SATURDAY, JULY 10.

NANSEN, the Arctic explorer, is said to have cleared $150,000 on his book.

CARON, late millionaire of California had seven step daughters. Heaven is doubtless his home now.

The secretary of an A. P. A. lodge in Ohio has just married a Roman Catholic maiden. Love laughs at other things besides locksmiths.

WILLIAM of Germany, wants to spend $22,000,000 right away for battleships. Perhaps he wants to meet his grandmother on the high seas.

Ir John L. Sullivan doesn't let booze alone before his fight comes off with Fitz Simmons, lanky Bob may be arrested for causing a distillery to run without a license.

ANNE BRANT says that a new "spiritual race" is being born in the United States. Let them come. Spooks, Japs, Hawaiians—everything goes with your poor old Uncle Samuel these days.

The coming horticultural fair will be a representation of every section in the territory from San Juan to the Pecos and from Colfax to Grant. It is sure to be a big success if the horticulturists heed their own interests.

The unknown tramp who lost his life trying to save a St. Louis boy from drowning couldn't have been a genuine tramp. Some hoboes there may be who are brave enough to sacrifice their lives for others, but not by braving the terrors of a bath.

GENERAL WEYLER has gone out to meet General Garcia in a pitched battle which is expected to settle the war. General Weyler may not meet General Garcia at all, but a great victory for the Spanish is assured. The general took his typewriter along.

The fine crop prospects visible to the naked eye on the way from Washington to Canton have been pointed out by the president. The corn and wheat have not stopped growing to listen to the Democratic speeches in the senate.

EVERY one interested in horticulture in New Mexico should take an active interest in the coming horticultural fair to be held in Santa Fe during September under the auspices of the New Mexico Horticulture society. The exhibit will be of great benefit to the interests represented.

ONLY by hearty co-operation can the coming horticultural fair be made a success. By the way, it is a good time now to join the Horticulture society in order to be represented in the several fair committees. The payment of $10 secures membership for life without further charges. Join now.

A MASSACHUSETTS newspaper man is charged with the theft of an idol of Buddha said to have a habit of making mystic announcements to devout Theosophists. The chances are, however, that the reporter was only getting old Buddha where he could work an exclusive interview out of him.

ACCORDING to Washington news, the U. S. judges in the Indian Territory are to be called upon for their resignations and new men are to be appointed. The new appointees will not be residents of the territory. Something of the kind may happen in New Mexico and it looks as if it would happen.

WITHIN the next ten days several New Mexico appointments will be announced. Among these will be those of collector of internal revenue, U. S. marshal, a judge or two and very likely also the surveyor general.

CONGRESS will meet again in December next. Plenty of time to prepare for work for statehood in this interval. The statehood campaign will then commence actively and will be pushed to a successful finish, the sore toes grumblers to the contrary notwithstanding.

MONDAY journalism has struck London hard. No duces is now safe at a great ball from a reporter, who at a glance is enabled to describe the splendor of her diamonds, the grace of her figure, the glories of her dress, and the radiance of her face. Even the "Times" has pages of this dazzling stuff, and the space writers put on the footstools of decorative rot with soap shovels.

The Mohammedan riots in India are the result of the sudden accession of glory to the Mahatma, and the Moslem feel the need of making manifestations. There is a revival in Mohammedanism, and in India they do not want their ancient customs treated with disrespect in stamping out the bubonic plague, and they do not think the queen's jubilee should have been continued after Calcutta earthquake. The Hindoos are sensitive.

There are strong signs of revolution in Spain. Several of the newspapers in Madrid are actually giving dried up scraps of truth concerning Cuba. Quite recently a Madrid paper had the courage to declare that pacification of the island is a force that has been going on for more than a year. Such candor is quite refreshing, but it bodes no good for the Spanish cause. Perhaps the Spanish people are beginning to understand at last that they have been made the pawns of a tyranny in this struggle. One of these days they will come to a full understanding of the situation and then the Spanish government will tremble.

Dows in Kentucky they take political economy very hard. The farmers are not satisfied with the price of wheat, which is 60 cents a bushel. Kentucky has raised 15,000,000 bushels of wheat this year, and the farmers are working up a wheat convention. The object is to hold back the wheat. This sort of cure for hard times has been often tried, and has never turned out well. There was an immense loss in the south a few years ago on cotton held back by a farmer's league, and the like will happen to wheat holders. What the south needs is a greater diversity of industry. That is, more manufactures.

OUR TRADE WITH CUBA.

In a circular just issued from the United States department of agriculture, a statement is given concerning our trade with Cuba from 1887 to 1897. The rather startling conclusion is reached, that over four-fifths of our commerce with the war swept island has been destroyed by the war, and that the aggregate loss for the past year alone will reach $80,000,000.

Our total trade with Cuba in 1893 amounted to $102,864,204, of which one-third was exports. It was but little less the following year, but in 1895 military operations reduced it to $65,678,920. Last year there was another heavy decline, with an aggregate at the close of $45,548,610, a falling off of over 50 per cent in three years. The returns for the first three months of the present year exhibit a continued and very heavy decline. They indicate that our entire trade with Cuba in the year 1897 will not exceed $20,000,000. As matters stand the strife in Cuba is costing us in trade more than a million and a half dollars a week, and the small remnant of a once flourishing commerce is likely to be further reduced.

Our exports to Cuba in 1894 were $24,157,689, and in 1896 only $7,530,880. The exports in kind fell off from $4,023,917 in 1893 to $1,551,185 in 1896, and of pickled pork from $69,276 to $10,286. In a comparison of the same years the exports of wheat flour dropped from $2,821,547 to $647,057; of corn, from $582,050 to $93,201, and of all other breadstuffs from $108,600 to $34,534. Our vegetable shipments to Cuba are mainly of potatoes, beans and peas, and these declined between 1893 and 1896 from $978,264 to $386,792. In dairy products the exports were $128,098 in 1893 and less last year by $46,658. The loss in exports of non-agricultural products is still more serious. Cuba took from us in 1893 iron and steel manufactures of $6,691,929, and in 1896 only $769,356. Exports of manufactures of wood, of coal and mineral oil were less by from 30 to 70 per cent.

The shrinking of imports from Cuba is another showing of the same kind. Its shipment of sugar to us in 1894 was valued at $63,147,745 and in 1896 at $24,102,835.

Since the invasion of the western part of the island our imports of tobacco have suffered to the extent of 80 per cent. One-half of the trade in notes and fruits has disappeared. Now that the rural population is to be forced from their homes into concentration camps the industries of the island will soon be wholly paralyzed.

There are two leading points to be urged upon the Madrid authorities. The inconclusive war waged in Cuba is cruel and unusual in methods, and it is costing us in trade $80,000,000 a year. Great Britain has frequently made a vigorous protest against a far lighter inroad upon its traffic. Spain calls us a nation of tradesmen, but we have been far more patient in regard to Cuba than the English have even been under a similar loss of business.

THE NEW MEXICO IRRIGATION CASE.

It is a cause of great satisfaction that the district court at Silver City, N. M., has dissolved the injunction to restrain the construction of the reservoir dam at Elephant Butte in that territory, says the Denver Republican. It is doubtful if the government will take the matter up to the Supreme court, for there really was little ground for applying for the injunction except a desire to please the government of Mexico.

The contention that the Rio Grande in New Mexico is navigable was too absurd to be seriously insisted upon, and so counsel for the government attempted to base his case upon the proposition that the river is navigable near the Gulf of Mexico, and that the withdrawal of water for irrigation purposes interfered with that use. If this proposition could be maintained it would raise a very serious question concerning the right of the people of Colorado to withdraw water from rivers flowing into other states, provided at some point below they are navigable. In that case the right to maintain irrigation works in Colorado would depend entirely upon the sovereign control of the state over the waters of streams within its limits.

The constitution of Colorado declares that all the unappropriated water in this state belongs to the public, and the constitution has been formally accepted by the federal government. So that irrigation in Colorado might be protected by this constitutional provision, but it would be a rather frail and slender reed upon which to lean, with the federal government grasping for more power.

It is improbable that the higher courts would take the position that the control of the federal government of navigable streams extends to those parts of such streams which are far above navigation. It certainly would have to be affirmatively shown that the navigation of the stream below is interfered with by the withdrawal of water above. But it has been pretty clearly shown by Prof. Carpenter of the state agricultural college and other irrigators that irrigation rather improves than interferes with the flow of streams in their lower courses. This may not appear in the first few years after the establishment of an irrigating system, but it will be subsequently developed when seepage waters have begun to return to the channel of the river.

The war department has experienced a terrible blow in the resignation of three cadets from the military academy at West Point. The youngsters could not stand it to make their own beds. This class was not as fortunate as the one which graduated in 1885. It had two professional bed makers, that is to say, youngsters who had earned their living at bed making before they went to learn how to become "officers and gentlemen," at Uncle Sam's military school. This is a queer world, my masters.

FOR THE LADIES.

A CHARMING COSTUME.

A deep blue cashmere of a sapphire tint is simply made in exquisite taste with a rather neat skirt which was finished at the foot with three two inch tucks set close together. At the top seven tiny tucks which have the effect of cording are placed over each hip.

The waist of this extremely stylish house dress is seamless in the back and bulges over the deep belt. At the top it is cut out like the front to show a yoke of black fish net over sage green silk. The top of the front is laid in five tucks on either side. At the fastening on the left side are two designs in black braid simulating frogs. The belt is of fish net over green silk.

Note the sleeves especially. They are of the bishop shape rather neat, the fullness at the wrist being laid in tucks, the depth of a cuff.

This shape is a boon for summer dresses and will be seen in cotton, thin silk and soft, easily draped fabrics of all kinds.

The hat is of green straw, black fish net and a bow of green and black striped ribbon.

Cancer Of the Face.

Mrs. Laura E. Mims, of Smithville, Ga., says: "A small pimple of a strawberry color appeared on my cheek; it soon began to grow rapidly, notwithstanding all efforts to check it. My eye became terribly inflamed, and was so swollen that for quite a while I could not see. The doctor said I had Cancer of the most malignant type, and after exhausting their efforts without doing me any good, they gave up the case as hopeless. When informed that my father had died from the same disease, they said I must die, as hereditary Cancer was incurable. 'At this crisis, I was advised to try S.S.S., and in a short while the Cancer began to discharge and continued to do so for three months, then it began to heal. I continued the medicine a while longer until the Cancer disappeared entirely. This was several years ago and there has been no return of the disease.'

A Real Blood Remedy.

Cancer is a blood disease, and only a blood remedy will cure it. S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is a real blood remedy, and never fails to permanently cure Cancer, Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism or any other disease of the blood. After all it is Nature that makes the cures. Only now and then she gets into a tight place and needs the helping hand of science. When the right thing is needed to check diseased action and start the organs and tissues on the way to health, Scott's Emulsion comes as the helpmeet of Nature. It feeds, nourishes, strengthens; and it does this all round—the Hypophosphites act upon the nerves; the Cod-liver Oil feeds the body.

THE SEVENTH Beet Sugar factory in the United States was erected at Eddy, New Mexico, in 1896, and made its first "campaign," beginning November 15th, 1896, and closing February 15th, 1897.

THE CONTENT OF "SUGAR in the beet" of the crop grown in the Eddy and Roswell sections of the valley has proven to be more uniformly high than any other part of the United States.

FORTUNATELY the land is blessed with just the fertility to produce high grade beets, and

MORE FORTUNATELY the Pecos Irrigation and Improvement Co. and the Roswell Land and Water Co. have an irrigation system of great magnitude, covering a vast body of the BEST SUGAR BEET lands on earth. The water is applied to the crop WHEN NEEDED.

THE SUN SHINES more hours in the day and more days in the year in Eddy and Chaves counties, New Mexico, than in any other section of the west.

124 separate analysis, chiefly carload lots, showed AN AVERAGE of 17.01 per cent sugar in beet; 84.1 per cent purity.

THIS REMARKABLE RESULT was accomplished by raw farmers, unacquainted with the culture of beet root, on new land and under very trying circumstances, as the factory was not assured until May, and a majority of the acreage was planted between JUNE 1st AND AUGUST 10th.

Student—Well, didn't I keep my word?

No Regard for Persons.
"George, I fear you are marrying me just because my uncle left me a fortune."
"No, my precious, I'd marry you just the same if any other persons had left it to you."

The Physiology of the Liver.
The liver is the largest secreting organ in the human body, and the bile which it secretes is more liable to vitiation and misdirection from its proper channels than any other of the animal fluids. Luckily for the bilious, however, there is an ever-failing source of relief from liver complaint, namely, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine which for about half a century has been achieving thorough cures of the above mentioned ailments, fever and ague, dyspepsia, bowel complaints, rheumatic and kidney affections, and disorders involving loss of nervous vigor. It is, moreover, a preventive of malarial disease, and affords protection to thousands of persons residing in districts of country where that dire scourge is prevalent. As a medicine adapted to the medicinal requirements of families, it is supremely desirable, and as a means of fortifying a debilitated system, it is thoroughly to be depended upon.

Far from It.
Mr. Ottman—I don't see how you can spend the best years of your life in a place like this.
Mr. Subbubs—Hang it all, man! I am not spending the best years of my life here. The years I have spent here have been the very worst years of my life.
