

4-19-1991

Guatemala: U.S. Ambassador On Conditions For Resumption Of Military Aid

Deborah Tyroler

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen>

Recommended Citation

Tyroler, Deborah. "Guatemala: U.S. Ambassador On Conditions For Resumption Of Military Aid." (1991).
<https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/noticen/5357>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Latin America Digital Beat (LADB) at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in NotiCen by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact amywinter@unm.edu.

Guatemala: U.S. Ambassador On Conditions For Resumption Of Military Aid

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, April 19, 1991

On April 11, US Ambassador Thomas Stroock told reporters that resumption of US military aid to Guatemala was contingent on prosecution of the soldiers responsible for the assassination of US citizen Micheal Devine last year in El Peten department. Armed forces spokesperson Col. Homero Garcia responded by asserting that US military aid to Guatemala has always been minimal, since most such aid to the region was channeled to El Salvador. (Basic data from ACAN-EFE, 04/11/91)

-- End --