Let's have no unseemly delay about this Borrego business. The case is now before the U. S. supreme court. Justice, humanity and common decency demand that it be pushed to a finish. The sooner the better.

As long as the Borregos can be made a political issue Catron and his Button gang are happy. That subject serves to distract public attention from the Brice-Coler bond steal. Ah, all these fellows are out for the stuff, the yellow stuff!

It is rather queer that the price of wool goes up as the figures on Bryan's majority increase. When the New Mexican advised wool growers of New Mexico to hold their wool it was in anticipation of this very result.

Watson and his crowd and all the Republicans helping them were unable to make a break in the Democracy of Georgia last week. Georgia has doubled its Democratic plurality of two years ago. Let the goldites and corporation Republicans make the most of it.

Up to date the Las Vegas Optic, Chloride Black Range and the Las Cruces Republican, all staunch, tried and true Republican newspapers in past years, have repudiated Candidate Catron and his crowd. This means something, eh, ye bondholders?

That was a strong and timely response which Mr. Bryan made to the St. Paul labor organizations who presented him with a handsome gold pen and silver holder: "If I am elected president," said the great champion of the plain peoples' rights, "I shall use this pen and holder in signing a free coinage bill." That speech is worth as much to Democracy's cause as any column article ever written.

BETTER THINK OVER IT.

The lifting of a mortgage for $20,000 and a fee of $10,000 contingent on favorable action by congress in validating the Coler-Brice bonds—these are said to be the terms of the deal. And this is all right for the party of the first part, but the fact that such validation would confiscate most of the property of Santa Fe county and saddle upon our people a debt acknowledged to be fraudulent and unlawful ought to set our citizens to thinking.

ON A HIGH PLANE.

Here is a sample of the stuff sent out by the Republican territorial committee's literary bureau for publication as campaign material in the interest of Mr. Catron:

"The New Mexican will again try the Borrego murder cases."—Albuquerque Citizen.

"The New Mexican is still trying the Borrego cases up in Santa Fe."—Las Cruces Republican.

This, in lieu of any pretense at undertaking to sustain the principles of their party or to meet the numerous, oft-repeated and grave charges brought against their boss whipper-in and candidate for congress!

Here we have perched upon a high moral plane a campaign of principle, surely!

Everybody knows that, while always standing up for law and order, the New Mexican has not once violated the ethics of good journalism in the Borrego or any other criminal case pending before our courts.

Doubtless the honest Republican citizens of New Mexico are touched with pride over the campaign methods of these Catronists.

PRESS COMMENT.

The Mountain Districts.

The nomination of H. B. Ferguson for territorial delegate to congress meets with the enthusiastic approval of the citizens of this section. It looks now as though it would be as easy as sliding down hill for Ferguson to carry every mountain precinct.—Elizabethtown Miner.

Santa Fe County Tambien.

There seems to be little or no doubt that Tom Catron will fall a long way short of getting the Republican support of Siera county. The silver issue was too ruthlessly turned down at the convention at Las Vegas to suit the voters of a county whose interests have so thoroughly suffered by the decline in the value of the white metal. When the taxable valuation of a county declines from $5,000,000 to a little over $1,000,000 in ten years the few that remain with their depreciated interests do not feel like supporting a man that is willing to keep them there.—Chloride Black Range.

Whose Friend is Catron?

Correspondence of the Optic: The people want honesty of purpose. Promises don't go. They want substance and honest representation. Ferguson alone can give it. If any one doubts the above, search the record of both men and be convinced. Ferguson is the poor man's friend. Whose friend is Catron? Monopoly and the grant-owners. God help the miners, if Catron could handle them. Will he, Catron, tell us what he did with that bill sent him from Albuquerque, to aid in settling the land grant and give the miner a show to help himself by being owner of the ore of the mineral he worked so hard to put on the dump, and not be obliged to abandon it, by the so-called grant-owner? FAIR PLAY.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

FOR PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

ARTHUR SEWALL,
OF MAINE.

FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS,

H. B. FERGUSON.

"New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arizona are entitled to statehood and their early admission is demanded by their material and political interests."—W. J. Bryan's letter accepting the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

DEMOCRACY ON WOOL AND OTHER INDUSTRIES.

"We hold that tariff duties should be levied for purposes of revenue, such duties to be so adjusted as to operate equally throughout the country and not to discriminate between class or section and that taxation should be limited by the needs of the government honestly and economically administered."

"We denounce as disturbing to business the Republican threat to restore the McKinley law, which has been twice condemned by the people in national elections and which, enacted under the false plea of protection to home industry, proved a prolific breeder of trusts and monopolies; enriched the few at the expense of the many; restricted trade and deprived producers of the great American staples of access to their natural markets."—National Democratic Platform, 1896.

"We indorse every sentence of the Chicago platform and declare that we believe it to be the best expression of Democratic faith ever emanating from an assembly of Democrats, and while thus indorsing and adopting the Chicago platform, we desire particularly to express our gratitude to the members of that convention for those portions of that platform which, without equivocation, and in language which can not be misunderstood, favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the consent of any other nation, and which declare for a tariff for revenue with duties so adjusted as to operate equally throughout the country, and not discriminating between class or section, thus guaranteeing to our wool and livestock interests that same measure of protection which is accorded by law to the manufacturing industries of the country."—New Mexico Democratic Platform, 1896.

It now looks as if Palmer and Hooker would join Tom Watson and get off and out of the way before ten days more have rolled around. This means a clean sweep for Bryan and Sewall.

How's this? Not a letter from ex-Jov. Stever, nor Judge Rodey, nor the Hon. D. P. Carr, nor Capt. Cooney since Catron's nomination. None of 'em have the nerve of Anselma. He speaks out and quits 'em cold.

NEW MEXICAN PRINTING COMPANY.

The PECOS VALLEY of . . . NEW MEXICO

OFFERS unequalled advantages to the farmer, fruit grower, live stock raiser, dairyman, bee-keeper, and to the home-seeker generally.

The soil of the Pecos Valley is of high average fertility, and under irrigation produces bountiful crops of most of the grasses, grains, vegetables and fruits of the temperate and some of those of the semi-tropical zone. In such fruit as the peach, pear, plum, grape, prune, apricot, nectarine, cherry, quince, etc., the Valley will dispute for the pre-eminence with California; while competent authority pronounces its upper portion to be particularly the finest apple country in the world.

Enormous yields of such forage crops as alfalfa, sorghum and Egyptian corn make the feeding of cattle and sheep and the raising and fattening of hogs a very profitable occupation.

The cultivation of canals—a tanning material of great value—is becoming an important industry in the Pecos Valley, a home market having been afforded for all that can be raised, at a price yielding a handsome profit.

The climate of the Pecos Valley has no superior in the United States, being pre-eminently healthful and health restoring.

Land with perpetual water-rights are for sale at low prices and on easy terms. The water-supply of the Pecos Valley has no equal in all the arid region for constancy and reliability; and this with the superb climate, productive soil and the facilities afforded by the railway which extends through the Valley's entire length, will cause these lands to enjoy a constant, and at times, rapid increase in value.

The recent completion of the Pecos Valley Railway to Roswell will cause the more rapid settlement and development of the upper portions of the Valley, including the rich Felix section. The company has recently purchased many of the older improved farms about Roswell, and has now for sale lands to meet the wants of all—raw lands, partially improved lands, as well as farms with houses, orchards and fields of alfalfa and other crops. In the vicinity of Roswell several pieces of land have been divided into five and ten acre tracts, suitable for orchards and truck farms in connection with suburban homes. Certain of these tracts are being planted to orchards, and will be cultivated and cared for by the company for three years at the end of which period they will be handed over to the purchasers. Write for pamphlet fully describing the terms and conditions on which these several classes of tracts are sold.

Salva-Cea Is a Perfectly Safe Remedy to Use.

REPORT BY THE DISTINGUISHED CHEMIST,
PROF. HENRY A. MOTT, PH.D., LL.D., ETC.
Fellow of the London Chemical Society,
Member of the American Chemical Society,
Chemist of the Medical-Legal Society,
Author of numerous scientific works on Food,
Ventilation, Chemistry, etc.

"NEW YORK, October 22, 1895.

"Pursuant to request I have examined the preparation known as SALVA-CEA and find the same to be composed of perfectly harmless and efficient medicinal constituents, principally of vegetable origin. Chemical analysis demonstrates the entire absence of any metallic poison, such as lead, mercury, arsenic, copper, etc., or their salts, as also the entire absence of any alkaloid, such as morphine (opium), strychnine, etc.

"It is not the office of the chemist to point out the medicinal applicability of any preparation, still, knowing the nature of the constituent elements which compose SALVA-CEA, I can say that the properties of the same are so well defined that I am justified in saying it should accomplish the work for which it is recommended.

"I have the honor to sign myself, Yours respectfully,
HENRY A. MOTT, PH.D., LL.D."

SALVA-CEA is a positive remedy for piles, colds—especially cold in the head—all skin irritations and chafings. It is antiseptic and anodyne.

Two sizes, 25 and 50 cents per box. At druggists, or by mail.

For deep-seated pain and rheumatism of the joints use Salva-Cea Extra Strength. Sold in tin at 75 cents each.

SUNBEAMS.

CLEARLY A GENIUS.

Jinks—Would you call Broben a fool? Filkins—Well, hardly; but I think he knows the least on the most subjects of any man of my acquaintance.

If You Had a Friend

About to visit some section of country where malaria disease, either in the form of chills and fever or bilious remittent was particularly rife, what would be about the best advice that you could give him? We will tell you to carry along with you the system that robust medicinal safeguard, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, known throughout malaria plagued regions, here and in other countries, as the surest means of disarming the miasmatic scourge, and robbing it of its fell destructive influence. Not only does it fortify the system by increasing its stamina, but overcomes irregularity of digestion, the liver and the bowels, and counteracts the unfavorable effects of over-exertion, bodily and mental, exposure in rough weather, or occupation too sedentary or laborious, loss of appetite and consequent depression, the functions of alimentation, bilious secretion and sleep have in it a most powerful and reliable auxiliary.

HIS IDEA.

Mr. Greenhaw, a prominent citizen of Hoocherville, Indiana—Shook! I don't believe them Spaniard would fight even if war was declared.

Mr. Greenhaw—What makes you think they would fight?

Mr. Greenhaw—Why, I don't reckon folks that don't know any better than to say arrambs for dog-gone it, have sense enough to fight.

If Troubled with Rheumatism Read This.

Annapolis, Md., April 18, 1894.—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public.

JOHN G. BHOOKS, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main St.

ALSO READ THIS.

Mechanicsville, St. Mary County, Md.—I sold a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm to a man who had been suffering with rheumatism for several years. It made him a well man. A. J. McGILL.

For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

TOO MUCH TROUBLE.

Mrs. Dogood—It seems strange to encounter a beggar in a strong, healthy man like you.

Dusty Rhodes—I tried being blind, and sick, and one-legged; but it was more trouble than it came to.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine:

"We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped exorbitant pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by all druggists.

THE PROBABLE REASON.

Dolly Swift—I just met Miss Thirtymuth and she told me, as proof of her popularity, that two men called on her at the same time last night.

Billy Gay—That may have been the reason, or it may have been because they were afraid to go alone.

Are you bald? Is your clothing constantly covered with dandruff—filthy animal matter falling from a diseased scalp? Does your head itch? Is it infested with sores and scabs? Is your hair growing thinner year by year? Is it dry and brittle? If so, you have a parasitic disease of the scalp, which you are neglecting at great risk. Danderine will cure you quickly and permanently. Money refunded in case of failure. For sale at Fischer & Co's. Pharmacy.

No man gets everything he pays for, or everything he gets.

is a LOCAL DISEASE and is the result of cold and sudden climatic changes.

It can be cured by a simple remedy which is applied directly into the nostrils. Being quickly absorbed it gives relief at once.

Ely's Cream Balm

is acknowledged to be the most thorough cure for Catarrh of the Nose and Throat of all countries. It cures and cleanses the nasal passages, relieves pain and inflammation, keeps the secret passages open, and restores the normal condition of the mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

It is sold in small, tin containers, or by mail, at 25 cents each.

Ely Brothers, 50 Warren Street, New York.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.

GEMS IN VERSE.

Outdoors in the Country.

I really don't 'xactly understand Where the comfort is for any man In walkin' hot bricks an' usin' a fan An' enjoyin' himself, as he says he can, Up thar in the city.

It's kinder lonesome, maybe you'll say, A-livin' out here day after day In this kinder easy, careless way, But an hour out here is better'n a day Up thar in the city.

As for that, jus' look at the flowers around, A-peepin' their heads up all over the ground, An' the fruit-a-bonidin the trees way down, You don't find such things as this in town, Or rather in the city.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Gossip.

The south wind, of course, was the first to know As it swayed the green grasses to and fro. The grasses, awake to the slightest sound, Heard the news come rustling along the ground And bent and whispered and murmured in glee At the foot of the garbled old apple tree. They spoke so loud that a violet near, Which they thought asleep, could not help but hear.

Overburdened, perhaps, by the secret sweet, In her joy forgetting to be discreet, She whispered the news to the meadow will, Who was greatly grieved of the daffodil. Then the loveliest rill, who knew well the charm Of secrets, decided there'd be no harm In whisper'ing it softly, so none should hear Save only the daffodil, bending near. The frailty, alas, of a flowery vow The poor little rill had not known till now! No sooner the secret did he impart Than the loveliest rill, within her heart, Than a butterfly passed along that way, And, paying the compliments of the day, Inquired for news. The temptation arising, O'ercame the vows. Then 'twas not very long Ere the wand'ring, sinking upon a rose For a short, luxurious, noontide dose, Ere she slept, with well feigned indifference, Told what he had just heard from the lips of gold.

'Twas heard by a robin in scarlet vest, Who trilled and chirped with such joy and such zest That a daisy near raised its tiny head, And, full of a timid wonderment, said: "Have you found a worm, that you sing so loud?" Have your blue eggs hatched, that you look so proud?" With a dainty scorn said the tiny bird: "You don't mean to say that you have not heard!" You poor little uninform, backward thing! Why, the apple tree is blossoming!" —Laura S. Porter.

The Garret Clatter.

I don't hear the young folks patter Like they used to long ago Up the stairs to raise a clatter Underneath the rafters low. What's the reason things is stiller Since the young folks went away— John an' Joe an' sweet Fernille? Looks as if they'd gone to stay.

Wife, there hain't no smokin' gushin In the way it used to come; 'T only seems as if the pushin Shaders was a-cum hum. Better quietlike an' dreary, Just us two here alone; Only the days seem draggin' weary Like a long an' dismal moan.

In the garret things is quiet; Mice an' spiders has their way Where the youngsters used to riot In their childish pranks an' play. Sweet Fernille used to tag 'em, Joe an' John in corners dark, An' the maiden used to tag 'em, Tiro 'em an' raise a lark.

When the humbles was droonin, An' the flowers was in bloom, An' the lilac bush was groanin With the scent of its perfume, Then the young folks used to patter Up the stairs a-long ago— Up the stairs to raise a clatter Underneath the rafters low.

Seems to me I'm sometimes dreamin Of the things that used to be, Till the old life comes a-streamin Back ag'in to you an' me. Then I hear the young folks patter Up the stairs they used to go, Thar to raise a garret clatter Underneath the rafters low.

—H. S. Kellar.

The Man of the World.

Only a little brown woman, she; Man of the world and profligate, he. Hard and conscienceless, cynical, yet Somehow, when he and the woman met, He saw what other there is in life Than passion feeding and careless strife. There came resolve and a sense of shame, For she made as his motto, "Faith and fame."

The world is foolish; we cover truth; We're barred by the gates that we built in youth.

Two were they surely, and two might stay, But she turned him into the better way. His thoughts were purified, ever when He chafed and raged at the might have been. He learned that living is not a whim, For the soul in her entered into him.

Rich Enough To Keep Dogs.

Ephrum Eels, he had to scratch darned hard to keep ahead, But he always kept three dogs; He couldn't keep a dollar bill to save his life, They said, But he always kept three dogs; He said he might have been some one if he'd had half a chance, But getting grub from day to day give Ephrum such a dance.

He never got where he could shed the patches off his pants, But he always kept three dogs. Ephrum's young ones always looked as though they was half fed, But he always kept three dogs; The house would be so cold his folks would have to go to bed, But he always kept three dogs. One was sort of satter dog, and two of 'em was houn's.

Their skins was full of mites; they was always on their roun's Till people durned their pictures in half a dozen towns, But Ephrum kept his dogs. They 'bated Ephrum's poll tax 'cause he was too poor to pay, But Ephrum kept his dogs. How he scraped up cash to license 'em it ain't in me to say, But I know he kept his dogs. And when a self-rin neighbor ambuscaded 'em, Ephrum swore.

Then in a kind of homelick way he hustled round for more. He struck a lucky bargain, and, by thunder, he bought four— Just kept on a-keepin' dogs.

What do we plant when we plant a tree?

A thousand things that we daily see. We plant the spirit that outlives the oak; We plant the staff for our country's oak; We plant the shade from the hot sun free; We plant all these when we plant a tree.

—Henry Abbey.

THE DOG THAT REMAINED.

The dog that came to our house was of sad and mournful kind. He sat down by the kitchen door and waited there and whined. And, hearing him, the girl went out and threatened him with a stick. And he withdrew himself from view in silent, gloomy dole.

He was a homely looking cur, patched in with white and black. He waited till the girl was gone and then came slowly back. So cheerless was the vagrant beast, so void of grace or charms. That I myself expelled him then with sound of fierce alarms.

That homeless, spotted, trampish dog was most persistent. He lingered outside the yard until the gate clicked after me. And then—my wife's authority—when I ran for the train. He came again and was rebuked by her in bitter strain.

But, lo, as down the yard he moved at mournful, slinking pace, Around the fold of mamma's dress there peered a baby face. And then my boy declared himself with noisy, joyful whoop.

"A doggie tum to play wif me," and scampered down the stoop.

Now listen—this is passing strange: That evening the gate clicked, and I went out to see. A dog all patched with white and black met me with lark elate.

And, guarded by the merry girl, my boy approached in glees. And from the porch his mother smiled most shamelessly at me.

The probate court is mighty in its mandates and decrees, But there are legal processes that double discount those. And when a baby indicates a purpose and intent In which adoption figures there is room for no dissent.

It Was Very "Upsetting."

A party of tourists were out riding in Kansas one afternoon, when they came to an old house in the dooryard of which were some peach trees loaded with magnificent yellow peaches.

"Let's see if we can't buy some," said one of the party, and he agreed to go to the door and ask for a basket of the peaches.

A wiry, active little woman came to the door.

"Howdy do?" she said cheerily. "Hot an' dusty, ain't it? We need rain right here. 'Scuse the looks of my house. We're all in a clutter here now. I don't keep my house in such a mess as this all the time, I kin tell you, but the fact is we're all upset to-day. To come right out, we'll sell the honest truth, my old man went an' committed suicide right after breakfast, an' it's kind o' upset things gen'ally an' put us all about. You know that a reg'lar death in the family is awfully upsettin, an' when it comes to a suicide it's a good deal more so."

"I never was quite so upset. If he'd only be comin' 'round enough to choose some other day but a Monday, when I have got both bakin an' washin on hand! Some peaches? Oh, help yourselves to all you want. I'd go out an' pick 'em for you if he hadn't cut up this hangin himself caper. It's terrible upsettin all round." —New York Sunday World.

Dorothy's Anxious Inquiry.

Dorothy has a baby brother who has recently been ill with the coming through of his first teeth. I think he has the baldest head I ever saw on an infant. It has caused Dorothy great anxiety. She stood at the mother's knee one day gently patting the little head.

"Be careful, Dorothy," said the mother. "You know poor little brother is sick. He is cutting his teeth."

Dorothy patted the bald head reflectively. "Mamma," she said, "is it going to make him sick when he cuts his teeth?" —Washington Post.

Willing to Let Her Have a Taste.

When the youngsters used to riot In their childish pranks an' play. Sweet Fernille used to tag 'em, Joe an' John in corners dark, An' the maiden used to tag 'em, Tiro 'em an' raise a lark.

When the humbles was droonin, An' the flowers was in bloom, An' the lilac bush was groanin With the scent of its perfume, Then the young folks used to patter Up the stairs a-long ago— Up the stairs to raise a clatter Underneath the rafters low.

Seems to me I'm sometimes dreamin Of the things that used to be, Till the old life comes a-streamin Back ag'in to you an' me. Then I hear the young folks patter Up the stairs they used to go, Thar to raise a garret clatter Underneath the rafters low.

The Man of the World.

Only a little brown woman, she; Man of the world and profligate, he. Hard and conscienceless, cynical, yet Somehow, when he and the woman met, He saw what other there is in life Than passion feeding and careless strife. There came resolve and a sense of shame, For she made as his motto, "Faith and fame."

The world is foolish; we cover truth; We're barred by the gates that we built in youth.

Two were they surely, and two might stay, But she turned him into the better way. His thoughts were purified, ever when He chafed and raged at the might have been. He learned that living is not a whim, For the soul in her entered into him.

Rich Enough To Keep Dogs.

Ephrum Eels, he had to scratch darned hard to keep ahead, But he always kept three dogs; He couldn't keep a dollar bill to save his life, They said, But he always kept three dogs; He said he might have been some one if he'd had half a chance, But getting grub from day to day give Ephrum such a dance.

He never got where he could shed the patches off his pants, But he always kept three dogs. Ephrum's young ones always looked as though they was half fed, But he always kept three dogs; The house would be so cold his folks would have to go to bed, But he always kept three dogs. One was sort of satter dog, and two of 'em was houn's.

Their skins was full of mites; they was always on their roun's Till people durned their pictures in half a dozen towns, But Ephrum kept his dogs. They 'bated Ephrum's poll tax 'cause he was too poor to pay, But Ephrum kept his dogs. How he scraped up cash to license 'em it ain't in me to say, But I know he kept his dogs. And when a self-rin neighbor ambuscaded 'em, Ephrum swore.

Then in a kind of homelick way he hustled round for more. He struck a lucky bargain, and, by thunder, he bought four— Just kept on a-keepin' dogs.

What do we plant when we plant a tree?

A thousand things that we daily see. We plant the spirit that outlives the oak; We plant the staff for our country's oak; We plant the shade from the hot sun free; We plant all these when we plant a tree.

The jungles of Africa are not the only places in the world where a man courts death from an unseen foe. All the savages of all the barbarous nations of history have not slain one tithe of the men that have been killed by that dread assassin—consumption. One-sixth of all the deaths in the world are due to it.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. It cures by going to the very root of the evil—imperfect and improper nutrition. It corrects all disorders of the digestion, makes the appetite keen and assimilation perfect. It drives out the impurities from the blood and fills it with the life-giving elements that build up the body. It is the greatest blood-maker and purifier. When you pump rich, red, healthy blood into an organ it cannot long remain diseased. This is true of the lungs. New healthy tissue is built up in them and the germs of consumption are driven out. Thousands have testified to their cure by this great remedy. Druggists sell it.

Ralph Green, Esq., of Williamsburg, Callaway Co., Mo., writes: "Before I commenced your treatment I could not take a drink of water without great suffering in my stomach. I could not eat. I was fast sinking and did not weigh more than 125 pounds. Today I weigh 175. I had five different doctors examine me, and each one treated me without doing me any good. At last I took four or five bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery, and to-day am in better health than I have been for five years. Whenever I see any of my friends suffering I tell them of your medicine and advise them to write to you."

It is better to do mending while the damage is slight, than wait until the whole structure is ready to fall. Constipation is the one, all-embracing disorder that is responsible for many other disorders. Pleasant Pellets cure it.

Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules.

Nothing else. "Just as good" is a permanent cure.

TERRITORIAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The representatives of the Democratic party of the territory of New Mexico, in convention assembled at Santa Fe, on this 29th day of September, 1895, reaffirm our allegiance to the principles of the Democratic party as declared by its founders, and our belief that, for the first time in more than thirty years, the party has returned to its platform declaration of the principles enunciated by Jefferson and by Jackson. We, therefore, indorse every sentence of the Chicago platform, and declare that we believe it to be the best expression of Democratic faith ever emanating from an assembly of Democrats, and, while thus indorsing and adopting the Chicago platform, we desire particularly to express our gratitude to the members of that convention for those portions of that platform which, without equivocation, and in language which can not be misunderstood, favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the consent of any other nation, and which declare for a tariff for revenue with duties as adjusted as to operate equally throughout the country, and not discriminating between class or section, thus guaranteeing to our wool and live stock interests that same measure of protection which is accorded by law to the manufacturing industries of the country.

We heartily indorse the nomination of that magnificent exponent of Democracy, the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, and of Arthur Sewall, of Maine, always a steadfast friend of justice, whose selection refutes the oft-repeated charge that the Democracy of the country seeks in this campaign to array section against section and class against class.

We heartily indorse the present Democratic administration of affairs in this territory by the governor, secretary and the judiciary thereof, as well as the officials of the land department including the surveyor-general, the registers and receivers of the various land offices, the United States marshal, the internal revenue collector, the assistant U. S. attorney for New Mexico, and the inspector of mines, and we commend the solicitor-general and the several district attorneys of the territory for the ability and zeal with which they have enforced the laws of the territory, contributing so much to the suppression of crime and the punishment of criminals.

We invite the attention of all intelligent voters of the territory of New Mexico to the administration of county affairs in those counties where the Democrats control the county administration as compared with those other counties where the Republicans are in control, believing that such comparison can but be favorable to Democratic control.

We condemn the action of the Republican delegate in congress in making subversive to the interest of his private clients the interests of the whole people of the territory of New Mexico, and preventing the passage by congress of needed legislation in the interest of the whole people, by amending the bill to validate the bonds issued for various meritorious public institutions, including the capitol, so as to cast an enormous and unjust burden upon the already overburdened people of the territory of New Mexico in the interest of his private clients. We point to him

CASE OF THE BORREGOS.

Letter of Judge Brewer to Solicitor-General Victory Explaining Why He Reluctantly Took the Action He Did--Not Encouraging to Condemned Men--Motion to Dismiss Invited.

In justice to Judge Brewer, whose merely formal action in the Borrego case has not been generally understood by the people of this community, the subjoined letter is printed in full:

SUPREME COURT OF UNITED STATES, }
Washington, Oct. 8, 1896. }

Hon. John P. Victory, Solicitor General, San-

Dear Sir: I received from you a few days since, dated the 26th of September, a letter asking that you have notice in case an application is made for a writ of mandamus or prohibition in the case of the Territory vs. Francisco Gonzales y Borrego et al. An application was made to me for an appeal from the order and decree of the supreme court of the territory denying a writ of habeas corpus. I at first was inclined to deny the application, but after consultation with two of my brethren, who are here, I decided to allow the writ. The time fixed for the execution, October 15, was so near that I thought there was no time to give notice of the application, and in view of the fact that the final judgment of the supreme court was only on the 25th of last month I could not see that appellants were guilty of laches.

I did this with some hesitation, although Clayton vs. Utah Territory, 132 U. S. 361, seems to warrant it, the contention before me being that the judge of the 5th district who tried the case had no authority under the laws of the United States to preside at the trial and render judgment.

I was also in great doubt whether, even if there were any irregularity in the action of the judge of the 5th district in presiding at the trial, he must not be considered as a judge de facto, and his acts be unchallenged. See McDowell vs. United States, 159 U. S. 592. At the same time, as the question involved the lives of four men, and as our court was to convene in a few days, my brethren thought the prudent course was to allow the writ, leaving to you, if your judgment approves, to file a motion to dismiss or affirm, which could be disposed of promptly. If this court has no jurisdiction the appeal will be dismissed, and, if the point raised has no validity, judgment will be affirmed. At any rate the parties will have a chance to present the question to the court and have the matter finally determined. Yours truly,

It will be perceived from the foregoing that Judge Brewer took the action he did with much reluctance, as he entertained grave doubt whether the alleged irregularity urged in favor of an appeal was sufficient to justify even a temporary delay, but, as the court was to convene in a few days, concluded to do. He even goes so far as to suggest that a motion to dismiss is the proper step. It will be remembered that, in commenting on the order of Judge Brewer, the New Mexican said that the action of the supreme judge had been generally anticipated by lawyers, and a motion to dismiss on the ground of lack of jurisdiction would undoubtedly be made and sustained. Solicitor-General Victory and Judge Warren will prepare and file such a motion without delay.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

The local weather prophets say that this sort of weather means a warm and dry November.

The Gallup brass band has been designated as the band of the 1st battalion of cavalry N. M. M.

Beginning about 1 o'clock this morning a soaking rain prevailed in Santa Fe until 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The governor has ordered the disbandment of company F, 1st New Mexico militia, stationed at Taos.

U. S. weather bureau forecast for New Mexico: Local showers this afternoon and to-night; probably fair, warmer Wednesday.

Santa Fe lodge, No. 2, K. of P., will hold a special meeting at Castle hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present as business of importance is to be transacted.

The infantry, artillery and cavalry organizations, led by Prof. Perez' band, made a handsome and soldierly appearance yesterday afternoon as they marched about the plaza and to the A. T. & S. F. depot as escort to the late national guardsmen, Carpenter, of Lincoln, Neb. It was all a kindly tribute to a stranger.

Mrs. Ellen Sullivan, wife of a Madrid miner, and who was run down by a coal train while crossing the Galileo bridge at Waldo station last week, died last night at St. Vincent hospital. She never recovered from the amputation of her leg, which operation was made necessary as a result of the accident. The deceased was 50 years of age and leaves a husband and four children. Two of them are pupils at Loretto academy. The funeral took place this afternoon, the remains being interred in Rosario cemetery.

NEW MEXICO POLITICS.

Will Wager $1,000 on Ferguson--Madrid Miners All Right--Another Break from Catronism--Notes.

The following is a straw showing how the political wind is blowing in southern New Mexico:

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 10.—After a careful survey of the situation and having studied the character of the two men, Catron and Ferguson, in the field for congress, I hereby offer to wager $1,000 that the Hon. H. B. Ferguson will be elected as our next delegate to congress. I challenge any Republican in the territory to come to the front and accept this offer.

My money is ready for deposit in any bank the taker may name. Yours truly, (Signed) P. G. GONZALES.

ORGANIZATION AT MADRID.

To the Editor of the New Mexican.

Madrid, N. M., Oct. 12, '96.—Allow me to inform you that we have organized at this place a Bryan Free Silver club with a large membership, and from present indications we will have at least 150 enrolled before election day. You can hear nothing in this place but Bryan, Ferguson and free silver.

Yours truly, JAS. D. RITCHIE,

Corresponding Secretary.

ANOTHER BREAK FROM CATRONISM.

The following communication, appearing in the Las Vegas Optic of last evening, explains itself:

East Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 12, 1896.—This is to inform the public that, though appreciating the honor conferred upon me by my nomination for the legislature by the county Republican convention, yet I must respectfully but emphatically refuse the use of my name on that or any other ticket as a candidate for office. The committee having the matter in charge will please see to it that another name is substituted on the Republican ticket. (Signed) GEO. W. BELL.

WORKING IN UNISON.

A circular has been issued from territorial headquarters to the chairmen of the county Democratic committees urging that, wherever practicable, just and equitable recognition be given the People's party in making up county and legislative tickets; similar concessions, the circular states, should also be given the Silver party adherents in order that all friends of the great cause shall be able to work harmoniously together for the triumph of the paramount principle involved in this contest.

POLITICAL GOSPEL.

Candidate Catron left last night for Albuquerque where he will speak at the court house to-night.

Considerable talk is heard as to this one and that one being out for the county offices, but as yet no one has come forward with any formal announcement.

Citizen E. T. Webber has prepared a very complete and exhaustive set of answers to Capt. C. N. Sterry's goldite queries, which will appear shortly in these columns.

The citizens of Deming sent last week $61 to the New York Journal to be used in the Democratic campaign. This is the third contribution sent from that city to aid in the silver cause.

Sheriff Bureau got away with the delegation in Socorro town again, and neither Windy Williams nor Col. Alexander will appear as members of the Socorro county Republican convention.

There was a big crowd last evening at the meeting of the Bryan club. Judge E. V. Long, Dr. Geo. T. Gould and W. B. Banker were the speakers of the evening. No notice has yet been received from the goldbugs answering the club's challenge. —Las Vegas Examiner.

Says the Optic: "East Las Vegas two years ago carried this county for Catron. It will this time go overwhelmingly for Ferguson and free silver, making his election in San Miguel county an assured fact. That two-son record on his own side of the account and a perfect blank on the side of the people have cooked Catron's goose in East Las Vegas. There is no doubt of this, even without his present gold advocacy."

The grand parade of over 300 Unionists Thursday night called at the residence of Don Hilario Romero. A neat address was delivered by Mr. Antonio Lucero to Mr. Romero, praising that gentleman highly. Mr. Romero accompanied the procession to the school house where, in response to Mr. Lucero's address, he said that while he would submit to the wishes of the people and his friends and run again on the Union ticket for sheriff, he wished them to understand that if the party chose some one else he would devote his energies as a high private in the ranks toward electing the ticket of his party. —Las Vegas Examiner.

Serenaded Major Hooper.

The Denver Republican makes mention of a pleasant incident of the late Mountain and Main festival as follows:

"Prof. Perez' band, of Santa Fe, N. M., one of the best bands in the state, at the festival, accompanied by Gov. Thornton, of New Mexico, Lieut.-Col. Strover, and Major Thomas P. Gable, of the governor's staff, serenaded Major S. K. Hooper and his family at his residence on Colfax avenue, near Downing, last night. The band gave first a serenade outside the residence, and then in one of Major Hooper's parlors played a number of characteristic Spanish selections. Among these were 'La Paloma,' 'La Golondrina,' a Mexican dance; 'Singing While Weeping,' 'Jolia Serenata Mexicana,' and a Mexican dance, 'Roses and Thorns.' This music was delightfully rendered, and for two hours the little audience in the adjoining parlor was entertained.

"Refreshments were served in the midst of it, and an evening of quiet pleasure after the excitement of the carnival was thus provided. Charles Reynolds, chairman of the first day of the festival, with his wife and the members of Major Hooper's family made up the party that entertained the New Mexican guests."

Gen. Miles and Party.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles, U. S. army, accompanied by his family, Major and Mrs. John Van R. Hoff, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wiborg, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Capt. F. Michler, aid to Gen. Miles, and Lieut. H. T. Allen, of the 2d cavalry, passed up the road yesterday en route to Ft. Riley, Kas., from a western tour. They occupied the special Pullman car, "Oleopatras." A brief stop was made at Albuquerque. The Citizen prints this:

"How about the fort, that is, since the fire at Ft. Wingate?" remarked the Citizen representative.

"I think that matter has been settled by the war department giving instructions, some time ago, to continue rebuilding at Ft. Wingate," responded Gen. Miles. The general was invited to remain at Albuquerque and attend the fair, when he said:

"My time is limited. I left Washington the first week in September and visited all the posts of the north, along the Pacific coast, and on my return, coming north on the Santa Fe railway, stopped over for a week at Hoffman's ranch on Pigeon range, in the Magdalena mountains of Socorro county, where the party enjoyed a two days' hunt, and where two big bears were killed—one for each day. I have no further time to spend, much to my regret, as I like Albuquerque and her people."

At the Bon Ton: Short order meals, hot and cold lunches at all hours. Open day and night.

OJO CALIENTE

(HOT SPRINGS.)

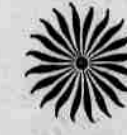

THESE Celebrated Hot Springs are located in the midst of the Ancient Cliff Dwellers, twenty-five miles west of Taos, and fifty miles north of Santa Fe, and about twelve miles from Barran Station on the Denver & Rio Grande Railway, from which point a daily line of stages run to the Springs. The temperature of these waters is from 90° to 125°. The gases are carbonic. Altitude 5,000 feet. Climate very dry and delightful the year round. There is now a commodious hotel for the convenience of invalids and tourists. These waters contain 350-34 grains of alkaline salts to the gallon; being the richest Alkaline Hot Springs in the world. The efficacy of these waters has been thoroughly tested by the numerous cures attended to in the following diseases:—Furunculosis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Consumption, Malaria, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Syphilis, and Mercular Affections, Scrofula, Catarrh, Le Gripe, all Female Complaints, etc., etc. Board, Lodging and Bathing, $2.50 per day. Reduced rates given by the month. For further particulars address—
