TWO NOTABLE GATHERINGS

The Populists and the American Silverites
Are Holding National Conventions
at St. Louis To-day.

UNSEEMLY WRANGLE AMONG POPULISTS

Better Element in the Convention Patriotically Favors Dropping All Side Issues and Indorsing Irreproachable Candidates of Silver Democracy.

HANNA WORKING UP MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD SENTIMENT

Senator Butler, of North Carolina, Chosen Temporary Chairman and Talks on Both Sides of Vital Question--Apparently No Division in Silver Convention--All for Bryan, Sewall and American Bimetallism--Congressman Newlands Presiding--Masterly Address of Silver Republicans.

Two National Conventions.

St. Louis, July 22.—The day for the opening of the two national conventions broke clear and bright, in striking contrast with the dark, gloomy, dripping skies of the past two days. The crowds in the corridors of the hotels, where the delegates' headquarters are located, were noisy, but there was a striking absence of brass bands.

Before 10 o'clock the crowds began moving toward the convention halls. The Bryan and the middle-of-the-road factions both claimed victory. The first test of strength was eagerly looked forward to. There was little public interest in the silver convention.

Although the middle-of-the-road men were in the lead at the start, the statement of Senator Butler that he was in favor of Bryan's nomination conditionally, they had not decided up to 9 o'clock this morning whether they would fight his selection as temporary chairman or not.

MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD MEN NOT ORGANIZED.

The middle-of-the-road men have decided to place O. D. Jones, of Missouri, in nomination for temporary chairman against Senator Butler, selected by the national committee.

Mr. Jones is not a delegate, but it is claimed that any man can be chosen chairman.

It is also announced that a definite agreement has been reached to place Paul Vandervoort, of Nebraska, in nomination in opposition to Mr. Bryan.

The middle-of-the-road men are not well organized and have no definite plan of their strength either on the temporary chairmanship or on the nomination of candidates.

SOUTH TEXAS POPULISTS FOR BRYAN.

St. Louis, July 22.—T. M. Patterson, of Colorado, this morning received the following telegram from O. B. Bostall, of Galveston, Texas: "The Populists of south Texas will fight for silver under the banner of Bryan and Sewall. The disciples of Webb Flingman can keep in the middle-of-the-road till dooms day."

Gathering at Convention Hall.

St. Louis, July 22.—The hall in which the Populists met is the same in which the national Republican convention met. The decorations are practically the same as those of the Republican convention. The delegates began straggling in before 10 o'clock, but the spectators were slow in arriving. When the pit was half filled there were not 200 people in the galleries.

Among the first to arrive were the Kansas delegation with long yellow ribbons on their hats and sunflowers in their laps.

Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, his good-humored face beaming, came in early and talked with Sergeant-at-Arms McDowell.

Congressman Howard, of Alabama, who wrote "If Christ Came to Congress," was a striking figure in his delegation. Gen. Cope and his son-in-law, Carl Brown, came in together with their wives. Mrs. Cope bore her young son, whom Col. Cope christened "Legal Tender."

DELEGATES SEED THEIR COATS.

As the air in the hall grew oppressive, the delegates did not hesitate to shed their coats. Many wore negligee shirts and some neither collar nor cravat.

The band kept up a continuous fusillade of popular airs, but not one wrung a round of applause from the delegates. When an assistant sergeant-at-arms hung a portrait of Lincoln over the front galleries, the delegates gave three cheers. The foe being thus broken they began to be more demonstrative and cheered the band's rendition of "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

There were several women delegates on the floor. Among them were Mrs. J. O. A. Bush, of Prescott, Ark., and Mrs. Jennie Bathford and Mrs. E. S. of Colorado.

The Texas delegation grew demonstrative when a woman posed with a middle-of-the-road streamer pinned to her gown and cheered wildly. She waved her handkerchief frantically and the enthusiastic Texans crowded about to shake her hand. She proved to be Mrs. Jones, of Chicago.

TEXAS EXTREMISTS.

A Lone Star state delegate mounted a chair and read telegrams from the Texas Populists admonishing them to keep in the middle-of-the-road, and bolt if necessary.

Stuart Ashley, one of the delegates, made a speech and it looked as if Texas intended to hold a convention all by herself.

Paul Vandervoort, prominent as a candidate of the middle-of-the-road men, for president, took a seat on the platform.

The Mississippi delegation marched down the aisle with banners bearing the slogan "no compromise." There was an answering yell of joy from the Texas delegation.

Gen. Weaver moved over to the Texas delegation and made a short speech in favor of holding the sessions behind closed doors, but the Texans said it was impracticable.

The middle-of-the-road leaders, after conferring, decided not to make an organized fight against the election of Senator Butler as temporary chairman.

FORMALLY CALLED TO ORDER.

At 12:30, Chairman Taubeneck called the Populist convention to order. The Illinois men rose and cheered.

Rev. W. L. Smith, a Baptist, delivered the invocation. The delegates stood reverently as he appealed to God to drive out all sectionalism from the deliberations of the convention.

The chairman introduced Gov. Stone, of Missouri, to make the welcoming address. His welcome was most cordial and was couched in choice words.

He ventured upon a few general remarks upon the propriety of freedom of opinion, press, speech and ballot, which must, he said, amid applause, be preserved at all hazards.

He expressed the hope that the time would soon come when the national flag would be the emblem not only of national unity but national prosperity.

While Gov. Stone was speaking the Texas delegation raised an immense national flag.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY RESPONDS.

Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, responded to Stone's speech. Donnelly spoke gracefully, paying a high compliment to St. Louis and the vast country tributary to it, but avoiding adroitly any allusion to the subjects upon which the delegates were divided.

The movement this convention represented, he said, was the growth of the farm, conceived in the distress that prevailed among the producers. He declared that the spirit of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and the "angels of Lincoln" were floating above this convention. The delegates cheered lustily.

"God save the people," said he, "upon that we stand. We are devoted to their cause. Let us never forget in our work that we are a band of brothers, waging war against the enemies of mankind. We must stand together whatever we do."

He went on, while the middle-of-the-roads shouted, "The People's party won't die. It needs to live."

Mrs. Mary Ellen Leaso, of Kansas, got a demonstration as she ascended the stage just before Chairman Taubeneck introduced Senator Butler as temporary chairman.

SENATOR BUTLER INTRODUCED.

In introducing Senator Butler, Mr. Taubeneck said that he had been selected by the national committee without a dissenting vote and he added the belief that the convention would act with as great unanimity. Three cheers were then given for the young senator.

"We are here," said Senator Butler, "because there is need for us to be here."

The national parties that have held charge of the government for twenty-five years have brought the country to the verge of bankruptcy. He referred to McKinley as the candidate of "aggregated capital and combined greed." He declared that both of the old parties had for years fought sham battles. No matter where victory lay, Wall street and Lombard street had grown steadily. They had at last torn the mask from the old parties. The Republican party had been forced to align itself with the

and Europe. The Democratic party was no frightened thing in its desperation. It had finally committed grand and petty larceny, "stole our platform and tried to steal into our party."

This statement set the convention wild. "If the People's party should abandon its organization," said he, "the Democratic party at its next national convention would repudiate the platform adopted at Chicago and Bryan would not have any more chance of being nominated than Thomas Jefferson would if he were alive to-day."

"Shall we save our party or allow it to go down in defeat?" he asked. "Shall it be said that this great band of patriots, who have broken all party ties, allowed themselves to be controlled more by prejudice than by patriotism?"

Oris, "no, no," answered the question.

FAITH IN THE PARTY.

As for himself he had enough faith in the integrity of the party to feel convinced that the party would not make itself an annex to the Democratic party. This statement gave the middle-of-the-roads a chance to cheer.

The Bryan followers were afforded an opportunity to shout when he added that there was grave danger that it might be made a Republican annex.

"Let us find the truth in the middle way," he said. This was the key-note of the senator's speech, but there was no special applause at this evident suggestion of a compromise.

"If this convention," he shouted passionately, "does not follow its own teachings, it is unworthy to represent the people."

"Hurray for Bryan," cried an Alabama delegate. "Put him out," yelled several Texas delegates.

"What shall we do?" asked Butler.

A PATRIOTIC ANSWER.

"Nominate Bryan," replied the same Alabama delegate.

"Shut up," "put him out," cried several hundred voices.

"Is he a Democrat," called out some one.

"Yes," "no," were intermingled cries, while others continued to shout, "put him out."

Butler, after waving his arms appealingly to secure quiet, said that "whom the gods wished to destroy they first made mad."

"I have been down among the countless farmers of my state and I know what I say is true," said Butler. "They expect us to rise to the level of patriotism and travel in the path of conscience."

He believed the convention was going to do what was wisest, and added: "We shall stand together, go away united, strip our coats for the fray and be prepared for any emergency, however great."

Butler closed amid vigorous applause. The states were called for members of committee on credentials.

The convention, at 2:10, took a recess until 8 o'clock to-night.

National Silver Convention.

St. Louis, July 22.—The delegates to the National Silver organization were slow in assembling at Grand music hall and there were not enough visitors to fill the galleries when J. M. Jett, chairman of the national committee, called the convention to order about 12 o'clock.

Prayer was offered, after which Miss Lillie S. Pierce, of this city, read the declaration of independence. This caused an outburst of applause.

When the call for the convention had been read, Francis G. Newlands, of Nevada, was introduced by Chairman Mott as temporary chairman. The galleries were almost vacant but the delegates gave him a hearty reception. He made a strong speech defining the issues of the campaign, arguing in favor of the free coinage of silver, enjoining the nominee of the Democratic convention for president and appealing for union of all the forces favorable to silver.

ROLL OF STATES CALLED.

When the temporary chairman finished speaking, the roll was called by states to get the names of the committee on credentials.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

St. Louis.—At a caucus of the silver organization delegates to-day, the following committee was appointed to confer with the Populists with a view of solidifying the forces: G. A. Baker, of California; D. F. Keith, of North Carolina; Judge Scott, of California; W. H. Standish, of North Dakota; Geo. Turner, of Massachusetts; S. F. Keith, of North Carolina; and C. A. Turner, of Minnesota.

TELLER'S TIMELY TELEGRAM.

The following telegram was received from Senator Teller: "I am at the Southern hotel, St. Louis. The money question overshadows all others. On its right determination depends the prosperity of the people and the perpetuity of republican institutions. All other questions must be subordinated to it. A vote for Bryan and Sewall is a vote for the industrial and financial independence of the American people from foreign domination and control and they should have the support of all opponents of the gold standard."

The convention took a recess until 4:30 p. m.

Republican Silver Senators.

Denver, July 22.—Silver leaders of the Republican party have sounded the first slogan of the campaign in an address to the voters of the country. Republicans of Minnesota, Montana, Colorado and Idaho have announced by their representatives in the Congress of the United States that they at least will no longer wear the yoke of the gold power.

No more patriotic address has been given the American people since that framed by Thomas Jefferson 120 years ago. It places a great principle above the selfishness of a political organization, emphasizes the paramount and irrepressible conflict of the masses against a class, and calls upon all citizens to come to the defense of the honest money of the constitution.

The address is signed by Henry M. Teller, senator from Colorado; Lee Mantle, senator from Montana; Fred K. Dubois, senator from Idaho; Charles S. Hartman, congressman from Montana; Edgar Wilson, congressman from Idaho; John F. Shafroth, congressman from Colorado; Charles A. Towne, congressman from Minnesota; and Mr. Stevens, representing the delegates from Colorado who walked from the Republican convention. In addition to those signing the address Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, and Senator Cannon, of Utah, are declared to be in sympathy with it although Senator Cannon was present at the conference, owing to business engagements. The address follows:

A STRONG DOCUMENT.

"We deem it fitting that we who have heretofore affiliated with the national Republican party and who have rejected the financial plank of the platform adopted at St. Louis and refused to support the nominees of the convention should state our position in the presidential campaign and give briefly our reasons in support thereof."

"When certain delegates to the national Republican convention repudiated the financial plank of the platform and withdrew from the convention, we determined we would give our support to such candidates as should appear most willing and capable of siding in the restoration of silver to its rightful place as standard money."

"The Democratic party in the Chicago convention has taken a position in its platform so pronouncedly favorable to silver and nominated candidates of such unquestionable convictions in favor of the bimetallic policy and of such high personal character that we have determined to give them our support. We support such candidates because they represent the great principle of the restoration of silver to its rightful place as standard money."

"We therefore announce that we shall by votes and vote."

SUPPORT MEMBERS, BRYAN AND SEWALL

for president and vice-president, and appeal to all citizens and especially Republicans who feel as we do that gold mon-metallism would be a lasting injury to the country, to act with us in securing their election.

"Democrats who believe in the gold standard are announcing their intention to support McKinley or proposing to put a third candidate in the field for the second purpose of aiding McKinley's election. A great number of leading Democratic journals have declared that they will support the Republican nominees. It is evident that there is to be a union of forces on the part of the advocates and supporters of the gold standard."

"There is but one course to pursue and that is to unite all the silver forces and oppose with all our might the candidate representing the policy which we believe is fraught with disaster to the nation and ruin to the people."

"Gold monometallism means the shifting of gold alone, the primary money, all the burdens of commerce and the credit formerly borne by gold and silver, and as the world's stock of these metals has always been about even in amount it means the doubling of the burden upon gold. Doubling the burden upon gold means DOUBTLING THE DEMAND FOR THE SAME, and doubling the demand of necessity doubles the value thereof. This gradual shifting of gold to the primary money of both gold and silver has caused a gradual and steady increase in the value of every dollar redeemable in gold, and hence a gradual and steady decline in the value of every commodity that is measured by that dollar."

"Representatives and supporters of McKinley consented to the insertion in the St. Louis platform of a gold standard declaration thinly veiled by a declaration of commercial union of the world should consent, but until that consent was secured the gold standard must be maintained. It is well known that this consent cannot be secured from Great Britain, and that such a declaration for metalism means nothing with this limitation upon it. McKinley consented to the declaration for a gold standard in the platform, and in his recent speech has maintained that and become an advocate thereof; he has shown by his speeches heretofore made that he understood the danger of the gold standard and the distress which would be inflicted upon the American people by its adoption, and yet he has pledged the people to support and maintain that standard."

"It is well known that he has fastened upon them all the evils of a financial system which he has heretofore repudiated, if they will make him president. Whatever may have been his attitude on the money question in the past he must inevitably hereafter support the same financial system that the present Democratic administration has and if elected he must continue the policy of Cleveland in the sale of bonds in time of peace. Hence with the success of McKinley we may look for a continued increase of the public debt and the sale of bonds

TO MAINTAIN THE GOLD STANDARD.

"That the condition of the country is not satisfactory, we all admit. Producers of wealth are not receiving fair and proper compensation for their labor, whether in the field, factory or mine; enterprise has ceased; values are constantly declining; labor is unemployed; DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
ARTHUR SEWALL,
OF MAINE.

Our old friend, The War Scare in Europe, is looming up again.

SECRETARY HORE SMITH's newspaper, the Atlanta Journal, is on the right side of the political fence at last.

THE New York city national bank have again agreed to "protect" the government treasury's gold reserve. God help the taxpayer, and do it quick.

AGAIN we repeat, the Las Vegas Optic has grossly misquoted the Democratic national platform, and designedly, too. The circumstance merely tends to show how badly scared are the Catron-McKinley organs.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL H. N. BATCHELDER, quartermaster-general U. S. army, retires for age on the 27th inst. He will be succeeded by Brevet Brigadier-General Judson D. Bingham, colonel and assistant quartermaster-general.

In all kindness, we call the Roswell Record's attention to the fact that what Mr. Bryan said was this: "You shall not press down upon the brow of labor this crown of thorns. You shall not crucify mankind upon the cross of gold."

HARVEY FISK & SONS, Wall street bankers, dealers in "selected securities," have sent to every newspaper in the land a circular letter inclosing a copy of the New York Sun's editorial endorsing Mc-Kinley and gold. Comment is quite unnecessary.

THE New Mexico silver party convention has heaped fresh honors upon Senator Teller. Formerly he was known as "Colorado's Grand Old Man," but the delegates to this convention go farther and characterize him as "the grand old man of the Rocky mountains." That's so.
The whole west claims Senator Teller.

THERE is no question as to what the American silver unionists will do at St.
Louis to-day. They will endorse Bryan and Sewall unanimously. The Populists will, if signs count for anything, also endorse the Democratic nominees and platform, in spite of Mark Hanna's barrel of powder. Truly, Democratic principles are in the saddle these days.

OBJECT LESSONS IN SIGHT.

The gold reserve is down to $98,000,
000. This is where it was last September, despite the big issues of bonds since that month. Gold men claim that many of the withdrawals are made for hoarding purposes because of the silver agitation.
Silver men claim that a financial policy whose credit has to be maintained by going deeper into debt is no good. The administration is determined to keep up the gold reserve, and another issue of bonds may be ordered as early as September. The campaign of education progresses. Some tremendous object lessons may be presented during the next four months.

THE "ISSUE" AGAIN.

Our Republican brethren do not apparently agree on the "great issue" question. "The tariff is the only issue," screaches the Albuquerque Citizen. The Silver City Enterprise, Lordsburg Liberal, Chloride Black Range and other Republican organs emphatically deny this,

and even the Optic takes issue with the Citizen. It declares: "The currency question is the vital one in this republic, and so much hangs upon it, that if two more gold presidents could be elected, and nothing done for the masses of the people, the republic itself would pass away in the smoke of a civil war, because the condition of the producing millions of this country is little less than desperate." The Optic, then, doesn't think much of the Republican platform.

A STRONG SENTIMENT.

Manifestly the silver Republicans of Kansas know precisely "where they are at." They positively decline to support McKinley for president because he is running on an un-Republican gold platform and just as positively declare in favor of Bryan for president because they "stand for a dollar as honest as the constitution" and do not believe that clause five, section eight, article one of the federal constitution should be amended to read as follows:
"Congress shall have power to coin money and regulate the value thereof by and with the consent of the leading commercial nations of the world." This terse declaration breathes the true American spirit and is destined to be blazoned upon thousands of banners and transparencies before the campaign closes.

PRESS COMMENT.

Tom Burns the Man.

There is said to be a contingent of Republicans in Santa Fe county that desires to push Thomas D. Burns, of Rio Arriba county, for the congressional nomination.
However, the Bee does not take much stock in the story.—San Marcial Bee.
There may be more significance in the "story" than you think—indeed, it is understood, up this way, that Delegate Cat-ron himself declared at St. Louis that he would support Mr. Burns for the delegaship. Burns is an excellent man and would be a popular candidate at the present crisis in the financial affairs of the nation, even though he be an ardent advocate of the rights and privileges of the white metal.—Las Vegas Optic.

Result of McKinleyism.

That there is ground for the discontent that is abroad in the land no observer of conditions and merits can honestly deny.
We have, within the past thirty years, seen private fortunes multiply with a rapidity never before known in the history of the world, and, during the same period, we have seen the masses grow gradually poorer. It is our national honest that the aggregate wealth of the country increased from $16,000,000,000, in 1860, to $164,000,000,000 in 1890; but during the same period the per centage of our population owning their own homes diminished from 70 per cent, in 1860, to less than 25 per cent in 1890. We have seen the volume of circulating medium increase from $13 per capita, in 1860, to $25, in 1890; yet, every intelligent citizen knows that "the hewers of wood and drawers of water" have less money per head now than they had when the Catholic chief justice administered the oath of office to the lamented Lincoln.—

NEW MEXICAN PRINTING COMPANY.

The PECOS VALLEY of . . . NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.

The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world.

Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.

The cultivation of canebrake—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.

The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.

Land with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant and at times rapid, increase in value.

The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Fells section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

OJO CALIENTE

(HOT SPRINGS.)

THESE Celebrated Hot Springs are located in the midst of the Ancient Rio Grande, twenty-five miles west of Las Alamos, and fifty miles north of Santa Fe, and about twelve miles from the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, from which point a daily line of stages runs to the Springs. The temperature of these waters is from 102° to 125°. The cases are carbonic. Altitude 5,000 feet. Climate very dry and delightful the year round. There is now a commodious hotel for the convenience of invalids and tourists. These waters contain 108.24 grains of alkaline salts to the gallon; being the richest Alkaline Hot Springs in the world. The efficacy of these waters has been thoroughly tested by the numerous cures attested to in the following diseases: Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Consumption, Malaria, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Syphilis, and Venereal Affections, Scrofula, Catarrh, La Grippe, all Female Complaints, etc., etc. Board, Lodging and Bathing, $2.50 per day. SANITARIUM NOTES.

Mother Mary Blanche Re-elected Superior of Sisters of Charity—Re-elected as Assisting Superior of St. Vincent Sanitarium—Here—Debris Removed—Personal.

A telegram from Sister Victoria, dated Cincinnati, conveys the pleasing information that Mother Mary Blanche has been re-elected mother superior of the Sisters of Charity for another term of four years. Mother Mary Blanche has visited Santa Fe and is known to be personally friendly to this city. Her re-election is regarded as certain to result in the rebuilding of St. Vincent sanitarium here on a larger scale than before.

Through Dr. Sloan the board of trade has been footing the expense of moving the debris from the Sisters' sanitarium. The work is now about finished at a total cost of $250, all of which has been paid save some $42. The board of trade's special committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon and decided to raise this balance by private subscription. It is thought that the new sanitarium will be under way in a very short time.

Miss Grace Woodward, of St. Louis, is a late arrival at the sanitarium. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernst.

Mrs. Smith McPherson, of Red Oak, Iowa, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Garber, at the sanitarium. Mr. McPherson is attorney for the Burlington system at Red Oak and was permanent chairman of the recent Republican state convention in Iowa.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Regular Session Disposed of at the Adjourned Regular Meeting Last Night—Condition of City Bridges.

The city council met in adjourned regular session last night with Mayor Delgado in the chair and Aldermen Baos, Garcia, Harroun, Hemingway, Holmes, Sosa and Wagner present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The following accounts, favorably reported by the finance committee, were allowed:

C. W. Dwyer, lumber, $34.28
Wm. Holander, repairs, 3.10
Ed. Krumpel, work, 2.50
Joe Martinez, labor, 3.00
W. P. Cunningham, feeding prisoners, 47.30
Water & Improvement Company, 168.67
J. Harrison, labor, 1.25
J. T. Sandoval, janitor, 5.00
A. Sandoval, killing dogs, 8.00
M. Rivera, dog catcher, 3.00
Paul Wunscheimann, insurance, 67.50

The mayor suggested that the board of sand, foolishly placed upon the bridges in the city, should be at once removed.

This brought Dr. Harroun to his feet with the statement that, in his opinion, the Galisteo street bridge was unsafe.

Mr. Wagner agreed with the view of Dr. Harroun and moved that the marshal be instructed to close the Galisteo street bridge until it was repaired and rendered safe for vehicles.

Mr. Garcia thought that the matter of removing the sand from the bridges and closing Galisteo street bridge for repairs should be referred to the committee on streets and bridges with power to act.

After some discussion this suggestion was adopted.

Adelaida Cienfuegos presented some unauthenticated charges against the city marshal, which were promptly tabled.

The council then adjourned.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Conditions During the Past Week Were Very Favorable to Growing Crops and Especially Beneficial to Stock Ranges.

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, Weather Bureau.
Santa Fe, N. M., July 21, 1896.

The week ending July 20 was a fine growing week throughout the territory generally.

Frequent showers and steady soaking rains were the order of the day with moderately cool, cloudy, or partly cloudy weather.

These conditions were very favorable to all growing crops and especially beneficial to the stock ranges.

Alfalfa made a rank growth during the week and corn could not have done better.

Garden truck has advanced wonderfully, but the growth of weeds has occupied the attention of gardeners to quite an extent.

Early peaches are beginning to ripen in the northern part and in some localities a good crop will be secured.

The stock ranges have made a wonderful improvement during the week and feed and water are generally abundant.

The following extracts from a few of the reports received at this office will be found of interest:

Albuquerque—A. Montoya, jr.—It has rained almost daily this week, so much so that farm work is at a standstill. Some damage done to wheat and to alfalfa that was not laid. Rainfall 1.19 inches.

Bernalillo—Brother Gabriel—Greater part of the week cloudy, nevertheless not a great amount of rain. Crops in general doing well, wheat nearly all out. Second crop of alfalfa very satisfactory and cutting well advanced. Grape vines fair, apples locally injured by worms. Ranges considerably improved during the past few weeks. Vegetable gardens in pretty good condition generally.

Bluewater—Col. J. S. Van Doren—Warm rains during the week with comparatively little wind. Alfalfa stands well for second cutting. Wheat nearly ready for harvest when out for hay. Corn never better and pasture grasses show improvement.

Gallinas Spring—J. E. Whitmore—Fine weather for growing crops. Total rainfall for the week 1.11 inches. Rained more or less every day but one.

Las Cruces—Fahian Garcia—The first part of the week was clear and uniformly warm; the last three days it was cloudy a great deal of the time. On the 18th was a heavy shower amounting to 1.08 inches, which will undoubtedly do a great deal of good to the growing crops.

Las Vegas—Dr. F. H. Atkins—The week being cool and not too dry crops have advanced fairly. Second crop of alfalfa will be full.

Lower Pecos—H. von Basse—The weather of past week has been very favorable for advancement of crops. Corn is tasseling and silking and a few roasting ears are putting in an appearance. Alfalfa is growing nicely. The ranges are covered with a nice coat of grass and it is needing more rain. There must have been considerable rainfall above here, to judge from different rises of the Pecos. Stock are looking well.

Oente—E. M. Cosner—This has been another week of good growing weather. Rain, partly cloudy weather with frequent showers have prevailed and everything is growing rapidly.

Rincon—C. H. Ruitt—This week has been exceedingly favorable for late crops and the range is very fine. The wheat, though light, will be well taken care of and very little lost. The rains in the vicinity have been heavier than at this point.

Santa Fe—U. S. Weather Bureau—Rainfall above the normal, and temperature below. Frequent showers and steady soaking rains. All growing crops have made excellent advancement. Early peaches are ripening and a good crop will be marketed. Apples will be light crop, but much better than was expected.

Springer—D. J. Hines—Several fine showers. Range is looking green. Crops looking well considering drought in early part of season. First crop of alfalfa harvested.

Valley Ranch—H. M. Strong—And still it rains. All things are growing nicely. If there was a little more sunshine they would do better. On the 12th we had two inches of hail; the damage to growing crops was slight, the only thing suffering was the corn. Rainfall for the week, 2.68 inches.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Santa Fe lodge, K. of P., will meet this evening at 8 o'clock for work in the degrees.

U. S. weather bureau forecast for New Mexico: Generally fair to-night and Thursday.

There are a whole lot of good things in store for Santa Fe. There are a handful of hustlers in this town who never quit.

A fine lot of white cedar poles for the Western Union company's call bell service were brought in from Colorado today over the narrow gauge.

Santa Fe's Billy Clark caught a winning ball game with the Baltimore team at Cincinnati on Sunday last in the presence of 24,000 spectators. They all cheered him, too.

President E. T. Jeffrey, of the D. & R. G. road, spent yesterday at Alamosa and was at Creede last night. It is probable that he may visit Santa Fe late this afternoon or to-morrow.

In the absence of Judge Smith, Judge N. B. Langhlin, of Santa Fe, has signed a decree of court granting Minnie Parks and Millie Crane divorces from their respective liege lords, George Parks and John B. Crane, of Colfax county.

Santa Fe fruit growers began picking peaches yesterday. The fruit is not so large this year as usual, but it is of good flavor and in most of the orchards the trees are well filled. Shipments to Colorado points will be made daily throughout the season.

Gen. Wharton spent last Sunday morning in Albuquerque. The Democrat says: Gen. Wharton, it is understood, came here at the request of the department at Washington, and from his conversation it was inferred that some one of the sites offered would be satisfactory in every respect for the establishment of a new military post.

Merchant Yates has been trying to get a supply of Bryan and Sewall buttons from New York. He forwarded his order ten minutes after word of Bryan's nomination came to hand, but the demand for such buttons has been so great that orders could not be filled. Instead the New York firm sent Mr. Yates a supply of McKinley buttons. These were packed up and sent back to-day with the announcement that only Bryan and Sewall buttons would sell in the west.
