Brazil: State-run Oil Company Begins Dismissal Of Strikers

by Barbara Khol

Category/Department: General

Published: Thursday, March 7, 1991

On March 3, the state-run oil company, PETROBRAS, dismissed the first 20 strikers. Employees at refineries throughout the country had organized work stoppages to pressure the government for wage hikes. (See Chronicle, 03/06/91 for previous coverage on strike.)
