TO LAND OR NOT TO LAND.

That is the Question Which is Agitating the Japanese Mind—Conflicting Reports.

Yokohama, Oct. 25.—It is reasserted
that the army corps under Field Marshal Count Oyama, formerly minister of war,
has effected a landing at Seikiosso, near Port Arthur. It is also again asserted that the Japanese army under Field Marshal Yamagata has successfully crossed the Yalu river and entered Manchuria. It was announced on September 25 that Field Marshal Count Oyama had sailed from Hiroshima with the second Japanese expedition. Since then it has been repeatedly asserted that the Japanese had effected a landing near Port Arthur, and it has been stated that the report was current that this important place had been captured by the Japanese.
On the other hand the Japanese have several times been reported as having

crossed the Yalu river and as having been repulsed. For instance, on October 9 a Shanghai dispatch stated that Field Marshal Oyama had crossed the Yalu river and the last time he was reported to have been repulsed was October 23, when it is asserted that both sides lost 3,000 men in the engagement which resulted in the Japanese being driven southward. If the Japanese have been so uniformly successful in their operations against Chinese it is

DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND
how they have so many soldiers wounded and already sent to the rear. A dispatch from Chemulpo dated October 22 announced that 1,800 wounded Japanese had arrived there and asserted that there was a large number of wounded Japanese at Seoul, and also stated that 2,100 wounded Japanese soldiers had already been sent back to that country. Supposing the large number to mean another 2,000 wounded, this would show the whereabouts of about 6,000. The wounded are already known at Chemulpo, and it is safe to assume that this number does not include those engaged in the recent fight
said to have occurred about the Yalu river.

THEY THINK THE REPORT TRUE.
London.—Inquiries at the Japanese legation in this city show no news confirmatory of the reported landing of the Japanese army under Field Marshal Count Oyama, near Port Arthur, but the Japanese officials fully credit the report,
adding that it seems certain that Oyama's expedition was dispatched for the purpose of attacking Port Arthur or Weihai-Wei or both.

SAID TO HAVE LANDED.
Shanghai.—It is reported here that the Chinese have evacuated Port Arthur and that the Japanese have effected a landing at Talien Wan bay on the Korean side of the Kwang Tung peninsula, not far from Port Arthur.

THE SANTA FE MEETING.

The Annual Gathering of Stockholders Adjourned to-day Without Electing Directors—A Great Fight is On.

Topeka, Oct. 25.—Very important action was taken last night in connection with the Santa Fe situation. Newman Erb and General B. F. Tracy, acting for the protective reorganization committee, went before Judge C. G. Foster, of the United States district court, and asked for an order

RESTRAINING THE STOCKHOLDERS
from electing directors to-day until the courts could decide whether the cumulative plan of voting could be exercised.
Judge Foster granted a temporary restraining order conditionally, that is, he said the meeting could proceed if a cumulative plan of voting was exercised, otherwise not; and in this latter event he would set the hearing on the temporary restraining order for Monday, October 29.

OSBORN WILL BE CHAIRMAN.
Later.—There will be no election of directors of the Santa Fe system to-day.
This is settled, because the directors' committee has decided to resist the cumulative plan of voting, proposed by the protective committee, who are in the minority and have no hope for a representation on the board, except under the system in question. The stockholders at their session this afternoon will merely elect a chairman, who, it is agreed, will be ex-Governor Thomas A. Osborn.

AT 10 o'clock sharp, the room of General Manager Frey, in the Santa Fe general office building, was packed with representatives of the opposing interests.
Vice President Robinson and Director Gleed were seated at the table, examining the injunction papers. Secretary Wilder read the call and Mr. Robinson announced as a committee to take down the proxies
and to see who were entitled to vote,
Charles Blood Smith, James Walker, Jr.,
and George W. Porter. Newman Erb strongly objected, because the protective committee was not represented, and moved that Henry Woolman, of Kansas City, be added. A motion to add Wool-man was finally carried and an adjournment was taken until the afternoon.

ADJOURNED TO NOVEMBER 1.
3 p. m.—The Santa Fe meeting has just elected Thomas A. Osborn chairman and adjourned to 10 o'clock, Tuesday, November 1.

Running on Full Time.

Baltimore, Oct. 25.—President Charles Estes, of the great cotton mills at Augusta, Ga., the leading manufacturing town of the southeast, says in an interview to-day:

"We have run every spindle and loom for several years on full time, and increased our looms both last year and the year before. We have now as many as we have power for. We have been well sold up for the last two years, and are sold largely ahead. Doubtless the final settlement of the tariff question has inspired people with more confidence, as there is a certain class of people who,
Micawber-like, are always waiting for
"something to turn up" to see how matters are going to work. We have never bothered ourselves about this in the least,
but have gone right ahead and done a good business all the while, and hope to do so for some time to come."

TERRIBLE EARTHQUAKE.

Does Fearful Damage to Property
and 200 Lives Lost.

Yokohama, Oct. 25.—Three thousand houses were destroyed by violent earthquake shocks this morning. As far as is known, 200 lives have been lost and a large number of people injured.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Hon. W. L. Wilson is talking tariff to large crowds in West Virginia to-day.

The engines of the French cruiser
Arcturion exploded to-day at Brest,
France, killing six men.

A Republican mass meeting will be held in New York City next Wednesday night at which ex-President Harrison will speak.

Vice President Stevenson is expected in New York City at 5 o'clock this afternoon. He will be entertained at the Manhattan club.

The overturning of a lamp at the consecration of a church at Ostrovinsky, Russia, caused a panic last night in which five were killed and many seriously wounded.

Arguments in the Pullman quo warrant proceedings for a change of venue from Judge Gibbons were concluded today. The court reserved its decision which will probably be announced Saturday.

The health authorities at Washington are using great endeavors to prevent the spread of smallpox, there the Secretary Smith has ordered that all interior department employees be vaccinated and about 500 were vaccinated to-day.

The war department is of the opinion that the interior department has not made out a case authorizing the employment of government troops to quell the Indian territory troubles. The matter has been referred to the attorney general for decision.

Prof. Wylie Mellette, son of Gov. Mellette and instructor in the mechanical department of the agricultural college at Brookings, S. D., cut his throat with a razor to-day. He had been sick and went to an out house and committed suicide.

The steamship Paris, Capt. Watkins, just arrived at New York from Southampton, sank an unknown ship on route yesterday morning in a fog. The unfortunate vessel sunk before the Paris could get around. No trace of the crew could be gained although the search was continued several hours.

Jose Maria Herrera, while herding
sheep forty miles west of Durango, Mexico, yesterday found a cave in which were gold and other valuables valued at $30,000.
The treasure, it is supposed, had been left there by the noted brigand, Benito Marez, who operated about thirty years ago and was subsequently killed.

Custodian Edwards, appointed by the court to take charge of the estate of late Mrs. Josephine Barnaby, poisoned in Colorado, it is alleged, by the late Dr.
Thatcher Graves, of Providence, R. I., today completed an inventory which shows the estate to be worth $59,847.87, with $10,093.65 debts. Graves was a beneficiary under Mrs. Barnaby's will for $25,000 and his widow is pushing the claim.

A CRANKY CALLER.

Richard Roeder, the Would-be Duel-ist with Emperor William, Calls on the President To-day—The Latter Wasn't Receiving.

New York City, Oct. 25.—Richard
Roeder, the crank who wrote to Emperor William, of Germany, some months ago
challenging him to a duel, called at Dr.
Bryant's house to-day and demanded to see President Cleveland. On Dr. Bryant's telling him that it was impossible to see the president at that hour, Roeder finally went away. It had been reported that a body guard accompanied the president to this city, but none of the officers were in evidence to-day. Dr. Bryant said this morning that President Cleveland would leave for Washington at 3 p. m.

AN UNHOLY ALLIANCE.

Now the Republican Committee is Trying to Wrangle Out of Its A.
P. A. Connections—The Proof Conclusive.

Washington, Oct. 25.—In their anxiety to profit politically by exciting prejudice against Roman Catholics in those districts of the country where a prejudice has been aroused, the Republicans have covertly promoted the cause of the American Protective association. When it has been found convenient, in consequence of a wholesome repugnance to the narrow bigotry of the issue, to repudiate knowledge of and interest in the A. P. A. cause, the Republicans have not hesitated to "cut" the concern. It has been found that this employment of the American Protective association has been the use of a political double-edged sword. It has cut both ways, but the Republicans have about concluded that it

CUTS A LITTLE DEEPER
one way than it does the other, and that the deepest cut is on the Republican side.
So the effort has been increased to prove that the A. P. A. shop in Washington, run really as a bureau of the Republican congressional committee, is an independent and self-sustaining enterprise.

An eleventh-hour denial which is really a confession of guilt can not inspire confidence. That is the denial which Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee, put forth to-day with the idea of dissipating the evidence of the committee's connection with the American Protective association.
In the last three weeks the connection has been commented on freely, and a chain of evidence woven which leaves

NO ROOM FOR DOUBT
that the officers of the committee have been devoting much of their time and the campaign fund at their disposal to the work of spreading A. P. A. literature in all of the states of the Union. Mr. Babcock until to-day sat silent under these accusations. He now has authorized the statement that he has just come into possession of a pamphlet charging the Republican committee with circulating A.
P. A. documents and with being in sympathy with that organization.

The gist of Mr. Babcock's "denial" is that a year ago he gave instructions to the secretaries of the committee

"TO AVOID ALL APPEARANCE
of connection with the A. P. A." Mr.
Babcock probably tells the truth in the paragraph just quoted. The secretaries undoubtedly received just such instructions, but in their zeal to forward the aims of the A. P. A. they have been unable to "avoid all appearance of connection" and have, on the contrary, made it apparent to the world that the committee is very anxious to avail itself of the services of this un-American organization and is now sending its literature to all sections of the country with the idea of gaining Republican votes.

The undoubted connection of Republicanism and A. P. A.ism will, notwithstanding Chairman Babcock's half-hearted denial, cost the G. O. P. many thousand votes next month.

HORRIBLE CANNIBALISM.

A Party of Whalers Come Across a Ring of Esquimaux Corpses that Tell a Dreadful Story.

Dundee, Oct. 25.—At the beginning of August the whalers, Aurora, Balena and Esquimaux, were in Prince Regent's inlet searching for white whales. They steamed into Elvin bay and a party from the Balena went ashore. They had not gone far when they came upon a ghastly ring of corpses, the remains of Esquimaux, who had evidently died of starvation. The clean picked human remains and

PARTLY DEVoured BONES
revealed a story of cannibalism. One corpse had been beheaded and the head was found thirty yards away from the trunk at a place where some one had evidently made a meal upon the flesh and bones. It is supposed that the party, while traveling, found their progress choked by the setting in of winter. One by one they succumbed to the pangs of hunger and finally the stronger, in futile attempts to save their own lives were driven to eat the others.

JOY AND SORROW.

Tread Upon Each Other's Heels at the Czar's Bedside—He Issues a Dying
Message to His People.

London, Oct. 25.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Yalta says that symbols of joy and sorrow jostle each other everywhere in that neighborhood.
State carriages and regiments of troops for the imperial marriage arrived at the same time as the mourning coaches and livery of woe, which will be required in the event of the czar's death.

THE PHYSICIAN BLAMED.

London.—News from Livadia this morning is so very conflicting and contradictory that no one can tell the exact condition of the czar. St. Petersburg dispatches say that there is a general feeling of indignation against Prof.
Zacharine, whose mistake in his diagnosis in the first place was rendered more injurious to the patient by subsequent negligence and lack of medical skill.
Zacharine has been severely blamed, according to these advices, by Prof. Leyden, and it is asserted that should the czar die
it will be because proper treatment was not undertaken in time.

ANOTHER REPORT.

Berlin.—The Russian Embassy has received dispatches from Livadia, dated this morning, saying that a slight improvement has taken place in the czar's condition.

A DYING MESSAGE.

The dispatches add that since the crisis
the czar has been subject to continual trembling and syncope. It is also stated that yesterday the condition of the czar varied between drowsiness and comparative cheerfulness. During one of the latter periods the czar is said to have been left alone with the czarowitz an hour and it is understood that during this interview the emperor dictated a loving message of farewell to Russia,
which will be issued upon his death.

A CALL FOR CHRISTY.

One of the Republican Nominees in Hot Water in Sierra County.

Two cases of embezzlement against A.
L. Christy in Sierra county have been continued till the next term. The charges are of embezzlement of moneys while holding the office of district clerk.
Christy was given till this term of court to pay the amount embezzled and the costs in the cases. He admits the truth of the charges, but has failed to comply with the order of the court. He has been treated, says the Silver City Sentinel,
with remarkable leniency in this matter
the whole way through, even being permitted to continue to practice while under criminal indictment. It is well to mention that this man is the same A. L.
Christy who is running on the Republican ticket as representative from the joint district of Grant and Dona Ana counties against Mr. R. L. Young.

This campaign is really a bigger picnic for Democracy than when Joe Dwyer occupied the Republican saddle.

Both San Miguel and Bernalillo counties are on the right side of the political fence this trip. On with the statehood boom.

Socorro county citizens, regardless of party, have reason, as well as have those in Sierra county, to feel very grateful to Hon. W. S. Hopewell. They will make a grievous mistake if they do not return him to the legislature.

Candidate CATRON is willing to "protect" the interests of the miners, if elected to congress; but it must be on the same terms as were dictated by the lion who said he was willing to lie down with the lamb, provided the latter were on the inside of him.

That Otis bill calling for the appointment of a congressional committee to investigate the methods whereby S. B. Elkins and T. B. Catron secured patent to certain land grants will never see daylight if Catron goes to congress. Let the miners make a note of this fact.

Up in Michigan McKinley spoke in an industrial town where, across the street, the working people had hung out a banner inscribed: "There is not an idle workingman in our midst." Of course, the so-called "protectionist" prophet got the horse-laugh on all sides as a result. Carry the news to Brer Morrison.

If the Las Vegas Optic is not opposed to railroad building in New Mexico, it should not have said that it was. We trust that our contemporary will in the course of time decide just where it does stand on the matter. Meanwhile, we note that the Pecos Valley railroad is to be completed through to a connection with the A. T. & S. F. system.

PROBABLY the Republican organ will term it "slander," "mud-slinging," etc., should the New Mexican suggest to the honest voters of New Mexico that they examine into Mr. Catron's record as a territorial legislator. For instance, how do they like "the supreme court practice act," "the limitation bill," "the false personation act," "the change of venue law," "the libel law," etc. All these are Catron's own, built by Republican legislatures to expressly serve the selfish ends of their political boss.

SANTA FE COUNTY.

Men of affairs in Santa Fe county are not drawing political lines very closely this year. First and foremost they vote for that proposition on the theory that the most practical sort of politics is that which brings the greatest good to the greatest number of citizens and thereby benefits the community to the fullest measure. This they can hope to bring about by now casting their votes with the Democracy. Not only this, however, but there are other considerations to govern many, such as the fact that the reelection of Delegate Joseph means the early passage of the statehood act by congress which provides for the holding here in Santa Fe of a state constitutional convention, which, from a monetary point of view, will have a most beneficial effect on all local business. To meet the expenses of this convention, which will take place early next summer, the statehood bill carries an appropriation of government money amounting to $30,000, and that, with the expenditure of other cash incident to the election of members to this convention, and the money set in circulation by the members, who will practically make Santa Fe their home for six weeks or two months during the sessions of the convention, a great deal of ready money will be set afloat in our midst that would not otherwise fall to our good fortune.

But this is not all that the citizens of this long-suffering county have in mind this time. It is admitted that the Democrats have nominated an exceptionally clean ticket, free from all cliques and rings, and composed of men who are pledged to equal and just taxation; to the honest collection and expenditure of public funds; to the suppression of the long-established practice on the part of a favored few to dodge the payment of their just share of the taxes, thus throwing the burden on the shoulders of the poor man and those reasonably well-to-do, but who have no political "pull." It is also to be considered that the nominees on the county Democratic ticket have made up their minds to turn every stone necessary to bring about some honorable and business-like adjustment of the enormous bonded debt which dishonest public officials in the past have so mercilessly thrown upon our people, and this is another incentive for the business men of the community to exercise their most careful judgment in casting their votes next month; while still another desideratum is the fact that never in the turbulent history of Santa Fe county has there been such regard shown by the criminal classes for law and order as during the past eighteen months.

These and other matters along the same progressive line are at this time absorbing no small share of attention in the minds of Santa Fe county's citizens, and the New Mexican will fall sadly short of its estimate of the public pulse if the vote on November 6 does not verify this estimate of the situation.

AYER'S THE ONLY Sarsaparilla ADMITTED

READ RULE XV.

"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and other preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition."

Why was Ayer's Sarsaparilla admitted? Because it is not a patent medicine, nor a nostrum, nor a secret preparation, nor dangerous, nor an experiment, and because it is all that a family medicine should be.

Why not get the Best?

MERCURIAL Mr. J. C. Jones, of Fulton, Arkansas, says: "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood poisoning. Leading physicians prescribed medicine after medicine, which I took without any relief. I also tried mercurial and potash remedies, with unsuccessful results, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of agony. After suffering four years I gave up all remedies and began using S. S. S. After taking several bottles I was entirely cured and now I can say that S. S. S. is the greatest medicine for blood poisoning to-day on the market."

PRESS COMMENTS.

Catron's Estimate of Socorro Voters. It was very evident Wednesday evening that Catron is a greatly overrated man, or that he supposed he was addressing a very ignorant audience. Such misrepresentations and glaring untruths must have come from a corrupt heart or an ignorant brain.—Socorro Advertiser.

Worse Than War, Pestilence or Famine.

We know that T. B. Catron has some reason for desiring to neglect a $20,000 practice for a $5,000 office. It is natural for a man who has made his money as has Catron to be a public benefactor. A man who has for twenty-four years been manipulating legislatures and courts for his own private interests would naturally be filled to overflowing with milk of human kindness and he would naturally want to do something for the dear people. The greatest trouble that he will encounter in this matter will be in making the people of New Mexico believe that he is sincere in his protestations. The majority think that he has some purpose, not yet made public, that he intends to carry out if elected. A vote for him is a vote cast to the winds, a vote cast for a man who has been a worse curse to the territory than either war, pestilence or famine could possibly be.—Roswell Record.

The Best Line East.

Is unquestionably the Burlington route. In point of equipment, time and service it is conceded to be superior to all other lines.

The fast vestibuled "flyer" leaving Denver daily at 9 p. m., reaches Chicago at 8:20 a. m. and St. Louis at 7:20 a. m., the second morning, in ample time to connect with all fast trains for the east and south.

It is also a fact worth remembering that the Burlington has the only line running through trains over its own tracks from Denver to Chicago and St. Louis without change of any class of cars.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Appended is the full text of the platform adopted by New Mexico's Democracy at the Las Cruces convention: Whereas, During the past thirty years the so-called principle of protection has reigned supreme and has plunged American industry into the depths of financial distress which has culminated during the first two years of Democratic administration, and which was most deeply felt before the Democratic congress had performed one act of legislation, fully establishing the fact that the Republican legislation of the past thirty years was wholly in the interest of monopoly at the cost and ruin of labor and industry:

Therefore, we commend President Cleveland for his splendid effort for the great Democratic principles of tariff reform, and, although disappointed that more was not accomplished, we congratulate the people upon securing such an excellent and advanced effort at a reform of a robbery that has worked to the disadvantage of the producing classes; and we further commend the administration for the great reduction in useless expenditures in the government departments of Washington, whereby millions of dollars are saved every year to the tax payers of the country.

Believing that the restoration of silver as money of ultimate payment and standard of value, in equal terms with gold, with no discrimination against either metal, at the ratio which existed prior to the demonetization of silver by the fraud of the Republican party of 1873, is the issue of foremost concern, and greatest importance to the people of this territory and of the United States, and that the change from the double to the single standard, has been, and will continue to be, until reversed, a grievous and growing wrong to the people of every territory and of the United States, and believing that a large majority of the Democrats of this territory so feel, and that the time has come when the welfare of the Democratic party in this territory demands a plain and unequivocal declaration on this subject; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Democracy of this territory by their representatives in convention assembled, hereby declare in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, at the ratio of 16 to 1, as it existed prior to its demonetization by the Republican party in 1873. And we pledge ourselves not to support any word or vote, or any one not heartily and earnestly in accord with the above declaration.

The enactment of the law taxing incomes in excess of $4,000, we refer to as an illustration of the spirit and purposes of the Democratic party to relieve the toiling masses and place the burden of taxation upon those best able to endure them. And we call upon our national congress to further carry out the spirit of this enactment until the hoarded capital of unlawful combinations and trusts shall be made to bear its just proportion of taxation.

We congratulate the people of New Mexico upon the repeal of the federal election law making it no longer possible for unscrupulous Republican politicians to surround the polls with unnecessary deputy marshals and through intimidation, violence and fraud defeat the honest will of the people.

We demand that the present territorial executive and his able and fearless assistants for exposing and bringing to deserved punishment the bands of oath-bound thugs, murderers and assassins, who for so many years perpetrated their crimes in safety under preceding Republican administrations, and we assure him that we pledge the united and loyal support of the good citizens in his vigorous efforts to enforce the law.

We demand such legislation, both national and territorial, as will give employees a just protection against the carelessness of corporations, and guarantee them the regular payment of their hard earned wages. And we pledge the Democratic party of the territory to the support of such equitable legislation as will be just to both labor and capital.

We again take the opportunity to speak out on the subject of statehood, demanding the immediate passage of the enabling act for the admission of New Mexico now pending in the U. S. senate, as a matter of right and justice and not as a matter of favor, believing earnestly that the greatest good in their history will come to the people of New Mexico through their admission into the Union of the states, and we pledge the united and unflinching efforts of our party to this cause.

We are unqualifiedly opposed to the violation of that portion of the Chicago platform of 1892, which guarantees to the people of the territories, Alaska and the District of Columbia the appointment of Federal officials from the bona fide residents of the districts in which their duties are to be performed, and demand a return to the principles which guarantee home rule by the people of the vicinages; and we further declare the appointment of any non-resident Federal official for New Mexico too much like a return to the Republican practices of the past to be acceptable to the people of this territory.

Like "Sweet Bells Jangled Out of Tune"

Weak nerves respond harshly and inharmoniously to slight shocks, which would produce no effect upon strong ones. The shrill outcry of a child, the slamming of a door, the rattling of a vehicle over uneven pavement and other trifling disturbances effect weak nerves—sensitive nerves, sorely. Nervousness is largely attributable to dyspepsia and non-assimilation of the food, a very usual concomitant of sleeplessness. Digestion and assimilation renewed by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, soon beget nerve quietude and sound repose. The great alternative causes the liver and bowels to unite in co-operative harmony with the stomach, whereby the general tone of the system is raised to the true standard of health. In malarial complaints, rheumatism and kidney trouble, the Bitters produce excellent results.

Times is pretty hard, lamented Rusty Rufus, I've ben to more'n two dozen houses to-day, an' all I got was a cold hand-out.
You durn fool! said Walkabout Beggun. Wot you want to do is to work some slick-haired old dead-easy fur a quarter to git a bath with, you know, and then go and spend the day at the pure food show. That's the graft now, I tell ye.

Invalids should remember that the causes of sick and nervous headaches may be promptly removed by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills speedily correct irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, and are the mildest and most reliable cathartic in use.

Severe Old lady: Young man, do you chew tobacco?
Young man (cheerfully): No, mum, I never do. But that fellow over there can accommodate you with a bite, I guess.

In many cases, the first work of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is to expel the effect of the other medicines that have been tried in vain. It would be a saving of time and money if experimenters took Ayer's Sarsaparilla at first instead of at last.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader. For a long time she had a terrible pain at my heart, which flattered and could not sleep. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach. I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sleep a room with out sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regreted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 135 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 100. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians. Mrs. Harry Starr, Fortville, Pa., October 12, 1902.

MR. HILL'S APOLOGY.

"I beg your pardon," said Randolph, turning very white about the lips. "Will you repeat that remark?"
"I said you lied," replied Hill, the larger of the two men, once again. Then he turned abruptly upon his heel and walked down the wide piazza, leaving Randolph gripping the back of his chair until the veins in his hands stood out like the edging on the piece of embroidery his wife had left in the chair a few minutes before. It had all happened so quickly—the hot little discussion had started and come to this abrupt end so suddenly—that he could hardly realize what had really happened, but those last few calmly insulting words rang in his ears long after they had been spoken, and the younger man felt his rage at them growing as he stood there staring after the retreating figure of his insult.

For a little while he stood where he was, and then, turning, made his way to Kelly's rooms, where he found that lifetime friend of his, and into whose ears he poured the whole story.
"If we were a little farther south, John," he added, "I would certainly call him a liar. I feel like having at this minute, for laws or no laws and etiquette or no etiquette, that man should be made to recognize the fact that he could not insult a Randolph with impunity."
Then, returned Kelly, taking his feet down from the chair in which they had been comfortably reclining and wheeling it about for his friend, "I am very glad that you are not farther south. Hill is a dead shot, I understand, and as you are not you would probably be turning up your toes to the daisies the second you pulled your gun. Yes, I am glad we are where we are," he added, turning down his trousers and relighting his pipe, "for dueling, however just and honorable, my dear boy, is out of date—decidedly. And I fear we cannot revive it for your special benefit. You were wise in not striking him, too, for you haven't a physique!"
"Like yours, for instance," interrupted Randolph, glancing at his athletic friend's straight, well made figure. The latter smiled and went on.

"Like mine, then, or Mr. Hill's. Otherwise, you being alone with him, and there never being a better time than the present, it would have been easy to settle the difficulty. But, that being past, I see only one way—yet let me think," and Kelly went off into a brown study, while Randolph thrust his hands deep into his pockets and looked disconsolately out of the window.

"Why, I have it," said the former at last, "and I promise you that he shall make a public apology to you before we are either of us 24 hours older. Will that satisfy you?"
No, it won't, to be frank," said Randolph. "But if all I expect undoubtedly, and if you can make him do it without getting yourself into trouble I think it will be some balm to my wounded spirit," and he smiled grimly.

"Very well, count on that balm," said Kelly laughingly, "and meet me after supper on the piazza where the rest of the folks usually congregate. That's all. Au revoir until then," and he turned down the long gravel walk in the direction he had seen Hill go a few minutes before, while Randolph sought his own rooms in anything but a pleasant frame of mind.
That evening, after supper, promptly, as Kelly had requested, however, he put in an appearance on the long piazza, where the guests already assembled after the evening meal, and where he found his friend. But to his surprise, sitting beside him, as if they had already been chums, was Hill himself, and for a minute Randolph felt inclined to turn back, so angry did Kelly's apparent treason to him make him, but catching the athletic young man's eye for an instant and observing the meaning of it Randolph sauntered quietly up to the group and nodded to the man collected about his friend, who seemed to be holding their interest with his conversation.
"Oh, yes," said he as Randolph took a chair a little way off from him, "I'm something of a hypnotizer, though I've never given much time to it. I acknowledge. But if you have the right temperament there is little to learn. The rest is easy, in fact. Now, whenever I find a good subject, I can make him or her do about what I like, in a small way."
"Come, come, Kelly," remarked one of his listeners, "these be idle words. Prove your assertions, young man."
"Very well," said Kelly, smiling. "When and where?"
"Here and now," returned the other, "we are willing to witness any exhibition in the occult science you may choose to offer."

"And will you furnish the subject?"
"Certainly," chorused the others, becoming more interested as the young man became quite serious over the matter.
"Good. Then all of you remain quiet, please, until I find out if any of you is subject to my influence. As he spoke Kelly turned from one to another, very slowly, looking them steadily in the eyes as he did so, until he stopped at Hill. For a moment there was absolute silence, and the other men bent forward in interested attitudes, while the hypnotizer stared straight into his subject's eyes. Then the former spoke.

"Mr. Hill is under my will," said he slowly, "and imagines, let us say, that he has insulted one of the present company. We will say it is Randolph, as he is farther away from the subject than the rest of you. He will now get up, cross the intervening space and apologize to Randolph for the language he used—he thinks he has used—to him. Let the silence continue, please."

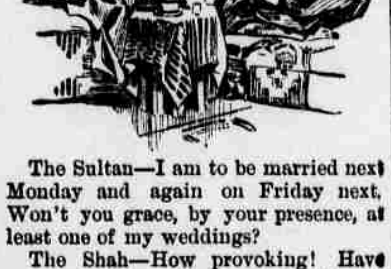

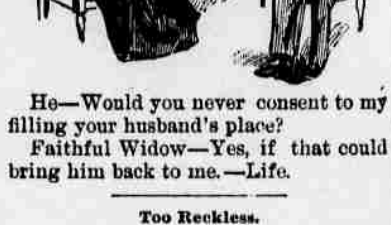

And for two minutes the two athletes stood looking each other in the eyes, Hill flushed and inwardly angry, but recognizing the earnestness of his opponent's intention. He saw the trap he had stepped into, and for awhile he felt inclined to strike the man who was calmly pretending to hypnotize him into doing what he wanted him to do, but the determined look in Kelly's eyes did not falter, and he knew he meant what he said. There was no help for it—he must pretend also. Grinding his teeth in powerless rage, the "hypnotized" subject at last rose, and walking slowly to where Randolph sat he said aloud:
"Randolph, I apologize for my remarks this afternoon and beg your pardon for applying that name to you."—E. J. Appleton in Cincinnati Post.

A Philadelphia expert in handwriting has secured striking results in applying photography to detect forged signatures by the making of composite photographs. In the genuine signatures, where of course no two are exactly alike, the lines of the composite are blurred and irregular, while the forged signatures, where a single copy has been imitated, are all very regular.—Philadelphia Times.

PROGRESS.

People who get the greatest degree of comfort and real enjoyment out of life, are those who make the most out of their opportunities. Quick perception and good judgment, lead such promptly to adopt and make use of those refined and improved products of modern inventive genius which best serve the needs of their physical being. Accordingly, the most intelligent and progressive people are found to employ the most refined and perfect laxative to regulate and tone up the stomach, liver, and bowels, when in need of such an agent—hence the great popularity of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are made from the purest, most refined and concentrated vegetable extracts, and from forty-two to forty-four are contained in each vial, which is sold at the same price as the cheaper made and less ordinary pills found in the market. In curative virtues, there is no comparison to be made between them and the ordinary pills, as any one may easily learn by sending for a free sample, (four to seven doses) of the Pellets, which will be sent on receipt of name and address on a postal card.

ONCE USED THEY ARE ALWAYS IN FAVOR.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, a tonic, a nutritive, a cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve distress from over-eating, they are unequalled. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them. Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but for one who needs help. Address for free sample, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Grand Canon of Colorado River.
On the Santa Fe route, in northern Arizona, 1,262 miles from Kansas City, is the town of Flagstaff. A tri-weekly stage line runs from Flagstaff to the Grand Canon of the Colorado River. More than a mile in depth, this is the sublimest of gorges—a Titan of chasms. Twenty Yosemite might be hidden unseen below, and Niagara would look scarcely larger than a brook.
Don't fail to visit this first wonder of the world. You can "read up" about it by asking G. T. Nicholson, G. P. & A., A. T. & S. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., to mail you a free copy of an illustrated book describing this terra incognita. The book is no common affair; but is entertainingly written, beautifully illustrated and a gem of the printer's art.
He would not live always,
He asks not to stay
When shooting the chute costs
A fortune each day.
This I supposed is one of the grandest scenery on the line.
Impossible! There's not a medicine 'ad' in sight.
Thermometers she puts away,
Their stories she believes,
She'll not don a winter wrap
To crush down her big sleeves,

Santa Fe, the city of the Holy Faith of St. Francis, is situated on the site of an ancient Indian Pueblo called Oge-p-ho-ge. It is probably the oldest civilized community in the United States and the most ancient of American capitals. The Spanish town was founded in 1603. Authorities disagree as to whether this city or San Augustine, Fla., were first founded. Santa Fe was first visited by American traders in 1804 and from that time dated a wonderful era of prosperity. The thrilling incidents of the old Santa Fe trail, starting from Westport, Mo., gave it a world wide fame.

THE WORLD'S ONLY SANITARIUM.
Prof. Mark Harrington, chief of the U. S. weather bureau, says: "Santa Fe is in the driest habitable part of the United States. This region is extensive, and changes in form from season to season, but Santa Fe is always in it."

It is situated in a charming nook of the Santa Fe range, and its climate is dominated by the influence of mountain peaks that tower nearly 14,000 feet high. Together with this it lies at an altitude of 7,915 feet, and latitude, about the 36th degree north, that gives it a peculiar advantage as a sanitarium. The elevation tempers the summer heats, which naturally should be that of Memphis, Tenn., or Bakersfield, Cal., and its southern situation reduces the rigors of winter. As an illustration, during the winter of 1893, the daily public concerts in the plaza were only stopped three times by weather, and last winter the omission did not exceed half a dozen.

The altitude compels the lungs to work, and no one in Santa Fe can be accused of being "too lazy to breathe," as a great physician expressed it. The rare, ozonated air permeates every cell of the lungs, and thus prevents hemorrhage.

NORMAL TEMPERATURE.
The U. S. Weather observation office has been stationed here for 22 years, and the following statistical data tells better than words how even and mild is the climate of Santa Fe. Taking the summer heat and the winter cold the following tables show a most equable and delightful temperature.

YEAR	MEAN YEAR	MEAN
1872	47.9	49.5
1873	48.5	49.2
1874	47.5	49.2

1881	47.5	49.2

1883	47.5	49.2

The annual monthly values will show the distribution of temperature through the year.

There is no other locality, even the boasted climate of southern France, that can show such a stable and equable range of heat and cold. The health seeker need fear no sudden changes. A little attention to clothing and he can bid colds and inflammations defiance. In cases of death from tubercular disease the New Mexico rate is only 3 in 1,000.

This is the lowest known record, and it must be remembered that the local contingent of consumptives is daily augmented by the immigration of those who seek respite from that dreaded scourge.

The record of deaths at Santa Fe is much lower than the territorial average. In New England the consumptive death rate is 25 out of every 1,000 of the community; in Minnesota it is 14, and throughout the southern states six per 1,000. This city enjoys the spring climate of northern Illinois and Indiana; the summer climate of Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota, and the winter temperature of southern Illinois, Indiana and Tennessee. This, however, is only as shown by the thermometer. The dry tonic air of the mountain altitude fills one with vivacity and health, and so strong is the influence of the ozone and electricity on the nerves and system that acclimation is wonderfully rapid. This of itself is a great boon. Cases are on record of increase in the chest measurements of immigrants here or from four to seven inches.

NATURAL ATTRACTIONS.
Besides the Santa Fe lies in a most picturesque valley. It is at the entrance of a splendid canon, abounding in natural curiosities. It is also the gateway of the Pecos National park, where fish and game abound. Within easy riding or driving distances there are over forty places of picturesque and historic interest. Among which may be mentioned the old adobe palace, first erected shortly after 1605, from which the Spanish viceroys ruled this great province. The present structure dates from about 1710; but it is full of interest, every room is consecrated by the memory of thrilling events. In this building Gen. Lew Wallace wrote his famous Ben Hur.

The chapel of San Miguel, was built in 1630 and still stands. By its side is the oldest house in the United States. The walls of the old cathedral date from 1622, but the rest of the structure is of more modern date. Within convenient distances are the Indian pueblos of Tesuque and Nambe; in a side canon of the Santa Fe are the delightful Aztec springs, while about nine miles up the main water course is Monument rock. The road thither is one of surpassing loveliness. To the south of town is Agua Fria, and the famous turquoise mines pronounced by Tiffany the finest in the world; and beyond the Rio Grande are the San Ildefonso Pueblo and the curious cliff dwellings.

Other points of interest to the tourists are: The Historical society's room; the "Gerita," the military quarters, chapel and cemetery of Our Lady of the Rosary; the church museum at the new cathedral; the archbishop's garden, church of Our Lady of Guadalupe with its rare old work of art, the pioneer monument, monument to the soldiers' pathfinders, Kit Carson, erected by

THE MILITARY POST.
Fort Marcy, at Santa Fe, is the oldest established military station on American soil. The Spaniards occupied it as such in 1602. Old Fort Marcy was built by Gen. Kearney in 1846; and the present site was occupied in 1865; the post is garrisoned by headquarters of the land and two companies of the 10th U. S. infantry under command of Col. E. P. Pearson; its location here adds greatly to Santa Fe's attractions socially and commercially. The military band stationed here is one of the best in the army and renders delightful music daily in the public plaza for the pleasure of citizens.

METEOROLOGICAL DATA.
The following is taken from the records of the U. S. weather office of Santa Fe for 1893.

Average velocity of wind, miles per hour	9.3
Total rainfall	14.94
Number of cloudless days	235
Number of fair days	99
Number of cloudy days	31
Annual mean cloudiness, per cent	31

From January 1, 1894, to May 15, 1894, the following is the record:
Number of cloudless days.....7
Number of fair or partly cloudy.....24
Number of cloudy days.....17
These records speak for themselves. Anyone in search of a dry, sunny, salubrious climate can do no better than come to Santa Fe.

Even the inveterately lazy can enjoy life here also if they have money. To the east Old Baldy rises a snowy dome in winter, and his steeply sloping forested sides in summer rival his winter beauty. In the winter the full moon at night and the sun by day turn his crest into a diadem of brilliants. To the west, the rugged and craggy mountains, scarcely less grand than the Santa Fe range, reflect the sunsets in a hundred gold tones, while their purple baselands an ideal background for all the splendor.

THE VIPOND MURDER.

Perfecto Padilla, of Jemez, Charged With the Crime and Placed in Jail.

A number of very sensational developments in the killing of John Vipond near Copper City have come to light during the past two weeks. The New Mexican has all along been aware of these facts, but in the interests of justice, it has withheld them from publication. Now, however, that the man charged with the murder and placed behind the bars of the Santa Fe county jail, the facts are given in full for the first time.

About the 5th of August this paper published an account of the killing of John Vipond by unknown parties in Rio Arriba county about seventy miles north of Bland City. At that time all the facts were

WRAPPED IN MYSTERY

and nothing definite could be obtained as to the guilty parties. Meanwhile, Mr. W. C. Vipond, of the Vipond district, about forty miles from Butte, Mont., a brother of the murdered man; Mr. S. L. Russell, of the same place and a friend of the two Viponds, and Mr. J. C. Harker, of Grand Junction, their brother-in-law, saw the publication of the happening and decided to come immediately to New Mexico to investigate the matter. They accordingly reached Bland on September 16 and immediately set to work to locate Mr. John Vipond's camp. Assisted by a party from Bland they came after many days' search to the place near Copper City, where Mr. Vipond had made his headquarters while prospecting. An examination of the premises, which are in a dense forest, gave a shocking revelation. Mr. Vipond's body was found very near his camp with indications of severe blows on the head that must have caused his death. Burro and other tracks showed the direction the murderers had taken in leaving and the animals that were driven with them. The remains were tenderly gathered up and were subsequently brought to Santa Fe. They will here be examined during the next day or two by Dr. J. H. Sloan and will be sent hence to Grand Junction, Iowa, for interment.

Meanwhile the party returning to Bland got a clue as to the murderers from a couple of miners, Judge McGinnis, of Bland, and William Feverson, his companion, who had seen a Mexican with the murdered man's burros, and had taken them into their possession. Having located

THE SUSPECTED MAN,

Messrs. Vipond, Russell and Harker returned to Santa Fe, where a warrant was immediately taken out for him. This was placed in the hands of the proper officers and last Sunday Officer Jack Harker and Deputy Sheriff Juan Delgado arrested Perfecto Padilla at Jemez pueblo, while he was on his way back home after placing his daughter in school at Santa Fe. Padilla is the party who had Mr. Vipond's burros in his possession. He will be given a preliminary hearing upon Judge Laughlin's return from Mora.

The officials have one or two other parties in view on suspicion, but no other arrests will be made until further developments have taken place.

The two Vipond brothers were men of prominence in their district of Montana and the killing of the elder Vipond was a shock to a large circle of friends. No efforts will be left unturned by the family to bring the guilty parties to justice.

U. S. COURT.

Hon. J. B. H. Hemingway and his assistant, Mr. George P. Money, returned last night from Albuquerque where the federal court adjourned yesterday. They will be in Santa Fe until the opening of the United States court on the first Monday of next month. Two of the prisoners convicted at Albuquerque will be sent up to the penitentiary to-night. They are Pascual Catulola, an Italian from Bernallillo county, sent up for a term of one year for violating the Edmunds law, and Attilia Luna, of Valencia county, sent up for four months for a similar offense. Mr. Hemingway was to have made one or two political speeches during the present campaign in the northeast portion of the territory, but the ruling of Attorney General Olney to the effect that United States attorneys are to take no active part in partisan politics has caused him to cancel his engagements.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

There hasn't been frost enough yet in the Santa Fe valley to nip the pumpkin blossoms.

Conductor Drury's run on the Lamy branch is now in the hands of Conductor J. H. Webb, a clever main liner, the former having gone for a trip to Las Vegas.

The Single Tax club will meet to-night at the office of Secretary W. J. Eaton, when there will be a discussion on the evolution of land taxation. Citizens interested are invited.

Two final homestead entries were made with Receiver Delgado to-day to property in Santa Fe county. The parties were John Matzenbacher and Andrew Arntzen, both of Antelope Springs.

Hon. Antonio Joseph spoke last night to a large crowd at Cerrillos in company with Gen. Chas. F. Easley. Mr. Joseph's speech was full of good points and was received with great enthusiasm.

Received to-day at Beaty's, fresh oysters. New York Counts, per can, 45 cents; Extra Selects, 40 cents. Choice cranberries, 15 cents per quart. Best creamery butter, 30 cents per pound.

The Republican "league club" held a meeting at the office of Catron & Spiess last night there being about sixty voters present. Speeches were made by C. A. Spiess, Gen. Bartlett and J. H. Parry.

Word comes from Lamy to the effect that Manager J. H. Callahan, of the Harvey dining station there, has been over duck shooting at Galisteo lake, where he had a number of lively experiences. He fell head-first from a boat into the cold, cold water, and for a time his friends thought him a "goner."

The remains of N. T. Reed, the young man of Troy, N. Y., who died at the Gallogosa block yesterday, have been embalmed and will be taken east to-morrow by the mother of deceased.

Registration of voters closes on Saturday. The law makes it the duty of boards of registration to register all legally qualified voters. Should they refuse to register any person presenting himself, such person may make an affidavit setting out all his qualifications as a voter, or if he is absent from the precinct, another person may do it for him, and it is the duty of any justice of the peace to administer such oaths free of charge, and upon presentation of such affidavit it is the duty of the board of registration to file the affidavit and place the name of the party on the registration books.

A HAPPY IDEA.

Home Seekers to Be Settled in Western Communities by the National Government.

The immigration bureau of the U. S. treasury department sends Gov. Thornton a timely and important circular letter containing the following queries:

1. Does your state, or any portion thereof, desire immigration? If only portions, what portions?
2. What are the resources that need development? If agricultural, what character of products are to be cultivated, etc.? If mineral, what kinds of mines are to be worked? If artisans are required, please state the trades and occupations in which employment can be found. If unskilled labor is wanted, please indicate the kind of work for which it is needed.
3. What wages are usually paid in each of the occupations referred to? Please also give any other information you think will be useful in guiding desirable immigrants to your section.
4. State what nationalities are preferred and the order of preference numerically.

This is an entirely new departure of government work that bids fair to be of very great benefit to western communities, for the executive of each state and territory has been sent similar letters. It is a clever plan inaugurated for the purpose of distributing the immigration of the country into districts where an increase of population is needed. The idea is to prevent the immigrants from Europe, as they land on our shores, from settling in the already crowded large cities, and to direct them to the portions of the country where a greater population is needed.

Gov. Thornton will take pains to forward all the desired information at an early day. When the national immigration department is thoroughly acquainted with the facts, it will be in a position to advise the immigrant as to the best location for him to settle.

The Best Line East. Is unquestionably the Burlington route. In point of equipment, time and service it is conceded to be superior to all other lines.

The fast vestibuled "Ayer" leaving Denver daily at 9 p. m., reaches Chicago at 8:20 a. m. and St. Louis at 7:20 a. m., the second morning, in ample time to connect with all fast trains for the east and south.

It is also a fact worth remembering that the Burlington is the only line running through trains over its own tracks from Denver to Chicago and St. Louis without change of any class of cars.

MASONIC SANITARIUM.

Views Expressed in the Leading Masonic Journal of England on Its Establishment in Santa Fe.

The Freemason's Chronicle, of England, just in hand, contains a column article by Mr. W. H. Gulliford, of this city, narrating the efforts being made by Montezuma lodge to establish here a Masonic home for consumptives, and this influential journal warmly recommends the project to the hearty support of the English brethren. Among other things it says: "Although so far removed from the operations of this benevolent scheme the brethren of this country can but feel a pride in this proposal, which we hope is destined to be speedily brought to a successful issue. That such a scheme should be promoted, also, is a subject for congratulation, but when it is members of the Masonic order who are taking the initiative, the interest is enhanced, and our good wishes are uttered with greater enthusiasm. We hope to hear further of the scheme as it progresses, as we are of the opinion that a knowledge of benevolent actions in far-off America is likely to arouse the members of the order around us to greater efforts than are already accomplished on behalf of distressed members of the order and their families."

Mr. W. H. Gulliford is a member of the grand lodge of England, P. M. Montezuma 1017, and 1614, P. Z. Joppa chapter 188, and life governor of the all the charities, and his interest in the good cause will doubtless have a very beneficial influence among foreign members of the fraternity.

A Morning Blaze.

The fire which occurred this morning about 3 o'clock just back of the Gildersleeve house occupied by S. Lowitzki in Barro alley created quite a blaze and attracted a crowd notwithstanding the unreasonable hour. The fire department was called out and did good work in preventing the spread of the flames.

The stable belonging to Felipe Delgado was completely destroyed, burning to death a calf and some poultry. The loss to Mr. Delgado amounts to about $200, with no insurance. An outhouse or two upon Mr. Gildersleeve's premises were burned, the loss being no more than $20. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Grand Canyon of Colorado River. On the Santa Fe route, in northern Arizona, 1,262 miles from Kansas City, is the town of Flagstaff. A tri-weekly stage line runs from Flagstaff to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. More than a mile in depth, this is the sublime of gorges—a Titan of chasms. Twenty Yosemite might be hidden unseen below, and Niagara would look scarcely larger than a brook.

Don't fail to visit this first wonder of the world. You can "read up" about it by asking G. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A., A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kas., to mail you a free copy of an illustrated book describing this terra incognita. The book is no common affair; but is entertainingly written, beautifully illustrated and a gem of the printer's art.

HOW IT WORKS.

A Practical Mine and Smelter Man Shows the Effect of the Lead Tariff on Business.

Mr. C. C. Fitzgerald, of Golden, returned home last night, passing through Santa Fe on his way back from Taos county. Mr. Fitzgerald is operating a mill at Golden and there is fair prospect of his erecting a smelter at that place in the near future. He is a mining man of much experience and his opinion on such subjects is always valuable. Mr. Fitzgerald has shown his judgment as to the influence of the new tariff law upon New Mexico's mining industries by starting up within the past month his extensive smelter at El Paso. About $110,000 is invested in this property and two years ago it was shut down because the rate of duty on the lead ore necessary for fluxing purposes was too high under the McKinley law to permit the profitable operation of the smelter. By the Democratic tariff law the duty on Mexican lead ore was reduced from 1½ cents a pound to three-fourths of a cent a pound; and with this change Mr. Fitzgerald saw an opportunity to make something on his investment, and has accordingly started his smelter in operation. While Mr. Fitzgerald is a Republican, he is first of all a business man, and he has evidently no sympathy with the policy of the calamity politicians who are trying to howl down New Mexico's returning prosperity for partisan ends.
