else does.

ALWAYS ADVERTISE IN DULL TIMES.

To quit advertising in dull times is like tearing out a dam because the water is low. Either plan will prevent good times from ever coming.

THE STAFF OF BUSINESS.

Bread is the staff of human life and advertising is the staff of business.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 22.—Gov. Altgeld to-day issued a requisition on the governor of Indiana for the extradition of Pascal R. Smith and Dr. B. C. Flower, wanted in Chicago on a charge of defrauding Nathaniel Foster out of $67,000 in a land scheme in New Mexico.

Vice President Stevenson.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—Vice President Stevenson spoke in St. Louis Saturday night. To-day and to-morrow he will make ten speeches in Missouri, crossing the state in a private car. He will make a similar tour in New York Friday and Saturday. He returns by way of Detroit, where he speaks on Monday, and ends the campaign in Illinois. His last speech will be in Decatur Nov. 3.

Kahoka, Mo., Oct. 22.—The special bearing Vice President Stevenson and party arrived at Kahoka at 9:30 this morning where some 4,000 citizens and school children had assembled. Congressman Hatch introduced Mr. Stevenson who delivered a five minutes address, speaking briefly as to what congress had done in the way of reforming the tariff and expressing the hope that the voters of this congressional district would again return Mr. Hatch to congress. The train then pulled out for Memphis, Mo.

STILL ALIVE.

The Czar of Russia—More Theories as to His Allment—The Czarina in Hysterics.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—Advices received to-day from Livadia regarding the czar's condition indicate a slight rally.

Copenhagen.—Private advices from Livadia to-day say the czar passed a good night and is somewhat stronger to-day.

London.—A dispatch from Warsaw says it is believed in that city that the disease from which the czar is suffering originated in a railroad accident near Borki, in October, 1888, when the imperial train was wrecked while his majesty was returning from Crimea to St. Petersburg. The czar suffered severe contusions on both sides of his body and this it is conjectured may have resulted in some internal injury, as he has never been quite well since.

London.—The Globe to-day publishes a dispatch from Paris saying the czarina had an attack of hysteria yesterday. She never leaves the sick room and she can hardly be induced to take any repose. It is feared the czarina will lose her reason if her anxiety is protracted for any length of time.

Double Murder.

Hannibal, Mo., Oct. 22.—Stanford Baldwin murdered his wife early this morning and then killed himself with a double barreled shot gun. He was 50 years old and his wife was 35.

Baron Basing Dead.

London, Oct. 22.—Baron Basing (Geo. Selater-Booth) is dead. He was financial secretary of the treasury in 1868 and president of the local government board from 1874 to 1888. He was created Baron Basing in 1887.

CHINESE WAR.

Hospitals in Both China and Japan Crowded with Wounded—Negotiating for Peace.

Chemulpo, Oct. 22.—A detachment of 1,800 wounded Japanese arrived here to-day and there is a large number of wounded at Seoul. In addition to this 2,100 wounded Japanese have been sent to Japan. At Ping Yang there are 1,200 wounded Chinese in the hospitals. The rebellious Tonghais of southern Corea are restless and only the fact that they are not provided with arms prevents their breaking out in open revolt and moving upon Seoul.

NEGOTIATING FOR PEACE.

Tien Tsin.—It is stated from a reliable source that negotiations for peace between China and Japan are proceeding at Seoul.

Struck by a Cyclone.

Arkansas City, Kas., Oct. 22.—It is just learned from Genda Springs, a small place ten miles south of here, that that hamlet was struck by a cyclone on Saturday evening, which destroyed six frame buildings and did other damage. The total damage was about $10,000.

New York Democrats.

New York, Oct. 22.—At the Democratic headquarters it was announced that Philip Weiss, Tammany's Democratic candidate for the assembly, had complied with Mayor's Candidate Grant's demand that he retire from the ticket. "Silver Dollar" Smith, aldermanic nominee, to whom Grant took exception, says he will not withdraw. A conference of the Democratic managers will be held to-day to consider the situation of those congressional districts in which there are two Democratic candidates.

FOUR PERISHED.

A Disastrous Blaze in Which Four Children Lost Their Lives.

Nyack, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Four grandchildren of the Rev. William Taylor, a Methodist missionary and bishop of Africa, perished in a fire at the elegant house of their father, Ross Taylor, in South Nyack early to-day, and in addition one man was so badly burned that he can scarcely recover and two others are seriously injured.

It was a little after 4 o'clock when Mrs. Taylor was awakened by the smell of smoke. She aroused her husband, Rev. Ross Taylor. He found the halls filled through the suffocating smoke to get to open air without having been able to extend a helping hand to their six children and others of the household. As Mr. and Mrs. Taylor emerged from the building the fire department arrived. The energies of all were directed toward the rescue of those who still remained in the doomed structure. The two eldest Taylor children, Stewart and William, were aroused in time and jumping from the window of their chamber were caught without being seriously injured. Harriet, aged 11; Ada, aged 9; Arthur, aged 8, and Schultz, aged 5, perished. Their bodies were recovered three hours later by Michael Mulady, a laborer.

From the Army.

Washington, Oct. 22.—While the Indian officials at one time showed a desire to appoint civilians as Indian agents in place of army officers, where army officers have been relieved, it has now been determined to fill such vacancies with army officers.

In Hot Pursuit.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 22.—The men who held up the west bound Texas & Pacific passenger train on Friday have been sighted south of Gordon well-mounted and armed. A large posse have gone to that neighborhood in pursuit. There have been rewards aggregating $1,800 offered for their capture. The robbers got but $1,000, but had they opened the safe some $60,000 would have been theirs. They are heading for the Palopinto mountains, where the rangers say they will be easily captured.

REPUBLICANS DISMAYED.

Good Times Come to Indiana Industries and Calamity Howlers Are Hushed.

Indianapolis, Oct. 22.—Indiana is safe for a Democratic majority two weeks hence. A remarkable change in public sentiment has occurred throughout the state within four weeks. The chief cause of this change is the unmistakable evidence of a phenomenal business revival. Within the past forty-five days factories have resumed operations in Indiana, with heavier pay rolls than ever before in their history. To-day not 3 per cent of Indiana factories are idle, and in the great gas belt there is not 1. Ninety-five per cent of them are running full time, and at least 40 per cent of them are running double time. All the manufacturing towns are beginning to feel the effect in business of the factory wage payments. While these make business lively for the merchants, they furnish valuable object lessons to the workingmen on the effects of tariff reform in the enhanced purchasing power of their earnings. Remembering their long idleness under the McKinley law, in many cases lasting from one to two years, and noting the immediate and spontaneous resumption of work following the repeal of that law, they are manifesting anything but a disposition to vote for a restoration of that.

DISASTER-BREEDING ENACTMENT.—With the changed commercial and industrial conditions there has been a corresponding change in political conditions. The calamity cry, so effectively employed by Republicans earlier in the campaign, is laughed down wherever and whenever it is raised and the party of high moral principles and low moral practices is left without an issue commanding attention.

With the coming of apprehension to the Republican heart has come a corresponding return of confidence to the Democratic breast. The issue of reports to the state committee has completely changed. Where a few weeks ago party workers were writing in the most hopeless and despondent fashion, they now speak with confidence, almost amounting to assurance. Great activity is reported from every quarter of the state.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS

are the ones best attended and where the greatest enthusiasm is manifested, while the ranks of the Populists, which had formerly contained many Democrats from among the railroaders and other workingmen, are rapidly being decimated by the return of these prodigals to their former party allegiance.

The reports, whose trustworthiness has been everywhere verified by careful investigation, have made the Democratic leaders feel that their scarcely fighting chance of a few weeks ago has now developed into at least an even one. The great Democratic fear all along has been that the vote would not be got out. That fear is rapidly vanishing and giving place to an expectation of a Democratic vote closely approximating that of the last presidential year. Such a vote is felt to mean a Democratic victory.

On the Mexican Border.

Washington, Oct. 22.—In the annual report of Gen. Frank Wheaton, commanding the department of Texas, he says that but a few attempted violations of our nationality laws have been brought to his notice and that the Rio Grande border has been very quiet during the past year. He renews, however, his former recommendations for the establishment of permanent and larger posts on the Mexican frontier.

THE SKIES BRIGHTENING.

The Pottery Industries of the East Are Booming—A Great Cotton Mill to Be Erected.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 22.—There are unusually busy times just now in the pottery towns of the east. Burroughs and Monmouth have unloaded considerable clay, and have no end of supplies. Additional hands have been put on in the departments of the Glasgow pottery. At Willett's pottery, one of the largest of this kind, was shipped away as fast as it is drawn from the kilns, and is not produced in sufficient quantities to meet the demand. The shiphouse, where the clay is made, has been augmented to the demand made upon it, and a press of sixty-four chambers was put in. That failed to supply clay fast enough for the clay department, and it is probable that another press will soon be added. The Isaac Davis pottery has resumed after long idleness.

Ex-Congressman John Hart Brewer has a pottery. He was a strong high tariff man when in congress, and is now running his pottery up to its full pressure. The Eagle Pottery company recently put on an extra force of kilnmen to get out the necessary work. The same reports come from all the potteries in town.

MAMMOTH COTTON MILLS.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 21.—The Ronoke Rapid Power company, composed of northern and southern capitalists, with a paid-up capital of $2,000,000, has purchased 3,000 acres of cotton growing land at Ronoke Springs, N. C., and has commenced the erection of a twenty-four-set knitting factory and a 20,000-spindle cotton mill, which will give employment to 1,000 persons. At the directors' meeting yesterday, Wm. A. Habliston, of Petersburg, was elected president, and W. G. Maxwell, of New York, vice president.

WILY SCHEMERS.

A Wild Scramble for their Money Caused by the Closing of Those Discretionary Pools.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—The news of the closing up by the police of the Public Stock and Produce Exchange discretionary pool concerns on Saturday brought a crowd of investors from the country into town to-day, showing how widespread had been the operation of these concerns. The Delaneys, who operated the Public Stock and Produce Exchange, secured their release on bail for hearing this evening. At their office this morning they announced to their clients that as their books were in the hands of the police, they were unable to pay out any money or transact any business except to receive notices of withdrawal of depositors. All discretionary pools have a clause in their agreements by which they can insist upon thirty days' notice of withdrawal.

The Consolidated Stock and Produce company, another discretionary pool, did not open its doors to-day. Hundreds of investors who went to the office to withdraw their deposits were confronted with a notice that the firm had temporarily suspended. Washington Frost, the manager, was not there, and warrants are out for his arrest. Other pools are expected to suspend at any moment and the excitement among the investors is high.

By the books of the Delaneys it is shown that over half of the investors were women, most of them domestic and wash women who fancied they had found an easy road to wealth.

Dividend Declared.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The comptroller of currency has declared a dividend of 10 per cent in favor of the creditors of the First National bank of San Dance, Wyo.

Call a Halt on Them.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—The supreme court of this state to-day halted the Standard Oil company in its process of absorbing the Independent oil refineries. A deal was made to buy out the Producers & Refiners Oil company. John G. Carter, of Franklin, Pa., a stockholder, secured an injunction of the supreme court, without discussing the questions involved, and the court made the injunction permanent.

Northern Pacific Muddle.

Milwaukee, Oct. 22.—The attorneys representing the Northern Pacific and the receivers and bondholders' committee appeared before Judge Jenkins to-day to argue the demurrer of the receivers to the petition to make the bondholders' committee a party to the foreclosure suit. Col. Pettit has occupied most of the time thus far in arguing against the demurrer.

SANTA FE AFFAIRS.

The Stockholders to be Assessed Again or the Road will Probably be Foreclosed.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 22.—The meeting of Santa Fe directors in Topeka next Thursday has absolutely no significance whatever, said Joseph G. Waters, formerly general attorney for the Santa Fe company, to a reporter to-day. "The reorganization committees are supposed by most people to represent the vast wealth involved in the Santa Fe property, but they do not. They are simply seeking desperately to get the people who hold the stock to comply with one more assessment before the end for the purpose of keeping up the formal but expensive organization. Judge Caldwell has said that the Santa Fe property must either go into the hands of the first mortgagees or prove itself capable of running without a receiver. The latter is impossible. The road will be foreclosed within a year and the mortgages assume the management."

Splendid Progress in the Pecos Region—Heavy Land Sales—Extension of the Railroad.

Gov. Thornton, who has just returned with his family from Roswell, says that the Roswell celebration was a great success in every way, there being no less than 3,000 people present. He says that that section of the territory is making magnificent progress and is every day receiving new settlers of the most substantial class. During the time he was in Roswell there were 1,100 acres sold in the vicinity for farming purposes, the amount paid for the land aggregating $65,000. Within a few weeks Stark Bros., nursery men, of Louisiana, Mo., and President Earle, of the horticultural society of the United States, will set out 1,000 acres in apples in the old Chisum farm near Roswell. The governor says that from information gained while in the Pecos valley it seems certain that the railroad will be immediately completed from Roswell north via White Oaks in case the people of the territory indicate by their votes next month that they favor New Mexico's admission as a state. The people of the Pecos valley are pushing forward to the front with great strides and the future of this favored region looks indeed bright.

Invalid 3 Years, Cured by Hood's

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Gentlemen:—I am glad to tell you that I have been given good health by Hood's Sarsaparilla. For three years I was an invalid, suffering terribly from Nervousness and Lameness. 'I was so nervous I could not bear the least noise, and I had to walk with crutches for six months, as I could not put one of my feet to the floor. Physicians did not do me any good, so a friend told me to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, but

I said there was no use. 'However, after giving the matter over, I decided to try it, and have taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the result is that I am well as any one could wish to be, and can do any kind of work. I advise all my friends to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for I believe it will do them good.' Miss Susan Donson, Colton, California.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22.

Democratic Ticket

FOR DELEGATE TO THE 54TH CONGRESS,
ANTONIO JOSEPH.

UNDER the McKinley law the United States government, or in other words, the people of America, gave the sugar planters every year as a bounty no less than $12,000,000.

Under the Democratic tariff law passed by the last congress the sugar planters get from the government:

The $12,000,000 formerly paid out to that favored class now stays in the pockets of the people.

Ten galled jades continue to do a great deal of winning.

Religious bigotry, Republicanism and A. P. A.ism must go.

From all indications "little birds" is about to befall its own nest.

AMBROSIO PINO is too intimately associated with the Borrego wing of Catronism ever to become sheriff of Santa Fe county.

When statehood is assured through the reelection of Joseph to congress the Pecos Valley railroad will not be long in filling in the gap between Roswell, White Oaks and central New Mexico.

A CYCLOPE FOR JOSEPH.

"We would not impugn the motive of the Stockman people. We have no doubt that they are sincere, and heartily believe as they speak; but they are not the only people who have changed their minds in these times of political confusion," says the Las Vegas Optic, and the Optic is right, this time. For instance, Hon. Robt. Mingo, of Gadsden county, a life-long Republican and the owner of many thousand head of sheep, is earnestly working for Mr. Joseph and statehood during this campaign. In Rio Arriba, Colfax and Dona Ana counties a score of ranchers could be named who have recently repudiated Catronism and gone to work to aid the good cause of statehood by advocating the reelection of Mr. Joseph—and so on, ad lib.

FOR SHAME.

Boss Catron's contempt for the public school system was aptly illustrated in Santa Fe on Saturday when he permitted the so-called Republican convention to nominate Marcos Costello as its candidate for superintendent of public schools in Santa Fe county.

Mr. Catron must shoulder the full responsibility for this nomination, for the convention was his to obey as cringing as ever whipped cur responded to call of its master.

It was a sop thrown to the Borrego gang—a truckling to the very lowest and most vicious political element that ever cast its withering blight over Santa Fe.

For this act alone Catron deserves to be forever politically shelved by the voters of Santa Fe. For shame!

DECEIVING WESTERN WOOL GROWERS.

The Republican calamity howlers should not attempt to play all the wool growers of New Mexico for a pack of idiots. Many who are engaged in this business are shrewd, level-headed business men who have a habit of thinking for themselves and if they need any business advice the editor of a Republican organ is the last individual on earth whom they would seek. These same plain sheepraisers know that an enlarged market for American woolen manufactures can have no other effect than causing a boom in wool prices just as soon as time enough has elapsed to adjust the business of the country to the new Democratic tariff law. They laugh at all this rot about the McKinley law giving them any sort of "protection," for whatever of "protection" there was in that act was intended for the eastern manufacturer, not the western producer, and it was on this account that the price of wool steadily went down while the McKinley law was in force.

These wool growers of New Mexico thoroughly understand that it was the manufacturers of New England, out of whom a Republican congress desired to "fry the fat" of campaign contributions, that paid well to have a tax placed on wool so as to increase the cost of the article manufactured by the laboring man, and not by any means a patriotic regard for the interests of western sheep men that prompted the passage of the McKinley wool tariff.

SUGGESTIVE COMPLIMENTS.

T. B. Catron is interested in mining, in stock growing, in ranching; he has built a beautiful home and many fine structures—this cannot be said of any of those who-to-day are defaming him—Socorro Chieftain.

The above reads very much like sarcasm when it is remembered that the "mining, stock growing and ranching" has been largely carried on upon grabbed land grants; that "the beautiful home" was constructed largely of cut and dressed stone removed from the United States capital and penitentiary building for which the U. S. grand jury of 1886 recommended "that suit be instituted to recover to the government this stone so taken or the value thereof;" and that the many "fine structures" includes the Catron block in which brick was used, the payment for which was unjustly delayed three years. Well may Candidate Catron ask to be delivered from the friends who are indulging in such suggestive compliments as the Chieftain's!

HON. T. D. BURSA has done the bidding of the Catron gang so long in Rio Arriba county that it's hard for him to get out of the rut, but it comes right straight to the New Mexican that he is growing very weary of playing tail to the kite of Catronism merely for the sake of having his name "mentioned"—and nothing else—in connection with some lucrative office or other which he never gets.

PRESS COMMENTS.

The Only Issue.

If there ever was a time when the people of the territory, and particularly of Colfax county, should lay aside political prejudices and support their own interests, now is that time.

Whether this territory sends Mr. Catron or Mr. Joseph to the next congress will not have the least effect upon the policy of that body as to national issues. If we are to have free wool, free cattle and free land we will have it regardless of results in New Mexico; but, even if we could influence any of these questions, there is an issue paramount to all of these and in our opinion the only real issue of the territorial campaign, and that is statehood. To the Democratic party we must now look for admission, and in order to assure it we must not only return a Democratic member to Washington but the territorial legislature should be Democratic on joint ballot. Once we gain statehood then let political parties contend for supremacy and the men we then send to Washington will have a vote and influence in national affairs.—Springer Stockman.

READ RULE XV.

"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition."

Why was Ayer's Sarsaparilla admitted? Because it is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, nor a secret preparation, not dangerous, not an experiment, and because it is all that a family medicine should be.

WHAT HAS DELEGATE JOSEPH DONE?

STOP, LOOK, LISTEN!

While the Record Speaks.

During the campaign of two years ago, between the same candidates which the two great political parties of this territory have placed before the people in this congressional election, the Democratic party drew the "deadly parallel" between the two candidates, Hon. Antonio Joseph and Thomas B. Catron, and took its candidate's cause manfully and confidently before the people on his record as their faithful servant during eight years in congress.

That record, of unusual fertility, carried for more than a month in upwards of twenty newspapers in parallel with the unusually sterile public record of T. B. Catron, was a continuous challenge to the opposition, but neither Candidate Catron nor his supporters attempted to deny the record truth—the fertility of the one and the sterility of the other.

An intelligent and discriminating constituency saw the parallel, appreciated and approved the campaign of education thereon and re-elected Delegate Joseph on his record.

The Democratic party again with increased confidence presents him to the people of New Mexico as its candidate for delegate to the House of Representatives of the 54th congress and respectfully asks public attention to the splendid additions he has made to the proud record presented two years ago.

During the first session of the 53d congress, to which Mr. Joseph was elected two years ago and which closed its long session during the last days of August past, over 8,000 bills were introduced by the 358 members that constitute the House of Representatives, in which a delegate from a territory merely has a seat without a vote. But 1,200 of these bills became laws. This made an average of three and one-half bills passed to each of the 358 members. Delegate Joseph passed ten of these, this securing about THREE TIMES THE AVERAGE OF A FULL-FLEDGED MEMBER who has a vote with which to work and on which to trade.

Think on it, men of New Mexico! Your poor, weak, voiceless delegate, representing a people aspersed and insulted in the halls of congress by infamous "minority reports" at the hands of the Republican party, and denied by Republican leaders even the credit of capability for the rights and dignities of full citizenship and measurable self-government under statehood—this voiceless delegate, standing in congress for a people that had been discredited by Republican aspersion, instead of aid, during the many years of that party's ascendancy in the national government, has been able, by dint of his sheer devotion to duty, to outstrip the proudest of them who are accredited as the orators and statesmen of congressional halls and whose fame rests rather upon their ability to win the applause of the galleries than upon honest and fruitful plodding and prodding in committee rooms and in departmental routine, where Delegate Joseph's so securely rests.

Let us look somewhat in detail at these late additions to his uniform record.

After passing a bill for the admission of New Mexico through the Democratic house in 1886, again in 1888, and again in 1892, each one in turn defeated by a Republican senate, he has finally, in the first session of this congress, not only pushed his bill for the fourth time through the House, but he has also pushed it through the committee and on to the senate calendar, where it now, with hundreds of like important bills, awaits action by that slowly moving body at the remaining session of this congress next winter. The steady pursuit and courage of his purpose in this regard has been one of the notable features of recent congressional history and has been the subject of frequent comment at the national capital. As often as he was defeated by Republicans in one congress, "doubtless he rose and to the fight returned" in the next.

pending which provides for throwing open to the prospector and miner the mineral on land grants. Mr. Joseph had to meet and combat all the land grant influences, which included many members of congress interested in these grants, before the committee. By persistent and forcible presentation of this cause he secured a favorable report from the committee, and also a very strong endorsement of the bill and a recommendation for its passage by the Secretary of the Interior. The mineral is especially reserved in all the decrees conferring grants by the land court, and as Mr. Joseph's bill provides a method of opening the mineral to the prospector and miner that is just to the grant owner, he has secured that it will be passed as soon as it can be reached in its regular order. The bill now stands on the calendar with the unanimous report of the committee in favor of its passage. Next to statehood and the land court, its passage will be of the greatest developing benefit to the people of New Mexico.

Other bills were passed, besides those mentioned above, making a total of ten to his credit last session—three times the average number passed by members of congress. These, and the important measures he has now pending in different stages of passage, made this last the busiest and most useful session of congress he has served the people in, and it makes a remarkable record.

It is remarkable because he passed three times the average number of bills to a full-fledged member—because he got appropriations and increased appropriations, where other members failed entirely or were reduced in amount—because he secured more benefits for his constituency in the postoffice department than any other member of congress—because he passed more private pension bills than any other member, bringing thus hundreds of dollars monthly into this territory for the benefit of old soldiers of the war and their dependent relatives.

Think on this record, fellow citizens, and remember the record published two years ago, showing that he had passed thirty-five important laws during his preceding seven years in congress and had secured over $1,250,000 in appropriations for this territory, then let the tongue cleave to the roof of the mouth, that attempts to utter the monstrous falsehood, and let the arm be palsied that would pen the line, that this faithful servant of the people has done nothing in congress.

THE CATRON RECORD.

Two years ago we published the T. B. Catron record—blank space for the good and a whole column of items of evil—in parallel with Joseph's record. We do not republish his record now because we do not want to thresh over old straw. We have nothing to add to the blank space of good after two years more of his record, because he added nothing to it himself. We forget. He has. He paid for the penitentiary brick, after he had juggled with the territory over three years about it and we had "hammered" him over three years for it. And then, after a little more "hammering," he paid the interest on the money.

We have nothing to add to the list of items of his evil public record published two years ago, because he has added nothing to it himself. This is doubtless due to the fact that he has had no opportunity. The administration has been Democratic, the legislature has been Democratic, the courts have been Democratic, the legislature has been Democratic in the lower house so that he could not control it.

Let him, or some of his ablest adherents, specify the good of his public career, or defend against the evil of it we have charged. If they can not, then why elect him to congress? Because he can do less harm in congress than he can do in New Mexico?

After 25 Years

About twenty-five years ago I was afflicted with a disease which the doctors pronounced incurable. I was treated by several physicians and specialists without being benefited. I tried many blood remedies, but without relief. I was recommended, and I took S. S. S. and in a few bottles I am now well. My skin is perfectly clear, and I feel like a new man. I am now a full-fledged member of the S. S. S. Co. and I am proud to say that I am a cured man.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Appended is the full text of the platform adopted by New Mexico's Democracy at the Las Cruces convention:

Whereas, during the past thirty years the so-called principle of protection has reigned supreme and has plunged American industry into the depths of financial distress which has culminated during the first two years of Democratic administration, and which was most deeply felt before the Democratic congress had formed one act of legislation, duly establishing the fact that the Republican legislation of the past thirty years was wholly in the interest of monopoly at the cost and ruin of labor and industry:

Therefore, we commend President Cleveland for his splendid effort for the great Democratic principles of tariff reform, and, although disappointed that more was not accomplished, we congratulate the people upon securing such an excellent and advanced effort at a reform of a robber tariff that has worked to the disadvantage of the producing classes; and we further commend the administration for the great reduction in useless expenditures in the government departments of Washington, whereby millions of dollars are saved every year to the tax payers of the nation.

Believing that the restoration of silver as money of ultimate payment and standard of value, in equal terms with gold, with no discrimination against either metal, at the ratio which existed prior to the demonetization of silver by the fraud of the Republican party of 1873, is the issue of foremost concern and greatest importance to the people of this territory and of the United States, and that the change from the double to the single standard, has been, and will continue to be, until reversed, a grievous and growing wrong to the people of this territory and of the United States, and believing that a large majority of the Democrats of this territory so feel, and that the time has come when the welfare of the Democratic party in this territory demands plain and unequivocal declaration on this subject; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Democracy of this territory by their representatives in convention assembled, hereby declare in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, at the ratio of 16 to 1, as it existed prior to its demonetization by the Republican party in 1873. And we pledge ourselves not to support by word or vote any one who is not heartily and earnestly in accord with the above declaration.

The enactment of the law taxing incomes in excess of $1,000, we refer to as an illustration of the spirit and purposes of the Democratic party to relieve the toiling masses and place the burden of taxation upon those best able to endure them. And we call upon our national congress to further carry out the spirit of this enactment until the hoarded capital of unlawful combinations and trusts shall be made to bear its just proportion of taxation.

We congratulate the people of New Mexico upon the repeal of the federal election law making it no longer possible for unscrupulous Republican politicians to surround the polls with unnecessary deputy marshals and through intimidation, violence and fraud defeat the honest will of the people.

We endorse without stint or qualification, the zeal of our delegate in congress, the Hon. Antonio Joseph, and we point especially to his persistent labors and the ripening fruit thereof in placing before congress and the nation the justice of turning a deaf ear to our importing our admission through the thirty years of Republican rule, while Republican territories of one-fourth the population of New Mexico were admitted.

We are proud of and stimulated by the splendid record of the administration of the Democratic party for the admission of the territory of Alaska, an honored place among the states of the union.

The warmest gratitude of the people of New Mexico is due to the present territorial executive and his able and fearless assistants for exposing and bringing to deserved punishment the bands of out-banded thugs, murderers and assassins, who for so many years perpetrated their crimes in safety under preceding Republican administrations, and we assure him of the continued, earnest and loyal support of the good citizens in his vigorous efforts to enforce the law.

We demand such legislation, both national and territorial, as will give employment a just protection against the carelessness of corporations, and guarantee to them the regular payment of their hard earned wages. And we pledge the Democratic party of the territory to the support of such equitable legislation as will be just to both labor and capital.

We again take the opportunity to speak out on the subject of statehood, demanding the immediate passage of the enabling act for the admission of New Mexico now pending in the U. S. senate, as a matter of right and justice and not as a matter of favor, believing earnestly that the greatest good in their history will come to the people of New Mexico through her admission into the Union of the states, and we pledge the united and unrelenting efforts of our party to this cause.

We are unqualifiedly opposed to the violation of that portion of the Chicago platform of 1892, which guarantees to the people of the territories, Alaska and the District of Columbia the appointment of federal officials from the bona fide residents of the districts in which their duties are to be performed, and demand a return to the principles which guarantee home rule by the people of the vicinages; and we further declare the appointment of any non-resident federal official for New Mexico too much like a return to the Republican practices of the past to be acceptable to the people of this territory.

SHOOTING STARS.

How do you like the people in the next flat?
 Mrs. Longtalk: They are perfectly unbearable.
 "Noisy and—"
 Gracious no. I've never been able to overhear one word they say.

Like "Sweet Bells Jangled Out of Tune"

Weak nerves respond harshly and inharmoniously to slight shocks, which would produce no effect upon strong ones. The shrill outcry of a child, the slamming of a door, the rattling of a vehicle over uneven pavement and other trifling disturbances effect weak nerves—sensitive nerves, sorely. Nervousness is largely attributable to dyspepsia and non-assimilation of the food, a very usual concomitant of sleeplessness. Digestion and assimilation renewed by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, soon best nerve quietude and sound repose. The great alternative causes the liver and bowels to unite in co-operative harmony with the stomach, whereby the general tone of the system is raised to the true standard of health. In malarial complaints, rheumatism and kidney trouble, the Bitters produce excellent results.

Doctor: I see your capsules are not all gone; what was wrong?

Patient: It was the awful test I couldn't endure.

Doctor: But you couldn't taste the medicine?

Patient: Great Scott! no; it was the water you told me to take them with that was so sickening.

Invalids should remember that the causes of sick and nervous headaches may be promptly removed by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills speedily correct irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, and are the mildest and most reliable cathartic in use.

The reed bird, delicate and delicious, lay supine on a bit of toast, when Uncle Caleb from New Jersey sat down.

Are you fond of the little fowl? asked the hostess.

Well, he replied, ex fure, they're fine. But ex fure, I must say they remind me of a mosquito grow up.

In many cases, the first work of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is to expel the effect of the other medicines that have been tried in vain. It would be a saving of time and money if experimenters took Ayer's Sarsaparilla at first instead of at last.

I never heard such a girl for preaching punctuality, said Maudie.

It's a positive mania with her, replied Mamie. Yesterday she had the clocks taken out of her stockings because some one told her they were fast.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'roomy' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there was no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half steadily, but with no particular benefit, when I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and began using it. Marvellous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 155. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been as satisfactory in their cases as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O. AN ACTRESS.

It was a quaint old place. The gate had an arch of ivy above it, and a narrow path wound itself through clumps of shrubbery to the door of a picturesque cottage half covered with roses.

At the gate stood a girl dressed in white lawn, with a bunch of flowers at the belt. She was young and pretty, but there was a faraway look in her eyes which spoke of a restless, hungering heart within.

Presently a young man came down the road. He greeted her with a fond yet sad smile and stopped to speak a moment.

"So you are really going?" he began.

"Yes," said she. "I have made all arrangements."

"Are you sure of success?"

The girl laughed nervously.

"Why not? Her Ledger says he never saw such talent."

The young man sighed.

"I hope it is so for your sake, since your heart is set upon it," he said, "but we all shall be so lonely."

She laughed again. It seemed absurd that they should doubt her powers after all Her Ledger had said, and that they should wish her to settle down to a tedious, humdrum life when the broad world, with all its bright prospects, was before her.

"What is there for me to do here?" she asked, with a slight frown.

"You know what there is to do," he replied, drawing near and taking her hand.

"Oh, Mary, give up this wild idea of going upon the stage and come to me!"

"I cannot, Charles. I could not now, even if it were my wish, for I have already signed the contract."

"If you should not get on, you'll return to us," suggested the young man timidly.

"And live on my aunt's charity?"

"Nonsense! Your aunt loves you as her own daughter, and I—"

He stopped short and gazed across the field. There was a choking sensation in his throat which checked the words. Mary Ward's face grew a trifle hard, and there was an unnatural ring in her voice as she replied:

"I shall succeed. I hate this dreary place and everything in it. I will never return to Brooklyn."

"Then I have no hope," in a broken voice. "But you'll write—you'll let me be a friend!"

"Oh, yes, of course, but you must go now. Here comes the manager."

Time went by. Letters came often from Mary—gay, triumphant letters. She was doing famously. She had lovely gowns. She liked her work. She was not over-worked—oh, dear no! And last night she had received so many flowers, had been wildly applauded and had been recalled time after time. And she signed her name "Marie Ward."

The lover's heart sank when he read these lively epistles, for in them he saw the death of all his hopes, and soon even the comfort of his darling's friendly words was denied him, for the letters became shorter and shorter and finally ceased altogether.

"Can it be that anything has happened to her?" asked her aunt one evening.

He shook his head.

"Mary would succeed anywhere," he said. "She never cared much for us, and she has forgotten."

But the woman's words rang in his ears for weeks. Could anything have happened to Mary—his Mary? And one day, unable to bear it any longer, he boarded the train bound for the city. He would search for her, he would look upon her face again at least, and if he found her happy and prospering he would leave her and be content.

It was half past 7 o'clock at the Grand theater—a dingy little building frequented by third class passengers.

On the stage the comedian and the villain were putting up a shingle hut, and the saucy soubrette sat upon the floor whistling a lively air and adding a pert suggestion now and then.

In the wing, on the threadbare cushions of a settee, the heavy woman lay asleep. She was a frail little thing, with dark rings under her eyes and almost transparent complexion.

"Where's Marie?" inquired the manager, with much concern, as he entered.

"Asleep," replied the soubrette, pointing to the place where the heavy woman lay.

"Don't disturb her till the last minute," said the manager. "She'll probably be able to crawl through her part—tonight at least."

The villain and soubrette exchanged alarmed glances as the manager turned away.

The play was over. All was bustle and preparation, for this was the last night at the Grand, and all the company property was to be removed.

Against a pile of scenery near the door leaned the heavy woman. She had played badly. She was sick in mind and in body. She was trying to muster strength to go home.

Then the manager appeared. His face was much troubled.

"Marie," he said, "I'm awfully sorry, but you saw how the house took your work tonight. It won't do. You are not fit for the stage, and you never were. I've engaged another woman in your place."

He was gone. The heavy woman stared after him for a moment, then staggered to the door.

"It is no more than I have been expecting these months," she muttered as she feebly descended the stairs.

Suddenly her strength gave way, and she would have fallen had not a strong arm caught her.

"Mary, dear Mary," murmured a familiar voice in her ear.

A bright smile lit up the face of the fainting woman. It was a smile of recognition and welcome.

"Charles, dear Charles!" the white lips answered, and with a thrill of joy the faithful lover clasped her close to his glad heart.—New York Press.

A Woman's Quick Wit.

"Have you any goods to declare, madam?" asked the courteous custom house official, indicating one of her trunks belonging to an American woman who was on her return to New York after some months' visiting in Canada.

"Oh, I think not," she replied in almost tremulous anxiety before the train. "That trunk is full of—let me see—personal apparel, underclothing principally. Now, why must you open it?" in fearful impudence.

"Because, madam," replied the courteous official, with solemn severity, "I think you have made a mistake. That is not wearing apparel or underclothes," drawing forth a flat flask labeled Canadian whisky from a large family medicine case.

"Oh, yes, it is," she insisted lightly.

"That is a lie," and the appreciative official chuckled forgivingly as he replaced the flask and sent the luggage through.—St. Louis Republic.

"Marie," he said, "I'm awfully sorry, but you saw how the house took your work tonight. It won't do. You are not fit for the stage, and you never were. I've engaged another woman in your place."

He was gone. The heavy woman stared after him for a moment, then staggered to the door.

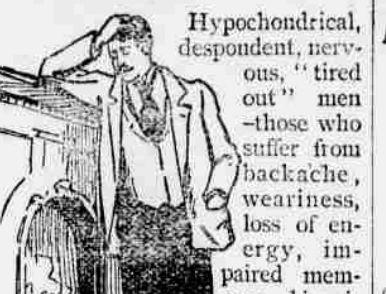

"It is no more than I have been expecting these months," she muttered as she feebly descended the stairs.

Suddenly her strength gave way, and she would have fallen had not a strong arm caught her.

"Mary, dear Mary," murmured a familiar voice in her ear.

A bright smile lit up the face of the fainting woman. It was a smile of recognition and welcome.

"Charles, dear Charles!" the white lips answered, and with a thrill of joy the faithful lover clasped her close to his glad heart.—New York Press.

Hypochondriacal, despondent, nervous, "tired out" men—those who suffer from backache, weariness, loss of energy, impaired memory, dizziness, melancholy and discouragement, the result of exhausting diseases, or drains upon the system, excesses, or abuses, bad habits, or early vices, are treated through correspondence at their homes, with uniform success, by the Specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. A book of 136 large pages, devoted to the consideration of the maladies above hinted at, may be had, mailed securely sealed from observation, in a plain envelope, by sending 10 cents in one-cent stamps (for postage on Book), to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, at the above mentioned Hotel. For more than a quarter of a century, physicians connected with this widely celebrated Institution, have made the treatment of the delicate diseases above referred to, their sole study and practice. Thousands have consulted them. This vast experience has naturally resulted in improved methods and means of cure.

The Best Line East.

Is unquestionably the Burlington route. In point of equipment, time and service it is conceded to be superior to all other lines.

The fast vestibuled "flyer" leaving Denver daily at 9 p. m., reaches Chicago at 8:20 a. m. and St. Louis at 7:20 a. m., the second morning, in ample time to connect with all fast trains for the east and south.

It is also a fact worth remembering that the Burlington is the only line running through trains over its own tracks from Denver to Chicago and St. Louis without change of any class of cars.

Grand Canon of Colorado River.

On the Santa Fe route, in northern Arizona, 1,262 miles from Kansas City, is the town of Flagstaff. A tri-weekly stage line runs from Flagstaff to the Grand Canon of the Colorado river. More than a mile in depth, this is the sublimest of gorges—a flat floor of basalt, and a wall of granite and limestone, rising sheer and jagged, and a vista of the river below, and Niagara would look scarcely larger than a brook.

Don't fail to visit this first wonder of the world. You can "read up" about it by asking G. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A. A. T. & S. F. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., to mail you a free copy of an illustrated book describing this terra incognita. The book is no common affair; but is entertainingly written, beautifully illustrated and a gem of the printer's art.

DEMOCRATS IN SESSION.

Large and Enthusiastic Convention in Progress—Taking Time to Select Good Men.

The Democrats of Santa Fe county met this morning. At the hour when the meeting was called to order by Mr. J. P. Victory the hall was crowded, every seat being occupied, and many who were unable to get seats occupying the aisles and crowding round the door. The large number of leading business men of this county who were on hand was in striking contrast to the aggregation of ringsters who constituted and controlled the meeting of the Catron club on Saturday. The meeting very quickly got down to business by the election of Mr. Camilo Padilla as temporary chairman. Mr. Padilla was escorted to the chair by a committee consisting of Messrs. A. B. Renshan, C. M. Creamer and Mariano Sena. On taking the chair, Mr. Padilla made a stirring speech, which was punctuated by enthusiastic applause throughout. His references to President Cleveland and Delegate Joseph were especially appreciated by the audience. At the conclusion of Mr. Padilla's eloquent address, Mr. A. B. Renshan was elected temporary secretary. Mr. Donaciano Vigil was elected as temporary interpreter. A COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS consisting of one from each precinct was appointed, each precinct naming its representative on this committee. This committee was composed as follows: Jose R. Rivera, Miguel Abeytia, Eugenio Sena, Charles F. Easley, Jose Antonio Romero, Francisco Gonzales, George Blakely, Juan Jose Silva, David Romero, Simon Provencio, Frank White, Andres Garcia, Francisco Lucero, Anastasio Jaramillo, Claudio Gonzales, Francisco Vigil y Montoya, Hilario Sandoval, Eustaquio Padilla, Manuel Roibal.

The committee on credentials, through their chairman, C. F. Easley, reported the following delegates present, which report was adopted:

A committee on resolutions was appointed as follows: Atanacio Roibal, Miguel Abeytia, Domingo Pacheco, Marcelino Garcia, Jose A. Romero, Jose La Carrillo, W. E. Dame, Francisco Chavez y Montoya, David Romero, Dan. L. Taylor, Andres Garcia, Francisco Lucero, Claudio Gonzales, Manuel D. Martinez, J. S. Candelario, T. F. Moore, Epifanio Trujillo. The following committee on rules was appointed: George W. Knebel, Meliton Castillo, J. P. Victory, Charles F. Easley, Luciano Baca, Charles Lyons, Juan Delgado.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.
The following were chosen as permanent officers of the convention: Chairman, Chas. F. Easley; vice presidents, C. M. Creamer and Meliton Castillo; secretary, J. S. Candelario; interpreters, Donaciano Vigil and H. L. Ortiz.

TOOK A RECESS.
Mr. Geo. W. Knebel, chairman of the committee on rules, made a report as to the rules which was adopted.

BIKE RACERS.

Points on Yesterday's Road Contest Between Santa Fe and Lamy.

Great interest was shown in the handi-cap cyclists' contest run between Santa Fe and Lamy yesterday afternoon. The distance is eighteen and one-half miles. The road was somewhat rough, owing to the late rains. Arthur Hudson, who, owing to his short-leggedness, was allowed thirty minutes time over the scratch starters, was the first to reach Lamy, his time being one hour and thirty minutes, though the best performance of the day was by Mr. Moore, one of the Albuquerque riders, who finished in the scratch. He covered the distance in one hour and eight minutes, over a strange road and that, too, when he had wheeled it all the way from Albuquerque to the race. Many lively incidents characterized the race. R. G. Gortner attempted to take a short cut, lost the road and had to ride about four miles on the railroad track. Messrs Stein and Alley met with accidents, the latter losing his tire. This was regretted, for on Friday Mr. Alley covered the distance in one hour and three minutes, unofficial time. Mr. Gortner went out with a placard on his back, "To Lamy or Bust," and before he got there he was pretty well "busted." Following is the order and time of their arrival at Lamy:

Arthur Hudson, 4 p. m.; J. Moore, 4:08; J. M. Diaz, 4:12; T. Scott, 4:13; J. N. Shurtz, 4:13; W. Baker, 4:14; F. Hudson, 4:16; A. J. Fischer, 4:22; Al. Codrington, 4:31; F. C. Alley, 4:31; W. H. Goebel, 4:35; Geo. Brady, 4:50; J. Stein, 5:00.

The next race will probably be to Cerrillos and after that a relay race to Albuquerque.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Ratify at the court house to-night. The finest climate on earth is surely asserting itself these days.

Mr. Chas. Lyons, of Cerrillos, accompanied by his wife, is visiting friends in the city.

Democratic headquarters has received a handsome life size photograph of Delegate Joseph.

Citizens of Santa Fe, especially the ladies, are cordially invited to be present at the Democratic ratification meeting to be held at the court house at 7:30 this evening.

By an order of the war department Major J. P. Baker, paymaster of the army, is directed to take up his headquarters at Albuquerque and Major Kilbourne is ordered to Walla Walla, Wash.

The Democrats of precincts 3 and 4 held largely attended rallies at their respective halls Saturday night. Interesting speeches were delivered at each place and great enthusiasm prevailed.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give an oyster supper to-morrow night at the Delgado store, formerly occupied by Mr. Bishop. The supper will begin to be served at 5:30. Oysters, celery and crackers, 35 cents; cake and coffee, 10 cents.

Messrs. E. T. and F. T. Webber, accompanied by Mr. C. C. Fitzgerald, of San Pedro, left yesterday for a trip to the upper Rio Grande placers. They go to examine into the workings of the new Huntington mill on the Lucas claims in Taos county.

A change of time is announced to take effect on the A. T. & S. F. next Sunday, and the new schedule promises to be a decided improvement over the present one. Agent Lutz has not yet been advised as to the exact changes but looks for the official time card in a day or two.

Ed. F. Taylor, well known here as a detective for the A. T. & S. F., while under the influence of liquor, undertook to run amuck at Albuquerque a few nights ago. He is charged with snapping his pistol in the face of a woman and playing bad man generally. He will have a hearing on Wednesday.

Not Misrepresented.

The New Mexican regrets that Mr. Steve Arnold has seen fit to deny the interview contained in these columns a day or two ago as to the effect of the new tariff law upon the cattle industry. His statement in the latter part of his card in yesterday's Republican that the "New Mexican's statements attributed to me were certainly so" seems, however, to indicate that Mr. Arnold himself is in doubt as to where he is "at." The reporter who called on Mr. Arnold stated plainly that he represented the New Mexican and that he desired for publication Mr. Arnold's views on the subject mentioned. Mr. Arnold talked freely, and frankly. He did say that it was "all bunnies" to ascribe the present price of cattle to Mexican competition under the tariff law, and, while he may not recollect it, he did say all that is ascribed to him in that article as to the price of cattle and the causes thereof. The New Mexican has no need to misrepresent any one's views in this campaign, even if it desired to do so, and it is certain that it would not and did not misrepresent Mr. Arnold in this matter.

BOSS-RIDDEN.

Inside Facts on the Republican Convention—Cerrillos Citizens "Transients"—Many Disgusted Delegates.

A great deal of ill-feeling exists in Santa Fe county Republican ranks over the work of the Republican convention which the lawyer politicians, Catron, Spiess et al, bulldozed through the county convention on Saturday. In caucus and convention the county delegates were voted down on every point, and as a result not a few of the delegates went home feeling very sore. Nearly one half of the delegates representing the rural precincts held frequent caucuses among themselves and some very plain talk was indulged in. They demanded that the two candidates for the legislative house and two of the commissioners be selected from precincts outside of Santa Fe and Cerrillos, so that the voters of the Española-Santa Cruz region and those of the Morieta-Galisteo districts should have proper consideration, something, it was alleged in the caucuses, they had never received at the hands of the Republican bosses. Many of them questioned the wisdom of nominating Ambrosio Pina for sheriff because he is a bondsman of some of the Buton gang under indictment for the assassination of ex-Sheriff Frank Chavez, and they opposed the nomination of Marcos Castillo because he is acknowledged to be wholly unfit to direct public and social affairs in the county and also because of his intimacy with the Borrego crowd.

As to the legislative nominees one Republican from the upper end of the county denounced the slate in bitter terms and was generally applauded, and those who referred to the people of Cerrillos as "a set of transients unfit to be entrusted with so responsible a duty as a seat in the territorial legislature." These delegates were also earnestly opposed to the renomination of A. L. Kendall as county commissioner. In this they were seconded by G. W. North and his friends from the south end of the county. Mr. North demanded a place on the county ticket for himself, and his friends said he had earned it by his service to the party, but all this went for naught in the eyes of the bosses and in convention Mr. North's influence was silenced by placing him on the platform as a "vice president." By this trick Mr. North was completely shelved, and was tied hand and foot. It is safe to assert that he, as well as many other Republicans, will not work to elect the state ticket.

CONVENTION RECAP.

At the Republican meeting Saturday night, Candidate Catron spoke in Spanish and Governor Prince, W. B. Sloan and John V. Conway also spoke.

The Republican county executive committee consists of Messrs. T. B. Catron, W. B. Sloan, Antonio Ortiz y Salazar, George W. North, Marcelino Ortiz, R. J. Ewing and J. Y. Newman.

Mr. Marcelino Ortiz, who was defeated for precinct committeeman from precinct No. 4, was very hot in the collar and was proceeding "to say a word or two" which would have been very interesting, when he was headed off. He was subsequently pacified by being put on the county executive committee.

Mr. Charles A. Spiess read that truly remarkable document, the Republican county platform, Saturday, County Clerk Romero doing the interpreting. Some of the expressions were too utterly utter for Mr. Romero, and Candidate Catron, who sat right for front seat, assisted in translating at proper intervals.

The convention took occasion to sit down very severely on Would-be Committeeman Charles A. Spiess in his attempt to foist upon the convention a list of central committeemen taken from his inside pocket. Mr. Facundo Pino said that "it was not right for one man to make out a list and present it to the convention," and the convention agreed to this by voting to have precinct committeemen instead. The ring-leaders, however, much to the disgust of Judge Dennis Coffin, of Cerrillos, and others, appointed a central committee of the old political gang anyhow.

It is said down in Albuquerque that when Candidate Catron made his threat a day or two ago to quit the campaign if the Peren and Otero factions didn't harmonize, Frank Hubbell, who is the nominal sponsor for the Peren ticket, called his bluff by suggesting that there were plenty of good Republicans who would take the nomination. It is unnecessary to state that Candidate Catron hasn't yet carried out his threat.
