PRELIMINARY TO THE BATTLE

Silver Champions Considering Whether It Will Be Necessary to Abrogate Two-thirds Rule.

MICHIGAN MAY FURNISH NEEDED VOTES

Chairman Harrity Found Silver Committee Waiting for Him at Chicago—Silver Dick Bland's Inspiring Talk—Boies Men Hopeful.

Chicago, July 1.—It is not yet certain whether there will be a general disposition in the Democratic national convention to follow the lead of Illinois for the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. There is unquestionably a strong faction who agree with Aligned that the rule is undemocratic and would like to see it canceled upon general principles. If, however, it be abrogated the action will be due to the difficulty of securing the necessary two-thirds to nominate with the rule still in existence. This is one of the questions the silver committee will probably consider.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS CONFERRING.
A conference between Gov. Altgeld, Gov. Stone and other leading Democrats was held at the Sherman house to-day. They remained in session for the greater part of the forenoon. The room was closely guarded. There has been some talk of Aligned for permanent chairman, but his friends declare he would not accept the position.

MICHIGAN WILL FURNISH NEEDED VOTES.
Three members of the Michigan delegation arrived at Chicago to-day, but were averse to talking to newspaper men. Michigan is regarded as a pivotal state. Of its twenty-eight votes, thirteen are for gold and there are three contested seats. It is supposed that the three contested seats will be given to the free silver men, and that the vote of the state will make the requisite two-thirds majority.

HARRITY MET THE SILVER COMMITTEE.
William F. Harrity, chairman of the national Democratic committee, arrived at the Palmer house a few minutes before 12 o'clock, the hour set for the meeting of the executive committee of the national committee. He found the silver committee, appointed yesterday to confer with his committee, waiting him, and gave them an early audience. When asked the status of the temporary chairmanship, Mr. Harrity said that he had no information to give out. "Can only say," said the chairman, "that as far as I am concerned I have no man for the place."

SOVEREIGN IS SOLID FOR SILVER.
Grand Master Sovereign, of the Knights of Labor, was mingling with the Democratic politicians at the Palmer house to-day. He is unopposed to the Democratic standard and says that if the Democrats nominate an acceptable man on the financial question, he will have his support. He considers Teller the most available and acceptable candidate, but the Democrats refuse to go outside of their party, he prefers Boies.

Silver Dick Bland's Views.

Lebanon, Mo., July 1.—Richard P. Bland, who has just returned from a conference at St. Louis with those working in his interest, said to-day: "I thoroughly believe that the restoration of free coinage would be the salvation of this country. If the United States were to adopt the free and unlimited coinage of silver, I think the other leading nations would promptly follow the example."
"In case the other nations do not follow this example, I believe that no ill effect would be experienced in the financial centers. My idea is that the restoration of free coinage would carry some of the trade and all allied interests and that prosperity would have uninterrupted progress."

"The feeling is all one way. The silver idea will dominate the Democratic convention and the silver candidates will be victorious in next fall's election."

BOIES BOOMERS ARE HOPEFUL.

Chicago, July 1.—The Chronicle says: "The boomers of ex-Gov. Boies are by no means discouraged over the outlook for their candidate and claim that they are now stronger than ever. The Boies headquarters will be opened to-day at the Palmer house. It is said that Sovereign, the well-known labor leader, has made up his mind to come out squarely in favor of the nomination of Boies."

VICE-PRESIDENT DECLINED TO TALK.

Vice-President Stevenson arrived to-day on his way to Bloomington. He declined to talk on political questions.

NATIONAL POLITICS.

SITUATION IN NEW YORK.

New York.—The Herald, which is one of the staunchest eastern gold organs, acknowledges that the ironies of the silver sentiment throughout New York state has been so great that it is doubtful if the old parties can carry some of the strongest counties in November on a gold platform. It adds:

"In many of the counties there is no actual organization of the friends of free silver. Organization and an active free silver campaign would make many of the strongest Republican counties in the state doubtful in November. Even without organization the free silver farmers knocked sound money off of its feet in many places in this state in the recent Democratic primaries."

"There are a few instances: They instructed for free silver in the county of Lewis, and the only ground on which it was possible for Sobran, the Democratic leader of the county, to go to Chicago as a delegate was that he was a free silver man at home and a gold standard man at Saratoga."

"The free silver forces ran away with the sound money men in Genesee county, which is the home of 'Smiling Bob' Maxwell, leader of the Cleveland Democracy in western New York. On a test they defeated the 'sound money' friends of Roosevelt, P. Flower in the convention in the second assembly district of Jefferson county, and could have carried free silver instructions in both districts had they been organized."

"Unless there is a change in sentiment, free silver will control the organization in both parties in St. Lawrence county this fall. Thomas Spratt, one of the leaders, is only able to hold his place in Democracy by masquerading as a free silver man at home, though in Saratoga he wore a 'sound money' mask. He is a delegate to Chicago."

"Free silver Democrats of Oneida and Monroe counties were in control of those delegations to Saratoga. They wanted a declaration for the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 as a compromise.

"There are many more instances of the same sort all over the state. The reports printed show that it is the Republicans, rather than the Democrats, who should be alarmed."

"The situation is like a mountain forest in August—ready for the match. The Republican leaders are in ignorance of the actual state of affairs. It has all come about in three or four weeks. County Democracy leaders, having become acquainted with it in their canvases, are secretly anxious for free silver to triumph in Chicago. They think they can shift the tariff issue and carry the farmers almost solidly for free silver. In the meantime Warner Miller, the McKinley man in this state, believes that the state will swing itself for McKinley and, ignorant of the discontent among the farming classes, is preparing to devote his whole time to driving Platt and his 'sound money' followers out of the party."

MORE SILVER STORIES.

Washington.—Col. John R. Fellows, of New York: "There is no use in trying to head off this silver movement. It will sweep New York state itself, like some white simoon of finance. Seven up-country farmers out of every ten are for free silver at 16 to 1, in New York right now. This cry for free silver amounts to a revolution. I am going to Chicago to fight for gold, but it will be planting and no fruit, sowing and no harvest, save a harvest of disappointment. Free silver at 16 to 1 will carry New York."

Consistent with the apprehensions of the colonel came the fear of such men as Representatives Cummings and McClelland, of New York. Cummings reports his district as worm-eaten and rat-holed with free silver. McClelland talks the same way.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Chicago.—Utter hopelessness characterized the gold Democrats who are here. They say that the eastern members of the party fail to appreciate the situation in the west. Three members of the national committee—Prather, of Missouri; Sherley, of Kentucky, and Sheerin, of Indiana—are here. They are not 16 to 1 men, but they agree that the silver men will be able to do just as they please about the platform and the ticket. The convention will be in possession of the free silver men. A gold held out in the east that the gold minority will be strong enough to thwart the free silver majority is without foundation.

Whitney will organize the gold and anti-silver Democrats just as Senator Lodge did at St. Louis. He will demand in the name of the eastern Democrats that such a compromise be agreed upon as will leave the gold standard delegates free to return to their constituents and make a fight for the ticket. Whitney expects to utilize the spirited fight between the free silver presidential candidates to help him in his fight against a silver declaration.

With many of the eastern politicians who are committed to the gold standard, any candidate will be preferable to Bland. The argument being advanced that any other silver man would make it much easier for eastern Democrats to fall into line, and if the favorite sons can develop a positive strength which will stand by them to the end and the sound money men count upon some sort of a compromise or concession on the platform.

Every day is bringing to the free silver majority additions. Unless the unit rule is strictly and rigidly enforced in certain eastern delegations the silver men will have votes from the Atlantic seaboard. There are free silver men in both the New York and the Pennsylvania delegations. Four of the Maryland delegates have declared themselves for 16 to 1. If the unit rule is broken the silver men will gain five silver delegates from gold states where they will lose one gold delegate from a silver state. There will be a very determined effort made to break the unit rule by gold minorities in silver delegations like those of Kentucky and the state of Washington, and by silver minorities in gold delegations like those of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Hugh C. Wallace, the Tacoma banker, son-in-law of Chief Justice Fuller, and a gold man, one of the gold delegates from the state of Washington, rather startled the gold men to-day by offering the prediction that free silver will carry his state this fall. He said that the adoption of 16 to 1 by the Chicago convention would combine the silver Democrats and Populists in Washington, and would draw to them some silver Republicans. The gold Democrats who would vote with the Republicans, he thought, would not be sufficiently numerous to keep the state from going for free silver.

Senator Turpie is one of the mainstays of the Matthews case. He will make the nominating speech for the Indiana governor, and is expected to make the speech of his life. Turpie is not a bit pretentious, but he can talk, and the mere fact that he is going to talk makes it certain that the sound money men from the east will hear things on the financial question that may not sound polite, but will be effective with the galleries.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Convention of Survivors of the Lost Cause at Richmond—Gratitude to Chicago.

Richmond, Va., July 1.—Gen. Gordon called the convention of the United Confederate veterans to order this morning. An immense crowd was present.

D. E. Lee offered a resolution, which was adopted, endorsing the movement, started by Lee camp of Richmond, looking to the general organization of the Sons of Veterans and pledging the United Confederate veterans to the movement.

Gen. H. Kidd Douglas offered a resolution thanking the city of Chicago for the "broad-minded liberality of the people in erecting a lofty monument over $500,000 in cost, who rest within its protection, and for the boundless hospitality with which it received all the confederate soldiers who attended the dedication." This was unanimously adopted.

Passed to a Third Reading.
London, July 1.—The agricultural rating bill passed to a third reading by a vote of 322 to 140.

Outlook is Discouraging.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 1.—Another cave-in took place in the Twin shaft, at Pittston, this morning. The rescuers have been driven back nearly 200 feet and the outlook for reaching the men is discouraging.

President at Buzzard's Bay.

Buzzard's Bay, Mass., July 1.—The steam yacht Osiris with President Cleveland on board arrived here to-day.

SILVER AND GOLD MEN MEET

Executive Committee of Democratic National Committee is in Session at Chicago.

SILVER DEMOCRATS GRANTED A HEARING

Appeared as Delegates Representing Majority of National Convention—Indicated that Efforts to Overawe Majority Would Fail.

Chicago, July 1.—The executive committee of the national Democratic committee convened at the Palmer house promptly at 12 o'clock to-day with Chairman Harrity and Messrs. Wall, Sheerin, Peacher and Wallace present, Mr. Cable being the only absentee. The committee was immediately into executive session. The silver committee, consisting of Senators Jones, Daniel, Turpie, Govs. Aligned and Stone, were closeted with the executive committee for some time. The question of the temporary organization was under discussion.

THE TWO COMMITTEES MEET.

The two committees were together for an hour and a half, when the silver men withdrew.

The proceedings were informal. While there was no animosity displayed, the conversation was very earnest. The silver men first asked that it should be definitely understood that they did not come as representatives of the silver committee, but as delegates representing the majority view of the convention.

They expressed a desire to have an understanding upon the various questions as to the temporary chairman, seats for delegates and alternates, the procedure regarding contesting delegations, and the arrangement of the temporary roll call.

The members of the executive committee intimated that they would expect to consider the contents as the national committee had done on all previous occasions and make up the temporary roll. Attention was called to the fact that there so far had been no notice of a contest except in Nebraska.

It was stated on behalf of the national committee that tickets would be distributed by the committee according to the established custom.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMANSHIP.

The principal part of the conference was devoted to the selection of a temporary chairman, but on this point no understanding was reached.

Chairman Harrity stated that he had had no opportunity for conference with the other members of the committee and did not feel prepared to indicate the policy of the committee.

He said he would be pleased to confer with the silver men again and asked them to meet the committee next Monday. He said he had no candidate, but declined to say whether the committee would be disposed to act upon its own responsibility or accept the advice of the silver men.

REPUBLICAN MEETS.

Gold Standard and Pie-Counter Patriots Hold Several Conventions To-day.

Connell Bluff, Iowa, July 1.—Congressman A. L. Hager was nominated this morning for a third term by the Republicans of the 9th Iowa congressional district. After the ninety-sixth ballot, Smith McPherson released the Montgomery delegation from its pledge to support him. Major Curtis then released the Cass county delegation, and there was a stampede to Hager, making his nomination almost unanimous.

PIE-COUNTER PATRIOTS.
Lincoln, Neb.—The Nebraska Republican state convention convened at 10:30 a. m. Much enthusiasm was manifested. Geo. W. Collins was made chairman, a committee on resolutions was appointed, and the body took a recess. The St. Louis platform will be adopted without a dissenting vote.

EMPTY HONORS CONFERRED.
Little Rock, Ark.—The Republican state convention met here this morning. H. L. Remmel was chosen as the candidate for governor by acclamation. H. A. Reynolds was nominated for secretary of state and J. Frank Mays for auditor.

On Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Socorro, Hon. H. M. Dougherty, the popular district attorney for the 5th district, and Miss Emma Greenwald, the pretty daughter of John Greenwald, the well known flour miller, were married by Rev. Brown of the Catholic church, Socorro. After the ceremony the happy couple, with their many invited friends, partook of an elegant lunch, after which they took the north bound passenger train for Denver where they will remain for a few days.

Messrs. Spoelander and Olney returned to Las Vegas on Monday evening from Buffalo, N. Y., where they had been to attend a meeting of the supreme lodge of the A. O. U. The plan now is that the matter be presented to the grand lodge of Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona this fall, and then be taken from their grand lodge to the supreme lodge of the United States at its next annual meeting.

MCKINLEY AND HOBART.

Touching Meeting Between the Gold Standard Candidates at Canton—Hobart Has Gone to See Hanna.

Canton, Ohio, July 1.—Gov. McKinley drove to the Fort Wayne station this morning to meet Garrett Hobart. McKinley took Hobart's arm and they walked to the carriage amidst the applause of a crowd. McKinley and his guest were driven quickly to the former's home, where a crowd of newspaper men and photographers were waiting. Hobart was presented to a number of McKinley's neighbors as the pair alighted from the carriage, after which they immediately retired to the library. It is not probable that either McKinley or Hobart will make a stump campaign.

In order to make train connections and fill engagements, Hobart left for Cleveland at 12:30 p. m. He will meet National Chairman Hanna there. Hobart had been at the McKinley residence but half an hour when the media delegation called. McKinley and Hobart were greeted with cheers as they for the first time appeared together on the same platform.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Cool and Cloudy Weather, with Heavy Showers of Rain in Many Sections, Have Wonderfully Improved Crop Conditions.

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.
Santa Fe, N. M., June 30, 1896.

The week ending June 29, was a great improvement over the few preceding weeks.

More or less cloudy weather prevailed and many sections were visited by beneficial rains.

The rainfall was heaviest in the northern quarter of the territory. The rains reported were 1.68 inches at Las Vegas; Gallinas Springs reports 1.58; Wagon Mound 1.31, Ocate, in Mora county, 1.23, Santa Fe 0.67, and Las Cruces 0.33 of an inch.

These rains have been of great benefit and all sections so visited are looking much better. Some crops had been ruined by the drought, but in most places they will be saved.

The grass on stock ranges is rapidly starting up and cattle men are more hopeful. In the sections not favored by rainfall during the week everything is rather discouraging, though the cooler cloudy weather has been beneficial and the outlook for a continuation of showery weather is good. Wheat is being cut in the southern part of the territory and second cutting of alfalfa is coming on.

Corn is doing quite well in most localities and prospects well.

The following extracts from a few of the reports received at this office will be found of interest.

Albuquerque.—M. Cuatrecasas.—A light thunder shower at 2:30 p. m. of the 23rd lasting only a few minutes and a trace of rain on the 24th. Considerable cloudy weather during the week.

Bernalillo.—Brother Gabriel.—Trace of rain on the 25th. Vines and trees are looking well in general. First crop of alfalfa cut and second growth doing well. River very low at present and but little water in the ditches. Ranges continue poor as ever and no prospect of doing any better until we get rain.

Esplanada.—L. A. Phillips.—Heavy rain Thursday afternoon accompanied by considerable thunder and lightning. Crop prospects much brighter.

Farmington.—J. G. Willett.—Since our last report have had several cloudy days but no rain. Nights cooler, days hot. Corn looking fine and everything growing well. Plenty of water for irrigation. No grass on stock ranges.

Gallinas Springs.—J. E. Whitmore.—Drought broken; everything looking well since the rain of the 28th. Total rainfall for the week 1.68 inches.

Las Cruces.—Fabian Garcia.—Weather has been somewhat cooler than for the previous week and more threatening with wind from the southeast. On the 25th a rain of 0.33 of an inch, the only one this summer. The harvesting of wheat is in full operation; the second crop of alfalfa is being rapidly cut. Vegetation has not made much growth on account of dry weather. Early apples and peaches are ripening.

Las Vegas.—Dr. F. H. Atkins.—After four more days of heat and dryness the much desired change came. A light shower on the 22nd but a big slow rain on the 25th amounting to 1.62 inches, doing all that can be done to restore crops and start grass. Small grains, however, were heading low and a fall crop is hardly possible. Total rainfall for week was 1.68 inches.

Los Alamos.—Wm. Frank.—Returning from Santa Fe this morning, the 26th, I was received in mud and it was mud to the hub from Las Vegas to Los Alamos. Such a rain is surely a God send and will be appreciated by all.

Los Lunas.—R. Pohl.—Crops have suffered a good deal for want of water, especially alfalfa and corn. Harvesting of wheat will begin during the coming week. Nice refreshing shower in afternoon of the 26th, more needed badly.

Lower Penasco.—H. von Basse.—Hot and dry the first part of the week but light showers in latter part have somewhat improved the outlook.

Melvin.—A. M. Hollenbeck.—The long drought was broken this week. It has been cloudy and light showers most of the week, but on the 25th a fine steady rain came. Some corn and beans are being planted now. Currants, cherries and gooseberries are ripe.

Ocate.—E. M. Cooner.—The severe drought has been broken by a rain amounting to 1.23 inches during the last days of the week, with cool, partly cloudy weather. This will be of great benefit to grass. The rains came too late to save crops. The shearing season is in earnest now. Puerto de Luna.—P. R. Page.—Hot and dry up to the night of 26th, when we had 1.20 of rain, which I presume extended all over this section of the country, which will put everything in good shape.

Rincon.—C. H. Raitt.—There has been one or two good rains in the vicinity this week and the cloudy days have been beneficial to crops. Wheat harvest is under way with promise of fair results.

Santa Fe.—U. S. Weather Bureau.—A fine rain fell on the 25th, and coming slowly was all absorbed and will be of great benefit. Several light showers since have kept up the good work and everything is looking well.

ONE HUNDRED SHOTS FIRED

Pitched Battle Between Deputy Sheriffs and Strikers Near Westview, Ohio.

STRIKERS DRIVEN BACK TO THE WOODS

So Far as Known No One Was Killed, But Several Strikers Were Hurt—Fresh Force of Deputies Ordered from Cleveland.

Westview, Ohio, July 1.—Over 100 shots were exchanged by deputy sheriffs and strikers this morning at the Berea stone quarry. No one was killed as far as known. One striker had his leg broken and many have sore heads as a result of the hand to hand conflict. The strikers approached the quarry through the woods with the avowed intention of routing the men at work.

They were met by the sheriff and forty deputies who commanded them to stop. For answer the strikers began firing, and the fight became general. The strikers, repulsed, fell back to the woods. The men in the quarries are quitting through fear.

Cleveland.—At noon fifty extra deputy sheriffs started for the scene of the conflict between the officers and strikers at the stone quarries near Westview.

A Town of Consumptives.
It has long been a cause of controversy among physicians as to whether consumption is contagious or not, and one of the strongest arguments that it is that has yet been produced is the story of the fate of the village of Mentone.

Forty years ago this place was one of the healthiest villages in France, whose inhabitants were of superb physical development. It was discovered about this time that the climate of Mentone was remarkably beneficial in cases of lung diseases and people flocked hither from all parts of Europe.

The natural result was that the people who had hitherto been engaged in farming one and all betook themselves to ministering in various ways to the throngs of invalids. The strong and healthy women of Mentone became laundresses and washed without taking the least precautions of the consumptives' clothes. The place is now described as being a "bacillus ridden pest hole."

TUESDAY, JULY 1.

And Chicago is to get the Democratic national headquarters. St. Louis might have had this plum, had the dear old Republic toted fair.

So PERE PEREA voted for gold and Evans at St. Louis did he? Miguel A. Otero and Capt. Collier have ere this, doubtless, jotted down this fact in their political note books.

So the president has sent Mr. Eckels out from Washington to capture the Chicago convention. Truly folks rush in where angels fear to tread. At this present writing it looks like a clean 16 to 1 case against Eckels.

The Silver City Enterprise, the Lordsburg Liberal and the Las Cruces Republican have minds of their own. They positively refuse to permit the Albuquerque Citizen to outline for them a political campaign policy full of dead issues.

MATTHEWS, of Indiana, and Daniel, of Virginia, Boies, of Iowa, and Bookwater, of Ohio, Bland, of Missouri, and Thurman, of Ohio—how do these strike you as combinations from which to select the presidential ticket to be named at Chicago?

MAYBE there is more in this "silver craze" than the eastern Democrats imagined or cared to admit. This time last year they said it would be an iridescent dream before the convention of 1896, but there are evidences of its rapid and unmistakable materialization.

As a result of the bad faith shown Judge Morrison by the territorial delegates at St. Louis, New Mexico failed to have a representative present at Canton on Monday with the committee appointed to notify Gov. McKinley of his nomination as a presidential candidate. The delegates selected Mr. Perea for this place, but he was not on deck.

A ST. LOUISIAN tried to commit suicide by having a buzz-saw open his head, and, failing, he was interviewed as to how it feels to be cut up by such a saw. There was no need to wait for the St. Louisian. Platt might have given all desired information. A few would-be political bosses in New Mexico might also contribute a few chapters on this interesting subject.

MY! But the eastern Democracy is scoring Whitney for his late utterances in the shape of letters and interviews. Whitney has given Wall street's plans all away. As for any effect his talk may have on the Chicago convention, it doesn't amount to more, to quote Hogg, than the sniff of a sandhill possum. The Democratic masses, not the classes, are in the saddle this year of grace.

HOW MORRISON PLAYED EVEN.

The thanks of the Republicans of New Mexico are due to Major W. H. H. Llewellyn for challenging the vote at St. Louis and putting the representatives from New Mexico on record—Lordsburg Liberal.

The above paragraph will be read with a grim smile by Judge Morrison and others who attended the St. Louis convention and who noted Col. Llewellyn's peculiar squirm when Morrison challenged the vote on the presidential nominee. As the only original McKinleyite in the west—outside of Gov. Collier—Morrison had reason to believe that Llewellyn was not exactly straight, hence his challenge of the vote, and he was not the least bit surprised when Llewellyn voted for Allison. Thus Morrison played more than even for the turn-down he received at Llewellyn's hands as a member of the committee on credentials.

A DEAD DUCK.

There is not a principle, with but one exception, that the Republican party has fought and legislated upon that it has not gone back upon and repudiated at St. Louis in its recent platform, and that exception is the same old protective tariff. The protective tariff, the only principle upon which the party has been consistent, and which it reaffirmed at the late convention, every one of them knows to be a sham or a sop thrown out to catch the manufacturing vote of the east. There is not a leading Republican that would dare, even if McKinley is elected, to propose a bill in congress re-enacting the McKinley tariff. They know the high protective tariff times have passed. It was snowed under in 1892 and never can be revived. That and Blaine's pet humbug, reciprocity, are as dead as "a door nail," and even should some daring fellow propose to again inflict the country with the McKinley tariff, what would the wool growers of the west do? Will the Albuquerque Citizen tell us—or shall we answer? Why, they would rise up in their might and protest against it, just as they did in the recent session of congress, for the wool growers are not fools, and they quite understand, by this time, that, under the McKinley tariff, all the benefits of protection were given to the woolen manufacturer of New England—the interests of the producer of the raw material being absolutely ignored. But why waste breath on this subject. The next senate is assuredly Democratic, or at any rate, for free coinage, and whether McKinley is elected or not, his high tariff ideas are dead ducks.

PRESS COMMENT.

An Unkindest Cut.

If the committee on platform at St. Louis had presented the following financial plank it is probable that Judge Morrison would have voted for it and the Albuquerque Citizen would have endorsed it: "We denounce as devoid of intelligence and integrity those who demand the coinage of silver, either as money of ultimate redemption or for subsidiary use. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold under such restrictions as may from time to time be suggested, by Heidelberg, Ickelheimer & Co., Ladenburg, Thalman & Co. and Lazard Freres."—Lordsburg Liberal.

Catron not a Delegate.

From Santa Fe comes the story that it is probable that Delegate T. B. Catron may not be a candidate for re-election. The Optic is not disposed to give much credence to the story. Should this be the case, however, there is no earthly use of despairing, for there are plenty of men in the Republican ranks, who, if nominated, would carry the party to victory. The Optic will name a few of these, and of course will commence with its home county. For instance: M. A. Otero, Frank Springer, of Las Vegas; Judge John R. McFie, of Las Cruces; Pedro Perea, of Bernalillo; Sol. Luna, of Los Lunas; Judge A. L. Morrison, Ex-Governor L. B. Price, Col. Max Frost, of Santa Fe; Judge S. B. Newcomb, of Las Cruces; Thos. D. Barnes, of Tierra Amarilla; Judge A. A. Freeman, of Eddy; J. A. Anchetta, of Silver City; A. C. Voorces, of Hatch; C. H. Sparks, of Chaves. Just as said above, there is plenty of available material for delegate timber in the Republican party in New Mexico, and time will tell if it will become necessary to select from it.—Las Vegas Optic.

and when told this, the most eminent specialists of New York, under whose treatment she was placed, declared her case was hopeless. All treatment having failed, she was given up to die. S. S. NEW MEXICAN PRINTING COMPANY.

The PECOS VALLEY of . . . NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally. The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, acerola, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world. Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation. The cultivation of canebrake—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit. The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring. Lands with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times rapid, increase in value. The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Folsom section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold. Among Some of the Fairest Scenes
On the continent and in the tropics, malaria poisons the atmosphere with its pestilential breath, sowing the seeds of disease and death in every direction. It is in such localities that the preventive and remedial qualities of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most conspicuously shown. For every form of malaria it is a signally efficacious remedy, and cures disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, remedies inactivity of the kidneys, and counteracts the weakness and lack of stamina which invite disease by leveling the barrier which a vigorous operation of the digestive and secretory organs opposes to it. No defensive machine in use has stronger commendations in professional quarters both for purity and remedial qualities.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial, but got no relief. She then sent me to see if I had anything that would help her.

I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him this same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaints.—Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericktown, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected.

For your Protection.—Catarrh "Cures" or Tonics for Catarrh in liquid form to be taken internally, usually contain either Mercury or Iodine of Potassa, or both, which are injurious if too long taken. Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by sudden change to cold or damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat. Cold in the head causes excessive flow of mucus, and, if repeatedly neglected, the results of catarrh will follow: severe pain in the head, a roaring sound in the ears, bad breath, and oftentimes an offensive discharge. The remedy should be quickly applied, inflammation and head the membrane, Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

SHE WAS TO OBEY.

"Nora." The girl blushed a bright pink, but does not appear to resent his familiarity.

"Nora," he repeated, taking hold of the little hand in his, "you know already what I would say, do you not, my darling? Nora, I love you; love you more, I think, than ever man loved before. Nora, will you be my wife?"

"The eyes were raised for one second, and in their misty radiance Jack Dalton read his answer.

"Nora," broke in a voice in tones of measured severity, which made Nora start like a guilty creature. "I have been looking for you everywhere. Nora, Mr. Pontifex has arrived unexpectedly at home and apparently from what I can gather does not wish to meet you first here. So of course you will at once leave and—"

"I do not see why, Gladys," said Nora, but her voice trembled, and her fair face was very white.

"Then allow others to judge of what is right and fitting under the circumstances," said Mrs. Hastings sharply. "I have made your apologies to Mrs. Pelham. She quite understands the circumstances. Run quickly and get your cloak."

As the girl goes reluctantly forward Jack Dalton makes a hasty step toward her, but Mrs. Hastings gently detains him.

"Pardon me," she said in a soft voice in which there is a slight ring of pity, "but I cannot but fear you do not quite know the facts about my little sister. If you have been led to think anything from her manner, I am sorry, but it happens so often. Naughty child! She is a sad flirt."

Mrs. Hastings gave a gentle, amused laugh, which died suddenly as her eyes fell on Jack's white, stern face.

"Excuse me," he said in a haughty tone, "but I do not understand what you are saying, nor do I care to be told. Why does the advent of this gentleman appear so important to her, and—"

"Ah, it is as I said. You do not understand the facts," laughed Mrs. Hastings. "They are briefly these: Nora is engaged to Mr. Pontifex, has been since the end of the season, and they are to be married in the autumn."

The place seemed to swim round Jack's eyes, but with a firm resolve not to be beaten, he set his teeth hard, and, with absolute composure, surveyed Nora as she returned to her sister's side.

"Is this true?" he demanded, and his voice to himself sounded far away. "Is it true that you are now going to meet your affianced husband?" Nora looked up, startled, into his white, stern face.

"I—I—," she faltered, but her voice broke, and she turned away.

"That is answer sufficient," he returned. "I fully endorse your sister's sentiment, Miss Carew—you are a sad flirt!"

With a harsh laugh he turned away as Nora, white and trembling, followed Mrs. Hastings to their carriage, leaving him standing alone, desolate amid the wealth of flowers and sweet scents, a bitter, broken hearted man.

"I have come for my answer, Nora," said Mr. Pontifex in his calm, measured voice.

GEMS IN VERSE.

The Love That's All Love.
Oh, give me no love that is thoughtful and kind;
That springs from the reason, is measured by mind;
No love that is cautious, no love that knows fear;
No love that would lend to slander an ear.

No love that considers what may be or might;
That looks to the morning while marking the night;
No lovekeeping love, casting up its accounts,
With their "credit" and "debit" and "error" amounts;

No love that can sately discuss loss and gain,
Or balance "Now's" pleasure with "Afterward's" pain.
Give love that knows only itself and is strong,
Self justified, regret and knowing no wrong.

Guardian Angels.
When daylight has departed and earth is hushed to rest,
When little birds are folded safe within the parent nest,
When on the closed flowers the blessed night dew drops deep,
The sighing of their sorrow o'er the woes that flesh must bear?

What are the heart's presentiments of coming joy or pain?
But gently whispered warnings of that guardian angel's train,
The signals of their sympathy, the tokens of their care,
The sighing of their sorrow o'er the woes that flesh must bear?

We hear them in our slumbers, and waking fancy deems
That busy thought was wandering in the fairy land of dreams,
But the low, sweet tones we listened were strains that angels sing,
For ministering spirits with our souls were communing.

And when morning breaks above us and we wake to busy day
These angels "go before" to guide and "keep us in our way."
When our feeble footsteps falter, all a-weary and alone,
In their arms they gently bear us, "lest we dash against a stone."

In our journeys, in our restings, on the land or on the sea,
In our solitude and sorrow, in our gatherings and glee,
In the days of degradation, in the hour of joy and pride,
These pure and watchful ministers are ever by our side.

Oh, then, when angels worship ere time or we began,
And whose divine compassion gave their guardianship to man,
Throughout the mortal warfare let them still my champions be,
And in the last stern conflict "give them charge concerning me."

—Household Words.

A Plea For the Birds.
"Butchered to make a Roman holiday,"
That roused loud anger in indignant meter.
Butchered to make a lady's bonnet gay—
Sounds that much sweeter?

Little white heron, with the shoulder plume
You stress the milliner's remorseless passion,
You guess not how your finery sales your doom
At beck of Fashion.

The little egret's nuptial plumes are sought
Above all other feathers by Eve's daughter,
And hence the heronry with woe is fraught—
A scene of slaughter.

Poor, pretty, bridal plumed, next loyal birds,
At breeding time alone you grow gregarious,
The hunter comes, and scenes too sad for words
Grieve o'er the hilarious.

The mothers hovering near their helpless brood
Are shot in hundreds, 'tis such easy killing.
The plumelets are plucked out, since they are good
For many a shilling.

The young birds starve, whilst festering in white heaps
Their dispirited parents lie in scores about them.
When men say at the thought their chill blood creeps,
Will ladies doubt them?

Male threats of Mammon do the murderous deeds,
But if the slaves of Mode could feel compassion,
Young herons need not starve nor old ones bleed—
To follow Fashion.

The Sweetest Song.
I have heard the greatest artists that the world shall ever see
Sing all the grandest music of the day;
I have sat with soul transported in a mist of melody,
As I listened to each life uplifting lay,
But the music that is sweetest—surest round my heart to creep—
Is the voice that every evening softly sings my boy to sleep.

Singing in the twilight simple soulful little airs,
Fragments of some love song, old and dear;
They touch my better nature and they melt my heart to tears,
Just the kind of music that is always good to hear;

So full of heaven's tenderness, with love so sure and deep,
Is the voice that in the twilight softly sings my boy to sleep.

Heart swells from her girlhood, maybe seeing through childish eyes
Now doing gradate duty for her God.
They come to me like echoes from the tomb of buried years—
Just a little glimpse of Eden on the sod;

Oh, the air is full of angels and their wings around me sweep,
As I listen to the twilight voice that sings my boy to sleep.

Life's Problem.
The jewel outlives the setting,
And 'twould be the hen;
The butterfly's cake of the morning
Will never rise again.

The can outlasts the lobster,
The goat outlives the can—
You can't be behind the procession
And still be in the van.

A good pair of cowhide uppers
Two sets of wheels will outlast
One car's, with a comb of the present,
Part the front hair of the past.

But here's the question that puzzles my soul
And fills it with wild disaster—
Does the porous plaster outlive the hole,
Or the hole the plaster plaster?

Authority.
Authority intoxicates
And makes mere sets of magistrates.
The fumes of it invade the brain
And make men giddy, proud and vain.
By this the fool commands the wise;
The noble with the base compiles;
The not assumes the rule of wit,
And onwards make the base submit.

GEMS IN VERSE.

Uncle Sidney's Views.
I hold that the true age of wisdom is when
We are boys and girls, and not women and men.
When, as credulous children, we know things
Before we have learned to know them.

We believe them—however adverse to the laws.
It is faith then, not science and reason, I say.
That is genuine wisdom—and would that, to-day,
We, as then, were as wise and ineffably blest
As to live, love and die and trust God for the rest!

So I simply deny the old notion, you know,
That the wiser we get as the older we grow.
For in youth, all we know we are certain of;
The greater our knowledge the more we allow
For skeptical musing, and hence I regret
That the world isn't flat, and the sun doesn't set.

And we may not go creeping up home, when we do,
Through the moon, like a round, yellow hole
In the sky.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

A National Hymn.
Our faith and hope, our joy and pride!
America, we hail thee!
With thee shall Liberty abide.
Thy shall never fail thee.
From north to south, from east to west,
One law, one flag, one nation,
The love that fills each patriot breast
Shall be thy firm foundation.

CHORUS.
Home of the free,
Let land and sea
Sing thy inspiring story,
While, brave and bright,
Thy flag of light
Floats in the van of glory!

The stars that from thy banner shine
Enkindle Freedom's beacon.
To all the world a sacred sign,
A flame that cannot weaken—
A flame that o'er Atlantic bars,
That glides the ocean zone,
Wherever man for Freedom yearns,
His symbol of devotion.

Republic that no hate divides,
United in affection,
A hemisphere in thy confides,
And claims thy strong protection.
And should the just occasion come,
Stand, freemen, calm and steady!
The bugle blast, the tap of drum,
Shall find Columbia ready.

For tyrannies and kingships all
The passing bell is tolling.
O nations, hear Columbia's call!
For ye the world is rolling.
Nor for the rulers ye have made,
The puppets of your power.
Rise, freemen, strong and unafraid!
The planet is your dower.

Sublime Republic, unto thee
Is given a holy mission—
To lead the legions of the free,
To better man's condition.
In this thy glory we rejoice,
Thy sons shall never fail thee.
Beloved land, with heart and voice,
Amen, we will be true to thee.

—Governor Wilson in New York Sun.

Who Plants a Tree.
He who plants a tree
Plants a hope.
Rootlets up through fibres blindly grope;
Leaves unfold into horizons free.
So man's life must climb
From the clods of this life
Unto heavens sublime.
Canst thou prophesy, thou little tree,
What the glory of thy boughs shall be?

He who plants a tree
Plants a joy;
Plants a comfort that will never cloy.
Every day a fresh reality,
Beautiful and strong,
To whose shelter throng
Creatures little with song.
If thou couldst but know, thou happy tree,
Of the bliss that shall inhabit thee!

He who plants a tree,
Under its green curtains jargons cease,
Least and softest murmur soothingly;
Shadows soft with sleep
Down tired eyelids creep,
Balm of slumber deep.
Never hast thou dreamed, thou blessed tree,
Of the benediction thou shalt be.

He who plants a tree,
Plants a peace;
Under its green curtains jargons cease,
Least and softest murmur soothingly;
Shadows soft with sleep
Down tired eyelids creep,
Balm of slumber deep.
Never hast thou dreamed, thou blessed tree,
Of the benediction thou shalt be.

—Lucy Larcom.

Her Majesty.
Her majesty comes when the sun goes down
And clambers up to her throne, my knee.
Her royal robe is a small white gown,
And this is her majesty's stern decree:
"Let me know when the sandman passes by,
For we're going to speak to him, you and I."

"There was once a monarch of old," I say,
"Who sat where the beach and the breakers met."
"Roll back!" he said to the waves one day,
"For the royal feet must not be wet!"
But the waves rolled on. For things there be,
I tell her, "that mind not majesty."

"And silent and shy is the sandman old,
And never, I'm sure, since the world began,
Has any one seen the sands of gold,
Or spoken a word to the kind old man.
But perhaps, when the twilight's gold turns gray,
You may see the old sandman pass this way."

"For your majesty's eyes are young and bright,
Though mine with the dust of time are dim,
And possibly queens have a clearer sight
Than subjects who away to a sovereign's whim.
But I'll watch for him, sweetheart and queen,"
I say,
"And speak if I see him pass this way."

But the sandman came, for the young eyes drooped,
And the small mouth curved in a drowsy smile.
Then down to her majesty's lips it stooped
And kissed her and whispered a prayer the while:
"O thou that giveth thy loved ones sleep,
This night her majesty safely keep!"
—Independent.

A Woman's Wall.
Oh, the dishes! Oh, the dishes!
Just the same old weary round.
If I realized my wishes,
Not a dish would e'er be found.
For I'd have them made of paper,
Very light and very cheap,
And when every meal was over
I would throw them in a heap.
And I'd burn them up for fuel,
We could get more in a minute.
Then life wouldn't seem so cruel
With no washing dishes in it!
—New York Recorder.

OJO CALIENTE (HOT SPRINGS.)

THESE Celebrated Hot Springs are located in the midst of the Ancient Cliff Dwellers, twenty-five miles west of Taos, and fifty miles north of Santa Fe, and about twelve miles from the Santa Fe and Rio Grande Railway, from which point a daily line of stages runs to the Springs. The temperature of these waters is from 90 to 125°. The gases are carbonic. Altitude 5,000 feet. Climate very dry and delightful the year round. There is now a commodious hotel for the convenience of invalids and tourists. These waters contain 380-4 grains of alkaline salts to the gallon; being the richest Alkaline Hot Springs in the world. The efficacy of these waters has been thoroughly tested by the numerous cures attested to in the following diseases: Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Consumption, Malaria, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Syphilis, and Mercurial Affections, Scrofula, Catarrh, La Grippe, all Female Complaints, etc., etc. Board, Lodging and Bathing, $2.50 per day. Reduced rates given by the month. For further particulars address—

GOV. HADLEY TALKS.

Free Coinage the One Great Issue of the Day—Result of a Free Coinage Law.

Ex-Gov. O. A. Hadley, president of the board of penitentiary commissioners, was a pleasant caller at the New Mexican office to-day. His recent book on free coinage "The Danger Line Reached," he said, had met a reception at the hands of the public which he had scarcely anticipated. Its sales are on the increase in the central west and southern states especially. In Kansas the state press has given it wide publicity, some of the weeklies in the big farming districts publishing from it full pages of extracts. Among his former Republican constituents in Arkansas and about his early home in Jamestown, N. Y., there is also great demand for the book.

Gov. Hadley is an entertaining conversationalist and his words are instructive to a degree. He said he scarcely knew where he was "at" politically, just now, but he felt certain of one thing, and that is that the free coinage principle is the most important question that has arisen in American politics since 1860. It overshadows every other question. Free coinage, he said, should absorb first, the attention of the farmers of the nation, next it concerned the producers in general, and the wage earners, then came the welfare of the manufacturers, and the miners themselves, he thought, were the least concerned of all. Asked what would be the effect of free coinage he said he believed that within forty-eight hours after the adoption of such a law and its signing by the president not an ounce of silver could be bought for less than its coin value anywhere in the world. Of course, the speculators and gamblers would attempt a disturbance of business, but he thought the sober business element of the country would soon put a quietus on that, and within a few days a season of prosperity would set in that would astonish the earth and challenge the admiration and support of all its people.

U. S. Attorney Matt G. Reynolds is naturally highly elated over the result in the Peralta land grant conspiracy trial. He is being generally congratulated to-day.

Gen. Lew Wallace, of Crawfordville, Ind., and William C. Burton, of the Soldiers' home, Santa Monica, Cal., both somewhat formerly known in Santa Fe, have been appointed aides-de-camp upon the staff of Gen. Walker, commander in chief of the G. A. R.

The Young Men's Literary and Debating society elected the following officers to serve for the next six ensuing months: President, B. Ortiz; vice-president, V. Navarro; secretary, J. Martinez; treasurer, A. Rael; marshal, J. Valencia; interpreter, M. B. Salazar; critic, F. V. Barcia; judge, B. Moniz.

A young wild cat was chased out of an arroyo near Ramon school last evening by a crowd of boys. The animal took refuge under Capt. Hudson's barn and after 100 men and boys got around the premises he was cornered and dispatched with a gun. Charlie Wheeler's son carried off the pelt.

The board of penitentiary commissioners is in session at the institution this afternoon. A full membership is present as follows: President O. A. Hadley, of Watrous; Secretary W. E. Dame, of Cerrillos; Messrs. R. A. Baos, of San Mateo; H. J. Young, of Cerrito; Abram Abeytia, of Socorro; J. M. Valdez, of Springer, and J. M. Miller, of Lake Valley.

Mr. R. C. Hopkins, one of the California witnesses in the recent conspiracy trial against James Addison Peralta-Reavis, who has made a special study of the Spanish language for fifty years, called upon Judge Laughlin the other day for the purpose of commending the faultless manner in which Mr. Larkin G. Read acquitted himself as interpreter of the court during the trial indicated. He pronounced Mr. Read one of the best Spanish-English interpreters he ever met.

IN U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

James Addison Peralta-Reavis Convicted of Conspiracy to Defraud the Government—Motion for New Trial and Arrest of Judgment Pending—Hearings Till July 18.

As noted in the NEW MEXICAN last evening, the trial of the case entitled the United States of America against James Addison Peralta-Reavis and Miguel Noy, conspiracy to defraud, was concluded and confined to the jury in the United States district court at Albuquerque presiding, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The jury reached a conclusion about 10 o'clock last night and returned a verdict into court at 9 o'clock this morning. It finds the defendant, James Addison Peralta-Reavis, guilty as charged in the indictment of conspiracy with Miguel Noy and others to defraud the United States government out of parts of its public lands in connection with the effort to establish the fictitious and fraudulent Peralta land grant. Noy, being a fugitive from justice in Mexico, was not tried with Reavis.

Mr. Spiess, attorney for the defendant, made the usual motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment. This motion will be argued before Judge Laughlin on July 18, and if the motion is not granted, the case will be as yet to come before the territorial supreme court (with jurisdiction in United States cases), which will open in Santa Fe on July 27.

Under the law, a sentence of two years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000 may be inflicted by the court.

Jose Noy, Valencia and Andres Sandoval, of California, against whom an indictment runs for complicity with James Addison Peralta-Reavis in a conspiracy to defraud the government, were placed under $1,000 bonds to appear in the United States district court in this city next January.

The court then took a recess until July 18.

POLITICAL WAIFS.

National Committeeman H. B. Ferguson reaches Chicago to-morrow morning. Capt. Jack Crawford was the only New Mexican present at Canton, Ohio, when McKinley was notified of his nomination.

Postmaster Grunsfeld, of Albuquerque, leaves for Chicago to-night—to hobnob with Comptroller Eekels' crowd, perhaps.

Collector C. M. Shannon left last night for Chicago, where, as national committeeman from Arizona, he will join the forces of the Bland boomers.

Hon. N. B. Laughlin, judge of the 1st judicial district, expects to leave in a day or two for Chicago where he will rest while witnessing the deliberations of the great convention.

Hon. W. S. Hopewell, of Sierra county, is on his way to Chicago to serve the people as one of New Mexico's staunch free coinage delegates. He is expected to pass Larry Junction to-night.

Report comes up from the south that Hon. Nicholas Galles, member of the last territorial senate from Sierra county, the friend of ex-Secretary Windom, and a life-long Republican, has declared himself against Hanna's goldbug platform and McKinleyism and is a true follower of Henry M. Teller.

Messrs. Geo. W. Hartman, Eugenio Romero, F. A. Manzanarez, Felix Martinez, Miguel Salazar, Joshua Reynolds, R. A. Kistler and some twenty-five other leading citizens have formally invited ex-Prince to deliver a lecture on the "Old and New Phases of Bimetallism" in that city. Accordingly Gov. Prince will speak there at Tamme's opera house to-morrow evening.

Col. J. W. Dwyer writes from Raton to the Las Vegas Optic thus: "In reply to your kind invitation to name the office I will have under the next administration, I will answer that I do not desire and will not be a candidate for any position. I am living a life of peace, contentment and happiness now, and do not care to change such conditions for the trials and tribulations of office seeking or office holding. I can only add to my present happiness by aiding such good friends of mine who may be aspirants."

The Kansas City Investor: The greatest obstacles toward favorable action on New Mexico's admission as a state have been the opposition of President Cleveland and the offensive presence and manner of Delgado Catron. The former we have good reason to disbelieve, but the latter goes without the saying. Catron is by nature pugnacious and overbearing without the redeeming quality of "atavism with his bluff." The investor asked: "The office of delegate in congress from the territory is a very insignificant one at best in Washington, and favors go by gentleness and deference rather than by bluster and bravado. Catron is brainy, but to be effective should reform his morals and manners."

Golden Cochiti Notes. N. B. D'Arcy, the well known Cochiti miner, who sold several mines for good figures and then removed to Denver, where he lives in luxury, is in the city to-day, arriving from Bland this morning. Mr. D'Arcy is still interested in several developed claims in the Cochiti district, and this morning stated that several of the principal mines of the district, notably the Washington, are being vigorously worked and shipping ore daily. He reports a good strike having been made in the Little Mollie mine the other day; this property is being worked under lease. The gentleman is here to see several gentlemen regarding the starting up of the Allerton mill.—Albuquerque Citizen.

T. F. Abbott and W. D. Howard, of Bland, and George Marsh, of Santa Fe, hold a $2,000 bond and lease on the Little Mollie mine, running until June 1, 1897. They are working the promising property for all it is worth and hope soon to join the number of regular Cochiti shippers. The Little Mollie is located 1,500 feet from the Washington monument, has been developed with a tunnel and shafts to the extent of about 200 feet and shows a strong mineral bearing ledge that inspires much confidence in the minds of those interested in the bond and lease.

THE LIBERTY MURDERERS.

One of the Desperadoes Captured by Marshal Hall's Deputies in Mexico Last Night.

One of the men, who on June 11 robbed the postoffices at Bell ranch and Liberty and killed Merchant Levi Heitzstein and Meregildo Gallegos, has been captured in Mexico. Deputy Marshal J. B. Legg wires U. S. Marshal Hall to-day that he "has captured one of the murderers at Ojinajo, Mexico." Naturally this is very gratifying news for Marshal Hall. For ten days past Deputy Marshals C. C. Perry and J. B. Legg have been trailing these desperadoes through southeastern New Mexico, Texas and Mexico. They will doubtless capture the other man engaged in the affair.

Santa Fe Boys Graduate.

Col. William Bredeen, of this city, is justly proud of his two bright and promising sons. Waldo, the oldest, 19 years of age, graduated with honor at the University of Chicago, on June 26, and on the same day, William, 17 years old, graduated with credit at the Chautauque county academy in New York. Both will study law. The young men will spend the summer with their mother at Chautauque.

The best place to board in the city is at the Bon-Ton, 25-cent meals a specialty.

Wedding Bells.

The marriage of Mr. Chas. O. Morgan and Miss Sarah Griffin took place last evening at the residence of Mr. John Hampel, brother-in-law of the bride.

Precisely at 8:15, the groom, escorted the bride, Miss Henrietta Fessler, and the bride, escorted by Mr. G. A. Foley, who acted as best man, entered the parlor, which was profusely decorated with beautiful flowers and evergreens, halting beneath a large bunch of mistletoe, and before the piano, which was also tastefully decorated with rare flowers, where were seated Prof. Conroy and Bain, who rendered the wedding march. Here the sacred vows of the Catholic religion were read by Father Pouget, after which the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. P. Gilbert, pastor of Guadalupe church.

The happy couple then received the congratulations of some fifty invited guests. Songs by a number of those present followed and a happy time was spent until about 11 o'clock, when all repaired to the dining room where an elegant wedding supper was spread. The guests departed at about 1 o'clock wishing the happy couple every success in their new life.

Among the presents were: Silver card receiver, Miss Henrietta Fessler; silver pickle case, Mrs. C. P. Roseman; silver cake dish, Mrs. Marcelino Garcia; $2.50 gold piece (lucky), Mr. Marcelino Garcia; silver fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. Dotter; toilet set, Mrs. C. R. Fuller; half dozen silver knives and forks, Mr. C. W. Darrow; glass water set, Misses Vornholt; silver sugar bowl, Mr. and Mrs. Roseman; fancy dinner work, Mr. and Mrs. Goebel; rocking chair, T. and A. Conroy; beautiful bouquet, Miss Alice M. Thayer; pair fancy china cuspids, Robert H. Bowler; rocking chair, Mrs. Webster; silver picture frames, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Nellie Blanchard; berry dish, Mrs. Williams; silver knives and forks, a friend; set blankets, Mr. and Mrs. Dendahl; chinelle curtains, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Dolan; silver cake basket, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter; silver fruit basket, Mr. and Mrs. Marcelino Garcia; carving set, Miss Lillian Smith; water set, Mr. G. A. Foley; silver butter dish, Mr. Tony Bierman; toilet set, Mrs. Carl Fuller; book case, D. Lowitzki; table linen, Mr. Barleth, and numerous others.

Mr. Morgan, the smiling and popular groom, is one of the New Mexico's staff of expert compositors. He and his charming bride will please accept the sincere and cordial congratulations of the thirty-five busy workers connected with this establishment.
