FURY OF THE STORM KING

TERRIBLE WORK OF CYCLONES IN IOWA

Many Persons Killed and Many More Injured—Judge Seeds' Home Visited—Cloud-burst at McGregor—Tornado in Illinois.

Chicago, May 25.—A storm of unusual severity struck Chicago at 2:25 a. m. The basements of the downtown district were flooded and considerable damage was done. In ten minutes nearly an inch of water fell. The storm was accompanied by terrific thunder and lightning.

CHICAGO SUBURBS FLOODED.
Chicago.—In the suburbs of Edison park, Norwood park, Irving park and Evanston, nearly a score of buildings, two of them churches, were demolished and hundreds of shade trees uprooted by the storm last night. The precipitation, according to the weather bureau, was 1.46 inches in ten minutes, breaking all previous local records.

HOUSE PICKED UP BOBBLY.
Chicago.—A cottage on North Ashland avenue was lifted from its foundations and carried thirty feet into a vacant lot. The building held together and its occupants, James Deuster, wife and three children, escaped, though Mrs. Deuster received a severe scalp wound.

CYCLONES IN IOWA.
Newton, Iowa.—Vallonia, a mining village about fifteen miles west of Newton, was nearly wiped out of existence by a cyclone last night. Fourteen people are reported killed.

Des Moines, Iowa.—A cyclone struck fifteen miles north of this city. It is reported that twenty-four persons were killed there.

BUILDINGS UNMOVED AND TREES UPROOTED.
St. Paul, Minn.—A special dispatch from Elmira, Iowa, says: A terrific storm, cyclonic in form, occurred here last night. Many buildings were unroofed and trees uprooted. Telegraph and telephone poles and wires were demolished and numerous business fronts smashed in. The town is almost a lake. The people took refuge in their cellars. No one was hurt. At Alta Vista a man was killed and two children were badly hurt.

AT JUDGE SEEDS' HOME.
Manchester, Iowa.—A cyclone struck Manchester about 1 o'clock last night, leaving a track six of eight miles long in ruins. Mrs. Ira Howard and William Murray were seriously injured.

SEVENTEEN-YEAR LOCUSTS.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 25.—The seventeen-year locusts have appeared in this section in great numbers and much apprehension prevails among farmers and fruit growers.

Probable That United States and Mexican Troops Will Co-operate in Extirminating the Apaches.

Denver, May 25.—There is now under consideration at the state department a proposition which may result in the invasion of Mexican territory by the troops under command of Gen. Frank Wheaton, while the forces below the line will have authority to cross and fight upon United States soil.

TOURNAMENT IN ILLINOIS.
Elgin, Ill.—A tornado visited this section this morning. John Heogh, engineer of the state insane asylum, was killed by a falling chimney. The Elgin sewing machine and bicycle factory was blown down.

MANY KILLED AND INJURED.
Marshalltown, Iowa.—The cyclone last night along the Chicago & Great Western railway in Jasper county killed probably twenty-five persons. It injured more than that number. The property loss is over $100,000. Several miles of railroad track were practically destroyed.

CLOUD-BURST AT MCGREGOR.

Champion Wing Shot.
Kansas City, May 25.—J. E. Riley, of Kansas City, holds the Kansas City Start cup, the emblem of the wing shot championship of the United States. He won it today at the tournament of the Missouri Fish and Game Protective association.

LOST FROM A TRAIN.

The No. 1 passenger train from the north, due at 2:05 this morning, was two hours late, and the cause of this delay was as follows, says the Albuquerque Citizen: At Chicago a Russian woman with her four children and grandfather got aboard to come to the woman's husband at Baton, residing on the Maxwell land grant. Everything went merrily along until the train had about reached Thatcher station, this side of La Junta, when the mother discovered that one of her children, a boy about 5 years old, was missing. The train was stopped and all the coaches searched, but the missing lad could not be found. The thoroughly excited mother appealed to the conductor, and the train was slowly backed for twenty miles and both sides of the track were searched, still the boy could not be discovered, and the mother, with her other children and aged grandfather, came on to Baton. The lost child was reported by wire to Division Superintendent Horley, and he at once instructed the section men and train men to be on the lookout for the missing child.

STILL MISSING.
Since the above was placed in type the NEW MEXICAN learns by wire from Baton today that the child is still missing. A Mexican resident saw the child night before last near the railroad, between Delhi and Symons stations, but said "he thought it was a ghost" and ran away. Symons station is about twenty-eight miles south of La Junta. The child is supposed to be alive and wandering over the plains of southwestern Colorado. At any rate, up to 10 a. m. to-day, no trace further than the above stated had been of him. The mother is at Delhi station, and she and this has probably induced a search party to take the child.

NEUTRALITY LAWS SUSTAINED.
Chief Justice Fuller today delivered the opinion of the supreme court in the case of the United States vs. J. S. Wiborg, captain of the steamer Horus, and others. Wiborg and associates were accused of attempting to land arms surreptitiously in Cuba. They were found guilty under the neutrality laws by the United States court at Philadelphia. Today's opinion held that the decision of the Philadelphia court was correct on the point that the expedition was in violation of the neutrality laws. The judgment was affirmed as to Wiborg, reversed as to Mateo Johanson and Peterson, on the ground that they were ignorant of the purposes of the expedition. Justice Harlan concurred in the reversal of the judgment as to Peterson and Johanson, but dissented from the judgment affirming the sentence against Wiborg.

FIGHT OVER A MINE.
Stock-holders of the Holy Terror Mine in the Black Hills Want a Receiver Appointed.

Rapid City, S. D., May 25.—Several suits have been filed here by stockholders of the Holy Terror Mining company against the officers and directors to prevent the latter from selling shares of stock which have become delinquent.

This mine is considered one of the richest in the Black Hills, if not in the United States.

The plaintiffs allege a conspiracy on the part of the officers and directors to depreciate the stock by levying an assessment of 5 cents a share, shutting down the mill and abandoning work at a time when the works show extensive ore bodies of great richness, easily accessible, sufficient to pay all expenses and large continuous dividends.

The plaintiffs ask that the directors and officers be removed and that a receiver be appointed.

New York, May 25.—L. von Hoffman and Co. will ship $1,150,000 and Heidebach, Ickelheimer & Co. will ship $400,000 in gold to Europe to-morrow.

THE RAILROADS.
It is announced that the Rock Island Railroad company has actually begun building this way from Liberal, Kas., and that the work is to be pushed steadily until connection is made with the White Oaks railroad from El Paso.

President E. T. Jeffers, of the D. & R. G. road, has gone to New York to attend a meeting of the directors called early in June. Some important changes in the policy of the Rio Grande are looked for from the New York meeting. Among other things it is likely that several New Mexico extensions and the widening of the line into Santa Fe will be discussed.

The bill to authorize the reorganization of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company under its charter passed the senate on Saturday last. The measure has already passed the house. This probably means the building of the middle division of the road between Albuquerque and the Indian territory, and also, it is said, validates the original grant of land covering twenty miles on either side of the new line from Albuquerque to the eastern line of New Mexico.

Col. Joseph H. Hampton has been awarded the contract for the construction of the Mexican Central branch line from Lerdo to San Juan de las Colonias in the state of Coahuila. One of the stipulations of the document is that the line, which is to be forty kilometers in length, is to be completed four months hence.

Son of Editor Dunbar Attacks Editor Wolfley at Phoenix, A. T.

Denver, May 25.—A special to the Times from Phoenix, A. T., says: T. J. Wolfley editor of the Republican, was assaulted this morning by a son of Editor Dunbar, of the Gazette.

Yesterday's Republican editorially alleged neglect in the performance of duty as a gardener at the capital grounds by Young Dunbar.

Dunbar is a robust athlete and Wolfley is weak.

Wolfley said: "This was only a skirmish; the real fight will begin when the incompetents and corruptionists are driven from office."

NATIONAL CAPITAL BUDGET

Three Notable Opinions Handed Down by the United States Supreme Court.

INDIANS CAN NOT DEFEY STATE LAWS

Comptroller Bowler Reversed—Not Superior to Congress—Captain of Steamer Horus Guilty of Violating Neutrality Laws.

Washington, May 25.—The United States supreme court announced its decision today in the sugar bounty case of the United States vs. Gay and the Realty company, brought to test the constitutionality of the ruling of Comptroller Bowler denying bounty to the sugar planters under the law of the last congress. The opinion of the court was handed down by Justice Peckham and affirmed the opinion of the court below, holding the sugar bounty law valid and overruling the comptroller. The opinion was unanimous.

INDIANS CAN NOT DEFEY STATE LAWS.
The supreme court, in an opinion by Justice White today, passed upon the right of the Bannock Indians to kill game in the unsettled lands of their former reservations in Wyoming, holding that under their treaty the Indians could not kill game in violation of the game laws of the state. The title of the case was J. B. Ward, sheriff, vs. Race Horse, the latter being the Indian who surrendered himself to the Wyoming state authorities for the purpose of testing the matter. The opinion of the U. S. court for Wyoming, by which Race Horse was released from custody, was reversed and it was ordered that the Indian be remanded to the custody of the state authorities.

TEXAS CATTLE RAISING.

Fort Worth, Texas, May 25.—A majority of the members of the executive committee of the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas, arrived last night to attend the meeting to-day. The fight between the Western Traffic association and the cattlemen over the terminal charges made by the Union stock-yards at Chicago is the chief business in hand.

PLACERS AT SPRINGER.

Confirmation of Dispatch Printed in New Mexican on Thursday—A Valuable Diamond Besides Rubies and Sapphires Found.

Touching the important placer gold discovery near Springer, exclusively reported in the New Mexican's telegraph columns on Thursday, the Stockman of Saturday says:

On Wednesday placer fields were discovered west of the river here and by 9 o'clock Thursday morning all was excitement. The field is thought to extend six miles south or to the forks of the Red river and Cimarron, and several miles west or up the south side of the Cimarron river. Excellent prospects have been shown up and experienced men say it is beyond a doubt very rich placer ground. We will have more to say later as work has not yet commenced in this new field. The discovery was made by Wm. Shafer, an old timer here, and all the indications so far are good. The inexhaustible supply of water will be a big advantage to this new field. The Stockman adds:

A diamond was found in the recently discovered placer grounds near Springer, Thursday, and was bought by Hugo Seaberg for $10. He values his treasure, which has turned out to be a diamond in its crude state, at $20,000. In this new gold field there have been found rubies and sapphires. Prospectors are on the ground from daylight to dark and great excitement prevails. The ground has been examined and found to be the proper location for such diamond finds.

NEW MEXICO NEWS.

The Deming public schools will close on Friday.

H. B. Reid shipped 700 head of cattle from San Marcial on Monday.

Judge S. B. Newcomb has returned to Las Cruces from Washington.

The Democrats of San Miguel county will hold their county convention on June 13.

Mrs. Ernest Meyers, of Albuquerque, is dangerously ill in Denver. Mr. Meyers has gone to her.

Nearly 200 car loads of cattle were fed in San Marcial this week, en route to ranges further east.

Thursday was a big day at the Albuquerque stock yards. There were about 100 cattle cars on the switch tracks, and about 2,500 cattle were stopped at the yards and branded.

This county should see to it that Hon. W. S. Hopewell is sent as one of the delegates to the national Democratic convention at Chicago. He is the greatest asset of the state.

J. J. Hagerman has wired the sugar company at Eddy that five tons of best seed arrived in New York and are now en route to Eddy. This supply will arrive in a very few days, and there will then be no occasion for delaying to plant through lack of seed.

Surveyor W. W. Jones left San Marcial for Mogollon this week, going completely equipped to commence the survey of the wagon road that will connect Magdalena, Socorro, San Antonio and San Marcial with the leading mining camp of New Mexico—San Marcial Bee.

E. S. Orr, who has been manager of the Roswell newspaper ventures of W. H. Mallens, has retired from that position, being succeeded by James W. Mallens, of that place, a gentleman having some experience in the journalistic line. Mr. Orr is afflicted with heart trouble and will seek a lower altitude—Eddy Argus.

On Wednesday morning Deatur Neff made an assignment of his business to E. H. H. for the benefit of his creditors. The stock consists of crockery, glassware, cigars, fruits and notions. The assignment was a surprise, as everybody thought the young gentleman was doing a good business.—Silver City Sentinel.

A. B. Laird, tax collector of Grant county, went to New York recently and during his absence the report that he had been guilty of discreditable conduct in his accounts had been circulated. There appears to be no just foundation for such reports. His deputy has paid over $6,000 to the treasurer since Mr. Laird went away, and he declares that the collector's books and accounts are perfectly straight and no account seems to have been started by Laird's enemies.

Wool shipments continue to come in. Since last report J. F. Matheson has received 30,000 pounds from Peter and Lee Corn; 32,000 pounds from George and C. F. White; 20,000 from George and John Beckett; 6,000 from Davis and Cameron; 10,000 from John Burner; 8,000 from Henry Robb, and another load of the Crawford wool from the plains. All the completed shipments have been sold to Eteman, buyer from Boston. This includes the Beckett, White and Corn wool. Thursday, Henry Robb brought in 2,900 more pounds.—Eddy Argus.

The Southwest Sentinel, Allan McDonald publisher, is no more. The office has been seized by the sheriff under an execution issued on a judgment obtained by Receiver Foster of the Deming bank in a suit to recover the amount of a note endorsed by McDonald. The judgment was obtained some time ago, and an injunction was issued and execution postponed. Judge Hamilton dissolved the injunction and the sheriff levied upon the Sentinel. Receiver Foster wished to turn the paper over to D. P. Carr, but Sheriff Shannon refused to appoint Carr a deputy and the office is closed. Mr. McDonald will take an appeal to the supreme court.

GOLDITES ARE DESPERATE

THREAT TO BOLT CHICAGO CONVENTION

Money Metal Problem Causes Trouble Among the Prohibitionists—Strong Expressions of Both Gold and Silver Leaders.

Chicago, May 25.—The gold standard leaders of the Democratic party in this (Cook) county have "threw up the sponge," as they term it, "threw up the flag of a regenerated party." The manifesto maps out a course in which it provides for a boycott, not only of to-morrow's primaries and Tuesday's convention, but of the present state central committee and all its belongings. It declares that the state end of the silver machine is more un-Democratic than the Cook county and announces the purpose "to go on with work of the party independently of the silver men," who are called Populists.

PROHIBITIONISTS DISTURBED BY MONEY QUESTION.
Pittsburg.—As the time for the national prohibition convention approaches the prospect of a bitter fight over the money plank increases.

Samuel Dickie, chairman of the national committee, said today that the adoption of a free silver plank will cost the party 100,000 votes at the election.

On the other hand, ex-Gov. John P. St. John, of Kansas, says: "If McKinley is nominated at St. Louis and if the Democrats adopt a gold standard plank at Chicago, the prohibition candidate for president will stand a good chance of election, if we adopt a free silver plank."

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Hon. W. S. Hopewell's Views.
Hon. W. S. Hopewell, of Hillsboro, spent yesterday among Santa Fe friends. He is the national committeeman from New Mexico of the Democratic bimetallic silver league and his mission here was in that interest. Mr. Hopewell says the people have at last caught the idea that relief for the cause of free coinage can be had only through the Democratic party, and he finds the silver sentiment growing rapidly in every part of the territory. The action of the territorial Republican convention in ignoring the silver cause, Mr. Hopewell states, has caused hundreds of those who have hitherto affiliated with that party to declare that they would this year vote with New Mexico Democrats. Above all things Mr. Hopewell is anxious that the party shall go squarely on record in favor of free coinage at the Las Vegas convention and select men to represent the territory at Chicago about whom there can be no possible question as to just where they stand and who have the courage to stand by the white metal under any and all circumstances.

Shooting at McMillan.
The Eddy Current reports that on Tuesday evening at about 5 o'clock Hub Brogdon and Ed Hamby became foul on McMillan "boozie" while playing cards and from a very few remarks from Brogdon concerning a friend of Hamby's six-shooters were drawn and Brogdon was shot twice, once through the right side just at the top of the waist band, the ball passing through the right kidney. The other shot was over the heart and under the muscle of the breast and seems to have come from the side. Both men emptied their six-shooters, but with no further effect, except a slight scratch on Brogdon's side. Brogdon, falling to bring his man with a bullet, attacked Hamby with the six-shooter, knocking him down and it is said would have injured him severely but for bystanders who at this juncture took a hand and pulled Brogdon off. Hamby was pretty badly beaten up as it was. Hamby gave up to Doc Barlette, justice of the peace of the precinct in which the shooting occurred, and Barlette brought him into town. Brogdon was also brought to town and made as comfortable as possible at the home of Mrs. Asberry. His kidney wound is serious. The men had always been friends and the quarrel was solely due to bad whiskey. Hamby expresses keen regret.

DEMOCRATIC CALL.

HEADQUARTERS DEMOCRATIC Territorial Central Committee, Santa Fe, May 2, 1896.

Whereas, At a meeting of the Democratic territorial central committee, held at the city of Santa Fe on the 5th day of February, 1896, it was ordered that a territorial convention be held at Las Vegas on June 15, 1896, for the purpose of electing six delegates to the national Democratic convention to be held at Chicago on July 7, 1896.

Now, therefore, pursuant to said order, and in accordance with the general authority in us vested, a convention of the Democratic party of New Mexico is hereby proclaimed to be held at Las Vegas on June 15, 1896, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., to be constituted according to the order of this committee made at its said meeting as follows, to-wit: One delegate from each county for each 100 votes cast for Antonio Joseph for delegate to congress at the last general election, and one delegate for each fraction of 100 votes so cast amounting to 50 or more.

Upon this apportionment of delegates, so authorized, the various counties will be entitled to delegates to said convention, as follows:

Bernalillo county.....	1
Chavez county.....	1
Colfax county.....	1
Doña Ana county.....	1
Eddy county.....	1
Grant county.....	1
Guadalupe county.....	1
Lincoln county.....	1
Mora county.....	1
Rio Arriba county.....	1
San Juan county.....	1
San Miguel county.....	1
Santa Fe county.....	1
Sierra county.....	1
Socorro county.....	1
Taos county.....	1
Valencia county.....	1

Total delegates..... 130
The county central committees of the respective counties are hereby requested to call county conventions to be held in due time for the selection of the authorized number of delegates to said territorial convention in accordance with the rules and regulations, or the usages and practices of the party in each county. It is suggested that primaries be held in the various counties not later than May 30, and that the county conventions be held not later than June 6, 1896.

In carrying out the orders of this committee at its said meeting, all Democrats and all those who intend to act with the Democratic party are hereby invited to participate in the primaries in the respective counties.

In view of the great weight which the Democratic delegation from this territory had in the last national convention in the selection of candidates for president and vice president, and in view of the magnitude of the interests involved in the coming national convention and of the recurring possibility for the exercise of potent influence by New Mexico's delegation, particularly in silver's cause, the Democrats in all counties are urged to make their voice heard in the primaries and in the county conventions to the end that our territorial convention may be largely attended and representative one, thus assuring the election of a delegation to the national convention composed of Democracy's strongest and truest sons. This is a vital year for silver's cause and it is the hope of this committee that New Mexico Democrats will take a vital part, beginning down at the primaries.

RAPHAEL ROMERO, J. H. CHASE,
Secretary, Chairman.

The inter-state commerce commission really appears to be alive to the fact that it has some authority to deal with the railroads.

Let's see, wasn't it only a few weeks ago that we were told by the Wall street organs that the silver question was dead—wasn't in the presidential campaign at all?

There are hundreds of farmers and miners in New Mexico who, if they have any sort of self-respect, must this fall cease to affiliate with Republican machine politics and go over to the friends of free coinage—the Democratic party.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND evidently isn't yet ready to spring the Cuba war scare. That is held in reserve. After congress adjourns the president will act. The country is on the verge of another big war scare!

The consequences of the A. T. & S. F. losing control of the A. & P. line has at last dawned on some of our esteemed contemporaries in Denver, Los Angeles, Albuquerque and El Paso. The New Mexican covered the subject six weeks ago.

Oh, that mine enemy should write a book! Gov. Hadley has far greater courage than nine-tenths of the Republicans of New Mexico, especially those who managed to have themselves sent as delegates to the recent territorial convention at Albuquerque. We recommend to them that they ponder over this latest work on the free coinage question. It may give them some backbone for the future.

Some very unique cathode-ray experiments of extraordinary success have recently been made in Oregon City by Dr. J. C. Perry, a well known physician of that city, and W. C. Cheney, superintendent of the Portland General Electric company. The experiments were made with gold-bearing rock, in which the rays defined the free gold as plainly as if it lay on the surface of the quartz. So far as known, this is the first successful experiment of the kind with quartz, and the results obtained justify the assertion that the new ray will prove of immense value in mining operations.

SHAMEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

The name of Democracy was scandalized by the conduct of the sheriff and his horde of deputies in Santa Fe on Saturday afternoon and evening. In three of the primary meetings party principles were made entirely subservient to personal feeling and political bossism in its worst form ruled the day, much to the humiliation and disgust of all true and order-respecting citizens.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE.

Any man whom the Democratic party names as candidate for congress this fall will be "big enough" to receive the endorsement of a large majority of the people of New Mexico. They have had to do with a "big" man in this capacity of late, and he has proved about the littlest in securing results that was ever honored with an office. It isn't a big man that we need. We want a plain, intelligent business man with courage and horse sense to represent us.

GROSVENOR TURNS A TRICK.

It really begins to look as if the Republican national convention would admit but two delegates from the territories. Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, next to Banker Hanna McKinley's right bower, declares that the national call provides for but two and the other four must first have their claims passed on by the convention before they are admitted. As the McKinley men will control the convention at the outset, whatever the final result may be, this stands as a suggestion to the territorial delegates that they must come down off the fence and join the McKinley forces or take the consequences and be shut out. It is a shrewd piece of political trickery, to say the least, and is an indignity that representatives of the territories ought not to be subjected to, but it will work to attain the desired ends of the McKinley managers, just the same. Up to date but four of the six Republican delegates from this territory have declared for McKinley, but the other two—Llewellyn and Perea—will not be long in getting over on the right side after they ponder the situation as Gen. Grosvenor outlines it. However, we suggest that in future this matter be definitely settled one way or the other and by the proper authority so that the people of the territories may know where they stand and what representation they are entitled to. The Democratic national committee, by formal resolution, has conceded six delegates to the territories, but the Republicans have left it an open question that may result in injustice and much annoyance.

PRESS COMMENT.

Strikes the Key Note.

Protection is all right when it protects both the manufacturer and the laborer alike, but it is radically wrong when it works one way only. There are at present too many protected manufacturers and too many pauper laborers. The protection business seems to be all on one side of the fence. It is time it should be equalized. But it never will be as long as the laboring masses continue to elect moneyed men to congress.—Gallup Gleason.

Opinion of a Republican.

All the signs and tokens now indicate that the bimetalists will have absolute control of the Democratic national convention at Chicago in July. If Richard P. Bland or some other uncompromising free coinage man should be nominated for president on a straight-out bimetallic platform, we believe that he would carry every southern state and every state west of the Mississippi river, and be elected by a handsome majority.—Denver Republican.

NEW MEXICAN PRINTING COMPANY.

The PECOS VALLEY of NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.

The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world.

Immense yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.

The cultivation of canebrake—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.

The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.

Lands with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times rapid, increase in value.

The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Felix section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

STUNBEAMS.

Nothing succeeds like success. That's so: a widow can almost always catch a second husband.

Let us reason together.

It needs "no ghost to come and tell us" that the sooner dyspepsia is remedied, the sooner we shall enjoy that right to which our ancestors laid claim in the Declaration of Independence—"the pursuit of happiness." A man blessed with a good digestion—provided he has enough to eat—is happy. There are hosts of people with ample means to whom the social consolation of a healthy pauper is denied. Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, a certain, prompt and thorough medicinal agent through the use of which sound digestion, and the nerve tranquility which its disturbance causes, can be recovered. Biliousness, malarial and kidney trouble, constipation and rheumatism are also remedied by this fine corrective of a disordered condition of the system. Appetite and sleep are greatly improved by it.

A young man took his watch to a jeweller and asked the reason of its stopping. Well, said the jeweller, there is a bed-bug in it.

Why, how could a bed-bug get in a watch?

Easily enough, said the jeweller; it went in between the ticks.

How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal.)

First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by Ireland's pharmacy.

Mr. Squat—You are the stupidest man I ever saw.

Mr. Squat—I presume I am. I wouldn't have been your husband otherwise.

Did you ever think how readily the blood is poisoned by constipation? Bad blood means bad health and premature old age. DeWitt's Little Early Bearer, the famous little pills, overcome obstinate constipation. Newton's drug store.

Editor—Gimme it, quick.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood, increases the appetite and tones up the system. It is a powerful purifier and blood maker. DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is a blood purifier and blood maker. Newton's drug store.

Gus De Smith—What a beautiful hand that young lady over there has. Hostetter McGinnis—Yes, if those diamonds in the ring are real ones. By the way, speaking of beautiful hands, you should have seen the hand I had last night at the club. It scooped a jackpot with $700 in it.

Don't fool away your money buying worthless remedies, which are warranted to cure every disease. Remember that DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is a blood purifier and blood maker. Newton's drug store.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer)—Mrs. Lake Front—I know I've met you. Mr. Jay Bird somewhere before. I told him so, but all he answered was that he knew my former husband. The man must be an idiot. Mr. Hyde Park—Why so? Mrs. Lake Front—I've had four former husbands.

Mrs. R. DeYoung, Middleburg, Ia., writes. I have used One Minute Cough Cure for six years, both for myself and children, and I consider it the quickest acting and most satisfactory cough cure I have ever used. Newton's drug store.

A letter from a lady at an inland watering place to her husband contains the following passage: In your last epistle you sent me 200 marks and 1,000 kisses. I should be glad if, in future, you would send me more money and fewer kisses.

A. L. Wooster, a prominent citizen of Osage, Mich., after suffering excruciatingly from piles for twenty years, was cured in a short time by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, an absolute cure for all skin diseases. More of this preparation is used than all others combined. Newton's drug store.

(Yonkers Statesman)—We are going to have the minister for supper to-night, said the returned missionary, who had invited the dominie to break bread with him.

Ah, said the converted cannibal chief, who had returned with the missionary, smacking his lips, you could do nothing to make me feel more at home.

This is the day of anti-thist, and anti-thist, but what people need most nowadays is the anti-bilious medicine, Simmons Liver Regulator, the king of medicines and better than pills. "I have used no other anti-bilious remedy for six years and know from experience that for ladies of a constipated habit nothing equals it." —Laura V. Craig, Ellenburg, Pa.

(Family Call.) Husband. You were always fond of books, Jennie; what can I give you for your birthday present? Innocent young wife. A check book, dear; for whenever I sign your name I shall think of you.

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of—DeWitt's Little Early Bearer, for they always cleanse the liver, purify the blood and invigorate the system. Newton's drug store.

For your Protection.—Catarrh "Cures" or Tonics for Catarrh in liquid form to be taken internally, usually contain either Mercury or Iodine of Potassa, or both, which are injurious if too long taken. Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by sudden change to cold or damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat. Cold in the head causes excessive flow of mucus, and, if repeatedly neglected, the results of catarrh will be shown in sores in the head, a roaring sound in the ears, bad breath, and sometimes an offensive discharge. The remedy should be quick to allay inflammation and heal the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles, and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by Ireland's pharmacy."

A RED CROSS KNIGHT.

The crimson glow of sunlight falls along the monumental walls. Where still in faded pomp are read the name and virtues of the dead. Yet from your effort of knight the graven name has vanished quite. No words remain, but stories tell that he who sleeps fought for right and well; in kindness swift, in vengeance slow. A constant friend, a courteous foe. Who partly fought for love of right. But chiefly for the love of right. To Holy Land he rode away. Seek thou a holy land today. With sword and battleaxe he strove; seek thou the arms of love. He won on earth a poor renown; win thou on earth love's fadeless crown. —Arthur L. Salmon in Gentleman's Magazine.

THE BROKEN KEY.

The young and pretty bride felt worried and out of sorts. Only a short eight weeks ago she had married her dear Gus and had followed him to his home in W., and already he had begun to neglect her, to go out of an evening, and to leave her alone in the big house. He had tried to convince her that he could not altogether neglect his former friends and companions, and that she ought not to object to his meeting them on two evenings every week, and to pass an agreeable hour or two in their company over a friendly game of whist, but she simply did not comprehend how he could enjoy himself without her, how he could even think of going anywhere without taking her along.

"Oh, the dreadful evenings I have to spend," she complained, with tears in her eyes. "I am obliged to sit here all alone because I have as yet had no chance to form any acquaintances here. Naturally I get homesick. Often I feel like leaving everything and taking the train home to my parents."

"Would it not be better, darling, if you want to bed instead and tried to sleep?"

"That is just where the trouble is," she replied, still in tears. "I am afraid. Our servant sleeps way up in the attic. She would not even hear were anything to happen to me."

"Why, you foolish child, what is there to be afraid of? What is going to happen?"

"Are not the papers every day full of burglaries and robberies?" she persisted. "Think of the many strangers that flock to a well known health resort like this. Nothing is impossible under such circumstances!"

The husband looked thoughtfully at his sweet bride.

"No, dear, I do not want you to frighten yourself into illness. I promise you herewith, of my own free will (the poor fellow could not help heaving a sigh as he said this) to return promptly at 11 o'clock whenever I go to meet my friends. It is impossible for me to withdraw myself from their society altogether, for they would ridicule and make fun of me, and call me henpecked. Burglars rarely put in their appearance before the hour of 11, the streets being full of life and traffic. Goodbye, darling, and please do not feel lonesome."

Annie sighed and submitted resignedly to her fate. She read awhile; she then took up her embroidery, a present for her mother; she played a game of solitaire, and finally she paced restlessly up and down the room. At home there had been a large family circle; hence it was very trying to her to be left so much to herself in her new surroundings.

At 10 o'clock even the familiar noises in the kitchen ceased, for the servant had gone up stairs to her attic, and the poor woman felt the old feeling of distress and fright creep over her. The sitting room was located at the rear of the house, and there was a hallway between it and the front rooms. She therefore could not hear the usual noises. A deathly silence reigned in the room. Tired and yet excited, she threw herself on the lounge. She sadly reflected by her husband and card parties had been called into existence. By and by her thoughts became more and more confused, and she fell into a sound slumber.

It was 11:05 o'clock when Gus arrived breathlessly and post haste at his home door and tried to fit his key into the lock.

Poor fellow! Had evil spirits conspired to get him into trouble? Click—the key broke in two, and the bit stuck fast in the keyhole, handle and barrel alone remaining in his hands.

He knocked, he called, he knocked again and louder—for unfortunately there was no house bell—all in vain. "I hardly think my wife has retired as early as this," he reflected, "but of course she is in the sitting room, and most likely she cannot hear me." Once more he knocked—this time very loud. He called until his voice was hoarse. No reply.

To fill his cup of misery to the brim it commenced to rain, and he was without an umbrella.

"Perhaps Annie has gone to bed, after all," he thought, shivering and dripping wet. "Shall I go to a hotel? No! What would the people think! The only place that I know of that may still be open is the railway depot, for there is a train arriving at midnight."

He went down the street in the pouring rain, and at last found himself in the waiting room of the station.

"A glass of beer, sir?" asked an enterprising waiter. Gus shook himself. He felt chilly. "Punch," he said, "and make it hot!" He drank one glass and then another, and still another, to while away the time. He was the only person there. In due time the last train had arrived, and he could stay no longer. They were about to close up.

In sheer desperation he looked at his watch.

It was 1 o'clock when he emerged into the street, and it had ceased to rain. The full moon seemed to grin and wink at him maliciously through the clouds, as though she meant to say: "See, old man, it serves you right! Why must you go out to play cards and leave your wife at home in loneliness?"

In spite of the repeated potations he still felt chilly. "There is no help for it but a good run," he said to himself, starting on a lively trot through the city, first down one street, then up another, through the suburbs, until he reached the open country, and back again without stop or rest for fear of catching cold.

The town clock struck the hour of 4. "It is still too early to get into the house," he said. "The front door is never unlocked before 6 o'clock. Will they be able to unlock the door anyway? A piece of my key sticks in the lock. The women are imprisoned and cannot get out. But now I can stand this no longer. I must have something hot to drink and sit down somewhere. There is a train at 4 o'clock." And forthwith he once more wended his way to the railroad depot.

A snug corner and a cup of hot coffee somewhat restored him. But he was very tired, and pretty soon he was sound asleep in his corner as his wife had been the night before on her lounge.

And how did his wife fare? She awoke in the middle of the night with a start, almost frightened out of her wits by a horrid dream, in which her husband had appeared before her, wounded, bleeding and torn by huge bloodhounds. Pretty soon, however, she comprehended the situation. Her face bathed in tears, she paced restlessly up and down the room wringing her hands. "Oh, the wretch! To stay out all night! Just to think of it! Such a man has the effrontery to talk to me of love. Not content to act like a villain, he even had to make fun of me last night by pretending he would henceforth be home at 11 o'clock. Who would ever have thought him so base? They close the beer house after midnight; hence he cannot pretend to be playing cards there all night. Heaven only knows where he is spending the night, in whose company he is enjoying himself, while I—while I find that I am not his wife. I shall leave him at once. There is a train at 7 o'clock in the morning, which I am going to take and go home to my parents."

At 5 o'clock she called the serving maid, whom she sent to the garret for a valise, and commenced to pack. The maid said nothing, but she was surprised that her master had not risen and did not help his wife. However, she made the coffee and then went after a cab.

The front door was wide open and a locksmith busy with the big lock when Annie appeared in the hall. The landlady ran to meet her, exclaiming in a flurry of excitement: "Did you hear about it, madam? A thief was here last night and made an attempt to enter the house. Some one must have frightened him off. He left a broken key stuck fast in the lock, and was unable to unlock the door. I had to call from the window until I availed a neighbor, who ran for a locksmith. Now I am going to have a patent lock put on and spoil your little game. But you look very pale, my dear madam. I am sorry to have frightened you with my burglar story. Are you going to take a ride so early in the morning?"

Annie nodded and passed on. She was glad that the woman had not seen her valise, which her maid had already put into the cab.

"What a narrow escape I had last night! How near I came being robbed—perhaps worse!" She was now thoroughly angry. "So much more reason for leaving the fellow, no matter what the consequences! For the present I shall remain with my parents." Thus musing she arrived at the depot.

Before purchasing her ticket she intended to leave her valise in the waiting room. Annie entered and made for an empty table, when suddenly she dropped the valise and almost screamed aloud. Wasn't that her husband, "her" Gus sitting there in a corner and snoring loud enough to make everybody in the room smile at his nasal perversity? He looked tired and worn and his garments appeared damp. How did he get here and why was he in such a dilapidated condition? She stood for a moment undecided and unable to take her eyes off his drawn, worn-out features.

Suddenly the sleeper opened his eyes. Whatever the outcome, she must avoid a scene in a public room. Anything but that! The waiters had more than once looked wonderingly at the man who had drunk three cups of coffee and then fallen sound asleep hours ago. Annie tried to appear quite unconcerned, and took a seat beside her husband. Somehow her anger had suddenly vanished.

"Oh, darling, what brought me—I mean rather what brought you—here?" he asked, astonished at the unexpected appearance of his wife, dressed for a journey.

"Never mind, dear. Don't bother about that now," she whispered. "Come, let us ride home, where I will explain all."

Gus acquiesced in silence. His feet felt heavy and hardly able to carry his weight. He was sick. All he could do was to drag himself to a cab.

And then explanations were in order. Annie had no reason to doubt her husband's narration of his adventures during the night, and what the landlady had told her about the broken key tended to corroborate and exonerate him. But he could not quite make out from her explanations what had taken her to the railway station. He was, however, too ill to ask many questions.

Arrived at home, she simply told the astonished servant that "they had changed their mind and would not go away because her husband, who had preceded her to the depot, had been suddenly taken sick," and sent her after a physician.

Gus was very sick. For two weeks he could not leave his bed. A complicated and aggravated attack of influenza was the result of his experience during that ill fated night.

Annie never left his bedside, and now it was her great care and tireless, devoted nursing that opened his eyes as to the depth and uselessness of her great love for him.

At last, Gus got well, and, though he would now and then go to have a social game of whist, his wife never again doubted him, even if he staid out later than 11.—From the German.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. For sale by Ireland's pharmacy.

The sick man knocking at the door of health gets in if he knocks the right way, and stays out if he doesn't. There are thousands of ways of getting sick. There is only one way to get well. Do whatever you will, if you do not put health in your system in good order, and make your blood rich and pure, you will not get well. Rich, pure blood is the only thing that can bring perfect health. A large part of all the diseases that afflict mankind are traceable directly to impurities in the blood, and can be cured by eliminating these impurities. This is a disease of all diseases, consumption, is a disease of all diseases, because of some inherited or acquired weakness there. If the blood were always pure and without germs, the disease would never develop and in time weakness itself would be overcome. Germs and impurities in the blood find a weak spot for lodgment. They stick there and develop and people call the disease by the name of the organ afflicted. As a matter of fact, the disease is always a disease of the blood, and the blood being purified, the disease will be cured. That is a perfectly natural, rational conclusion, endorsed both by common sense and the highest medical authority. It is in accordance with these facts that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery works. The first thing it does is to put the whole digestive system into perfect order. It stimulates the appetite, excites the copious secretion of the digestive fluids and promotes assimilation. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be, kills them and forces them out of the system. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has been used with unvarying success for over 30 years.

If you care to know more about it, and more about your own body, send a one-cent stamp to cover cost of mailing only, and you will receive absolutely free a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, Common Sense Medical Adviser, Dress, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 63 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A man sent this answer to a bookseller who sent in his account for a book some time before delivered: I never ordered the book. If I did, you did not send it. If you sent it, I never got it. If I got it, I paid for it. If I didn't I won't.
