Panama: President Endara Withdraws Slander Suit Against Political Cartoonist

by Deborah Tyroler

Category/Department: General

Published: Friday, August 9, 1991

On Aug. 2, President Guillermo Endara withdrew a defamation suit against the La Prensa newspaper's political cartoonist Joaquin Carrasquilla. The president said that withdrawal of the suit was based on his Christian convictions which "do not allow for grudges." Carrasquilla had depicted the president with two faces.
