NEW MEXICO SUPREME COURT

Application for Release of the Condemned Borregos on Habeas Corpus Denied Last Evening.

PETITION FOR AN APPEAL REFUSED

Full Text of the Lucid Opinion of Judge Collier Giving Reasons of the Court for Not Allowing an Appeal.

In the supreme court of the territory of New Mexico yesterday afternoon, Chief Justice Smith presiding and Associate Justices Collier and Bantz being present, in the matter of the application of Francisco Gonzalez y Borrego, Antonio Gonzalez y Borrego, Lauriano Alarid and Patricio Valencia for a writ of habeas corpus and discharge from custody, after hearing argument in the affirmative by Messrs. Catron & Spies and in the negative by Solicitor-General Victorio and Judge H. L. Warren, the court denied the petition, discharged the writ of habeas corpus and remanded the prisoners to the custody of the sheriff of Santa Fe county. Thereupon Messrs. Catron & Spies filed an application for an appeal to the supreme court of the United States. This was urged by the applicants and strongly resisted by the solicitor-general and Judge Warren.

The court not being sufficiently advised in the premises, the application was taken under advisement until 7:30 o'clock last evening.

At the incoming of court last evening, Judge Bantz handed down an opinion giving the reasons why the court had concluded to order strikers from the files the proceedings had before Judge Laughlin to correct the record of the district court in the case of Francisco Gonzalez y Borrego et al.

Chief Justice Smith then announced that, for reasons set forth in a written opinion by Judge Collier, the application for an appeal to the United States supreme court, from the decree in the matter of the petition for a habeas corpus in behalf of Francisco Gonzalez y Borrego et al., appellants, was refused. The opinion of Associate Justice Collier in the premises:

OPINION OF JUDGE COLLIER.

In re application of Francisco Gonzalez y Borrego, Antonio Gonzalez y Borrego, Lauriano Alarid and Patricio Valencia, habeas corpus.

Per Curiam: In this case it is claimed that an appeal should be granted from this court discharging the writ of habeas corpus upon the return made thereto by respondent and remanding the petitioners to the supreme court of the United States. Counsel for petitioners base their claim for the allowance of an appeal upon two grounds: First, that an appeal is distinctly provided for by the act of 1874, embodied in section 1909 of the Revised Statutes, and by section 10 of the Organic Act for New Mexico; and, second, that it should be allowed under the act of congress of March 3, 1885, entitled "An act regulating appeals from the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and the supreme courts of the several territories."

It must be conceded that, unless the portions of sections 1909 and 10, supra, relating to appeals and writs of error in habeas corpus proceedings are superseded or repealed by the act of March 3, 1885, supra, the allowance of an appeal is mandatory in this character of case. But said act governs us in this matter, we must then look to it to ascertain if an appeal lies.

We think that the reasoning in Cross vs. Burke, 146 U. S. 82, is controlling on this question, and leads irresistibly to the conclusion, that just as the District of Columbia the act of March 3, 1885, covered the entire subject of appeals, except as under section 5 of the act of 1891 for the establishment of circuit courts of appeal, so also it covers the entire subject of appeals from supreme courts of territories to the supreme court of the United States, the act of 1891, supra, providing in no way for such appeals. All antecedent legislation, therefore, providing for appeals from territorial supreme courts must be considered superseded by the comprehensive plan created by the act of 1885, supra.

An apt illustration, as to how section 10 of our Organic Act and section 1909, R. S., pass entirely from consideration as no longer existing legislation, is shown by the argument in the opinion by the chief justice in Cross vs. Burke, supra, pointing out that section 764 R. S. no longer applies to the District of Columbia, because of the said act of March 3, 1885.

But it is urged that under said act of March 3, 1885, an appeal lies under the terms of section 2 of that act, because it is claimed that the justice who tried the case, and who amended the record while the cause was on writ of error in this court, was acting without authority of law, while pretending to act under an authority of the United States, and that everything done by him was coram non iudice.

It is unnecessary for us to say whether or not the application for the writ of habeas corpus distinctly draws in question such an exercise of authority, as in our view, even if it did, appeal would not lie in habeas corpus cases. Whatever might be our impression as to this, the Cross vs. Burke, supra, is also controlling on this question. We quote as sufficient on this subject from that opinion: "It is well settled that a proceeding in habeas corpus is a civil and not a criminal proceeding. Farnsworth vs. Montana, 29 U. S. 104; ex parte Fox Tong, 108 U. S. 656; Kortz vs. Moffitt, 115 U. S. 487. The application here was brought by petitioner to assert the civil right of personal liberty against the respondent, who is holding him in custody as a criminal, and the inquiry is into his right to liberty notwithstanding his condemnation."

In order to give this court jurisdiction under the act of March 3, 1885, last referred to, the matter in dispute must be money, or some right, the value of which in money can be ascertained and ascertained. And, as in this case, the matter in dispute has no money value, the result is no appeal lies. This reasoning is affirmed in re Lennon 160 U. S. 988.

It is to be said, that territorial supreme courts occupy as to rights of appeal in habeas corpus cases the same position that the supreme court of the District of Columbia occupied between March 3, 1885, and the passage of the act of 1891, supra, the last named act affecting the District of Columbia, but not the territories.

The case in re Delgado, 140 U. S. 886, is called to our attention as showing an appeal from this court in a habeas corpus proceeding, but it is to be remarked, as to that case, that the point was not from this court to the United States supreme court, and therefore it should not be considered an authority in the light of the case of Cross vs. Burke and re Lennon, supra.

Wherefore, it is considered that, there being no authority of law to grant the appeal prayed for, it should be denied.

THOMAS SMITH, Chief Justice,
N. C. COLLIER, Associate Justice,
GIDSON D. BANTZ, Associate Justice.

MANDAMUS THREATENED.

Mr. Catron then said that he contemplated applying to the United States supreme court for a mandamus commanding the supreme court of New Mexico to grant the appeal just denied, and hence he asked the court to designate and authorize one of its members to sign a bill of exceptions as soon as it was prepared.

Associate Justice Collier was accordingly authorized to sign for the court a bill of exceptions, which is to include merely the record of the case in the district court, exclusive of the testimony.

Mr. Catron added that he would probably have the bill of exceptions prepared and ready for Judge Collier's signature on Monday.

The supreme court thereupon adjourned until Monday, December 14, 1896, at 10 a. m., when cases set for trial will be heard.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion among the lawyers that, in view of its plain and distinct opinion in the case, the United States supreme court will not grant a mandamus commanding the territorial supreme court to grant an appeal in re Francisco Gonzalez y Borrego et al.

THREE SUPREME COURT MATTERS.

On motion of H. L. Warren, the appellants in the case of the First National Bank of Albuquerque et al., appellants, vs. John A. Lee, executor, et al., appellants, were granted leave to file a motion for a rehearing.

A similar motion, made by Neill B. Field, was granted in re Jose F. Jaramillo, habeas corpus.

On motion of Mr. Field, the forfeiture of the bond in the case of the United States vs. Stephen M. Folsom, heretofore made, was set aside, on a showing that Folsom had given himself up to the penitentiary authorities.

In the case of Dolores Martin de Cordova et al., appellants, vs. Henry Korte et al., appellants, the appellants were granted an appeal upon filing a good and sufficient supersedeas bond in the sum of $8,000.

HURRICANE IN FRANCE.

Immense Damage Done Along the Coast—Many Casualties Reported from Berlin—A City Submerged.

Paris, Sept. 26.—A hurricane is raging throughout France and on all the coasts. Much damage has been done. A schooner has been driven ashore at Melles, near Cherbourg.

SMALL CITY SUBMERGED.

London.—A Berlin dispatch to the Standard reports that great damage has been done and many casualties caused by the storm. The town of Ribes, containing about 4,000 people, situated in Jutland, has been submerged. Many shipwrecks are reported with considerable loss of life.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Sept. 26.—The weekly bank statement is as follows: Reserve, increase, $3,761,650; loans, decrease, $1,348,200; specie, increase, $895,600; legal tender, increase, $3,454,200; deposits, increase, $2,393,600; circulation, increase, $438,000. The banks hold $14,215,028 in excess of legal requirements.

Ballooning Out of Luck.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 26.—Prof. Joseph Eials, of Adrian, Mich., who has been making balloon ascensions from Blennarsh island during the past few weeks, lost his grip on the parachute, after having made an ascension at Sistersville yesterday and fell about 100 feet, landing on a small island in the Ohio river. He is still alive, though both legs are broken and he is terribly injured.

After a Meteorite.

North Sidney, C. B., Sept. 26.—10:40 a. m., the Peary expedition steamer Hope is just passing here. She left St. John's, N. F., on July 10 last, touched at Halifax July 16, later passed Sydney on her way north with Lieut. Peary, Prof. Alfred Burton and George H. Barton, of the Massachusetts institute of technology, G. E. Peckham, assistant U. S. coast and geodetic survey, Prof. Ralph B. Tarr, of Cornell university, Prof. M. C. Gill and others on board. The main object was to bring home a forty-ton meteorite discovered by the party.

Fires in Iowa.

Essex, Iowa, Sept. 26.—Five business houses were consumed and the contents of four others were practically ruined by fire last night. The town has no facilities for fighting fire and Shenandoah and Red Oak were called upon for assistance. The losses aggregate $15,000.

Oklahoma, Iowa—A fire this morning totally destroyed the Northern Illinois college at Fulton. The loss is $100,000. Thirty students escaped. One sustained slight injuries. One fireman was hurt by a falling wall.

Record Smashed.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 26.—With the help of a moderate wind on a straightaway track Stanley M. Barrows yesterday made a quarter mile in 13.5 seconds. It is claimed to be the fastest quarter mile ever ridden on a bicycle.

Portland, Me., Sept. 26.—John R. Gentry yesterday, at Rigby park, paced the fastest mile ever made in harness, and placed the world's record at 2:03.4.

BATTLE THE OF STANDARDS

The Silver Democrats of Massachusetts Assert Themselves and Nominate Williams for Governor.

THEY CAPTURE TWO CONVENTIONS

New England Trying to Make Amends to Mr. Bryan for New Haven Rudeness—Thacher Withdraws as Candidate for Governor.

Boston, Sept. 26.—As a result of the refusal of the state committee, controlled by gold standard men, to admit delegates to the convention hall by credentials alone and not by ticket, and a sensational speech by George Fred Williams, the silver leader and candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, daylight found over 600 silver delegates entrenched in Music hall, where the convention was to meet at 11 o'clock, determined to remain until the meeting adjourned in spite of all opposition, with the state committee of gold Democrats in conference at the Quincy house trying to formulate a plan to get the belligerents out of the hall.

POLICEMEN AT THE DOORS.

Policemen were stationed at the doors, under orders to allow anyone who wished to go out but to allow no one to go in. The caterers bearing lunches to the silver cohorts were refused admission. The tired and hungry politicians began to exercise their ingenuity to smuggle refreshments into the building.

James Hughes, a delegate from Somerset, lost his life in an effort to get out of the hall by the fire-escape. Hughes was preparing to jump to the ground, fifteen feet below, when his foot slipped. He seized a live wire dangling near. With an agonized cry Hughes fell senseless on the fire-escape, then tumbled to the ground and died before anyone could reach him.

News of the accident roused the delegates to the highest pitch of excitement. J. H. Mellen declared that it was a murder for which the gold members of the state committee were responsible.

Resolutions on the subject were finally agreed upon to be presented to the convention to-day.

Soon after a break was made in the lines of the enemy at an unknown point and large baskets of sandwiches and cans of coffee were carried into the hall.

A SECRET ENTRANCE.

Evidently there was a secret entrance by which the delegates could return to the hall, as the number increased. T. W. Conkley reported that a roll call showed 850 delegates with credentials present.

At 11 o'clock George Fred Williams, with Secretary Denison, of the Bryan-Sewall-Williams club, and a number of delegates, left the American house for Music hall. They declared that all the delegates holding credentials should be admitted.

About the same time the gold men at the Quincy house sent a committee of two members to ascertain if the gold delegation would be admitted without delay.

The committee reported that they could not get near the doors.

The gold Democrats then decided to march to the hall at noon and demand admission.

School street, in front of the city hall, has been roped off and Mayor Quincy intends to review the gold delegation as it marches through the street.

The delegates in the streets have organized a meeting and are listening to speeches. Fifty additional policemen have just appeared.

LIVELY DAY IN BOSTON.

Mr. Williams has announced that the delegates outside of Music hall, unable to get in, will occupy another hall and ratify the action of the delegates locked in the hall.

Hon. J. H. Mellen, of Worcester, was elected temporary chairman by the Music hall delegates.

George Fred Williams was nominated for governor.

The state committee decided to hold a convention at Faneuil hall at 1 o'clock.

At 11:30 a. m., the delegates, numbering over 600, headed by Jas. Corbett and a brass band, started from the Quincy house, passing the city hall where they were reviewed by Mayor Quincy; going to Music hall, where the Williams delegates were holding sessions both inside and outside; thence to Faneuil hall.

GOLDEN WITNESS.

The Democrats in convention at Faneuil hall endorsed Bryan and Sewall and the Chicago platform by a large majority.

The gold standard members of the state committee, together with the gold delegates, withdrew in a body.

WILLIAMS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR.

A bulletin says: Geo. Fred Williams was nominated for governor by the Faneuil hall convention, and Christopher T. Callahan, of Holyoke, for lieutenant governor.

After the state committee changed the meeting place from Music hall to Faneuil hall, the silver delegates proceeded with the others to the latter hall and captured the convention.

Bryan and Sewall in New England.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Mr. Bryan and Mr. Sewall took the train for Manchester, N. H., at 3:30 p. m. Several hundred people gathered about Mr. Bryan's car and Mr. Bryan smilingly acknowledged the cheers which continued until the train disappeared.

Nassau, N. H.—The endeavor of New Englanders to make amends for the reception given to Mr. Bryan in New Haven was shown when the train pulled into Lowell at 9:15.

The depot platform was crowded with howling humanity. The train stopped five minutes and Mr. Bryan endeavored to speak, but the demonstration was so great that he had no opportunity to do so. The train was lined with crowds for a block and they shouted and cheered as they caught sight of Bryan and Sewall.

GOLDITES WIN FOR CATRON

CATRON CERTAIN OF RENOMINATION

Socorro County Makes a Hard Fight While Grant Flunks—Strong Talk of a Bolt by the Silver Men.

SPECIAL TO THE NEW MEXICAN.

Las Vegas, Sept. 26.—The friends of silver suffered a severe defeat at the hands of New Mexico Republicans to-day.

The fight was between Catron, the present delegate, and ex-Gov. L. Bradford Prince, the acknowledged champion of the free coinage principle among Republicans of the territory.

HOW THE PLAY CAME UP.

The contest came up on the proposition for temporary control of the convention. The goldites, or Catronists, backed solidly by the gold delegates from Bernalillo, Valencia and San Miguel counties, at once threw themselves into the breach, and, by a small margin, voted a majority of the ninety-three delegates in the interest of Catron and gold.

As a result the forty-four silver delegates are very sore and a bolt is freely talked of.

THE CONVENTION IN SESSION.

The convention was called to order at 11 o'clock this forenoon by Chairman E. L. Bartlett, of the territorial central committee. T. A. Finciel, of Albuquerque, was made temporary chairman, Fred A. Anderson, of the Rincon Weekly newspaper, was elected temporary secretary.

The usual committees were appointed and an adjournment taken to 2 p. m.

At the above hour Catron's friends clinched the convention by installing Col. J. Frank Chavez, of Valencia, as permanent chairman of the convention. This announcement was received with cheers by the Catronists and the silver advocates looked correspondingly glum.

THE BALL STARTED.

W. E. Martin, of Socorro, started the ball rolling for the silverites by declining to act as interpreter and making a strong silver appeal. Bacs, of Socorro, would not serve as vice-president, making another silver speech. Socorro has been doing most of the hard fighting. Grant and Sierra flunked. The Socorroites came instructed but two of their delegates have dropped to the pie-counter brigade.

It looks at this hour as if Catron will be the nominee for a gold plank. Catron's friends claim they have nearly two-thirds in the convention. There is a gloomy outlook for a silver plank in the platform, but the silverites will take advantage of every fighting chance.

A BOLT IN PROSPECT.

Later, 4 p. m.—The arbitrary conduct of the Catronist goldites has touched the free coinage men to the quick. At this hour the committee resolutions are in a hot content over their report. The goldites are in a majority. There is vehement talk of a bolt.

No nomination will be made until tonight.

LIST OF DELEGATES.

Following is the list of delegates entitled to seats in the convention:

Mariners and Travelers.

Speak in high terms of the preventative remedial properties of Hostetters Stomach Bitters, a medicine peculiarly adapted to the wants of those called on to experience the vicissitudes of climate, the inclemency of the weather, the hardships of sea-faring or out-of-door life, or the dangers of a malarial or otherwise pestilential atmosphere. A small quantity of this agreeable tonic nullifies impurities in water, and fortifies the stomach against the consequences of an unhealthy or unaccustomed diet. It also enables the constitution to bear up unharmed against unhealthy climatic influences, and the system to sustain, unimpaired in health and vigor, the fatigues of traveling. Emigrants, tourists, miners and others who have thoroughly tested the efficacy of the article, declare it to be a sovereign preservative of health under conditions most unfavorable.

Are you bald? Is your clothing constantly covered with dandruff? Is your scalp itching from a diseased scalp? Does your head itch? Is it itched with sores and sores? Is your hair growing thinner year by year? Is it dry and brittle? If so, you have a parasitic disease of the scalp, which you are neglecting at great risk. Dandruff will not go away until you permanently destroy the parasite. Money refunded in case of failure. For sale at Fischer & Co's. Pharmacy.

At the Hotels.

At the Palace: J. Fisher, Albuquerque; O. Canal, Denver; J. E. W. St. John.

At the Exchange: J. H. Sargent, El Rio; A. H. Allen, Turquoise; F. A. Cornell, San Francisco; J. C. Adlon and daughter, Las Vegas; A. C. Van Der Voer, Peabody, Kas; R. J. Clanton, Dallas; W. R. Davis, Denver.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
ARTHUR SEWALL,
OF MAINE.

Democratic Call.

Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 25, 1896.—Whereas, at a meeting of the Democratic territorial central committee, held in Las Vegas, on June 15, 1896, the city of Santa Fe was selected as the place for the meeting of a Democratic territorial convention for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for delegate from New Mexico to the 55th congress of the United States; and

Whereas, the date of the holding of said convention was left to be fixed by the chairman and secretary of this committee at such convenient time as would in their judgment best serve the interests of the party; and

Whereas, said proposed convention was authorized to be constituted, as to representation from the various counties of the territory, on the basis of one delegate for each 100 votes cast for Antonio Joseph in each of said counties at the last general election and one additional delegate for each fraction of 100 votes so cast amounting to fifty or more;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority in us so vested, a convention of the Democratic party of New Mexico is hereby proclaimed to be held in the city of Santa Fe, at the hour of 1 o'clock p. m., on the 29th day of September, A. D. 1896, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for delegate from New Mexico to the 55th congress of the United States and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it related to that primary purpose.

According to the authorization of this committee, at its said meeting, the apportionment of delegates to said convention from the various counties is as follows, to wit:

Bernalillo county.....	12
Chaves county.....	5
Colfax county.....	8
Bona Ana county.....	12
Eddy county.....	4
Grant county.....	7
Grady county.....	7
Lincoln county.....	6
Mora county.....	11
Rio Arriba county.....	10
San Juan county.....	2
San Miguel county.....	2
Santa Fe county.....	15
Socorro county.....	3
Taos county.....	11
Union county.....	5
Valencia county.....	5
Total delegates.....	105

The county central committees of the various counties are requested to call county conventions for the election of the designated number of delegates, according to the rules and regulations governing party practice, in the respective counties, and it is suggested that such conventions and preliminary primaries be held at such times as are convenient to the party in the respective counties.

In those counties in which party interests have advised the holding of county conventions prior to this call the delegates there selected to represent such county in the proclaimed convention will undoubtedly be held to have been duly elected, according to the purpose of this call.

In carrying out the instructions of the committee, at its said meeting, all Democrats, and all those who intend to act with the Democratic party on the leading principles enunciated in its Chicago platform, and especially on the great declaration in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, are hereby invited to participate in the primaries, in the respective counties, and in the proposed territorial convention, if so be that they are chosen as representatives at county conventions.

In view of the great issues involved in the national campaign, now on, and of the high and advanced ground taken by the Democratic party in favor of the restoration of the money of the common people to its constitutional place in the financial policy of the nation; and, in view, further, of the utter failure of the Republican party to give the territory an influential and useful delegate in congress from New Mexico, it is the hope of this committee that the convention hereby called may be a fully attended and memorable gathering of representative Democrats from every county in the territory. To this end all citizens of this territory, within the purview of this call, are urged to take an active interest in the preliminary steps to constitute said convention and in the important work of the same.

HAROLD ROMERO,
Secretary.

J. H. CHIST,
Chairman.

"New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arizona are entitled to statehood and their early admission is demanded by their material and political interests."—W. J. Bryan's letter accepting the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

The Republicans of New Mexico are making history at Las Vegas this afternoon.

It is quite evident that Price's nomination by the Populists has quite demoralized the Republican generals and colonels.

Chairman STAMM is evidently heartily tired of having his Populistic voters played for stool-pigeons. He says: "If there is anything that is self evident in politics this year, it is that the People's party are fighting organized greed through what we conceive to be its representative, the Republican party."

No man's character is free from attack at the hands of the ghouls who run the Rincon mud-mill. That sheet has discovered that Senator H. M. Teller is interested in gold mines, and it solemnly declares that Teller seeks free coinage of silver solely with a view to forcing gold to a premium and thereby increasing his personal income! What rank rot this is.

AN ENDURING STAIN ON YALE COLLEGE.

If a presidential candidate or any other reputable public man of national prominence had undertaken to deliver an address on the vital issues of the day in one of the cities of the "unsafe west," and had been hooted down by hundreds of howling hoodlums, the eastern papers would have virtuously pointed to the fact as another proof of the dangerous conditions prevailing among the "anarchists and repudiators of the west."

But when the hoodlums of Yale college, in the classic and pious city of New Haven, Conn., created such a disturbance at a public meeting (called for Mr. Bryan) that the famous Nebraska orator was unable to make himself heard and 10,000 people were obliged to disperse disappointed, we presume these same papers will see in the scandalous circumstance fresh evidence of the superior enlightenment and exalted patriotism of the all but sanctified young men who habitually bathe in the sweet and hallowed and refining influences of New England culture.

We indulge the comfortable belief, however, that this impression will not extend beyond the borders of New England; that such a flagrant and brutal attempt to abridge the almost universally recognized and respected right of speech, especially when that right was claimed by one of the most dignified, gifted and patriotic gentlemen in the land, will be generally condemned and denounced by the better sort of people throughout the land; that this shameful performance of these "hundreds of Yale students" will persuade thousands of thoughtful people that the influences of Yale college and its surroundings are vicious and un-American; and that enduring injury to this once respected educational institution will result therefrom. Certainly years will be required to efface from its fair name the deep stain left thereon by the incident of Thursday.

PRESS COMMENT.

An Honest Republican View.

We are all working for a common end, no doubt; all sincerely convinced of the virtue of the cause we advocate; but it seems to us that a good many—too many—of our gold standard orators and writers are confusing and befogging the controversy with statements that are silly and propositions that are irrational. Instead of sticking to the one point of consequence, the preservation of the public credit and the equilibrium of our financial system, they wander off in foolish and irrelevant digressions—the wages paid in Mexico, the condition of labor in Japan and Patagonia, and such things that are without significance of any kind in this discussion. They are doing harm. They divert the thoughts of the voter from the essential questions involved in the campaign. They give the other side a thousand opportunities for putting them to sad confusion.

Perhaps there could be no more forcible illustration of this mischievous sense than the talk about the "intrinsic value" of gold. You will hear spouters like Bourke Cockran declaiming upon this intrinsic value, resorting to the cheap argument of the man who had a gold dollar and a silver dollar melted in the fire, and who could take the molten gold to the mint and get it remade into 100 cents, where in open market he could get only 53 cents for his molten silver. Of course he does not explain that the gold can be restored to 100 cents, because the mints are open to the coinage of gold, while the silver declines to its mere commercial value because the mints are closed to that metal. But Mr. Cockran impresses only the very ignorant by this so-called argument, and he leads the judicious to fear that he himself needs "education" quite as sadly as do those to whom he speaks. Webster defines "intrinsic" as meaning "inward, internal, real, essential, not accidentally or merely apparent." The value of gold is conferred by legislation. It is useful as money—more useful because more compact than any other metal—and hence the civilized nations of the world have adopted it as their medium of exchange and their standard and measure of value. And in our opinion the nations have acted with conspicuous wisdom in this respect. But suppose the nations were to close their mints simultaneously to gold and to silver, and declare that for the future no more gold should be coined or made receivable for public and private debts—what then would be the value of Mr. Cockran's melted dollar? That is where intrinsic worth comes in. Gold, considered independently of the legislation which makes it money, has a very narrow field of usefulness. It is good for filling teeth. It works up very prettily into rings, watches, spoons, etc., but what would it be worth on its merits as a mere commodity? Let us suppose a hundred persons cast away upon a desert island and left there to make their own homes and provide for the necessities of life—which would be the more desirable to them, a bar of gold or a bar of iron? Which metal would then be the more potent factor in the equation of their destinies—which the more effective instrument in lifting them from barbarism into civilization? Here is the standard by which to measure intrinsic value.

It would greatly simplify the problem now before the country if the gold talkers and writers were to keep to the path of fact and reason. The question is whether we shall adhere to the money metal which the legislation of the civilized world has made the standard, or, departing from that, adopt a metal which those nations have repudiated. All other questions are weakness and vexation of spirit.—Washington Post.

NEW MEXICAN PRINTING COMPANY.

The PECOS VALLEY of... NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.
The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world.
Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.
The cultivation of sawgrass—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.
The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.
Lands with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times rapid, increase in value.
The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Fells section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

IN THE FIELD POLITICAL.

The Bryan Club at Work--Colfax
County Democrats--Political Gossip.

At the meeting of the Bryan Democratic club at its headquarters, President Money appointed as an executive committee the following:

George H. Cross, Camilo Padilla, Pedro Delgado, W. H. Pope, Marcelino Garcia, Jose Segura, Jno. C. Sears, E. B. Linnea, M. P. Moore, J. H. Crist, Geo. W. Knebel, Chas. A. Soehnerich, Arthur Seligman, J. E. Lacombe.

The permanent headquarters of the club was established at the rooms of the Oxford club.

J. R. Jetton was duly elected a delegate to the National Association of Democratic clubs to be held at St. Louis in October; Marcelino Garcia as alternate.

E. L. Hall, Thos. E. Gable and Camilo Padilla were appointed a committee on arrangements for the purpose of entertaining the delegates to the territorial congressional convention to be held here on the 29th. The club tendered to Chairman Crist of the territorial committee the use of its rooms for their headquarters during their stay. Another meeting of the club will be held this evening.

COLFAX COUNTY DEMOCRATS.

Colfax county Democratic convention was held in Springer Thursday evening for the purpose of electing eight delegates to the territorial convention. Forty-six delegates, representing fourteen out of twenty-one precincts, were present.

John N. Brackett was elected chairman and Frank Hutcheson, secretary. The resolutions adopted are terse and to the point, in so many words they endorse the Chicago platform and nominees, and invite all voters of Colfax county who endorse the resolutions to assist in nominating and electing a delegate to congress and a county ticket in harmony therewith.

The following were elected delegates to the territorial convention: Frank S. Crosson, C. M. C. Houck, Geo. B. Berlinger, Dan Jackson, Alex. Thompson, Albert Lawrence, Frank Hutcheson and James Lynch. The delegates go unaccompanied, but they are all avowed Ferguson men.

The convention decided to hold the convention for the nomination of a legislative and county ticket in Raton, October 10.

POLITICAL WAIFS.

Delegate Catron hurried over to Las Vegas last night to look after his political fences.

Democratic conventions are in progress this afternoon in San Miguel, Bernalillo and Grant counties.

The territorial Democratic convention will be called to order at 1 p. m. on Tuesday at the Santa Fe court house.

Ex-Gov. L. Bradford Prince is here, representing the county of Rio Arriba, with six proxies in his pocket, in addition to his own vote.--Las Vegas Optic.

It is said arrangements are making to have U. S. Attorney W. B. Childers deliver a goldite argument at the Santa Fe court house during the coming week.

It is possible, though not probable, that the Populists anticipated the action of the Republicans in the nomination of Gov. L. Bradford Prince for the delegateship. * * * The Optic foreshadowed the nomination of Gov. Prince by the Populist convention, but the paper is at sea as to what the Republican convention on Saturday will do. Possibly break its own neck politically.--Las Vegas Optic.

SATURDAY SALAD.

A YOUNG GIRL'S CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION.

The NEW MEXICAN is in receipt of a beautiful little brochure entitled, "The White Slave, or the Cross of Gold," from the facile pen of Miss Helen Laura Sumner, the 18-year old daughter of Judge and Mrs. Geo. T. Sumner, of Denver, and grand-daughter of Mrs. J. L. Marsh, of Santa Fe. Speaking of this production the Rocky Mountain News of Denver says: "It is seldom that a young girl writes a pamphlet that is accepted as part and parcel of the great sea of campaign literature that ebbs and flows from one end of the country to the other during the distracted weeks that precede a presidential election. Such has been the achievement, however, of Miss Helen L. Sumner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Sumner, of 1258 Grant avenue. Denver girls have won laurels away from home as readers, as singers and as actresses, but it has been reserved for Miss Sumner, among all the bright girls of Denver, to find a publisher for her first story, and that one based on economic questions, not a common study with girls. "The White Slave, or the Cross of Gold," is a story founded on the demonization of silver. It has been published by a well known Chicago company as campaign literature. The little tale holds the interest from the first word to the last, and promises a great deal for the future of so promising a young authoress. Miss Sumner seems to have her full share of the literary family which distinguishes her mother's family. She has gone back to Wellesley for her junior year, bearing a picture of Bryan, and hanging upon the wall of her college chamber. Next summer, instead of coming home, she will spend her vacation in France, for the sake of her French studies." The touching, vivid and truthful little story has been issued in Chicago as silver campaign literature and is for sale at news dealers at 10 cents a copy.

SMALL TALK.

Hon. A. A. Jones and family, of Las Vegas, are on a trip to the California coast.

Chief Justice Smith left last night for Los Angeles to join his wife and sister who are visiting there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sherwood, of St. Louis, pleasant guests at the Palace for the past week, leave to-night for home.

Mrs. A. C. Viles and son who have been visiting Mrs. Hersey, left this afternoon for their home on the upper Pecos.

Messrs. S. S. Besty and Chas. Haspelmath are home from a sojourn at Ojo Caliente. Both speak in terms of high praise of those medicinal waters.

Major J. P. Baker and wife, with their pleasant and popular daughters, will hang Sunday morning at their headquarters at San Antonio, Texas.--Albuquerque Citizen.

Messdames Hall, Keller and Sloan are still sojourning at Hot Sulphur springs. Mrs. Hall writes that she has been greatly relieved of rheumatism by the use of those waters.

Mrs. Robert Harvey pleasantly entertained a company of mission teachers and their friends last evening in honor of her guest Miss Alice Hyson, mission teacher at Taos.

In a private letter dated Kenosha, Wis., Judge Francis Downes, who has many friends and clients in this city, writes that he will leave Wisconsin for his home in this city on the 5th or 6th of October.

Mrs. R. J. Palen and her daughter, Miss Palen, have gone to Denver on a visit to friends and will remain there until after the Mountain and Plain festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaim and children, of St. Louis, pleasant people who have spent the summer at St. Vincent sanitarium, left on Tuesday for home. Miss Lucille Joyce, sister of Mrs. Church, accompanied them en route to her home at Columbus, Ohio.

Archbishop P. L. Chappelle returned yesterday from a trip through Lincoln, Chaves and Eddy counties, covering a distance of 1,400 miles. His grace was greatly pleased with the evidences of prosperity noted on every hand in southeastern New Mexico.

Dr. J. Walter Fewkes and wife, of the Smithsonian institute, were entertained by Miss DeSette on Saturday evening last. Some twenty Santa Feans were present and were delighted with Dr. Fewkes' recitals touching the rattlesnake dance of the Moquis.

Hon. Samuel McCowan, of Albuquerque, superintendent of the U. S. Indian school there, accompanied by his family, Miss Harvey, Miss Bryan and the Misses Foster, arrived in the city last night for a few days' visit with Col. and Mrs. Jones at the Indian school.

Mr. James D. Hughes and bride are enjoying their honeymoon at the home of the former's mother in Bloomington, Ind. They will take in the Mountain and Plain festival at Denver on the 4th of October and return home a few days thereafter.

U. S. Senator H. D. Money and his estimable wife, who have been the guests of their son, Hon. Geo. P. Money, for some weeks, left last night for home, carrying with them the best wishes of all Santa Feans. Senator Money will remain but a day or two on his Mississippi plantation near Carrollton, proceeding thence to St. Louis to attend the meeting of the National Association of Democratic clubs.

OJO CALIENTE

(HOT SPRINGS.)

THESE Celebrated Hot Springs are located in the midst of the Ancient Cliff Dwellers, twenty-five miles west of Taos, and fifty miles north of Santa Fe, and about twelve miles from Barranca Station on the Denver & Rio Grande Railway, from which point a daily line of stages run to the Springs. The temperature of these waters is from 90° to 120°. The gases are carbonic. Altitude 5,000 feet. Climate very dry and delightful the year round. There is now a commodious hotel for the convenience of invalids and tourists. These waters contain 188.34 grains of alkaline salts to the gallon; being the richest Alkaline Hot Springs in the world. The efficacy of these waters has been thoroughly tested by the miraculous cures attested to in the following diseases: Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Consumption, Malaria, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Syphilis, and Mercurial Affections, Scrofula, Catarrh, La Grippe, all Female Complaints, etc., etc. Board, Lodging and Bathing, $2.50 per day. Reduced rates given by the month. For further particulars address--
