THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

President Cleveland Has Gone Shooting—Democratic Declaration in Favor of Silver—Minor News Notes.

ANONYMOUS PETITIONS.

Mr. Satchell has received an anonymous petition urging him to go to Chicago and suppress the organization of the Clan-Na-Gae. The paper received here made no reference to Cronin beyond saying that the society had already murdered a man and threatened to murder others. Mr. Satchell will not take any part in the revival of Cronin agitation or investigation of the Clan-Na-Gae. The subject is said to be entirely out of his jurisdiction.

SIXTEEN STATES AND TWO TERRITORIES.

The following are the names of the Democrats who signed the address recently given to the public, urging all Democrats to make the money question the paramount issue and to endeavor to place the Democratic party on record in favor of the "immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation, as it existed prior to 1873, such coin to be a full legal tender for all debts public and private." R. P. Bland, Missouri; W. J. Bryan, Nebraska; H. A. Coffey, Wyoming; George W. Fithian, Illinois; J. T. Cookrell, Texas; John L. McLauren, South Carolina; James G. McGuire, California; George Ikert, Ohio; Justin R. Whiting, Michigan; C. Snodgrass, Tennessee; George F. Richardson, Michigan; M. A. Smith, Arizona; A. W. Ogden, Louisiana; J. C. Capeheart, West Virginia; W. L. Moore, Kansas; H. D. Money, Mississippi; W. R. Ryan, Missouri; B. F. Grady, North Carolina; Chas. H. Morgan, Missouri; G. W. Shell, South Carolina; Edward Lane, Illinois; D. D. Donovan, Ohio; A. C. Latimer, South Carolina; Marshall Arnold, Missouri; W. H. Dennon, Alabama; W. J. Talbert, South Carolina; John S. Williams, Mississippi; T. J. Stait, South Carolina; A. I. Caminetti, California; W. F. Bower, North Carolina; Antonio Joseph, New Mexico; Evan P. Howell, Atlanta Constitution; J. Floyd King, member of congress of Louisiana. They represent sixteen states and two territories.

Among the bills passed yesterday in the house was one to admit anti-toxine, the new remedy for diphtheria, to be imported free of duty. The measure was pushed through by western members led by Representative Bryan, of Nebraska.

THE APPROPRIATIONS.

The following figures show approximately the total appropriations made during the late session of congress: Agricultural, $3,303,700; army, $23,252,608; diplomatic and consular, $1,575,078; District of Columbia, $5,916,133; fortifications, $1,904,567; Indian, $9,976,948; military academy, $424,261; pensions, $141,881,670; postoffice, $68,545,597; general deficiency, $5,600,000; sundry civil, $47,140,000; urgent deficiency bills passed early in the session, $2,867,321; legislative, executive and judicial, $21,900,000; naval, $29,100,000; permanent annual, $118,073,956; miscellaneous, $50,000; total, $438,952,524.

These figures are exact, except in the cases of the general deficiency, sundry civil, legislative, executive and judicial, naval and miscellaneous, and these are very close to the exact amounts except possibly on the general deficiency bill and miscellaneous.

The figures on the general deficiency are given as the bill passed the house, and will be found to be not far from correct.

PENSION LEGISLATION.

The pension bill, as enacted, contains provisions that pensions shall not be paid to non-residents who are not residents of the United States, except for actual disabilities incurred in the service, directing examining surgeons to state the ratings to which they say the applicants are entitled and fixing the lowest rate of pension at $6 a month. Among the last acts of the house was the passage of the bill to establish regulations for the payment of accrued pensions to the heirs of dead pensioners and exempting the pension money from being held a part of the assets of the estate for the payment of debts.

BILLS THAT FAILED.

The following bills failed to receive the signature of the president and therefore failed to become laws:

To prevent insignia and name of Red Cross; to amend the act to provide for time and place of holding terms of United States courts in the state of Washington; to amend the act "authorizing Texas and Fort Smith Railway company to bridge Sulphur river in Arkansas or in Texas," approved April 21, 1894; for the relief of telegraph operators during war of rebellion; to grant to railroad companies in Indian Territory additional powers to secure right of way, depot grounds, etc.; to grant Gainesville, Mo., and St. Louis Railroad company the right to build two branch lines and to grant the right of way thereto through the Indian Territory; granting the state of Kansas the abandoned Fort Hayes military reservation for the purpose of establishing a western branch of the Kansas agricultural college and of the Kansas normal school thereon, and to grant to the state the auditor of the war department to audit certain quartermaster.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED.

The case of Frances and P. B. Coffin, indicted on fifty counts for complicity in the failure of the Indianapolis National bank, was decided in an opinion by Justice White yesterday. The contention of the defendants that no one not an officer of the bank could be convicted for complicity was not sustained. The refusal of the judge to charge that there existed a presumption of innocence was overruled and a new trial ordered.

THE GOULD MARRIAGE.

The New York Board of Health Objects—No Does a Kansas City Preacher.

New York, Feb. 5.—The board of health refused to record the marriage certificate of Anna Gould and Count de Castellane to-day on the ground that it was defective in a vital point. All information as to the matter is refused by the board. It is said the cause of the board's action is that no date was given in the certificate.

A PREACHER CRIPS IN.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 5.—Rev. Charles Kloos, pastor of the Continental tabernacle church, created somewhat of a sensation Sunday night in making reference to the engagement of Miss Anna Gould. The text was "Thieves of Our Home," and he said in part:

"The barter and sale of our American heiresses for a foreign title is one of the most unseemly exhibitions of modern waste. We who ride on the Missouri Pacific have a right to protest at the big price paid for the French count whom Anna Gould is to marry, $2,000,000."

Fatal Fire in New York.

New York, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Rose Kennedy, aged 50 years, perished by fire to-day in a six story flat building on 370 Columbus avenue, and for a time forty other occupants were in great peril. Mrs. Kennedy lived with her brother, Martin Connellan, on the sixth floor. Connellan and his wife reached the ground by the fire escape and appealed to the two men ascending to save their two children. The men rescued the little ones, but made no search for the other occupants of the flat.

NATURAL GAS EXPLOSION.

Indiana City Shattered—Like an Earthquake Shock—Loss of Property.

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 5.—The most destructive natural gas explosion in the history of the Indiana gas belt occurred at 4 this morning. A $65,000 business block on the court house square was blown all over the central part of the city. In the building were the When clothing store, Prather's shoe store, Handley's drug store, business offices and a hall on the upper floor. A fire followed the explosion which was like an earthquake and the remains of the debris burned fiercely. The fire department was called out and prevented the fire from reaching the new court house. Attorney Ballard and County Commissioner Metcalf lived in the rooms above the When store and it is feared that they perished. The loss on the building and contents will reach $400,000. The fronts of all the business houses in the neighborhood of the explosion were demolished and the paved streets were ripped open and telephone cables torn down.

In addition to the demolition to the Terhune block the explosion did much damage to the court house and other buildings struck by the missiles. The fire had little to work on save the wreckage. The contents of the stores are scattered everywhere and not so much as a respectable line of samples could be secured from the ruins. The building and contents are covered by insurance of more than $200,000.

Movements of Count and Countess.

New York, Feb. 5.—Upon investigation the Associated Press learned that Archbishop Corrigan's clerk, by inadvertence, omitted to enter upon the date line of the Gould-Castellane marriage certificate and the hour when the ceremony occurred and the paper was therefore returned to the proper persons for correction.

Illinois Legislature Proposes to Investigate Condition of Chicago and Cook County.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 5.—In the state senate to-day Senator Johnson offered a resolution charging that corruption exists in every department of Chicago and Cook county and providing for a joint committee of three from the senate and four from the house to have full power to investigate the whole city and county machinery. It charges the Chicago council with bartering valuable franchises to individuals and corporations without the least regard to the public welfare and that the police department is corrupt and grants immunities to criminals and shields the unlawful.

SMALL PROVOCATION.

Las Vegas "Indignate" Over Judge Fall's "Assault" Upon Councilman Ancheta.

The Albuquerque National bank depository scandal refuses to be suppressed. The following appears in the local columns of the Las Vegas Optic of last evening:

"Spanish dodgers have been thrown around town to-day, calling a public meeting at the court house this evening, to denounce a Democratic leader for an attempt on the life of J. A. Ancheta, on the evening of Feb. 21st, in Santa Fe. The Optic has been informed that the Democratic leader referred to, is Judge A. B. Fall, and H. L. Ortiz, now in the city, says that he was with Fall at the time and there was not so much as an assault with words, much less an attempt on the life. The Optic doubts the wisdom of the meeting."

A message to the New Mexican to-day states that, notwithstanding the Optic's attempt to pour oil on the troubled waters, the indignants really held a meeting last night according to program.

From what the New Mexican can learn these "Amigos Republicanos" at whose instance this meeting was held have precious small provocation to inspire them to indignation. The New Mexican has no special cause to defend Judge Fall, but in the interest of fair play it can say that his engagement with the little giant from Grant falls far short of meriting any such attention as the Las Vegas have given it. On the date in question, when the depository scandal was up in the council, Mr. Ancheta took occasion to say some rather uncomplimentary things about Judge Fall's conduct as a member of the council two years ago, and at the close of the session, feeling himself to have been unjustly assailed by Councilman Ancheta, Judge Fall approached that gentleman and used some very plain language in telling him so. It simply amounted to a tongue lashing, nothing more.

Bulletin No. 2.—There are 20,169 newspapers published in the United States and Canada; of this number 289 are published in Colorado.

The Wabash railroad is the shortest line between Kansas City and St. Louis. For the year ending June 30, 1893, the railways of the United States carried 233,600,012 passengers, out of which number only 269 passengers were killed and 3,229 injured.

From Chicago to Detroit the short line is the Wabash, 262 miles. This forms a portion of the celebrated Niagara Falls short line to New York and Boston.

The wheat production in the United States, for 1893, was 896,131,725 bushels, valued at $213,171,381. Colorado's production was 2,504,000 bushels.

The Wabash is the only line running a la carte dining cars between Chicago and New York.

The American Telephone Co., in 1894 had 237,186 subscribers and required the service of 10,421 employees.

The Wabash railroad lands you in New York at 7:50 a. m., saving you one night's hotel out.

SHINING SANDS.

Organization of Santa Fe Placer Mining Company for Development of Galisteo Placers.

A week or so ago the New Mexican printed a somewhat extended notice of the plans, operations and prospects of the Santa Fe Placer Mining company with offices in Kansas City and Los Cerillos, in this county. Since then General Manager Nettleton has favored this paper with a printed copy of the elaborate and satisfactory prospectus of the company, a document rich in information respecting the placer fields of south Santa Fe county and brightened by the promise that they will speedily be developed.

The property of the association consists of some four miles of the bed of the Galisteo river, comprising twenty placer claims of twenty acres each, each claim being 600 feet wide by 1,500 feet in length, situated about two miles from Cerillos on the line of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad and about twenty-five miles south of Santa Fe.

The Galisteo river flows at the northern base of the Ortiz mountain, covering an area of about 100 square miles, under whose northern and southern slopes exist immense deposits of placer gold, which have been worked since 1711 by the Spaniards and by the Aztecs prior to that time.

All the gold in these deposits has unquestionably come from this mountain, having been eroded and washed down for ages, and the claims of the association have been so located as to embrace the mouths of all the principal arroyos or gulches which lead from the "Old Placers," so that the gold wash of the rich locality is concentrated thereon.

Under the supervision of Manager Nettleton, with a competent corps of assistants and expensive machinery, the ground has been thoroughly prospected, and the results have proved so satisfactory that a company has been organized with a capital of $100,000 and the work of systematic development will begin as soon as a permanent plant can be put in. The cost of this plant will be about $15,000. Gov. W. T. Thornton and Surveyor General Eastley, of Santa Fe, and W. N. Emmert, of Golden, are the New Mexico directors of the association.

The operations of this company, which promise such substantial benefits to this county, will be watched with deep interest.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every Post Office in the Territory and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the southwest.

TUESDAY, MARCH 5.

So STATEHOOD is dead—long live statehood.

ARIZONA has adopted the New Mexican cattle brand law.

ANENT statehood, the A. P. A. and Republicans have made good their threats. Well, there'll be a day of reckoning yet.

FRANCIS has put up the bars to keep out the American cow, but has so far hinted no objection to the importation of American heifers.

CONGRESS quit yesterday with almost as much to answer to the people for as the New Mexico assembly. May the good Lord have mercy on 'em.

HOUSE bill No. 112 will scarcely be made to hold water in law no matter what the amendments. As a law it isn't worth the paper it is written on.

ANYWAY we are not wholly bereft of substantial causes for gratitude. The 52d congress and the 31st legislative assembly of New Mexico have adjourned sine die and the Gould-Castellano wedding is well over.

THE Republican press is gloating over the fact that "the legislature at its close was Republican." Umph! It was rank Republican all the time so far as doing the bidding of the bosses and the hoodlums was concerned.

AND now we find the sprightly Eddy Argus showing its high appreciation of the New Mexican as a newspaper. At any rate, the Argus doesn't hesitate to use columns after columns of news from this journal with never a sign of a credit.

ALBUQUERQUE will have to hump herself if the National irrigation congress is to be made a success. No narrow gauge statesmanship such as has of late years characterized the so-called "territorial fair" association will serve the purpose in this instance.

THE Roswell Record has just entered upon its fifth year. The Record is a most excellent newspaper, one of the few really well edited journals in the southwest, and it is in every sense an honor to the enterprising community that supports it. The New Mexican's best wishes always attend it.

THERE is urgent demand for New Mexico cattle at present at top-notch prices. It's just as well, however, for our beef producers to go slow in getting to market. A prosperous year is in sight so far as range grass and sanitation are concerned, and recently published official statistics make it certain that "beef will be beef" before winter frosts come again.

NO MAN came out of the ordeal with cleaner hands and a more honorable record than Wm. E. Dame, of Cerrillos. He is an absolutely safe man for true Democracy to tie to and the New Mexican misses its best guess if higher honors are not in waiting for the young man. The hoodlums could neither brow-beat nor break him down, and as speaker of the house his rulings were free from partisanship and thoroughly impartial all around. That's the sort of conduct that makes friends for pure Democracy.

LEGISLATIVE APPORTIONMENT. True, the act to re-apportion New Mexico for legislative purposes failed to become law. Although it was absolutely fair and non-partisan in its provisions the fact that it was a Democratic measure was enough to kill it in the hands of that assembly, Republican by a small majority as it was. But they need not lay the flattering unction to their souls that the existing partisan apportionment will stand.

There has been a great deal of misapprehension about this question of apportionment. An ancient New Mexico statute provides that an apportionment shall be made by the legislature every ten years and that in case of failure on the part of the legislature the governor shall make the apportionment. Under this authority Gov. Prince made the present apportionment, but it is clearly illegal in the light of the fact that congress some years ago passed an act governing this matter specifically for the benefit of New Mexico. This law provides that, when the legislative assembly fails to do its duty in this respect, then the apportionment shall be made as in the manner provided for the then territories of Montana and Wyoming—and just here comes the milk in the cocoanut. The law respecting Montana and Wyoming stipulates that in case of failure of the legislature to act, the apportionment shall be made by the governor acting in conjunction with the president of the council and the speaker of the house. The latter two officers had no part and were not consulted in making the Prince apportionment, hence it is void. The matter will probably receive due attention at the hands of the duly constituted officers within a short time.

BOSS FILLEY, of St. Louis, seems to be manipulating the present Missouri legislature to suit his own sweet will. Having chosen a Republican legislature and turned down Silver Dick Bland, Missouri need expect no sympathy if Boss Filley is appointed guardian, administrator or receiver of the entire state.

PRESS COMMENTS.

Might Have Come Sooner. The New Mexican publishes an exposure of the work done by one of the councilmen, a little late, perhaps, but nevertheless interesting. If the spirit of fairness can prevail, there are others to be exposed.—Socorro Advertiser.

He Proclaimed Himself a Republican and Voted With Them.

The latest report from Santa Fe is that one of the Democratic senators was economical during the session of the legislature, and from his earnings deposited $6,000 in the bank.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Should Hide their Faces.

The council acted foolishly in refusing to confirm A. A. Jones, of Las Vegas, as district attorney for San Miguel, as that gentleman has an excellent character and stands at the head of his profession. It was certainly wrong and every man voting against confirmation, whether Democrat or Republican, should hide his face.—Socorro Advertiser.

The New Mexican Tells the Truth. The New Mexican, in its issue of March 1, gives considerable space to the treachery of one of the Democratic councilmen from San Miguel county. Such an advance step as this by the New Mexican is to be commended, and it is hoped that it will not stop in its efforts to show up such duplicity, even if it does hurt members of their own party.—Las Vegas Stock Grower.

Boosters and Hoodlums. The law-makers of New Mexico have brought their labors to a close. In glancing over the work of the session we are forced to the conclusion that very little commendable legislation has taken the form of law. That brainy and honest men were members of that assembly, none will deny; but they were so heavily handicapped by the light-brained majority that their experience and good sense were lost upon the horde of driveling idiots by whom they were surrounded. The voters now have two years before them in which to deliberate over the folly of being represented in the legislature by this class of boosters and hoodlums. The outlook is not one of the brightest, we are forced to admit, but strange things frequently come to pass when least expected.—San Marcial Bee.

"Seven years ago, my wife had a severe attack of lung trouble which the physicians pronounced consumption. The cough was extremely distressing, especially at night, and was frequently attended with the spitting of blood. The doctors being unable to help her, I induced her to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was surprised at the great relief it gave. Before using one whole bottle, she was cured, so that now she is quite strong and healthy. That this medicine saved my wife's life, I have not the least doubt."—K. MORRIS, Memphis, Tenn.

CATARRH IN CHILDREN

For over two years my little girl's life was made miserable by a case of Catarrh. The discharge from the nose was large, constant and very offensive. Her eyes became inflamed, the lids swollen and very painful. After trying various remedies, I gave her SSS. The first bottle seemed to aggravate the disease, but the symptoms soon abated, and in a short time she was cured. DR. L. B. RITCHEY, Mackey, Ind.

An Eager and a Nipping Wind.
A continuous downpour of rain, inclement weather, generally in winter and spring, are unfavorably to all classes of invalids. But warmth and activity infused into the circulation counteracts these influences and interpose a defense against them. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, most thorough and effective of stomachics and tonics, not only enriches the blood, but accelerates its circulation. For a chill, or premonitory symptoms of rheumatism and kidney complaint, particularly prevalent at these seasons, it is the best possible remedy. It is also invaluable for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation and nervousness. Never set out on a winter or spring journey without it. Elderly persons and the delicate and convalescent are greatly aided by it.

How to Cure Rheumatism.
Arango, Ocos, Co., Oregon, Nov. 10, 1893.
—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Ballard. 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale at Ireland's Pharmacy.

We often sneer at the Egyptians for being a slow people, but on the contrary, they must have been a very busy race. Even mummies appear to have been pressed for a time.

Ireland's Pharmacy desires us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Outfield, of Reedley, Fresno Co., Cal., as he handles the remedy referred to and wants his customers to know what a splendid remedy it is:

"It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

Whiskey killing Uncle Bill! Oh, no, my son, exactly the reverse.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter Co., Cal., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have a cold he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale at Ireland's Pharmacy.

A VETERAN'S VERDICT.

The War is Over. A Well-known Soldier, Correspondent and Journalist Makes a Disclosure.

Indiana contributed her thousands of brave soldiers to the war, and no state bears a better record in that respect than it does. In literature it is rapidly acquiring an enviable place in war and literature. Solomon Yewell, well known as a writer as "Sol," has won an honorable position. During the late war he was a member of Co. M, 8th N. Y. Cavalry and of the 13th Indiana Infantry Volunteers. Regarding an important circumstance he writes as follows:
"Several of us old veterans here are using Dr. Allen's Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, all of them giving splendid satisfaction. In fact, we have never used medicine that compares with them. Of the Pills we must say they are the best combination of the qualities required in a preparation of their nature we have ever known. We have none but words of praise for them. They are the outcome of a new principle in medicine, and tone up the system wonderfully. We say to all, try these remedies."—Solomon Yewell, Marion, Ind., Dec. 5, 1892.
These remedies are sold by all druggists on positive guarantee, or sent direct by Dr. Allen's Medicine Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, 50c per bottle, six bottles for $2.50. They are not only safe but also potent and dangerous drugs.

THE BETTER PART.

The gypsy roses grow there still.
And the thyme and St. John's gold flower,
The pale blue violets that love the chalk.
Cling light round the lichen stone,
And starlings chatter and gray owls talk
In the belfry of nights alone.

It's a thousand leagues and a thousand years From the brick built, gas lit town
To the church where the wild thyme hears
The bees and the breeze of the down.
The town is crowded and hard and rough.
Let these fight in its press who will.
But the little churchyard is quiet enough.
And there's room in the churchyard still.

A GERMAN HEROINE.

[The following tale was taken from a local Holstein newspaper and translated by the eminent scholar, Max Muller, who says of it "that it came to him in a heap of other papers, fly sheets, pamphlets and books, but it alone like a diamond in a heap of rubbish, and." Max Muller adds, "as the tale of 'The Woman of Sleswick-Holstein' it may help to give to many who have been unjust to the inhabitants of the duchies some truer idea of the stuff there is in that strong and stanch and sterling race to which England owes its language, its best blood and its honored name."]

THE TALE OF THE OLD WOMAN OF SLESWICK-HOLSTEIN.

When the war against Denmark began in the winter of 1863, offices were opened in the principal towns of Germany for collecting charitable contributions. At Hamburg Messrs. L. and K. had set apart a large room for receiving lint, linen and warm clothing or small sums of money.

One day, about Christmas, a poorly clad woman from the country stepped in and inquired in the pure Holstein dialect whether contributions were received here for Sleswick-Holstein. The clerk showed her to a table covered with linen rags and such like articles. But she turned away and pulled out an old leather purse, and taking out pieces of money began to count aloud on the counter. "One mark, two marks, three marks," till she had counted her ten marks. "That makes ten marks," she said and shoved the little pile away. The clerk, who had watched the poor old woman while she was arranging her small copper and silver coins, asked her, "From whom does the money come?"

"From me," she said and began counting again. "One mark, two marks, three marks." Thus she went on emptying her purse till she had counted out ten small heaps of coins of ten marks each. Then, counting each heap over once again, she said: "These are my hundred marks for Sleswick-Holstein. Be so good as to send them to the soldiers."

While the old peasant woman was doing her sums several persons had gathered around her, and as she was leaving the shop she was asked again in a tone of surprise from whom the money came.

"From me," she said, and observing that she was closely scanned she turned back, and looking the man full in the face she added, smiling: "It is all honest money. It won't hurt the good cause."

The clerk assured her that no one had doubted her honesty, but that she herself had no doubt often known want, and that it was hardly right to let her contribute so large a sum, probably the whole of her savings.

The old woman remained silent for a time, but after she had quietly scanned the faces of all present she said: "Surely it concerns no one how I got the money. Many a thought passed through my heart while I was counting that money. You would not ask me to tell you all?"

"But you are kind gentlemen, and you take much trouble for us poor people. So I'll tell you whence the money came. Yes, I have known want, food has been scarce with me many a day, and it will be so again as I grow older, but our gracious Lord watches over us. He has helped me to bear the troubles which he sent. He will never forsake me. My husband has been dead this many and many a year. I had one only son, and my John was a fine stout fellow, and he worked hard, and he would not leave his old mother. He made my home snug and comfortable."

"Then came the war with the Danes. All his friends joined the army, but the only son of a widow, you know, is free. So he remained at home, and no one said to him, 'Come along with us,' for they knew that he was a brave boy, and that it broke his very heart to stay behind. I knew it all. I watched him when the people talked of the war or when the schoolmaster brought the newspaper. Ah, how he turned pale and red, and how he looked away and thought his old mother did not see it! But he said nothing to me, and I said nothing to him. Gracious God, who could have thought that it was so hard to drive our oppressors out of the land?"

"Then came the news from Frederica! That was a dreadful night. We sat in silence opposite each other. We knew what was in our hearts, and we hardly dared look at each other. Suddenly he rose and took my hand and said, 'Mother!' God be praised, I had strength in that moment. 'John,' I said, 'our time has come. Go, in God's name. I know how thou lovest me and what thou hast suffered. God knows what will become of me if I am left alone, but our Lord Jesus Christ will forsake neither thee nor me.'"

"John enlisted as a volunteer. The day of parting came. Ah, I am making a long story of it all! John stood before me in his new uniform. 'Mother,' he said, 'one request before we part—if it is to be.' 'John,' I said to him, 'I know what thou meanest. Oh, I shall weep. I shall weep very much when I am alone, but my time will come, and we shall meet again in the day of our Lord, John, and the land shall be free, John; the land shall be free!'"

Heavy tears stood in the poor old woman's eyes as she repeated her sad tale, but she soon collected herself and continued: "I did not think then it would be so hard. The heart always hopes even against hope. But for all that," and here the old woman drew herself up and looked at us like a queen, "I have never regretted that I bade him go. Then came dreadful days, but the most dreadful of all was when we read that the Germans had betrayed the land, and that they had given up our land, with all our dead, to the Danes! Then I called on the Lord and said: 'O Lord, my God, how is that possible? Why lettest thou the wicked triumph and allowest the just to perish?'"

"And I was told that the Germans were sorry for what they had done, but that they could not help it. But that, gentlemen, I could never understand. We should never do wrong nor allow wrong to be done. And therefore, I thought, it cannot always remain so. Our good Lord knows his own good time, and in his own good time he will come and deliver us. And I prayed every evening that our gracious Lord would permit me to see that day when the land should be free and our dear dead should sleep no more in Danish soil. And as I had no other son against that day I saved every year what I could save, and on every Christmas eve I placed it before me on a table, where, in former years, I had always placed a small present for my John, and I said in my heart, 'The war will come again, and the land will be free, and thou shalt sleep in a free grave, my only son, my John!'"

"And now, gentlemen, the poor old woman has been told that the day has come, and that her prayer has been heard, and that the war will begin again, and that is why she has brought her money—the money she saved for her son. Good morning, gentlemen!"

But before she had left the room an old gentleman said, loud enough for her to hear: "Poor body! I hope she may not be deceived."

"Ah," said the old woman, turning back, "I know what you mean. I have been told all is not right yet, but have faith, men. The wicked cannot prevail against the just. Man cannot prevail against the Lord. Hold to that, gentlemen. Hold fast together, gentlemen! This very day I bid you go again."

Bless her, good old soul! And if Odin were still looking out of his window in the sky, as of yore, when he granted victory to the women of the Lombards, might he not say even now:

When women are heroes,
What must the men be like?
Theirs is the victory.
No need of me. —Exchange.

Picture of a Bachelor.

Mr. Joseph Tipton was a bachelor of exceedingly methodical habits. Prim and neat in appearance, he never affected any new fashions, but always looked exactly the same day after day—pepper and salt colored trousers, with black cutaway coat. No one had ever seen him in a different attire. Not even when he was supposed to be indulging in a holiday did he condescend to a more comfortable looking costume. He was so much the creature of routine that it would have been no comfort to have been in any other garments than those he usually wore. He was short, his figure had a slight inclination of developing into rotundity, but evidently it was only a half formed idea, for he remained comparatively thin. He had a mild, ordinary looking face, which he tried to make severe by cultivating his rather thick eyebrows well over his eyes, but if you took the trouble to look underneath them and behind the gold rimmed glasses you would have discovered that his eyes were of dull grayish hue, the reverse of what he desired to make them appear. Still the little irritable, narrow lines about the mouth and chin prevented his face from wearing that benevolent look which would have made children know he was their friend. He was just the man who held children and dogs at arm's length, which showed a certain war in the little man's character.—London Society.

The Writing of "Ben-Hur"

General Lew Wallace in his lecture on "Ben-Hur" recounts some facts in connection with the writing of that famous novel. At the time he wrote the story General Wallace had never visited the Holy Land, and under the circumstances his accurate pictures are little short of marvelous. All the information he had was obtained from personal acquaintances who had traveled through Palestine and from reading the writings of other authors. A large map was before him as he wrote, and he constantly had to draw on his imagination, but in this respect he was always fortunate and never made a blunder in his descriptions. In fact, the Palestine of "Ben-Hur" is generally regarded as authoritative, and General Wallace relates with keen relish how a younger author wrote a story, the scene of which was laid in the Holy Land, and stole all his descriptions bodily from "Ben-Hur." General Wallace says that his hardest task in writing the book was to find a hero. His favorite passage in the story is the scene of Ben-Hur's house, where he describes the miracles of Christ. General Wallace believes that more art is displayed in this passage than even in the famous chariot race, which is generally regarded as the strongest passage of the book.

The Chignon, 1771.

I had my head rolled on. Aunt Storer said it ought to be made less. Aunt Deming said it ought not to be made at all. It makes my head itch and ache and burn like anything, mamma. This famous roll is not made wholly of a red cow tail, but is a mixture of that and horsehair (very coarse), and I suppose, was taken out of the back part of an old wig. Nothing renders a young person more amiable than virtue and modesty without the help of false hair, red cow tail and D— (the barber).—"Diary of Anna Green Winslow," Alice Moore Earle.

No-To-Bac sold and guaranteed by Geo. W. Hixox & Co. No cure no pay. Book free. Sterling Remedy Co., New York or Chicago.

PAINLESS CHILD BIRTH.

Mrs. FRED HUNT, of Glenview, N. Y., says: "I read about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription being so good for a woman with child, and I tried it. I got two bottles last September, and December 13th I had a twelve month baby girl. When I was confined I was not in pain at all. I did not suffer any pain, and when the child was born I walked about with child, and went to bed. I kept your Extract of Sweet-Weed on hand all the time. It was very good weather and our room was very cold, but I did not take any cold, and I was able to get up and do my usual work. It was all due to God and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Compound Extract of Sweet-Weed. This is the eighth living child I have had, and I am now expecting my ninth. I suffered everything that flesh could suffer with the other babies. I always had a doctor and then he could not help me very much. I was alone with me. My baby was only seven days old when I got up and dressed and left my room and stayed up all day."

CAPITAL CLATTER.

That was good news for many an old timer or his heirs which the New Mexican printed yesterday in its Washington dispatches to the effect that Mr. Joseph's bill for the relief of Capt. St. Vrain's volunteer militia had become law. Under this act the members of that organization are placed on an equal footing with all other war veterans, and they or their families will not only be eligible to receive pensions but now stand a show for horses, arms and forage, which they supplied the government in an emergency that constitutes an important factor in the early history of New Mexico.

This company of Capt. Ceran St. Vrain's mounted volunteers was called into the service of the United States by Col. Sterling Price, commanding the military department of New Mexico, for the purpose of "suppressing the insurrection of Taos, N. M." The company was organized at Santa Fe under the above order and took the field in the actual service of the government January 22, 1847, to serve during the revolution. The company consisted of Capt. St. Vrain, two commissioned officers, 1st Lieut. Charles Metcalf, 2d Lieut. George Penock, four sergeants, four corporals and fifty-seven privates. Only eight or ten of this patriotic band are now numbered among those in "the land of the living."

TERRITORIAL LIBRARY.

For the first time in history the territorial library is assuming some sort of systematic order, is kept clean and inviting. Librarian Jose Segura is having extra shelves placed to-day and is arranging thereon some 600 new volumes of state and supreme court reports just received. As many more volumes are en route and when placed will provide about 5,000 volumes, so displayed as to be readily accessible to members of the bar. The territorial library commission is composed of Judge Laughlin, Mr. Catron and Judge Waldo.

A NOTED OPINION.

Speaking of ex-Judge Freeman's location at Socorro for the practice of law, the Silver City Enterprise says:

"Judge Freeman has proved himself one of the most able jurists who has filled the bench in the territory. Several years ago he stood alone in the dissenting opinion, when four associate judges of the supreme court of the territory gave an opinion that the Santa Fe county railway bonds were valid obligations. A recent decision of the supreme court of the United States has affirmed the opinion of Judge Freeman. In a matter of such great importance to the whole of the western states, the amount involved west of the Missouri river being over fifteen millions of dollars, it is of consequence credit to Judge Freeman that he had more thoroughly studied the merits of the suit than any of his colleagues, and was the only one of the judges of the supreme court of the territory who had arrived at a correct opinion in the case."

OFFICIAL NOTES.

The board of penitentiary commissioners is in session at the institution this afternoon, all members being present.

The final quarterly reports by Territorial Auditor Perez and Treasurer Pallen will appear in the New Mexican to-morrow.

Hon. Samuel Eldred, the newly appointed territorial treasurer, is in the city from his home at San Juan making final arrangements for shortly entering upon his official duties.

Regina Uriondo de Lopez, of Guadalupe county, and Jesus M. A. Duran, of Rio Arriba county, each made homestead applications for 160 acres at the United States land office in Santa Fe yesterday.

President Curry, of the late council, has presented Chief Clerk Antonio Lucero with a handsome gold-headed cane in testimony of his faithful service during the legislative session. Representative Martinez, of Socorro, also received from Felix Martinez a handsome gift.

It is whispered that Mr. Folsom's "expenses" at Santa Fe two years ago were about $20,000. The citizen is gathering facts for another interesting chapter in the Albuquerque National bank investigation.—Albuquerque Citizen. Well, out with it. Facts are what the tax payers demand.

There is a party in town to whom has been given a plat of the place where Vicente Silva and wife were killed, and buried. A convict in the pen professes to have taken part in the murder, and gave the plat of the place. A party of Las Vegas, as soon as the weather settles, will go and examine the place.—Las Vegas Optic.

The March term of the United States and territorial courts for the district of Bernalillo opened at Albuquerque yesterday. Just before court adjourned for the noon hour Judge Collier passed a rule for the advancement of causes, which refers to filing sworn pleas, and ought to expedite the disposal of many causes cumbering the docket. This rule applies to all common law cases, whether begun in the district court or taken by appeal from justice of the peace courts.

Judge Laughlin has adopted a new rule whereby the jurors drawn for the coming special term of the territorial district court will not be given to the public until the jurors are formally empaneled. This is believed to be a wise conclusion in view of the number and importance of the criminal cases to come on for a hearing at this term. Among the notable cases pending are those of the territory against Francisco Gonzales y Borrego, Antonio Gonzales y Borrego, Chino Alarid and Patricio Valencia, accused of the murder of Francisco Chavez several years ago and held by Judge Seeds without bail.

City Council—No Quorum.

In the absence of both Mayor Sloan and President Esley, the city council

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Have you seen the 1895 Columbia bicycle?

A glorious spring day.

Speaking about charming March days.

The board of education meeting last night accomplished nothing of moment.

Owing to the absence of a quorum the county commissioners transacted no business yesterday afternoon.

The Democratic candidates for mayor-domos in Santa Fe were triumphant—one by 34 and the other by 85 majority.

Mrs. Lowenberg, of Pena Blanca, has a fine lot of Plymouth Rock poultry which she offers for sale at a low figure.

Very little moisture has found its way down the river this spring. It has mostly gone into the soil where it will do the most good.

Mrs. Emilia C. Barrett, a niece of the late ex-sheriff, Frank Chavez, has applied for a divorce from her liege lord, Charles J. Barrett, in the district court at Las Vegas.

It is said that Chas. W. Greene, formerly of Santa Fe and late of Eddy, where he owns a fine property, has assumed editorial charge of the Denver branch of the Irrigation Age.

The cycling fad promises to be more popular than ever in Santa Fe this season. Adolph Fischer is in receipt of three Columbias, '95 pattern, that are beauties.

The new wheels show many noteworthy improvements.

Col. W. H. Owen, of Washington, D. C., is making a careful survey of the United States cemetery in Santa Fe with a view to the improvements contemplated. Superintendent Joseph will see that the improvements are promptly made.

The Masonic burying ground in Santa Fe, where the first governor and many of the most noted men of New Mexico have confided their dust, is not creditable to an order that makes as many good professions as the Masonic order does. Doubtless this mild suggestion will be quite sufficient.

Cochiti is again to the front. Word from Bland is to the effect that a magnificent strike of gold ore has recently been made on the Lone Star. The ore averages $86 per ton in gold, taken from across the face, and the vein must be large as forty tons were taken out in one day, Saturday last.

Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, is now in Mexico, accompanied by his wife, daughter and three sons. Hon. T. B. Catron's mission in Mexico is to meet Mr. Elkins and accompany him as far as Santa Fe on his return. The party will pay a visit to Cerrillos the last of this or the first of next week, after which Senator Elkins is expected to visit among his many old friends in this city.

Remember the Birthday social at the St. John's M. E. church to-night. The program, which commences at 7:30 o'clock, will be as follows: Singing by the choir, readings by Prof. Curran, paper on Santa Fe water works by Mr. W. J. Eaton; also, a paper on the weather from the weather bureau office; recitations. Freely interspersed with the above will be instrumental music by Messrs. Moore and Ward. After the program refreshments will be served. Those finding it more convenient may leave their "sack" at Weltmer's book store.

By dint of hard rustling Mr. Wanschmann has succeeded in collecting $300 in delinquent taxes from the various insurance companies. This is money which the county would probably have never got hold of but for the county board's court house insurance deal with Mr. Wanschmann. His collections would have been double this amount if the legislature had not passed that iniquitous tax extension act at the bidding of the land grant owners.

A MISAPPREHENSION.

Sheriff Cunningham Turned Over No Money to Collector Spiegelberg—Merely Credited with Unpaid Tax Balances.

The New Mexican yesterday printed the final statement of the accounts of W. P. Cunningham, sheriff and ex-officio collector of taxes, as audited and approved by a special committee appointed for the purpose by the county commissioners. The credits taken and accounted for as turned over to Collector Spiegelberg were none of them in the form of money, but were balances of delinquent taxes due to the several funds, which have simply been transferred from the books of Sheriff Cunningham to those of the new collector and now stand charged to the latter. As a matter of fact Mr. Cunningham not only did not pay over any money to Collector Spiegelberg, but the statement of the auditing committee shows that the county actually owes him a balance of $780.71.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Democrats Should at Once Organize for the Contest on April 2—Republicans Active—Importance of Nominating the Right Men.

The annual municipal election is so near at hand that Democrats ought to be bestirring themselves in the matter of effecting a thorough organization and otherwise preparing to make an aggressive and successful contest. This election will occur on the 2nd of April, less than thirty days distant, and there is no time to lose. The Republicans are always alert and active and can be depended upon to do their level best to achieve victory. They have been quietly preparing for the fray for several weeks. Fellow Democrats, wake up; call primary meetings in the several wards of the city; agree upon respected, capable and representative Democrats for mayor, councilmen, and the various other city officers; then nominate them, work for them and elect them. Especial attention should be given to the choice of members of the board of education. The importance of protecting and promoting the city schools can hardly be overestimated.

PERSONAL.

Mr. H. L. Ortiz returned last night from a trip to Trinidad.

Mr. Geo. R. Philpott, of Kansas City, stops at the Exchange.

Hon. N. B. Laughlin and family leave to-night for a ten days' visit to friends at San Diego, Cal.

Mr. D. B. Robinson, general manager of the A. T. & S. F., passed up the road to-day en route east from California.

Messrs. Abran Abeyta, of Socorro, and Richard Hudson, of Silver City, arrived from the south last night on official business.

Hon. Jose L. Lopez, former penitentiary commissioner, came over from Las Vegas yesterday and will return home to-night.

Hon. J. M. Valdez, formerly assessor of Colfax county, now a member of the penitentiary board, is registered at the Exchange.

Mrs. W. L. Pershing has decided to start back to Springfield, Ohio, on the 12th instant. She will be accompanied by her two sons.

Mr. Geo. B. Spratt, who has been confined to his room for three weeks with pneumonia, was able to be out in the sunshine yesterday.

Hon. C. H. Gildersleeve, who has been suffering with a severe cold for a week or more, was able to mingle among his friends yesterday.

Solicitor General Victory has returned from Cerrillos whither he went to look after the interests of the territory in the matter of the late White Ash coal mine disaster.

Mr. M. McCabe, member of the city council from the 3d ward, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia. His colleague in the council, Mr. John Conway, has also been suffering with the same complaint, but was able to be out yesterday.

Agents Wanted.

There are probably a dozen young men in Santa Fe either idle or working for a bare living who might earn from $100 to $300 a month writing life insurance. The undersigned desires to secure the services of a few bright, active men, who can furnish references and give bonds, to solicit insurance in this territory and Arizona. Address, with references, S. H. NEWMAN, General Agent Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, Albuquerque.

THE DRIVING PARK.

A New Board of Directors and Officers—The Enterprise to Be Rapidly Pushed to Completion.

As soon as the earth dries out Col Brady will resume work on the driving park racing course. At a recent meeting of the association directors were elected as follows: C. W. Dedrow, J. W. Akers, T. J. Helm, F. M. Jones, Grant Rivenburg, T. P. Gable, W. P. Cunningham, P. H. Hill and C. B. Dixon. The officers chosen to serve for the ensuing year are: C. W. Dedrow, president; J. W. Akers, vice-president; T. J. Helm, secretary; Frank M. Jones, treasurer. With this class of men "at the helm"—nothing personal—the few "hills" yet remaining on those inviting "acres" will, the New Mexican is "frank" to say, soon disappear and the public may now take it for granted that the gable-end of the new box stalls will this summer house some of the most cunning-hamed flyers that ever went on western tracks. "Dicks" on to this, hence his ambition to serve as a director, while Dedrow—well, he's a wheel-horse whose pull serves to give the association solidity, too. Let stock subscribers now come to the front in order that the finishing touches may not be long delayed.
