Harbor and City of Manila Taken by Uncle Sam's Gallant Tars.

TROOPS, COAL FOR MANILLA

Spain's Rule in Manila Ended—Major Portion of Its Fleet Destroyed, Remains Seeks Safety in Flight.

New York, May 3.—The Wall street news agency sends out the following: Hong Kong—Manilla has fallen and the stars and stripes wave over the Philippine Islands.

Manilla News Through British Sources. Chicago, May 3.—A special to the Record from Washington says: The president received news of the capture of Manila last night from the British embassy. Sir Julian Pauncefote had tried all day to get into communication with the authorities at Hong Kong and the consul at Manila, without success until this evening when he received a cablegram announcing that the city had surrendered, but giving no details. A copy was at once sent to the White house.

Help for Dewey's Fleet. New York—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Orders have been telegraphed to the government authorities at San Francisco to select two of the swiftest dispatch boats there, load them with coal and despatch them at once to the relief of Commodore Dewey's squadron.

Story of Manila Captured. New York—A dispatch to the World from London says: A report was current in the house of commons at midnight that an official telegram had been received at the foreign office from the British consul general at Manila announcing the capture of Manila. The story is unconfirmed, but it is known that several cable messages passed between Balfour and the British ambassador at Madrid, in which the British government is understood to have advised the Spanish cabinet that an honorable submission is the best way of safeguarding Spanish interests in the Philippines as well as those of other powers concerned.

Manilla-Hong Kong Cable Cut. London, May 3.—Tests from Hong Kong show that the cable is cut 50 miles from Manilla. A week or a fortnight may elapse before it can be repaired. The officials of the company say, according to their tests from Hong Kong, the cable is cut 50 miles from Manilla. They think a week or even a fortnight may elapse before it can be repaired, as there are no facilities to repair a cable; and in any event it will be difficult to pick up the cable in deep water. An inquiry at the main office of the Eastern Telegraph company, of this city, develops the fact that the last message before interruption of the cable service was timed at Manilla at 10 o'clock Monday evening, and nothing has been received since.

Spanish Accounts of Bombardment of Manilla. London—The Spanish colonial offices had advised at the beginning of the bombardment of Manilla before the cable was cut, which said: "Thus far the Americans have not reached the town proper, which is strongly protected. Outlying quarters are in flames. Occasionally a shell fell in European town, where only a few houses were struck. The batteries of the Citadel, especially the large guns, are vigorously replying to the American fire and have inflicted considerable damage to the fleet."

London Knows Nothing of It. London—It was announced in the house of commons that the British government has no information regarding the reported bombardment and destruction of Manilla.

A Very Frenchy Rumor. Paris, May 3.—It is rumored here that an American warship cut the Manilla cable and took the end on board for the purpose of communicating with their government.

American Naval News via Madrid. Madrid, May 3.—An official dispatch from Havana says that the entire American squadron has sailed, presumably in the direction of Key West.

Chasing a Murderer.

Mobile, May 3.—Thousands of troops and many citizens are chasing a negro named Reeves, who shot and fatally wounded Sergeant Hugh Collins, of company K, Birmingham rifles, in camp today. He will probably be lynched.

NEW BRITISH MINISTER.

Pauncefote to Retire and Sanderson to Succeed.

London, May 3.—According to a dispatch received here today, the British ambassador at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote, is to be succeeded by Sir Thomas M. Sanderson, K. C. B., K. C. M. G., permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs and one of the most prominent officials in the British service.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

The War Revenue Bill Under Consideration. Washington, May 3.—The senate committee on finance resumed its sitting today, hearing Secretary Gage on the necessity for including in the war revenue bill the authority for an issuance of bonds. The secretary supplied all the information in his possession as to the cost of the war up to date and the best statements obtainable for future expenses.

Secretary Gage told the committee that the best estimates obtainable, indicate that the next two months the war will increase the government expenditure about $50,000,000, and by that time the entire amount in the treasury, with the exception of the gold reserve, would be exhausted and $30,000,000 of the reserve also taken. Secretary Gage also stated it to be his opinion that revenues would decrease on account of the war. In view of these facts he considers the authorization for an issue of bonds necessary.

Dewey's Promotion.

Representative Grout introduced the following resolution: Whereas, The intrepidity and skill displayed by Commodore Dewey in his daring attack upon the Spanish fleet in Manila harbor and its total destruction, covered, as it was, by the protecting guns of the surrounding forts, marks him as the possessor of the highest qualities as a naval commander. Therefore be it resolved, That he ought to be promoted to the rank of admiral and the president is hereby authorized to nominate him for the rank to the senate, which body is hereby authorized to confirm him, the general laws regulating promotions in the navy to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Naval Station in Washington.

The house voted to insist upon its amendments to the bill appropriating for the organization of a naval station in the District of Columbia, and agreed to a conference. The speaker named Messrs. Hilborn, Foss and Meyer as the house conferees. The house then began the consideration of private bills.

The Fortifications Bill.

The fortifications appropriation bill has been agreed to in the conference committee, carrying a total appropriation of $377,494. The senate recedes from all its new legislation put in the bill and the house recedes from its disagreement to the senate increases.

Another Rich Prize for the Gallant Ship—Butcher Weyler's Brother Captured.

CHANLER'S HELP FOR CUBA

Reports of Firing Off Newfoundland Coast—Another Small Prize—The Flying Squadron's Fine Target Practice.

Key West, 10:40 a. m., May 3.—The United States gunboat Castine brought in a small prize this morning, the schooner Pasco. The Pasco had a cargo of fish, was captured off Mariel while bound for Havana. Only one blank shot was necessary to cause the little craft to heave to.

A Rich Prize for the Nashville. The United States cruiser Marblehead, commander R. H. McCalla, has not yet arrived here with the big Spanish steamer Argonauta, captured by the Nashville on Friday last and having on board, besides some Spanish army officers and 48 passengers, a large amount of mail matter from the Spanish government, intended for Captain Blanco and other Spanish officials in Cuba.

The Argonauta is regarded as one of the most important captures made since the outbreak of hostilities. She also had a large cargo of arms and ammunition intended for the Spanish troops. The Spanish officials, Colonel Cirilo, of the third cavalry, a first lieutenant, a sergeant major and seven other lieutenants, carried themselves with almost humorous nonchalance and told the American naval officers it did their hearts good "to see such a gathering of well fed and prosperous looking men."

The Argonauta was bound from Balabano, Cuba, for Cienfuegos, Trinidad and Manzanilla. She sailed from Cienfuegos, where non-combatant passengers were sent ashore under a flag truce.

New York Evening Post's Key West special says one of the officers captured on the Spanish steamer Argonauta is reported to be the brother of General Weyler. The Argonauta is in the lower harbor in tow of a cruiser.

Arizona Talking Thro' Its Hat. Washington, May 3.—The mustering of volunteers into the service of the United States began in Arizona yesterday, at the regular army posts. Arizona has the honor therefore of being the first commonwealth in which mustering began for war.

The revenue cutter Manning, recently converted, passed off this morning on her way to Key West.

Timely Help for Cuba Libre. New York, May 3.—William Astor Chanler departed from New York with three companions with the avowed intention of joining the forces of Gomez, insurgent leader in Cuba, and do what fighting he can for the cause of Cuba Libre. The expedition will be at the expense of Chanler. His companions are adventurous, but wealthy men.

A Small Dynamite Scare. Springfield, Ill., May 3.—Experts who have today tested the contents of a package found in one of the company boxes of the Third Infantry, Illinois National Guards, pronounced it undoubtedly to be dynamite. A rigid examination was made of all the equipment and baggage in the revenue cutter Manning, where the regiment is quartered, but nothing else suspicious was discovered.

Horrible Condition of Spanish Troops in Cuba. Mobile, Ala., May 3.—The American bark John R. Stanhope is in port from Honduras. Since she left Mobile the last time the vessel has been in Manzanillo on the south coast of Cuba, which port Captain P. V. Marshall left March 26. His compelling story of the military conditions there, being verified by the mate, Thomas Coburn, a Spanish cavalryman told them there were 40,000 Spanish soldiers in the city and 600 died during the week that the Stanhope was there, of neglect and want. From the same source Captain Marshall learned that the troops were discontented. They would willingly go over to the insurgents but the insurgents distrusted them and refused all overtures. The troops were ragged, dirty, unsoldierly in bearing and discipline and their courage had been killed by the vicissitudes and ill treatment.

A New York Bank Closes. Watertown, N. Y., May 3.—The First National bank of Carthage closed its doors this morning. The president has absconded.

Free Wheat for France. Paris, May 3.—The court of agriculture has decided to favor the suppression of wheat duties at French ports until July 1. The cabinet is expected to adopt this policy immediately.

Gigantic Racing Carnival at Albuquerque, N. M., May 4, 5, 6, 7.

The race week in Albuquerque, commencing May 4, will be the greatest thing of the kind ever attempted in the southwestern country. Horses are coming in daily from all parts. All the stabling on track is already filled and extraordinary stabling for 50 more head is being erected outside. San Francisco, Los Angeles, Butte City, Anaconda, Denver, Colorado Springs, Kansas City, Dodge City, St. Louis, Dallas and other tracks are all represented, and among the famous stake winners here are Los Prietos, Lady Hurst, Pleasanton, Silvarado, Theresa K., Scintillator and Bourbon from Frisco; Tommy Tucker, Mary Barnes, Kate Putnam and Hummingbird from the Texas circuit; Melody, Royal Lancer, Rose Dor, Joe Hart and Sir Kenneth from St. Louis; and Mickle and J. W. Brooks from Colorado Springs. May 4, the opening day, will be a general holiday in Albuquerque, when the Albuquerque Spring Derby for 2-year-olds will be run, with no less than ten entries. Four book-makers will cut in, besides pool sellers. All of the neighboring towns will be represented and it is estimated that not less than 1,000 people will witness the first day's racing. Special one fare round trip passenger rate to Albuquerque from May 3 to 9 inclusive.

SPAIN AS A BOMBASTES.

Row in the Cortes—Ministry to Be Assailed.

Madrid, May 3.—The queen telegraphed to the pope that Spain is resolved to resist to the bitter end.

The Queen Regent Expresses Confidence. London, May 3.—The Madrid correspondent of the Evening News, cables the following: "Although Premier Sagasta's conference with the queen regent and the liberal leaders, Montero and Rios, led to the rumors of the formation of a national government, the facts are that Senor Sagasta placed the situation before the queen regent, explaining the significance of the events in the Philippine Islands, which indicated certain possible solutions for the future. Thereupon the queen regent expressed her continued confidence in the ministry, which will continue as constituted for the present. Senores Gamazo and Montero express the opinion that the present cabinet should continue in power."

Another Squadron Getting Ready for a Licking. A Cadiz dispatch says the second Spanish squadron is nearly completed and preparations for active service are being made.

Spain Intends to Raise Hades. Dispatches from Madrid say the Spanish authorities intend to throw the whole naval strength of Spain into one united, supreme effort against the United States. There is no idea of surrender.

Spanish Troops Seeking Shelter. Kingston, Jamaica, May 3.—The Spaniards have evacuated Bayamo, one of the important towns of Santiago de Cuba. It has been taken possession of by insurgent forces.

Firing Off the Newfoundland Coast. St. John's, N. F., May 3.—Heavy firing is reported to have been heard off Cape Race Saturday night. The wires have since been interrupted.

Holy Smoke! Spain Proposes One Supreme Effort. It is stated at Madrid by those responsible for Spain's naval movements that it has been determined to avoid isolated combats on equal terms with a superior enemy and they now intend to throw the whole united naval strength of Spain into one supreme effort to crush the American squadron in Cuban waters. Until this engagement is fought, no proposal for intervention will be listened to.

An Impending Row in the Cortes. The Imperial (Independent) and the Liberal (modern Republican) insist that a cabinet crisis can only be postponed for a few hours.

In the Cortes a vote of censure against the minister of marine, Admiral Bermejo, will be proposed as a result of the crushing defeat of the Spanish fleet in the Philippine Islands and the alleged unpreparedness of the fleet for an engagement.

General Weyler is expected to initiate the government debate today in the senate.

Cabinet Crisis Coming. The principal papers here insist that a cabinet crisis can only be postponed for a few hours. A vote of censure on the minister of marine is to be proposed in the Cortes today.

Keep Mum, You'd Better. The proclamation of martial law issued by the governor general, expressly prohibits the publication of any news concerning the war or movements of the ships of the Spanish navy. The city is quiet today.

Spain Afraid of Its Own People. As a precaution the troops have been confined in barracks and the guards doubled.

Another Report from Newfoundland. St. John's, N. F., May 3.—The telegraph operators at Cape Race and Trepassy on the south coast of this island report having heard heavy firing in the offing Saturday night. The firing lasted 15 minutes and, to the operators, conveyed the impression of two ships engaged in a sea fight. The telegraph lines have been interrupted and no further news obtainable.

French Account of the Battle. Washington.—The French ambassador, M. Jules Cambon, has received a dispatch from the French foreign office at Paris stating that the French ambassador at Madrid, M. Patenotre, had forwarded the official details of the Spanish reverses at Manilla, based on the latest Spanish advices. He states the Spanish cruisers Reina Maria Christina and Castilla were totally burned after being set on fire by bombs from the American ships. Two smaller ships were sunk to avoid falling into the hands of the enemy. The Spanish ships that were half destroyed, had taken refuge in Badoe bay.

TO GARRISON MANILLA

Fitzhugh Lee, Shafter and Wade to Be Major Generals and Bradley Brigadier General.

DEWEY WANTS SUPPLIES

Volunteer Concentration Points Chosen—Navy Costs Money—Spanish Buncomb—Cabinet Considering Philippine Situation.

Uncle Sam's Navy Needs Money. Washington, May 3.—Secretary Long has prepared the deficiency estimates amounting to $13,500,000, of which $10,000,000 is for supplies, transportation, etc., to the Asiatic squadron.

General Officers of the Volunteer Army. Expecting that the senate would be in session today the War department had prepared a list of persons whose nominations were to be sent in as major generals and brigadier generals. The list included Fitzhugh Lee, formerly consul general of Havana, as major general, and it is believed also, W. R. Shafter, commanding the brigade at New Orleans, and J. F. Wade commanding the regiments at Tampa, both of whom are now brigadier generals, to be major generals.

A Railroad Man to be a Brigadier. W. R. Blanchard, chairman of the joint traffic railroad association, will be nominated as brigadier general and volunteers and attached to the quarter-master's department of the army, to take charge of all matters relating to the transportation of troops.

Secretary Long announced today that as soon as the department received official word from Commodore Dewey, confirming the press accounts of his victory, a cablegram would be sent to that officer congratulating him upon the splendid performance of the American fleet under his direction. Moreover, said the secretary, as soon as the necessary confirmation is at hand, Commodore Dewey will be made an admiral in recognition of his valor.

Notories coming from Spanish sources as to the battle at Manilla appear quite so ridiculous as the statement that Commodore Dewey fired Manera and the Spanish ships by the use of petroleum bombs. As a matter of fact there is no such weapon of warfare in the American navy. The ordinary service shell is quite as capable of causing fire among combustible material as any contrivance based upon the use of petroleum.

More Money Wanted for the Navy. The secretary of the navy has sent to the secretary of the treasury for transmission to congress, to be included in the urgent deficiency bill, estimates of the appropriations required by the navy department to complete the service for the current fiscal year, and the next fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, amounting to $18,480,000. This is in addition to the $34,019,998 asked for last week by the secretary of war.

Awaiting News From Dewey. The president will await advices from Commodore Dewey before deciding whether to send troops to Manilla or not.

Volunteer Concentration Points. Chickamauga and Washington have been absolutely decided upon as the volunteer army concentration points. At least one other eastern point will be chosen, probably either in New York or Pennsylvania.

The cabinet meeting today resulted in the decision to await the report from Commodore Dewey and then send him the number of troops he deems necessary to enforce our control of the Philippines. The administration practically decided to occupy the Philippines with a strong military force as soon as possible after Dewey's report, which is expected by tomorrow, has been received. For this purpose the Pacific slope troops will be used and it is expected that at least 5,000 will be en route within the next ten days.

The government will take steps at once to supply Dewey's fleet with provisions and other supplies, including ammunition and coal. One ship has been secured already as a collier. Although without confirmation from official sources, naval officials are disposed to attach some credit to the statement coming from Paris, that at last accounts from Manilla the American fleet was firing upon Corredor Island. This island lies in the outer entrance of the harbor of Manilla and is about 25 miles below the city. It is crowned by a lighthouse and has several modern guns.

BLAND NOTES.

Still Going Ahead—What is Doing in the Cochiti District.

Special Correspondence New Mexican. Bland, N. M., April 30.—Despite the war, Bland continues to grow, and "progression" is the watchword of the district. New people are coming in daily, new business interests are being inaugurated and the future of the camp is assured. While but few Blandites are enlisting in the present struggle with Spain, the community will furnish 300 independently equipped men, skilled in the use of explosives, to be known as a dynamite brigade, for service if needed.

Work will be started on the Crown Point mine next week.

The Lone Star mine is shipping regularly to the Bland mill.

Superintendent Robert Douthitt is paying off the indebtedness on the Washington group of mines.

The steel frame to the Albemarle machinery is being set up.

The assessment work on the Reindeer, adjoining the Albemarle, is finished.

George Buck has a force of men at work on the Smuggler lease, driving a cross-cut tunnel to the vein.

W. H. McBroom, of Colorado Springs, examined the Cannon and Little Mollie claims last week, with a view of purchasing them.

Extensive development work is being pushed on the Julia claim in Colla canon. The vein varies from 25 to 100 feet in width.

S. W. Young is building a store 25x34 feet in size. It will be occupied by J. K. Mead drug store and the offices of S. W. Young and Dr. S. W. Grace.

Jake Larzlers has purchased the Miner's Inn saloon of Sol. Boller.

Bland people will send a mineral exhibit to the Transmississippi exposition that will be a "hummer."

A bridge across the Rio Grande at Cochiti is needed badly.

Harry Cooper has moved into the house recently purchased by him of S. W. Young.

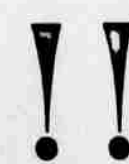

Jim Coleman has opened a blacksmith shop.

The infant child of Candido Huertado died last week.

Joe Wallace and wife, of Las Vegas, will make this their home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Chavez, of Albuquerque, are new Bland residents.

Henry Pohlman, of Santa Fe, will engage in business here soon.

Beware of "cheap" baking powders. Alum makes good medicine but bad food. Ask your doctor.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

TUESDAY, MAY 3

It is predicted that a majority of the serious engagements will occur in the mountain summer resorts rather than on the sea.

The magnificent record of the American navy for gallantry, bravery, skill and success is being added to these May days in fine shape.

VICTOR HUGO said: "Every man is the son of his own invention;" and a Chicago man remarks: "Dr. Gatling must be a son of a gun."

A KANSAS paper has decided to stop publishing "snake stories." The editor is apprehensive that the public will mistake them for Spanish war bulletins.

CONKEY ISLAND people are afraid that the Spanish fleet will work the shell game on that popular resort. "Soapy" Smith worked it there years ago and they haven't forgotten it yet.

THERE are no flies on Commodore Dewey and Uncle Sam's Asiatic squadron. Evidently every man and every ship of the squadron did full duty in Sunday's battle in Manila bay.

"You're Americans should cease hugging vain delusions,"—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage. The reverend gentleman evidently never enjoyed the delights of a walk or he wouldn't offer such advice.

THE NEW MEXICAN's flag fund is growing steadily and surely. The subscription lists will soon be closed. Now is the time to show that New Mexico is proud to furnish a battalion of 340 picked men for the First regiment of United States volunteer cavalry.

GENERAL WEYLER, who is conceded to be the most blood-thirsty and hypocritical fiend of—jail, is anxious to "preserve the honor of the Spanish soldiery." If the Spanish armies have ever acted other than cruel and dishonorable, history fails to show it.

GENERAL BLANCO had it figured out that the Spanish fleet would wipe the American war vessels off the ocean and that he would invade Florida with 25,000 soldiers and chase the American soldiery into the interior. Just then the general's pipe went out. He heard from Manila.

ON yesterday the NEW MEXICAN arranged for the receipt of one-third more telegraphic news than it has received during the past, and this at greatly increased expense and labor. The people want the news and the NEW MEXICAN does everything in its power to furnish the news in an attractive and condensed manner.

YESTERDAY was shooting day in New Mexico. In Bernalillo county Louis Lambert killed his wife and then was sent after her into the great beyond by a sheriff's posse while resisting arrest, the other man shot and seriously wounded a loved woman at Clayton and threw off this mortal coil by a pistol shot from his own hand. "The wages of sin is death is pretty well illustrated in these cases."

The Socorro District Attorneyship.

The appointment by Governor Otero on yesterday of Hon. Silas Alexander to be district attorney for Socorro county, vice H. M. Dougherty resigned, meets with the approval of the citizens of the county generally and of the business community there especially. Mr. Alexander is a native of Danville, Pa., and about 48 years of age. He was educated in the public schools of his native place and studied law there in the law office of Judge J. D. Galbraith and was admitted to the practice of law in 1872. In 1875 he removed to western Colorado where he engaged in mining enterprises removing to this territory in 1882 and settling in Hillsboro where he was engaged in mining and the practice of his profession until the fall of 1892, when he was appointed secretary of the territory by President Harrison. He remained in that office until removed therefrom in June, 1893, by Mr. Cleveland for purely political reasons, that is, the conduct of Mr. Alexander as an official was perfectly clean, honest and efficient but the office was wanted for a Democrat and one was put in. Since then he has been a resident of Socorro where he has practiced law with success. Mr. Alexander is a straightforward and honorable man, a good lawyer and will do his duty faithfully, fearlessly and earnestly as district attorney, and law breakers and the criminal classes need expect no mercy or consideration from him. Governor Otero made a good and proper appointment in this case as the future and the official conduct of Mr. Alexander will fully and unequivocally prove.

The case of Sheriff H. O. Bursum, of Socorro, against the auditor to compel him to draw warrants against the funds of the 49th fiscal year, for delivering prisoners to the penitentiary during the 49th fiscal year, is still pending in Socorro county, and the outcome is awaited with great interest by all persons having claims against the territory—as upon its decision depends whether appropriations made for one fiscal year shall be devoted exclusively to expenses incurred in that year—or whether this levy shall be disregarded and territorial funds shall be paid out indiscriminately. The solicitor general made a preliminary motion in this case to transfer it to Santa Fe county, holding that suits against territorial officers could only be brought here, but this motion was overruled and he has ten days in which to answer to the merits. This answer will bring the question of payments out of the appropriations for the fiscal year in which the services were rendered or the supplies furnished squarely before the court for decision. The case will doubtless go to the Supreme court whichever way it is decided.

Predestined to Defeat.

Spain seems predestined to defeat and eviction. One by one her possessions have been wrested from her. The cruelties of Pizarro and the outrages of Cortez have disgraced history and made humanity shudder with horror. Add to the blood reeking past the inhumanities of Butcher Weyler and Spain's record of barbarity is full. From the landing of Columbus until now, the policy of Spain has been oppression and spoliation and her acts have been a stench to the nostrils of Christian nations. Though the light of the Nineteenth century shines on other countries, Spain revels in the darkness of the sixteenth, and the tortures of an orthodox hell are mild compared to the damnable conceptions of Spanish inhumanities. When Spanish rule has been eliminated from the world, the darkest blot on civilization will be eradicated and a long step toward the regeneration of viciousness effected. Spain is not dealing with the simple Aztecs or untutored South American Indians now. An avenging Nemesis has placed the sword of war in the hands of a progressive nation, whose soldiers are terrible in their bravery, and whose sons will never be stigmatized by the mark of cowards.

True Patriotism.

"The disparaging criticism of the Albuquerque Democrat, relative to the 'hobo volunteers' recalls to my mind, an incident of the late war," remarked a retired army captain last night. "The southern press railed bitterly at the negro volunteers, and few northern newspapers credited them with any particular valor. Yet I witnessed the presentation of a flag to the captain of a company of negro volunteers that effected me more than any other scene during those troublesome times. When General Butler gave up the flag, the captain, who received it, gazed steadfastly into the general's eyes for a moment and then said: General, this flag will be returned to you unscathed by this honor, and if I fail to return it, I will report to my maker there, and He'll know the reason why. The reverent attitude of that captain, the solemn occasion and the tone of his voice grown husky by emotion, moved all witnesses present to tears. And say! Perhaps you think those fellows didn't cover that flag with glory? They fought like devils, and made a record that many a more favored company would have been proud of."

True. And the senseless mouthings of foolish blatherskites, relative to "hobo volunteers," are as rank and silly as the railings of the hide-bound prejudiced southern press during the recent war.

These "hobos" (?) though inured to hardships and sufferings, know the nobility of sympathy. Their hearts ache for oppressed humanity and they stand ready to blot out the wrongs of a maltreated and tyrannized race with their own blood.

Whether born of blacksmith or king, washwoman or queen, true manhood is gaged only by nobility of motives; and true bravery only by valorous deeds.

The mind so stultified, narrow and deprived that it can find no place for appreciation of the bravery of one unfortunate in not having wealthy parents or superior social standing, is worthy only of a jackass.

Eczema All Her Life.

Mr. B. D. Jenkins, of Lithonia, Ga., says that his daughter, Ida, inherited a severe case of Eczema, which the usual mercury and potash remedies failed to cure. Year by year she was treated with various medicines, external applications and internal remedies, without result. Her sufferings were intense, and her condition grew steadily worse. All the so-called blood remedies did not seem to reach the disease at all until S. S. S. was given, when an improvement was at once noticed. The medicine was continued with favorable results, and now she is cured sound and well, her skin is perfectly clear and pure and she has been saved from what threatened to blight her life forever.

S. S. S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) cures Eczema, Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, or any other skin disease. It is a real blood remedy and always cures even after all else fails.

THE SEVENTH Beet Sugar factory in the United States was erected at Eddy, New Mexico, in 1896, and made its first "campaign," beginning, December 15th, 1896, and closing February 15th, 1897.

THE CONTENT OF "SUGAR in the beet" of the crop grown in the Eddy and Roswell sections of the valley has proven to be more uniformly high than any other part of the United States.

FORTUNATELY the land is blessed with just the fertility to produce high grade beets, and

MORE FORTUNATELY the Pecos Irrigation and Improvement Co. and the Roswell Land and Water Co. have an irrigation system of great magnitude, covering a vast body of the BEST SUGAR BEET lands on earth. The water is applied to the crop WHEN NEEDED.

THE SUN SHINES more hours in the day and more days in the year in Eddy and Chaves counties, New Mexico, than in any other section of the west.

194 separate analyses, chiefly carload lots, showed AN AVERAGE of 17.01 per cent sugar in beets; 84.1 per cent purity. THIS REMARKABLE RESULT was accomplished by raw farmers, unacquainted with the culture of beet root, on new land and under very trying circumstances, as the factory was not assured until May, and a majority of the acreage was planted between JUNE 1st AND AUGUST 10th.

GOOD SOIL makes the seed germinate. WATER makes the plant grow. SUNLIGHT puts the sugar in the BEET. THE ONLY THING left to be desired that the Pecos Valley has not on hand in abundance is PEOPLE. We need thrifty farmers; 600 heads of families each on a 40-acre farm. NO FAIRER terms or conditions of sale of beet and fruit lands were ever made. WRITE for particulars.

International Arbitration.
At the Geneva Conference to arrange international disputes, there was strenuous advocacy on the part of the United States and other powers in favor of the settlement of national differences as to boundaries, port customs duties, etc., by an international court and not by the bloody arbitration of war. But like many other subjects, reasonable enough in their origin, it has died out of men's minds. But there is a theme of comfort, and that is the incomparable fine effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in cases of dyspepsia. Nor does the world and his wife comment less favorably upon the excellent effects of the Bitters in cases of chills and fever, rheumatism, nervous and kidney complaints and constipation.

Could Be in Two Places at Once.
Doctor—Your wife must have chicken broth three times a day, and you must give her a spoonful of this medicine every hour during the night.
Mr. Jackson dubiously—Wa-al, doctor I don't see how you expect me to give her the chicken broth and the medicine at the same time.

Chances About Even.
Anxious Old Lady—I say, my good man, is this boat going up or down?
Sunny Deckhand—Well, she's a leaky old tub, mum, so I shouldn't wonder if she was going down; then again, her bilge isn't none too good, so she might go up.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured By Chamberlain's Pain Balm.
My son was afflicted with rheumatism which contracted his right limb until he was unable to walk. After using one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was able to be about again. I can heartily recommend it to persons suffering from rheumatism.—John Snider, Freed, Calhoun county, W. Va. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

Not Guessing Condemns.
My dear, said a wife who had been married three years as she beamed across the table on her lord and master, tell me what first attracted you to me. What pleasant characteristic did I possess which placed me above other women in your sight?
And her lord and master simply replied, I give it up.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. Grisham, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

The Corned Philosopher.
Yes, youngman, said the Corned Philosopher, it is a wise plan to be lavish with your money when wooing a girl. There is a fascination for her in the thought that she can curb your extravagance after you and she are married.

Whooping Cough.
I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

Hope.
And what is hope?
A telescope
That farthest future magnifies;
But one eye sees
All that may please,
The other closed to what denies.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by A. C. Ireland.

Young Matron—I'm crazy! Wild! Friend—What's the matter?
Oh, my brother is going off with the infantry to Cuba, and my husband talks of nothing but going to war. Husbands should not be allowed to leave their wives. REST.
Let us rest ourselves a bit!
Worry! Wave your hand to it.
Kiss your finger tips and smile
It farewell a little while!

Worry of the weary way
We have come since yesterday.
Let it fret us not in dread
Of the weary way ahead.

While we yet look down—not up—
To seek out the butterfly
And the daisy where they wave
O'er the green home of the grave.

Let us launch us smoothly on Letless billows of the lawn
And drift off across the main
Of our childish dreams again.

Voyage off beneath the trees,
O'er the field's enchanted seas,
Where the lilies are our sails
And our sea gulls nightingales.

Where no wilder storm shall beat
Than the wind that waves the wheat
And no tempests burst above
The old laughs we used to love.

Let us rest ourselves a bit!
Worry! Wave your hand to it.
Kiss your finger tips and smile
It farewell a little while!

—James Whitcomb Riley.

BRAVE MARIE.

It happened in 1870, which is still spoken of as the "terrible year" in Boile-Duc. The war between France and Prussia had raged all about them, but not a soldier had been seen in the tiny village, for which the peasants daily thanked their stars. The old man who lived alone with his son Charles in the chateau above the town and who was still known as "le duc," though his title had vanished with his estates long before, firmly believed that France was on the road to ruin, but he scoffed at the idea that the Prussians would ever invade French territory.

But one fine summer morning Boile-Duc was startled by the sound of martial music, and a body of Prussian soldiers marched through the town. Up the hill went the Prussians, and there, before the chateau, the order to halt was given. The old soldier had seen their coming and had prepared, according to his own ideas, to receive them. From an upper window waved the colors of France, and as one of the Prussian officers started to enter the house to learn the meaning of this hostile display he was met by the old man, who had dressed himself in his ancient uniform and stood, sword in hand, in the center of the room.

"Ah, Prussian pig," exclaimed he, drawing his sword, "draw and defend yourself, or I will have you down! No Prussian ever yet entered my house, nor shall while I live."

His brave words seemed almost ridiculous when one looked at his white locks and shaking hand. The Prussian officer smiled at the thought of a sword combat with him and would probably have withdrawn, leaving the old man in peace, had not an overzealous soldier, thinking that his officer was in danger, rushed in and bayoneted the old man as he stood.

The mistake was unfortunate, but the Prussian command could not afford to waste time over a single dead Frenchman. The house was fired, the soldiers marched on, and by the time the rear of the column disappeared over the next hill little but a heap of smoking ashes was left on the spot where the old chateau had stood.

But the boy Charles, standing there beside the ashes of his father, swore to be revenged upon the Prussians. From that moment he was a man.

On the afternoon of the day on which the Prussians marched through Boile-Duc Charles learned from the villagers the whereabouts of the nearest body of French soldiers and set off to join them.

It was soon discovered that the strange, silent lad was a valuable member of the company on account of his knowledge of woodcraft and his absolute fearlessness. Important scouting duty was entrusted to him, and after a time he became the captain of the most daring of all the band of the franc-tireur. His little company was a constant annoyance to the Prussians.

One afternoon, shortly after the second visit of the Prussians to Boile-Duc, little Marie Duret was alone in her parents' cottage while they were at work in the fields. Marie was a comely little maiden, a dark eyed, nut brown peasant girl, and though not a dozen summers had passed over her head she was a neat, thoroughgoing little housewife. Although her home stood quite apart from the other cottages and not far from the great forest, so that it could scarcely be called a part of Boile-Duc at all, Marie had become so accustomed to playing the mistress for a whole day at a time that she did not in the least mind the loneliness.

Today she had set the house in order, had swept the floor and had piled beside the large brick oven a heap of fagots against the morning's baking. All her tasks completed, Marie took possession of a low chair and began sedately to amuse herself with a large rag doll, her one playmate and inseparable companion. Now, it happened that on this very morning Captain Charles, the franc-tireur, having gone out on a reconnoitering expedition, had been out from his men by half a dozen Prussian cavalrymen and had to run for his life. The Duret cottage was the only one near him, and so while Marie was talking to her doll the door was suddenly burst open and the soldier rushed in. Marie knew at once that it was Captain Charles, for she had often seen him about the village, and as she had heard of his brave deeds in aid of the French she was not in the least frightened.

"Where canst thou hide me, little one?" the man hurriedly asked. "The Prussians are on my track."

Marie had heard stories of the Prussians, and her heart sank with fear at the thought of facing such monsters.

Nevertheless she showed herself a brave little woman. For an instant she glanced helplessly around the room. Truly there were few hiding places in the little cottage. Then her eyes fell on the large baking oven, and her busy little brain found a way out of the difficulty. She quickly bade the franc-tireur get inside the oven, and then she filled it with the loose fagots.

Scarcely was her work finished when she heard a loud knocking at the door, and a Prussian officer entered. He stopped abashed when he saw only the little maid before him. Perhaps the thought of some little girl that he had left behind in the fatherland came to his mind, for the look in his eyes was quite gentle, and his voice trembled in spite of himself when he spoke.

"We saw a man enter this house just now," he said. "Tell me, my little maid, where he is."

In the moment, while she was waiting for him to speak, Marie had time to collect her wits and to reflect that the man did not look like such a monster after all. Now she replied readily:

"A man? Oh, yes, a soldier just came in here and left that," pointing to an old musket of her father's which stood in a corner of the room; "but he is gone now," she added.

She carefully related to the Prussians how the franc-tireur had taken the path that led from the rear of the cottage to the forest.

The girl answered his questions so readily that it was hard for the officer to suspect her of deceiving him, but he ordered his men to make a thorough search of the cottage. They looked in closets and cupboards and rummaged the loft. One of the men in passing opened the oven door and glanced in. Marie's heart almost ceased beating, but she gave no sign of her alarm. Seeing nothing but the heap of fagots, the man closed the door. Marie could hardly keep from heaving a sigh of relief. It seemed in her own mind that she must give a shout of joy. As they were preparing to leave one of the men asked:

"Shall we not fire the cottage?"

It was the usual rule when a peasant was suspected of harboring a franc-tireur to burn his cottage as a lesson to him and a warning to all others, but Marie's winsome manner had touched the officer's heart, and the questioner received a curt, almost angry, "No!"

Marie watched the Prussians ride away, and when they were all out of sight she let Captain Charles out of his narrow hiding place. He had heard all that passed in the cottage, and he kissed Marie and called her a brave girl. Then he departed by the road opposite to that which the Prussians had taken, to join his men at their meeting place in the forest.

Marie was the pride of her parents and the heroine of the town when her story was made known. And in the depths of the forest, when the franc-tireurs gathered about their campfire and their leader told of his narrow escape and the bravery of the little peasant girl, each man lifted his canteen and enthusiastically drank to the health and prosperity of Marie Duret.

The landlady of the little vine covered inn at Boile-Duc tells this story to every stranger who visits the place. And if one is inquisitive enough to ask what afterward became of the franc-tireur and the peasant girl she will unfold her hands and say:

"Just walk up to yonder brick house on the hill and ask for M. le Maire and his good wife. There you will find Captain Charles and his brave Marie!"

Strange Money In The Mountains.
"The strangest money I ever saw," said a drummer for a Main street house, "was in the mountain districts of Kentucky and West Virginia. I was making my semiannual tour through this district, and I stopped one day at a little grocery and saloon. While I was there a big husky mountaineer entered the place and called for a drink. As he finished gulping it down he reached into a big bulky pocket and drew forth what looked to be a coonskin. He laid the skin on the counter, the barkeeper took the skin, and opening a drawer hauled out a rabbit skin, which I suppose was the change. The mountaineer picked up the rabbit skin and started to the front part of the store, which was the grocery. He there bought a twist of tobacco and tendered the rabbit skin in payment. He received a big twist of long green, and I was surprised to see the storekeeper reach in another drawer and tender him a squirrel skin. The mountaineer tucked the squirrel skin in his pocket, walked out, unattended his horse and rode away."

"I became interested and engaged the proprietor in conversation. He told me that sometimes he would go months without seeing any real money, and that the mountaineers used the skins in all kinds of trades, such as buying horses, etc. He said that four times a year a hide buyer from Lexington or Cincinnati visited the country and bought up all the skins, which were generally concentrated in the few stores in the vicinity."—Louisville Dispatch.

How the Witness Came to Time.
"What time was it," asked the lawyer, "when you discovered the prisoner committing the crime?"

"Well, sub," replied the witness, "of I don't disremember, hit wuz co'n plantin time."

"I mean—what o'clock was it?"

"Dar wa'n't no clock dar, sub. Dar was a clock dar, but hit wuz one o' deese heah installment plan clocks, what you fails ter meet de notes on, en dey comes an takes hit away, en you lose all what you has paid!"

"You blockhead, you!" exclaimed the lawyer. "I ask you to tell me what was the hour of the day!"

"Well, sub," replied the witness, "sence you so ha'd ter onderstan, I'll make de matter plain fer you: Comin en gwine—dis way en dat way—long en short, hit wuz about six hours en a half by sun!"—Atlanta Constitution.

The Song of the Cradle.
Bye-bye! Hope rises high:
There's a sweet little child
A dear little life that is Coming to bless—
Two soft chubby hands
That will not get cold;
A pure little soul winging
Down from above;
A darling to care for,
A baby to love.

In the days when Eve sinned it was written that motherhood should be a blessed thing, but this curse upon our forefathers has been lightened more and more as mankind have learned to rise superior to many of their sins and mistakes.

One of the greatest sciences which enlightened Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. J. C. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood; renders the prospective mother strong and cheerful and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain. The delighted gratitude of Mrs. Pearl Walton, of Alvo, Cass Co., Neb., will find an echo in the heart of every expectant mother.

"Previous to the birth of my child," writes Mrs. Walton, "I had no appetite, was sick at my stomach, had headache, could not rest at night, was completely worn out in every way. I commenced to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and began to improve right away. I used two bottles of this great medicine and felt like a new person. At the time of confinement I was in perfect health and I owe it all to that great remedy—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

LOYAL NEW MEXICO.

The Silk Flag for New Mexico's Brave Volunteers Assured—Subscriptions Rolling In.
The people of New Mexico are patriotic, loyal and public spirited. That is becoming more and more apparent daily. The New Mexico quota of volunteers is being rapidly recruited and will consist of first class material. The battalion will make a splendid record, of that the people of New Mexico feel certain.

It is very gratifying indeed to see the great interest that is being taken in the organization of the battalion, not only by the officials charged with that duty, but by all classes of citizens, high and low, rich and poor, north and south, east and west in the territory, and especially by the ladies. Straws show which way the wind blows and one very significant straw is the rapidly with which the subscription list for the purchase of a silk flag and guidons for the four troops of mounted riflemen to be furnished by New Mexico, is being filled.

Several new subscriptions came in yesterday and today and soon the fund will have reached the maximum required and the list will close. The following are the subscriptions of the patriotic and loyal ladies and citizens of New Mexico who have so far subscribed:

MRS. M. A. OTERO, $10.

W. H. Person, of Denver, representing the Smith-Premier Typewriter Co., is at the Claire hotel.
Captain Saturnino Baca, of Lincoln, is here to attend the meeting of the penitentiary commissioners.
L. A. Simons, of Topeka, Kas., representing the Topeka Paper company, is in the city. He registers at the Palace.
Hugh Smith, tax collector of Colfax county, and a prominent Raton capitalist, is in the city. He registers at the Claire hotel.
Joseph Anfenger, of Denver, is in the city and registered at the Claire. Mr. Anfenger will act as commercial traveler for A. Staab.
Mrs. M. P. Clark and Miss Annie McIntyre, of Madrid, are in the city on a shopping expedition. They are registered at the Claire.
E. J. Murray, editor of the Dona Ana County Republican, was a passenger for Denver last evening. He will be absent a couple of weeks.
Mrs. Thos. Chamber and daughter, and Mrs. M. L. Buxton, of Oury, are guests at the Exchange. They are returning home from an extended trip to California.
Hon. Francisco Miera, of Clayton, is in the city in attendance at the meeting of the board of penitentiary commissioners of which he is a member. He registers at the Exchange hotel.
Ex-Governor O. A. Hadley, of Watrous, is a guest at the Palace. He is in the city for the purpose of attending the meeting of the board of penitentiary commissioners of which he is a member.
O. B. Erickson, of Las Vegas, representing Browne & Manzanares, is at the Palace. He has put in a bid for supplying the penitentiary from that firm at the meeting of the board of commissioners today.
Henry J. Young, of Cerro, Taos county, is registered at the Claire. Mr. Young is in the general merchandise business at Cerro, and is in the city for the purpose of attending the meeting of the penitentiary board of which he is a member.
Hon. J. T. McLaughlin, of San Pedro, one of the best county commissioners this county has ever had, is in the city today on legal business. Mr. McLaughlin does his full duty as a commissioner, and for the best interests of the county he should be re-nominated and re-elected.
Major W. H. H. Llewellyn, one of the foremost citizens of southern New Mexico, and who is largely interested in mining in Sierra county, came up from the south yesterday and will remain here several days; he is a guest at the Palace. Two stalwart sons of the major will join the New Mexico quota of volunteers.

Hon. W. H. Andrews, of Titusville, Pa., one of the leading capitalists and politicians of the Keystone state and a member of the state senate, was a passenger north last night en route from Andrews, in Sierra county, where he has extensive mining interests, to his home. Senator Andrews has taken a great fancy to the territory, thinks it a grand place and has invested a large sum of money in New Mexico enterprises already and will invest more. Such men are exactly the kind New Mexico needs.

ORGANIZATION OF THE FIRST BATTALION.
FIRST UNITED STATES VOLUNTEER
CAVALRY.

The organization of the first battalion, First United States volunteer cavalry, to be furnished by New Mexico, is in a forward state. Governor Otero has been quite busy with this matter and the following officers have been selected: Governor, Santa Fe; first lieutenant, William E. Griffin, Santa Fe; second lieutenant, Sherrard Coleman, Santa Fe.

Troop A, captain, Max Luna, Los Lunas; first lieutenant, H. W. Weakley, Albuquerque; second lieutenant, Maxwell Koss, Los Lunas.

Troop B, captain, Lucius Welch, Farmington; first lieutenant, J. W. Green, Gallup; second lieutenant, J. D. Leahy, Raton.

Troop D, captain, J. W. Fleming, Silver City; first lieutenant, George C. Ry, Taos; second lieutenant, C. L. Ballard, Eddy.

Assistant surgeon, J. A. Massie, Santa Fe.

Adolf J. Fischer, Santa Fe, hospital steward.

A HINT TO OFFICERS OF THE NEW MEXICO NATIONAL GUARD.

It is reported that officers of the National Guard of New Mexico in Albuquerque and probably one or two other places are taking it upon themselves to criticize the acts of their superior officers and of the commander in chief. Such acts are military offenses and liable to punishment by court martial. The law under which officers and enlisted men of the New Mexico National Guard are enlisted or commissioned, is simply strong for this purpose and officers and enlisted men should be careful not to commit such offenses. The officers who have so far been in command of the National Guard are not only brave and able, but they take the liberty of expressing opinions regarding the actions of superior officers will be taught a lesson.

MEDICAL EXAMINERS.
Dr. J. M. Diaz, of Santa Fe, has been appointed acting assistant surgeon, United States army, and he and Dr. J. A. Massie conduct the examination of recruits. The examining board for surgeons and hospital stewards consists of Dr. Diaz and of Drs. J. H. Sloan and W. Egbert, of Santa Fe, the latter two appointed by Governor Otero. The examination of recruits is very rigid and strict and as laid down by the United States army regulations. The proportion of men rejected is quite large, and the men accepted are fine specimens of physical manhood.

YESTERDAY'S QUOTA.
Following are the names of the volunteers who were examined yesterday and accepted for service:

Edward Donnelly, Chas. L. Reimer, John Spencer Edwards, Arthur P. Spencer, Herbert A. King, Eugene Rohlfinger, Chas. A. Rehmer, Samuel Goldberg, Frank T. Quiter, Geo. W. Armijo, Garfield Hughes, Horace E. Sherman, Wm. L. Mattocks, Wm. E. Dame, John Hulskotter, John S. Langston, Frank A. Hill, Edward J. Albertson, Frank Warren, James S. Black, John Cullen, John B. Mills, Wm. Farley, Louis E. Staab, Norman O. Trumbo, Geo. E. Vinodre, Heye L. Albers, Joseph F. Flynn, Chas. R. Gee, Edward Tangen, Harry B. Reed, Walter Hickey, Chas. Thompson, Leo G. Rogers, Wm. G. Shields, Louis C. Wardwell, Edward Hale, Herbert P. McGregor, Geo. W. Sharland, Chas. E. Leffert, Albert C. Hartle, Arthur L. Perry, Arthur L. Russell, Thos. D. Fennessy, John Boshnake, Frank Temple, Geo. M. Kerney, Guy M. Lisk, Thos. Martin, John H. Bell, James Doyle.

Of the above 44 were born Americans, two in Germany, one in Russia, one in Ireland, one in England, one in Canada and one in Prussia.

THIS FORENOON'S QUOTA.

Following are the names of the volunteers who were examined and accepted this forenoon: Arthur J. Griffin, Berry F. Taylor, James E. Merchant, Royal A. Prentice, Wm. Cloud, Willie W. Musgrave, Ben F. Leaders, Arthur L. Bump, Oscar N. Loud, Daniel D. Harkness, William A. Fennell, Jose M. Baca, Dan Ledy, Thos. P. Ledwidge, William C. Bernard, John Mullen, John O'Neil, Wm. J. Marron, Wm. M. Hutchison, Wm. W. Wagner, Thomas B. Jones, Samuel McKinnon, Orregon Stephens, Richard C. Conner, Daniel J. Zigler, Thomas C. Livingston, John S. Miller, Prince A. Holden, Edward Bennett, George Dodge, Thomas C. Williams, John Elder, Hyman Lowitzki, Chas. F. McKay, Harman H. Wynkoop.

In two hours the above 35 men were examined, passed and sworn in. The men are away above the physical average.

Out of the 35 men examined, 32 were born in the United States, one in Cuba, one in Canada and one in England. The men have not been assigned to troops yet and are in charge of Captain Cooper as mustering officer.

More men are applying than can be taken care of.

THE COLFAX COUNTY CONTINGENT.
Second Lieutenant D. J. Leahy, who is organizing a detachment of volunteers in Colfax county, is still rustling men and promises 51 by tomorrow night. If the first ten brought in are a fair sample of the kind of men Colfax county will send to the front, that county will have a company that the territory will be proud of. They are about the best specimens of manhood that have shown up for enlistment.

TRANSPORTATION ARRANGED FOR.

Captain C. L. Cooper, United States army, who is probably conducting the Colfax county detachment of New Mexico mounted riflemen to San Antonio. Arrangements were made this morning with Division Superintendent John E. Hurley to have a train consisting of one Pullman, nine tourist cars, one baggage and one stock car here on Saturday next for the transportation of the squadron to San Antonio. The troops will be routed over the Santa Fe railway via Purcell and the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad to San Antonio.

NOTES.

W. A. Fennell, a former San Marcial boy, has returned from Chicago, and enlisted with the Las Vegas contingent for service in the war.

The government Indian school boys are anxious to enlist and the teachers fear that their patriotism will be productive of open mutiny.

Stephen Easton, a deputy sheriff of Rio Arriba county, has resigned as such and will enlist in the Santa Fe troop of the mounted volunteer battalion to be furnished by this territory.

Two sons of Major W. H. H. Llewellyn, great, big strapping young men who have had some military training at the Goss military institute at Albuquerque, desiring to enlist, have been telegraphed by the adjutant general to report at once in Santa Fe for medical examination and enlistment. They are respectively 21 and 19 years of age, fine riders, excellent shots and will make first class soldiers.

SERVED IN CUBAN ARMY.

Although Captain Ledwidge Suffered from Wounds, Fever and Small Pox, He Desires to Return As a Member of New Mexico Volunteers—An Interesting Interview.

Captain Thomas P. Ledwidge, who is here to enlist with the Las Vegas volunteers, has seen considerable active service in the Cuban army. He favored a New Mexican reporter with the following interview relative to existing conditions in Cuba:

"The Spaniards are good fighters, but poor marksmen; however, after a person has been in an engagement with Spanish troops, he is liable to realize that he has been in a fight.

"Guerrilla warfare is practiced principally by the Cubans and few real battles occur. The Cubans are poorly equipped with arms and so lightly provisioned, that they can make only short campaigns. The resources of the island are woefully depleted and it is necessary to divide the forces in small bands, of not exceeding 500 men, and these bands forage until called together for a short and decisive campaign. I was in but one battle where any great number of men were engaged. The Spanish army numbered 15,000 men and the Cuban army contained about as many. 10,000 of the number being equipped with scythes, machetes, pitchforks, etc. The Cubans were very ambitious and keen for promotion. They were poorly equipped and provisioned. The Cuban army will do itself proud.

"Though the Cuban force is reduced by fevers, the spirit of patriotism and independence burns as fiercely as ever. Heroic determination is visible in every lineament of the Cuban cause. The officers are very ambitious and keen for promotion. And yet the same thing is conducive to heroism and gallantry.

"There is plenty of opportunity to make money in Cuba. The soldiers are well provided with money, but it is as difficult to purchase anything with it as it is to buy necessities in the Klondike.

Captain Ledwidge enlisted in a filibustering expedition composed of 60 Texans in June, 1896. They were landed in Cuba by the filibustering schooner Laureada. A party of 30 Cuban soldiers met them at the landing and conducted them to the interior of the province of Santiago de Cuba, where they joined General Gomez's command. Ledwidge was later transferred to General Macao's army and still later was with General Calixto Garcia, operating in the eastern portion of the island. He served as artillery gunner and was brevetted captain for gallantry in the field at the battle of Las Puentes, Santa Clara province. He received three wounds in that battle.

During his year and three months' service on the island Captain Ledwidge suffered both the fever and smallpox and was finally given an honorable discharge by General Garcia and advised to leave the island and seek some place where he could secure proper medical attention.

His escape from the island was a thrilling affair and was effected in a spongers' boat which had blown ashore on the coast of Santa Clara province. He left with important messages for the Cuban junta and $600 in money, and when a short distance out was overhauled by a Spanish patrol boat. He tied a rope and stone to the papers entrusted to him and cut them in the waters of the Nicholas channel, thus evading suspicion of being an insurgent. He reached the United States safely and after recuperating his shattered health, spent some time on the cattle ranges of Texas prior to his enlistment with the quota of New Mexico volunteers.

Captain Ledwidge is thoroughly familiar with the island of Cuba, and will be a valuable adjunct to the New Mexico battalion of mounted riflemen, if it operates in Cuba.

Meeting of the Board of Education.
Last night the board of education met in regular session for the purpose of transferring the business from the old to the new board. Of the members of the old board there were present: A. J. Fischer, A. B. Renahan, Manuel Delgado, Pablo Martinez and Seferino Baca. The affairs for the past year were closed up so far as possible and the board adjourned sine die. The new board then met with A. J. Fischer, J. V. Conway, A. P. Hogle, Robert John, Nicolas Sena, Seferino Baca and Manuel Delgado present. Organization was effected by the election of A. J. Fischer, president; A. P. Hogle, vice president; J. V. Conway, secretary. The board then adjourned.

MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL.

Epitacio Gallegos, Marshal—Bridges and Sidewalks to Be Repaired—City Jail to Be Closed—Fines and Licenses to Be Paid to Treasurer.

A regular meeting of the city council was held last night. There were present Mayor Hudson and councilmen Alarid, Baca, Gonzales, Lopez, McPherson, Roybal, Sena, and Solignac. City Attorney Gortner made a report on the proposed extension of Galisteo street, stating that Mr. Blain was not willing to make a deed to the property until the matter had been satisfactorily arranged with Mr. Staab, but that he would at once open 14 feet on the west of his property.

Councilman Baca introduced the following resolution:
Resolved that the city treasurer be and hereby is directed to prepare for the information of this council and to submit the same at the next regular meeting, a statement showing in detail the receipts and expenditure in the several funds, and for the year just ended, in order that the council may have the expenses of the past year to guide it. The statement to show in detail the expenditures for police, fire, streets and bridges and for each item of expense.

The resolution was adopted. The street and bridge committee was authorized to expend $6 for lumber for a culvert at the crossing of the ditch between Manhattan street and College street. The committee was also authorized to buy 1,000 feet of lumber to be used in repairing bridges.

The city attorney was directed to notify the owners of the property now used as a city jail, that at the end of 30 days the city would have no further use for it.

The police committee was instructed to ascertain the cost of feeding prisoners from Sheriff Kinsale and others.

Councilman Solignac moved that the city clerk, the marshal and all other officers who receive money, turn the same over to the city treasurer immediately upon receipt thereof, as the ordinance commands; that these officers be not permitted to pay out money for any purpose whatever; that the only disbursing officer recognized by the council is the city treasurer. The motion prevailed.

In the executive session Epitacio Gallegos was appointed city marshal for a term of six months.

Come Salas, of ward No. 3, and Eugenio Chaves, ward No. 4, appointed policemen.

Adjourned until next regular meeting.

Santa Fe Ry. Officials in Town.

A party of railroad officials, consisting of J. J. Frey, general manager; H. U. Midge, general superintendent, and J. E. Hurley, superintendent of the New Mexico division of the Atchafson, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, was in the city today on a tour of inspection of the system. The party has just been over the road as far south as El Paso and as far west as Silver City and found conditions and matters connected with the property, roadbed, machinery, maintenance and operation of the division in New Mexico in first class condition. A consultation was had with Governor Otero regarding the transportation of the New Mexico contingent of volunteers to San Antonio, it being understood that such transportation would be received very soon, probably next Saturday. Mr. Hurley also called on Captain Cooper, U. S. A., acting quartermaster, and had a consultation with that officer concerning the matter. The party left for the east at 11 o'clock this forenoon, traveling in a special train.
