The parade was witnessed by crowds and was reviewed by Gov. Wells and staff and Hon. John Q. Cannon, Utah, Gov. Thornton and staff, of New Mexico, and other distinguished guests, besides the city and state officials.

The next two days will be crowded with surprises and entertainments for the inhabitants of the city and the 80,000 visitors attracted by the carnival.

THE CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

Bloody Battle in the Choctaw Nation Men—One Woman Murdered Another in Missouri.

Kansas City, Oct. 6.—An unconfirmed report from Guthrie, O. T., states that a bloody battle between full bloods and squaw men occurred to-day in the Choctaw country on Horse creek in which several squaws and their white husbands were killed.

ONE WOMAN MURDERED ANOTHER.

Kansas City.—Reports from Arkio, Mo., states that a young woman has been arrested for the horrible murder of Mrs. John Baunley, near that place on last Friday. It is said that she was in love with Mr. Baunley and murdered the wife so that she could marry the husband. She was tracked by bloodhounds and when confronted is said to have confessed.

WOMAN MURDERED IN OMAHA.

Council Bluffs.—Mrs. Zema L. Aze, of Omaha, was found dead at an early hour this morning in the street. She had been shot in the head four or five times. Any one of the wounds would have proved fatal. The woman was about 50 years old. It is believed that she was murdered to prevent her from telling something damaging to the murderer.

One man says that he heard a man and woman quarrelling about 9 o'clock last night and heard the man call the woman a liar. A motorman says that he saw a man and woman struggling in the vicinity about 11 o'clock and heard at least two pistol shots on his return trip soon after midnight.

THE CZAR AND CZARINA.

Russian Imperial Party Accorded a Rapturous Reception in Paris—Russian and French Flags Entwined.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The czar and czarina arrived safely at 10 a. m. from Cherbourg and reached the Russian embassy at 11 o'clock.

Their majesties were accorded a most rapturous reception by the enthusiastic people.

A double line of troops held the route from the railroad depot to the embassy, reinforced by gens d'armes, sergeants de ville, detectives, agents of the Russian secret police and picked men from the Khilafat detective corps.

The decorations eclipsed anything ever seen in the French capital. Russian and French flags entwined, or floating side by side, predominated.

The air was filled with shouts of "vive le czar," "vive le empereur," "vive le republicain."

POISONED WHITE FISH.

Many Prostrations and Several Sudden Deaths in Wisconsin Attributed to Eating Poisoned Smoked Fish.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 6.—Cases of poisoning from eating smoked white fish continue to be reported. Two deaths have occurred at Merrill, Wis. Twenty-five cases of poisoning are reported at Merrill.

Four more cases are reported here to-day.

Following so closely after the prostration of all the students at Concordia college in this city and a similar affliction of over fifty people at Oshkosh, the news from Merrill is causing a panic among fish eaters and dealers.

Twenty additional cases are reported from Brotherton, on the east shore of Lake Winnebago.

NATIONAL POLITICS.

A FEW POINTERS.

St. Louis, J. K. Riskey, the widely known Missouri politician, writes from New York as follows:

I had a talk with Mr. Beriah Wilkins, proprietor of the Washington Post, to-day. Mr. Wilkins represented Ohio in congress several terms. He keeps in touch with the political situation there as well as any man in the country. His paper has been neutral, and I think his personal predilections are toward gold. He said, however, that information from his old district in Ohio, from the most reliable sources, led him to believe that Bryan will have 2,300 majority there. In the last election the Republican majority was 800.

Mr. Wilkins received a letter from one of the leading railroad mechanics at Cleveland, saying that Cleveland would give Bryan a 6,000 majority. At the last election Cleveland went Republican by 6,000. Mr. Conger, formerly chairman of the Republican committee, and one time a member of the Republican national committee, dropped into Mr. Wilkins' office a few days ago and told Mr. Wilkins that he had apprised Mr. Wilkins that Cleveland was lost to the Republican party.

Mr. Wilkins says that a careful poll of the state, made to ascertain the true situation, gives Bryan the state by 35,000 majority.

If the Republicans can take any comfort from the situation in the state of Missouri, they are welcome to it.

Mr. John C. Sheehan, the leader of Tammany, states that he would stake his reputation as a leader and political prognosticator on the fact that New York will give Bryan its electoral vote. The sentiment here for McKinley is confined almost wholly to the business men, bankers and brokers, who do not know as much about finance, as a science, as the average farmer does. These men are noisy; you hear them in the hotel corridors; they are around the offices in Wall street, talking about the overwhelming defeat of Bryan, and the last United States census shows that the merchants, bankers and brokers of the country comprise only 2 per cent of the total vote of the country. If all were to vote for McKinley, which is not the case—as I know personally of prominent bankers and brokers who are sincerely for Bryan, but who for policy's sake, refrain from expressing themselves—if all of this class are that assuming that they are the only business men in the country, were to vote for McKinley, what would it amount to?

This is a contest between avarice and despair. The gold standard policy has brought this country to the verge of the most abundant harvest it has ever produced, to the brink of bankruptcy. To-day the people, the thinking and working people, who have an interest in the government, are awake to the fact that on this issue the welfare of humanity depends, and the thousands of thousands of honest and brave elements to see and hear the young giant who is leading them, who even sit until 2 o'clock in the morning to catch a glimpse of him, mean business. The people are aroused more thoroughly than ever before in the history of the country, not exceeding 1776 or 1860.

You would be surprised to note how readily the people of the east have possessed themselves of this money question. The night that Mr. Bryan spoke at Tammany Hall every point he made on behalf of the white metal was instantly responded to by the great crowd.

The reliance of the Republicans in this campaign is money. Millions have been subscribed on the pretense of circulating literature, but this money is really raised to be used in the purchase of votes for McKinley. The American people, however, are not so easily deceived, and moreover, the Australian ballot system will defeat the purpose of the Republicans. If these bribe-givers spend their money in the belief that they are buying votes, they will find on the 3rd day of November that the goods can not be delivered.

The Democratic party in this state is in the hands of its friends. The organization will be complete and compact; speakers will address the voters from this time on in every county and township in the state. In this city, 500 speakers have been selected to speak day and night from now until election.

I predict without hesitation that Bryan will be elected president of the United States by the largest majority ever received by any candidate for that office, and that his election will stimulate and revive the business of this country in a way that those who oppose us and assert that the restoration of silver coinage will produce a panic will thank the men who have espoused the Bryan cause and who will have taken the country out of an "opium den," as it were, and started a prosperity which insures the employment, contentment and happiness of the people.

A Great Sugar Mill.

Butte, Mont., October 6.—W. A. Clark, the mine millionaire, congressman and newspaper man of this city, is about to erect an extensive sugar plant at Anaheim, Cal. It will be one of the largest of the kind in the world, and will cost more than $400,000. It will grind 700 tons of beets daily, making 15,000 tons of sugar in the four months of the season. He is also considering the erection of a sugar factory in Montana.

THE SILVER SENATORS.

Secretary Carlisle Says They Control the Situation in the Interest of Free Coinage.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—The following letter from Secretary Carlisle has been received here:

"Washington, D. C., Sept. 30, 1896.—To Mr. William C. Smith, Louisville, Ky.: My Dear Sir: Your favor of the 28th inst. is just received. There is a majority in the United States senate in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and eight or ten of the free silver senators have announced their purpose to defeat the passage of any tariff bill in congress unless a free coinage provision shall be inserted in it. They were sufficiently strong at the last session to prevent the passage of a tariff bill, and if they adhere to their purpose, as announced, they can also prevent it hereafter. Very truly yours, 'J. G. Carlisle.'"

Mr. Carlisle has also written to Louisville friends that he will come to Kentucky on October 16 to make five minute speeches.

Mr. Bryan Addressed An Enthusiastic Assemblage of Hoosiers at Jeffersonville To-day.

Tom Watson Has Given Out His Letter of Acceptance—Complaining Document—McKinley Continues to Work His Front Porch.

Louisville, Oct. 6.—Mr. Bryan arrived at Louisville this morning shortly after 7 o'clock and was met by Gov. Matthews and the Indiana reception committee. He crossed into Indiana at 7:30 o'clock, arriving in Jeffersonville in time to fill his first speaking appointment.

On the platform at Jeffersonville were sixteen little girls dressed in white, and one clothed in yellow.

Mr. Bryan said: "I am always glad to go into any community where they have a special interest in the name of Jefferson, because the principles which we advocate, but for the additional reason that those principles are in harmony with the teaching of the father of the Democratic party. The followers of Hamilton denied that the followers of Jefferson were capable of self-government. The people who opposed Jefferson, honestly I have no doubt, doubted whether the people at large would ever be capable of exercising the right of self-government. Jefferson had confidence in the people and they had confidence in him. (Applause.)

"I have heard that in some cities of Indiana the employers have notified the employees that they would not open business if I was elected. Now, my friends, if you will look at the charters granted to those corporations, you will find that in not a single case have the laws of Indiana authorized the organization of corporations for the purpose of

Tom Watson's Letter of Acceptance.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—Tom Watson has dictated a letter accepting the Populist nomination for vice-president. He calls attention to the fact that during the St. Louis convention, a caucus of "middle-of-the-road" delegates, representing twenty-one states, agreed to nominate Norton, of Illinois, for president, and Birket, of Mississippi, for vice-president. That ticket, Watson says, would have made Bryan's defeat absolutely certain. But when Watson telegraphed that he was willing to accept second place on the ticket with Bryan, the "middle-of-the-road" men, believing that the Democratic managers would support the arrangement in good faith, withdrew their opposition to Bryan. Watson's letter is practically a demonstration that the Populist candidate for vice-president deserves the support of all who favor Bryan's election.

Attempted Bribery in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 6.—The Marion county grand jury will investigate the reported attempted bribery of the Populist committee of thirteen in the interest of the "middle-of-the-road" campaign.

McKinley's Front Porch.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 6.—The regular Port Wayne train this morning brought two extra coaches filled with shouting McKinley men from East Brady, Clarion county, Pa. They carried a banner that announced the party as "plutoocrats, of Clarion county, Pa."

The delegation was introduced by N. E. Graham and addressed by Major McKinley from his front porch.

THE CUBAN CRIME.

Prisoners Are Nightly Taken Out into the Havana Harbor and Fed to the Sharks by the Spaniards.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 6.—Butcheries on an awful scale are being perpetrated nightly at Havana, according to a letter received from one of the most reliable correspondents at the Cuban capital.

Every night at police headquarters prisoners are taken out, entered on the books as released, placed in boats, rowed outside of the harbor and drowned. The officers come back without the prisoners. This action has been watched night after night from the 15th to the 30th of September. Eighty three prisoners have disappeared this way.

The Cubans and Morroca castle prisoners are taken out and drowned the same way. They are taken out in the harbor so that sharks will devour their bodies.

SKIRMISH AT LEADVILLE.

Leadville, Colo., Oct. 6.—A report reached military headquarters about noon to-day of a skirmish last night at the Reurrection mine between soldiers and strikers.

Eight armed men approached close to the mine and opened fire on the guards. Both soldiers and assailants sought shelter behind the rocks and kept up the shooting for about twenty minutes.

Whether anyone was killed or wounded is not known. All is quiet to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland.

Buxford Bay, Oct. 6.—President Cleveland left here for Jersey city on E. C. Benedict's steam yacht to-day. Mrs. Cleveland and the children took the train for Greenwich, Conn., via Providence, at 8:20.

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—The forest fires about Pasadena are growing. The Echo Mountain hotel and the Mt. Lowe railroad houses are surrounded and in extreme danger. The Lowe observatory is as yet safe, but may not live through the fires, which are almost beyond control.

FLOODS IN MEXICO.

Hundreds of Lives Lost and Immense Damage Done to Property—Appeal for Help.

Gundalajara, Mexico, Oct. 6.—Overland advices from Mazatlan state that the damage wrought by the recent floods in the state of Sinaloa is much greater than first estimated. All the rivers were out of their banks and a number of villages and farm houses were washed away.

Over 100 bodies have been recovered and many others are missing.

The damage to shipping interests is believed to be very great. A public appeal will be made for funds to relieve the wants of the storm sufferers.

ELECTION IN FLORIDA.

Passing Off Quietly—Large Vote Being Polled—Democratic Victory Conceded—Connecticut Town Elections.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 6.—The state election is passing off quietly in this city with indication of a large vote.

Chairman Rawls, of the Democratic executive committee, claims that Blocher, the Populist party, but he will receive, in Democratic campaign for governor, will have 22,000 plurality. The Republican chairman concedes Blocher 12,000 more than the Republican nominee, Gunby.

CONNECTICUT HAS GONE REPUBLICAN.

Hartford, Conn.—There is great jubilation at the headquarters of the Republican state committee to-day as a result of the town elections. In 125 towns a large Republican gain is shown and two towns are gained outright. The comparisons are compared with two years ago when the Republicans benefited by the political landslide.

Samuel S. Eddy, secretary of the committee, said: "We did not expect so great a victory. We naturally look upon it as a triumph. Two years ago we reached what we thought our zenith when we carried the state by 11,000. If we base our predictions upon yesterday's result, we should expect a much greater majority on November 3. Of course, in many towns, local issues complicate the elections greatly, but, making allowances for all such complications and taking into consideration everything, the committee expects Connecticut to roll up a majority of not less than 25,000.

A Mystery.

How the human system ever recovers from the bad effects of the numerous medicines often liberally poured into it for the supposed relief of dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, rheumatism and other ailments, is a mystery. The mischief done by bad medicine is scarcely less than that caused by disease. If they who are weak, bilious, dyspeptic, constipated or rheumatic would be guided by the experience of invalids who have thoroughly tested Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they would in every instance obtain the speediest aid derivable from rational medication. This medicine is a searching and at the same time a thoroughly safe remedy, derived from vegetable sources and possessing, in consequence of its basis of pure spirits, properties as a medicinal stimulant not to be found in the fiery local bitters and stimulants often resorted to by the debilitated, dyspeptic and languid.

THE LAST BEFORE NOVEMBER

People of Georgia Will Vote for State Officers To-morrow—Interest in Result.

BIG DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY PREDICTED

Contest is Between Silver Democrats and Populists—Anomalous as it May Seem Goldites Are Supporting Populist Candidates.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—The state of Georgia will hold a state election to-morrow. It will be of national interest because the lines have been very closely drawn, and a Democratic victory will mean more than the Republican victory meant in Maine.

A conservative estimate, based on the claims of different party leaders and gathered from reliable information, which comes direct from the various counties, gives 40,000 as the plurality which the Democratic ticket will receive. Two years ago the Democratic state ticket received a plurality of a little more than 20,000. This year there have been many complications in the campaign, and the Democratic candidates are being fought from within and without; yet, despite the fact, there is every reason to expect a more signal victory than that of two years ago.

There will be an effort to discount a Democratic victory by claiming that the platform of the Populists is identical with that of the Democrats, and that the issues given in this campaign are strictly state issues. On the surface, there seems to be truth in this estimate of the situation; but beneath the surface it is seen that not only will Seaborn Wright, the Populist candidate for governor, receive the votes of a large number of those who have heretofore voted with the Populist party, but he will receive, in addition, the votes of the prohibition politicians—followers of the national prohibition party—and he has received the very active assistance of most of the men who lead the gold standard fight here in Georgia.

It may seem an anomalous condition, this of the gold standard men supporting a Populist, but they claim that at heart Wright is opposed to the free coinage of silver; and they are bitterly opposed to Atkinson, because he and his friends were most active in carrying the state for silver, and in making a platform which so clearly outlined that subsequently adopted by the national convention at Chicago. A great many of these Democrats fight under cover, and for that reason it was at first believed that they would make serious inroads into Atkinson's vote. The result of which has been going on for months is, however, disappointing to these people; for, while the Populist leaders are just as active in their opposition to Democracy as they were two years ago, many of the rank and file of the party, being more interested in principles than in men, have gone back into the Democratic party and are doing their part to pile up a majority which will be Georgia's answer to Maine.

The colored leaders, the more intelligent of them, at least, are for Atkinson because of his record during his term of office, in which he has proved himself anxious to give the negro full justice and to look after his rights.

The registration indicates a fuller vote than two years ago, and a good proportion of

THE NEGROES HAVE REGISTERED.

In some sections they are reported as being almost a unit for the Democratic state ticket, while in others they are for the Populist ticket; so it is, perhaps, a fair estimate to say that this vote will be equally divided between the two parties which have tickets in the field, and therefore the votes received by the heads of these two tickets will indicate clearly the respective proportions into which the white people are divided.

There is every reason to believe that Atkinson's plurality will be in the neighborhood of 40,000. In view of the way that the campaign has lined up, with the active workers of the gold element supporting the Populist nominees, that 40,000 votes will indicate how strongly silver is in the majority here in Georgia. It is a vote which means much more to the country at large than the vote in Vermont, where there was no division as to the money question, or the vote on Maine, where there was less than a month's campaigning for silver. Here in Georgia the agitation has been going on for two years, and the gold cause has been in able hands.

The people of Georgia have studied the financial question, have had it presented to them in every possible light; have withstood the cajoleries of administration politicians and the temptation of administration paps; and will declare overwhelmingly for the cause of the people.

BEFORE I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease I had spent hundreds of dollars trying various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to

OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

ARTHUR SEWALL,
OF MAINE.

FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS,

H. B. FERGUSSON.

"New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arizona are entitled to statehood and their early admission is demanded by their material and political interests."—W. J. Bryan's letter accepting the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

At present 254 electoral votes are in sight for Bryan. Make a note of it, dear reader!

The Silver City Enterprise doesn't have one word of comment on the curious Republican platform. The Las Cruces Republican "regrets" Catron's nomination, and the Las Vegas Optic and Chloride Black Range utterly repudiate both Catron and the platform. Gentlemen, this is Democratic year in New Mexico. Get into the band-wagon.

The Republicans have of late laid great stress on the assertion that California, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia were absolutely and dead sure safe for McKinley, but we notice that the New York gamblers are not so sure about it, and they are pretty good judges. They decline to give any sort of odds on these states in favor of the Mc-Hanna syndicate's nominee.

AS TO PRINCE.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Las Vegas Examiner, is paving the air over ex-Gov. Prince's refusal to refuse the territorial Populist nomination for delegate to congress. The New Mexican has no advice as to Gov. Prince's position in this contest, but, after some fifteen years acquaintance with him as a citizen and a public man, its editor has no difficulty in reaching the conclusion that Gov. Prince, as well as any other man on earth, knows just where he is "at," and when the time comes—it may be tomorrow—he will do the right thing! Gov. Prince has always had at heart the success of the cause of silver and he'll do nothing now, we believe, to jeopardize the success of that cause.

CALLING THEM DOWN.

"The Globe," a quarterly review, of literature, society, religion, art and politics, published in New York City by Wm. Henry Thorne, so cleverly calls down Bourke Cookran and the poor old Boston Herald that we are constrained to quote from him a paragraph—the New Mexican sincerely wishes the space would justify quoting the entire article. Says Editor Thorne:

"In a word, neither gold nor silver has any intrinsic or settled value other than that set upon either by the several nations of the world. Were all the nations to adopt a silver standard and demote gold, Bourke could wear his gold dollars for brass buttons—not that he needs any more brass. A silver dollar that the American government coins for a dollar, calls a dollar, and is willing to receive for all taxes, duties or what not—in a word, makes current coin or full legal tender—is worth exactly 100 cents for all purposes in this land; and the man that traduces it, calls it worth only 64 cents or, as in the Boston Herald, in August last, worth only 32 cents, is a liar and a traitor to the commercial name and honor of this great nation, and deserves to be hanged as a traitor—far more than if he insulted the flag of the nation, or plotted a foreign invasion.

"It is time to gag these conscienceless, irresponsible, ignorant, scribbling slaves of the golding vampires of the Old World."

REFORM IN COUNTY AFFAIRS.

The New Mexican yesterday reproduced from the Albuquerque Democrat, under the head of press comment, an article on the subject of needed reform in our method of county government. We are persuaded that the Democrat is wrong in its sweeping assertion that most of our county officers are paid excessive salaries; that "some of the salaries could be reduced to one-fourth the sum now paid, and nearly all to one-half, and still give our officials better pay for their services than the most of them could get in any other line of business." So far as the salaries of officers are concerned, while some of them would be "dear at any price," we do not believe that the facts will bear out the statement that many of them are accorded more than the services of competent men ought to command and that if salaries were generally reduced it would simply result in worse service than the counties are now receiving.

But unquestionably most of the counties are in wretched financial condition and remedial legislation is urgently demanded. Such legislation, however, should seek out the cause and apply an adequate remedy. What is the cause of the trouble? Of course much of the financial distress in the counties is attributable to the extravagance and incompetency of past boards of county commissioners, which have piled up large bonded and floating debts and thereby disabled most of the counties from paying cash for anything. Owing to this fact the counties, instead of being able to buy their supplies and such things as they require of the lowest bidder, are obliged to pay whatever is asked by the highest bidder, and thus they pay excessive prices, often two or three prices, for everything they buy, all of which augments their debts (which must sooner or later be paid) at an alarming rate and puts them further and further from a cash basis.

If the next legislature can provide a remedy for this crying evil, can devise a method whereby the counties can pay as they go in future and prevent the further increase of the floating debts, it will confer a real blessing upon them.

PRESS COMMENT.

May Be!

What happened to those forty-two delegates at the Republican convention who said they would do anything rather than take another dose of Catronism? Will they be heard from at the polls?—Raton Reporter.

Which?

Read the platforms adopted by the Republicans at Las Vegas and that of the Democrats at Santa Fe. The Republicans are in favor of silver and they are opposed to silver; they indorse the St. Louis platform, yet they didn't indorse it; a man with only one leg can not stand on such a platform, for if ever there was a platform that was a straddle this one is certainly astride of the main question in this contest—that of free coinage. It was manufactured for the purpose of conciliating both the gold and silver contingent of the party, but failed to satisfy either.

Then take a look at the declarations of the Democrats at Santa Fe. It is not necessary to read between the lines and the meaning of their platform. It is clean cut and a strong indorsement of the Chicago platform as adopted by the national Democracy. It believes in free coinage, said to emphatically, and did not resort to the subterfuge of favoring silver by an "international agreement."

After placing these declarations side by side, take a glance at the candidates of the respective parties—Catron, a man of brains and energy, beyond question, but of a very shady character—Fergusson, a man equal to Catron in every respect, except mentally, and a man who would make a typical representative. The Democrats can not and do not ask anything better than an examination, by the voters of New Mexico, of both platforms and candidates.—Lincoln News.

The PECOS VALLEY of . . . NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.

The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables, berries and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portions in particular the finest apple country in the world.

Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.

The cultivation of mangrove—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.

The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.

Lands with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times rapid, increase in value.

The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Felix section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several places of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

A Mystery.

How the human system ever recovers from the bad effects of the numerous medicines often literally poured into it for the supposed relief of dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, rheumatism and other ailments, is a mystery. The mischief done by bad medicine is scarcely less than that caused by disease. If they who are weak, bilious, dyspeptic, constipated or rheumatic would be guided by the experience of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, they would in every instance obtain the speediest and most reliable relief. This medicine is a searching and at the same time a thoroughly safe remedy, derived from vegetable sources and possessing, in consequence of its basis of pure spirits, properties as a medicinal stimulant not to be found in the fiery local bitters and stimulants often resorted to by the debilitated, dyspeptic and languid.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by all druggists.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Come thou again to wooed glades, And lead the white doves coo; Bring back the heart that dwelt in me And stole away to you.

FIVE THOUSAND.

"My dear girl, you'll have to let me off. I'm awfully sorry, but the gov. won't give way. I'm really fond of you, and I think you are of me, but—"

"Oh, why didn't I want to marry a decent barrister, a doctor, or even a journalist, instead of an earl's younger son?" said Miss Muriel Mallett, with a frown on her pretty face and a tear or two in her large, limpid eyes—eyes which made all the men think, wrongly, that she was poetical and sentimental. "But, seriously, can you give me up?"

The Hon. Bob Martindale looked at her. She was just his ideal—tall, well built, but with a saucy face in which the big black eyes seemed out of place, if fascinating. There was her countenance the strangeness which, according to Bacon, is necessary to great beauty. She affected a tallor-made gown and was always well groomed. Yet, though her dress was a trifle mannish, in the brusque movements which she showed that she was a fighter, she was a fighter.

"My dear girl, if it were a question of risking my life or allowing like that I wouldn't hesitate. If it were even one of those affairs of fellows who, for a few hours of—of—well, you know, gladly die, I'd be there, but—I can't be a cad. They have brought me up as a swell without any profession, and I'm a bit of a fool, and I couldn't live on my earnings as an actress, so there you are."

Miss Muriel sighed. Bob was a handsome fellow and manly, and he would have the title and estates some day if two obstacles were to disappear.

"I did like you, Bob, and do, and you were always straight. I should like to have been your wife. If I could've had some money to run a theatrical company with!"

"Yes, if I hadn't been such a juggins as to blue the five thou. old Uncle Tom left me—I didn't know you then." She started a little. "You will marry me if ever I have £5,000? Oh, you'd have to work; have to be my manager."

He nodded. "It's a promise for two years?" "Yes."

"Honor bright?" "Of course, if—" "I run straight?" "Well, look here! We've been engaged—honorably—and you want to break it off."

"I'm young, only 24, even at Somerset House. I'd like to have married you, and I should have been a good wife too. However, some day I may want to marry some one else."

The man shuddered. "A broken engagement isn't a certificate of good character. You must give me one. That's fair."

"She got up and wheeled to him a little round table, on which was a crocodile skin writing pad with silver edges. She opened it, took out writing paper and found him pen and ink."

"Now, then, write this: 'MY DEAR MISS MALLETT—It is my painful duty to tell you that I have made fruitless a desperate effort to gain my father's consent to our marriage. He utterly refuses, saying that he is so old fashioned as to object to have an actress as daughter-in-law. Therefore I am compelled to break off my engagement with a woman whom I still love and esteem.'"

The Hon. Bob signed the letter sadly. "Now be off. I've to go to rehearsal. No, you mustn't drive me down. Once more, if within two years I have five thou. as capital, you promise you will marry me."

"Yes, darling, on my word of honor!" With a swift movement she threw her arms around his neck and kissed him passionately. A minute later he found himself in the street, and he bowed and bawled.

That evening there was rejoicing in the big mansion in Belgrave square, and the Earl of Hexham drank too much in honor of the return to respectability of the prodigal Bob.

"Well, soon find you a wife, my boy," he said over the port, which he drank in honor of the affair and in defiance of god and doctor's orders. "None of your rich American trash, but some one of decent family and the sort of solid, reasonable dowry that a younger son deserves."

Next morning at 12 o'clock, when the earl was vainly trying to put on his boots without swearing at the pain, the Hon. Bob entered the library with a document in his hand. "I never thought she'd have done it, sir," he said.

"Done what?" "Look! The beastly thing says, 'The plaintiff claims damages for breach of promise of marriage.'"

"Bring me my slippers!" shouted the earl. "D—n the horse! Send round the brougham!"

Off he went to Lincoln's Inn Fields. "You'd better settle," said Mr. Ponder, the old family lawyer.

"Settle," he shouted, "settle! I'll show up the baggage, the—I'll put every detective in London on the job. I'm not afraid of court, and when the jury hears what she really is!"

"Don't talk about scandal. Enter an appearance and leave the rest to me."

"My dear governor," interrupted Bob, who had accompanied him, "be fair to the girl. I didn't think Muriel would have done it, but she's perfectly straight. I'd stake my life on it."

"Nonsense, Bob. You're a fool, and you'd better stay abroad till the affair's over. I'll attend to it. I'll show her how to fight."

tion and very poor powers of observation—and the skinning being done under the earl's supervision. Bob was to have staid away till after the trial. However, an urgent letter from a club friend of his father brought him home in a hurry. He arrived in the evening and going to the Carlton learned that the case was in the list for next day. When he reached Belgrave square and was shown into the library, he found his father with Mr. Hicks, his Bedford row solicitor. There was a row going on at a high pitch.

"Pray tell your father he must settle," said Mr. Hicks.

"Settle, be damned!" interrupted the old boy.

"Settle, I say," rejoined the solicitor. "You see, Mr. Martindale, Sir Edward says he won't cross examine the plaintiff as to her character. He suggests that the material is absurd, and he does not believe a word of the detective's story. He says he'd sooner return the brief, and—"

"And the check?" gasped the earl.

"Yes, and the check. He says there's no decent defense, and he won't try to support the detective's tissue of lies. Moreover, he insists that if he had to fall and the damages and disgrace would be awful."

"What does it matter to me?" shouted the old gentleman. "It's not my case. It's my son's."

"That's a bit steep," observed the son. "My retainer is from you, my lord."

"Oh, I'll pay your confounded costs, but where will they get their damages from?" Bob groaned.

"They've told me they'll make him bankrupt," replied Mr. Hicks, "and his discharge will be suspended for two years at least."

"What has that to do with me?" said the earl grimly.

Bob interposed. "Lord Salisbury has many claims on his patronage, and in my bankruptcy he'd find a decent excuse for leaving me out in the cold."

The earl had no gout, but he managed without its help to use very vigorous language concerning sons, solicitors, advocates and actresses.

"They will take £5,000 for damages, with a full apology and withdrawal in open court," said Mr. Hicks, "and £500 for costs."

"An apology! A withdrawal!"

"A withdrawal of all the charges on the record."

Next day, to the infinite disgust of the reporters and the crowded court, Sir Edgeworth, in a graceful speech, made an apology of the most ample character, withdrew all imputations and announced that £5,000 would be paid as compensation for the injury to the lady, together with her costs.

The Morning Post on the morning announced that the Earl of Hexham had gone to Bunn.

When the honorable Robert, a day later, received a letter from Muriel saying she was most anxious to see him, he took a cab to Brompton crescent and grew more and more perplexed every inch of the way.

Miss Muriel, looking very neat, natty, handsome and plump, with a prodigious glow of life in her eyes, shook hands with him warmly and made him sit down on the sofa by her side. For a quarter of an hour she stimulated his curiosity by talking about nothing in particular. At last his patience broke down.

"Look here, Muriel, we've some money to run a theatrical company with!"

"Yes, if I hadn't been such a juggins as to blue the five thou. old Uncle Tom left me—I didn't know you then."

"You will marry me if ever I have £5,000? Oh, you'd have to work; have to be my manager."

He nodded. "It's a promise for two years?" "Yes."

"Honor bright?" "Of course, if—" "I run straight?" "Well, look here! We've been engaged—honorably—and you want to break it off."

"I'm young, only 24, even at Somerset House. I'd like to have married you, and I should have been a good wife too. However, some day I may want to marry some one else."

The man shuddered. "A broken engagement isn't a certificate of good character. You must give me one. That's fair."

"She got up and wheeled to him a little round table, on which was a crocodile skin writing pad with silver edges. She opened it, took out writing paper and found him pen and ink."

"Now, then, write this: 'MY DEAR MISS MALLETT—It is my painful duty to tell you that I have made fruitless a desperate effort to gain my father's consent to our marriage. He utterly refuses, saying that he is so old fashioned as to object to have an actress as daughter-in-law. Therefore I am compelled to break off my engagement with a woman whom I still love and esteem.'"

The Hon. Bob signed the letter sadly. "Now be off. I've to go to rehearsal. No, you mustn't drive me down. Once more, if within two years I have five thou. as capital, you promise you will marry me."

"Yes, darling, on my word of honor!" With a swift movement she threw her arms around his neck and kissed him passionately. A minute later he found himself in the street, and he bowed and bawled.

When a man is ruined and there is no help for it, a good wife is his only stay and comfort left to him. But no man, who is a man, wants to put his wife to this extremity. For a woman in her gentle nature suffers with the husband and she comforts and consoles. It is a humiliation to any proud woman that the man of her choice should prove at last a failure—broken in purse and in spirit. Back of all business failures lies ill-health. No man who is suffering from brain fog, nervous prostration and debility, due to impure blood and a disordered digestion can long succeed in business. Every woman should make it her duty to see that her husband takes proper care of his health.

The best medicine in all the world for hard-worked business men is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a medicine for both body and mind. It makes the digestion good, the liver active, and the appetite keen. It fills the blood with the life-giving elements that build new tissues. It invigorates and purifies. It is the one great blood-maker and flesh-builder. There's nothing in the market "just as good."

A. L. Purdy, Esq., of Otterpond, Caldwell Co., Ky., writes: "I herewith inclose 31 one-cent stamps to pay for one of your cloth-bound Medical Advisers. I know your book to be a good one. I had suffered seven years with liver complaint when I read about your 'Golden Medical Discovery' in one of your books. After using a box of Dr. Pierce's Discovery and the 'Pleasant Pellets' I was completely cured."

One copy of a good, practical, medical work is more in a home than a thousand words of fiction. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is the best home medical book extant. It contains 1,008 pages and three hundred illustrations and is written in plain, everyday language that any one may understand. Over a million women own copies of it and 650,000 of them paid $1.50 each for their copies. A new and large edition will be given away free to every woman who writes for a copy in a paper cover, send twenty-one one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 661 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. If you desire a fine French cloth binding, send ten cents extra—thirty-one cents in all.

TERRITORIAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The representatives of the Democratic party of the territory of New Mexico, in convention assembled at Santa Fe, on this 29th day of September, 1896, reaffirm our allegiance to the principles of the Democratic party as declared by its founders and as believed that, for the first time in more than thirty years, the party has returned in its platform declarations to the principles enunciated by Jefferson and by Jackson. We, therefore, indorse every sentence of the Chicago platform, and declare that we believe it to be the best expression of Democratic faith ever emanating from an assembly of Democrats, and, while thus indorsing and adopting the Chicago platform, we desire particularly to express our gratitude to the members of that convention for those portions of that platform which, without equivocation, and in language which can not be misunderstood, favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the consent of any other nation, and which declare for a tariff for revenue with duties so adjusted as to operate equally throughout the country, and also discriminating between class and section, thus guaranteeing to our wool and live stock interests that same measure of protection which is accorded by law to the manufacturing industries of the country.

We heartily indorse the nomination of that magnificent exponent of Democracy, the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, and of Arthur Sewall, of Maine, always a steadfast friend of silver, whose selection refutes the oft repeated charge that the Democracy of the country seeks in this campaign to array section against section and class against class.

We heartily indorse the present Democratic administration of affairs in this territory by the governor, secretary and the judiciary thereof, as well as the officials of the land department including the surveyors-general, the registrars and receivers of the various land offices, the United States marshal, the internal revenue collector, the assistant U. S. attorney for New Mexico, and the inspector of mines, and we commend the solicitor-general and the several district attorneys of the territory for the ability and zeal with which they have administered the laws of the territory, contributing so much to the suppression of crime and the punishment of criminals.

We invite the attention of all intelligent voters of the territory of New Mexico to the administration of county affairs in those counties where the Democrats control the county administration as compared with those other counties where the Republicans are in control, believing that such comparison can but be favorable to Democratic control.

We condemn the action of the Republican delegates in congress who, in managing subservient to the interest of his private clients the interests of the whole people of the territory of New Mexico, and preventing the passage by congress of needed legislation in the interest of the whole people, by amending the bill to validate the land patents for the territory and public institutions, including the hospital, so as to cast an enormous and unjust burden upon the already overburdened people of the territory of New Mexico in the interest of his private clients. We point to him as a most conspicuous failure, so far as securing legislation in which the whole people are interested, and a complete success in his efforts to further his own selfish ends.

We declare our belief that only through the success of the Democratic party is statehood for New Mexico possible, and the Republican delegate in congress having failed to pass the bill for statehood, we call the special attention of the residents of this territory to the national platform and to the declaration of the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, in his letter of acceptance, in favor of statehood.

We call attention to the hardship inflicted upon our people by the lack of legislation throwing open to prospectors the mineral wealth claimed land grants in this territory, and we pledge the nominees of this convention to use all honorable means to secure the necessary legislation to correct this evil at the earliest possible moment.

Speed and safety are the watch words of the age. One Minute Cough Cure acts speedily, safely and never fails. Asthma, bronchitis, coughs and colds are cured by it. Fischer & Co.'s drug store.

CAPTIVES OF CUPID.

Mr. Charles W. Dudrow and Miss Madge Taylor United in Marriage This Morning in Wedding Trip to Denver.

At 10:30 this morning, by the Rev. R. M. Craig, at the residence of the bride's mother, in the city of Santa Fe, Miss Madge Taylor was married to Mr. Charles W. Dudrow, both of this city.

The ceremony that united the lives of these excellent people was witnessed by a score of intimate personal friends, whose cordial congratulations were evidently sincere and heartfelt. The presents were numerous, costly and handsome, and the floral decorations were elaborate and beautiful. The house was literally filled with the fragrance of flowers.

The ceremony was followed with a delicious wedding breakfast, after which Mr. and Mrs. Dudrow were driven to the Denver & Rio Grande station, whence they took the morning train for a wedding trip to Denver and other Colorado points, carrying with them the good wishes of a host of Santa Fe friends.

Both of the parties to this interesting event are old residents of this city and deservedly rank high in the estimation of all. The New Mexican heartily joins their other friends in hoping that a large measure of health and happiness may attend their married life.

Just received at Fischer's, Butter-milk soap at popular prices.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

The curfew bell now rings regularly every night in Albuquerque.

In the absence of a quorum the board of education held no meeting last night. U. S. weather bureau forecast for New Mexico: Generally fair, cooler in north portion to-night; warmer Wednesday.

A telegram from Denver says the Santa Fe party arrived there at 4 o'clock this morning. All well and in good spirits.

Secretary J. D. Sosa gives notice that the McKinley and Hobart club will meet on Thursday evening at its headquarters in the Catron block.

Ex-Gov. Ross and wife, who were here on a visit, left this morning for Mesilla Park, where Mrs. Ross will visit her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Miles, for a few weeks, while the governor makes a trip to White Oaks and vicinity in the interest of the bureau of immigration.—Albuquerque Democrat.

Mr. A. J. Fischer, the druggist, and his popular clerk, Mr. Geo. Kirby, have gone to Las Vegas to attend the meeting of the territorial board of pharmacy. Mr. Fischer is a member of the board. Mr. Kirby goes to stand examination as to his qualifications as a druggist. Mr. Newton is in charge of the store during their absence.

Sheriff P. F. Garrett, of Dona Ana county, one of the best public officers and a true Democrat, is in town on official business and will remain several days. He arrived last night, bringing to the penitentiary Eleazar Freese, who goes in for five years on conviction of murder in the third degree. His penitentiary brand is No. 972.

Dr. R. A. Williams, of Olathe, Kas., who met with such rough treatment at the hands of the El Paso Times, was in town yesterday and left during the day for his home. While here Dr. Williams called at the New Mexican office and the check for $100 which had been left here, payable to the city poor upon condition that the El Paso Times could substantiate one word of its charges, was turned over to him, the Times having made full retraction. It will be remembered that the Times charged Dr. Williams with having informed the U. S. and Mexican consuls at El Paso that Santa Teresa was plotting against the Mexican authorities.

M. E. Church Conference. The New Mexico conference of the Methodist Episcopal church (South) for New Mexico, convened here yesterday with Bishop Joseph S. Key, D. D., of Sherman, Texas, presiding.

The ministers present are as follows: El Paso district—C. C. Edgington, P. E.; Eddy, C. J. Olney, El Paso; T. F. Sessions, Eddy; I. S. Patterson, Roswell; J. E. Sanders, Pecos, Texas; Mark Hodgson, Alpine, Texas; J. C. Gage, Hope; J. H. Angell, Alpine, Texas; W. Haggart, (local).

In addition to those who belong to the conference the visitors are: A. H. Sutherland, Durango, Mexico; David Morton, D. D., secretary of the church extension committee from Louisville, Ky., and W. R. Lambroth, missionary secretary for the general conference, Nashville, Tenn. The present church edifice not being adequate, and the new church not being finished, the Methodists have erected a tent at the corner of Third street and Pennsylvania avenues, in which to hold the conference.—Roswell Record.

County Commissioners.

The county commissioners met yesterday afternoon with Chairman Charles W. Dudrow presiding, Clerk A. P. Hill at the desk, and Commissioners W. C. Rogers and Pedro A. Lujan present.

Judges of election were appointed in the several precincts of the county and an election proclamation was ordered published.

The latter document will be found elsewhere in this paper and the list of judges and clerks appointed will be printed in these columns to-morrow.

POINTERS ON POLITICS.

Those Republicans in Santa Fe who have been betting on McKinley are pretty badly scared. They admit that Bryan has made "a remarkable showing" during the past two weeks and some of them have gone so far as to pull down their bets.

Hon. H. B. Ferguson left Santa Fe last night for San Miguel county. He yesterday made it his business to call on a large number of representative citizens of Santa Fe and on every hand he was accorded the warmest welcome and promised the most loyal support. Santa Fe county is to-day safe for Ferguson by several hundred majority.

Secretary J. L. Zimmerman, of the Bryan Silver club, this afternoon forwarded to the New York Journal, in behalf of the club, a third contribution for the national Democratic committee. This aggregates $150 sent on by this club, which means, after passing through Editor Hearst's hands, $300 for the good of the great cause.

The Bryan Silver club of Santa Fe was "right in it" at the convention of the National Association of Democratic clubs. On the committee on resolutions, ranking with the Democracy of Arkansas, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, Illinois, Kentucky, Kansas and Ohio, appears the name of Mr. J. H. Jettison, of New Mexico, the representative of the Santa Fe Bryan Silver club.

Senator H. D. Money, recently an honored visitor in Santa Fe, was elected permanent chairman to preside over the deliberations of the convention of National Association of Democratic clubs at St. Louis on Saturday afternoon last. This was a splendid tribute to the gentleman's Democracy, his ability as a statesman and his commanding position in the hearts of his countrymen, and the New Mexican, in common with his host of admiring friends in New Mexico, hereby sends him most cordial greetings.

The territorial board of pharmacy is in session in this city to-day with W. C. Porterfield, Silver City; B. Ruppe, Albuquerque; A. J. Fischer, Santa Fe, and E. G. Murphy, Las Vegas, in attendance. Considerable routine business is being transacted and a number of applicants are to be examined to-morrow, among whom are Dr. Cassel, of Deming, and George Kirby, of Santa Fe. The records show that some practicing pharmacists in the territory have not had their certificates renewed this past year, as the law requires, and are therefore liable to the penalty imposed by law.—Las Vegas Optic.

J. W. Turner, of Evans, Michigan, arrived the first of the week with 100 head of as fine rams as any one could expect to see anywhere. The lot consists of forty two Shropshires, thirty-four Rambouilles, fifteen Oxford, twelve Dorset and thirty-six of the Shropshires were bought upon an order from El Capitan company and have been sent to the ranch. The others can be seen on the lots at R. S. Hamilton's place, on Main street. These are all first-class sheep, are thoroughly liable to the excellent specimens.—Roswell Record.

A POLITICAL INCIDENT.

One of Senator Money's Constituents Runs a Carriage to Cover—M. A. Downing in the Swim at Washington.

Mortimer A. Downing, formerly editor of the Santa Fe Republican and late private secretary of Delegate Catron, is quite in the swim at Washington.

When Senator Money was a visitor in Santa Fe he received a letter from a constituent of his, a Mississippi negro named L. C. Moore, announcing that he had resigned his place as messenger in the U. S. treasury department—to which Senator Money had secured his appointment—because, as he explained, he considered that a conscientious Democrat could not consistently serve under men who had bolted the true Democratic platform and the regular party nominees.

The idea that one of his colored constituents should prove so thoroughly loyal, while no surprise to him, gave Senator Money intense pleasure, and he immediately wrote Mr. Moore commending the stand he had taken.

Last Friday night Moore, who is known as a poet of no mean ability, a student and an orator, was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Lakeland Silver club in Washington City. He made a brilliant address and ably supported the cause of Democracy, Bryan and free coinage. During his talk he intimated that he would like to debate the issues of the campaign with his former chief, Logan Carlisle, son of the secretary of the treasury. Accordingly, a formal challenge was sent Mr. Carlisle, and as a result the following appears in the Washington dispatches of Sunday:

"Mr. Logan Carlisle has given out the following explanatory note for publication: 'I have received a letter signed by one Mortimer A. Downing, secretary, challenging me, on behalf of the district branch of the Lakeland club, to show, in joint debate, with one L. C. Moore, formerly a laborer in the treasury department, wherein my Democracy differs from the faith of this colored man. I am not sure that this is not merely one of the numerous Popocratic forgeries that are now floating about, but, assuming it to be genuine, I must, in view of the peculiar management of the Popocratic crusades, take this challenge as a great compliment. The Lakeland club places upon me a higher estimate than is placed upon my father by the Popocratic fusion organization in Kentucky, when the latter challenges him to joint debate with Joe Blackburn, and as each organization has selected its ablest and foremost champion of Popocracy to represent it in debate, the courtesy of the challenge is duly appreciated.'"

THESE Celebrated Hot Springs are located in the midst of the Ancient Cliff dwellers, twenty-five miles west of Taos and fifty miles north of Santa Fe, and about twelve miles from Barranca Station on the Denver & Rio Grande Railway, from which point a daily line of stages run to the Springs. The temperature of these waters is from 90° to 125°. The gases are carbonic. Altitude 5,000 feet. Climate very dry and delightful the year round. The efficacy of these waters has been thoroughly tested by the miraculous cures attested to in the following diseases: Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Consumption, Malaria, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Syphilitic affections, etc., etc. Board, Lodging and Bathing, $2.50 per day.
