BRYAN WILL BE INDORSED

The Middle-of-the-Road Faction in Populist National Convention is in a Minority---
A Good Deal of Grumbling.

LOYAL FRIENDS OF SILVER PREDOMINATE

Hanna's Gold Has Been Squandered in St. Louis--Senator Allen, of Nebraska, Will Be Permanent Chairman of Populist Convention.

GEN. WEAVER CHAIRMAN OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Both of These Selections Are Substantial Victories for Sincere Supporters of Silver as Represented by Bryan and Sewall--
Influence of National Silver Convention All Exerted on the Right Side--Bryan Wisely Declines to Make Compromising Promises.

The Populists at Work.

St. Louis, July 23.--A heavy rain storm out of the electric lights in the Populist convention hall last night and the convention took a recess to 10 a. m. to-day.

NATHAN BE RIGHT THAN PRESIDENT.

Arrivals from Lincoln report that Bryan positively declines to make any concessions or pledges for Populist support. He tells all that he is not indifferent to the indorsement of the Populist convention, but he believes he will be elected whether he is made the express object of the regard of the convention or not, and adds that as he was nominated by the Democrats without making any pledges or promises he can not and will not make any pledge to secure nomination or even to secure his election at the hands of the Populists.

AS STEWART SEES IT.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, favors the nomination of both Bryan and Sewall by the Populist convention. He says that in his opinion that is what will be done. "It is a little early," he said, "to make predictions as to the outcome, but as the situation now stands I believe the convention will nominate Bryan and Sewall." "Do you think there will be a bolt?" "There may be. No one can tell. Some of the radical middle-of-the-road men say they will not stand an indorsement of Bryan or his nomination. If they do bolt and a third ticket is placed in the field it means the death of the Populist party. Whether the convention nominates or indorses Bryan or not, two-thirds of the vote of the party will be cast for him. The other third will be cast for a third ticket, if one is nominated, or else will be cast with the Republican party, but I believe the silver men will hang together regardless of party, and if they do we will carry the country."

Middle-of-the-Roaders Discouraged.
St. Louis, July 23.--The middle-of-the-road Populists, at least the leaders, appeared to realize this morning that they could not control the situation. Although the rank and file still cried for absolutely independent action, most of the leaders were talking compromise on the basis of a Populist vice-presidential nomination and a division of the electors. They have made many mistakes, but perhaps none will prove more costly than the ignominious dumping of Ignatius Donnelly, whom they had selected as their candidate for permanent chairman, for Campion, of Maine, who is bitterly opposed to Sewall. The middle-of-the-road meeting, scheduled for convention hall at 8:30 a. m., did not materialize.

ARMED AND AT CONVENTION HALL.
The Populists began assembling in convention hall shortly after 9 o'clock a. m. It was extremely hot. Delegates with their coats slung over their arms stood about discussing the situation. The middle-of-the-road fellows could be heard vociferating everywhere above the music of the band. The Texas delegation contains some of the most uncompromising men in the convention and they are mad at the prospect of being balked in their party.

At 10 o'clock, Senator Butler, the temporary chairman, called the convention to order. Rev. Mr. Smith offered an invocation for blessings upon our common country. The report of the committee on credentials was called for, but no one responded.

The states were called for members of the committee on permanent organization and on resolutions.

MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD BANNER.
A squad of middle-of-the-roads, headed by Delegate Branch, of Georgia, suddenly plunged into the hall through the main entrance and came whooping down the center aisle. Branch bore aloft a big white banner with the inscription: "Middle-of-the-road--a straight ticket."

At the sight of this banner the Texas, Georgia, Maine, Missouri and Mississippi delegations mounted chairs and yelled at the top of their voices. Clarence E. Homily, of Omaha, regaled the convention with campaign songs, which tickled the delegates immensely. "Miss Pennington," the sweet campaign singer, of Arkansas, sang in a pleasant soprano, a parody on "Yankee Doodle Dandy," each verse of which concluded: "Yankee Doodle, get your gun, shoot the goldbugs everyone, Yankee Doodle Dandy."

HANNA'S HELPERS OBJECTED.
Delegate Crawford, of Kansas, moved that the delegates of the silver convention be admitted on the exhibition of their badges. There were many cries of "no," "no," from the middle-of-the-roads. Sergeant-at-Arms McDowell said it was impossible to carry out such instructions.

Chairman Butler, amid howls of delight from the straight-outs, ruled the motion out of order. Mr. Washburn, of Massachusetts, announced that he had an important resolution to offer. It was as follows: "Whereas, We are all Populists and deprecate the talk which has appeared in some newspapers that there is a disposition on the part of any portion of this convention to refuse to abide by the action of this convention; therefore Resolved, That we repudiate all such utterances as reflect on the fidelity of the members of this convention and the People's party."

Mr. Washburn said that the question of preserving the organization of this "grand party" was vital, and called for full discussion. A storm of protests came from the middle-of-the-roads.

At 12:45, a recess was taken until 2 p. m. MAJORITY FOR SENATOR ALLEN.
St. Louis.--A majority of the Populist committee on permanent organization has selected William V. Allen, of Nebraska, as permanent chairman. The minority has decided to make two reports, one for Campion, of Maine, and the other for Butler, if he will allow his name to be used.

PATTERSON DELEGATION SEATED.
3:35 p. m.--The credentials committee recommends in the Illinois contest that both delegates be seated and be given a half vote each. A minority report will be submitted. In Colorado, the Patterson delegation was seated. Mr. Patterson then moved the consideration of contests in alphabetical order of states.

WEAVER IS FOR BRYAN.
St. Louis.--The members of the Populist committee on platform met at a hotel to-day immediately after their appointment. Gen. J. B. Weaver, of Iowa, was elected chairman over Hon. Jerome Kirby, of Texas.

Gen. Weaver said he was for the principles of the party first and for party autonomy next, but he desired it understood that he did not propose to give up either.

The committee decided upon the appointment of five sub-committees of five each on preamble, finance, transportation, land and direct legislation and authorized the chairman to make selections.

BRYAN WILL BE INDORSED.
4 p. m.--The election of Gen. Weaver, of Iowa, to be chairman of the committee on resolutions, defeating Kirby, created a tremendous enthusiasm among the advocates of principle who desire to see the Democratic nominees indorsed by the convention. It is now no longer regarded as at all doubtful but that the radical middle-of-the-road element, upon whom Hanna's agents have been working, are in the minority, and it is safe to say that the convention will give Bryan and Sewall a hearty indorsement.

INDIAN TERRITORY GOVERNMENT.
St. Louis.--W. R. Lamb, of Texas, has prepared a resolution, which he will offer to the platform committee, demanding that the present government of the Indian territory be abolished, that the lands be subdivided and disposed of, and that steps be taken to organize the five civilized tribes into a state government.

THE NATIONAL SILVERMEN.
Second Day of Great Silver National Convention at St. Louis.
St. Louis, July 23.--The National Silver organization reconvened at 4:30 yesterday afternoon. A motion to admit delegates to the Populist convention to the hall without tickets was carried. Committee reports were presented and W. P. St. John, of New York, recently deposed as a national bank president because of his views on free coinage, was elected permanent chairman. His name provoked the greatest enthusiasm. Mr. St. John responded with a stirring speech. After much discussion a motion prevailed to appoint a committee to confer with a similar committee from the Populist convention. This committee was made up of one member from each state and territory and after the roll call the convention adjourned to 10 a. m. to-day.

Second Day of Silver Convention.

St. Louis, July 23.--When Chairman St. John called the silver convention to order, he said he was sorry to announce that Rev. Dr. Nicholls, who was to open the convention with prayer, had been called from the city.

Congressman Nowlands moved that a committee on ways and means be appointed to raise funds to defray the expenses of the convention.

Charles A. Towne, vice-chairman, was introduced. He said that the press of the country had apparently forgotten its sacred duty and become the plant tool of monopolies. Money was the god it worshipped. But the day of regeneration was at hand. History was being made to-day. The people had been lax, but had determined to manage their own affairs. They had suffered grievously at the hands of monopolies and trusts, but hereafter would look after their own affairs. He denounced the perniciousness of the present money system. The delegates cheered long and loud.

WOULD RUIN THE MARKS.
The single gold standard, he continued, would ruin the masses of the people. In November they would relegate the party of monopolies to oblivion and put in power men who had the interests of the people at heart.

The speaker referred to the bolt of Senator Teller from the Republican convention and spoke of the heroism and patriotism of the Colorado senator to the delight of the delegates. Next he referred to the nomination of Bryan, who was born the year of the election of Lincoln. He eulogized the Democratic candidate in glowing terms. This evoked the biggest demonstration which has thus far characterized the convention.

When the free silver party got control of the government, Mr. Towne said, robbery and theft for the benefit of idleness would cease. Three months ago a man who would have dared to predict that free silver would win in the coming election would have been set down as an imbecile. Now

THE MOVEMENT HAD GROWN to such proportions that victory was not only possible, but certain if the silver forces united. Sacrifices must be made on all sides. Factions must all unite.

There was uproarious cheering by the delegates when Mr. Towne ended. Ex-Gov. St. John was then called upon to speak. He told how corn was worth 10 cents a bushel, and 8 cents and potatoes 6 cents a bushel in Minnesota. This was why so many farmers believed in free silver. The cry was that, if free silver was adopted, this country would be made the dumping ground for the silver of the world. The speaker hoped it would not be so. If all the silver in the world was dumped in this country and coined, it would not make $60 per capita, and that was not too much. Should this be done it would ruin the most prosperous country in the world.

AN INDIAN WOMAN'S IMPROVISE.
After Gov. St. John, Mrs. Helen M. Gouger, of Indiana, made a speech denouncing the goldbug monopolists, "Wall street placators," and English bond sharks, and said that the only salvation of the people from serfdom was to declare for the free coinage of silver.

She denounced McKinley and the platform on which he stood. The romping and the anarchists she said were with McKinley. So were the "shivers of Wall street."

As Mrs. Gouger concluded she called upon the band to play "American" and the delegates to join in singing same, which they did.

A CONNECTICUT DELEGATE TALKS.
At the request of the Connecticut delegation, Judge Joseph Seidus was given the stand. His remarks were a review of foreign trade relations as affected by the silver issue.

R. A. Cole, of Milwaukee, said that, while he had the greatest respect for Mrs. Gouger, he did not think it wise to take up the cry of prohibition. To denounce the brewing interest would be to lose strength among the Germans.

The convention took a recess till 2:30 p. m. Bryan on a Nominee's Duty.
Haverhill, July 23.--The Gazette publishes a letter written to Daniel B. Kelley, of this city, by Hon. William J. Bryan, some time previous to his nomination. The letter was regarding the duty of a nominee to his party and its platform, and is as follows:

You may quote me as saying, in regard to the relation of a president to his party, the president, like any other public officer, is a public servant, and it is his duty to carry out the principles laid down in the platform upon which he was elected and taught by the party of which he was a member. The president is not selected as a school teacher to instruct his party, nor is he chosen because those who choose him are not able to think for themselves. He is chosen by those who think as he does, to carry out, in legislation and in the executive departments of the government, the political principles for which the party stands.

In the distribution of patronage he is in duty bound to recognize all elements of his party, in so far as he recognizes the party at all. To discriminate against a portion of the party which helped elect him is as indefensible as it would be to appoint members of another party to offices to which the party is entitled. The phrase, "A public office is a public trust," includes it all, because the president is simply a trustee selected for a limited time to perform a certain duty.

A NOTABLE ENTERPRISE.

Rio Grande Irrigation & Land Company About Ready to Begin Its Stupendous Work in New Mexico.

As the readers of the New Mexican have previously been advised, the Rio Grande Irrigation & Land company, limited, has been organized and incorporated in England with a capital stock of £500,000 and enough of the preferred shares have already been disposed of to enable the company to begin early operations. Indeed, it is understood that a ship-load of cement is now en route from England to be used in the company's proposed dam. Speaking of this enterprise the London Financial Post says editorially:

"One of the most stupendous and promising undertakings of the day is the damming of the Rio Grande, the Nile of America, in New Mexico, U. S. A., by which nearly 1,000,000 acres of fertile alluvial land, now barren and unproductive will be brought into cultivation and utilized for the comfort and sustenance of man. The Rio Grande Irrigation & Land company, limited, with a capital of £500,000, divided into 100,000 8 per cent cumulative preference shares of £1 each, and 400,000 ordinary £1 shares, has been incorporated to carry this out."

"The company has acquired the right to impound and control the waters of the Rio Grande for irrigation and other purposes, and a solid masonry dam (stone and concrete) will be put in at Elephant Butte, where the river by the erosion of countless ages has cut a narrow channel through a sandstone mountain. The dam will be ninety-six feet high and 300 feet in length, and will create, it is said, the largest artificial lake in the world, which will give the company control of the whole of the irrigation of what is now stated to be the finest fruit and vineyard growing district in the United States."

"Over 50,000 acres have been already brought under ditch and cultivation along the river, and as soon as the storage dam and canal are completed, nearly 1,000,000 acres can be irrigated."

"In controlling the only possible source of water supply the company should have complete monopoly of a commodity absolutely essential to the life of a prosperous and rapidly growing community--compulsory consumers--without the possibility of competition."

"Judging by what has been accomplished within the last nine or ten years in California, and in view of the rapidly increasing demand for irrigable lands in the Rio Grande valley, the estimate as to profit and revenue set forth in the company's prospectus appears to be conservative. A water rental of $1.50 (8s.) per acre per annum from the lands already under ditch will alone give the income of over £15,000 per annum, exclusive of the large profits that must accrue to the company from the sale of lands and water rights. When the whole of the irrigation works as at present planned have been carried out, the revenue from water rents alone, it is estimated, will exceed £175,000 a year, even though not more than two-thirds of the lands under ditch be irrigated in any one year, and an average of £10 per acre for water rights will, it is believed, return the fortunate shareholders about £3,000,000 sterling."

"As the Rio Grande valley has long been considered the El Dorado of agricultural wealth, the company's undertaking is, undoubtedly, most promising."

Nathan E. Boyd, president of the Mesilla Valley Irrigation colony, who is now in England, has been the active promoter of this company from the beginning, and he has succeeded in enlisting in the undertaking some of the strongest investment firms in England. Among the local directors are Hon. W. T. Thornton, governor of New Mexico; Edwin C. Roberts, director of the Rio Grande Dam & Irrigation company; Joshua S. Reynolds, president First National Bank, El Paso, Texas; John M. Vail, director Mesilla Valley Fruit & Vine Growing company, limited; Henry D. Bowman, Bowman & Sons, bankers, Las Cruces, N. M.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

ARTHUR SEWALL,
OF MAINE.

The Republican revolt still goes on. Down in Grant Don Kedzie and even Judge Ginn declare they can't stand Mark Hanna's platform, and that last gold speech of McKinley caused a whole lot of other life long Republicans to slough off and quit the G. O. P.

How have the mighty fallen. There were only twenty-six men and women at the Kansas state prohibition convention which met at Topeka last week. A bigger question than drink is absorbing the Kansas mind this year. It involves bread and human liberty.

VILLIFICATION, scurrility and slander are the weapons employed by the Wall street organs against the Democratic presidential ticket. The puny paper warden in New Mexico which support McKinley eagerly take up the refrain. This is statesmanship and journalism of a class that is expected to appeal to the reason of American voters!

The Las Vegas Optic has served notice on the boys that it may bolt in case the territorial Republican convention indorses the platform of its party. The Albuquerque Citizen declares that, should the territorial Republicans fail to indorse the platform, they will not represent the party at all—so there you are! When such doctors disagree who shall decide? Surely our Republican brethren are in a peck of trouble these bright days.

WHAT ARE WE HERE FOR FLANNIGAN, of Texas, who served as collector of the port at El Paso under the Harrison administration and assisted in the nomination of McKinley and in the adoption of the gold platform at St. Louis in June, not unexpectedly bobs up as one of Hanna's emissaries at the Populist national convention. Of course Flannigan disapproves of the proposition to indorse Bryan and Sewall and is employing such yellow resources as have been placed at his command to encourage the middle-of-the-road faction. Flannigan's influence will only reach the corruptible element among the Populists.

THAT TARIFF PLANK.

An examination of some thirty copies of the Democratic national platform as printed in as many newspapers reveals the fact that there is a very great discrepancy in the language used in the tariff plank. The New Mexican has sought the truth on this subject from Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the National Democratic committee, and as soon as he can be heard from the facts will be given in response to the Las Vegas Optic's cowardly insinuation that this paper has knowingly and designedly undertaken to mislead the people by publishing a garbled and inaccurate copy of the resolutions. In the meantime we decline to accept the Optic's version of the excellent reason that the Optic doesn't know what it is talking about, and is trying to palm off on its readers an emasculated paragraph which does not at all represent the Democratic tariff plank, as framed and adopted at the Chicago convention.

THE MILITARY.

The Gallup Gleaner is surprised that the Albuquerque press should develop so serious a case of the fanatics over the possibility of the abandonment of Fort Wingate and the location of a great military post at Albuquerque. It is, indeed, somewhat strange, especially since no power but congress itself can direct the purchase of land and the erection of post buildings.

Now with Santa Fe it is different. The government owns a fine property here and if the war department so desired it could render this property immediately available for housing the two troops of cavalry now living in tents at Fort Wingate. To rebuild the burned district at Wingate will require time and the expenditure of probably $250,000. Time is the one minor essential, but the cash at this time is a greater one with Uncle Sam. It would, therefore, be good business to send at least two troops of cavalry from Wingate to Fort Marcy for the time being, or until Fort Wingate can be restored to its former state of usefulness.

FEDERAL TREASURY PROTECTORATE.

We breathe easier. We anticipate enjoying eight hours of uninterrupted and peaceful sleep to-night. We at last feel that the grand, branching American republic is safe. The representatives of the foreign banking houses in New York yesterday held a meeting at the Wall street office of J. P. Morgan & Co. and formulated and promulgated a plan to protect the United States treasury gold reserve by "easing the exchange market until the crop movement brings the balance of trade in our favor." This so nearly approaches the battle that it ought at once to be incorporated into the Wall street revision of the Sermon on the Mount. The "representatives of large foreign banking houses" are assuaged with pure, spontaneous and unquenchable love for the United States that they have unselfishly and vicariously decided to form a protectorate for the United States treasury until, forsooth, the horn-handed and despised farmers of the "anarchical west" begin to cash in their cropstgold standard prices and change the balance of trade! Let us all instantly prostrate ourselves and devoutly thank God that we have these blessed self-abnegating "representatives of large foreign banking houses" among us. Otherwise the country would inevitably go to a complete smash as did the "deacon's wonderful one horse shay."

PRESS COMMENT.

Scoring Brer Sheridan.

Keep your eye on the Silver City Enterprise and watch Bro. Jo Sheridan ride the Hanna golding pling and the white horse of prosperity at the same time. Goldbug and free silver emancipation won't mix, Bro. Sheridan, so you better stick to one or the other and quit your straddle business. You can not fight silver's battle and advocate the election of a Republican president on a gold platform. You may think you can, but the people will not take much stock in what you advocate.—Gallup Gleaner.

The Optic Fesses Up.

Why don't the Optic tell us something about those 100 Republicans sloughing from their party to the free silver idea in Las Vegas? Tell the people about it, Russ. We know it up here but the people generally do not. If things keep on as they have begun, Hanna McKinley will not have more than a corporal's guard to support him. Did you hear dat chicken sneeze?—Springer Stockman.

There hasn't been that dropping out of the Republican ranks down this way that people even at a short distance up the road might be led to believe by perhaps designing persons. However, it must be said, in all truth and candor, that the gold plank in the national platform wrangles most keenly in the bosoms of more than a corporal's guard of Republicans in this territory. As a rule, though, they will grin and bear it, at least until it is seen what the territorial Republican convention is going to do about it. Time enough then to turn backs and cold shoulders to the grand old party.—Las Vegas Optic.

NEW MEXICAN PRINTING COMPANY.

The PECOS VALLEY of . . . NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.
The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world.
Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.
The cultivation of canebrake—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.
The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.
Lands with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times rapid, increase in value.
The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Pecos section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

Gun-Shot Wounds.

Major E. A. Garlington was shot through the arm at the battle of "Wounded Knee," December 29, 1890, the last fight between the Indians and our troops. It is not often that a regular army officer certifies to the value of a proprietary remedy, but this is what Major Garlington says about SALVA-CEA:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27, 1895.

"I have used SALVA-CEA for soreness or rheumatic pains in the muscles of my arm, which is disabled from a gun-shot wound involving the elbow joint; relief was quick and complete.

E. A. GARLINGTON,
Major and Inspector General,
U. S. A."

Not many people suffer from gun-shot wounds, to be sure, but lots of us do suffer from piles, local skin irritation, chafings, colds and nasal catarrh, and SALVA-CEA is just as efficacious in all of these as in gun-shot wounds.

Two sizes, 25 and 50 cents per box. At druggists, or by mail.

For deep-seated pain and rheumatism of the joints use SALVA-CEA, "Extra Strong," sold in 10¢ and 25¢ each.

Wherever Malaria Exists.

The bilious are its certain prey. In intermittent and remittent fever, dumb-ague and ague cake, the liver is always seriously affected, and the blood contaminated with bile. One of the chief reasons why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is such a sure defense against chills and fever and every form of malarial disease, is that it does away with liability to the disease, by reforming irregularity of the biliary organs in advance of the arrival of the season when the disease is prevalent. There is no finer fortifying preparation for those about to visit or emigrate to a locality where the malarial taint exists. There is no certain immunity from disease in an endemic or epidemic form, to be secured by the use of the average tonics and anti-spa-modics. But where quinine fails the Bitters succeeds both in preventing and curing. Moreover, it removes every vestige of dyspepsia, and overcomes constipation, rheumatism, inactivity of the kidneys and bladder, and tranquilizes and strengthens the nervous system.

What are the most noxious things in the world? Mile stones, for you never see two of them together.

What is it which Adam never saw, never possessed and yet gave two to each of his children? Parents.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaints.—Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Fredericksburg, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cures it has effected. For sale at Ireland's Pharmacy.

What moral lesson does a weathercock on a church steeple continually inculcate? 'Tis wise to a spire.

Why shouldn't a boy throw dust into his teacher's eye? Because it may occasion harm to the pupil.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him this same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful remedy.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale at Ireland's Pharmacy.

Why are coals in London like towns given up to a plunderer? Because they are sacked and burned.

What is that which is often brought to the table, always out and never eaten? A pack of cards.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds, croup and whooping cough. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale at Ireland's Pharmacy.

What is that which no one wishes to have and no one wishes to lose? A bald head.

Why is a gate post like a potato because they are both put into the ground to propagate.

Why There Was No Fight.

I overheard the following conversation in a Market street car yesterday between a couple of young men.

"I told you that fellow Moore was a scoundrel," declared one, "and I told him so yesterday."

"You did?" And the other commenced looking his friend over for evidences of a scoundrel.

"Oh, I didn't listen to him. I told him he was a liar, a thief and a scoundrel and that I would punch him in the nose if he said a word to me."

"What did he do?"

"Nothing," he is a coward."

"I don't believe that. I have seen him fight at the drop of the hat. Didn't he say a word back?"

"I don't know; I hung up the telephone."

—San Francisco Post.

No Occasion For It.

Park Policeman—Yes, can't sleep here. Tramp—He gobs, yez needn't be so rough 'cause you woke up first.—Truth.

How to Be Beautiful.

"If you would be beautiful!"—he began.

"I would, I would!" she interrupted.

"If you would have your transcendent loveliness proclaimed to all the world!"—

"Indeed, I would!" she exclaimed.

"If you would have the newspapers describe you as lovely in disposition and beautiful in form and face?"

"I would do anything to be beautiful above all others!"

"You may be so proclaimed," he said.

"How?" she asked. "Only tell me how!"

"Go home and do something that will compel your parents to lock you in your room," he instructed, "and, when night comes, gather together a small bundle of your clothes and make your escape by the window."

"But I don't see!"

"That's because you don't understand human nature. I'll be waiting for you, and we will fly to Wisconsin and be married. You never heard of a homely or unattractive girl eloping, did you? They're always beautiful when you read about them in elopement stories."—Chicago Post.

Exposure to Cold.

"I wish the passengers would close the door when they step inside the car," said the trolley car conductor to the passenger who stood with him on the rear platform.

"What for?" asked the passenger as he passed the conductor a nickel.

"Cuz just as soon as they open the door a draft of cold air comes from the inside and nearly freezes the face off. I tell yer, it's tough!"—Roxbury Gazette.

A Leap Year Episode.

Miss Growing-Gray—Mr. Galbol is a bass trifle!

Her Confident—Why?

Miss Growing-Gray—Because, when I exercised the right which this year gives us girls and asked him to marry me, he said he would if I could promise to support him as his papa has done.—Philadelphia North American.

Symptoms.

"Doctor," said the young husband, "I have called to ask your advice about my wife. She has insomnia and all day she goes wandering about the house and moving the furniture back and forth."

"She'll be all right the first warm day," said the old physician. "It is only spring housecleaning that is working on her."—Indianapolis Journal.

An Undeserved Kindness.

"You are not to hang!" shouted the messenger, bursting into the prisoner's cell and smiling brightly at the same time.

"Aw," said the heretofore condemned one, "that is no news to me."

The messenger went bitterly that he had not delayed his coming until after the execution.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Around Again.

"Are you glad to see me, Gladys?" asked Philip the other evening after he had been laid up for weeks with a broken arm.

"Yes, dear; I am delighted that you are able to be around again," said the shy girl as she felt the pressure of his arm about her slender waist.—Yonkers Statesman.

Unanimous on One Point.

"But I am so unworthy, darling," he murmured as he held the dear girl's hand in his.

"Oh, George," she sighed, "if you and papa agreed on every other point as you do on that, how happy we could be!"—Truth.

The Bee.

"Yes," they remarked, "she has a bee in her bonnet."

The woman politician sneered.

"Yes, George," she said, "I should think she would have a bird or at least a wing."—Detroit Tribune.

Her Earnest Effort.

"Make it easier for me to bear, can't you, Grace?" pleaded the hapless youth whom she had just refused.

"Yes, George," she gently answered Grace. "I snore dreadfully."—Chicago Tribune.

Treachery.

She—Yes, I am jealous in her. I was misled by her professions of friendship.

He—What has she done?

She—Bought a clock and hat just like mine.—Chicago Record.

A Heated Conversation.

"You have many friends who have gone before?" asked the minister.

"Yes," the dying man murmured; "some of them are very warm ones."—New York Press.

Interesting Conversation.

Clara—What have you and Cholly been talking about?

Cholly—Oh, one thing and another.

Clara—Such egotism!—Truth.

Not Her Usual Tact.

Cook—I can't break the ice, mum.

Lady—That's very remarkable, Bridget. Did you try letting it fall?—Yonkers Statesman.

Mrs. Strongminded.

Mrs. Strongminded—And is she really going to marry him?

Mrs. Strongminded—How said! And does she love him?

Mrs. Strongminded—How foolish!

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. Newton's drug store.

It isn't much trouble for a really healthy man to be good humored. Jollity and exuberant health are a proverbial combination. The hearty man who is always laughing doesn't have any trouble with his digestion. It has been said that laughing makes people healthy. The truth is that health makes people laugh.

There isn't any other thing so essential to health as regularity in the action of the bowels. Most all sickness starts with some derangement of the digestive functions. Good digestion means good, pure blood, and that means strength. Once let the bowels become clogged with refuse matter, and the whole system is deranged. Impure, poisonous matter gets into the blood and plants the seeds for all sorts of sickness.

Whenever there is a stoppage of the intestinal action, help should be given immediately. Usually a mild, gentle laxative is all that is necessary. A violent, wrenching griping cathartic is never needed. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most pleasant and successful remedy for occasional or chronic constipation, or costiveness. They are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules that even the smallest child can easily take. They act in perfect accord with nature and produce no gripping or other disagreeable feeling. They should be taken at the first indication of digestive trouble. They stop sour stomach, belching, heart-burn, flatulence and sick headache. They cure constipation permanently. You can stop taking them after the bowels are thoroughly regulated. Their help lasts. You do not become a slave to their use as with other pills.

SHERIFF PERRY REMOVED.

The Governor Has Created a Vacancy in the Office of Sheriff and Filled Same by Appointment of C. W. Haynes—Perry Defaults in a Large Amount.

Gov. Thornton today peremptorily removed Charles C. Perry from the office of sheriff and ex-officio collector of Chaves county and appointed Charles W. Haynes, of Roswell, to fill the vacancy thus created.

This action was based on a petition of L. M. Long, C. W. Haynes and J. A. Gilmore, commissioners of Chaves county, representing that C. C. Perry was duly elected as sheriff and ex-officio collector of Chaves county in November, 1895, and assumed the duties of the position in the following January; that as such collector, in May, 1896, he received $2,378.71, belonging to the territory, $4,433.17, belonging to the county of Chaves, $1,703.47, belonging to the various school districts of Chaves county, and $48.65, belonging to the town of Roswell; that he paid over to the county of Chaves $1,200 of the above specified sums of money, but, although the time when he was required to do so has long since past, he has neglected to pay over to the proper treasurers any of the other moneys mentioned; that he has been absent from Chaves county for seven weeks and the commissioners have been unable to discover his whereabouts; that demands upon his office deputy have been met by the response that there were no moneys in the latter's possession to meet the demands.

The representations contained in the petition are sustained by affidavits of Comr. Long, Deputy County Treasurer Mark Howell and William Talliaferro, Perry's office deputy and book-keeper. The latter certifies that all the moneys above mentioned were deposited in the Bank of Roswell to the credit of C. C. Perry; that, on May 15, Perry drew $7,000 of the amount and had same placed to his credit in the First National Bank of Santa Fe; that he has only accounted for $1,200 of the total of $9,444; that affiant has been unable to secure the present postoffice address of said Perry.

Charles W. Haynes, who has been appointed to succeed Perry, came to New Mexico from Vernon county, Mo., fifteen years ago and located in San Miguel county, as agent of the Stowell Cattle company. He has resided at Roswell for a number of years, is at present county commissioner of Chaves county, and is strongly indorsed by the best people in that county as in all respects a most honorable, trustworthy and capable business man.

A special meeting of the board of education will be held to-night. It is called for the purpose of making the annual tax levy, fixing teachers' salaries and to decide whether a kindergarten shall be established in connection with our public school system.

Local interest in the St. Louis conventions was very great to-day. Most of those who eagerly watched the bulletin boards took the declarations thereon posted with some degree of "salt," for it is pretty well known here as elsewhere that a tinge of yellow gold is reflected in all reports coming from St. Louis, and notwithstanding the tenor of the bulletins up to noon many stood ready to wager that the Populists would indorse the Democratic nominees.

A private letter from Fort Wingate states that fully $300,000 will be required to replace the burned buildings there. The troops now quartered in tents are in anything but a comfortable condition. What disposition of them will be made yet remains to be seen. However, Gen. Whetton is fully conversant with the situation and toward the last of the month it is expected his recommendations will be acted upon by the war department.

Mr. S. D. Bingham, of Dallas, Texas, western representative of "The Texas Sifter," Alex. Sweet's famous literary periodical, is visiting Santa Fe. Bean made a host of admiring friends during his late visit here who will accord him a generous welcome.

Damascio Garcia, an insane man well known about town, is alleged to have died at a house near Lamy this morning as the result of a blow received, it is charged, at the hands of Marcelino Garcia y Segura, a ranchero on Ojo de la Baca. PROGRESS AT MESCALERO.

Improved Condition of the Apaches There—Farming and Sheep Raising—A Chat with Agent Stottler.

Lieut. V. E. Stottler, 10th infantry, who has many friends in this city, was here for a short visit yesterday. He is en route east on a thirty days' leave. Since leaving Santa Fe he has been agent of the Mescalero Indians in the southern part of this territory. Inspector McCormick, of the interior department, who is also here now on official business, inspecting the agency of the Pueblos and Jicarillas under Capt. Bullis, and who has the reputation of being one of the best and most thorough inspectors of the Indian service, speaks in the highest terms of Lieut. Stottler's work with the Mescaleros and says it is one of the best conducted Indian agencies in the service. The last census, July 1, 1896, showed 450 Indians on the reservation. All the children over 6 years of age, 115 in number, are either at the agency school or at the Fort Lewis school.

Every child being at school (that means 100 per cent) is certainly a fine record. There are about 500 acres of irrigable land on the Mescalero reservation and every acre of that is now tilled, allotted to Indians and farmed by them. Agent Stottler has made the Indians plant potatoes this year and has promise of a large and fine crop. The male Indians have been compelled to adopt civilized dress and wear short hair, and the women are no longer allowed to wear leggings and to paint their faces. The children all wear civilized garb and many of the Indians now live in houses of their own construction and many more are building log houses to live in. Lieut. Stottler believes in the policy of making Indians work and compelling them to make a living just as the average white man has to do, and he carries that policy out to the fullest extent. He has fourteen Indian police under him and a very competent corps of employees, making about fifty in all on the reservation besides the Indians. Trivia making and dancing has been stopped and everything on the reservation works like a charm and the best interests of the Indians are thoroughly looked after.

Lieut. Stottler thinks the Mescaleros will make good sheep raisers and the 450,000 acres of mountain land in their reservation will prove a fine sheep raising section. Hence on his recommendation 500 sheep have just been purchased by the department and allotted to some of the Indians who have shown the best disposition to work and to make a living. If the experiment proves successful, several thousand head of sheep are to be supplied to them during the next year. In a few years if the present policy is kept up and if successful agricultural land is given them it is believed by those posted and who have an intimate knowledge of these Indians that they will be self sustaining, will prove good and tractable and of a peaceful disposition, and will come to become a burden to the government.

SAWTELLE LIKELY TO SUCCEED BATCHELDER.

It appears that the New Mexican was in error yesterday in announcing that Col. Bingham would probably succeed to the position of quartermaster-general upon the retirement of Gen. Batchelder on the 27th inst. As a matter of fact Col. Bingham was retired last year. The error grew out of the fact that an Army Register of 1895 (instead of 1896) was examined. It now seems probable that Charles G. Sawtelle, the ranking colonel in the quartermaster's department, will succeed Gen. Batchelder. After speaking of the high tributes paid to Col. Sawtelle by Gen. Grant, Sheridan, Meigs, Canby, Hancock and Schofield, the Army and Navy Journal says: "There are other communitaries included in the pamphlet, all of which bear testimony to the valuable services which this officer has rendered. The president and Secretary Lamont have not yet officially taken up the question of appointing a successor to Gen. Batchelder, nor do they expect to do so until shortly before the retirement occurs. There is a natural good deal of gossip in circulation at the department, however, and in this gossip Col. Sawtelle is mentioned as the officer most likely to secure the appointment."
