THE WASHINGTON BUDGET

New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma Knocking at the Doors of Congress for Statehood.

MR. CATRON EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE

Senate Struggling with Revenue and Bond Bills—War on "Ancient Fictions" of that Body—Position of Senator Jones.

Washington, Jan. 10.—The three territorial delegates, Messrs. Flynn, of Oklahoma, Murphy, of Arizona, and Catron of New Mexico, are waging a vigorous campaign in congress to secure favorable action upon their bills for the admission of the territories represented by them to statehood.

They have canvassed the territories committee and believe that more than two-thirds of its members will vote for favorable reports.

The bills for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico before this congress are enabling acts, modeled upon the act by which Utah was elevated to statehood, with certain modifications demanded by local conditions.

THE PENDING ARIZONA BILL.

Arizona's bill, which was debated by the last house, stipulates for immediate statehood on the constitution already formed by the people, but there is doubt concerning the legal standing of the convention.

Mr. Flynn's Oklahoma bill differs from the former one in giving authority to congress to attach any part of or all of the Indian Territory to Oklahoma when the lands have been allotted and made subject to taxation.

Ex-Gov. Murphy, of Arizona, now territorial delegate, who has sounded the views of congress, says that he has strong sentiment for the abolition of the territorial system, but there is much opposition to the admission of Arizona, New Mexico or Oklahoma on the part of eastern members who object to increasing the free silver strength in the senate.

"The people of my territory are not extremists on the financial question," said Mr. Murphy, "although we are western people with western views, we are not extremists. Moreover, our statehood would not be acquired for a year under that bill, when the presidential election would be past and the financial question might have been removed from politics as a disturbing factor. It seems unjust that a mere incidental issue should stand in the way of our undoubted claim to statehood."

DELEGATE CATRON'S VIEWS.

Mr. Catron, of New Mexico, believes that the committee will undoubtedly make a favorable report on the statehood bills and that the chances for success in the house are good. A territorial form of government, he says, is unrepresentative, and does not command the confidence of the residents of the territories and others because the officers are responsible to the appointing power instead of to the people and it materially retards the development of the country.

HOUSE RULES REPORTED.

The committee on rules made a report in the house to-day. The rules were debated section by section.

THE SENATE TO-DAY.

Senator Morgan, Democrat, of Alabama, formerly chairman of the committee on foreign relations, introduced a joint resolution, congratulating the republic of Transvaal for the stand for liberty which it has taken and directing the president of the United States to transmit this action to the republic.

Mr. Jones, Democrat, of Arkansas, made a speech on the free coinage of silver for the house bill.

The Morgan resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee.

Mr. Pritchard, Republican, of North Carolina, called up in the senate to-day the amendments offered to the revenue bill to increase the duties on certain kinds of clay, marble, iron ore, timber, live stock, cereals, fruits, wool and coal.

He favored the re-enactment of the McKinley law and the free coinage of silver. He denounced the southern Democrats for seceding to their own views, and for having brought unexampled prosperity to the New England manufacturers and bankrupted and ruin to the farmers and producers of the south.

When Mr. Pritchard finished, Mr. Hill, Democrat, of New York, chided the former for the inconsistency of his position. He said that Senator Pritchard had denounced the Democratic party for being false to its pledges to tariff reform; to-day the other end of the combination told the senate that he favored the re-enactment of the McKinley law.

The senate, on Hill's motion, agreed to adjourn until Monday when an adjournment was taken to-day.

RULES OF THE SENATE REVIDED.

Mr. White, Democrat, of California, consumed the remainder of the time before the expiration of the morning hour with a speech in favor of practical modification of the rules. He did not mince words in his characterization of the rules or "the ancient fictions" they perpetuated. The great evil he especially inveighed against was that which permitted interminable debate on any question and placed it in the power of a single senator to hold the senate at his mercy so long.

MR. JONES—HIS BIG FIGHT.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, refuses to act with the Republican members of the committee in reporting the Reed tariff bill without an amendment providing for a duty on sugar. The Republicans of the committee are in a minority without Mr. Jones. He takes the position that as the people of the Pacific coast are largely interested in the best sugar industry any tariff bill passed should provide for the protection of this interest. If he maintains this position and the Republican caucus does not reverse its instructions it will be necessary to report the bill adversely if at all.

THE PACIFIC RAILROADS.

Representative Shafroth has prepared a bill which he will introduce next week to foreclose the mortgage upon the Union and Central Pacific railroads, and have them operated by the government until it can be determined just what their earnings are, then put them up and sell them to a private corporation. In this way it will be determined just what the government line is worth.

INSURGENT VICTORY.

Havana, Jan. 10.—The garrison of Hoyo Colorado, consisting of twenty Spanish volunteers, has surrendered to the insurgents. Hoyo Colorado is near Santa, about twelve miles from this city.

Colorado Rate War.

Denver, Jan. 11.—The Colorado rate war has resulted in the Gulf railroad placing passenger tickets on the market to El Paso, Colorado Springs, Denver and Trinidad, to be sold at a price two-thirds lower than the usual selling rate. These prices will be met by the Santa Fe and the Denver & Rio Grande companies.

BOLD BANK ROBBERS.

A Missouri Bank Dynamited This Morning—Robbers Escape with $9,000 in Cash.

Monett, Mo., Jan. 10.—Eight masked men dynamited the safe of the Farmers' bank at Verona, eight miles east of this city, at 4 o'clock this morning, and escaped with $9,000 in cash.

The robbers entered the city on horse back, secured Night Watchman Hoover, and bound him to a tree across the street. They easily forced the front doors of the bank and in a short time literally blew the vault and safe to pieces with dynamite.

A Republican Stir.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Quite a stir was occasioned in political circles here by the news from New York that an effort was made to produce a break in the Morton ranks in New York city, supposedly in favor of McKinley. The stories which reach here indicate that the anti-Platt men made a strong effort at the meeting of the local Republican organization to bring about a condition of affairs which would give the McKinley element control, or at least a partial control, of the organization.

This action, coupled with the presence of copies of Buffalo newspaper commenting upon Gov. Morton as being too old for a presidential nomination, is interpreted by the McKinley people as a direct movement in his favor as the result of the sentiment of the western part of the state, which is so strong in behalf of the Ohio candidate. The McKinley people here are very much pleased with the development and predict that a sufficient number in behalf of their candidate will be located in New York city to prove extremely advantageous, if, indeed, it does not leave the whole lump before June 16. They look upon the Morton candidacy as of little importance.

Trouble in San Salvador.

New York, Jan. 10.—The Herald's correspondent at San Salvador wires that the Diario Del Salvador publishes a special dispatch from San Jose, Costa Rica, stating that Gen. Ezeiza and the members of his expedition have been captured off Punta Arenas, Costa Rica, and are held subject to the order of the San Salvador government.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT.

District Attorney Young's Response to a Communication from Gov. Thornton.

San Juan, Jan. 10.—Two of his friends are the only persons who know where the fight will take place. But it will be within two miles of the business center of El Paso, and many believe it will be in the night fighting amphitheater in Juarez. Stuart refuses to make public the exact location because he says he does not want any one to be harassed with petitions and prayers of the church people, who think they are as much responsible for the fight as he is.

This dispatch says that only 10,000 Boers are under arms, but it adds significantly that they will not disband until the conditions of the surrender of the Uitlanders of Rand have been fully carried out.

Great importance is attached here to an article in the Hamburg Nachrichten, said to have been directly inspired by Prince Bismarck, in which it indirectly disapproves of the government's attitude and holds that it is the duty of the government more to defend the national peace of the country against disturbances than to promote foreign enterprises.

President Kruger has sent a telegram, in reply to Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony, for transmission to Mr. Chamberlain, acknowledging the receipt of the queen's message and adding:

"It is my intention to hand over the prisoners so that Dr. Jameson and the British under him may be punished by their majesty's government. I will maintain to your excellency my final decision in the matter as soon as Johannesburg shall have reverted to a condition of quietness and order. In the meantime I request your excellency to assure the queen of my high appreciation of her words, and, in protesting my respectful good wishes, to express my thanks for the same."

BOERS AND GREAT BRITAIN

Former Boldly Demand that Latter Surrender Sazerainty Over Transvaal Republic.

EFFORTS TO CONCILIATE WILLIAM II

Reported in London that Great Britain Has Bought Delagoa Bay—Fresh Complications May Result—Assembling of War Ships.

London, Jan. 10.—The Pacific aspect of the Transvaal affair was counteracted here yesterday afternoon by receipt of a special dispatch from Pretoria, capital of the Transvaal, saying that the Boers demanded the surrender of all British rights and suzerainty over the Transvaal, and the pre-emption of Delagoa bay and the cancelling of the charter of the British South Africa company. It further stated that the Boers have arrested, on the charge of treason, eight leaders of the recent movement among the Uitlanders of Johannesburg.

These demands, if the dispatch is based on fact, coupled with the previously reported demand of the Boers for the expulsion from Africa of Mr. Cecil Rhodes and Dr. Jameson and the imposition of a very heavy fine upon the British Chartered company, or the demand for an indemnity of $2,500,000 from Great Britain, or both, are not likely to be granted by the British government.

WITHOUT A SEVERE STRUGGLE.

At the foreign office this dispatch was discarded on the ground that Sir Hercules Robinson, the governor of Cape Colony, in his dispatches to the colonial office, has made no mention of such demands or conditions.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Steps were taken in the highest quarters to obtain by family influence a full explanation from Emperor William, and the communications which have passed have done more than anything to bring about the change of tone in the German official press toward Great Britain."

However, in the meantime, there is little or no statement in the anti-German feeling here.

A SIGNIFICANT PURCHASE.

London.—The most important development in South African speculation to-day is the fact that the sale of all the shares in the Transvaal Land Company, which is now believed in many quarters that there is some truth in the rumor that Great Britain has purchased Delagoa bay from Portugal.

This may turn out to be the excuse for the assembling of such a powerful British fleet as one which will be anchored off Portsmouth on Tuesday next.

As it is announced that the government of Transvaal has demanded, among other things, that Great Britain forego the right to obtain possession of Delagoa bay, and as Germany may look upon this as a move which will seriously threaten the future of Transvaal, the situation, if the report is true, will become more critical.

A dispatch from Pretoria this morning says that the government of Transvaal has announced that it is determined to foster mining and that those interested in it need not sacrifice their holdings for the benefit of the "agitating clique" of Rand.

BOERS CONTINUE UNDER ARMS.

This dispatch says that only 10,000 Boers are under arms, but it adds significantly that they will not disband until the conditions of the surrender of the Uitlanders of Rand have been fully carried out.

MUCH MODIFIED SENTIMENT

Movement in Favor of Arbitrating Venezuela Question Rapidly Growing in London.

FAVOR PERMANENT ARBITRATION COURT

All Parties in Venezuela Amalgamated in a National Party—Additional Assurance that Great Britain Has Done Nothing Aggressive.

London, Jan. 10.—The movement in favor of arbitrating the Venezuelan question with the United States is growing day by day.

The Westminster Gazette, after having interviewed statesmen, bankers and others, says this afternoon:

"Everywhere there are enthusiastic expressions in favor of the proposal to establish a permanent court of arbitration."

From diplomats, who have had recent interviews with the foreign office, the Associated Press learns that the unbending antagonism to arbitrate the Venezuelan boundary dispute, at first shown in high circles, has almost completely disappeared.

The administration is preparing to make it extremely warm for the beef combine. Not, however, under authority conferred by John Sherman's so-called anti-trust law. That has been tried and found wanting.

The Hon. Webster Flannigan, the man who inquired, "What are we here for?" is making hay for McKinley in Texas. Col. McB. Timoney is not so far away but that he could communicate with Col. Flannigan and get a few pointers that would prove valuable in Chavez county.

The farmers of the United States added $1,500,000,000 to the wealth of the country in 1895. This would buy a good many government bonds. It amounts to $21 a head for each of our 70,000,000 people, and yet we here expressed in certain quarters some fears for the financial integrity of the United States. Some even fear the ability of the government to place its bonds. It is simply the rot and humbug of the hungry speculators.

There seems to be a woeful lack of unanimity in Albuquerque over the A. & P. railroad controversy. The Democrat thinks the A. & P. shops would be torn out by the roots and carted off to Sacramento should the A. & P. be out loose from the A. T. & S. F., while the Citizen is of opinion that such a out loose would probably add 50 per cent to the taxable values of the Dukelet village. You pay your money and takes your choice.

Many well informed citizens, representing both the Democratic and Republican party, express the earnest conviction that Delegate Catron will so modify the apportionment feature of the statehood bill as to make it acceptable to all parties concerned. No other reasonable course is open to the delegate in congress if he sincerely desires to lead his aid toward securing this step of justice all too long held back by petty partisanship. Should he do this, the New Mexican believes the bill will in due time become law.

THE REPUBLICAN ORGANS.

The Republican organs, none of which have had the courage to come out and frankly and squarely indorse Delegate Catron's statehood bill, respond to objections raised by the Democratic press in a chop-stick, Tommy-rot fashion that is truly characteristic. They proceed on the theory that Democratic and Democratic alone, are criticizing the apportionment feature of the bill, while as a matter of fact the same criticism comes just as earnestly from prominent Republicans all over the territory. Evidently the Republican organs are not in touch with the better element of their own party, or else they prefer to sweep aside that sentiment in order to adopt the narrow and selfish policy of their big chief, Thomas B. Catron.

AN UNHOLY COMBINE.

The goldites in both the Democratic and Republican parties have formed a legislative pool and gone out proselyting in hopes of killing off the free coinage measure now pending. There are fourteen Democratic senators in the pool, led by Gorman, Hill and Brice, and twenty-six Republican senators, led by Sherman, Morrill and Lodge. This is a strong combination, backed by Wall street, that will hesitate at nothing to trample under foot the money of the masses. They expect to win over to their cause Senators McBride and Wilson, of Washington, Republicans; Senators Bacon and Gordon, of Georgia, and Martin, of Virginia, Democrats. Four votes are all they need to defeat the silver bill. Now we shall see who succumbs to the power of this unholy combine. Their resources are practically unlimited and they may succeed, but, should they do so, woe be to the men who aid them.

THE RUSH FOR GOLD.

The craze for gold is on. It's English you know. Get your mines in order and keep your home newspaper fully posted on what occurs in mining circles. The Colorado newspapers have inaugurated the rush to Colorado and when spring opens it is sure to invade the whole Rocky mountain country, of which New Mexico is no small part. There is no getting away from it, the mad for gold is stalking at large the world over, and such utterances as this, which we find in the financial review issued by the banking house of Henry Clews & Co., of the 4th inst., should suggest to our mining men the necessity of being prepared to make the best showing possible when the eastern seaker after the yellow metal comes their way—says the Clews circular:

"In this country the hunt is now for gold and not for silver. The former is in fashion—the latter is not. This is an age of invention—necessity inspires inventive genius. Until recently, mines with ore that did not produce several ounces of gold were unprofitable to work; but, with the new machinery and appliances, ore from which one-quarter of an ounce of gold can be extracted is now remunerative. This is the principal reason for the increased output of gold. It will surely bring about gold inflation not unlike that caused by the discovery of gold in California in 1849. Who are the rich men of to-day? Prominently among them are the Mills, Floods, Mackays, Hearsts, Crockers, Fairs, Huntingtons and Hopkins—all California multi-millionaires, and all of whom when the gold fever broke out were dashing young men, venturesome and enterprising. They pushed to the new Eldorado almost on foot and have all come back in their four-in-hands. History repeats itself. The same thing is going on now. The gold mines in Colorado, Arizona, Nevada and elsewhere are calling the rising generation of young men to make their golden mark, as did the brilliant youths whom I have referred to in 1849. Who knows what they want do in meeting the present craze for gold?"

PRESS COMMENT.

Small Farms the Thing.

The sooner the large land holders in this country realize that fifty or 100 acres well cared for will yield greater riches than double that number of acres which are tilled in anything but a thorough manner, the easier it will be for many of them to avoid being sold out for the non-payment of interest money or taxes. Small farms mean a more prosperous and contented people, better schools and a greater population.—San Juan Index.

The Governor's Report.

We are indebted to Governor Thornton for a copy of his report transmitted to the secretary of the interior on October 15, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895. It is the most comprehensive and exhaustive report ever transmitted by an executive of this territory to the federal government, and Gov. Thornton deserves the thanks of every citizen for the care he has taken to show officially the resources and possibilities of this territory. Lack of space prevents our going into the details of the report, but we will do so in the near future.—Roswell Record.

Good Points on Statehood.

The constitution of Utah contains several new features. For instance, it provides that juries shall consist of eight men instead of twelve, and that in civil cases three-fourths of the number may render a verdict. Another provision is to the effect that the state shall never go into debt exceeding $200,000, except in case of insurrection; and another guarantees to every citizen the right to obtain employment wherever possible, and makes any interference with this right a crime. It is generally known, of course, that suffrage is given to women on equal terms with men.—Silver City Eagle.

The PECOS VALLEY of NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.

The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world.

Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.

The cultivation of canebrake—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.

The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.

Land with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times rapid, increase in value.

The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Felix section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

Pursued by a Demon.
How many suicides, think you, reader, have been committed by persons driven distraught and haunted by their doom by the demon of chronic ill health? Countless. For instance, we know, do we not, that hypochondriasis is a monomania—a sort of minor madness produced by chronic dyspepsia? Again, insomnia, or sleeplessness, often a result of the same cause, culminates in a derangement of the reasoning faculties. It is, therefore, of momentous consequence to prevent the arrival of disease at its chronic phase, when it daily and nightly scourges the sufferer to a dangerously uncertain goal. No medicine known to science, as a means of arresting the mania to which it is adapted, exists equal to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Among these complaints are chronic indigestion and insomnia, kidney and rheumatic ailments, constipation and liver trouble. Appetite is improved by the Bitters, the blood fertilized, and bodily substance and vigor increased by it.

A Bad Case of Rheumatism Cured.
On the morning of February 20, 1895, A. T. Moreaux, of Luverne, Minn., was sick with rheumatism, and laid in bed until May 21st, when he got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application of it relieved him almost entirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time he was able to be up again. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Ireland's Pharmacy.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.
While driving one day last winter, Mr. J. M. Thompson, of Decker's Point, Pa., was caught out in a cold rain. The next morning he was unable to move his head or arms owing to an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. His clerk telephoned for a physician, but before the doctor came, suggested that he use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, there being a bottle open on the counter. After being rubbed thoroughly with Pain Balm, over the effected parts, Mr. Thompson dozed off to sleep and when he awoke a half hour later, the pain was gone entirely and he has not since been troubled. He says: "People come here from many miles around to buy this liniment." For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Ireland's Pharmacy.

MR. AND MRS. NUWED.

Mr. Nuwed found it necessary to go on a trip. Of course Mrs. Nuwed cried when he was first announced, and then after her husband had convinced her both of the urgency of his errand and the reluctance with which he left her, she resigned herself as best she could to the prospect of such a separation. But in spite of all her fortitude she found herself sobbing and snuffling surreptitiously when it came to packing his valise, which probably accounted for her putting his socks into his collar box and leaving out his collars entirely.

Luckily Mr. Nuwed, who was himself wandering around in dejected style, retained sufficient presence of mind to slip in a couple of clean shirts, otherwise the valise would have contained little besides alpines, lunch and tears. This was another evidence of his state of mind, for none other than a newly married man would submit to lugging a valise full of lunch on a road where dining cars and restaurant stations abounded. As it was, the tears evaporated, but the lunch remained with him until the trip homeward, when he providentially threw it out.

Then husband and wife proceeded to bid each other goodby. The process was too extended to be described in detail. It commenced in the early morning and continued until the train carried Mr. Nuwed out of his wife's tearful vision. Of course, he promised to think of her every minute and write every day, while she assured him that her life would be a howling wilderness until his return. Her last words, which had been frequently reiterated before, were, "Telegraph me, John, dear, if anything happens."

And so they parted. Mrs. Nuwed returned home to solitude and tears, and for once in her life she did not in the least enjoy "a real good cry." Neither was Mr. Nuwed feeling so chipper as was his wont. He curled himself up in a corner of the smoking cabaret, smoked violently and thought long, delicious thoughts, in which all the horrible calamities which could possibly or impossibly happen to the wife of his bosom marshaled themselves before his excited imagination.

But by and by a good dinner, followed by a smoke and a friendly game of cards with some congenial fellows on the train, coupled with the fact that he quit winter enough to put him on the good side of the porter and secure a "nightcap," served to divert his mind from these gloomy forebodings and send him to bed to rest as well as one ever does in a sleeping car bunk. After that his business absorbed him most of the time, and although he wrote regularly every day he did not, truth to tell, think of Mrs. Nuwed every minute.

'Twas ever thus—in the excitement of business, battle or the chase man may divert his mind from gloomy thoughts, but woman left alone at home can only think of her lost lover. Her very household duties are painfully reminiscent, since it was for him that she used to perform them. Now that he is gone they seem hollow mockery. Left to herself—for she is loath to confide her woes to her friends for fear of their laughter—terrors multiply themselves in her mind, and it is small wonder that she is reduced to the verge of hysteria.

All these things are cited in explanation and to some extenuation of the state of mind in which Mrs. Nuwed found herself about the third day after her husband's departure. Of course the chief fund for alarm, which increased by constant brooding over it, was the possibility of a railroad wreck which might involve her beloved husband. The fact that he carried large life insurance did not occur to her once as a consolation, which goes to prove that she was young and truly loved him.

Night after night she would lie awake, recalling all the horrible disasters she had ever heard of and conjuring up in imagination fresh horrors to add to them. Then she would fall into an uneasy sleep, only to dream of crashing timbers, hissing steam, leaping flames, cries, shrieks and groans from poor, mangled passengers, among whom Mr. Nuwed was the first to meet her sight. By day these grim visions faded away, and after she had perused the morning paper with fear and trembling she could almost afford to laugh at them, but at night, under the cover of darkness, these ghosts of the imagination returned with redoubled vigor.

Just at this time it happened that the mail messenger of Mr. Nuwed arrived, although he strenuously insists that he did not. And Mrs. Nuwed went a whole day without hearing from him. The last preceding letter had announced that he was going to make a short side trip up in the country, and she remembered that it must be over a ramshackle little road where wrecks were not an uncommon occurrence.

To cap the climax, one of her friends called in the afternoon, apparently to relate a terrible dream she had had about Mr. Nuwed the night before. It is astonishing how far friends will travel and what trouble they will take to relate such things. A bit of real cheerful news may remain locked in their bosoms for ages, but when anything uncomfortable occurs it must be communicated at once to the one it will disturb most. That is part of a friend's duty.

Mr. Gallant—Oh, miss, can I be of service to you and offer the protection of my umbrella? There's shelter for two.

And now he's "sorry he spoke."

Mr. Snippy—Your little boy strongly reminds me of you.

Wife—Yes. He insists that he is a millionaire.

Lost!

How many women do you know who are struggling along with burdens they were not meant to bear because their husbands have "lost their health?"

A man's health is an easy thing to lose. A little care and the right medicine make it easy to regain lost health. Neglected disease breeds death. Over work, exposure, wrong eating, wrong living generally may engender disease. Symptoms vary, but by far the majority of diseases are marked by a loss of vitality, a wasting of flesh. The lungs and the stomach suffer. Disease germs enter the system through these two organs.

Recovery means driving out the germs and building up strong, healthy tissues. The medicine that will do it quickest and most thoroughly is the medicine to take. That medicine is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It searches out disease germs wherever they exist and exterminates them. It is a powerful, invigorating tonic. It promotes digestion, creates appetite, cures biliousness and all liver, kidney and stomach disorders, and so all blood diseases. All medicine dealers.

Talker—Young Rokeby, is a relative of yours? Walker—A very distant one. Talker—Why, I thought he was your first cousin. Walker—He is; but since he fell into that fortune he is so distant that I can't hand him a ripe peach without using a fishing-pole.

One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. It affords instant relief from suffering when afflicted with a severe cough or cold. It acts on the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs, and never fails to give immediate relief. Newton's drug store.

The Doctor Out of Town When Most Needed.

Mr. J. Y. Schenk, editor of the Chaddo, I. T. Banner, when his little girl, 2 years of age was threatened with a severe attack of the croup, says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Ireland's Pharmacy.

I had a bad cold and cough for several months and tried almost everything. Finally, Mr. Hunt, the druggist at West Chester, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A 50 cent bottle cured me entirely.—Abner Mercer, Dillworthtown, Chester county, Pa. For sale by Ireland's Pharmacy.

A. & P. RECEIVERSHIP.

Chas. W. Smith Named as Receiver of the Property by Judge Collier To-day.

The application for the appointment of a receiver for the Atlantic & Pacific railroad again came before Judge Collier at Albuquerque yesterday afternoon. Neil B. Field, representing the United States Trust Company, made application for the appointment of Mr. Charles W. Smith, and stated that he understood that all parties to the litigation had consented to such appointment.

Alexander & Green, of New York, by William W. Green and W. B. Childers, represented the Mercantile Trust company, and Judge H. L. Waldo appeared on behalf of the railroad and their receivers, and Mr. Green said that Mr. Field had been misinformed; that no one was authorized to speak for the Mercantile Trust company except himself, and that he had not made such agreement. He said, however, that he had nothing to urge against Mr. Smith's qualifications, nor had any other name to suggest, but he wanted it understood that the appointment, if made, would be made without the consent of his client.

Last night there was a conference among the several attorneys in the case and an agreement was reached on the form of an order submitted to the court this forenoon. At 11 o'clock the announcement was received here that Mr. Smith had been appointed the receiver.

Mr. C. W. Smith, the new receiver, was for a number of years traffic manager in Southern California for the Southern Pacific railroad and later was vice president of the New York, Lake Erie & Western. From that road he went to the service of the Chesapeake & Ohio, where he was vice president and general manager, and then for a number of years was vice president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe.

Mr. Smith is thoroughly familiar with the property of the Atlantic & Pacific and will devote himself exclusively to its interest and development, and manage the property in the best interests of all who are interested therein.

Proclamation of Reward.

Whereas, Heretofore, to-wit: On or about the 20th day of December, A. D. 1895, a man, sometimes called William Reed, and at other times called Thomas Reed, was murdered in the county of Grant and territory of New Mexico by Tabuelo Lujan and Avran Lujan who are now fugitives from justice; and Whereas, It appears that the sheriff of Grant county has made unusual efforts to arrest the said murderers, but has been unable to do so;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the authority in me vested, and at the request of the sheriff and district attorney of the said county of Grant, I to-day offer a reward of $200 each for the arrest of these murderers; and reward to be payable out of any money in the territorial treasury appropriated for rewards for the 46th fiscal year, upon the arrest and delivery of each of the said criminals to the sheriff of Grant county.

The reward heretofore offered for the arrest and conviction of the "unknown murderers of William Reed" is hereby revoked and suspended, and, for the more perfect identification of the parties wanted, the following description is given: "Tabuelo Lujan, aged about 20 years; weight, 180 pounds; height, five feet, eight or nine inches; light complexion; small mustache; speaks English fluently; has had left ankle broken and is somewhat lame; a sure marks the place where ankle was broken."

Avran Lujan is aged about 20 years; weight about 140 pounds; height, about five feet, seven or eight inches; small beard over face; dark complexion.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the Territory of New Mexico at the executive office on this, the 8th day of January, A. D. 1896.

Governor of Territory of New Mexico.

Capt. Hughes and Inspector Fowler came up from El Paso Monday with Texas warrants for Deputy Sheriff Oliver Lee, but made no attempt to run a Texas writ in this territory. The charge against Lee is branding or killing a cow and was dug up by Constable Williams, who tried to induce the Rangers to go out to the Sacramento and get into a row with the cattle men of New Mexico. Lee says he will go to El Paso whenever the sheriff down there has any warrant for him.

Cal Sims and Tom Jones, two more of the men who were with Special Officer Dow when he killed Billy McNew's steer and arrested McNew, came up from El Paso and surrendered yesterday to Deputy Sheriff Lee, who had warrants for their arrest. The charge against them is based upon the killing of McNew's steer.—Las Cruces Independent.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY

and everyone needs it at all times of the year. Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the Liver active. You must help the Liver, and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the RED Z.

Mr. C. H. Hiram, of Lancaster, Ohio, says: "SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR broke a case of Malarial Fever of three years' standing for me, and less than one bottle did the business. I shall use it when in need, and recommend it."

Be sure that you get it. Always look for the RED Z on the package. And don't forget the word REGULATOR. It is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, and there is only one, and every one who takes it is sure to be benefited. THE BENEFIT IS ALL IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for Biliousness and Sick Headache; both are caused by a sluggish Liver.
